Information Update

UPDATE: Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School February 15, 2018, 6 p.m.

Broward County Public Schools thoughts and prayers are with Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School victims and their families, as well as the entire Marjory Stoneman Douglas community.

We ask that the media respect the privacy of the victims' families and loved ones as they deal with their unthinkable loss and heartache.

The District continues to focus on providing support and resources to all those impacted by this devastating situation. The District is launching an online Crisis Support resource center, available at browardschools.com/crisissupport, with tips and information to assist parents and families in helping their children cope with the tragedy.

In addition, below is the updated list of sites where grief counselors are available tomorrow, Friday, February 16, 2018, beginning at 8 a.m.
