Things to come after the War.
Writer-HAGAMUCHI, Seiko

Gist- Conclusion comes first chapter, it refers, after the war, eternal peace in Orient and establishment of new Oriental culture.
v From second chapter tells the invasion by the people of Western Europ before the "Incident."
The yellow peril which H.G. Wells predicted in his "Things to Come"
means the expression made by Western Europeans of their own suspicion.
Behind the yellow peril", the "white peril" is hiding, and tells how to drive the "white peril" in order to lead the future ideal.
He concludes only way to solve this is the establishment of Great Familism among Japanese Nation.
