BABY PARADE

One of the most important events of the Patriotic Fete will be the Baby Parade on Saturday afternoon, September 28.

All mothers are asked to enter their babies as soon as possible. As there are many lovely babies in Narberth, we want to have them ALL in the parade. All children four years and under are considered babies. There will be prizes in the form of Thrift Stamps.

Kindly phone any of the following Committee for particulars: Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. Royden Hunt, Miss Jeannette Turner, Mrs. G. M. Colesworthy, Mrs. C. T. Moore, Chairman.

WHITE ELEPHANT BOOTH (Rummage Sale)

Miss Mazie J. Simpson and Baptist Church Committee are receiving goods at the old post office building for this booth. Every evening, 7 until 8 o'clock, during the week of September 16, send

ANY HOUSEHOLD ARTICLES
DUPLICATE WEDDING GIFTS
FIVE HUNDRED PRIZES
BOOKS
ORNAMENTS
FURNITURE
ETC., ETC., ETC.

All these can be turned into money for the 25-75 per cent. fund.

Donations to help the Country Store and the Army Canteen are solited. Communicate promptly with Miss Simpson and Mrs. Odell.

Enthusiasm ran high at the Civic Association meeting last Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. Building. In fact the room was so full of it that it plugged up the holes in the plaster walls. Ask anyone who was there.

Donations of Thrift Stamps are wanted for Baby and Costume Parade prizes. Send them to the chairman of each committee.

Based on the manner in which the faculty and pupils received the remarks of Mrs. James Foote on Monday morning, during assembly exercises, the success of the coming "patriotic parade" is already assured. All persons wishing to co-operate with the committee, toward making this parade an attractive one, to the extent of offering whatever NATIONAL costumes, flags or draperies they may have, will kindly get in touch with them. Anything of this character loaned for this purpose will be well taken care of. Kindly phone Narberth 314-M for details.

Buy your Sunday chocolate and tobacco at the "Y. M. C. A. and Boy Scout Hut," September 27 and 28.

The Sorority Girls are aiming to have the FEATURE of the Fete with their Japanese Tea Garden and Dahlia and Chrysanthemum decorations. These decorations will be for sale. Gifts and flowers are solicited. Phone Miss Wipf for particulars.

The Knights of Columbus representation will be taken care of by parishioners of St. Margaret's Church, and excellent displays can accordingly be expected.

Save your Liberty Loan subscription, for Saturday, September 28, and apply for subscription blanks at the Liberty Loan Booth, Narbrook Park.

Mrs. Nickerson says the Presbyterian Church Fish Pond in the Children's Booth will have in it the best fish ever caught and the Grab Bag will be bulging out with good things. Watch for these and other attractions.

Talk about "Lolly Pops" and "Dipped Apples" at the Girl Scout Booth at the Fete. They will be the BEST EVER.

YUM, YUM, YUM.

There are several organizations which Mr. Nash, chairman of the Narberth Fete, has not yet heard from. Their officers should report to him promptly for booth space and have representatives attend the meeting next Friday evening at 8.15 in the Y. M. C. A. Building, thereby assuring the largest contribution possible to the 75 per cent. War Relief Fund and 25 per cent. Civic Association for its current needs to continue the issuing of "Our Town" and assist Councils in continuing civic improvements.

RAIN CHECKS

If it rains on Friday and Saturday—both days—the Fete will be held on succeeding Friday and Saturday, October 4 and 5.

If it rains on Friday, September 27, the Fete will be held on Saturday, September 28, and Monday, September 30.

If it rains on Saturday, September 28, the Fete will be held on Friday, September 27, and Monday, September 30.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Names are being added to these committees as rapidly as persons volunteer to serve. Other organizations are arranging for other booths, which will be announced as they are suggested and plans develop. See subsequent announcements.

Here's a Chance For Narberth Boys and Girls to Fill Their Thrift Stamp Cards

Instead of begging dad for a quarter, get out and hustle for subscriptions to "Our Town."

For each $1.00 subscription to Narberth's bright little paper given to Miss Maizie Simpson at the Civic Association Booth, Friday or Saturday, September 27 and 28, during the Narberth Patriotic Fete, one Thrift Stamp will be the prize.

You have two weeks in which to get new subscriptions—each one of which means a new stamp on your card.

Prizes for renewals will be on the same basis and dates will be advanced from time of expiration.

Come on, girls and boys, do your bit for Narberth and incidentally do your bit for the boys Over There.

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS

Fire, 350
Police, 1250

If there is anybody left in Narberth who is not helping prepare for the Patriotic Fete, he (or she) should immediately get in touch with Mr. Joseph H. Nash, president Narberth Civic Association. This is an opportunity as well as a duty.

Those who have been directly asked to serve on committees or do work connected with the Patriotic Fete have responded splendidly. The meetings have been largely attended, and the enthusiasm is growing daily. With such a spirit the affair is sure to be a great success.

There may be some whose duties are such that they cannot give any time to it, but they can assist with donations for the various booths. There will be booths for the sale of groceries, toilet articles, refreshments, confectionery, tobacco and cigars. There will also be many expenses connected with erection of booths, music, printing, etc., etc. Contributions of merchandise may be sent to the chairmen of the various committees, and money contributions to Mr. George M. Colesworthy, treasurer Narberth Civic Association.

LOANS TO OUR ALLIES

An additional credit of $400,000,000 was made by the United States Treasury to Great Britain on August 30. This brings the total of credits to Great Britain to $3,725,000,000. The total advances to all of the entente allies now amounts to $7,092,040,000.

CONVERSION OF LIBERTY BONDS

The privilege of conversion which arose in consequence of the issue of 4 per cent. bonds of the Third Liberty Loan will expire on November 9 next and under existing law can not be extended or renewed. Delay in exercising the privilege will result in overburdening the banking institutions of the country and the Treasury Department by making it necessary to handle all conversions at the last moment and may result in many cases in the loss of the privilege of conversion altogether.

Holders of coupon bonds are strongly advised to exchange them for registered bonds in order to protect themselves against the risk of loss, theft, and destruction of their bonds. The banks throughout the country, as a matter of patriotic service, will doubtless all assist bondholders in converting and registering their bonds.

OUR BANK SAVINGS SAFE UNLESS GERMANY WINS

There seems to have been a very insidious propaganda carried on, obviously by secret agents of Germany, to the effect that savings banks deposits are to be confiscated. It is difficult to believe that any person in America would credit such a report for an instant. Secretary McAdoo says that the absurdity of these statements is manifest, but in order to allay the fears of a few who might be alarmed by such reports, he repeats officially that these rumors are wholly baseless.

There is but one thing that will in the least put in danger of confiscation the savings of the American people, whether deposited in savings banks or other banks or invested in Liberty Bonds or any other investments, and that one thing is a German victory. It is not the American Government that our people should fear, but the German Government and with the American soldiers fighting as they are in France and the American people supporting their government as they are in America, the American people their liberties, their rights, and their savings are safe.

The United States instead of confiscating or endangering the savings and other property of its people is defending them and theirs with all the irresistible might of this invincible Republic.

To the Editor of Our Town:

As the Main Line is not represented by any data in the bulletins of the Weather Bureau at Philadelphia, I have been endeavoring to remedy same.

The enclosed copy of a letter from Mr. Bliss, of the bureau in Philadelphia, will show you how the matter stands.

I hope it will result in a permanent use of data from Narberth, for the minimum temperatures I obtain are often very much lower than those observed by the bureau in Philadelphia, at times as much as 10 degrees lower.

Yours very truly,

CHARLES DECKER.

Copy of letter from Mr. George S. Bliss:

"I have your letter in which you kindly offer to keep records at Narberth and supply them for publication in our bulletins. I am sending some forms under separate cover for use in mailing the data to this office. I shall be pleased to compare the temperature records for September and October for the purpose of determining if a continuation of them will be of sufficient value to justify the establishment of a permanent station and the publication of the records."

MEETING OF GARDEN COMMITTEE OF PATRIOTIC FETE

At a meeting of the committee held at the home of H. R. Hillegas, chairman, it was decided that the final inspection of the gardens was to be made.

Narberth is divided in five districts and prizes are to be awarded in each district. The prize winners are to be announced on the 27th and 28th of this month, during the Narberth Patriotic Fete. Don't fail to keep your garden and grounds in good condition.

Cameron, 112 Essex avenue, Narberth.

A story written by Mary Roberts Rinehart is bound to contain an interesting collection of human beings "The Street of Seven Stars" to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday afternoon and evening is full of that quiet pathos and keen insight of life that has made Mrs. Rinehart one of the most famous writers. Doris Kenyon is very beautiful and acts the lighter moods of Harmony Wells, the young American girl, charmingly.

All those not having any babies to offer for the baby parade, September 28th, but wishing to help that feature of the Patriotic Fete along, will be helping "Uncle Sam," as well as the committee on the baby parade, if they will kindly donate Thrift Stamps or the wherewithal to purchase them for the prizes to the following ladies: Mrs. G. M. Colesworthy, Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. Royden Hunt, Miss Jeanette Turner and Mrs. C. T. Moore, chairman.

Manager Fred Walzer states that as soon as the Main Line baseball season is over there will be played a benefit series between the Narberth and Autocar Clubs, held for the benefit of Charles W. Kerwood, of Bryn Mawr, who is prisoner in a German camp. Red Cross work room in the Y. M. C. A. open every day from 9 until 5, except Saturdays and Sundays, also open Monday nights.

The total attendance at the Red Cross work room for the month of August was 425. This averages about ten workers at each session, as there are eleven sessions each week and four weeks in the month. Narberth has about 11,000 members of the Red Cross. If we estimate half of these to be girls and women who could do Red Cross work, we should have 500 workers each week or twice as many in a week as we had for the whole month, or an average of forty-five workers each session.

Can you conscientiously say you cannot spare a few hours each week, or are you a slacker? Although the attendance is small, the output for the month of August was as follows:

Surgical Dressings

210 No. 2 front line packets. Each packet containing 1 absorbent pad, 4 compresses, 1 drain and 4 tampons.

178 No. 3 front line packet. Each packet containing 1 large absorbent pad, 2 drains, 6 large compresses and 6 tampons.

AN EXPLANATION

New Y. M. C. A. Membership Rates on Fairer Basis

Many who glanced at the article in last week's paper announcing the fall and winter gymnasium classes and the new membership rates may not have read carefully enough to fully appreciate the value of the new rate schedule. For the benefit of all the readers of Our Town it was thought well to point out the many advantages and points of fairness in these new rates.

The most striking change is a revision downward. All women and girls will now pay $1.50 per year or 50 cents for three months, instead of $3 per year as originally charged. This is a much fairer rate for one gym period a week without locker or social privileges. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity. The physical privileges were opened to women and girls at their request and the directors expect a large response from them this year.

The rate for boys from 9 to 11 years, inclusive, remains at $3 per year, but includes a small locker for which they previously had to pay an additional 50 cents. The three-month rate for this class is $1. Instead of drawing the line between the $3 and $5 rate at 16 years as heretofore, all the high school years, that is from 12 to 17, inclusive, have been grouped under one rate, $4 per year or $1.50 for three months. As this charge includes the use of a locker it is only 50 cents additional for those under 16 years of age and is a reduction of $1.50 for those over 16 years of age.

Up to this time the men 18 years and over paid a membership fee of $5 per year, not including the use of a locker; 50 cents and $1.50 were the additional charges for a small and large locker, respectively. The new rate for the class is $6, including a small locker, a 50 cent increase. For those using a large locker, however, the rates are the same, as this extra privilege can be secured by paying an additional 50 cents per year. The three-month rate for men is $2.50.

Three-Month Trial Membership Should Be Popular

For the benefit of those who would like to investigate the privileges for a three-month period and also to help those boys earning their memberships by making it possible to pay in two installments the three-month rate has been established as noted in all classes. It works like this: If you pay the specified three-month rate for your class, let us assume you are 16 years old and pay $1.50, you can pay the $2.50 balance on your yearly rate of $4 any time within two months. This is called the sixty-day option plan and is used very successfully in the Philadelphia associations.

On Thursday, September 19, a conference will be held at the Acorn Club, 1618 Walnut street, to consider Federal amendment ratification plans, which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will present in person. The conference is open to all Suffragists. An interesting program, including a speaker on the woman's overseas hospitals will be given.

Twelve million women earning money in the United States. New York city already has 6000 women on its police force. Two million women farmers. A million and a half women in war industries—and yet—"woman's place is in the home," and they are not entitled to a vote. There are forty-five thousand women clerical workers in Washington, and yet the Senate keeps them waiting for the Federal amendment.

We will gladly send Our Town to your relative or friend in the army or navy, free. Every letter received from the boys in France expresses a desire to learn of local news.

W. M. WENTZ RESIGNS FROM COUNCIL

By Order of Director General McAdoo Affecting All Railroad Officers and Employees

Councilman Walton M. Wentz tendered his resignation on Monday night at Council meeting, which unfortunate circumstances prompting his action, no doubt, while a loss to our community, was necessary in accordance with the Director General's order. Mr. Wentz was publicity agent of the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburgh until August 1, at which he was assigned to the general manager's department as special agent.

September 9, 1918.

To the President and Members of the Borough Council, Narberth, Pa.:

Gentlemen—It is with deep regret that I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Borough Council of Narberth.

As you know, I am in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad and in order to comply with Director General McAdoo's general order No. 42, a copy of which was included in the report to the Committee on Highways and Sewers, the above action, on my part, is necessary.

Yours truly,

(Signed) W. M. WENTZ.

Chairman Committee on Highways and Sewers.

Have you a surplus supply of vegetables in your garden? If so, they will be greatly appreciated at the Holiday House. No amount is too small to send. Please leave them before noon, any day, on the back porch of 110 N. Essex avenue, the home of Mrs. Harry W. Derby.

It isn't necessary to explain why some men can keep their minds on small objects.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. William J. Kirkpatrick, better known as Bill Kirkpatrick, and remembered by all "the older residents" of the borough who were living in our midst at the time of the Narberth Historical Pageant, as the real Indian seen in these parts since the days of William Penn—

Well, in brief, Bill came back into his own last Saturday afternoon and won the singles championship in the annual tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association on the courts at Elmwood and Essex avenues.

Mr. Kirkpatrick was opposed by H. L. Philler, who had fought his way up to the finale by defeating several of the best players in the association. In the concluding match Mr. Philler played a hard, determined game, carrying each of the last two sets to deuce, and all but winning the third. Several times he returned shots that won marked applause from the spectators, but in the pinches Mr. Kirkpatrick outplayed him and carried off the honors. A glance at the score by points, with particular reference to those points scored by each player by placements, will tell better than words just how the match and championship were won. Philler scored in the three sets a total of 19 placements, while Kirkpatrick totaled 42. In other words, Kirkpatrick's quickness in perceiving every opportunity and his quickness and accuracy in whipping the ball to those parts of the court where Mr. Philler "wasn't" and couldn't get to in time to "render first aid," were the features of Mr. Kirkpatrick's playing that won him the match. The champion played in the best form that he has shown for several years.

Earlier in the week there were several other good matches. Mr. Philler defeated Walter Cowin, Sr., in two straight sets, but the first one, which went to a 14-12 score, was one of the hardest fought contests seen on the local courts in years. In the doubles tournament Messrs. Ross and Justice defeated Messrs. Loos and Dawson in two hotly contested sets.

Doubles Championship Match This Saturday

This victory for Ross and Justice put them in the finals which will be played this coming Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and every tennis fan in town who wants to see some real good, fast tennis should be on hand early. Mr. Justice is a veteran not only at tennis, but in playing in tournaments. His partner, Mr. Ross, is one of the best players in the club and with Mr. Grugan won the Fourth of July tournament. These two will be opposed by Messrs. Shaw and Warwick, both of whom have been playing a particularly strong game this season. Mr. Warwick is one of the most careful, eagle-eyed players on the local courts, while Mr. Shaw is known and respected by every member as a veritable demon on covering ground and returning the ball. It is said that on one occasion while playing on the Billcummercourt he ran all the way down to the first court, got a drink of water, borrowed the "makins" from your sporting editor, ran back to the second court and returned a ball that gave every promise of landing in Bert Simpson's tomato patch. So let this be due warning to Messrs. Justice and Ross that they needn't count on any points until they are down in black and white on Referee Hall's score sheet, and to the public in general that they will miss a rattling good game of tennis if they stay away from the courts this Saturday afternoon.

Mixed Doubles and Women's Matches

Last Saturday also saw the opening of the mixed doubles tournament and some very good tennis. Two matches were played, each going to three sets; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warwick winning over Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller Watts, and Mrs. A. T. Grugan and Mr. R. Ross defeating Mrs. W. I. Dothard and Mr. H. B. Loos. Other matches in the mixed doubles are being played this week, and the semi-finals will probably be played this Saturday.

The women's singles and doubles are also being played this week and it is possible that the semi-finals in one or both of these contests may be played Saturday.

The following are the drawings for the women's singles and doubles:

Singles, preliminary round: Miss Edith Humphreys vs. Mrs. Albert G. Stephenson; first round: Miss Marjorie Cowin vs. Mrs. C. L. Warwick; Miss Doris Von Culin, a bye; Miss Carrie Irwin vs. Miss Carroll Justice; Mrs. Alfred Miller Watts vs. Miss Bessie Miesen.

Doubles, first round: Mrs. A. T. Grugan and Miss Carroll Justice vs. Miss Doris Von Culin and Miss Marjorie Cowin; Mrs. A. M. Watts and Mrs. W. R. D. Hall vs. Miss Ruth Diamond and Miss Edith Humphreys; the Misses Chalfont vs. Mrs. W. I. Dothard and Miss Carrie Irwin; Mrs. Merritt Bond and partner vs. Miss Bessie Niesen and partner.

The summary of games played since Labor Day follows:

Men's singles, semi-finals: Philler defeated Cowin, 14-12, 6-0; Kirkpatrick defeated Warwick, 3-6, 6-1, 6-0. Finals: Kirkpatrick defeated Philler, 6-2, 7-5, 8-6.

Men's doubles, semi-finals: Rose and Justice defeated Loos and Dawson, 9-7, 6-4.

Men's consolation singles: Bailey defeated Thomas, 6-4, 6-3; Loos defeated Henderson, 6-1, 6-3; Watts won from Du Bree by default; Williams defeated W. R. D. Hall, 6-4, 6-3; Loos defeated Bailey, 5-2, 8-6; McKell defeated Watts, 11-9, 6-1; Williams defeated Loos, 6-4, 6-3.

Men's doubles consolation: McKell and Simpson won from Foote and Scanlon by default; Bailey and Harris defeated Henderson and R. O. Hall, 9-7, 6-2; McKell and Simpson defeated Thomas and Schulte, 6-3, 9-7.

Dixed doubles: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warwick defeated Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller Watts, 6-1, 1-6, 6-3; Mrs. T. A. Grugan and Mr. R. Ross defeated Mrs. W. Dothard and Mr. H. B. Loos, 7-5, 2-6, 7-5.

Tennis Notes

"We see by the papers"—"we" being the editorial "cam-u-flage" behind which the tennis reporter hides, that the way to gain notoriety and more or less dubious fame is to tie one's self away to the green clad hills of Vermont where your erstwhile neighbor's cows give milk that would make Montgomery County "grown" cream turn blue with envy, and cream that is unlike anything conceived by a local cow in the wildest flight of her bucolic fancy (louder!) when the annual tournament starts, and leave it to the well-known Bill & Bill News Bureau to report the tennis classic of the year. Well, perhaps such is fame, after all!

But just the same we regret to learn that during our absence Ponce Burkhardt, suffering from an enforced change of diet from "first-page-next-to-reading-matter" publicity every week to utter oblivion, lost 6 1/4 pounds. However, we are glad to announce that Ponce and his all-winter teammate and Christmas Day Champion Perry Redifer, have secured, at very low rates, a consignment of discarded wool-lined aviation jackets with ear muffs and pulse warmers attached, and are ready to receive applications for membership in the All-Winter Tennis Auxiliary which will play its opening games on the first snowy day after the fourth Saturday after the second full moon in November.

For the score by point report of last Saturday's final match in the singles championship, we are indebted to President and Referee W. R. D. Bill Hall.

If one of those aerial letter carriers had happened to pass over the courts last Saturday and had looked down during the big match, he certainly would have concluded that he was away off his course and was flying over the World's Series game—judging from the number of officials officiating. For there was Referee Bill Hall perched up on the "reviewing stand," Walter Shaw watching the south line, and Thorny Grugan and Jim Donnelly watching the north line.

The following committee has been selected to represent the Tennis Association of the Narberth Patriotic Fete: J. C. McKell, chairman; Henry Loos, Miller Burkhardt, Robert E. Pattison, A. M. Watts, and A. T. Grugan and W. R. D. Hall, ex-officio, representing the Board of Directors.

Haws is chairman of this committee, the other members being Miss May Smith, Henry M. R. Bowen and A. J. Loos. One of the committee has donated five gallons of best New Orleans molasses, and Mrs. Haws is planning to have a "candy pull" in the near future. LIEUTENANT HAROLD

D. SPEAKMAN

Narberth's First Hero Dies Fighting in France

The great conflict raging on the fields of Flanders and Picardy was brought very close to the people of Narberth when word came to the parents of Lieutenant Harold D. Speakman that he had met his death fighting bravely at the head of his company. Shortly after war was declared Lieutenant Speakman enlisted in the Medical Corps and went to Camp Hancock. Eager and willing in the discharge of his duties he showed a marked aptitude and was soon made a sergeant. The gravity of the great issues involved in the war weighed upon his heart and he wrote to his mother that he could not be satisfied until he had been transferred into an active combatant branch of the service where he could feel that he was personally fighting for his ideals. Accordingly, he secured a transfer to the infantry and became a member of the 112th Pennsylvania Regiment. His enthusiasm and zeal in his work in the infantry soon brought him to the favorable notice of his superiors, and when his regiment embarked for France he received a lieutenant's commission.

Lieutenant Speakman died as a soldier would wish to die, in the flame of battle with a cheer upon his lips. When the Germans were driven back from the Marne salient, the 112th Pennsylvania Regiment was in the thick of the fighting. The retreat of the Huns carried them to the Vesle River and the American troops were ordered to capture Fismes. In this little town one of the most bitter struggles of the war took place. For hours the battle raged with first the Germans and then the Americans holding the town. Our forces having been driven out, Lieutenant Speakman's company was sent forward in a final effort to capture the position. Lieutenant Speakman was charging at the head of his men when a German shell struck in the midst of a group of Americans, killing the lieutenant and several of his men instantly.

Harold D. Speakman made the great decision. He chose to serve the good to stand by his principles, to guard the sense of honor within his breast, and now he has died for his ideals. To those of us who knew him well his death is a keen personal bereavement. The glow of his spirit, the fidelity of his friendship, and the sincerity of his devotion to his home and loved ones will remain as an inspiration. The land of the lengthening shadow has enveloped him, but we shall cherish him in the green memory of our hearts.

Fletcher W. Stites.
