TOURISTS TO START JOURNEY TO-MORROW

First Stop at Prince Rupert for Hundred Mile Trip Up Skeena

TO SPEND FORTY DAYS AMONG COAST SCENES

Eight Thousand Miles of B. C. Coast and Alaskan Territory to Cover

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS SENT REPRESENTATIVE

Seattle, June 20.—With the arrival of Seth Mann, President Wilson's personal representative appointed to accompany the chamber of commerce Alaska tour, from San Francisco this evening, practically the entire personnel of the party that will sail north on the Jefferson at 9 o'clock to-morrow night on the first lap of the 8,000-mile trip through the northwest is in Seattle. There are sixty-eight Seattle people enrolling for the excursion, five newspaper and magazine representatives, from publications that cover the entire country and thirty-nine tourists coming from all parts of the United States, and some from abroad.

The tour, which will occupy from thirty-five to forty days, will be the most comprehensive ever made by any large body that has ever visited Alaska. The first stop will be made at Prince Rupert, the western terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad. The party will be taken inland for 100 miles over the new railroad up the beautiful Skeena river valley, and at Prince Rupert will have an opportunity to see the preparations being made to care for the halibut catch, the large cold storage plants and the fishing fleet. The next stop will be made at Ketchikan, where the party will be entertained by the townspeople, and will have their first opportunity to get a glimpse of some of the many salmon canneries of Alaska and all the details of the salmon industry. At Ketchikan they will be introduced to their first Alaskan town.

Stops will be made at all the towns along the inside passage. At Juneau, the capital city of the north, the party will be met by Governor Strong, who will probably accompany the excursion to Skagway. From Skagway the party will proceed over the White Pass & Yukon to White Horse, where two river steamers will be in waiting to take them down the Yukon river to Dawson. From Dawson the members of the party will proceed on down the Yukon, stopping at Eagle and Circle City and on to the Tanana. They will go up the Tanana to Fairbanks, and leaving Fairbanks they will go back down the Tanana to the Yukon and stop at Ruby, the new gold camp, Nulato, and thence to St. Michael at the mouth of the Yukon, to Nome. At Nome a steamer will be waiting to take them south.

Proceeding on south to Dutch Harbor, the steamer will pass through Unimak Pass, and instead of heading straight across the Pacific will proceed northwest along the edge of the Aleutian peninsula. From there they will go to Seldovia and Seward. From Seward to Valdez, Sitka, and from Sitka the return home will be made direct through the inside passage.

MEDICAL CONFERENCE ENDS SESSIONS TO-DAY

Plans Made for Pure Milk Especially for Children by American Physicians.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 20.—With only three sessions in session, the sixty-fourth annual convention of the American Medical Association practically came to a close to-day.

At a joint session of the section on diseases of children with the American association of medical milk commissioners plans were made for pure milk, especially for children.

Dr. T. C. McCleve, of Berkeley, Cal., discussed the common misconception of certified milk, and the origin and development of the movement. He gave especial credit to the American association of medical commissioners for the work that is being carried on to obtain for the consumer a more pure supply.

Discussions of purely technical questions were made by Dr. J. J. Hogan, of San Francisco and others.

SHOOT UP SCHOOL.

Bremen, Germany, June 20.—A school teacher and two children were shot dead, another teacher and three children fatally wounded and three children less seriously hurt to-day by a former teacher named Schmidt, who, armed with six loaded revolvers and carrying many extra cartridges, entered a Catholic school and started a fusillade among the class.

The man was overcome and arrested by the people attracted to the scene by the shots.

SENATORS IN CAUCUS ON NEW TARIFF BILL

List Given on Which President Has Power to Proclaim Special Rates

Washington, June 20.—Democratic senators were in caucus to-day on the revised tariff bill. The income tax feature was the only one held back for revision.

The amendment permitting the president to proclaim special rates when foreign nations discriminate against the United States, provides that he shall exercise this authority on certain articles as follows: Fish, fresh, smoked and dried, pickled or otherwise prepared, one cent per pound; on wheat, 10 cents per bushel; on wheat flour, 45 cents per barrel; on coffee, three cents per pound; on tea, 10 cents per pound.

On the following articles a duty not to exceed one and one-fourth times that specified: Earthenware, stoneware and chinaware, lemons, cheese, wines of all kinds, malt liquors, knitted goods, silk dress and piece goods, leather gloves, faces and embroideries of whatever material composed, and articles made wholly or in part of the same, toys, jewelry and precious, semi-precious and imitation precious stones, suitable for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

On the following, in addition to the duties as provided: Sugar, tank bottom, syrup of cane sugar, and concentrated molasses, testing by polariscope not above 75 degrees, fifteen one-hundredths cents per pound, and for every additional degree by the polariscope test, an additional one one-hundredth cent per pound, on molasses two cents per gallon.

LARGE LOAN COMPANY TO OPERATE IN FALL

R. T. Elliott, K. C., on Board of Directors of New Canadian $10,000,000 Concern.

Winnipeg, June 20.—Edward Brown, a well known financial broker in Winnipeg, has organized a ten-million dollar company known as the British Northwestern Mortgage Company, of which he is chairman. The company will open for business in the fall. Sir William Whyte is one of the directors, which includes many leading business men in Winnipeg, and R. T. Elliott, K. C., of Victoria.

BUILDING STRIKE IN CHICAGO COMMENCED

Chicago, June 20.—Fifteen unions of building trades workers, locked out yesterday by the Building Construction Employers' Association, declared last night that the Employers' Association had violated its agreement by failing to call in the joint arbitration board in an effort to effect a settlement. The lockout was the result of the failure of striking stonemasons on a big bank building to return to work.

It was estimated last night that 28,000 men would be directly affected by the lockout, and that if the condition continued any length of time, 30,000 more workers would be out of work as the result of crippling older industries.

STRIKE BY MONKS FOR FOOD AND TROUSERS

London, June 20.—The story comes from St. Petersburg to the effect that the monks of Saint Michael's monastery at Malkopin, Caucasus, have gone on a strike. They demand more food and leisure and a supply of trousers. Father Ambrosio, head of the monastery, refuses to grant the demands of the strikers and services have been suspended. Bells are silent and cloisters are forsaken. The monks bore their privations quietly until Father Ambrosio refused to allow them to have trousers, which he regarded as an unnecessary luxury.

CONFERENCE IN OTTAWA BETWEEN THE PREMIERS

Ottawa, June 19.—The Evening Journal says that a conference of the premiers of all the provinces is likely to be held in Ottawa in September. Among the many matters of national importance to be considered according to this paper are the following: Provincial subsidies, provincial control of natural resources, jurisdiction of provinces over island fisheries, respective rights of federal and provincial governments in the incorporation of companies, federal aid to highways and agriculture.

FEMININE LOBBY TO STRENGTHEN POLICE

Four Thousand Demand Larger Force for Protection in Seattle

WORKED FOR STATE LAW AND CITY ORDINANCE

Organizations Banded Together in Sound City to Gain Their Desires

WOULD GUARD YOUNG MEMBERS OF SOCIETY

Seattle, June 20.—Four thousand members of Seattle women's organizations, who fought for the passage of Senate Bill 238 and city ordinance 11274, providing penalties for contributing to the neglect or delinquency of children, are fighting to-day through a feminine lobby before the judiciary committee of the city council for a recommendation for a largely increased police force. Among the women's organizations represented are The Mother's Congress and Parent-Teacher Association, Federation of Women's Clubs, Seattle Day Nursery Association and several other civic organizations devoted to work in the interests of women and children. The lobby is headed by Mrs. Herbert N. Snook, who, as chairman of the judiciary committee of the mothers' organization, had a considerable part in the work of getting both state law and city ordinance passed.

The ordinance, which provides radical penalties for neglect of children or contributing to their delinquency, strikes at the adult responsible. After defining the exact meaning of the words "dependent child" and "neglected child," the ordinance makes it illegal for parent, guardian or person having custody or control of any minor child to permit any minor to loiter in any public dance hall, pool-room, drinking resort, or to induce any female minor under the age of eighteen to ride on any motor vehicle or in any automobile or vehicle of any kind after curfew hours unless accompanied by an adult person of good moral character; to permit a minor to beg, peddle or sell any article on the streets, to play musical instrument for gain, or to participate in any musical show, or concert for gain, unless the juvenile and humane division of the Seattle police department shall first have issued a permit. A penalty of $100 fine or thirty days in the city jail, or both fine and imprisonment, is provided in the event of conviction of such responsible adults.

After passage of the ordinance, it was found that its provisions will be impossible of enforcement with the police force now provided. Chief of Police Bannick assured the women workers that he is thoroughly in accord with the terms of the ordinance, but that more men will be required before he could attempt its enforcement. Mrs. Snook, discussing the condition to-day in the name of the various feminine organizations of Seattle, said: "This ordinance has been made necessary by modern conditions and, placing the responsibility as it does on the shoulders of a responsible adult, it means that many undesirable conditions can be done away with if we can bring about enforcement of the ordinance."

"Seattle to-day is provided with too few police officers for the proper patrolling of beats and preventive work in parks and in the residence sections. More police are a crying necessity, and the women's organizations of Seattle are going to fight bitterly until Chief Bannick is given a sufficient force, so that every provision of the new ordinance can be enforced, and so that proper protection can be given to our homes."

AMERICAN SOLDIERS ON BORDER OUTLAWS

Charges Made by Merchant Regarding Conditions on Border of Mexico.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Charges that American soldiers on the Mexican border are as much outlaws as the roving bands across the line, will be laid before Secretary of War Garrison to-day by J. J. Kilpatrick, a merchant of Candelaria, Texas. Mr. Kilpatrick's son is postmaster at that place and the post office is situated in the elder Kilpatrick's store.

Armed with a letter of introduction from Representative Underwood, majority leader of the House, Mr. Kilpatrick is prepared to assert to the secretary that the American soldiers are unruly and rioting among themselves and that they are falling to afford protection to Americans.

Candelaria is a border town of about 500 inhabitants, virtually all of whom are Mexicans. Mr. Kilpatrick and members of his family, in fact, are said to be the only Americans in the place.

FISHER CABINET IN AUSTRALIA DESIGNS WHEN RETURNS ASSURE LIBERAL PARTY VICTORY BY ONE

Is Result of Closest Political Fight Since Time of Confederation

JOSEPH COOK IS MAN AT HEAD OF AFFAIRS

Another Election Probable That Will Be Both Bitter and Keen

Melbourne, June 20.—The Australian premier, the Hon. Andrew Fisher, and the cabinet resign to-day as a result of the recent elections in which the Liberals obtained a majority of one over the Labor party in the federal House of Representatives.

The defeat of the Labor party in the Commonwealth was the result of the closest political fight since confederation. Joseph Cook, the free trader and Liberal leader, is called on to form a ministry, he will have but one majority, and as this would be an unworkable administration there is every possibility of a further appeal to the country within a short time.

Politically Australia is in an uproar, and in the event of a new election it will be not only as keenly fought by the two parties as the one just over, but it promises to be the bitterest ever contested.

When Alfred Deakin resigned the position of leader of the Federal Liberal party it became necessary that a successor to him should be appointed. There were many, no doubt, who thought that the choice would have unanimously fallen upon Joseph Cook (deputy leader); but there are several Liberals in the Federal House capable of leading the party. The wisdom, however, of members was shown in the final election. Mr. Cook (who is a hard working and painstaking member) to that position of honor. Mr. Cook was elected leader against his strongest opponent, Sir John Forrest, who ran him a very close race for the coveted position.

The new Liberal leader has had a very interesting career, and his advancement shows what intelligence, grit and perseverance, used in the proper way, can do for a man in such a democratic country as Australia. He has risen from the humble position of a collier boy and mine to be one of the most prominent politicians in the Commonwealth.

Mr. Cook was born at Silverdale, a small mining town in Staffordshire, just on 53 years ago. Being reared in a mining centre—coal and iron mining being the chief industries of Silverdale—it followed almost naturally that young Cook should enter upon the work of a miner. Thus we find him following the precarious and hard work of a collier boy in one of the Silverdale coal mines. Despite the hardness of the toll, the future leader, having a taste for learning, began to educate himself, and that he succeeded in laying a good foundation, quickened and improving his mind, is proved by his progressive career.

In 1891 Mr. Cook went into the New South Wales state parliament, and just three years subsequently was asked to accept a portfolio, being made in 1894 postmaster-general in the Reid ministry. He held that office for four years, and effected a number of reforms. Among others he cut down the price of private telephones in Sydney from £12 to £5 per year, and the subscribers' list was immediately trebled.

Relinquishing the postmaster-general's department, Mr. Cook was given

SUICIDES AFTER TRYING TO TAKE LIFE OF WOMAN

Tacoma, June 20.—After an ineffectual attempt to throw his companion, Ruth Allen, age about 25, from the Lincoln bridge across the main city waterway here at 8:30 this morning, Edward B. Myratt, said to be from Portland, hurled himself 100 feet to the Northern Pacific railway right-of-way, and is dying.

Myratt and Miss Allen arrived in Tacoma from Portland at 6 o'clock. They were carried by taxicab to the bridge and the chauffeur, W. A. Miller, said they were exceedingly nervous. The woman was taken in charge by the police. She is still in a highly-nervous state.

FIGHTING AT ETTAGI.

Rome, June 20.—A severe battle fought between the Italian troops and the Tripolitan Arabs at Etagi yesterday cost the lives of one Italian officer and nineteen soldiers, while five officers and 217 men were wounded. The Arabs were completely routed.

PRESIDENT ATTENDS WEDDING.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—President Wilson will attend the wedding of Secretary McAdoo's son, Francis H. McAdoo, to Miss Ethel Preston McCormick, at Baltimore to-morrow.

HON. JOSEPH COOK

Leader of Australian Liberals who is now first parliamentarian and has majority of one.

the portfolio of minister for agriculture. This he retained for a year having force of circumstances to resign it owing to Sir George (then Mr.) Reid's ministry being defeated in 1900 by Sir William Lyne, who took the reins of government. While in the agricultural department Mr. Cook made many improvements.

The new Liberal leader then entered the arena of Federal politics, having in 1901 decided to go into the National parliament about 12 months after the defeat of the Reid ministry. Mr. Cook shared fully in work done on behalf of the party which claimed Mr. George Reid as its leader, and on the present high commissioner's defeat in 1905 was chosen as deputy-leader of his party, in which position he held for a period of close upon three years the real weight of the work in opposition. At the retirement of Mr. Reid he was chosen as leader of his party, but in 1909 came the fusion, and on Mr. Deakin becoming prime minister in June of that year, Mr. Cook accepted office as minister for defence.

Mr. Cook displayed great ability in the defence department. At his suggestion, Colonel Foxton was sent to the Imperial defence conference, at which the naval developments now being carried out were agreed to, and the establishment of a first defence unit in Australia made a matter of live policy. Mr. Cook passed through parliament an act providing for compulsory training up to the age of 20 years, and it was his suggestion that the Deakin cabinet invited Lord Kitchener to visit Australia, inspect the defence scheme the government had in contemplation, and suggest whatever he thought necessary for its improvement. For six weeks Mr. Cook accompanied Lord Kitchener in his journeyings all over Australia, the outcome of the trip being the important report which Lord Kitchener subsequently made to the government, one item in which increased the years of service from 20 to 25. It was Mr. Cook who appointed General Bridges to be first commandant of the Military College at Duntroon, and the same cabinet concluded the arrangement under which General Kirpatrick was made inspector-general. At the same period Admiral Henderson's report, adopting the naval unit as previously agreed upon in conference with Lord Fisher in London, was received.

MEXICO MUST WAIT FOR LARGE LOAN FUND

Mexico City, June 20.—Fifty million dollars of the Mexican government loan may not be available for six months, according to an explanatory statement to the public made by the ministers of finance. Thirty million dollars, he said, will be at the disposal of the government June 26, and the remainder in the form of two options of six months each. He continues: "The only thing to prevent a consummation of the transaction will be that conditions in Mexico become so bad as to make the placing of the bonds by the bankers impossible."

The negotiations for the loan were conducted in Paris through the Banque de Paris et des Pays Bas.

ASK GOVERNMENT TO TAKE UNSOLD BONDS

The Vancouver Labor Council Wrote Asking Intervention in Coal Miners' Strike

WORKERS SEE HUMOR IN M'BRIDE'S REPLY

Eagerness of Bowser and Hearty Co-operation of Macgowan Cause Laughter

SAYS EARLY ACTION ON PUBLIC WORKS NEEDED

Vancouver, June 20.—With a view to alleviating the lot of the unemployed in Vancouver and other parts of British Columbia, the Trades and Labor Council last night passed a resolution calling upon the provincial government to purchase the unsalable bonds of cities and municipalities. The resolution, introduced by Delegate Pettipiece, was unanimously passed.

In connection with this resolution, Delegate Knight deprecated the utterances of Mr. Horne-Payne, capitalist, who had suggested to Old Country investors that they should hold up city municipal bonds. He claimed that if money was not forthcoming to carry on public works, there would be considerable suffering. Delegate Pettipiece was of the opinion that unless their endeavors to bring an end to the coal miners' strike on Vancouver Island. The replies from these showed that so far as organized labor was concerned, they were classed as humorists. Sir Richard's reply, which was as follows, created considerable laughter:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th instant, stating that your council requested me to use the authority and influence of the government of British Columbia to bring pressure to bear upon the mine owners of Vancouver Island with a view to inducing them to meet representatives of the unions of the miners, who are now on strike, for the purpose of bringing about a basis of agreement whereby the present trouble between the miners and operators can be speedily terminated."

"In reply I beg to say that some months ago I unsuccessfully tendered my services toward the much-desired termination of the strike. Now, however, in the absence of a joint request for my intervention from both miners and operators, it is not deemed advisable that I should force myself into the position of mediator."

Attorney-General Bowser wrote: "I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th instant in reference to the government using the best auspices in connection with the settlement of the strike on Vancouver Island. As such movement as this is one entirely of policy it is, of course, the responsibility of the honorable the premier, but I will be glad to bring the matter to his attention and give him the benefit of my views."

SUFFRAGETTE ESCAPES IN CLOTHING OF MAN

Lillian Lenton Released After Hunger Strike Has Again Eluded Police

London, June 20.—Miss Lillian Lenton, the militant suffragette, who was convicted of having started the fire in the Kew tea garden pavilion, and who had given the police much trouble, has escaped in man's clothes from the house, where she was living in Leeds pending the expiration of her license. Miss Lenton was released from jail in March because of illness caused by a hunger strike. She broke her license and was not heard of again until June 16, when she was arrested at Doncaster under dramatic circumstances and sent back to jail. Miss Lenton immediately started another hunger strike, and got out on license a few days ago. She was placed in a house at Leeds until she had sufficiently recovered to be returned to jail and police guarded the house. She again eluded them and got away yesterday.

WOULD IMPROVE THE SYSTEM OF BANKING

By Informal Discussion President Hopes to Bring About Harmony at Debate

CURRENCY BILL IS BEFORE CONGRESS

Interest Centres in Supervision by Board Over Reserve Banks

RETIREMENT OF TWO PER CENT. BONDS IS PROBLEM

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Congress turned its eyes away from the tariff to-day and scrutinized the administration currency bill. While the measure will not be introduced in both Houses until next week, the tentative draft brought about informal discussion by which President Wilson and Democratic leaders hoped to develop harmony when the bill is launched for debate and amendment.

While it has been known for some time the framers of measures, Secretary McAdoo, Senator Owen, Rep. Glass and the president contemplated a system of twelve regional reserve banks, interest centred to-day in the powers of supervision to be exercised by the federal reserve board of nine members over the reserve banks.

The underlying idea the framers has been to effect an easy and unembarassing change from the banking system by using the machinery now in existence. The bill is expected to be the subject of liberal amendment by its authors. Provision for the retirement of two per cent. bonds, by which $700,000,000 of national bank notes now are secured, so as to provide against depreciation, will be one of the foremost provisions.

The provision for note issue, administration supporters hope, will not be changed. It is also to be the result of a careful canvass not only of prominent bankers, but business men who thought it practicable and sound. The operation of the plan is explained in this way: Whenever a state or national bank desires to obtain currency, it applies first to the federal reserve bank in its region, accompanying its application with a tender of collateral security. The security thus offered must be notes and bills adopted for rediscunt under rules laid down by the federal reserve board, which may issue up to $500,000 in notes. The federal reserve banks must hold 33 1/3 per cent. in gold of the amount of the notes advanced. The notes also become a first and permanent lien on all the assets of the federal reserve banks.

The element of elasticity is obtained, according to administration officials, in the levying of an interest charge on the note issue. The rate is to be established by the federal reserve board with due regard to the prevailing charge in the money market. It is calculated that a fall in the demand for money, accompanied by a decline in the market rate of interest, will furnish an incentive for the retirement of the treasury notes.

In permitting the federal reserve board to direct the transfer of funds among federal reserve banks, the board may at its own discretion act as a clearing house for the reserve banks, and can require the federal reserve banks in turn to act as a clearing house for shareholding banks.

TO PAY DAMAGES FOR AEROPLANE COLLISION

One Thousand for Aviator and Twice That Sum for Maker of Machine.

Paris, June 20.—An action brought by Captains Dickson and Thomas, aviators, to determine who was responsible for an aviation accident in Milan in 1910 when two aeroplanes were in collision, ended with a verdict in favor of Thomas yesterday. The judge decided that Dickson was to blame and ordered him to pay $1,000 damages to Thomas and $2,000 damages to the makers of the aeroplanes in which Thomas was flying at the time of the collision, in addition to paying four-fifths of the costs of the litigation.

Thomas claimed $18,000 damages, while Dickson claimed $30,000 for injuries which he received as the result of the accident and the destruction of his business.

CHECK IS PLACED ON HINDU IMMIGRATION

United States Prevents Unrestrained Admission of Malay Races

Washington, D. C., June 20.—To check further complications of Pacific coast problems by unrestrained admission of Hindus and the Malay races of Asia to continental United States from the United States insular possessions, Secretary of Labor Wilson, on recommendation of Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti, has made a far-reaching amendment to the immigration regulations.

The modification authorizes immigration officials at mainland ports to reject aliens coming from the insular possessions unless it should appear that at the time of entry thereof they were not members of the excluded classes or likely to become public charges.

This action was the outcome of the cases of three Hindus who arrived at San Francisco from the Philippines and were detained on the ground that they might become public charges. The circumstances in this caused Secretary Wilson to order the admission of the Hindus.

Several thousands of Hindus are in the Philippines and a large number in Hawaii. It has been the practice to open the doors of the United States to the races upon presentation of certificates showing they were examined and passed at a United States insular port of entry.

As the law does not specifically designate between entries in the United States and the insular possessions, officials anticipate litigation over the amendment unless congress confirms them by statute.

MARCONI DEBATE IS CLOSED IN COMMONS

Sub-Motion by Sir W. R. D. Adkins Accepts Explanations of Ministers

London, June 20.—"Resolved, that this House, after hearing the statement of the Attorney-General and the Chancellor of the Exchequer in reference to the purchase of shares in the Marconi Company, of America, accepts their explanation of regret that such purchases were made, and that they were not mentioned in the debate of October 11, last, and acquits them of acting otherwise than in good faith, and reproaches the charges of corruption against the minister, which have been proved to be absolutely false."

With this sub-motion, proposed by Sir William R. D. Adkins, adopted by a vote of 346 to 268, the House of Commons officially closed the Marconi affair last night.

The heavy guns of both parties—the prime minister, Mr. Asquith, and the secretary of foreign affairs, Sir Edward Grey, in behalf of their colleagues under inquisition, and A. J. Balfour and Andrew Bonar Law, for the Conservatives—led the debate and attack. The proceedings were judicial and solemn. There were other speakers, and some skirmishes occurred, but there were none of the pyrotechnics which Chancellor Lloyd George and Lord Robert Cecil furnished yesterday. Even the member of the Irish benches, who usually can be depended upon to produce excitement, seemed strangely dispassionate.

The speeches of the prime minister and the secretary for foreign affairs gave the impression that the advocates were not enthusiastic over their clients. Mr. Balfour and Mr. Law had the appearance of performing a disagreeable duty.

Henry Edward Duke, Unionist for Exeter, assailed the majority report which he said "sought to give the go-by to a mass of facts." He declared that this was an affront to the intelligence of members.

Mr. Bonar Law, the opposition leader, said that his party had no desire to drive the ministers out of public life. The opposition had not used the charges vindictively, the ministers were along to blame for the situation which had arisen. When the country found, after the speeches in October, that the ministers had been dealing in Marconi shares, the country was astonished and angry.

"The party opposite," said Mr. Law, "has always made the claim to special virtues; the Attorney-General said yesterday that the government's stand was the higher. In the circumstances the claim was not altogether appropriate."

"The charge the opposition makes is that two ministers have done things which, in their position, they ought not to have done, and have shown a lack of moral courage in attempting to conceal from the public what they have done."

Sir Edward Grey concluded the debate. He said, "If the motion of the opposition were passed, it would mean that the political career of these two ministers is ended forever. If there were corruption or dishonorable conduct, they ought to go; but there has been only carelessness. The House ought not to pass any motion that could be regarded as a vote of censure. Everyone admits that an earlier acknowledgment should have been made of the transactions."

The secretary continuing said the House should do everything in its power to relieve the ministers of inquiry done them by the charges of corruption, although, he declared, nothing that it did could right the wrong they had suffered.

The vote on Sir Wm. Adkins' amendment was strictly on party lines, the Laborites and Nationalists supporting the government, although a few Liberals and Laborites refrained from voting.

Afterwards the House adopted it as a substitute for the resolution introduced yesterday by George Cave, on behalf of the opposition without division. The committee majority report, which was generally called a "white-wash," had not a friend from the beginning, except its authors.

ALFRED RAPER DEAD.

Vancouver, June 20.—The Provincial police have received a message from Van Anda reporting the death there of Alfred Raper, for more than twelve years a justice of the peace in the Van Anda district. The message was very brief, simply stating that Mr. Raper had been found dead in bed. He was of advanced age, and it is thought that his death was due to natural causes. The late Mr. Raper was born in Yorkshire, England, and came to Victoria while a boy in a sailing ship.

LLOYD GEORGE HEARS LENA ASHWELL'S PLEA

Actress Objects to Paying Tax Bill Addressed to Her Husband

London, June 20.—Lena Ashwell, the actress, had a heart to hear talk with Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George to-day in reference to the rights of women. She spoke as a member of a deputation from the Women's Tax Resistance League, which visited Mr. Lloyd George. It was not a claim for the suffrage that these women made, but a demand that married women who were paying an income tax on their own property be treated as "a separate taxable unit" instead of as a sort of chattel to their husbands.

Mrs. Ashwell pointed out that for more than fifteen years she had paid her income tax out of her own earnings, but since she married Dr. Simpson her tax paper was delivered at the theatre addressed to him with "for wife" in brackets. She said that the manager, in an entirely unknown world to her husband, whose interests are elsewhere, and although she had the highest opinion of his talents, he was quite incapable of informing the government about her work or earnings.

"How would you," she asked, Mr. Lloyd George, "for any other Walton Heath golf champion like to find yourself nameless? But I must be referred to in hushed brackets when I am parting with my hard earned money for the nation's good. Surely anything that is a parenthesis, an accidental possession, ought not to be on the list of those who support the expenses of a great nation."

Mr. Lloyd George mildly admitted that the law in its present form treated women as having no legal existence, but he pointed out that it was a question of revenue. The law as it stands allows the abatement of the tax "when the incomes of the husband and wife are treated jointly," which would be doubled if they were treated separately. He added that the cost of collecting the revenue was $7,500,000.

Nevertheless he thought that women were certain to protest against this humiliation. It was, he said, a gross injustice to deny women a share in framing laws which they must obey, and which often affect them more than men.

COAL Caution

Should prompt careful folks to study the conditions of supply with an eye to the future. We are not alarmists, but it is conceded by those who know the real situation, that there's bound to be a big shortage of coal throughout next winter, and prices—well, they won't drop. Even if the strike were settled much sooner than likely, trouble is already certain and the moral is obvious: LAY IN AS MUCH AS YOU CAN FIND SPACE FOR, AND DO IT NOW.

RECIPROCITY BEFORE SENATE FINANCIERS

Committee Has Amendment Giving President Wider Powers for Treaties With Nations

Washington, D. C., June 20.—An amendment to the Underwood tariff bill adopted by the majority of the members of the senate finance committee would give the president of the United States authority to suspend certain rates in the proposed law and to proclaim special rates against nations which discriminate against products of the United States.

The amendment is appended to the clause giving the president authority to negotiate reciprocity agreements with other nations, and in some respects resembles the maximum and minimum claims of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law eliminated in the House bill.

In substance the amendment would provide that when any nation discriminates against the products of the United States or imposes restrictions upon United States exports, or, in the opinion of the president, does not reciprocate in trade relations, "the president, by proclamation, may suspend certain rates and put in effect other rates."

Only specified articles, it is understood, are to be included under the terms of this amendment, and the retaliatory rates are specified also. Among the articles included in the list upon which the president might suspend rates are fish, wheat, wheat flour, coffee, tea, carbonware, wines and malt liquors, silk dress goods, leather, gloves, jewelry, sugars and molasses. The duties prescribed vary as to the different articles.

Fish, it is reported, will be dutiable at 1c a pound, wheat at 10c a bushel, flour at 45c a barrel, coffee and leather a few cents a pound.

On other items the penalty would be a double rate, while on sugars, which probably never would be affected, the rate would be only a fraction of a cent per pound.

The amendment, of course, is subject to ratification of the Democratic Senatorial caucus, which will begin work on the bill to-morrow.

Besides adding this amendment, the majority members stripped the administrative provisions of the Underwood bill of many of its new features, including the inquisitorial clause, which gave American agents the right to examine foreigners' books in case of disputed import valuations. They also struck out the provisions requiring registration bureaus for commissionaires and agents in American consulates, the provision to give the secretary of the treasury the right to determine the existence or non-existence of a foreign market, the anti-dumping clause, which provides excess duties on imports under tariff discount on imports in American vessels.

The action of the committee strikes from the bill all the provisions which aroused protests from foreign nations.

Democratic members declare that the total of their alterations will make a net increase in the estimated revenue to be derived from the bill as it passed the House of more than $5,000,000. The bulk of the gross increase has been provided by taking bananas from the free list and making them dutiable at 5c a bunch, and by the repeal of an act which exempted brandies used in fortifying wines from the full internal revenue tax of $10 a gallon. These two changes, the committee estimates, will bring an annual revenue of about $9,000,000.

WERE COINING MONEY WHEN POLICE ENTERED

One of Three Surprised in Model Mint Escapes by an Open Window.

San Francisco, June 20.—Forebly entering a suite of rooms in the Naval House, on Folsom street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, a posse of policemen and several secret service men captured two men, alleged to be counterfeiters, who have flooded the southern portion of the city with spurious coins, and captured a complete outfit for the manufacture of dollars and half-dollars. That the men were in the act of making the coins when the government representatives broke open the door, is the assertion of those who participated in the raid.

Three men were in the rooms when the posse made its forcible entry, but in the melee that followed the hurried entrance of the secret service men and policemen, one of the men made his escape through a window. Fred Cune, recently, it is alleged, discharged from the McNeil Island federal penitentiary, where he served time for counterfeiting, was one of the men arrested. The other man refused to give his name, but from remarks he made when taken to the southern police station, where he was booked in detinue, it is suspected that he, too, has "served time."

TO SELL VANCOUVER COURT HOUSE SITE

City on Inlet Thought Government of Province Was Without Nerve

Vancouver, June 20.—From the chief engineer of the provincial government department of works has gone forth the word that the old courthouse is to be demolished, and its famous site, the block between Cambie, Pender, Hamilton and Hastings streets is to be sold by auction. This announcement is made by J. E. Griffith.

Aldermen of last year's city council, however, did not expect such an announcement in any hurry. In committee to consider the matter of the courthouse site, and the desirability of securing it for the city, they recommended that the provincial government offer to sell for $1,000,000 the lot contemplated, and added that they considered it only right and fair to Vancouver that the provincial government should give this open space to the people.

The council adopted that committee's report, and remarks were heard in the council chamber to the effect that the provincial government would never have the nerve to deprive the citizens of this site for a city breathing space. Nothing further was done by the city in the matter, although Alderman Cameron, speaking to a motion to purchase the Kitsilano reserve suggested that the government might be induced to grant the courthouse site to Vancouver, if Vancouver renounced any civic claims upon the reserve.

Interviewed on the matter of the proposed demolition of the old courthouse and the sale of the site, Mayor Baxter remarked yesterday that there was no course open to the city, but to make a cash offer for the site, and that a city with little cash in its lockers to spare (except for ordinary civic undertakings, could hardly be expected to get into the market for so valuable a property as this.

"No action that I am aware of is being taken by the city following the announcement that the old courthouse site will be put on sale," said the mayor. "Of course, action may be taken in some form or other by the council, that is, an alderman may voice a protest or suggest some effort, but that remains still in the future, and I have nothing to say on what may be done."

KILLED BURGLAR AND COMMITTED SUICIDE

Japanese Porter Prefers Not to Go With Police at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 20.—Taro Awamura, a Japanese porter of a lodging house, killed a burglar yesterday, and committed suicide when a police officer asked him to explain. Papers in his possession led the police to believe he had been engaged in illegal traffic, and that the fear of facing prosecution on charges growing out of this rather than of shooting the burglar, impelled him to take his life.

There were two robbers, and they took $55 from under the pillow of C. fell dead. The other escaped, Awamura heard the burglars as they ran down the hallway. He fired two shots, and one of the men, as yet unidentified, fell dead. The other escaped. Awamura then told the proprietor that a man had been killed in the house. When the officers called on Awamura he asked for time to pack some clothing, and fired a bullet into his own brain.

APPROVES OF WILSON'S ATTITUDE TO MEXICO

Senator Bacon Says Recognition Should Be Withheld Until Peace Restored in Republic.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—The Huerta government is a revolutionary government and not the result of a legitimate succession to the Mexican administration, declared Senator Bacon, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee as he left the White House.

"I am not in favor of recognition," said he, "I don't see any serious movement in Washington leaning in that direction. A large part of Mexico is up in arms, and the northern part is in the control of the Constitutionalists, and until there is complete peace and order and legal elections there should be no recognition. I approve of the policy of the president in withholding recognition as there does not appear to be a stable regime in existence in the Mexican republic."

FRANCE ANNEXES ISLANDS.

Melbourne, June 20.—France has very quietly annexed the Wallis Islands, which lie in the Pacific to the north of the Tonga group. This information was received from Fiji to-day.

HURRICANE BRINGS LETHBRIDGE DAMAGE

Lethbridge, Alta., June 20.—A combined hurricane and cloudburst struck Lethbridge at 6 o'clock last night and considerable damage is reported. The city spent the night in darkness, owing to the disabling of the power plant, and in loneliness, as the telephone and telegraph lines were partially destroyed. The gale ripped the roofs off several houses, permitting heavy damage by water.

Several barns, outhouses and fences were blown down and many trees destroyed. In some cases in the city shacks were rolled about like boxes and piled up one upon another. Only one serious accident occurred, thus being a little boy named Greor, who was seriously cut on the arm by flying tin. The rain came down in a perfect deluge and scores of cellars were flooded. The precipitation, which in an hour here amounted to 1 1/2 inches, was general over the south country.

THISBE AND PYRAMUS FOUND IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, June 20.—To discover that he is in possession of a picture valued at $200,000 is the pleasant fate of Dr. Summers, an artist and musician of Perth, West Australia. While on a visit to this city, Dr. Summers was struck by a canvas representing "Thisbe and Pyramus," and bought it for $250. On submitting it to experts, it was found that the picture is a genuine Rubens. The vendor paid just 35 cents for the treasure in the first place, and thought himself extremely lucky to get Dr. Summers' $250. "Thisbe and Pyramus" is now on its way to the national gallery to be finally identified. Experts are, however, unanimous that the canvas is a genuine Rubens.

BEAUTIFYING THE CAPITAL.

An order in council was recently passed at Ottawa providing for the appointment of a commission consisting of six members to devise an elaborate plan for the beautification of the national capital and the city of Hull, a few hundred yards across the Ottawa river on the Quebec side. The proposal evidently is to extend the work so effectively performed by the Ottawa Improvement Commission, a body organized by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and generously financed by the federal government. This board, composed of several of Ottawa's most prominent and public spirited citizens, has accomplished wonders in the improvement of the capital. It has provided splendid parks and roadways along the river, while the driveway along the Rideau canal to the experimental farm is one of the finest on the continent.

We suspect Mr. Borden has in view the organization of a federal district taking in Ottawa and Hull, along the lines of the District of Columbia. The proposal is not new and has met with opposition in certain quarters every time it has been mooted. It would involve the administration of the district by a commission and would squelch the political aspirations of a large number of ambitious individuals, but it would make Ottawa a capital of rare beauty and attraction. The town of Hull, which is connected with Ottawa by several bridges, does not so readily lend itself to beautification as the larger city. It is mainly an industrial centre, with its frontage on the stately river occupied almost wholly by mills. The admirable interest shown by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden in beautifying the federal capital is worthy of emulation by the provincial government with respect to Victoria. The time is at hand when something might well be done on this line. In natural beauty and situation Victoria has Ottawa beaten off the map. Climatologically there is no comparison between the two places, and we are peculiarly adaptable to some scheme of improvement which, though on a less extensive scale than that proposed for Ottawa, would make this the most beautiful capital on the continent.

CANADA IS NINTH.

Canada holds ninth place in the world's shipping. Her tonnage is greater than that of Austria, Sweden, Holland or Spain, which furnishes food for reflection and retrospection, especially when we consider the annals of the two last-named countries. Every schoolboy knows that Spain once was the chief maritime nation of the globe. Her intrepid navigators penetrated to the remote regions; her majestic galleons rode upon every sea; the names of her great captains are commemorated in lands over which wave a score of ensigns.

Holland, too, sent forth her hardy mariners to the four quarters of the earth and developed an overseas commerce which was protected by the illustrious Van Tromp, De Witt and De Ruyster, in whom Blake found foemen worthy of his steel. And now both these great marine powers of other years have been outstripped by Canada—Canada, a baby nation which will celebrate her forty-sixth birthday ten days hence. And we have scarcely begun to plow the seven seas. Our commerce for the most part is by land, the bulk of the remainder being with the mother country. The key to further expansion is the development of overseas markets. Without these all the subsidies a generous people can provide will avail but little. Commercial necessities and opportunities are the bases of all maritime enterprise. Ships come here because we furnish a market for the products of other countries and they carry from our ports the products we sell overseas.

Great Britain, of course, leads in shipping—tonnage her total being 12,560,488 out of a world aggregate of 25,512,428. The nine leading powers are as follows:

Great Britain	12,560,488
Germany	2,094,144
United States	2,617,791
Norway	1,639,964
France	1,431,402
Russia	1,094,619
Italy	1,027,662
Japan	1,009,515
Canada	836,278

WHAT A SHAMI!

We are told it is not so rarely to scoff at the alleged efforts of Hon. Geo. E. Foster to secure wider markets for Canadian goods in Australia, New Zealand, Japan, China, Korea, Braham-pootra, Tibet, etc. That is not our disposition at all. We are not blaming Geo. E. He is simply doing what nineteen men in twenty would do if placed in a similar position. He is having a good time travelling at the country's expense. The government of which he is a member does not particularly want the Minister of Trade and Commerce at home. It desires that he should go out and pretend to do something for the extension of trade, but it knows that if business between Canada and other countries that do real business, such as Great Britain and the United States, is to be promoted there must be mutual concessions. In other words, there must be a clearing away of obstacles to business transactions. There must be mutual concessions. That, as nearly every one now knows, is something the influences behind the Borden government will not tolerate. The Canadian Big Interests contributed millions to assist the alleged loyalists behind the Borden government to fight reciprocity because reciprocity meant wider markets, or relief to the consumers of both countries from the unjust exactions of those who at present control the home markets. If any deluded opponent of reciprocity were to propose an increase of the British preference as an avenue of escape from current extortion and a substitute for "truck and trade with the Yankees," there would be just as fierce a fight by the same Big Interests against his proposition. Just to prove what a sham this search for wider markets is, let us look at the instance of the trade agreement with the West Indies. With some pretence at following the Liberal doctrine of wider markets the government put through the West Indies trade agreement. It has increased the cost of cocoa products and given $500,000 a year to Canadian sugar refiners. The preference was extended to a lot of places chiefly known to explorers and missionaries. Trade was discouraged in its natural channels. The net result of this ingenuity has been the further protection of "the interests" and a steady increase in the cost of living.

MINNESOTA RATE CASE.

Of far-reaching importance was the decision of the United States Supreme Court the other day in what is known as the Minnesota rate case. The dispute in point was one in which were lined up the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railways on one side and the executive authority of the state of Minnesota on the other. The state had established certain freight rates and a two cent passenger rate within its boundaries, and the big interstate road had obtained from the United States Circuit Court for the district of Minnesota an injunction restraining the authorities from enforcing the regulation. In their petition for an injunction the railroads contended that the rates were confiscatory and objected to the methods of ascertaining the valuation of their properties, on which the basis for estimating a just and reasonable rate was fixed. Their main contention, however, was that the attempt of the state to fix a rate over an interstate road, even between two points within the state where the rate fell below the interstate rate approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission covering practically the same haul, was a burden upon interstate commerce. In 1911 a conference of the governors of the various states was held, at which it was decided to take the case to the highest tribunal in the union. The decision of that body recently entered sustains the power of state commissions and legislatures to fix rates within their boundaries provided they are not confiscatory. No longer will it be possible for the roads to attack state rates on the ground that they have been fixed without authority in law.

But the Supreme Court's decision, while favoring the state under existing circumstances of law, opened the door for further recourses by the railroads. It declared that Congress had the power to override the state authorities whenever that law-making body desired to exercise it. In this connection the court held: "That the Constitution gives Congress an authority at all times adequate to secure the freedom of interstate commercial intercourse from state control and to provide effective regulation of that intercourse as the national interest may demand." There will now begin an agitation on the part of the railroads doing interstate business for Congress to exercise the authority which the Supreme Court declares it possesses. Our dispatches from Washington yesterday, however, indicate that the present political complexion of Congress makes this possibility remote. The Democrats are traditionally associated with the championship of state rights and are scarcely likely to make any move which would trespass upon them.

Manager Goward of the B. C. Electric has probably found out quite early in the game that there is a "fly in the ointment," if we may be permitted a slight mixture in our figure of speech. Amongst the congratulations the manager is receiving on the completion of the Saanich extension are probably some criticisms of the rates proposed to be charged on the new line. The natural assumption must be that the tariff is based upon the capital cost of the undertaking coupled with an estimate of the traffic possibilities of the district to be served. Competition (and on paper there appears to be plenty of it in prospect along the peninsula) may modify conditions as they at present appear to the experts who have fixed the rates.

Even those in very high places are not exempt from the effects of vicissitudes in the stock markets. A report in going the rounds of the press that King George is a hundred thousand dollars poorer than he thought he was as a consequence of the decline in C. P. R. shares. The story is probably a Yankee invention, some one will say. But even if true His Majesty need not worry. Let him hold on to his stock and he will draw very fair dividends with unflinching regularity. There are more uncertain investments than C. P. R. stocks.

Now man, once proud man, is imitating the follies of the women suffragettes. The very latest is a case, of course, of "the woman that Thou gavest me," etc. Now we shall see whether the voluntary sacrifice of one of the male gender will accomplish something that hunger strikes have failed to effect. Frankly, we have our doubts.

It is reported that some monks of St. Petersburg have gone on strike because the superior will not allow them to wear trousers. At this particular time of the year their request is neither reasonable nor reasonable. Now in the winter—

Better Values in High-Grade Bedding For Week-End Shoppers

Many of our customers will be glad to hear that a new shipment of Bedding has just been opened up, and while the quality of the goods would warrant our selling at a higher price, yet we have retained our popular low prices. There are also a number of new lines in both Sheets and Pillow Cases which we have confidence in recommending.

HEMSTITCHED PILLOW CASES. We have about 70 dozen in stock, but at the rate they usually sell, they will not be here long. They are made from strong quality cambric, finished with a neat 2 1/2 inch hemstitch. This quality is without an equal at the price. They are good values at per dozen, $4.00. Our Special Price $3.00

PLAIN HEMSTITCHED PILLOW CASES, in the lower prices. Pillow Shirts. We carry two lines, made from strong bleached cotton, neatly hemmed and in various sizes. Per dozen, $2.50 and $2.00

TWILLED SHEETS—This line would be a good seller at $2.40 a pair, but we make a special line of it and the large numbers we sell fully justifies our action. Full size, measuring 2 x 2 1/2 yards, made from a strong quality of bleached sheeting and free from dressing. Very special value, per pair $1.75

SHEETS in three qualities, at per pair, $2.50. We have a plain, heavy cotton sheet, 2 1/2 yards; a fine twilled sheet, size 2 1/2 yards, and an extra wide plain sheet, size 2 1/2 x 2 1/2. Each of these qualities will give every satisfaction in wear.

WHITE WOOLEN BLANKETS. Our reputation for selling reliable blankets at the lowest prices has not been attained without some effort on our part. It is only by specializing in these goods, taking particular care only to buy values of undoubted quality and those that will meet the requirements of our numerous clients, and being content with a low margin of profit, that we can hope to retain that reputation. English, Scotch and Canadian weaves are all represented here, and your choice from a wool and cotton mixture to an all pure woolen blanket; at prices ranging from, per pair, $12.00 to $3.00

OUR SPECIAL WHITE BLANKET, full size, sells at $4.00

CITY GETS SOOKE PLANT

Valuation to be Made by Independent Parties; City in Possession at Once.

I. B. Innis, receiver for the Westholme Lumber Company, has reached an agreement with the city engineer whereby the city will take over the plant at Sooke Lake which has been the subject of litigation and a valuation by independent parties will be made right away as the basis of cost. It is agreed, however, that in the meantime the tents and tools and other materials are at the disposal of the city immediately and the question of price will be decided later. The engineer will, therefore, be able to increase his staff at Sooke Lake and go ahead with the work in real earnest.

ESQUIMALT SEWERS.

By-law for the Borrowing of $400,000 Will be Voted Upon by People on Wednesday Next.

The sewer loan by-law, which is being placed before the ratepayers of Esquimalt, and which will be voted upon on Wednesday next, is being received very favorably by the people.

There is no difference of opinion as to the need of sewers in the district, and the adoption of some comprehensive scheme for the drainage of the area within the settled portions of the town at least.

That the plans tentatively decided upon by the council meet with the approval of the residents generally seems to be certain, and the supporters of the by-law are looking for a large vote in favor of it on Wednesday. In another column will be found the text of the by-law, and this gives the outlines of the council's proposals.

GARDEN PARTY A SUCCESS.

Event at Mrs. J. D. Carlin's Was Pleasant and Attracted Many.

A most enjoyable garden party was held on Wednesday afternoon and evening in the grounds of Mrs. J. D. Carlin's home, Cadboro Bay road, under the auspices of the ladies of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, the Willows. Delicious tea and light refreshments were dispensed during the afternoon, while gaily decorated candy and cigar booths did a big business in these luxuries. The Misses Teator and Finerty did a brisk sale in soft drinks also, both during the afternoon and evening. After 8.30 the gardens were prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns and colored electric lights, and a delightful programme of music, dances, recitations, etc., passed the time away in most enjoyable fashion. Among the vocalists who assisted during the evening were Mrs. Parker and Miss Finerty; the latter winning the contest for the most popular young lady, which was held early in the proceedings. The Misses Casenave and Lipsky had charge of a successful candle contest, and other helpers were Mrs. Mahoney, Mrs. Neary, Mrs. Colbert, Mrs. O'Callaghan and others.

INSPECTORS' EXAMINATION.

Thirty-Six Applicants for Civic Position Wrote on Paper Set by Architects.

Thirty-six applicants wrote this afternoon at the examination set by Messrs. Ferree and Butler for the position of assistant city building inspector. Owing to the fact that the inter-municipal committee was meeting in the council chamber tables were placed in the police court room and the men wrote their papers there. The examination papers will be reviewed by the two architects appointed for the purpose, and the results submitted to the council. On the results shown the council will select its man for the new office.

JUNE WEDDINGS SOLEMNIZED.

Mrs. Hamilton Becomes the Bride of Mr. Alex. Forest and Miss Florence Brown Weds Dr. A. C. Sinclair.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday evening at Emmanuel Baptist Church Manse, when Rev. Wm. Stevenson performed the ceremony of uniting in the bonds of holy wedlock Mrs. Louise Hamilton, of Atlanta, Georgia, and Mr. Alexander Forest, of this city. The bride, who wore a smart travelling suit, was attended by Mrs. Blake as matron-of-honor, Captain Blake acting as best man.

At the close of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the bride's home, 585 Johnson street, where a delicious supper was served, and a toast to the bride and groom responded to with enthusiasm, a reception being held later in the evening to the numerous friends of the happy pair who will make their home in the city.

RANGER IS DROWNED.

Overturned Canoe Found Near Tete Jaune Cache Tells Its Silent Tale of a Tragedy.

From a wire received at the forest branch of the provincial administration it appears to be certain that a forest ranger in the Tete Jaune Cache country has lost his life in the Fraser river.

One of the rangers named Thorpe is missing and the discovery of a canoe in the neighborhood of the pass indicates that someone has lost his life there. The river at this season of the year is very high and rough, besides which the water is, of course, quite cold from the large amount of melted snow from the mountains that is coming down. It is said by those who know the river that no man, however good a swimmer he might be, would have any chance in the waters if he got into them.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

A. R. Leatherbarrow and J. Bailey Charged With Theft of Boat.

Arthur R. Leatherbarrow, Victoria, waiter, and J. Bailey, Esquimalt, carpenter, were arraigned in the provincial police court late yesterday afternoon on charges of stealing a boat belonging to James M. Isbister, Foster's Pier, Esquimalt. After hearing the evidence for the prosecution, presented by J. Chas. McIntosh, the township solicitor, and statements by the accused, Magistrate Jay committed them for trial.

Mr. Isbister testified to missing a rowboat on June 17 and described it. The boat was last seen on June 16 and the harbor searched for it, but when he could not find it he informed the police. He valued the boat at $50.

Constable Sadler yesterday saw a boat which answered the description, and Mr. Isbister identified it as his.

Leatherbarrow's story was that he had gone out fishing for two or three days, and on Monday Bailey had said he had a boat he could let him have. This one was being painted so Bailey got another, that now in question. Witness swore that he knew nothing of the ownership of the boat, but supposed it was Bailey's.

Mr. McIntosh wanted to know how a lamb found in the boat by the constable got there. He said it had evidently fallen over the rocks at Macaulay Point and it was lying where the rising tide would have drowned it. They took it into the boat, intending to find the owner.

Bailey explained the taking of the Isbister boat as a matter of mistake. He had a boat moored at Foster's Pier, "the identical same," and thought that this was the one he was talking of. In cross-examination by Mr. McIntosh he said his boat is painted grey inside and out. The Isbister boat is red outside and grey inside.

SECOND IN PORTS OF REGISTRATION

Victoria Closing on Montreal for Premier Honor; British Columbia Fourth

Following a strenuous fight which has extended over a long period of time Victoria has bested Montreal in the race for the distinction of being the premier port of Canada, and now that she has accomplished that gigantic task she is out to relieve the Eastern metropolis of her sole remaining honor, that of having the largest amount of tonnage registered there.

At the present time Montreal is well off in front in the latter race, but anyone who has followed the reports for the past few years will readily see that Victoria is gaining fast, and that inside of about three years will be well established in first place. With the arrival of the two new C. P. R. coasting boats and the numerous additions which are to be made by the steamship companies operating out of Victoria the returns for this port will be given a substantial boost and will be found nesting close behind Montreal.

The figures that tell—

The Times has just received from the Marine and Fisheries Department at Ottawa the registry book of Canada for the year ending December 31, 1912. The following figures show how the five leading ports of Canada stand:

Port	No. Vessels	Net Tonnage
Montreal	844	170,663
Victoria	361	74,017
Vancouver	365	69,151
Quebec	787	50,234
	624	48,217

From the above figures it can be observed that Victoria has less than half the number of boats registered here than Montreal. The class of steamers on this coast is far ahead of that on the East coast. Montreal's mosquito fleet, comprising tenders for the ocean liners, tug and river steamers, boosts its figures high. When it comes down to palatial ships Victoria has Montreal badly beaten, as they cannot show anything that can equal the "Princess" and "Prince" fleets.

In Fourth of Provinces.

British Columbia is in fourth place upon the development of Prince Rupert, New Westminster and Nanaimo and several other promising ports in British Columbia, the figures will be raised a great deal higher and the province will be pressing Ontario and Quebec in a closer manner.

Ontario leads for the provinces with the larger amount of tonnage registered therein. The standing of the provinces is as follows:

Province	No. Vessels	Net Tonnage
Ontario	2,077	263,376
Quebec	1,066	227,048
Nova Scotia	2,133	145,224
British Columbia	1,276	136,618
New Brunswick	1,001	57,369
Prince Edward Island	148	9,577
Manitoba	96	6,095
Yukon District	14	2,549
Saskatchewan	5	2582
Total	6,380	836,278

Canada Ninth in World.

Compared with the maritime powers of the world, Canada is now firmly lodged in ninth place, which is a most creditable showing for a country so young as Canada. Great Britain leads with 12,860,485, and her nearest competitor is Germany with 3,064,144 tons. United States follows, with Norway fourth, France fifth, Russia sixth, Italy seventh, Japan eighth, and Canada ninth.

The returns for registration this year promise to be even more sensational than those for 1912.

SCHOONER MARKLAND AT 'FRISCO; HAS FINE RUN

Making the long run between Victoria and San Francisco in nine days, the former sealing schooner Markland, Capt. Oscar Cameron, reached the Golden Gate yesterday morning. The trip was uneventful, and the trim little vessel was favored with fair weather throughout the passage. The Markland, which was one of the best schooners of the fleet and was bought in for $1,900 by Jos. Boscowitz at the auction sale of the fleet, has had an interesting career and made several noteworthy trips in pursuit of the fur-bearing animals.

COLUSA AT 'FRISCO.

San Francisco, June 20.—The British steamer Colusa arrived from her builders' yards in Glasgow via New York at 11.30 Wednesday night. She was scheduled to steam to-day for Tacoma, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, but will probably not get away before Saturday. She is expected to make the run to Victoria in 50 hours.

The Colusa will leave here July 12 for Panama, making the round trip in less than five weeks, including a stop of ten days at the Isthmus. The new vessel has 300 tons refrigeration capacity, which will be welcomed by the merchants of this port who send perishable produce to British Columbia. She is also equipped with the latest Marconi wireless system.

INDIANS PITCH TENTS ON DECK OF STEAMER

Tees Completes Interesting Trip to River's Inlet; Carried Big Crowd of Natives.

Upon her arrival in port yesterday afternoon the C. P. R. steamer Tees, Capt. Gilliam, completed one of the most interesting trips she has made since entering the west coast service. The schedule of the vessel only called for a trip to Clayoquot, but she was dispatched from Victoria two days earlier in order to carry a large contingent of Indians from Clayoquot, Ahousat, Hesquiat, Quaiquo and other Indian reservations to the River's Inlet canneries, where they will spend the summer fishing.

The Tees carried her full complement of passengers. The decks of the steamer presented a most unique appearance. The Indians pitched their tents and the gay coloring of their blankets and clothing added a peculiar touch to the whole scene. The weather was extremely fine and the many Indians stretched themselves on the deck and it was difficult for one to make his way along without stepping on them.

This was the first time that the Tees rounded Cape Scott and crossed Queen Charlotte Sound for a number of years. On the return trip she proceeded direct from the Inlet to Clayoquot.

Whalers Doing Good.

The officers of the Tees report that the whalers at Sechart and Kyuquot are making splendid catches at the present time. They are bringing in big whales right along. It is impossible to find out just how the catches stand, owing to the secrecy which is being maintained. The company will not permit its employees to enter into conversation with anyone regarding its business.

The Tees will sail for Holberg and way ports late to-night and will take out a full list of passengers. About the same time as the west coast steamer pulls out the Princess Sophia, Capt. Campbell, will depart for Prince Rupert and Skagway. Most of her passenger accommodation has been taken.

ASIA MAKES FIRST CALL COMING HERE

C. P. R. Crack Liner Left Madiera Yesterday; Crosses Equator Twice

After spending a day at Madiera, just north of the Canary Islands, and giving her globe-trotters an opportunity to look over the islands of world-wide fame and renowned, the new C. P. R. liner Empress of Asia, Capt. Beetham, sailed from that port yesterday, according to dispatches received here to-day. The palatial craft is now heading for Cape Town, and will arrive there on July 2. Two days will be spent in the Cape Colony port, and the white liner will then steam for Durban, where she is scheduled to berth on June 6. A stop of two days will be allowed there, and she will continue on to her regular ports of call in the Orient.

The Empress of Asia is coming to Victoria by a different route from that of her sister-ship, the Empress of Russia. Owing to the excessive heat which would be felt on the run via the Suez Canal at this season of the year, the C. P. R. decided to skirt the continent of South Africa. The passengers of the Asia will cross the equator across much amusement will be provided on board as Father Neptune is bound to pay the ship a visit, and give all the land-lubbers the initiation which accompanies "crossing the line."

The Empress of Asia is not due in Victoria until August 30, and there is some speculation as to whether she will break the record which was made by the Russia for the trans-Pacific voyage from Yokohama to Victoria.

JOE BAYLEY PREPARES FOR RIVAL V. A. C. SMOKER NEXT FRIDAY

Lightweight Champion is Seen by Club Members and His Friends Working Out

Joe Bayley, who is to fight "Frenchie" Vaise on Dominion Day at Brighthouse arena, is training daily at the Victoria Athletic Club's quarters along with the boys who are to meet several out of town scrappers at the club's big smoker on next Friday night. Joe is getting many of the boys to spar with him, and they, as well as he, are getting good work-outs.

The programme which the club will carry off promises to be a classy card fit to start to finish. The main event will be between Clarence Rothus, former S. A. C. star and Eddie Shannon, who is in Vancouver. Both boys will be here in a day or so to get their final training for the match at the local club. Rothus being out of town at the present time, Cyclone Scott, Bayley's well known sparring partner, will meet Barney Mallen, who at one time was a well known welterweight of the Northwest, and who can still go a bit to-day.

Another good bout on the bill will be between Stecker Mellon and Johnny Moran of this city. The latter having done considerable work in Joe Bayley's camp with the champion the last three months.

Beside the three bouts mentioned the management of the club expects to arrange a couple more between local lads as curtain raisers.

Moran and Scott can be seen working out with Bayley daily, commencing at about 2 o'clock. All members of the club are invited to see the champion working, and will be permitted to bring a friend or two.

The bouts will be over the four round route.

The club is after new members.

It is practically settled that Joe Bayley will meet Freddie Welsh at Brighthouse about the third week in July. There is some hitch over the division of the purse, but this will be straightened out this week, and the articles signed. The majority of boxing fans in Vancouver believe Bayley is tackling big game in the British champion, and that he may receive a setback. The Victoria boy thinks otherwise, and is willing to wager real money that he's right. Bayley is a clever boy, chockful of ambition and making the right move in going against Welsh at this stage is to be seen. Welsh is a pastmaster at the boxing game, knows every angle of it, and he may furnish a surprise. In any event it will be a great match.

"Frenchie" Vaise has returned the articles for a match with Bayley with his signature attached and the boys will mingle on Dominion Day. In the same ring on the same night Ernie Barrieau and Will Darnley will go six rounds, while Frank Barrieau and Danny O'Brien will step ten rounds.

San Francisco, June 20.—A referee for the Ritchie-Rosen fight, according to the articles of agreement, must be selected not later than one week from yesterday. Jim Griffin, who has acted in that capacity for most of the important battles including that in which Ritchie lifted the crown from Wolgast, seems to have a slight edge.

HARVARD TRIUMPHS OVER YALE ROWERS

New London, Conn., June 20.—Harvard won both the four-oared and freshman eight-oared races at the annual regatta with Yale to-day. The former race was won by fully five lengths to spare, while the latter was taken by a length and a half to the good. The official time of the freshman race was Harvard, 10:41; Yale, 10:45. It was an easy victory. The contests were rowed in a nasty rain. This and the rippled surface of the Thames caused slow time.

In the four-oared race the official time of the winner was eleven minutes and 12 seconds; Yale, 12 minutes 11 seconds.

Yale took the lead first, but Harvard soon put the nose of its shell to the front. The strong, even stroke of Harvard steadily opened up a gap between the two shells so that at the mile mark Yale was two lengths behind. This lead was increased to three lengths at the mile and three-quarters. Harvard flashed over the finish line five lengths ahead. The Yale crew was in bad shape at the end of the contest, No. 2 almost collapsing.

BOXES ON FRIDAY

EDDIE SHANNON
Well known boxer, who has been seen in the ring here before, who will take on Clarence Rothus in a four-round bout at the V. A. C. smoker next Friday night.

VICTORIANS WILL HANDLE LACROSSE GAME

Two Victoria men, Fred Cullin and Bob Dewar, have been selected to handle the lacrosse game at New Westminster tomorrow between Vancouver and Westminster. A win for Vancouver with a reminder is a rare thing, but with a re-arranged team by Con Jones expects to turn the trick on Saturday. It is time that the Vancouver boys got started if they are to be in the running at the conclusion of the league.

Con Jones is reported to have secured a couple of stars to turn professional from the V. A. C. amateur world's champions. Of course it would strengthen his team greatly, and weaken the team that the locals have to beat if they are to be considered at all now for the Mann cup championship.

SCOTTY M'KAY PICKS H. GATENBY TO WIN

Peter Busukos, the Greek wrestler, and the Yorkshireman, Gatenby will, by to-morrow night, be in perfect shape for their wrestling match on Monday night at the Victoria theatre. Local men, including Scotty McKay, who used to live down in Toronto, and saw Gatenby wrestle there many times, pick the Greek to lose, and so do many other old countrymen who are watching the movements of Gatenby.

There is much money changing hands on the bout, which promises to be about the best this city has ever seen. That there will be a large crowd present is assured.

The referee has not been decided upon as yet. Two good preliminary matches have been made, and will furnish lots of amusement. The curtain raises at 8:30.

AS SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

Davenport, Ia., June 20.—Shortstop Milton Reed, of the Davenport Three-I baseball team was sold yesterday to the Philadelphia Nationals. He will report at the end of sixty days.

Davy Jones, a long time Detroit Tiger, and recently sold by Chicago to Toledo has gone to Tomah, Wis., his old home out of baseball for good. He does not care to play minor league ball.

William "Ducky" Holmes, who hoped one time to manage Victoria, has severed his connection with the Sioux City Club once again. Holmes is a specialist of quitting when things do not go right wherever he is.

Hereafter when players of the Milwaukee Baseball Club protest against decisions and are put out of the game it will cost them $100 apiece. That is the edict passed by Mrs. Agnes Havenor, owner of the club, and she has just about got the right idea.

Frank Chance is open for any trade that will benefit his club he has stated, and while he made a few bad friends when he traded Hal Chase away, he made more by showing others that he had the nerve to do what no other manager of the Highlanders would have ever attempted.

Reports from Tacoma are to the effect that Lou Nordyke is umpiring good ball.

DISCUSS THE FUTURE OF WARD 2, SAANICH

Ratepayers Investigate Three Plans; Executive to Collect Information

Future government of Ward 2 of the Saanich municipality occupied the attention of the residents at a meeting held in the Boleyn Road hall last evening. The greatly increased assessment just confirmed for the current year, added to an expressed dissatisfaction with the administration of affairs at Royal Oak, led to considerable criticism of the conditions prevalent to-day. The three alternatives of joining the city under discriminatory arrangements as to rates and assumption of liabilities, of forming a separate municipality, or remaining as at present with Saanich, were all thoroughly canvassed. At length a resolution was adopted that the executive of the Ratepayers' Association of the ward should collect data upon these three alternatives, inviting a responsible representative of the city and members of the Saanich council to attend.

Councillor McGregor, the representative of the ward, pointed out that the council had been legally advised it could not transfer part of the area to the city without special legislation.

and that if the charter was broken it would be impossible to reincorporate more than 2,000 acres. He considered that Victoria was ten years ahead of her financial situation in the large amount borrowed for improvements, and he thought it would be increasingly difficult to secure money in the next few years. They had to face the facts that the district was divided into suburban and rural areas, and that the majority of the council, composed of the reeve and representatives of the country wards, had secured control of the council. He was not surprised at the discontent of the residents at the high assessment and the delay in securing the necessities of water, sewerage and fire protection.

B. Sewell observed that the assessor of the municipality had been turned loose in the same way as the assessor in the city, hence the great growth in the assessment. Lending in times of stress was not as simple as municipalities and assessors thought, as the controllers of the world's money examined into these conditions before loaning money. They must act discreetly before reaching terms with the city, should that course be decided upon, or make up their minds to obtain control if they were to be entrusted for a little longer to the protecting care and kindness of the majority of the Saanich municipal council.

J. C. Richards brought up the question of a separate municipality, on account of the difficulty of entering the city without an assumption of liabilities. The Saanich council was too busy in looking after paying contracts to worry about sewerage and the water question, he said. In going into the city they must protect themselves against the circumstances which arose when the city limits were extended in 1881, following which the outlying sections had been neglected for years.

C. Pointer referred to the lack of fire protection, and also to figures showing that the assessment on suburban lands had increased out of all proportion to the assessment in the rural wards.

A. R. Sherwood quoted statistics to show the assessment on city lots near the boundary and on suburban lots, and urged the ratepayers to place themselves on the register so that whatever happened they would be in a position to protect themselves at the next election.

A number of speakers took part in the subsequent discussion. J. C. Walters' observations about the recent happenings in Saanich being warmly cheered, as was also a remark of his that the majority of the council were trying to chase them out of Saanich.

"Between the devil and the deep sea" was the metaphor applied by H. S. Pringle to the conditions of the ward between the city and the municipality. In a bright speech he argued the question for annexation carefully. The resolution was then adopted.

THE PASSING SHOW

"Passers By." A caddy, a tramp, a mother and her loving child, a wealthy bachelor, a man servant, the pampered daughter of an historic English family and the careful chaperone of a well regulated English household are some of the characters presented in C. Hadden Chambers' four act comedy drama, "Passers By," which will be in attraction at the Victoria theatre on June 20 and 21. No play of recent years has attracted more comment from critics and public. "Passers By" was first seen in London at the Wyndham theatre, where it ran for over a year and a half, and was the reigning success in New York last season at the Criterion theatre, where it was presented by Charles Frohman.

"The Red Widow." Theatregoers of this city have seen Raymond Hitchcock in many comedy roles but the greatest of all the Hitchcock shows is "The Red Widow," which is announced as the attraction at the Victoria theatre June 24 and 25. Flora Zabelle and a large company of eighty fun makers take part in the performance. It is said to be something different, produced in characteristic Cohen and Harris style. One act has its locale in London, but this is merely to start Cleo Hannibal Butts (Raymond Hitchcock) on his way to Russia, where he becomes involved in all kinds of nihilistic plots, caused by his infatuation for a beautiful young woman, who turns out to be a dangerous nihilist, known to the police as "The Red Widow."

SPEEDING CASES HEARD

Eight Convictions Are Secured by the Town of Esquimalt Against Racing Motorists.

The municipal council of Esquimalt is the richer by $160 as a result of the first batch of prosecutions for motor car speeding which were disposed of yesterday afternoon. Beginning at 11 o'clock and with only a short interval for luncheon the court sat until 5 o'clock, hearing the cases brought from the young municipality.

The case of Wise & Company, which was at hearing when the Times went to press yesterday, was concluded by the imposition of a fine of $20. A similar fine was levied against C. A. Holland.

George Sangster cross-examined Constables Sadler and Andrews very closely as to the identification of his car at the corner of Tillamook and Craigflower roads with the car they began to keep an eye on as it came into view at the top of the hill east of the Indian reserve. The constables insisted that they could not make a mistake in the matter, and said they only watched one car at a time.

Mr. Sangster pointed out to the court that it was impossible to keep a watch so carefully on cars from the distance the constables were away, with several cars passing to and fro on the road, and then swear that a particular car that passed the point where the constables stood was the same as they had singled out when it first came into sight. In any case, Mr. Sangster said, his car had not been travelling at any excessive speed on that occasion, no matter what the constables might say.

As there was a doubt in the case the magistrate dismissed the charge.

In the case of Thomas Pilmley the constables gave evidence that the car had covered the measured distance of seven-tenths of a mile in one minute, which would make a speed of forty-two miles an hour.

Mr. Pilmley and his brother, who was with him in the car, swore that they were not going over the limit of twenty-five miles an hour. Mr. Pilmley questioned the constables along the same lines as had Mr. Sangster, and stated that there were other cars on the road at the same time as his, so he could not see how anyone could swear to his or any other car from a distance.

In this case, also, the magistrate gave the defendant the benefit of the doubt.

It turned out when G. H. Grant answered the summons issued to him that he was not the owner of the car bearing the number that the constables had noted, and they will have to amend

CADETS INSPECTED

Major Snow Put Central School Cadets Through Their Paces Yesterday—Excellent Showing.

Effective work by the Central School cadets in their annual inspection was witnessed yesterday afternoon by Major Snow, the inspecting officer, and a large number of onlookers, including Lieut.-Col. J. A. Hall, Major Weekes and Bryan, Captains de Sali and Cullin, Rev. C. E. Andrews and others. The cadets to the number of 225 turned out under command of Lieut.-Col. Wilby, Major Taylor, Captains Wille and Colman and Lieutenants Adams, Jeffrey and Hibben.

The cadets marched in great style past the saluting base in company order, and later the corps was marched by in quarter column and then in review order. General salute came next and then Cadet-Major Taylor took charge of the battalion and put them through several movements which were accomplished in excellent style.

The inspection over, the corps assembled in the gymnasium where they were addressed by Major Snow, who after complimenting them on the excellent manner in which the drills had been done, explained to them the true significance of the cadet movement, which was to enable the country to do without compulsory service. He hoped on the next occasion that there would be a larger number of them in uniform, and looked to the school board to help remedy this deficiency. The major had a good word to say for the manner in which the Daughters of Empire had aided the movement in this province. Colonel Hall, of the 88th Fusiliers, also spoke, as did Mrs. Jenkins, representing the Victoria school board.

KEEP YOUR WORD
By GEORGE MATHEW ADAMS

You can make your Word with every man as good as your bond. It is said of Grover Cleveland that when he gave his Word a man could build on it. If you keep your Word once given you become a magnet that will draw strong men your way.

Keep Your Word.
You who are a Parent—keep your Word with your Children; you who are an Employer—keep your Word with your Employees; you who are an Employee—keep your Word with your employer; you who have Friends—keep your Word with them and you will keep them.

Keep Your Word.
When you have an Appointment—keep it promptly. When you say you will pay a man—pay him. Never give your Word unless you are certain that you can keep it.

Keep Your Word.
The most important thing you can do is to keep your Word with Yourself. Never think or say to yourself that you will do a thing without going ahead and doing it. Do but this and you need have no worry about other people taking you at your Word.

The Selsize Motor Stage will again run to Cordova Bay, starting June 29.

THE EVENING CHIT-CHAT

By RUTH CAMERON

The talk drifted from second marriages to the after life the other evening. The transition was simpler than it sounds. A friend of ours who had just married the second time, and who during his life was devoted to her first husband, now seems equally fond of the second.

The old question arose as to whose wife she would be in the after life. And someone gave the old answer, "In Heaven there shall be neither marrying nor giving in marriage."

Now the idea that there will be no such thing as sex in Heaven seemed either to puzzle or displease most of the company. They could not allow such a radical change. They had evidently never conceived Heaven as anything distinctly different from this world, but merely as this same world with all annoyances left out and all pleasures raised to the nth power.

Now of course there is no reason why that should be so.

In this life we have five senses through which we receive pleasure, and there are certain things which arouse such pleasure. But why should we think the mind of God which conceived all this isn't big enough to conceive infinitely many more senses through which we might receive pleasure, and infinitely many more ways in which it might be aroused.

The average human being's habit of taking everything that is granted, and never wondering about it all or realizing that things might have been different, is really rather remarkable.

There is a limited amount of food in the world, and sometimes men cannot get any and die of starvation. Suppose now, that air or water were limited, and that men had to earn enough for themselves and their families or else die of thirst or suffocation. That seems unthinkable, doesn't it? And yet, it might have been, you know.

Or suppose, on the other hand, that food were as free as air, and it were as unheard of a thing for a man to lack food as it now is for him to lack air. Such a condition is unconceivable, isn't it? And yet it might have been.

The world is a wonderful creation. Think how much more wonderful the mind of God that conceived it must be. Think what a marvellous power it must be to have thought up such things as music and roses and the ocean and stars and sleep and babies and sunsets and sex, and all the other strange and wonderful things which we take for granted. Think what it has done and then stand awed by the realization of what it might do, and do not attempt to define the after life in terms of your own finite understanding and experience.

MUCH MISFORTUNE DRIVES TO CRIME

Raising Money in an Improper Fashion Lands Albert Smith in Jail

A tale of misfortune piling on misfortune was told to Magistrate Jay this morning by Albert Smith, a laundry worker, who was accused of having obtained $50 from Robert Thomas on August 23 last, with intent to defraud, and also of having passed a bogus cheque for $3.50 on a local merchant a few days ago.

Robert Thomas stated that he gave accused $50 to be paid to one Bronson, a man unknown to him. Smith had told him that Bronson knew of eight timber claims in Prince Rupert district, twenty miles from the G. T. F. line, which he was prepared to locate and cruise and, witness thought, find a customer for. Smith stated that the timber could be sold for $2,000 after witness had made certain payments to the government. Thomas added that he understood he would have to go up there himself and stand on the four corners of the claim, and that this would secure his title. The fifty dollars was to cover the expenses of locating and cruising. The money was paid to Smith, and later another $35. Bronson turned out to be a very movable man, but the witness did not worry about the money for a time, as he had a written promise from Thomas that if the deal had not gone through within five months the $50 would be refunded.

Finally a date was set for May 3 for witness to go north to secure his claims, but there was still nothing doing. Smith said he had not yet been able to find Bronson and offered to repay the money in small instalments. Since then a promissory note for $75, dated June 1 and payable in one month, was given by accused to witness.

In reply to accused, Thomas said he had called him up by telephone on Tuesday last and promised to pay him to-morrow by raising money on an insurance policy. Llewellyn G. Thomas swore that one day last fall the accused called him aside and told him there was nothing to the proposition. The story he told never was that he had wanted to witness $50 to help a brother who was in trouble in San Francisco. In July a sum of $50 had been obtained by Smith from witness on the same plea of locating timber as had been told his brother, but this money had been paid back to him.

Smith admitted to the court that neither the timber limit story nor the story about a brother in trouble had any foundation in fact. To explain why he told them and why he had floated a series of bogus cheques recently he told a story of continued misfortune extending over five years. He went to Alaska with $500 or $600 he had saved, but returned in a year broke. Getting work in Vancouver he saved enough to start in the laundry business for himself, but a damage suit following an accident to a mangle's hand ruined him. Coming here he got work in the Victoria Steam Laundry, but was thrown out of employment when the building burned down.

After securing work in the Standard Steam Laundry his wife had a long illness, then their baby took sick and debt began to pile up on him. It was at this point, he said, that he conceived the idea of getting money in the way that was charged. He got $50 in two or three cases, which helped him to some extent. Recently he needed money again and got it by floating cheques, but he had paid back all the money he had secured except Robert Thomas' $50. While he got these moneys by false pretences, he urged that it was without intent to defraud, as he always had the intention to repay it and did so except in the one case. He explained his reason for securing the money by deception on the ground that he was too proud to let people know he was so badly off. To-day they had not a cent in the house.

Letters and cheques were put in, some of the latter being filled in but never used, and Smith owned that all were part of the system by which he tried to raise funds.

Magistrate Jay said the accused had to some extent been driven to his acts by his series of bad fortune, but the court could not let this interfere with the award of punishment. One month in jail would be the sentence on each charge, to run concurrently.

VICTORIA CITIZEN
WEDS IN VANCOUVER

Mr. H. C. Hyland Barnes Weds
Miss Maude Tregent; Will Reside Here

Yesterday at Christ Church, Vancouver, a very interesting wedding took place in the celebration of the nuptials of Maude, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tregent, and Mr. H. C. Hyland Barnes, of Victoria. The ceremony, which took place in a very large assemblage of the friends and acquaintances of the happy pair, was performed by Rev. Mr. Day, the church being beautifully decorated for the occasion with banks of white roses and tulips and palms.

The bride was gowned in a handsome dress of ivory satin, charmed with Brussels point lace over chiffon, the long court train of brocaded champagne falling from the shoulders, and decorated with sprigs of orange blossoms. The veil of real Brussels net was held in place by a chaplet of orange blossoms, while her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Tregent, the bride's sister, who was maid-of-honor, looked charming in a frock of brocaded rose crepe de chine trimmed with ropes of seed pearls, with which was worn a big non-swathed hat edged with black and with black velvet streamers. Her bouquet was of carnations.

The Misses Dorothy and Elsie Tregent, other sisters of the bride, acted as bridesmaids, the former wearing a frock similar to the maid-of-honor's, and the latter in pale lavender crepe de chine trimmed with shadow lace and pink rosebuds, her large mushroom hat being trimmed with cream lace and long streamers. Her flowers were mauve sweet peas.

The best man was Mr. Harry Idiens of Courtenay, Vancouver Island, the ushers being Messrs. R. B. Wilmut, of Victoria, and F. Hayward, of Vancouver.

Mrs. Tregent, the bride's mother, was handsomely gowned in wisteria, champagne, trimmed with Balkan bead embroidery and white lace yoke and sleeves, her hat being of black tassel straw trimmed with wisteria-shaded plumes.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Nelson street, where a buffet wedding breakfast was served to a large concourse of guests, the happy pair receiving the felicitations and toasts of their friends.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left for Victoria, where they commenced the first stage of their honeymoon trip, which will last about a fortnight. On their return to Victoria they will take up their residence on Margate avenue, Oak Bay.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a diamond and sapphire ring; to the maid-of-honor a pearl and emerald pendant; to the bridesmaids gold bead necklaces; to the best man gold sleeve links and studs; and to the ushers sets of waistcoat buttons. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a gold watch fob.

$40,000 IN PERMITS

Oak Bay Experiences Brisk Movement in Building; Fine Residences.

Several important building permits have been issued by the Oak Bay engineer during the last few days totalling to a sum of nearly $42,000, which will serve to augment considerably the record for this month.

The most costly of these structures is a ten-roomed house, which is to be built by the Cadboro Construction Company on Lansdowne road, the cost of which has been estimated at $15,000.

Another permit has been issued to Mrs. E. J. Ferry for an eight-roomed dwelling house on Cranmore road to cost $5,000, while J. C. Hyndham took out another yesterday, which will also contain eight rooms and cost $4,000. W.

C. Van Munster has a permit out for a house on Fair street containing seven rooms, and costing $3,000, and another has been granted to W. H. Collins for a structure on Cowan avenue costing $2,500.

A marked renaissance in the building activities at Oak Bay has been noticeable during the last few weeks, a fact which augurs well for the future of the municipality. Most of the building is of the residential type.

Banquet to Stefansson.—The banquet tendered by the Icelandic Club of this city to Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, last evening, proved to be a huge success and was greatly enjoyed by all. A complimentary address in Icelandic was presented to the explorer who replied in fitting terms. Though a Canadian by birth, Mr. Stefansson is of Icelandic parentage, and for this cause the people of that country who are now gathered in Victoria, met together last evening to do him honor.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, the former Helen Miller Gould, will celebrate her forty-fifth birthday to-day. In divulging this information no confidence is violated, for the famous philanthropist has never sought to keep her age a secret "shrouded in mystery." A year ago Miss Gould was described as "the world's wealthiest spinster," and it is probable that no thought of marriage had entered her head. The watchful Cupid, who is as democratic as death in the distribution of his darts, at last found his opportunity—found it in the midst of wreck and darkness and disaster. Finley J. Shepard, a comparatively poor railroad man, and Miss Gould were passengers on a West Shore train last October. A warm friendship existed between the pair, but that was all. The train was wrecked, and Mr. Shepard's first thought was for Miss Gould. Assured of her safety, he bent his endeavors toward saving other passengers whose lives were endangered. The coolness and bravery of the railroad man aroused Miss Gould's admiration, and Cupid, alert to opportunity, let fly two arrows that pierced two hearts, chuckled "At last," fluttered his wings joyously and soared away—perhaps to attend to the budding romance of some Patrick, policeman, and Nora, cook.

Hubert William Culling Carr-Gomm, who for seven years has been a Liberal member of the British parliament, was born at Gotaemund, South India, thirty-six years ago to-day. He recently brought suit for a divorce from his wife, naming as co-respondent another prominent Liberal member of parliament, Elliot Crawshaw Williams, Chancellor of the Exchequer and Secretary to the Hon. Mr. Carr-Gomm is a leader in the councils of Liberalism. He sits for the Rotherhithe division of Southwark, and was formerly assistant private secretary to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. He is a graduate of Eton and Oxford and prominent in several leading clubs of London. It has been alleged by some of the London papers that he was offered a baronetcy to withdraw his suit. He married Kathleen, daughter of the late William Bone, a wealthy Liverpool man, in 1906, the same year he entered parliament.

West Virginians Celebrate "Secession From Secession."

West Virginia will celebrate its fiftieth birthday to-day. It was just half a century ago, on June 20, 1863, that the "secession from secession" of the people of the western part of the Old Dominion culminated in the inauguration of a new state government at Wheeling, and the addition of new stars to the flag of the Union. Wheeling, the first capital, will be the scene of the birthday celebration to-day. The "stogie city" will be the host of many distinguished men, and oratory and grape juice will flow freely at the great state banquet, while the populace will be entertained by parades, pageants and concerts.

The "secession from secession" movement, and the admission of West Virginia mountaineers with the Union cause, and the admission of West Virginia to statehood, had a profound effect on the fortunes of the Confederacy, preventing the success of the plan for a northward invasion of Lake Erie, thus dismembering the North by separating the East from the West.

Eastern and western Virginia were at war with each other, in spirit, long before the outbreak of the civil strife between the North and South. Eastern Virginia was settled largely by Englishmen of the higher class, conservatives in politics, and adherents of the Church of England. Western Virginia attracted sturdy pioneers of many nationalities, democratic and radical in political tendencies, and non-conformist in religion. The civil war only served to bring these differences to a crisis.

Fifty-two years ago to-day a provisional state government was formed in West Virginia, and application was made for admission to the Union. Exactly two years later the new state government went into power at Wheeling. It was a day of great jubilation in the little city on the Ohio. Flags flaunted everywhere, and vast crowds gathered to cheer the outgoing provisional governor, Pierpont, and the new governor, Arthur E. Rowman, a Scotch-Irishman, who was formally inaugurated. Thus was the Mountain State launched on its career as the thirty-fifth in the Union, with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi"—"Mountaineers are always free."

law, the "bull-pen," dynamite and dum-dum bullets, armored trains, military courts, the suppression of newspapers, the spectacle of civilians being driven through muddy streets of dingy towns by khaki-clad soldiers, galling guns frowning from extemporized forts, churches transformed into prisons, armed miners lurking in ambush to "pot" a "scab," armed guards attacking the defenceless women and children subsisting on the crusts of poverty—these are features of a problem that West Virginia will seek to forget to-day.

FIRST THINGS

The first vessel fitted with steam engines to cross the Atlantic was the Savannah, which reached Liverpool ninety-four years ago to-day. The Savannah, a ship of 350 tons, had sailed from the Georgia city for which it was named on May 24, the passage requiring nearly twenty-seven days. Most of the voyage was made under sail, the coal supply having been exhausted after ten days at sea. Six years later the steamship Enterprise went from Falmouth, England, to the East Indies, the first voyage of the kind ever made. Thomas Paine was the first to propose steam navigation in America, in 1778, according to Haydn. Regular navigation of the ocean between Europe and America was commenced in June, 1838, when the steamship Great Western crossed the Atlantic in eighteen days. In the meantime, however, there had been several occasional passages. The steamboat Royal William crossing the ocean from Quebec in 1821. The Cunard-line's first steamer, the Britannia, a side-wheeler, began service to Halifax and Boston in 1840.

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY Your pathway will be crossed by light and shade, and though you will meet good fortune your health will suffer unless you are wisely careful. Curb new friendships, not allowing them to grow too quickly. Those born to-day will be restless and careless and will have to be taught the advantages of truth and consideration for others, in retaining their hold on the valuable friends whom their pleasing appearance will attract.

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

This is an anniversary of tragic memory in St. John, New Brunswick, for, on June 20th, 1877, a fire broke out which swept over two hundred acres of ground and destroyed two-fifths of the city. Its origin is uncertain, but it began near the famous Market Slip and was first discovered near a boiler factory. Soon the wind increased to a gale. The flames spread up town, finding good fuel in the wooden houses; swept along the river bank, destroying all the wharves and warehouses in their path, and reached out to the vessel lying at anchor. Some of these, indeed, were towed out of harm's way by men in row-boats; but many could not be saved. Meanwhile the terrified people were surging hither and thither trying to save something of their property. Household goods encumbered the sidewalks and "every available vehicle from a dray to a buggy was called into requisition." The engines worked well but failed to check the fire which devoured 1600 houses, ten churches including Trinity (the oldest in the city), the city hall, the custom house, the post office, and many banks, hotels and other buildings. But the citizens were courageous and soon more than repaired the effects of the disaster, subscriptions to aid in their relief being world-wide. More than a score of lives were lost in the conflagration, and value of property consumed totalled over $27,000,000.

A convention of Liberals met in Ottawa twenty years ago to-day to decide on a platform defining the party's attitude toward the tariff and other issues. The resolutions passed denounced protection as "radically un- sound and unjust to the masses of the people, and declared the necessity of a tariff revision which should provide substantial relief from the burdens under which the country labors. The national policy was arranged as having fostered trusts and monopolies, checked immigration, impeded commerce, and driven people from the country. The reciprocity issue was advocated, but not urged, and did not come to the front until after the 1896 elections, in which the Liberals were victorious.

To-day is the birthday of Adam Beck, legislator, manufacturer, and leader in war on tuberculosis at Baden, Ont., 1857; John Travers Lewis, long bishop and archbishop of Ontario and metropolitan Canada, 1825. On this date in 1757 Lord Loudon sailed from New York with an army to capture Louisbourg, but tarried awhile at Halifax and then sailed back again.

He Knows Corns

This Chemist Who Invented Blue-jay

He studied corns for a dozen years, then worked out this way to remove them. It's a simple little plaster with a little drop of wax. Apply it in a jiffy, and the corn pain stops at once. You forget the corn entirely. In 48 hours the whole corn comes out—root, callous, everything. Not a whit of pain or soreness. That ends the corn. Why pare corns? Why daub them? Why use old-time pads and plasters? Those are archaic methods. Blue-jay is so vastly better that folks use it on a million corns a month. Try it on one of yours.

A in the picture is the soft B & B wax. It loosens the corn. B stops the pain and keeps the wax from spreading. C wraps around the toe. It is narrowed to be comfortable. D is rubber adhesive to fasten the plaster on.

Blue-jay Corn Plasters

Sold by Druggists—15c and 25c per package. Sample Mailed Free. Also Blue-jay Bunlon Plasters.

ANOTHER CUP GIVEN FOR CARNIVAL EVENT

One Donated by W. H. Wilkerson Will Be for Rowing Race; Other Arrangements

Another cup has been given for one of the carnival events, this being by W. H. Wilkerson, jeweler, who has presented the cup for the four-oared race in the water events. This is the first cup to be put up for the rowing events. A cup has also been given for the water polo match which is to take place between Victoria and Vancouver. The parade committee has still further amplified its plans, and there will be several different sections. The fire department will have a separate section to itself, a comic section will also form part of the procession, and prizes of $100, $75, $50 and $25 will be given for the four winners in this. In order to give the four prizes there must be at least ten entries, or seven entries for three prizes, which will be awarded to the most comical floats in the parade. The manufacturers will also have a section, prizes of the same value as for the comical section to be awarded for this. The floats in this part must consist of goods of manufacturers only. A similar list of prizes will be awarded to the four most successful competitors in the Commercial section, which will be open for competition to commercial firms of the city.

The Vancouver Island Development League is arranging for a special float, which will not be open for competition. This section will consist of a display of the various natural resources of the island.

Another interesting advertisement will be through the district section, the various districts of the island having been asked to take part in this, and to supply a float advertising the particular resources of each particular section of the country. The prizes offered are good, and will be the same as those for the arts and crafts section.

A special committee has been appointed to arrange the amounts and nature of prizes to be awarded for the horse parade and vehicle section, and the prizes to be awarded for the auto parade section will be suggested by the Automobile Association, which will decide whether trophies or cash are to be given.

An invitation has been sent to the police to organize a sports event of their own during the fete week. Suitable souvenirs will be given the most successful competitors in the guests' parade, in which visitors and visiting organizations from other cities who wish to enter the parade, may take part.

The Good Templars are entering a float which will be of quite unique interest, and all the Good Templars' lodges in Victoria and the neighboring districts are uniting to make this a success. The Y. M. C. A. has been asked to put in a special float also, in which they should exhibit the athletic side of their association life, and show in symbolism the various sports which they make an effort to encourage. The Imperial Veterans, mounted, will lead the parade, and will be followed immediately after by the British Campaigners.

LOCAL NEWS

Adopted Tour Book.—At a meeting of the directors of the Victoria Automobile Association last evening the publication of the Pacific Coast Blue Book Association was adopted as the official tour book of the association. The work is a book on British Columbia and the State of Washington and contains much information of value to the motorist.

Alleged Speeding.—A charge was laid against H. A. Freeman and D. J. Boyce of speeding in motor car at noon on Wednesday while driving along Kings-ton street. On their behalf a plea of not guilty was put in by E. E. Wootton. The complaint was laid by Constable Frye, but his witnesses were not in court and a remand was granted until Tuesday.

Fire in Shed.—A fire in a vacant shed on Burnside road opposite Manchester street called No. 5 Company out about 11 this forenoon. The blaze had been smouldering for some time, apparently, and suddenly broke out. It was extinguished with chemicals before much damage had been done.

Appeal From Conviction.—In the county court this afternoon Judge Lampman is hearing the appeal of the accused Chinaman Come, in the case of his conviction in the police court on a charge of having sold liquor to an Indian. D. S. Tait is acting for the defendant in the appeal, which is on the usual grounds, and City Prosecutor Harrison is upholding the judgment of the police magistrate.

Judgment Reserved.—Judge Lampman reserved his decision this forenoon in the case of Wright vs. Rochfort and Sankoy after hearing W. E. Langley for the defendants and Fred C. Elliott for the plaintiff. Mrs. Wright sued for alleged negligence on the part of the architects in connection with a dwelling erected for her. The contract price was $1,805, and from this the plaintiff secured a reduction of one-fifth, or $375, owing to faulty material and construction. The architects have not yet given their final certificate to the contractor, on this account, and this was pleaded on their behalf as a defence against the owner's suit.

V. I. Development League.—Ernest McGaffey, secretary of the Vancouver Island Development League, is working hard on his "City Book," and hopes to have this out at the latest in a fortnight's time. Inquiries were received to-day from a railwayman of Higher Openshaw, Manchester; a rancher of Vernon, B. C.; who has an income of $1,200 which he wishes to invest on the island; from business men and ranchers at Moose Jaw, Granger Station, Sask.; Calgary, California, and a resident at Grimsby, asking for particulars of land and openings in the neighborhood of Victoria.

THREE VICTORIA BOYS ON R. M. C. PASS LIST

Ottawa, Ont., June 20.—Among the successful candidates at the recent competitive examination for admission as cadets to the Royal Military College, Kingston, from the west, are: E. J. Dennis, Victoria; Harry Adrian Roberts, Victoria; John Garnet Talow, Victoria; James Duff Stuart, Vancouver. They will be admitted in the order in which they pass, up to the number for which vacancies are available.

J. P. SHAW, M. P. F., MARRIED.

Kamloops, B. C., June 20.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Columbia street, Kamloops, by the Rev. G. O. Fallis yesterday J. P. Shaw, M. P. F., and Miss Florence Beattie were married. The couple left in the evening for a tour in the east. They will settle on their return at New Westminster. The ceremony was a quiet one, only the near relatives of the contracting parties being present.

ALASKA MISSIONARY CLIMBS TO MT. M'KINLEY

Archdeacon Stuck Sends Word to Seattle of His Successful Trip.

Seattle, June 20.—Archdeacon Hudson Stuck, Alaska missionary and explorer, on June 7 conquered the highest pinnacle of Mount McKinley, the highest peak of the North American continent, and won the coveted distinction of being the first human being to set foot there.

News of the achievement that will be read with envy by mountain climbers throughout the world came to Seattle in a private cable message from Archdeacon Stuck himself, early this afternoon. The message was sent to a personal friend of the archdeacon.

The successful expedition, of which Archdeacon Stuck was the head, left Fairbanks, Alaska, for the mountain several months ago. Opinions were freely expressed at the time that it would not be successful, inasmuch as the elaborately-equipped expeditions of Professor Herschel Parker of Columbia and others had met with such flat failure. The party included only three others besides Stuck, and was equipped as lightly as possible. Harry P. Karstens, a famous Alaskan dog-team "musher"; R. G. Tatum and Walter Harper, all of Fairbanks, were the men who went with Stuck.

PREACHER, NOT WELSHER.

The Marquis of Lincolnshire, who in the old days as "Charlie" Carrington, was an intimate of King Edward when Prince of Wales, celebrated his seventieth birthday the other day. A good story is told of an adventure he had on a racetrack, says the Daily Sketch. The cry of "Welsher!" suddenly rang through the air, and he became aware of an infuriated mob, from which a man was making frantic struggles to escape. As it chanced, the racetrack was on his own land, and he at once intervened. "Look here," he called out, "if this man has robbed you I'll see that you're paid, but I'll have no murder done on my property." The crowd calmed down, and it was discovered that the victim was no welsher, but an itinerant preacher.

MODERATE PRESSURE YIELDS TO RALLY

Street Looks for Announcement Next Few Days Re Rate Cases

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
New York, June 20.—Market declined in a laudatory manner, and closed in most instances at slight recovering from the low levels with very little pressure being in evidence during the late trading, though at the same time it was noticeable that the buying particularly for outside account was at low ebb.
Street is inclined to look for some sort of an announcement in the next few days in connection with the petition of advance rate cases, and judging by the talk to-day it is anticipated that while the commission will not permit a rehearing of the old cases that some suggestion will be offered which will tend to indicate how a new petition can be lodged.
It seems, however, that the roads will not secure the relief looked for for some time. Opinions are mixed relative to the efficiency of the proposed banking and currency measure, that is, the draft of same as it appeared in the press, but on the whole the impression seems general that the good features overshadow the indifferent, and that on the whole it is a step in the right direction.

EXCELLENT DEMAND FOR GLACIER CREEK

Sympathetic Tendencies Mark Action in Other Portland-Issues on Exchange

Victoria, June 20.—There was excellent demand for Glacier Creek this morning at the session of the local stock exchange, with the closing bid price the highest in the present advance movement. Sympathetic tendencies marked action in other Portland-Canal issues, and outside interest is now an important factor.
There was overbidding of Coronation and last quotations were above, and development of the same indicating mill development, and also showing high grade of ore. Recent depreciation of International Coal has attracted support so that prevailing prices for the stock are hardening.

WEAK WHEAT ACTION INFLUENCED BY CORN

Prices Sag but on Soft Spots Big Buying in Evidence

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
Chicago, June 20.—There was some disposition to work for a break in wheat following the opening to-day, counting on help in the shape of bearish sentiment from the coarse grain markets because of indications of a much improved weather map over the corn belt. The first drive at the July contract caused the price to touch 90 cents, but at that figure brokers reported big volume of buying orders. The price had half a cent rally at once, was up close to 91 cents late in the day and closed a fraction better than yesterday at 90 1/2. The big volume of trade is in the September at this time. Considering the heavy feeling in the other markets wheat showed remarkably good support after the early dip. Naturally some of the big houses in the northwest trade are sending out very favorable accounts of the spring crop outlook following the rains. Mr. Inglis concedes that the rains have been of temporary benefit, but he is positive in asserting that the acreage needed on stubble lands is thin and weedy and cannot make a good crop at best. His argument is that the soil and the plant are not in shape to stand any long period of hot dry weather without serious injury. Much the same position is taken by LeCount in regard to the South Dakota crop. An important bull feature for trade developed in shape of cash business, sales of 250,000 bushels, chiefly No. 1 northern wheat, going to export houses.

RAIN PREVENTED DRILL

So Fifth Regiment Listened to Technical Lectures Under Canvas.
Owing to the rain last evening and the consequent unfitness of the ground for practice and drill companies two and three of the Fifth Regiment now undergoing their summer training at Macaulay Point, could not do any field work. Consequently the men were gathered together in their respective companies in the mess hall and given instruction on general work connected with their training.

WELCOME ARCHDEACON AND PRESENT ADDRESS

Many Attend Reception to Ven. Augustine Scriven to Mark His Return

Despite the heavy rain a large number of people turned out to the reception held last evening at the Alexander Club in honor of Archdeacon Scriven, who returned about three weeks ago from a several months' visit to California following the serious illness which he suffered last year.

The Dean of Columbia presided at the proceedings, the presentation taking place about the middle of the evening, after the guests had all had an opportunity of greeting the archdeacon and congratulating him on his restoration to health and return to Victoria.

Before making his address of welcome and presentation of the purse of gold to the archdeacon on behalf of the people of the diocese of Columbia, the dean read letters of regret at their inability to be present from several of the pastors of other churches in the city, including Rev. Dr. Scott, Rev. Mr. Wood, Rev. Mr. Green and Rev. Mr. Macconnell.

"The occasion of the gathering," explained the dean, "is one of those very happy events which occur all too seldom, and which, when they do come, are followed with interest by all those who are able to take part in them. When a few months ago the archdeacon was laid aside by a serious illness, the sympathy that was awakened amongst all, whether old or new friends, was very striking. Then followed the months of his absence in Southern California, where, we are glad to say, he has recovered his wonted vigor and strength.

Continuing the dean referred to the difficulties and hardships associated with pioneer work, and said that he did not think that the younger generation quite appreciated what had been accomplished by the early church workers in the province.

"Among the many honored names of clergymen on Vancouver Island," continued the speaker, "who number among the pioneer workers of the church that of Archdeacon Scriven stands out prominently; it is a name we are proud to honor, and one which is held in high affection by all classes of the community."

The dean then referred to his experiences as commissary a work which he had taken up for the first time since the bishop's departure for England and in the absence of the archdeacon. While doing this work he had penetrated to the remotest parts of the country, and everywhere that he had gone he had found one common characteristic among the people, viz., a love and reverence for the name of the archdeacon, whom they had always welcomed to their homes as their true friend and loved guest who brought to them the sunshine of a warm and loving heart.

Presentation Address.
The dean at this point read letters from the rector of Duncan, and of St. John's, Ladysmith, which gave still further expression of the widespread feeling of affection in which the archdeacon is held throughout the diocese, following which Rev. Robt. Connell, a member of the presentation committee, read the following beautifully illuminated and framed address which was afterwards presented to the archdeacon:

"Ven. Augustine Scriven, Archdeacon of Vancouver:
"We, the undersigned, on behalf of your many friends in the diocese of Columbia, desiring to assure you of our joy and gratitude at having you once more in our midst in renewed health and vigor, take this opportunity of your return to express to you our sense of your public service and private worth.
"Almost thirty years have passed since, at the call of Bishop Hills, you left the diocese of Rochester, and, parting from England and its ties, came to these shores and entered upon the arduous and diversified duties of the archdeaconry of Vancouver. During all these years you have been a trusted and beloved adviser of the three occupants of the Episcopal chair, and the never-fading friend of clergy and laity in the rural districts which comprise so great a part of our diocesan work, you have brought cheer and encouragement to the missionary and his family in their isolation, while the people have found increasing justification for that perfect confidence in your sense of the many difficulties in the life of a pioneer church. Nor can we forget how again and again you have taken your place on the firing line in some struggling mining town or backward district, placing all your gifts at the disposal of our people.
"Nothing human has been foreign to you. The pursuits inseparably connected with British character have always had in you, if not a participator, an interested sympathizer. Your simplicity of manners, your unflinching courtesy, your keen sense of justice, your courage in maintaining what you believe to be right, of all these we can but state our appreciation.
"We ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a quite inadequate token of our regard and of our gratitude for your life and work among us. May you be spared many years to go in and out as our archdeacon, loved and honored by us all, and may our heavenly Father send to you and your dear wife increasing blessings in your mutual service in the church of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."
(Signed) Rev. Rev. A. J. Doull, Rev. Percival Jans, Rev. E. G. Miller, Rev. J. H. Sweet, Rev. Robert Connell, Rev. Canon Silva-White, Lindley Cressie, Percy Wollaston, Jr., E. Baynes Reed, J. W. Toynie, Lewis W. Tombs, E. E. Wootton and F. W. Blankenbach.

Purse Presented.
Dean Doull, then, on behalf of the diocese, presented the archdeacon with a purse containing $750 in gold, the recipient, with that characteristic simplicity which has endeared him to all who know him, expressing his thanks to all his friends, adding that his only regret at the moment was that Mrs. Scriven was not there to share the joy of the moment with him. With humor the archdeacon then referred to the high-flown eulogium contained in the address just read, and said that delineated, it just happened to fit in with what he had always desired to be. Speaking with more seriousness he added that it touched him profoundly to hear such expressions of affection, and that that part of the dean's address which had referred to his work in the country districts affected him particularly, as he had always striven to deserve the good opinion of a people whom he loved and among whom he had labored for so many years. Although it was quite probable that the character outlined was an unconscious expression of the compliers' ideal of a good archdeacon, it filled him with humility to think how far short of this he had fallen. Those things in which he deemed him strong were things in which he himself could see his weakness, but in the years which God would grant him he would try to deserve the
