

WORK AT THE LIBRARY

MRS. DANFORD AND HER ASSISTANTS ARE BUSY REARRANGING SHELVES

Mrs. Danford and her assistants have been exceedingly busy rearranging the books in the library during the past week. Every book has been moved. There has been added a new set of shelves and the bound magazines are now all in sight and at hand for those who want them. In addition to this quite a lot of work has been done in the way of separating fiction from non-fiction on the children's side. Up to this time there has been no distinction in this respect and one card has sufficed for all books in this section. Now each child will have a pink card and a blue card just as the older people have. Every child is urged to present the fiction card now in his or her possession at the library desk as soon as possible in order to receive a non-fiction card also. Until this has been done it will be difficult to secure just the books that may be wanted.

While this work of rearranging the books has been going on an attempt has been made to rearrange and divide the books according to the best system possible, making it easy for patrons to find at once the book for which they are looking.

Patrons and officials of the library are looking forward to some better provision being made for the wants of this useful adjunct of civic life. It is therefore with satisfaction that the friends of the library hear that the board at a special meeting held Monday, April 24, resolved to petition the city trustees to make some more liberal allowance to the library in the future. The members of the board present at this meeting were Dr. Bryant, Mrs. Freeman Kelley, Mr. McElroy and Mr. Henderson.

As the use of the library by young people is increasing greatly on account of the stimulus given to work there by the story hour and the wild flower hour and the prospect of nature study lectures during the approaching summer, it is becoming manifest that there must be more accommodation for the increasing band of juvenile readers. Below the library is a spacious basement, but the walls are bare and unplastered and there is no floor save the soil.

This would make an excellent juvenile reading room and it will undoubtedly soon be necessary to make some provision of this sort. The children find it very difficult to study as they choose in the cramped quarters upstairs. Were the juvenile section removed downstairs there would be so much room for further developments in the main room where space is needed for the constant expansion of the adult section.

Quite a number of interesting non-fiction books have recently been purchased. John Masefield's poems are among them. Masefield is a writer who recently arrived at his literary heritage after having been ignored for nearly twenty years.

Carl Crow's "Japan and America" is a book that comes in good time to enable the people of the United States to comprehend the status of the oriental kingdom and its significant relations with this country.

Ida M. Tarbell has deserted the field of exposing big corporations in which she made so great a hit for the more feminine pursuit of telling stories out of school. Her latest work is "Ways of Women." It is worth reading.

Two delightful volumes edited by Pierce and Brander Matthews give a fine selection of modern plays both English and foreign. Then we have in the English section such famous favorites as Wilde's "Lady Windemere's Fan," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "The Importance of Being Earnest," some of Bernard Shaw's work such as "You Never Can Tell," "When We Were Twenty-one," and many others.

In the foreign section are such favorites as Ibsen, Strindberg, Maeterlinck, Hauptmann, Tchekof, Sudermann, Labiche, Augier, Sandeau, Sardou, Meilhac, Halevy, Lavéan, Coppee, Becque and Rostand. Here are gathered together all that is best in modern drama.

There is considerable discontent among the patrons and residents in the vicinity of the Pacific Ave. school in regard to the unsightly and weedy appearance of the vacant lots just north of the school grounds. While the school garden presents such a beautiful appearance and is so well kept in every particular it does seem that some one should remedy the unsightly appearance of those vacant lots.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Friday; west winds.

FLOWERS FOR POOR

GLENDALE GARDENS TO GIVE OF BEAUTY FOR JOY OF LESS FORTUNATE ONES

All friends desirous of bringing a little sunshine into the lives of the city poor are invited to be present with their automobiles on Saturday morning ready to start from Brand and Broadway at 10 o'clock sharp. Have your automobiles filled with flowers tied into suitable bunches. Your own gardens and those of your neighbors will supply as many flowers as you can hold in the automobile. Roses, geraniums, petunias, mignonette, gallerias, marigolds, etc., will suffice. Tie them into bunches, wrap wet paper around the stems and they will stay fresh a long time. Remember to cut the flowers Friday night or very early Saturday morning and plunge them into water for at least two hours. By doing this the flowers will absorb plenty of moisture and therefore will not fade quickly. Friends who have no autos, but who would like to help are asked to collect bunches of flowers and bring them to headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway not later than 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

Chief of Police Snively handed to Mrs. Nanno Woods this morning the permit to assemble at La Plaza, Los Angeles, on Saturday and there to distribute the flowers to those who live in cheerless, congested city streets. The following Los Angeles schools have been invited to be present at La Plaza at 11 o'clock Saturday: Amelia street, Macey street, Castellar street and Utah street schools. Let Glendale do itself credit and turn out in great numbers to bestow upon Los Angeles some of the good things which we in Glendale so abundantly enjoy.

The following have already signified their intention of joining in this flower giving trip. This totals 13 autos. We want twenty. Who will phone Glendale 1357 their desire to join? Let us have 30 autos from Glendale and Tropic.

R. M. Jackson, Stephen Packer, Calvin Whiting, E. Z. Barnett, M. H. Hartmann, M. E. Caruthers, Mrs. A. P. Williams, H. P. Coker, Ezra Parker, F. Pigg, F. Deal, L. Phelan, Mrs. Walter Ross, Mrs. Ella Richardson.

TWELVE YEARS MARRIED

Wednesday, April 26, was the twelfth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tooker, 117 Adams street, and in celebration of the happy event Mrs. Tooker's daughter, Mrs. Esta R. Frasher of Los Angeles with four of her friends came out from the city and spent the day at the Tooker home. Sweet peas, Cecil Bruner roses and ferns were used in abundance throughout the house and gave an air of springtime and beauty. A delicious luncheon was served at noon after which the guests busied themselves with fancy work and sociability. Mesdames Flora Snavelly, May Cochran, Marguerite Weller and Nellie Stewart were the young matrons who accompanied Mrs. Frasher on her happy mission.

GLENDALE W. C. T. U.

Considerable progress has been made lately by the Glendale City Union, as the local branch of the W. C. T. U. is now called. Not long ago another branch was formed in West Glendale, one in North Glendale and still the mother society not only keeps up its numbers, but continues to increase. Increasing interest is being taken in the work of the society in view of the coming campaign. Strong efforts are being made to line up the full force of the anti-alcohol forces so as to bring out the maximum vote.

Meantime the society goes on with its propaganda and is making good progress by means of its local work. This work will be fully explained at the next meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. B. D. Snudden, 133 S. Jackson street, Friday, May 5, at 2 p. m. As several delegates attended the county convention recently they will bring important messages from that body. These reports will be discussed and also the reports of the delegates who attended the meeting at Hollywood, April 26-27-28.

STOLE MOTORMAN'S GRIP

Some mean thief traveling on the North Glendale car Wednesday night at 7 p. m. walked away with Motorman Jones' grip. The grip contained the motorman's supply of tickets and other property. The thief effected his seizure of what he evidently thought would prove a valuable prize when he got off the car either at Arden or Dryden.

DUBLIN REVOLT COLLAPSES ENTIRELY

ARRIVAL OF BRITISH TROOPS PUTS AN END TO ABORTIVE ATTEMPT OF SINN FEIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, April 27.—Dublin is today quiet. All the centers of the city occupied by the Irish rebels have been recaptured. The city is now completely surrounded and occupied by British troops. The movement of the Sinn Fein party was confined almost entirely to Dublin and its complete collapse puts an end to the possibility of any movement of any importance elsewhere throughout the island. The Sinn Fein were well supplied with German rifles and ammunition but had no machine guns. The machine guns were being brought on the German vessel that was sunk by the British. The complete uncovering and destruction of the Sir Roger Casement expedition destroyed all hopes that the insurrectionists may have had of ultimate success.

MEXICAN BANDITS ATTACK SUPPLY TRAIN

VILLISTAS AGAIN ACTIVE ALL ALONG THE ROAD TO THE FRONT—REPULSED BY AMERICANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COLUMBUS, N. M., April 27.—Twenty Mexican bandits attempted to hold up an American supply train that was being conveyed to the front by a small body of troopers. The Americans wounded two of the Mexicans and captured two. The attack was made from ambush and a number of American soldiers were wounded. The Mexican snipers are active all along the route to the front. The bandits captured stated that they had heard that the Americans were about to leave Mexico.

PEACE WITH AMERICA HANGS IN BALANCE

KAISER HOLDS MOMENTOUS CONFERENCE WITH MILITARY, NAVAL AND POLITICAL CHIEFS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, April 27.—Kaiser Wilhelm is holding a momentous conference today on the result of which friendly relations with the United States largely depends. "Peace with America is in the balance," said a prominent statesman this morning. Those who are in conference with the kaiser are Admiral von Holzendorff, head of the navy; Gen. von Falkenhayn, chief of general staff of the army; and von Bethmann-Hollweg, imperial chancellor.

BRITISH SUBMARINE SUNK IN NORTH SEA

UNDERSEA BOAT E-22 HIT BY MINE OR TORPEDO IS LOST TWO OF CREW SAVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
London, April 27.—It was announced today officially that the British submarine E-22 had been sunk in the North sea. The accident is unexplained and the public left to guess whether the boat was sent to the bottom by a mine or a torpedo. The E-22 was one of the latest of the British undersea boats numbered from 20 to 32.

AMERICANS DEFEAT VILLISTAS AGAIN

UNITED STATES TROOPERS ENCOUNTER BANDITS SOUTH-WEST OF MINACA AND KILL SIX

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, April 27.—Col. Dodd's picked troopers encountered another band of Villistas Saturday evening southwest of Minaca. The troopers though worn out with a long march rode into the Mexicans and killed six. Many others were fatally wounded and a large number slightly wounded. Twenty-five horses were captured. Two Americans were killed and three wounded. It is feared that the halt in American activity will induce the Mexicans to believe that the United States has been defeated by Villa.

GERMAN ATTACK ON AVOCOURT BROKEN

FRENCH DRIVE OFF SMALL FORCE THAT TRIED TO CARRY TRENCHES IN VERDUN SECTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, April 27.—It was officially reported here today that the Germans directed a terrific bombardment against Avocourt positions and Pepper hill this morning. After the bombardment their troops, not in force however, made an attempt to carry the outlying French trenches, but were repulsed with considerable loss by the French curtain of fire. In the Vosges region the Germans made a heavy attack on the French lines and penetrated to some of the first line trenches, but were afterward thrown out again.

AFFAIRS IN IRELAND WORSE THAN STATED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, April 27.—Optimistic reports regarding the situation in Ireland circulated here at first are now said to be misleading. The situation in Dublin is still serious. The insurrectionists are still holding some of the buildings and appear to be well armed.

STUDIES OF CHILDREN

FOOTHILLS READING CIRCLE COMPLETES REVIEW OF "MISUNDERSTOOD CHILDREN"

At the regular Wednesday meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll yesterday the book, "Misunderstood Children," was completed by the reading of the following stories: Daughters of Men; Herbert at His Grandmother's; Gertrude's Story and Miss Eleanor's Garden. A review of the book was partially made, Mesdames. Beamon, Burr, Blech, Logan, Ormsby, Plasterer, Rees, Weetman and West each giving an excellent resume of one of the tales, with comments upon the lessons taught by each. The review of the rest of the book will be completed at the next meeting in the same manner, and Emilie Poulsson's "Love and Law in Child Training" will be begun.

A communication from Miss Ellen Lombard, secretary of the Home Education Division of the National Bureau of Education, was read. In compliance with this the members will next time bring to the circle a paper stating five lessons or truths which they have gained from the reading of each of the volumes completed. This will be proof to the bureau that these books have been read by the individual members and will be credited toward the Mother's Certificate to be sent upon the completion of the prescribed course.

New members this week are: Mesdames. C. M. Brubaker, H. B. Howeth and C. E. Rathbone. Visitors were Miss Katharine Bradley Ross of Santa Barbara, Miss Benton of Long Beach and Mrs. C. J. Jackson of Glendale.

Announcement was made of the excellent programs to be given at the annual meeting of the First District, Congress of Mothers, at Blanchard Hall, Los Angeles, April 27th and 28th. On the first date, Sen. H. H. Lyon will speak on "Legislation for Women and Children," and Mr. Martin of the County Commission will give an address on "Our Sisters in Charity." On the afternoon of the 28th Miss Williams will speak on "Recreation as a National Movement" and Judge Reeve will give an address on "Juvenile Courts and Probation." Everyone interested in these topics is cordially welcome.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

Glendale Union High School auditorium was filled Wednesday afternoon with a most appreciative audience when the Dramatic club gave its presentation of William B. Yeats' touching Irish play, "The Land of Heart's Desire." The selection of this play was an excellent thought. It suited admirably the genius of the school players and its dreamy fantasies fitted into the personal nature of some of the players in a very apt manner.

This fantastic mixture of Irish superstition and fairy lore gives the story of a beautiful young Irish girl who has the misfortune to be presented with a stepmother of the most austere and rigid kind. This forbidding character casts a gloom over the household and bit by bit encroaches on the fine sympathies of Maire Bruin, the heroine, Ethyl West, who played Mairs, had just the sweetness, delicacy and ethereal atmosphere about her that was requisite for the proper presentation of this character.

Dorothy Cloud played Bridget Bruin, the stepmother, and Ralph Carmichael took the part of Marteen Bruin, the distressed father, with much realism of expression. The Faerie Child as delineated by Rebecca Gregg was sweetly fantastic and delightfully realistic.

The play shows the struggle between the desire of the heroine, Maire for nature, the flowers, the birds, the bees, and the influence of the church as set forth by Father Hart, excellently played by William Bode. The play ends sadly as in the struggle between the two influences the heroine dies.

PAPER OPEN FOR PUPILS

The Evening News has its columns open for literary productions from the pupils of the schools from the seniors down to the learning-to-write grades. Whenever there is a play or an entertainment held in connection with the school pupils of the schools should be required by teachers to furnish written accounts of such affairs to the local paper. The writing of these reviews will be practical work and will afford a great opportunity to those concerned.

FREE FROM DEBT

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB NOW OWN TWO WELL LOCATED LOTS

The Tuesday Afternoon club is now the proud possessor of $3200 worth of city property fully paid. The two lots are on Fifth street, one on the northeast corner of Fifth and Kenwood, for which $2000 was paid, and the other lot between Kenwood and Jackson street, which cost the club $1200. There is also a small nest egg (over $50) with which to start the fund for the club house.

Instead of entertainments this year the members have contributed money and the board of directors wishes to thank each of the following members and Mrs. W. Hunt who is not a member for their generous assistance in helping to clear all indebtedness: Mesdames Frank Grosvenor, J. F. Hearnshaw, Mary Brooks, L. N. Rudy, A. M. Who is Thorman Trell?
Almost every play that has ever been written—or rewritten—has a predominating character around whom the plot is woven. "The Voice of Conscience," the new Alumni play which is coming to the Palace Grand, is no exception to the rule. Thorman Trell, a wonderful reformer, occupies this position in Mr. Rhodes' play. His name is on every lip. He shapes the destinies of the people about him, he remolds the policies of the state government at will. He seems almost a superman. And who has been fortunate enough to secure this part in the play? Answer, echo, for Thorman Trell never appears upon the scene. His identity is absolutely unknown to the people about him. He speaks to the multitude through the book which gives name to the play. And the speaking lead in the drama is a direct antithesis of this Thorman Trell, a little, self-effacing, old man. This part has been assigned to Mr. Owen Emery, whose ability in character roles has been proved upon many different occasions. Moreover, Owen is no giant in stature and notoriously diffident and modest.

MUSIC SECTION

The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of the curator, Mrs. E. W. Kinney, 1223 West Seventh.

BROADER TRAINING FOR TEACHERS

Rules and regulations adopted for the standardization of the California Normal schools emphasize the practical problems of living as unfolded in the school rooms, the preparation of well-qualified rural teachers and a thorough grounding of all teachers in the common school subjects of reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, grammar and geography. A week's conference at the state headquarters in Los Angeles between the state board, the state educational commissioners and the eight normal school presidents ended April 15 with the adoption by the state board of the first rules and regulations to apply uniformity to all state normal schools, with the exception of the technical normal at Santa Barbara, covering entrance and graduation requirements and courses of study.

There seems to be a determination on the part of the board and commissioners to make a course as formative and educative as possible and to give candidates for the position of teacher a six-year course, four years in the high school and two years in the normal at least. By placing a premium on the student who takes subjects in the high school required for the graduates of the normal school the board and commissioners hope to encourage this course of study.

There is not the slightest doubt that a more complete preparation is needed in subjects considered by the board as essential to graduation. The list makes up two-thirds of the subjects and the possible elective subjects one-third of the minimum six-years' combined high school and normal school course. The required subjects include applied mathematics, science, history, English, drawing, and applied design, sight reading, singing and elementary harmony in music, elements of agriculture and school gardening, applied sociology, education including the study of schools and psychology as applied to child life, California school law, physical culture, school play, physiology, hygiene and sanitation. In addition room is left for eight elective subjects.

The real object of this course is the broadening of the vision of the young California teachers and inculcating in them a fuller appreciation of life in nature study and school gardening, and giving them an understanding of general science as applied to everyday living, so that teaching may not degenerate into instruction by rote and rote, with no idea as to origin or applications of human knowledge.

It is made essential that the student by the end of the first half year of normal school work must have passed satisfactory tests in the rudimentary grammar grade subjects or be remanded to regular classes in them, until all deficiencies be made up. Complaint has recently been made that teachers are deficient in those common subjects and the board is determined to remedy this.

Student teachers must also have classroom instruction in pedagogy, psychology and general methods and their practice teaching shall include special methods using the California state series as a basis. The whole intention of this system is to make teachers rounded out in all-round knowledge and not merely taught a few things by rote. Of course, the better a teacher is the more a scholar learns and it is certain that nothing comes out of a teacher's brain that is not in it. Therefore the more general and special knowledge that has been properly assimilated by a teacher the better students are likely to be turned out in the schools.

CELTIC AND ANGLO-SAXON TEMPERAMENT

There is no doubt that the present troubles in Dublin and other parts of Ireland are the result of the essential differences in temperament between the Celt and the Saxon. By nature the Celt is kindly, generous, high spirited, imaginative, somewhat impulsive, but never cold-blooded or cruel. The Celtic literature is refined and chastened compared to the fierce revelings in bloodshed that characterize the Saxon and Germanic early literatures. The Celt is pure minded and simple, easy to be entreated and surely would be easy to govern if he were handled in the right way.

Probably the Celt would say that he does not want to be governed by others and in that he is right; but he can be led and guided into the ways that all right-minded nations desire to go. That the Anglo-Saxon had begun to understand somewhat of this truth was fondly hoped for by those who have the welfare of the Celtic people at heart but of late there seems to have been a cold blooded indifference on the part of Premier Asquith and his conferees in the cabinet as to what should be done to grapple the soul of Ireland to the soul of the British empire with hooks of steel.

Essentially cold-blooded a man like Asquith with all his culture and nobility of soul is incapable of comprehending an impulsive and warmblooded nation like the Irish, full of Celtic fire and genius (perferendum ingenium Scotorum) and chafing under any assumption of superiority on the part of the head of the empire, England which is only first among equals (primus inter pares) in the great empire that has arisen in modern times.

One of the few Englishmen who ever comprehended the Irish nation was Lord Chesterfield, author of the famous "Letters." Chesterfield who is too often spoken of as if he were frivolous and shallow, was one of the most far-seeing men of his time. He was viceroy of Ireland for a short time and he advised the English government that more could be done with the Irish people by justice, kindness and conciliation than by the abominable system of bribery that then prevailed coupled with the principle of dividing and ruling (divide et impera):

Had there been men of some commonsense and of Celtic temperament at the head of the British empire at the present moment Ireland would have been quiet and peaceable and German intrigue could not have touched it. As it was, travelers in the Island have said that while England and Scotland were under strict military rule Ireland was open to all to come and go as they chose. British preparations for defense that were not permitted to be spoken of in the English newspapers or sent through the mails were openly published in Ireland.

The Sinn Fein (We Ourselves) society flourished and held its meetings hostile to the British empire openly while at the same time nearly 200,000 Irish of all classes and religions had volunteered to fight for the empire. All this went on and Asquith and his weak cabinet temporized with it and permitted it and now they find at last that the stories that were dinned in their ears about certain sections of Ireland being in German pay were true and find themselves suddenly confronted with a German expedition to land arms and troops in the Emerald Isle. That the expedition failed and that the German cruisers were sunk or blew up was merely luck, not any foresight or wisdom on the part of the British. The old policy of "muddling through" is apparently as popular as ever in England. The pity is that thousands of brave men have to lay down their lives for such a policy.

TRAINING THE EYE

Another hobby has been sprung upon the schools of the county by a faddist who recommends that there should be visual education in the schools of the county. Visual education dates back to the time of the first man. People have been seeing things for centuries and the power of sight has been cultivated in the best schools in the land. Every instructor of common sense knows the importance of training the eye, and just why a separate department should be required for the giving of instruction in the science of seeing is a question that can only be answered by the fad-chaser. Less theory and less faddism and more attention to legible writing, accurate computation and logical composition in schools will give desirable results.

WRITE NOTICES LEGIBLY

The habit of writing out in full all notices and announcements intended for publication is an excellent method for the one furnishing the announcements to practice. Phoning requires more time and errors in spelling are apt to occur. If some of the clubs so actively engaged in educating the community would spend a few sessions dwelling upon the importance of the average citizen being able to convey his ideas intelligently on a written or printed page, the time would be well spent.

TARS PAID FOR INDIGESTION

The United States circuit court of appeals has rendered an opinion awarding $65.50 to each of the members of the crew of the Alaska fishing schooner Ray Somers to reimburse the sailors for their sufferings caused by the serving of bad food on a recent voyage to northern waters. The crew libeled the vessel upon their return to this port.

The following are the items charged against the charterer of the schooner and allowed by the court: Impure drinking water, $14.50; bad potatoes, $20; shortage of rice, $6; shortage of onions, $8; shortage of beans, $2; shortage of salt pork, $6.—San Francisco Bulletin.

AN ASTONISHING INVENTION

Perhaps one of the most astonishing inventions on record was the device of a Frenchman who suggested the laying down of huge suction tubes from the coast out to various points in the open sea. When war broke out and hostile fleets approached the coast, machinery on shore would be set to work, the enemy's vessels would be caught by the irresistible suction, drawn to the ends of the tubes and there held firmly as prisoners. The one essential part of this idea which seemed to be missing was the machinery which was going to draw a 25,000 ton warship backward with its engines going at full steam.

A little girl who was enrolled in the extension department of the Y. W. C. A. was asked by one of the secretaries of the association why she no longer attended the technical grammar class.

"Well," replied the girl, "I always thought a conjunction was a place where trains stopped. When I learned it was a word that connected other words the class was too much for me."—Indianapolis News.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutt of 801 West 9th St. are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter at their home on Friday, April 21.

Mrs. Emil Tholen of Brand and Tenth St., with her baby son, Robert William, returned home Sunday from the Good Samaritan hospital.

Little Miss Ethel Mary Tiffany is the name of the wee little lady who came Tuesday, April 25, to reside with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tiffany on West Park avenue, Tropic.

Dorothy, Edith and May Beers, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Beers, 1437 Burchett street, are ill with whooping cough. The attack is slight and it is hoped it will not last long.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, 196 Orange street, is attending the convention of the Federated Women's clubs of Southern California, which is being held at Del Monte. The convention opened Tuesday and will continue till Friday.

Miss Isabel Frater, who is well known in Glendale, having been in this city for a number of years in the position of housekeeper, has taken a similar position in Los Angeles at 1170 E. Adams street. Her many friends regret that she has determined to leave this locality.

Dr. A. W. Teel who at present occupies office rooms in the Rudy building, 343 S. Brand boulevard, will move Monday, May 1, to rooms 1, 2 and 3 in the new Peters building, 223 Brand boulevard, next the Palace-Grand theater. Dr. Teel has had the three rooms nicely fixed up with every modern equipment of a first-class medical office.

W. S. Smith of the Smith Cyclery is the latest victim of the bogus check craze. A young man representing himself to be A. C. Clark was the perpetrator. Young Clark claimed to be working for one, W. O. Jackson and the check drawn and signed by Jackson was on the Home Savings bank of Los Angeles, the check has been returned with note attached, "No such account at this bank," and likewise no Mr. Clark to be found lurking around Glendale now, but probably playing his "trade" in some other locality.

FORM MOTHERS' CIRCLE

Ladies of the Columbus Avenue school district met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Yarik, 1447 W. Third street, and organized a Mothers' Reading Circle on the lines laid down by the United States department of education. Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Kenneth road was the organizer. Those present were Mrs. C. H. Toll, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. E. M. Witt, Mrs. F. R. Frazee, Mrs. A. L. Dove, Mrs. C. W. Berry, Mrs. W. C. Alvord and Mrs. H. W. Yarik. The circle began the reading of "Children's Rights" by Kate Douglas Wiggin. All interested in this excellent course of study are invited to attend the next meeting on Tuesday, May 2.

PACIFIC AVE. READING CIRCLE

Mrs. R. A. Puffer, 1552 Vine St., called together and organized Wednesday morning a Mutual Benefit Reading Circle in connection with the parents and others interested in the work in that district. This circle is formed in connection with the circles that have been constituted to take up the course of reading prescribed by the United States Department of Education throughout the country. The new circle met at 11 a. m. for organization purposes. There were present Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. Frank Ayres, Mrs. Minnette Sherman, Mrs. James Begg and Mrs. R. A. Puffer. It was resolved to take up the study of "Child Nature" by Elizabeth Harrison. It was also resolved to hold the future meetings of the society Mondays at 1 p. m. as that hour would be most suitable for the mothers of the district. This was merely a preliminary meeting and it is anticipated that there will be a large accession of members when the fact that such a circle has been organized is made known. Ladies in the Pacific Avenue school district are cordially invited to be present.

FAITH, HOPE, CHARITY

The Red Cross Society of the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire make request that all subjects of Great Britain or the allies, gentlemen as well as ladies, come forward and unloose their purse strings and help.

We know not how soon we in this happy land may be cast in the same gloom and our little ones left fatherless, hungry and naked. I am resigning the chairmanship of the society in favor of Mrs. A. R. Oliver, 1011 W. 5th St. Before doing so, however, will say we now have on hand twelve hospital shirts, fourteen pajamas and 334 bandages and one hundred yards of muslin and gingham for the children.

We are now asking that any who have the instinct of either father or mother love may add to this material, money or second-hand clothing that we may help to cover the babes from the cold or burning heat of the sun.

Yours in faith, hope and charity. MRS. S. J. LANE.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Quite a deal of interest is being taken in the development of North Sixth street, which has been opened up recently from Central avenue eastward. This fine street is going to do much for the development of that desirable neighborhood. Among the real estate men who hold considerable interests there is Mr. McKesson of Los Angeles who owns property on N. Sixth. Mr. McKesson sees a great future for that district where real estate is beginning to move.

Mrs. M. Drohan of Kenneth road was a visitor in Los Angeles Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hubbard of Carpinteria and Mrs. Ed. Conroy of Burbank were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Conner, 1662 Kenneth road.

Casa Verdugo was the scene of considerable festivity Wednesday evening when Mr. Giles, a prominent insurance man of Los Angeles, entertained a large party at dinner.

Quite a unique party will be held at the Casa Verdugo Saturday, April 29, when fifty medical nurses from Los Angeles will ride out on horseback to their annual dinner and entertainment. They have made provision for the care of their horses and will enjoy a sumptuous banquet after which music and dancing will pass the time till late in the evening when they will ride back to the city.

Another banquet that promises to be of considerable interest will be that of the Native Sons, which will be held at Casa Verdugo Monday, May 8.

An interesting picnic party was held on the foothills Tuesday when Miss Edith Tyler entertained her Sunday school class of boys from the Congregational church. The young ones had a most enjoyable time with the usual sports of boys and were delighted with their explorations of many curious nooks of the hills.

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER

Mrs. Fern Roberts, worthy matron of Glen Eyrie chapter, Eastern Star, and her staff have planned something special for the meeting of the chapter which is to be held tonight. After a short business session a program will be given. Master Charles Beamon will entertain the company with a reading; little Miss Lois Naudain, who is a charming dancer, will give solo dances in costume, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Orma Vesper Naudain; Misses Lucile and Avis Thompson, talented young musicians, will please the audience with violin and piano duet; Miss Eileen Grist, accompanied by her sister, Miss Esther Grist, will sing; Miss Virginia Hunchberger, and Evelyn Gregg, accompanied by Miss Ernestine Lyons, will give a Dutch dance in costume. Other delightful features are being planned for tonight's meeting.

BACK TO THE LAND

How so? is not land mostly monopolized? Are not farm, mineral and timber lands in thousand and million-acre tracts held out of use?

Are not city lots and blocks of thousand and million-dollar values kept vacant for speculation? Hence land is artificially scarce and expensive.

Is not labor shut out with hands in empty pockets, jobless, homeless and well nigh hopeless thousands of willing men wait for work while the earth is held for a rise in prices? How pry the owners loose? By a tax—a tax high enough to make the owners hustle to use their vacant land or they will let go.

Either way gives employment and starts the wheels of commerce. A tax on land values big enough to make speculators let go will make all other taxes unnecessary. It is the single tax.

An amendment to the state constitution is now circulating with this end in view. Be ready to sign it. Meetings are in progress in this county as follows:

Glendale, April 28th, 1453 Oak St., Mrs. Lydia Elliott; Los Angeles, May 1st, 718 Waterloo St., Mrs. Mary Hoyt; Glendale, May 8th, 205 N. Maryland Ave., Miss Edith Tyler; Hermosa Beach, May 15th, 745 Summit Ave., Robinson cottage; Redondo Beach, Long Beach.

Speakers: E. E. Kirk, Chas. James, Dr. Adah Patterson, Edgcomb Pinchon, Judge Wm. A. Spill, G. W. Patterson, Mrs. Lucy Durham, Mrs. Zoe P. Hoffman, J. W. Durham, A. A. McCallum, Mrs. Lona Ingham Robinson and others. Every one cordially invited to these meetings.

DROWNED FISH

They have a curious way of catching fish in some parts of Japan. Herbert E. Ponting in his book on "Lotus Land Japan" describes some traps which he found in one of the rivers of Fuji. "They were set in artificially dammed up narrows and consisted of long, conical bamboo baskets tied to poles. The fish bound downstream rush headlong into these traps and, being unable to return or even turn around are speedily drowned. Curious as this may seem it is yet but a matter of a few minutes to drown a fish held head downward in a swift current."

PLAYING ROBINSON CRUSOE

Pussy can sit by the fire and sing, Pussy can climb a tree, Or play with a silly old cork and string.

To 'muse herself, not me. But I like Binkie, my dog, because He knows how to behave: So Binkie's the same as the First Friend was, And I am the man in the cave.

Pussy will play Man-Friday till It's time to wet her paw And make her walk on the window sill

(For the footprints Crusoe saw); Then she fluffles her tail and mews, And scratches and won't attend, But Binkie will play whatever I choose, And he is my true First Friend.

Pussy will rub my knee with her head, Pretending she loves me hard; But the very minute I go to bed Pussy runs out in the yard, And there she stays till the morning light; So I know it is only pretend. But Kinkie, he snores at my feet all night And he is my Firstest Friend! —Rudyard Kipling.

PREFERRED HOME

Willie Jones was playing with the Robinson children next door, says the Minneapolis Journal. When luncheon time came Mrs. Robinson asked him if he would like to stay. "No, thank you," said Willie, "I think I'd better go home. My mother will be expecting me." "Suppose I telephone over and ask her if you may stay," said his hostess. "Please don't do that, Mrs. Robinson," said the boy, earnestly. "We are going to have cocoanut pie for dessert today and your cook told me you've only got prunes."

ILLITERATE GENIUS

George Tinworth, the famous sculptor, whose work adorns the great minster at York, the Guards' chapel in Truro, was an illiterate genius. He probably had not more than a year's schooling in the whole of his life.

His handwriting, which appears on some of the best known works, is a mere scrawl, and he could not spell. Yet he won the unstinted praise of Ruskin.

Grinling Gibbons, whose lovely, almost superhuman wood carving is the chief glory of Chatsworth and many other ducal mansions, as well as of Windsor castle, was picked up by the famous diarist, John Evelyn, in the direst poverty and introduced to the king.

Here is a letter he wrote to Evelyn, which speaks for itself: "Honored Sir—I wot beg the favor wen you see Sr Joseph Williams again you wold be pleased to speak to him that hee wold get me to Carve his Ladis Sons hous my Lord Kildare for I understands it will be very considerable," etc.

Patrick Nasmyth, whose pictures may be seen in the National gallery, was not only illiterate, but, his right hand being incapacitated, he painted with his left, and he was also very deaf. Yet he had made his name by the time he was twenty.

George Morland was another illiterate genius, the mere prints of whose pictures are worth big sums today. He dictated his own epitaph, "Here lies a drunken dog." He seldom took a meal with his wife, cooked his own food, ate it off a chair by the side of his easel in his studio, where not only pigeons flew, but pigs ran about.—London Standard.

THE LETTER "E"

The opinion has been advanced that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. It is fortunate in that it is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty and makes love perfect. It also starts off in error, and printing, publishing, typography and lithography can get along without it, although it is necessary in electrotyping, engraving and typefounding. It is the beginning and end of editorial existence.—American Printer.

HOW TO RISE IN THE WORLD

It is told by one who, as a lad, roomed with Grover Cleveland when the latter worked in a "general store" for fifty dollars a year and "found," that he arose at 5 o'clock in the summer, and half an hour later in winter, and that "he'd go to the green pump in the square for watering horses and make his morning toilet in the trough." This practice, or something like it, was a common experience in the United States when Grover Cleveland was a lad, and it is almost impossible to discover where it ever stood in the way of those who passed through it.

LUTHERAN CHOIR PRACTICE

The midweek prayer meeting and choir practice of the First English Lutheran church will be continued this week on Thursday as usual. A full attendance is requested.

MY GARDEN

I have a quiet garden All full of hollyhocks And columbine and foxglove And white and scarlet phlox.

And dainty sweet allyssum, Where hover swarms of bees; And swaying graceful poppies And fragrant shy sweet peas.

The hummingbirds, like jewels, Flash gleaming to and fro O'er beds of modest pansies And daisies in a row.

Ah! youth may love the city, The chase for wealth and fame, But give old age the garden Each quiet day the same. —Sheila Calbraith, in the Country-side Magazine.

LITTLELANDS

Miss Eleanor Brown of the Metaphysical Home at Venice, had a delightful week-end visit at the Dunning home last week. Monday she returned to Venice, accompanied by Mrs. Dunning and Miss Jessie, who will be guests at the Metaphysical home, Mrs. Dunning for a few days, but Miss Jessie will remain for a month's visit. Mrs. Dunning and Mrs. Brown are old friends.

Miss Rebecca White has completed her probation and is now entered upon the regular training course of a nurse in the Clara Barton hospital in Los Angeles.

Mr. Hubbard is having an addition built on the northwest of his cottage.

After a week's vacation school opened again last Monday with the teachers, Miss Salstrom and Miss Wilson, and their pupils eager to begin their regular work.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard have as their guests this week their nieces, the Misses Haggerty of Long Beach.

Board of Trade

At the Board of Trade meeting Wednesday evening of last week a letter was read from Mr. Weatherbee of La Crescenta, asking us to send a petition objecting to the contemplated change in the mail service. By motion it was decided to send letters of protest to the proper authorities.

Mr. Ashby reported that he is corresponding with the postmaster at Los Angeles with reference to a direct mail pouch for Littlelands.

The committee appointed to interview Engineer Reagan concerning a storm drain to carry off the overflow from Haines' canyon, reported that Mr. Reagan expressed his willingness to present the matter to the Board of Supervisors but said he must have a written request for same from the Board of Trade that he might have a document to present to the supervisors. After considerable discussion it was decided not to take any official action at present and the matter was laid on the able. Who will be the cat's paw? At this meeting there were four new members added to the roster of the Board of Trade.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hubbard of Stephen's Way spent Wednesday of last week in Los Angeles, whither they had gone to speed some eastern friends on their long journey home to Mitchell, South Dakota, the old home also of the Hubbards.

Miss Anna Ericson is having a portable house erected on her lot on Sunset boulevard.

Mr. Wood of The Wood's Clothing company of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Burton of Montrose were the guests at dinner Thursday of last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley of Greely avenue.

Last Friday Mrs. Barkley, accompanied by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mauk, motored to San Diego in their new machine, returning home the first of the week.

Home Croft Club

There was a short but interesting meeting of the Home Croft society Friday evening. The time was mostly taken up with the reports from the Glendale Free Flower show. Littlelands received two first prizes on their exhibit, one for general display and the other for the best display of vegetables.

The committee consisting of Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Kearney from the Home Croft club and Mrs. Fairfield and Mrs. Dean and Miss Gilbert from the Woman's club, assisted by Mr. C. H. Clark and Mr. Lamson, visited the Flower Show and had charge of the exhibit, which reached its destination under a good deal of difficulty. Special mention is made of the vegetable display, which was collected by Miss Rodeheaver and Miss Jessie Dunning and arranged by Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Dunning, and thanks are extended to Mrs. Kimball for her courtesy in transporting Miss Rodeheaver, who had charge of the display, to the Flower Show.

The Littlelands committee were the recipients of many favors and courtesies from the Glendale people and wish to here express their appreciation and thanks for the same. Many points were noted for future reference and help in the collection and display of flowers and helpful lessons on arrangement and transportation were learned. Mrs. Woods and her large corps of assistants were indefatigable in their endeavors to leave nothing undone that would add to the success of the show and to the comfort and pleasure of the visitors.

Success written in large letters surely crowned their efforts and they and all Glendale must view the results with pleasure and satisfaction. Much attention was drawn to the artistic display of our vegetables by the pretty verse appended to the basket, from the versatile pen of our colony poet, Miss Zoe Gilbert. It read as follows:

Here's Littlelands, the finest place in all this world of nations; Come out and see how they turn rocks into delicious rations.

Children's Party

Friday twenty-five little children were made supremely happy through the efforts of their Sunday School teachers, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Shir-

as. These little ones were invited to an easter party at Manzanita park, where first they had a joyous time hunting Easter eggs, many of which were hidden about the park, then merry games were played and then a lovely luncheon was served and each child received an Easter basket as a souvenir.

The weather was beautiful and the occasion one of pleasure to teachers and pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis of Long Beach motored up to Little Lands, last Sunday and visited with their old friend, Mr. F. M. Ashby of Greely avenue.

Miss H. C. Faxon is sojourning here for awhile. She is from Long Beach and is a guest at Miss Gilbert's.

At the town meeting Tuesday evening it was announced that the woman's club would have possession of the clubhouse at the next town meeting night, May 2. Mrs. Miles gave a talk on the status of the woman's club in the community also she said they desired to give an entertainment to raise some money to put into the treasury. Therefore a small admittance fee will be charged, 15 cents for adults and 5 cents for children. An interesting program is being prepared and the woman's orchestra will have a prominent part. Mr. Ashby appointed Mrs. Kearney chairman of the committee that is to consider a colony fair or festival. The other members of the committee chosen by Mrs. Kearney are Mrs. Miles, Sr., Miss Gilbert, Miss Hatch, Mr. Wieman, Mr. Ashby, Mr. P. J. Blake and Mr. Mehard. A meeting of this committee is called for Friday night, after the Homecroft session. The Kentucky people of which Mr. Miles is chairman now took charge of the program which was as follows:

Address, Mr. Miles.
A Kentucky Welcome, Mrs. Frost.
In Kentucky, Miss Jackson.
Kentucky (Ben Cox), Miss Ball.
Anecdotes of Kentucky, Mr. Miles and Mr. Wieman.
Song, Nellie Gray, Mrs. J. C. Catt.

There is to be an excursion to the Haines canyon by the colonists one week from Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mehard spent Easter with friends in Long Beach.

Mr. Cochran an elderly gentleman from Los Angeles is at the home of Mr. Fred Johnson. He is quite ill, so much so that it was necessary to call a physician.

The regular meeting of the woman's club occurred last Wednesday afternoon at half past two. The principal feature of the program was a parliamentary drill.

The Pigeon club is invited to meet with Mrs. Linaberry and Miss Osgood next Monday evening at their home on Monte Vista boulevard. 7.30 is the hour.

The ladies' Aid is invited to meet next Thursday, May 4 at Manzanita Park when Mrs. Shiras will be hostess to the society at a luncheon. The hour for meeting is 11 o'clock. The usual program will be given. Members and friends are invited.

SUNLAND

Mrs. Chris Beck Myer spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer.

Mrs. A. E. Thomas, who has resided for 17 years on her property adjoining the church property, moved to Los Angeles last week and will make her home with her niece, Mrs. Crane. Advanced age and failing health made it advisable for her to have the companionship of her niece. Mrs. Thomas will be greatly missed in the church, where she was a faithful member.

Mrs. Caroline Martin and family moved to Los Angeles last week, and will reside there on her property.

Mr. McNamoir and family took possession last Monday of the Haffinger place, which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner and children have come to reside on their recently acquired place, which is the twenty-acre orange orchard lying opposite the school house.

Miss Esther Nicholson entertained a house party of five young friends during Easter vacation. On Saturday Miss Nicholson returned to Los Angeles with them and enjoyed Easter services in the city.

The young people from the olive pickling factory, and a number of their young friends, enjoyed a marshmallow roast on the Tejuja bluffs, last Thursday evening.

The Misses Esner of Sierra Madre, sisters of Mrs. Richardson, spent several days during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. E. L. Stretton and son Harry came down from Carpinteria last week, and Mrs. Stretton will spend some weeks at her place on Central street. Mr. Stretton returned to Carpinteria after a stay of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blumfield visited Rev. and Mrs. Wester at their home in Pasadena Monday.

Capt. and Mrs. T. G. Cushman entertained at dinner on Saturday evening a party of Los Angeles and Pasadena friends. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hillman, Mrs. Laubersheimer, Mrs. Richardson and others.

Rev. Wester has purchased a Chevrolet car through Earl Sims, who has the agency for this district. Rev. Wester has been learning to drive his car under the direction of a demonstrator and will soon be able to manage it alone.

That the climate of this valley is exceptionally beneficial to those suffering from asthma, has long been known, and a recent sufferer from this affliction leaves his testimony as is stated in the following:

To Whom It May Concern:—This is to certify that after only a stay of ten days at the Monte Vista Tavern, in Sunland, I was greatly benefited by the ideal climate. When I reached here on the 15th of April, I was about ready to give up life, as it seemed to me; but after only two days, there was a great improvement noticeable. Very cheerfully will I recommend this place to any suffering from asthma, or any of its kindred ills. This testimony is given by me unhesitatingly by any one, but I left so well that I thought it only just and right to do so.—AUG. WAL-LIS, M. A., Pastor First Baptist Church, Brawley, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Barner are nicely located in their home recently purchased of J. Smith.

The Olive House bunch gave a supper in the park Tuesday evening, every body seeming to have had a good time.

The Easter services at the Baptist church were especially interesting and pleasing. Recitations by the Sunday School pupils and songs by the different classes were well rendered. An anthem and appropriate songs by the choir added much to the program. An address by Rev. Wester concluded the service. The decorations were especially attractive. A large white cross entwined with dainty roses on their graceful branches formed the central decoration on the wall behind the pulpit. Trailing branches of the roses formed a garland around the church rail and bouquets of beautiful white lilies completed the decoration.

Mr. C. J. Joppine and family from San Lucas are spending the week at the Monte Vista Tavern.

Dr. Glen Hammond and wife entertained at lunch at the Monte Vista Tavern. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corser, of the Hotel Maryland of Pasadena, last Friday.

W. S. Rodes, wife and daughter Dorothy, entertained Morris Blye and wife at the Tavern over Sunday. The entire party are from San Diego.

The Easter Sunday guests at the Monte Vista Tavern were: Art Temple, Los Angeles; Dr. Geo. B. Abbot, Los Angeles; Dr. Hester L. Abbot, Los Angeles; J. R. McMannou, wife and baby of San Jose; L. M. Sloam, Los Angeles; A. McGuire, Los Angeles; F. H. Adams, Los Angeles; B. M. Jones, Los Angeles; Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Los Angeles.

Mildred Corey and Ed Thomas attended services at the Cathedral in Los Angeles Easter Sunday.

BURBANK

Mrs. Catherine Meehan who recently purchased the Grismer residence in the Biggar tract is altering and enlarging the house, which will soon be one of the finest residence properties in the city.

Mrs. Ostergard who a short time ago had a five roomed bungalow moved to her property at the corner of Olive and Eleventh streets is having the exterior and interior of the residence remodeled. P. A. Farley is the contractor. The house will be ready for occupancy in about ten days.

On motion Resolution No. 104 was adopted as follows: "A resolution of the board of trustees of the city of Burbank providing plans and specifications for the proposed repair and widening of the macadamized portion of San Fernando Boulevard from the southeasterly boundary line of the city of Burbank to the southwesterly line of Cypress avenue in the city of Burbank."

The matter of changing the signs indicating the city limits of Burbank came before the board. At the present time the only signs the city has are those placed by the county and indicate the old city limits, and complaints have been made by some of those fined for speeding that they were unaware that they were within the city. The city marshal was authorized to remove the signs and have them repainted in conformity with the speed laws and have same placed on extended limit boundary lines of principal thoroughfares of the city.

Dr. E. H. Thompson, city health officer had put in a request for a milk tester, to be used in testing milk from the various dairies in Burbank in accordance with ordinance No. 91. On motion Dr. Thompson was authorized to purchase a milk tester, at a price not to exceed $15.

The board adjourned.

Mr. J. L. Smith, the well known proprietor of the leading implement and hardware store in Burbank, has just got in a carload of baling wire. Mr. Smith's prices are as low as those of the city.

Ed. Thomas of Littlelands transacted business here Wednesday.

Burbank Will Soon Have New City Hall

Bids are advertised for Tuesday of next week for Burbank's new city hall which is to cost approximately $13,000. The site is located on the corner of Third and Olive streets and the lots are 150x155. The building will have a 150 ft. front, will be two stories and have a very attractive appearance as the exterior is to be finished in the new rug brick.

VALLEY VIEW

Guy Pixley and Frank Budway of West Fifth street were speeding down the boulevard toward Santa Ana last Sunday afternoon in an un-dressed Ford when an unmannerly tire blew out and the unregenerate Ford, to prove it could "go anywhere," climbed an elevation at the side of the road, then turned flat on its back with the driver and his mechanic underneath. Driver (Pixley) was unhurt, but mechanic (Budway) suffered a badly sprained ankle.

Valley View residents were many of them disappointed in the outcome of the election in that they got no trustee from this part of the city, but there are no sore spots. All accept the result goodnaturedly and will back up the city government most heartily in every right action, reserving the right however to protest if any wrong is done.

C. H. Woolsey and wife, who built a beautiful home at 1629 Riverdale drive about two years ago, living in it since then, have rented it to a young couple recently married and will probably move to their handsome property at 1426 Milford.

Arch Moore of 1657 Vine street is about the busiest man in Valley View. He works regularly for the Tropico Basket factory and looks after several pens of rabbits and a goodly flock of laying hens.

VALUE OF PUBLICITY

Favorable publicity is a great aid in the promotion of any business enterprise. Continually keeping the name of a business firm before the people causes that name to be so well known that when it comes to the time of making purchases the well known firm gets the preference. Integrity and reliability in business must go hand in hand with publicity if the business firm would expect to meet with success. The many food products that have been so successfully placed upon the market

The Pathway to Peace

WE BELIEVE

—that the satisfactory way to procure lasting harmony between Republicans and Progressives in the State is to first procure it in the nation.

—that the proper way to procure national harmony is through the action of the National Republican Convention and the National Progressive Convention in session—by design—at the same time and place.

—that the Progressive convention should be composed of Progressives and that the Republican convention should be composed of Republicans.

—that Progressives have no right to sit in the Republican convention, nor Republicans in the Progressive convention.

—that the surest way to "harmony" is to elect to the Republican convention real Republican delegates, to-wit: The last twenty-six in the list in the no preference column on the ballot beginning with the name of Hon. Walter Bordwell.
