Mr. Watson, Secretary.

New Orleans, 8th June, 1835—30.

NOTICE.—The public is informed that the partnership hereinafter existing between Ed. Lihue and A. Mar-ton was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 10th of June 1835.

Ed. Lihue is alone empowered to settle the accounts of the partnership.

He informs this opportunity to inform the public that he has recently, on his arrival in Bay St. Louis, re-opened the wharf, an establishment known by the appellation of Belair Hotel.

The advanced position of this hotel, its proximity to the landing place, is well known to require further explanation.

Miss Lihue, highly appreciated, by the great share she gives up to her business, and by the attention she paid to her visitors in all the public houses she has superintended as lately the Marine Hotel in New Orleans, will take charge of the internal department of the establishment.

Mr. Lihue will pleasure to give satisfaction to persons existing his hotel, when he pleases himself to find and comfort, cleanliness, and food and attention.

He has engaged a good French cook, transient and permanent boarders admitted, Table d'Hôte with wine, every meal.

JOHN DAVIS.

MARIGNY HOTEL.

The undersigned, inheritors of the said, and the public that on the 23d June, will be ready to receive in his establishment all persons who may favor, him with their visits, and receive boarders.

The 23d June, will be open to the public, with the superintendence of the establishment, a full description of its superintendence, but the subscriber thinks proper to post out to the public in many ways, and distance from New Orleans, and the Lake Pontchartrain.

Marigny is situated on a high and distant point of land, about one mile from the Lake Pontchartrain.

The ground is elevated about 12 or 13 feet above high water mark, and the party of the air excludes all contagious diseases. There is abundant fishing and plenty of game.

All provisions, wine, liquors &c. of the 1st quality, and no trouble will be spared to afford comfort and pleasure to visitors. To that end the subscriber has provided boats, pleasure-boats, and a small place for pedal-boats. Facilities for the convenience of visitors will be given to all who may desire to go to the lake.

Mr. Lihue will give to his passengers a change of clothing, and a place to sleep, and a place to eat.

For the time of starting of the boat, see the advertisement of the steamboat Delta.
