Wiki Loves Monuments – International Winners 2015 Calendar

"Imagine a world in which every single human can freely share the sum of all knowledge. That's our commitment."

(Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia founder)

Wiki Loves Monuments is an international photo competition around cultural heritage, organized by the volunteer community of Wikipedia, the world's largest on-line encyclopedia. Wikipedia and its sister projects, like Wikimedia Commons, are funded through voluntary donations and developed thanks to the involvement of thousands of volunteers from around the world.

This calendar is a great example of using and redistributing free-licensed photographs from Wikimedia Commons, a collection of almost 25 million media files. It features impressive images of cultural heritage monuments (heritage sites) that were chosen as the first 13 winners of the international finale of Wiki Loves Monuments 2014.

The contest was organized in 41 countries from all over the world, resulting in more than 320,000 pictures. All of the pictures, including those visible in this calendar, are free for further use, distribution and modification under the terms of Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike (CC-BY-SA) licenses (for full licenses, refer to: <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/3.0>, <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>).

We are very proud to see the vast interest expressed from all corners of the world in continuing the Wiki Loves Monuments competition. Our thanks go to all the volunteer organizers, participants and sponsors that helped make Wiki Loves Monuments 2014 happen.
