[By the brig Yolo at Philadelphia.]

Since our last, of 25th Oct., nothing of importance has been transacted in colonial produce. 1000 hhds brown sugar of Martinique, were sold last fall at the wholesome price of 3500 Bourbon do at 66 to 68 francs. It is reported that a purchase of that article to the amount of a million was made, but it was effected. 4000 cwt. refined sugar went off at 110f.

Cotton stands the same as before. Accounts and reports from our different manufacturers favourable, stating that
