Serial Number 78

4 July 1950

SUBJECT: Special Report on Illegal Possession of Arms

TO: Chief
Legal & Government Section
Chugoku Civil Affairs Region

This is to report on subject case detected by Yabase District Police.

1. Date of detection: 25 June1950.

2. Suspect: URAKI Sadaaki, 21, trainee at Kurayoshi Vocational Guidance Station for Woodworkers, domiciled at 575 Shimoise, Urayasu-cho, Tohaku-gun.

3. Arms seized: One (1) small old-type revolver.

4. Place of discovery: At suspect's own house.

5. Clue to discovery:

Mention was made regarding the illegal possession in depositions made by suspect's pal SUMIO Ki'ichi, who was arrested and examined on suspicion of fraudulence.

6. Summary of case:

He was a factory worker at Teikoku Sangyo K.K., Kaizuka City, Osaka Pref., in August, 1947. One evening he went to the seashore facing Kanebō Plant, same City, and found the revolver lying in the sand. He repaired the trigger and the spring at his lodgings. He brought it to his home in Tottori Prefecture in February, 1948. In this way the revolver has been in his possession without any authorization.
By the way, suspect was a notorious hooligan and was envied by his pals for his pistol.

7. Action taken:

Case transferred to Yabase Local Prosecutor's Office on June 27 as violation of the Ordinance Prohibiting the Possession of Firearms and other Weapons.

Present address: Same as above.

2. Firearms, etc. seized:

One (1) Browning, 53 rounds of ammunition.

3. Date of detection:

7 June 1950.

4. Clue to detection:

Suspect informed the police of her own violation.

5. Summary of case:

Her late husband was an officer of the former Japanese Army. Sometime in April, 1944, when he was serving with the Air Force Unit in Mukden, Manchuria, he sent a baggage by air mail to his elder brother YOSHIDA Toru, living at Agei, who put it in the lumber-room without unpacking it and then completely forgot the affair. Shorrtly before the War's end TANAKA was reassigned to Osaka Munitions Supervising Bureau.
They came back to Japan and were living in Amagasaki City, Hyogo Pref., when the husband died of pneumonia in April, 1946. Then the wife came back to her present address, and, on unpacking the baggage sent from Manchuria during war-time, found the revolver together with the finding to the police until 7 June 1950. the ammunition. However, she didn't report
