SPICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE AND CITY. "THE UNION most be preserved," WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 1, 1885.

The General Committee for celebrating the coming 4th of July, are reminded that their meeting stands adjustmed to this evening. Punctual attendance is expected and request, as business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

ficiently the celebration of the 4th of July, we cannot apernee of the choice made by the committee of arrangement for assembling at Mr Clapp's church; nor for dining at the bke.

It is a species of insult to the central and lower narta the city to prefer the above church aituated in a faubourg, to the cathedral situated in the centre of the city-where corfain's more persons would willingly meet, and could convenviently be accommodated. If the committee desire that then sesion shall not be supported by the Creole population they have acted well to accure their design.

A disner at the lake must necessarily prevent many (other wise disposed) from participating in the featival.
