

MRS. GRACE LAWES DID NOT SUICIDE NOW CHARGED

Brooklyn Official Hears That Another Man Was On Scene of Tragedy

WILL EXHUME BODY

Woman Friend Who Received Letter From Mrs. Lawes Is Called for Witness

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—District Attorney Lewis of Brooklyn was today informed that Mrs. Grace Lawes, who shot Miss Mildred Hanan early last Friday and was then reported to have turned the revolver upon herself, did not commit suicide.

Another man besides John Borland, who was with Miss Hanan at the time of the shooting, witnessed the affair, the report said.

Lewis announced that he would have the body of Mrs. Lawes exhumed to make certain the shot that entered her mouth and killed her was a "contact wound."

He also will continue investigation of the entire case.

Credence was placed in the report that another man was present and that Mrs. Lawes was not a suicide because of the fact that in a letter written to Miss Billie Williams some time before her death, Mrs. Lawes asked that her relatives be notified "in case of accident to me."

Witnesses will be summoned to the district attorney's office, among them Miss Williams.

"There are about 100 representative jobless men whom I gathered along the wayside in Boston, New York, Philadelphia," he said. "They will come to Washington in motor trucks. I will take them to the White House and ask the President to grant them an audience, and to the unemployment conference and ask the conference to question them."

MISS HANAN DIES; VICTIM OF RIVAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The police announced that they had dropped investigation of Miss Mildred Hanan, who died yesterday from bullet wounds inflicted Friday by her chum, Mrs. Grace Lawes. The latter afterwards committed suicide.

"The motive undoubtedly was jealousy. We learned nothing in this regard from Miss Hanan, although she talked some shortly before she died, we have enough information from other sources. There were no accomplices, however, and the case is closed with the death of both principals."

WOULD OFFER ALLIES BONUS TO DISARM

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A suggestion that American spokesmen in the limitation of armaments conference be authorized to offer to cancel the indebtedness of France, England and Italy in return for agreements by those countries to disarm, is advanced in a letter to President Harding, made public today by its author, J. A. H. Hopkins, executive chairman of the committee of forty-eight.

Hopkins advised submitting to these great powers an ultimatum in the following statement:

"We will not cancel your indebtedness gratis, nor are we content to postpone longer the payment of the overdue interest. But if you and the Japanese delegates will agree to disarm on a uniform and progressive ratio of disarmament, America will join with you in so doing and will cancel or reduce your indebtedness to the American people to the same extent and in the same ratio. There is, however, no other way in which the American people will consent either to cancel or reduce your financial obligations."

TODAY'S NEWS

President Harding today addressed the unemployment conference and urged delegates representing capital and labor to bear with each other in readjusting business to the point of maximum production at a minimum cost.

All America must commit itself to the solution of the unemployment problem, President Harding said, and he feels the problem will be solved for the reason that America has never failed when committed to a common cause.

It was pointed out by the President that the Federal treasury must not be called upon to relieve the situation, thereby placing the issue squarely before capital and labor to work out a plan to secure the coveted goal.

CAPITAL AND LABOR URGED TO SACRIFICE BY PRESIDENT

Coal Must Be Cheaper to Consumers and Miners Must Work for Less

HOOVER OPENS SESSION

President Harding Received With Great Applause From the Audience

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The unemployment conference, which will attempt to provide work for the thousands of jobless men in the United States got under way today.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover called the conference to order and immediately introduced President Harding who made the first speech to the assemblage of representatives of labor and capital and the public, gathered from all parts of the country.

Harding was received with great cheering as he entered the auditorium with Mrs. Harding at his side.

In the opinion of the president and other administration leaders, sacrifices must be made by both capital and labor of the present critical situation is to be relieved.

Building must be speeded through the settlement of certain labor questions and reduction of prices of building materials.

Industrial strife in the mining industry must end. The price of coal must be reduced and wages of the miners in some sections cut.

President Harding did not suggest specific remedies, but urged the need of sacrifice and cooperation between capital and labor to relieve the present situation.

EMMA GOLDMAN IS PREPARING TO COME TO AMERICA

Finds That Russia Is Not at Present Sympathetic to Anarchist Cause

WANTS REAL FREEDOM

Will Go to Berlin to Attend Congress of Leading Anarchists of World

(Copyright 1921 by United Press) MOSCOW, Sept. 26.—"I am going back to America—my country," Emma Goldman, anarchist leader, said today.

"I have found less liberty in Russia than in the United States."

Huddled over a typewriter, wrapped in shawls, in a fireless, cheerless, chilly little hall bedroom, up three flights from a dark, back street, she outlined the "mother of American anarchism" at work and going over events on the Russian revolution.

"Come in," she greeted me. "I'll have a message for Americans. Tell them I'm going back to the United States to find freedom."

"Why, here in Russia I'm not even allowed to print anarchist literature. I'm going to quit the country in November and go to Berlin to attend the International Anarchist congress. I will remain in Germany temporarily, but eventually I'm returning to America."

Across the hall lives Alexander Berkman, who was deported with Emma. He will accompany her to Berlin.

PRESIDENT IS URGED TO TAKE HOLD OF CHICAGO MORALS WHILE FAMILY IS OUT FOR HOUR

Complaint Is Made That the Prohibition Laws Are Openly Violated

POLICE BOOTLEGGERS MANY JEWELS MISSING

Critical Condition Is Put Up to Chief Executive for His Advice

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Arthur B. Farwell, head of the Chicago Law and Order League, following the admission of Police Chief Fitzmorris that half of Chicago's police force of 5,000 men are bootleggers, sent this wire to President Harding today:

"Situation caused by nullification of the eighteenth amendment in Chicago intolerable. Prohibition laws are openly violated. Crime is on the increase. Writing you in detail in regard to this critical condition. Moral forces of the city will leave to your excellent judgment what should be done."

While the family was absent last night, thieves entered the home of Councilman A. H. Lapham, 415 West Broadway, and stole articles of clothing and jewelry valued at several thousand dollars.

According to Mr. Lapham the family was away from home only an hour and a half, leaving at 7 o'clock and returning at 9, and that during that time the thief entered through a rear window and had completely looted the place. At the time the burglary was reported to the police it was impossible for an accurate list of articles stolen. After a check by the Lapham family it was reported that three watches, a Masonic charm, one sapphire ring, an Indian turquoise silver bracelet, a gold bracelet, a gold chain, a cameo pin, a pearl sunburst, a pair of gold spectacles and case, an Elk pin and Elk membership card, a porcelain and silver toilet set and a sterling silver toilet set, as well as several articles of wearing apparel were taken.

Officers were detailed to investigate the theft and nothing will be left undone to capture the burglars.

It is believed that the burglary at the Lapham home was the work of an organized band of thieves, as several other robberies committed in this city are of a like character.

VIRGINIA RAPPE'S INJURIES TOLD BY DOCTOR

Testimony Covers Acts of Physician When Summoned to Hotel

ARBUCKLE ATTENTIVE

Injured Woman Was Found Writing in Pain in Hotel Room

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—Roscoe (Fatty) Arbutckle played the role of his own attorney in Superior Judge Lauderback's court today.

Arbutckle's attorneys were not in court when his case was formerly called but was put over to October 3rd on account of the preliminary hearing now in progress.

The usual crowd of women was waiting in Police Judge Lazarus' court before the opening of the days' session of the preliminary hearing which was scheduled for 10:30 a. m. Indications were that Arbutckle would have to wait until after that hour until the court disposed of the Monday morning list of petty cases.

Arbutckle waited in the judge's chamber, pending calling of the case. Arbutckle came into court at 10:50 a. m. accompanied by his wife, Minta Durfee. He nodded "good morning" to newspaper men.

Dr. Beardslee testified that on Labor Day he was called to Arbutckle's room. He found two women in the room, one in bed and the other caring for her.

Miss Rappe, the one in bed, complained of pains in her abdomen, he said. He made a physical examination and gave her a hyperdermic. The examination, he said, revealed sensitiveness in the lower abdomen. He said he thought she was suffering from "severe pains" but made no diagnosis.

He said he received a history of the case from the woman attending Miss Rappe and decided that "if there was alcoholism in the case it was very slight and was overshadowed by the pain."

Dr. Beardslee named "external violence" as the most probable cause of Miss Rappe's fatal injury. Dr. Beardslee was the first physician to attend Miss Rappe after she was carried away from Arbutckle's room during his Labor Day "party."

He named "external violence" as the cause of the injury in response to a hypothetical question. He told of finding Miss Rappe "writing in severe pain" when he was called. Beardslee said that traces of "alcoholism" were "very slight."

Arbutckle and Minta Durfee, his wife, listened closely to Beardslee's testimony.

He returned between 8 and 9 o'clock that night and found her more quiet. About 11 p. m. he was called to Miss Rappe's room again and found her suffering severely from abdominal pains. He gave her a second opiate.

"She was writhing and giving all the manifestations of severe pain," he testified.

He said he found the woman caring for Miss Rappe was Bambina Delmont, complaining witness.

He realized it was a case of internal injury, he said, "and probably would require surgery. Between 4 and 5 a. m. the following morning Dr. Beardslee was called again and he said he found Miss Rappe in great pain."

Dr. Beardslee then described the intimate detail a treatment for relief of pain he had given Miss Rappe.

Dr. Beardslee then asked Miss Rappe to be moved to a hospital. Certain instruments used by Dr. Beardslee in treating Miss Rappe were produced.

Dr. Beardslee said he believed at that time that there was a rupture and not a tumor or abscess of the bladder involved.

NO ACTION TAKEN TO EVICT STRIKERS

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Sept. 26.—Strikers renting houses owned by the Associated Oil Company near here declared today that no notices of eviction had yet been received, despite current rumors.

Trouble over the picketing of Kern county highways has been largely eliminated. Automobiles are no longer stopped except by proper authorities. There are now 1,000 deputy constables in the county, a majority of them members of the oil workers' law and order committee.

MRS. SOUTHARD IS NOW ON TRIAL IN MURDER CASE

Seemingly Unafraid as She Enters the Court Room Today for Ordeal

HUSBAND IS PRESENT

Four Husbands Are Said to Have Been Victims of Alleged Assassins

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Sept. 26.—The trial of Mrs. Lydia Southard, alleged "female bluebeard" charged with the murder of her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, opened today before Judge W. A. Babcock.

Seemingly unmoved by the opening of the proceedings which are to decide her fate, Mrs. Southard entered the court room shortly after 10 o'clock, accompanied by Sheriff Sherman.

She nodded and smiled to several of her friends in the court room, and took a seat behind her attorneys. Her husband, Paul Vincent Southard, a petty naval officer took a seat by her side.

Mrs. Southard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. "Billy" Trueblood, ranchers near Twin Falls, were also at her side. The venire, composed of 75 men, was called. Several had excuses, but only two were allowed. The long grind of selecting a jury then began. The majority of the venire are farmers and very few of them are anxious to sit on the jury, especially at this season of the year.

The defendant is specifically charged with murder of her fourth husband, Edw. F. Meyer, but the state alleges she also poisoned three former husbands, Robert C. Dooley of Twin Falls, Wm. McHaffie of Hardin, Montana, and Charles C. Lewis of Denver and Billings, Montana.

It was from these charges that the application of "female bluebeard" was bestowed upon her. In addition, the state asserts she poisoned the two year old baby of her husband and her brother-in-law, Edward Dooley.

Mrs. Southard is specifically charged with poisoning Meyer, a month after they were married in 1920. Home insurance company became suspicious and refused payment. Mrs. Southard disappeared and later that year married Paul Vincent Southard, a petty officer in the navy, in Los Angeles. Shortly afterward he was transferred to Honolulu, where she was arrested and bought back to Twin Falls.

At the time of her arrest, Mrs. Southard expressed the belief that she was a "typhoid carrier," two of her husbands having died of typhoid fever.

"BACK TO MOSES" IS DR. EDMONDS' THEME

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, Rev. W. E. Edmonds preached from the text, "And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the Scripture the things concerning Himself." (Luke 24:27.)

"It has not been generally understood that we must go back to Moses to know the life of Jesus Christ. The five books of Moses are the foundation upon which the Old Testament stands for absolute inspiration of the whole. We see all the greatest men are on this basis. Now the great attacks of criticism are on the authority of history in Genesis. Some folks say, 'Oh, well, let the scholars attend to that; we will just attend to living.' There is where the devil gets in his work."

"If you discount Moses in the least, you discount Jesus Christ. They stand or fall together. If you refuse to accept Moses, your redemption is founded on a basis of sticks. Christ continually referred back to Moses. The Holy Spirit did not have one form of inspiration for Moses and another for the later Scripture. If Christ had believed in an evolutionary beginning, He would not have quoted Moses upon it. And so with all His other references to Moses."

"And the farther and deeper we delve, the truer we find Moses. The latest accredited facts of scientific research and recent discoveries corroborate these sacred books. We do not shut up the door to investigation. But when critics ask us to accept this, that and the other invention instead of Moses, we want none of it. If modern science has it all to say, where does the Holy Spirit come in? What does the book say for itself? Compare it with the little silly statements of the other religions. Look at the ethical system outlined in the decalogue; did you ever find any critics whittling that down? They don't dare to. A jurist was converted just by reading that. He realized it must have been given by God, and if so, all was from God."

"Come back to this great truth: In the teachings of Moses we have the fundamentals of our faith. By faith we understand that the worlds were framed. When we come to the lamb which was Abel's sacrifice—why, Christ was there in that lamb. The story of Isaac going up to Moriah to be sacrificed, what are you going to do with that ram there, ready to be taken in his place? We are the Isaacs and Isaacs is provided instead of us. Jesus lay down his life as the sacrifice."

The bluebird, symbol of happiness, featured the affair and suggested the color combination of pink and blue carried out in the appointments of the pretty table, which was centered with rose-colored carnations and spikes of blue larkspur.

Bluebirds perched upon the blue and gold flowery basket in which the flowers were placed and upon the rose-colored streamers suspended from the chandelier. They also decorated the prizes bestowed upon Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Matthew Campbell at the conclusion of a game called "A Shakespearean Romance."

Place cards were dainty brides except the one reserved for the guest of honor, which was a cupid sitting upon a pile of baggage, wishing the bride happiness.

The hostess had carried out a yellow and white color scheme in her appointments, centering her table with a most effective floral piece of yellow and white centreaus.

Three young men, sons of members, Eugene Wernette, Arthur Barton and Bob Ayars, were made up as colored waiters and served the dinner with professional skill, in costumes that would have inspired the envy of gentlemen of color.

The guests for whom places were laid at the big round table were Messrs. and Meses, Frank Ayars, H. B. Howeth, R. A. Puffer, William Sawyer, J. I. Wernette, Francis Henry and the host and hostess.

The gathering was also a celebration of Mrs. Barton's birthday, but she kept the fact a secret until her guests arrived.

In the late afternoon, after a shower of lovelets had been presented, the hostess announced it was time for afternoon tea, and the tea wagon was rolled in, but it stopped in front of Miss Logan. It bore a beautiful silver tray, silver coffee pot, cream pitcher and sugar bowl, which Mrs. Campbell presented as a gift from the Glendale National bank.

"Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." In Moses we find faith that saves, that sanctifies, that separates. In Moses we find a great reservoir of truth, overflowing down all the way to us. When the great Eddystone lighthouse was done it met a great test of storm. Engineers were out with their telescopes anxiously watching to learn if it stood. At last they saw and shouted, "She stands!" And so the Word of God stands. Oh, make it the man of your counsel, your trust firmly planted on it. And beginning at Moses and the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

POWER OF HARMONY

Taking as his subject "The Power of Harmony," Sunday morning, Dr. F. L. Riley made the following observations:

"By far the greater number of our troubles, both physical, financial and mental, are due fundamentally to a lack of harmony.

"This fact is being recognized to the extent that universities are instituting chairs, the purpose of which is to prescribe certain classes of music which science has demonstrated will not alone alleviate but prevent and cure disease.

The results of vibrations emanating from coarse, vulgar and destructive elements in comparison to the refined, intellectual and constructive, are very interesting and instructive. A speaker familiar with the science can not alone tell by the expression of the faces of his audience, but also by coming in touch with the vibrations of his auditors, whether they are responsive.

The effect of the human vibration for good or evil is as yet but little understood.

The curative efficacy of the vibrations of music was understood by the Greeks more than 2,000 years ago. In the case of the injured in the late World war, thousands were relieved and hundreds cured, where all other means failed, by scientifically applied vibrations of music.

TOM MIX WILL OFFER THRILLER TONIGHT

Tom Mix uses airplanes and autos instead of horses on his ranch in his latest William Fox picture, "After Your Own Heart," which will open at the Glendale theater today for one day only.

William Wallace Cook wrote the story and put the new fangled steel steeds into it. Next thing we knew Tom Mix will be seen on the screen with wireless stations all over his ranch and his cowboys dotting and dashing after the cattle in the big round-up. "After Your Own Heart" is said to be a snappy picture that is full of stunts.

Joe Martin, the famous monkey comedian, who is valued at $50,000 and was to have appeared in person at the Glendale theater in connection with his latest picture, "A Monkey Hero" will be unable to appear on account of serious injuries received by "Curley" Stecker, Universal animal trainer who accompanies him on all of his trips. "Curley" was seriously injured while wrestling with a lion at the San Fernando fair. The picture will be shown as billed.

Money is most valuable when you haven't any.

It was in 1894 that Wegener of Omaha, Neb., who was then 24 years old, courted pretty Miss Lulu Stewart of Norfolk, Neb.

Miss Stewart was only 14 years old and her parents opposed the courtship because of this fact. The couple eloped and were married. The girl's father took the young bride home and suit for the annulment of the marriage was filed and successfully prosecuted. The unhappy girl was taken to Omaha and then brought to Texas, care being taken that her former husband should have no knowledge of her whereabouts.

It's just as dangerous for the female of the species to "roll 'em down" as it is for the masculine sex to "roll their own," according to state medics, who state that the pneumonia death rate in the state has shown an alarming increase since half-sox and short skirts became the fashion. GOVERNOR SPEEDS UP WORK TO AID UNEMPLOYED

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 26.—A program calling for the speeding up of all state work on public buildings and highways, with a view to providing work for California's unemployed during the winter months, is being drawn up by Governor Stephens and will be announced in the near future.

Chief among the buildings to be erected in the near future in line with this program is the $3,000,000 annex to the state capitol. Everything is now ready for the advertising of the bonds, as Attorney General Webb has just ruled that a $400,000 commission companies or banking concerns to purchase the securities.

Another step in the program will be a move to continue as much high-way work during the winter months as possible. Formerly, road work has been slack during the rainy season as contractors prefer not to do outside work at such a time.

Although the big state building program will not take care of all the unemployed, it will provide employment for a great portion and private concerns will be urged to aid in solving the problem by promoting building. It is estimated that the army of unemployed in the state totals about 45,000.

GENEVA STREET IS ON BUILDING BOOM

Glendale and Eagle Rock property is making a special appeal to former residents of Minnesota. Proof of this is furnished by the Glendale Realty Co., who, in the past week, sold a house on Ivy street owned by H. E. Rommel to Thomas Michelson, formerly of Elbow Lake, Minn.

Mr. Michelson comes to Glendale to enjoy the wonderful climate and escape the cold winters of Minnesota. He intends making several improvements on his newly acquired property. P. A. Brown, formerly of Fergus Falls, Minn., purchased a six-room house in Eagle Rock owned by J. Hartley Taylor.

Sales for the past ten days as reported by the company are as follows: Lot on North Howard street from Judge E. M. Ross to Dr. C. A. Bromstedt; house on North Jackson street from Mr. Hartman to E. R. Kingsley; lot in Eagle Rock from H. E. Rommel to Mrs. Block; lot on North Isabel to Mr. Hartman; lot on North Isabel from William Althouse to A. E. Randall, and a lot on Doran street from Calir Kaighan to J. R. Harris.

Property on Geneva street is advancing to a rank among the best sellers. The Glendale Realty Co. has been especially active in placing this property on the market, and during the past ten days have sold eight lots in this locality.

Lots sold by the company on Geneva street during the past ten days are as follows: M. Gannon to H. W. Beck; Mr. Greenlaw to Mrs. Walter E. Noble; Mr. Greenlaw to Ben M. Curl; G. E. Randall to W. T. McIntyre of the city engineer's office; Mrs. Baker to Mrs. X. E. Hollingsworth; house on North Geneva from Cella Tone to Mr. Freeman; H. E. Rommel to Mr. Hartman; and a lot on North Geneva from M. Gannon to Mrs. Nagel.

FOREST FIRES RAGE IN HOG CANYON

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26.—With the worst forest fire of the year blazing fiercely in Hog Canyon, north of Beaumont, the United States forest service is unable to cope with the situation. While reports of the big fire are meager, the blaze is reported to have gone over several miles of heavily wooded territory and is sweeping up the slopes to the top of the ridge, fanned by a strong wind. The timber is the driest it has been this year.

FLOOD OF GERMANS MAY INVADE AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Unless Germany discourages emigration, a flood of Germans may follow re-establishment of American consular offices in that country, in the opinion of officials of the Department of Labor. While the percentage immigration law permits not more than 13,000 Germans to enter this country in one month, practically none have come since the American commissioner at Berlin has the power to vise passports.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in over-clogging kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

LOYAL WIFE TELLS GIRLS TO STAY IN OWN BACK YARD

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 26.—"Girls who get into affairs with married men are little fools. It is the 'other woman' who always pays. The wife, if she is wise and bides her time, has the final triumph."

With a knowing smile, Mrs. Perly Spiker, the remarkable wife in the international Spiker romance, uttered this line of wisdom today. She was discussing the closing chapter in the romance as written by Emily Knowles Spiker, the pretty English girl, who has deserted all the Spikers.

Emily was Mrs. Perly's husband's "war sweetheart" but it was Mrs. Perly who brought her to this country, established her across the street from her own home and arranged for her comfort. Mrs. Perly sees nothing remarkable about this action on the part of a wife.

She is a wholesome looking, pleasant woman, who believes in doing things in a sensible way. She matched common sense against romance as represented by Emily of the big blue eyes and the appeal of youth. "As you see, I came out victorious in the end," she said today.

She had just come in from an airing with Emily's baby. Mrs. Perly mothers Emily's child, but she sees nothing out of the ordinary in the fact that she should devote herself to it.

"Of course I am caring for it," she said. "Do you think I would let that little darling suffer? It is my husband's child and I love my husband." She is indignant against Emily, not because of the girl's affair with her husband but because of Guy Perly's brother, who sacrificed himself to marry Emily to give her social recognition.

"I don't see why we should have all this publicity," she said. "I took the only way to settle the problem confronting us. It was the common sense way. I love my husband and I wanted him. I was not going to let another woman ruin our lives."

"Often men are blind creatures and you have to open their eyes for them. Because I had suffered I had no right to punish the girl and her baby. I did all I could for her. I never tried to show her up. I waited and in the end she revealed her true colors. Infidelity never pays. That's something common sense tells one. And because I used common sense I still have my husband."

"As for the girl—well, I don't want to discuss her. We gave her a chance. Now we wash our hands of her. She has gone out of our lives. I am sorry for Guy. He deserved better than he got."

Postmaster-General Hays will have done something worth while for the postal service if he can get a special delivery letter to its destination before the regular mail.

We read that a form of baseball was a favorite sport among the Greeks. We do remember something about a Homer.

WHAT IS A FRIEND? A BLESSED RESOURCE

A man who is blessed with friends is doubly blessed. The man who rejoices when a friend ascends to loftier heights and to greater success is a friend indeed. The man who knows all about you and still likes you is a great friend, for in the life of every man there has been some incident to test the metal of manhood. The man who sticks to you when your metal has been found wanting is your friend—don't ever worry about that for a minute.

Friendship is often misused, in its reference. We often say a certain man is a friend when we mean he is an acquaintance of long standing. Some men never find it necessary to test friendships, and that is as it should be. Every boat has to depend upon its own hull to keep it afloat. It can't have friends. So it should be with men. If they float on their own personal resources, both as to character and as to worldly goods, they are doing what is their duty.

What we started to say when we started this friendship business is the power of a kind word. Some people say kind words, while others think kind words, and still others just say words. Kind words do not cost a cent, and very little effort. There are some men who apparently think that if they smile and say a kind word to an acquaintance they will have to pay for it sooner or later. If they only had sense enough to know it, they would be paid ten smiles for one of their's and ten kind words for one of their's. If you don't believe it, try it.

There are some men in Glendale no doubt who are so busy trying to gather gold that they are passing up the real values and blessings in life. They are prostituting their brains and their abilities to get more gold, and the first thing they know they will be decorating a cemetery somewhere and their gold will be flitted away by someone who is getting some good out of life and doing some good or else by a shallow-brained heir or heiress or both.

A man who is selfish has few friends and when he dies the respect shown his memory is extended to his family and not to him. The man who says he doesn't care for friends is a fool.

Ho, hum! Congress is at work again, so it will be well to postpone purchase of garden seeds.

When the prohibition officers in Los Angeles find where the booze furnished the Arbuckle party came from Roy Gardner, famous bandit, will probably be in jail.

President Harding is going to be a thirty-third degree Mason, which is very nice, but what we started to say is that he gives promise of being a hundred per cent American President.

THE LISTENING POST

Do you ever spend a grateful hour?
Make it a sort of spiritual rite?
Devote all your thinking to the matter of gratitude for a lot of things.

Not an incidental or casual bit of gratitude.
Not a moment of exaltation snatched unconsciously from the day.
But a genuinely grateful time, when your heart grows warm within you.
A sort of debauch of sentiment.
Not of sentimentality.

For existence, we will say.
Gratitude for that.
The opportunity to breathe and feel and think.
The privilege of working usefully.
Not the duty.
But the privilege.
For it is a privilege to work usefully.

A good many things we are accustomed to claim as rights are after all privileges.
It is a privilege to live.
It is good to be alive.
To breathe and feel and think and do.

So there is reason for gratitude right at the beginning of things.
In every flower that brings beauty before the eye.
In every breath that brings fragrance and coolness and consciousness of life.
In every ray of sunlight that warms and gladdens.

Even the flower feels gratitude for sun and shower.
And its gratitude is proven by beauty and color and fragrance.
By soft petal and delicate and pleasing odor.
And surely we can do as much as the flower.
By giving back to the world what we may of beauty in return for the things life has given us.

And there is the tree that returns us grateful shade.
The bird that returns song and plumage.
All along the way of life we find a return of gratitude for the privilege of living.
In the wheat that germinates in the fecund earth and returns nourishment a thousand fold.

And of all created things man should be most generously grateful.
For as far as we know the most blessings have been showered upon him.

The capacity for thinking.
Imagination.
That wagon that we may hitch to stars.
And go on mental joy rides through the farthest spaces.

Then there are the senses by which we feel and know and in which we may take delight.
The seeing of beauty and light and color.
The hearing of sweet sounds.
The voices of sweethearts.
The wise and gentle admonitions of mothers and fathers.

The touch by which we know the grip of a friendly hand.
The kiss upon the cheek of mother or sister or brother or sweetheart or father.
The sensation of delight from the smelling of rare perfume.
Spicy breezes that bring fragrance and recollection.

And there should be gratitude for the joy of friendship.
For the opportunities to strive.
For the privilege of education.
For the blessings of labor and return and serenity and peace.

For the advancement of the sciences by which we gain comfort and opportunity.
For the progress in medicine by which health is safeguarded and made surer.
For the tolerance that permits us to work out salvation and happiness in our own way.

For the arts by which we are stimulated and rejoiced.
For music and poetry and drama and all of the exercise of brilliant imaginations for our pleasure and profit.

And there should be gratitude for mothers who bore us and nourished us and protected us and comforted us.
For martyrs who have died for us, in the battles of place and of war.
For labor that has sweated for us.

Have you ever spent a really grateful hour?
Made it a sort of rite?
Let your heart swell with the real joy of living?
Try it sometime.
It will get you away from self and littleness and open your soul to the bigness of being.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

Recently the courts of this county granted a divorce to a girl of sixteen. At the time of her marriage, if such a kid episode may be dignified by the title, she only fifteen. The husband in the case was a high school boy. The pair had gone to Santa Ana to be present at the wedding of two other youngsters. While there the other members of the party dared her to marry her companion. So she went through the ceremony, and then went to the home of her parents and seems to have behaved herself. She is in school now. Now if silly children are to be permitted to engage in such escapades, and the courts are to have their dockets cluttered by juvenile nonsense, divorces of course will continue to be abundant. Surely a girl of fifteen ought to realize that anybody marrying on a dare is so nearly a fool that only courtesy withholds the term. The boy in this instance was even more culpable. What he particularly needed was a good lambasting.

HENRY JAMES

Domestic affairs seldom assume a more interesting aspect than in the case of the Levee family. Levee is in the grave, and the widow is in jail for having sent him there. Before the climax to his woes, it had been the habit of the woman to horsewhip other women through jealousy, in one instance at least the victim of such castigation never having heard of Levee. Finally a charge of perjury was lodged against the man, who was in the south, and the woman, whom he had sued for divorce in Los Angeles, went thither to expedite the matter of extradition. Legal procedure did not work fast enough for her, and she ended the particular complexity that annoyed her, by killing him, her trigger finger working fast enough. Now she wants the divorce action wiped off the calendar, probably relying somewhat upon the sympathy due a lone widow.

Every time there is a holdup within a thousand miles of Puget Sound, and the police fail to lay hands on the perpetrators they ascribe the crime to Roy Gardner, and let it go at that. The probability in relation to Gardner is that he has committed no crime since he broke away from prison, but was drowned in the attempt to get to the mainland. This would have been the happiest outcome all around. Gardner at large is a menace to society, not only from his habit of preying upon it, but because there is an absurd tendency to make a hero of a mean type of thief, who is a thief only because too lazy to work.

Two so-called fighters recently met in the ring. The purse being a paltry $75,000, of course the one regarded as superior was too proud really to extend himself. He got a verdict over his opponent, but won great disfavor for not having tried to muss the loser's countenance more. So they held out his share of the purse, and ahead of him looms the prospect of having to work at a job for a living, since a cruel public declines to be worked.

There is no need to be alarmed at the influx of a hobo army. It occurs every year. The men it brings do not furnish the dangerous class of criminals. Such class scorn to ride the brakebeam, and are provided with plenty of money to pay their fares, the fact that the money belongs to somebody else of course militating against their moral standing.

Arrest of a man at Riverside on the charge of alienating Indians from the government, probably is a unique case. What he expected to accomplish by it is not clear. What he actually has accomplished, possibly the courts will make known.

Two photographs published in the Los Angeles Times recently had been transmitted from New York by telegraph. A similar achievement had been made by the same paper on a former occasion, the reproductions showing accuracy when compared with the originals.

The Professor on Prohibition

By DR. FRANK CRANE

I met a learned professor over at the Sorbonne yesterday. The Sorbonne is the great French university. A young American student irreverently calls it the Sour Bones.

This learned professor told us why prohibition in the United States. It was interesting. How correct I do not undertake to estimate.

There was a party of us sitting in a little restaurant over in the Latin quarter. A gentleman from Texas was warmly seconded by a lady from Brooklyn in condemning the narrow Americans for prohibition.

"I haven't met a single person in New York that thinks prohibition is right," said the lady.

"Then," returned the professor, "you have not met the right people. Not enough people."

The professor is an American, did time in Columbia, and was born in Ohio.

"I think," he went on, "that the great majority of Americans favor prohibition, not because they like it, but because it's the lesser of two evils."

"For Americans have to let it alone or get drunk. They don't understand how to sip like these Latins."

"It's psychological. You see, the Anglo-Saxon, if you will pardon a loose and inaccurate term, has always been a drunkard. Taine in his book, you know, describes the early Saxon as enjoying only two things, hunting (including man hunting, or war), and intoxication. Our noble English ancestors regularly drank till they rolled unconsciously under the table and had to be carried to bed."

"The great majority of the people of the United States are descendants of the people of the British Isles. And Englishmen, Scotchmen, and Irishmen are drinkers. They consume such alcoholic stuff as whisky, gin and rum."

"The Latins, including the French, Spanish, and Italians, do not enjoy getting drunk as a rule."

"As I said, this has a psychological root. For the characteristic of the Saxon blood is accomplishment. The characteristic of the Latin is enjoyment. The American, who is the most highly developed Anglo-Saxon, is happy only in getting things done."

"This has its good side, for it makes him a great Doer, tremendously efficient. But it has its bad side, too. It makes him fond of excess."

"When he eats he bolts his food. He does not so much enjoy eating as he enjoys getting full of food. On the contrary, the Frenchman lingers at the table; he enjoys eating more than having eaten."

"Alcohol in mild doses, to a basker and easygoing enjoyer, is not a bad thing. In fact, all it does is to help along the enjoyment."

"But alcohol to a Doer, to one who Achieves and is happy only in getting to the end of matters, is rank poison."

"My personal opinion is that America is done with alcohol. Also that in time prohibition will be adopted in the British Isles. Drunkenness and whisky guzzling will drive them to it."

"But prohibition among the Latins is not necessary, and to attempt it would bring on a revolution."

"Still," said the Brooklyn lady, "I like a glass of wine with my meals."

"You might have it," replied the professor, "if you could discover any way, at the same time, to prevent your brother from making a maniac of himself in a saloon."

SHOWER BATHS THE THING

FOR A QUICK, COLD BATH there is nothing so useful and convenient as a shower and when considered principally for use in this way—the water supply is generally ample. On the other hand, a shower to be used in all seasons and especially for a cleansing bath should be supplied at all times with a sufficient supply of hot water! Shower bathing and the exhilarating benefits derived are well known in all well ordered homes! In many homes where it was once considered sufficient to have only a bath tub, shower baths are now being installed with the bath tub. As an efficient shower can be made part of the bathroom at comparatively small cost, no modern bathroom should be considered complete without one! Along with the demand for built-in baths came the demand for built-in showers, for built-in showers have the added virtue of reducing cleaning to the minimum. At the GLENDALE PLUMBING CO., 134 South Orange street, you will find a variety of showers that fill all ordinary requirements, and Mr. Sheehy will also be glad to offer suggestions for still other styles to suit special conditions!

Hats in street types are of duvety, trimmed in feather fancies of contrasting color.

A NOTABLE ADDITION TO THEIR SERVICE!

Do you know that you can now have BRAIDING done right here in Glendale? The BROOKS' SHOPPE, 123 N. BRAND BLVD., is now prepared to do fancy BRAIDING and worsted EMBROIDERY in many attractive designs. They also cover FANCY BUTTONS with your own materials; HEMSTITCHING and PICOTING; and can PLEAT your new fall skirt, plaid or stripes, in any way you wish.

Marvella is employed for coats. Flowing and belt sleeves are prominent in self and contrasting fabrics and colors, with much color introduced as trimming in fuchsia and American Beauty, sapphire blue, banana yellow and brilliant green.

THEY HAVE ATTAINED PERFECTION!

PERFECTION IN HIGH CLASS cleaning and pressing is the goal which SHAFER-MILES, 221 East Broadway holds ever in view! And those for whom they have done work claim that they are already attained it—but then, call them at Glendale 72 and see for yourself!

The fuchsia shades are being shown, but they will serve more generally as trimmings than for entire gowns.

A HOME OF YOUR OWN

HERE'S A LOVELY five-room bungalow with hardwood floors, and attractive new ivory woodwork throughout; a beautiful big kitchen with an adorable little breakfast nook—and it's situated on a large lot, 50x170 feet, conveniently located just one block from the Brand boulevard car line! At $2520, the price which JAMES W. PEARSON, 124 North Brand boulevard has set on it, it is certainly a really, truly bargain—for it's just brand new!

MARTHA MALICIA

THIS IS THEIR SECRET!

YOU'LL HAVE just as much pep and energy as anyone whom you may have envied, if you'll just drink the famous White Rose Spring Water, which the INDEPENDENT ICE CO. of 106 East California, is selling. Call Glendale 217 and have a bottle delivered today!

Many flaring skirts are shown with straight line waists, rather than fitted bodies.

QUALITY INDEED!

WHEN THE CHILDREN are taking their lunches to school, be sure that there are some of those wonderful doughnuts from the QUALITY DOUGHNUT SHOP at 104 West California avenue in the box! They are really quite the most nourishing thing they might eat—and perfectly delicious! The price, you know, has been just recently reduced at the Quality Shop—they are only 25 cents per dozen now!

FRESH BAKERY FOODS

CHILDREN LOVE SNAILS! Then, why not let them have as many as they want—so long as you can buy them at the FANCY BAKERY, 142 N. Brand Blvd.? For, you know, if you buy snails there they are absolutely fresh, and pure, as the Fancy Bakery uses only the very best quality in their baking and Mr. Walmas himself superintends everything! These snails are positively the most delicious you might eat—maintaining in every way the Fancy Bakery's usual high standard of pure foods—and nourishing and delectable "sweets!" Made of quite the tastiest of pastry dough and covered with just the most wonderful white sugar icing with the whole generously sprinkled with luscious big raisins—these snails are indeed a delightful treat when served with coffee for breakfast! Or, if the children usually come home "half starved" after school, have a few of the Fancy Bakery's snails in the cake box and they will simply dance with glee at the sight of them! The prices, too, are extremely low—only 20c per dozen for such wonderful snails at the Fancy Bakery!

People seem to be getting away from Canton crepe into crepe satin, and there is an occasional model in soft piece dyed flannel. This material is chosen for fine dresses that followed the conservative type of smartness.

AN IMPORTANT POINT!

MRS. WALCOTT, of WALCOTT'S BEAUTY SHOPPE, at 136 South Brand boulevard, just delights in giving you that youthful appearance for which you have longed! And, through her scientific massages, she can do it, too—for she thoroughly understands the muscle formation of the face and neck! Do you know that one who really understands this formation can either tighten or loosen your muscles at will? Yes, you'd better be sure that you have someone like Mrs. Walcott who really knows what she's doing, give you your next massage. Mrs. Walcott uses the well-known Beauty Mask and also the popular Mask O' Yuth!

Skirts show a very uneven base line accomplished in points, drapings or slashings on the side. These irregular hems give the effect of lengths, but shortness is still maintained at front and back. Panel fronts are also shown.

The Princess line is greatly stressed whether the waistline is indicated by embroidery or decoration of some sort.

FOR AUTUMN EVENINGS!

COSY GLOW HEATERS! Doesn't the very name suggest comfort—luxurious comfort? And really, it is just the thing for the bungalow or small house in winter, for the Westinghouse Cosy Glow Heater gives just the right degree of temperature—and although it will heat your room in a jiffy, it doesn't absorb all the oxygen as do the little gas heaters! You'll find the Cosy Glow Heater being demonstrated at the JEWEL ELECTRIC CO. of 200 East Broadway. They carry a complete line of Westinghouse electrical appliances—everything from an electric range to an electric iron! You know the Westinghouse products are all backed by an invincible guarantee—and then, too, you have the protection of the Jewel Electric Co. if you make your purchases at 200 East Broadway! The Jewel Electric Co. is an authorized Westinghouse dealer and maintain an authorized service station for the Westinghouse goods! Every home should have the Westinghouse electrical appliances!

Plain and brocaded crepe, serge and satin are used for street and afternoon gowns.

WORTH YOUR WHILE!

PERHAPS YOUR OLD MATTRESS seems far too good to really throw away—and yet it's too old to be of much use! Then, you'll be interested in knowing what I saw at the GLENDALE CARPET AND MATTRESS WORKS, 1411 South San Fernando Road, today! They had just finished renovating a mattress—and it was just like new! Yes, indeed, for it had just the daintiest and most serviceable ticking imaginable—and was at together a most satisfactory piece of work! Their prices are most reasonable, whether it be a cotton, silk floss or hair mattress—and I know you'll find it worth your while to look them up!

Black hatter's plush Spanish sailors trimmed in ostrich tassels dropped off the side.

AN OFFER EXTRAORDINARY

IF YOU CAN find in ZITE-LEEN'S entire stock of Peter's Diamond Brand Shoes, a single one that is not solid leather through and through—Mr. Zite-Lean will give you, absolutely free, a dandy pair of shoes of your choice, whatever it be a cotton, silk floss or hair mattress—and I know you'll find over his stock at once!

High front large shapes of velvet are trimmed with burnt ostrich fancies high across the front.

ABOUT "THE CAR COMPLETE"

YOU CAN HAVE NO IDEA of the joy that a beautiful car will give you! It means so much to be able to take your family and your friends for drives on these delightfully cool evenings, and on long, beautiful trips of a Sunday! If you are the owner of a new Sheridan from the CLUB GARAGE, at 107 East Colorado street, you will be proud to ask your friends to ride with you at any time—for all will appreciate the unusual merits and the exclusive beauty of design in the Sheridan! And, don't misunderstand me, for the Sheridan is really not a high priced car, as cars go—but on the contrary extremely reasonable—for after all, it is not the first cost but the cost of upkeep that counts in the long run, isn't it? With the Sheridan your first cost is practically your last—for it is mechanically perfect, built to endure, and equipped with just everything in the way of "extras" that you could possibly wish for—thus it has been called "The Car Complete!"

The attitude of present styles permits a woman to wear anything she chooses and still look smart, provided it is becoming, and nicely made from good fabrics, and worn with the proper air.

ABOUT PIES

WHEN YOU are entertaining, just send to the ELITE SWEET SHOP, at 134 South Brand boulevard, for one of their wonderful angel food cakes! Your guests will be simply delighted and the success of the affair will be assured! You know the Elite maintains an excellent high class bakery department for Van de Kamp's goods—and each morning they receive a fresh supply of bread, cake and pastries. But as for pies! These are baked fresh every morning right in their own dainty little shop—and all who have ever tasted Mrs. Biggins' pies admit that they are "wedded to them!" Every day she plans another and more delicious selection—and each seems "more better" than the last!

GAINING IN POPULARITY!

THE EUREKA SHOE SHOP at 208 1/2 East Broadway, which has long been known, and recognized as Glendale's leading shoe repair shop, is now fast gaining in popularity as a store for the best in men's and boys' shoes! Mr. O'Neill, the proprietor, has just taken over a line of high-grade men's and boys' shoes—and his prices are every bit as reasonable as those which distinguished him from all other shoemakers! They are the best shoes that money can buy—but are marked unusually low at the Eureka Shoe Shop!

MORE HOMES MUST BE CONSTRUCTED FOR ARRIVALS

Real estate agents and merchants, and, in fact, all the people of Glendale, are faced with the question, "What will we do with the numbers of people who are anxious to make their home in Glendale but cannot find a house to rent, or if they do find a vacant house, learn that the rent is beyond the pocketbook of the average man or that the children will not have tenants with children?" This is the problem that is confronting Glendale, the "City of Homes." Prominent Glendale realtors are up in arms over the situation and tentative plans are being discussed to interest outside capital to the extent of building houses for people with children who want to come here but cannot do so because the landlords will not rent houses to families with children.

In commenting on the situation, E. F. Saunders, assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce, said: "While rents may be considered high in Glendale they are, as a matter of fact, lower here than in other cities of more than twice the size of Glendale and they are lower than Glendale rents were a year ago. Naturally, there is a shortage of houses to rent, but this shortage is but natural in a fast growing city like Glendale.

"As to the landlords barring children from their houses, that while it is deplorable, is a condition that prevails all over the country, and is not, to my mind, as bad here in Glendale as it is in other cities. Of course, there are some landlords who say they will not rent their houses to tenants with children and adhere to this ruling, but there is a large majority of the landlords that make this ruling who will rent to families with children if the tenant will assure them that the house will be left in good condition at the expiration of the tenancy.

"To my mind, I think that an excellent solution of the problem would be, instead of refusing to rent a house to tenants with small children, charge a little more rent to cover the additional damage done by the small children. It is only natural that a child should be destructive to a certain degree and it is impossible to think of denying a child up all day. I believe that my plan is the most practical solution."

AROUND THE RIM IN 120 DAYS IS TRICK DONE BY AUTO CLUB

Around the rim of the United States in 120 days, completing the world's greatest charting and road mapping trip, covering 23,000 miles of highway, is the latest accomplishment of a crew representing the Automobile Club of Southern California. Bringing complete road data on all southern and eastern main highways, the Club representatives returned to this city yesterday after a continuous journey of four months.

Mapping data for every main highway in America has now been secured first hand by the Auto Club. Touring information is also available at the club on all routes through the southern states and into Canada. Hotels, in many places throughout the east and south, are not yet aware that the war is over, according to the Club men. Rates for rooms in certain localities have not yet "come down" even to the level that they are in Los Angeles.

Charges for gasoline in the east are higher when the stuff is purchased in garages than when it is bought at gasoline stations. Motorists taking trips across the continent will find conditions materially improved so far as numerous supply stations are concerned, it is reported.

In one large hotel in Houston, gentlemen were not allowed to appear in the lobby or elevator without their coats, despite the hot weather, but they were allowed to eat in the ladies' grill with their hats on.

Fines for minor infractions of local ordinances are twice as numerous and twice as high in communities where new roads are being built in the south as elsewhere, according to the Auto Club crew. These fines are used to complete the local highway budget of the community.

Road building is progressing rapidly in every state in the Union, and funds for the same being supplied principally by the state itself. In the majority of instances every possible effort is being made to link up the through routes of the transcontinental highways as rapidly as possible.

PETTY THIEVES MAKE LIFE MISERABLE HERE
Petty thieves are still at work in Glendale. During the week-end three reports of thefts were made to the police. A. E. Cole, 1207 Sato street, of Los Angeles, reported that while his automobile was parked in a downtown street here, someone stole a black and white sweater and a black overcoat from the car.

A. M. Yale, 214 North Brand boulevard, forgot to lock the door of his office Saturday and when he returned to the office this morning found that someone had walked away with his typewriter.

A. J. Dallman, 208 Rowland street, Eagle Rock, visited in Glendale last night and while his car was parked at the corner of Brand boulevard and Harvard street, several tools were stolen from the tonneau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Betz and son, Harold, of 424 North Kenwood street, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Webster and George Russ left Friday in the special pleasure truck Mr. eBtz has provided for such trips and went up among the pines in the mountains above Antelope valley to hunt squirrels. They got back last night with seven squirrels.

HIKERS MAKE HIGH SIERRAS IN TWELVE DAY JOURNEY

From the desert with its sagebrush and cactus to the high tamarack pines at an altitude of 8500 feet was the first day's hike of a party of 26 who have just returned from a 12 days' trip in the high Sierras. Ernest Dawson of the Sierra club was the guide and Mr. Austin of Switzer's camp the manager. Ten mules were taken along to pack provisions with two packers in charge of them to keep them in order.

Starting at Independence, the capital of Inyo county, they took the trail over Kearsage pass and camped for the night at Degette Meadows. The ice effects here in the creek were marvelously beautiful and some of the members of the party were able to take some unusual pictures from under the ice floes. From here they took the Junction pass, the highest in the Sierras, at an altitude of 13,000 feet, which is a part of the John Muir trail for the further construction of which the legislature is making appropriations.

Passing over the steep and rugged Shepherd's pass, they camped at Crabtree Meadows, the point from which Mt. Whitney is climbed. This country is also the home of the golden trout, which have now been planted in other parts of California. The peak of Mt. Whitney is at an altitude of 14,502 feet, the highest in the United States, and from it the hikers could look over the Inyo mountains almost into Death Valley.

Among those in the party of whom half are Sierra club members, were: Ernest Dawson, L. D. Mortimer, Dr. J. H. McKellar, C. L. Clymer, A. J. Fontaine, C. L. Williams, Samuel Mark, C. M. Fornal, R. J. Dobbs, Henry Knuth, Emerson Holt, Louis Decker, Mrs. Alice Prosser, Charles Cerry, James Graywell, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Austin, Morrell Austin, L. N. Hastings, S. Lottie Edgerton, Virginia Hill, Mary Hill, Louis Weir, Marjorie Dougherty and Myrtle Richmond.

Foley's Friendly Fancies

A SONG OF FAITH

I only know this truth is bright
As sunlight's whitest ray,
That wrong is wrong, and right is right,
And truth will find a way
To make the ways of darkness light
By what strange paths it may.

I only know through all the years
The world has whirled along,
Through all the sorrows, doubts and fears,
Through what seems ill and wrong,
Truth has survived to dry our tears
And make them in a song.

I only know if war and lust
May seem sometime to gain;
And all our castles in the dust
And all our dreams in vain,
There is a purpose stern and just
To cleanse the reddest stain.

I only know by stabbing pain,
By burden on me laid,
By bitterness that comes again,
Is any soul remade,
To stand erect, cleansed of its stain,
Serene and unafraid.

So in the clamor and the din,
The tumult and the strife,
If bitterness shall enter in,
And sorrow shall be rife,
If I stand fast, the Truth shall win
This battle of my life.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR DIED TODAY

This morning at 5 o'clock, John R. Youngs, a veteran of the Civil war and Royal Arch Mason, died at the age of 85 years, at the home of his son, B. R. Youngs, 316 North Concord street.

He was a native of New York and had been a resident of California for 20 years and of Glendale ten months. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Phoebe L. Youngs, one daughter, Mrs. T. B. Becanan of Van Nuys and the son, with whom he made his home.

During the Civil war he served with the Second Michigan Infantry and was wounded at the battle of Williamsburg, the first year of the war. He was raised to the rank of Master Mason in October, 1863, and services which will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn, will be conducted by the officers of the Masonic lodge of this city. Pulliam & Kiefer will be in charge.

MRS. BARTON CALLED TO ADDRESS MEETING

Mrs. A. A. Barton, chairman of the Glendale Mutual Benefit Reading Circle has been requested to go to Redondo and talk before a reading circle being established along the same lines as the Glendale organization and covering a course laid out by the Child Welfare Department at Washington.

The Glendale Circle, which was founded by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, is said to be the most successful one in the United States and has won great credit with the government. Washington officials paid her much attention upon her visit there and are doing everything possible to encourage the organization of similar circles all over the country.

Within the past year circles have been organized in South Pasadena, Alhambra and Hermosa.

GLENDALE SWEATERS; RECORD HEAT WAVE

Glendale yesterday sweated in the grip of an intense heat that was equal to the heat of July and August. According to officials at the Weather Bureau, the high temperature of 98 degrees was registered, which sets a new high mark for September here since 1913.

Not only did the temperature set a new high mark, but it passed the city engineer's office; Mrs. Baker to in August the temperature climbed to 90 degrees and another in July hit the 86 mark. The hottest day of the year, until yesterday, was April 28, when the mercury climbed to 95. Just as a cheering message to Glendale, Col. Hersey, in charge of the Weather Bureau, said that today may be another scorcher.

Many left the city yesterday and spent the day at the beaches in an attempt to escape the heat. Those who were forced to remain passed their time searching for a cool spot.

FINE BILL TONIGHT AT PALACE GRAND

"His Greatest Sacrifice," the William Farum picture now running at the Palace Grand, is one of the most sensational pictures Farum has appeared in since his great masterpiece "The Spoilers."

The other feature on the program tonight is Ethel Clayton in "The Price of Possession." Miss Clayton rises to heights of true dramatic intensity. Miss Clayton as Helen Barton has written a new and brilliant page in the history of her career before the camera—a page that will be remembered by those who appreciate humanness and feeling and fidelity to life on the silver sheet.

The "New Orleans Pive" will give one grand recital tonight of jazz music that you will long remember, as they are masters of their art. Col. Jackie Connors, Jr., the youthful movie star, is boss of the "gang" and is a wonderful little entertainer.

SEATTLE MAN HEADS 91ST DIVISION ASS'N

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26.—William J. Coyle of Seattle, formerly captain of the 365th infantry, was elected president of the Ninety-first Division Association. The Powder River veterans are homebound today, after a two-day reunion attended by almost 15,000 members.

Other officials elected include Clifford E. Hughes, Los Angeles, vice-president; R. H. Stevenson, San Francisco, treasurer; James I. Herz, San Francisco, secretary; Thomas A. Driscoll, San Mateo, historian.

Cookman, who has been pastor of the West Glendale Methodist church for the past three years, announced that at the close of the present fiscal year he will retire temporarily from the ministry. He has preached for 35 years and feels that he is entitled to a rest. A successor to Rev. Cookman will be named at the next general conference.

Makes Recovery—Mrs. F. L. Woolard of 15 South Pacific avenue, who has been receiving treatment for a shotgun wound at the local hospital for the past five weeks, will be taken to her home some time this week. Mrs. Woolard hovered between life and death, but she rallied and has improved steadily.

Visit Old Home—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brand of North Glendale are leaving in October to visit friends in Kansas City, St. Louis and Moberly, Mo., which is Mr. Brand's old home. After the visit Mr. Brand will return to the coast and Mrs. Brand will be on to New York where she will spend the fall and early winter months.

ALFRED COOKMAN LIKES SAN DIEGO

An interesting letter has been received from Alfred Cookman, who was the head of the general science department in Glendale high school last year, but who accepted an offer from San Diego high school for this year. It is dated September 22 and reads as follows:

"Greetings from San Diego. San Diego high school opened with an enrollment of 6400 pupils. There are over 125 teachers on the staff, and I am enjoying the work immensely.

"We have 11 teachers of science and philosophy in the regular day school. I have been invited to introduce a special course of instruction in the evening high school. On Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 7 to 9, I am conducting a course in agriculture, and have a large class, consisting of ranchers, poultrymen and women interested in gardening, numbering 38 students. This is the largest class in agriculture in any Southern California high school. We are dealing with practical topics of agricultural interest, and the enthusiasm is intense.

"Every Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock I lecture to the nurses at St. Joseph's hospital. A new course in bacteriology has been started for nurses in the training department. They invited me to come and instruct them in this field of science. All the nurses attend this class. The work is fascinating.

"San Diego has certainly made me feel at home and I am going to have a very pleasant year in this new field of usefulness.

"You may publish what you like about my work here in San Diego. I left many choice friends in Glendale and I will ever hold that city in remembrance."

DEMENTED MAN SCARES RESIDENTS

A patient of the Arbor Rest home caused considerable excitement in the vicinity of Lexington drive last night. According to the police, the man gave his name as George Polson and was suffering from a nervous breakdown. He was taken to the rest home yesterday afternoon.

When he escaped the man, who is six feet tall and of powerful build, was wearing only his underclothing and had evidently climbed from a window of the sanitarium. It is said that he entered several houses in the vicinity and, after frightening occupants, continued on his way.

He was taken into custody by officers and taken to the Los Angeles county hospital, where he will be held in the psychopathic ward.

BAY STATE PEOPLE ARE THRIFTIEST NOW

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—People of Massachusetts are the thriftiest in the United States, statistics gathered by J. R. Pulley, president of the Emigrant Industrial Savings bank here, in connection with the work of the national conference of mutual savings banks to encourage thrift, showed that in a population of 3,852,356 that state has 2,698,287 savings bank depositors or 67 per cent.

REALTY FIRMS IN GLENDALE MERGE

Two Glendale real estate companies have consolidated, to be known as the Smith-Babcock-Hamilton Realty Co. The new firm is located at 204 East Broadway.

The firms that have become members of the combination were formerly the firm of Babcock & Hamilton, 208 East Broadway, and E. N. Smith, 204 East Broadway. The present combination will give the company one of the largest listings of property in Glendale. The insurance department of the new firm, handling board companies policies exclusively, will be in charge of a competent agent.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Don't Be Only Half Alive!

Are you going through life down-hearted and discouraged, making a hopeless struggle against ill-health? Are you drugging, drugging, only to know you are fighting a losing fight?

MEXICAN SLAYERS STILL EVADE POSSES

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 26.—Sheriff F. P. Wilson and his posse of armed deputies have resumed search for Juan Palmarin and Vincente Meigosa, wanted for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Henry F. Nelson and Theodore Crossley.

Since the hour of the shooting last Thursday an army of armed men have continued the hunt in the Santa Ana river bottom and in every Mexican settlement in the valley, without the slightest clue.

Even though two can live as cheaply as one, they don't.
