EMPIRE DAY AT GYRO CLUB

H. C. Hall Speaks of Canada's Place in Empire

Empire Day was honored throughout Canada to-day by the Gyro Club. The local club had Henry C. Hall, K.C., as its special speaker at the luncheon at the Hudson's Bay store.

Mr. Hall stated that as one looked about the Empire there was serious cause to pause for comment and consideration. These ill, particularly in India, were due to race, religion, language and self-interest.

In speaking of Canada's part in the future, he said that he thought it should be greater than acting as the link of understanding between the people of Great Britain and the United States.

Mr. Hall mentioned the burial of the Unknown Soldier in Westminster Abbey, and he issued the call that "in all our dealings with the world let us be worthy of that unknown soldier."

Mrs. Styles Sehl sang two charming solos, which were greatly appreciated by the club.

Bingo Jordan, of Fuller Brushes, was the five-minute talker to-day, and he tried to show the members how a man given equal opportunity, with purpose and courage could make a success of life as had his employer, Mr. Fuller, done.

The meeting was largely attended and was addressed by C. P. W. Schwengers on "Island Transportation Problems."

General R. P. Clark, who is chairman of the committee handling the Memorial Avenue scheme, reported that the plan has been changed and instead of placing the names on tablets at the foot of the trees a monument will be erected on which the names will be inscribed.

Mr. Schwengers next gave his address, a report of which appears elsewhere in this issue.

New Zealand Trade. "There is an opportunity for wonderful trade development with New Zealand," said C. B. Jones, who quoted figures to prove his statement.

FURTHER PROPERTY CHANGES IN RUSSIA

Soviet Continues Movement Back to Former System

Life Possession of Houses in Petrograd

Moscow, May 22.—New decrees which Government leaders say are designed to encourage the independent capitalist reconstruction of Russia on Russia's terms have been promulgated coincidentally with the close of the Genoa Conference. The Council of Commissars has announced removal of the state monopoly on trade in agricultural implements and seeds, permitting private persons to buy abroad through the Department of Foreign Trade.

Meanwhile the Central Executive Committee, which is now in session, having passed legislation legalizing private property to a certain degree, has also decided to permit inheritance by husbands or wives and direct descendants of a maximum of 5,000 gold rubles. The Council also is debating a project permitting ground leases up to fifty-nine years instead of the thirty-six-year maximum originally intended.

The municipality of Petrograd has decided to hand over to the owners for life possession of all the smaller houses, the maximum being seven apartments. Similar returns of houses are being made in some provinces, and the Ukraine is turning back four mills of small capacity to the owners.

HOCKEY PLAYERS FOUND IN MARBLE IN ATHENIAN PANELS

Discoveries Indicate Game Is Older Than Christian Era

Manchester, May 22.—Another masterpiece of Greek art has been found in Athens. It reveals that hockey was played as long ago as 490 B. C.

The Athens correspondent of the Manchester Guardian writes: "The discovery of a short while ago of a fine marble bas-relief, sculptured in relief, which had been used as building material for the old wall of Athens erected by Themistocles in 478 B. C., has led to the discovery of a second bas-relief of the same type within a few metres of the first. This second bas-relief is also decorated, or three sides with figures of players, and is in almost perfect condition. Only faint traces of the color, however, are to be seen, but otherwise it has suffered but little harm. On the top of the bas-relief is a socket for the insertion of the feet of a statue, as in the case of the first.

"On the central side is depicted a scene which is remarkable and unique. As in the case of the first bas-relief, it concerns the daily life of the youths of Athens. A group of six young men is seen. In the center stand two, each holding in his hand a stick shaped like a hockey stick. Most remarkable of all, they are holding the sticks in position of a 'bat' at the commencement of a game of hockey and between the sticks is seen a ball. There is no known example in Greek art, either in vase painting or in sculpture, of such a scene. Were it not that the relief has been found incorporated as part of the wall of Themistocles' arsenal in the Piræus, where it was found myself—the learned world might well have raised great controversy as to its authenticity. On each side of the central group of two men stand two others, in restless attitudes, each holding a similar 'hockey' stick (in one case, however, it seems to have been painted in, and not sculptured).

"The scene on each of the side panels is in subject the same. A warrior holding a spear and shield is seen mounting a chariot, the driver of which holds a long spear and grasps the reins of a team of four horses. Behind the chariot two armed men advance on foot, each holding a round shield on his left arm and a spear in his right hand. The spears were originally painted in, and the marks of the paint can be seen clearly. All the warriors wear Corinthian helmets, but the driver of the chariot wears an Attic helmet.

"The whole relief on each side is worked in remarkably low relief, hardly exceeding half a centimetre in depth. The first bas-relief, on the whole, deeper cut and more clearly worked.

"In style the second bas-relief is in some respects less perfect than the first, but both are masterpieces of archaic art. The artist of the second bas-relief shows a more developed style and belongs, I think, to a period some ten years later than that of the first. Thus, if, as seems probable, the first bas-relief dates to the decade 510-500 B. C., the second belongs to the ten years preceding the Battle of Marathon. The earlier work thus belongs to the emancipated period of Athenian history—the Republic of Athens—the latter belongs to the more serious time that preceded Marathon, when war was in the air and the Persians were beginning to encroach upon the Greek cities of Asia Minor and to loom like a thundercloud upon the horizon of Greece itself. It is fitting, therefore, in the one we see the careless youths of the playing-fields and in the other armed warriors setting forth to battle though even in the second case the central scene is still one of games.

"The third and final phase seems represented in the beautiful relief found in 1915 by M. Stais at Sunium which shows a young athlete plucking a wreath upon his head. It belongs to the period 460-450, and is of the style immediately preceding Phidias.

"What are the games that are being played by the youths of these two new reliefs? What is the curious dog-and-cat baiting of the earlier relief, and what the 'hockey' of the second?

ERNEST F. JARVIS DIED IN OTTAWA

Served Canada in Militia Department During War

Ottawa, May 22.—Ernest F. Jarvis, Assistant Deputy Minister of Militia during the war, died suddenly here last night following a stroke. Deceased, who for his work during the war was made a member of the Imperial Service Order, was 53 years of age and a native of St. Eleanor's, P. E. I.

BATTALION FLAGS PLACED IN NELSON CHURCH YESTERDAY

Nelson, May 22.—The historic colors of the 54th Kootenay Battalion were deposited yesterday in St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral, Nelson, by Lieut.-Colonel C. Hunsford, Politen, of Cranbrook, commanding officer of the 54th Battalion, in the presence of a large body of men in uniform. The colors included the King's flag, the regimental flag and the battle flag. Their custody was accepted on behalf of the church by Archdeacon Graham.

SASKATCHEWAN MAN KILLED HIMSELF

Regina, May 22.—A dose of strychnine, a bottle of aconite and a homemade gun were the instruments used by John Bostock, 33, a McLean farmer, to take his life Saturday. The gun, made of two gas pipes sunk about a foot in the ground and filled with gunpowder, blew his brains out. Neighbors say Bostock had been days in preparing to take his life. Bostock leaves a widow and five children. No motive for the act has been found.

EMPIRE DAY.

No Victorian may justifiably plead ignorance of what is expected of him on Wednesday. Every storekeeper similarly realizes that the brighter his windows are made to appear the greater will be the commercial section's contribution to the general scheme.

MR. LARKIN'S "HOME."

When official authorization goes to London from Ottawa the High Commissioner will move his quarters from Victoria Street to the former Grand Trunk Railway offices on Cockspar Street.

SEED POTATOES.

On more than one occasion this Province, and Vancouver Island in particular, have attracted considerable attention from seed experts in this and other countries.

THE SUMAS DAM.

Critics of the Sumas reclamation scheme are endeavoring to manufacture political capital out of the demolition of a temporary dam which has no material bearing whatsoever upon the project proper.

SUITABLE SETTLERS.

Those who are actively associated with the practical part of Great Britain's scheme of emigration within the Empire are fully alive to the fact that the Motherland does not intend to get rid of anybody and everybody who may chance to apply for assistance under the proposal laid down in the Empire Settlement Bill.

THE TWO LIONS OF VANCOUVER

To the Editor—Mr. Laidner, M.P., threatens the Ottawa Government with the Vancouver Lions if Vancouver does not get a drydock. He says they will roar in the next Federal election.

THE UNCAUSED CAUSE OF THINGS.

To the Editor:—I fear we shall get nowhere in this discussion if we do not define our terms. I took up Bernard Shaw's statement that there can be no more a first cause than there can be a first inch in a circle.

AND OFTEN DOES.

Gossip can take an inch of fact and stretch it into a yard of scandal.—Boston Transcript.

THE RIGHT SENTENCES.

By imposing fairly long terms of imprisonment upon a number of illicit drug sellers who were convicted at the Vancouver assizes last week Mr. Justice Murphy has interpreted popular indignation at the growth of the traffic.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Mr. Lloyd George will now prepare to face another crisis. Just as he reached London Ireland succeeded in getting itself into another peculiar mess.

CHURCH WOMEN ARE OPPOSED TO LIQUOR CONTROL

Victoria Women Honored at Closing of Methodist W. M. S.

New Westminster, May 22.—Mrs. A. E. Bolton, of Vancouver, was elected secretary-treasurer of the supply committee and Mrs. Hammond of Victoria secretary of the strangers' department of the Women's Missionary Society of the B. C. branch of the Methodist Church at the closing session of the convention, which was held at the Victoria Hotel on Friday afternoon. Mrs. R. H. McDuffee was appointed delegate to the board meeting to be held next fall in Toronto, with Mrs. Bolton as an alternative. Mrs. Pentland was appointed representative to next year's conference. Mrs. F. Adams, of Victoria, acting president during the convention, was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers by Mrs. Saunby on behalf of the society. The society went on record as being unalterably opposed to the present system of sale of liquor in the Province, commonly known as Government control. Part of the resolution read: "We also protest vigorously against the multiplication of clubs that have for their purpose the easy distribution of liquor, believing it to be contrary to the spirit of the referendum submitted as well as possessing all the evils of the open bar, without supervision and inspection. We still maintain that the only rational method is the complete abolition of the traffic. Also that we object to the billboards advertising liquor."

Another resolution endorsed was to the effect that the W. M. S. approves of the daily opening of the public schools with Bible reading and prayer on a similar plan to that in use in the province of Ontario. The memorial committee placed its record as being in general sympathy with the suggestions outlined by the board in relation with girls' missionary education to C. G. I. T. groups and expressed its desire to avoid overlapping circles and bands and its readiness to co-operate in every way possible. The same committee also passed a resolution to the effect that it did not approve of any system of taxation in connection with its work.

Will Preside at Sessions of National I. O. D. E.

Miss Joan Arnold, National President of the I. O. D. E., will preside at the annual sessions to be held in Vancouver from May 29 until June 3. Delegates from the whole of Canada will assemble for the meetings at which many matters of importance will be discussed. On Monday, June 5, the delegates will journey to Victoria, where they will be the guests of the Municipal Chapter of this city.

ODD FELLOWS ARE BUSY ORGANIZATION

Grand Lodge Annual Picnic and Visit from Friday Harbor of Rebekahs Cause Stir

The members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this city have at least four energetic committees working hard to make the future events which are to take place in Victoria a success.

The first event which will take place is the visit of the Friday Harbor Rebekah degree staff on Saturday next, when they will confer the degree for the benefit of the members of Colfax Rebekah Lodge, No. 1. Some forty members will come by the Anacortes-Sidney ferry, and at Sidney the local committee will meet them and escort them to the city by automobile. After the degree has been conferred a social evening and banquet will be held for the entertainment of the visitors. Sunday morning they will return home by way of Sidney.

One committee is formed to deal with sports and it is the intention to have a baseball team in the commercial league, the planning of tennis courts, and possibly football and basketball in the Fall and Winter.

Then the decoration committee have decided to hold a service in the hall, Douglas Street, on Sunday, June 11, after which the members will motor to the cemetery, where the graves of deceased Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will be decorated.

The annual picnic committee is at work on ways and means when and where to hold their annual picnic which usually takes place on July 1.

The Grand Lodge of British Columbia will be the main event when representatives of all lodges in this Province will meet in this city the week of June 12 to 17 and it is planned to entertain the visitors royally that week.

Other branches of the Order, the Rebekah Assembly, the Encampment and Canton will also meet at that time.

The Cathedral Parish Guild held its first annual meeting last week, when the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Duncan Rose; treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Gallier; secretary, Mrs. B. T. Drake; first vice-president, Mrs. D. Ross; second vice-president, Mrs. D. Ross; and Mrs. D. C. branch of the Methodist Church at the closing session of the convention, which was held at the Victoria Hotel on Friday afternoon. Mrs. R. H. McDuffee was appointed delegate to the board meeting to be held next fall in Toronto, with Mrs. Bolton as an alternative. Mrs. Pentland was appointed representative to next year's conference. Mrs. F. Adams, of Victoria, acting president during the convention, was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers by Mrs. Saunby on behalf of the society. The society went on record as being unalterably opposed to the present system of sale of liquor in the Province, commonly known as Government control. Part of the resolution read: "We also protest vigorously against the multiplication of clubs that have for their purpose the easy distribution of liquor, believing it to be contrary to the spirit of the referendum submitted as well as possessing all the evils of the open bar, without supervision and inspection. We still maintain that the only rational method is the complete abolition of the traffic. Also that we object to the billboards advertising liquor."

ALICE ADAMS

BY BOOTH TARKINGTON
INSTALLMENT NO. 20

Mrs. Adams spoke to Gertrude in an undertone: "If it's callers, just say we're not at home."

Gertrude spoke out freely: "You mean you astin' me to 'tend you front do' fer you?"

Mrs. Adams persisted. "Yes, hurry up—please. Just say we're not at home—if you mean."

Gertrude gave Mrs. Adams a stare, grimly derisive, then departed. When she came back she said: "Say he name her, say."

"Yes'm; he know you. Say he anxious to speak Mr. Adams. Say he wait."

Adams frowned. "Law, he said. 'Wasn't it maybe 'Lohr'?"

"Law, Gertrude repeated. 'S. all he tell me; 's all I know.'

"What's he look like?"

"He ain't much," she said. "Bout your age; got brushty white moustache, nice eye-glasses."

"It's Charley," Mrs. Adams exclaimed. "I'll go see what he wants."

"But, Virgil, his wife remonstrated, 'do finish your coffee; he might stay all evening.'

"Adams laughed. "Don't worry; I'll take him up to my room." And turning toward Russell, "Ah—if you'll just excuse me," he said; and went out to his visitor.

Mrs. Adams finished her coffee, and having glanced intelligently from her guest to her daughter, she rose. "I think perhaps I ought to go and shake hands with Mr. Lohr, myself, she said, adding in explanation to Russell as she reached the door. "He's an old friend of my husband's and it's a very long time since he's been here."

Alice nodded and smiled to her brightly, then turned to Russell. "Penny for your thoughts!" she cried, and tossed one of the wilted roses at him across the table. "I'll bid more than a penny; I'll bid a rose for your thoughts, Mr. Arthur Russell. What with going?"

He shook his head. "I'm afraid I haven't any."

"No, of course not," she said. "Who could have thoughts in weather like this?"

She laughed gaily, and, rising, moved to the door. "Let's go in the other room; your fearful duty is almost done, and you can run home as soon as you want to." For this, though he contrived to laugh, he seemed to have no verbal retort whatever; but followed her into the "living-room," where she stopped and turned, facing him.

"Has it really been so frightful?" she asked.

"Why, of course not. It's been most kind of your mother and father and you."

"Do you know," she said, "you've never once looked at me for more than a second at a time the whole evening?" And then stepping closer to him, she asked solicitously: "Tell me, you're really feeling wretched, aren't you? I know you've got a fearful headache, or something. Tell me."

"I'm really quite all right."

"But if you are—" she began; and then, looking at him with a desperate sweetness, as if this were the last resource to rouse him. "What's the matter, little boy?" she said with liping tenderness. "Tell auntie!"

It was a mistake, for he seemed to flinch. She turned away instantly, with a flippant lift and drop of both hands. "Oh, my dear!" she laughed. "I won't eat your Let's go out on the porch," she said, "where we belong!"

Then, when he had followed her out and she were seated, she asked, "What is it? Isn't it time you were telling me what's the matter?"

"Nothing. Indeed nothing's the matter. Of course one is ruder affected by such weather as this. It may make one a little quieter than usual, of course."

She sighed, and let the tired muscles of her face rest. It was luxury to feel that in the darkness no grimaces need call upon them.

"I wonder," she went on, in a voice of reflection, "if mother who has been talking about me to you, after all? There's nothing you have to escape from, you know. You aren't committed to—this friendship."

ARTIST FROM JAVA TO PLANT ALPINE SCENERY IN CANADA

Has Made Success With Landscapes in Netherlands, East Indies

A painter of landscapes in oils after the French modern school, is Leonid Gechtoff, naturalized Dutch subject, who was at the Dominion Hotel during the week-end on his arrival from the Orient.

Mr. Gechtoff, who is accompanied by his wife, is a follower of the Impressionist School, and has come to this continent from Java to exercise his art, particularly on mountain scenery.

He produced some laudatory notices of exhibitions of his pictures in the Orient, and mentioned to The Times that much success attended his display at Manila of thirteen landscape paintings, that remained unsold, illustrating various phases of the scenery of the Garden Island of the Orient. Several pictures were sold in Manila, and one presented to the Knights of Pythias. In recognition of an exhibition held under their auspices for charity on behalf of a leper colony—the Knights presented him with the honorary membership of their order.

Mr. Gechtoff uses a knife to aid the brush on parts of the canvas, though the sky is painted in the usual way, and as a result the critics find much to praise in his work.

He stated that he proposed to return to British Columbia en route to Toronto, shortly after completing an engagement in the neighboring state of Washington, and hoped to paint some pictures of the Rockies.

Mr. Gechtoff says it is rather an uphill road for the artist at the present time, as everywhere he finds conditions difficult from a financial standpoint. He says he was surprised at the large number of Chinese and Filipinos who visited his exhibitions in the Orient, apart from white people for whom they were primarily designed.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

WHEN OLD OCEAN CALLED.

The babbling brooks and rivers and all the little rills, One day ran off together and tumbled down the hills.

Old Dame Nature, who is ever on the lookout for her children, saw the runaways and called to them to come back. "You will be lost forever," she said. "Heed my warning before it is too late."

But the only reply that she heard, "We are tired of staying at home," and away they went, frolicking and chattering merrily as they ran far, far away from their mountain home.

"Old Dame Nature would have us always live up there," said one little river, "where we can see nothing but the sky. I am sure there is much more to be seen out in the big world than the birds tell us about."

"Yes, but that is not why I am running away," said another stream. "I heard old Ocean calling us at night. He sends his loud call on the night winds and he says there is much for us to do and much for us to see, but first of all we owe it to him to come when he calls, for all the waters are his children."

Old Dame Nature knew all this and she knew still more that every little river and streamlet and rill would be swallowed up by the big Ocean and that never again would they babble and trickle and bubble over the stone and rocks in the sunlight, for they would become a part of the great Ocean and be lost forever.

But on and on went the runaways, so happy that they leaped over all the rocks that tried to hold them back. "We are going to the Ocean, we can't stay," was their reply, as they went on their way.

"Oh, there is the Ocean," cried one little river as she came near the great roaring, dashing waves.

"Oh," cried another, "I am afraid." Put it was too late for the little river and all in their strong lapping grasp and carried them far out into the Ocean and never again would they be little rivers or streams or babbling brooks or rills, but just a part of the great roaring Ocean.

And though they saw strange and far-away shores and many great cities and other sights of the Ocean, I am quite sure that those runaway streamlets and brooks and little rivers often wish they had never left their homes on the top of the mountain where each one of them had a name as they bubbled or trickled or ran in the sunlight.

COMMUNITY CENTRE WELL ATTENDED

The James Bay Methodist did the inevitable when they defeated the First Presbyterian Midgets in a close game, which ended with a score of 28 to 17 at the Armory on Saturday night, as part of the entertainment for the evening. The Fifth Regiment band opened with a fifteen-minute band parade, followed by the thrilling encounter, which was certainly a success. The line-up of the two teams were as follows:

First Presbyterian Midgets—Murray, Wright, Foubister, Shipworth and McCallum.

James Bay Methodists—F. Kenny, B. Collison, Tommy Moffatt and Jeff Bothwell.

The attendance was a large one, and proved the popularity of this week-end entertainment centre to the utmost. Following the game, dancing was indulged in. The band under Bandmaster Rumbay supplied an excellent musical programme, and all those in attendance had a thoroughly good time.

CATHEDRAL DOME DUMMY.

St. Paul's Wooden Superstructure Has Brick Over 60 Feet Below.

It is not generally known that the tower-like dome of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, England, is a dummy. It is built of wood and covered with lead, but is not strong enough to support the lantern and gold ball that appear to rest on it.

"Sixty feet below it is another and quite separate dome. This is built of brick and is the dome seen from the interior. Between these two, hidden from sight, is a brick cone, eighteen inches in thickness and reinforced with iron tie-rods.

The lantern and ball, which weigh 700 tons, are supported by this cone. The total weight of the whole structure ($4,000 tons) is carried on eight central piers—London Tit-Bits.

NEW COAL FIELD ON ISLAND TO BE INVESTIGATED NOW

The possibilities of the new coal area between Courtenay and Cape Mudge are apparently to be investigated this season by the Geological Survey of Canada. Members of the field party to undertake the work in the Comox field are already arriving on the Coast. A. C. S. Sheppard and J. A. Macdonald have come from Ottawa to specialize on the coal area under J. D. Mackenzie, of the Vancouver office of the Dominion Geological Survey.

Mr. Sheppard will have charge of all the mapping in connection with this survey of the coal fields. Last year the work of thoroughly exploring and mapping this area was started, but owing to adverse weather conditions it was not completed. It is hoped to finish the work this season.

URGES CHOIR OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Formation of a choir from among all the boys and girls of the city schools is too late for the latest issue of the Public School Magazine, which is just off the presses. "Mr. Waddington, the conductor, deserves great praise for the time and energy he must have spent in the training of his choir," the paper declares. "The editor has been wondering if it would be possible to have Mr. Waddington enlarge his choir to take in the children with good voices from all over the city, or perhaps to start another such choir in the city itself."

STATE CASE FOR LORD'S DAY PARTY

Ask Commissioners to Ignore Plebiscite of May 12

Victoria Branch of Alliance Urges Board to Stand Firm

In support of the action of the Board of City Police Commissioners in enforcing the Lord's Day Act in this city, a long communication from the Victoria Branch of the Lord's Day Alliance was received by the Commissioners Saturday night. The statement, signed by the Rev. Dr. Leslie Clay and the Rev. William Stevenson, read as follows:

Lord's Day Alliance.

The Lord's Day Alliance said in a statement:

According to recent announcements in the newspaper press of Victoria, efforts are being made by an association named "The Anti-Blue Sunday League" to prevail upon the Attorney-General of B. C. to withhold his fiat in the case of applications which may be made to him for the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act in the City of Victoria, to the extent that the Act shall be suspended so far as Victoria is concerned.

In order to press this appeal upon the Attorney-General it is urged that a plebiscite upon the question of the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act was taken in Victoria on May 12, with the result that 509 voted for enforcement and 3,853 against. It is being urged upon the Attorney-General and also upon the Board of Police Commissioners that the result of this plebiscite provides sufficient justification for the suspension of the law especially as it applies to Victoria.

It is also declared intention, we believe, to circulate the members of the Dominion Parliament from B.C. and also the House at Ottawa to ask for the amendment or the repeal of the Lord's Day Act; and the reason to be advanced as the ground of this appeal is this self same plebiscite and its result.

Summary of Situation.

Before, however, a right consideration can be given to this appeal, a right estimate formed of this plebiscite the following important aspects of the question should be considered.

First—Sometime in March or early in April the Police Commissioners ordered all stores and businesses in Victoria, that were open on Sunday, contrary to law to be closed.

Second—in this action they were strongly supported by a large section of the public.

Third—it was then proposed to take a plebiscite and the City Council was petitioned by those opposed to the Sunday closing order, asking that a plebiscite be taken—this petition was presented by the Anti-Blue Sunday League.

The City Council also had before them a request from the Police Commissioners that a plebiscite be taken. Arrangements for such plebiscite were then proceeded with by the City Council.

The attention of the Mayor and Police Commissioners was then drawn to the fact that such a plebiscite taken by the City Council was ultra vires, and that the Police Commissioners were acting contrary to their oath of office, and so have no supporting such plebiscite.

As soon as the Mayor was convinced that this was so, being advised to that effect by the Attorney-General and other legal authorities, he in the name of the Commissioners, cancelled all arrangements to hold the plebiscite.

Fourth—it was then that the Anti-Blue Sunday League determined to hold a plebiscite on their own account, and this they did on the day when the electors voted on a money by-law.

The Church Meeting.

Fifth—the Lord's Day Alliance held a large mass meeting in the Metropolitan Methodist Church, on Sunday evening, April 30, when the following resolution was passed with practical unanimity:

"Therefore be it resolved that this meeting of citizens assembled for the purpose of discussing the question of the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act:—First, that we hereby do most heartily endorse the action of the Board of Police Commissioners in ordering the enforcement of the Act; second, we hereby make declaration that whilst we believe that the voice of the people should be heard upon all public questions, and so have no objection to a plebiscite being taken on the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act, yet as law-abiding citizens we would remind the City Council and also the Police Commissioners that such plebiscite can in no way set aside or abrogate the law as laid down in the Lord's Day Act; third, we would earnestly call upon all citizens who desire the maintenance of law and order in the land to resist the influences at present aiming at the overthrow of the Sabbath, and the destruction of an institution that has proved to be essential to the well-being of any nation, a beneficent relief from the rigors of toil to the laboring man, and a strong bulwark in defence of morality and of civil and religious liberty." Moved by Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D.D., seconded by Mr. Arthur Lee; chairman, W. J. Sippl, D.D.

This meeting was attended by some 1,800 of the citizens of Victoria.

At a meeting of the Executive of the Prairie Visitors' Club recently held a resolution was passed—that the Lord's Day Alliance had no attraction for tourists from the prairies.

Attacks the Vote.

Sixth—As regards the plebiscite the following points should be considered:

1. The plebiscite was got up, staged and managed entirely by the "Anti-Blue Sunday League."

2. Although the City Council refused to authorize the plebiscite the voting was carried on in the Market at the same time and place when and where an important city by-law was being voted on.

3. No representative of the Lord's Day Alliance or of any organization holding similar views, or any person whose sympathies were with the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act was officially connected with the plebiscite. The proceedings were therefore without official scrutiny or regulation of any kind. Attention is drawn to the fact that the posters displayed by the "Anti-Blue Sunday League" in all the usual places were identical with those used by the City for the official vote of their by-law.

4. A large number of citizens deliberately and of set purpose refrained from voting, it having been decided by the "Lord's Day Alliance" to request their friends to take no

Lumbago, Neuritis, Sciatica

Rheumatism and similar troubles invariably yield to the T.R.C.'s (Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules) treatment. Many doctors and many hundreds of druggists from coast to coast will confirm this truth. FORMER COMMANDER OF MELITA ON BRIDGE OF SHIP

The arrival of the new Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, on her maiden trip from Liverpool, was witnessed by a record crowd which lined the piers along the river. Her arrival created an even greater impression than that of the Montcalm, her sister ship, a few weeks ago. The advance reports of the beauty and luxurious fittings of this new 18,400-ton oil-burner were fully verified.

Courtesy

People are polite by training but courtesy is inborn. Mr. Advertiser, would you be discourteous to a friend, a Buddy, a business client, or a prospective buyer? Probably not. On your business telephone you would not snap a man short, nor would you answer an inquiry in as few words as possible. You would be courteous. It would be bad business sense not to.

TANKER HAD ROUGH PASSAGE.

With twenty-two plates split open after four days in an ice flow; life boats smashed to splinters, and with battered bows and smashed top hamper, the Imperial Oil Company's tanker Talaraito met heavy weather in crossing from this coast to the Atlantic. Struck by a storm off Hatteras, and held in the mouth of St. Lawrence in an ice jam, the tanker had a rough passage. She sailed from this port on March 23, after refitting at Messrs. Yarrow, Ltd.

STILETTO AND OWNER PROCEED

Known from one end of the waterfront to the other overnight as "the girl with the dagger," Senorita Felicitad Marshall satisfied a board of immigration officers yesterday that she was carrying the dagger in a satchel to merely as a matter of self-protection and not as a weapon of aggression. The satchel was permitted to continue her journey, and took the afternoon boat for Seattle. She arrived as a passenger on the S.S. Montrose, but was detained here by immigration authorities on the question of entering the United States.

LIQUOR JUDGMENT

ON IMPORTATIONS

Mr. Justice Martin's Opinion on Little Case

Accompanying is a summary of the dissenting judgment of Mr. Justice Martin in the case brought by Little against the Attorney-General of British Columbia.

This was an appeal by Little from a judgment upholding the validity of a tax of $11 imposed by the Liquor Control Board, on a case of Canadian eye whisky purchased by the plaintiff from the Gold Seal Company, Limited, Calgary, and by plaintiff imported into the province.

The court was asked to declare the imposition of the tax ultra vires on the ground that it was contrary to two sections of the British North America Act, namely sections 91, the regulation of trade and commerce, and section 121 requiring all articles of the growth, manufacture or produce of the provinces to be admitted free into each of the other provinces.

His Lordship dealt with the recent case of the Gold Seal vs. Dominion Express Company, and the powers of provincial restriction. He compared the liquor case with that of importing a car of wheat from Saskatchewan or Alberta, coal or cattle, of Manitoba wheat, or Ontario implements of whisky, or Quebec boots and shoes, or Nova Scotia fish, and said that the effect could be to "Build up a general or discriminatory tariff wall against some or all of the products of the other provinces."

He held the proposal "a direct invasion of inter-provincial rights established by section 121, and therefore an illegal fetter upon free admission, and so the appeal should be allowed, and the tax declared to be an illegal imposition."

His Lordship concludes, "The result of my careful scrutiny of every section of the Act in question is that while there are several provisions in it which may well be said to have a 'necessarily incidental' entrenchment upon the federal field of trade and commerce, yet by means of the one called in question (section 55) the provincial Legislature in my opinion is as the Privy Council said in the Great West case under the guise of imposing direct taxation within their power they were really doing something else' namely directly and unauthorizedly invading the federal field of trade and commerce, and therefore the appeal should be allowed on this second ground also."

It is understood that the case will go to the Privy Council.

UNIQUE CHURCH SERVICE GIVEN BY EPWORTH LEAGUE

During the absence of Rev. S. Cook, the Epworth League of the Fairfield Methodist took charge of the morning Sunday church service, carrying out the service in a very capable manner. G. Green presided in the morning. The work of the various departments of the Epworth League were outlined, and proved a very interesting service. A. Mendam, president of the Young People's Society, gave an address on "Look Up, Lift Up for Christ and the Church." Mrs. Williams gave a solo in the morning. The evening service was a musical one and a large attendance was present at this service in control of the already mentioned department. Solos were rendered by Miss Lewis and Mr. Jones of the Welsh choir, while Mr. Tickle gave a splendid violin solo. By special request Mr. Rogers played the "Lost Chord" on the concert. The choir rendered a beautiful one then composed by Mr. Rogers, organist of the Fairfield Methodist Church. Ira Dilworth, of the Victoria High School gave an illuminating address on the subject "Sacred Music." The service was well attended.

COMMUNITY SING PROGRAMME TO-MORROW

The programme for the Community Sing at the Parliament Buildings tomorrow evening at 7.45 is as follows: Rule Britannia (Solo verses by R. R. Webb). O God Our Help. Underneath the Moon (Duet by Mrs. W. P. McDonagh and R. R. Webb). There's a Pretty Little Town (Victoria Typical Song). Old Black Joe. After Sundown (Solo verse by Mrs. W. P. McDonagh). Whenever I Leave Victoria (Victoria Typical Song). There's a Long, Long Trail, Onward Christian Soldiers. Till We Meet Again. Home Sweet Home. God Save the King.

Motor Accidents

Two motor accidents took place yesterday, one at Goldstream, where an automobile turned over, and another on Richmond Road, when A. McKissick, of Sixth Street, was knocked down by a motor car and dragged about ten feet but escaped uninjured. He was walking along the road with a dog and a street car was passing, so that he did not hear the motor car approaching. In the case of the Goldstream accident nine people were in the car, but fortunately no one was badly injured.

Leading Clubs Find Pace Getting Warm

Giants and Yankees Just Manage to Hang On to Top Berths in Big Leagues With Both St. Louis Teams Pressing Hard; Philadelphia Athletics Show Best Form of All and May Prove Sensation of Race; Another Triple Play.

New York May 22.—New York teams retained their leadership in the major leagues' pennant races last week, with St. Louis runner-up in both leagues, but several other contenders apparently, however, have rounded into form and promised to give the favorites plenty of opposition. The Giants had their lead over the Cardinals cut to two games and as both lost yesterday it remained unchanged, while in the American League the Yanks kept the Browns out of first place by yesterday's victory and also acquired an advantage of two games lead.

The return of Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel to the Yankee line-up after the lifting of their suspension furnished a spectacular climax to the week, and although neither apparently has adjusted his batting sight as yet, they are expected before long to furnish the punch which the New Yorkers have lacked so far this season.

Athletics Going Great.

The Philadelphia Athletics, displaying batting strength second to none of their American League rivals and aided by some great pitching, may prove the sensation of the race. They climbed to third place last week.

The Yankees, after a disastrous series with the Tigers, of Detroit, took three straight wins in Cleveland, who are in a bad slump due to poor pitching and opened an important series with their principal rivals, St. Louis, on Saturday. The Browns took the first game, despite the return of Ruth and Meusel, but lost a 19-inning game on Sunday.

Yanks Pitchers Hold Up.

Huggins' star-pitching staff has shown few signs of cracking as yet, but should any of his box artists falter he has a likely recruit in George Murray who won a game almost single-handed last week.

Washington's pitching hit her stride after a poor start and favored by good pitching, may figure prominently in the pennant race. By winning Sunday from Chicago, which has encountered a slump, Washington scored its fifth victory in six games.

The Boston Red Sox broke even during the week, when they encountered their scrappy play under Ty Cobb, clung to fourth place. The Giants unable to do better than break even during their eastern opponents, dropped three straight in Cincinnati. The Giants have not been hitting so well.

Cards Hitting Fire.

St. Louis displayed terrific hitting strength and gained slightly on New York. St. Louis scored more runs and made more hits than any team in either league and with fair pitching will stick close to their eastern rivals.

The other three western teams, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati gained ground at the expense of the eastern teams, all showing a winning margin for the week. Cincinnati showing its first winning streak of the season, taking all of its last six games.

Harris, Judge and Peckinpaugh of Washington, pulled the fourth triple play of the season in a game against Detroit Tuesday, while Ed Miller, slugging outfielder of the Athletics, furnished a batting fever by knocking out three home runs in two days, increasing his total to nine and rivalling Ken Williams, St. Louis, who has 11 for home run honors.

Play For British Amateur Golf Championship Opens at Prestwick

Prestwick, Eng., May 22.—A record field of 252 golfers began play here to-day for the British amateur golf championship. The weather was ideal when the first pair started before an enormous crowd of spectators. The large number of entries will necessitate a whole week's play, and there were 74 matches in the first round to-day, the remainder being carded for tomorrow morning.

INCOGS DEFEATED FOR FIRST TIME

Leaders of Cricket League Surprised at Form of the Garrison

The Incogs were not expected to experience any great trouble in disposing of the Tommies, but being on their home ground the Garrison was able to bring up its heavy artillery and it battered the Incogs' bowlers into submission.

Victoria Compiled Largest Score of Season; Five C's "A" Better of Two

Saturday's cricket results were as follows:

Senior League.
Garrison, 139; Incogs, 118.
Victoria, 321; Army, and Navy, 21; 95.
Five C's "A" 111 for four wickets; Five C's "B" 43; 90.

Exhibition Match.

Cowichan, 55; Albion, 56.

Cricketers have been looking for something in the shape of a surprise for the past couple of weeks, and it came with a terrific bang on Saturday afternoon, when the supposedly invincible Incogs, league leaders, went down to defeat before the Garrison.

Cobbett Was Too Good.

The Incogs tried desperately to surpass the score of the Garrison, but were denied despite the fact that they sent their bowlers to bat, which is something they had not been forced to do in any previous matches. They found Cobbett's trundling altogether too fast, and six of their wickets fell for but 24. Taylor turned in the best score for the Incogs, his total being 31.

Victoria ran up the greatest score of the season in a match with the Army and Navy. There was no stopping "Giddy" Goward's clan, and the Army and Navy failed to discover an effective bowler to meet the onslaught of the Victoria club over the half century. Vaughan having 65, Oliver 55 and Wilkinson 53. The Victoria bowlers had the ball breaking shortly. Cobbett, batted for 110 minutes for three runs.

The Five C's "B" tried hard to show the Five C's "A" a few tricks in the game, but they had to bow to the Victoria superiority. The "A" team had a total of 111 for four wickets, and two retired when they declared their innings. The "B" could not follow in the first inning, being all out for 43. In the second inning they did a little better finishing up with 90.

Cowichan Did Well.

Cowichan came down for a friendly scratch with the Albions on Saturday afternoon. The Albions held a bye in the Victoria and District League. The visitors won out after a very interesting match.

Elk's Hurlers Too Easy For Knights

Noble Held Antlered Tribe Safe Over Whole Distance, While Pesky Youngsters Drove Two Twirlers From Mound Before Forbes Managed to Halt Them; Seventh Inning Left Elks Far In Rush; Score 10-5.

Walter Lorimer's million-dollar pitching staff played him a mean trick on Saturday afternoon at the Stadium. Just as the Elks were all set to take on to themselves their second straight victory, "Red" McIntyre, their hurling ace, cracked wide open, and his relief, young Wilfred May, must have been agent for some pedestrian agency for he faced four batters and let 'em all walk to first. Then Norm Forbes was called in from the outfield and he managed to sand the track and halt the rush of the pesky Knights. The result of the failure of Lorimer's prize hurlers was a sensational win for the former cellarites to the tune of 10-5.

Jackie Clyde Wins Opening Handicap

Jackie Clyde won the opening 50-yard handicap swim at the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club on Saturday afternoon. Jock McNeill finished second, and Peter Johnson was third.

ZANE GREY

TRIUMPH ON SCREEN

Virile Story to Engage Attention of Royal Audiences

William Fox, who presented this afternoon at the Royal Victoria theatre, for the first time here, Zane Grey's great story "The Last Trail," has given as a special production, a worthy successor to the other Zane Grey stories he has contributed to the screen. Who that saw William Farnum in "Riders of the Purple Sage," "The Rainbow Trail," "The Last of the Duanes" and "The Lone Star Ranger," can forget those superb examples of motion picture drama? When "The Last Trail" is described as a worthy addition to this list, little more need be said in the way of endorsement.

"The Last Trail" is a story virile in plot, sensational in situation and fascinating in incident—a story that "screens perfectly." In the sustained mastery attaching to the work of a solitary outlaw it holds an engrossing interest for the spectator up to the final climax—which is startlingly effective in a scene showing the blowing up of a great dam and the sweeping away of a village by the flood. The manner in which this great scene gripped the first showing audience was a fine tribute to the picture's director, Emmett J. Flynn—who achieved distinction by his direction for Fox of "A Connecticut Yankee" and "Shame," both special productions of a most ambitious character and both tremendous successes. Maurice Flynn, the new Fox star, in the leading role of "The Last Trail," made a distinct hit, and was ably seconded by Eva Novak as the heroine. The entire company indeed is a notable one. In it are seen the beautiful Rosemary They and the always dependable Harry Dunkinson and Charles K. French.

As an extra attraction in addition to the feature the great English Steeplechase, will also be shown. This is a most thrilling picture; thirty horses started in the race and only five completed the course, while all except the first three fell. This picture alone is well worth seeing, and rounds out an excellent programme.

THRILLING PICTURE AT DOMINION

Wallace Reid Again in Racing Drama Realm

If ever a picture was correctly described in advance, then this can be said of Wallace Reid's latest Paramount picture, "Across the Continent," which will have its initial presentation at the Dominion theatre all week starting to-day. This is an automobile story built upon nerve, perhaps the greatest example of which is the entry of a flyer in a great trans-continental race. And the flyer wins, through sheer merit. It is a picture which immortalises the poor man's car.

"THE GOOD PROVIDER" IN PARAMOUNT FILM

Capitol Presents Vera Gordon and Dore Davidson

That pre-eminent mother and father of pictures—Vera Gordon and Dore Davidson—again appear in a picture of humble life, a picture that is undoubtedly the capstone of their highly successful careers. The new photoplay is "The Good Provider," a Paramount picture created by Cosmopolitan Productions, written by Fannie Hurst and directed by Frank Forzage. These four—Miss Gordon, Mr. Davidson, Miss Hurst and Mr. Forzage—helped to make "Humoresque" the sterling picture that it was and Miriam Battista, who also did her share in it, has an important part in "The Good Provider," which comes to the Capitol theatre this week.

When you see "The Good Provider" you will find smiles chasing away your tears, you will be entertained by a portrayal of life freed from the fetters of artificiality, you will be enthusiastic over the work of art that has been so magnificently woven out of Miss Hurst's story. No little praise is to be accorded John Lynch, the scenario writer who adapted the narrative to the screen. Vivienne Osborne, William (Buster) Collier, Jr., and John Roche also lend their excellent talents to the production.

An excellent Clyde Cook comedy, "The Chauffeur," is also shown, while Walter Beaton and Mrs. A. Watt will present at the De Luxe shows a new song scene entitled "Melodies of Home," introducing "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Her starring term in "Fun of the Fayer," at the London Pavilion, will keep Evelyn Laye away from American motion picture appearances until June. The London season then ending, Miss Laye will initiate her engagement with Selznick photoplays.

VARIETY PRESENTS "A GAME CHICKEN"

Schooner Surprised Film Stars When Dancing

It makes a difference who's dancing, as Bebe Daniels and her company discovered when they were doing "ship stuff" for "A Game Chicken" at Realart Pictures production which opened today at the Variety theatre.

As they sailed out of Los Angeles harbor, the weather was fair, the company congenial, and there was music aboard. So, cooled by a sea breeze, they danced. That is, they danced until the vessel crossed the bar and decided that she would do a little dancing herself. Which she did, leaping lightly from wave to wave with that abandon so characteristic of small ocean-going craft.

Immediately, all the others stopped dancing. Some of them sought the retirement of cabins, others gave the notion of the deck as their excuse, and stayed on deck for the air.

"A Game Chicken" was written by Nina Wilcox Putnam and adapted to the screen by Fred Myton, under the supervision of Elmer Harris. The supporting cast includes Pat O'Malley

Hugh Thompson, Martha Mattox, Gertrude Norman, James Gordon and others.

Twenty-three motion picture camera men of Hollywood, among them John F. Seltz, photographer of all of Rex Ingram's big Metro productions, have offered to provide Sir Arthur Conan Doyle with any number of spirit pictures for his lectures on the beyond and points west. It is not that they doubt the authenticity of Sir Arthur's photographs of the scotchman, the disembodied soul, but they feel he could have more interesting subjects for the asking—or say "Sherlock Holmes."

"For that," said Mr. Seltz, "any one of us would give Sir Arthur either a moving or still picture of the shade of the late Anthony Comstock shimmying."

WAS CAPTAIN FOR ONE DAY ONLY

"Get Your Man" Is Feature at Columbia

Buck Jones, the motion picture star who comes to the Columbia theatre to-day in the Fox picture, "Get Your Man," was formerly captain of a fire company in his home town of Vincennes, Indiana. He held this coveted position one day.

Inspired by the installation of a neighborhood fire department which boasted a crimson hose wagon, Buck and the other boys in his "gang" immediately organized a fire company of their own. The "hose wagon" consisted of two sets of wheels and a long plank on which were placed buckets of water.

But why a fire company without a fire? Buck, having been elected to the captaincy, conceived the brilliant idea of setting fire to his father's barn and rushing to the rescue. The barn was fired, the alarm sounded, and Captain Buck Jones, with his brave fire ladders, started for the scene.

All might have gone well had the route to the fire been a straight one; but as the lads turned a corner the buckets slid off the plank and overturned. It cost Buck's father $75 to repair the damage, and the secret having leaked out, Buck hardly dared even look at a chair for several days. He was "sore" about the venture.

MUSICAL COMEDY— DUE AT PRINCESS

With Beautiful Costumed Chorus, Wednesday Will See New Feature

With two musical surprises in the way of novelty singing and dancing numbers to each act, this week's attraction, "Other People's Money," which will open at the Princess Wednesday for its week's run of five performances only, is already being heralded as the most ideal and highly entertaining farce-comedy seen in Victoria for many moons.

"Other People's Money" is a farce-comedy which has real merit, and is one with a strong plot, and sustains interest throughout its three acts of riotous fun and laughter.

Jack Phillips, Violet Neitz, Vivian Moore, Lily Dooly, Earl Moore, Adeline Rundle, Arthur Elton, William Campbell and all the regular members of the company are given excellent opportunities to show their abilities in comedy.

Staged under the personal direction of Harry Leland, who also assumes a most important role in the play, a most noteworthy production is to be expected.

In addition, the musical interruptions are of the unusual type, and a real treat is in store for the patrons of the popular "Tates Street" house.

Reserved seats are now on sale at the box office for all performances.

CONSTANCE TALMADGE IN "MARRIAGE" FILM.

Constance Talmadge, in "Experimental Marriage," will feature the Talmadge revival Lewis J. Selznick issues for early distribution. This was one of the attractions Selznick originally put in circulation at the time when he was advancing the Talmadge business to the studios.

"Experimental Marriage" was based on William J. Hurlbut's stage play titled "Saturday to Monday," and the production was directed some time ago by Robert G. Vignola with Harrison Ford as Constance Talmadge's leading man. Mayme Kelso, Edythe Chapman, Walter Hier, Vera Sisson and Raymond Hatton are players who are far better known to screen fame in these days than they were when playing with the Selznick forces.

Jess Robbins, the producer of the Vitaphone, seven reel comedy, "Too Much Business," which is having such a successful run, has many more achievements than this production to his credit. It was Robbins who first discovered Charlie Chaplin when the comedian was still in his un-starred days. Due to his representations, the old Essanay company took on Charlie at a salary of $1,000 a week.

But Mr. Robbins' greatest claim to distinction is that he has no desire to desert comedy. In this respect he is unique, for all comedians have a Freudian suppressed desire to play Hamlet, and all producers of comedies have the same burning inclination to produce Hamlet. Jess Robbins, however, has been making comedies for fifteen years, and he intends to keep on making them. He is now finishing a second six reel production, entitled "The Ladder Jinx," which is to be released by Vitaphone.

Edward Horton and Tully Marshall, who proved to be such able laugh-producers in "Too Much Business," have important roles in this new picture of jinxes and superstitions.

EXPENSIVE FOR SAANICH TO PAY OFF DEBT ALONE

City Repayment Without Sewers Unbusinesslike

Throwing light on intermunicipal finances and factors of good will between public bodies, Councillor McWilliam and Clerk H. S. Cowper on Friday night, at Totmie school, informed the ratepayers of Saanich that the repayment of the North West Sewer debt without installation of a sewer system, would mean the assumption of an additional yearly tax of over $1,000, above eventual costs accruing by letting the debt remain until the ratepayers authorize a sewer construction programme.

Councillor McWilliam having remarked upon this fact in the course of an address on business aspects of the large bylaw to be voted upon, a number of ratepayers demanded that Clerk Cowper explain the matter.

"The city is not being asked to enlarge of the North West Sewer for the advantage of Saanich which $48,000, on this we have to pay 5 per cent yearly from March 1917, therefore this interest cost added to the principal is $2,300 each year. To pay the city will require the provision of a 5 1/2 per cent interest rate this amounting for interest alone to $2,382 yearly. Of course, as a purely business matter, it is not a good thing for Saanich, but there is another aspect which is of great interest to our people. It may very well be considered that the making of moral obligations is well worth an additional $1,000 yearly," explained the clerk.

For his views upon the matter, Councillor Macnicol denounced the appearance of ward politics in the sewerage debates, declared that he would either see the council act on the laws passed, but personally supported the larger by-law as being better business. "If you refuse to pass either by-law, the council at least has done its duty by submitting the question to you," he said.

Messrs. W. Christmas and H. Holmes kindly managed "the door." The various committees were:

POLICE GUARD FILM.

Berlin, May 22.—"Fredericus Rex," the film glorifying Prussian militarism and victories of Frederick the Great, is still a storm centre in German motion picture houses. The film shows troops doing the goose-step and other examples of rigorous Prussian patriotism. It has brought the rights to the film and used the rough parts for propaganda purposes, calling it "Prussian barbarism."

When played before German nationalist audience the film provokes patriotism outbursts and the singing of "Deutschland Ueber Alles," but when shown before an audience of workmen they smash the theatre and destroy the film.

The Communists are now sending out a special gang of rowers to every theatre where the film is shown while the German Government has countered by sending a detachment of military police. Now the police have instructed motion picture exhibitors to notify them two days in advance in order to assure the presence of sufficient troops to prevent disorder.

ROMAN PAVEMENT BELOW SURFACE OF ENGLISH CEMETERY

In digging a grave in the new part of the Kynsham Cemetery, Somerset, England, a digger came across a tessellated pavement, in good condition, and which, it is estimated, must have been laid some 15,000 years ago. The squares, which could be easily distinguished were bordered by a blue stone, and the stones, having been preserved, will no doubt be of interest to many antiquarians. Some old bones were also found in the vicinity of the pavement.

This is not the first discovery made in the cemetery, as in an adjoining grave the remains of an old Roman wall were found.

Vitaphone has again done the unusual in an attractive adaptation of both a song and a story—each one a classic—to the screen. "My Wild Irish Rose" which has just been completed, sips the sweetness from both Chauncey Olcott's song, and Dion Boucicault's famous stage success, "The Shaughraun."

Irish romance is always gripping, but when music, wit, a rich Irish brogue replete with folk lore, and a wealth of scenic beauty are blended, the effect is startling. One is completely saturated with the sentiment of the song and the plot. In other words it is an example of nearly 100 per cent in "atmosphere." It will send many an audience whistling and humming up the aisles.

Director Dave Smith, in the opinion of those who have seen the picture, has filmed another big picture—one that will live on and on with "Black Beauty" and "The Little Minister."

"My Wild Irish Rose" has completed its final criticism at the Vitaphone Brooklyn laboratories, and is slated for release June 1.

BASEBALL GAME PLAYED AT DUNCAN

Cubs—Lovel, Pennell, Maitland, Beckwith, Woodward, F. Evans, A. Dixon, Baines and Whan.

Cowichan Chapter Ball

(Times Correspondence.)
Duncan, May 22.—There was only a fair attendance at the ball given by the Cowichan Chapter, I.O.G.E., in the Agricultural Hall Friday evening.

The Lieutenant-Governor arrived about 9.15 and opened the ball, after which dancing was kept up until 2 a. m. to Henderson's orchestra.

Owing to Mrs. Willett's illness, Mrs. Stock most kindly took over the supper arrangements, and everything was carried out most capably and smoothly. Special praise is due to the new secretary of the Chapter, Mrs. Primrose-Wells, for it was certainly due to her great measure to her untiring efforts that the dance was so successfully managed.

Messrs. W. Christmas and H. Holmes kindly managed "the door." The various committees were:

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

(Times Correspondence.)
Cobble Hill, May 19.—The Cobble Hill and Shawigan Branch of the Duncan Board of Trade met on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., at the Bakery, for their regular monthly meeting.

Lieut. Col. Oldham was in the chair. Others present were the Hon. Sec. G. A. Cheeke, the Rev. Mr. Crewe, Col. Eardley-Wilmont, Messrs. B. O. Breston, G. E. Bonner, H. P. O'Farrell, S. J. Gibson and J. Ford.

George Kingsley reported for the Road Committee. He stated that a truck and two teams had been working on the Shawigan and Mill Bay road, division since the beginning of the week, and was now being used by the cars.

A discussion arose with regard to the school corner at Shawigan Lake. Heald and Ford both spoke on the subject. It was proposed by Col. Eardley-Wilmont and seconded by George Kingsley that the chairman of the Roads Committee, arrange a meeting as soon as possible between the district engineer, the school trustees, and the committee at the Shawigan Lake school. This was carried.

Mr. Heald also reported that the Esquimalt people are working on the Summit road. The possibility of work being done in the future to avoid Fitzgerald Hill was discussed. The report from the Fisheries committee, Cowichan Lake, stated that a trout 25 inches long was caught last week in the Shawigan Lake. It was proposed by Mr. Kingsley and seconded by Mr. Heald, that a further supply of trout fry be obtained from Cowichan Lake.

The secretary was instructed to ascertain what action had been taken by the Board with regard to the platform at Shawigan Lake station, as discussed at the October meeting of the branch.

The resignation of the honorary secretaryship held by G. A. Cheeke was accepted with regret. Mr. Cheeke being the newly elected president of the Duncan Board of Trade prevented him from continuing as secretary of the Cobble Hill branch.

Mr. Heald expressed the appreciation of the members of the branch for the work which Mr. Cheeke had done. Mr. Cheeke in replying said that he hoped to attend the meetings of the Cobble Hill and Shawigan branch as frequently as before.

Mr. B. O. Breston was selected to fill the vacancy. Col. Eardley-Wilmont was elected assistant-secretary.

BUENOS AYRES NOW IS SPOTLESS TOWN

White-Clad Men Wash Streets Nightly and Spread Disinfectants

Sunrise every morning finds Buenos Ayres fresh washed, clean as a Dutch housewife's doorstep and something like a hospital.

This is a result of the thorough washing given all the streets every night and the liberal doses of disinfectant spread about to check communicable diseases.

Every night gangs of white-clad men, armed with brooms and hoses, appear and undertake to rout out any chance germs that may be lurking in gutters and dark corners.

But this is only a part of the city's constant war on disease. It also carries on educational campaigns, using posters, principally to warn the people of the means by which disease is spread.—Detroit News.

Beauty Without Grit
Without any harm to the teeth

Don't try to whiten teeth with grit that scratches the enamel. That's harmful. Use a soft polishing agent—the Pepsodent agent. Then combat the dingy film twice daily in this new, effective way.

They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

That's what millions of people the world over are doing, largely by dental advice. Look about you and see the beautiful teeth that result.

They multiply the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutralizer for the acids that cause decay.

Every use of Pepsodent thus gives manifold power to Nature's great tooth-protecting agents. Old-time tooth pastes had the opposite effect. They reduced mouth alkalinity, reduced the starch digestant with every application. That was due to their soap and chalk.

We urge you to see and feel these effects, then judge how much they mean.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-costs disappear. Watch these delightful effects for a few days and you will always want them. Cut out the coupon now.

Now dental science, after long research, has found two film combatants. Able authorities have proved their efficiency. Now leading dentists almost the world over are urging their daily use.

WIDESPREAD INTEREST IN GOOD ROADS

Sessions Here Will Draw Many Hundreds Next Month

Twenty thousand official programmes of the ninth annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association, to be held in Victoria from June 12 to June 15, have been sent out this week by George A. McNamee, secretary, to Federal and Provincial members of parliament, municipal councils and engineers, good roads and automobile organizations. With the programmes have gone an invitation from the executive committee to attend this important gathering of highway experts, and to participate in the entertainment which is provided by British Columbia organizations to entertain the delegates with motor drives and receptions which will enable them and the many ladies who will accompany them to see something of the Far Western Province. An Eastern delegation to the convention, which will comprise representatives of the maritime provinces as well as of Quebec and Toronto, will leave Montreal for Victoria on Tuesday evening, June 8, arriving at Victoria on June 10, and other delegations will join up en route, so that all the good roads enthusiasts will arrive in Vancouver together.

Special Railway Rates. The special railroad rates available for the convention will be interchangeable on both the C. P. R. and the C. N. R. and will be good for returning until October 31, so that visitors will have an excellent opportunity of seeing the country and making a circular tour. The chairman of the entertainment committee is J. L. Beckwith, while Mrs. J. C. F. Hyndman is the convener of the special ladies' committee, who will look after the reception and entertainment of the ladies who are expected to attend the convention in large numbers.

The first session of the convention will open on Monday morning, June 12, under the chairmanship of the president, Hon. Sam J. PROPOSE CYCLIST PATROL

City Police Commission, However, Does Not Proceed With Plan.

On a report from Chief of Police Fry a suggestion of Commissioner Stanstead that a cyclist patrol be inaugurated in the outlying sections of the city was turned down by the City Police Commission Saturday.

Chief Fry stated that the motor cycle constables and foot patrols were covering the work as well as could be expected, and that Victoria was free from all serious crime in favorable contrast with other cities.

A report from City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison informed the commission that it had no power to sell unclaimed articles or exhibits, but that some of the articles of the same could be disposed of after authority had been granted by the City Council. It was finally decided to request the City Council to authorize a public auction of a stated list of articles.

Dealing with applications for the position of constable, for which no vacancy exists at the moment, the board filed the name of an applicant who would be willing to be a constable, and would bring a fully trained blood hound to the force, he said.

A request for re-instatement from former detective Samuel Scilliano, backed up by letters from the Veterans of France and the Amalgamated Veterans, was treated in the same manner as the other cases.

A letter from the Field Detective Agency, offering to "Stamp out bootleggers" in the city by an infallible method, was ordered received and filed. After some minor business matters were considered the commission adjourned.

DELIGHTFULLY SIMPLE.

"I am ashamed of my failure to keep abreast of modern science," said the learned professor of zoology to the young housewife. "Take the electric, for instance—I haven't the least idea how it works."

The young woman gave him a patronizing smile. "Why," she said, "it's very simple, really. You just press a button and the light comes on—that's all there is to it."

Our Sires of the Cave and Tree in the Morning of Time

Charles G. D. Roberts, the Canadian Poet, Writes a Vivid Romance of the Man and Woman Who Discovered Fire, the Bow, and the Succulent Joys of Broiled Steak.

The amazing success achieved by the Tarzan novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Lost World," and by Jack London's "Before Adam," shows how interested we are in the early men of the earth, and how we are interested in our own sires of the cave and tree. In constant jeopardy from wild animals, birds and snakes, to say nothing of earthquakes and floods, in his "Outline of History," Mr. H. G. Wells quotes Worthington Smith and other anthropologists, who have speculated as to the aptitude and practices of the human beings, now called Neanderthal men, who roamed Europe in the days before the glacial period from 100,000 to 50,000 years ago. They disputed possession of caves with lions, bears and hyenas, and lived in constant fear of the tiger, the mammoth, the woolly mammoth and the woolly rhinoceros, but already in this early period the world's history man had discovered fire, and had passed the threshold of a new world. The girl threw herself at his feet, for he seemed to her a god and she attributed to him the power to bring the magic spark which had discovered where they could make the bright dancing ones their servants and be masters of all things.

A BOY'S WHIP BECOMES THE FATHER OF BOWS

It was not long before the people of the Little Hills after a rather exciting trek, were settled in their new home. Using their new-found allies, the Shining Ones, they drove with animals of several caves and after another frightful war with the Bow-Legs, who were nearly all consumed by the strategy of Grom, chief fireman of the tribe, they entered upon an era of exceptional comfort and prosperity. But Mr. Roberts does not allow his hero to give way to sloth and full-fed ease. He was the luckiest of the early men, for in addition to his discovery of fire he conferred upon humanity a new weapon which was to be of great service in war and in the chase for many thousands of years. It is a pretty story told in chapter eight of this narrative and entitled "The Bending

A PICTURE OF THE ORIGINAL DRAGON

Mr. Roberts devotes his first chapter to a graphic description of the dragon, the most fearsome and certainly the most vivid example of this class of literature that has yet been produced.

ORIGINAL DRAGON

Mr. Roberts devotes his first chapter to a graphic description of the dragon, the most fearsome and certainly the most vivid example of this class of literature that has yet been produced.

The dragon was a creature of the Red River in Alberta. Dinosaur, tyrannosaurus, bird-lizards, and kangaroo-like fisher, and mammoths, were fought one another by sea and shore with awful howlings and groans and grunts. Here is the picture of a Diplodocus, a creature of the wood-choked shallows of an estuary to wallow on a sunny beach. "The body of this amazing being was twice or four times as long as the mightiest elephant. It stood highest at a good thirteen feet—over the haunches, which were supported on legs like columns." SOVIET LEADERS' WORDS CONTRASTED

Tchitcherin Friendly As He Leaves Italy
Trotsky Appeals to Troops; Italian Ship Sunk

Genoa, May 22.—M. Tchitcherin, head of the Russian Soviet delegation, in bidding farewell to Premier Facta and Foreign Minister Schanzer, who were returning to Rome, said on Sunday that he was glad to be able to state the reception of the Italian Government and the useful services rendered "have surpassed our most optimistic hopes and have been a revelation to us."

The economic forces which regulate world relations have contributed to bring about close union between the Russian and Italian peoples."

He placed particular emphasis on the following passage of his speech: "The Russian people do not forget that the Italian Government was the first to proclaim the necessity of resuming relations with Russia, nor that the Italian representatives in the Supreme Council were the first to bring up the question of recognition of new Russia."

In Contrast.

The declaration by M. Tchitcherin is contrasted here with news received from the Black Sea, where to which the Italian steamship Marte was fired on and sunk by Russian batteries and half of her crew killed, and with the address of Leon Trotsky, the Soviet Minister of War, to Communist cadets.

Trotsky is reported to have said to the future Red officers: "Do not believe in the Genoa speeches. Trust only in your bayonets and your bayonets. Conferences will not give us what we need. This can only be obtained by having the Red army across the frontiers of capitalist states and the Red flag wave over the whole of Europe. Perhaps during the summer the Red Army will be called upon to give proof of its fighting forces."

People Starving.
 Meanwhile reports just received from Novorossiisk, to which place the steamship Scrvia has taken a relief mission of the Italian Red Cross, are more terrifying than ever. Southern Russia, the reports declare, has been transformed into a "great cemetery of starving people, men, women and children are dying of starvation not by the thousand, but by the million."

TWO VICTORIANS RE-APPOINTED

On B. C. Fire Underwriters' Association Administrative Committee

At the annual meeting of the B. C. Fire Underwriters' Association held Friday, T. W. Greer, of Vancouver, was re-elected president with C. H. Macaulay as vice-president. Members of the administrative committee consist of F. W. Rounsefell, F. W. Walker, C. R. Elderton, C. N. Corwin, A. W. Ross, all of Vancouver; H. T. Barnes and James Forman, of Victoria, and A. E. Bailey and P. J. Perry, of Seattle.

In this annual report Mr. Greer stated that nine new members had been accepted during the year and there had been only one withdrawal due to withdrawal from business. The premium income had decreased 11 per cent during the year as compared with last year. Losses had been the heaviest since 1914, but Vancouver losses had been the lowest in eleven years.

The president intimated that the association had a busy year ahead in all departments on account of new ratings and the promulgation of the new schedule. It was expected, he said, that within the year, almost the entire province would be re-rated under the new system.

Never make a woman cry unless she insists.

TO-DAY'S TRADING IN WINNIPEG MARKETS

Winnipeg, May 22.—The local wheat market was mostly "flat" today. Trade in general appeared to be bearish and the wheat futures continued to decline. After opening unchanged to a cent lower, all three futures advanced about one cent and fell away with a poor demand. The closing was 1/2 cent lower for May, 1/4 cent lower for July, and October was 1/2 cent down from Saturday's finish.

The cash markets were very dull, with trading light.

The demand for wheat was poor, with premiums quoted as unchanged to 1 cent lower for No. 2 and 7 cents under for No. 3.

Inspections totaled 282 cars, of which 19 were wheat.

CONTINUED LIQUIDATION IN MAY WHEAT TO-DAY

(By Burdick Bros. Ltd.)
 Chicago, May 22.—The wheat market closed lower today. The lower Liverpool cables, which showed a decline of from 1 to 2 cents, may have caused the heavy pressure and liquidation. As low as 1 1/2, but regained part of the loss near the close. The market is expected to deliver. Cash markets in the Southwest at St. Louis and Kansas City were flat to two to four cents lower. Farmers making heavy deliveries of old wheat. The market is expected to be steady about a cent and a half from the low point.

Commissioners State Case in Light of Recent Vote

Admit Strong Opposition, But Prefer "Rugged and Thorny" Path

Preferring rather the "thorny and rugged path" necessary to enforce the shops closing provisions of the Lord's Day Act, than to yield to the opinion shown by the plebiscite vote, City Police Commissioners stood their ground Saturday.

The accompanying statement signed by Mayor Marchant and Commissioner Staneland was read.

The statement incorporating the majority of the Board on the whole question was as follows:—

"1. That the agitation that has taken place in relation to the closing of stores on Sundays has not developed any new light or reasons for the non-observance of the Lord's Day Act.

"2. That the Statute is of Federal origin and is national in its scope and character.

"3. That it was framed solely in the interests of labor, so as to prevent 'unnecessary labor' on Sundays.

"4. That in the interpretation of 'unnecessary labor' as a matter of necessity, it is not necessary to create any discrimination in the matter of the enforcement of the law.

"5. The Police Commissioners do not appear to have any discretion granted to them in regard to enforcement.

"6. That primarily and chiefly the Chief of Police is charged with the enforcement of all law—Federal, Provincial and Municipal, and the Police Commissioners are merely the directors of his activities and have no authority to intervene between him and the interpretation of the laws or statutes enacted.

"7. That the non-observance of the Lord's Day Act in other cities or towns in Canada does not form any argument or reason why such act should not be enforced in the City of Victoria.

"8. That the observance of Sunday as a 'rest day' from labor is indisputably in the interests of all persons who work for hire and that the Act was specially designed to protect the interests of the workers.

"9. That the recent plebiscite submitted by the Anti-Blue Sunday League, being informal in its character, cannot be deemed a correct test of public opinion. It is clear, however, that the result declared cannot wholly be ignored by persons in authority. It is equally clear that any plebiscite of this character, taken upon any Federal or Provincial Statute, does not in any way invalidate the Statute, and therefore becomes no warrant for the Police Commissioners to revise their attitude as to law enforcement.

"10. It would appear that there are about 88 stores that are desirous of remaining open on Sunday. Of these 33 are Orientals, 19 non-citizens and 36 citizens of Victoria. It will be noted that the preponderance of those seeking to revise the non-enforcement of the law are Orientals.

"11. That it has not developed that the enforcement of the law would in any way inconvenience any reasonable or natural requirement of the citizens for the purchase of goods or merchandise of any character and that consequently the defiance of the law was done solely for profit or with definite intent of lawlessness.

"12. That the Federal Statute known as the Lord's Day Act is not of the same character, nor does it contain the same penal clauses as the Act generally known as the 'Charlie II. Act' which, much of the agitation and statements thereto centered around the obsolete legislation enacted some three centuries ago.

"13. That the 'discrimination' in the Act itself and that it was the purpose of the Police Commissioners to enforce the Act impartially and without fear or favor.

"14. That it is abundantly clear and fully admitted by the Commissioners that a large body of reputable and fair-minded citizens are in favor of non-enforcement of the Act, but it is equally certain that a very large body of public opinion, hitherto unexpressed through the medium of a regular election, is equally in favor of the enforcement of the law.

"15. It is particularly noticeable that there has not been any demand from organized labor or any body of persons representing the interests of

Anti-Blue Sunday League Deputation Fails to Win Change of Heart by Board

City Police Commissioners Receive Formal Notice of Recent Plebiscite; Will Continue to Enforce Sunday Store Closing.

After receiving formal intimation of a seven to one majority taken at the informal plebiscite on the Sunday closing question, the Board of Police Commissioners, in session Saturday night, issued an ultimatum to a delegation from the Anti-Blue Sunday League that the Board saw no reason to change its policy and would enforce the act.

"If this were done, the delegation warned, the act would have to be enforced to the very letter.

The meeting took place in the office of the Chief of Police, by way of a private conference. The delegation from the Anti-Blue Sunday League was headed by C. T. Cross, and included Frederick Landsberg, H. S. Stevenson, Alfred Carmichael and W. Leal, secretary.

Mr. Cross, in the absence of Herbert Kent, its president, opened the case for the Anti-Blue Sunday League by presenting the Commission's formal notice with the return of the informal plebiscite. The plebiscite was taken under the direction of Sidney Child, a former returning officer, and was strictly regular in every respect, except that it did not have the sanction of the Council, the speaker stated.

"The plebiscite on the Sunday closing question was the largest vote ever polled here at any by-election that I can find," stated Mr. Cross. "A larger vote in favor of the former condition of affairs than you, Mr. Chairman, polled on your election in December last."

"Was it larger?" queried the Mayor. "Yes, by 114 votes; and of course we would have cognizance taken of the vote, if it being, we believe, true expression of the will of the majority of the citizens of this city. It is a majority of over seven to one, and that we regard as a fair representation of the feeling that exists at the present time on this matter," concluded Mr. Cross.

Alfred Carmichael

That the fact that clergymen asked members of their congregations to refrain from voting had little effect in the present case, was the contention of Alfred Carmichael, who pointed out that but fifty more votes were recorded among ratepayers in the bridge by-law than at the private plebiscite.

Turning to the Lord's Day Act the speaker urged, "There is no authority in the Act for the enforcement of one portion and not another. That would be discrimination. There is no portion to be enforced, if the Act is to be enforced at all, it must be enforced to the very letter," stated Mr. Carmichael.

The Attorney-General did not say that he had any objection to the Act. "We have the opinion of eminent legal authorities on that very point," continued Mr. Carmichael; "further, the Attorney-General stated that he had not studied the Act at the time we made representations to him."

Hypocrisy and Evasion

"I understand the Police Commission feel that they must enforce this Act, and if that be the case, they must enforce it to the very letter," he repeated. "If you are looking for a loophole to evade, there is a legal opinion which states that the matter is one for the City Council solely to deal with."

"Further, it is impossible to enforce the Act without discrimination, and it would lead only to hypocrisy and evasion. The Act is unpopular, and I believe, if a full vote were taken of every resident in the city, it would be over three to one against such enforcement," concluded Mr. Carmichael.

Other Views

"I believe that at one time a resolution was passed by your Council that this plebiscite should be held," urged Mr. Stevenson, "and then it was found that the plebiscite would be illegal. Now you have the expression of the people, and it did not cost you a cent."

"This drastic measure, if enforced, will bring a greater tax delinquency than ever existed in the city before," urged Mr. Landsberg, "and it is right to penalize the whole of the people of the city because a few druggists may have broken the law? It is very cruel, to speak plainly, it is very cruel."

"We have a record of the name of everyone who voted," he continued, "and we find that 33 per cent. of the voters who polled are church-going people. Appoint a committee of yourself with any two clergymen in the city and look into what I say, and if you find that I will donate $100 to the Jubilee Hospital building fund," declared Mr. Landsberg.

Right to Change Opinion

"Mr. Staneland said that if a plebiscite were held he would be willing to have it done by the will of the people," remarked Mr. Cross, "further that was the pledge he gave on a public platform as a public official, and under those circumstances we all thought it would be binding."

"Anyone can change his opinion," held the Mayor.

"Well if he wanted to change his mind after giving that pledge he should have gone before the people in an election," affirmed Mr. Cross.

"Some of you would like to get me before the people—I know, but you won't," interjected Mr. Staneland warmly, "I am at liberty to make up my mind on Monday and change it on Tuesday, if I so wish."

"You gave your pledge in public, and we looked to you to keep it good," stated Mr. Cross.

"I did say that I would be willing to have a plebiscite and abide by the result, but on further reflection I see that my duty is to enforce the law," returned Mr. Staneland.

"I wish you gentlemen would advocate the removal of police matter from the municipalities altogether. I have been an advocate of provincial control of all police matter, for the past twenty years. I saw how it worked in the Yukon, where the R. C. M. P. patrol the country," urged the Mayor.

"That would be like building a ten-story building on an aeroplane, it would take years to bring about," supplied Mr. Landsberg.

"I have here three resolutions from different councils calling on the police commission to enforce the Lord's Day Act. I was first in favor
