BIG PROGRAM FOR HARRY GIRARD IS ARRANGED

Famous Artists to Appear at 'Appreciation' Affair - Sunday Afternoon

"The best high class entertainment ever staged in Glendale," was the statement made this morning by Mayor Spencer Robinson in answer to a query relative to the merit of the "testimonial of appreciation" which is to be given next Sunday afternoon in the Glendale Theatre to aid Harry Girard, prominent local musician, who suffered a severe accident on July 1.

The latest report from the big-hearted singer's bedside states that he is resting easier, the intense pain in his right hip, which was badly fractured, having subsided appreciably. However, it is predicted that it will be many weeks before the popular Harry Girard will again be able to delight an audience with his golden voiced interpretations.

Mayor Robinson, who is in charge of all arrangements for the entertainment, has backed up the above statement by an announcement that such artists as Brahms, Van den Berg, Frank Egan, Henri La Bonte, Flora Myers, Engel, Edward Martindale, Paul Carson and various other stars of the first magnitude will appear on the all-star program. The affair, which will not include any vaudeville or ordinary acts, will be strictly in the nature of a classical concert, the majority of the numbers to be along a religious vein.

Noted Artists to Appear
In Brahms Van den Berg Glendale music lovers are getting one of the foremost pianists in the world, and it was only with the greatest amount of "wire pulling" that Mayor Robinson was able to obtain his services through the Knabe Piano company of New York, with whom he has an iron-clad contract. Mr. Van den Berg is a resident of this city.

Frank Egan, who is head of the Egan School of Music and Dramatic Art of Los Angeles, is known throughout Southern California for his talent in both elocution and singing. He will present several readings on Sunday's program.

Drive Under Way To Secure Pledges For Hotel Project

A drive to raise $30,000 to complete the local share in the financing of the new hotel is now in progress.

This is being conducted under the joint auspices of the hotel committee of the East Glendale Advancement association and the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. A conference was held last night in the organization's executive offices adjoining the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce.

H. J. Tremaine stated that the plans for the new hotel might be expected tomorrow or Thursday.

George A. Whitney, representative of the W. Ross Campbell company, answered all questions which were put to him in regard to the financial details.

A comparison of the advantages of stocks and bonds came up for discussion and it was agreed that second mortgage bonds are superior to stock.

Plans to include a theatre in the building have been abandoned according to Mr. Tremaine. However, he emphasized the importance of the roof garden.

Selling $10,000 worth of bonds over the three days of the drive is the goal of the campaign committee.

Altogether, Glendale is to have $146,000 in the venture. Sixty-six thousand dollars of this represents the value of the site. Liens on this to the value of $20,000 will be paid off. Seventy thousand dollars has been pledged already and $30,000 more must be subscribed, it is declared.

Pacific Methodists In Budget Campaign

The Pacific Avenue Methodist church is now waging a financial campaign for the collection of $27 for the church budget.

Rev. Harley G. Preston says that his congregation has never yet fallen down on anything undertaken as a body.

HOW TO KEEP COOL! SECRET IS REVEALED BY CORRESPONDENTS

Here Are Many Hints For Those Anxious To Avoid Heat

By O. HOWE KUHLE
Having just returned from an interview with Mr. Kool N. Komfortable in Los Angeles, who has arrived in Los Angeles from Palm Beach, by the way of Texas, it affords the opportunity to tell you, dear readers, how to keep cool. Carbonated beverages are the best bet for the busy business man, but do not stop there. Use plenty of ice to preserve food and have a sanitary refrigerator. The Glendale stores have as good and as cheap ice boxes as you will find anywhere.

Further than that, you will find the clothiers featuring cool clothes now while the electrical dealers are offering everything in the way of fans, labor-saving devices and radio equipment to keep you happy.

Music Is Cooling
A phonograph is just the thing for these summer evenings when relaxation in dancing or reading light fiction will help chase the heat and tired feeling out the well-screened doors.

Ice-cream is a wonderful food for this kind of weather, or any kind of weather for that matter. It warms you in the winter and cools you in the summer, freezes the roof of your mouth and tickles the palate.

Swimming is a wonderful pastime and if you haven't a bathing suit, better get one today for the municipal plunge will open soon. In the meantime you can have a lot of fun "hosting off" in the front yard. Your neighbors will enjoy the fun as much as you.

There are several precautions, however, to be taken before bathing in the sunshine. One is hot cream or carbor oil or sunburn salve to be found at any drug store. The other is not to let old Sol look at you too long. So make the bath long enough to be interesting, but short enough not to attract undue attention of the sun. And last, but not least, don't worry. Nobody is known to have died hereabouts from the heat. Something else gets 'em first. So keep cool.

He Will Appreciate Glendale On His Return

Warren Churchill, architectural draftsman and estimator for the Rottmell Construction company of 114-A South Brand boulevard, left yesterday by automobile for Yuma to get warmed up to some new business for his firm.

After he has been fried and frizzled in the endless heat he will return to Glendale this week-end to cool off, it is reported.

Incidentally, the weather man says it will be fair and WARMER. So let us not laugh at Yuma, yet.

Sisterhood Class to Hold Social Session

The regular monthly social and business meeting of the Sisterhood class of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday school will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made this morning by Mrs. L. P. Clover, secretary of the organization. All ladies who have ever attended the class are urged to be present at the gathering, which is planned to be the largest and best of the summer season. Of the 110 members of the class an attendance of three-fourths of that number is expected to be in attendance.

The first part of the afternoon will be devoted to the conducting of the regular business session, after which the ladies will be treated to an especially arranged program of reading and musical numbers. Light refreshments will be served while the program is being presented.

The women in charge of the affair are Mesdames S. B. Warner, Z. T. Bolcourt, M. W. Knight, B. F. Geiger and Misses Luella Collins, S. Henry and M. O. Marsh.

Republicans Meet To Name Candidate

The fifteen local citizens who were chosen at the Republican mass meeting held last Thursday night to act as delegates from Glendale at the Republican conference to be held in Pasadena tomorrow night are primed for an enthusiastic session when they gather in the Crown City for the purpose of selecting a Republican congressional candidate to be voted for at the primary election to be held on August 29.

Congressman Walter F. Lineberger, who was previously expected to be present at tomorrow night's conference, has informed the committee in charge that it will be impossible for him to attend, due to the fact that he is to meet his eldest daughter, who has been studying in France, in New York. According to Judge Kenneth C. Newell of Pasadena, who just returned from a visit with Mr. Lineberger at the capital, the incumbent stated that he would like to be a candidate for re-election, but if it is the desire of the Republicans of the district to back another man, he would be behind that candidate.

$20,000 AUTO OF FILM DIRECTOR REPAIRED HERE

Jack Armstrong Overhauls 100 Horse Power Mercedes; Car Has Past

After spending several hundred dollars in other cities to have his $20,000 car repaired, without satisfactory results, Paul Powell, director with the Lasky Studios in Hollywood, brought the automobile to Glendale to be thoroughly overhauled. Jack Armstrong, mechanic with the Glendale Motor Car Company, at 124 West Colorado, is just completing the job, and the 100 horse-power Mercedes now runs as it was designed to run.

The powerful automobile has an interesting history, as related by Mr. Armstrong, who got the story from the owner. It was built in Stuttgart, Germany, in 1914, for a Polish prince, who took the chassis to England just at the time the world war broke out and had a body made for it there.

After the body was completed and the car finished, the owner drove the car about London, but sentiment was so strong in England against a German-built car that the crowds drove it off the street, and the prince put it in storage. During the course of the war all his Polish property was confiscated, and in 1921 the automobile was taken from the warehouse and sold at auction. Mr. Powell bought it at that time and used it in England, bringing it over to the United States last winter.

Has English License
On the car is still the English license, a number plate on the front and rear, and on the windshield a round card giving the name of the owner, make of car, etc. According to this card, Mr. Powell's license for the year 1921 cost 41 pounds eight pence, or in the vicinity of $200.

The automobile is a speedy looking affair, with a large, six-cylinder motor, from which says Mr. Armstrong, the Liberty motor is designed. Although the car is rated at 100 horse-power, he says that it will generate more. Among the noticeable features are the overhead camshaft construction, the dual ignition system, and the two carburetors. The instrument board is completely covered with dials of various gauges and indicators which register the performance of almost every conceivable part of the car.

Complete in Detail
To illustrate the completeness of the car, even the hood has a water cooling system which is automatically set in operation when the water in the radiator is pressed down. Large extra tanks of oil and water are carried underneath the car, and the gasoline tank in the rear holds 50 gallons. The automobile is trimmed in brass, and underneath the headlights are two brass horns, each of which is louder than the ordinary American horn.

Mr. Armstrong has torn the car completely down, he says, and has practically completed the assembly of it. Many of the parts were worn and were replaced, and the entire car was cleaned and adjustments made so that it will run perfectly.

"When they want a repair or overhauling job done right," says Mr. Armstrong, "they bring it to Glendale where they are assured of satisfaction at reasonable prices."

Dorothy Hunt and A. E. Sullivan Wed

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Hunt and Albert E. Sullivan took place at 8 o'clock today, Tuesday, July 11, 1922, at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, at the corner of Louise and Harvard streets. The bride is a daughter of the late Dr. D. W. Hunt and Mrs. Susan Hunt, who resides at the family home at 644 Myrtle street.

Best wishes were extended to Mrs. Earl C. Pendroy, who is leaving in a few days on a buying trip to New York City and will be absent about a month.

A large part of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by a piano, manipulated by Jerry Parker of 212 North Orange street; a trap drum outfit, steered by Lang Meredith of 224-A North Louise street; and saxophones blown by Jimmy Simpson of 230 East Lomita avenue, and "Chick" Theek of 412 East Elk street.

Mr. Sullivan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Sullivan of 711 South Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will reside in Glendale, where Mr. Sullivan is a member of the office staff of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company.

They will be at home after July 25 at their new home on Maple street and Columbus avenue.

T. W. Prestons Go to College on Beach

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preston and son Shirley of 330 North Jackson street will leave Glendale tomorrow for Hermosa Beach where they will enjoy three weeks at the cottage Mr. Preston recently built at that popular resort. While absent their Glendale bungalow will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rodgers.

GLENDALE AVENUE RAILWAY PLAN IS OUTLINED

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, In Statement, Says Project Of Great Benefit

By DR. HENRY R. HARROWER
I have been requested by the Transportation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which I am a member, to outline a story regarding the present status of the Glendale avenue railroad proposition.

It is particularly necessary that this proposition be understood in order that the aims of the East Glendale Advancement association, and also of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, can be attained by the co-operation of as many people of Glendale as can be made to see the importance of the project and to realize how vitally it involves Glendale as a whole.

Everybody in town may not be aware that Glendale is served (?) by two railroads (1.) The Southern Pacific whose imposing depot is found by those who might have very hard) several hundred yards south of the Los Feliz Road crossing; and (2) the Union Pacific, which trans-continental system recently took over the Salt Lake railroad. The latter company has had a franchise in Glendale for many years and its tracks run parallel to the San Fernando Road in Los Angeles through the Forest Lawn cemetery and up Glendale avenue to the depot, which is on the corner of Glendale avenue and California street. The Union Pacific having taken over the entire Salt Lake system they naturally have the franchise for the town of Glendale in the present service, and I understand this franchise has quite a good many years to run.

Aggressive Campaign
Dwellers on Glendale avenue, especially in the southern part of the city, headed by Attorney Harry C. Levey, have been quite aggressive in their efforts to improve the avenue insofar as the road bed was concerned, and to get rid of the noisy and discomfiting freight train which rattles up and down their street each morning. In their efforts to make a better street of Glendale avenue, they uncovered this transportation problem and when it is satisfactorily settled, as it will be much of the credit will be due to Attorney Levey and his fellow-members of the Glendale Avenue Improvement association.

It is no easy matter to move a railroad street, while it might have been easier had the Salt Lake system through its somewhat unprogressive management with their financial limitations still been in control, it would be doubly difficult now that the aggressive, well financed and well managed Union Pacific is in charge. The officers of this railroad system are decided, as we do, that Glendale is decreed.

James Reinhard, Boy Scout, Saves Life of Companion

A deed of heroism which had not been made public because of the modesty of the hero was announced at the meeting last night of the District Camping Committee of the Boy Scouts.

On June 8, according to Scoutmaster Frank C. Ayres of Troop No. 3, a number of boys, including James Reinhard, of his troop, were playing near a reservoir in the foothills north of town. William Eggers, fifteen-year old son of William J. Eggers, 257 West Stocker street, fell into the pool.

Most of the boys were so interested in their play that they did not notice, but James Reinhard said that young Eggers could not swim. The unfortunate youth was going down the second time when Jimmy noticed him, jumped in and pulled him out. Eggers was revived after his rescuer had applied resuscitation treatment for a few minutes, but young Reinhard was too modest to make any statement of the affair, it is stated, and the facts did not become known to the scoutmaster until yesterday. It is the intention of the District Scout Committee to write to the National Court of Honor of the Scouts and to find out whether or not Reinhard is entitled to a bronze medal for lifesaving, or at least a letter of commendation. It is their belief that the fifteen-year old hero should have the bronze medal.

Three such medals are awarded for lifesaving; a bronze one when the act was performed with risk involved; a silver one when considerable risk attended the saving; and a gold one when the rescuer has exposed himself to grave danger in actually saving life.

At last night's meeting the final plans for the summer vacation camp were approved, and contracts awarded for the furnishing of provisions. The local Chaffee store is to send the groceries to the camp at Howland's Landing, Catalina Island, and the meat, vegetables and fruit will come from the Hoover Grocery and Market at Avalon, Catalina.

Two additional leaders have been selected to attend the camp. They are Leo L. Lang, a member of the camping committee, and Walter H. Packard, committee man from Troop No. 3, Glendale.

LITTLE CHANCE OF EARLY END TO RAIL STRIKE

Situation Deadlocked and Both Sides Appear to Plan Long Fight

CHICAGO, July 11. — D. W. Helt, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Signalmen, today promulgated an order to his 12,000 men directing them to remain at work "until every means of obtaining peace has been exhausted. They had voted to strike.

CHICAGO, July 11. — The eleventh day of the strike of railway shopen found the situation deadlocked with few indications of an early termination of the walkout in evidence. Although violence has marked the strike in some localities, no serious outbreaks have occurred. Union leaders here predicted that there would be no serious disturbances and dubbed the walkout a "gentlemen's strike."

Bloomington, Ill., and Slater, Mo., were the danger points in the situation today. Troops were on guard in each of these towns and gathering crowds kept authorities on the anxious seat. Troops also have been sent to New Franklin, Mo., to protect the shops of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. The United States railway labor board was apparently making no move toward ending the strike. Little activity other than the customary routine was in evidence at labor board headquarters. Headquarters of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor manifested a similar activity. Each side seemed to be awaiting developments. Except for their attorneys, who were coming into court in many parts of the country asking injunctions against picketing or other interference with the operation of the roads, the railroads seemed unconcerned over the strike. Railroad gaves every indication of their intention to operate their shops with non-union employees in an effort to keep trains running. The only outbreak in Chicago of the last twenty-four hours was when 500 men and women wrecked a railway store where a special agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad had taken refuge from the crowd. At Aurora, where serious trouble had been feared, no outbreaks occurred. A "silent cordon" of pickets surrounded the Burlington shops there. Deputy United States marshals were on guard to prevent any interference with the operation of the shops.

INDIAN FIGHTER AND INTIMATE ACQUAINTANCE OF LINCOLN NOW RESIDES IN EAGLE ROCK, AGE 92

Charles Bock Sits in Garden Dreaming of Days When He Went After Eggs and Butter for Immortal "Abe."

By TED JOHNSTON
A varied and interesting history is that of Charles Bock of 122 North Castle avenue, Eagle Rock, 92 years of age, and a member of the local G. A. R. post. He was intimately acquainted with Lincoln, and during the civil war was a member of the Second Nebraska Cavalry, Company K.

Mr. Bock was born in Illinois in 1829. He was for years a resident of Springfield, where he met the girl whom he married.

In 1857, while he was acting as steward in the Capitol Hotel, in Springfield, she was working in the dining room of the hostelry. It was during his position as steward there that Mr. Bock met Abraham Lincoln.

Met Lincoln on Farm
It was always difficult to procure fresh eggs and butter in Springfield, said Mr. Bock, so he was sent by the manager to drive out into the country and buy the produce there. In leaving town, he passed Lincoln's house, and had not made a hundred yards when he saw a man on horseback. "Hello, Charley," said the future president. "Where are you going; taking a pleasure drive?" "No, I'm going after fresh eggs and butter for the hotel," replied Mr. Bock.

Became Quite Intimate
So it was that two times a week during the years 1857 and 1858 Mr. Bock stopped twice a week at the Lincoln home and talked with the man whose name was to become immortal.

In 1858 Mr. Bock married, and with his bride moved to Omaha. It was in '61, says Mr. Bock, that he voted for Lincoln for president.

STRIKE PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED BY HARDING

President Meets With His Cabinet for Conference Over Situation

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Confronted by a week's vexing delay in his efforts to settle the paralyzing coal strike and with the strike of the railway shopen steadily assuming more serious proportions, President Harding met with his cabinet today for a thorough discussion of the government policies in this industrial turmoil.

The railway problem was of deep concern to the President and his advisers. They felt today that a settlement of the coal strike is in sight as a result of the President's arbitration proposals, even though neither the operators nor miners have accepted the program proposed. The rail strike, however, cannot be reached by the same methods and continued reports of mail delays and actual interference with mails at some points brought the government squarely up against the problem of protecting its own interests as well as those of the public.

Troops If Necessary
If the deputy United States marshals and other officers who have been sworn in at various points to safeguard the mails prove unable to cope with the situation, then it can be stated authoritatively that federal troops will be placed aboard mail trains for protection purposes, just as United States marines were placed aboard the trains some months ago to protect them against hold-ups.

No federal troops will be employed, however, except as a last resort. The President and his advisers believe that indiscriminate use of uniformed soldiers is inadvisable.

To put regulars on all trains in all probability would mean shootings and casualties and the administration desires to avoid this just as long as possible. The sentiment among cabinet members was that the government should proceed slowly and not be rushed off its feet by alarmist reports from outlying districts of doubtful authenticity.

ly on the map and they have hopes to develop the present "one horse line" into a real transportation unit. With this in mind, the Union Pacific has been very aggressive in developing ticket selling facilities here in the city. They probably sell a good deal more transportation in town than they do in the country. I know that through the courtesy of their C. A. Redmond, I personally paid him nearly $1400 for tickets for a number of young medical students who are representing me throughout the country this summer).

Makes Suggestion
When the matter was brought to the attention of Mr. Comstock, general manager of the Union Pacific, he naturally side-stepped the suggestion that the traffic be discontinued and the franchise turned back to the city, and in turn suggested that perhaps an arrangement could be made whereby the tracks and franchise could be leased to some street car system, and a working agreement be made with them to use their tracks and wires to bring to Glendale the freight which now comes in on the steam road up Glendale avenue.

As I understand it, the general manager of the Union Pacific has said that if conditions and the growth of the business in Glendale warrants, they hope to increase their facilities here and eventually to have electric trolleys. Pullman cars connect with their regular trains in the same way that they now serve Pasadena, and it would not be a surprise in view of the temperament and attitude of this corporation if the Union Pacific would remodel and rebuild their present depot and let us have something that will be a credit to Glendale, thus increasing their good-will and making themselves much more noticeable to the traveling public of this city.

When this matter came to the attention of the directors of the Glendale and Montrose railroad they immediately saw a splendid opportunity to expand in a manner which would be profitable to them and all the preliminaries having been attended to, the matter now rests about as follows:
Ready to Cooperate
The Union Pacific is ready to cooperate with the Glendale and Montrose Railroad company. The Glendale and Montrose Railroad company is willing to put up $150,000 to electrify the present Glendale Avenue line, presumably making a double track system clear to the Verdugo road and San Fernando road. A working arrangement would be made with the Los Angeles railway and a new transportation unit would be established which would give

$100 In Gold Coins Will Be Given Away

My eye, old top! Didn't you see the $100 in gold displayed in the R. L. Kent company windows at 130 South Brand boulevard.

Dear me, five screaming eagles are calling attention to the fact that they will be given away on Saturday, July 22, at 2 p. m., at the Glendale Gardens tract office, San Fernando boulevard and Western avenue to some one who is careless enough to motor out to that office and register and make a guess.
It is so easy to pick up $100 that way that hundreds are expected to visit Glendale Gardens' tract and make a few more hundred by wise investments. Only a few lots remain, according to Frederick S. Colby, who has charge of selling the property for Mr. Kent.

FISH DON'T BITE BUT BEAR TRIES

J. M. Wilson and Jesse E. Smith Have Experiences on Yosemite Trip

Fish and bears don't mix, according to J. M. Wilson and Jesse E. Smith, who have just returned from Yosemite Valley.

Mr. Wilson is manager of the store at 1738 South San Fernando Road owned by the Wilson-Bell Hardware company. Mr. Smith is local representative of Henry Ford. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Smith were also in the party.

The strange part of the adventure is that the trip positively was not made in a Lizzie. Mr. Smith does not deny that a Ford could do it all right. However, they went in Mr. Wilson's Mitchell.

The trip was made via Fresno, where they stayed all night, and Madaga. They found the roads somewhat rough although the grades did not prove bothersome.

Upon arrival at Camp Curry, they proceeded to test the fishing. And test it is about all they did in the opinion of Mr. Smith, who was not satisfied with one limit of trout—all Dolly Vardens.

Mr. Wilson is of the belief that there are more bears than fish up there. Anyhow, he says, he got a good laugh "the-night-that-Jesse-Smith-saw-the-bear." It seems that the bear saw Mr. Smith too. They both began to make tracks—only in opposite directions. They both made good time.

Mr. Wilson saw the bear, too, but he hasn't reported just what action he took yet. Mr. Smith says that he was "frozen stiff" and couldn't run.

The new building at 1726 South San Fernando Road owned by C. J. Orff and his daughter, Miss Corina E. Orff, of 445 West Milford street, is scheduled for completion in about thirty days.

The interior woodwork is now being finished and the painting is being started.

The first floor is occupied by large stores and the upstairs with apartments. Across the front of the second floor are four adjoining rooms each with an entrance to the hallway.

A kitchenette nearby makes it possible to rent these either separately as offices or together as an apartment. There are two three-room apartments and two two-room apartments, also.

C. H. Ambrosch Sees Whole Mountain of Stone on Kern River Trip

A whole mountain of granite was observed by C. H. Ambrosch, proprietor of the Glendale Monument Works at 1727 South Brand boulevard, who recently took an auto trip along the Kern river into the high Sierras.

This white granite is of fine quality, according to Mr. Ambrosch. It is without either spots or streaks. Unfortunately, it is almost inaccessible and heavy trucks would find it impractical to get to it.

"In the course of time I think they will build good roads in there," remarked Mr. Ambrosch. "There is granite in this state galore, if there were only some way of getting to it."

At the present time, much of the granite cut at the Glendale Monument Works comes from the east. Mr. Ambrosch believes that the present railroad strike will delay his shipments. He called attention to the fact that granite is scarcely a perishable product, and consequently, cars of it were likely to be sidetracked until the present railway disturbance is over. He says that after that the big job is to find the cars at all.

YANKEE TOURISTS ROGUES' VICTIMS

U. S. Produces Majority of 'Suckers,' Scotland Yard Believes

LONDON.—Every day a "sucker" is born, and the majority of them are raised in the United States," declares Scotland Yard.

Their opinion is based on the fact that every day and almost all day they are deluged with complaints by Americans of swindling by rogues, tricksters and confidence men, with all their old time-honored copy formulae.

Here is one of the latest instances. Two Americans entered into conversation with another tourist at St. Paul's Cathedral, and somehow the same tourist met them coming out of their hotel next morning and suggested that they should go with him to get tickets to view the mint and come and see it. One of them went to the British Museum, and the other went with the tourist.

The result of that morning's work was that the latter was relieved of over a thousand dollars. It was the old trick. A "stranger" in front of them dropped a bulky envelope. The American picked it up. And the grateful "stranger" entered into conversation. He explained that he had $500,000 to give away in charity, and the man who had just saved the bulky envelope, containing valuables, was obviously the man to be entrusted with giving away $50,000 to American charities, for which he would receive $500 for his trouble.

Thereupon the American drew $1,465 from an American bank to show that he was a man of substance. They then went to a hotel and had some drinks. And then each in turn showed his trust by giving his valuables to the original distributor, who went out for ten minutes.

In the American's case the original trickster found an excuse to go out also. And neither came back.

With this, ordinary tricksters would have been content. But not so these chivalvers. They went at once to the British Museum and collected the other American and by the same trick took $400 away from him.

Last week another American visitor was swindled by the same ancient story of $1500 and a diamond ring.

The biggest coup of this season was when the confidence man relieved an American of $5000 in less than an hour. As it happened the police could have secured the thieves if only the victim had remained to give evidence against them. But he was in a hurry to return home and refused to wait.

Moore's cabinet shop which occupies the rear of the lot at present. The building will be completed as soon as the cement floor has been laid.

LONDON.—Every day a "sucker" is born, and the majority of them are raised in the United States," declares Scotland Yard.

Their opinion is based on the fact that every day and almost all day they are deluged with complaints by Americans of swindling by rogues, tricksters and confidence men, with all their old time-honored copy formulae.

Here is one of the latest instances. Two Americans entered into conversation with another tourist at St. Paul's Cathedral, and somehow the same tourist met them coming out of their hotel next morning and suggested that they should go with him to get tickets to view the mint and come and see it. One of them went to the British Museum, and the other went with the tourist.

The result of that morning's work was that the latter was relieved of over a thousand dollars. It was the old trick. A "stranger" in front of them dropped a bulky envelope. The American picked it up. And the grateful "stranger" entered into conversation. He explained that he had $500,000 to give away in charity, and the man who had just saved the bulky envelope, containing valuables, was obviously the man to be entrusted with giving away $50,000 to American charities, for which he would receive $500 for his trouble.

Thereupon the American drew $1,465 from an American bank to show that he was a man of substance. They then went to a hotel and had some drinks. And then each in turn showed his trust by giving his valuables to the original distributor, who went out for ten minutes.

In the American's case the original trickster found an excuse to go out also. And neither came back.

With this, ordinary tricksters would have been content. But not so these chivalvers. They went at once to the British Museum and collected the other American and by the same trick took $400 away from him.

Last week another American visitor was swindled by the same ancient story of $1500 and a diamond ring.

The biggest coup of this season was when the confidence man relieved an American of $5000 in less than an hour. As it happened the police could have secured the thieves if only the victim had remained to give evidence against them. But he was in a hurry to return home and refused to wait.

Gordon Selfridge, London Merchant, to Build New Castle

LONDON.—Gordon Selfridge, merchant prince, owner of Lansdowne House, finest residence in London, inhabited by patrician families for generations, is discontented.

Not satisfied with what he has, he is building himself a dream-house—a castle in the air.

"It is my hobby," said Selfridge, "just an airy hobby. It will never materialize, but I love thinking about it."

"Some years ago I began to wonder what a really perfect castle would be like, and I planned and planned in my own mind. Then I called in the cleverest architects in England, and they made me all kinds of lovely drawings—drawings that, looked at, gave one the feeling of having had a perfect summer's vacation."

But there it is, Castle complete, with draw bridges, stately apartments, gorgeous gardens, which would turn a Roman emperor green with envy. But all in the air!

Nevertheless, Selfridge walks through the spacious halls daily—in imagination. Sometimes he ascends its palatial staircases, wanders through the wide gardens. And every now and then he makes wonderful alterations in the designs—but they only amount to marks in the plans!

SACRAMENTO.—A total of 1,128,865,566 fish of various species were planted in the streams of California from 1871 to 1921, inclusive, according to a report just compiled by the state fish and game commission.

Quinnat salmon, of which the distribution is placed at 865,014,647 fish, represents the largest factor in the grand total.

Rainbow trout comes second, with a distribution of 81,578,454. Other important facts in trout distribution as shown in the report are: Cut-throats, 73,549,261; large lake, 1,218,649; eastern brook, 23,218,930; Lock Levin, 27,777,570; German brown, 3,388,938; steelhead, 45,443,631; golden, 1,287,650.

The total distribution of all fish by the commission, the report shows, was only 15,000 in 1871, as compared to 33,319,720 in 1921.

At the present time the state owns and operates 20 fish hatcheries and egg collecting stations.

THE 4S SYNDICATE HAS WONDERFUL LOCATION AT SANTA FE SPRINGS FIELDS

Largest Gushers in California, Producing High Gravity Oil, Lie Within Few Blocks of the (4S) Derrick.

UNIT PRICES RISE JULY 15, OR BEFORE

In the entire section of the Santa Fe Springs oil field there is no location which offers more of a certainty of big production than the ground upon which the derrick of the (4S) Syndicate stands.

The Poix well lies but one block away, while the immense Alexander gusher is but half a block beyond. A few blocks north are the Santa Fe No. 1, the Santa Fe No. 3, the Bell No. 1, placing the (4S) derrick in the center of the largest production. A short distance south lies the Agee No. 1, the latest gusher to come in.

Oil men are so sure of the value of this location that one of the widest-known and most successful drilling firms in the state has contracted to drill the (4S) well to oil sand—promise a producing well. Sixty per cent of the driller's pay comes out of the oil itself, so they must bring in a producer.

The (4S) policy, too, is remarkably fair to investors. Funds received from the sale of units are placed in escrow in a San Diego bank, and will be released for development work only. If the funds are not so used, they will be returned to the unit holders by the bank.

In addition, every cent invested will be returned to the unit holders from first production, after the deduction of costs and royalty only. This is over and above the regular profits, which will be 300 per cent and over for each 1000 barrels of daily production similar to that of nearby gushers.

Every bit of evidence in the field points to a big well for the (4S) Syndicate, as 4000-barrel gushers are the rule in that location. With the division of profits as it is—two-thirds of production divided into but 2000 units at $100 each—each unit holder is certain of a real share. But 1000 units in all will be sold.

The small capitalization proves beyond doubt that the (4S) Syndicate is interested in oil development alone, not promotion. But enough funds will be obtained to insure a well, and no one can possibly profit except through oil production from the (4S) well.

One unusual feature is afforded by this Syndicate. All advertising costs, including the cost of carrying the public to inspect the property, are carried by the men who organized the (4S). The amount allowed for expenses is as small as, if not smaller than, any company operating in the state, so the investor's money goes into drilling—not promotion.

The price of the (4S) units will advance on or before midnight, July 15, so it will be advisable to investigate now. The Syndicate is so certain of the value of its offer that you are invited to investigate to the fullest extent. You will be carried to the field free, if you like.

Call at 116 East Broadway, or phone Glendale 1153-J, and ask for Mr. Harding, Glendale representative. He will give you full information at any time.—Advertisement.

T. D. & L. STARS WALLY REID

For genuine thrills, excitement and laughs, there are few pictures seen here this season that will equal "The Dictator," a Paramount picture starring Wallace Reid, which opens at the T. D. & L. Theatre today for a run of three days. From start to finish is rapid and produced on a massive scale, with characterizations and splendid photography, this picture deserves the success that attends its premiere here.

Wallace Reid is adequately supported by Lila Lee as leading woman, Theodore Kosloff, Alan Hale, Kalla Pasha and other sterling players. It is a delightful photoplay in every respect, the story dealing with love and revolution in Latin-America. James Cruze was the director and he acquitted himself well. It is a Richard Harding Davis story.

Refreshing Foodstuffs in Warm Weather

Most things that taste good to you are good for you. This, according to food specialists, is Dame Nature's way of conducting things. And her edict offers a helpful hint to housewives during the hot weather period.

To the average male of the species, hot weather merely means cooling drinks or mercurial recreation, but to the careful housewife the warm months bring a real problem in food management. On her solution of this problem, the health of the family will largely depend.

How to prepare dishes that are dainty enough to tempt lazy appetites, and at the same time contain the nourishment that the body needs in summer as well as in winter, is not always an easy job. But it can be done if one keeps plenty of ice in the refrigerator and uses a little judgment in the selection of foods.

In the first place, remember that during hot weather cooling dishes not only taste good, but are good for you, if the ingredients are healthful. And perhaps it's unnecessary to add that during hot weather it's easier to make cooling dishes than to work over a stove.

While sherbets are not especially nourishing, they're always refreshing on a hot day, and this one has the advantage of being unusual enough to tempt most people. It's called mint sherbet. Pick over, wash and chop a large bunch of crisp mint. Bring two and one-half quarts sugar and five quarts water to the boiling point and pour over the mint. Let stand an hour or more, add three and one-half cups lemon juice, strain, color delicately with Burnett's green vegetable coloring, and freeze.

And have you tried "Queen Pudding" yet? It's really fit for a queen, and it's nourishing, too. This is how it is made: Line a melon mold two inches deep with vanilla ice cream or strawberry water ice. Have ready a pint of frozen peaches; fill these into the center, cover with ice cream, put on the lid, bind the edges with a strip of buttered cloth, pack and stand two hours. When ready to serve, wipe the outside of the mold with a warm towel, and turn the pudding out on a large dish. Dust with grated macaroons and serve immediately.

If you want to give the family a delightful little surprise, try this one: It's easy if you use care and have the berries thoroughly chilled. Wash and thoroughly dry large, firm strawberries. Carefully pick off as much of hull as possible without removing stem. Chill berries by placing on ice for an hour and then dip them in chocolate as for candy dipping. Place on oiled paper and chill.

Jilted Girl Held for Threatening Broker

NEW YORK—Found guilty of disorderly conduct, Nellie Black, 27, of 245 West Seventy-fifth street, was held without bail by Magistrate Oberwager in the Tombs Court. The statement that she had threatened the life of Edward M. Fuller, wealthy broker, of 50 Broad street, is being investigated.

Miss Black told how she went to Fuller's office and requested $5,000 to pay the rent on an apartment at 225 West Seventy-first street. She alleged Fuller had leased the place for her for three years at a rental of $3,200 annually.

Relationship of Ninth Degree Now Barred

ATLANTA, Ga.—"A juror in a criminal case who is related by blood or marriage to the prosecutor within the ninth degree is disqualified," the Georgia Supreme court held in reversing the case of O'Berry against the state, from the Appaling Superior court.

Defining relationship within the ninth degree, the court declared that descendants of a brother and sister, one a great-grandson and the other a great-grandson, are thus related.

The natives of southeastern Asia have long known of the curative properties of Chaulmoogra oil in skin diseases, especially in leprosy. They use the oil both internally and externally.

In a corner of a Chicago courtroom a 14-year-old girl is watching lawyers select the jury which will try her father for the murder of her mother. When the jury is completed, this little girl will be the star witness against the defendant. On January 6 Michael Condon (insert) is alleged to have stabbed to death his wife, Lillian Condon. The only witness to the tragedy was their daughter, Lillian, who, according to her story, heard the sounds of a struggle and leaped out of bed to see her father strike the fatal blow.

RADIO EXPLAINED

By E. H. LEWIS

THE GRID BLASING BATTERY

If the common connection of the grid and filament circuits is made at the negative terminal of the filament there will be a normal negative grid potential of about 2-1.2 volts. The grid will, therefore, be at the same potential as the lowest potential on the filament, and the potential of the grid, with respect to the filament, is zero. It must be borne in mind that it is the lowest potential point on the filament to which the grid potential must be referred when determining whether or not a grid current will flow. In this case of zero difference of potential will cause a grid current to flow and will reduce the grid to filament resistance within the tube. When this occurs power is taken by the circuit, and the positive half cycle of input voltage is reduced. This has been explained previously.

In order to raise the normally applied negative grid potential to a value which will be at all times great enough to prevent grid current a grid current blasing battery may be used. The voltage of the battery will depend upon the amplitude of the input voltage, but in any case its negative terminal should be connected to the grid. In order to secure a close variation of this potential, which is frequently desirable, the resistance unit of a potentiometer (about 400 ohms total resistance) may be connected directly across the battery. The sliding contact may then be connected to the grid, so that the grid potential is always negative, but variable. The battery need not be of large size, since no current is taken from it. It may be made up of ordinary flashlight cells. This battery is sometimes referred to as a "C" battery to distinguish it from the filament lighting, or "A" battery, and the plate, or "B" battery.

A RECEIVING SET WITH BUILT-IN LOUD SPEAKER

The cabinet receiving set is of the non-regenerative type and has a loud speaker of well known make incorporated in the cabinet. The opening is seen at the left of the illustration.

The receiver includes a detector and two stage amplifiers built into the cabinet. Each tube has a separate filament rheostat, so that there will at no time be any difficulty in operating each tube with its proper filament current. An "on and off" cam switch is provided for lighting or extinguishing the filaments of all three tubes simultaneously. A telephone jack is also provided to accommodate a pair of head telephone receivers. When the receiver plug is removed from the jack the loud speaker is thrown into circuit. If the head receivers are used by plugging them into the jack the loud speaker is automatically disconnected.

The receiving set is very attractive in appearance, as the cabinet is of mahogany, with a dark, polished finish, and the panel is of bakelite.

the illustration. The wave length range is from 150 to 1,700 meters and is sufficient for all purposes of broadcast reception. Tuning is accomplished with the two knobs at the extreme left of the panel.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Kidding Comment for Once How About Your Vacation? About Buying at Home Elysian Park Charming

By Gil A. Cowan

THIS COMMENT is a little "kid" today. Yea, verily, the "kid" might be summed up in a sentence: "I don't want to be the goat."

You see, we have been "kidding" the climate, the prosperity and everything, until the "kid" wants to leave home. He has browsed around the Hollywood and Pasadena and San Francisco papers and found them good eating, but it has got to a case today where Comment itself will be "kidded."

You have to keep Comment around home and let him wander the way Chet Rowell and some of the other commentators do. Heaven only knows how they wander and whither, but this Comment belongs to Glendale and vicinity and here it must stay.

So, after you have "kidded" about everything and anything and done it over again, there comes a nice warm afternoon when you have to sit down and "kid" Comment in an effort to keep cool.

There are lots of places to keep cool, but few where you can get inspiration for Comment. If you let the "kid" get out on the street—why, he's apt to get dirty. If you take him out in the woods he is apt to get lost in the herb-age. If anyone caught him tinkering around the Los Angeles river they'd throw this poor "kid" into the quicksand and the Yangtze river over in China would lick his chops and get muddier than ever.

So it is a terrible trial to know what to say, or think, or write. However, with the column well started, it shouldn't be difficult to finish up with something more sensible.

The most sensible thing to talk about right now is a vacation. You will favor the Glendale Evening News by phoning Glendale 132 before and after taking. Inasmuch as people are moving about quite a deal these days, it makes interesting news to others who hope to go some place. It gives them ideas and that is what a newspaper is for.

And the whole job of promoting good ideas should not rest with the reporters alone. Anyone who has a brain storm and thinks of something new, or knows of something which hasn't happened before (be that possible), why, send it into the office and let The News tell the world about it.

That brings up another subject. Many a good story which has appeared first in this paper has been reprinted from ocean to ocean. One little yarn about Harlan Durand's old river was copied all over the country. Another story about a local housewife dashing her face with salad oil when the gas stove burned her got nation-wide publicity.

Every time that Glendale breaks a building record it gets a line in the national publications. All of which goes to show that the unusual can happen here as well as anywhere else. If you know of anything unusual, give it publicity through the columns of The News.

What have you bought in your home town today? Every dollar spent with local merchants means money in your pocket. The News believes that the suburban merchant is in a position to offer goods at more reasonable prices than those who have the high overhead expenses in Los Angeles.

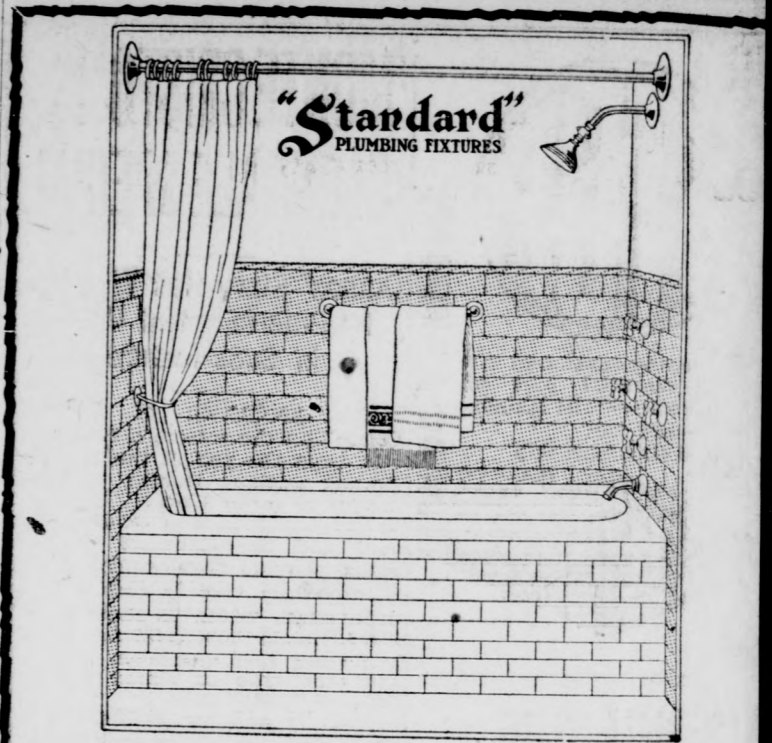

Here is a happy thought for a drive this evening in your motor car: Take Glendale boulevard to Ivanhoe and then turn to the left into Riverdale drive (formerly Los Feliz road), and go around the hills into Elysian Park. There is 30 minutes of scenic pleasure in store for you that could be written briefly, "Seeing Los Angeles."

You will see more of the city in less time than any other vantage point, unless it is Mount Hollywood drive through Griffith Park.

Standard Forms to Be Available Soon

In its state-wide program of standardizing and stabilizing the real estate business along sound lines, the California Real Estate Association from its Los Angeles office makes an appeal to the press of California to give this bit of space to the service of the real estate brokers in their communities. In other words, there being some 10,000 real estate offices in California, the state association desires through the newspapers to acquaint the various dealers with the fact that the standard forms for the exclusive authorization to sell and the deposit receipt are now being made ready for submission to the dealers. Standard forms for deeds, mortgages and deeds of trust are also being prepared by the California Real Estate Association with the help of the State Recorders' Association, the bankers and the title and trust companies.

Standard forms have been adopted in the banking and insurance business, and the real estate profession has come to recognize the value of uniformity, clearness of expression and absolute responsibility that will attach to the real estate forms. Authorization to sell and deposit receipt are the forms most commonly used in realty offices. Generalization of these forms by the state association is considered by a state real estate department official to be one of the biggest works the State Real Estate Association has done for the real estate profession in California.

Cool, dainty dishes, wholesome as well as delightful to the palate, should be the rule in every household during these warm summer months. Heavy, expensive desserts have no place on the properly balanced menu at this time of year.

A wide variety of delicious desserts, made without standing over a hot kitchen stove, is always possible to the wise housewife who keeps her ice-box well filled with ice.

Here is a simple recipe for plain ice cream:
One quart of thin cream, one cup of sugar, one tablespoon vanilla. The cream should not be too thick, or it may form fine particles of butter while being stirred. Scald the cream and add sugar. When cool, add flavoring and freeze. Pack and let ripen for an hour or more.

A rather unusual variation, which will be a pleasant novelty to most people, is made as follows:
Get a small jar, about half a pint, of Chinese ginger, and cut into small pieces. Make plain ice cream, as noted above, but when it begins to thicken, and before it is frozen too hard, add the chopped ginger, and continue the freezing process.

Here is another simple variation, that will appeal to almost everyone. It is known as Bisque Ice Cream:
Start to make plain ice cream, but just before freezing add cup and a half of macaroon crumbs, rolled very fine.

Still another novelty, that will be a treat to everyone who likes peppermint flavor, is made this way:
Take half a pound of peppermint candy, break it up and soak over night in a pint of milk. When it is thoroughly dissolved, add half a pint of cream. Then proceed as in making plain ice cream, except that no sugar is used.

A frozen pudding that will be found delightful is made as follows:
Shred one and a half cups of candied fruit and soak in orange juice for an hour. Make plain ice cream, add the shredded fruit when it begins to thicken, and finish freezing. Pack and let stand an hour or more.

To have plenty of dainty desserts such as these is only one of the advantages of keeping plenty of ice in the home always. In addition to its convenience, ice is a necessity in hot weather and a real economy every day in the year. It prevents the spoiling of foods, keeps food bills down, and safeguards health. A regular supply of ice will pay for itself in the food it saves.

Dumas' Story Has Wonderful Entertainment Value in Superfeature

The production of "Monte Cristo" on the screen, a romantic tale from the pen of the famous French author, Dumas, demonstrates as never before, the wonderful possibilities of reading the soul and the emotions of humans, through physiognomy. This is especially true in this screen production, which is showing at the Glendale theatre for four days beginning this afternoon, due to the high type of acting of the "Monte Cristo" cast.

This is another William Fox production, which is showing at Flynn. It is a picture containing a mine of spiritual values and students of psychology will find it worthy of considerable thought and study.

Beyond any worth as a study, however, is its entertaining value. The story itself, because of its wealth of romance and adventure, shared with a beautiful love theme, caused it to become one of the most widely read stories ever published. It is always in demand at public libraries and is one of the few stories written which has been read and re-read by old and young. It is said that none of the beauty of the role has been lost in the screen version.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Write this one down on the frayed cuff for future reference.

There will be no Dempsey-Willis bout in New York state for the world's heavyweight championship. At the proper time and in due season New York state will tender this enterprise the elevated eyebrow and politely request that it take itself hence.

This much on the word of a man who either knows what he is talking about or John L. Sullivan was a French-Canadian.

It is good politics, however, for state officials to do all their talking with their mouths shut at this juncture.

It would smack of discrimination should the powers that be decide the Dempsey-Willis bout of the books and right at this moment.

United States Lawn Tennis association to its circular letter to American tennis players asking their views as to the amount of bound there should be to the balls used on hard courts will be interesting to note.

This query is of particular interest to California players where the grass court is an almost unknown quantity. Likewise the proportion of hard courts that are being built all over the country is far in excess of the grass court, so that a solution is of importance in practically every section of the country.

William Tilden, the national singles champion, has expressed the opinion that it will be only a matter of another decade when there will be no grass courts and championships played entirely on hard courts. His reason for advancing this opinion is based on the fact that to get a perfect playing surface on a turf court requires infinite care and patience.

Aside from this, expense involved in the care of a singles court runs up into the thousands of dollars annually. As much as $5000 a year is expended in some cases to keep a single championship court in condition.

Among the Far Westerners who will be contestants in the United States open golf championship to be played at Skokie, beginning July 11 will be Mervin Dutra, of Pebble Beach, Calif., recent winner of the title in the Northern California Professional Golfers association; Abe Espinosa, who lost the title just mentioned because of an infraction of the rule; George Howard, of Fresno, Calif.; Joe Novak, of Spokane, Wash., and Chick Fraser and Harry Pressler of southern California.

That the lure of the automobile as an out-of-door recreation is growing is evidenced by the fact that up-to-date all previous records have been broken in the number of cars as well as the number of visitors to the Yosemite National park. A comparison of the best previous one-day record and the new figure is interesting:

July 2, '22, 560 cars, 1943 persons

July 3, '21, 401 cars, 1490 persons

This takes no account of the people who traveled by trains and stages, these bringing the number well over two thousand.

The responses received by the

No matter whether Jack Dempsey eventually fights Harry Willis, Jess Willard or any other opponent there will be a certain crowd pack the arena wherever the fight or fights take place.

Just why the public parts with its money for such diabolical matches is a question that the famous psychologists have so far been unable to answer and probably never will answer. The great and vast fighting public today is roasting and toasting the proposed matches with Willis and Willard as opponents for Jack Dempsey, but it will be this some people who today are knocking such matches who will flock to see them.

There have been very few cases where a champion boxer has "come back." Jim Jeffries after a lay off of years could not do it, and now Jess Willard is going to attempt what in his case seems to be a more impossible task than in Jeffries' case. Willard never has been the fighter that Jeff was and since he was beaten just three full years ago, July 4, 1919, by Dempsey, the former champion has not done a lick of work—that is boxing work.

Pictures of Willard taken within the last few days show the former champion to be a mountain of fat. When a man gets a "waist line" he is done—aethetically. Willard's training will reduce his waist line but it will never revive whatever speed he had and he had little of that at his best. The only thing Willard can expect out of a match with Dempsey is his share of the gate receipts, and just what that will be is a problem.

As for Harry Willis he is being touted as the only logical man for a match with the champion. We have in mind the picture of Harry Willis and his matches with Tate in the Pacific northwest, neither of which are shown in the record books and in which the showing of Willis was so far from good that how he could ever be considered world championship caliber is a conundrum. Then we also remember that this same Bill Tate, a colored boxer of no class whatever stayed a dozen rounds with Harry Willis at Denver last December and Willis was given the verdict. Imagine what Dempsey would do to Tate and if this man stayed twelve rounds with a prospective aspirant for Dempsey's crown it is hard to imagine just what Willis could expect to do to Dempsey. Like Willard all Willis has to gain from a contest with Dempsey is his share of the gate receipts.

We want to see the champion

The best way out of a difficulty is through it.

French Women Have New National Sport

PARIS.—Hazena is the latest national sport for French women. Hazena is in reality football played with the hands. And this means with the hands only. No feet are allowed.

A team of charming Czech girls have just been in Paris teaching the popular game to their French sisters, and have proved it to be a most interesting as well as healthful sport.

It resembles the American game of handball, but the piskin is much larger and is therefore tossed rather than thrown from player to player as it passes from goal to goal.

There are certain fixed rules. Players remain within certain courts marked out by white lines, a little as in tennis. The ball must not be held longer than three seconds, a good way to make quick thinking. And by no means must the feet play a part. If the ball merely touches the knee or the leg of the player she is called by the referee.

L. C. Brand Is Host At Mountain Resort

L. C. Brand of Brand's estate, who left last week for his summer camp near Mono lake, made the trip by motor, as he had been notified by the employees at camp that the ground was still too wet to permit landing of the aeroplane in which he had been anticipating making the trip. Guests accompanying him were Mr. and Mrs. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Bowden and daughter, all of Los Angeles.

New improvements are being added each year to the camp. Brand's lodge, the main building is a log cabin, but is finished with hardwood floors, and has shower baths installed. There are also electric lights. Plans were made to build a stone house this summer, but owing to the scarcity of the Indian laborers, upon whom they must depend to a certain extent, the building may not be completed by the close of the short season. There are two other comfortable cabins, in addition to the lodge, also tent houses.

The altitude is around 8000 feet, and it is not at all uncommon to find some of the winter's ice and snow still in evidence as late as June. With his motorboat on the lake, and fine trout fishing, as well as hunting and hiking, the many guests who have been staying there each year have found Brand's lodge one of the most enjoyable spots in the California mountains.

The judge ordered three of the younger children given into the care of the county probation officer, Mrs. Lillian Holzbach.

Mrs. Sutcliffe said that the man she placed before her children was a real man, "who defended my life with his own when my husband threatened me."

WASHINGTON.—It was a busy day for A. M. McDonald, of the Patterson Company of Seattle. He received a check for $77,000 in settlement of his claims against the shipping board. He was advised that claims for a sum almost as large against Australia have been allowed. He was presented with twins by Mrs. McDonald and tonight he boarded a train for Seattle.

Mrs. Laura Knight, who served as judge at the recent Pittsburgh art exhibit in London, will probably be elected to membership in the Royal Academy, thus breaking a century-old tradition.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH GOLF BOUT

Players Need Oars and Not Niblicks at the National Championship Meet

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

FOR INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

SKOKIE, ILL., July 11.—Rain which threatened to cause a postponement of today's qualifying matches in the national open golf championship, ceased suddenly this morning and the sun came out brightly. Coincidentally, a gallery of more than 5,000 persons waited to assemble, most of whom waited for Bobby Jones, the young Atlanta amateur star, and Leo Diegel, the record-breaking professional from New Orleans, to tee off. This pair started promptly at 10 o'clock.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

FOR INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

SKOKIE, ILL., July 11.—There was every prospect this morning that golfers entered in the national open golf championship meet which began here yesterday would find more use for oars than for niblicks if today's matches are played. Rain that fell in torrents during the night was still descending an hour before time for the first pair to tee off and it seems entirely possible that today's matches might have to be postponed to a later date.

The second qualifying round was scheduled to be played today with the third set for Wednesday. Among the stars who were to appear today were Walter Hagen, the British open champion; George Duncan, of England; Bobby Jones, the Atlanta crack; Leo Diegel of New Orleans, and Jesse Guifford of Woodland, Mass., the national amateur champion.

With these stars yet to try their luck at the course, Jack Hutchison's wonderful performance of yesterday, when he led the first day's qualifiers with a total of 135, may be eclipsed, but the opinion prevailed today that the lanky Glenview professional had made a bit of golf history when he set the pace in yesterday's play.

Dinner and Musical Program Is Arranged

An after dinner musical program will be the entertainment feature of the beefsteak dinner given tonight at the Daniel Campbell home in North Glendale by the Tuesday Afternoon club to increase the building fund.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and during the dinner hour there will be music by Budd's Gaiety Four. Later in the evening there will be a musical program by Mrs. Helen Graham Cole, vocalist, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Champlin, pianist, and Miss Hazel Linkogel, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Curran, pianist.

A smaller benefit affair towards the building fund was the Five Hundred party given this afternoon by Mrs. Arthur Dibbern of 512 East Lomita avenue.

Mrs. L. E. Sargent of 717 North Louise street, will give a benefit bridge Wednesday afternoon, and a week from Wednesday Mrs. L. N. Hagood of 216 North Orange street, will give a benefit bridge breakfast from 9 till 12 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president of the club, stated this morning that she and other club officers are greatly gratified at the enthusiastic support the building fund is receiving.

Some complainants insist most strongly on being judge and jury besides.

E. M. Shutt Comes Here From Oregon

E. M. Shutt of Hepner, Morrow county, Oregon, will be associated with Arthur Campbell's real estate office, 110 1-2 East Broadway, having recently arrived in the southland after seven years' experience in similar lines in the north.

He served as sheriff of Morrow county for ten years, way back in the Oregon woods, where the sheriff is law and order. Prior to that he had spent fifteen years publishing newspapers in the interior after coming from Iowa.

Prof. W. D. Root of 110 Olive street met him this morning and stated that twenty-five years ago Mr. Shutt was working on the old Moro Observer while the professor was teaching. They recounted the early days which were picturesque in wild and woolly events.

Mr. Shutt states that a great motor emigration to California now is under way with people coming from Montana, Idaho, the Dakotas and Oregon to make their homes in Southern California. It is a regular exodus, he says.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Brookins of 468 Salem street, announce the birth of a daughter, Monday, July 10, 1922, at a Los Angeles hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wade of Hollywood are the parents of a son born last night, Monday, July 10, 1922 at the Glendale-Research hospital.

Daniel Kelty, Jr., Chosen Elk Trustee

Daniel Kelty, Jr., member of the Cornwell & Kelty hardware firm of this city, was last night elected trustee of Glendale Lodge Number 1289 to fill the unexpired term of Harry E. White, whose recent resignation left the office vacant. Mr. Kelty's term will expire on April 1, 1924.

An exceptionally large summer crowd of local and visiting members was present at last night's meeting, which was followed by a musical program and the usual midnight "luncheon."

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Dance Party Host

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leekie Duke of 239 Oak street entertained on Friday night last week at a delightful dancing party held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Powell of East Palmer avenue in honor of Mrs. Powell's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Jackson, who were visiting here from the east.

The front rooms of the beautiful home were artistically decorated abundantly with fragrant groupings of summer flowers, the prevailing color scheme being carried out in yellow and white.

The early part of the evening was enjoyed in dancing, after which the guests were served with dainty courses of ice cream and cake. Several musical numbers were presented by various guests during the serving of the refreshments.

Those who took part in the gay celebration were Mr. and Mrs. William V. Jackson, Mrs. J. W. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. L. Torry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Alspach, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. H. Peters, Mrs. M. V. Compton, Mrs. Charles Schaffer, Mrs. C. M. ### NEW OFFICES FOR BIG PROGRAM FOR LODGE OF ELKS HARRY GIRARD ARE OCCUPIED IS ARRANGED

Rapid Growth of Order Results in More Room Being Required Famous Artists to Appear at 'Appreciation' Affair Sunday Afternoon

When the members of the Glendale Elks' Lodge entered the club rooms for their regular weekly meeting last night, they were greeted by Secretary Willis M. Kimball's usual cordial smile, coming from the right side of the entrance instead of the left. The latter had been the case for many months. The reason for the changed state of affairs was simply the result of the moving of the club's offices, which, with the phenomenal membership strides which have been taken by the order since the erection of the building in 1918, had become far too small to take care of the daily routine.

The new offices, which have been handsomely furnished throughout with mahogany, are located in the room formerly used as the conference room, being the first chamber to the right of the main entrance. The coat and hat checking facilities, in turn, have been moved downstairs to the room formerly used by the drill team for their business meetings. Both rooms have been thoroughly overhauled, remodeled and repainted, the walls of which have been painted in oil.

Mr. Kimball is assisted in performing his secretarial duties by Mrs. Vera Price, who is the lodge's stenographer.

For House Department The office just vacated by the secretary is being fitted up for the purpose of being used in connection with the house department, which handles the club's candy, tobacco and soft drink concessions. The present stand has been overcrowded for several months, and it is with a great deal of satisfaction that House Manager John Roman is enlarging his quarters.

Mr. Roman is assisted in his department by Harry Gibbs, day man, and Morris Andrew, night man.

None of the newly effected improvements are intended to be permanent, the changes being made through absolute necessity brought about by overcrowded conditions which have prohibited the men in charge from performing their full duties. The ultimate plan of the organization is to build a more spacious lodge room on the property fronting on Elk avenue, directly behind the present location of the building, to convert the present auditorium into a billiard room and to install a modern office suite in the center of the building.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds Is Due Home Tonight

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds of 121 South Cedar street are expected to return late tonight from Oakland, where, for the past week, they have been attending the annual California State Christian Endeavor convention.

Rev. Edmonds, who is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, delivered five addresses before the delegates at the convention, winding up the session by conducting the "Decision Service" at the close of the final meeting on Sunday evening.

Last Sunday morning Rev. Edmonds occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Oakland.

DEFERRED PAYMENTS WASHINGTON, July 11.—Settlers on irrigation and reclamation projects in western states may have 40 years to make payments to the government under a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho.

(Continued) many as being one of the best in the history of opera productions, will sing several of the selections which made him the leading character in the former Savage Opera Company several years ago, as well as a favorite among the music lovers of France, Italy and Germany. His selections, which will be taken from Handel's "The Messiah," will include "Comfort Ye," "Every Valley," and also: "The Bitterness of Love," by Duni; A. Walter Kramer's "The Swans" and "The Trumpeter," by Airy Dix.

Famous As Singers Flora Myers Engel, who has delighted New York audiences with her irrefragable soprano voice for the past few seasons, has been declared by Brahm Van den Berg as being "the best soprano on the coast." And when an artist of Van den Berg's caliber commends himself in such an outspoken manner he generally knows whereof he speaks.

Edward Marindel of Hollywood, who is a personal friend of Harry Girard, is a baritone of no mean ability, he having appeared on various operatic roles throughout the east during the past few years. His selections for Sunday's entertainment have not yet been announced.

Paul Carson, who is the regular organist at the Glendale theatre, has arranged to play two especially composed selections on the pipe organ.

Mr. Robinson states that the sale of tickets is even exceeding his expectations and that an overcrowded house will probably be on hand when the curtain rises at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A number of people have already given $5 for single tickets, the price of which has been set at $1. Dr. Milton J. Berry of Eagle Rock has announced that he will buy tickets for all Boy Scouts who wish to attend the entertainment, with the provision that the uniform be worn.

Boy Scouts to Aid The scouts, who have learned to love Mr. Girard for his willingness to sing for them on different occasions, have announced through their leader, H. F. Benner, scout executive for the Verdugo Hills district, that they will do anything in their power to make the affair a success.

Tickets for the entertainment will be on sale all week at the box office of the Glendale theatre, where William A. Howe, lessee and manager, has kindly donated the use of his playhouse for the occasion.

A number of members of the local Elks' lodge, headed by Spencer Robinson, Alfred F. Priest and W. B. Kelly, are planning to attend the regular weekly meeting of the Los Angeles lodge number 95 on Wednesday night in behalf of the "testimonial." Mr. Girard is well known at the Los Angeles lodge in the same way that he is so popular with many other organizations of which he is a member, and it is expected that a hearty response will be forthcoming from the "Bills."

STRIKERS ARE ENJOINED LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 11.—Judge Triche in federal district court here, sitting as a special judge, granted a sweeping injunction in favor of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, enjoining the striking members of the Federated Shop Crafts Employees on that road from interfering with shops or from interfering with guards or special agents of the railroad company. National, district and local officers of the shopmen's union were likewise enjoined in a duplicate order.
