ALIENS: KOREAN RESIDENT COMPLAINS OF RAID BY JAPANESE POLICEMEN AND DISSOLUTION OF LEAGUE OF KOREANS RESIDING IN JAPAN

Writer, a Korean student, states:

"In our chapter, we have the 'JOSEIDOMEI' (Korean Democratic Women's League, List: XB-76), 'SEIKATSU KYODO KUMIAI' (生活協同組合 the Livelihood Cooperative Association), 'GAKUSEI DOMEI' (League of Korean Students in Japan, List: XB-76) and 'SHONENDAN' (少年團 the Boy-Scouts). I am a member of the Students' League. I was elected vice-chairman of the Students' League at the general meeting held on 13 September. Two days after 'CHOREN' (朝聯 the League of Koreans Residing in Japan, List:XBC-76) and three other groups were ordered dissolved, a people's general meeting was ceremoniously held under the auspices of the Women's League at our chapter office. When the members of 'MINSEI' (Korean Democratic Youth League in Japan, List: XBC-76) were writing posters after the meeting on that night, we heard the noise of trucks and found about thirty policemen lining up in front of our chapter office, to our surprise. Their leader sharply questioned the chairman of the League of Koreans Residing in Japan. Their action was just like that of the policemen in former imperialistic times, both in speech and behavior. They are traitors who are going to wage World War III induced by the YOSHIDA Cabinet."

ALIENS: BLOODY SCUFFLES BY TWO HUNDRED KOREANS AT IKEBUKURO, TOKYO, REPORTED; POLICE PROVES POWERLESS

Writer states:

"On 24 July I went to Ikebukuro (Toshima Ward, Tokyo) to see a cinema. And near the west entrance to Ikebukuro Station I saw many Koreans dancing in a house decorated with wreaths. Soon, about two hundred (200) Koreans began to quarrel. One (1) was cut and all of them had their shirts staind with blood. Some Japanese policemen arrived at the scene, but they could not even enter the house."

ALIENS: KOREAN RESIDENT IN JAPAN COMPLAINS OF OPPRESSION BY JAPANESE POLICE

Writer, a Korean, states:

"For some time after the war, we Korean residents in Japan received good treatment. However, as the Koreans disturbed the public peace and order by making trouble, the authorities of the Allied forces transferred the problem concerning the treatment of Koreans over to the Japanese Government. Since then, the Japanese policemen have oppressed our residents just as they did in former days. Consequently, there have arisen disputes between the police and Koreans and as a result, we have not been able to get the favor of the Occupation Forces.

"We have, so far, been maintaining our living by making wheat gluten or brewing shochu (Tx: a spirit distilled from sake). However, we have been strictly prohibited to do so by the Japanese police authorities and so our living is becoming harder day by day."

ALIENS: MOVEMENTS OF KOREAN RESIDENTS IN AMAGASAKI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE AGAINST POLICE CONTROL OVER ILLICIT DISTILLERS REPORTED

Writer, Hyogo (矢庫) Prefectural Police Troop Commander, sends a report on the results of the recent police control over Korean illicit distillers in Moribe (守部) block, Amagasaki (尼崎) City, and the resolution adopted at the mass meeting held by Korean residents on 13 Feb in celebration of the foundation of the Republic of North Korea. The report reads as follows:

"As the result of the recent police control over Korean illicit distillers in Moribe block, Amagasaki City, the representatives of the CHOREN (朝鮮民主青年同盟 ; Federation of Korean Residents in Japan), KENSEI (朝鮮建国促進青年同盟); Youth Alliance for Korean Foundation), and MINDAN (在日朝鮮人民団 ; Korean Residents Association in Japan), jointly requested the Procurator's Office and Amagasaki City Municipal Police to release the offenders and the confiscated articles; and some malcontents were in high spirits ready to lay violent hands on the police.

"On 11 Feb the ZAINICHI SENJIN TOSO IINKAI (在日闘争委員会 ; Korean Residents Struggle Committee) agitated

"On 11 Feb the ZAINICHI SENJIN TOSO IINKAI (在日鮮人闘争委員会 ; Korean Residents Struggle Committee) agitated Koreans in Moribe block by posting incentive bills against the police. On 13 Feb a mass meeting was held at the Amagasaki High School in celebration of the foundation of the Republic of North Korea at which the following resolution to be submitted to the Chief of Amagasaki City Municipal Police Station was adopted:

1. The Police shall not oppress Koreans who are resorting to minor blackmarketing for existence.

2. The confiscated articles shall be immediately released.

3. The offenders shall be immediately released.

4. Give Koreans work to enable them to live without resorting to blackmarketing.

5. Koreans shall be invested with all civil rights including franchise.

ALIENS: KOREAN RESIDENT IN KOBE CRITICIZES TREATMENT ACCORDED BY JAPANESE POLICE

Writer, a Korean, states:

"Hard living, in present day Japan, is oppressing us fellow-country men just as we experienced at the time of the Japanese Empire. The police authorities are dominating the general public, Koreans and Formosans with absolute power. Thus all the foreign nationals harbor anti-police sentiment at present."

ALIENS: KOREAN RESENTS ALLEGED OPPRESSION BY JAPANESE POLICE IN SHIMANE-KEN

Writer, a Korean, states:

"I think you are making every effort for our organization. (Ex: Unknown) As you know, here in Shimane-ken the Japanese police have oppressed us unlawfully, utterly disregarding stipulations in the Japanese Constitution. Hundreds of policemen, armed with revolvers and clubs, resorted to violence and arrested 24 of our countrymen (Koreans). Our compatriots of course became, indignant and rose to cope with these outrageous oppressions. The former Japanese Empire had colonized our country and enslaved us, leaving us hungry and cold. We survived through years of grief and resentment, but now Japanese Fascistic militarism has revived, and is again plotting to oppress us. Comrades! Let us fight for the independence of our race and for the protection of democracy."

ALIENS: ILLICIT DISTILLERS ARRESTED BY POLICE IN HYOGO-KEN

Osaka: This is the report received by the Osaka Police Forces Headquarters at 1000 hours on 9 February. At midnight of 8 February 1949, members of the Hyogo-National Rural Police Forces Headquarters and the taxation bureau officers, totalling one thousand one hundred eighty (1,180), met at the Koshien Baseball Park (EX: Hyogo-ken). At 0505 hours on 9 February 1949, they raided the Shube Village at Amagasaki-shi (EX: Hyogo-ken) which was rumored an illicit distilling village. They seized three hundred (300) barrels of DOBUROKU and SHOCHU (types of sake) from one hundred eighty (180) distilling houses and loaded them on seven (7) trucks. Among the Koreans who were raided in bed, some quarreled with policemen about the arrest warrants. At 0800 hours on 9 February 1949, eighty-seven (87) Koreans were arrested at the Kobe Police Station. Fortunately none of the policemen were injured, and arrests are being continued.

ALIENS: KOREAN IN JAPAN RESENTS OPPRESSIVE ATTITUDE OF JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

Writer, a Korean and addressee's younger brother, states:

"...In present day Japan, the majority of the Koreans are engaged in the illicit manufacturing of wheat-gluten and rice-wine and the others in blackmarketing. Under these circumstances, they are living under unhappy conditions. What is worse, the Japanese Government maintains strict surveillance over such offenders and sometimes makes a general round-up. Such being the case, a respectable life is quite impossible for them in this inflationary period. Although affairs concerning Koreans were formerly handled by the American Occupation Forces, the authority has been transferred to the Japanese Government. Taking advantage of this, the Japanese Government is oppressing the Koreans more than in pre-war days. In fact, it is exposing the true barbarianism of the Japanese people. Consequently, relations between the two nationalities are getting worse and the fights caused by police interference are daily occurrences. Judging from the present conditions, I think the majority of the Koreans will be obliged to return to their homeland in the near future..."
