BUSINESS TERMS!

Please Read Carefully Before Ordering

SIZE OF ROOTS. Our prices are based on a three to five eye division with a well balanced root system, cut from young plants, and should not be confused with divisions made from old clumps that are not worth nearly as much. If you should desire larger divisions send us your list stating size and quantity wanted and we will quote you prices.

WE BEGIN SHIPPING the latter part of August and continue throughout the months of September, October and November as Peony plantings are most successful when made at that time. Should you want Peonies for spring sales would advise ordering in fall and we will keep them in storage until wanted in the spring. By doing this spring planting will prove successful.

TELL US HOW TO SHIP. Whether by freight or express, and give railroad delivery if shipment is wanted by freight.

TERMS. We offer the usual terms to those of known responsibility but must have satisfactory business references from others or cash must accompany order. Those desiring stock shipped by express C. O. D. will please remit one-quarter the amount of their purchase when ordering.

CLAIMS, if any must be made immediately upon receipt of goods, and if just they will be made satisfactory.

NON-WARRANTY. We give no warranty expressed or implied, the purchaser assuming all risk and responsibility of transportation, planting, growth, life of stock or any other matter on any stock we sell. We exercise the greatest care to keep our stock true to name and are willing to replace, or refund the amount paid, but it is mutually agreed that we shall not at any time be liable for a greater amount than the original purchase price.

Good Stock of Utmost Importance

The matter of buying your plants may look like a small matter, but is in an important job because so much depends upon the right kind of plants. No matter how valuable your land—no matter how much you weed, dig, hoe or cultivate—no matter how deep you plow, how much you disc, and harrow or rake your garden—no matter how much the sun shines, or how much rain you get, or how much you irrigate or water your garden—no matter how ideal the weather conditions may be or how much you fertilize or manure your soil—and every one of these things represent real money—they are all lost, all wasted, all your efforts count for nothing—if in the first place you do not have right kind of plants to put in the soil.

As Good As Can Be Grown

We believe you will find our stock as good as you can get anywhere, regardless of the price you may pay.

It is often possible to quote lower prices on large orders. Send your want list.

Your Success Means Our Success

IT IS with a great deal of pleasure we again send you our Peony catalog. While we have not seen the fruition of all our hopes and plans, we are deeply grateful for the success that we have had, and we come to you at this time with the feeling that in the very near future conditions will tend to become more stabilized.

We are exerting every effort to produce the very best stock that it is possible to grow, and in our twenty-six year's experience we believe we have never had better stock to offer than we are offering this season. We feel sure that you will be more than pleased with the stock we will send you. We value your friendship and orders, and will do our utmost to keep your good will.

We hope that our greatly reduced prices will not cause you to think the quality has also been lowered—It has not, and will not be. We have the largest stock to offer this season that we have ever had, and with this and the general economic conditions in mind we feel justified in making our prices so low.

We want your orders this season, and if we get them we will do our best to make you feel they were well placed.

THE TINGLE NURSERY COMPANY.

General Collection Of Peonies

We have always tried to give full value for every cent spent with us. And with this still in mind we have tried to price our Peonies this fall so that you may feel that you are getting your full money's worth even in these "hard times." Peony blooms did not sell this season as well as they usually do, but as for that, no other cut-flower has done better in comparison. We believe there will still be good money in growing Peonies as soon as business conditions again become normal.

Whether you use Peonies for your own planting or for resale to your customers we assure you any order placed with us will be filled with stock that will please both you and your customers. We will ship to you or direct to your customer, as you may wish.

We will certainly be glad to have you come and see our stock for yourself. We have several items in too small lots to list. Among them there may be some that you are especially desirous of securing.

We are located on the Eastern Shore of Maryland four miles below the Maryland-Delaware line being 100 miles directly south of Wilmington, Delaware. A road map will be sent on request.

How To Grow Peonies

The time to plant Peonies is in the fall—from the first of September until freezing weather. Any good garden soil is good for Peonies but do not plant in low, wet soil or in light sandy soil, and do not use any fresh manure near the plant when setting. We use a small handful of ground bone meal to each plant when setting, and a good potato fertilizer in spring, just as they begin coming through the ground and cultivate it in as soon as you use it.

In planting see that the eyes are about two inches below the level surface of the ground. Remember, too deep planting is one of the main causes of shy blooming. And do not expect a full crop of blooms the first year. If properly planted and cared for you will have some flowers the first year but you must give the plants time to make new roots and become established before you can expect a normal crop of flowers. And another thing to remember, always leave at least two or three leaves on the stalk when you cut the bloom. This helps the plant store up strength to produce another crop.
