Japanese Naval Commands

Attached herewith is a list of some of the more important Japanese naval commands as of May 1, 1943. Very little information is available regarding personnel changes in the Japanese Navy since December, 1941. A number of the officers in the attached list probably no longer hold the commands indicated.

Explanation of dates in parentheses after names:

Full dates, as (12-15-42), indicate the exact date of the officer's appointment; dates with only month and year, as (11-42), indicate that latest available information shows that the officer was holding the post at that time. The year only in parentheses, as (1942), indicates that the officer was probably appointed to the post sometime during that year.

The commands herein listed have been entered in 1940 JAPANESE NAVY REGISTER to make it correct as of this date. WZ (Also in my card index)

Confusion has existed over the Cinc of the Second Fleet and the Cinc of the Fourth Fleet. Some reports have indicated that Vice Admiral Shigeyoshi Inouye was Cinc of the Second Fleet and Vice Admiral Nobutake Kondo, Cinc of the Fourth Fleet. Other reports indicated the reverse. According to the Tokyo Radio, it is now established that Vice Admiral Inouye is President of the Naval Academy at Etajima. Therefore, the Cinc of the Second Fleet has been left open and Vice Admiral Kondo will be tentatively carried as Cinc of the Fourth Fleet until further clarification is possible.
