

CORONER'S INQUEST

JURY CONVENES AT PULLIAM UNDERTAKING PARLORS TO INQUIRE INTO DEATH

An inquest over the remains of Luther Colson, city marshal of Burbank and also deputy sheriff, who was shot Monday night, was held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Pulliam undertaking parlors in Glendale.

Facts brought out at the inquest were that Mr. Colson was born in Missouri 34 years ago. He had lived in Burbank since September of last year. His father-in-law, George W. Henry, was the principal witness. He testified that he carries the mail pouches to and from the Burbank postoffice and the Southern Pacific, and while waiting for a train on the night of the shooting, he heard five distinct shots fired. These were followed by two more reports, louder and apparently from a stronger gun. The shots came from the neighborhood of the spot where Marshal Colson was in the habit of breaking up the nightly rendezvous of a bunch of hoboes, and Mr. Henry testified that he was fearful that some harm had befallen his son-in-law.

A lady living near the scene of the crime heard the shots and saw the flashes from the pistols. She sent her son to Burbank, the shooting having taken place about a mile from the business center of the town, but within the city limits, and officers were soon on the scene.

Colson's body was found about fifty yards from where he was first shot, and his revolver lay about six feet from where he had fallen. He was taken to the Burbank hospital, where he remained conscious until an operation was performed. Examination revealed the fact that one bullet had entered the left side, pierced the walls of the stomach and one of the kidneys and had its exit from the body about two inches from the spine. Death resulted early on Tuesday morning from hemorrhages caused by the wounds.

Dr. Wagner, county physician, testified that he had conducted a post mortem examination.

Members of the jury were O. W. Tarr, Wm. Anderson, A. T. Cowan, R. A. Blackburn, P. E. Gilmore and H. A. Wilson. Their verdict was that the deceased had come to his death from wounds from a gun fired by some unknown person.

This unfortunate man met his death while pursuing his duties under authority of the city of Burbank.

CIRCUS DAY DRAWING NEAR

An interesting and very unusual act presented on the program given by the Barnes wild animal circus is the horse-riding lion group.

Three full-grown, ferocious African lions have been trained to mount and ride galloping horses. This feature represents a very great achievement by Al G. Barnes, the wild animal training wizard. To make the act more unusual he has trained the lions to spring from the horses through hoops of fire. Thus, the most feared enemy of the horse, the lion, and the most feared enemy of the lion, fire, are brought together in the act in an exhibition that is unrivaled in the art of wild animal training.

Another notable feat accomplished by Mr. Barnes was the training of a grizzly bear, a Persian leopard, a Rocky mountain goat and a chimpanzee to ride galloping ponies. These four animals ride in one group. The spectacle is truly amazing.

Seventy-five instructive, entertaining, amusing, thrilling acts and features are presented by the Barnes show, over 600 educated animals taking part in the performance. No other amusement enterprise offers such an unusual and original array of novel entertainment.

A new feature parade, in which four trumpeting bands play, is presented to the public at 10:30. Performances are given at 2 and 8 p. m., the doors being opened one hour earlier. The date for Glendale is Friday, Nov. 20.

LOOK FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS ON SECOND PAGE

Announcements of social affairs, entertainments, etc., have been a place on page 2. Here all announcements will be in the department provided for

Monday evening the Lucky Thirteenth had a dinner party and birthday for Miss Bessie Brewster, one of Miss Dorothy Morgan and street. The dining-room decorated in pink and white, a white birthday cake with pink roses resting on the dining table. Brewster received many lovely day gifts and a happy time was had by all.

TURKS FIRE ON U. S.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS DO NOT BELIEVE REPORT—NO COMPLICATIONS EXPECTED

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—A Mitylene correspondent telegraphs that the American warship Tennessee yesterday anchored at Voyria and sent a launch to inform the Syrian authorities that the warship wished to enter Smyrna. The forts fired on the launch, which returned to the ship. Capt. Benton Clark Decker, the commander, then by wireless message informed the authorities he had orders to enter Smyrna and that he intended to do so, by force if necessary. The matter has not yet been settled.

LONDON, Nov. 17, 9:06 p. m.—A dispatch from the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens says:

"A launch from the United States cruiser Tennessee, which was entering the Gulf of Smyrna to arrange for the cruiser to come into the harbor, was fired upon by the forts and compelled to return to the Tennessee."

"The commander of the Tennessee informed the Pall that he had orders from his government to enter the harbor of Smyrna and had decided to do so."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Officials here tonight refused to credit or be alarmed by the dispatch saying the cruiser Tennessee's launch had been fired upon by the Turkish forts at Smyrna. Secretary Daniels said if any incident had occurred to give rise to such a report, the department would be informed fully by tomorrow. In the meantime, he did not think it necessary to make a special effort to communicate with the cruiser.

Mr. Daniels said the Tennessee had not been ordered to go into Smyrna harbor; that the commanders of both the Tennessee and her sister ship, the North Carolina, had only general instructions to remain in Mediterranean waters and look out for American interests. He was satisfied that neither of the commanders would take any step that might involve the United States in international difficulties.

At the Turkish embassy it was said the Smyrna report probably was untrue, but if there had been any difficulty between the commander of the Tennessee and Smyrna port authorities, it might have resulted from a misunderstanding which quickly would be cleared up.

TREAT ALL ALIKE

It is the intention of the management of the Evening News to treat all patrons, clubs, societies and churches alike. The Evening News has no favorites and should have none. We aim to give reasonable publicity without charge to free entertainments. When we say reasonable, we mean that we will publish a notice once giving the place, date and object of the entertainment. When it comes to repeating the announcement free of charge, we feel under no obligations to do this. After being published once, the announcement ceases to be news and is merely a space filler at a loss to the publisher.

Whenever societies, clubs, and churches make a charge for their entertainments, the Evening News will charge regular rates for announcements advertising the same.

All positions are good in the Evening News and the more accurately all announcements can be classified, the more easily they can be found by those wishing to learn about such announcements.

The publisher wishes to say with due courtesy to patrons of the paper that he will reserve the right to classify announcements according to his best judgment. Hereafter, so far as possible, all announcements, both free and paid, will be given a department by themselves.

TARR HOME BURGLARIZED

A very peculiar burglary occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr, 861 Glendale avenue, Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Tarr retired about 11 o'clock and as was their custom hid the money they had in the house. The amount was $17 and this was concealed in three different places. A revolver was placed in a drawer near Mr. Tarr's bed.

They heard no disturbance, but this morning they awoke to find the money and revolver gone. It is believed the burglar gained admittance through the front door. Leslie Tarr, who is employed in the city during the early part of the night, returned home at 1 o'clock, and saw no signs of anything unusual. There seems to be no clue to the robbery, but Mr. Tarr is of the opinion that someone saw him conceal the money.

FILLING STATION SUBJECT OF MUCH DISCUSSION

TRUSTEES RESCIND FORMER ORDER—CITY MANAGER PRESENTS REPORT ON TREE PLANTING IN PARKWAYS—ATTORNEY—CLARK REPRESENTS MACDONALD TRANSFER COMPANY—RECOMMEND THAT JUDGE SUSPEND THE BLANCHARD FINE—ORDINANCES GIVEN READING

The board of trustees of the city of Glendale met in regular session at 7:30 on November 16 at the city hall. There were present Trustees Grist, Lane, Thompson, Tower and Williams.

The minutes of the meeting of November 9th were read and approved, with the following correction: That the reference made to the overlapping of assessment districts was not those of Canada boulevard and Opechee way, as stated in the minutes, but to the north and south sections of assessment districts of Canada boulevard.

The city clerk read a letter from Judge E. M. Ross thanking the board of trustees for its courteous letter to him of Nov. 10th.

Bernays & Garber of Los Angeles, by letter, petitioned the board for the granting of a permit to install a gasoline storage tank beneath the sidewalk at 1312 West Broadway, occupied by the Overland Automobile & Truck Co. This was held over for one week.

An application from M. Martinson for a permit to sell milk on premises owned by Dr. Crocker in Verdugo canyon, having the O. K. of the milk inspector, was granted.

The clerk read a communication from J. W. Fairchild, president of the Protective league, to the effect that Mr. Harry Hall of 426 Maryland avenue has been appointed to represent that league on the committee for looking up a site for an industrial district.

The city manager presented a written report on the subject of tree planting in the parkways of the city of Glendale, giving a list of varieties of trees to choose from, the approximate cost for two trees per fifty foot lot being from $1.75 to $2.50, according to the size and variety of tree. He explained that the initiative move should proceed from the property owners themselves, a majority of the frontage within a block, street or district being required to carry out the plan. He submitted a resolution expressing the readiness of the board of trustees to co-operate with the street tree committee in support of the project, which was adopted.

Mr. Oliver O. Clark presented a petition signed by a number of Glendale merchants in favor of the Macdonald Transfer & Truck Co., asking the board of trustees not to revoke the permit granted for the sale of gasoline at the filling station at 1114 West Broadway. Mr. Clark contended that forcing his client to give up this business would be tantamount to a confiscation of property in which he has invested considerable money, while he made the investment in reliance upon the granting of the permit by the board, and further that the stopping of machines for the purpose of taking on gasoline and supplies at that particular point does in no manner cause congestion of traffic. A discussion arose as to the merits and demerits of filling stations of this sort, considered from the point of view of the Glendale merchants, on the one hand, and with respect to the danger of congestion of traffic, injury to pavements, etc., on the other. Trustee Thompson made reference to stations of like nature maintained in Los Angeles without any apparent disadvantage to the traffic, and he moved that the order of the board, passed at the meeting of Nov. 9th, for the removal of the station mentioned in the petition, be rescinded, and the motion was carried unanimously.

Mr. Blanchard appeared, stating that he had been fined in Judge Whomes' court $25 or twenty-five days' imprisonment for the failure to remove, upon notice, a quantity of fertilizer from his premises on Ninth street, and he asked that this fine be remitted, for the reason that despite his efforts to comply with the order, it had been a physical impossibility for him to do so within the time fixed.

The board thought it was not within its authority to interfere with the decision or order of the court. On motion it was resolved that the board recommend to Judge Whomes that he suspend the fine imposed, but that if the defendant ever appear before his court again, on any charge of violation of any of the city ordinances, or orders served upon him, this sentence of the court be enforced.

Mrs. Dunham asked the board whether there was not a way to force the electric railways within the city of Glendale to give transfers from one line to another, as between the P. E. Ry. and the Glendale & Montrose and the Glendale & Eagle Rock railways. She was informed that no such arrangement was feasible so far as might be in the power of the city trustees.

It was ordered that the city clerk advertise for bids for a five-passenger automobile for general city purposes.

The report of the tax collector shows a collection of $2372.15 for the past week, and a total of $7864.20 to date.

The city engineer presented a deed from Judge E. M. Ross for the thirty-foot strip of land, as an easement, on Glendale avenue from Oakwood avenue north to Verdugo road.

On motion of Trustee Tower the deed was accepted.

The city engineer presented "an ordinance establishing the grade on a portion of Glendale avenue," which was declared read for the first and second times.

On motion "an ordinance of the board of trustees declaring its intention to order the laying out and opening of Seventh street in the city of Glendale" was taken up for first and second readings.

Adjournment.

TROPICO

The ladies of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club are working most actively to make the Christmas shop and country store a success. This club event will occur Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 2, at the Knights of Pythias hall on San Fernando road.

Mrs. James R. Maxwell of West Park avenue is convalescing from a recent attack of poison oak. Mrs. Maxwell took the recent poison oak cure which Mr. Charles Stanley has compounded.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city will give an entertainment in the social hall of the church this evening.

Mrs. David H. Imler and Miss Cora Hickman of the Tropico Thursday

Afternoon club are receiving most generous responses from the business men of Tropico, who are contributing towards the country store, which Mrs. Imler and Miss Hickman will conduct for the benefit of the club at the Christmas shop on December 2.

HOLIDAY POSTAGE STAMPS

Thirty-two tons of postage stamps for the holiday rush, valued at more than $8,000,000, were on their way today from Washington to postoffices throughout the country. More than $2,400,000 worth were sent to Philadelphia, $1,422,820 worth to 410 postoffices in the South and Middle West, $4,071,000 worth to New York and the remainder, valued at $561,494, to 347 postoffices in the South and West.

PARKERISMS

"POT POURRI"—PUNGENT AND PERT PARAGRAPHS PLAINLY PUT BY PARKER

Fifty society women of Minneapolis have voted to abandon their annual "charity" ball and add the usual expense of the same (about $2000) to the grand total of their contribution for the relief of war sufferers in Europe. All who indorse this really sensible plan say "aye."

They must have very large acres or else very small bushel measures for corn down in Georgia, where stimulated by government premiums a lad under age is certified to have produced 227 bushels of corn per acre! Shades of Iowa, Illinois and Indiana corn raisers, let us hear from you!

In imitation of the man who, to get at a swarm of bees in the limb of a tree, climbed up and saved the limb off between himself and the tree, Venice is proposing to do a more foolish thing. Unless the auto-cars pay a license, establish a regular time table and do certain other things, they are to be barred from the town entirely. Won't that be a picnic for Santa Monica and Ocean Park?

"Oh, pa, there's a new artist at Number 20 Strand, and he's taking lovely pictures at prices to beat the band. I saw one just last evening he made for Kitty King, an' I tell you it was lovely—too nice for anything. And, pa, I haven't had one for, well on to a year, and we are going in today—now say yes, papa dear." Then Pa: "Well, yes, I reckon, so it will have to be, and though the times are very dull the price I'll stand beneath; but only on condition when I that picture see, it will consist of something more than two shining rows of teeth."

They have been enjoying a big revival at Freeport, Ills., and the editor of the Journal of that city issued a religious edition of his paper, which the Peoria Star says was a financial failure. We are sorry for this, as some moral waves have been sweeping through Peoria, and The Star may have contemplated a religious edition, which may not now appear because of the Freeport failure.

Between "Scylla and Charybdis" is the classic term; between the — and the deep sea" is the other; both meaning the same thing and both describing the situation of not a few men and things in California. There can be no doubt but that the hard times is losing its grip and business is easier, but to say so is to indorse to some extent the Wilson administration, while on the other hand to abuse Wilson for the benefit of the G. O. P. two years hence, will put a knife into the vitals of California and the coast fairs. Better "boom," even if Wilson gets a little benefit.

Sing—If any of his laborers most earnestly should press, for a cent or two more wages in a season of distress, he answers like a thorough-going man of business "why should I give you more to do what can be done for less," says this fine old Irish gentleman, all of the olden time, and his tautacular majesty is asked for a reasonable reduction of fare; the reply practically is "it's low enough; pay it or walk." Along comes the double deckers, down go the fares; hear the tautacular cry, "we are losing money; choke the double-deckers off." And crocodile tears are shed of sympathy for the poverty-stricken tautacle, but none at our house.

While denied a second term, Congressman Bell will by the Ides of March have succeeded in getting more out of one term than is usual from the almost continuous session of the current year. Nor will the next three months be months of leisure, for aside from the unexpected, likely to happen at any time, there is much unfinished waiting.

Two hundred saloons in the Indian reserve in the state of Minnesota were ousted by a recent decision of the U. S. supreme court. The treaty of 1855 made with the Indians barred saloons, but these "law abiding" (law defying) institutions have been outlaws since that date. Will they quit now?

PARK MASS MEETING

REPORT OF PARK COMMITTEE IS DISCUSSED AND DIFFERENT SITES CONSIDERED

Complying with the call by the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, a park mass meeting was held Tuesday evening, November 17th, at the auditorium of the Glendale Union high school.

The meeting was called to order by J. N. McGillis, president of the Chamber of Commerce. J. F. Lilly was elected secretary and J. W. Usilton was elected chairman of the meeting.

Wilmot Parcher presented a motion "that it be the sense of the citizens assembled that Glendale secure a park." This motion, after a few minutes' discussion, was carried by a vote of about seventy-five per cent of those present.

The report of the park committee of the Chamber of Commerce was called for, and Mr. M. P. Harrison, chairman of the park committee, gave a verbal report of the findings of this committee. The report was about as follows:

That the city trustees of the city of Glendale be instructed to purchase the block bounded by Broadway, Kenwood, Third and Jackson streets at an approximate price of $65,000, and that the purchase be made on the assessment plan as provided by the laws of the state of California.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds moved that the report of the committee be received and adopted.

The question now being open for discussion, Attorney Mattison B. Jones gave an explanation of the purchasing of property for the city upon the assessment plan. He said that the assessment plan meant cash payment by the property owners. He explained that to purchase a park on the bond issue plan, that the payment of the bonds could be extended over a period of a number of years, as might be decided upon.

Dr. C. Irving Mills opposed the original motion, claiming that the site recommended by the committee was not the best one. He recommended that the block bounded by Fifth, Louise, Sixth and Kenwood streets would be preferable and would cost less money and could be made suitable for park purposes at a much less expense than the block recommended by the committee.

J. C. Sherer favors the purchasing of a park by the city, but thinks the purchase should be made only when two-thirds of the voters of the city approve of issuing bonds for making the purchase. He thinks the assessment plan gives a minority an opportunity to overrule the wishes of the majority.

Ernest H. Owen thinks this is not an opportune time for the purchase of a park; that the depression in business will make it difficult for the property owners to meet their assessments, and cited the fact that Glendale now has a corporation tax of about $45,000 to pay, and it is with difficulty that that tax is being collected, and he thinks that an additional tax of $65,000 to be raised in one year will be a great burden upon the people.

J. C. Beldin said that he does not favor the usual park, where people congregate to loaf and smoke. If a park can be established in which there will be a bathing pool, an athletic ground, with gymnasium, etc., an auditorium, dancing hall and other places of amusement, then he favors it; otherwise he opposes it. He called attention to the fact that there is a demand for a place of entertainment for the young people of our city.

Among others who spoke upon the question were Geo. B. Woodberry, E. U. Emery, R. Gilhousen, Rev. E. H. Willisford and Rev. Bede A. Johnson and Mr. Fairchild.

On motion of Mattison B. Jones, the original motion was laid on the table, to be taken up at a meeting on Tuesday evening, December 1st, at which time the Chamber of Commerce will be expected to present a written report from the park committee.

Upon motion, the meeting adjourned.

DIES A HERO

City Marshal Colson, who on Monday evening met his death from a bullet fired by an unknown person, died a hero. Mr. Colson at the time he received the fatal wound was discharging his official duties, with a view of making safe the homes of the city of Burbank.

Officer Colson might have allowed the gang of hoboes full possession of their camping place along the S. P. tracks, and thus not endangered his own life, but faithful to his sworn duty, he preferred to risk his own life that the citizens might be free from molestation.

CAUSES NO CONFUSION

How $170,000,000 in gold and lawful money was shifted without a hitch Monday from the banks which are members of the federal reserve system to their reserve banks was told in today's reports to the federal reserve board. Of this total about $137,000,000 was in gold or gold certificates, and the rest in other forms of money.

According to the estimates between $70,000,000 and $70,000,000 is yet to be transferred from the member banks to the reserve banks to meet the present reserve requirements.

The first day of the twelve reserve banks apparently was devoted largely to counting this money and to the usual ceremonies accompanying the launching of a new organization. Only a few million dollars' worth of commercial paper was re-discounted.

Officials watching the operations of the banks predicted large amounts of discounts in the near future. At present there is close to $300,000,000 of emergency currency and possibly $100,000,000 clearinghouse loan certificates outstanding or in the hands of banks. The emergency currency is subject to a tax by the government of 3 per cent for the first three months and an increase after that period until it reaches 6 per cent. Clearinghouse certificates also are put out at high interest rates. Both the emergency currency and the certificates are secured by paper which officials believe in most instances would be subject to discount by the federal reserve banks.

Although the demand several months ago from banks for circulating notes caused the issuance of emergency currency, it is pointed out that there now is more currency in circulation than is needed, and it is probable that treasury officials will use their influence to avoid further issues. There have been but few applications in the last week and many indications that the demand is about over.

REMEMBER HOME PAPERS

The merchant, workman, dealer, market-keeper, whoever he may be—will also find that he can greatly increase his list of probable customers by judiciously using the columns of his home paper, too, in telling the public what he has to offer, the prices he is making, where he may be found, etc., since this suggestion about home patronage surely includes the publisher.—Santa Monica Outlook.

MUCH TRAVELED LETTER

Regardless of statements to the contrary, the United States postal service is one of the most complete institutions of the entire government. The care and worry of the postman are matters which give but little concern to the average citizen who waits impatiently for a letter which has not been written and blames the mail clerk because he does not deliver the looked-for epistle.

Many stories are told of the wonderful work of the postal department in the delivery of mail with freak addresses or in some instances with the address unintelligible, but a San Pedro party whose name is withheld at his request received a letter recently from a sister living in Illinois from whom he had not heard for fourteen years. The sister had long ago lost track of her brother, but acting on a hope that she might hear some news from him, she wrote a letter, addressing it to him in care of the war department. The brother served in the army during the Spanish-American war and it was during this service that she last heard from him.

The letter after reaching the war department was forwarded to Manila, where the addressee had seen service. From Manila the letter was returned to the department of interior, where it was ascertained that the brother was no longer employed, he having resigned his position with that department and sailed for Alaska.

The "lost" letter was then sent to Ft. Gibbon, Alaska, and was once more returned to the department of the interior. Here another effort was made. The name of the brother was found on the pension rolls, and the letter arrived at its proper destination after having traveled many thousands of miles. The letter was mailed in a little Illinois town Feb. 8, 1914, and reached its destination just nine and one-half months afterwards.

POMONA'S NEW ENGINE

Pomona's new $9000 automobile fire engine will be formally accepted by the local city council this afternoon, as a result of the test on the local streets Tuesday afternoon. The big engine sent three streams to the height of a seven-story building at the rate of 600 gallons per minute for each stream, at the corner of Third and Thomas streets. As a result of the test, the five-story Pomona Investment building received a free bath. Several tests were made at different points in the city.

Announcements

FOR CHRISTMAS CHEER

Remember that the emergency committee of the Glendale Parent-Teacher Federation is anxious to relieve any suffering and gladden and brighten any homes at Christmas time that might otherwise lack the Christmas cheer. Any information in regard to such homes will be most gratefully received by Mrs. E. D. Yard, 127 North Maryland, who is chairman of this committee.

MRS. BACHMANN, WELL-KNOWN BEAUTY SPECIALIST, WITH GLENDALE HAIR SHOP

Mrs. C. J. Bachmann, with twelve years of experience, has become identified with Miss Katherine Corning in the Glendale hair shop, over Roberts & Echols' drug store, in the Fulmer building. Mrs. Bachmann is a true model of her art and has a pleasing personality and is an artist at her work. She is a graduate of the Moler College of New Orleans. She solicits the patronage of the ladies of Glendale, as she is fully confident that they will appreciate scientific work. Mrs. Bachmann has just returned from the East and is fully equipped with ideas of the late coiffeurs.

THE GLENDALE GUN CLUB

The Glendale Gun club, as newly organized, will furnish shells and blue rocks at practically cost price to all their members. This takes the sport of trap-shooting out of the millionaire class and everyone can have a half day's sport at a very little expense.

The club has its own grounds and traps, and consequently the members have decided to reduce the membership fee to one dollar.

The weekly shoots are to be limited to five ten-bird events, and a member may shoot as many or as few events as he chooses.

There will be prize events at almost every shoot. Some for professionals and others for amateurs.

Every man in Glendale who owns a gun should come to the meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Hartfield hardware store. You are sure welcome.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. E. D. Potter, 220 Verdugo road. The topic for study will be "Prohibition's Advance and Our Obligations." Mrs. A. Frank will lead the discussion. All officers are requested to meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, 250 Verdugo road, at 1:30. Bring reports.

There will be a meeting of the art and crafts section of the Tuesday Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. R. E. Chase, 438 South Adams street, Friday afternoon. Subject under discussion will be "The Madonnas." Mrs. Hearnshaw, Miss Livingston and Mrs. McElroy will have papers.

The philanthropic committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet at the Jones & Evans store-room, corner of Second street and Brand boulevard, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The quartet of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club meets this afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Bryant of 421 Jackson street. The quartet is practicing for the Christmas concert.

J. O. C.'S MET TUESDAY NIGHT

The regular meeting of the J. O. C. class of the First M. E. church was held at the home of Lois Spickerman, 236 North Maryland. The home was tastefully decorated with many flowers. This being the first meeting of the new term, committees were appointed and plans made for the work of the coming year.

There were twenty present, the hostesses for the evening being Miss Spickerman, Miss Lucy Reed and Miss Charlotte Goss, who served delicious chocolate and cake. A happy social time was enjoyed after the business session.

People Like Our Cutlery So Well They Break in Through the Window to get it

Last week $50 worth of Knives and Razors were stolen from our stock. We've now replaced same with new additions. Come in and

SEE OUR CUTLERY

When you do see our cutlery you will buy it. When you "try" it, you will like it.

You will find the quality of our cutlery to be splendid. You will find the price low.

We do not juggle prices up for some and down for others, but all the time to everybody we give a fair, square deal when they buy from us. Isn't this the way you like to do business?

NOTICE OF SALE, SHERIFF OR CONSTABLE

In the Justice's Court, Burbank Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California, Geo. C. Melrose, Justice.

Litchfield Lumber Company, plaintiff, vs. A. M. Brown, defendant. By virtue of an execution issued out of the Justice's Court of Burbank Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California, dated the nineteenth day of October, 1914, in a certain action wherein Litchfield Lumber Company as plaintiff recovered judgment against A. M. Brown as defendant, in the sum of $155.95 principal, $18.47 interest, $7.10 costs, together with the costs and interest that have and may accrue, on the nineteenth day of October, 1914, I have levied upon the following described property, to-wit: Lot Twenty-four (24), in Tract 1717 in the city of Eagle Rock. As recorded in Book 22, Page 77 of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County.

Notice is hereby given that on Friday, the 27th day of November, 1914, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, at the City Hall entrance in the City of Tropic, in said County of Los Angeles, in Burbank Township, I will sell all the right, title and interest of said A. M. Brown, defendant, in and to the above described property, at public auction, for cash, gold coin, to the highest and best bidder, to satisfy said execution and all costs.

H. E. PURRIER, Constable.

Dated at Burbank, the 3rd day of November, 1914.

PROSPECTS FOR THE LINCOLN HIGHWAY

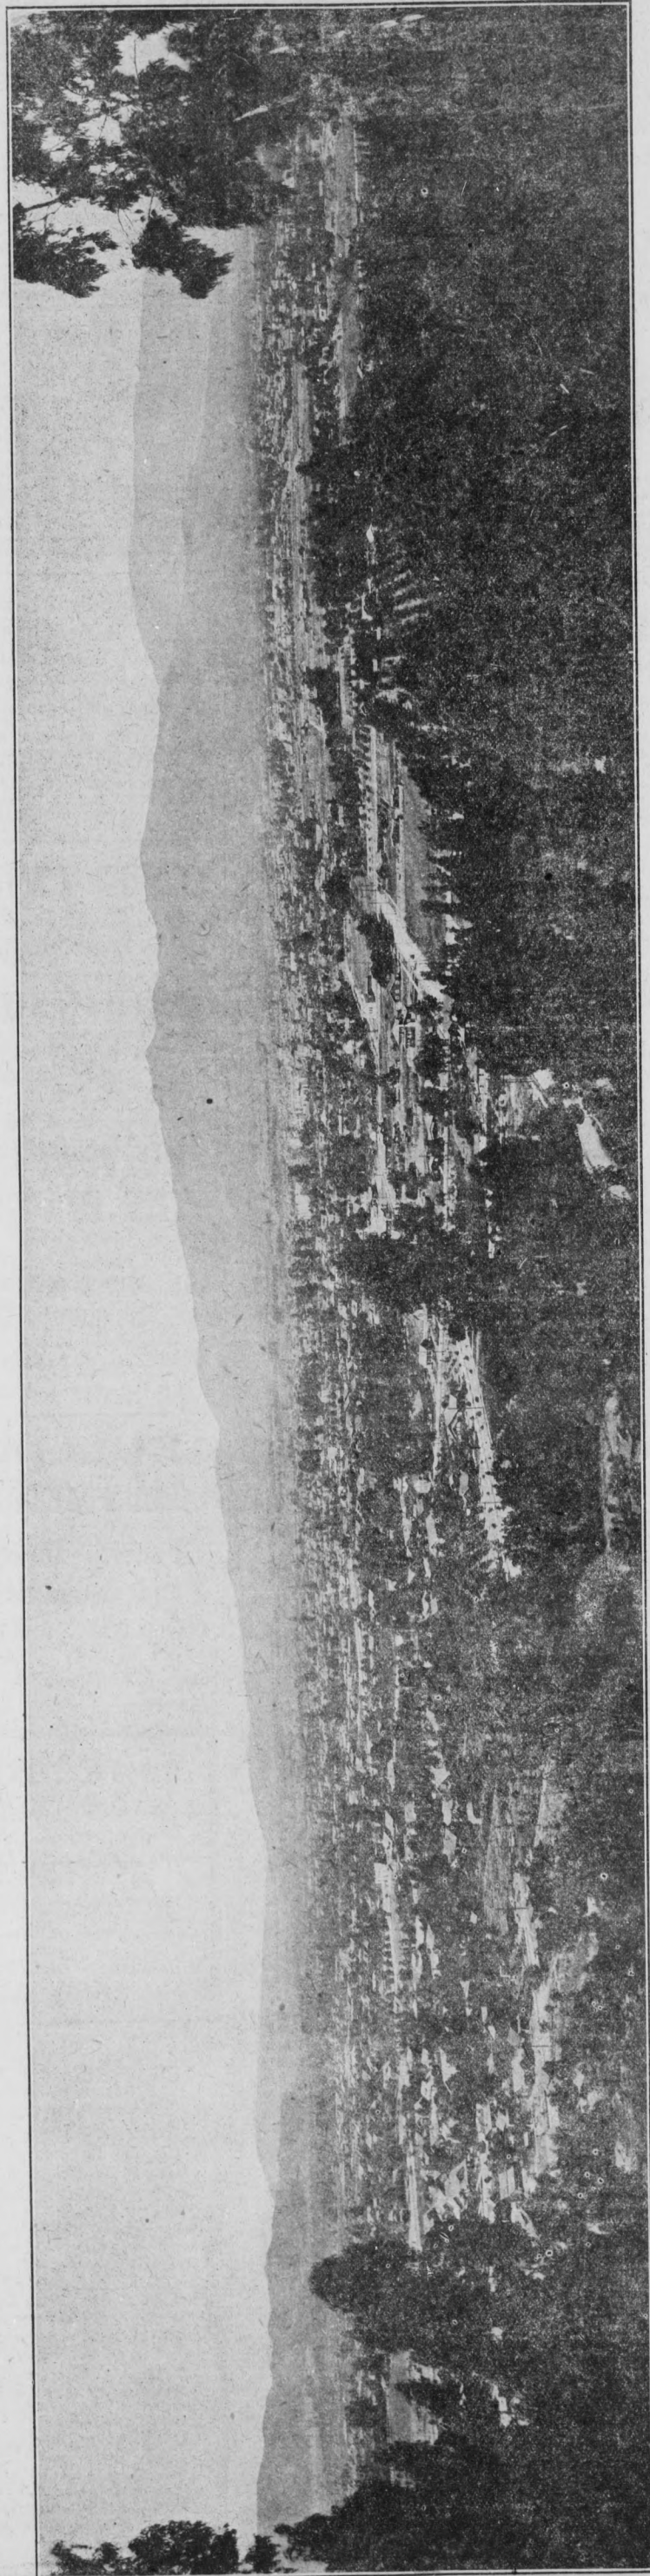

Establishment of a highway across the United States that will bear the name of Lincoln, in honor of the man who contributed so much toward the preservation of the nation, is a matter that for the present has mainly to do with the construction of units. Some of the road stretches that will become links in the highway, of course, were in existence before. Some of these have been reconstructed to a large extent. Many of the new links or units have been completed within the present year, and not a few of them have been brought into connection. There are some considerable and many short gaps still to be spanned, but work on them is progressing rapidly.

Three-fourths of the whole distance is in a finished state. The last fourth is presenting, perhaps, more serious difficulties, but there is every reason to believe that before the San Francisco and San Diego expositions are well under way it will be possible for a motor car to travel the entire distance of 3400 miles, without delay from any road surface impediment.

Thirteen states are interested in and will be served directly by this highway; indirectly it will serve all the states of the Union, for it will be intercepted by roads ramifying to the North and South. At the beginning the undertaking seemed impossible to many; a few, however, including some of the automobile manufacturing concerns, gave it encouragement. The automobile associations were quick to see the possibilities of such a project. Public opinion was last to enter into sympathy with it. That it gained substantial friends in one way and at one time or another is proved by the fact that something like $20,000,000 in cash has been provided for the prosecution of the enterprise from coast to coast.

It is impossible to say how large a number of persons will make the complete journey over this road next year, or any year, or what proportion of the automobiles from other parts of the country visiting California next year will use it as a means of reaching the expositions in that state. All this must necessarily be a matter of pure conjecture. But it is safe to say that the road will be used in sections by great numbers. As it may be abandoned for the railroad at almost any point, the automobilists will feel at liberty to use the highway only so far as travel over it shall be pleasant to them. There is promise of tree and shrubbery and flower planting, even of fountains and statuary, along the route some day. For the present the promoters of the highway are confining their efforts to providing necessary accommodations over the more remote stretches, and in this they are undoubtedly acting wisely. The ornamentation and general beautification of the road can well be postponed until it shall have been established for its primary purpose of utility.

Switzerland must feel lonesome up there on her Alpine heights, with the roar of heavy artillery reverberating on three sides of her.
