

Punjabi Audiobooks Project

The Punjabi Audiobooks Project, led by the Punjabi Wikimedia Community, plans to meet the current needs by making audiobooks from content on Punjabi Wikisource.

Project Objectives

Accessibility

- Increase access to Punjabi literature by providing audiobook versions for individuals with visual impairments or those who prefer listening to content.

Preservation

- Preserve and promote Punjabi language and literature by creating a digital archive of audiobooks.

Diversity

- This project focuses to bring people from different professions and skills in the Wiki community and involvement of multi skills will build a strong community.

The Importance of Audiobooks

- Accessibility: Helps people with reading challenges to access literature
- Inclusivity: Enables illiterate or visually impaired individuals to enjoy literature
- Convenience: Allows multitasking while consuming literature (e.g., while driving or doing household chores)
- Learning Aid: Enhances language and pronunciation skills.
- Cultural Preservation: Preserves and promotes Punjabi language and culture

Content Source

- I. Utilizing existing content from Punjabi Wikisource
- II. Works in the public domain and freely licensed texts
- III. Diverse collection: Folktales, poetry, short stories, and more
- IV. Contributors can suggest new works for audiobook production.
