Tenafly N. Jersey - Aug 6th -

Dear Mr Garrison

I am now setting about the work of gathering up the Items for the Encyclopedia - I have asked Stephen S. Foster to give me one for Abby Kelly - & Theodore D. Child one for Sarah & Angelina - - I have written Mrs Tall - asking her to give me item of herself, and Dr. Harriet W. Hunt - Now should not Mrs Chapman have a place there? - If you say yes, will you please send me the item -
- Who else, among the old Anti Slavery Women? - Can you give me Prudence Brandall? I was very sorry not see you and Frank when you were in Phila but it was too dreadful weather for anything - I am now stopping at Mrs Stantons, & with her, here in her lovely country home - working for dear life trying to pick up and bring together some of the broken and scattered threads of our Woman Suffrage work the past 28 years - and ^{put it} on paper too - that the future Student of history may have data from the early workers own pens - on which to establish his ideas - We are asking ^{each} one of the pioneers - Mrs Fall, Lucy Stone - & all - to write ^{out} or get written out - Sketches of themselves - ^{& their work} - & we will insert them precisely as they send them - and accompanying the sketches - the pictures - thus we hope to hand down the exact truth of each one - I feel that self-justice personally - and justice to our cause, demands that we do so much -

With love to dear Fannie & Frank - and Ella - & William - I am as ever Sincerely yours

Susan D. Anthony

P.S. And Ellen Crofts - Will you not give me an item of her - - and will not you give me an item of Martha C. Wiegman - or rather - tell Ella to give me the necessary dates -
I can fill in after I knew her -

J. B. A.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE
