Coville Gains Three-hole Lead on Stein in Forenoon

VANCOUVER GOLFER ONE DOWN AT TURN RECOVERS AND WINS FOUR HOLES

Seattle Aspirant for B.C. Amateur Golf Championship Had Off-day With His Putter; Coville Doing Well With His Wooden Clubs; Large Crowd Follows Second Round This Afternoon at Colwood.

C. G. Coville, the young Vancouver golf star, was right on his game this morning and in the first eighteen holes of the final for the B.C. amateur golf championship gained a three-hole lead on Bon Stein, of Seattle. After luncheon at the Colwood Golf Club the pair started out on their second eighteen holes with one of the largest galleries ever seen on a local golf course, in close pursuit.

Stein was one up at the turn this morning, but on the way home lost his putting touch and Coville won four holes. Stein made the first nine in 39 while Coville had 34 for eight holes. Coville conceded the fifth hole to Stein. Coming home Stein took 45 while Coville had a 40.

On the first hole this morning both golfers had good drives. Stein was over the green with his second while Coville's approach rested on the edge of the bunker. They halved the hole with five.

Coville won the second hole with a 4. Stein requiring a 5. Stein had a poor drive, while Coville got a beauty straight down the centre.

MATCHED SQUARED

Stein squared the match on the third, sinking his fourth while Coville was taking a 5. Coville outdrove Stein, who, however, was lucky on his second shot which hit trees and dropped on to the green.

The fourth hole was halved, each getting a 4. Stein found a bunker with his tee shot but was well out with his second and dropped within nine feet of the pin. Coville's mashie shot dropped within ten feet of the hole and he took two putts.

Coville had to concede the fifth hole to Stein. The Vancouver player pushed his drive into the trees and was unable to play out. Stein was down in 5.

Stein outdrove Coville from the sixth tee and he placed a perfect second to the green. His putting was bad and he took a 5. Coville was short with his second and he failed to reach the green with his approach. He made a fine recovery and went down in 5.

School children are given first consideration, and school attendance in the last week has improved to a great extent through the efforts of the organization."

12,000 ARE IDLE

About 12,000 coal miners have been idle for more than five weeks as the result of a dispute with the British Empire Steel Corporation.

2,000 Bison to be Sent to Reserve in North Alberta

Edmonton, April 12.—With the building of two barges shortly at Waterways, first steps in the shipment of approximately 2,000 buffalo from the reserve at Wainwright, Alberta to a northern reserve will be underway.

The men who are to build the buffalo carriers left for the North to-day and expect to complete their job by May 10, when it is expected navigation will be open. Each barge will have a capacity of four cars, built to hold about 200 animals.

Under the plans already made, the buffalo are to be taken in between thirty and forty miles south of Fort Fitzgerald, where they will be turned loose to roam on an extensive reserve with their wild cousins, the wood bison.

CHINESE HERE HONOR LATE SUN YAT SEN

Memorial Parade and Service to Late Republican Chief

Simultaneously with demonstrations throughout China and Chinese communities abroad, 1,500 residents of the Chinese section here marched yesterday at a memorial parade in honor of the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first president of the Chinese Republic.

The parade, accompanied by bands of the Fifth Regiment and the 16th Canadian Scottish, wound its way about city streets for an hour and a half, bearing at its head a decorated float carrying a picture of the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen. The float was covered with a profusion of wreaths, donated by upwards of forty societies of the local Chinese community.

The float was attended by a body-guard of leading Chinese merchants of the city including G. B. Simon, president of the Nationalist League; Chew On, president of the Chinese Benevolent Association; Chan Yu San, editor of The New Republic; Su Yen, associate editor of The New Republic; Wong Ah Sing, who officiated at the memorial service to the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen; and Mr. Lou, president of the Nationalist League; Lew Chew, an official of the local Chinese community.

PRINCE OF WALES IS TO VISIT NIGERIA

Will Land at Harcourt Because Plague is Prevalent at Port of Lagos

Accra, Gold Coast, West Africa, 12.—After a busy Sunday the Prince of Wales started another day of ceremonies by receiving an address from the Legislature, which was read by the senior African member of the body. This member later presented a huge elephant tusk to the Prince.

Having received the Gold Coast legislators, the Prince went to the polo ground, where the crowds had gathered since dawn for the royal reception of native chiefs from the central province of the colony. The Prince is expected to leave for Lagos on April 15.

HEAVY FOGS OVER ENGLISH CHANNEL CAUSE ACCIDENTS

London, April 12.—The sudden hot weather this Easter tide has caused unusually dense fogs in the English Channel and all navigation is being carried on with the greatest difficulty. Several minor accidents are reported, as well as serious delay in the liner services.

SUNRISE SERVICE ATTRACTED GREAT MULTITUDE TO MOUNT TOLMIE

Part of the vast concourse that assembled at Mount Tolmie for Victoria's third successive Easter Sunrise Service, conducted by Dr. Clem Davies. When the picture was taken rain drops had begun to fall but within two minutes the threatened shower passed and the sun broke through the clouds. The service was attended by visitors from Vancouver, Seattle, Nanaimo and many outside points.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE AN IMPRESSIVE SPECTACLE SET IN OLYMPIAN GRANDEUR

Concourse of 8,000 People Took Part in Third Celebration of Victoria's Easter Sermon on the Mount; Spectacle Drew Visitors From Many Coast Cities.

Silhouetted against the dawn 8,000 people stood bareheaded at the foot of a radiant cross on the top of Mount Tolmie at the Easter Sunrise Service held yesterday at daybreak.

The spectacle, the third of its kind since the inception of the Mount Tolmie services, was enhanced by the natural grandeur of the scene at that hour of the day and was very impressive.

The vast concourse saw the sun rising in an eastern sky heavily screened in sombre rain clouds; watched its first faint rays shoot through the clouds, tinging their edges with silver; and viewed beyond the multicolored canopy of the dawn. Rain drops at the opening of the service gave promise of an April shower, but beyond that threat no rain fell.

The setting for the scene was one of Olympian splendor, a veritable amphitheatre chiselled by a master sculptor from ice-clad peaks. To the (Concluded on page 2)

BODY FOUND IDENTIFIED AS ARTHUR FRASER

Remains of Former Victoria Man Found in Capilano Canyon

Vancouver, April 13.—The mystery of the leap from Capilano cliffs into the river by an unknown man last Monday afternoon was cleared up at low water Sunday morning, when Capt. H. B. Banfield of 1929 Beach Avenue, Vancouver, discovered the body of Arthur N. Fraser lying in the shallows of the river about 300 yards above the suspension bridge over the river.

"That the body of the man was that of Mr. Fraser was indicated by papers found in his clothing, which included insurance forms, an automobile driver's license and other documents. The fact of his identity (Concluded on page 2)

DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE FALLS ILL AT HIS ESTATE IN IRELAND

Waterford, Ireland, April 13.—The Duke of Devonshire, former Governor-General of Canada, ex-officio and one of England's largest landed proprietors, had a seizure of illness yesterday while staying at Lismore Castle, his Irish estate near here. The duke spent a good night, however, and his condition to-day was declared to be satisfactory.

The Marquis of Hartington, eldest son and heir of the duke, is on his way here from Chatsworth, Derbyshire, one of the principal seats of the dukedom. The Duke is fifty-seven years old.

STEVENS LOOKING TO SEAT IN EAST WITH TORY LEADERSHIP IN VIEW, OTTAWA SUSPECTS

Ottawa, April 13.—Reports that H. H. Stevens, of Vancouver is about to desert the West and is angling for a seat in Toronto, a good old Tory stronghold, are giving western politicians at the Federal Capital plenty to talk about these days. Mr. Stevens is expected to deny any such intention as soon as the matter appears in print, but all the same it is generally believed here that he is contemplating a move.

Mr. Stevens' feverish activity on the platform in Eastern Canada seems to furnish body to the rumors about his future plans, and certainly there are excellent reasons for getting out of Vancouver. In the first place, the argumentative Vancouver member may have to get out of Vancouver whether he wants to or not—a possibility which is thoroughly recognized among Conservatives now since the proposal that Hon. J. H. King contest the Vancouver Centre seat. Secondly, if Mr. Stevens wants to (Concluded on page 2)

CANADIAN VESSELS WILL ASSIST MAJOR ZANNI IN FLIGHT ACROSS PACIFIC

Steamers Canada and Imbrecria Chartered by Patricio D. Murphy, Agent for Argentine Airman Who is Now Making Preparations to Take-off From Japan About May 1.

Major Pedro Zanni, the Argentine airman whose daring and courage has amazed the world of aviation, and whose attempts to circumnavigate the globe by air ended by a crash in the Orient, is now making final arrangements for the transpacific flight.

His intentions, as announced a short time ago, will bring him across the Pacific from Japan by way of the Aleutian Islands, and along the same course as that which the British aviator Stuart MacLaren, attempted to follow. Weather conditions are none of the best at this time of year, but Zanni expects to hop off from Japan about May 1.

TWO BOATS CHARTERED

It was stated here to-day that two small steamers, the Canada and the Imbrecria, belonging to the International Towing Company of Vancouver, will be chartered to assist in the Pacific crossing.

Patricio D. Murphy was expected in Victoria to-day from the mainland in connection with the arrangements for aiding the Argentine flyers in their attempt to fly across the Pacific.

ROUTE NEAR HERE

Major Zanni's plane, if the flight is successful, will come close to Victoria and will actually call at Vancouver.

The entire world of aviation is turning towards the Far East to watch the South American airman (Concluded on page 2)

BRIAND TO-MORROW IS TO ANNOUNCE IF HE CAN FORM CABINET FOR FRENCH NATION

Paris, April 13.—Ex-Premier Briand, asked by President Doumergue to form a cabinet, to-night informed the President he could not give a definite answer until to-morrow afternoon. He is awaiting the decision of the national council of the Socialist Party regarding that group's willingness to participate in the new government.

M. Briand went to the Elysee Palace to give an account of the results of his efforts to form his eighth cabinet, but made it clear he needed more time to consult with the various political groups. The Socialists hold the key to the situation and they do not appear inclined to help out any combination other than another Herriot cabinet. Their leading organ flatly declared this morning that the new ministry must be organized either by M. Herriot or by the opposition, saying that if the Left block should remain in power Herriot is its logical and only possible leader.

The Socialists are opposing M. Briand's efforts to form a new ministry, and are using passive resistance, which is showing its effectiveness in the request of Briand for more time.

UNCERTAINTY AHEAD

The impression in parliamentary circles is that M. Briand will finally decline the offer of the premiership, and that M. Painleve, President of the Chamber of Deputies, or Senator Rene Renoult will then be called upon to try to form a cabinet. The prediction is made in the Chamber lobbies that any new government formed by a coalition would be short-lived, and that M. Briand would again in a short time be asked to form a government.

PAINLEVE DECLINED

M. Briand, who has been the head of seven cabinets during his career, received President Doumergue's invitation yesterday. Previously, Mr. Doumergue had offered the premiership to M. Painleve, President of the Chamber of Deputies, but the latter begged to be excused.

home and presented him with a beautiful golden cross symbol with a neck chain as a mark of appreciation for his efforts and services in connection with the sunrise service on Mount Tolmie yesterday morning. move; but you could not persuade Ottawa generally that he has not turned his eyes to the East, that he has not been dazzled by the glamor of a seat in Toronto. B.H.

BODY IDENTIFIED

was confirmed later in the day by his widow, Mrs. Fraser. Mr. Fraser, who was employed by the Vancouver Insurance and Vessel Agency, of 725 Granville Street, appeared at the office in the usual way just one week ago. At luncheon time he left the office in the ordinary way, apparently for his midday meal, but failed to return.

Rifle Shooting

The Canadian Scottish held their second outdoor shoot on Saturday at Clover Point. The weather conditions were very trying, a cold wind blowing right across the range which made good shooting impossible. The top scores under these conditions are extremely creditable. The first few shoots of the season are mainly devoted to trying out new rifles and adjusting new sights so that scores are only a secondary consideration.

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Coville played beautifully at the seventh hole, his malleable ball dropping within eight feet of the pin. He holed out for a two. Stein took a 3 when his approach shot halted on the lip of the cup.

PACIFIC FLIGHT

make his attempt to conquer the Pacific and the perils that infest the northern seas and air. AWAY'S SIGNATURE For Vancouver, April 13.—According to Frank Gilkey, of the International Towing Company, negotiations have been pending for some time between his company and Pacifico-Murphy, representing the Argentine Government in the around-the-world flight of Pedro Zanni, for the chartering of two local tugs to be used in the laying of caches.

WOULD WELCOME STEVENS

Under the circumstances, nothing seems more natural than that Mr. Stevens would turn to Ontario. He is known widely and favorably among Ontario Conservatives and he is proving himself the keenest critic of the Opposition outside of Mr. Meighen himself. Ontario Conservatives would be glad to have Mr. Stevens with them.

COMMUNISTS' VIEWS SCORED BY LABOR CHIEF

"For the last forty years" Mr. Moore said, "the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has been the recognized authority to speak for the trade unionists of Canada on legislative matters. Poised in their attempts to capture the trade union movement through the Trades and Labor Congress, the Communists are now making a political Labor party the medium of propaganda for their policies. The resolution referred to is somewhat similar to one introduced by the Communist minority in past conventions of the Trades and Labor Congress, whereby they demanded severance of international affiliations in the trade union field and the setting up of a Canadian national autonomy. These policies, however, were overwhelmingly rejected by the organized workers," concluded Mr. Moore.

A STUDIOUS UNDERSTUDY

That Mr. Stevens is studiously understudying Mr. Meighen with the idea of taking his role as soon as the latter has left the stage is obvious to everyone. Undoubtedly it is obvious to Mr. Meighen himself. And the fact that Mr. Stevens has not been given a front bench in the House, being placed behind much less able men, has not prevented the Vancouver man from forging into the limelight. Looking over the Conservative in the House as they have developed since the last election Mr. Stevens appears to be the most likely successor to Mr. Meighen unless the latter can find someone else from the outside to take hold of his fortunes.

WHITE LABOR

Both took 5's on the twelfth. Stein drove too close to the tree on the right and his second hit an oak. Coville was weak on the green. Stein outdrove Coville from the thirteenth tee, but the latter won the hole to a 4 to Stein's 5. Stein hooked his drive from the fourteenth but made a splendid recovery from under the trees with his spoon. Coville sliced his second and putted poorly. Coville won the hole with a 5, Stein taking 6.

An Advertisement to Wives

Perhaps you don't want your husband to insure his life. The possibility of his dying suddenly seems too awful to think about. And getting money as a result of such a tragedy offends your conscience.

Well now, do you know two widows, one left comfortably provided for by life insurance money and another left destitute? If so, ask them what they think of life insurance?

If what they say leads you to believe in life insurance—as we know it will—ask for our free booklet "Her Way Out." It will tell you about an Imperial Life Policy in which your husband can invest a few dollars each year. Then if he should die we will pay to you as long as you live—regularly—each month—a certain amount of money to keep you and the little ones from want.

As life assurance can only be obtained while one is in good health, you should write for the booklet to-day. There is no obligation involved.

Fleming had charge of the arrangements. Several short speeches were made, including one by C. P. W. Schwengers, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

FISHING
Major Rattray referred to the Cowichan River which, he says, has a fishing season of ten months in the year. It is not unusual anywhere to find a stream which gives more than five months fishing—and sometimes only two months. The fishing in this river has not improved, however, in spite of the efforts of the Fisheries Department. He outlined what had been done in this regard in New Zealand.

FARMERS OF SOOKE DISCUSS FALL FAIR

Also Hear Interesting Lecture By Poultry Expert

Special to The Times
Sooke, April 12.—A musical service was held at Holy Trinity Church on Good Friday, at which the choir sang "The Crucifixion" by Miss Dawson, Mr. Elwood, Dr. Felton, Mr. Comely and Mr. Felton.

The members of the Farmers' Institute met on Thursday at Paradise Inn, to discuss the business of the fall fair, of which Mr. Taylor is managing director. He reported the programmes had already been drawn up; that Colwood, Matchosin, East Sooke and other outlying districts had been communicated with, also the Farmers' Institute at Matchosin had passed a resolution that, if the fair was to be held on the Sooke committee. As this had been already formed it could not be rescinded, so it was put to the vote, and Mr. Taylor was then authorized to select any other members he wished to work with him. After the business had been discussed, Mr. Terry, Governor of the fair, gave a very good and helpful address. He would encourage no one to plunge into the chicken industry, unless they fully understood conditions, requirements, etc., and could carry things out scientifically, otherwise they would be unable to make a success of it. He then spoke on natural and artificial incubation.

Mr. Buckley, the president, asked for a vote of thanks, and Mr. Kothout, the secretary, spoke a few words. The members then were Dr. Calvert, Miss Calvert, Mrs. Raymond, Messrs. Welch, Campbell, Dobson, V. Richardson, C. Richardson, E. Trout, Dr. Felton, Capt. and Mrs. Roberson, Mrs. Clements, Capt. French.

Most of the music was donated, and the sum of $50 was realized. A delicious supper was served, arrangements for which were in the capable hands of Mrs. Dave Murray.

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. By Howard R. Garis

SKIRTS AT EASTER PARADE SHORTER

New York April 12.—New York went through its annual Spring greeting yesterday throughout the golden hours of a climatically made-order Easter Sunday. The Easter crowd—it was the largest in years—literally filled Fifth Avenue from building line to building line.

Probably the day's greatest surprise in the fashion way of speaking, was the absence from Fifth Avenue of the extremely short skirt that the mode makers have been predicting. All of the skirts, with rare exceptions, extended some inches below the knees.

For Church House Funds.—A military 500 party will be held in the assembly hall, St. Paul and Military Garrison Church, Esquimalt, on April 17 at 8.15. This will be the first of a series of entertainments which is being arranged by the parish hall committee to raise the sum of $150 to meet the outstanding bill for the completion of the alterations made last year to the church house. If this sum is forthcoming by July it is rumored that a generous friend will pay off the remainder of the loan to the Synod, amounting to $150, thus clearing up all liabilities. The committee, therefore, feels that the parish will respond in the usual generous way, and put over this drive for $150.

PEARL FISHERIES SETTING FOR DRAMATIC STORY NOW SHOWING AT THE CAPITOL

Aileen Pringle in "A Thief in Paradise" Has Colorful Role in Screen Adaption From Leonard Merrick Story, "The Worldlings."

If you like romance and pictorial beauty in your screen entertainment, don't miss George Fitzmaurice's "A Thief in Paradise," being offered at the Capitol Theatre this week by First National. The story, an adaptation by Frances Marion of Leonard Merrick's novel "The Worldlings," opens with a vivid episode in the pearl fisheries of the China coast and progresses swiftly to San Francisco, Buflingame and Del Monte, Calif. It is the story of a man whom Fate has made a failure, and who seizes the opportunity to masquerade as another man in one last effort to regain his self-respect. His accomplice in the impersonation is an Eurasian girl, who falls in love with him and stops at nothing to win him, and eventually marries another in the role of the other man, he this situation are worked out to the limit. The story told against almost any background would be intensely gripping, but Fitzmaurice, with his usual love of lavish pictorial effects, has provided a wide variety of backgrounds and surroundings. There is an unusual polo game played by two teams of beauties and which marks the turning point in the story. A thrilling race of horses, episode and hand-to-hand fight on the floor of the sea which is ended by a man-eating shark are other ingredients which have been skillfully incorporated in the story. Acting honors go to Ronald Colman, the young actor recently signed by Samuel Goldwyn under a long term contract. He plays the role of Blake, the derelict who masquerades as another man. Doris Kenyon is the girl he loves and marries and Aileen Pringle gives a splendid characterization as the Eurasian girl. Splendid portrayals are also given by Claude Gillingwater, Alec Francis, John Patrick and the other members of the supporting cast.

Hincks' Offering "Robin Hood" at Coliseum Theatre

Popular Opera Will Be Staged With Added Comedy Features

To-night's bill at the Coliseum Theatre should prove of outstanding worth as Reginald Hincks has chosen as his vehicle one of the most popular of all English musical shows. Robin Hood has an appeal for old and young alike containing as it does all the elements that go to make up true show value. Every child knows the story by heart of the bold and honest woodsman who defying the drastic feudal laws of the period became one of the most outstanding figures in English history and every grown-up knows what beautiful music has formed the setting for this most popular of light operas. Of course the Hincks Company has added a feat of comedy as is their custom, but to those privileged few who have seen the rehearsals this addition has served to make the same better still. Ernie Welch is taking the part of Littlejohn and Robin Hood will be played by George Brydson while the well-known sheriff of Nottingham has been left to Bob Webb. Reginald Hincks will take the part of the Sheriff's secretary. Maid Marion will be in the person of Eva Hart while the part of Annabel has been allotted to Eileen Allwood.

ORGAN RECITAL

Another of the season's well-known organ recitals at St. John's Church, under the choirman and organist of the church, G. Jennings Burnett, is to take place this evening at 8 o'clock. The programme consists of six organ numbers among these being two works of the great organ composer, Liszt's Wely, the "Allegro Moderato" (by request) from Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony"; "In the Morning" and "Agnus Dei" from Grieg's "Peer Gynt Suite." Assisting in the programme are Mrs. Harry Briggs, dramatic soprano, who will sing "The Blind Ploverman" (Comingsley Clarke), Handel's recit and air, "Farewell ye Limpid Springs" and "Morning Hymn" (Hanschel); and Mrs. Christie King of Duncan, contralto, who will make her first appearance here on this occasion. She will sing the aria "Father of Heaven" from "Judas Macchabaeus" and two numbers by Wilfred Sanderson, "Easter Flowers" and "Beyond the Dawn."

ARBITRATION SCHEME FOR TRADE DISPUTES
Washington, April 13—Incorporation of an arbitration clause in all international commercial contracts is urged by the Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce as a result of its experience in handling trade disputes of the ninety-two controversies heard by the commission in the last two years. The international chamber has been informed that sixty-six were settled, twenty-three by mutual agreement, seven by conciliation, four by arbitration and two by an outside arbitration organization. The remainder of the cases were without result, the chamber was told, because in nearly every instance "an arbitration clause had not been inserted in the contract between the parties."

Her Wonderful Teeth

Remove the dingy film that's clouding yours and you'll be surprised that your teeth are just as white and charming as any one's—make this unique test.

HERE is a simple test that proves the truth that most of us have pretty teeth without ever knowing we have, or ever revealing it.

This is the reason: Run your tongue across your teeth, and you will feel a film. A film which absorbs discolorations and hides the natural color of your teeth.

Remove it and your teeth take on a new beauty. Maybe you have really beautiful teeth without realizing it.

Film is charged too with most tooth troubles. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Germs breed in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

So, besides loss of tooth beauty, film is a serious danger to healthy teeth. You must remove and constantly combat it. It is ever present, ever forming.

Old-time dentifrices were unable to combat it successfully. And tooth troubles were a serious problem.

Now modern science has discovered a new way. A new type tooth paste called Pepsodent that acts to curdle film, then harmlessly to remove it. No soap or chalk, no harsh grit dangerous to enamel.

Mail the coupon for a 10-day tube free. Or, buy a full size tube at any druggist's to-day. See what beauty lies beneath the film on your teeth.

J. H. Thomas Suggests Early Round Table Conference in United Kingdom

Truro, Eng. April 13.—J. H. Thomas, who was secretary for the Colonies in the late Labor Government, in a speech here Sunday advocated a round table conference of the leaders in all industries, the largest employers and representatives of the trades unions, in an effort to solve the unemployment problem. He was convinced failure to find a solution would mean national disaster. The economic fact was, he said, that in shipbuilding the British were unable to

Its members taking part in historic engagements at Sanctuary Wood, Vimy and the Somme. The battalion was broken up in France and went to reinforce Canadian battalions in the field. Following the silent tribute Major Stanley Okell proposed the toast "Our Absent Comrades," in a few well chosen words.

Major Aitken A. Gray of Vancouver, Reeve Robert Macnicol, Lieut. Charles L. Armstrong of Seattle, Major A. E. Christie, D.S.O., and Col. Lorne Ross spoke during the evening. Captain Bob Morrison led a very attractive musical programme aided by Messrs. Chevalier, J. Dobbie, Galger, J. Ramsay, A. Johnson, Watt, W. Wishart and others. # Stein and Coville Reach Finals in C. G. C. Torrey

Seattle and Vancouver Stars Playing Off For Title To-day

Spectacular Golf Seen at Colwood Golf Club Yesterday, Especially in Semi-finals; Harold Wilson Gave Coville, of Vancouver, Great Battle and Large Gallery Applauds Splendid Strokes of These Youthful Masters; Stein Continues His Bid for Championship With Two More Beautiful Rounds, Defeating A. V. Price, of Victoria, in Other Semi-final

After two spectacular semi-final matches which saw the elimination of a Victoria player and a former Victorian, and kept two of the biggest galleries ever seen on the local links—a tip toe with interest, the finals for the Bostock Cup, emblematic of the British Columbia Amateur Golf Championship, were yesterday left in the hands of Bon Stein, the redoubtable Seattle star, and C. G. Coville, the youthful hope of the Burnaby club. The battle for the title is being fought to the death to-day on the Colwood course and the form of both the finalists is so nearly matched as to leave the fans guessing, although the experience of the Seattle player is placing the odds in his favor.

Hundreds of golfers and near-golfers followed the match between Coville and Harold Wilson, of the Victoria Golf Club yesterday, the fact that it was the first appearance of either in a big tournament battle added zest to the game. The young Victoria player gave the Vancouver man a hard fight, taking him to the seventeenth green, where the match was settled with a 3 and 1 verdict in favor of the Burnaby golfer. Both players were more youths and their spectacular tee shots left their clubs with a crack which sounded sweet in the ears of the many veterans who followed their progress around the seventeenth holes.

GOOD WITH WOODEN CLUBS

Coville had some phenomenal shots, particularly with his wooden clubs, and on several greens found the hole with a long put which the gallery greeted with applause. His tee shots were in almost every instance matched by those of his opponent, but young Wilson found the bunkers yawning for his ball on several holes and these proved his Waterloo. The Vancouver player got a lead on the Oak Bay youth at the first hole, a 4 for Coville, but at the fourth—the water hole which has proved the grave of the hopes of many would-be champions—the local man got a beautiful 3 to his opponent's 4.

TRENDING DRIVES

Coville's tremendous drive on the long fifth hole was matched in length by Wilson's shot. Coville was away with a long drive, the ball on the line for the pin and not many yards from the green. But Wilson's second was pressed and a muffed ball ran into the bunker. After four attempts to get out, he poked up his ball and conceded the hole, making the Vancouver man 2 up. The bunker guard on the left of the green, which proved too much for the Oak Bay player and Coville, who landed in the same bunker, won the hole with a 4. A half on the winning 4, followed by a 4 for Coville, but on the eighth for Wilson, but his 5 on the ninth to Coville's 4 left him 3 down at the turn.

At the tenth Coville's inadvertent touching of his ball gave Wilson the hole and he also had to concede the eleventh after a terrific drive into the trees on the right, while the local man had a snapper right on the green which gave him an easy 2. This left Coville only 1 up and his missed putt on the twelfth made the match all square.

The bunker on the thirteenth received Wilson's drive and his third shot found a watery grave in the ditch giving an easy win to Coville, who at this hole made his only "topped" drive in the round. But it was at the fourteenth that phenomenal golf was seen when Coville, with a 44-yard drive to a 3 to his opponent's 4—a breath-taking twenty-foot putt nullifying Wilson's fine 4. A half at the fifteenth was followed by a half at the sixteenth with five apiece, bringing the result to dormy 2. Coville won the match on the seventeenth when another of his spectacular drives, perfect in form, gave him a 2 to his opponent's well-played 4, finishing the match.

STEIN CONQUERS HARGRAVE

Bon Stein's match with Jack Hargrave in the morning showed the former Victorian boy in excellent form and he took the Seattle man to the sixteenth, where the hard-fought match finished with 3 and 2 in favor of Stein. The match was notable by reason of the rather weak putting of both players, Stein taking three putts on the first, fifth and twelfth, while Hargrave was consistently short on the green until after the turn when he stood off down in his short game.

The first two holes were halved with 5 and 4 on the third Hargrave's second shot just landed on the lip of the ditch, the extra shot required giving him a 5 to Stein's 4. At the water hole both had a pretty drive, but on the long fifth Hargrave won with a 5, Stein's three putts on the green rolling him up to a 6 for this hole.

Both had long drives at the sixth but Hargrave's second found a resting place under the tree below the green and Stein's second, which was a fine recovery, helped him at this hole.

HARGRAVE RECOVERS WELL

The tricky green at the twelfth, exacted three putts from the Seattle man. Hargrave's winning with a 5, Stein's victory had seemed certain. Four each at the water hole

BON STEIN IS WARM IN PRAISE OF COLWOOD COURSE

"Nowhere in the whole of the Pacific Northwest is there a championship course in better condition at the present time. This is the verdict which Bon Stein, the brilliant young veteran from Seattle's golfers, rendered to a group of friends gathered after he had finished a fairly 'heavy day' on the magnificent course at Colwood yesterday.

"And let me say," said Bon Stein, "that to compare the course we have been playing on these last three days with that on which the successful event of 1922 was staged, you see, I usually have already said, a champion course is a 100 per cent better and I consider you have, as I have already said, a champion course in the way of general arrangement and highly enjoyable in the fullest sense of the term."

save them a half, both players finding the green in both the Seattle player putted for a 3 but missed owing to a chunk of mud on the ball. This was followed by a spectacular drive by Stein, who was a little short on his drive but brought the ball well up to the pin with his approach. Bon Stein's putt for a 2 went right to the very lip of the green, where Hargrave's pretty putt found the hole for a 3.

PRICE LOST TO STEIN

A. V. Price, a former Victoria and British Columbia champion, eliminated N. M. Scott of Montreal in the third round yesterday morning by 4 and 3 and in the afternoon teed off against Stein. Price lost this contest by 4-2, the match finishing on the sixteenth. Stein's excellent play on the green, the local man had an uncanny touch of his putter and in this manner kept close financial putting in Price called four favorable comments from Stein. Price was in great form in the morning when he defeated Scott.

FRANK PLAYS BERNIE

Frank Thomas and C. P. W. Schwengers, both of the Colwood Club, are playing off to-day in the final of the first flight. In the third round yesterday morning Thomas beat A. Bull of Vancouver, 2 and 1 and then eliminated Harold Haynes by 5 and 4 in the semi-finals. W. Mitchell beat G. A. Potter of Vancouver, 4 and 2 in the third round and then accounted for Ed McQuade by 3 and 1 in the semi-finals.

A. Christopher of the Macaulay Golf Club was the victor in the final of the second flight, defeating L. A. Dowie of Sunningdale, Eng. by 3 and 2. McCadden of the Shaughnessy Golf Club won the third flight, defeating H. P. Prevost of Cowichan at the nineteenth hole. W. Mitchell of Nanaimo went home with the prize for the fourth flight, defeating J. N. Findlay of Colwood, by 1 up.

Taylor and Hamber Beaten in Special Match at Oak Bay

Considerable interest was taken by the golfing public yesterday in a special thirty-six hole best ball match played at the Victoria Golf Club between Phil Taylor, pro at Oak Bay, and E. W. Hamber of Vancouver, and Dave Black, pro of the Shaughnessy Golf Club, and Norman Wittall, of Vancouver.

The end of the first eighteen holes found the golfers all square, and they kept together until the fifth hole in the afternoon, when Black's three gave him a lead. Wittall came through with a beautiful two on the sixth and won the hole, putting his side two up. Taylor and Hamber held on until the sixteenth, when Wittall again displayed some fine golf, winning the hole with a three and closing the match.

Black and Taylor each allowed the amateurs six strokes apiece and in the final round, Black and Taylor were the victors, Black winning by 1 stroke. Wittall, who excelled on the greens, while Wittall flashed some fine golf in the first in some good holes with a three and a two. Taylor was on his game and his partner Hamber was steady all day.

It is understood that a return match will be played in Vancouver in the near future.

Major Leagues To Open Long Baseball Season To-morrow

Montréal, April 13.—The New York Hockey Club was granted a franchise to play in the National Hockey League next season at the semi-annual meeting of that body held Saturday. T. P. Gorman, newly-elected manager of the New York Club, was elected director of the N.H.L., representing New York.

The admitting of the American organization has brought the league to a seven-team basis, and negotiations are now under way to bring the league to eight clubs.

Contrary to expectations the meeting did not consider the proposed new international pro league, fostered by Eddie Livingstone of Toronto, in connection with which Newey Lalonde's name was mentioned as the manager of the Montréal team to operate in the new league.

The league confirmed the action of the Hamilton Club-Caldor in suspending and firing the playing members of the team for their refusal to enter the final playoff games last month, the American March unless they were given 200 each for their services in the two-game series.

Uniform rules for hockey were discussed at length, the question arising out of action taken at the last annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association last month, the American March having approached the heads of both the N.H.L. and Western Canada League in the matter. A committee was appointed consisting of President Frank Calder, Art Ross, Leo Dandurand and Eddie Gerard. Gerard presented a plan to unify the hockey code so that it will be acceptable to both pro and amateurs.

The league also provides for the ice being divided into three areas as at present. The difference is that the length of the rink is to be increased from fifty feet, and instead of having the blue lines straight across the ice, he would extend them from the middle to a point along the board fifty feet from center ice. This would make the center or no-offside area twenty-five feet in length, and the two side areas on an imaginary line lengthways along the ice, but on the boards the line would be fifty feet, the line being V-shaped.

In connection with his scheme, Gerard also provides for an anti-defence rule, a change which he would like to see adopted these days. He would only allow the goalkeeper and two defense men between the blue line and the goal, and he would allow a player being allowed to fall back only as far as the point of the V.

Old Country Football Now in "Fierce" Stage

Great Battle on for Leadership in First and Second Divisions; Saturday's Games Fail to Shed Any Light on Outcome; Huddersfield, West Bromwich and Bolton Running Neck and Neck in First and Three Clubs Close Together in Second

London, April 13.—The struggle for leadership of the various leagues, for promotion into senior company is the case of the second and third divisions and against relegation from the higher to lower sections, has now reached the "fierce" stage, and all games played in the scheduled fixtures of the English football association now belong to the type where "friendship has long ceased."

Celtic Set Record By Beating Dundee In Cup Tie Finals

Saturday's Victory Eleventh For Club in Important Series; Won on Free Kicks

Glasgow, April 13 (Canadian Press Cable)—Two goals to one represented the score which the Glasgow Celtics stacked up against Dundee in Saturday's final game for the "Blue Ribbon" of Scottish soccer football, and in winning the Association Cup for the eleventh time Celtic set a record. Seventy-five thousand excited fans saw the annual classic.

The game on the whole was a fine display of scientific football. Forwards on each team combined well, and they had splendid opportunities to score. Celtic's international back, Clark, was running at the top of his form. Halliday worked his way down into the Celtic's territory on many occasions, but all his efforts were found himself faced with the sturdy international.

WON ON FREE KICKS

With this margin against them, Celtic entered the second half full of confidence. But, throughout the exciting minutes that ensued, they were unable to do much. It was not until about fifteen minutes from the end of the game that Celtic developed a free kick, which he slammed into the net. Play was full of thrills in the closing minutes, bringing the 75,000 cheering fans to their feet about four minutes from the final whistle. Celtic were again awarded another free kick. McCrory took it, and once again Celtic were unable to equalize, and had to accept their defeat after one of the most gallant losing fights they had ever put up.

Bill Johnston May Go to Wimbledon

New York, April 13.—Confirmation of a report from the Pacific Coast that William Johnston, former national champion, is arranging to compete in the Wimbledon tournament in London this year, is awaited by tennis officials in the East. Johnston's friends declare he is anxious to try conclusions again with Vincent Richards, at whose hands he suffered defeat last Summer in the East-West matches.

UPLANDS WINNERS

Louis Glasgow and Bert Aaronsen won the first two ball matches at the Uplands Golf Club yesterday with a gross score of 38. Their handicap of 19 gave them a net of 79. D. M. Gordon and C. Baker were second with a gross score of 100 and a net of 81 1/2.

WON U.S. HOCKEY TITLE

Pittsburg, April 13.—The Yellow Jackets, by their debut here last night of the Port Pitt Hornets, 2 to 1, for the second consecutive season won the United States Amateur Hockey League title. Both teams represent Pittsburg, the Yellow Jackets being the Western division representatives in the league and the Hornets the Eastern champions.

HEBREW LADIES WIN

Toronto, April 13.—Young Women's Hebrew Association basketball team are champions of the Ladies' Ontario Basketball Association by virtue of the 40-22 victory over Aleria here Saturday.

They won the round by 23 points. Esquimalt backs were unbeat and cleared everything that came their way. There was no further scoring, however, and at full time the game stood 1-1.

THE WINNING GOAL

Fifteen minutes' overtime was ordered each way, and a few minutes later Cumberland scored the winning goal, which was taken by Banerman. Conti secured the ball and shot over Nicoll's head into the net. Esquimalt tried hard for the equalizer, playing brilliant ball up to the last minute, but were unable to register, the game ending 2-1 in favor of Cumberland. By Cumberland's goal, Cumberland earned the right to meet St. Andrew's, of Vancouver, for the provincial championship.

Cross-word Puzzle 0226

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may of course begin both a horizontal and a vertical. The definitions for the correct words to fill the form are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the grid. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly it should read both horizontally and vertically, with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of to-day's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of The Times.

CHAPTER IX JUST LIKE A GIRL

"Let me take you up to the house." He was in the road, and had Bouth and the basket out of my arms in a moment. I could see the car plainly now, and Warner was at the wheel. "Warner is an idiot and a pair of slippers, over Heavens knows what Jack Bailey was not there. I got in, and we went slowly and painfully up to the house.

We did not talk. What we had to say was too important to commence there and, besides, it took all kinds of coaxing from both men to get the Dragon Fly up the last grade. Only when we had closed the front door and stood facing each other in the hall, did Halsey say anything. He slipped his strong young arms around my shoulders and turned me so I faced the light.

"Poor Aunt Ray!" he said gently. And I nearly wept again. "I—I must see Gertrude, too; we will have a three-cornered talk."

And then Gertrude herself came down the stairs. She had not been to bed, evidently; she still wore the white negligee she had worn earlier in the evening, and she limped somewhat. During her slow progress down the stairs I had time to notice one thing: Mr. Jamieson had said the woman who escaped from the cellar had worn no shoe on her right foot. Gertrude's right ankle was the one she had sprained!

The meeting between brother and sister was tense, but without tears. Halsey kissed her tenderly, and I noticed evidences of strain and anxiety in both young faces.

"Is everything right?" she asked. "Right as can be," with forced cheerfulness.

I lighted the living-room and we went in there. Only a half-hour before I had sat with Mr. Jamieson in that very room, listening while he overtly accused both Gertrude and "I saw it in the paper to-night for the first time," he was saying. "It knocked me dumb. When I think of this household of women, and a thing like that, occurring!"

Gertrude's face was still set and white. "That isn't all, Halsey," she said. "You and—Jack left almost at the time it happened. The detective here thinks that you—that we—know something about it."

"The devil he does!" Halsey's eyes were fairly starting from his head. "I beg your pardon, Aunt Ray, but—the fellow's a lunatic."

"Tell me everything, won't you, Halsey?" I begged. "Tell me where you went that night, or rather morning, and why you went as you did. This has been a terrible forty-eight hours for all of us."

He stood staring at me, and I could see the horror of the situation dawning in his face.

"I can't tell you where I went, Aunt Ray," he said, after a moment. "As to why, you will learn that soon enough. But Gertrude knows that Jack and I left the house before this thing—the horrible murder—occurred."

"Mr. Jamieson does not believe me," Gertrude said drearily. "Halsey, if the worst comes, if they should arrest you, you must—"

"I shall tell nothing," he said with a new sternness in his voice. "Aunt Ray, it was necessary for Jack and me to leave that night. I can not tell you why—just as. As to where we went, if I have to depend on that, as an alibi, I shall not tell. The whole thing is an absurdity, a trumped-up charge that can not possibly be serious."

"Has Mr. Bailey gone back to the city?" I demanded. "or to the club?"

"Neither," defiantly; "at the present moment I do not know where he is."

"Halsey," I asked gravely, leaning forward, "have you the slightest suspicion who killed Arnold Armstrong? The police think he was admitted from within, and that he was shot down from above, by some one on the circular staircase."

"I know nothing of it," he maintained; but I fancied I caught a sudden glance at Gertrude, a flash of something that died as it came.

As quietly, as calmly as I could, I went over the whole story, from the night Liddy and I had been alone up to the strange experience of Roale and her pursuer. The basket still stood on the table, a mute witness to this last mystifying occurrence.

"There is something else," I said hesitatingly, at the last. "Halsey, I have never told this even to Gertrude, but the morning after the crime, I found, in a tulip-bed, a revolver. It—it was yours, Halsey?"

"For an appreciable moment Halsey stared at me. Then he turned to Gertrude.

"My revolver, Trude!" he exclaimed. "Why, Jack took my revolver with him, didn't he?"

"Oh, for Heaven's sake don't say that," I implored. "The detective thinks possibly Jack Bailey came back, and—and the thing happened then."

"He didn't come back," Halsey said sternly. "Gertrude, when you brought down a revolver that night for Jack to take with him, what one did you bring? Mine?"

Gertrude was defiant now. "No. Yours was loaded, and I was afraid of what Jack—might do. I shot down from above, by some one or two. It was empty."

Halsey threw up both hands despairingly.

"If that isn't like a girl!" he said, "why didn't you do what I asked you to, Gertrude? You sent Bailey off with an empty gun, and throw mine in a tulip bed, of all places on earth! Mine was a thirty-eight caliber. The inquest will show, of course, that the bullet that killed Armstrong was a thirty-eight. Then where shall I be?"

"You forget," I broke in, "that I have the revolver, and that no one knows about it."

But Gertrude had risen angrily. "I can not stand it; it is always with me," she cried. "Halsey, I did not throw your revolver into the tulip bed. I think—you did it—yourself!"

They stared at each other across the big library table, with young eyes all at once hard, suspicious. And then Gertrude held out both hands to him appealingly.

"We must not," she said brokenly. "Just now, with so much at stake, it is shameful. I know you are as ignorant as I am. Make me believe it, Halsey."

Halsey soothed her as best he could; and the breach seemed healed. But long after I went to bed he sat down-stairs in the living-room alone, and I knew he was going over the case as he had learned it. Some things were clear to him that were dark to me. He knew, and Gertrude, too, why Jack Bailey and he had gone away that night, as they did. He knew where they had been for the last forty-eight hours, and why Jack Bailey had not returned with him. It seemed to me that without fuller confidence from both the children—they are always children to me—I should never be able to learn anything.

As I was finally getting ready for bed, Halsey came upstairs and knocked at my door. "When I had got into a negligee—I used to say wrapper before Gertrude came back from school—I let him in. He stood in the doorway a moment, and then he went into agonies of silent mirth. I sat down on the side of the bed and waited in severe silence for him to stop, but he only seemed to grow worse. When he had recovered he took me by the elbow and pulled me in front of the mirror.
