PREFATORY NOTE

This is one of a number of lists upon topics of current interest which have been compiled to meet requests by letter. So far as it could be distributed at all it has hitherto been distributed in type-written form. The applications have become so numerous that it has now been reduced to print, so as to be available for more general distribution.

* It has no claim to completeness, nor does it even attempt to exhaust the resources of this Library on the subject. Its purpose is merely to present some of the authorities of interest to the general inquirer. The special investigator must, of course, go much further.

A. P. C. GRIFFIN
Chief Bibliographer

HERBERT PUTNAM
Librarian of Congress
Washington, D. C., March 26, 1903

* Note—This issue has received some new titles, but not sufficient to change the character of the List as described above. Its scope is limited to writings touching upon the social, political, and racial relations of the Anglo-Saxon peoples in recent days.

1906. The mediation of Canada.
The Outlook (London), vol. 17 (Apr. 7, 1906): 470-471.
"It may well be that Canada, whose political institutions are a mean between those of Great Britain and those of the United States, is destined to become a mediator between the Empire and the Republic, an arbiter between the two great Powers of Anglo-Saxondom which have been developed on parallel lines."
1906. Canada and the United States.
The Spectator, vol. 96 (Apr. 7, 1906): 525-526.
"Instinctively the two branches of the Anglo-Saxon race are coming to realize that they must necessarily stand together for ideals in which they believe so profoundly—ideals which are directly menaced by the great military autocracies of the world."
1906. On Anglo-American friendship. Earl Grey.
