February Meeting

The 365th meeting of the Audubon Association will be held on February 12, 1948. Meet at 8:00 p. m. in the Assembly Room of the S. F. Public Library at Larkin and McAllister Streets. Following the election of officers, there will be an open forum to discuss the Audubon Plan of the National Audubon Society. Several members will present both sides of the question, after which the discussion will be opened to the group. It is hoped that members will study the enclosed copy of the Audubon plan before the meeting.

February Field Trip

The February Field Trip will be on Sunday, the 15th, to Burlingame and "back of beyond". This is a revival of jaunts of some years ago. Bring luncheon and binoculars. Take the Greyhound bus at 7th and Mission Streets, S. F., at 8:40 a. m. and get off at Easton Drive on El Camino Real, Burlingame, where the party will meet at 9:45 a. m. It is advisable to buy tickets in advance. (Round trip, 45 cents.) Leader, Arthur H. Myer.
