STRIKING POSTAL WORKERS WARNED BY GOVERNMENT TO BE ON DUTY BY TO-MORROW

Men in Eastern Canada Will Be Taken Back If Positions Available, States Hon Charles Stewart; Those Still On Strike After 8 a.m. To-morrow Will Find Service Entirely Closed To Them

Ottawa, June 20 (Canadian Press).—The Government will give the striking postal employees until 8 a.m., standard time, to-morrow, to return to work unconditionally, provided positions are available. After that time no striking employees will be re-employed in the postal service under any conditions.

CONTINUE AT WORK

Winnipeg, June 20.—Postal workers throughout the entire West are continuing at work to-day, and while local officials are in close touch with the executive officers in Eastern Canada there is no likelihood of the men of the western division going out on strike, it was learned in authoritative circles this morning.

ALL TRAINS MANNED Ottawa, June 20.—The rumored general walkout of railway mail clerks in Toronto and Quebec City failed to materialize and all mail trains leaving these cities this morning were manned, according to a statement issued by the Post Office Department shortly after noon to-day.

Hon. Charles Stewart, Acting Postmaster-General, said that all mail trains throughout Canada were now manned and that there was practically no strikes in this part of the system. An official communique issued from the department declared the strike is "petering out" according to telegraphic advices received.

MURDOCK'S ADVICE Ottawa, June 20.—Postal employees of Toronto and elsewhere who went on strike are advised by Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, to return to work at once "if they value their positions."

NO CHANGE OCCURRED On Wednesday, before you and your associates left Ottawa, you were given definitely to understand the position of the Government and no change whatever in that position can be considered. My advice to the former postal employees of Toronto and elsewhere who are on strike is that those who value their positions with the Government should return to work at once if their places have not been filled, the question at issue now is whether the striking postal workers or the Government is in control of the postal facilities of Canada.

AT WORK ON TRAINS Winnipeg, June 20.—The railway mail clerks in Western Canada are still on their runs, according to local officials of the Railway Mail Clerks' Association in Ottawa to-day on the long distance telephone and given permission to reinstatement all strikers who might present themselves for employment.

EVENTS SUMMARIZED Toronto, June 20.—The postal strike situation in the various centres is as follows: Still on strike in Toronto, Montreal, Windsor and Kitchener.

Strike ended in Hamilton, London, Quebec, Moncton, Kingston, Brantford, Three Rivers, St. Catharines, North Bay, Belleville, St. Thomas, Peterboro and Niagara Falls.

At Sault Ste. Marie the letter carriers are on strike but the postal clerks are at work.

REINSTATING MEN Montreal, June 20.—Victor Gaudet, postmaster of Montreal, was called from the Postmaster-General's Department in Ottawa to-day on the long distance telephone and given permission to reinstatement all strikers who might present themselves for employment.

Victoria postal workers, awaiting a lead from Vancouver, spoke to-day as though all the strike talk would blow over without a walkout in the Victoria office.

At a mass meeting of Vancouver postal workers last night action was postponed for forty-eight hours, and this is taken as an indication that there will be no strike in this city.

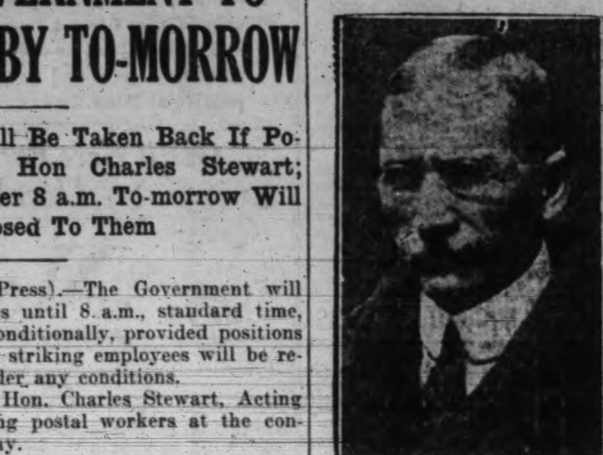

Postmaster Bishop takes a similar view but gives an assurance that in any event mail will be delivered. Volunteers have offered to fill the jobs of the postmen and clerks if a strike is declared and some have offered to serve without pay.

"If a strike is declared," he said, "I can give an assurance that the mail will be delivered but ask consideration from the public for any delays that may be created by the new workers."

MAY BLOW OVER I don't think there will be a strike," said W. E. McLean president of the Victoria branch of the Postal Clerks' Association. West of Ontario no offices have walked out. Our actions would be governed by Vancouver, and Vancouver's decision to postpone action forty-eight hours probably means they will be no walk out.

Although the Victoria postmen when the strike vote was taken voted in favor of a strike some of them take the view this morning that it would be impossible to strike while the postal clerks remained on duty. They

TO BE PREMIER OF SOUTH AFRICA; GEN. J. P. HERTZOG

VIOLENCE NOT PLAN OF GEN. HERTZOG

Prospective Premier of South Africa Calls For Racial Co-operation

Bloufontein, South Africa, June 20.—General J. M. B. Hertzog, the Nationalist leader, who is expected to form a Ministry in succession to the Smuts Cabinet as a result of the Nationalist-Labor victory in the general election in the Union of South Africa, addressed an open-air demonstration here to-day and in the course of his speech emphasized the necessity for co-operation between the two principal races which make up the population of the union—something which he had always worked, he declared. Although the pact between the coalition parties had formally ended on Tuesday with the election, he was convinced of their strong desire to continue co-operation.

For one thing, General Hertzog added, he could assure the people of South Africa they would no longer be "governed by violence."

Mr. Whelan will address a public meeting under the auspices of the local League of Nations Society on Monday evening at the Metropolitan Church and at 4 p.m. the same day in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

Big Sunday School Convention is Held Glasgow, June 20.—Los Angeles has entered the list of contenders for the 1925 convention of the World Sunday School Association and is receiving strong support among the different groups attending the sessions here.

The morning meeting to-day was devoted largely to the submission of official reports.

LITTLE PROSPECT OF POSTAL STRIKE; DELIVERY CERTAIN Vancouver's Decision May End Strike Talk in Victoria

New Staff Ready to Assure Deliveries, Postmaster Bishop States

British Squadron Will Make Port To-morrow

When the British Special Service Squadron arrives here to-morrow in the course of her world cruise, she will be greeted by thousands of enthusiastic citizens who have eagerly awaited her arrival, and by none will the opportunity to see the greatest battleship in the world be embraced more readily than by hundreds of school children, whose organized visit to H.M.S. Hood will take place to-morrow afternoon.

The fleet has visited ports in South Africa, East Africa, Ceylon, the Malay peninsula, and thence to Australia and New Zealand, crossing the Pacific by the Fiji Islands and Honolulu, the last named port being one of the few non-British ports at which the squadron has called since it steamed majestically down the English Channel last November on its mission of Empire.

It is notable among the many features of this great armada that she is in full commission, perhaps the first occasion in which the British Admiralty has done this, and while the white ensign has been shown by many detached squadrons in other parts of the world, it has remained until this date to equip the fleet not only with everything that makes for modern armament, but with a personnel of exceptional ability, many of whom have most enviable war records.

MAYOR'S WELCOME "Victoria welcomes you to Canadian waters." This was the wireless message of greeting sent out to Vice-Admiral Field to-day from Mayor Hayward.

OKLAHOMAN CHIEF OF ROTARY CLUBS

E. M. Hill of Oklahoma City Elected at International Convention in Toronto

Toronto, June 20.—Everett M. Hill of Oklahoma City, Okla., was to-day elected president of the Rotary International at the convention here to-day.

The place of next year's convention will be decided to-morrow and the first, second and third vice-presidents of the organization will be chosen.

The directors were chosen as follows: J. R. Buckley, Cleveland, Ohio; T. D. Davis, Butte, Mont.; Donald A. Adams, New Haven, Conn.; Paul S. King, Detroit, and J. E. Norman, Birmingham, Va. Alexander MacFarlane of Vancouver, B.C., was chosen Canadian director, and J. B. Taylor of London, Eng., British director. Rufus Shapin was re-elected treasurer.

The convention adjourned at 5 o'clock this afternoon and at 5 o'clock to-night the general farewell meeting will bring the gathering to a close.

The Boy's Community's Greatest Asset was the subject of the eloquent address by Hart I. Seely, of Waverley, N.Y., chairman of the international committee on boys' work.

NEW PROBLEM David I. McCahill, of Pittsburg, Pa., in his address on "Locating Our Assets and Liabilities," approached boy work from a different side from that usually selected. "The privileged boy at the present time presents a far greater problem than that of the under-privileged boy," said Mr. McCahill. "This is because he has not yet been recognized as a problem worthy of serious attention."

OFFICERS INSTALLED During the afternoon session reports from special assemblies were received and presentation of trophies made. Miscellaneous business and the installation of officers preceded the closing address by Rev. Canon Allen P. Shaftford of Montreal.

Democrats of U.S. May Nominate J. W. Davis as Presidential Candidate

New York, June 20.—With the increasing influx of delegates to attend the National Democratic Convention the political mathematicians are busily engaged in figuring the actual and potential strength of the competing candidates, completed as their task is by the arrival of favorite sons and dark horses in Candidates' Row.

Two separate movements to groom John W. The programme was announced to-day by E. H. Coleman, secretary of the Canadian Bar Association, outlined a series of social and business engagements from July 29 to July 30, including a garden party to be given by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace.

Victoria Liberals closed their election campaign last night with a meeting which jammed the Victoria Theatre to the doors while W. J. Bowser and Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leaders, were addressing a few scattered electors in the Alexandra Club and the Empress Hotel.

A small but noisy group of hecklers attempted to interrupt Premier Oliver and the other three Liberal candidates here but none of the speakers had any difficulty in completing his address. The Premier handled the hecklers in his usual style. Except for the organized group of hecklers—most of them apparently Provincial Party adherents—the meeting was enthusiastically behind the Liberal candidates, who were warmly applauded.

The Premier's closing speech summed up the situation facing the electorate at the polls. He stated that the Liberal candidates, who were warmly applauded.

SEARCH MADE FOR MISSING SAILORS

Three of Crew of Ss. Metagama Not Seen Since They Left in Small Boat

St. Johns, Nfld., June 20.—No trace has yet been found of the three men who went adrift from the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama in the fog shortly after her collision with the Italian steamship Clara Camus near Cape Race.

The U.S. coastguard cutter Tampa and other craft are still searching for the missing men, who set out from the ship in a small boat in an effort to discover the distance to the nearest shore.

The Metagama lies at the entrance to the drydock here, her bow being fastened to the deck pier, while she has an anchor out astern. The ship's pumps gained on the water last night, with the result that she floated in the shallow water over the mudflats.

St. Johns, Nfld., June 20.—A tale of panic among 790 passengers averted by the cool-headed action of the officers and stewards and of how the captain brought his virtually sinking ship safely into port nearly seventy miles from the scene of the accident was told when the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama arrived here last night after colliding off Cape Race with the Italian steamship Clara Camus in a dense fog.

Both vessels, with plates twisted, leaking and with pumps going, limped into this port more than eight hours after the collision.

METAGAMA HAD LIST The vessels made their way to port through a heavy fog off the New foundland coast. The Clara Camus crept in with her forward peak driven back to the forecastle, which by the force of the collision had sent the craft reeling. Further cooling was reported that, almost miraculously, loss of life had been averted in the crash, which stove in cabins on the Metagama which were temporarily empty of occupants.

BALLAST TANKS FILLED Cool-headed action on the part of the Metagama's officers averted a panic aboard the craft when the passengers rushed to the decks after the force of the collision had sent the craft reeling. Further cooling was reported that, almost miraculously, loss of life had been averted in the crash, which stove in cabins on the Metagama which were temporarily empty of occupants.

PLEDGE SUPPORT TO PREMIER MUSSOLINI

People Express Approval of Dealing With Kidnapping Case

Rome, June 20.—Giovanna Marinelli, former member of the directorate of the Fascist party, has been arrested in connection with the kidnapping and suspected slaying of Deputy Matteotti. He is charged with "having with other, sought to deprive Matteotti of his personal freedom." There is no evidence that the deputy has been murdered.

The semi-official, Student News Agency declares public opinion in ex-patriate Italy is in favor of the measures taken by the government in dealing with the affair and that great demonstrations have been held in many towns, pledging continued adhesion to Premier Mussolini.

ELECTORS ROLL UP BIG VOTE AS THREE PARTIES STRUGGLE FOR CONTROL OF LEGISLATURE

Early Reports Indicate Record-breaking Ballot in All Parts of Province; Crowds of Electors Tax Polls Here To Capacity; Oliver Votes Early and Awaits Outcome At Home, Tired by Long Campaign; Bowser Goes To Vancouver

British Columbia electors are deciding at the polls to-day whether they stand behind the Oliver Government and its fight for lower western transportation rates or not—probably the most vital decision they have ever made.

Presence of three parties in the election fight and the vigorous campaigns carried on by all, as well as interest in the beer plebiscite, will make to-day's vote one of the largest on record, according to reports received by leaders of all parties here to-day. In Victoria first voters arrived at the polls early and by noon the crowds at most polling stations were so large that election officials sent requests to Returning Officer W. P. Marchant for more ballots. Experienced officials predicted that the vote would be one of the heaviest in the history of Victoria.

An unexpected number of absentee ballots were cast. At the Armories, in Ward Five, where absentee voters were requested to vote, so many outsiders came to vote that they were forced to wait in line for some time. A number went away refusing to delay. The large throng of absentee voters was made up to a great extent of the race track followers from the mainline.

Many people found to-day that their names were duplicated on the voters' list, and that they could not vote on this account. Some of them hurried to the Court House to see the Registrar of Voters and secure a certificate which would have allowed them to vote, but no officials were present to assist them.

PREMIER VOTES EARLY

Premier voted the straight Liberal ticket early this morning. Then he went home to take his first rest since the campaign opened. Speaking on the telephone from his house he remarked that he had secured a little leisure after four strenuous weeks of speech-making and that he intended to enjoy to-day the anniversary of his wedding.

To-night he will hear the result of the election at the Liberal headquarters, where a telegraph instrument will receive the result of his confident prediction that the Government would be returned with a substantial working majority.

W. J. Bowser, leader of the Conservative Party, went to Vancouver last night to be with his constituents to-day.

PARTIES WORK HARD

The three party organizations have made vigorous efforts to-day to roll up a big vote, large fleets of automobiles being operated to take voters to the polls. Large crowds are expected to be seen at the polling stations after business hours to-night. Civil servants voted early to-day as the Parliament Buildings were closed for their convenience.

Results of the election will not be fully known until to-morrow it is expected. If the verdict is close the actual effort of the election on the Government may be under way to-night. The absentee vote may prove the deciding factor in many of the up-country ridings and men who fancy themselves clever at the polls may find later that the absentee voters have decided otherwise. Not for twenty-one days after polling day does the Electoral Commission open the absentee ballots to be opened, and ballots from remote parts of the Province may remain secret longer than that.

Party managers expect the absentee vote in this election to be heavier than in 1923 as the people generally are better educated now in the exercise of this privilege.

$10,000 DEMANDED BUT NO KIDNAPPING

Threatening Letter Was Received by Millionaire Father of Chicago Boy

Chicago, June 20.—Police guards were removed to-day from the home of Irvin H. Hartmann, millionaire furniture dealer, who on Wednesday received a special delivery letter demanding $10,000 under threat of kidnapping and injury or death of his son, Irvin Jr., ten years old.

The letter, apparently written by an uneducated person, was signed "The Big Ten," and was characterized by Chief of Detectives Michael Hughes as the work of "some fool."

FRANKS WITNESS

The Hartmann family lives in the fashionable South Side residential district just a block from the Franks family. It was young Hartmann who said he had seen an automobile drive up to the curb as the Franks boy walked along the street, and upon looking a few seconds later had seen the automobile driving away while the Franks boy had disappeared.

Leopold and Leok, the millionaire sons who confessed the kidnapping and killing of Franks, said in their confessions that they had recognized the Hartmann boy as a victim for a time.

The letter sent to Mr. Hartmann demanded that he secure the money in old bills, make up a package and go to a designated West Side corner and throw it over a high fence there.

It is now certain that the Nationalist Party will form a Cabinet, as it will be the largest group in the new Assembly. If the Nationalists are given the support of the Labor Party they will have a majority of more than twenty over the South African Party.

STRIKING POSTAL WORKERS WARNED TO RETURN TO DUTY

GREAT TASK IN TORONTO

Toronto, June 20.—The postal workers' strike this afternoon seems to be largely in Toronto and district. Very little mail of any kind has been moved in or out of Toronto since 5 p.m. on Wednesday last. A large corps of inexperienced help, under the direction of a few permanent employees who stayed on the job or returned to work, is trying to move the tremendous accumulation of mail matter at the terminal postoffice here. The counters are besieged by the messengers of local business houses trying to get their incoming mail out.

HELD A PARADE

Striking postal workers here held a parade this morning and the general executive meeting this afternoon to decide on further action. It is known the executive has been bombarded with many messages from districts outside of Toronto urging the strike be called off for the present. Much depends on the official news received as to the response of the railway mail service to the strike.

SERVICE MUST CONTINUE

Ottawa, June 20.—The mail service of Canada must move, I am going to take, as far as I can, every legitimate means to move it," So declared Hon. Charles Stewart, Acting Postmaster-General in the House shortly before dinner recess last night when questioned on the Government's plans in view of the strike of postal workers.

Mr. Stewart reviewed the negotiations of Wednesday closing with a Government offer to maintain the present rates for the lower paid men with the addition of a promise to review the whole situation after the revision of rates had been considered for the civil service as a whole.

GOVERNMENT'S DUTY

The Minister said his personal sympathy was strongly with Labor, but he felt it was the Government of Canada which must carry on business. (This statement was received with general applause in the Chamber.)

He said he had told the men's committee that while he sympathized with them until they declared a strike, after that he had exercised and was exercising all the ingenuity he possessed to carry on the service. As to whether the men who had gone out would be given their jobs back, he said that "while the light holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may return but that this could not be continued indefinitely. The mail service must be kept moving and he was going to take every legal means to move it.

Ottawa, June 20.—A rumor that an order had been issued to members of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees to refuse to handle mail during the course of the strike of the postal employees was denied by A. R. Mosher, president of the Brotherhood, who stated he had issued a suggestion to railway officials that railway employees should not be asked to act in the place of striking postal employees, or in other words, to act as strike-breakers.

BOMB CAUSED DEATHS OF FOUR IN CANTON, BUT MERLIN, FRENCH INDO-CHINA LEADER, NOT HURT

Hongkong, June 20.—The death list resulting from the attempt of an unknown Chinese to assassinate Governor-General Merlin of French Indo-China at a banquet in Canton last night now stands at four. H. G. Gerin, a silk merchant, died to-day of injuries received when the bomb exploded.

It has developed that the Governor-General probably owes his life to the fact that the would-be assassin mistook Gerin for him. Just as the soup was being served the banqueters the Chinese, who was armed, appeared and flung a black handbag containing the explosive at the end of the table where Gerin was seated. In a moment the dining-room had been reduced to a shambles, with bodies and wounded persons on the floor or in the case of one of the dead, still seated at the table.

Dr. Casablanca, Acting French Consul, had his left arm torn off. Two or three Chinese waiters were struck in the heads by flying fragments of the bomb.

JUMPED INTO RIVER

Alarmed by the explosion and the cries of the survivors, British and United States sailors and residents turned out immediately and hurried to the scene, the first contingents arriving in time to chase the bomber toward the river. He fired several shots at his pursuers before plunging into the stream where all trace of him was lost.

Resides Gerin those killed were: Acting French Consul Casablanca, Knight of the Legion of Honor, holder of the Croix de Guerre and director of the French Indo-China Hospital in Canton, M. Pelletier, and Mme. Demiritz.

NOTE FROM U.S. TO JAPAN MADE PUBLIC

Tokio Government Informed Exclusion Act Violated no U.S. Obligations

Power of Congress to Regulate Immigration Cannot Be Questioned

Tokio, June 20.—Disappointment and bitterness mark the editorials in the vernacular newspapers on the reply of the United States to the Japanese protest against the exclusion legislation of the United States Congress. The comment ranges between the restrained articles of the sober journals to the denunciation of the United States by the jingo papers.

The Asahi says the Japanese are not satisfied with the reply, which "evades the real issue, radical discrimination."

The Kokumin says: "The Japanese nation now expects the Government to reorient its foreign policy in view of Japan's altered international position as a result of the present situation."

LEFT UNSETTLED

The Yoruza says: "The only thing left is to leave the question thus unsettled."

The Jingoistic Yamato declares "the note is filled with sophistry from beginning to end. This injustice is intolerable. It is the duty of the Japanese people to fight it to the end."

The Jiji Shimpu-thinks the United States has merely wasted thousands of words. The reply, it says, is a complete disappointment to Japan. If the United States had been genuinely sincere she would not have indulged in empty theoretical arguments.

"A FALSE HEART"

The Chugal Shogyo calls the note sophistry. "An empty profession of friendship, it shows fine words but a false heart."

Under the heading, "Not a Real Reply," the Nichi Nichi says perhaps "it is better to drop the matter here since the reply shows that the United States will not really answer the real points raised by Japan."

FREE CHAUFFEUR OF MURDER ATTEMPT

Horace A. Greer Rearrested For Alleged Violation of Prohibition Law

Los Angeles, June 20.—Horace A. Greer, former chauffeur for Mabel Normand, screen actress, was acquitted late to-day in Superior Court, on a charge of assault with intent to murder Courtland S. Dines, Denver oil operator, only to be immediately rearrested for an alleged violation of the Wright Act, the state prohibition law.

The jury, composed of ten women and two men, had just finished reading its acquittal in the attempted murder case when police served Greer with a warrant in which he was accused of the alleged prohibition violation. The chauffeur was taken to the police station, where he will stand trial.

The liquor charge was brought against Greer two months ago, when police claimed they found whiskey during a raid of his rooming house. Greer protested the charge, saying that the liquor belonged to a man with whom he roomed.

SEARCH MADE FOR MISSING SAILORS

Thirty-degree list to port resulted in reducing the flow of water into the hold and made it possible for the pumps to keep up the unusual struggle until the liner was safely beached.

CREW PRAISED

Passengers highly praised the captain, officers and seamen for their handling of the situation as they found their way ashore. During the long race, one seaman, a skilled piper, provided music with a set of bagpipes, the ship's string band played continuously impromptu concerts and photographs were pressed into service on the vessel's tilted decks to help maintain the courage of those aboard. Although within a few hours of the collision other ships had offered aid, among them the steamship Rosalind, and all had been made ready for launching lifeboats and transferring passengers had the occasion required, the captain did not halt to attempt to transfer in the dense fog.

STORIES DIFFER

Stories somewhat at variance were told by the crew of the two steamships. The crew of the Clara Camus, a 4,400-ton vessel, said their ship had been stopped, owing to the dense fog, before the crash occurred. Her forepeak filled with water and she made for port, arriving at St. Johns a full hour ahead of the Metagama. She was running slowly through the fog about 9 o'clock in the morning, sounding her whistle every minute, when another craft crashed into her, then whistled thrice and backed away.

There was a sudden rush of passengers to the decks, but through the exertions of the stewards and officers, order was restored and measures taken to insure their safety. Boats were made ready and arrangements for transfer made when, hours later, other vessels reached the crippled ship.

PASSENGERS ANXIOUS

As the ship came to anchor in St. Johns harbor she appeared in a critical condition and passengers implored boats and tugs to take them off. But with time apparently too short for a safe transfer, the captain rushed the Metagama toward a shoal where she was beached on a mud bank.

The steamship Montreal arrived this forenoon to embark the passengers of the Metagama for Quebec.

LITTLE PROSPECT OF POSTAL STRIKE IN THIS CITY

realize that with the clerks on the job to sort the mail and prepare it for distribution the places could be filled without any great difficulty. The predictions of the president that the postmen would stand solid in the event of a strike here also regarded as optimistic. While he stated some were not members of the postmen's organization he anticipated that all would strike out if a strike were declared. This morning, however, it appeared probable that some would stay on the job. While some of the men received a reduction in their salary check under the new classification, others received an increase, especially the single men, and this would be a factor in preventing unity. All the staffs reported for work yesterday and this morning.

groups so as to secure the best possible legislation for Canada as a whole, the members assert those principles have been departed from, and that the present parliamentary organization of the Progressive group "tends to perpetuate the type of partyism" which the Progressive movement was started to protest against.

"Bearing in mind the fact that each constituency represented by us is autonomous in the nomination, election, financing and control of its member, it should be evident that it is impossible to secure our support for the formation of a political party organization on the old lines involving majority rule in caucus, whip domination, responsibility for leaders' statements and actions, and so forth," the letter continues.

DECLARED PARALYZING

"The effect, perhaps unconscious, to build a solid political party out of our group, has been distressing and paralyzing. The divergence of viewpoint has been so marked that it would seem in the best interests of the movement that we be left free from constraint to work for the cause independent of the present parliamentary organization. Such a course, we believe, would enable us to cooperate more harmoniously and freely with those who remain within the Progressive group and who are in agreement with us on particular issues."

"It is with a full realization of our duty to our constituents and for the purpose of preserving the virility and independence of the political movement of the organized farmers of Canada that we now feel it necessary to take such action as has been indicated."

ROTARIANS URGED TO FARMERS

F. O. Lowden, Illinois, Addresses Big International Convention in Toronto

Boys' Work of Rotary Organization is Growing, Report Shows

Toronto, June 20.—The several spasmodic movements toward general prosperity in the post-war years started when agricultural products had sufficiently advanced in price relatively, but the movement was hindered because prices of other products began to advance again, thus destroying the improved position of Illinois declared in an address at Rotary International Convention here to-day.

There can be no permanent general prosperity until the disproportion between the prices of farm products and services and other commodities and services are wiped out, he asserted, and how to "rid ourselves of this disparity" was the problem of all. "The disparity between prices of the things the farmer has to sell and the prices of those things he must buy is the main cause of placing agriculture in the hardest times it has had in the present lifetime of the generation," Mr. Lowden declared.

Mr. Lowden, speaking particularly of the United States, but I imagine they are not far different in Canada or in other countries where agriculture is still thought to be the basic industry. "When the depression of 1920 set in there was a large accumulation of goods of all kinds on hand, but industry, being highly organized, was able to resist more successfully than the farmers the pressure for lower prices. If the farmers are to put themselves upon terms of equality with the great industries they too must organize. Agriculturists now find themselves freely competing among themselves while obliged to sell their products in a highly organized industrial and commercial world.

MARKET PROBLEM
It is not desirable that farmers should imitate the great industries, adopt the corporate form of organization and operate their farms through corporate management. It would weaken our social structure. If our millions of farmers would surrender their individualism in this way, nor is it necessary. While much improved efficiency in production is still possible, the farmer has made constant progress in this respect. His most pressing problem is concerned with the marketing of his products at a price which will enable him to live and go on producing.

"On every hand we learn of farm abandonment. If we would avoid this ruin, the farmers must organize. Co-operative farm marketing associations are no longer an experiment. We have seen them employed with great success in their best estate.

Those who oppose the principle seem to think that in some way these associations are seeking to avoid the operation of the law of supply and demand. Quite the reverse is true. The purpose is not to defy the law but only to make that law serve the farmers fairly.

CO-OPERATION
"Co-ordination is possible only through co-operation. Co-operation is one of the watchwords of Rotary. You were among the first to recognize the interdependence of all business and industry. If now you were to become the instrument of effecting a complete co-ordination between the farms and business generally, it would be a mighty accomplishment for good. The farmers' difficulties can only be overcome promptly if the merchants, manufacturers, bankers and civic groups wholeheartedly cooperate with the farmers."

BOYS' WORK
Demonstration of the chief aim of Rotary—to fit individuals to function as members of existing agencies, organizations, etc.—rather than as Rotarians—was an outstanding feature of the convention programme to-day. This was particularly notable in the manner in which the international committee in charge of boys' work in functioning, according to Hart Seely of Waverly, New York, chairman of that committee.

"The handling of boys' work, inaugurated by Rotary in 1920, has already been turned over to a national committee in the United States and Chairman Seely reported that the International Board of Directors of Rotary has already authorized the calling of an international conference of boy work organizations which will meet in July to consider ways and means of meeting boy problems through their respective organizations.

ADDRESSES GIVEN
The Rotary idea, it was brought out, is to stimulate interest in boy work organizations among Rotarians, to have them join with existing agencies and encourage such agencies to function for the purpose for which they were organized. Bearing directly on the boy problem of the world, addresses were made by William Lewis Butcher of New York and David McCabill of Pittsburgh, Pa.

ESTIMATES FOR SHIPS ARE GIVEN APPROVAL

Commons Committee Endorses $700,000 Plans For Merchant Marine

Ottawa, June 20.—Eight grain steamers operated by the Government merchant marine made 107 trips, carrying 11,287,900 bushels of grain on the Great Lakes last season, Sir Henry Thornton told the House of Commons committee examining the Canadian National Railway and the Government Merchant Marine accounts yesterday. On these averages the earnings were $16,250 and operating expenses $567,261. A profit of $78,925 was shown. This figure did not include interest charges, said Sir Henry. The estimate of $700,000 for the Government Merchant Marine was approved by the committee.

IMMIGRATION ACT WILL BE AMENDED

Ship Lines to Transport Families of Men Deported From Canada

Ottawa, June 20.—A bill to amend the Immigration Act was introduced in the House of Commons by Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Immigration. The bill provides among other things that if the head of a family is to be deported the minister may require the transportation company to take back the man's family also free of charge.

Another amendment provided for giving free transportation in certain circumstances to immigration officials of the various provinces.

$200,000 VOTED FOR HALIFAX ELEVATOR

St. John M.P. Describes Hudson Bay Railway as Wild Scheme

Ottawa, June 20.—A verbal tilt in the House of Commons last night signaled the passing in committee of supply of a vote of $200,000 for a Government elevator at Halifax. John Evans, Progressive, Saskatoon, thought the British Columbia coast route was the logical one, especially for Winter traffic. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Conservative, St. John, N.B., said he was in favor of this elevator, and he dealt with the lack of sympathy in the West with other parts of Canada. It was time the two old parties, "the real parents of Canada," joined hands to save Canada from these modern depredations from the West, he said. If the House proposed to vote millions for a "mythical" railway to the North Pole, the Westerners would approve. He would wait until the Government had pushed a few inches farther by the Progressives and proposed to complete the Hudson Bay Railway before he formally registered his disapproval of "that wild scheme."

DEMOCRATS OF U.S. TO MEET JUNE 24

Balloting For Presidential Candidate May Begin Week From To-day

New York, June 20.—The tentative programme for the Democratic National Convention follows closely the schedule of procedure which has prevailed at previous national sessions of the party. Many leaders believe the convention will last ten or eleven days.

The first formal assembly of the 2,600 delegates and alternates in the main auditorium, Madison Square Garden, will be at noon of Tuesday, June 24.

Cordell Hull of Tennessee, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, will call the convention to order and a member of the New York City clergy will pronounce an invocation. Mr. Hull's introduction of the temporary chairman, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, will be followed by the Senator's keynote speech.

HYLAN TO SPEAK
Mayor John F. Hyland of New York will deliver an address formally welcoming the convention to this city, and adjournment will be taken, probably at about 3.30 p.m., until noon Wednesday.

The report of the committee on permanent organization will start

Farm Loan Policy In Ontario is Being Fully Investigated

Winnipeg, June 20.—A high wind accompanied by heavy showers blew across Winnipeg yesterday, but there was no sign of the cyclone which it was predicted by Minnesota weather officials might strike Manitoba "at any instant." Rain has been general in the province during the last two days and much benefit to the growing crops has resulted.

Toronto, June 20.—Thorough investigation into the soundness of its farm loan policy, which in two years has required $5,760,000 from the public funds, is being started by the Ontario Government. Valuers have been commissioned to appraise farm properties professingly worth $13,300,000, upon which the provincial advances have been made.

The Government has been influenced to adopt this course by the decline in farm value owing to the recent depression, this condition indicating there should be the fullest knowledge of the risks carried if the administrators of the loan policy are to avoid losses to the public during the next few years.

THE PEOPLE IN CHARGE

WHEN the leaders of the three parties laid away their political ammunition last night each one of them was fairly confident of victory.

Of course there is nothing particularly uncommon about a feeling of that sort. But today is the day upon which the people take full and complete charge of their own business and render a verdict from which there is no appeal.

As far as we are concerned we have seen no arguments advanced by either Conservative or Provincial which would persuade us to advise the people to change the Government.

Clean up the mess was their gentle hint—not required, of course, since Mr. Hart wanted no reminding of the difficulties of the task to which he had succeeded; but none the less this was about the size of the cold shoulder from the money markets.

What is the position to-day? British Columbia's bonds are on a par with those of the Dominion of Canada, sell better than those of most of the Provinces, and her credit is unassailable.

There are dozens of reasons why the record of the Oliver Government as a whole entitles it to a further term of useful work for British Columbia. It has to its credit a chapter of achievement, apart from the practical approval of the financial world, which obviously appeals to every progressive citizen.

Neither Mr. Bowser nor General McRae has filed a case or submitted a plea which would justify a break in the continuity of progressive government by the substitution of experiments.

AN UNECONOMIC PROPOSAL

FROM every conceivable point of view the people of this Province have been approached on the subject of beer. They have been told that the sale of this particular beverage by the glass will be another stride towards temperance because it will discourage the consumption of the more potent liquors.

Those who have a different opinion on the question have warned the elector that a vote for beer by the glass is a step towards a return of the bar with all its objectionable features.

It is a highly controversial subject. Opinion is undoubtedly divided and it is probably wise to give the people an opportunity of settling the question once and for all.

In our opinion the Liquor Control Act meets the case all round and still represents the attitude of mind which the people in majority exhibited in 1920.

From a purely economic standpoint we hold that the creation of new channels for the diversion of money which earns practically nothing of general benefit should be discouraged.

This reason alone, apart from a very important moral consideration, leads us to express the hope that the beer proposal will be decisively beaten everywhere.

FROM REBEL TO PREMIER

WITH only ten seats to be held from the defeat of the Smuts Government in South Africa is sufficiently decisive to promise a Cabinet headed by General Hertzog.

There will be a general feeling of regret throughout the Empire that an outstanding figure like General Smuts will now be compelled to relinquish the direction of public affairs in South Africa. On the other hand, of course, the result of the elections is not in the remotest way associated with Smuts the international statesman; his defeat at the polls was brought about by his Government's policy in respect of important local affairs about the disposition of which the Premier's actions from time to time have been viewed with growing hostility among elements of the population who would wholeheartedly support him in questions of Empire or international significance.

As matters have developed the course which General Hertzog will take looms up interestingly in the speculative field. Office now awaits him; but such power as he may desire to wield in the House of Assembly depends upon the manner in which nearly a score of Laborites use their votes.

The Nationalist-Labor pact, which has given Hertzog his following in sufficient volume to defeat General Smuts, will hold only as long as republicanism or other radical planks in the Nationalist platform shall be omitted from the legislative fare that may follow the assumption of office by the new Government.

Colonel Creswell, the leader of the Labor Party, put through his deal with Hertzog for the sole reason of overthrowing the Government; his most important condition was that the Nationalists should drop its secessionist movement.

Meanwhile, Nationalists in office, not forgetting Labor in Britain, will be quite different from Nationalists after the political scalp of General Smuts.

THE JACK TAR

LET us once more remind the people of Victoria how enjoyable they can make the visit of the men of the British Empire Squadron by just going a little bit out of their way with a cheery smile and greeting.

The officers find no difficulty in creating their own diversions; but the Jack Tars more often than not, by reason of their numbers alone, have to depend to a considerable extent upon amusements in "massed formation," as it were.

Victorians, of course, are hospitable to a degree. Our point is in the nature of a reminder that they "spread" themselves perhaps a little more than usual upon this unique occasion.

THE REAL PAYMASTER

FORESTS are jobs. Trees mean trade. Logs are the raw material, not of lumber or paper, but of pay cheques.

It is an incidental matter that the forest gives us telegraph poles. It is a very important matter that the forest gives us 120,000 workmen, supporting a half-million of Canadian dependents, and distributing 500 million dollars to maintain Canadian prosperity.

The Forest Protectionist would not sweat a drop for a square mile of spruce if he did not know that some vast industry, a thriving town and a thousand contented homes are tied to spruce trees by an inseparable bond.

We Canadians set 6,000 forest fires a year, and nine-tenths of them through human recklessness, but those beacon lights of prodigality mean nothing if they do not tell us that we have put the torch to the livelihood of thousands of men; we have signed an unrenounceable note for our children and our grandchildren to pay.

Let it be laid down as an ugly and undisturbable fact that in the present situation, with forest demand jammed hard against dwindling forest supply, every forest fire must be paid for.

Every mile of spruce or pine or fir given to the annual bonfire will have to be bought back by the next generation in higher costs of lumber and paper, in forfeited industries, in dwindling public revenues, and a sacrifice of population.

After the last of the political guns have boomed to-night those of the visiting squadron will find a clear range to-morrow.

It is fairly safe to say that Premier King has not been losing any sleep wondering how the vote on preferences in the British House of Commons would turn out.

General Smuts may be defeated at the moment; but it is fairly safe to say that he is one of the Prime Ministers who is capable of staging a "come back."

Victoria welcomes the delegates to the convention of the Dyers and Cleaners Association of the Pacific Northwest. What more appropriate body could come to British Columbia? Are not the highways and byways littered with political linen at this very moment?

Mr. Bowser says that eighty per cent. of the electorate is sure to vote Conservative to-day. General McRae's party is confidently expecting a landslide in its favor. Premier Oliver sees no reason why he should be in the least downhearted. One thing is certain, at any rate, somebody is going to be disappointed.

A BOOMERANG

Wheat is higher in Winnipeg than in Chicago. The 42 cent duty seems to be nothing but a boomerang.

NOT THE PRINCE THIS TIME

The King's horsemanship saved him from being thrown from his horse which became frisky when it heard the crowd cheer its royal master. Now, if it had been the Prince of Wales!

LIBERALISM AND EMPIRE

The attempt to represent Conservatism as the special guardian of the welfare of the Colonies is a travesty of the truth. As it was Liberalism that made the free union of the Empire possible, so to-day it is the conviction that lies based on trade preferences will break rather than bind the Empire that inspires Liberalism in its opposition to such arrangements. The Liberal Party faces to-day a Conservative Party unchanged in the principles which destroyed it at the general election.

Dr. Frank Crane On "Intimates You Have Never Met"

THERE'S the Pirate, for instance. Outside of a novel, not one in a million of you ever saw one.

And we are familiar with many persons we never met, never will meet. Did you ever see a miser? Honestly. A real miser?

We all know just how he looks—his shabby coat, his clawlike fingers eager to grasp gold and handle money bags, his greedy eyes, his bent form.

But its in books you saw him, or on the stage. You never saw him in flesh and blood.

And the King. He is as familiar as the grocer. You know him—crown, sceptre, robe, throne and all. If he were to walk into your room you would recognize him instantly. But you never saw one in your life.

And if you don't hurry you never will see one. They are thinning rapidly.

Of course, Millionaires are thick—theoretically. America is supposed to be full of them. They crowd the subway.

But as a matter of fact, and between us, and cross your heart, how many regular Millionaires do you see, know?

Of course, they are a plenty. But do you actually know one man who is worth a million dollars in real money?

You hate them naturally, these Millionaires. They are crowding us common folk off the earth. These ought to be a law against them, and all that.

Do you know me? And the Poet. You know him—long hair— Windsor tie—vaunt eyes—industrious mouth—and all that—but it is in print you know him. Are you acquainted with one honest-to-goodness-meat Poet?

There's the President, and the Vampire, and the Gambler, and the Society Leader, and the Beautiful Lady, and the Noted Author, and the Sea Captain, and the Equineaux, and the Bolshevik, and the Pope, and the Notorious Criminal, and the Great Artist, and Bill Hart and Ethel Barrymore.

Of course, some of you may know some of them. But isn't your world crowded with people you have never met?

How Hudson Came Under the Control of the French

THE English by the commission of Henry Hudson had discovered Hudson's Bay. The French, painfully traveling overland from Quebec, visited it once or twice in the years intervening before the English determined to make use of the discovery.

Then in 1670 the Hudson's Bay Company was formed in London at the instigation of Pierre Radisson and his kinsman Grosseillers, French-Canadian adventurers exasperated by treatment received at the hands of their Government. The profits were very large and the infant company established several stations on the Bay, the discovery of which infuriated the French, who had founded a rival company in Canada, the Compagnie du Nord.

The Governor of Canada, the Marquis de Denonville, moved by the representations of this company which had received a grant of Hudson's Bay from Louis XIV. of France, decided in the Spring of 1685 to root the English from the shores of the Bay. For this purpose he selected a number of the young men of New France as leaders and a body of resourceful militia and coureurs-de-bois with some regular soldiers. The whole numbered little less than one hundred and was commanded by the Chevalier de Troyes, a regular officer of the garrison at Quebec.

Under him served three young Canadian seigneurs, brothers of the famous fighting Lemoyne—Lemoyne d'Iberville, Lemoyne de Sainte-Helene and Lemoyne de Maricourt. The party left Montreal in March, tramping the frozen Ottawa to the Long Sault, thence onward by canoe to Lake Tamiacaming, from there by stream and portage to Lake Abitibi and down the arduous way to James Bay at the Hudson's Bay Company Fort Albany, where is now Moose Factory. This the French approached at night when the sixteen servants of the Company lay sleeping in profound security within their stockaded fort with its bastions and its cannon. It was the night of June 29, 1685. Lemoyne d'Iberville and his brother Saint-Pierre, in a canoe, with a few Canadian followers scaled the palisade in rear while de Troyes and the regulars rammed in the main gate. The onslaught was so sudden, so vigorous and so brief, that only one or two of the English had a chance to fight at all.

ONE hundred and twenty miles eastward along the shore lay the next Hudson's Bay station, Fort Rupert. Thither de Troyes led his party with so little delay that they arrived on the night of July 1. A captured English skiff transported two captured English guns by sea. The fifteen leaders sleeping unapprehensively in the block house redbout in the centre of the fort, had had no warning. The Chevalier de Troyes burst in the main gate. His men swarmed in, dropped bombs down the chimney, poked muskets in at the loopholes and fired at random, then set a mine beneath the walls and were in act to light the fuse when the English surrendered. Five were dead or wounded and one of these a woman.

While this was going on d'Iberville with his brother Maricourt and nine coureurs-de-bois had stolen out in canoes to the little English vessel anchored before the fort. The watch had calmly wrapped himself in a blanket and gone to sleep. He was too late to give an alarm. As he sprang up to fight they struck him down. Then d'Iberville stamped on the deck to wake the other fourteen of the crew. Running up the hatchway one man and then another fell with skull cleft through. The others barred themselves within the fore-castle. The mighty d'Iberville hurled himself against the door to tumble inside with his men, but in a furious melee, overpower the leaders and accept the surrender of the rest, including the Hudson's Bay Governor of the Bay.

Having razed Fort Rupert, the whole party proceeded again to Fort Hayes with its ships and prisoners. There was still a fort, however, the strongest, the English hands, the mouth of the Albany River, ninety miles westward along the coast. The garrison here numbered thirty, under Henry Sargent, and they knew of the capture of Fort Hayes. Before they realized it, nevertheless, the French were upon them. The leaders fled, the English were captured and English forts by night from the mouth of the Albany River, ninety miles westward along the coast, in excellent entrenchments, opened fire, and within an hour, pounded the defenses and the buildings into matchwood with a terrible bombardment from the English were forced to take shelter in the cellars. Here they surrendered when they were able to attract the attention of the besiegers.

BOVRIL COMPETITION

To the Editor:—In a letter received this morning from the secretary of the Veterans' Association, London, England, he announces that the winners of the Bovril competition will be made known at the end of this month. The delay in making the announcement is due to the magnitude of the competition.

Thanking you in anticipation. C. F. L. MONEY, Secretary Victoria Unit, Victoria, B. C., June 19, 1924.

MR. TWIGG'S "BILLS"

To the Editor:—A letter appearing in last night's issue of The Times is signed by Veteran, who apparently has not the courage to attach his name to statements which at the best are only half truths, and such, as is the case with the "Bills" mentioned in the letter. It is clear why the letter was written—to belittle Mr. Twigg in the eyes of the electors, and to bring into disrepute the splendid service he has done for ex-service men and their dependants.

As secretary at the time of the Royal Commission of the local pension committee I have an intimate knowledge of the work accomplished, the expenses incurred and the money received and expended.

Mr. Twigg was appointed member of the central committee in Vancouver and was appointed by that committee to organize the sub-office in Victoria to gather evidence to present before the Royal Commission. The Canadian Legion office was made the central office of all pension claims and the amount of work in preparing this evidence required a staff of a secretary and two assistants. Every case presented was dealt with personally by Mr. Twigg and taken down in full by the staff and then checked at the office of the C.C.R. A whole month was occupied in this work. As a member of the central committee Mr. Twigg attended its meetings on four different occasions, involving eight days in Vancouver and as this was considered a purely local expense the local ex-service organizations were expected to meet them.

Mr. Twigg, as secretary, and as a refutation of the statements contained in the letter of Veteran a statement of actual receipts and expenses follows:

Receipts—From central committee, Vancouver, to Mr. Twigg for out of pocket expenses, $47.75; office expenses, $50; hire of typewriter, $5; postage, $4.75. Total $107.50. From Federal Government, Mr. Twigg's expenses at sitting of Royal Commission, $54.50; donation, Army and Navy Veterans, $50; donation, Canadian Legion, $50; donation, Amalgamated Club, $25; donation, Tubercular Veterans, $10. Total $327.

Expenditure—Mr. Twigg, from central committee, $47.75; Mr. Twigg's expenses attending meetings at Vancouver, $190; typewriting Royal Commission reports, $50; postage, $4.75; Mr. Horn, secretary, $18; Mr. Adderley, assistant, $20; expenses of Army and Navy delegate to Vancouver, $20. Total $327. The statement submitted to the central committee by Mr. Twigg included no such figures as Veteran gives, only in one case is he correct, that of the hire of typewriter. The inference of the letter that all the sums he mentions were received from the central committee is entirely incorrect as the above statement proves.

It should further be stated that Mr. Twigg gave six weeks to this

Coal Best Wellington Nut $10.75 per ton Lump $11.25 per ton Victoria Fuel Co. Ltd. 1203 Broad St. Phone 1377 A. R. Graham E. M. Brown work, and it can readily be understood how much time was given to his personal business. Instead of unworthy and unwarranted criticism Mr. Twigg deserves the gratitude and admiration of all ex-service men. Attention is directed to the associations who contributed to the expenses, and one would like to ask Veteran to which one he belongs. H. P. THORPE, 1408 Douglas Street, Victoria, B.C.

BEER BY THE GLASS

To the Editor:—Every citizen in B.C. should be interested in the fight for better freight rates for this Province. British Columbia is not asking for special, but merely for equal consideration with the rest of the Dominion. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association, conceded some time ago that a fair estimate of the saving already secured is from $2,500,000 to $3,000,000. And Mr. Carvell stated that on the volume of business one year ago a complete wiping out of the mountain differential rates would mean a saving for B.C. of from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 a year.

We submit that attention should long ago have been paid to the booze business. The sales in the liquor stores from June 15, 1921, to March 31, 1924, amounted to $27,353,809. With the bootlegging that is going on this is not more than half of our liquor bill. B.C.'s drink bill is at least from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 a month. Mr. J. H. McLeod, chairman of the Liquor Control Board, stated before the Public Accounts Committee: "Of every $4 paid by a purchaser for liquor at a Government liquor store, $1.25 stays in the Province, $1 goes to Scotland, $1.67 goes to the Federal Government and 5 cents for transportation." This means that 69 cents of every $1 taken in a Government liquor store goes out of the Province and is no longer available to develop our resources or to carry on the business of the retail merchants.

The annual drain of our liquor bill on the finances of the Province is about six times greater than the amount that would be saved if differential freight rates were wiped out. Should beer by the glass be sold throughout British Columbia this proportion would be much larger and business men everywhere would find it more difficult to carry on.

It is proposed that we adopt the Quebec plan of handling liquors. The Montreal Presbytery on April 15 had this to say of conditions in Quebec: "On a mandate approving of beer and wine only, the Government, breaking faith completely with temperance reformers, established itself in the business of selling hard liquors and in eight months increased the sales 73 per cent. As a promoter of the use of intoxicating liquors the Government has been altogether too successful. As a means to eradicate great social evils and restrain a traffic that causes incalculable social disorder the Quebec liquor law is a lamentable and flagrant failure. For the consumption of liquors has increased beyond this startling record."

J. HUMPHRIES, Victoria, June 18, 1924.

Later advice from the Admiral Oriental liner President Jackson, Captain John Griffiths commanding, states that she will dock here next Friday with a passenger list of nearly 700.

The President Jackson, the advice states, has thirty passengers for debarcation at Victoria, 160 first class passengers for Seattle and 500 steerage passengers.

FINAL STEP TAKEN TOWARD BUILDING OF NEW TERMINAL

$4,000,000 Seattle Terminal Pacific Steamship Company to Start Soon

Seattle, June 19.—As the final step in its preparation for the construction of ocean shipping terminals in Seattle, costing $4,000,000 the newly-organized Pacific Steamship Terminal Company yesterday took over the waterfront area in front of the site selected for the large piers and warehouses which will be built at once.

The interest of Seattle shippers is our interest and we are going to see that they get a fair deal from the steamship companies, said a port commission statement. "The extra burden placed on our importers and exporters would give their competitors in San Francisco an unfair advantage."

EMPRESS OF CANADA TO CALL AT MANILA

Left Last Night For Orient With Many Passengers And Large Cargo

With the sailing of the Canadian Pacific Empress of Canada, Captain S. Robinson commanding, for the Orient and the Philippines last night, the C.P.R. assigned all its trans-Pacific liners to the Manila service, which was formerly on the liners' itinerary before business conditions in that territory led the steamship line to withdraw its service.

The resumption of this service has been the result of better business conditions and an appeal to the C.P.R., on the part of the Chamber of Commerce here. Following this appeal the company assigned the Empress of Russia and Asia to the Manila call, and which arrived from the Orient last Monday.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR MANAGERS OF GUESSING CONTEST

Police Declare B.C. Veterans' Competition to be Barefaced Confidence Game

Vancouver, June 20.—Vancouver police are still looking for two men against whom warrants have been issued following the closing down of the B. C. Veterans' Weekly. Alleging that the paper was in its columns conducting one of the most barefaced confidence games ever unearthed in this Province, the police are moving towards prosecution of the promoters of a scheme they charge has cheated the public out of probably more than $100,000 during the past year.

Two warrants have been issued, but the men against whom they are directed have not been found. The guessing contest on market fluctuations, which succeeded a similar contest of actual results and other sporting events, is as dead as a door-nail.

Giant Collegians Are Now the Best Weight-throwers

Club Athletes Are Put in Back Ground by Performances of College Boys

America Has Several Prominent Giants Who Heave a Mean Iron Ball

By ROBERT EDGREN

This year American giant collegians are going to make an important part of the American Olympic team. For the first time in athletic history the college men have supplanted the club athletes in weight throwing. In the old days it was thought that a weight thrower could be developed only after several years of practice. Former Olympic teams had club men for nearly all the weight throwing events. There was John Flanagan, Matt McGrath, Pat Ryan and Simon Gillies in the hammer throw, Martin Sheridan and Dearborn in the discus, Sheridan, McDonald and Rose in the shot, 300 pounds and others about 265, called themselves "the whales," and formed almost a closed corporation in weight throwing events. Rose started breaking long shot records at Michigan, but later became a club athlete.

To-day the "Whales" are nearly out of commission, and their place has been taken by college men. Modern coaching methods have developed many record breakers and champions even among freshmen and sophomores. Matt McGrath and Pat McDonald have slipped back from world's record form, and Pat Ryan has dropped out of competition. Flanagan is back in Ireland, and Rose and Sheridan are dead. Gillies is contracting and not throwing any more hammers. No new club athletes that class with these old time "Whales" have come up. The clubs are losing ground in amateur athletics, and the collegians are coming up tremendously year by year.

HARTRANFT IS STAR

Among the great college weight throwers the king to-day is Glenn Hartranft, of Stanford University. Hartranft is a sure record breaker with the shot, and a probable record breaker with the discus. Besides that he is one of the best all around athletes in the world. Hartranft is able to win the Pentathlon in the Olympics. He has run the high hurdles in fifteen and one-fifth. I have seen Hartranft, in one meet, win the hundred yard dash in ten seconds, the shot with forty-nine feet nine inches, the discus with 147 feet six inches, and run third in a fast twenty.

This year he has put the sixteen pound shot within half an inch of Ralph Rose's fifty foot world's record. In competition, and has recently done two feet better than that in practice. He has thrown the discus in competition 154 feet 4 1/2 inches, about a foot and a half shy of the world's record.

I think Hartranft the best built man I have ever seen in athletics. He is three and a half inches over six feet, weighs 210 pounds, yet is wiry in build, perfectly proportioned, and tremendously fast. As shown by his sprint and hurdle records. That speed, applied to weight throwing, is sure to make world's records.

HILLS SECOND TO HARTRANFT

Another exceptionally able collegian is Ralph Hills, of Princeton, a man as tall as Hartranft. Hills is roundly and smoothly built. He runs the high hurdles in sixteen seconds, and so has quite a turn of speed for a big man. He has recently put the shot forty-nine feet six inches in competition, and throws the hammer close to 160 feet. He also takes a mean whirl at the discus and does something with the javelin. Hills is close to Hartranft, although not quite up to the big Californian in consistent performance or in actual distance.

Gus Pope of Washington, former national champion with the discus, is a big former collegian. He stands close to six feet four, is sinewy and well built, and has specialized in discus; throwing for several years. Pope adopted Jim Duncan's trick of bringing the discus up behind his back, with bent arm, while turning, and finishing with a tremendous whip of the throwing arm. His throws have been consistently over 145 feet for three or four years, and his limit may be near or over the record. He is a seasoned and steady performer in competition.

TOOTELL A WHIZ

This brings us down to one of the greatest college athletes of them all, Fred Tootell, of Bowdoin, Intercollegiate champion and holder of the record of 181 feet 6 1/2 inches—unless he beats it again before the time of writing this and going to print. Tootell is likely to smite Pat Ryan's world record any time he throws. Only two weeks ago, in a small competition up in Maine, where unfortunately conditions were not quite "official" in the judging and ground

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Hon. J. I. Tarte and Sir Sanford Fleming have been appointed commissioners to go to England and attend the conference regarding the Pacific cable.

D.G.S. Quadra left port about eight o'clock this morning, having on board the editors of the city papers, bound to Port Townsend, where they will meet the Western Canada Press Association members. The party will arrive here to-day and stay all day to-morrow.

survey, he threw the big sixteen pound hammer a few inches over 200 feet.

Tootell is a Maine farmer boy. He knew nothing about athletics until he entered Bowdoin three years ago. The moment Coach Johnny Magee saw him he recognized talent. Magee took Tootell out on the field and gave him a hammer, and the first awkward heave showed such strength and willingness to try that he put the big fellow right to work and showed him the tricks of hammer-throwing, which requires a world of speed and skill as well as strength. In a short time Tootell was throwing far with a wildness of direction that promised trouble. On one occasion Freddy made six throws in six different directions. The last, it is said, went over the fence bordering the athletic field, and killed a farmer's dog, whereupon the irate farmer seized the hammer, put it into his wagon, and drove off at a gallop.

Within Five Years C.N.R. Property in Paris Can be Sold at Good Profit

Ottawa, June 20.—A week previous to signing of the contract with Mr. Aronovitch, who acted for the Canadian National Railways in the purchase of the Scribe Hotel in Paris, Sir Henry Thornton discussed informally with the Prime Minister the general intention of procuring property in Paris, the president of the Canadian National Railways told the House of Commons committee examining the accounts of the National lines to-day. Sir Henry Thornton, under examination by Sir Henry Drayton, said that the Prime Minister saw no objection to the plan.

Sir Henry Drayton asked if the Canadian National Railways president was aware of charges in the French press that something was "wrong" and mysterious about the Scribe Hotel deal? Sir Henry Thornton said he knew of them.

CUSTOM TO BLACKMAIL

There were, he said, certain co-called newspapers in Paris that consisted of an enterprising individual and a typewriter. It was customary for these persons to endeavor to blackmail reputable business men. One of these papers had published a "scurrilous article trying to goad us into paying blackmail."

The Canadian National was advised by counsel in Paris to pay no attention to the attack.

Under examination Sir Henry stated that recently inquiries had been received asking if the Canadian National Railways would accept forty million francs plus free office rent for the railway for the Scribe building. It was safe to assume that within five years the property could be sold for a great deal more than the purchase price.

Sir Henry reviewed the prospect of increasing property values in Paris.

Slashing Rally In Ninth Brings A Win to Eagles

It was all due to the way Alex Potts, hero of many games, stepped within the past twenty years, out up in the ninth inning that caused the downfall of the sprightly Tulliums. Curtis, who was twirling for the youngsters, let Dunn and Kerr off with a single each and the Eagles, then two runs down, crossed their fingers, tilted their eyebrows and wondered whether or not Muller could hit the next ball. They can't, he couldn't so Potts was called upon to scratch his name in the hall of fame.

Tulliums Almost Won Ball Game But Alex Potts Was Too Much For Them

runs scampering across the plate in the first two innings of last night's ball game at the Royal Athletic Park they were not enough to offset the fighting rally of the Eagles in the ninth inning and as a result the Tulliums, who have not won a game so far this season, have been pretty close to victory several times, but last night was the closest they ever made.

Arab Theme in Film Story Told on Royal Screen

The story of a white man brought up as an Arab, who becomes the Sheikh of a band of Sahara outlaws and seeks vengeance for his foster father's death by capturing and selling as a slave the daughter of his enemy, is being vividly unfolded on the screen at the Royal Theatre, in "A Son of the Sahara."

Bert Lytell portrays the role of the young Sheikh, while Claire Windsor is to be seen as Barbara, the heroine of the story. The Sheikh, however, loves the girl himself and secretly buys her. Then he learns his own identity and the plot undergoes another shift.

Radio is Used by Director in Filming "Thy Name is Woman"

Nell Jack, chief electrician for the Fred Niblo company, installed a novel studio arrangement for filming scenes for "Thy Name is Woman," the Metro picture at the Dominion Theatre this week. The outfit consisted of a portable radio transmitter and receiver which established communication between the office and the location where the scenes were being filmed.

A street set, on a California lot some distance away, was erected under the direction of Charles Stallings, Mr. Niblo's production manager, and Mr. Jack installed the portable radio apparatus so that Mr. Stallings was able to get in direct touch with the office or the stage without troubling to go or send some one to deliver his messages and without bothering to have an inter-communication system of phones installed.

Nell Jack, who is responsible for the innovation, was one of the first men on the west coast to become interested in radio. He has been a prominent member of the radio club from the time of its inception. He entered pictures in the electrical department of one of the big studios; then tried camera work for a time, and re-entered the field as an electrician about a year ago, when he joined Mr. Niblo's company. He now

Traveling Tramp Finds Fiancee on Broad Highway

"The Vagabond Trail," which plays at the Columbia Theatre to-day, has achieved a mixture of hair-raising incident and romance to please every audience. It is the story of a tramp who finds many adventures along his "high" and finally finds the girl who agrees to hit the trail of life with him.

Film Company Traveled Long Way for Scenery

Four hundred miles to work! Distance means nothing to a motion picture company when a suitable location can be found at the end of the journey as evidenced by the expedition which George Melford recently led into the mountains near Sonora, California, for the purpose of making forest fire scenes in his new Paramount production "Flaming Barriers," which is the feature at the Playhouse Theatre this week.

The entire company, numbering seventy people, traveled four hundred miles to Sonora by train and then an additional fifty-one miles by motor car into the mountains where timber was sufficiently thick to satisfy the demands of the producer. The featured members of the cast who accompanied George Melford are Jacqueline Logan, Antonio Moreno and Walter Hillers.

Pantages Will Carry Election Returns To-night

The last performances of "Are You a Mason?" takes place to-night and to-morrow at the Pantages, and as advanced bookings indicate crowded houses, early reservations are advised.

This play has found favor in Victoria and has caused amusement and laughter. To-night, special arrangements are being made to have the election results announced between acts. This is a most pleasant way of keeping in touch with the returns.

Next week "A Little Bit of Fluff" is to be reviewed. A great number of people were unable to see this farce when it was presented before and many will see it again, so that it is certain to prove a very popular revival.

Film Bandit Had Soft Heart and Only Robbed for Excitement

"Operas are gold mines of motion picture material," says Antonio Moreno, "because they are founded, as a rule, upon some of the world's strongest legends, they possess drama more powerful than any other story-telling medium, they are ideal for the screen."

Featured with Estelle Taylor in "Tiger Love," Moreno appears in a film which was adapted from the opera, "The Wildcat," by Manuel Panella, which scored a triumph several years ago on Broadway and as a road production. He has the role of a daring bandit, who, despite his unlawfulness, has a soft heart and robs only for the excitement of the thing, turning over all his loot to the poor.

Miss Taylor has the role of Marjorie, daughter of a wealthy and prominent Spanish family. The entire story builds around her abduction by Moreno as the Wildcat.

"Tiger Love," a George Melford production, with David Torrence, Manuel Camera, G. Raymond Nye and others just as well known in the supporting cast, is at the Capital Theatre this week.

Jazz Night at Playhouse Drew Excellent House

Last night was jazz night at the Playhouse Theatre, and "a goodly company was gathered there" to enjoy the music of the jazz band, for which this house is so justly famous; nor were they disappointed, for everything this week is up to snuff.

James M. Barry's famous play, and vaudeville has been a distinct success, due firstly to the clever work of his artists, and secondly to the fact that it is something entirely new in the theatre, and, by presenting the burlesque on melodrama as well as the mystery band add greatly to the entertaining value of the show.

Another Excellent British Film Coming to Dominion Theatre

The management of the Dominion Theatre can be highly commended upon their selection of British films as evidenced by some of the best that have already been shown at this house, like "Sherlock Holmes," "Three Live Ghosts" and "The Christian."

But now comes the announcement that they have secured another great British film success entitled "A Couple of Down and Outs," starring Engstrand's dress, Edna Best, whose popularity of his credit, the most notable being "Married Love," and "The Knockout."

The story is essentially British, strikingly different from the usual type of drama served up for the consumption of film patrons. As a British production, and for that alone, it is worthy of the patronage of filmgoers in this country. Its claims are not based on that feature, however, for it is an exceedingly human story of memories of yesterday that will help us to face to-morrow.

"A Couple of Down and Outs" will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all next week starting Monday.

NAVY LEAGUE HOLDS DOMINION COUNCIL HERE

Gathering is Sequel to Visit of British Squadron

For the second time within recent years the Dominion Council of the Navy League of Canada is holding its sessions in Victoria, and delegates arrived this afternoon from various sections of Canada, headed by President Samuel Harris.

The Provincial Council was in session this morning, and the justification of the events enabled the British Columbia delegates to proceed to the wharf and welcome their fellow delegation to the national meeting.

A considerable development in naval sentiment in Central Canada has taken place since the Dominion Council last held a session here, and owing to the visit of the British Special Service Squadron, it was resolved to meet again at the only port where both the battle cruisers and light cruisers would visit, while in Canadian waters. In celebration of that event the local members of the league resolved to hold a luncheon on Monday, at which Vice-Admiral C. B. Field would be invited to speak and at which the officers commanding the Squadron would be introduced to a Victoria audience by President Harris.

Every opportunity will be taken to see the ships before the council settles down to its convention business. Among those who will attend the gathering will be: Nova Scotia—Alderman H. S. Colwell.

New Brunswick—R. E. Armstrong, Quebec—G. A. Morris, Ontario—President and Mrs. Sam Harris, J. R. Macnicol, Rev. J. Russell MacLean, Miss Gillespie, Lieut.-Colonel C. G. Williams, Maj.-Gen. F. L. Lewis, C. B. Field, Manitoba—D. C. Coleman, F. S. Long.

British Columbia—Major W. H. and Mrs. A. R. Layard, Deep Cove; Miss M. S. P. Ellis, Vancouver; H. L. Jackson, Trail; Mrs. M. G. Simpson, Maple Ridge; L. A. Haggie, Vernon; B. Warnecker, W. Miller Higgs, P. A. Rayner, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Capt. T. L. Thorpe-Douglas, R.N. (retired), Geo. Gardiner, Sir Richard Laks, K.C.M.G., P. F. Curtis, W. M. Hotham, Capt. R. I. Van der Byl, and Mrs. Mortimer Appleby, of Victoria.

Mrs. A. G. Griffiths will represent the National Chapter of the I.O.D.E.

CHILDREN TO VISIT BOTH BATTLESHIPS

Full Details of Orders Issued To-day For Saturday Afternoon

Full details have been concluded for the visit of the school pupils of both public and private schools of Victoria and the battle cruisers on Saturday afternoon and orders were issued by the children's committee, under the management of D. C. Robertson and Major F. V. Longstaff as follows:

1. School children can only go over the battle cruisers while in charge of their own teacher. Having once joined his or her own class no pupil must leave the same without the permission of the teacher.

2. Platoon—The pupils of each class will form up in fours and will only form two deep to go round the battle cruisers. At all other times they will keep four deep, even when turned to the right or the left.

3. Company—All the platoons (classes) of the school will form one company. There must be a distance of four paces between the head of one company and the rear of the next. Each public school company will have its name painted on both sides of a sign board, which will be carried on a pole in the front four. Each school is particularly requested to be completely formed up before entering upon its street of assembly.

4. Assembly points—(a) The Boys' Naval Brigade and band, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Pupils of public and private schools.

At Beacon Hill Park on football ground near east end of Menzies Street.

5. Order of parade—(a) Boys' Naval Brigade and Band, (b) Girl Guides, (c) Boy Scouts, (d) Victoria Public Schools, (e) Juvenile Pipe Band, (f) Oak Bay Public Schools, (g) Esquimalt Public Schools, (h) Saanich Public Schools, (i) Hetcheston Public Schools, (j) Victoria High School, (k) Normal School.

6. Route—The route will be along Niagara Street to Montreal Street, thence to the sea, along Dallas Road to Ogden Point docks.

7. Ogden Docks—On arrival at the main gate the procession will wheel to the left through the gate and move along the board road until it reaches the road branching to the right. Here each school will receive orders from a man wearing a committee badge.

8. Latrines—There are latrines both for boys and for girls at the large shed at Ogden docks. These will be clearly marked with placards. It is most important that each teacher give leave to as few boys and girls as possible to leave the ranks for the latrine. A note should be made of their names and the platoon should not move on until all the pupils have returned.

9. On Board Ship—Just before going on board the battle cruiser each platoon (class) will be formed two deep and will keep this formation the whole time while on board. No pupil will be allowed to stray from his or her platoon (class) but will follow the procession round the deck and so off the ship back to the dock. Here fours will be formed and the procession will proceed out of the shed and to the main gate as soon as possible. 10. Return—The procession will return via Dallas Road to the Football Ground on Beacon Hill Park at the end of the car line. Here the procession will break up by Individual Schools who will not disperse until they clear the Park limits. 11. Important to all children—In the event of any teacher not being present arrangements will be made for the children from his or her class to go under the care of another authorized official.

WESTERN MAYORS COMING TO CITY

Will be Here For Welcome to Fleet on Saturday

With the arrival of the British Special Service Squadron on Saturday there will simultaneously reach the city the representatives of many prairie and B.C. cities who have been invited to participate in the function. Several mayors will be here, and the party of municipal leaders includes Alderman Dr. Crawford of Calgary who will make the presentation to H.M.S. Hood of a buffalo head.

Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Nichol have accepted the invitation of Mayor Hayward and the citizens of Victoria to the ball at the Empress Hotel on June 23 at 9.30 o'clock.

Mayor Hayward has appealed to the citizens to decorate for the squadron's visit. He especially hopes this will be the case along the line of the route of the march on Monday morning, which will be two miles in length, and will be participated in by units of H.M.S. Hood and H.M.S. Recapture, as well as of the Australian cruiser Adelaide. WANTED CARS The Automobile Club of B.C. has appealed to the members and to other motorists to loan cars to drive sailors round the city on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. It is hoped to make these drives purely individual, dependent on the hospitality of the owners. The entertainment committee issues an appeal to motorists who are not members of clubs to send in their names and addresses with telephone numbers to the committee room, No. 6, Metropolitan Building, in order that they may participate in the welcome of the fleet. The Engineering Institute of Canada, Victoria branch, have arranged a private visit to H.M.S. Hood on Saturday, June 21, at 2.45 p.m., to meet at the Ogden Point Dock. Badges are obtainable from the secretary.

Latest Pictures in Thrill Murder Case

In California they've abolished capital punishment and they sentence these men to life imprisonment. The convicts are now building a highway between Merced & the Yosemite Valley. They get $2 a day & have to buy their food. The other $3.00 they have buy whatever they want with it. plenty want to see executions. Was should be abolished is another question.

Just two weeks before he was slain on May 21, thirteen-year-old Robert Franks lifted his youthful voice against capital punishment during the course of a school debate. The pitiful irony of this lies in the fact that it is believed that at that time Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, nineteen-year-old self-confessed murderers, had planned the crime that resulted in Frank's death. Above is a facsimile excerpt from the notes made for the debate by Franks.

SLAIN PRIEST—Rev. Michael C. Gibbridge, Lowell, Mass., who was shot and killed by John King, Jr., as he was administering the last rites to King's dying father. Inset is King, who is said to have had a maniacal antipathy to religion and who took out his fanaticism on the kindly priest. In resisting arrest, King shot and wounded a police captain.

PROMINENT FIGURES AT PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT OWEN SOUND.—Top, left to right: Rev. P. T. Pilkey, Knox Church, Owen Sound; Rev. J. D. Byrnes, superintendent of missions in Northern Ontario; Rev. J. A. Miller, Church Extension Society; Rev. Dr. E. H. Oliver, principal of Saskatoon College; Rev. Dr. Richard Davidson, Toronto, who presched in St. George's Anglican Church, Owen Sound, on Sunday; Rev. R. J. Wilson, publicity representative of the United Church. Bottom, left to right: Dr. W. H. Sedgewick, Hamilton, who advocates a "getting together" of the opposing forces on the "Union" questions; Mrs. Goforth and Rev. Dr. Jonathan Goforth, of Homan, who has spent thirty-six years in the missionary field and who was defeated in the election for a moderator.

AMBITIOUS CYCLIST—Andrew Houting, the Scarborough cyclist, who is going to Montreal on Friday to compete in the Olympic trials.

"His Pastor's Voice."—The Passing Show, London.

Nathan Leopold, Jr. (right), self-confessed participant in the kidnapping and murder of thirteen-year-old Robert Franks, is shown above in an unstudied pose. He is seen sitting on the floor of the "bull-pen" at the Cook County Jail, Chicago, listening to a jazz concert given by volunteer performers. Beside him is his cell-mate, Edward Donker (left), who is being detained on charges of robbery. Also shown in the above layout is the portable typewriter upon which the "bloody brothers" wrote the letter in which they demanded $10,000 as ransom from the former pawnbroker and present multi-millionaire watchmaker, whose son they had killed.

TRIPLETS BORN OF CAESARIAN OPERATION.—Mrs. Ruth Dayhoff, 21, became mother of triplets at Sibley Hospital, Washington, D.C., through a Caesarian operation. This one of the few instances in medical history where triplets were thus-born—and all three are fine, healthy babies, as the picture shows. They are being held by Miss Gail McCauley, hospital nurse.

FACES GALLOWS.—Russell T. Scott, former Toronto broker, who pleaded guilty of murdering a drug store clerk in Chicago, and faces the gallows.

"SWEET BUNCH OF DAISIES."—Annual daisy chain march marks commencement exercises at Vassar College.

PROFIT-TAKING IN STOCKS TO-DAY

(By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Some specialties were prominently featured on the upside of the market today. In the oil group a greater degree of strength was observable. The balance of the market, except for a period of depression, displayed a very firm undertone and final prices averaged about the same as those of the closing level of last night. In most sections of the list quite a little profit-taking has taken place in the last few days and a period of digesting these offerings is at hand. The strong position of the market is best attested by the easy manner in which selling orders have been absorbed. We believe that prospect factors will be of a character to revive enthusiasm on the constructive side of things marketwise.

Unfavorable features in the situation we believe have been diluted on at great length of late and we believe that the sluggishness of this group has about disappeared and are long on the oil market. We think the trend of bond and stock market prices will again move forward.

SPECIALTIES ADVANCE LEADERS STAGNANT

New York, June 20 (By R.A. Bond)—New specialties supplied the chief interest in today's stock market. American Ice, May Department Stores, Business Machine and Montgomery Ward were bid up sharply and retained most of their gains at the close. The speculative favorites such as Can and Baldwin remained comparatively dull and narrow while the railroad and public service corporation issues continue their downward movement. Sentiment on the stock market is rather mixed pending the outcome of the Democratic convention, but idle funds seem to be steadily creeping into the better class of stocks and this no doubt will eventually affect the whole list. While there are a few weak features, such as the independent steels, a few of the oil and sugar stocks taken as a whole the stock market shows a very strong undertone. The liquidation of a month ago seems to be entirely absent and the hesitating attitude of the average trader does not seem to be entertained by those who bought stocks when the Bonus Bill was passed.

STRENGTH IN CORN FEATURE AT CHICAGO

Chicago, June 20 (By R. P. Clark)—Wheat: Considering the heavy recent selling and the more favorable weather and crop news, the market made a favorable response to buying today. Profits on the Winnipeg wheat ignoring the sharp decline at Liverpool. Commission houses took the wheat on the breaks and there was quiet reinstatement of long lines in evidence. There were some early offerings came not values moved up about around Thursday's close. Around 11:15 for July and 111 for October the market rose and support was shown. July closing is cent lower, October unchanged and December 1/4 cent lower. Bedtime Story

Uncle Wiggily and the Bark Basket
Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
By Howard R. Garis
"Nurse Jane says you are please to bring her a taper of packs," called Baby Bunty to Uncle Wiggily one day.

Uncle Wiggily quickly hopped down the path from his hollow stump bungalow. He didn't want Bunty to come with him, for though he loved the little orphan rabbit girl, still she was so full of fun-and-mischief that she was always getting into trouble.

Uncle Wiggily hopped home with the basket of tacks, and the carpet was fastened down. And if the bunny cat does not tickle the ears of clock with her tail and make it laugh when it ought to strike the hours, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the honeycuckie.

"I'll help you," offered the Blue Jay.

DONALD KIRKE GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT
Popular Actor Says Medicine Completely Overcame Stomach Trouble and Nervousness.
That Montreal play-goers are literally packing the Hippodrome Theatre may be proof positive as to once a tribute to the high standard of the entertainment offered and to the finished artistry of the famous Duffy stock player, not the least popular of whom is Donald Kirke. Mr. Kirke is not only a favorite on the legitimate stage but is a screen player of note, and it is a further tribute to his consummate acting that, even while tortured with stomach trouble, nervousness and other ills, he kept "on with the stage" day in and day out until he found relief by taking TANLAC. As he says: "My stomach had almost failed me and I wonder now how ever kept up I do so little. Nights I would toss and turn for hours in nervousness; piercing sick headaches made me suffer agony, and at times on the stage I was so nervous, weak and trembly that I could hardly remember my lines. I would have given a thousand dollars to get the relief TANLAC has given me for less than five dollars. My appetite was never better, I eat everything and have gained twelve pounds. I'm never a bit weak or nervous, never have a headache, and I feel fine and dandy. I will gladly confirm these facts by phone or letter."

in large numbers in that country there is a possibility that there will be an increase in the shipments from British Columbia. A large amount of lumber is being exported through British Columbia ports in spite of the recent break in the demand from Japan, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce is informed. The greater part of the export lumber is for Australia where building is reported to be brisk.

JURY FIND FOR PLAINTIFF IN THE WALTON ACTION

City Criticized For Refusal to Permit Grounding to Mains
Defendants Stage 2,200 Volt Test in Court Room

After two hours deliberation the jury empaneled in the Walton action brought in a verdict at 10 p.m. last night, awarding the plaintiff, Mrs. Ruth Walton, $7,500. An award of $500 was made in behalf of Mrs. Hannah Walton, mother of the late George Wild Walton, who met death by electrocution in his basement, 1144 Fort Street on January 4.

Chief Justice Hunter presided at the two-day trial in which the demonstration of 2,200 volts in action was one of the features of expert electrical testimony. Yesterday afternoon defendants showed a voltage of 2,200 passing through a circuit with twenty lamps in series. An extension lamp, well insulated, was handled with impunity. If the Walton lamp, held defendant, had been similarly insulated death would not have come.

Harold A. Beckwith appeared with E. V. Finland for plaintiff, and Harold B. Richardson, K.C., with A. D. King for defendant company. That the city's action in refusing permission to the B. C. Electric Company in 1919 to make use of its city watermains for grounding purposes had deprived the company of the only sure method of safeguarding its transmission circuit with its high voltage was insisted.

Dr. Herbert Vickers, and Thomas Arthur Cornwall, both electrical expert and college graduates the first for the plaintiff and the latter for the defence, testified that the watermains were the only sure method of grounding. Without this grounding that of the secondary wire at the transformer, the natural safeguard against a crossing of high and low voltage circuits through a leak in the former, was removed. Dr. Vickers had previously testified, in correspondence filed previously the city's refusal to grant leave to bring this about was cited.

Evidence dealt with the Walton basement and the actual equipment used. Mr. Cornwall gave it as his opinion that if standard extension cord and a proper lamp had been used the late Mr. Walton would not have suffered. A charge of 2,200 volts under ordinary conditions on dry ground would not have produced death, he thought. Witness told of the tests made with extension cable in which it required 6,000 volts to break down the insulation.

BREAK IN WIRE
The Walton basement did not have this wire, he said, but ordinary electric cord. Witness criticized the extension lamp, now a mass of twisted metal, as unsafe, and added that an extension of any nature was against the regulations for such a basement. Mr. Cornwall told of seeing a break between poles outside the Walton home, where one wire of a pair had been broken. When he arrived one end was wrapped around the pole and the other hanging twelve feet from the ground. Under normal conditions the wire was good for 100 feet, but it should not be detected under the insulation after the wire was once strung.

Other parts of the same wire were in good order, he said. Recalled to the stand Dr. Vickers testified that the only efficient method of grounding as a safeguard in such cases was the waterpipes. This would not be a danger to the waterworks system he declared, taking contrary view to the city's experts when the point arose in 1919, around the pole. Witnesses said in passing traveled at 185,000 miles a second and would require one second to break down a foot of air.

Plaintiff contended that if the system had been grounded fuses would have been blown and the high charge cut off from the house before Mr. Walton suffered. Defendant pointed out the refusal of the city to permit of the only effective type of grounding, and contended that notwithstanding regulations to the contrary unsafe wiring was in use in the Walton home.

HOLD ROSE SHOW NEXT WEDNESDAY

Oak Bay Amateur Rose Gardeners Giving Big Display

The ideal climatic conditions of Victoria for the culture of roses, and the results obtained in this line, are justly proud.

The Oak Bay Amateur Rose Gardeners' Association will hold a rose show on Wednesday next, in the Oak Bay Hotel grounds, by kind permission of J. A. Virtue.

A big display will be erected on the grounds, and in it the flowers will be arranged. The display will be opened to public inspection from 2 to 7 p.m. The members of the association must have their entries ready for judging at 11 a.m. Although the show has been arranged for the members and amateurs, two classes of the exhibit will be open for professional competition. These two classes are exhibits of roses and roses and are more varieties, and one bloom each of two distinct varieties.

J. Fyfe Smith, of Vancouver, will act as judge. The show is being given under the patronage of Mrs. W. C. Nichol, Lady Bernard, Mrs. R. Butchart, Mrs. H. R. Beaven and Mrs. Henry C. J. Prior, and Mrs. H. R. Beaven, C. H. Prior, C. H. Prior, C. H. R. Silsby, J. Martin, Dr. W. P. Walker and David Reid.

ANTI-BEER LAWYER BACKS GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ISSUE

Endorses Candidates Here Because of Stand For Strict Liquor Law Enforcement

H. W. Davey, legal advisor to the anti-beer forces in Victoria and who explained the whole question at the recent non-denominational anti-beer meeting at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, to-day issued the following public statement:

"In my opinion the Liberal candidates in this city are entitled to the support of the electors on the following grounds:

"1. That the Liberal Government by its social legislation has shown that a large distress among the people of this Province is the result of conditions that can be removed by Legislative action, and the Government has by its legislation during the last eight years, removed many of the conditions which were oppressing such a large class of the people.

"2. That all the Liberal candidates in this city stand for a firm enforcement of the Liquor Control Act and are generally opposed to any extension of facilities for the consumption of liquor. Mr. Clearhue, Mr. Drake and Dr. Raynor will oppose any attempt to permit the sale of beer by the glass in any section of an incorporated municipality where the municipality as a whole votes against it on the plebiscite, and are committed to the repeal of that section of the Liquor Control Plebiscite Act which makes such a condition possible.

"3. The Government during its term has firmly resisted all attempts to have essential features of our educational system reduced. It has shown that it believes that the future of the country is based on a well educated and intelligent people."

a stone rattling around in it," the Premier suggested, when one man persisted in the interruptions. "What about Jerry McGeer?" some one asked.

HECKLERS SCORNED

"The work of Jerry McGeer and myself has been worth millions of dollars to B.C.," the Premier replied. And when the hecklers continued to interrupt he added, "Cry, boys, when you're hurt—cry! Oh, you're a fine bunch of Canadians and hear the truth! I guess Jerry McGeer is entitled for his four years' work to as much as those men who could talk a few words of rhinoceros and helped to move the Indians off the reserve."

FARM LOANS

The Premier vigorously assailed Mr. Bowser's wild promises of assistance to farmers, asserting that he could not secure money for these purposes.

"I wonder why he doesn't want to make us all happy?" Premier asked. "Why does he single out the farmers for the first advance of the millennium?"

Mr. Bowser proposed, said the Premier, to restore the credit of the Province.

"Presumably he would restore the credit of the Province to where it was when he left office—when the provincial bonds went begging," Mr. Oliver observed.

Mr. Bowser planned to loan money to farmers without interest and to spend $25,000,000 or so to extend the C.P.R. to the Fraser River country all without increasing the provincial debt, Mr. Oliver observed.

The Premier assailed Mayor Hayward for his inconsistency in demanding taxation reduction and at the same time asking for new taxes like a levy in the Provincial Parliament Buildings.

In the record of General A. D. McRae, Provincial Party leader, Mr. Oliver declared that in the mills at Golden in which the General was heavily interested, thirty-five per cent. of the employees were Orientals and not eight per cent. as the General had stated in his last speech here. In the Fraser River mills in which the General was interested forty-five per cent. of the employees were Orientals, the Premier declared.

"WORST REAL ESTATE SWINDLE"

The Port Mann land scheme, promoted by General McRae, was described by the Premier as one of the worst real estate swindles in the history of the country. So flagrantly had the real estate scheme been carried out that the General had tried to show that he was an inactive and unwilling member of the firm which sold the Port Mann land, and that he had been deceived in believing that this property was to be put on the market.

The Premier produced a map showing the land at Port Mann bought and sold by the General and requested the Premier to state whether the General had either made enormous profits on the land sales or had allowed his name to be used as a shield for the disreputable real estate transactions of Mackenzie and Mann.

"For whom is he acting as a cover and shield now?" he demanded.

His charge was a shield for the big timber interests, from which he collected campaign funds in 1923?

The Premier repeated his charge that either General McRae received $1,000,000 from Mackenzie and Mann for Port Mann lands or had given a "fake" receipt for this money knowing that it would be used in a fraudulent attempt to secure this money from the Provincial Treasury.

The Premier added that he was satisfied that the Lieutenant-Governor had blocked the attempted fraud.

"I tell you that in 1914, $445,000 was paid for this land out of the treasury, which should not have been paid," the Premier charged. "And that could not have been done without the connivance and assistance of General McRae."

"If General McRae doesn't like this he has his remedy in the courts!" Mr. Oliver went on. "I am not sheltered there by any parliamentary privilege!"

THE ROYAL COMMISSION

When some Provincial Party supporters asked the Premier to request an investigation Mr. Oliver replied: "If I were you I wouldn't talk much about that Royal Commission. The Provincial Party made the most damaging charges against public men and then could produce no scrap of evidence in support of them. If you had asked that question, it would be silent about that question."

Turning to the freight rate question, Mr. Oliver assailed Conservatives led by Hon. H. H. Stevens who are stating that over ninety per cent of British Columbia's products travel as commodity rates and that an equalization of rates would not assist the Province. Mr. Oliver quoted exhaustive figures to show the fallacy of this statement.

While the Conservatives were promising now to continue the rate fight, the Premier recalled that the Conservative Party in its long reign of thirteen years had done nothing to get lower rates.

"I have come to the conclusion that Mr. Stevens is the emissary of the Canadian Pacific Railway in this election and that he is fighting our Government because it is the policy and desire of the Canadian Pacific Railway to abrogate the Crow's Nest Pass agreement," he declared.

RATE ISSUE PARAMOUNT

S. J. Drake, the first of the Liberal candidates to speak, declared that the Premier's freight rate fight was the paramount issue before the electors to-day. He saw in the Premier's efforts the real solution of British Columbia's problems. This Province, he emphasized, had rights to be placed on a footing of equality with Eastern Canada, but the present rate schedules discriminated flagrantly against the West. Premier Oliver, he declared, was the only public man who had made any success in the fight for lower rates, and to repudiate his leadership now would be to estimate to the Federal Government that the Province was not particularly concerned about the rate question and did not care very much whether it secured lower rates or not.

DR RAYNOR

Dr. M. Raynor declared that in Canada to-day many people were living in a state of "depression" and that it was the duty of the people themselves to rectify these conditions and in health insurance the speaker saw the solution of these problems. Under this system, he explained, the burden of looking after the sick and injured would be spread over the whole community. Health insurance, he said, had proved a success wherever it had been tried.

"If we had health insurance we would have a better and happier people," Dr. Raynor declared.

British Columbia, under the Liberal Government, had achieved social reforms that placed it with New Zealand in the forefront of the Empire. Here this progress had been made in seven years while New Zealand had taken twenty years to accomplish similar reforms.

Dr. Raynor came out flatly against beer sale by the glass. Such a system he said, would teach boys and girls the taste of liquor and encourage drinking.

"So far as I am concerned I shall be glad when the day comes when we scrap the liquor traffic altogether," he declared; giving figures to show how much money spent on liquor here actually goes out of the Province.

"I do not agree with anything in the beer plebiscite," Dr. Raynor replied when someone in the audience asked him if he agreed with the local option clause in the beer plebiscite.

AID TO CITY

Outlining what the Government had done for Victoria, J. B. Clearhue pointed to the development of the Songhees Reserve, the construction of the Johnson Street extension, the establishment of the Sidney Roofing Company and other industries here through loans by the Department of Industries. In sad contrast to these developments, he said, were the futile and useless efforts of the City Council to secure new industries.

Defending the Government's treatment of municipalities, Mr. Clearhue explained that the Government last year gave back to the municipalities $55,000 more than it collected within their boundaries.

Mr. Clearhue assailed City Council members now running for the Legislature for inconsistency in criticizing the Government for extravagance. These aldermen, he said, were busy spending $4,000 on a roll court at Elk Lake which the public did not want.

"We have spent money but we have given you service for it," Mr. Clearhue asserted, outlining a number of the Government's constructive reforms.

Speaking as a returned soldier, Mr. Clearhue declared that the Government's treatment of ex-service men had been generous.
