and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Information upon Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, that he or they believe that any Pike, Pikehead, or Spear is in the Possession of any Person or Persons, or in any House or Place, or that any Dirk, Dagger, Pistol, Gun, or other Weapon is, for any purpose dangerous to the Public Peace, in the Possession of any Person, or in any House or Place, to issue his Warrant to any Constable or other Peace Officer to search for and seize such Pike, Pikehead, Spear, Dirk, Dagger, Pistol, Gun, or other Weapon in the Possession of any such Person, or in any such House or Place; and that it shall be lawful for such Constable or other Peace Officer, acting under any such Warrant, or any other Person or Persons in his or their Aid or Assistance, to search for and seize any such Pike, Pikehead, Spear, Dirk, Dagger, Pistol, Gun, or other Weapon, being in the Possession of any such Person, or in any such House or Place as aforesaid; and in case Admission into such House or Place shall be refused or not obtained within a reasonable time after it shall have been first demanded, to enter by Force, by Day or by Night, into every such House or Place whatsoever, and to detain or cause to be detained in safe Custody, in such Place as the said Justice of the Peace shall appoint and direct, the Arms or Weapons so found and seized as aforesaid, unless the Owner thereof shall prove to the Satisfaction of such Justice, that such Arms or Weapons were not kept for any purpose dangerous to the Public Peace.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person from whom any such Arms or Weapons shall be so taken as last aforesaid, in case the Justice of the Peace upon whose Warrant the same shall have been taken shall, upon Application made for that purpose, refuse to restore the same, to apply to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County, or Riding or Division; upon giving Ten Days' previous Notice of such Application to such Justice, for the Restitution of such Arms or Weapons, or any Part thereof; and the Justices assembled at such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall make such Order for the Restitution or safe Custody of such Arms or Weapons, or any Part thereof, as upon such Application shall appear to them to be proper.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or for any Constable, Peace Officer, or other Person acting under the Warrant of any Justice of the Peace, or for any Person acting with or in aid of any Justice of the Peace, or of any Constable or other Peace Officer having such Warrant as aforesaid, to arrest and detain any Person found carrying Arms in such manner and at such times as, in the Judgment of such Justice of the Peace, to afford just Grounds of Suspicion that the same are carried for purposes dangerous to the Public Peace; and it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace who shall arrest any such Person, or before whom any Person arrested upon any such Warrant shall be brought, to commit such Person for Trial for a Misdemeanor, unless such Person can and shall give sufficient cient Bail for his Appearance at the next Assizes, or next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to answer to any Indictment which may be preferred against him in that Part of Great Britain called England; and in Scotland every such Person shall be arrested and dealt with according to the Law and Practice of that Part of the United Kingdom in the Case of a Bailable Offence.

Scotland.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the several Counties specified in this Act, or in any Proclamation to be issued under this Act, or any Counties next adjoining thereto, shall have concurrent Jurisdiction as Justices of the Peace, in all Cases as to the carrying into Execution the Provisions of this Act, and as to all matters and things relating to the Preservation of the Public Peace, as fully and effectually as if each of such Justices was in the Commission of the Peace of each of such Counties, and had duly qualified by Law to act therein.

Justices of specific and adjoining Counties to have concurrent Jurisdiction.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriffs Depute and their Substitutes, Stewards Depute and their Substitutes, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates of Royal Burghs, and all other inferior Judges and Magistrates, and also all High and Petty Constables or other Peace Officers of any County, Stewartry, City or Town within that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, shall have such and the same Powers and Authorities for putting this present Act in Execution within Scotland, as the Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates and Peace Officers and Constables aforesaid respectively have, by virtue of this Act, within and for that Part of Great Britain called England.

Sheriffs Depute, &c. in Scotland to have the same Powers as Justices, &c. in England.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Action or Suit which shall be brought or commenced against any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Constable, Peace Officer or other Person or Persons in that Part of Great Britain called England, for any thing done or acted in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and the Venue in every such Action or Suit shall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was committed, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if such Action shall be brought or commenced after the Time limited for bringing the same, or the Venue shall be laid in any other Place than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in such Case, or if the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants upon the Merits, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her or their Action after Appearance, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, which he or they shall and may recover in such and the same manner as any Defendant can by Law in other Cases.

An Act to prevent Delay in the Administration of Justice in Cases of Misdemeanor.

[23d December 1819.]

‘WHEREAS great Delays have occurred in the Administration of Justice, in Cases of Persons prosecuted for Misdemeanors by Indictment or Information in His Majesty’s Courts

‘ of Persons prosecuted in K. B. for Misdemeanors, appearing in Court, not permitted to imparle.

Judgment may be entered for want of Plea.

Court may allow further Time to plead.

Persons in Custody or held to Bail within 20 Days before Sessions, to plead, unless a Writ of Certiorari delivered before Jury sworn.

‘ of King’s Bench at Westminster and Dublin, and by Indictment at the Sessions of the Peace, Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions and Sessions of Gaol Delivery, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and in Ireland respectively, by reason that the Defendants in some of the said Cases have, according to the present Practice of such respective Courts, an Opportunity of postponing their Trials to a distant Period, by means of Imparlanes in the said several Courts of King’s Bench, and by Time being given to try in such respective Courts of Session;’ For Remedy thereof be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person shall be prosecuted in His Majesty’s Court of King’s Bench at Westminster or in His Majesty’s Court of King’s Bench in Dublin respectively, for any Misdemeanor, either by Information or by Indictment there found or removed into the same respective Courts, and shall appear in Term time in either of the said Courts respectively in Person, to answer to such Indictment or Information, such Defendant upon being charged therewith shall not be permitted to imparle to a following Term, but shall be required to plead or demur thereto within Four Days from the time of his or her Appearance; and in Default of his or her pleading or demurring within Four Days as aforesaid, Judgment may be entered against the Defendant for Want of a Plea; and in case such Defendant shall appear to such Indictment or Information by his or her Clerk or Attorney in Court, it shall not be lawful for such Defendant to imparle to a following Term, but a Rule requiring such Defendant to plead may forthwith be given, and a Plea or Demurrer to such Indictment or Information enforced, or Judgment by Default entered thereupon, in the same manner as might have been done, before the passing of this Act, in Cases where the Defendant had appeared to such Indictment or Information by his or her Clerk in Court or Attorney in a previous Term.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said respective Courts, or for any Judge of the same respectively, upon sufficient Cause shown for that purpose, to allow further Time for such Defendant to plead or demur to such Indictment or Information.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person shall be prosecuted for any Misdemeanor by Indictment at any Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, Great Session or Session of Gaol Delivery within that Part of Great Britain called England, or in Ireland, having been committed to Custody or held to Bail to appear to answer for such Offence Twenty Days at the least before the Session at which such Indictment shall be found, he or she shall plead to such Indictment, and Trial shall proceed thereupon at such same Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, Great Session or Session of Gaol Delivery respectively, unless a Writ of Certiorari for removing such Indictment into His Majesty’s Courts of King’s Bench at Westminster or in Dublin respectively, tively, shall be delivered at such Session before the Jury shall be sworn for such Trial.

IV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That such Writ of Certiorari may be applied for and issued before such Indictment has been found, in the like Cases, in the same manner, and upon the same Terms and Conditions, as if such Writ of Certiorari had been applied for after such Indictment had been found.

Certiorari may be issued before Indictment found.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person shall be prosecuted for any Misdemeanor by Indictment at any Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, Great Session or Session of Gaol Delivery within that Part of Great Britain called England, or in Ireland, not having been committed to Custody or held to Bail to appear to answer for such Offence Twenty Days before the Session at which such Indictment shall be found, but who shall have been committed to Custody or held to Bail to appear to answer for such Offence at some subsequent Session, or shall have received Notice of such Indictment having been found Twenty Days before such subsequent Session, he or she shall plead to such Indictment at such subsequent Session, and Trial shall proceed thereupon at such same Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, Great Session or Session of Gaol Delivery respectively, unless a Writ of Certiorari for removing such Indictment into His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench at Westminster or in Dublin respectively shall be delivered at such last mentioned Session before the Jury shall be sworn for such Trial, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

In what Cases Indictments may be tried at subsequent Sessions :

Unless Certiorari delivered as herein mentioned.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Indictment, found by a Grand Jury of any City or Town Corporate, from being removed, at the Prayer of any Defendant, for Trial by a Jury of the County next adjoining to the County of such City or Town Corporate, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the Trial of Causes, Indictments and other Proceedings, which arise within the Counties of certain Cities and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom; and upon such Removal, the Defendant shall plead, and the Trial shall be had according to the Provisions of this Act, in like manner as if such Indictment had been originally found by a Grand Jury of such next adjoining County.

Proviso for removing Indictments found by Grand Jury to an adjoining County to be tried.

38 G. 3. c. 52.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court, at any Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, Great Session or Session of Gaol Delivery respectively, upon sufficient Cause shown for that purpose, to allow further Time for Pleading to any such Indictment, or for Trial of the same.

Court may allow further Time for Pleading, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases of Prosecutions for Misdemeanors, instituted by His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, in any of the Courts aforesaid, the Court shall, if required, make Order that a Copy of the Information or Indictment shall be delivered, after Appearance, to the Party prosecuted, or his Clerk in Court or Attorney, upon Application made for the same, free from all Expence to the Party

In Prosecutions by Attorney General, &c.

Copy of Information, &c. delivered gratis.

Party so applying; provided that such Party, or his Clerk in Court or Attorney, shall not have previously received a Copy thereof.

If Prosecution not brought to Trial within Twelve Calendar Months, Court may make Order thereon, upon Notice.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any Prosecution for a Misdemeanor instituted by His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in any of the Courts aforesaid, shall not be brought to Trial within Twelve Calendar Months next after the Plea of Not Guilty shall have been pleaded therein, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Prosecution shall be depending, upon Application to be made on the behalf of any Defendant in such Prosecution, of which Application Twenty Days previous Notice shall have been given to His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, to make an Order, if the said Court shall see just Cause so to do, authorising such Defendant to bring on the Trial in such Prosecution; and it shall thereupon be lawful for such Defendant to bring on such Trial accordingly, unless a Nolle Prosequi shall have been entered in such Prosecution.

Proviso for Quo Warranto Actions, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Prosecution by Information in Nature of a Quo Warranto, or for the Non-repair of any Bridge or Highway.

An Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, to make further Provision for the Regulation of Cotton Mills and Factories, and for the Preservation of the Health of young Persons employed therein. [23d December 1819.]

59 G. 3. c. 66.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was made in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the Regulation of Cotton Mills and Factories, and for the better Preservation of the Health of young Persons employed therein: And whereas it is expedient to provide for Accidents by Fire or otherwise, which may arise in the working of such Mills or Factories, by which many Persons may be suddenly deprived of Employment, and to alter the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on the Event of One or more Mills being suddenly destroyed by Fire or other Accident, the Proprietors thereof, possessing other Mills which are kept at work during the Day, shall, for Eighteen Months from the Day on which any such Fire or other Accident shall happen, be allowed to employ the Persons who were previously at work on the Mill or Mills so destroyed, and employ them in the Night time in any other Mill or Mills, for any Period not exceeding Ten Hours in any one Night.

In case of Mills being destroyed, Persons belonging to them may be employed by Night in other Mills.

Hour for Dinner to be between Eleven and Four.

‘ II. And Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that there shall be allowed to every Person, in the Course of every Day, not less than Half an Hour to Breakfast, and not less than One full Hour for every Dinner; such Hour for Dinner to be between Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon: And whereas it is expedient that the Period thereby specified for the Hour of Dinner should be altered; Be it it therefore enacted, That such Hour for Dinner shall be between the Hours of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded. Public Act.

C A P. VI.

An Act for more effectually preventing Seditious Meetings and Assemblies; to continue in force until the End of the Session of Parliament next after Five Years from the passing of the Act.

[24th December 1819.]

WHEREAS in divers Parts of this Kingdom, Assemblies of large Numbers of Persons collected from various Parishes and Districts, under the Pretext of deliberating upon public Grievances, and of agreeing on Petitions, Complaints, Remonstrances, Declarations, Resolutions or Addresses upon the Subject thereof, have of late been held, in Disturbance of the Public Peace, to the great Terror and Danger of His Majesty's loyal and peaceable Subjects, and in a manner manifestly tending to produce Confusion and Calamities in the Nation: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Meeting of any Description of Persons, exceeding the Number of Fifty Persons (other than and except any Meeting of any County, or Division of any County, called by the Lord Lieutenant, Governor or Custos Rotulorum, or the Sheriff of such County, or any Meeting of any Riding of any County called by the Lord Lieutenant or Custos Rotulorum of such Riding, or by the Sheriff of the same County; or any Meeting called by the Sheriff or Stewart Depute or Substitute, or by the Convener of any County or Stewartry, or any Meeting called by Five or more acting Justices of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place where such Meeting shall be holden; or any Meeting of any Riding or Division of any County having different Ridings or Divisions, called by Five or more Justices of such Riding or Division; or any Meeting called by the major Part of the Grand Jury of the County where such Meeting shall be holden, at the Assizes for the said County; or any Meeting of any City, Borough or Town Corporate, called by the Mayor or other Head Officer of such City, Borough, or Town Corporate; or any Meeting of any Ward or Division of any City, called by the Alderman or other Head Officer of such Ward or Division, or any Meeting of any Corporate Body), shall be holden for the purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating upon any public Grievance, or upon any Matter or Thing relating to any Trade, Manufacture, Business or Profession, or upon any Matter in Church or State; or of considering, proposing or agreeing to any Petition, Complaint, Remonstrance, Declaration, Resolution or Address upon the Subject thereof; unless in the Parish, or when any Parish shall shall be divided into Townships, having separate and distinct Overseers of the Poor, then in the Township within which the Persons calling any such Meeting shall usually inhabit or dwell; nor unless Notice in Writing of the Intention to hold such Meeting, and of the Time and Place when and where, and of the Purpose for which the same shall be proposed to be holden, shall be delivered personally to some Justice of the Peace residing in or near to such Parish or Township, and usually acting for the District or Division within which such Parish or Township shall be situate, Six Days at the least before such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden as aforesaid; nor unless such Notice shall be subscribed by Seven Persons at the least, being Householders usually resident within the Parish or Township (as the Case may be) where such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden; nor unless the respective Places of Abode and Descriptions of such Persons be inserted in such Notice.

Justice may alter Time and Place of Meeting; and notify the same in Writing.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace to whom any such Notice as aforesaid shall be delivered, to alter the Time and Place, or either of them, mentioned in such Notice for holding any such proposed Meeting, and to fix any other convenient Time, being not more than Four Days from and after the Day proposed in the Notice, or any other convenient Place within the Parish or Township for which such Meeting is intended to be held as aforesaid; and in every such Case the said Justice of the Peace shall notify in Writing every such Alteration, and either give such Notification to the Person who shall deliver the Notice, or leave such Notification at any time within Two Days after the Delivery to the said Justice of such Notice as aforesaid, at the Place of Abode specified in such Notice of any one of the Seven Persons subscribing the same; and the said Meeting, if held, shall not in any such Case be held on any other Time, or at any other Place, than shall be so fixed by the said Justice of the Peace.

No Adjournments of Meetings, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to adjourn any Meeting that shall be holden at any Time or Place mentioned in any such Notice, or so altered as aforesaid to any subsequent Time, or to any other Place than shall have been so mentioned in such Notice, or so altered as aforesaid; and that every Meeting which shall be holden by way of or under pretence of being an adjourned Meeting, at any other Time or Place than the Time or Place mentioned in such Notice, or so altered as aforesaid, for the Purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating upon any Public Grievance, or upon any Matter or Thing relating to any Trade, Manufacture, Business or Profession, or upon any Matter in Church or State, or of considering, proposing or agreeing to any Petition, Complaint, Remonstrance, Declaration, Resolution or Address, upon the Subject thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be an unlawful Assembly.

No Persons (except Justices, &c.) to attend Meetings, unless Freeholders of the County, or

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Person (other than and except Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Constables or other Peace Officers or other Persons acting under their Authority, or in their Aid or Assistance) shall attend any Meeting whatever exceeding the Number of Fifty Persons, which shall be holden for the Purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating upon any Public Grievance,

XV. And be it further enacted, That if the Persons assembled at any Meeting or Assembly held contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or which shall become and be an unlawful Assembly, under the Provisions of this Act, or any of them, shall happen to be killed, maimed or hurt, in the dispersing or endeavouring to disperse, or arresting or apprehending or detaining them, or any of them, or in the endeavouring so to do, by reason of their resisting the Persons so dispersing, seizing or apprehending, or endeavouring to disperse, seize or apprehend them, that every such Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, Head Officer, Magistrate, High or Petty Constable or other Peace Officer, and all and singular Persons being aiding and assisting to them, or any of them, shall be free, discharged and indemnified, as well against the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Person and Persons, of, for or concerning the killing, maiming or hurting of any such Person or Persons so continuing together as aforesaid, that shall happen to be so killed, maimed or hurt as aforesaid.

Justices, &c. indemnified in case of Persons being killed or maimed.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Meeting or Assembly which shall be wholly holden in any Room or Apartment of any House or Building; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso for Meetings held in private Rooms;

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Meeting held in any County, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place, returning any Member to serve in Parliament, after the issuing and before the Return of any Writ for the Election of any Member to serve in Parliament for such County, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place.

and for Meetings for returning Members to Parliament.

XVIII. And be it further declared and enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to attend, proceed to or be present at any Meeting whatsoever, which shall be holden for the Purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating upon, or proceeding to deliberate upon any Public Grievance, or upon any Matter or Thing relating to any Trade, Manufacture, Business or Profession, or upon any Matter in Church or State, or of considering, proposing or agreeing to any Petition, Complaint, Remonstrance, Declaration, Resolution or Address, on the Subject thereof, armed with any Gun, Pistol, Sword, Dagger, Pike, Bludgeon or other offensive Weapon; and that every Person who shall offend in the Premises, shall,

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriffs Depute and their Substitutes, Stewards Depute and their Substitutes, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates of Royal Burghs, and all other inferior Judges and Magistrates, and also all High and Petty Constables, or other Peace Officers of any County, Stewartry, City or Town, within that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, shall have such and the same Powers and Authorities for putting this present Act in Execution within Scotland, as the Justices of the Peace, and Peace Officers and Constables aforesaid, respectively have, by virtue of this Act, within and for other Parts of the United Kingdom.

Justices at Sessions may subdivide large Parishes and Townships for the Purposes of this Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, assembled at any Quarter or General Sessions of the Peace, in any case in which they shall deem it expedient for the Purpose of preventing tumultuous Meetings, to divide any Parish or Township within their Jurisdiction, having a Population exceeding, in the Judgment of the said Justices, Twenty thousand Inhabitants, into Two or more Divisions, for all the Purposes of this Act, and to assign the Boundaries of such Divisions; and that a Registry of such Divisions so made, specifying and describing the Boundaries so assigned, shall be entered with the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division within which such Parish or Township is situate, and a Duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or to the Minister and Elders, or to the Kirk Session of the Parish or Township so divided, to be by them preserved and kept with the Books of such Parish or Township, and Copies thereof shall be put up, and from time to time (in case of the Removal) replaced upon the Doors of the Church of such Parish or Township; and when any such Parish or Township shall be so divided, each of such separate Divisions shall, for all the Purposes of this Act, be deemed a separate Parish or Township; and all the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to any Assemblies or Meetings in Parishes or Townships, shall apply and be enforced, as to all such separate Division of Parishes or Townships, as fully and effectually as if the same were severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in relation thereto: Provided always, that no such Division shall contain a Population, which in the Judgment of the said Justices shall consist of less than Ten thousand Persons.

Proviso as to Population.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Extraparochial Place shall be deemed and taken to be a Parish or Township, for all the Purposes of this Act; and all the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to any Assemblies or Meetings in Parishes or Townships, shall apply and be enforced as to all Extraparochial Places, as fully and effectually as if the same were severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in relation thereto.

Extraparochial Places to be deemed Parishes for the Purposes of this Act.

XXIII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectually preventing Seditious Meetings and Assemblies, certain Regulations are enacted in relation to Meetings in the City or Liberties of Westminster, or County of Middlesex, which might prevent any Meeting under the Provisions of this Act in the Parishes of Saint John and Saint Margaret Westminster; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to hold any Meetings in such Parishes respectively, which may be held under the Provisions of this Act, within the Distance of One Mile from the Gate of Westminster Hall, provided that the same shall not be held in Old or New Palace Yard at any time during the Sitting of Parliament; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of 57 G. 3. c. 19. § 23. Proviso for Meetings in certain Parishes in Westminster, within One Mile of Westminster Hall Gate.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to render lawful any Notice, or any Assembly or Meeting, or any Act or Thing which may be done at any Assembly or Meeting in pursuance of any such Notice, or the Attendance of any Person or Persons, which Notice, Assembly, Meeting, Act or Attendance, would have been contrary to Law if this Act had not been made.

Act not to legalise Notices, Meetings, &c. now contrary to Law.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent any Prosecution by Indictment or otherwise, for any thing which may be an Offence within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and which might have been so prosecuted if this Act had not been made, unless the Offender shall have been prosecuted for such Offence under this Act, and convicted or acquitted of such Offence.

Proviso for Prosecutions otherwise than under this Act.

XXVI. And Whereas it is expedient that Houses and Places used for the Purpose of publicly delivering Lectures, or of holding Debates, should be regulated; Be it therefore enacted, That every House, Room, Field or other Place, at or in which any Person shall publicly read, or at or in which any Lecture or Discourse shall be publicly delivered, or any public Debate shall be had, on any Subject whatever, for the Purpose of raising or collecting Money, or any other valuable Thing, from the Persons admitted, or to which any Person shall be admitted by Payment of Places for Lectures or Debates, unless previously licensed, deemed to be disorderly Places; and Persons punishable for paying or receiving Money.

Money, or by any Ticket or Token of any kind delivered in consideration of Money, or any other valuable Thing, or in consequence of paying or giving, or having paid or given, or having agreed to pay or give, in any manner, any Money or other valuable Thing, or where any Money or other valuable Thing shall be received from any Person admitted, either under Pretence of paying for any Refreshment or other Thing, or under any other Pretence, or for any other Cause, or by means of any Device or Contrivance whatever, shall be deemed a disorderly House or Place, unless the same shall have been previously licensed in manner herein-after mentioned; and the Person by whom such House, Room, Field or Place shall be opened or used, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every Day or Time that such House, Room, Field or Place shall be opened or used as aforesaid, to such Person as will sue for the same, and be otherwise punished as the Law directs in Cases of disorderly Houses; and every Person managing or conducting the Proceedings, or acting as Moderator, President or Chairman, at such House, Room, Field or Place, so opened or used as aforesaid, or therein debating, publicly reading or delivering any Discourse or Lecture; and also every Person who shall pay, give, collect or receive, or agree to pay, give or receive, any Money or Thing for or in respect of the Admission of any Person into any such House, Room, Field or Place, or shall deliver out, distribute or receive any such Ticket or Tickets, or Token or Tokens as aforesaid, knowing such House, Room, Field or Place to be opened or used for any such Purpose as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Collecting or giving Money for Admission;

Penalty 20l.

Persons acting as Masters of such Places liable to Prosecution.

Magistrates may demand Admission to unlicensed Places:

Refusing Admission, Penalty, 20l.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall at any time hereafter appear, act or behave him or herself as Master or Mistress, or as the Person having the Command, Government, or Management of any such House, Room, Field or Place as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be a Person by whom the same is opened or used as aforesaid, and shall be liable to be sued or prosecuted, and punished as such, notwithstanding he or she be not in fact the real Owner or Occupier thereof.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place, who shall by Information upon Oath have Reason to suspect that any House, Room, Field or Place, or any Parts or Part thereof, are or is opened or used for the Purpose of publicly reading or delivering Lectures or Discourses, or for public Debate, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, to go to such House, Room, Field or Place, and demand to be admitted therein; and in case such Justice or Justices shall be refused Admittance to such House, Room, Field or Place, or any Part thereof, the same shall be deemed a disorderly House or Place within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and all and every the Provisions hereinbefore contained respecting any House, Room, Field or Place hereinbefore declared to be a disorderly House or Place, shall be applied to such House, Room, Field or Place, where such Admittance shall have been refused as aforesaid; and every Person refusing such Admittance shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIX. Pro-

XXIX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place, where any House, Room or other Buildings shall be intended to be opened for any of the Purposes aforesaid, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, at the Quarter or General Sessions of the Peace, or at any Special Session to be held for the particular Purpose, to grant a Licence to any Person or Persons desiring the same to open such House, Room or other Building for the Purpose of delivering, for Money, any such public Reading, Lectures or Discourses as aforesaid, or for the Purpose of holding Debates on any Subjects, the same being clearly expressed in such Licence, for which Licence a Fee of One Shilling and no more shall be paid; and the same shall be in force for the Space of One Year and no longer, or for any less Space of Time therein to be specified; and which Licence it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the same County, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place, at any General Quarter or General Sessions of the Peace, to revoke and declare void and no longer in force, by any Order of such Justices, a Copy whereof shall be delivered to or served upon the Person to whom the said Licence so revoked shall have been granted, or shall be left at the House, Room or Building for which such Licence shall have been granted; and thereupon such Licence shall cease and determine, and be thenceforth utterly void and of no effect.

Two Justices may license Places for Lectures, &c.

Fee for Licence.

Sessions may revoke the same.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town or Place, where any such House, Room or other Building shall be licensed as herein provided, to go to such House, Room or Building so licensed, at the time of any such public Reading or delivering any such Lecture or Discourse, or of holding any Debate therein as aforesaid, or at the Time appointed for any such public Reading, or delivering any such Lecture or Discourse, or of holding any Debate, and demand to be admitted therein; and in case such Justice or Justices shall be refused Admittance to such House, Room or Building, the same shall be deemed, notwithstanding any such Licence as aforesaid, a disorderly House or Place within the Meaning of this Act, and all and every the Provisions hereinbefore contained respecting any House, Room, Field or Place hereinbefore declared to be a disorderly House or Place, shall be applied to such House, Room or Building so licensed as aforesaid, where such Admittance shall have been refused as aforesaid; and every Person refusing such Admittance shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same.

Justices may inspect licensed Places:

Refusing Admittance,

Penalty 20l.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Lecture or Discourses to be delivered in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom, by any Member thereof, or any Person authorised by the Chancellor, Vice Chancellor or other proper Officers of such Universities respectively; or to any public Reading or Lecture or Discourse, to be delivered in the Public Hall of any of the Inns of Court or Chancery, by any Person authorised by the Benchers of the Inns of Court; or by the Professors

XXXII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace, acting for any County, Stewartry, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, upon Evidence on Oath that any House, Room or Place, so licensed and opened as aforesaid, is commonly used for the Purpose of public reading or delivering Lectures or Discourses of a seditious, irreligious or immoral Tendency, to adjudge and declare the Licence for opening the same to have been forfeited; and such Licence shall thereupon cease and determine, and shall thenceforth be utterly void and of no effect.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all or any of the pecuniary Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, incurred under this Act in that Part of Great Britain called England, or in Ireland, may be recovered by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster and Dublin respectively, and in Scotland in the Court of Session there; and it shall be sufficient to declare in that Part of Great Britain called England, and in Ireland, or conclude in Scotland, that the Defendant or Defender is indebted to the Plaintiff or Pursuer in the Sum of (being the Sum demanded by the said Action), being forfeited by an Act made in the Sixtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act [here insert the Title of this Act]; and the Plaintiff or Pursuer, if he shall recover in such Action, shall have his full Costs or Expences; and any pecuniary Penalty imposed by this Act, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and for the Recovery whereof no Provision is hereinbefore contained, shall and may be recovered before any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Stewartry, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, in which the same shall be incurred, or the Person having incurred the same shall happen to be, in a summary Way; and in case such last mentioned Penalty shall not be forthwith paid, such Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, and directed to any Constable or other Peace Officer, cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and in case no sufficient Distress can be had or made, such Justice or Justices shall commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for such County, Stewartry, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town or Place, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, nor less than Three Calendar Months: Provided always, that no Person shall be prosecuted or sued for any pecuniary Penalty imposed by this Act, unless such Prosecution shall be commenced, or such Action shall be brought, within Three Calendar Months next after such Penalty shall have been incurred.

Limitation of Prosecutions for Penalties.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall, when recovered, either by Action in any Court, or in a summary Way before any Justice, be applied and disposed of in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, One Moiety thereof to the Plaintiff in any such Action, or to the Informer before any Justice, and the other Moiety thereof to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

Application of Penalties.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Justice or Justices of the Peace by or before whom any Offender shall be convicted under this Act, shall cause the said Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the like effect, mutatis mutandis; that is to say,

Form of Conviction.

‘ BE it remembered, That on this _____ Day of _____ _____ in the _____ Year of the Reign of _____ _____, A. B. of _____ is duly convicted

An Act to amend an Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland.

[24th December 1819.]

42 G. 3. c. 106.
n. 4.

‘ WHEREAS by virtue of the Regulations of an Act passed ‘ in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present ‘ Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Trial of controverted ‘ Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the United Par- ‘ liament for Ireland, certain Commissioners may be appointed ‘ for the Purposes of examining all such Matters and Things as ‘ shall be referred to them by a select Committee appointed to ‘ try and determine the Merits of any Petition complaining of an ‘ undue Election or Return of a Member or Members to serve ‘ in

' in the United Parliament for Ireland: And Whereas the said
 ' Commissioners are by the said Act directed to transmit a Copy ' of the Minutes of their Proceedings to the Speaker of the ' House of Commons, within Ten Days after the Evidence before
 ' them shall be closed: And Whereas the said Speaker is directed s. 23.
 ' by the said Act, within Two Days after he shall have received
 ' such Copy, to insert in the London Gazette a Warrant signed
 ' by him, directing the Select Committee on the Petition in ' question to reassemble and meet again within the Space of One ' Month from the Date of such Warrant, provided Parliament
 ' shall then be sitting: And Whereas, under the Provisions of the s. 26.
 ' said Act, the Day which may be so appointed may happen to ' be at a Time when the House of Commons may be adjourned:
 ' And Whereas it would be inconvenient that such Committee
 ' should reassemble and meet when the said House may be so
 ' adjourned: In order to remedy such Inconvenience, Be it
 ' enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if the Speaker of the House of Commons shall receive a Copy of such Proceedings when the House of Commons shall be adjourned for a longer Period than One Month from the Day on which the said Speaker is directed to insert in the London Gazette his Warrant for the reassembling and meeting of any such Committee, that then and in such Case the said Speaker shall, in such Warrant, direct such Committee to reassemble and meet within One Month next after the Day to which the House may be adjourned; and if the said Speaker shall have directed the Committee to meet on any Day, and if the House of Commons shall subsequently adjourn to a Day beyond the Day so appointed for the reassembling and meeting of such Committee, that then and in such Case the said Speaker shall insert another Warrant in the next London Gazette after such Adjournment, directing such Committee to reassemble and meet within One Month next after the Day to which the said House may be adjourned, instead of on the Day first appointed, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act.

The Speaker, on receiving a Copy of Proceedings, to direct the Committee to meet within a limited Time after the Time to which the House may be adjourned.

' II. And Whereas it may be found impracticable, in some ' Instances, on account of the Quantity of Evidence taken before
 ' such Commissioners, for such Commissioners to transmit a Copy
 ' of the Minutes of their Proceedings to the Speaker of the ' House of Commons within Ten Days after the Evidence before
 ' them shall be closed; Be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, in such Cases, transmit such Copy with all convenient Dispatch, and at the same time assign the Reasons for such Delay; which Reasons the Select Committee upon the Petition in question are hereby directed to investigate, and report their Opinion thereupon to the House, at the time they make their Report on the Merits of such Petition.

Commissioners to transmit Copy of Minutes of Proceedings to the Speaker, assigning Reasons for Delay, which Committee may investigate.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to subject any Person publishing any Pamphlet or Paper to any Penalty for any Allowance in Price made by the Person for whom and on whose behalf, and for whose Profit, Benefit or Advantage, the same shall have been first published, to any Bookseller or Distributor, or other Person to whom the same shall be sold for the Purpose of retailing the same.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Pamphlets and Papers which are by this Act declared to be subject to the Stamp Duties upon Newspapers, shall be freed and discharged from all the Stamp Duties and Regulations contained in any Act of Parliament relating to Pamphlets.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person, from and after Thirty Days after the passing of this Act, shall print or publish for Sale any Newspaper, or any Pamphlet or other Paper containing any Public News, Intelligence or Occurrences, or any Remarks or Observations thereon, or upon any Matter in Church or State, which shall not exceed Two Sheets, or which shall be published for Sale at a less Price than Sixpence, until he or she shall have entered into a Recognisance before a Baron of the Exchequer, in England, Scotland or Ireland respectively, as the Case may be, if such Newspaper or Pamphlet, or other Paper aforesaid, shall be printed in London or Westminster, or in Edinburgh or Dublin, or shall have executed in the Presence of, and delivered to some Justice of the Peace for the County, City or Place where such Newspaper, Pamphlet or other Paper shall be printed; if printed elsewhere, a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, together with Two or Three sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Baron of the Exchequer taking such Recognisance, or of the Justice of the Peace taking such Bond, every Person printing or publishing any such Newspaper or Pamphlet or Paper aforesaid, in the Sum of Three hundred Pounds, if such Newspaper, Pamphlet or Paper shall be printed in London or within Twenty Miles thereof, and in the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, if such Newspaper, Pamphlet or Paper shall be printed elsewhere in the United Kingdom, and his or her Sureties in a like Sum in the whole, conditioned that such Printer or Publisher shall pay to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, every such Fine or Penalty as may at any Time be imposed upon or adjudged against him or her, by reason of any Conviction for printing or publishing any blasphemous or seditious Libel, at any Time after the entering into such Recognisance or executing such Bond; and that every Person who shall print or first publish any such Newspaper, Pamphlet or other Paper, without having entered into such Recognisance, or executed and delivered such Bond with such Sureties as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case in which any Surety or Sureties in any such Recognisance or Bond shall have been required to pay and shall have paid the whole or any Part of the Sum for which he, she or they shall have become Surety; or in case any such Surety or Sureties shall become Bankrupt, or be discharged under any Insolvent Act; then then and in every such Case the Person for whom such Surety or Sureties shall have been bound, shall not print or publish any Newspaper or Pamphlet, or other Paper aforesaid, until he or she shall, upon being required so to do by the Commissioners of Stamps for Great Britain and Ireland respectively, have entered into a new Recognisance, or executed a new Bond, with sufficient Sureties, in the Manner and to the Amount aforesaid; and in case he or she shall print or publish any such Newspaper or Pamphlet, or other Paper aforesaid, without having entered into such new Recognisance, or executed such new Bond as aforesaid, having been required so to do as aforesaid, he or she shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Recognisance or Bond with Sureties to be given.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Surety or Sureties shall be desirous of withdrawing from such Recognisance or Bond, it shall and may be lawful to and for him or them so to do, upon giving Twenty Days previous Notice in Writing to the said Commissioners of Stamps respectively, or to the Distributor of Stamps of and for the District where the Printer or Publisher for whom he or they is or are Surety or Sureties shall reside, and also to such Printer or Publisher; and that in any such Case, every such Surety or Sureties, from and after the Expiration of such Notice, shall not be liable upon the said Bond or Recognisance, other than and except for any Penalty or Penalties before that Time imposed or incurred, and for which he or they would otherwise have been liable under the said Recognisance or Bond; and that then and in every such Case, the Person for whom such Surety or Sureties shall have been bound, shall not print or publish any Newspaper or Pamphlet, or other Paper aforesaid, until he or she shall have entered into a new Recognisance, or executed a new Bond, with sufficient Sureties, in the Manner and to the Amount aforesaid; and in case he or she shall print or publish any such Newspaper or Pamphlet, or other Paper aforesaid, without having entered into such new Recognisance or Bond as aforesaid, he or she shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty 20l. Sureties may withdraw from Recognisance (Exception) upon giving Notice.

New Recognisance to be entered into.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Bond as aforesaid shall be subject or liable to any Stamp Duty; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty 20l. Bonds free from Stamp Duty.

XII. And be it further enacted, That Lists of all the Recognisances which shall have been entered into in the respective Courts of Exchequer in England, Scotland or Ireland, shall, Four Times in each Year, be transmitted to the Commissioners managing the Stamp Duties in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, as the Case may be, by the respective Officers recording such Recognisances in such respective Courts; and all Bonds executed under the Provisions of this Act shall, within Ten Days at the furthest after the Execution thereof, be transmitted to the said Commissioners respectively, by the Justices of the Peace to whom the same shall have been respectively delivered.

Lists of Recognisances, &c. transmitted to Commissioners of Stamps in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively.

XIII. And Whereas the Printer or Publisher of any Newspaper, and of any Pamphlet and Paper hereby enacted to be deemed and taken to be a Newspaper, will, after the passing of this Act, be bound, under and by virtue of the Provisions

Recognisance,
in case of Libel,

‘ contained in the said Acts made and passed in the Thirty eighth ‘ and Fifty fifth Years of His Majesty’s Reign respectively, to ‘ deliver to the Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain and ‘ Ireland respectively, or some Distributor of Stamps or other ‘ Officer, on the Day on which the same is published, or within a ‘ certain Time afterwards, One of the Newspapers, Pamphlets or ‘ Papers so published, signed as in the said Acts is respectively ‘ directed: And Whereas it is expedient that the same or similar ‘ Provisions and Regulations should extend and be applied to all ‘ Pamphlets and Papers, whether published periodically or not,
‘ and which shall contain any Public News, Intelligence or Oc‘ currence, or any Remarks or Observations thereon, or upon any ‘ Matter in Church or State, and which shall not exceed Two ‘ Sheets as aforesaid, or which shall be published for Sale at a less ‘ Price than Sixpence;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and ‘ after Ten Days after the passing of this Act, the Printer or Pub‘ lisher of any Pamphlet or other Paper for Sale, containing any ‘ Public News, Intelligence or Occurrences, or any Remarks or ‘ Observations thereon, or on any Matter in Church or State, shall, ‘ upon every Day upon which the same shall be published, or within ‘ Six Days after, deliver to the Commissioners of Stamps for Great ‘ Britain and Ireland respectively, at their Head Offices, or to some ‘ Distributor or Officer to be appointed by them to receive the ‘ same, and whom they are hereby required to appoint for that Pur‘ pose, One of the Pamphlets or Papers so published upon each such ‘ Day, signed by the Printer or Publisher thereof, in his Hand‘ writing, with his Name and Place of Abode; and the same shall ‘ be carefully kept by the said Commissioners, or such Distributor
‘ or Officer as aforesaid, in such manner as the said Commissioners ‘ shall direct; and such Printer or Publisher shall be entitled to de‘ mand and receive from the Commissioners, or such Distributor or ‘ Officer, the Amount of the Retail Price of such Pamphlet or ‘ Paper so delivered; and in every Case in which the Printer and ‘ Publisher of such Pamphlet or Paper shall neglect to deliver One ‘ such Pamphlet or Paper in the manner hereinbefore directed,
‘ such Printer and Publisher shall, for every such Neglect respec‘ tively, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the said Commissioners, or such Distributor or Officer aforesaid, shall refuse to receive or pay for any Copy of such Pamphlet or Paper offered to be delivered to them or him as aforesaid, for or on account of the same not being within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Commissioners, Distributor or Officer shall, if required so to do, give and deliver to such Printer or Publisher a Certificate in Writing that a Copy of such Pamphlet or Paper had been by him duly offered to be delivered; and such Printer or Publisher shall thereupon be freed and discharged from any Penalty for not having delivered such Copy as aforesaid.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall sell or expose to Sale any Pamphlet or other Paper not being duly stamped, if required to be stamped, such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XVI. And be it declared and enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin

or of Great Session in Wales, or any Judge thereof respectively, or for any Court of Quarter or General Sessions of the Peace, or for any Justice of the Peace before whom any Person charged with having printed or published any blasphemous, seditious or malicious Libel, shall be brought for the purpose of giving Bail upon such Charge, to make it a Part of the Condition of the Recognisance to be entered into by such Person and his or her Bail, that the Person so charged shall be of good Behaviour during the Continuance of such Recognisance.

to be of good Behaviour, as well as to appear to answer.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or in the Court of Session or Court of Exchequer in Scotland (as the Case shall require), wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law or more than One Impar lance shall be allowed; or before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City or Place where the Offence shall be committed: Provided always, that no larger Amount in the Whole than One hundred Pounds shall be recoverable or recovered before any Justices of the Peace, for any such Penalties incurred in any one Day; any thing in this Act or any other Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recovery of Penalties.

Proviso as to Amount.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace, in all Cases in which they are authorised to hear and determine any Offence or Offences which shall be committed against this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament which are by this Act required to be construed therewith as Part thereof, upon Information exhibited or Complaint made in that behalf, within Three Months after any such Offence committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side; and upon the Appearance, or Contempt of the Party accused in not appearing, to proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer), and to give Judgment for the Penalty or Penalties incurred; and in case the Party shall not immediately pay the said Penalty or Penalties, to commit the Offender to Prison, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Six Months, unless such pecuniary Penalty or Penalties shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any Party shall find himself or herself aggrieved by the Judgment of any such Justices, then he, she or they may, upon giving Security to the Amount or Value of the Penalty or Penalties adjudged, together with such Costs as may be awarded in case such Judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next Quarter or General Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division or Place wherein such Offence shall be committed, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order the Person or Persons making such Appeal, to pay such Costs occasioned by such Appeal, as to them shall seem meet: Provided nevertheless,

Two Justices may determine Offences:

Examination upon Oath.

Party not paying Penalty; Imprisonment.

Appeal upon Security.

Justices may mitigate Penalties; allowing Costs.

that it shall and may be lawful for the said respective Justices, where they shall see Cause, to mitigate or lessen any such Penalty or Penalties, in such manner as they in their Discretion shall think fit; the reasonable Costs and Charges of the Officers or Informers being always allowed over and above such Mitigation; and so as such Mitigation does not reduce the Penalty to less than One fourth Part thereof; over and above the said Costs and Charges.

Persons summoned as Witnesses not appearing, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers, at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or other Place, and he and they is and are hereby required, to erect a Booth or hire a Building, unless there shall already be some fit and convenient Place for the Purpose, wherein he or they may and shall decide all the disputed Questions, and all the Objections to Votes, that may be referred to him or them, and which Booth or Building or other Place shall be separate from and exclusive of the Number of Booths or Buildings, or other Places necessary for the polling of the Electors; and such Returning Officer or Officers is and are hereby required to give his or their constant Attendance in such separate Booth, Building or other Place, during the entire Number of Hours that the Polling shall continue each Day, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding, and to proceed without suffering any Delay or Interruption to take place in deciding all disputed Questions, and all the Objections to Votes, which shall be referred to him or them from the Polling Booths; and that the Returning Officer or Officers at any Election for any City or Borough is and are hereby required and empowered to appoint a Deputy or Deputies, to take the Poll at any such Election; and that the Returning Officer's Deputy, in each Place of polling, shall appoint such One Person for each Candidate, as shall be nominated to him by each Candidate, to be an Inspector of the Clerk who shall be appointed for taking the Poll and the Agent of such Candidate in each Place of polling; and such One other Person for each Candidate as shall be nominated by each Candidate, to be a Clerk for keeping a Cheque Book of the Poll Book in each Place of polling.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace, at every Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, County of a Town or County of a City, shall appoint, or in failure thereof the Returning Officer or Officers shall appoint, a Deputy Clerk of the Peace, and likewise an Assistant to such Deputy, to be present in each Place of polling, who shall take with him into such Place of polling the Registry Book belonging to the Barony or Half Barony, or County of a Town or County of a City, to be polled in such Place of polling, and all the original Affidavits or Affirmations which have been made by the Persons capable of voting in such Place of polling respectively, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; which Affidavits or Affirmations the Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to have arranged alphabetically in separate Parcels (One or more for each Letter of the Alphabet), and endorsed with the Names of the Persons by whom the same were respectively made, and also with the Number of the Entry of each Affidavit or Affirmation in the Registry Book; and that in those Cases wherein a Certificate of Registry shall not be produced by the Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, such Deputy shall on the Demand of the Returning Officer's Deputy, produce the original Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of such Person; and that such Deputy Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Ten Shillings and no more for each Day of his Attendance, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and such Assistant to such Deputy shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Five Shillings for each Day of his Attendance; and that if such Deputy, or such Assistant to such Deputy, shall alter, deface, destroy or lose any Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry committed to his Care, he shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Offence, to any Person suing for the same, by Action of Debt, at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace.

Fees for Attendance of Deputy and Assistant.

Altering, &c. Affidavit, &c. Penalty 10L.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers at any Election, and he or they is and are hereby required, on the Demand in Writing of any Candidate, to appoint a sufficient Number of competent Persons to act as Interpreters, in order to translate faithfully such Oaths, Affirmations, and such Questions and Answers, as are required to be taken, made, asked or given, at any Election; and that every such Interpreter shall immediately after such Appointment, and before he shall proceed to act under such Appointment, take the following Oath; and every Returning Officer is hereby required and empowered to administer the same:

On Demand of Candidates, Returning Officer shall appoint Interpreter.

' I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully interpret such Oaths, Affirmations, Questions and Answers, as I shall be directed to interpret by the Returning Officer or Officers and his or their Deputy or Deputies [as the Case may be].'

Oath to Interpreters:

And that every such Person so appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Ten Shillings for each Day of his Attendance.

Allowance to them.

X. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Person shall tender his Vote or offer to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County, or a County of a Town or a County of a City, by virtue of a Freehold, the Returning Officer's Deputy shall, in the First Place, refer to the Entry of the Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of the same in the Registry Book, and write down, opposite to the same, the Initial Letters of his Name; and then he shall refer to the Certificate or Affidavit of the Registry of the same; and that if any such Person shall produce a Certificate of the Registry of his Freehold, corresponding with such Entry of the original Affidavit or Affirmation, without any Erasure or Interlineation therein, signed in open Court by Two Justices, and countersigned by the acting Clerk of the Peace, in such manner as is directed by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, and for repealing the several Acts therein mentioned, or signed in such manner as is directed by this Act, or any other Act, when the Freehold is situated in a County of a Town or a County of a City, such Certificate shall, without further Proof, be deemed of equal Authenticity with the original Oath or Affirmation, and conclusive Evidence that such Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, had registered such Freehold; and the Returning Officer's Deputy shall write

Deputy of Returning Officer to refer to Registry Book, and Certificate of Registry in what Case deemed conclusive Evidence.

write down the Initials of his Name upon the Margin of such Certificate; and that in all Cases wherein no such Certificate shall be produced by the Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, or wherein such Certificate, if produced, shall appear to the Returning Officer's Deputy not to be in Manner and Form as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer's Deputy, and he is hereby required, to direct the Deputy Clerk of the Peace to produce the original Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of the Freehold of such Person so tendering his Vote or offering to poll.

XI. And be it further enacted, That at any Election for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or other Place, the Returning Officer's Deputy shall, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, in Person administer, in the Place of polling in which he presides, an Oath in the following Form, to every Person separately, who shall tender his Vote or offer to poll at such Election, and immediately after the Production of the Certificate or Affidavit of Registry, when any such Person votes by virtue of a Freehold; that is to say,

Form of Oath.

' I A. B. do swear [or, being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm,] That I will true Answer make to all such Questions as the Sheriff's or other Returning Officer's Deputy [as the Case may be] presiding in this Booth shall demand of me; and I do also swear, [or, being One of the People called Quakers or Moravians, do solemnly affirm,] that I have not polled before at this Election; and that I am, as I believe, Twenty one Years of Age.
So help me GOD.'

And that immediately after any Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County, or a County of a Town or a County of a City, shall have taken such Oath or Affirmation, the Returning Officer's Deputy shall, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, put the following Questions, and no others, without allowing any Person to interrupt him, to every such Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the Poll Clerk shall forthwith write down the Entries on the Poll Book that he is hereinafter required to make according to the Answers which every such Person shall give to the said Questions; and that if any of the said Questions shall not be required to be put, then according to the Entry of the Voter's Registry in the Registry Book:

And Examination put by him.

Forms of Examination of each Voter, and Proceedings thereon.

1. What is your Name?
2. Where do you reside?
3. Do you swear that you are possessed of a Freehold in the County of [naming the County, or County of a Town or County of a City for which the Election is held]?
4. Where is it situated?

And that the Returning Officer's Deputy shall then, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, refer to the Certificate of Registry, if one be produced by the Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, or if none be produced, to the original Affidavit of Registry, and then shall immediately ask, if

if required by any Candidate or by the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, without making or allowing any other Person to make any Comments or Observations upon the said Certificate or Affidavit, the following Question :

5. Is the Freehold described in this Certificate, or Affidavit of Registry [as the Case may be], the same Freehold which you now swear you are possessed of, and by virtue of which you now offer to vote?

And that in case it shall appear to the Returning Officer's Deputy, from the Certificate or Affidavit of Registry, that any Person shall tender his Vote, or offer to poll, in respect of a Freehold of the Value of Forty Shillings only, the said Deputy shall then, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, put the following Questions :

6. Do you swear, that you have been in the actual Occupation of this Freehold, as described in your Certificate or Affidavit of Registry [as the Case may be], by tilling it, or by grazing it, or by residing upon it, during the whole of the last Twelve Months?
7. Do you swear, that this Freehold is now of the clear yearly Value of Forty Shillings, above all Charges payable out of the same?

And that whenever the Entry of the Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of any such Person shall appear in the Registry Book; and that any such Person shall have produced such a Certificate of Registry as is hereinbefore described; or that the original Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry shall have been produced by the Deputy Clerk of the Peace; and that any such Person so tendering his Vote or offering to poll shall have taken the Oath required as aforesaid, and shall have answered the Questions that shall have been demanded of him as aforesaid, such Deputy shall then ask him the following Question :

8. For whom do you vote?

And that his Vote shall be entered on the Poll Book according to his Answer, unless an Objection be made thereto by an Inspector of one of the Candidates appointed in the manner hereinbefore directed; and that if it shall appear to such Deputy, from the Answers which shall be given by any Person to the first Four Questions aforesaid, that his Freehold arises from a Rectory, Vicarage, Curacy or other Ecclesiastical Preferment, the said Deputy shall forthwith proceed to ask him, "For whom do you vote?" and his Vote shall be entered on the Poll Book according to his Reply, unless an Objection be made thereto by an Inspector of one of the Candidates, appointed in the manner hereinbefore directed: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer's Deputy to take the Vote of any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, whose Freehold appears on the Registry Book, without referring to the Certificate, or Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry, or without administering any Oath or putting any Question to such Person, except the Question, "For whom do you vote?" if he be not required by any Candidate or any Inspector of any Candidate so to do; and provided always, that if an Entry of the Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of the Freehold of any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, required by Law to be registered, shall not appear in the Registry Book, or that if any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll shall not, either produce such a Certificate of Registry as is herein-before described, or be able to refer to an original Affidavit or Affirmation of his Registry in the Possession of the Deputy Clerk of the Peace, or that if any such Person shall refuse to take the Oath aforesaid, or shall not give a direct Answer to each of the Questions to be put to him by the Returning Officer's Deputy, or that the Person so examined shall admit in his Answer or Answers to said Question or Questions, that he is not the Person whose Freehold is registered, or that he has no Freehold, or that the Freehold described in his Certificate, or Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry (as the Case may be) is not the Freehold for which he tenders his Vote, or that he has not been in the Occupation thereof for the whole of the last Twelve Months, or that the same is not at the Time of tendering his Vote of the Value of Forty Shillings above all Charges payable out of the same, then and in every or in any such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Deputy, and he is hereby required, authorised and empowered, to direct such Person to withdraw from the Place of polling, and to proceed immediately to receive the Vote of the next Person who shall tender his Vote or offer to poll.

Electors answering directly, shall then poll, if not objected to.

Where a Vote is objected to, a Memorandum of the Objection to be made by the Poll Clerk for the Returning Officer to decide.

Proceedings thereon.

XII. And be it further enacted, That at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or other Place, no Objection shall be made to a Vote until after the Person tendering the same shall have declared for whom he votes; and that if the Vote of any Person shall be then objected to by an Inspector of any Candidate, the Poll shall not be on that account delayed, but the Returning Officer's Deputy shall direct the Poll Clerk to enter a Memorandum on the Poll Books, shewing to which Candidate or Candidates such Person has given his Vote; and he shall immediately proceed to receive the Vote of the next Person who shall tender his Vote or offer to poll; and that the Inspector who shall have made the Objection on behalf of any Candidate shall instantly write down a Memorandum, on a printed Form to be provided by the Returning Officer, containing the Name of the Voter, the Place of his Abode, and the Nature of the Objection or Objections, and sign and date the same, and shall give the same to the Returning Officer's Deputy, who shall sign the same with the Initial Letters of his Name, and then give the same to the Assistant Deputy Clerk of the Peace, who shall take the same, together with the Certificate, or Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry, if it shall be necessary so to do, to the Returning Officer, to decide on the Validity thereof; and that it shall thereupon be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, at the Discretion of such Returning Officer or Officers, and his or their Assessor only, to order the Voter to attend before him or them during the Inquiry into his Vote; and for such Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, to examine such Voter, by such Questions as such Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, shall think necessary to ask,

as to any Objection or Objections made to his Vote; and such Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, shall administer an Oath to such Voter in the Form following:

‘ I A. B. do swear [or, being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm], That I will true Answers make to all such Questions as shall be here put to me by the Returning Officer or Officers, or his Assessor [as the Case may be]. So help me GOD.’

Provided

Proviso in respect of frivolous Objections, &c.

Provided always, that in case any Objection be taken to any Vote, which shall not be in Substance different from one previously ruled by the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor; or in case any Objection be taken which shall appear to such Deputy to be frivolous, or taken for the Purpose of Delay, that then in every such Case it shall not be lawful to and for the Deputy to transmit the Memorandum containing such Objection to the Returning Officer or Officers; and that in every such Case such Deputy shall admit the Vote, so objected to, to be entered upon the Poll.

Instructions by Returning Officer to be observed by Deputies.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Returning Officer shall give such Instructions in Writing to his Deputy or Deputies appointed for taking the Poll at any Election, as may be necessary to point out to him or them what is required of him or them to be done in respect of the Objections to Votes which may be made, and in respect of the Manner of transmitting them to such Returning Officer or Officers; and that every such Deputy shall obey such Instructions, and any other Instructions which may be given to him or them by the Returning Officer or Officers in respect of the due Performance of his or their Duty.

Returning Officer alone to examine Voters objected to.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any other Person whatever, other than the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, to ask any Question of any Person who shall be examined by the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, on account of his Vote having been objected to; or for any Person to interfere with or suggest any Question to such Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, respecting the Examination of such Person; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor, at the Discretion of such Returning Officer or Officers, or of his or their Assessor only, to permit a Barrister or Barristers to argue any Question of Law before him or them, on the Evening of any Polling Day after the Poll has been closed; any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Counsel may argue Points of Law.

Deputies not to reject Votes or examine Voters, except as before provided.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Deputy of any Returning Officer to put any Questions to any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County, or a County of a Town or County of a City, save and except those Questions hereinbefore directed to be put, or to make any Comments or Observations on the Answers which may be given to the same; or on any Matter or Thing relating to any Vote which may be tendered before him; and that if any Objection be made to any Vote at any Election for a County, City, Borough or other Place, such Objection shall be forthwith referred by the Returning Officer's Deputy, as hereinbefore directed, to the Returning Officer; and that it shall not be lawful for any such Deputy to investigate the Right of any Person to vote, further or otherwise than as hereinbefore directed, or to reject the Vote of any Person without Reference to the Returning Officer.

Persons not to plead or speak in place of polling during Time of polling.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person, whether Barrister, Attorney, Inspector, Agent, Candidate or Elector, or any other Person whatever, to plead or speak in any Place of polling during the Time of polling, on any Matter

Matter or Thing concerning the polling, or concerning the Refusal of any Returning Officer's Deputy to transmit an Objection to a Vote to the Returning Officer or Officers, as hereinbefore provided for, or to ask any Questions of any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person at any Election to require any Elector to take any Oath or Oaths, of the Nature of a Rent-charger's or Freeholder's Oath, to shew the Possession, Situation, Tenure, Value, or any other Circumstance touching or concerning his Freehold, in order to enable him to vote at such Election, save and except the Oath or Oaths herein required to be taken; any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and that every Returning Officer's Deputy is hereby authorised and empowered to administer to every Elector the Bribery Oath or Affirmation, if required by any Candidate, or by the Inspector of any Candidate, or by any Elector, so to do.

Oaths to be required only as are hereby appointed.

Returning Officer's Deputy may administer Bribery Oath.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be admitted to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County, City, Borough or other Place, who has polled before at such Election, or who has personated another Elector for the Purpose of polling at such Election, or who has polled by virtue of a forged Certificate of Registry, or who has polled by virtue of a Registry of an alleged Freehold under a Lease of Land or Tenements for a Life or Lives, made by a Lessor who had not at the Time of making the same a Freehold Estate therein; or by virtue of a Registry of an alleged Freehold under a Lease of Land or Tenements for a Life or Lives, which Lease is to end and determine on some such Covenant or Condition, that a Freehold Estate has not been demised by the same; it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer or Officers, and they are hereby required, authorised and empowered, upon the Complaint of any Candidate, to take the Vote of such Person off the Poll, at any Time before the final closing of the same: Provided always, that the Act complained of, as having been committed by such Person, be set forth and described, and positively declared to have been committed by such Person, in an Affidavit to be sworn before a Justice of the Peace, and that such Affidavit be delivered to the Returning Officer or Officers; and further, that the Act complained of shall appear to the Returning Officer or Officers, upon a due Examination of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses concerning the same, upon his or their Oaths, to be proved to have been committed by such Person, which Oath or Oaths the Returning Officer or Officers is or are hereby authorised and empowered to administer; and that the Returning Officer or Officers shall examine all such Cases between the Hours of Seven of the Clock and Ten of the Clock of the Afternoon of each Polling Day, except on that Day on which the Poll shall be finally closed, unless all the objected Votes referred to such Returning Officer or Officers by his or their Deputies shall have been decided and disposed of: Provided always, that the Affidavit setting forth every such Complaint, shall be delivered to the Returning Officer or Officers on the same Day on which the Act complained of shall have been committed.

Improper Votes to be taken off the Poll by the Returning Officer, on Complaint of Candidate.

Act complained of to be stated in Affidavit;

and to be proved before Returning Officer, by the Oath of One or more Witness or Witnesses.

Hours for commencing and ending the Poll each Day.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Returning Officer or Officers at every Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or other Place, shall cause the Poll to be kept open in every Place, and on every Day of polling, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning, except on the First Day of polling, until Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, except on the last Day of polling, between the Fifteenth Day of April and the Fifteenth Day of September; and from Nine of the Clock in the Morning, except on the First Day of polling, until Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, except on the last Day of polling, between the Fifteenth Day of September and the Fifteenth Day of April; and that in case any disputed Questions, or any Objections to Votes referred to him or them, by his or their Deputy or Deputies, shall not be decided during the Time for which the Poll shall be so kept open, the Returning Officer or Officers shall give his or their Attendance in his or their own Booth or other Place of Sitting, and proceed to decide the same, from Seven of the Clock to Ten of the Clock of the Afternoon of each Polling Day, except on the last Day of polling.

After the Fourth Day, Returning Officer may close the Poll in any Booth when no more than Twenty have polled in the Day.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer or Officers, at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or other Place, and he and they is and are hereby required, on any Day after the Fourth Day of polling, computing therein the Day on which the Poll shall be commenced, to close finally the Poll in any Booth or Place of polling in which no more than Twenty Persons have polled, or been referred for Decision to the Returning Officer or Officers during that Day: Provided always, that in case it shall appear, upon the Evidence of Two or more credible Witnesses taken upon Oath, and which Oath the Returning Officer or Officers is and are hereby empowered to administer, to the Returning Officer or Officers that any Persons intending to offer themselves to poll in such Booth or Place of polling, have been prevented by Force and Violence from coming to the same for the Purpose of polling on that Day, that then and in every such Case it shall be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers to keep such Booth or Place of polling open for another Day, and so on from Day to Day, if such Force and Violence be repeated, and be found to have taken place on such Evidence as aforesaid, to the Satisfaction of the Returning Officer or Officers.

In what Case kept open for another Day.

Qualification of Deputy Sheriffs upon Oath.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff of a County shall not appoint any Person to act as his Deputy at any Election, unless such Person shall have a Freehold Estate of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds at least, above all Charges; and that such Sheriff shall demand upon Oath of such Person, whether such Person has a Freehold Estate of that Value, at the Time when he shall administer to him the Oath required by Law to be taken by every Sheriff's Deputy.

Returning Officer may summon Constables, Bailiffs, &c. to attend

XXII. And be it further enacted, That at any Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or Town, it shall be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers to summon all Constables, Bailiffs and other Peace Officers, to to attend the Places of polling, and to keep the Peace at such Election, and to perform such other Things as shall be assigned to him by the Returning Officer or Officers, and to appoint any Number of Special Constables that he or they may think proper to aid and assist therein; and that every such Constable, Bailiff or Peace Officer, who shall be so employed, shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Five Shillings for each Day of his Attendance; and that every Constable, Bailiff or Peace Officer, when so summoned, who shall neglect to attend during the whole of such Election, or to obey the lawful Commands of the Returning Officer or Officers, shall forfeit such Office of Constable, Bailiff or other Peace Officer, and all Salary due to him in respect thereof.

Elections, and remunerate them.

Penalty.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, at any Election, and he and they is and are hereby authorised and empowered, to commit all Persons to Gaol, without Bail or Mainprize, who shall plead or speak on any Matter or Thing concerning the polling, or concerning any Objection to a Vote, or concerning the Refusal of any Deputy to transmit an Objection to the Returning Officers or Officer, or put any Question to any Returning Officer, Deputy or Elector, in any Place of polling, or in the Booth or other Place of sitting of the Returning Officer or Officers, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or who shall be found rioting or interrupting the Poll, or wilfully preventing the Approach of Electors to the Place of polling, or who shall be guilty of a Contempt to such Returning Officer or Officers, or to such Deputy or Deputies; provided that the Time of such Imprisonment shall not in any Case exceed Twenty four Hours.

Returning Officer may commit Persons obstructing the Poll, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death or the severe Illness of any Returning Officer, during the Continuance of the Poll at any Election, it shall and may be lawful for the first sworn Deputy, and he is hereby required, under the Penalty of forfeiting Five hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, to proceed with the Poll, and to act in every respect for all the Purposes of the Election, and with all the Power and Authority to do any Act required by Law to be done by a Returning Officer at any Election, as if he had been originally the Returning Officer; and that such Deputy shall take the Oath directed by Law to be taken by the Returning Officer at the Commencement of the Poll, which Oath any Two Justices of the Peace are hereby authorised to administer; and that such Deputy shall proceed with the Poll, and finally close the same at the Time hereinbefore required, and make a Return of the Person or Persons who hath or have the Majority of Votes, unless his Authority shall be superseded by the Recovery of the Returning Officer; and that in case of the Death or the severe Illness of such first sworn Deputy, the next Deputy in Succession shall act as the Returning Officer, subject to the like Penalty, and with the same Powers, and then take the Returning Officer's Oath in manner aforesaid; and so on, each Deputy in Succession shall in like manner act as the Returning Officer in case of the Death or severe Illness of the acting Returning Officer.

In case of Death or Illness of Returning Officer, the first sworn Deputy shall perform the Duty.
Penalty 500L.

Such Deputy to take Oath and proceed, close the Poll and make Return, as before mentioned.

thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that every Clerk of the Peace shall, within One Calendar Month after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and within One Calendar Month after the First Day of January in every succeeding Year, cause to be printed, in the cheapest Manner and by Contract, not less than Fifty nor more than Two hundred Copies of all Entries in the Registry Book of each Barony and Half Barony, County of a Town or County of a City, of all Affidavits or Affirmations of Persons who have registered their Votes within the Year then last past, ending on such First Day of January respectively; and that the Clerk of the Peace of every County shall deliver in each Year One printed Copy of the Registry Books to each Justice of the Peace residing in such County: Provided always, that the Clerk of the Peace shall not suffer the original Registry Books to be out of his Possession, but shall cause Copies of them to be made for the Purpose of printing the same.

Clerk of the Peace to produce such printed Copies at each Spring Assizes, to be delivered to the Clerk of the Crown, and preserved amongst the Records of the County.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County, County of a Town or County of a City, shall produce One of the said printed Copies of the Registry Books of each Barony or Half Barony in such County, or of such County of a Town or County of a City, corrected by him, and certified under his Hand to be correct, to One of His Majesty's Judges of Assize, at the Spring Assizes which shall be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, for any such County; and shall produce at every succeeding Spring Assizes for the same a printed Copy of all Entries made in such Books within the Year ending the First of January then last past, corrected by him and certified under his Hand to be correct; and that such Copy or Copies, so certified and produced by the Clerk of the Peace, shall be immediately delivered over, in the Presence of the Judge, to the Clerk of the Crown, who shall sign and date the same; and that such Copy or Copies shall be preserved among the Records of such County, and shall be deemed equally valid as the original Books at any Election, in case the same or any Part of them shall not be produced at such Election by the Clerk of the Peace; and that the Clerk of the Crown is hereby required to produce the said printed Copies of such Books at any Election, if required so to do by the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County to which they belong; and that no Judge at the Spring Assizes to be holden in the said Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or at any succeeding Spring Assizes, shall fiat any Presentment for paying any Salary to any Clerk of the Peace, until such printed Copy or Copies of such Registry Books, so certified, shall be so delivered in his Presence to the Clerk of the Crown; and that it shall not be hereafter necessary for the Clerk of the Peace to deliver Copies of the Entries in the Books of Registry to the Treasurer of the County, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Fiat for Clerk of the Peace's Salary, until such Copies are delivered.

Freeholds not to be registered, unless Instrument stamped.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Justices presiding at any Sessions of the Peace shall not allow any Person to register his Freehold by virtue of any written Instrument, unless the same be stamped according to Law; and that the Clerk of the Peace shall, from and after the First Day of May One

One thousand eight hundred and twenty, certify in every Certificate of the Registry of a Freehold of the Value of Forty Shillings only, that the same was registered by virtue of a written Instrument stamped according to Law.

Clerk of the Peace neglecting Duty under this Act ;

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace shall omit or neglect to appoint Deputies and Assistant Deputies to attend the Places of polling at any Election ; or to have the original Affidavits or Affirmations of Registry arranged and indorsed as hereinbefore required ; or to enter in a Book at every Sessions of Registry, the Substance of every Affidavit or Affirmation made thereat, in the Manner and Form as hereinbefore required ; or to enter in Books the Substance of all Affidavits or Affirmations of Registry of all the Freeholders who shall be capable of voting at an Election on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or of those Freeholders who may thereafter register Freeholds, in the Manner and Form as hereinbefore required ; or to cause Registry Books to be printed, and to be delivered to the Clerk of the Crown, in the Manner and Form as hereinbefore required ; or to certify in every Certificate of Registry which he shall grant after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, that the written Instrument produced by the Person registering a Freehold was stamped according to Law ; he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five hundred Pounds, to any Person suing for the same ; such Penalty to be recovered by Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin.

Penalty.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County, County of a Town or County of a City, at every Spring Assizes, and they are hereby required, authorised and empowered, to present such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be a proper Remuneration to the Clerk of the Peace for the Expense of printing the Registry Books, in the Manner and Form hereinbefore directed : Provided always, that no such Presentment be made until the Contract for the printing thereof be produced, and that it appear to the Grand Jury that the Clerk of the Peace has caused the said Books to be printed in the cheapest Manner.

Grand Jury to present for Expense of printing Registry Books.

Proviso.

XXXV. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the future Regulation of the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, it is amongst other things enacted, that if any Person seised of a Freehold not consisting of a Rent Charge shall desire to register it as being of the Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, he shall, in the Oath or Affirmation therein provided, name the Parish or Parishes, and the Townland or Townlands, in which such Freehold may be situated : And Whereas it is expedient that the Name of the Parish or Parishes in the said Oath may be omitted, and that the Townland or Townlands or other Denomination by which the Place is generally known wherein the Freehold is situated, be named in the said Oath or Affirmation ; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person seised of a Freehold not consisting of a Rent Charge, who shall desire to register it as being of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, to omit

37 G. 3. c. 47. (I.)

Freeholds not consisting of a Rent Charge of 50l. or 20l. may omit Parish in Oath, and name the Townland.

omit in such Oath or Affirmation the Name of the Parish or Parishes in which such Freehold may be situated, and to name therein the Townland or Townlands or other Denomination by which the Place is generally known wherein the said Freehold may be situated.

Polling Twice,
or personating

Punishment.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall poll a Second Time or offer to poll a Second Time at the same Election, or who shall personate any other Person, or attempt to personate any other Person, for the purpose of polling at such Election, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and upon being thereof convicted in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, shall be imprisoned for any Term not more than Two Years, at the Discretion of the Judge or Judges who shall try such Person.

Fraudulent Voters.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall vote at any Election, by virtue of the Registry of an alleged Freehold, under a Lease of Land and Tenements for a Life or Lives, made by a Lessor who had not at the Time of making the same a Freehold Estate therein ; or under a Lease of Land or Tenements for a Life or Lives, which Lease is to end and determine on some such Covenant or Condition, that a Freehold Estate has not been demised by the same ; or under a Lease of Land or Tenements for a Life or Lives, or a certain Number of Years, which Life or Lives is or are dead ; or under a Lease of Land or Tenements for a Life or Lives, which Lease has expired or been surrendered, after due Notice not to vote by virtue of any such Registry shall have been given to such Person by any Candidate, or by any Inspector of any Candidate, and which Notice every Candidate and Inspector is hereby authorised and empowered to give to such Person at any Time before or during such Election, or in the Place of polling, such Person, on being convicted thereof, shall forfeit to any Person who shall sue for the same the Sum of Twenty Pounds ; to be recovered by him or them, with Treble Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Assizes that may be held in the County in which such Election shall have taken place.

Penalty 20l.

45 G. 3. c. 59.

XXXVIII. And Whereas by certain Acts made in the Parliament of Ireland, and also by a certain Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, made in the Forty fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for amending an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty fifth Year of His late Majesty, for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as relates to Freeholds under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, and for making further and other Regulations relating thereto, it is enacted, that every Oath and Affirmation made and subscribed at any Sessions of the Peace for Registry of any Freehold, shall be read aloud in open Court, and signed by Two of the Justices presiding therein: And Whereas the Number of the Justices who are empowered to act within several of the Counties of Towns, or Counties of Cities and Towns, agreeable to the Charters thereof, is extremely limited, and often confined to those who from Age and Infirmary are incapacitated for active Performance of Duty: And Whereas it is necessary to provide against any Incon-

' Inconvenience or Delay of Persons possessed of Freehold Property, who wish duly to register such Freeholds, and to qualify themselves for exercising the elective Franchise;' Be it therefore enacted, That in all Counties of Towns and Counties of Cities, on the Day immediately preceding the Opening of each General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, unless such Day shall fall upon a Sunday, and in such Case on the Day next but One preceding the Opening of each General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and upon the Day immediately after the Criminal and other Business of every such Sessions has been fully transacted, unless such Day shall fall upon a Sunday, and in such Case, on the Second Day after the said Business has been fully transacted, the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of such County of a Town or County of a City, or his sufficient Deputy appointed by him, pursuant to Charter or Prescription, in case of his Absence from such Town or City, or his Illness, shall, upon being required so to do by any Freeholder of such County of a Town or County of a City, hold an open Court of Sessions for the Purpose of registering all such Freeholders as shall present themselves for that Purpose, in such Manner and Form as are now required by Law; and that the said Mayor, Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, shall commence his Sitting on each Day at the Hour of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and shall continue it till the Hour of Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; and that it shall also be lawful for any Person possessed of a Freehold in any County of a Town or County of a City, to register the same before the Recorder or his Deputy, presiding in open Court, at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace or any Adjournment thereof, for the County of the Town or County of the City in which such Freehold is situate; and that such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or his Deputy, and such Recorder or his Deputy, shall administer all Oaths, and sign all Certificates, which are now required by Law to render the Registry of such Freehold valid; and that the Signature of such Mayor, Chief Magistrate or Recorder, or of their several Deputies, so affixed in open Court, shall be singly and of itself a sufficient Attestation of such Registry, in place of the Signature of Two Magistrates, and of the Clerk of the Peace, as now required by Law; and that the Certificate of the Registry of a Freehold in any County of a City or County of a Town so signed as aforesaid, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Registry of the same, at any Election, if without any Erasure or Interlineation, any thing to the contrary in this Act notwithstanding; and that the Affidavits of Registry so attested, shall be then and there delivered by such Mayor, Recorder or their respective Deputies, to the Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the Court.

Regulation for Registry of Freeholders by the Mayor, Recorder, &c. of Counties of Towns and Cities.

In what Case Certificate of Registry sufficient Evidence of Registry.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any County of a Town, or County of a City, shall neglect or wilfully omit to hold any such Session, by himself or his sufficient Deputy, in Manner and Form as hereinbefore required, upon being required so to do by any Freeholder of such County of a Town, or County of a City; or if any Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or any Recorder, shall omit or neglect, or wilfully refuse to register the Freehold of any Person duly qualified,

C A P. XIV.

An Act to remedy certain Inconveniences in local and exclusive Jurisdictions. [28th February 1820.]

Power to Justices acting in any Place not being a County, to commit Offenders to the Gaol of the County.

‘ WHEREAS the Trial of Capital Offences before Justices of Peace, within local and exclusive Jurisdictions not being Counties, may be attended with Inconvenience, and it is desirable that some Remedy should be provided for the same;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Justices of the Peace acting within and for any Town, Liberty, Soke or Place, not being a County, but having an exclusive Jurisdiction for the Trial of Felonies and Misdemeanors committed within the same, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, have full Power within their respective Limits, at their Discretion, to commit any Person duly charged before them or any of them with any capital Offence committed within such Limits, to the Gaol of the County within which such Town, Liberty, Soke or Place shall be situated, there to be tried at the next Session of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be held in and for such County, in the same manner as if such Offence had been committed within any other Part of the same County, and as if such Person had been committed by any Justice of the same County, not being within such Limits.

Justices may bind over Witnesses to give Evidence at Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, and transmit same to Clerk of the Crown, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Justice or Justices of the Peace, under the Authority of this Act, shall commit any Person to the County Gaol, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he and they is and are hereby authorised and required, also to bind over all necessary Parties and Witnesses by Recognisance, to prosecute and give Evidence against such Offenders at the next Sessions of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, and to transmit such Recognisance, and all Depositions taken before him or them relating to the Charge, to the Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of Assize or other proper Officer, to be filed in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for such County, to the Intent that the same may be used or put in force by the Judge or Judges of the said Court, as he or they shall deem proper, according to Law.

In such Case Expenses of Commitment and Prosecution to be paid by Town or Place within which Offence committed.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases of any Commitment to the County Gaol, under the Authority of this Act, all the Expenses to which the County may be put by reason of such Commitment, together with all such Expenses of the Prosecution and Witnesses as the Judge shall be pleased to allow by virtue of any Law now in force, shall be borne and paid by the said Town, Liberty, Soke or Place within which such Offence shall have been committed, in like manner and to be raised by the same means whereby such Expenses would have been raised and paid if the Offender had been prosecuted and tried within the Limits of such exclusive Jurisdiction; and that the Judge,

Judge, or Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, shall have full Power and Authority to make such Order touching such Costs and Expenses as such Judge or Court shall deem proper; and also to direct by whom and in what manner such Expenses shall in the first Instance be paid and borne, and in what manner the same shall be repaid and raised within the Limits of such exclusive Jurisdiction, in case there be no Treasurer or other Officer within the same, who by the Custom and Usage of such Place ought to pay the same in the first Instance.

 ' His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation 56 G. 3. c. 46.
 ' of the Civil List: And Whereas an Act passed in the Fifty ninth ' Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for 59 G. 3. c. 22.
 ' the further Regulation of His Majesty's Household, and the Care
 ' of His Royal Person, during the Continuance of His Indisposi-
 ' tion: And Whereas by the said recited Act of the First Year of 1 G. 3. c. 1. § 1.
 ' the Reign of His late Majesty it was enacted, that the Hereditary ' Rates and Duties, and other Duties and Payments, and the small ' Branches of His Majesty's Revenues therein expressed, should ' be raised, levied and collected as theretofore during the Life of ' His said late Majesty, and should be carried to and made Part of ' the Aggregate Fund; and that an Annual Rent or Sum was by ' the said last mentioned Act charged upon and made payable out ' of the said Aggregate Fund, during the Life of His said late ' Majesty, for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and the ' Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And Whereas by the said
 ' recited Act of the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His ' late Majesty, the said Rates, Duties, Payments and Revenues, ' were carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund during
 ' the Life of His late Majesty, and Provision was made in the said
 ' last mentioned Act for the Payment of such of the said Rates,
 ' Duties and Payments, as formed Part of the Hereditary Reve' nues of the Crown, after the Demise of His late Majesty, to His ' Heirs and Successors; and such Hereditary Rates, Duties and ' Payments, now belong, and are due and payable to Your Most ' Excellent Majesty: And Whereas Your Majesty has been graci' ously pleased to signify to Your faithful Commons, in Parliament
 ' assembled, That whenever their Attention should be directed to ' the Provision to be made for the Support of the Civil Govern' ment, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, Your Ma' jesty would leave entirely at their Disposal Your Majesty's In' terest in the said Hereditary Revenues; and that Your Majesty
 ' could not deny Yourself the Gratification of declaring, that so ' far from desiring any Arrangement which might lead to the Im' position of new Burthens upon Your People, or even diminish on ' Your Majesty's Account the Amount of the Reductions incident
 ' to Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, Your Majesty could ' have no Wish, under Circumstances like the present, that any ' Addition whatever should be made to the Settlement adopted by ' Parliament in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen:
 ' Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of ' Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, with Hearts
 ' full of the warmest Duty and Gratitude, are desirous that a cer' tain and competent Revenue, for defraying the Expenses of ' Your Majesty's Civil Government, and supporting the Honour
 ' and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom during Your ' Majesty's Life (which God long preserve,) may be settled upon ' Your Majesty as a Testimony of our unfeigned Affection to Your ' Sacred Person, by whose happy Succession to the Throne Your ' Majesty's Subjects have the strongest Assurance, that the Reli' gion, Laws and Liberties of this Realm will be continued, and as to the Hereditary Revenues to remain in force.

Hereditary Revenues and Arrears from late Demise, to be carried,
during Life of His present Majesty, to the Consolidated
Fund, and after Demise to His Heirs and Successors.

‘ that they Your Majesty’s said Subjects and their Posterity may, ‘ through the Divine Goodness, enjoy every Blessing under Your ‘ Majesty’s auspicious Reign; have therefore freely resolved to ‘ grant unto You, our most gracious Sovereign Lord King George
‘ the Fourth, a certain Revenue, payable out of the Consolidated ‘ Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and ‘ that the Produce of the Hereditary Revenues aforesaid be made ‘ Part of the said Consolidated Fund, during Your Majesty’s Life;
‘ and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be ‘ enacted;’ And be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, if this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations and Clauses contained in the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament of Great Britain or Ireland, or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in force at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty, as to the said Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments and Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and also as to the Hereditary Revenues of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and the levying and collecting, and Payment or keeping separate Accounts thereof, or computing the Amount of any such Rates, Duties, Payments or Revenues respectively, shall be and the same are hereby declared and enacted to be in full Force and Effect, and shall be used and applied for the levying, collecting, paying or keeping separate Accounts of, or computing the Amount of all or any of such Rates, Duties, Payments and Revenues, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations and Clauses, were severally and separately re-enacted in the Body of and made Part of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Produce of all the said Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments and Revenues, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, which, during the Life of His late Majesty, were by the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, carried to and made Part, first of the Aggregate Fund, and, after the said recited Act of the Twenty seventh Year aforesaid, of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and all the said Hereditary Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom, which were by the said recited Act of the Parliament of Ireland, of the Thirty third Year aforesaid of the Reign of His late Majesty, carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, and which Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments and Revenues in England and Ireland respectively, at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty, made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and all Arrears thereof which have accrued since the Demise of His late Majesty, which shall not have been applied and distributed in the Payment of any Charges thereupon respectively, shall, during the Life of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve) be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and from and after the Demise of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve) shall be payable and paid to the King’s Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, there shall be granted to His Majesty during His Life, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, a Revenue of Eight hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, a Revenue of Two hundred and seven thousand Pounds; and that the said Revenues shall be charged upon and made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall respectively commence from and immediately after the Demise of His said late Majesty King George the Third, and be paid to His present Majesty during His Life (which God long preserve), with Preference to all other Payments which have heretofore been, or which shall or may hereafter be charged upon the same; and that the Sum of Three hundred and sixty eight thousand nine hundred and fifty six Pounds and Ten Pence in England, and Eighty nine thousand eight hundred and fifty one Pounds Twelve Shillings and Eleven Pence in Ireland, shall be issued and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, being the Proportion of the said Revenues accruing in the Period from the Twentieth Day of January to the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July the said annual Revenues or Sums of Money shall grow due and payable to His Majesty quarterly, at the Four most usual Days of Payment in the Year, (that is to say), the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, and the Fifth Day of July, by even and equal Portions, out of the Monies of the said Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom; the First Quarterly Payment thereof to be made on the Tenth Day of October; and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorised and required to cause the said yearly Revenues or Sums respectively, or any Arrears thereof, to be issued and applied from time to time, daily, weekly or otherwise, as soon as the same can be satisfied, for the Uses and Purposes by this Act appointed, out of the Monies arisen or to arise as aforesaid, so as by the said daily, weekly or other Payments, One fourth Part of such yearly Revenues or Sums of Money be not exceeded in, for or in respect of each Quarter; and so that upon every of the said Quarterly Days the whole then due thereupon be completed, made up or satisfied, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

850,000. in England and 207,000. in Ireland, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, for the Support of His Majesty's Household and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, together with the proportionate Payment as herein mentioned.

When payable.

Treasury authorised to issue the same.

IV. And Whereas the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds was granted by the Commons House of Parliament in the last Session to enable His Majesty to satisfy such Annuities, Pensions or other Payments, as would have been payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the Civil List, in case the Demise of His late Majesty had not taken place before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty: And Whereas the said Hereditary Revenues of His Majesty, arisen and paid into the Exchequer, between the Time of His late Majesty's Demise and the Monies applied under Vote of last Session, out of the 200,000. to be retained in the Exchequer towards the Aids of 1820: and Money applied for Hereditary Revenue to be repaid to Consolidated Fund.

‘ Fifth Day of April, have in pursuance of the said recited Acts of the First and Twenty seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, been set apart at the Exchequer for the Use of His Majesty, and a Part of the said Sums has been issued and applied in satisfying Payments to which the Civil List Revenues are properly applicable;’ Be it therefore enacted, That out of the First Monies which shall be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund, in respect of the Civil List Revenues granted to His Majesty by this Act, there shall be repaid to or retained in the Exchequer, towards completing the Aids granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, a Sum equal to so much of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, as shall have been or shall be advanced and applied in satisfying such Annuities, Pensions or other Payments, as would have been properly charged or chargeable upon the Civil List Revenues; and there shall also be repaid to the Consolidated Fund, a Sum equal to so much of the Hereditary Revenues set apart at the Fifth Day of April last past, as may have been or may be issued or applied out of those Revenues, for satisfying such Annuities, Pensions or other Payments, as would have been properly charged or chargeable upon the Civil List Revenues; and the Remainder of the said Hereditary Revenues, which may not have been issued or paid in Satisfaction of any such Charges, or of any other Charges thereon, shall go and be carried to the said Consolidated Fund on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Provisions of former Acts as to Civil List to remain in force.

‘ V. And Whereas Doubts may be entertained whether the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Civil List Revenues have expired with the Civil List Revenue of His late Majesty, by the Demise of His late Majesty;’ Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That all the Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, which were applicable and in force as to the Civil List Revenue at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty, shall, so far as the same are not altered, varied or repealed by this Act, be and remain and continue, and are hereby declared to be in full Force and Effect, as to the Civil List Revenues granted by this Act, and shall be used and applied, as far as the same are applicable, in relation to the issuing, paying, receiving, Distribution, Care, Management, Regulation and accounting for the Civil List Revenues granted by this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were severally, separately and respectively repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

Reduction of the Amount to be issued for the First Class of the Civil List.

‘ VI. And Whereas the estimated annual Amount of the Charge on the First Class of the Civil List, which the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury were by the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year aforesaid required to appropriate, according to the Provisions of the said Act, was Two hundred and ninety eight thousand Pounds; and by the said recited Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid the same was reduced to One hundred and ninety thousand Pounds: And Whereas by the Reduction incident to Your Majesty’s Accession to the Throne, the Sum to be appropriated

' appropriated for the Charge of this Class of the Civil List will be still further diminished;' Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum to be appropriated in each Quarter of a Year for defraying the Charge of the First Class of the Civil List, shall be equal only to One fourth Part of the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds, being the estimated Amount of the future Annual Charge of this Class, according to the Schedule to this Act annexed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Total Charge upon the Civil List, from the Fifth Day of January in any One Year, to the Fifth Day of January in the succeeding Year, in Great Britain and Ireland, shall amount to more than the Sum of One million and seventy thousand Pounds, an Account, stating the Particulars of such Exceedings, and the Cause thereof, shall be submitted to Parliament within Thirty Days after the same shall have been ascertained, if Parliament shall be then sitting; but if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then the said Account shall be presented within Thirty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

In case of Exceedings of Charge on the Civil List, Particulars to be laid before Parliament.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the several and respective Duties and Revenues which were payable to His late Majesty King George the Third, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for and during His Life, shall be continued, raised, levied and paid from the Demise of His said late Majesty, during the Life of His present Majesty, in the same manner only, and subject to the same or the like Charges thereon, as the same were liable or subject to during His said late Majesty's Life: Saving always to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, (other than to our said Sovereign Lord the King, His Heirs and Successors, and other than to such Person or Persons who do or may stand seised or possessed in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors,) all such Rights, Titles, Estates, Customs, Interests, Claims and Demands whatsoever, of, in, to or out of the Revenues, Hereditaments and others the Premises aforesaid or any of them, as they or any of them had or ought to have had at the making of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Duties and Revenues payable in Scotland to His late Majesty, to continue payable to His present Majesty. General Saving.

IX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to limit the Amount of Pensions to be granted out of the Civil List of Scotland, it was enacted, that all Sums of Money which should remain, after Payment of all such Pensions and Grants and other Charges as were or should thereafter be charged upon or granted or payable out of the Civil List of Scotland, and after defraying such Charges incident thereupon, should from time to time, as the same should arise, be applied in Aid of the Civil List of England: And Whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for the Application of any such Surplus: Be it therefore further enacted, That every such Surplus or Balance, which may remain after defraying the whole of the Charges upon or incident to the said Fund, shall during the Life of His present Majesty 50 G. 3. c. 111. § 2. Surplus in Scotland to be carried to Consolidated Fund.

Majesty (whom God long preserve) go and be carried to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

33 G. 3. c. 34.
(I.)

Further Reduction of the Pension List in Ireland.

‘ X. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, it was provided, that the whole Amount of Pensions to be granted in Ireland in One Year should not exceed One thousand two hundred Pounds, until the whole Pension List should be reduced to Eighty thousand Pounds, which Sum it should not afterwards be lawful to exceed; and that no Pension should be granted after such Reduction, to or for the Use of any one Person, exceeding the Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds yearly, except to His Majesty’s Royal Family, or on an Address of either House of Parliament: And Whereas the Pensions payable in Ireland have, for a very considerable Time past, been reduced below the Limit fixed by the said recited Act, and it is expedient further to limit the same;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That the whole Amount of the Pensions to be granted in Ireland in One Year, shall not exceed One thousand two hundred Pounds, until the whole Pension List shall be reduced to Fifty thousand Pounds a Year, which Sum it shall not afterwards be lawful to exceed; and that no Pension shall be granted after such Reduction, to or for the Use of any one Person, exceeding One thousand two hundred Pounds a Year, except to His Majesty’s Royal Family, or upon an Address of either House of Parliament.

No new Pension to exceed 1200l.
Exceptions.

Proviso for the Rights of the Crown with respect to the small Branches of the Hereditary Revenues granted by 1 Ann. c. 7. stat. 1.;

XI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to impeach or diminish any Rights, Privileges, Powers and Prerogatives, over the said small Branches of His Majesty’s Hereditary Revenue particularly mentioned in the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and used, exercised and enjoyed, or which might have been used, exercised and enjoyed by any of His Majesty’s Royal Predecessors since the passing of an Act in the First Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for the better Support of Her Majesty’s Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, other than the Power of granting, during His Majesty’s Life, or for any Term of Years determinable upon His Life or otherwise, the Profits and Produce of any such of the said small Branches, as are subject to the Restrictions of the said last mentioned Act, with respect to the free and absolute Disposition thereof, in Derogation of the special Purpose of this present Act, to carry the same to the said Consolidated Fund.

and for Leases, Grants, or Assurances thereof, or Suits, &c. for Recovery of same, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in anywise to impair or affect any Rights or Powers of Controul, Management or Direction, which have been or may be exercised by Authority of the Crown, or other lawful Warrant, relative to any Leases, Grants or Assurances of any of the said small Branches of His Majesty’s Hereditary Revenue, or to any Suits or Proceedings for Recovery of the same, or to Compositions made or to be made on account of any of the said small Branches, or to any Remission, Mitigation or Pardon of any Penalties or Forfeitures incurred or to be incurred by the Importation of prohibited and uncustomed

Goods,

Goods, or to Fines taken or to be taken, and to Rents, Boons and Services reserved or to be reserved upon such Grants, Leases and Assurances, or to the Mitigation or Remission of the same, or to any other lawful Act, Matter or Thing which has been or may be done touching the said Branches; but that the said Rights and Powers shall continue to be used, exercised and enjoyed in as full, free, ample and effectual Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made, and as the same have been or might have been enjoyed by His late Majesty at the Time of his Demise, subject nevertheless to all such Restrictions and Regulations as were in force in relation thereto at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty; it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that the said Rights and Powers shall not in any Degree be abridged or restrained, or affected in any Manner whatsoever, but only that the Monies arising from the full and free Exercise and Enjoyment of them so subject as aforesaid, shall, during His Majesty's Life, be carried to and made Part of the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money from time to time arising out of any of the Provisions or Regulations contained in an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to abolish certain Offices, and to regulate certain other Offices in Ireland, and which were by the said Act carried to and made Part of the said Consolidated Fund during the Life of His late Majesty, shall in like manner be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland during the Life of His present Majesty.

An Act to enable His Majesty to be Governor of the South Sea Company. [6th June 1820.]

WHEREAS the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, have made an humble Address to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, in a General Court of the said Company, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to honour the said Company with being their Governor, whereunto His Majesty being willing to condescend, some Doubts and Difficulties have arisen or may arise touching the Qualifications and Duties prescribed by Law, or by the Charter granted to the said Company, in relation to the Governors or Government thereof: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That His Majesty shall be capable of being and continuing Governor of the said Company for such Time or Times as are prescribed by the said Charter for the Continuance of any Governor therein, and that such Address as aforesaid, or any other Address of the said Company to be hereafter made in their General Court for the same Purpose (in case His Majesty shall be pleased to accept of being their Governor), shall from time to time be deemed and adjudged to be an Election of His Majesty to be Governor of the said Company within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Charter, without the Forms of balloting or other other Methods prescribed by such Charter for electing the Governor of the said Company; any thing in the said Charter to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That the Oaths prescribed by the said Charter, or any Law now in force, and all other Acts, Matters or Things necessary or requisite to qualify a Subject of this Realm to be Governor of the said Company, shall not be deemed to be necessary or requisite for His Majesty's Qualification in respect of the said Government, nor shall the said Oaths be administered to His Majesty; and that His Majesty, in all Cases where any Vote is to be given or Act to be done by him as Governor of the said Company, may (if His Majesty think fit) by any Warrant or Warrants under His Royal Sign Manual appoint the Subgovernor or Deputy Governor of the said Company to vote or act for Him or on His Behalf; any former Law, Statute, Charter or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Oaths required by the Charter dispensed with.

An Act for the Removal of Doubts as to the Continuance of Three Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England.

[6th June 1820.]

WHEREAS in the Fifty third Year of His late Majesty's Reign an Act was passed, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, which Act was to continue in force until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and was amended by Two Acts, the one passed in the Fifty fourth and the other in the Fifty sixth Years of His said Majesty's Reign: And Whereas the said Acts were by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign continued until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, and would, unless further continued, have expired on the Twenty third Day of February last: And Whereas before the said Twenty third Day of February a Bill was introduced into the House of Commons for the Continuance of all Laws then in force and which would expire at the End of the then Session of Parliament, or on or before the First Day of June next, which Bill afterwards received the Royal Assent in the last Session of Parliament, and became an Act, intituled An Act to continue until the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, such Laws as may expire within a limited Period, whereby and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to remedy the Inconvenience which has arisen and may arise from the Expiration of Acts before the passing of Acts to continue the same, the said Three Acts passed in the said Fifty third, Fifty fourth and Fifty sixth Years of His late Majesty's Reign, were intended to be continued until the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty; but Doubts have arisen whether the said Three Acts were so continued: For Remedy therefore, Be it enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and

An Act for punishing criminally Drivers of Stage Coaches and Carriages for Accidents occasioned by their wilful Misconduct. [6th June 1820.]

50 G. S. c. 48.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal Three Acts, made in the Twenty eighth, Thirtieth and Forty sixth Years of His present Majesty, for limiting the Number of Persons to be carried outside of Stage Coaches or other Carriages, and to enact other Regulations for carrying the Objects of the said Acts into Effect; divers Regulations and Penalties were established and imposed to carry into Effect the useful and highly important Purposes thereby intended: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act, and to punish criminally Coachmen, or Persons having the Care of Stage Coaches and other Public Carriages carrying Passengers for Hire, for Accidents occasioned by their wilful Misconduct, as hereinafter mentioned:’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person whatever shall be maimed or otherwise injured by reason of the wanton and furious Driving or Racing, or by the wilful Misconduct of any Coachman or other Person having the Charge of any Stage Coach or public Carriage, such wanton and furious Driving or Racing, or wilful Misconduct of such Coachman or other Person, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a Misdemeanor, and punishable as such by Fine and Imprisonment: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to Hackney Coaches, being drawn by Two Horses only, and not plying for Hire as Stage Coaches.

Persons occasioning Accidents by furious Driving declared guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Proviso for Hackney Coaches.

An Act to enable Courts of Equity in Ireland to compel a Transfer of Stock in Suits, without making the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or any Canal Company, Party thereto. [6th June 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS great Expense arises or may arise in Suits in Courts of Equity, from the Practice of making the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or the respective Canal Companies, Parties thereto, for the mere Purpose of compelling or authorising the said Corporations to suffer any Transfer ‘ of

' of Stock standing in their Books respectively to be made, which ' Justice may require : ' Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in Ireland, before or upon hearing any Cause depending therein respectively, to order the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland to suffer a Transfer of any Stock standing in their Books, whether the same be any Government Stock, or the Stock of the said Bank of Ireland, to be made, or to pay any accrued or accruing Dividends thereon, belonging to or standing in the Name or Names of any Party to a Suit, as such Courts may deem just ; or to issue an Injunction to restrain them from suffering any Transfer of such Stock, or from paying any Dividends or Interest accruing or accrued thereon, although such Governor and Company are not or shall not be Parties to the Suit in which such Decree or Order shall be made, such Courts being satisfied by the Certificate of the Accountant of the said Corporation duly signed by him, as hereinafter is directed, that the Stock required to be transferred is standing in their Books, in the Name of the Persons or Person required to transfer the same, or of the Persons or Person to whom they or he are or is the legal Representative, and that after due Service of a short Order upon the said Governor and Company or their proper Officer, which shall contain no Recital of the Pleadings, or other Matter than the Title of the Cause, and the ordering Part of such Decree or Order with respect to the said Governor and Company, like Process shall issue to enforce such Order or Decree as to enforce them against any Party to a Suit depending in such Court.

II. And for the better enabling any Party to a Suit to obtain and produce such Certificate in Court, be it enacted, That upon Request in Writing, signed by the Clerk in Court, and the Solicitor, if the same shall be in the Court of Chancery, and if the same shall be in the Court of Exchequer, then by the Attorney concerned in the Cause for the Party applying, which shall state the Cause and for what Parties they are concerned, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the said Clerk in Court and Solicitor, or one of them, or to such Attorney (as the Case may be) a Certificate signed by their Accountant, stating the Amount of such Stock or Dividends, and in whose Names or Name such Stock is standing in their Books, and if it be particularly required (but not otherwise), and if the same shall be practicable, also stating the Time when such Stock, or any Part thereof, was transferred, and by whom, for the signing of which Request in Writing there shall be paid to such Clerk in Court a Fee of Six Shillings and Eight Pence, and no more ; and to such Solicitor for the drawing, copying and delivering at the Bank, and to such Attorney altogether a Fee of Thirteen Shillings and Four Pence, and no more ; and to the Officer for making and delivering such Certificate a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more : Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where any further Discovery is wanted than what is hereinbefore expressly mentioned,

Court of Chancery or Exchequer may order Transfers to be made of Stock, or issue Injunctions to restrain Transfers, &c. without making the Bank of Ireland a Party, &c. on Production of Certificate from the Bank that such Stock stands in their Books.

mentioned, nor to any Case where the said Governor and Company claim any Interest in or Lien upon the said Fund, but that in such Cases it shall be necessary to make them a Party to such Suit as if this Act had never been made; and that if any special Matter shall arise which, in the Opinion of the said Governor and Company, shall affect their Interests, or which might be objected against suffering such Transfer of Stock or Payment of Dividends, it shall be lawful for them to state such Matter to the Court by Motion or Petition in such Suit, and that Execution of Process to compel such Transfer or Payment shall be suspended until final Order shall be made thereon.

Proceedings against Bank, &c. in Suits now depending, where the Bank has no Lien on the Stock, to be stopped.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Suits now depending in which the said Governor and Company may have put in their Answer, not claiming any Interest in or Lien upon the Stock required to be transferred, no further Proceeding shall be had against them as a Party to such Suits, but that the Bill shall stand dismissed as against them in such Suits; and that in all such Suits an Order may be made upon Motion or Petition, as of Course, for the taxing of their Costs already incurred, and for immediate Payment thereof by the Plaintiffs in any such Suits, or any of them; subject however to any further Order as between the other Parties to such Suits respecting the final Payment of such Costs, as by the Court in which any such Suit may be depending shall be deemed just.

Provisions extended to Canal Companies having Stock.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the several Regulations and Provisions hereinbefore enacted shall extend mutatis mutandis to every Case where any Canal Company have or shall have any Stock standing in the Books of such respective Corporations, which may now be or hereafter may become the Subject of any Suit in Equity or incidental thereto; saving to the said Corporations respectively the like Right of being made a Party, or applying by Motion or Petition, in such Suits, as is before reserved or given to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the Fifty fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, for enabling Spiritual Persons to exchange their Parsonage Houses or Glebe Lands, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

[6th June 1820.]

55 G. 3. c. 147.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for enabling Spiritual Persons to exchange the Parsonage or Glebe Houses or Glebe Lands belonging to their Benefices for others of greater Value, or more conveniently situated for their Residence and Occupation; and for annexing such Houses and Lands so taken in Exchange to such Benefices as Parsonage or Glebe Houses and Glebe Lands, and for purchasing and annexing Lands to become Glebe in certain Cases, and for other Purposes: And Whereas it is by the said recited Act ‘ enacted, that the Bishop shall, in Cases of Exchange and Purchase under the said Act, issue a Commission of Inquiry for ‘ the Purposes therein mentioned, to be directed to such Persons

as are therein described, and of whom One shall be a Barrister of Three Years standing at the least, to be named by the Senior Judge of Nisi Prius for the County in which the Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry whereto it shall be proposed to annex any Buildings or Land by Exchange or Purchase under the said Act shall be situate; but inasmuch as the Nomination of such Barrister by a Judge of Nisi Prius is not applicable to the County of Middlesex; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Exchange or Purchase shall be made or be proposed to be made under the Authority of the said Act in any Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Parochial Chapelry, situate within the said County of Middlesex, such Barrister shall be named by the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the time being, or by the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster for the time being.

Barristers named in Commissions for Exchanges, &c. in Middlesex, named by Chief Justice of K. B. or C. P.

II. And Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that so much of the Forms contained in the Schedules of the said therein recited Acts of the Seventeenth and Twenty first Years of His then (and now late) Majesty King George the Third, as were applicable to the Provisions of that Act, should, with such Variations thereof as should render them so applicable, be used and applied to the Purposes of that Act; but inasmuch as the said Forms contained in the said Schedules are not adapted to the Provisions of the said first recited Act, and the Endeavours so to apply the said Forms have been attended with Inconvenience; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said first recited Act as directs that the Forms contained in the Schedules of the said Acts of the Seventeenth and Twenty first Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty should be used and applied to the Purposes of the said first recited Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

An Act to allow a Drawback on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into any British Colony or Plantation in America, on the Exportation thereof to any Foreign Country to which they may be legally exported.

[22d June 1820.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force, certain Duties are payable on the Importation of any Goods Wares or Merchandise into any British Colony or Plantation in America which now is or hereafter may be under the Dominion of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors: And Whereas it is expedient to allow a Drawback of the said Duties in certain Cases; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on the Re-exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise to any Foreign Country, which by Law may be exported to any such Foreign Country, a Drawback of the Whole of the Duties which had been paid on the Exportation shall be allowed and paid to the Exporter or Exporters of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise.

On Re-exportation of Goods, Drawback of the Duty paid on Exportation allowed;

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That previous to any Drawback being paid or allowed, Proof shall be made on Oath that the Goods, Wares or Merchandise so exported are the same for which the said Duties have been paid, and a Certificate produced from the British Consul or Vice Consul at the Port to which Proof being made on Oath that such Duty had been paid.

which such Goods were entered for Exportation, that the same have been duly landed at such Port.

Officer may open and examine Packages.

If found less in Quantity or Value than expressed in Entry, Goods and Drawback forfeited.

In what Cases no Drawback allowed.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Searcher or other proper Officer of the Customs, after the Entry of any of the said Goods, Wares or Merchandise, and before or after the shipping thereof, to open and strictly examine any Bale, Truss, Chest or other Package, to see if the Goods, Wares or Merchandise are right entered; and if on such Examination the same shall be found to be right entered, the Searcher or other proper Officer shall, at his own Charge, cause the same to be repacked (which Charge shall be allowed to the said Officer by the Commissioners of the Customs, if they think it reasonable); but in case the Officer shall on Examination find such Goods, Wares or Merchandise to be less in Quantity or Value than is expressed in the Exporter's Indorsement upon his Entry, or that shall be entered under a wrong Denomination, whereby His Majesty would have been defrauded, all such Goods may be seized, and the same shall be forfeited and lost, and the Owner or Merchant shall lose the Benefit of receiving the Drawback for such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and the Value thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed unless the Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be duly entered for Exportation with the proper Officer of the Customs, and actually shipped on board the Ship or Vessel in which they are intended to be exported, within the Space of Three Years from the Time they were originally imported (the Time of such Importation to be accounted from the Master's Report Inwards of his Ship), and unless sufficient Proof be also first made, by Certificate from the proper Officers, of the due Entry and Payment of the Duties Inwards upon such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise, and by the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchants importing and exporting the same, verifying and affirming the Truth thereof, and the Name of His Majesty's Searcher, testifying the shipping thereof to be exported, and unless such Drawback be duly claimed within Two Years after such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be shipped for Exportation.

vocate General.

XLIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was amongst other Things enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard of Battle Axes, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeomen, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any Time thereafter have, receive or be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Sea Port Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such Time or Times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And Whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon its Military Establishment: And Whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks, or not sufficient Barracks to hold them; Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed, That it shall and may be lawful, notwithstanding the said recited Act, to and for the Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Absence for any one Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near such City, Town, Village or Place, and for no others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, or in their Default such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail to be drank in their own Houses or Places thereunto belonging, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cider or Metheglin by Retail; and where there shall not be found sufficient Room in such Houses, then in such Manner as has been heretofore customary, taking Care not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Horse or Dragoons in manner hereinafter mentioned; nor shall any Billets at any Time be ordered for more than the Number of effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Billets, when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables, or Justice of the Peace, as the Case may be, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Staff Officer employed or of the Commanding Officer present: And if any Constable or other Chief Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, then such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby; and such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, being duly convicted of such Offence by Indictment, shall be imprisoned for the Space of One Calendar Month: And if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayor, Constable or other Chief Officer before mentioned, tending to deter or discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed, or to induce any of them to do any thing contrary to their said Duty, such Military Officer shall for every such Offence, being thereof convicted before any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, be deemed and taken to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment whatsoever; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County or County of a City or Town, and a Certificate thereof transmitted to the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence to the Under Secretary for the Civil Department, or the First Clerk in the Military Department in Dublin: And in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved in that such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, not being a Justice of the Peace, has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbours, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty where such Soldiers are quartered, or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to relieve such Persons, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall see cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

LXVII. And that the Quarters both of Officers and Soldiers may hereafter be duly paid and satisfied, and His Majesty's Duties of Excise better answered, Be it enacted, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or that does actually receive the Pay or Subsistence Money, either for a whole Regiment, or particular Troops and Companies, or otherwise, shall every Four Days, or before the Troops shall quit their Quarters, if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Persons keeping Inns, or other Places where Officers or Soldiers are quartered by virtue of this Act, out of the Pay and Subsistence of such Officers and Soldiers, before any Part of the the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to either of them respectively: And if any Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall not satisfy, content and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were (which Oath the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorised and required to administer), the Secretary at War in England, and the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence the Under Secretary for the Civil Department, or the First Clerk in the Military Department in Ireland, is hereby required and authorised (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing) to give Orders to the Agent of the Troop or Company to pay and satisfy the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officer or Officers.

Penalty on Officers not satisfying Accounts which shall be charged against them by the Agent.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That for the better and more regular Provision of Carriages for His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, or for their Arms, Clothes or Accoutrements, in England, Ireland and Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, all Justices of the Peace, within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Liberties and Precincts, being duly required thereunto by an Order from His Majesty, or the General of His Forces, or the Master General or Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Ordnance, if in England, Wales or Berwick-upon-Tweed, or by an Order from the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, or from the Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, or other Person duly authorised in that Behalf, shall, as often as such Order is brought and shewn unto One or more of such Justices by the Quartermaster, Adjutant or other Officer or Noncommissioned Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company so ordered to march, issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of, or to any Constable or Constables acting or having Authority to act in the Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, near or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be ordered to march, for each of which Warrants the Fee of One Shilling only shall be paid; requiring them to make such Provision of Carriages and Horses or Oxen, with able Men to drive the same, as is mentioned in the said Warrant, allowing them sufficient Time to do the same, that the neighbouring Parts may not always bear the Burthen; and specifying in such Warrants the Place or Places from and to which the said Carriages shall, by virtue of such Orders as aforesaid, be required to travel, also specifying the Number of Miles between the Places, for which Number of Miles only so specified Constables or Petty Constables are authorised to demand Payment, which shall not exceed the Day's March of the Troops, as prescribed in the Order produced to the Magistrate, unless in case of pressing Emergency or Necessity, and shall in no Case whatever exceed Twenty five Miles from the Place at which the March shall commence; and in case sufficient Carriages cannot be provided within any such Liberty, Division or Precinct, then the Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next adjoining County, Riding or Division shall, upon such Order as aforesaid being County or Riding, and for deducting the same out of such Officer's Pay.

LXXV. And Whereas it may sometimes become necessary, in Cases of Emergency, to provide proper and speedy Means for the Carriage and Conveyance, not only of the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage of and belonging to His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, but also of the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children and other Persons of and belonging to such Forces: And Whereas it is expedient that Provisions should be made for enforcing prompt Obedience to such Orders as His Majesty or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor in Ireland may in such Cases think fit to issue in pursuance of the Powers by Law vested in Him for the Advancement of the general Good and public Welfare of the Realm: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors in Ireland, by His or their Order, distinctly stating that such Case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary at War, or if in Ireland, by the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary for the Civil Department, or the First Clerk in the Military Department for the time being, to any General or Field Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Agent for the Supply of Stores and Provisions at Home, or Person acting in that Capacity, to authorise such General or Field Officers or Agent as aforesaid or Person aforesaid, by Writing under his Hand, reciting such Order of His said Majesty, or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all Justices of the Peace within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Liberties and Precincts in England, Ireland, Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for any of the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, when and as often as such Requisition in Writing as last-mentioned shall be brought and shewn unto any One or more of such Justices, by the Quarter-Master, Adjutant, or other Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company so ordered to be conveyed, or by any Officer in the Commissariat Department, to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of the County, Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, near or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be so ordered to be conveyed, requiring them to make such Provision, not only of Waggons, Wains, Carts and Cars kept by or belonging to any Person or Persons, and for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Chaises and other Four-wheeled Carriages usually let to Hire, or kept for that Purpose; and also of Boats, Barges and other Vessels used for the Carriage of Coals, Stone, Lime, Manure, or of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or any other Articles or Commodity whatsoever, upon any Canal or navigable River, with able Men and Horses to drive, navigate and draw the same, as shall be mentioned in the said Warrant or Warrants, therein specifying the Place or Distance to which such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, shall go and be conveyed, and allowing such Constables sufficient Time to make such Provision, that the

take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party, to be so taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate, upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Noncommissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded or have absented himself from the Party as aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and bring him before a Magistrate, the Officer or Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person; and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Person who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to His Majesty's Secretary at War, or if in Ireland, the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary or First Clerk, as aforesaid, in order that, in the Event of such Person being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money and having absconded may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter as having been duly enlisted.

CXV. And be it further enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge under any Orders or Regulations made by His Majesty, or upon the Expiration of any Period for which he shall have engaged to serve, shall, if then serving abroad, be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expense, and on his Return shall be entitled to and have and receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, at the Rate per Diem fixed for victualling Soldiers on the March in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, reckoning Ten Miles for each Day's March; and every Soldier so entitled to his Discharge, who shall be discharged at any Place in the United Kingdom other than that in which he shall have been attested, shall be entitled to the like Marching Money, from the Place of his Discharge to the Place of his Attestation as aforesaid.

Justices may discharge Persons hastily enlisting themselves on paying the Enlisting Money.

Magistrates to transmit to the Secretary at War Duplicates of Certificates of the Name and Residence of Persons receiving Enlisting Money and absconding.

Soldiers entitled to Discharge to be sent Home free of Expense, and have Conduct and Marching Money Home.

C A P. XX.

An Act for the regulating of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore. [23d June 1820.]

[This Act is the same, and all the Schedules are also the same, as 59 G. 3. c. 10. except as to Dates and Sums and the Sections that are here inserted.]

Persons committed for Criminal Offences not to receive Pay till they return to the Regiment, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine, who shall be arrested and committed to Prison upon a Charge of any Criminal Offence, shall receive any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Commitment till the Day of his Return to the Company to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join: Provided that if he shall be acquitted of the Offence for which he was committed, he shall, upon his Return to his Company, be entitled to receive all Arrears of Pay which were growing due during the Time of his Confinement; but if he shall be convicted, he shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of his Confinement, as well under the original Commitment as under any Commitment consequent upon such Conviction, and until the Day of his Return to the Company to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to order the Issue and Payment to any such Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine, during any such Commitment or Imprisonment, or either of them, or any Part thereof, of the Pay of any such Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine, or of any Proportion of such Pay, or of any Arrears thereof, either during such Commitment or Imprisonment, or after the Discharge of such Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine after Conviction or otherwise, as shall appear to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to be proper; and the Order of the said Lords Commissioners for the Payment of such Pay or Arrears shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment.

Rates of Carriage.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, The Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Sixpence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; according as the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County

or District assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having Regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the Owners of the said Carriages for the Excess beyond the said Fifteen Miles, as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrates who granted the Warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling and Nine Pence and Sixpence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any Case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and one other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty; and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every Case of any increased Rate being allowed for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing such Warrant shall insert in his own Hand the Amount of such increased Rate for each Description of Carriage, as so authorised by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid; and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as his Voucher for the Payment of such increased Rate; and no increased Rate shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

LII. And Whereas several Marines, who being duly entered, may afterwards desert, and be found wandering, or otherwise absenting themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service; it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Headborough or Tithingman of the Town or Place where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or if no such Constable, Headborough or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Marine, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, who is hereby empowered and required to examine such suspected Person; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, or by Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly entered, and ought to be with the Company to which he belongs, whether such Company shall be employed on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or quartered on Shore, or employed on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty not not being in Commission, or any Convict Hulk or Ship, such Justice of the Peace shall, without Fee or Reward to himself or Clerk, forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Gaol of the County or Place where he shall be found, or to the House of Correction or other public Prison in such Town or Place where such Deserter shall be apprehended; or to the Savoy, in case such Deserter shall be apprehended within the Cities of London or Westminster, or Places adjacent; and transmit an Account thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being, and to the Commandant of the Division to which the said Deserter may belong, to the end that such Person may be proceeded against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction or Prison, shall receive such Subsistence Money for the Maintenance of such Deserter during the Time he shall continue in his Custody, as shall from time to time be directed in that Behalf by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, but shall not be entitled to any Fee or Reward on account of the Imprisonment of any such Deserter; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, to or on account of such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine, during or after the Expiration of his Period of Imprisonment in any Gaol or House of Correction or other public Prison.

Reward for apprehending Marines attempting to desert.

‘LVIII. And Whereas it has been judged expedient, for the Prevention of Desertion, to establish Outlying Parties in the Vicinity of the respective Divisions, for the Purpose of intercepting such Men as may straggle or attempt to desert from Head Quarters, and it is fit that Encouragement should be given to the Persons composing such Parties to be diligent and active in their Duty in this Behalf;’ Be it therefore enacted, That, for and in respect of every Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine so straggling or attempting to desert, who may be apprehended at a greater Distance from Head Quarters than is allowed by the Articles of War, the Party or Parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a Reward of Ten Shillings to be paid upon the Delivery up of every such Marine; which Sum of Ten Shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every such Noncommissioned Officer and Private Marine, in like manner as the Reward or Sum of Two Pounds is hereinafter directed to be charged against, stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every Deserter; any thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Clause for Relief of Persons hastily enlisting themselves.

LXXIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when and as often as any Person or Persons shall be enlisted as a Marine or Marines in His Majesty's Service, he and they shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty four Hours, after such enlisting respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he shall be enlisted, or with the Person employed on the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City or Place, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing in or being next to or in the Vicinity of the Place where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer of Royal Marines, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate he or they shall be at Liberty to declare his or their Dissent to such enlisting; and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also each Person so dissenting paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or laid out upon him, such Person or Persons so enlisted shall be forthwith discharged and set at Liberty in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty four Hours after so declaring his or their Dissent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he or they had given his or their Assent thereto before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate; and if such Person or Persons shall declare his or their having voluntarily enlisted himself or themselves, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand that such Person or Persons is or are duly enlisted, setting forth the Place of the Birth, Age and Calling of him or them respectively (if known), and that the Second and Third Sections of the Articles of War, for the better Government of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, were read to him or them, and that he or they had taken the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the Twelfth Section of the said Articles of War, and also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A); and if any such Person or Persons so to be certified as duly entered shall refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid to detain or confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the Oath before required; and every Officer of Royal Marines that shall act contrary hereto, or offend herein, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court Martial to be thereupon called, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered and displaced from such his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that every Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine who shall enlist any Recruit shall, at the Time of such enlisting, inquire the Christian and Surname and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party, to be so taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party, shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate, upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party

Party have left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Noncommissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded, or have absented himself from the Party as aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and bring him before a Magistrate, the Officer or Noncommissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person, and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Person who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Lords of the Admiralty or their Secretary, in order that in the Event of such Person being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter as having been duly enlisted.

An Act to provide for the Charge of the Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

[30th June 1820.]

55 G. 3. c. 35.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provisions in respect thereof, it was enacted and declared, that for the Purposes of the said Act an Amount of Public Debt, equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt, in perpetual Redeemable Annuities, existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be satisfied and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock so purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament, by any Act or Acts of the said Session, should or might direct, should be cancelled in like Manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of Land Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereunto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain by way of Loan, or in any other Manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that when and so soon as such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Redemption of Land Tax, or the Purchase of like Annuities, as, together

ther with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as aforesaid, should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual Redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain, existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should thereupon certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should cause the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament should be then sitting), but if Parliament should not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and so from time to time whenever such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital, and should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge, in perpetual Redeemable Annuities, of each Loan contracted since the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should from time to time thereupon in like Manner certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should in like Manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament; and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should have been so made, published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debts to which such Certificate and Declaration should relate, should from time to time be deemed and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock, standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the South Sea Company, should be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such Times and in such Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain by way of Loan, or in any other Manner; and it was there- by further enacted, that whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other Manner, which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in that or any future Year, should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, then and in every such Case an annual Sum, amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other Manner as aforesaid, in the Year, as should be equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, should be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, to the Account of the said Commissioners, in the Manner directed by the said therein recited Act of the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty; and ‘ Consolidated Annuities, standing in the Names of the Commis‘ sioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the Books of the ‘ Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, from and ‘ after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and ‘ twenty, be cancelled; and the Sum of Twenty three millions one ‘ hundred and seventy three thousand seven hundred and five ‘ Pounds, Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, standing ‘ in the Names of the said Commissioners, shall also be cancelled

‘ from and after the following Periods respectively; that is to say, ‘ Six millions five hundred and eighty six thousand eight hundred ‘ and fifty two Pounds, from and after the Fifth Day of April One ‘ thousand eight hundred and twenty; Eleven millions five hundred ‘ and eighty six thousand eight hundred and fifty three Pounds,
‘ from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hun‘ dred and twenty; and Five Millions, from and after the Fifth ‘ Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and ‘ the Interest or Dividends which would have been payable on the ‘ several Sums so cancelled shall, from those Days respectively, ‘ cease to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, or to be ‘ charged upon the Consolidated Fund; and the Money which would ‘ have been applicable to the Payment thereof, shall remain and be be a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Purpose of defraying the Charge occasioned by the Additions made or to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in the present Year.

An Act for the Encouragement and Improvement of the Coasting Trade of Ireland.

[30th June 1820.]

WHEREAS several of the Provisions contained in an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act more effectually to regulate the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported or exported into or from Ireland, and the Payment of Bounties, Allowances and Drawbacks thereon, are productive of unnecessary Embarrassment and Expense in the Coasting Trade of Ireland; and it is just and expedient that the Coasting Trade, in every Part of the United Kingdom, should, as far as local Circumstances will admit, be placed upon the same Footing; Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person whatever to convey or remove and carry forth to the open Sea any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which shall be shipped or put on board according to the Directions of this Act, at any Port, Haven or Creek in Ireland, to be landed or discharged at any other Port or Place in Ireland, without taking out any Cocquet or Cocquets, or giving any Security by Bond or otherwise for the delivering or discharge thereof at the Port or Place of Delivery or Discharge, anything in the said recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts in force, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to the several Exemptions, Provisoos, Rules and Regulations hereinafter mentioned.

46 G. 3. c. 87.
Goods may be carried coastwise in Ireland, without Cocquet or Bond, under Regulations of this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are or shall be prohibited to be exported from Ireland to Foreign Parts, nor any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are or shall be liable to any Duty to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, (unless the Amount of such Duty on the Whole of the Cargo so to be carried coastwise shall not exceed the Sum of Five Pounds,) or which are or shall be entitled to any Drawback or Bounty on the Export thereof, nor any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which shall by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament have been warehoused upon the Importation thereof into Ireland, and afterwards carried and conveyed coastwise to be again warehoused or for Exportation, shall be allowed to be removed,

Proviso as to Goods prohibited to be exported or liable to Duty above 5l. or entitled to Drawback, or having been warehoused and afterwards carried coastwise to another Warehouse for Exportation.

removed, or shipped, or carried coastwise in any Ship, Vessel, Boat or Hoy, from any Port, Haven or Creek in Ireland, until the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof, shall have taken out a Cocquet or Cocquets, and become bound to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Delivery and Discharge of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, in such manner as is required by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act.

Proviso as to shipping Goods allowed to be carried coastwise without Cocquet.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandise by this Act intended to be allowed to be carried coastwise without Cocquet and Bond, shall and may be shipped and laden on board any Ship, Vessel, Boat or Hoy, British or Irish built, and owned by British or Irish Subjects, and navigated according to Law, and in none other, at any Port, Haven or Creek in Ireland, by Warrant or Sufferance, and shall and may be removed and carried forth to the open Sea, to be landed at any other Port or Place in Ireland, by Transire or Letpass only.

Forging, &c. Warrant, &c. Penalty 500*l*.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whatever shall counterfeit, rase, alter or falsify any Warrant, Cocquet, Sufferance, Transire or Letpass, or any Custom Warrant, Document or Instrument, or any Indorsement thereon, or any of them, by this Act or the said hereinbefore recited Act required, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and the Warrant, Cocquet, Sufferance, Transire or Letpass, Document or other Instrument, and Endorsement, so counterfeited, rased or falsified, shall respectively be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

If the Goods shipped exceed the Quantity in the Cocquet, Sufferance, &c. such Excess forfeited.

V. And for the better preventing Frauds in the shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, to be carried coastwise as aforesaid, be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, if after the shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, to be carried coastwise as aforesaid, and after the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship, Vessel, Boat or Hoy in which the same shall be shipped, shall have received a Cocquet, Warrant, Sufferance, Transire, Letpass or other Coast Document, as is directed or required by this or any former Act, expressing or endorsed with the Particulars of the Goods, Wares or Merchandise which have been shipped, it shall be found by any Officer of the Customs on Examination thereof, that the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise shipped or laden on board, shall exceed in Quantity the Particulars of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise expressed either in the Cocquet, Transire or Letpass, or other Coast Document aforesaid, obtained for the removing or carrying the same coastwise, or on the Endorsement to be made upon any Warrant, Sufferance, Letpass or other Document, as by this or any former Act is directed, all such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, as shall exceed the Quantity so authorised to be carried coastwise as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs.

Commissioners of Customs may authorise Officers at Creeks, &c. to

VI. And Whereas Ships and Vessels, employed in the Coasting Trade of Ireland, frequently take in their Lading at Creeks, Havens and Harbours where there are no Officers of the Customs authorised to take the Coast Bond, or to grant the Warrant, Cocquet,

‘Cocquet, Sufferance, Transire or Letpass required by Law, and great Inconvenience and Expense has arisen to the Merchants and Traders, and to Masters of such Ships or Vessels, in consequence thereof;’ For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three of them, whenever it shall appear to be necessary and proper, for the Relief and Accommodation of the Coasting Trade of Ireland, to authorise and require any Officer or Officers of the Customs, stationed at any Creek, Haven or Harbour of Ireland, at which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise may be shipped, in order to be carried coastwise within the same, to take the Coast Bond, and to grant the Warrant, Sufferance, Cocquet, Transire, Letpass or other Documents required to be given for the Clearance of such Vessels, and for the Shipping, Delivery and Discharge of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise in the Port or Place for which the same shall have been entered, or in some other Port or Place in Ireland, as the Case may be, and for returning to the proper Officer of the Customs of the Port where any Coast Bond shall have been given, the Certificate or other Document which in any such Case may be required to be produced to them from the Officer or Officers of the Customs of the Port, Haven, Creek or Harbour where such Goods, Wares or Merchandise are intended to be landed and discharged, certifying that such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were there landed and discharged accordingly; and every Coast Bond, Warrant, Sufferance, Transire, Letpass, Certificate or other Document taken or granted by and in the Presence of any such Officer or Officers, shall be deemed and taken to be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if taken or granted at the Custom House by and in the Presence of the Collector, Comptroller or other proper Officer of the Customs for the Port to which such Creek, Haven or Harbour may belong or appertain; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act to regulate the Appointment and Tenure of the Office of Clerk of the Peace in Ireland. [30th June 1820.]

WHEREAS it is most desirable that the Statute Law of England and Ireland should be assimilated in its Provisions as far as may be practicable and consistent with the relative Situations of the said Parts of the United Kingdom, and particularly respecting the Appointment to and Tenure of Offices and Discharge of official Duties concerning the Courts of Justice thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Custos Rotulorum, or other Person or Persons to whom of right it doth or shall belong to nominate or appoint the Clerk of the Peace for any County, County of a City, Division or other Place in Ireland, shall from time to time, when the Office of the Clerk of the Peace now is or hereafter shall be void, nominate and appoint one able and sufficient Person residing in the said County, County of a City, Division or other Place for which he is so appointed or to be appointed, Clerk of the Peace, to execute the same by himself or his sufficient Deputy; and to take and receive the Fees, Profits and Perquisites thereof, for so long Time as such Clerk of the Peace shall well demean himself in his said Office.

By whom Clerk of the Peace to be appointed.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person who, at any time before the passing of this Act, shall have been appointed to the Office of Clerk of the Peace for any County, or County of a City, or County of a Town, in Ireland, shall continue to hold and enjoy such Office for so long Time only as such Clerk of the Peace shall well demean himself in his said Office; any Grant, Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Existing Clerks of the Peace to hold during good Behaviour.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the Removal or Discharge, in manner hereinafter mentioned, of any Clerk of the Peace for any Offence or Misdemeanor by him committed before the passing of this Act.

Proviso for Discharge of Clerks of the Peace for Offences.

IV. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace already nominated or to be nominated as aforesaid, shall misdemean himself in the Execution of the said Office, and thereupon a Complaint and and Charge in Writing of such Misdemeanor shall be exhibited against him to the Justices of the Peace in their General Quarter Sessions, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, not fewer than Seven being assembled, or the major Part of them, from time to time, upon Examination and due Proof thereof, and upon Proof that a Copy of the said Complaint was personally served upon the said Clerk of the Peace, at least Thirty Days prior to the said Quarter Sessions, accompanied by a Notice of intending then and there to bring and forward the said Complaint against him, openly in their said General Quarter Sessions, to discharge him from the said Office; and that in such Case, the Custos Rotulorum, or other Person or Persons to whom it shall of right belong to nominate and appoint the Clerk of the Peace for such County, County of a City, Division or Place, shall nominate and appoint one other able and sufficient Person residing in the said County, County of a City, Division or Place as aforesaid, to be Clerk of the Peace in the Place of such Person so removed as aforesaid; and in case of Refusal or Neglect to make such Nomination and Appointment before the next General Quarter Sessions to be holden after the said Refusal or Neglect, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace, at their General Quarter Sessions for the said County, County of a City, Division or Place, or the major Part of them, to nominate and appoint one able and sufficient Person residing in the said County, County of a City, Division or Place, to be Clerk of the Peace in the Place of such Person so removed as aforesaid, to have, hold and enjoy the said Office of Clerk of the Peace, and to execute the same by himself or his sufficient Deputy, and to receive the Fees, Profits and Perquisites thereof; unless such Custos, or such other Person or Persons having the Right of Nomination, shall nominate or appoint, within Six Months, another able and sufficient Person to be Clerk of the Peace.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Clerk appointed by such Justices shall be liable and subject to all the Penalties, Forfeitures, Conditions, Limitations and Provisions herein and hereby mentioned and expressed; and may be removed or discharged by the said Justices, or the major Part of them, in such Manner and Way as is above specified.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Clerk of the Peace, who shall be so discharged and removed by the said Justices from his said Office, or the Person or Persons who shall have nominated or appointed such Clerk of the Peace, or who shall claim any Right to nominate or appoint such Clerk of the Peace or his Successor, shall feel himself or themselves aggrieved by any such Discharge or Removal, or by any Appointment of any Person to succeed such Clerk of the Peace so discharged or removed; it shall be lawful for such Clerk of the Peace, or such other Person or Persons as aforesaid, at any Time within Six Months after such Removal, to appeal to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin against such Removal or Discharge, or against such Appointment of such Justices, as the Case may be; and it shall be lawful for the said Court of King's Bench to examine into all the Circumstances of such Discharge or Removal, or of such Appointment, and to confirm or avoid the same, same, as to the said Court shall seem fitting and expedient; and to direct any Clerk of the Peace so discharged or removed to be restored, or any Clerk of the Peace so appointed by the said Justices to be removed, as the Nature of the Case shall require; and to make such Order and Determination respecting such Discharge or Removal, or respecting such Appointment, as to the said Court shall seem fitting and expedient.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Custos Rotulorum, or other Person or Persons to whom of right it doth or shall belong to nominate, elect or appoint any Clerk of the Peace, to sell the said Place of Clerk of the Peace, or to take any Bond or other Assurance to receive or have any Reward, Money, Fee or Profit, directly or indirectly, to him or any other Person, for such nominating, electing or appointing; but that every such Custos Rotulorum or other Person or Persons that shall so sell the Clerkship of the Peace, and every Clerk of the Peace who shall so buy his Place, are hereby disabled to hold their Places of Custos Rotulorum or Clerkship of the Peace, and shall also each of them respectively forfeit Double the Sum or Value, or other Thing that shall be so given or taken; to be recovered by him or them, to their own Use, that shall sue for the same; to be prosecuted by any Action of Debt, Suit, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts at Dublin, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall lie.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace hereafter to be appointed, before he enter upon the Execution of his said Office, shall in open Sessions make and sign the Oath following; videlicet:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I have not, nor will pay any Sum or Sums of Money or other Reward whatsoever, nor given any Bond or other Assurance to pay any Money, Fee or Profit, directly or indirectly, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, for such Nomination or Appointment, except so far as I am warranted to do by the Provisions of the Act of the Forty ninth of George the Third, to prevent the Sale and Brokerage of Offices, and in conformity to the Provisions of the said Act; and that I will not ask, demand or accept any Fee, Gratuity or Emolument, for the Performance of the Duties of my Office of Clerk of the Peace, greater or other than the Fees which are or shall be annexed by Law to the Discharge of the Duties thereof.

‘ So help me GOD.’

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace now in Possession of such Office, shall within the Space of Three Months after the passing of this Act, in open Sessions, make and sign the Oath following; videlicet:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will not ask, demand or accept any Fee, Gratuity or Emolument for the Performance of the Duties of my Office of Clerk of the Peace, greater or other than the Fees which are or shall be annexed by Law to the Discharge of the Duties thereof.

‘ So help me GOD.’

‘ Foundling Hospital in Dublin, it was amongst other Things ‘ enacted, that it should be lawful for the Governors of the said ‘ Hospital, or any Three or more of them, to make Orders for ‘ suspending, and to suspend and refuse, in the Cases and under ‘ the Restrictions therein mentioned, the Admission of any Chil‘ dren or Child into the said Hospital: And Whereas it is expe‘ dient to enlarge the Powers of the said Governors in that ‘ respect, on the Terms hereinafter provided:’ Be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governors of the said Foundling Hospital, or any Three or more of them, from time to time to make Orders for suspending, and to suspend for and during such Time or Times, Period or Periods, as they shall from time to time think proper, the Admission of Infants into the said Hospital; and also to make Orders for refusing and to refuse the Admission into the said Hospital of any Infant, or of any Class or Description of Infants, at their Discretion, or for annexing any Condition or Conditions, which they shall think proper, to the Admission of any particular Infant, or of all Infants, or of any Class or Description of Infants, into the said Hospital; any thing in the said recited Act or any other Act or Acts contained, or any Law, Usage or Custom, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act for the better securing Monies and Effects paid into the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on account of the Suitors of the said Court, and for the Appointment of an Accountant General and Two Masters of the said Court; and for other Purposes.

[8th July 1820.]

WHEREAS His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster did, on the Seventeenth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and forty seven, make an Order touching the Money belonging to the Suitors of that Court, whereby after reciting that His Majesty's Remembrancer of the said Court and his Deputy had informed the said Court, that there were standing in the Name of the said Deputy, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and in the Books of the South Sea Company, divers Sums in certain Stocks and Annuities of the said Companies respectively, which had been purchased with the Money of the Suitors of the said Court, or were belonging to them, and that no Declaration of Trust had been or could be made in relation thereto, in the Books of the said several Companies, without an Order of the said Court for that Purpose; it was ordered, that the said Deputy Remembrancer should cause the said Sum to be transferred in the Books of the said Companies into his Name, as Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court, in Trust to attend the Orders of the said Court in the several Causes to which the same respectively belonged; and that for the future all other Sums of Stock or Annuities, or any other transferrable Securities for the Benefit of or belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, should be in like Manner transferred in Trust to attend the Orders of the said Court, to be made in the several Causes to which the same should respectively belong; and that the said Deputy Remembrancer should from time to time receive the Dividends or Interests to arise on all the said Securities, in order to apply the same for the Benefit of the Suitors, pursuant to the Orders of the said Court; and by the said Order, certain other Regulations were made for the Conduct of the said Deputy Remembrancer in the Sale and Transfer of such Stocks and Securities, and the Receipt of the Dividends and Interest thereon: And Whereas several Effects of the Suitors of the said Court were and from time to time have been delivered into the Bank of England and elsewhere, and divers Stocks, Funds and Annuities were and have been transferred from time to time in the Books of the Bank of England, South Sea Company, and East India Company, into the Name of the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, and are now standing in the said Books in the Name of Abel Moysey Esquire, the present Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court; but no Declaration of Trust relating thereto has been made in the Books of the said several

Recital of Order of Court of Exchequer at Westminster, 17th July, 1747, as to securing the Suitors Money; and that Effects, &c. of Suitors disposed of under recited Order.

Companies, according to the said Order, and large Sums of Money or Securities for Money belonging to the said Suitors, are now in the Hands, Custody or Power of the said Abel Moysey; and it is expedient that a fit and proper Person should be appointed to be Accountant General of the said Court, in whose Name all Effects, Stocks, Funds, Annuities and Securities belonging to the said Suitors, might become and be from time to time securely vested for the Use of the said Suitors, and who might keep the Account of the Funds of the said Suitors, but who should have no Power to dispose of or otherwise intermeddle with such Funds, further or otherwise than as hereinafter directed: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Sum or Sums of Money, Stocks, Funds or Securities whatsoever, belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, shall be paid or transferred to or become vested in the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court, or the King's Remembrancer or his Deputy for the time being, otherwise than as hereinafter is directed; any thing in the said recited Order, or any Law, Usage or Custom of the said Court to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

No Money, &c. to be paid to Remembrancer (Exception) after the passing of this Act.

An Accountant General of the said Court to be appointed by the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer.

II. Aud, to the end that the Accounts between the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and every other Body Politic or Corporate or Company whom it may concern, may be more regularly and plainly kept, and the State of such Accounts be at all times seen and known, be it enacted, That as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, there shall be appointed by the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court of Exchequer, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to be duly enrolled among the Records of the said Court, One Person who shall act and do all Matters and Things relating to the delivering, securing and investing of the Money and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court, and the Payment, selling, and transferring of the same, and the keeping the Accounts with the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or Company, and other Matters relating thereto; which said Officer so to be appointed shall be called "The Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer," and such Person shall also be one of the Masters of the said Court, and shall hold such Offices during his good Behaviour in the said Offices; and Accounts shall be raised and kept causewise in the Books of the Bank of England, and of every other Body Politic or Corporate or Company whom it may concern, to be respectively intitled "The Account of A. B. the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer," for and on behalf of the Suitors of the said Court, in like Manner as such Accounts are kept between the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery and the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate or Company; and all such Rules, Methods, and Directions as by this Act are prescribed to the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer, or to the said Accountant General of the said Court, or to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate Style of such Officer, who is also to be One of the Masters.

Accounts to be kept as Accounts are kept in the Court of Chancery, &c.

Corporate or Company, or as shall or may be ordered or prescribed by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed by His Majesty, under and by virtue of the Act hereinafter mentioned, from time to time, as to the delivering, securing and investing, or the paying, selling or transferring of the Monies, Stocks, Funds, Securities and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer, shall be observed by the Suitors, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and every other Body Politic or Corporate or Company, and the Accountant General, under the Provisions of this Act.

III. And, to the end that all Misapplication or wasting of the Suitors' Money may be entirely prevented, be it therefore enacted, That the Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer for the time being shall not meddle with the actual Receipt of any of the Money or Effects of the Suitors of the said Court, but shall only keep the Account thereof with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and every other Body Politic or Corporate or Company whom it may concern; and such Accountant General observing the Rules by this Act prescribed, or hereafter to be prescribed to him by the said Court of Exchequer, shall not be answerable for any Money or Effects which he shall not actually receive; and the Bank of England, or such other Body Politic or Corporate, or Company, shall be answerable for all the Monies and Effects of the Suitors which are or shall be actually received by them respectively.

Accountant General not to meddle with Receipt of the Suitors' Money, but only keep Account with the Bank, and not be answerable, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Mortgages, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, and such other transferrable Securities, to be hereafter taken by the Directions of the said Court, or of the Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid for the Benefit of the Suitors, shall, if appointed to be taken in the Name of any Officer of the said Court, be taken in the Name of the said Accountant General: and that in all such transferrable Securities to be hereafter taken in his Name, the particular Trust shall be specified and inserted in the Security itself, and such other Rules and Methods of Proceeding shall be had and observed with respect to such transferrable Securities by the Accountant General and others, as in and by this Act are directed, or as shall be directed by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, to be observed by the Accountant General for the time being, and all other Persons respectively.

Mortgages, Securities, &c. to be taken, and remain in the Name of the Accountant General.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Acts to be done by any such Accountant General for the time being, under any Order or Orders, Decree or Decrees of the said Court of Exchequer, or of the Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, touching any Real or Personal Estate, Property or Effects by this Act vested or intended to be vested in any such Accountant General, and in succeeding Accountants General, shall by force of this Act be deemed and taken to be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Acts done by Accountant General under Order of Court declared valid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon after the passing of this Act as any Person shall be appointed to be Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer, all Stocks, Funds,

All Funds and Securities standing in the Name of the present Deputy Remembrancer, to become vested in and transferred to the Account of the Accountant General, upon his Appointment,

Funds, Annuities and Securities whatsoever, which at the Time of the Appointment of such Accountant General shall be standing in the Name of the said Abel Moysey, as the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court, or of any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, in the Books of the Bank of England, or in the Books of the South Sea Company, or in the Books of the East India Company, or in the Books of any Body Politic or Corporate or Company whatever; and all such Exchequer Bills or other Securities, which at any time before the Appointment of such Accountant General shall have been transferred into or vested in the Name of, or shall be in the Custody or Power of the said Abel Moysey, or of the Deputy Remembrancer for the time being, by or on behalf of any of the Suitors of the said Court, pursuant to the said hereinbefore recited Order, or any other Order or Decree of the same Court, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, or which shall have been purchased pursuant to any Decree or Order of the same Court, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, in the Name of the said Abel Moysey, or of any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court; and all Real and Personal Estate, Effects and Property whatsoever, which by virtue of the said hereinbefore recited Order, or any Order or Decree of the said Court of Exchequer, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, or by virtue of any Conveyance, Assignment, Transfer, Obligation or otherwise, shall at any time before the Appointment of such Accountant General have been conveyed, assigned or transferred, or made payable or secured to the said Abel Moysey, as Deputy Remembrancer, or to the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, as such Deputy Remembrancer, and which shall not have been applied to the Trusts and Purposes to which the same were applicable, under the Order or Direction of the said Court, shall immediately upon the Appointment of any Person to be such Accountant General of the said Court as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, become, and the same are hereby declared to be vested in such Accountant General in right of his Office by force of this Act, and without any Act or Deed whatsoever to be done or executed by the said Abel Moysey, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, or by any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, or by his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, or any Person or Persons claiming under him, them or any of them, notwithstanding any such Interest may have been vested in or conveyed, assigned, transferred and made payable to or secured to the said Abel Moysey, or to such Deputy Remembrancer for the time being, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, or any of them, and shall and may be proceeded upon by and in the Name of such Accountant General, in right of his Office, by any Action or Suit at Law or in Equity, or in any other Manner as the same might have been proceeded upon by or in the Name or Names of the said Abel Moysey, or of such Deputy Remembrancer for the time being, or his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, and shall be subject to all such Trusts as the same were before respectively subject to; and all such Funds, Stocks, Annuities and Securities, without any Act to be done, &c. by the said Deputy Remembrancer;

and subject to all such Trusts as before.

curities, as shall at the Time of the Appointment of such Accountant General be standing in the Name of the said Abel Moysey, as Deputy Remembrancer as aforesaid, or of any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, in the Books of the said Bank of England, South Sea Company, and East India Company, or in the Books of any Body Politic or Corporate or Company, shall upon the Appointment of such Accountant General be carried by the proper Officers of the said Companies respectively to the Credit of the said Accountant General, as such Accountant General, in the Books of the said Bank of England, South Sea Company, East India Company, or other Body Politic or Corporate respectively; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Creation or Regulation of any such Funds, Stocks, Annuities, or Securities, or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon after the passing of this Act as any Person shall be appointed to be Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, the said Abel Moysey, the present Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court, or his Executors or Administrators, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, or his Executors or Administrators, shall, without Delay, make up Accounts with such Accountant General, or any other Person thereto authorised by the said Court of Exchequer, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, of all Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Securities, which shall be standing in the Name of the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, as such Deputy Remembrancer, in the Books of the Bank of England, South Sea Company, or East India Company, or in the Books of any other Body Politic or Corporate or Company; and that the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, his Executors or Administrators, shall also, without Delay, make out a true and perfect Schedule of all Cash, Exchequer Bills, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders and Effects whatsoever, deposited or remaining in his Custody, Power or Disposal, or standing in his Name as Deputy Remembrancer, and of all Monies which shall have been paid into the said Bank of England, or to the said Abel Moysey, as Deputy Remembrancer as aforesaid, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, under or by virtue of the said hereinbefore recited Order, or of any other Order, or any Decree of the said Court of Exchequer, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, and which shall not have been invested in any such Stocks, Funds or Annuities; and that the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, and his Executors or Administrators, shall swear to the Truth and Accuracy of such Schedule according to the best of his and their Knowledge and Belief; and the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, or his Executors or Administrators, shall, according to such Schedule, deliver and pay all such Cash, Exchequer Bills, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders and Effects, into the Bank of England,

An Account of all Stock, Cash, Exchequer Bills, &c. in the Hands of the present Deputy Remembrancer, to be made up, and such Cash, &c. to be paid into the Bank, &c. to the Account of the Accountant General.

to the Credit and Account of the Person so to be appointed the Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer; and at the Time of such Payment or Delivery, the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, their or his Executors or Administrators, shall receive, from One of the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a Receipt or Certificate, stating the Amount of such Cash, Exchequer Bills, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders and Effects, so delivered and paid into the said Bank; and such Receipt or Certificate, and such Schedule, shall be delivered into the said Court of Exchequer upon Oath, to be there filed and enrolled as the said Court, or the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, shall order or direct; and all such Stocks, Funds or Securities, and also all such Cash, Exchequer Bills, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders and Effects, shall be carried to the Credit and Account of the said Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer, and be placed causewise in the Books to be kept for that Purpose, or in such other Manner as shall be ordered by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid; and the said Abel Moysey, or any Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court for the time being, his Executors and Administrators, shall thereupon be indemnified and discharged of and from all Stocks, Funds, Annuities, Monies, Securities, Deposits and Effects of the said Suitors, transferred to or vested in such Accountant General, or actually paid and delivered into the Bank of England as aforesaid.

On Death, Resignation, &c. of Accountant General, all Property in the Suitors Money shall vest in his Successors; without any Act to be done by Accountant General resigning, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which by virtue of this Act, or of any Act of Parliament, Conveyance, Assignment, Transfer, Obligation or Security, any Interest in Real or Personal Estate, Effects or Property, shall be vested in, conveyed, assigned, transferred, made payable to or secured to the Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer for the time being, as such Accountant General, and in respect of his Office, all such Real and Personal Estate, Effects and Property whatsoever, upon the Death, Removal or Resignation of each and every Accountant General of the said Court, from time to time and as often as the same shall happen, and the Appointment of a Successor shall take place, shall (subject to the same Trusts as the same were before respectively subject to) vest in the succeeding Accountant General by force of this Act, and without any Act or Deed whatever to be done by the Accountant General resigning or removed, or by the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any Accountant General resigning, removed or dying, or by any Person or Persons claiming under him, them or any of them, and notwithstanding any such Interest may have been expressed to be vested in, conveyed, assigned, transferred, made payable to or secured to the Accountant General of the said Court, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, or any of them, and shall and may be proceeded upon in the Name of such succeeding Accountant General, by any Action or Suit in Law or Equity, or in any other Manner, as the same might have been proceeded upon by or in the Name or Names of such Accountant General so resigning, removed or dying, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever at any time after the First Appointment of a Person to be Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer as aforesaid, any Person or Persons shall be ordered by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, to pay any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Exchequer Bills, Bills of Exchange or other negotiable Securities, in any Cause or Matter before the said Court, into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Accountant General of the said Court, the Party upon whom the Order for Payment of such Money shall be made, shall, with the Privity of such Accountant General for the time being, pay the same into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Accountant General of the said Court, and the Party so paying any such Sum shall take a Receipt for the same from One of the Cashiers of the said Bank of England, which Receipt shall be delivered to the said Accountant General of the said Court, who shall thereupon make and sign a Certificate of such Payment, which Certificate shall be countersigned by and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Reports hereinafter directed to be appointed; and that whenever at any time after the said Appointment of a Person to be Accountant General of the said Court as aforesaid, any Money shall by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, be ordered to be invested in Government or other Securities, the Species of the particular Securities in which the same shall be directed to be invested shall be mentioned in the Order to be made for that Purpose; and in case any such Securities shall consist of Public Funds, Stocks or Annuities, the same shall be transferred into the Name of the said Accountant General; and that every such Transfer shall contain a Declaration of Trust, in the Books of the said Bank of England, that such Funds, Stocks or Annuities, are so transferred in Trust to attend the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer; and in case any such Securities shall consist of East India Bonds, Exchequer Bills, Tallies or Orders, the same shall be delivered into the Bank of England, and placed to the Account of the Accountant General of the said Court, in the Books of the said Bank, as hereinbefore directed, subject to the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer; and if any of the Securities shall consist of Stocks or Annuities of the Bank of England, the East India Company or South Sea Company, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, such Stock or Annuities shall be transferred into the Name of such Accountant General, and that every such Transfer shall contain an Entry or Declaration of Trust in the Books of the respective Companies, that such Stocks or Annuities are so transferred in Trust to attend the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer; and the said Accountant General shall take a Certificate thereof from the proper Officer of the Company whom it may concern, and shall deliver such Certificate into the Bank, in order that One of the Cashiers of the Bank may receive the Dividends thereupon; and the said Accountant General shall make a Report or Certificate of all such Securities to the said Court

Clerk in Court, or Solicitor in the Cause, shall carry such Certificate to the said Accountant General, who shall, within One Week, or at the then next opening of the respective Companies' Books, attend in Person and deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered, to the proper Officer of such Company, and transfer such Stocks, or give sufficient Authority to some other Person so to do, according to such Certificate; and such Certificate is hereby declared to be a sufficient Authority for making such Transfer or Transfers as shall, by the Decree or Order mentioned in such Certificate, be required to be made in Execution of the said Decree or Order.

Bank, &c. to make Transfer upon Certificates, &c. produced.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of the Bank of England, East India Company, South Sea Company, or any other Company, or Body Politic or Corporate, whom it may concern, shall and do from time to time permit and suffer every such Transfer as is required by this Act to be made by the Accountant General for the time being, upon the Production of the several Certificates of the several Decrees or Orders of the said Court of Exchequer for such Purpose, signed and attested as by this Act is directed and required.

Court of Exchequer, &c. empowered to make Orders for executing Act.

XV. And for the better and more effectually carrying this Act into Execution, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Exchequer, or for the Lord Chief Baron thereof, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, and the said Court, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, are hereby authorised and empowered, from time to time to make all such further Orders and Regulations as the said Court shall deem necessary and proper for effectuating all or any of the Purposes hereinbefore expressed: Provided always, that when any such Orders and Regulations shall be made, a true Copy thereof shall be made by the Clerk of the Reports, and signed by him, and transmitted to the said Accountant General, who shall cause a true Copy of such Copy, signed by him, to be transmitted to the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of England, or to any other Company, Body Politic or Corporate, whom it may concern, who, after receiving a Copy of such Orders and Regulations, shall cause the same to be observed in the same manner as if any such Orders and Regulations had originally formed a Part of this Act.

Proviso.

Suitors' Cash in the Bank to be common Cash.

XVI. And to the end that no Suitor or Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer may be delayed in Payment of any Money due to him, her or them, but that every one may receive his or her full Demand whensoever he or she shall apply for the same, in the most easy and expeditious Way, be it therefore enacted, That all the Money and Cash now deposited and to be deposited in or paid to the said Bank of England, on account of the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer, or any of them, or by Order of the said Court, shall be and be accounted and taken to be one common and general Cash, and shall be promiscuously issued and issuable when and as the said Court of Exchequer shall direct.

57 G. 3. c. 18.

XVII. And Whereas under and by virtue of an Act, made in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to facilitate the hearing and determining of Suits in Equity in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer

quer at Westminster, in consequence of the great Increase of the Proceedings in the Common Law Side of the said Court of Exchequer, the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court for the time being, or in case of his Sickness or other unavoidable Absence, any Baron of the said Court nominated and appointed by His Majesty, is empowered to hear and determine all Causes, Matters and Things which shall be at any time depending in the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity, whether the rest of the Barons of the said Court shall be sitting or not: And Whereas by the Course and Practice of the said Court of Exchequer for many Years, the Person holding the Office of Deputy to the King's Remembrancer has taken the Minutes of all Decrees and Orders of the said Court, as well in Matters of Revenue as in Proceedings on the Equity Side of the said Court, and hath also been employed in reporting to the Court his Opinion upon the several Matters referred to him: And Whereas in consequence of the Division of the Business of the said Court, pursuant to the said last recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it hath become expedient that there should be Two joint Officers to perform the said Duties on the Equity Side of the said Court, in all Suits and Matters between Subject and Subject; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court of Exchequer for the time being, and he is hereby authorised, empowered and required, to nominate and appoint, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to be enrolled among the Records of the said Court, Two fit and proper Persons, being Barristers at Law of not less than Five Years standing, to be and be called Masters of the said Court of Exchequer, and that One of such Masters shall be the Accountant General of the said Court as hereinbefore mentioned; and that such Two Masters shall hold the said Offices during their good Behaviour therein, and not be in anywise subject to the Orders or Control of the King's Remembrancer of the said Court or his Deputy; and that each of the said Masters of the said Court shall act jointly or severally, as the said Court or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, from time to time shall direct, in all Matters of Reference from the Court or Lord Chief Baron or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, and Proceedings relating thereto, in all Suits and Matters on the Equity Side of the said Court between Subject and Subject; and it shall be the Duty and Office of the said Masters to attend the said Court, and the Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, in their own proper Persons and not by Deputy, and to take the Minutes of all Orders and Decrees which shall be made by the said Court or by the Lord Chief Baron thereof, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, as well in Matters of Revenue as on the Equity Side of the said Court, which Orders or Decrees shall be afterwards drawn and engrossed by the Clerks in Court in each respective Cause or Suit, and shall and may be corrected, either in Form or Substance, by such Masters respectively, at the Instance of any of the Parties affected by any such Order or Decree, according to the Minutes taken by such Masters respectively, pursuant to the Directions of

The Lord Chief Baron to appoint Two Barristers (the Accountant General being One) to be Masters of the Court of Exchequer, and both shall act in Person in taking Minutes of Decrees, &c. and receiving References on Accounts, &c. on the Equity Side of the Court; and to report upon Matters as heretofore done by the Deputy Remembrancer.

the said Court, or of the said Lord Chief Baron, or the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, and shall be afterwards entered by the King's Remembrancer amongst the Records of the said Court, pursuant to the antient Course thereof; and it shall also be the Office and Duty of such Masters respectively to receive all such References on Matters of Account, and on all other Matters and Things on the Equity Side of the said Court, as shall be made and referred to them by the said Court of Exchequer, or by the Lord Chief Baron, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, and to report thereon to the said Court, or the Lord Chief Baron, or to the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, in such manner as heretofore was used and accustomed to be done by the Person holding the Office of Deputy Remembrancer, or as shall be directed and ordered by the said Court, or by the Lord Chief Baron, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, from time to time, and in all Things to do, execute and perform all such Duties as Masters of the Equity Side of the said Court as they shall be required to do by any Order or Orders to be for that Purpose from time to time made by the said Court, or by the Lord Chief Baron, or by the Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid.

Oath of Office to be taken by the Masters.

'XVIII. And Whereas by the antient Law and Custom of the said Court of Exchequer an Oath hath been always administered to and taken by the King's Remembrancer and Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court;' Be it enacted, That the Two Masters so to be appointed under this Act shall, before acting in the said Offices, respectively take and subscribe the following Oath, in the Presence of the Lord Chief Baron or One of the Barons of the said Court; (that is to say),

Form of Oath.

'YOU do swear, That you will well and truly serve for the King our Sovereign Lord in the Office of One of the Masters of this His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, to which you are appointed; you shall true Entry make of the Minutes of all Orders, Decrees, Awards, and other Matters and Things pronounced by the said Court, or by the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or by any Baron thereof to be nominated and appointed by His Majesty under and by virtue of an Act made in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, for facilitating the hearing and determining of Suits in Equity in the said Court of Exchequer, and which ought to be entered in the said Office, and that with all convenient Speed; you shall not take of any Person or Persons, by Promise, Gift, Reward or otherwise, whereby the King's Majesty may lose or be hindered, or by which the Right may be let or hindered to any manner of Person or Persons; and all other Things belonging to your said Office to do, you shall well and truly do without Fraud or Guile.
So help you GOD.'

In case of Illness, &c. of Accountant General, the Court, or Lord Chief Baron, &c. may order

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen at any time that the Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer for the time being shall by Illness or any other Cause be prevented from attending to the Duties of the said Office of Accountant General, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer, or Lord Chief Baron, or

or Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, by any Order or Orders to be made for that Purpose, to direct the other Master of the said Court for the time being, either generally or specially, to execute and perform all or any of the Duties of the said Accountant General in his Name, and in such Manner and under such Regulations as shall be directed and contained in such Order or Orders to be made for that Purpose; and the Person so to be appointed shall be called Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer pro tempore, and shall be so described in all Acts to be done by him in the Execution of the Duties of the said Office.

' XXII. And Whereas there is now, and from many Years' Experience it hath been found that there always hath been, a very large Sum of Money belonging to the Suitsors of the said Court of Exchequer, which lies dead and unemployed in the Hands of the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court, over and besides what hath been necessary to answer the Demands of the said Suitsors; Be it therefore enacted, That out of the Cash which shall be paid into the Bank of England by the said Abel Moysey, according to the Directions for that Purpose hereinbefore contained (a), and out of the Cash which shall thereafter lie dead and unemployed in the Bank of England, belonging to the Suitsors of the said Court of Exchequer, a Sum not exceeding Sixty five thousand Pounds shall and may, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, to be made for that Purpose, from time to time be placed out in One entire Sum, or in Parcels, in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, in such Government or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Order or Orders shall be directed, and shall be carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitsors of the Court of Exchequer, to the Intent that the Interest and annual Profits arising from the Money so to be placed out as aforesaid may be applied for the Purposes herein-after mentioned; and it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer, or Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, from time to time to change the Security or Securities on which the said Monies shall be placed, as the said Court shall think expedient.

Interest to be received by the Bank, and placed to the Credit of an Account herein mentioned; and Salaries paid thereout, as herein mentioned.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Interest and annual Profits arising and to be produced from the said Securities, shall from time to time be received by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and placed to the Credit of an Account to be raised in the Books kept there for the Suitsors of the said Court, under the Title of "Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitsors of the Court of Exchequer, in pursuance of an Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth;" and that out of such Interest Money and annual Profits there shall be paid, in the First Place, the Costs and Expences attending or relating to the passing of this Act; and that out of the Remainder of such Interest or Profits there shall be paid, by quarterly Payments, the annual Sum of Two thousand one hundred Pounds, which Payment shall be made by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Court of Exchequer, or of the Lord Chief Baron or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, to be made for that Purpose, videlicet, to the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, in his joint Capacity of Accountant General and Master, the Sum of One thousand Pounds, over and above his Fees as Master, and to the other of the said Two Masters the Sum of Seven hundred Pounds, over and above his Fees as Master, and to One or Two Persons who shall be Clerk or Clerks of the said Two Masters, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, over and above his or their Fees as such Clerk or Clerks, and to the Clerk or Keeper of the Reports and Certificates the yearly Salary of One hundred and fifty Pounds, and to the Clerk of the said Accountant General the yearly Salary of One hundred and fifty Pounds, over and besides his Fees as such Clerk to the said Accountant General, reserving to the First and Second Secondaries, their sworn Clerks and their Clerks, their accustomed Fees, which have been lawfully taken for filing and copying such Reports and Certificates, videlicet, Three Shillings and Four Pence for filing, and Eight Pence per Folio for copying such Reports and Certificates; all which said Salaries shall be over above the Fees of the said respective Offices, to be ascertained and authorised in manner hereinafter mentioned, and shall commence from the Time or Times to be appointed for that Purpose by any Order or Orders of the said Court of Exchequer, or of the Lord Chief Baron, or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid; and the Residue of the Interest and annual Profits arising and to be produced from the said Securities shall be carried to a separate Account in the Name of the said Accountant General, to be intituled "The Redemption Fund of the Suitors of the Court of Exchequer," and shall from time to time be laid out under the Orders of the said Court of Exchequer, or of the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, or of the Baron nominated and appointed as aforesaid, in the Purchase of Bank Three per Centum Annuities, in the Name of the said Accountant General; and the Interest and annual Profits arising therefrom shall be applied from time to time in the same Manner, so as by Accumulation to create a Fund for Repayment to the common and general Cash of the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer of the said Sum of Sixty five thousand Pounds, hereinbefore directed to be taken from such common and general Cash, and as a Security for Repayment thereof.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at any time the Fees received by such Accountant General shall exceed the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds in any one Year, so that the Whole of the Salary and Fees of such Accountant General shall exceed Two thousand five hundred Pounds, or if the Fees received by such Master not being Accountant General, shall exceed the Sum of One thousand three hundred Pounds in any one Year, so that the Whole of the Salary and Fees of such Master shall exceed Two thousand Pounds a Year, then and in either of such Cases respectively the Amount of all Fees and Sums of Money, exceeding such Sums of One thousand five hundred Pounds and One thousand three hundred Pounds respectively, shall, by the said Accountant General and the said Master respectively be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name of the Surplus Fees, exceeding the Sums herein specified, to be paid into the Bank, and applied as herein directed.

Accountant General, to the Account hereinbefore mentioned, called the Redemption Fund of the Suitors of the said Court, and shall be applied in such Manner as all other Sums paid to the Account of such Redemption Fund are by this Act required and directed to be applied; and for the ascertaining the yearly Amount of all such Fees, the said Accountant General and Master respectively shall once in every Year, within the First Three Days of Michaelmas Term in each Year, deliver into the said Court of Exchequer an Account, under the Hand and signed with the Name of such Accountant General and Master respectively, of the Amount of Fees received by them respectively in the Year ending on the First Day of October then next preceding; and in case it shall appear by such Account that the Amount of such Fees shall exceed the said Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds or One thousand three hundred Pounds respectively, the said Court of Exchequer, or the Lord Chief Baron or other Barons to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, shall make an Order for the Payment of the Surplus beyond such Sum into the Bank of England, to the Account of the said Redemption Fund, in Manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Court, or for the Lord Chief Baron or other Baron to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, to make any such Order or Orders, with respect to the ascertaining the Amount of such Fees, and the Payment of such Surplus, as to such Court shall seem fitting and expedient.

The aforesaid Sum of 65,000l. may be called in, if requisite, to pay the Suitors.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any time hereafter the Whole or any Part of the said Sum of Sixty five thousand Pounds shall be wanted to answer any of the Demands of the Suitors of the said Court of Exchequer, then and in such Case the said Court may and shall direct the Whole or any Part of the Surplus, Interest and Annual Profits hereinbefore directed to be carried to the Redemption Fund Account, and also the Whole or any Part of the said Sum of Sixty five thousand Pounds, as the Case shall require, to be called in, or the Securities on which the same shall be placed to be sold or disposed of, and the Produce thereof to be carried to the Account of the common and general Cash of the Suitors of the said Court, in order that the Suitors of the said Court may at all Times be paid their respective Demands out of the common and general Cash belonging to such Suitors.

Court to order what Fees may be taken.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That such Fees, and no other, shall be taken in the Offices of the said Accountant General and Two Masters, as shall be ascertained and authorised by any Order or Orders to be for that Purpose from time to time made by the said Court of Exchequer; and that if any Person belonging, or who shall hereafter belong to the said Offices or any of them, shall presume to take any other Fee on account of any Business relating to the said Offices respectively, than such as shall be so ascertained and authorised, every such Person shall be deemed guilty of Extortion, and shall and may be liable to be prosecuted for the same by Indictment or Information, or upon Complaint thereof made to the said Court of Exchequer, shall be punished for the same as for a Contempt of the Court.

An Act for allowing Appeals from Towns Corporate and Franchises, in certain Cases, to the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the Counties in which they are situate. [8th July 1820.]

17 G. 2. c. 38.

Allowing an Appeal from Corporations and Franchises not having Six Justices, nor Jurisdiction over Two or more whole Parishes or Wards. Proviso.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for remedying some Defects in the Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it is amongst other Things provided, that in all Corporations or Franchises which have not Four Justices of the Peace, it shall and may be lawful for any of the Person or Persons, in any of the Cases mentioned or referred to by the said Act, where Power of Appeal is given, to appeal, if he or they shall think fit, to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division wherein such Corporation or Franchise is situate: And Whereas it would conduce to the more equal and impartial Administration of Justice, if such Power of Appeal were extended:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Corporations and Franchises not having more than Six Justices of the Peace, nor having Jurisdiction or Authority over Two or more whole Parishes or Wards contained within such Corporation or Franchise, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, in any of the Cases mentioned or referred to by the said Act or Acts, or either of them, where an Appeal is given by the said Act or Acts, or either of them, to appeal, if he, she or they shall think fit, to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division wherein such Corporation or Franchise is situate, in as ample Manner as if such Corporation or Franchise had not Four Justices of the Peace: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to extend to any City or Town Corporate being a County of itself.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act to increase the Power of Magistrates in the Appointment of Special Constables. [8th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS Doubts have arisen whether any Person or Persons can be compelled to act as Special Constables, except in any actual Tumult, Riot or Felony: And Whereas it is expedient that Justices of the Peace should have the Power of compelling certain Persons to act as Special Constables, not only in case of actual Tumult, Riot or Felony, but also on the reasonable Apprehension thereof, for the Prevention of the same:’ Be it enacted and declared by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases where it shall be made to appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace, acting for any County, City, Division, Riding or Place, by the Information on Oath of Five respectable Householdors of such County, City, Division, Riding or Place, that any Tumult, Riot or Felony has taken place, or is likely to take place, and may reasonably be apprehended, such Justices may and are hereby authorised to call upon, nominate, and appoint, by Precept in Writing under their Hands, any Householdors or other Persons (not legally exempt from serving the Office of Constable) residing within their respective Divisions, or the Neighbourhood thereof, to act as Special Constables, for such Time and in such Manner as to the said Justices shall seem fit and necessary for the Preservation of the Public Peace, and for the Prevention or Suppression of any Tumult, Riot or Felony; and the said Justices are hereby empowered to administer to such Person so appointed the usual Oaths administered by Law to all Special Constables.

Cases in which Magistrates are empowered to appoint Special Constables.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person (not legally exempted as aforesaid) so called upon, nominated and appointed by such Justices as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to take upon themselves the Office, and to act as such Special Constable, such Person so neglecting or refusing shall be liable to such and the same Fines, Penalties and Punishments, as Persons refusing to take upon themselves the Office of Constable are now by Law subject to.

Refusing to act,

Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions holden for any County, City, Division, Riding or Place, where Special Constables shall have been called out as aforesaid, to order and direct such reasonable Allowances for Trouble and Expenses, to be made to any Person or Persons so called out by Authority of this Act, as to the said Justices shall seem fit, which Allowance the said Justices may order the Treasurer of such County, City, Division, Riding or Place, to pay to such Persons as the said Justices shall direct; and such Treasurer shall, and he is hereby authorised and required, forthwith to pay the Sum or Sums of Money so ordered and directed to be paid, to the Person empowered to receive the same, and such Treasurer shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

Justices at Sessions to order Allowance to such Special Constables.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Court before which any Indictments may be tried under the Provisions of this Act shall have the Power to award reasonable Costs of Trial to such Persons as may prefer the said Indictments, and may order the Treasurer of such County, City, Division, Riding or Place, wherein such Indictment shall be tried, to pay the Sum or Sums of Money so ordered, to such Persons as the said Court shall direct; and such Treasurer shall and he is hereby authorised and required forthwith to pay the Sum or Sums of Money, so ordered and directed to be paid, to the Persons empowered to receive the same; and such Treasurer shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

Court may allow Costs in Trials upon Indictment.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of Public Act.

An Act for the Assistance of Trade and Manufactures in Ireland, by authorising the Advance of certain Sums for the Support of Commercial Credit there. [8th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty seventh Year of ^{57 G. 3. c. 34.} the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to authorise the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in Manner therein mentioned, it was among other Things § 5. enacted, that at any time after the passing of the said Act, by or out of such Monies as should at any time or times remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, or out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom arising in Ireland, (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sum and Sums of Money as had been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid in Ireland out of the said Consolidated Fund,) there should and might be issued by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, from time to time, in Manner and under the Regulations therein mentioned and contained, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, to be applied to the Purposes of the said Act: And Whereas in consequence of the Injury lately sustained by the Failure of several Bankers, Traders and Manufacturers there, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has deemed it expedient and necessary to order that some Part of the Money authorised to be issued under the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, and which had not been applied to the Purposes of the said Act, should be applied for and towards the Relief of Commercial Credit in Ireland: And Whereas the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, have taken the said Proceedings in consideration, have resolved that whatever Sum or Sums have been or may be advanced by the Bank of Ireland to such Merchants, Traders and Manufacturers as are possessed of Funds ultimately more than sufficient to answer all Demands upon them, (but who have not the Means of converting those Funds into Money or negotiable Securities in time to meet the Pressure of the Moment), under the Direction of Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, should be made good by that House, together with an Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum from the Date at which such Sums shall have been or may be advanced respectively: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and

and by the Authority of the same, That all Acts done by the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, in Execution of the Trusts reposed in them by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, for the Relief of Commercial Credit, in Manner hereinbefore mentioned, at any time before the passing of this Act, and all Bonds or Obligations, Contracts, Agreements, Warrants of Attorney, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes or other Securities taken for such Sums as shall have been advanced under the Orders of the said Commissioners for the Purposes and in Manner aforesaid, or for the Purposes of securing, declaring or confirming any Contract or Agreement made with the said Commissioners, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be good, valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that all Acts and Matters done by the Secretary, Solicitor, Clerks, Brokers, Messengers or Officers in the Service of the said Commissioners, in the necessary Execution of the Purposes aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint Commissioners;

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, at any time after the passing of this Act, to nominate and appoint so many and such Persons as he or they shall think fit, not exceeding Nine in Number, to be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in Ireland; and the said Persons so to be nominated shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in Ireland, and the said Commissioners are hereby required to execute the Powers and Authorities given to them by this Act, without any Fee, Reward, Emolument or Gratuity whatever; and all Acts, Matters and Things which the said Commissioners are by this Act authorised and required to do, shall and may be done and executed by the Majority of such Commissioners, unless in Cases where it is otherwise specially provided by this Act.

to act without Fee.

Two of the Commissioners to take an Oath before a Baron of the Exchequer.

III. And be it further enacted, That any Two of the said Commissioners so to be nominated and appointed for the Execution of this Act, shall forthwith after the passing of this Act, and in pursuance or performance of this Act, take an Oath before One of the Barons of the Exchequer of Ireland, which they or any of them are and is hereby authorised and required to administer, the Tenor whereof shall be as follows; (that is to say),

Oath.

‘ I A. B. do swear, That according to the best of my Judgment, I will faithfully and impartially execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled (here set forth the Title of this Act), according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act.’

Oath afterwards to be taken by the other Commissioners.

And every other of the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall likewise take the same Oath before the said Two Commissioners, who are hereby authorised and required to administer the same, after they shall themselves have taken the said Oath as aforesaid.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall have Power to meet and sit from time to time in such Place and Places as they shall find most convenient, with or without Adjournment, to proceed in the Execution of this Act; and they or the Majority of them shall and may appoint and employ a Secretary and a Solicitor, and so many Clerks, Brokers, Messengers and Officers as they shall find necessary, and shall and may, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, pay to such Secretary, Solicitor, Clerks, Brokers, Messengers and Officers, such reasonable Compensations or Rewards as the said Commissioners shall think meet, and shall and may give and administer to such Secretary, Solicitor, Clerks, Brokers and Officers respectively, an Oath for their faithful Demeanor in all Things relating to the due Performance of the Trusts reposed in them by the said Commissioners, and in all other Things touching the Premises, and from time to time, at their Discretion, dismiss and discharge such Secretary, Solicitor, Clerks, Brokers, Messengers and other Officers, and appoint others in their Place; and such Secretary, Solicitor, Clerks, Brokers and Officers are hereby required faithfully to execute and perform the said Trusts in them severally and respectively reposed, without taking any Reward or Gratuity whatsoever for such Service, other than such Salaries or Reward as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint in Manner aforesaid.

Commissioners to meet, and to appoint a Secretary and other Officers.

Oath to be taken by such Officers.

Officers to take no other Reward than Salaries appointed by Commissioners.

Commissioner may examine upon Oath or Affirmation Persons willing to be examined, and receive Depositions made before Magistrates, &c.

Proviso.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to examine upon Oath (or on Affirmation, if the Person to be examined be a Quaker, which Oath or Affirmation they or any one or more of them are and is hereby authorised to administer), all Persons who shall be willing to be examined touching all such Matters and Things as shall be necessary for the Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by this Act, and also to receive any Affidavits, or any Depositions in Writing upon Oath or Affirmation, touching such Matters or Things as aforesaid, which shall be made before any Justice of the Peace of any County, or any Magistrate of any City, Borough or Town Corporate in Ireland, where or near to which the Person making such Affidavit or Deposition shall reside, certified and transmitted to the said Commissioners under the Hand and Seal of such Justice or Magistrate, which Oath or Affirmation every such Justice or Magistrate shall be and is hereby authorised and required to administer; provided, that in every such Affidavit or Deposition there shall be expressed the Addition of the Party making such Affidavit or Deposition, and the particular Place of his or her Abode: Provided always, that all such Oaths, Affidavits and Depositions, to be taken or made by any Person not resident in or near the City of Dublin, shall be taken before and certified by some Magistrate named and approved for the Purpose by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or the Majority of them.

False Evidence, Perjury.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons upon Examination upon Oath or Affirmation before the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or if any Person or Persons making any such Affidavit or Deposition as before mentioned, shall wilfully or corruptly give false Evidence, or shall in such Affidavit or Deposition wilfully and corruptly swear, affirm or allege any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is and are hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in force in Ireland Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Bonds, Bills, &c. entered into Ten Days before passing this Act, in Support of Commercial Credit, to have the same Effect as if issued under this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Bonds or Obligations, and all Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes and Contracts whatsoever, which at any time before the Expiration of Ten Days before the passing of this Act may have been made either in the Name of His Majesty, or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or of any other Person or Persons, for or in respect of the Support of Commercial Credit in manner hereinbefore mentioned, shall have the same Force, Authority and Effect in every respect, as Obligations made to our Sovereign Lord the King under this Act; and such Process as is hereinafter directed to be issued, and such Proceedings thereon as may be requisite, shall and may be issued and had against Persons making Default in Payment of the Money secured by such Bonds or Obligations, Bills, Notes or Contracts, and shall be in the Name of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in like Manner as on any Obligation made to His Majesty under the Authority of this Act.

Commissioners to appoint Persons to receive Applications from Merchants, &c. for Loans.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them, who shall have taken the said Oath, can assemble, the said Commissioners shall proceed to receive, or shall appoint a proper Person for receiving, all such Applications in Writing as shall be made to them from any Merchants, Traders, or Manufacturers in Ireland, for the Loan and Advance of Money according to this Act; and the said Commissioners shall also then fix and appoint subsequent Days for taking into their Consideration all such Applications, and shall meet together for that Purpose, and shall proceed with all convenient Dispatch to ascertain the Amount of the Sums which, in their Judgment, it will be expedient to advance under this Act, in pursuance of Applications made for such Assistance.

Applications to be classed according to the Amount of the Sums applied for.

IX. And be it further enacted, That before any Apportionment shall be made of any Money to be advanced under this Act, the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall cause the several Applications delivered to such Commissioners to be classed according to the Amount of the Sums respectively applied for, and the Nature of the Securities tendered, and the Circumstances, as far as the same shall appear upon the said Applications; and shall thereupon draw up and establish such general Rules and Regulations for their own Government in the apportioning and distributing the Sums of Money to be advanced and lent under this Act to the several Persons applying for the same, as the said Commissioners in their Discretion shall deem equitable and just; all which Rules and Regulations shall, within a convenient Time, be entered in a Book or Books to be prepared and kept by such Commis-

Regulations to be established by the Commissioners for distributing the Money to be lent.

Commissioners for that Purpose; and the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, according to the true Purport and Meaning of such general Rules and Regulations as aforesaid, shall proceed to take into their Consideration all such Applications which shall specify the Amount of the Sums required to be advanced as aforesaid, and by which any Security shall be tendered which the said Commissioners are authorised by this Act to take for the Payment of the Sums to be advanced, and which shall also specify the Nature thereof, and from time to time, on Enquiry into the same respectively, shall determine what Persons shall, in their Judgment, be entitled to any Part of the Money to be advanced or lent under this Act, and to what Amount; and shall ascertain the Nature and Amount of the Securities to be required from them for the same respectively.

Nature of Security to be ascertained.

X. And be it further enacted, That when and as soon as the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall have determined upon any Amount of such Money to be advanced under the Provisions of this Act, the said Commissioners shall forthwith certify such Amount to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, by One or more Certificate or Certificates under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them; and every such Certificate of the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, shall be presented to the Cashiers of the said Bank of Ireland, or One of them, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland to advance the several Sums of Money mentioned in every such Certificate to the Persons mentioned in such Certificate respectively; and every such Certificate shall be deposited and shall remain in the Office of the Accountant General of the said Bank of Ireland; provided that the whole Amount of Money to be advanced under this Act shall not at any time exceed the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds.

Commissioners, on determining the Amount to be advanced, to certify same to Bank, who may advance the Money accordingly.

Whole Amount not to exceed 500,000l.

XI. And for the replacing of all and every such Sums and Sum of Money as at any time before the Appointment of Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, may have been or may be advanced under the Orders of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, for the Support of Commercial Credit, out of the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, applicable to the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, be it enacted, That at any time after the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall be appointed, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Act of the said Fifty seventh Year, or any Three of them, to transmit to the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, a Certificate of the Amount of all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall have been advanced in Manner hereinbefore mentioned, for the Support of Commercial Credit, upon the Certificates of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said Act of the said Fifty seventh Year, together with all Obligations, Securities, Papers, Documents and Writings whatsoever, relating to any Sum or Sums so advanced; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three of them, to certify the Amount of such Sum or Sums to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, who shall shall thereupon pay the Amount of all such Sum or Sums of Money into the Receipt of the Exchequer at Dublin; and that all Sums which under any such Certificates shall be so paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer at Dublin, shall be taken as Part of the Money advanced by the Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland for the Purposes of this Act, and that the Sums so advanced and repaid shall not be taken or considered as any Part of the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds authorised to be issued for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign.

Commissioners under recited Act to transmit a Certificate of Amount of Money advanced, with Securities, to Commissioners under this Act, who shall certify Amount to Bank, who shall pay the Money into the Exchequer at Dublin, &c.

Commissioners to appoint Times for taking into Consideration further Applications for Loans;

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them respectively, shall and may from time to time fix and appoint proper and convenient Days for taking into Consideration all such further Applications as shall from time to time be made to them, and shall ascertain the Amount of such Money as shall be required to be from time to time advanced for the Purposes of this Act, and shall by like Certificate or Certificates as aforesaid, certify the same to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, until the Whole of the Money authorised to be advanced in pursuance of this Act shall have been advanced for the Purposes aforesaid; and the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall from time to time proceed to determine to what Amount such Money shall be advanced under this Act, and shall grant Certificates thereof, in such Form and under the like Rules and Regulations as are hereinbefore mentioned concerning the Money to be first issued or advanced as aforesaid, and all such Money shall be from time to time advanced in the Form and Manner before directed.

and to determine Amount and certify.

Accountant General of Bank to deliver Lists of Sums advanced without Fee.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Accountant General of the Bank of Ireland shall, without Fee or Reward, from time to time, upon Requisition of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, deliver to them complete Lists of all Sums advanced by the Governor and Company of the said Bank, in pursuance of Certificates of the said Commissioners, specifying the respective Sums so advanced, and distinguishing the Persons to whom, and the Dates and Numbers of the Certificates in consequence whereof, and the Dates and Times when the said Advances were so made respectively.

Persons to whom Sums advanced to enter into such Securities as Commissioners shall think necessary.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money respectively shall be advanced or lent under the Provisions of this Act, shall previously enter into such Security, in such Sum or Sums of Money (not less than Double the Amount of the Principal Sums so lent or advanced) as the Case may require, and as the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them, shall respectively deem necessary; which Securities the said Commissioners respectively, or any Three or more of them, shall in their Discretion have full Power and Authority to cause to be taken; and every Security to be taken in pursuance of this Act shall be by Writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King, in such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be directed by such Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by virtue of this Act, to be paid to our said Lord the King, by such Form of Words as

Person or Persons claiming such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or any Interest therein, or the Produce thereof, or any Part thereof, shall and may apply in a summary Way, by Motion or otherwise, touching the same, to the Court of Exchequer at Dublin, who shall proceed to enquire into the Validity of such Claim, and shall thereupon order such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or any Part thereof, or any Money which shall have arisen by Sale thereof, or any Part thereof, to be delivered or paid to such Person or Persons, upon such Terms and in such Manner as to the said Court shall seem fit and proper.

Commissioners may advance Money on Goods secured in Warehouses, without Payment of Duty.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to advance and lend any Sum or Sums of Money upon Goods, Wares or Merchandises lodged and secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, under the Regulations of any Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpose, according to the estimated Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, exclusive of the Duties chargeable thereon; and that such Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall remain in such Warehouses respectively, under the several Rules, Regulations and Restrictions in the said Acts contained, except as herein is excepted; provided that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be removed from any such Warehouse or Warehouses, without the Authority of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, signified by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two or more of the said Commissioners.

Proviso as to Removal of such Goods.

Sureties answerable only for the Sum subscribed by them.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where Security shall be entered into with such Surety or Sureties as the said Commissioners or the Majority of them shall in their Discretion approve, then each of the Sureties in such Security shall be bound in such Sum, and no more, as he shall set and subscribe against his Name upon such Security: Provided always, that no Sum or Sums of Money shall be lent or advanced under this Act, upon the Security last mentioned, unless the Amount of all the Sums set and subscribed against the Name of the several Sureties upon the said Security, shall amount in the whole to double the Sums of Money to be lent and advanced on the Credit of such Security; and that no Sum or Sums shall be lent or advanced on any Deposit of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, to a greater Amount than in the Proportion of Fifty per Centum, in case such Goods, Wares or Merchandises are manufactured, or of Sixty per Centum in case the said Goods, Wares or Merchandises are unmanufactured, on the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandises so deposited, or on the Value of the specific Interest which the Party or Parties depositing such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall have therein as aforesaid.

Proviso.

the whole of the Sum or Sums advanced and lent thereon, together with Interest; and that upon the Production of the Certificate or Certificates of the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, signifying the Payment thereof as aforesaid, the Officer or Officers having the Care of such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, shall deliver out of the Warehouse or Warehouses or other Places wherein the same shall be so deposited, the whole or so much of the said Goods, Wares or Merchandises as shall be mentioned or expressed in such Certificate or Certificates of such Commissioners.

Permits for Removal of Goods where necessary.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where a Permit shall be required by Law for the Removal of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, from Place to Place within Ireland, such Permit shall be required, in all Cases, for the Removal of the like Goods, Wares and Merchandises, to or from any Warehouse or Warehouses to be provided or used under the Authority of this Act.

Goods to be insured at the Expense of the Persons depositing the same.

XXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That every Person depositing or causing to be deposited any Goods, Wares or Merchandises under this Act, shall at his and their proper Charges, if required so to do by the Commissioners for executing this Act, cause the same to be insured from any Loss by Fire, for and during such Time as the said Goods, Wares and Merchandises shall be deposited in any Warehouse or Warehouses or other Place in pursuance of this Act, for such Sum or Sums of Money, and in such Office or with such Person or Persons, as the said Commissioners shall direct or approve.

Money advanced to be paid with Interest, after the Rate of 6 per Cent., as Commissioners shall direct.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the principal Sums which shall be advanced or lent under and in pursuance of the Certificates of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, shall be paid without Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the same after the Rate of Six Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, by such Instalments and in such Proportions and at such Periods and Times as the said Commissioners shall, by and with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, direct and appoint, and as shall be specified accordingly in the Securities to be taken by the Commissioners for the Repayment of such Money in Manner directed by this Act.

In Default of Payment of Money advanced, Commissioners to issue their Warrant to Officer to proceed against Securities for Recovery thereof, with Interest and Costs, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Default shall be made by any Person or Persons in the Payment of any Sum or Sums advanced under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them, to issue their Warrant or Warrants from time to time to the proper Officer or Officers of the Crown having the Direction or Management of Proceedings upon Obligations to His Majesty in Ireland, requiring such Officer or Officers presently to proceed against all or any of the Persons who shall have entered into any Security for the Sum advanced, his, her and their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, for the Recovery of such Parts of the Sums advanced on such Securities as shall be then due, together with Interest as aforesaid, and such Costs and Charges attending such Proceeding as shall be by Law payable for the same; the Amount of which principal Sums

Sums so to be levied, the said Commissioners shall cause from time to time to be testified by their Note in Writing under the Hands of any Three or more of them respectively, to such Officer or Officers, and which Sum shall be inserted in the Writ or Process; and the like Process shall and may from time to time issue as aforesaid as Occasion shall require; and the Sums so recovered (the Costs and Charges aforesaid excepted) shall be paid to the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of Ireland, without Abatement, Deduction or Delay, in Satisfaction of such Demands; and it shall be in the Discretion of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to direct against which of the Obligors or Sureties in such Security such Proceedings shall be from time to time commenced or prosecuted; and the said Commissioners shall have the Controll and Superintendance of such Prosecutions, and the same shall not be discontinued, quashed or abated upon any Preference whatever, without the Authority of the said Commissioners testified under the Hands and Seals of any Two or more of them, and exhibited to the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Dublin.

Commissioners may select Obligors or Sureties to proceed against.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Proceedings shall be directed by the said Commissioners under this Act as aforesaid against any of the Obligors or any Obligor named in any such Obligations, no Writ or Writs of Scire facias shall be required to be issued, but that upon the Production of the Warrant or Warrants of the said Commissioners as before mentioned, before any of the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, an Extent may issue in the First Process upon the Fiat of such Baron, without any Affidavit, or other Verification or Proof of the Cause of such Proceeding, than such Warrant or Warrants as aforesaid.

No Scire facias required, but an Extent in the first Process may be issued.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Obligation or other Security given or authorised by virtue of this Act, and entered into by any Person or Persons who shall afterwards become Bankrupt within the true Intent and Meaning of the several Statutes made and now in force concerning Bankrupts, and against whom a Commission of Bankrupt shall be awarded and issued out in Ireland, shall by reason and force of such Bankruptcy, and from the Time of such Bankruptcy, become and be forfeited and due and payable as against such Bankrupt or Bankrupts; and that all the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, which would be liable to satisfy the Demands of the Creditors seeking Relief under such Commission of Bankrupt, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby made chargeable with the Payment of the Principal and Interest due upon such Obligation or other Security, and all Costs attending the Recovery of the same; and that the respective Claims of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall be first paid and satisfied out of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and in preference to the Claim of any other Creditor or Creditors; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in the Name of their Secretary for the time being, to apply by Petition in a summary Way to the proper Court in Ireland having Jurisdiction of the Matters of such Commission of Bankruptcy, to make due Order accordingly, which such Court is hereby authorised and required to make.

Estates of Bankrupts liable to Payment of Principal and Interest due on their Obligation, and Costs, in preference to the Claim of other Creditors.

Commissioners may apply by Petition.

Commissioners may accept Security from the Assignees of such Bankrupts Estates; to operate as a Release of Bankrupt's Estate, as here- in mentioned.

Commissioners may apply by petition against Estate of Bankrupt.

Proof of Debt given by any Person appointed by Commissioners, to be admitted by Commissioners of Bankrupt.

Assignment of Bankrupt's Estate to be subject to the Claims of Commissioners.

Obligation or Security, on being satisfied, to be delivered up to be cancelled;

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act to accept from the Assignees under any Commission of Bankrupt issued against any Debtor or Debtors in any such Loan under this Act, such Security for the Payment of the Sum due from such Bankrupt or Bankrupts out of his or their Estate or Effects, as the said Commissioners shall respectively approve; and that the Acceptance of such Security by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, shall operate as a Release of the Estate of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, for the Benefit of the Creditors under the said Commission of Bankruptcy from all Claims whatsoever by the said Commissioners, other than and except such Part of the said Estate as shall be specified in Writing, between the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act and the Assignees under the said Commission of Bankruptcy, to be reserved by the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for such Security as aforesaid, in case the Commissioners shall require Security.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in the Name of their Secretary for the time being, to apply by Petition or otherwise to the proper Court in Ireland, for any Commission of Bankruptcy against the Estate and Effects of any Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and to sue or otherwise pursue the same respectively, in like Manner as any other Creditor or Creditors is or are by Law entitled to do in Ireland.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners named in any Commission of Bankruptcy which shall at any time hereafter be awarded and issued out in Ireland, shall admit the Proof of any Debt, or Grounds of Debt under this Act, on the Oath, Affirmation or Affidavit of any Person appointed by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; which Oath, Affirmation and Affidavit respectively, shall be taken and administered before any one of the proper Officers having Authority by Law to administer Oaths or Affirmations, or to take Affidavits in Cases of Bankruptcy; and shall permit such Person so authorised by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to vote in the Choice of an Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupts, and to do and execute every other Act, Matter or Thing relating to such Bankruptcy, as fully and effectually as if such Person so authorised were the bonâ fide Creditor of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent, hinder or delay the Execution of any Commission of Bankruptcy by the Commissioners therein named, according to the Laws now in force in Ireland; provided that every Assignment of the Estate or Effects of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, under every such Commission, shall be subject to the Claims of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and until the same shall be fully paid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That after the due Payment of the Sums so advanced under the Provisions of this Act, with the Interest as aforesaid, at the Times and in the Manner specified in the Obligation or Security taken for the same, every such Obligation gation or Security being fully satisfied, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forthwith delivered up to be cancelled; and in case any Proceedings shall have been had on such Obligation or Security, according to the Directions of this Act, the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, shall, by a Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, direct the proper Officer or Officers of the said Court of Exchequer to enter up Satisfaction, on such Obligation or Security so being satisfied as aforesaid, upon the Record, or otherwise to deliver up the same to be cancelled, as the Case may require.

and Satisfaction entered.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Obligation or Security which has been or may be taken as aforesaid, and whereby any Person or Persons shall have engaged for the Repayment of any Sum of Money, other than the Person or Persons to whom or for whose Use such Sum has been or may be advanced, after Payment or Recovery thereupon by the said Commissioners of the Sums advanced or lent, with all Interest and Costs, in the Manner required by this Act, shall stand and remain as a further Security for the Purposes and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, if any such Person or Persons so being merely a Surety or Sureties therein, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, shall have paid or satisfied any Part of such Sums, Interest or Costs, then such Obligation or Security as against the Principal, his or their Executors or Administrators, shall stand as a Security as aforesaid for the Reimbursement of such Sureties respectively, their Executors or Administrators, of the Whole of such Sums so paid or satisfied, and so from time to time until such Reimbursements shall be fully made according to the Intent of this Act; and if any such Sureties or Surety, their or his Executors or Administrators, shall have paid or satisfied any Sum which shall bear a greater Proportion to the Whole of the Sums recovered upon such Obligation or Security, than the Sum for which such Surety respectively shall have been so engaged shall bear to the total Amount of all the several Sums of Money for which all the several Sureties shall have been engaged by such Obligation or Security, then such Obligation or Security, as against every of the Sureties who shall not have paid or satisfied an equal Proportion of the whole Sum recovered according to the Sum for which he shall have been respectively engaged, their and every of their Heirs, Executors and Administrators respectively, shall stand as a Security for the Benefit of such Sureties or Surety, their Executors or Administrators respectively, who shall have paid or satisfied any such Sums as aforesaid, for the Purpose of enforcing a Contribution amongst such Sureties in an equal Proportion to the several Sums for which they shall have been respectively engaged, and so from time to time until such Contribution shall be fully made according to the Intent of this Act; and that in every such Case, upon the Application of any Sureties or Surety for any of the Purposes aforesaid to the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, the said Commissioners shall cause the respective Claims of such Sureties or Surety respectively, and the Sums to be recovered from such Principals or Sureties respectively, their and every of their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, to be adjusted and settled as herein is mentioned, so that the whole Sum recovered shall be distributed Commissioners, and the Remainder be made a Part of the Consolidated Fund.

If Money lent by the Bank be not paid by July 11, 1821, Deficiency to be made good in manner herein mentioned.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen that any Part of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, lent and advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, shall not be fully paid and satisfied to the said Governor and Company on or before the Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, with Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Time when the same shall have been respectively advanced, then and in such Case such Deficiency shall and may be supplied and made good in manner hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say), that the Commissioners under this Act shall certify by Writing under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Five of them, to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, the Amount of the Principal and Interest so remaining unpaid to the said Governor and Company, after the Time when the same ought to have been paid and satisfied as aforesaid; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to issue One or more Treasury Bill or Bills to the Amount of such Deficiency, to pass current at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer of Ireland, at the End of One Year after the Date thereof, payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, with Interest from the Date thereof at Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to receive the same: Provided always, that whatever Monies shall be afterwards received by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, from the Parties liable on account of the Sum or Sums so deficient, shall be paid by the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, and shall be carried to and make Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Proviso for carrying Monies afterwards received to Consolidated Fund.

On Vacancy, the remaining Commissioners to appoint others (with Consent of Lord Lieutenant) in the Room of such as decline to act, &c.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall decline to act in the Execution of the Powers and Trusts hereof, or having begun to act shall decline to act any further therein, or shall die during the Continuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the remaining Commissioners or the major Part of them, acting as aforesaid, by any Writing under their Hands and Seals, and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to constitute and appoint such Person or Persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in the Place of the Commissioner or Commissioners so refusing to act, or declining further to act, or dying as aforesaid, as the said acting Commissioners or the major Part of them, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall think fit, and so as often as such Case shall happen; and the Person or Persons so constituted and appointed by the said Commissioners with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, having first qualified to act by taking and subscribing the Oath hereinbefore provided and directed, shall be invested with the same Powers and Authorities as are given or delegated by this Act unto the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall and may sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary for the time being; and that no Action or Suit in Law or Equity, to be brought or commenced by or against the said Commissioners on account of any thing done under this Act, in the Name of their Secretary for the time being, shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Secretary, or by the Act of such Secretary without the Consent of the said Commissioners, but the Secretary to the said Commissioners for the time being shall always be deemed the Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action or Suit, as the Case may be; and no Action or Suit shall be brought against the said Commissioners collectively or individually, or against their Secretary, except in the said Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and with the Leave of such Court first had and obtained, and upon such Terms and Conditions as the said Court shall direct.

Commissioners to sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall from time to time, at their Discretion, or as often as they shall be thereunto required, during their carrying on any Proceedings by virtue of this Act, and as soon as possible after the Determination of such Proceedings, without any further Requisition, give an Account of their Proceedings in Writing to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and also to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Commissioners to give an Account of their Proceedings to the Lord Lieutenant and to the Treasury, &c.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall and may receive and send all their Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Postage; provided that such Letters and Packets as shall be sent to the said Commissioners shall be directed to the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or to their Secretary, at their Office; and that all such Letters and Packets as shall be sent by the said Commissioners shall be dated from their said Office, and shall be signed on the Outside of such Letters and Packets by their Secretary, or such Person as the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall appoint, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and under such Restrictions and Regulations as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors respectively shall think proper and direct.

Commissioners to receive and send Letters free from Postage, under the Regulations herein mentioned.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where an Oath may be administered by this Act, it shall be lawful to administer an Affirmation in lieu thereof, as the Case may require.

*Act may be altered, &c.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XL.

An Act to amend and explain an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty ninth Year of His late Majesty, to enable certain Persons to recover a just Compensation for the Tithes withheld from them in the Years One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven and One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight. [8th July 1820.]

39 G. 3. (I.)

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to enable all Ecclesiastical

‘ *siastical Persons and Bodies, Rectors, Vicars and Curates, and Impropriators, and those deriving by, from or under them, to recover a just Compensation for the Tithes withheld from them in the Years One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven and One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, against such Persons as were liable to the same, it was amongst other Things enacted, that all Leases or Demises of Tithes which should be made or executed at any time after the passing of the said Act, by any Person or Persons who was or were himself or themselves entitled to such Tithes solely by virtue of a Lease or Leases executed to him or them by Ecclesiastical Persons or Bodies, Rectors, Vicars and Curates, or Impropriators, other than Leases or Demises of the Tithes to the actual Occupiers of the Lands subject and liable to the Payment of the Tithe demised, should be utterly null and void:’ And Whereas Doubts have arisen and are entertained, whether, under the said Provision of the said Act, Persons are not incapacitated to make such Leases, though bound so to do under and by virtue of Covenants made and entered into previous to the passing of the said Act, to the great Injury and Oppression of the Persons entitled to the Benefit of the said Covenants:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said Act shall extend or be taken to extend to make null and void any Lease of Tithes made or executed, or hereafter to be made and executed, under and by virtue of any Covenant which was bonâ fide made and entered into previous to the passing of the said Act; nor to incapacitate any Person or Persons from making and executing any Lease or Leases in pursuance of such Covenant as aforesaid.*

Leases covenanted for previous to recited Act made valid.

C A P. XLI.

An Act to extend the Benefit of Two Acts, made in the Fifty sixth and Fifty eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for amending the Law of Ireland respecting the Recovery of Tenements from absconding, overholding and defaulting Tenants.

[8th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend the Law of Ireland respecting the Recovery of Tenements from absconding, overholding and defaulting Tenants, and for the Protection of the Tenant from undue Distress; and by an Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of His said late Majesty, for explaining and amending the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year; divers Provisions and Regulations were made relating to Tenements held by Tenants at a Rent not exceeding Twenty Pounds a Year, and relating to the Landlords and Tenants of such Tenements; and such Provisions have been found highly beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be extended: Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by

56 G. 3. c. 88.
§ 2—3.

58 G. 3. c. 59.
§ 1.

Provisions of recited Acts extended to all Tenements not exceeding 50l. per Annum, &c.

by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Clauses, Rules, Regulations, Provisions and Directions in the recited Acts or either of them contained, and relating to the Tenements held by any Tenants at a Rent not exceeding Twenty Pounds per Annum, or to the Landlords or Tenants of such Tenements, shall be and the same are hereby extended and shall be deemed and construed to extend to all Tenements held at any Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and to the Landlords and Tenants of such Tenements; and that the Judges of Assizes in the Civil Courts of the several Counties in Ireland, the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, the Recorder of the City of Dublin for the County of the City of Dublin, and the several Assistant Barristers of the other Counties in Ireland respectively, shall have, use and exercise such and the like Jurisdiction, and that it shall be lawful to proceed by Civil Bill, in such and the like manner in all Respects and to all Intents and Purposes under the said Act, in Cases where any Tenements are held at a Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, as in and by the said recited Acts or either of them is enacted and provided in Cases where Tenements are held at a Rent not exceeding Twenty Pounds per Annum, and as if the said Acts or either of them had been previously extended to Tenements not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and the Landlords and Tenants of such Tenements.

What shall be deemed sufficient Service of Notice on Tenants.

‘ II. And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Validity of ‘ Notices on Tenants of Lands and Tenements, or on their Wives, ‘ Children or Servants, in certain Cases;’ Be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that the Tenant of any Lands or Tenements in Ireland shall not be resident in such Lands or Tenements, the Delivery of any Notice or Process to such Tenant in Person, or at the Dwelling House of such Tenant to his Wife, or to any Child or Servant of such Tenant, being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards, shall in all Cases be deemed good and sufficient Service of any such Notice or Process, although such Tenant shall not be resident or his Dwelling House shall not be situate on the Lands or Tenements demised to such Tenant, or to which such Notice or Process shall relate; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

C A P. XLII.

An Act to authorise a Composition for the Debt remaining due to His Majesty from the late Abraham Goldsmid Merchant, and his surviving Partners. [8th July 1820.]

C A P. XLIII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Smuggling, and the Coasting Trade in Great Britain. [15th July 1820.]

56 G. 3. c. 104. § 6.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty, for, amongst other Things, ‘ making more effectual Provision for the Prevention of Smug- ‘ gling, certain Rewards are granted to Officers of the Army, ‘ Navy.

' Navy, Marines, or Officers acting under the Orders of the Lord
 ' High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord
 ' High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire- ' land, and of Officers on Half Pay, and of all Officers acting ' under the Orders of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of ' England, Scotland or Ireland respectively; for and in respect ' of all Seizures of Ships, Boats and Vessels, Goods, Wares and ' Merchandise, under any Law or Laws of Customs or Excise then
 ' in force, at Sea, or for being unshipped or landed without Pay' ment of His Majesty's Duties of Customs or Excise respectively
 ' payable on the legal Importation of such Goods, Wares or Mer' chandise, or the Importation of which shall be wholly prohibited:
 ' And Whereas it is expedient that the said Act, so far as regards
 ' the Rewards for Seizures as aforesaid, and the Deduction of ' Ten per Centum to be made thereupon, should be repealed, and ' other Rewards granted in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted
 ' by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice
 ' and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons,
 ' in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the ' same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of ' the before-recited Act as relates to the granting of such Rewards
 ' for such Seizures as aforesaid, and the Deduction of Ten per ' Centum to be made therefrom, shall be and the same is hereby ' repealed; and instead and in lieu thereof the following Rewards
 ' shall be paid and allowed for and in respect of all Seizures of ' Spirits, Tobacco and Snuff, under any Law or Laws of Customs ' or Excise now in force, at Sea, or for being unshipped or landed
 ' without Payment of His Majesty's Duties of Customs or Excise
 ' respectively payable on the legal Importation of such Goods,
 ' Wares or Merchandise, or the Importation of which shall be ' wholly prohibited; that is to say, if any such Officer or Officers
 ' making any such Seizure of any Spirits, Tobacco or Snuff, at Sea,
 ' shall also arrest, stop and detain all the Persons who shall be or ' shall have been employed in navigating the Ship, Boat or other ' Vessel in or on board of which such Goods, Wares or Merchan' dise shall be, and shall have been imported and brought from ' Parts beyond the Seas; and shall also seize and secure such Ship,
 ' Boat or other Vessel; or making such Seizure on Shore, shall also ' arrest, stop and detain all and every the Person and Persons who ' shall be unloading, removing, carrying or concealing such Goods,
 ' Wares or Merchandise landed without Payment of Duty, or ' wholly prohibited as aforesaid, and then seized, and also seize
 ' and secure the Cart and other Carriages, and Horse and Horses
 ' and Cattle used for removing and carrying the same; and such ' Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall take and convey, or cause
 ' every such Person so arrested, stopped or detained as aforesaid,
 ' to be taken or conveyed before One or more of His Majesty's ' Justices of the Peace, so that he and they may be dealt with ac' cording to Law; then and in every such Case such Officer or Offi' cers making such Seizure shall be entitled to and shall be paid
 ' Seven eighths of the Value of such Goods, after deducting Seven ' per Centum on account of the Costs and Charges incurred in the ' Seizure, Condemnation, and Disposal of the said Goods; and in ' case some or one only of such Persons as aforesaid shall be seized,
 ' arrested

arrested or detained, and brought before such Justice or Justices, and shall, if Subjects of His Majesty, be found fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and duly transferred thereto, and the rest shall unavoidably escape, and the Ship, Boat or other Vessel, in which such Goods shall have been imported, or brought from Parts beyond the Seas, shall also be seized and secured as aforesaid, such Officer or Officers making such Seizure as last aforesaid, shall be entitled to, and shall be paid Three fourths of the Value of such Goods, after such Deduction as aforesaid; and in case such Officer or Officers as aforesaid, making such Seizure as aforesaid, shall stop, arrest and detain one or more of the Men from whom the same shall be seized, and shall produce such Person or Persons before the Justice or Justices, to be dealt with according to Law, and the Person or Persons so arrested shall, if Subjects of His Majesty, be found fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and be duly transferred thereto, then and in such Case such Officer or Officers shall be entitled to and shall be paid Two thirds of the Value of such Goods, with such Deduction as aforesaid; and in case such Officer or Officers as aforesaid, making any such Seizure as aforesaid, shall also seize and secure the Ship, Boat or other Vessel as aforesaid, in which such Goods shall have been imported or brought from Parts beyond the Seas, or the Cart and other Carriage or Carriages, Horse or Horses, or Cattle as aforesaid, but shall not also stop, arrest and detain, and produce before the Justice or Justices, such Persons as aforesaid, or some or one of them, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, if Subjects of His Majesty, then and in such Case such Officer or Officers making such Seizures shall be entitled to and shall be paid a Moiety of the Value of such Goods, after the Deduction aforesaid: and in case any such Officer or Officers shall make Seizure of any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as aforesaid, and shall neither seize and secure the Ship, Boat or other Vessel in which such Goods shall have been imported or brought from Parts beyond the Seas as aforesaid, or arrest, detain and produce before the Justice or Justices, and if a Subject or Subjects of His Majesty, deliver over for the Use of His Majesty's Navy as aforesaid, any of the Persons aforesaid, then and in such Case such Officer or Officers making such Seizure of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise only, shall be entitled to and shall be paid, after such Deduction as aforesaid, One third Part of the Value of such Goods as aforesaid.

‘ II. And Whereas it is expedient to make particular Provision in respect to the Rewards to be paid for Seizures of Spirits, Tobacco and Snuff, found at Sea, and brought into Port by Persons not in the Service of the Revenue, and delivered to the Officer for Seizure; and for Seizure of Spirits, Tobacco and Snuff, on Information of the same having been sunk in the Sea, or floating thereon; Be it therefore enacted, That in every Case of Seizure of Spirits, Tobacco and Snuff, found at Sea, and brought into Port by Persons not in the Service of the Revenue, and delivered to any Officer or Officers for Seizure; and in every Case of Seizure of Spirits, Tobacco and Snuff, on Information of the same having been sunk in the Sea, or floating thereon; the Officer or Officers making such Seizures shall be entitled to and shall shall be paid One fourth Part of the Value of such Goods, after such Deduction as aforesaid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction, that the Failure of any such Officer or Officers upon making any such Seizure as aforesaid, in arresting all or any of the Persons aforesaid, and producing them or him before such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, or delivering them or him over for the Use of His Majesty's Navy, or seizing and securing such Ship, Boat or other Vessel, was not owing to any Want of Exertion on the Part of such Officer or Officers, but was solely occasioned by Resistance, or from the Violence of the Sea, Darkness of the Night, or other insurmountable Obstacles, to grant to such Officer or Officers such further Part of the Value of such Seizure as aforesaid, as by them may be deemed expedient in that Behalf, or to give such other Directions relative thereto, as by them may be deemed advisable.

Treasury may grant further Reward to Officers, where upon Failure Exertion was not wanting to make the Seizure more complete.

III. And Whereas, by the Laws now in force, Boats of certain Dimensions and Constructions are liable to Seizure, unless licensed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and Security given according to Law that such Boats shall not be used or employed in any Way or any Manner whatever contrary to the Laws in force or thereafter to be made relative to the Revenue of Customs: And Whereas it is expedient to exempt Boats belonging to square-rigged Ships or Vessels from such Liability to Seizure; Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in the said Law shall extend to require any Licence or Bond, or to forfeit any Boat for Want thereof, which shall belong to any square-rigged Ship or Vessel, on account of the Dimensions or Construction of such Boat, provided such Boat is with the Ship or Vessel, or employed on the Duty or Service of the Ship or Vessel to which it may belong.

Boats belonging to square-rigged Vessels, and in use, exempt from Seizure on account of their Dimensions and Construction.

IV. And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be enabled from time to time to procure and take for a Time or Term of Years, all such Lands, not exceeding One Half Acre at any one Station, as are, shall or may be wanted for the Purposes of erecting and maintaining Watch Houses, Dwelling Houses, and other Buildings requisite and necessary for the Security and Protection of the Revenues of Customs and Excise, together also with all necessary Ways unto and from the same; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or for any Three or more Commissioners of the Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, from time to time, by any Writing under their Hands, to authorise any Person or Persons to survey and mark out any such Lands, not exceeding One Half Acre at any one Station, which are, shall or may be wanted for the Purposes aforesaid, or any or either of them; such Lands being situated within Half a Mile of the Sea Shore, or of the Tideway of any navigable River; and to treat and agree with the Owner or Owners thereof, or any Person or Persons interested therein, for the Possession thereof for such Time or Term of Years as the Public Service shall require.

Treasury may authorise Persons to survey and mark out Lands for Watchhouses, &c. for Protection of the Revenue.

1 Geo. IV.

N

V. And

Bodies Politic, &c. may contract for the Sale of Premises.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, and all Offices or Trustees for charitable or other public Purposes, and for all Tenants for Life and Tenants in Tail, and for the Husbands, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, Curators or Attornies of such of the Owners or Proprietors of, or Persons interested in any such Lands required for such Public Service, as shall be Females Covert, Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, or Persons beyond the Seas, or otherwise incapable of acting for themselves, to contract and agree with such Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid, for the Grant of any Lease of such Lands, either for any Term of Years certain therein, or for such Periods as the Public Service shall require, and to demise or grant the same unto the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors accordingly; and all such Leases and Agreements shall be valid and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Persons refusing to sell or to accept the Consideration offered, Two Justices, &c. may put His Majesty's Officers into Possession, and a Jury shall be summoned, who shall find the Compensation to be made.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Bodies or other Persons hereby authorised to contract on behalf of themselves or others as aforesaid, or any other Person or Persons interested in any such Lands which shall be so marked out and surveyed for the Public Service, shall, for the Space of Fourteen Days next after Notice in Writing, subscribed by such Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid, shall have been given to the principal Officer or Officers of any such Body, or to such other Persons hereby authorised to contract on behalf of others, or interested themselves as aforesaid, or left at his, her or their usual Place of Abode, refuse or decline to treat or agree, or by reason of Absence shall be prevented from treating or agreeing with such Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid, or shall refuse to accept such annual Rent or Sum as shall be offered for the Hire thereof, either for a Time certain or for such Period as the Public Service may require; and in case also it shall not be practicable to procure by voluntary Bargain or Sale any other Land situated as aforesaid, and suited to the Purpose for which such Lands are required, then and in such case it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons so authorised as aforesaid, to require Two or more Justices of the Peace, or Three or more Deputy Lieutenants (one of whom shall be a Justice of the Peace), or Two or more Deputy Governors for the County, Riding, Stewartry, City or Place where such Lands shall be, to issue their Warrant to the Sheriffs of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City or Place wherein such Lands shall be situate, to summon a Jury; and every such Sheriff is hereby authorised and required to summon and return a Jury properly qualified, of the Number of Twenty four, and in the Manner required by the Laws of England, Ireland and Scotland respectively, who shall meet at some convenient Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons, out of whom a Jury of Twelve shall be drawn, in such Manner as Juries for the Trial of Issues joined in His Majesty's Courts at Westminster and Dublin are drawn by Law in England and Ireland respectively, and in such Manner as Juries are drawn by Law for the Trial of Offences in Scotland; and in case a sufficient Number shall not appear, the said Sheriff shall choose others of the Bye-standers, or that can speedily be procured, procured, being qualified as aforesaid; and the said Jurymen may be challenged by the Parties on either Side, but not the Array; and the said Justices, Deputy Lieutenants or Governors respectively, on the Application of the said Persons so authorised, or of any Parties concerned, may and shall summon Witnesses, and adjourn any such Meeting if Jurymen or Witnesses do not attend; and the Jury, on hearing any Witnesses and Evidence that may be produced, shall on their Oaths (which Oaths, as also the Oaths of such Witnesses, the said Justices, Deputy Lieutenants or Governors respectively, are hereby empowered and required to administer), find the Compensation to be paid for the Possession or Use of such Lands, as the Case may be; and upon such Compensation being paid or tendered to the Persons entitled to receive the same, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, Deputy Lieutenants, or Deputy Governors, to put His Majesty's Officers into Possession of such Lands, and for that Purpose to issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals requiring Possession to be delivered to such of His Majesty's Officers as shall be named in the said Warrant.

Challenge to Jurymen, but not to the Array.

Jury, on hearing Evidence, to find Compensation upon Oath.

Possession.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Owners of any Lands so required, or any Person interested therein, shall at any time before the summoning of such Jury as aforesaid, give Notice in Writing of any other Lands situate as aforesaid, and suited to the Purpose for which such Lands are required, and which the Owners thereof, or Persons interested therein, are willing to treat and agree for, then and in such Case the Jury so to be summoned shall previously find the Facts, whether the Lands so indicated in such Notice are situate within the Distance aforesaid, and are suited to the Purpose for which such Lands may be required, and whether the Owners thereof are willing to treat and agree for the same; and if they shall so find, the Owners of or Persons interested in the Lands so surveyed and marked out as aforesaid shall not be compellable by virtue of this Act to sell or dispose of the same: Provided also, that where the Owners of or Persons interested in any Lands required by virtue of this Act to be given up for the Purposes aforesaid shall prefer to sell the same outright, and shall be able to make a good Title to the Fee Simple thereof, it shall be lawful for them to insist on so doing; and in such Case the Jury so summoned as aforesaid shall find the Value of the Fee Simple of such Lands, and the same shall be paid to the Owners thereof, or Persons interested therein, in the Manner directed by this Act.

Lands that are suitable may be taken in lieu of such as have been marked out.

Proviso.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Person interested therein, shall be dissatisfied with the Verdict of any such Jury, it shall be lawful for them, or their Attornies in England and Ireland, to apply to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster or Dublin respectively, in the Term next, and in Scotland to apply within Fourteen Days after the finding any such Verdict, to the Court of Session in Scotland in Time of Session, or Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacation, and to suggest to the said Courts or Lord Ordinary respectively, that they have reason to be dissatisfied with such Verdict, and forthwith to give Notice thereof to the said Lord High Treasurer

If any Person be dissatisfied with Verdict, Appeal may be made to the Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland, or to Court of Session, &c. in Scotland.

Proviso where Enquiry had on surer or Commissioners or Party (as the Case may be); and thereupon in England and Ireland, the Proceedings that shall have been had, and the Verdict of such Jury, shall be returned into the said Courts of Exchequer respectively; and if it shall appear to the said Courts to be proper, a Suggestion shall be entered on such Proceedings as aforesaid, and a Writ shall thereupon by Rule of such Court, or Order of any Judge of such Court, be directed to the Sheriff of such County where the Lands shall lie, or if the same shall lie in Two Counties, to the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to summon either a Common or Special Jury, according to the Application that shall have been made on that Behalf, and as the Court or as such Judge shall allow, and who shall respectively be qualified according to Law, to appear before the said Justice or Justices of Assize or Nisi Prius of that County, at the next Assizes or Sittings of Nisi Prius, if the same shall not happen sooner than Twenty one Days after such Suggestion, otherwise at the next succeeding Assizes or Sittings; and the Compensation to be paid for the Possession or Use of such Lands shall at such Assizes or Sittings be ascertained by such Jury, in like Manner as any Damages may be enquired of upon any Inquisition or Enquiry of Damages by any Jury before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, and the Verdict of such Jury shall be returned to the said Court of Exchequer, and shall be final and conclusive; and in Scotland, if it shall appear proper to the said Court of Session or Lord Ordinary upon such Application so to do, the said Court or Lord Ordinary shall order and direct the Sheriff of the County where such Lands shall lie, or if the same shall lie in Two Counties, the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to summon another Jury in the Manner in which Juries are summoned in Scotland, properly qualified according to Law, to appear before the Lords or Lord of Justiciary at the next Circuit, if the same shall not happen sooner than Twenty one Days after such Application, otherwise at the next succeeding Circuit; and the Compensation as aforesaid for the Lands shall at such Circuit be ascertained by a Jury drawn from the Jury summoned as aforesaid, in such Manner as Juries are drawn in Scotland, under the Direction of the said Lords or Lord of Justiciary as aforesaid; and the Verdict of such last mentioned Juries shall be final and conclusive, without being subject to Review or Challenge of any kind, unless the Court that shall have allowed such Enquiry shall think fit, on any Application made within Four Days after the Commencement of the succeeding Term or Session, if in Scotland, to order any new Trial in relation thereto.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Jury impanelled before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, or before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, to ascertain the Compensation to be paid for any Lands under this Act, and they are hereby required to ascertain and settle the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation, to any Person or Persons having any Interest as Lessees or Tenants at Will, or otherwise, in any such Lands; and the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation shall be returned on the Verdict: Provided also, that where any such Enquiry before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius or Lords or Lord
of

of Justiciary, shall be had on the Application of any such Lessee or Tenant at Will, or other Person having any inferior Interest in any such Lands, who may have been dissatisfied with the Proportion of Compensation settled by the Jury, to be paid in respect of such Interest, it shall not be lawful for the Jury in any such Case to alter the Amount of the entire Compensation awarded by any former Verdict to be paid for such Lands, but only the Proportion thereof to be paid to the Person or Persons having separate Interest therein; and it shall not be lawful for any Jury, on any Inquiry had before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Lords or Lord of Justiciary, as to any such Compensation, on the Application of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in any Case in which the whole Compensation awarded by the former Jury is confirmed by the Jury on such Enquiry, to alter the Proportion that shall have been settled by any such former Jury as to any separate Interest in any such Lands.

Application of Lessee.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge, or Lord Ordinary, making any such Rule or Order, to require that the Party on whose Application the same shall be made, shall give such Security as shall to such Court, Judge or Lord Ordinary seem proper for Payment of Costs, under such Circumstances as shall be specified in any Rule or Order made for that Purpose.

Security to be given for Costs.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Lands shall be taken under the Provisions of this Act, for any Term of Years or for such Period only as the Public Service shall require, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any other Person or Persons so authorised as aforesaid, at any time before the Possession of any Lands which shall have been taken for the Purposes aforesaid shall be delivered up to the Owner or Owners thereof, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her or their Behalf, to take down and remove all such Buildings or other Erections which shall or may have been built or erected thereon for the Public Service, and to carry away the Materials thereof; making such Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Lands, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her or their Behalf, for the Damage or Injury which may have been done thereto, or to the Soil thereof, by the Erection of any such Buildings, or removing and carrying away the same or otherwise, in consequence of the same having been occupied for the Public Service, as the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or such other Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid, shall think reasonable, and as shall be agreed upon in that Behalf; and if such Owner or Owners, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her or their Behalf, shall not be willing to accept the Compensation so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or other Person or Persons so authorised as aforesaid, to apply to and require Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City or Place, to settle and ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made for such Damage or Injury as aforesaid; and such Justices shall settle and ascertain the same accordingly, and shall grant a Certificate thereof; and the Amount of such Compensation so settled

In Cases where Lands are taken for any Term of Years, all Erections for the Public Service to be removed, making Compensation to the Owners.

If Compensation not accepted, Proceedings.

settled and ascertained and certified, shall forthwith be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to the Person or Persons entitled thereto: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, prejudice, or affect any Agreement which hath been or shall or may be entered into by any such Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid, with any Owner or Owners of any such Lands, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her or their Behalf, in relation to any such Buildings or Erections, but every such Agreement shall remain valid and effectual, in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Purchase Money belonging to incapacitated Persons, &c. to be paid to the proper Officer of the Exchequer for their Use.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Money shall have been or shall be agreed, or shall have been or shall be found by the Verdict of any Jury, to be paid or given for the Use of any Lands taken by virtue of this Act belonging to any Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having the absolute Interest therein, the same shall be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, into the Hands of the proper Officer of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh or Dublin respectively for the time being, for receiving the Monies belonging to the Suitors of the said Court respectively, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons; and such Officer is hereby authorised and required to receive or accept and to give a Discharge for such Money, and upon the Acceptation or Receipt thereof to sign a Certificate to the Barons or Judges of the said Courts of Exchequer respectively, under his Hand, purporting and signifying that such Money or other Consideration was received or accepted by and paid to him in pursuance of this Act, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons who shall be named and described in such Certificate; and the said Certificate shall be filed or deposited in the said Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh or Dublin respectively, and a true Copy thereof, signed by such Officer of such Court, shall and may be read and allowed as Evidence for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and such Officer of such Court is hereby required, upon Receipt of any such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require; and immediately upon the filing or depositing of such Certificate, the said Lands shall be and become vested in or to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

Money to be paid into the Bank of each Kingdom respectively.

Barons of the Exchequer, &c. on Petition, &c. of the Parties interested, to order the Application of the Money as herein mentioned.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Barons or Judges of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, and the Barons or Judges of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh or Dublin, of the Degree of the Coif, for the time being respectively, or any Two or more of them, shall be and they are hereby authorised and empowered in a summary Way, upon Motion or by Petition for and on behalf of any Person or Persons interested in or entitled to the Benefit of the Money so paid to and received by the proper Officer of the said Courts respectively; or the Interest or Produce thereof; and upon reading the Certificate directed to be signed by the said Officer concerning the same as aforesaid, and receiving such further Satisfaction as they shall think necessary, to make and pronounce such Orders and Directions for paying the said Money, or any Part of the same, or for placing out such Part thereof as shall be Principal, in the Public Funds, or upon Government or Real Securities, and for Payment of the Dividends or Interest thereof, or any Part thereof, to the respective Persons entitled to receive the same; or for laying out the Principal or any Part thereof in the Purchase of other Lands, to be conveyed and settled to, for and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Intents and Purposes, as the said Lands so taken stood settled at the Time of the Payment of such Money as aforesaid, as near as the same can be done, or otherwise, concerning the disposing of the said Money, or any Part thereof, and the Interest of the same or any Part thereof, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled to and interested in the same respectively, or for appointing any Person or Persons to be Trustee or Trustees for all or any of such Purposes, as the said Court shall think just and reasonable.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death or Removal of any such Officer of the said Courts of Exchequer, all Stocks and Securities vested in him by virtue of this Act, shall vest in the succeeding Officer of the Exchequer, for the Purposes hereinbefore mentioned, without any Assignment or Transfer; and all Monies paid into the said Banks respectively, in pursuance of this Act, or remaining in the Hands of any such Officer at his Death or Removal, and not vested in the Funds or placed out on Securities as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the succeeding Officer, for the like Purpose, for the time being.

On Death or Removal of Officer, Stocks and Securities to vest in, and Monies in hand paid to, Successor.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Garden or Pleasure Ground, or to any Land immediately contiguous to and used as the Curtilage or Homestead of any Dwelling House.

Proviso for Gardens, &c.

XVI. And Whereas, at divers Stations on the Coast of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and on the Shores and Banks of the Rivers, and of the Breaks and Inlets thereof, the Officers and Crews of the Ships, Vessels and Boats employed in the Prevention of Smuggling, have no Dwelling Houses appropriated for their Habitation on such Coasts, Shores and Banks, and it is expedient at some of them, that such Officers and Crew, or some of them, shall and may reside and remain in the said Ships, Vessels or Boats, and that such Ships, Vessels or Boats may and shall be hauled upon the said Coasts, Shores and Banks, or the Beaches thereof, and be moored thereon or thereto; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commanding Officer for the time being of any Ship, Vessel or Boat whatsoever, employed in the Prevention of Smuggling, to haul any such Ship, Vessel or Boat upon any Part of the Coasts of any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Shores, Banks or Beaches of any River, Creek or Inlet in the same, not being a Garden or Pleasure Ground, or Places which have been ordinarily used for Bathing Machines, which shall be deemed best adapted and most convenient for that Purpose, and to moor any such Ship, Vessel or Boat on such Part of the same Coasts, Shores, Banks and Beaches below High Water Mark, and over which the Tide flows on ordinary Occasions, and to continue every such Ship, Vessel and Boat so moored as aforesaid, for such Commanding Officers of Vessels employed to prevent Smuggling, may haul their Vessels on Shore, without being liable to any Action for the same.

Proviso for Gardens, &c.

Time as such Commanding Officer respectively shall think necessary and proper; and such Commanding Officer, and the Crew of any such Ship, Vessel or Boat, or any of them, shall not be subject or liable to any Indictment, or to any Action or Actions at Law, or to any Suit or Suits in Equity, or other Proceedings whatsoever, at the Suit or Prosecution of the Lord of any Manor, within which the said Coasts, Shores, Banks and Beaches respectively may be, or to which the same may respectively adjoin or be contiguous, or at the Suit of any Owner, Proprietor or Occupier of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments on any such Coasts, Shores, Banks or Beaches, for the hauling or mooring any such Ship, Vessel or Boat on the said Coasts, Banks, Shores or Beaches, or any of them, or any Part thereof respectively, or for or on account of any such Ship, Vessel or Boat so hauled and moored as aforesaid, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

- ‘ XVII. And Whereas every Person who is found or taken on board, or discovered to have been on board any Ship, Vessel or Boat liable to Forfeiture for being found or having been at anchor or hovering within certain Distances of any of the Dominions of His Majesty, with such Goods on board as subject such Ship, Vessel or Boat, or Goods, to Forfeiture, and every Person found aiding or assisting in unshipping to be laid on Land or Ground, or carrying, conveying, concealing or assisting in the carrying away, conveying or concealing any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva or Spirits subject to Forfeiture, is in certain Cases liable to the Penalty or Forfeiture of either Treble the Value of the Goods that shall be found or taken from such Person, or of the Sum of One hundred Pounds, under the Provisions contained in certain Acts of Parliament, that is to say, in an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling; and also in an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend Two Acts, passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, and in the last Session of Parliament, for the making more effectual Provision for the Prevention of Smuggling; and also in an Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to subject Foreigners to Arrest and Detention for Smuggling within certain Distances of any of the Dominions of His Majesty; for regulating Rewards to the Seizing Officers, according to the Tonnage of Vessels or Boats seized and condemned; and for the further Prevention of the Importation of Tea, without making due Entry thereof with the Officers of Customs and Excise; and also in an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make further Regulations for the Prevention of Smuggling; or some or one of the said Acts: And Whereas it is expedient, for the further Prevention of Smuggling, that no such Forfeiture of Treble the Value, or of the Sum of One hundred Pounds, should in any such Case be mitigated; Be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case all Power of Mitigation of the said Penalty or Forfeiture of Treble the Value, or of the Sum of One hundred Pounds, in which any such Person or Persons shall be convicted,

Power of mitigating certain Penalties imposed for Smug-convicted, under and by virtue of any or either of the said re- gling Offences cited Acts, shall be and the same is hereby wholly repealed and repealed.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or take away the Powers granted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to mitigate or remit any such Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, by an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to restore Seizures, or remit or mitigate Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, incurred concerning any Laws relating to the Customs or Excise, or Navigation and Trade of Great Britain.

Proviso for Powers of Treasury under 54 G. 3. c. 171.

XIX. And Whereas, for the Protection of the Revenue, Officers of the Customs and Excise are stationed on board Ships and Vessels arriving at any Port or Place in Great Britain, or departing therefrom, and it is reasonable that such Officers should have fit and proper Room to place their Beds or Hammocks in, protected from the Weather; Be it further enacted, That every Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel wherein any Officer or Officers shall be so stationed for the Protection of the Revenue, shall provide every such Officer or Officers with proper and sufficient Room, under the Deck in some Part of the Forecastle or Steerage of the Ship or Vessel, for his or their Beds or Hammocks; and in case of Neglect or Refusal, such Master or other Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and such Penalty shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and applied in like Manner as any Penalty imposed by any Law or Laws relating to the Customs or Excise may now be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and applied.

Masters of Ships to provide Officers of Customs with Room for their Beds or Hammocks.

Penalty 100l.

XX. And Whereas Ships and Vessels employed in the Coasting Trade of Great Britain frequently discharge their Ladings at Creeks, Harbours, Basins and other Outstations, where there are no Officers of the Customs authorised to receive the Cocquet, Transire or Letpass, or Sufferance Warrant or Permit, required by Law to accompany such Ladings, and great Inconvenience has arisen to the Merchants and Traders and to the Masters of such Vessels in consequence thereof; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, and the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, or any Three or more of them, whenever it shall appear to them to be necessary and proper for the Relief and Accommodation of the Coasting Trade of Great Britain, to authorise the Delivery of such Cocquet, Transire or Letpass, or Sufferance Warrant or Permit, to the principal Coast Officer of the Customs stationed at any Creek, Harbour, Basin or Outstation in Great Britain, and such Officer is hereby required to receive the same, for any Goods, Wares or Merchandise not liable to the Coast Duties brought from any other Port or Place in Great Britain, and to make and give a Warrant or Sufferance for the landing and discharging of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and to grant a Return for the same; and such Delivery to, and such Warrant, Sufferance or Return made and given Commissioners of Customs may empower Principal Coast Officer of the Customs at Creeks, &c. who are thereupon to receive Coast Documents;

but not to receive Duties.

Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney and Sark included in Bond not to re-land Goods herein mentioned.

Such Goods imported into said Islands, forfeited and seized.

given by such Officer, shall be deemed and taken to be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Delivery had been made to, and such Warrant, Sufferance or Return had been made and given by, the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs for the Port to which such Creek, Harbour, Basin or Outstation may belong or appertain; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to allow such Officer so stationed at any Creek, Harbour, Basin or Outstation of Great Britain, to receive any Duties of Customs whatever.

‘ XXI. And Whereas Wrought Silks, Bengals and Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Persia, China or East India, and Calicoes painted, dyed, printed or stained there, and prohibited to be used or worn in this Kingdom, which have been condemned, and sold at the Custom House Sales, and exported to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney or Sark, may afterwards be clandestinely brought back into this Kingdom; Be it enacted, That the said Islands shall be added to and included in the Bond which is now by Law required to be given, that such Goods shall be duly exported and not re-landed in any Part of Great Britain.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Goods shall be imported into any of the said Islands, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, Marines, Customs or Excise, and shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered in the Royal Courts of Jersey and Guernsey respectively, by Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall seize or sue for the same.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, an Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His late Majesty, for rendering the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, arising in Great Britain, available for the Public Service. [15th July 1802.]

59 G. 3. c. 19.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to render, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, arising in Great Britain, available for the Public Service; and it is expedient that the said recited Act should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and the same is hereby hereby further continued in force from the said Fifth Day of July continued till One thousand eight hundred and twenty, until the Fifth Day of July 5, 1821. July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

C A P. XLV.

An Act to continue certain Duties on several Articles, the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other.

[15th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by the Acts made in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, as Part of the Sixth Article of the said Union, that for the Period of Twenty Years from the Union, certain Articles the Manufacture of either Country enumerated in the Schedule Number Two, to the said Acts respectively annexed, shall be subject, on Importation into each Country from the other, to the Duties specified in the said Schedule Number Two, being Ten Pounds per Centum on the true Value thereof: And Whereas the said Duties will expire on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and it is expedient that the same should be continued for the several Terms, and in the Proportions and Manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, without any Discount whatever, upon and in respect of the several Articles enumerated in the Schedule to this Act annexed, being the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other respectively, the several and respective Duties following; that is to say,

39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. § 1. art. 6. 40 G. 3. c. 38. (1.)

The Duties following granted.

- A Duty of Ten Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles, which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five :
- A Duty of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles, which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty :
- A Duty of Five Pounds, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles, which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty five :

A Duty of Two Pounds Ten Shillings, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty :

And that the said Duty of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of such Value, shall remain in force and be payable until and upon the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty, and no longer, and shall then cease and determine :

And that the said several Duties of Ten Pounds, Seven Pounds Ten Shillings, Five Pounds, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings respectively, shall be in lieu and full Satisfaction of the said Duty of Ten Pounds per Centum due and payable on the Importation of the said Articles under the said recited Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland.

Duties calculated in British or Irish Currency, according to the Value, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several Duties of Ten Pounds, Seven Pounds Ten Shillings, Five Pounds, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings, in respect of every One hundred Pounds of the Value of the said Articles, shall be estimated and calculated and paid according to the Amount thereof in British Currency, in all Cases where such Value shall be estimated in British Currency; and when such Value shall be estimated in Irish Currency, the said Duties shall be estimated, calculated and paid according to the Amount thereof in Irish Currency; and that all the said several Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

39 & 40 G. 3.
c. 67. art. 6.
Duties on Woollen Manufactures of either Country imported into the other, to continue till Dec. 31, 1825;
Three fourths from thence to Dec. 31, 1830;
One half till
Dec. 31, 1835;
One Quarter
till Dec. 31, 1840; and then to cease.

III. And Whereas it was by the Sixth Article of the said Union among other Things provided, that the Woollen Manufactures of Great Britain and Ireland, known by the Name of the Old and New Drapery, should pay, on Importation into each Country from the other, the Duties then payable on Importation into Ireland; and it is expedient that the said Duties should continue in force until the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; and that from and after that Time the said Duties should be from time to time reduced, so as that all Duties on the said Woollen Manufactures should cease from and after the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty; Be it therefore enacted, That the several Duties payable on the Importation of such Woollen Manufactures into either Country from the other, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be and continue payable on such Importation of such Woollen Manufactures, from and after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, until and upon the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; and that upon such Importation of such Woollen Manufactures into either Country from the other, at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and on or before the Thirty first

first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty, there shall be paid Three Fourth Parts of such several Duties and no more; and that upon such Importation at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty five, there shall be paid One Half of the said several Duties, and no more; and that upon such Importation at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty, there shall be paid One Fourth of the said several Duties, and no more; and that from and after the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty, all Duties on the Importation of such Woollen Manufactures into either Country from the other shall cease and determine.

IV. And Whereas it was by the said Sixth Article of the said Union among other Things provided, that Salt and Hops on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, should pay Duties not exceeding those which were then paid on Importation into Ireland; and that Coals, on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, should be subject to Burthens not exceeding those to which they were then subject; Be it declared and enacted, That the several Duties payable on the Importation of such Salt, Hops and Coals into Ireland from Great Britain, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be and continue payable on such Importation of such Salt, Hops and Coals respectively, until further Provision shall be made by Parliament with respect to the Duties on such Importation of such Articles, or any or either of them respectively.

39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. art. 6. Duties on British Salt, Hops and Coals imported into Ireland, to continue till further provided for by Parliament.

V. And be it further enacted, That such of the said Duties by this Act and the Schedule hereto annexed granted, as shall arise in Ireland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, for the time being; and that such of the said Duties as shall arise in England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England; and that such of the said Duties as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, for the time being; and that the said Duties shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner, and under all such Powers and Authorities, and by all such Ways and Methods, and according to all such Rules and Directions, and under all such Penalties and Forfeitures, as other Duties of Customs or Duties on Importation may be raised, levied, collected and paid, according to the Laws in force in Ireland, England and Scotland respectively.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Regulation and Management of the House of Industry, established for the Relief of the Poor in Dublin; it was amongst other Things enacted, that the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, should be authorised and empowered to nominate and appoint Five of the then acting Governors of the House of Industry to be Governors thereof, and that from the Time of such Nomination and Appointment, the Five Persons so nominated and appointed should be and continue to be Governors thereof, and that they or any Three of them should from thenceforth have the sole ordering, directing and managing of the said House, and all Matters and Things relating to the same: And Whereas it is no longer necessary, or expedient

'expedient to continue the Number of Five Governors:' Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint from time to time One Person to be Governor of the said House, at a Salary not exceeding Five hundred Pounds a Year, and from time to time to remove, at his and their Will and Pleasure, any Person so appointed; and that the Person so appointed from time to time shall have the ordering, directing and managing the said House, in as full and ample Manner as the said former Governors exercised the same by virtue of the said recited Act, or of any previous Act or Acts passed in the Parliament of Ireland; and that all and every the Powers of the said former Governors shall be and remain fully vested from time to time in such Governor, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, subject nevertheless in every respect to the Orders, Directions and Controll of the Visitors hereinafter mentioned.

Lord Lieutenant empowered to appoint One Governor only, with a Salary not exceeding 500l. per Annum, in whom all the Powers of former Governors shall be vested.

II. And for the better ordering, managing and directing the said Institution, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint from time to time One other Person to be Assistant to the said Governor, at a Salary of Three hundred Pounds per Annum, to carry into Execution all Orders received from him, and to superintend the several Departments thereof under his Direction, and to be constantly resident within the said House of Industry; and it shall be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to remove such Assistant at his and their Will and Pleasure.

Assistant Governor to be appointed, with a Salary of 300l. per Annum.

III. And for the better maintaining and preserving the Regulations made for the Benefit of the said Establishment, and in order to support the Governor in the Execution of his lawful Authority, and to exercise a general Controll over every Department of the said Institution, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint any Number of Persons not exceeding Seven in the whole, to be Visitors of the said House of Industry; and that General Meetings shall be held Four Times at least in every Year in the said House of Industry by such Visitors, and at all such Times as shall be directed or required by the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being; and at every such General Meeting the Visitors there present shall inspect the State of the said House of Industry and of its several Departments, and shall make such Orders and give such Directions as to such Visitors shall seem fitting and necessary for the regulating of the said House of Industry, and shall report thereon to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

Lord Lieutenant may appoint Visitors, who shall meet quarterly, and report to Lord Lieutenant.

Visitors to inspect House, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any one Visitor to direct the Governor of the said House

One Visitor may direct the Governor to call a Special Meeting of Visitors.

Visitors may suspend and fine Governor or his Assistant, or any of the Officers, for Neglect of Duty.

Fine deducted from Salary.

Business at Special Meetings to be according to Summons. Three Visitors a Quorum.

House of Industry, or his Assistant, to cause the said Visitors to be summoned to attend a Special Meeting at the said House of Industry, on any Day and Hour and on any Business which may be mentioned in such Summons; and such Governor, or his Assistant, shall cause all such of the said Visitors as shall be then within the City or County of Dublin, to be summoned accordingly, either in Person, or at their respective Residences therein.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Visitors, at any General or Special Meeting, to suspend the Governor of the said House of Industry, or his Assistant, or any one or more of the Officers or Servants of the said House of Industry, or belonging to the same, until the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland thereupon shall be declared; or to fine such Governor, or his Assistant, or any of the said Officers or Servants respectively, for Breach or Neglect of Duty, or for Breach or Neglect of any Order or Direction of the said Visitors, in any Sum not exceeding the Amount of One Month's Salary; and such Fine being notified to the proper Officer for paying such Salary, by any Three of such Visitors, under their Hands, the Amount of such Fine shall be deducted from such Salary accordingly, and be a Saving thereout.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Business shall be done at any such Special Meeting of Visitors, which shall not fairly come within the Subject or some of the Subjects for Consideration mentioned in such Summons as aforesaid; and that at any Meeting of such Visitors, whether General or Special, all and singular the Powers of the said Visitors may be exercised whenever any Three Visitors shall be present thereat; and that at any such Meeting the Opinion, Order, or Act of the Majority of Visitors present shall be deemed and taken to be the Act of all the Visitors under this Act.

for the Trial of Causes, according to the Powers hereinafter in that Behalf given, as Justices of Nisi Prius for the said County of Middlesex, at any time or times after the End of any Term respectively, during the Vacation after such Term, to try all such Issues as by the before mentioned Acts they or any of them are enabled to try, in such Place and Manner, and under such Powers, Authorities and Provisions, as in and by the aforesaid Acts or any other Act of Parliament or Law whatsoever concerning the Premises, are prescribed and contained; any thing in the before mentioned Acts to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas from the Increase of Business in the Court of King's Bench, it is expedient that further Facilities should be afforded as well for the Trial of Issues in Middlesex and London, as for the Purpose of expediting the other Proceedings in the same Court; Be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, and for the Space of Two Years then next following, it shall and may be lawful to and for any one of the Judges of the said Court of King's Bench, at the Request of the Lord Chief Justice of the same Court, to sit for the Trial of Causes at Nisi Prius in Westminster and London, on the same Days on which the said Lord Chief Justice, or any other Judge of the same Court in the Absence of the said Lord Chief Justice shall be sitting, for the Trial of Causes at those Places respectively, or at either of them, so that the Trial of Two Causes may be proceeded in at the same Time; and all Jurors, Witnesses and other Persons who may have been summoned or required to attend, and who ought to attend at or for the Trial of any Cause before the said Lord Chief Justice, during the Time aforesaid, shall give their Attendance at and for the Trial thereof before such other Judge as may be sitting for the Trial thereof by virtue of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Marshal and other Officers of the said Lord Chief Justice to appoint from time to time fit and proper Persons, to be approved by the said Chief Justice, to attend for them and on their Behalf respectively before such Judge: Provided always, that all Causes intended to be tried at any Sittings at Nisi Prius in Middlesex or London, shall be entered for Trial with the Marshal of the said Chief Justice, and all Process and other Proceedings for or relating to the Trial thereof, shall be made and issued according to the Practice and Forms now in use; but nevertheless the Trial of every Cause which shall be tried in virtue of this Act, shall be entered of Record as having been had and made before the Judge before whom such Cause shall happen to have been actually tried.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Persons who are directed to be brought before the Court of King's Bench, by a certain Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, commonly called "The Lords Act," or by any other Law for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, may hereafter be brought before some single Judge of the same Court, sitting under the Authority of an Act made and passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to facilitate the Progress of Business in the Court of King's Bench in Westminster Hall; and that all Orders

§ 1, 2. Corporation and other Oaths directed to be taken before the Court, may be taken before a single Judge.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Oaths directed by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for the well governing and regulating of Corporations, and by an Act of the Twenty fifth Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants, or by any other Statute now in being, to be taken by Persons admitted to Offices of Trust and Profit, and by all Barristers and Attornies, may, after the passing of this Act, be administered and taken, and the Declaration mentioned in the said Act of the Twenty fifth Year of King Charles the Second, may be made and subscribed before such single Judge sitting as aforesaid; and that the proper Officer shall, at seasonable Times, attend before such single Judge, for the Purpose of administering such Oaths, and registering such Subscription.

Justices at Nisi Prius may make Orders in Causes to be tried before them, although not Judges of the Court in which such Actions are depending.

V. And Whereas it is expedient that the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer at Westminster, and the Justices of Chester, should have Power and Authority, upon their respective Circuits for taking the Assizes, to grant Summonses, and to make Orders in Actions and Prosecutions, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer at Westminster, and the Justices of Chester, and each and every or any one of them, during their respective Circuits for taking the Assizes, to grant such and the like Summonses, and make such and the like Orders, in all Actions and Prosecutions which are or shall be depending in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which the Issue, if brought to Trial, would be to be tried upon such their respective Circuits, as if such Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, and Justices of Chester, were respectively Judges of the Court in which such Actions or Prosecutions are or shall be depending, although such respective Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, and Justices of Chester, or any of them, may not be Judges of the Court in which such Actions or Prosecutions are or shall be depending; and such Summonses and Orders shall be of the same Force and Effect as if such Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, at Westminster, and Justices of Chester, were respectively Judges of the Court in which such Actions or Prosecutions are or shall be depending.

The Three Counties Palatine to be taken as Counties on the Circuit.

VI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act, the Counties Palatine of Lancaster, Durham and Chester, shall be taken to be Counties on the Circuits of the respective Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, at Westminster, and Justices of Chester.

satisfied: Provided always, that if any such Damage, Injury or Spoil shall have been done or committed as aforesaid, to or upon any Church, Chapel, Bridge, Building, Common Way or other Property whatsoever, whether Real or Personal, of a public Nature, or wherein any public Right is concerned, it shall or may be lawful to and for any such Justice to proceed against and convict the Offender or Offenders, within the Time aforesaid, and in the Manner aforesaid, in any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, at the Instance and upon the Information of any Person prosecuting such Offender or Offenders, and to order and direct One Moiety of the Sum to be paid for such Offence to be paid to the Person so prosecuting, and the other Moiety to and for the Use of the Poor of the Parish, Township or Place where the Offence shall have been committed; and in Default of Payment of the Sum in which any such Offender or Offenders shall have been so convicted as aforesaid, together with all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending such Conviction as aforesaid, such Justice shall and may commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty, Costs and Charges, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Male Person or Persons under the Age of Sixteen Years shall offend against any of the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom he or they shall have been convicted, in default of Payment of the Sum of Money awarded against him or them by the said Justice, together with all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending such Conviction, immediately or within such Time as the Justice shall appoint at the Time of Conviction, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be corrected and imprisoned, and kept to hard Labour for any Term not exceeding Six Weeks.

III. And, for the more easy bringing of Offenders against this Act to Justice, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Constable or other Peace Officer, and to and for the Owner or Owners of any Property so damaged, injured or spoiled, and to and for his, her or their Servant or Servants, or other Person or Persons acting by or under his, her or their Authority, and to and for such Person or Persons as he, she or they may call to his, her or their Assistance, without any Warrant or other Authority than by this Act, to seize, apprehend and detain any Person or Persons who shall have actually committed, or be in the Act of committing, any Offence or Offences against any of the Provisions of this Act, and to take him, her or them before any Justice of the Peace for the County City or Place where the Offence or Offences shall be committed; and such Justice is hereby empowered and required to proceed and act, with respect to such Offender or Offenders, in Manner by this Act directed.

IV. And, for the more easy and speedy Conviction of Offenders against this Act, be it further enacted, That every Justice of the Peace, before whom any Person or Persons shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may cause the Conviction tion to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall happen; videlicet,

‘ BE it remembered, That on the Day of
 ‘ in the Year of our Lord
 ‘ A. B. is convicted by and before me One of ‘ His Majesty’s Justices of the Peace for the County of ‘ [or, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, as the Case ‘ may be] for that the said [here state the Offence,
 ‘ and the Time and Place when and where the same was committed] ‘ contrary to the Statute made in the First Year of the Reign of ‘ King George the Fourth, intituled An Act [here set forth the ‘ Title of this Act]; and I the said Justice do hereby adjudge and ‘ determine that the said shall for his said Offence ‘ forfeit and pay the Sum of lawful Money of Great ‘ Britain, [or, of Ireland, if the same Offence shall be there ‘ committed] and to order that the same shall forthwith be paid
 ‘ by him [here direct the Payment according to the Act.] Given ‘ under my Hand and Seal the Day and Year first above written.’

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons so convicted by any Justice of the Peace, as before mentioned, of any Offence or Offences against this Act, to appeal to the Justices of the Peace assembled at the General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions to be holden for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, where such Conviction shall be made, next after Seven Days from the Time of such Conviction, on giving immediate Notice of such Appeal and of the Matters thereof, and finding sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, for prosecuting the said Appeal with effect, and abiding the Determination of the Court therein; and such Justices, in such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, shall hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and may either confirm or quash and annul the said Conviction, and award such Costs to either Party, as to them the said Justices shall seem just and reasonable; and the Decision of the said Justices therein shall be final, binding and conclusive; and no Proceedings to be had or taken in pursuance of this Act, shall be quashed or vacated for want of Form only, or be removed by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and if upon the Hearing of any such Appeal, the Judgment of the Justice before whom any Appellant shall have been convicted shall be confirmed, such Appellant shall forthwith pay the Penalty and Costs awarded to be paid by such Appellant, or in default thereof, shall be immediately committed by the said Court to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, unless such Penalty and Costs shall be sooner paid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall repeal or affect any Act or Acts now in force, whereby any Person or Persons may be subject to Punishment for wilful and malicious Acts of Trespass to any Property, either public or private,

An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to abolish the Punishment of public Whipping on Female Offenders, and to make further Provisions in lieu thereof. [15th July 1820.]

57 G. 3 c. 75.
§ 1.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of
‘ the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ‘ intituled An Act to abolish the Punishment of public Whipping on ‘ Female Offenders, it is enacted, that from and after the passing ‘ of that Act, Judgment shall not be given and awarded against ‘ any Female or Females convicted of any Offence, that such ‘ Female Offender or Offenders do suffer the Punishment of being ‘ publicly whipped; and that in all Cases where the Punishment ‘ of public Whipping on Female Offenders has hitherto formed the ‘ Whole or Part of the Judgment to be pronounced, it shall and ‘ may be lawful for the Court before whom any such Offender ‘ shall be tried, to pass such Sentence of Confinement to hard ‘ Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, in lieu ‘ of the Sentence of being publicly whipped, as to the said Court ‘ shall seem most proper; provided that nothing herein contained ‘ shall extend, or be construed to extend, in any manner to ‘ change, alter or affect any Punishment whatsoever, which may ‘ then be by Law inflicted in respect of any Offence, except only ‘ the

‘ the Punishment of public Whipping on Female Offenders : And ‘ Whereas the said Act extends only to abolishing the Punish‘ ment of publicly whipping Female Offenders, and it is expedient ‘ that the said Act should be repealed, and such further Provi‘ sions made in lieu thereof as are hereinafter mentioned :’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
 and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repealed, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever.

Recited Act
repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, Judgment or Sentence shall in no case whatever be given and awarded against any Female or Females convicted of any Offence whatsoever, that such Female Offender or Offenders do suffer the Punishment of being whipped either publicly or privately ; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sentence of Whipping not awarded on Female Offenders.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Punishment of Whipping, either publicly or privately, on Female offenders, has hitherto formed the Whole or Part of the Judgment or Sentence to be pronounced, or has in any other Case been inflicted, it shall and may be lawful for the Court or Justice of the Peace before whom any such Offender shall be tried or convicted, to pass Sentence of Confinement to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Space of Time not exceeding Six Months, nor less than One Month ; or of solitary Confinement therein for any Space not exceeding the Space of Seven Days at any one Time, in lieu of the Sentence of being publicly or privately whipped, as to the said Court or Justice shall seem most proper : Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, in any manner to change, alter or affect any Punishment whatsoever which may now be by Law inflicted in respect of any Offence, save and except only the Punishment of publicly or privately Whipping on Female Offenders, in Manner as hereinbefore is enacted.

An Act for the better securing the Excise Duties on Paper and Pasteboard.

[15th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, in- 56 G. 3. c. 103.
 ‘ titled An Act for further securing the Duties on Paper and ‘ Pasteboard, and for repealing the countervailing Duty upon ‘ Pasteboard imported from Ireland, and the Drawback upon ‘ Pasteboard exported, and granting other countervailing Duties
 ‘ and Drawbacks in lieu thereof ; it was enacted, that from and § 1.
 ‘ after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and ‘ sixteen, all and every Maker and Makers of Paper, Millboard, ‘ Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper or ‘ Pasteboard, in Great Britain, shall from Day to Day enter or ‘ cause

‘ cause to be entered in a Book or Books, or on a Paper or ‘ Papers, to be delivered to him, her or them for that Purpose by ‘ the proper Officer of Excise, and kept by such Maker or Makers
 ‘ in some public and open Part of his, her or their entered Premises,
 ‘ of the Number of Sheets of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, ‘ Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper and Pasteboard, ‘ distinguishing the Kinds or Sorts of Paper, Millboard, Button ‘ Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper or Paste‘ board, made or turned out of the Moulds daily, such Number ‘ of Sheets of Paper being in such Accounts reduced by Cal‘ culation into Reams and odd Quires, and such Number of Sheets
 ‘ of Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, ‘ Sheathing Paper and Pasteboard, into Dozens and odd Sheets, ‘ with their respective estimated Weight, reckoning Twenty six of ‘ such Sheets of Paper (Two of them being allowed for Waste ‘ or damaged Paper) for a Quire consisting of Twenty four Sheets
 ‘ when dried and finished; and shall make or cause such Entries
 ‘ of each Day’s Work at his, her or their Mills or Manufactories
 ‘ to be made and completed before Twelve of the Clock at Noon
 ‘ of the following Day; which Entry shall at or after the End ‘ of every Six Weeks or Forty two Days be delivered to the ‘ proper Officer by and verified by the Oath of such Maker or ‘ Makers of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, ‘ Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper or Pasteboard respectively, or ‘ his, her or their Chief Workman or Foreman employed in the ‘ Manufactory, under a Penalty for any Refusal or Neglect ‘ thereof, of Two hundred Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient ‘ that the Provisions of the said Act hereinbefore recited should ‘ be repealed:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, all and every Maker and Makers of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard, in Great Britain, shall from Day to Day enter or cause to be entered in a Book or Books, or on a Paper or Papers to be delivered to him, her or them for that Purpose by the proper Officer of Excise, and kept by such Maker or Makers in some public or open Part of his, her or their entered Premises, of the Number of Reams and Quires of Paper, and of the Number of Dozens of Sheets of Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper,

'mises within the Distance of Two Miles of any Mill or Manufactory for the making of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper or Pasteboard: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal the said recited Provision: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the same shall be and is hereby repealed; and that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, no Person or Persons whatever shall carry on or be concerned in the Trade or Business of a Retail Stationer or Dealer in Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard, at any Paper or Pasteboard Mill respectively, nor shall any Maker or Makers of Paper carry on or be concerned in the Business of a Retail Stationer or Dealer in Paper, in or on any Premises within the Distance of One Mile of any Mill or Manufactory for the making of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard respectively, wherein he or she is concerned or interested, on pain of forfeiting for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Maker and Manufacturer of Pasteboard (not made at any Mill) from Paper of the First Class and Denomination only, for being cut into and sold by him or her as Cards not exceeding the Size of Sixty four square Inches, or playing Cards, and every Maker of Bottle Stands, Spectacle Cases, Tea Trays, or any other Wares or Articles of Merchandise made from or with Paper, pasted or united together, and moulded into such Articles, shall be deemed a Pasteboard Maker, and shall be subject and liable to take out and pay for a Licence as a Pasteboard Maker, and to make Entry of his or her Premises as such at the proper Office of Excise; and that every such Maker and Manufacturer shall from time to time give Notice as a Pasteboard Maker, and as required by Law of Pasteboard Makers, of opening any Reams of Paper for the purpose of the Sheets thereof being pasted or united together as aforesaid, and shall, at the End of every such Quarter of a Year as aforesaid, make and render to the proper Officer of Excise an Entry in Writing, signed by such Maker or his Foreman with his Christian and Surname, of the whole Weight of the Paper, distinguishing the Class or Denomination thereof used and employed by him or her in such Quarter as aforesaid, and that he and she respectively have not in such Quarter used or employed, or permitted to be used or employed as aforesaid, any other than such Paper as was opened in the Presence of the proper Officer, and is mentioned and entered in such Quarterly Account as aforesaid; and if any such Maker or Manufacturer as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to take out and pay for such Licence as aforesaid, or to make such Entry at the proper Office of Excise as aforesaid, or to make or render such Quarterly Entry or Account as aforesaid, or shall not make true and faithful Entries and Accounts as aforesaid, or any such Pasteboard Maker for Cards as aforesaid shall use or employ any other than First Class Paper for that Purpose, or shall make or sell any Pasteboard, except cut into Cards not exceeding the Size of Sixty four square Inches, or playing Cards, every such such Maker or Manufacturer shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and no such Maker or Manufacturer as aforesaid, who shall take out and pay for such Licence and make such Entry at the next Office of Excise, and make and render such Quarterly Account as aforesaid, and observe, fulfil and keep the Conditions hereinafore mentioned, shall be subject or liable to any other of the Rules or Regulations relating to Makers of Pasteboard; any thing to the contrary thereof in any other Act or Acts notwithstanding.

Penalty 100l.
Not liable to any further Regulations relating to Pasteboard Makers.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Maker of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard, shall, on comparing the Quantity thereof respectively contained and inserted in the Entries required by the said recited Act, added to the uncharged Stock of such Maker, shall be charged with Duties on any Deficiency of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard respectively, unless the Deficiency of such Quantity contained and inserted in such Entries, added to the uncharged Stock of such Maker, shall be found to be more than Ten per Centum under and below the Account entered and kept of the Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard or Scaleboard respectively, which shall have been daily made by such Maker, and of which no Account is to be so kept as aforesaid, any thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and every such Maker as aforesaid shall, at the time of making such annual Balance as provided and required by the said recited Act, make out and deliver to the proper Officer, at his Request, a just and true Account according to the best of his or her Knowledge, Information and Belief, and signed by him or her, or his or her Foreman or Manager, of the whole of his or her uncharged Stock of Paper, Millboard, Button Board, Button Paper, Glazed Paper, Sheathing Paper, Pasteboard and Scaleboard respectively, distinguishing the Class and Denomination and Quantity of each, and the respective Rooms and Places, and State and Condition in which the same are deposited; and if any such Maker shall knowingly or wilfully or negligently make out or deliver an untrue Account thereof as aforesaid, or any such Maker shall not make out, and upon Request as aforesaid deliver such Account as aforesaid, every such Maker shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

No Charge of Duty for Deficiency shall be made, unless the Deficiency of the Quantities contained in the Entries added to the uncharged Stock shall be found more than Ten per Cent. below the Account kept.

Account of uncharged Stock to be delivered to Officer at his Request.

Penalty 200l.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Maker of Paper shall at any time couch or press together, without the Use of Paste, any Paper of the First Class or Denomination, or the Materials thereof, with any Sheet of Paper of the same or any other Class or Materials, all such Paper so couched or pressed together shall be deemed subject and liable to the Duties imposed upon and payable for and in respect of Paper of the First Class and Denomination.

Paper of the First Class pressed together, or with another Class, without Paste, liable to the Duties imposed on that Class.

and employed in the Manufacture of various Articles and Commodities as and for or as a Substitute for Millboard and Pasteboard, and has been included in the Laws of Excise, and the Duties imposed upon Makers of Paper and the Makers of Scale-board have been surveyed under the Laws and Regulations made for securing and collecting the Duties of Excise imposed for or in respect of Paper: And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Makers of Scaleboard are subject and liable to the several Regulations by Law imposed on Makers of Paper, and to take out and pay for a Licence to carry on such Trade as Makers of Paper; For Removal of such Doubt, be it enacted and declared, That every Maker of Scaleboard shall be deemed and shall be subject and liable to all and every the Laws and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, which are imposed and in force for and in respect of Makers of Paper, and shall take out and pay for a Licence as a Maker of Paper; and all Scaleboard shall be

An Act to amend and continue Two Acts passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for authorising the Issue of Exchequer Bills and the Advance of Money for carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor; and to extend the Powers of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts in Great Britain.
[15th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to authorise the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in Manner therein mentioned; (and which Act was amended by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament); it was enacted, that it should be lawful for The King's Most Excellent Majesty to authorise and empower the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds, to be issued to certain Commissioners in the said first recited Act named for the Execution of the said Act in Great Britain, and to be by the said Commissioners lent and advanced for the Purposes in the said several Acts respectively mentioned, upon the Terms and Conditions in the said Acts specified and set forth: And Whereas the Sum of One million forty six thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds hath been lent and advanced by the said Commissioners to divers Persons or Parties, Trustees, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, for the Purposes and under the Regulations in the said Acts contained; and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should be empowered to lend such further Sums as, with the Sum already advanced, will not in the Whole exceed the said Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds; and that the Powers of the said Commissioners should be extended in Manner hereinafter mentioned and provided for: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Persons who in and by the said first recited Act are constituted Commissioners for the Execution of the said Act in Great Britain, or so many of them as shall be living at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall be and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for the Execution of the said Two recited Acts of the Fifty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign and of this Act, in Great Britain, and shall have all such Powers in the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act as are given to the said Commissioners by the said Two recited Acts, or either of them, except only so far as the same are altered or amended or enlarged by this present Act.

Exchequer Bills to be payable One Year from the Date, with Interest.

Commissioners to advance by Loan, for the Purposes mentioned in recited Acts, payable in Exchequer Bills, which shall be repaid with Interest at 5 per Cent.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Acts, Matters and Things which the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act are by the said recited Acts or this Act authorised to do or execute, shall and may be done and executed by any Three or more of such Commissioners, except only in such Cases where it is otherwise specially provided by the said recited Acts or this Act; and that so much of the said first recited Act as requires that such Acts, Matters and Things shall be done and executed by Seven or more such Commissioners, shall from and after the passing of this Act be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed.

‘ III. And Whereas it was in and by the said first recited Act, among other Things, enacted, that the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of the said Act should be made payable at such Period as should be fixed by the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, but nevertheless so as to be payable within certain Times after the Date thereof in the said Act specified: And Whereas by the said Act for amending the said first recited Act it was enacted, that all Exchequer Bills whatever which should be made out in pursuance of the said first recited Act should be made payable on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and at no other Time; Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said last recited Act as directs that all such Exchequer Bills be made payable on the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that all Exchequer Bills which at any time after the passing of this Act shall be made out and issued in pursuance of either of the said first recited Acts, and which at any time after the passing of this Act shall be advanced for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said recited Acts or either of them, or in this Act, shall be made payable within One Year from the Date thereof respectively; and that the Principal Sum mentioned in every such Bill, together with Interest thereon, according to the Directions of the said first recited Act, to be computed from the Day of the Date of such Bills respectively until the Time of Payment thereof, shall be chargeable on some Part of the Aids or Supplies for the Year next succeeding the Day of the Date of the said Bills respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, at any time after the passing of this Act, to lend and advance, and to apportion or distribute to and amongst any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Company or Companies of Proprietors, or any Trustees or Trustee of Roads or Railways, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, for the Purposes in the said recited Acts or either of them mentioned, (whether any such Corporations, Companies, Trustees or Persons respectively shall or shall not have received any Loan or Advance under the said recited Acts or either of them at any time before the passing of this Act,) all or any Part of the Sum or Sums of Money in Exchequer Bills, to be issued at any Time after the passing of this Act, under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, upon, under and subject to the like Terms and Conditions as are specified and prescribed by the said recited Acts Acts or either of them, with respect to the Advance of Exchequer Bills authorised by the said recited Acts, except so far as such Terms and Conditions may be altered or extended by this Act; and that any Loans or Advances which shall be made by the said Commissioners in Exchequer Bills, to be issued under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act at any Time after the passing of this Act, shall be repaid (except in Cases where the Repayment of such Loans and Advances shall be otherwise provided for under the Authority of the said recited Acts and this Act), without Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the same at and after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Date of such Advances respectively until the Time of Repayment thereof, within Three Years from the Date of the Advances of such Loans respectively.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Loan or Loans which shall be granted by the said Commissioners at any time after the passing of this Act, shall be subject to the same Powers, Limitations, Regulations and Conditions for the Grant and the Recovery thereof, as the Loans already granted by the said Commissioners under the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Acts, except so far as such Limitations, Regulations and Conditions shall or may be altered or extended by this present Act; and that the said Commissioners shall have all such Powers and Authorities for the Purpose of recovering or compelling Payment of any Loans already made, the Time of Repayment of which may be extended by the Authority of this Act, as are given to the said Commissioners by the said recited Acts in respect of any such Loan, or of any Default in the Payment thereof; and that all and every the Clauses and Provisions in the said recited Acts contained, for the Regulation of the said Commissioners in the Grant of any Loan or Loans, and the Recovery and Receipt of the Loans when due and payable, or otherwise howsoever, shall be of the like Force and Effect, except as aforesaid, as if such Clauses and Provisions were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

VI. And Whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, divers Loans and Advances of Sums of Money in Exchequer Bills, issued as aforesaid, have been made by the said Commissioners under the said recited Acts, to several Trustees and other Persons, upon personal Security, to be repaid before or on the Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, being Fifteen Days before the Time when the Exchequer Bills in which such Loans or Advances were made become payable, according to the Provisions and Directions in the said recited Acts contained; and it is expedient that the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Acts and this Act, should be empowered to extend the Time for Payment of such Loans and Advances, in certain Cases, in Manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Trustee or Trustees or other Person or Persons to whom any such Loans or Advances shall have been made under the said recited Acts, or either of them, his, her or their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and his, her or their Surety or Sureties, and who respectively shall be desirous that the Time so limited by the said recited Acts, or either Loans made under this Act to be subject to the Conditions mentioned in recited Acts, and the Powers thereby given for recovering Payment shall extend to this Act.

Commissioners may enlarge the Time of Repayment of Loans under the recited Acts, on Application of the Parties, and may take old Securities or require new, as they think necessary.

either of them, for the Repayment of any Loan in such Exchequer Bills, or any Part of such Loan, should be enlarged or extended, to make Application to the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, for any Enlargement or Extension of the Times limited for such Repayment, not exceeding the Times or the Proportions of any such Loan, or of the Sum remaining due thereon, hereinafter specified; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorised to enlarge and extend the Time for the Repayment of any such Loan, or any Part thereof, in the Proportions and for the Times hereinafter specified, either upon the Obligation or Obligations, Security or Securities, Surety or Sureties, heretofore accepted and made liable for Repayment of any such Loan, or any Interest thereon, without any other or new Obligation, Deed or other Security or Agreement whatsoever, other than the Consent of the Sureties in Manner hereinafter mentioned, or upon such other and new Security or Securities, or other and new Surety or Sureties, either for the whole of any such Loan, or for any Part thereof remaining due, or for any separate and distinct Part or Parts of any such Loan, or of the Part thereof remaining due upon new and separate and distinct Security or Securities, either with the former Sureties or separate and new Sureties for each separate and distinct Part of any such Loan, in lieu of any former Security or Securities, or Surety or Sureties, as to them the said Commissioners shall seem proper and necessary; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised to require any new Security or Securities, or Surety or Sureties, whenever they shall think the same necessary, and to cancel and annul any former Obligation or Obligations, or Security or Securities, and to separate and divide any such Loan or Loans, or any Part thereof remaining due, and to grant such Enlargement and Extension of Time for each Part separately of any Loan, or Part thereof so divided under this Act, and to require and take separate and distinct Securities for any such divided Part of such Loan; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, if they shall think necessary so to do, to require the Appearance of any Party or Parties in any such Loan, and to proceed to examine into and determine the Sufficiency of any such old or new Security or Securities, or Surety or Sureties, in like Manner in every respect as the Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts are empowered by the said recited Acts, or either of them, to do with respect to any Security or Securities, or Surety or Sureties, to be proposed and given previous to the Advance or Issue of any Exchequer Bills under the said recited Acts, or either of them.

Commissioners may require the Appearance of Parties, and examine Securities, &c.

Sureties for Repayment of Loans to consent to the Extension of Time, according to the Form in Schedule (A).

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person remaining liable as Sureties or Surety for the Repayment of any such Loan or Advance, or any Part thereof, remaining due at the Time hereinbefore mentioned, and who shall be willing to remain Sureties or Surety for the Repayment of such Loan or Advance, or of any Part or Proportion thereof, if separated and divided under this Act as aforesaid, at such enlarged or extended Time as shall be granted under this Act, shall signify their or his Consent to remain such Sureties or Surety, by subscribing scribing their or his Names or Name to a Writing to be left with the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the time being, according to the Form in the Schedule in this Act marked (A), or to such or the like Effect, or in such other Form as the said Commissioners may from time to time direct or approve; and every such Consent so subscribed and delivered shall be binding upon the respective Sureties or Surety so signifying the same, their, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, in like Manner as such respective Sureties or Surety were or was, by the original Bonds or Bond entered into by them or him, bound for the Repayment of such Loan or Advance at the Times thereby limited for the Repayment thereof.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That within Seven Days after this Act shall have received the Royal Assent, the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, shall meet to receive, or to appoint a proper Person or Persons to receive all such Applications in Writing as shall be made to them, for such Enlargement or Extension of the Times for the Repayment of the Amount of any such Loan in Exchequer Bills, and shall also fix proper and convenient Days for the Purpose of taking into Consideration all such Applications, and shall meet together for that Purpose from time to time, and shall proceed to take into consideration all such Applications as shall specify the Times to which such Payments are required to be extended (not exceeding the Limits or Proportions hereinafter mentioned).

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Persons or Person making such Application to the said Commissioners, shall be required by the said Commissioners to give any new Security or Securities, or to produce any new or other Surety or Sureties, and shall not previous to or upon the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, be prepared to render such sufficient Security or Securities or Surety or Sureties as shall by the said Commissioners be deemed requisite; or in case such Person or Persons shall prove to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, that by reason of the Distance at which any Sureties or Surety are then residing, the Consent of such Sureties or Surety under this Act cannot be procured before the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by Writing under the Hands of any Three or more of them, to grant to such Persons or Person such further Time for the procuring and tendering such Security or Securities, or procuring the Consent of any such Surety or Sureties, as the said Commissioners in their Discretion shall think fit to allow, not exceeding the Period of One Calendar Month from the Time of granting such further Time as aforesaid; and every Grant of such further Time as aforesaid, shall be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (B), or to such or the like Effect, or in such other Form as the said Commissioners may from time to time direct or approve; and in the meantime and until the Expiration of the Time so allowed by the said Commissioners for the Purpose aforesaid, such Persons respectively shall not be deemed or taken to have made default in Payment of such Loan or any Part thereof under the said recited Acts or either of them, nor shall any Process, Suit or other Pro-

Commissioners to meet to receive or to appoint a Person to receive Applications for Extension of Time.

If Parties be not prepared with new Securities or Sureties by Sept. 25, 1820, the Commissioners may grant a Month longer, according to the Form in Schedule (B), or in such other Form as they shall see fit.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the signing of such Consent by such Sureties, and the Deposit of such new or further Security or Securities, Surety or Sureties (where any such shall be required by the said Commissioners), it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to grant and allow, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to such Parties respectively, such Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of such Loan, as they the said Commissioners shall in their Discretion think proper, Regard being had by the said Commissioners as well to the Merits of the Case of the Party so applying as to the Sufficiency of the Security or Securities, Surety or Sureties so tendered by them, so that the said Loan be made payable by Half yearly Instalments, in Proportions not less and at Periods not longer than hereinafter particularly mentioned; (that is to say), that an Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan, or of the Sum remaining due thereon at the Time of such Extension, with Interest on the whole Amount of such Loan or Sum so remaining due, at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with the like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with the like Interest on the Sum remaining remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with the like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty four; one other Instalment of not less than One eighth Part of every such Loan or Sum, with the like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, up to and until the Day of Payment of such Instalment, shall be payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; and the last or remaining Instalment of every such Loan or Sum, with the like Interest on the Sum remaining due, from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, up to and until the Day of Payment of such last Instalment, shall be made payable on or before the Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty five.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several Parties to whom respectively the said Commissioners shall allow such Enlargement or Extension of the Time of Payment of any such Loan, shall not be deemed or taken to have made default in Payment of any such Loan at the Time required by the said recited Acts or either of them, nor shall any Process, Suit or other Proceeding be issued, commenced or had, nor shall any Warrant for the same be granted against the said Parties respectively, or their Sureties or Surety, their or any of their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, or upon or in respect of any Securities or Security made, assigned or deposited for the Purposes in the said Acts or either of them mentioned, or otherwise, in order to recover or compel the Repayment of any such Loan or any Part thereof, until Default shall be made in the Payment of any of the several Instalments aforesaid, at the respective Days and Times when the same shall be made payable pursuant to this Act, in manner aforesaid.

Extension of Time not deemed a Default in Payment, as required by recited Acts.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the said Commissioners shall think fit to grant or allow any such Enlargement or Extension of Time for the Repayment of any such Loan, they the said Commissioners shall certify such their Allowance by a Writing under the Hands of any Three or more of them, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (C), or to such or the like Effect, or in such other Form as the said Commissioners may from time to time direct or approve; and such Certificate shall be delivered to the respective Parties to whom such Extension of Time shall be granted as aforesaid, and a Copy or Minute of every such Certificate shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept by the said Commissioners for that Purpose.

Commissioners to certify Allowance of Time according to Form in Schedule (C), or in such other Form as they shall see fit.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all and every Persons and Person to whom such Enlargement or Extension of Time

Interest to be paid on such Loans previous Time to granting Certificate of Extension.

Time for the Payment of any such Loan or any Parts thereof shall be granted or allowed as aforesaid, shall, previous to the receiving of any such Certificate as aforesaid, pay or cause to be paid to the said Commissioners, or such Person or Persons as they or any Three or more of them shall appoint to receive the same, all Interest due and payable on every such Loan up to the said Twenty fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, or up to the Time of the granting any such Certificate for the Extension of Time as aforesaid.

Further Time may be granted for Repayment of Loan, where a Fund is secured to pay Interest at 5 per Cent. with an annual Instalment of not less than 5 per Cent. in Discharge of Principal.

XIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in such Manner and Form as they shall think fit, to grant any further Time for Repayment of any Loan which at any time before the passing of this Act may have been advanced under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them, or which at any time after the passing of this Act may be advanced under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of this Act, or for the Repayment of any Part or Proportion of any such Loan, in any Case in which any Principal or Surety in any such Loan shall, by Mortgage of Real Estate in England, or by Heritable Security in Scotland, or by any other Ways or Means, establish and secure, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, a Fund not less in annual Amount than shall be sufficient to pay Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on such Part of any Loan as shall from time to time remain due and unpaid, and shall be proposed to be secured in Manner aforesaid, together with an annual Instalment of not less than Five Pounds per Centum on the Amount and in Discharge of the Principal remaining due and unpaid of any such Loan, or such Part thereof as shall be proposed to be secured as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant such further Time in any Cases where any such Loan may have been, or may be, in the first Instance, made payable by annual Instalments exceeding Five per Centum.

Loans may be repaid either Whole or in Part, or by larger Instalments and in shorter Periods than before mentioned, &c.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the said Commissioners from requiring any Loan or Loans, or any Sum or Sums of Money remaining due thereon, to be paid by any such Instalments, and in any such Proportions, and at any such Time or Times, as to such Commissioners shall seem fitting and convenient, such Instalments or Payments not being in less Proportions, nor payable at any longer Periods, than are by this Act directed and required; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent Payment of the Whole or any Part of the Principal and Interest due on any such Loan at any Time whatever, by any Party or Person to whom such Loan shall have been lent and advanced, or his or their Surety or Sureties; but that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to require any such Loan or Loans to be paid by any such Instalments as aforesaid, and for any Party or Parties, or his or their Surety or Sureties, to make Payment of the Whole or any Part of the Principal and Interest of any such Loan previous to the Time when the same, or any Instalment thereof, shall become due and payable under the Provisions of the said recited Act

Act and this Act; any thing in the said recited Acts or this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt of the Cashiers of the Bank of England, or any one of them, at the Foot of any Certificate of the Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts or this Act, granted or to be granted in the Manner directed by the said recited Acts, or either of them, for the Repayment of any Loan or Loans advanced or to be advanced by the said Commissioners, and the Interest thereof, shall be as valid and effectual Acquittance and Discharge for the Sum or Sums expressed therein to have been received, as well against the said Commissioners and every of them, their and every of their Executors and Administrators, as also to the Person or Persons to whom such Receipts shall have been or shall be given, and to all and every Person and Persons who shall have entered into any Security in respect of the Exchequer Bills mentioned in the Certificate at the Foot of which such Receipt shall be subscribed, their and every of their Executors and Administrators respectively, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to accept and receive from any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company or Companies of Proprietors, or Trustees or Trustee of Roads or Railways, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, to whom any Loan or Loans have been or shall be advanced under the Authority of the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, and also of and from his, her or their Surety or Sureties, such other Security or Securities, Real or Personal, for the Whole or any Part of any Loan or Loans advanced or which shall be advanced under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, and in lieu and instead of any existing Security or Securities, Real or Personal, which may have been taken for such Loan or Loans, or any Part or Parts thereof, as they the said Commissioners shall in their Discretion think fit, having Regard to the particular Circumstances of the Case in which Application for such Change of Security shall be made, and subject to such Terms, Conditions and Regulations as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct and appoint, and so as in no Case to extend the Period for the Repayment of such Loan or Loans beyond the several Periods to which the same may be extended under the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act; any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which, by virtue of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or this Act, or of any Act of Parliament, Conveyance, Assignment, Transfer, Obligation or Security, any Interest in Real or Personal Estate, Effects or Property, have been or shall be vested in, conveyed, assigned, transferred, made payable or secured to the Secretary of the Commissioners for the time being, for the Execution of the said recited Acts or this Act, as such Secretary, and in respect of his Office, all such Real and Personal Estate, Effects and Property whatsoever, upon the Death, Removal or Resignation of any such Secretary, from time to time and as often as the same shall happen, happen, and the Appointment of a Successor shall take place, shall (subject to the same Trusts, if any, as the same were before respectively subject to) vest in such succeeding Secretary by force of this Act, and without any Act or Deed whatever to be done by the Secretary dying, resigning or removed, or by the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of such Secretary, or by any Person or Persons claiming under him, them or any of them, and notwithstanding any such Interest may have been expressed to be vested in, conveyed, assigned, transferred, made payable to or secured to such Secretary, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, or any of them, and shall and may be proceeded upon in the Name of any succeeding Secretary, by any Action or Suit in Law or Equity, or in any other Manner, as the same might have been proceeded upon by or in the Name or Names of such Secretary dying, resigning or removed, his Executors or Administrators.

In default of Payment of Loan, the Property assigned in Security may be sold and applied to that Purpose.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Default shall be made in the Repayment (but not otherwise) of all or any Part of any Loan or Advance which has been or shall be secured to the said Commissioners, in Part or in the Whole, by any Mortgage or Assignment of any Interest, Property or Effects whatsoever (Real or Personal), it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or such Person or Persons as shall be nominated and appointed by any Three or more of them in Writing, to take Possession of all or any Parts or Part of such mortgaged or assigned Interest, Property or Effects, by Sale or Mortgage of the same or a competent Part thereof, to raise and levy such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be sufficient to repay all Monies due upon or in respect of such Loan or Advance, and the Interest thereof, and all Costs and Charges attending such Proceedings, and the Monies so recovered (the Costs and Charges aforesaid excepted) shall be paid and applied in the Reimbursement and Satisfaction of the Sum due upon or in respect of such Loan or Advance, in like Manner as the Sums of Money to be recovered under the Proceedings authorised by the said recited Acts in default of Payment are thereby directed to be paid and applied; and the Receipt of such Persons or Person as the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them shall nominate and appoint as aforesaid, shall alone be a full and sufficient Discharge to such Mortgagees or Purchasers, or Mortgagee or Purchaser, for the Monies or Money advanced on Mortgage, or for the Purchase Monies or Purchase Money of the respective Interest, Property or Effects so mortgaged or sold; and such Mortgagees or Purchasers or Mortgagee or Purchaser shall not be bound to see to the Application thereof, nor shall be liable or in any manner accountable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication of such Monies or Money by the Persons or Person appointed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, or any of them.

Purchaser, &c. not liable for Application of Purchase Money, &c.

Surety becoming Bankrupt, another approved Surety to be produced within Fourteen Days, or Payment made of One half the

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have become or shall become Surety upon any Loan lent or advanced by the said Commissioners under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, shall at any time after the passing of this Act be declared bankrupt within the true Intent and Meaning of the several Statutes made and now in force in England concerning Bankrupts, and against whom a Commission of Bankrupt shall shall be awarded and issued out, and the principal Debtor or Debtors thereon shall not within Fourteen Days after Notice thereof and Requisition made for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, produce some other Surety, to be approved of by the said Commissioners, to become bound, and who shall accordingly become bound in the said Sum by the like Security or Securities, in lieu of the Surety so becoming Bankrupt as aforesaid, or otherwise pay to the said Commissioners One half of the Sum for which such Surety was bound by such Security or Securities, then the Security and Securities given or entered into by such principal Debtor or Debtors shall be deemed forfeited, as far as the Amount of One half of the Sum or Sums in which any such Surety was bound; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause Process to be issued in the Manner prescribed by the said recited Acts against the principal Debtor or Debtors, his and their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, for the Recovery of One Half of all and every the Sum and Sums in which such Surety was bound, together with Interest and Costs, to be directed by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act.

Sum for which Bankrupt was bound, or Process to issue for Payment.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Provision in the said recited Acts or either of them and this Act made with Application to any Commission or Commissions of Bankruptcy, shall be deemed and construed to extend to any Sequestration awarded or to be awarded against the Estate and Effects of any Bankrupt in Scotland, as fully and effectually as if such Provision had been expressly applied thereto by the said recited Acts and this Act.

Provisions relative to Commissions of Bankruptcy to extend to Sequestrations in Scotland.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Obligation with any Sureties or Surety, taken or to be taken, according to the said recited Acts and this Act, after Payment or Recovery thereupon by the said Commissioners of the Sums advanced or lent, with all Interests and Costs, in the Manner required by the said recited Acts and this Act, shall stand and remain as a further Security for the Purposes and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say), if any Surety or Sureties upon such Obligation, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, shall have paid or satisfied any Part of such Sums, Interest or Costs, then such Obligation as against the principal Obligor or Obligors, his, her or their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, shall stand as a Security as aforesaid for the Reimbursement of such Sureties respectively, their Executors or Administrators, of the whole of the Sums so paid or satisfied, and so from time to time until such Reimbursement shall be fully made, according to the Intent of the said recited Acts and this Act; and if any such Sureties or Surety, their or his Executors or Administrators, shall have paid or satisfied any Sum which shall bear a greater Proportion to the whole of the Sums recovered upon such Obligation, than the Sum for which such Surety respectively shall have been bound shall bear to the total Amount of the several Sums of Money for which all the several Sureties shall have been bound by such Obligation, then such Obligation, as against each and every of the Sureties who shall not have paid or satisfied an equal Proportion of the whole Sum recovered, according to the Sum for which he shall have been respectively bound, their and every of their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators respectively, shall stand Obligations with Surety to remain Security for Sureties in the Cases herein mentioned.

stand as a Security for the Benefit of such Sureties or Surety, their Executors or Administrators respectively, who shall have paid or satisfied any such Sums as aforesaid, for the Purpose of enforcing a Contribution amongst such Sureties in an equal Proportion to the several Sums for which they shall have been respectively bound, and so from time to time until such Contribution shall be fully made, according to the Intent of the said recited Acts and this Act; and that in every such Case, upon the Application of any Sureties or Surety to the said Commissioners for any of the Purposes aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall cause the respective Claims of such Sureties or Surety respectively, and the Sums to be recovered from such Principals or Sureties respectively, their and every of their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, to be adjusted and settled as herein is mentioned, so that the whole Sum recovered shall be distributed in equal Proportion, according to the Terms for which each Surety respectively shall have been bound in the same Obligation, and so from time to time as the Case shall require; and thereupon the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant or Warrants in Writing under their Hands, shall from time to time direct Process to issue for the Recovery of such Sums as they shall have so adjusted and settled to be respectively recovered from and paid to such Persons respectively as they shall specify in such Warrant or Warrants; under and subject to the several Regulations and Directions in the said recited Acts contained for the Recovery of the Loans and Advances made by the said Commissioners as aforesaid.

Process to issue against Principals for the Benefit of Sureties, and against Sureties for the Benefit of Cosureties, though the Loan has been repaid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That such Process as aforesaid shall and may lawfully issue on any such Obligation as aforesaid against any such Principals or Principal, their or his Executors or Administrators, for the Benefit of any such Sureties or Surety, their or his Executors or Administrators, and against any such Sureties or Surety, their or his Heirs, Executors or Administrators as aforesaid, for the Benefit of any Cosureties or Cosurety, their or his Executors or Administrators, notwithstanding the whole Sum which shall have been advanced to such Principals or Principal shall have been repaid to the said Commissioners; and in case any Sureties or Surety shall become bound by distinct Obligations or Obligation for the same Persons or Person, and for and on account of the same Advance, all and every the Provisions aforesaid shall be applied in like Manner, as well for the Benefit of as against such Sureties or Surety, and against such Principals or Principal, as if all such Sureties and Principals respectively were named in the same Obligation.

Sureties satisfying Loan to have such Remedies against their Principals and Cosureties as are herein provided.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons consenting to remain Sureties or Surety for any Parties to whom such Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of any Loans advanced to them shall be allowed as hereinbefore mentioned, or becoming further Sureties or Surety for any Persons or Person to whom any such Loan shall have been originally made, their or his Executors or Administrators, shall pay or satisfy such Loan or any Part thereof, or any Costs or Charges incurred in recovering or compelling Payment of any such Loan or any Part thereof, such Sureties or Surety shall have all such Remedies, Remedies, as against their or his Principals or Principal, or their or his Cosureties or Cosurety (if any), as are hereinbefore provided for the Benefit of the Sureties of the Persons to whom Loans of Exchequer Bills have been or shall or may be advanced under the said recited Acts or this Act; and moreover all and every Mortgages or Mortgage which have been or shall be accepted or taken by the said Commissioners, under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, as Securities or Security for any Loan or Advance heretofore made or hereafter to be made under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, shall stand and remain as Securities or a Security for the Reimbursement to such Sureties respectively, their Executors and Administrators, of the whole of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall be paid and satisfied by them as such Sureties, and shall and may be enforced and rendered available by and under the Authority of the said Commissioners, in like Manner and with the same Force and Effect as is hereinbefore provided for the Purpose of recovering Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money which has been or shall or may be advanced by the said Commissioners upon the Security of such Mortgage or Mortgages, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts and this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Bond to His Majesty, nor any heritable Security or Securities, nor any Assignment of any heritable Security or Securities, nor any Mortgage, Surrender, Assignment, or other Instrument or Assurance taken or to be taken under the said recited Acts or this Act, nor any Certificate, Examination, Affidavit, Deposition or Receipt, nor any Consent by any Surety or Sureties to any Extension of Time which may be granted by the said Commissioners for the Payment of any Loan under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, nor any Receipt or written Document whatsoever, used for the Purpose of carrying the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act into Execution, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatsoever; any thing in any Act or Acts for the imposing or regulating Stamp Duties in Great Britain to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

No Bond, Receipt, or other Instrument under recited Acts or this Act, liable to Stamp Duty.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the whole Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds authorised to be issued and applied under the said recited Acts and this Act shall have been advanced and lent by the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, or whenever the Sums so lent and advanced by the said Commissioners shall amount to any Sum within Five thousand Pounds of the full Amount of the said Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds, or whenever the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit that the Powers of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act should cease and determine, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to direct the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any Three or more of them, of whom the Chairman or Deputy Chairman for the time being shall be one, and the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act

Notice when Powers of Commissioners cease to be given in the London Gazette, &c.

Account of their Proceedings shall be delivered up by Commissioners to the Treasury, together with Books, Securities, and Documents.

Powers vested in the Secretary shall thereupon, and without any Act to be done by such Secretary, vest in such Person as Treasury shall appoint, and all Loans remaining unpaid shall be recovered by him, as herein mentioned.

Act are hereby authorised and empowered and required, to publish and declare by Advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette, and such of the daily Papers as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may appoint, that, at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the Date of the said Advertisements respectively, the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act will cease to execute and perform the Powers and Authorities vested in them by the said recited Acts and this Act, and all the Powers and Authorities of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act shall cease and determine accordingly; and thereupon the said Commissioners shall, with all convenient Speed, lay an Account in Writing of all their Proceedings under the said recited Acts and this Act before both Houses of Parliament, and also shall and will deliver or cause to be delivered up to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, or to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, in Writing under their Hands shall nominate and appoint, all and every the Bonds, Mortgages, Deeds, Books of Account, Papers and Writings of what Nature or Kind soever, in the Possession or under the Controul of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any of their Officers, touching or relating to any Security or Securities whatsoever taken by them the said Commissioners for any Loan or Loans advanced by them under the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Acts and this Act, together with the Minutes of the Proceedings of them the said Commissioners, and all Books, Papers and Writings in any manner relating thereto.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That, on the Termination of the said Commission in Manner aforesaid, any Interest which may then be vested in the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the time being, for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, shall from thenceforth by force of this Act, and without any Act or Deed whatsoever to be done by such Secretary, vest in the Person or Persons to be appointed as aforesaid by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, in such Manner and to such Extent as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall in Writing direct and appoint, whether such Person or Persons so to be appointed shall be or include the then Secretary of the said Commissioners for the time being or otherwise; and the Person or Persons so to be appointed shall and may and is and are hereby authorised to proceed for the Recovery of such Interest as may become vested in him or them as last aforesaid by any Action or Suit in Law or Equity, or in any other Manner as the same might have been proceeded upon by or in the Name of such last mentioned Secretary of the said Commissioners; and that the Person or Persons so to be appointed shall have and possess such and the like Powers and Authorities for the Recovery and Receipt of all and every the Loans advanced under the said recited Acts and this Act, or such Parts thereof as shall then remain due and unpaid, as under the said recited Acts and this Act are vested in the said Commissioners and their Secretary for the

the time being, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Powers or Authorities were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, but subject nevertheless to such Orders and Instructions in Writing as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from time to time think fit to give and direct.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Termination of the Powers of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, in Manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Person or Persons to be appointed by them, as aforesaid, to grant such Certificate in respect to the Receipt of any Loans and Interest remaining due and unpaid, or to use and give such other Form of Acquittance and Discharge as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall in Writing direct and appoint; and such Certificate or other Form of Acquittance so to be given under the Direction of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be a valid and effectual Acquittance to all Intents and Purposes whatever.

Acquittance of such Person for Receipt of Loans valid.

C A P. LXI.

An Act to charge additional Duties on the Importation of certain Articles into the Isle of Man, and to regulate the Trade of the said Island. [15th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that an additional Duty should be paid unto His Majesty on all Spirits and Tobacco which shall be imported into the Isle of Man under Licence; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on the Importation of any Spirits and Tobacco under any Licence granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs in England and Scotland respectively, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His late Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for regulating and encouraging the Trade, for the Improvement of the Revenue, and Prevention of Smuggling in and from the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of One Shilling and Sixpence for every Gallon of Brandy and Geneva, and an additional Duty of One Shilling for every Gallon of Rum, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity, and an additional Duty of One Shilling upon every Pound Weight of Tobacco, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity, in like Manner and Form, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Forfeitures as are imposed by the said recited Act and by another Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for consolidating the Duties of Customs for the Isle of Man, and for placing the same under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England, and by a further Act passed in the Fifty first Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for explaining and amending an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for consolidating the Duties of Customs for the Isle of Man, and for placing the same under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England.

Additional Duties herein mentioned on Spirits and Tobacco imported under Licence pursuant to 45 G. 3. c. 99.

50 G. 3. c. 42.

51 G. 3. c. 52.

Commissioners of Customs may grant Licences for Importation into Port of Douglas of Muscovado Sugar and Playing Cards, in the Quantities and Tonnage herein mentioned.

‘ II. And Whereas by the afore-recited Act, passed in the Forty fifth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, it is lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs in England and Scotland respectively, or any Four of them, and they are thereby required (if the same shall be lawfully demanded under the Authority of the said Act so to do), to grant their Licences for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, of certain Quantities of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee and Tobacco: And Whereas it is expedient to allow a limited Quantity of Muscovado Sugar to be imported into the said Port of Douglas, and to permit the same to be shipped directly from the Warehouse in which the same may have been secured in Great Britain, without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, and also a limited Number of Packs of Playing Cards to be imported into the said Port; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs in England, or any

Four of them, to grant their Licences, under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of the said recited Act, for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, of Five thousand five hundred Weight of Muscovado Sugar, and Four thousand Packs of Playing Cards, and no more, in any one Year, in British built Ships, owned, registered and navigated according to Law, and not of less Burthen than Fifty Tons.

Such Sugar may be taken out of Warehouse for Importation, without Payment of Duty.

III. And be it further enacted, That any such Sugar, intended to be imported into the said Port of Douglas by virtue of any such Licence, shall and may be taken out of any Warehouse or Warehouses wherein the same may have been lodged or secured, without Payment of Duty, for the Purpose of being so imported as aforesaid; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

50 G. 3. c. 42.

IV. And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating the Duties of Customs for the Isle of Man, and for placing the same under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England, Muscovado Sugar and Playing Cards, as being Goods, Wares and Merchandise not thereinbefore charged with Duty, imported from Great Britain or Ireland, is made liable, by Schedule (A) annexed to the said Act, to the Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of the Value thereof: And Whereas it is expedient to make other Provision in respect of the said Duty on Muscovado Sugar imported into the said Island by virtue of any Licence granted in pursuance of this Act; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, in lieu and instead of the aforesaid Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid the Sum of One Shilling for every Hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of Muscovado Sugar so imported; which said One Shilling shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and applied, and the said Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings upon Playing Cards, according to the Value thereof, shall continue to be collected, levied, paid and applied, in like Manner as the said Two Pounds and Ten Shillings was directed by the afore-recited Act, and another Act passed in the Fifty first Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for explaining and amending an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for consolidating the Duties of Customs for the Isle of Man, and for placing the same under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England: Provided always, that on the Importation of any such Sugar and Playing Cards into the Isle of Man pursuant to this Act, all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force relating to Goods so exported or imported, and to the Payment, Recovery and Appropriation of any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating thereto, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts or Laws in force in relation to the Isle of Man, shall, so far as they are not hereby altered or varied, and in respect of which no other Provision is made by this Act, be and are hereby declared to be in full force, and to extend to this Act, and shall be construed therewith

Instead of the Duty of 2l. 10s. for every 100l. of the Value of Muscovado Sugar, 1s. for every Cwt. thereof imported.

Duty on Playing Cards to continue.

Proviso for Acts in force relating to Isle of Man.

therewith and as Part thereof, so far as the same respectively apply, as fully as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

‘ V. And Whereas by another Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for encouraging and regulating the Trade and Manufactures of the Isle of Man, and for the more easy Supply of the Inhabitants there with a certain Quantity of Wheat, Barley, Oats, Meal and Flour, authorised by an Act made in this Session to be transported to the said Island, it is enacted, that no Tea, or Spirits of any kind whatsoever, or Tobacco, may be exported or shipped, or laden on board any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported from the Isle of Man to any Place whatsoever: And Whereas the Provisions in the said Acts have been found insufficient to prevent the illegal Exportation of the aforesaid Articles; Be it enacted, That if any Tea, Spirits of any kind whatsoever, or Tobacco, shall be brought to or found on any Wharf or other Place with Intent to be waterborne for Exportation, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Horses or other Cattle, Carts or other Carriages, employed in removing the same, to be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, Marines or Customs: Provided always, that if any Dispute shall arise, whether any such Goods were intended to be waterborne for Exportation, the Proof thereof shall lie upon the Owner or Claimer thereof, or the Person or Persons on whom the same shall be found, and not on the Officer seizing the same. 7 G. 3. c. 45.

Tea, Spirits or Tobacco, found on any Place to be waterborne, forfeited; &c.

In case of Dispute, Proof to lie on Owner.

‘ VI. And Whereas by another Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to explain an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, with respect to the Allowances to be made for Waste on the Exportation of White Salt and Rock Salt to the Isle of Man, for limiting the Quantity of British refined Sugar to be exported to the Isle of Man, and for certain other Purposes, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Three of them, shall and may grant Licences, without Fee or Reward (to continue in force Three Months), to any of His Majesty's Subjects to export from the Port of Liverpool into the Port of Douglas in the Isle of Man, certain Quantities of British refined Sugar therein mentioned and expressed: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to allow a greater Number of Sheep to be carried from England to the Isle of Man than are now permitted by Law, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Three of them, to grant Licences in the manner prescribed by Law, to remain in force for One Month from the Date thereof, for the Exportation from the Ports of Liverpool and Whitehaven into the Port of Douglas or Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, of a limited Number of live Sheep in any one Year: And Whereas it is expedient that the Period allowed for the Exportation of Sugar and Sheep from that Part of the United Kingdom called England, into the Isle of Man, should be altered; Be it therefore further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Three of them, shall and may grant 26 G. 3. c. 36 grant Licences, in the Manner prescribed by Law, for the Exportation of the several Quantities of refined Sugar and Number of live Sheep allowed to be exported into the Isle of Man, to continue in force for any Period until the Fifth Day of July next ensuing the granting thereof.

53 G. 3. c. 21.

Commissioners of Customs may make Allowance to Persons confined in the Isle of Man on Exchequer Process.

‘ VII. And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, for authorising the Commissioners of Customs to make an Allowance for the necessary Subsistence of poor Persons confined for Debts, or Penalties sued for under their Orders, in Great Britain: And Whereas it is expedient to make the like Allowance to poor Persons so confined in the Isle of Man;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That for the necessary Subsistence of any poor Person confined in the Isle of Man under or by virtue of any Exchequer Process, for the Recovery of any Duties or Penalties under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made, relating to the Revenue of Customs or the Prevention of Smuggling, or confined under or by virtue of any Warrant or Warrants of any Deemster or Deemsters in the Isle of Man, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made, relating to the Revenue of Customs or the Prevention of Smuggling, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Customs in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, or any Four or more of them, to cause an Allowance not exceeding the Sum of Seven Pence Halfpenny, and not less than Four Pence Halfpenny per Day, to be made to any such Poor Person out of any Money in the Hands of the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Douglas, in the said Isle of Man, arising from the Duties of Customs.

51 G. 3. c. 71.

Regulations of recited Act as herein mentioned extended to this Act.

‘ VIII. And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Abolition and Regulation of certain Offices in the Customs, it is enacted, that no Fee, Perquisite, Gratuity or Reward, whether pecuniary or of any other Sort or Description whatever, shall be required, taken or received by any Officer, Clerk or other Person executing or performing or assisting in the Execution or Performance of any of the Duties, or acting in any of the Offices or Employments in or belonging to His Majesty’s Customs in the Port of London, for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter or Thing done or performed, or to be done or performed, by any or either of such Officers, Clerks or other Persons, on account of or relating to any Office or Employment, under certain Provisions and Regulations: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said recited Act to the Isle of Man;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Act, shall, so far as the same are applicable, be deemed and construed to extend to the Isle of Man, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been repeated and particularly enacted in the Body of this Act.

9 Ann. c. 6.

‘ IX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, it is provided and enacted, that good Security shall be given to the Officers of the Customs ‘ in

‘ in the respective Ports where any Coals shall be shipped for Ex‘ portation from or out of Great Britain to the Isle of Man, for ‘ landing such Coals there and not elsewhere (the Dangers of the ‘ Seas and Enemies excepted): And Whereas it is expedient that ‘ the Security required by the said recited Act should be ex‘ empted from the Duties chargeable on stamped Vellum, Parch‘ ment or Paper;’ Be it further enacted, That whenever any Coals shall be shipped for Exportation to the Isle of Man, the Bond or Security given for the due Delivery thereof, shall not be charged or chargeable with, or subject or liable to, any of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper; any former Law to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

‘ X. And Whereas by another Act passed in the Forty fifth ‘ Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the ‘ Third, intituled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of ‘ Smuggling, Provision is made respecting the Quantity of Spirits ‘ and Tobacco which may be exported from the Islands of Guern- ‘ sey, Jersey, Alderney or Sark, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat of ‘ less Burthen than One hundred Tons, for the Use of the Seamen
 ‘ then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel or Boat; ‘ which Provision is by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of ‘ His said late Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for amending ‘ and rendering more effectual an Act passed in the last Session of ‘ Parliament, to make more effectual Provision for the Prevention ‘ of Smuggling, and for regulating the Periods for cancelling and ‘ delivering up certain Bonds relating to the Revenue of Customs, ‘ extended to the Isle of Man: And Whereas it is expedient that ‘ a Reduction should be made in the aforesaid limited Quantities ‘ of Spirits and Tobacco, and that a limited Quantity of Tea
 ‘ should be allowed to be exported so far as regards decked Ves‘ sels or open Boats bound from the Isle of Man to Great Britain
 ‘ or Ireland, for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on ‘ board such decked Vessels or open Boats;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That if any decked Vessel bound from the Isle of Man to any Port of Great Britain or Ireland shall have on board for the Use of the Seamen any Spirits exceeding the Quantity of Half a Gallon for each Seaman, or any Tobacco exceeding One Pound Weight for each Seaman, or any Tea exceeding Two Pounds Weight for the whole of the Seamen on board such Vessel; or if any open Boat bound from the Isle of Man to any Port of Great Britain or Ireland, shall have on board for the Use of the Seamen any Spirits exceeding One Quart for each Seaman, or any Tobacco exceeding One half of a Pound Weight for each Seaman, or any Tea exceeding One Pound Weight for the whole of the Seamen on board such Boat; all such Foreign Spirits, Tobacco and Tea respectively, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and also every such Vessel or Boat, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by an Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, Marines, or Customs or Excise.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland. [15th July 1820.]

40 G. 3. c. 39.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more speedy Correction of erroneous Judgments given in the Courts of Law in this Kingdom: And Whereas by the said Act Writs of Error from Judgments of His Majesty's superior Courts of Law in Ireland were made returnable in a Court thereby instituted, and now commonly called The Court of Exchequer Chamber; and the Chief Justices, Chief Baron, and the rest of the Justices and Barons, or any Nine of them assembled in the said Court, were empowered to examine, and affirm or reverse such Judgments; and in all Cases depending in the said Court to award such Costs, moderate, reasonable or exemplary, as to them should seem meet: And Whereas it hath appeared by Reports made to The King's Most Excellent Majesty from the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty, upon an Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled, to enquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, that divers Regulations are necessary for ensuring the more easy, cheap and expeditious Administration of Justice in the said Court: And Whereas some of such Regulations have been carried into Effect by a general Order of the said Court, and a Table of the Fees to be thereafter taken by the Clerk of the said Court of Exchequer Chamber, commonly called The Clerk of the Errors, established under the said Order; but certain other Regulations are required, which cannot be carried into Effect without the Aid of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Fees to be taken by the Clerk of the said Court should be further established and regulated by the Authority of Parliament; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the last Day of this present Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk of the said Court, or his Deputy or Assistant on his Behalf, to ask, demand, have, receive, take and accept, for and by reason and on account of the several Acts, Matters and Things to be done in or concerning the Business of the said Court, the several Fees, Payments and Sum and Sums of Money in the Table hereunto annexed respectively mentioned, and none other or greater Fees or Sums of Money whatever; and that the Clerk of the said Court, or any Deputy

Clerk of the Errors in the Court of Exchequer Chamber, or his Deputy on his Behalf, may take the Fees specified in the Table annexed.

Deputy or Clerk of any such Officer, nor any Person acting in his Behalf in any Part of the Business thereof, shall not ask, demand or receive any other or greater Fee or Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever, on account of or for the Performance or under Pre- tence of performing any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in anywise relating to the Business of the said Court, than as men- tioned in the said Table as payable for or in respect of such Act, Matter or Business, except under the Provisions of this Act, any Law, Usage or Custom at any time heretofore made, used or ex- ercised to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that the said Table, and all Directions, Matters and Things therein con- tained, shall be taken as Part of this Act to all Intents and Pur- poses whatsoever.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chief Justices, Chief Baron, and the other Jus- tices and Barons, or any Nine or more of them, so assembled in the said Court, from time to time to vary and alter the Amount of any of the said Fees, by decreasing or increasing the same, or to abolish any of the said Fees altogether; and also to direct and authorise the Payment of any new or additional Fee or Fees to the said Clerk of the said Court, or to any other Person, for or in respect of any Matters or Things mentioned in the said Table, or any of them, or of any other Matters or Things to be done in the Execution of the Duty of the Office of such Officer or Persons re- spectively; and all such Fees, the Amount whereof shall be so altered, and all such new or additional Fees which shall be so made payable, and also any Order for the abolishing of any Fee, shall be specified and set forth in a Table or Tables to be made by Order of the said Court, and signed by the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the time being; and such Order shall specify the Grounds and Reasons upon which such Fees shall have been altered, abolished or made payable respectively; and a Copy of every such Order, signed as aforesaid, shall be trans- mitted by the Chief Justice of the King's Bench for the time being to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who shall cause a Copy of the same to be laid before each House of Parliament, at or im- mediately after the Commencement of the then next Session thereof, and every such Fee shall, according to the Terms of such Order, be and be deemed and taken to be a legal Fee, and pay- able and receivable as such, as if the same had been included in the said Table to this Act, from and after the End of such Session of Parliament.

Judges in the Exchequer Chamber may alter the Fees, or add to them, according to a Table to be signed by the Chief Justice of King's Bench, and transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant, and laid before Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Errors shall discharge the Duties of the said Office in Person, except in case of Sickness, or unavoidable Absence by reason of Accident or Business, and in any such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Clerk of the Errors to act by Deputy during the Continuance of such Sickness or unavoidable Absence, and no longer, such Deputy being first approved of by the Chief Judge of the said Court for the time being, the Sickness or other Occa- sion for such Appointment being first proved to the Satisfaction of such Chief Judge.

Clerk of the Errors to dis- charge the Duty in Person, ex- cept in certain Cases.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Deputy or Clerk, or other Person whomsoever employed in the Business of the said Court,

Deputies or Clerks taking Fees, &c. from Suitors, &c. or any other than the Fees of their Principals, and as under this Act;

Court, or any Part thereof, shall at any time after the last Day of this present Session of Parliament ask or demand, or shall have, take or receive, or accept from any Suitor, Solicitor or other Person whomsoever, (save and except only from the principal Officer by and under whom any such Deputy or Clerk, or other Person, shall be immediately employed), any Gift, Fee, Reward or Remuneration, for or by reason or on account or under pretext of any Services of their own; or of any Person or Persons employed by or under them respectively in the Office of the said Court; or if any such Deputy or Clerk, or other Person, shall ask or demand, or shall have, take, receive or accept any Gift, Fee or Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration, for or by reason or on account or under pretext of the Services of their Principals or Employers, or for or by reason or on account or under pretext of any Matter or Thing whatsoever done in and about the Business of the said Court, or any Part thereof, other than and except only such Fees and Sums of Money as shall from time to time be lawful under the Provisions of this Act, every Deputy, Clerk or other Person so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty 100l.

Clerk of Errors taking undue Fees;

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall hold the said Office of Clerk of the said Court shall, at any time after the last Day of this present Session of Parliament, by himself or his Deputy, or by any Clerk or Person authorised on his Behalf, wilfully and knowingly ask, demand, have, take and receive, or accept, directly or indirectly, any Gift, Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration, for or by reason or on account or under pretext of any Services or Service in or concerning any Part of the Business of the said Court, other than and except only such Fees and Sums of Money as from time to time shall be lawful under the Provisions of this Act, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall forfeit and lose all and every Offices and Office in or under the said Court, which such Person shall hold or be possessed of at the Time of such Offence.

Penalty 100l.
and Loss of

By whom the Time of Meeting shall be fixed after each Sitting of the Court.

VI. And be it further enacted, That after each and every Sitting of the said Court, the Day and Hour of the Day on which the said Court shall next meet shall be fixed by the said Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the time being, or in case of his Sickness or Absence from Ireland, or of the Vacancy of the said Office, then by the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or in case of his Sickness or Absence from Ireland, or of the Vacancy of said Office, then by the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the time being, and by no other Person or Authority whatsoever; and the same shall be done as speedily as may be by Order in Writing, a Copy of which shall be forthwith sent by the Clerk of the Errors to the Place of Residence of each of the other Judges of the said Court of Exchequer Chamber.

Court of Exchequer Chamber, on Affirm-ance of Judgments, to order

Interest.

'VII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers of the said Court should be enlarged as is hereinafter provided: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Chief Justices, Chief Baron, Justices and Barons, in all Cases now depending, or which hereafter hereafter shall depend in the said Court, where the Defendant in Error shall have got Judgment for any Sum of Money, whether for Debt, Damages or Costs, or all or any Two of them, and such Judgment shall be affirmed by the said Court, then not only to give such Judgment of Affirmance, but also to order that Interest be forthwith computed in open Court, at such Rate, not exceeding the legal Interest for the time being, as such Court shall direct, from the Day of the Allowance of the Writ of Error on which they shall so give Judgment to the Day of so giving the same, on the Sum so adjudged to the Defendant in Error as aforesaid; and to order that the Amount of such Interest shall be included in their Judgment, in addition to the Sum so theretofore adjudged, and to the Costs, if they shall think proper to award Costs as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Execution shall be stayed by or by reason of any Writ of Error returnable into the said Court, or by any Supersedeas thereon, in any Case whatsoever, unless the Plaintiff in Error, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Court in which Judgment shall have been given, or by a Judge of such Court, shall be first bound by Recognisance in such Court, in Double the Sum adjudged by such Judgment, and also in Two Years' Value of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (if any) adjudged to be recovered thereby, to satisfy and pay, if such Judgment be affirmed, all and singular the Debt, Damages and Costs adjudged by such Judgment, and all Costs to be awarded by or under the Judgment on such Writ of Error, or on any further Writ of Error which may be afterwards brought in such Cause returnable in Parliament, and also the Mesne Rates of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (if any) to be adjudged in any Action that may be brought for that Purpose.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Writ of Error or Certiorari shall issue, returnable in Parliament, for the purpose of reversing any Judgment of the said Court of Exchequer Chamber, the original Transcript brought into the said Court, together with the Judgment in Court thereon, being duly made up into the Form of a Return to such Writ of Error, and signed by the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, shall be countersigned by the Clerk of the Errors, who shall then forthwith carry the same to the Office of the Chief Secretary in Dublin Castle, and shall deliver the same to the Under Secretary, or the Chief Clerk in the Civil Department, who shall also countersign the same, and shall give a Receipt for the same, and shall forthwith cause the same to be duly transmitted by Post to the proper Officer of the Lords House of Parliament; and such Writ and Return so signed and countersigned as aforesaid respectively, shall be so transmitted without any Charge for the same, and shall be deemed and taken to be true and genuine Records, and well and sufficiently returned, according to the Mandate of such Writs respectively.

Execution not stayed by Writ of Error or Supersedeas unless Recognisance be given to pay Debt and Costs, &c.

How Transcripts shall be made up, signed and countersigned, and conveyed, on Writs of Error, in Parliament.

C A P. LXIX.

An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of His late Majesty, for erecting a Harbour for Ships to the Eastward of Dunleary, within the Port of Dublin; and to provide for the Erection of a Western Pier to the said Harbour of Dunleary. [15th July 1820.]

56 G. 3. c. 62.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for erecting a Harbour for Ships to the Eastward

ward of Dunleary, within the Port of Dublin: And Whereas by virtue of the said Act, and for the Purpose of forming an Asylum Harbour to the Eastward of Dunleary, a Pier has been commenced, and is considerably far advanced, and is likely to be completed by the Funds provided by the said Act on the Shipping and Trade to the Port of Dublin: And Whereas it is found expedient, in order to make the said Harbour a complete and perfectly safe Asylum or Place of Refuge, not only to the Ships and Vessels trading to the Port of Dublin, and to the Ships and Vessels of His Majesty's Navy which may be in the Irish Channel, but to all the Shipping Interests trading or passing through Saint George's Channel and the Irish Sea, to erect a Second Pier to the West of the said Pier which has been so commenced: and the Erection of the said Second Pier not having been in the Contemplation of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, sufficient Means or Funds were not provided under the said recited Act for the Erection thereof: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to make more effectual Provision for enabling the Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, to erect, repair and maintain Light Houses and Lights round the Coasts of Ireland, and to raise a Fund for defraying the Charge thereof, certain Tonnage Rates were charged, and under the said Act have been levied on all Ships or decked Vessels passing any Light House or Light Houses, or Floating Light, on the Coast of Ireland, and certain Rates and Duties were also charged upon every Entry Inwards and on every Entry Outwards of any Ship or Vessel made in any Port of Ireland, and upon every Entry, Cocket or Warrant in any such Port for shipping any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Inwards or Outwards, or from any Port in Ireland to any other Port therein, for purchasing Ground for, and for building New Light Houses, and for repairing, fitting up, completing and keeping in Repair the several Light Houses, Light Ships, Floating Lights, Beacons and Sea Marks which have been or may be erected and built, or placed round the Coasts of Ireland: And Whereas when the Works authorised by the said Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third shall be completed, there will be a considerable Surplus of Duties over and above what may be necessary for the lighting and keeping in repair the several Light Houses, Light Ships, Floating Lights, Beacons and Sea Marks, and it will be of the greatest Advantage and Means of Safety to all Merchantmen trading through Saint George's Channel and the Irish Sea, as well as to His Majesty's Ships and Cruisers, to complete the said Second Pier as speedily as possible, which cannot be done unless such Surplus Duties or a Part thereof shall be appropriated towards the Erection of the said Second Pier at the Harbour of Dunleary: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Duties or Balances of Cash paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, to the Use of the said Corporation, for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, or remaining in the Hands of the said Corporation, in each and every Year, ending on the Fifth Day of January, raised and levied under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, there shall be paid into the said Exchequer, to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund in Ireland, the Sum of Four thousand Pounds, to be appropriated in Manner hereinafter mentioned, for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, in aid of the Funds thereby provided, subject to the Exception hereinafter contained.

60,000l. Irish Currency to be paid out of Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners under
56 G. 3. c. 62.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to order, by his or their Warrant to the Vice Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, to advance and pay out of the Consolidated Fund, arising in Ireland, to the said Commissioners appointed to carry into Effect the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, from time to time, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds Irish Currency net, at such Times and in such Proportions as the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall direct.

The 4,000l. per Annum and all Sums levied
under 56 G. 3.
c. 62. to form an aggregate Fund.

‘ III. And Whereas the said intended Second Pier must of necessity be erected out of the same Quarries, and the Materials moved on the same Inclined Planes and Railways now in use for the said Pier which has been already commenced, and it would be therefore impossible to keep a true, separate and distinct Account of the Expenditure on each Pier;’ Be it therefore enacted, That all such Cash, or Sum of Four thousand Pounds, as shall be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer in Dublin, and all the Duties to be hereafter levied under the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, for Dunleary Harbour, and paid into the said Exchequer, shall form one aggregate Fund towards the Discharge of all Sums which have been, or shall hereafter be advanced out of the said Consolidated Fund of Ireland, by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, under the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, or under this Act.

56 G. 3. c. 62.
§ 32. in part
repealed.

‘ IV. And Whereas it is expedient that a separate and distinct Account of such aggregate Fund should be kept in the said Exchequer, and that so much of the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, as directs a separate and distinct Account of all Money which shall be paid into the said Exchequer on account of the said Duties imposed by the said last recited Act should be repealed;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, as directs a separate and distinct Account of the Duties in the said Act mentioned to be kept in the said Exchequer, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, That in lieu thereof a separate and distinct Account of such aggregate Fund shall be kept in the said Exchequer, and so much thereof as shall be sufficient to answer and pay all Interest and Sinking Fund due at the Rate aforesaid, upon all Sums which have been or shall be from time to time advanced, shall, on the Fifth Day of January in every Year, be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; and every such Sum and Sums of Money arising therefrom, as shall exceed the Amount of such Interest and Sinking Fund, shall in like Manner be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, towards the Discharge, Repayment and Satisfaction of the Principal Sum or Sums which has or have been or shall hereafter be advanced, until the whole Amount of such Principal Sum and Sums shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund, in Discharge, Repayment and full Satisfaction of all such Principal Sums which have been or shall be advanced, and in Payment of the Interest and Sinking Fund thereof in the meantime; and when the Whole of all such Principal Sums and Interest as aforesaid shall be so discharged, repaid and satisfied in Manner aforesaid, the before-mentioned Sum of Four thousand Pounds per Annum shall revert to the said Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, and shall cease to be applied to the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, or of this Act, and shall thereafter be applied by the said Corporation, under the Directions, or with the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, in the progressive Improvement of the Harbours and Navigation of Ireland, and all the Duties arising from the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty shall cease and determine, and be no longer leviable and payable under the Authority of the said Act.

A separate Account of such aggregate Fund to be kept;

and Fund to be applied in Payment of Principal and Interest of the Sums advanced:

When paid, the 4,000l. per Annum to revert to Corporation, &c.;

and Duties under 56 G. 3. c. 62. to cease.

VI. And Whereas great Inconvenience may arise from the occasional crowded State of the said Harbour of Dunleary, and the Want of Regulation in mooring the Vessels therein; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, from time to time to appoint, according to the Mode now practised, a proper and sufficient Person to act as Harbour Master within the said Harbour, and to remove any Harbour Master so appointed, and to appoint another in his Room or Stead, with such Salary or Allowance as to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall seem fitting and expedient; such Salary or Allowance to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, which Order the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland is and are hereby empowered to make.

Salary.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Payment of Four thousand Pounds shall not commence until it shall appear by the annual Report of the Commissioners of Public Accounts in Ireland, that an actual Surplus, amounting to the Sum of Four thousand Pounds over and above what will be sufficient to complete and finish all Works begun or determined to be begun

Payment of annual Sum of 4,000l. not to commence till such Sum shall have arisen out of the Surplus.

Duties, &c.

begun by the said Commissioners under the Authority of the said recited Act, actually exists at the time in His Majesty's Exchequer out of the Produce of the said Duties, and also over and above a sufficient annual Sum for the maintaining all Light Houses and other Works executed by the said Corporation under the Authority of the said Act, and such Sums as the said Commissioners of Public Accounts shall upon Estimate on Oath judge expedient or necessary to be reserved for Repairs, Casualties and contingent Expenses.

The 4,000l. not to be paid until that Surplus is in the Exchequer.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That such Sum of Four thousand Pounds shall not be paid to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund in or for any Year in which it shall not appear by the annual Report of the said Commissioners that such annual Surplus as aforesaid actually exists in His Majesty's Exchequer: Provided also, that whenever any Dues or Rates shall be imposed upon Vessels frequenting or using the said Harbour, as well the said Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds so to be advanced out of the Consolidated Fund as aforesaid, as any Sums which may have been paid as aforesaid out of the Funds or Dues of the aforesaid Corporation for improving the Port and Harbour of Dublin, shall be charged upon and made payable out of the said Dues or Rates previously to all other Charges thereupon, excepting the necessary Expenses of maintaining the said Harbour.

Charges on the Rates.

Power of Harbour Master to moor and remove Vessels.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every such Harbour Master shall have full Power and Authority to direct the mooring, unmooring, moving and removing of all Ships or other Vessels coming into or lying or being in the said Harbour or any Part thereof, or any Place being within the Distance of Five hundred Yards of the Entrance or Mouth of the said Harbour, and to appoint and regulate the Time or Times and the Manner of their Entrance into, lying in, or going out of or from such Harbour, save and except in stormy or tempestuous Weather, and to regulate and determine the Position of such Ships and other Vessels; and in case any Owner, Master or other Person, having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or other Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to moor, unmoor, place, move or remove his Ship or Vessel according to such Direction, immediately when Notice to him or them shall be given, or left with any Person or Persons on board of such Ship or Vessel for that Purpose, every such Owner, Master or other Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Harbour Master and his Assistants, and he or his Assistants are hereby required, to moor, unmoor, place, move or remove such Ship and Vessel accordingly; and in case any Master, Commander, Mate, Pilot, or other Person or Persons taking Charge or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall obstruct or hinder the mooring, unmooring, placing, moving or removing of any Ship or other Vessel lying or being in the said Harbour, or being within the Distance of Five hundred Yards of the Entrance or Mouth of the said Harbour, then and in every such Case such Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; the said Penalties respectively to be applied by the said

Application of Penalties.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners appointed for the Execution of the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, for the time being, or any Three of them, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to sell or demise any Part of any Land or Ground vested in the said Commissioners, and which shall not be required for the Purposes of the said Act or for this Act, to any Person or Persons willing to purchase the same, or to take the same on Lease for the Purpose of erecting thereon any House or Houses for the Residence of the said Harbour Master, or for any Officers of Customs or Excise stationed at the said Harbour, or for such other Purpose relative to the said Harbour as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall from time to time authorise, direct or appoint; and for that Purpose the said Commissioners for the time being are hereby authorised to execute Conveyances, Assignments, Contracts or Demises of such Parts as shall be so sold or let, and the Purchase Money on such Sale or Sales, or the Rent or Rents reserved on such Demises respectively, shall be paid by the said Commissioners for the time being into the Receipt of His Majesty's said Exchequer in Dublin, on account of the said Consolidated Fund, toward making good such Sum or Sums as shall be advanced thereout under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, and of this Act.

Three Commissioners under 56 G. 3. c. 12. may sell Lands vested in them not necessary for Purposes of this Act, with Consent of Lord Lieutenant.

Purchase Money paid into Exchequer, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, not authorised by the said Commissioners or any Three of them, shall fish or spread any Nets within or on or from the said Piers, Walls or Quay Footways, at any time; or bathe in the Water inclosed within the Limits of the said Piers, or within One hundred Yards thereof, after the Hour of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, (except at the Bathing Place for Females to the Westward of the Building, known by the Name of the Old Coffee House); every Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings.

An Act for improving the Roads between London and Chirk, in the County of Denbigh, by Coventry, Birmingham and Shrewsbury. [15th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be issued and applied towards repairing Roads between London and Holyhead by Chester, and London and Bangor by Shrewsbury: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighteen: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds towards repairing Roads between London and Holyhead by Chester, and between London and Bangor by Shrewsbury; and for giving additional Powers to the Commissioners therein named, to build a Bridge over the Menai Straits; and to make a new Road from Bangor Ferry to Holy head, in the County of Anglesea: And Whereas by the said several recited Acts, certain Sums of Money were respectively granted and directed to be issued and applied towards repairing the said Roads: And Whereas the Commissioners under the said first mentioned Act have proceeded in the Execution of the said recited Acts, and have expended the said Sums of Money in making several new Cuts along the said Road from Chirk, in the County of Denbigh, on the Boundaries of North Wales, to Bangor, and in otherwise amending and improving the same; and by the Improvements already made, the Communication between London and Holyhead has been facilitated, and the Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland has been thereby greatly promoted: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for vesting in Commissioners the Line of Road from Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, to Bangor Ferry, in the County of Carnarvon; and for discharging the Trustees under several Acts of the Seventeenth, Twenty

' eighth, Thirty sixth, Forty first, Forty second, Forty seventh, and ' Fiftieth Years of His present Majesty from the future Repair
 ' and Maintenance thereof; and for altering and repealing so much ' of the said Acts as affects the said Line of Road; the said Line
 ' of Road from Shrewsbury to Bangor Ferry, together with all ' the new Cuts and Improvements along the same, was vested in
 ' and placed under the Controul, Management and Superintend-' ance of the Commissioners in the last mentioned Act named:
 ' And Whereas several of the Roads and Parts of the Roads be' tween London and Chirk, in the said County of Denbigh, by ' Coventry, Birmingham and Shrewsbury, being the Remainder of ' the principal Line of Road from London to Holyhead, require
 ' to be improved and altered, and by the Improvements and ' Alterations which may be made thereon, the Distances may be ' shortened, and the travelling thereon rendered more safe and ' expeditious: And Whereas with a View to the effecting of such ' Alterations and Improvements on the said Roads, and thereby ' affording additional Facilities to the Intercourse between Great ' Britain and Ireland, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's ' Treasury have caused the said Roads between London and
 ' Chirk to be surveyed, and Maps, Plans, Sections and Estimates
 ' of the Expense of the several Alterations and Improvements
 ' required, have been prepared and made by the Order of the ' said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; which ' said Maps, Plans, Sections and Estimates have been referred ' to and approved of by the Commissioners for carrying into ' Effect the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, and ' have been presented to and laid before the Commons House
 ' of Parliament during this present Session; all which said Alter' ations and Improvements, and the Estimates of the Expense of ' the same, are described and set forth in the Schedule to this ' Act annexed: And Whereas it is desirable that the said Alter' ations and Improvements should be carried into effect, but the ' Funds of the several Trustees under whom the said Roads are ' maintained are inadequate thereto, and it would be of great ' public Benefit if such Sum or Sums of Money as may be ' required for carrying on and completing the said Alterations
 ' and Improvements were advanced to the Trustees or Commis' sioners of the said several Roads by the Commissioners ap' pointed under an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the ' Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, in' titled An Act to authorise the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the ' Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, for the carry- ' ing on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United King- ' dom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in Manner
 ' therein mentioned; and if the said several Trustees or Commis' sioners were empowered to pay over the Money so advanced ' to the Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the ' Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, in order that the said Alterations and ' Improvements may be made, and the said Money applied there-
 ' to, under the Direction of such Commissioners: May it there' fore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it
 ' enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with
 ' the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
 ' and

57 G. 3. c. 34.

and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, and their Successors, shall be Commissioners for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act, and making and completing the said several Alterations and Improvements on the said Roads described and set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and in the said Maps, Plans, Sections, and Estimates.

Commissioners under 55 G. 3. c. 152. to be Commissioners for carrying into effect this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid shall consider and determine which of the said Roads so surveyed and reported upon, and estimated, shall be altered and improved in the Manner herein directed, and shall cause a List and Description thereof, referring to such Survey, to be published in the London Gazette; and such List or Description shall also be sent to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for each County through which the said Roads or any of them do pass; and the altering and improving such Road or Roads may thereupon, or as soon after as the said Commissioners shall appoint, be proceeded upon pursuant to this Act.

Commissioners to determine which of the Roads shall be improved, and publish a Description thereof in London Gazette, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That as soon as the said Commissioners for executing the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid shall have determined which of the said Roads so surveyed and estimated shall be altered and improved, the said last mentioned Commissioners shall direct an Account to be opened in their Books for such Road; and it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners for repairing and maintaining such Road, and they are hereby required, thereupon to pay over and place to such Account of the said Commissioners for executing the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid a Sum equal to the estimated Expense of making the intended Alterations and Improvements on such Road so determined on, provided that the Commissioners appointed under the recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid shall have agreed to advance such Sum to the said Trustees or Commissioners; and such Road shall be forthwith directed to be altered and improved; and such Sum so paid by the Trustees or Commissioners thereof shall be expended by the said Commissioners for executing the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, under the Powers, Regulations and Restrictions in that Act contained.

When Roads determined on, an Account to be opened, and a Sum equal to the Estimate to be placed to it.

Proviso.

IV. And, for enabling the said Commissioners under the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third more effectually to carry into Execution the Purposes of this Act, be it further enacted, That all the Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Authorities given and granted to the said last mentioned Commissioners, in and by the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, shall be construed and held to extend and shall extend to this Act, for the Purpose of making the said Alterations and Improvements, as fully, amply and effectually as if the same Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Authorities were repeated and re-enacted in and by this Act.

55 G. 3. c. 152. extended to this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such Alteration and Improvement shall be made in conformity to the said Maps, Plans, Sections and Commissioners to improve the Roads in conformity to Maps, &c. and to make Contracts.

Sums to be drawn and Payments placed to Account of Road.

Contracts to be submitted to a Committee of Five Trustees or Commissioners of the Roads specified.

Works when completed to be examined and reported on by a Committee of Trustees or Commissioners
of the Road.

Sections and Estimates aforesaid; and the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid are hereby empowered and required to make such Contracts and Agreements with skilful Persons and their Sureties, for the carrying on, making and completing such Alterations and Improvements on the said Roads, and to appoint such Person or Persons as they shall think proper, who shall from time to time, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners under the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid shall direct, draw for the necessary Sums to defray the Expenses thereof; and such Payments shall from time to time be placed to the Account of the Road in respect of which the Expenses shall be incurred; and all the said Alterations, Works and Improvements hereby intended to be made and completed on the said Roads, shall be done by Contract, and in no other Way whatsoever.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every such Contract and the Terms thereof shall, previous to the same being signed and concluded, be submitted by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, to a Committee not exceeding Five of the Trustees or Commissioners of the Road on which the Work specified in such Contract is to be performed, (which Committee the several Trustees and Commissioners of the said Roads to be altered and repaired are hereby respectively empowered and required to elect and appoint); and the Committee to whom such Contract shall be submitted shall examine the Terms thereof, and if they or the major Part of them shall approve thereof, they shall sign their Names to such Contract; and when such Signatures shall be obtained, the said Contract shall then be signed and concluded by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, with the Person or Persons willing to undertake and enter into the same.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the Alterations and Improvements on any Road by this Act to be altered and improved shall be made and completed, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of the Road so altered and improved, and they are hereby empowered and required, to appoint a Committee, not exceeding Five of such Trustees or Commissioners, to examine the Alterations and Improvements so made; and the Committee so to be appointed shall, immediately on being nominated, proceed to inspect and examine such Alterations and Improvements, and the several new Works made on such Road, and shall within One Month after they shall have been so appointed, report the Result of such Examination and Inspection, and whether the said Alterations and Improvements have been made in conformity to the Maps, Plans, Sections and Estimates aforesaid, and whether the same are done in a substantial and sufficient Manner, together with any other Observations which may occur to the said Committee thereon, to the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said first recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid; and when the said Committee so to be appointed shall have made such Report, or at the Expiration of One Month after such their Appointment, in case no Report shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners under the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, to make and adjust a final Settlement of Accounts with the Person or Persons who shall have contracted to make, and shall have made and completed such Alterations and Improvements, and to pay to such last mentioned Person or Persons such Sum or Sums of Money as shall appear on such final Settlement of Accounts to be justly due and owing to him or them, according to the Terms and Conditions of his or their Contract.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all new Roads or Cuts or Parts of Roads, and all the said Alterations and Improvements which shall be made under or by virtue of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall become, to all Intents and Purposes, Parts of those Roads to which the old Roads or Parts of Roads (in lieu or for the Improvement whereof such new Roads, Cuts or Parts of Roads or Alterations shall be made) did belong, before the making of such new Roads, Cuts or Parts of Roads, or Alterations and Improvements; and such new Roads, Cuts or Parts of Roads, Alterations and Improvements, shall be subject to all such Trusts, and to all and every such Act and Acts of Parliament, and to all Provisions in any such Act or Acts of Parliament contained, as such old Roads or Parts of Roads are by Law subject to at the Time of passing this Act.

Commissioners under 55 G. 3. c. 152. finally to settle Accounts.

New Roads and Improvements to be and become Part of the old Roads.

An Act to enlarge the Time and Powers for carrying the New Street Act into Execution; and to extend the Provisions of an Act, for ratifying an Agreement made with Lord Gage, and for the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown. [15th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary le bone Park, and the Northern Parts of the Metropolis in the Parish of Saint Mary le bone, to Charing Cross, within the Liberty of Westminster; and for making a more convenient Sewage for the same; the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, were appointed Commissioners for carrying the said Act into Execution: And Whereas the said Commissioners were by the said Act required, within the Space of Three Years from the passing of the said Act, to cause Notices in Writing under their Hands, or the Hands of any Two of them for the time being, to be given to the Owners, Proprietors, Occupiers, Corporations, Trustees or any other Person or Persons interested in all such of the Houses, Buildings, Erections, Ground, Tenements and Hereditaments described or comprised in the Map or Plan and Book of Reference in the said recited Act mentioned and referred to, or in the Deviation thereinbefore mentioned, as should be wanted or required for the Purposes of the said recited Act, of their Intention to purchase the same, and all subsisting Leases, Terms, Estates and Interests therein; and the said Commissioners were thereby further required, within the Space of Four Years from the Expiration of the Time so allowed for giving such Notices, to purchase, or cause to be valued as thereinafter mentioned, all and every such Houses, Buildings, Erections, Ground, Tenements and Hereditaments mentioned or described in such Notices respectively, and to pay the Consideration Money, or Money awarded for the same respectively, in manner directed by the said recited Act: And Whereas the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the Directions of the said recited Act, did cause such Notices in Writing to be given within the said Space of Three Years; and the Time prescribed within which the said Commissioners should purchase or cause to be valued such Houses, Buildings, Erections, Ground, Tenements and Hereditaments, mentioned in the said Notices, will, according to the Limitations of the said recited Act, expire on or about the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty: And Whereas the said Commissioners have proceeded with all practicable Expedition, and have made great Progress in the completing of such Purchases, and making such Valuations, according to the Directions of the said recited Act; but the Interests in the Premises to be purchased being very numerous and complicated, and it being very difficult to trace many of the

Persons

Persons having such Interests, and some of them not being yet discovered, it will be impossible for the said Commissioners to complete all the said Purchases within the Time limited by the said recited Act; and it is therefore expedient that further Time should be allowed for that Purpose: And Whereas, in order to enable the said Commissioners to carry the several Purposes of the said recited Act into Execution, the said Commissioners were thereby authorised, by and with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, to borrow and take up at Interest from time to time such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, as they the said Commissioners, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, should judge necessary for the Purposes of the said Act, on Mortgage of all or any Part or Parts of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in the Lines of the Streets and Places to be erected, altered, repaired or improved, or which should be purchased or exchanged by virtue of that Act, or by Mortgage of all or any Part or Parts of certain other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the said Act specified, upon the Credit of the Rents and Profits thereof: And in order to enable certain Persons in the said recited Act specified, to form and make such new Sewers, Watercourses, and Drains as are in and by the said recited Act directed to be formed and made, and to keep the same in Repair, the said Commissioners were by the said Act further empowered, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, to borrow and take up at Interest from time to time such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, over and above any other Sum or Sums of Money by the said recited Act authorised to be so borrowed and taken up, which they the said Commissioners, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, should judge necessary and expedient for those Purposes; and for securing the Repayment thereof in such Manner and Form and by such Means as thereinbefore mentioned, to grant, demise or mortgage any Part or Parts, which to them should seem fit, of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments thereinbefore authorised to be mortgaged for raising Money for the other Purposes of the said Act, so as the same Premises should not be included in any prior subsisting Mortgage which should be made in pursuance of the said Act; and to issue and apply the Money so to be raised, from time to time as they should see Occasion, in or towards defraying the Expences of forming, making and repairing such new Sewers, Drains and Wydraughts: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown, in order to facilitate

54 G. 3. c. 70.

'tate the raising of the said Sums of Five hundred thousand 'Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, it was enacted, that § 28.
 'it should and might be lawful for the said Commissioners for 'executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the 'Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, by and with
 'the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Com'missioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for 'the time being, or any Three or more of them, and notwith'standing any Provision, Restriction or Clause contained in any 'Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Land Re'venues, to borrow and take up at Interest such Sum or Sums of 'Money as they the said Commissioners for executing the said
 'recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, with such Appro'bation as aforesaid, should judge necessary for the Purposes of 'the said Act, not exceeding what should then remain to be 'raised of the said Two Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds
 'and One hundred thousand Pounds, by any Loan or Loans upon
 'the Credit of the Land Revenues of the Crown: And Whereas
 'the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said
 'recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, did, after the pass'ing of the last recited Act, borrow of the Corporation of the 'Royal Exchange Assurance the Sum of Three hundred thousand 'Pounds, in part of the said several Sums of Five hundred thou'sand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, on the Credit 'of the Land Revenues of the Crown: And Whereas by an Act
 'passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late § 7 G. 3. c. 24.
 'Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to alter and 'enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of 'His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the further Improve- § 1.
 'ment of the Land Revenues of the Crown,' any Person or Per'sons whomsoever, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Com'panies whatsoever, were empowered to advance or lend any Sum
 'or Sums of Money, or any Part or Parts of the Capital or other 'Monies or Funds of or belonging to such Person or Persons,
 'Bodies Politic or Corporate or Companies, not exceeding in 'Amount what then remained to be raised of the said Two Sums
 'of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand 'Pounds, to the Commissioners for the time being for executing
 'the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His 'late Majesty King George the Third, upon the Credit of the 'Land Revenues of the Crown, subject and without Prejudice to 'the Sum so already advanced by the said Royal Exchange As-
 'urance Company, and to the Provisions made by the said recited
 'Act of the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty
 'King George the Third for the Repayment thereof, and for the 'Payment of the Interest thereof; so as that all such Loans
 'should be made by and with the Approbation of the Lord High
 'Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,
 'or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United 'Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or 'any Three or more of them, who was and were thereby autho'rised to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for that Purpose,
 'notwithstanding any thing contained to the contrary in certain
 'Acts

57 G. 3. c. 97.

§ 4.

' Acts of Parliament therein particularly specified, or any other ' Act or Acts of Parliament, Statute or Charter, Bye Law or Or' dinance: And Whereas the said Commissioners for executing
 ' the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His ' late Majesty King George the Third, have, under the Powers
 ' contained in that Act and in the said recited Acts of the Fifty
 ' fourth and Fifty seventh Years aforesaid, borrowed and raised
 ' the further Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds by a Loan
 ' from the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon
 ' the Credit of the Land Revenues of the Crown: And Whereas
 ' by another Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of ' His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for
 ' ratifying Articles of Agreement entered into by the Right Ho- ' nourable Henry Hall Viscount Gage, and the Commissioners of ' His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and for the ' better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the ' Crown; it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful for
 ' the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land
 ' Revenues for the time being, and they were thereby authorised
 ' and empowered, from time to time to contract and agree with ' any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for ' the Sale of, and absolutely to make Sale and dispose of, any ' Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the ' Crown, within the Ordering and Survey of the Exchequer in ' England, which should consist of any Royalties, Honours, Hun' dreds, Manors, Lordships or Franchises; or any Rights,
 ' Members or Appurtenances thereof or thereto belonging or
 ' appertaining; or any Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, Profits,
 ' Dues or Monies arising therefrom, or incident to or receivable
 ' in respect thereof; or any Messuages, Lands, Tithes, Rents,
 ' Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Wood Grounds, Fens,
 ' Marshes, Waste Lands, or any other Tenements or Heredita-
 ' ments whatsoever, or any other Revenues of or belonging to the ' Crown, within the Ordering and Survey aforesaid, which should
 ' in their Judgment be desirable to be sold, for the best Prices or ' Considerations in Money which the said Commissioners for the ' time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, ' should, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the ' Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the ' time being, or any Three or more of them, be able to procure
 ' for the same; and that all and every Sum and Sums of Money
 ' arising from such Sales should from time to time be paid into
 ' the Bank of England, and placed to the Account intituled "The ' Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His ' Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being the Woods'
 ' and Forests' Fund;" and that the Monies so paid in should be ' laid out and applied from time to time by the Order of the said
 ' Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Re' venues for the time being (who were thereby authorised to make ' Drafts on the Bank for that Purpose), in the Payment and Dis' charge of any Purchase Monies for any Estates, Manors, Lord-
 ' ships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be ' purchased for and on behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Suc-
 ' cessors,

cessors, by the said Commissioners under the Authority of that Act, when and as such Purchase Monies should become due and payable to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, and of all Interest due on such Purchase Monies, and also in the Payment and Discharge of all Expenses incurred in or about the making and completing any Purchases or Sales under the Authority of that Act, and also in the Payment and Discharge of any Incumbrances or Charges affecting any of the Estates and Possessions of His Majesty within the Ordering and Survey of the Exchequer; but that such Monies should not be applicable to or applied or disposed of for any other Use or Purpose whatsoever: And Whereas it will be very advantageous, and tend to the more speedily completing the Improvements now carrying on under the said first recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His late Majesty's Reign, if the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being also the Commissioners for carrying the said last mentioned Act into effect, were empowered to apply Part of the said Monies arising from the said Sales made or to be made by virtue of the said last recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, in completing any of the Purchases already contracted for, or hereafter to be made under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, or otherwise in carrying into effect the several Purposes of the said last mentioned Act, and improving that Part of the Crown Estates comprised therein: And Whereas Provision is made by the said last recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for exempting certain Instruments therein mentioned from Duties on Stamp, and Doubts may arise whether such Provisions are sufficient for the Purposes intended, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed; but the several Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Time for purchasing and valuing the said Houses, Buildings, Erections, Ground, Tenements and Hereditaments by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid directed to be purchased and valued, and for paying the Consideration Money, or Money awarded for the same respectively, shall be extended for the further Period of Three Years, to commence and be computed from the said Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and that

V. And be it further enacted, That when any such Certificate shall be so signed and enrolled, and entered as aforesaid, every Sum or Sums of Money therein expressed or acknowledged to be due as such Purchase Money as aforesaid, shall be and the same is and are hereby charged upon the whole of the said Land Revenues of the Crown, and such Revenues shall from thenceforth be subject and liable to the Payment of the same, and the Interest thereof; and such Principal and Interest shall be paid and satisfied out of the said Revenues, at the Time or Times and in the Manner mentioned and appointed for the Payment thereof in and by every such Certificate; and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners

sioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, is and are hereby authorised, empowered and required to pay such Principal and Interest, when and as the same shall become due and payable, out of the said Land Revenues of the Crown, prior to any other Application thereof, except the Payment of Interest due and payable on any existing Loan or Loans antecedently advanced on the Credit thereof, and except so far as such Revenues are or ought to be applied in the Repayment of any such Loan or Loans.

Treasury to pay the same.

VI. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, upon Payment or legal Tender of the Sum or Sums of Money, Recompence and Satisfaction; which should be agreed for, awarded, or assessed as therein mentioned, certain Powers and Authorities are given to the said Commissioners thereby appointed: Be it further enacted, That the said Certificates hereby authorised to be granted by the said Commissioners for any Purchase Monies due to any Person or Persons, shall on the Delivery of the same be deemed and taken to be, and be equivalent to, and as Payment of any Money agreed for or awarded, for all the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid; and all the Powers, Authorities and Provisions in the said last mentioned Act contained, shall and may, on the Delivery of such Certificate, be exercised and carried into effect as fully and amply as if actual Payment of the Principal Money mentioned in such Certificate had been made.

53 G. 5. c. 121. § 32.

Delivery of such Certificate deemed equivalent to Payment in Money, and all Powers of the said Act to be thereupon exercised.

VII. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, it was enacted, that in case it should happen that any Payment of Interest accruing upon any Loan or Loans to be made in pursuance of that Act should not be satisfied out of the said Land Revenues within the Space of Three Calendar Months after the same should have become due, or in case any Portion or Part of the Principal of any such Loan or Loans should not be paid or discharged out of the said Land Revenues within the like Space of Three Calendar Months after the same should have become due, the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, was and were authorised, empowered and required, upon the Demand or Requisition of the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company, who should have made such Loan or Loans, or be entitled to such Interest, or such Portion of Principal as should be so in arrear, due or unpaid, to make Payment of such Interest or Principal (as the case might be) which should be so in arrear, due or unpaid, out of any Monies at his or their Disposal granted by Parliament for the Supplies of the then current Year: And Whereas Sums of Money have been lent and advanced by sundry Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, or Companies, to the said Commissioners, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts, which in part have become due and payable, and the said Commissioners Commissioners under 57 G. 5. c. 24. § 4. with Consent of Treasury, may agree with Persons to whom Payments are in arrear for prolonging the Time of Payment.

‘ signers have not been enabled out of the Revenues at their ‘ Disposal to pay the same; and it is therefore expedient for the ‘ Public Service that further Time should be allowed for Pay‘ ment of the whole of such Loans, with the Consent of the Parties ‘ who have advanced the same;’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Acts, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to treat and agree with any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, who have made such Advances as aforesaid, for extending the Time or respective Times stipulated for Repayment thereof, or of any Part or Parts thereof, for any further Term or Time which may be agreed upon between the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Acts with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, and such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies as aforesaid, and to permit and allow the same to continue and remain as a Loan or Charge upon the said Land Revenues, at Interest, for such further Time or Times as shall be so agreed upon, without Prejudice to any Security or Securities held by such Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or given to him, her or them, by or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament; and that an Agreement for the Extension of the Time of Payment of such Principal Money, or any Part or Parts thereof, shall be made in Writing, under the Hands of the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Acts, and be indorsed on the Security upon which the same was originally advanced, and shall specify the Period or Periods at which such Principal Money shall be repaid, either altogether or by Instalments, and the Interest thereof shall continue payable in the manner stipulated in the said original Security.

 Year.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen that any Payment of Interest accruing upon any Loan or Loans, of which the Time or Times of Repayment shall be extended in pursuance of this Act, shall not be satisfied out of the said Revenues within the Space of Three Calendar Months after the same shall have become due, or in case all or any Portion or Part of the Principal of any such Loan or Loans shall not be paid or discharged out of the said Land Revenues within the like Space of Three Calendar Months after the extended Time or Times at which the same shall be made payable by such new Agreement as aforesaid, that then the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, is and are hereby authorised, empowered and required, upon the Demand or Requisition of the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company, who shall have made such Loan or Loans, or be entitled to such Interest or such Portion of Principal as shall be so in arrear, due or unpaid, to make Payment of such Interest or Principal (as the case may be) which shall be so in arrear, due or unpaid, and of any Monies at his or their Disposal, granted by Parliament

Parliament for the Supplies of the then current Year; and every such Demand or Requisition shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been made within Three Calendar Months next after such Principal Money or any Part or Parts thereof originally became due; and every such Payment shall be as fully authorised, and shall be replaced and made good in such and the like manner, as if the same had been made out of the Monies granted by Parliament for the Supplies of the Year in which such Principal Money or any Part or Parts thereof originally became due; and all and every Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, and Companies, making or entering into any such new Agreement, or extending the Time for Payment of any such Principal Money or any Part or Parts thereof under the same, shall be and is and are hereby authorised and empowered so to do, and shall be fully indemnified in so doing; any Act or Acts of Parliament, Charter, Bye Law, Ordinance, Contract or Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons entering into new Agreement, &c. indemnified.

IX. And for the more speedily completing the several Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, who are hereby authorised to make Drafts on the Bank of England for the purpose, from time to time to lay out and apply, by and with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, in the Payment and Discharge of any Purchase Monies for any Houses, Buildings, Erections, Ground, Tenements, and Hereditaments directed to be purchased in and by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid by the Commissioners for executing the same, or otherwise in the Execution thereof, and in effecting the Improvements in that Part of the Estates of the Crown comprized in the said last mentioned Act, or purchased in pursuance thereof, such Sums and Sums of Money as to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall seem necessary, out of the Monies arising from the Sale of any Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown within the Ordering and Survey of the Exchequer in England, by the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third authorised to be sold and disposed of, and which said Monies are by that Act directed to be from time to time paid into the Bank of England and placed to the Account intituled 'The Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, being the Woods' and Forests' Fund;' and every such Appropriation of the said Fund, made with such Approbation as aforesaid, shall be good and valid, any thing in the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Land Revenue, or to any Property under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. with Consent of Treasury, may lay out Money out of the Land Revenues for completing the Purposes of 53 G. 3. c. 121.

Such Monies to be paid into the Bank and placed to the Account herein mentioned.

No Contract, Agreement or other Deed liable to Stamp Duty under this or the recited Acts, or any other Act relating to the Land Revenues.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Minute, Memorandum, Certificate, Contract, Agreement, Articles of Agreement, or other Settlement, to be hereafter made or entered into by or with the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for or relating to the Purchase or Sale of any Estates, Manors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to be sold or purchased under the Provisions of any of the hereinbefore recited Acts or of this Act, nor any Deed or Conveyance, Mortgage, Assignment, or other Instrument, to be made, executed or signed by any Person or Persons for the carrying any Purchases or Sales into Execution, which have been already made in pursuance of the said recited Acts, or which shall be hereafter made in pursuance of the said recited Acts or of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Land Revenue, nor any Certificate, Contract or Receipt, Deed, Covenant, Conveyance, Mortgage, Assignment, Agreement, Indemnity or other Instrument whatsoever, to be given or granted, entered into or made, to or with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, Company or Companies, Commissioner or Commissioners, Trustee or Trustees, by the Lord High Treasurer, or by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, under the Authority of any of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of this Act, or of any other Act now in force, or which may hereafter be passed relating to the Land Revenue of the Crown, nor any Deed, Agreement or other Instrument to be made for extending the Time for the Repayment of any Loan or Loans now charged on the said Land Revenue, shall be subject or liable to any ad valorem or other Stamp Duty whatsoever imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament, unless the same be specially subjected thereto and specifically charged therewith in and by such future Act and Acts of Parliament.

Proviso.

Powers of recited Acts (Exception) extended to this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all the said hereinbefore recited Acts (except so far as the same are hereby altered) shall remain in as full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been passed; and that all the Powers, Provisions, Authorities, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, which can or may be rendered applicable to this present Act, shall extend, and be deemed, construed and taken to extend, to this present Act, and be in all respects applicable thereto, and to the Purposes thereof, in like manner and as fully and effectually as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act, mutatis mutandis.

Money to be raised not to exceed 200,000l. in addition to the Sum already raised.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorise or empower the Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, to raise for the Purposes of such Act, by all or any of the Means before mentioned, any Sum or Sums of Money exceeding in the whole Two hundred thousand Pounds, over and above all other Sums already raised under or by virtue of the Powers

Powers or Authorities given to or vested in them by the said recited Acts, or any or either of them: Provided always, that whatever Sum or Sums of Money shall be granted by Parliament for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds.

Proviso.

XIII. And whereas it may happen that some of the Persons interested in the said Houses, Buildings, Erections, Grounds, Tenements and Hereditaments yet remaining to be purchased under the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, may be desirous of having their Interests valued, and the Purchases thereof completed, within a shorter Period than the said Term of Three Years; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for such Cases; Be it therefore further enacted, That in case any of the Owners, Proprietors, Trustees, or other Persons interested in any of the Houses, Buildings, Erections, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so remaining to be purchased as aforesaid, shall give Notice in Writing to the said Commissioners or their Secretary, that they are desirous to have their Interests valued, and the Price or Consideration Money to be paid for the same ascertained forthwith, and the Purchase thereof speedily completed; then and in every such Case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, within Three Calendar Months after the Receipt of every such Notice, to cause the Value of the Interest of the Person or Persons giving such Notice to be assessed and ascertained by a Jury in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, unless the same shall in the intermediate time be agreed upon or ascertained by any other means; and shall, within the Space of Nine Calendar Months after the Receipt of every such Notice, cause the Purchase of the respective Interests of the Person or Persons giving such Notice to be completed, and the Value so agreed upon, assessed or ascertained as aforesaid, to be paid in manner directed by the said recited Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Premises may be valued as herein mentioned and purchased within a shorter Period than Three Years, on Notice.

C A P. LXXII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries.

[15th July 1820.]

[This Act is the same as 59 G. 3. c. 65. except as to Dates and Sums and the Sections that are here inserted.]

III. And be it further enacted, That such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole Fifteen Pounds in Money, or Thirty Pounds Stock or Annuities in any of the Public Funds, for every Ticket to be contained in the said Lottery or Lotteries, as shall be fixed upon for the Purpose by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall be distributed in Prizes or Benefits to be drawn in the said Lottery or Lotteries, or allotted to the Owner or Owners of any First or Last drawn Ticket or Tickets or of any Ticket or Tickets to be drawn between the First and Last as a fixed Prize or fixed Prizes, A Sum not exceeding 15l. or 30l. Stock for every Ticket, shall be divided into Prizes, and paid out of the Supplies granted this Session.

on

on any particular Day or Days, in such Proportions and in such Manner as the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them shall direct, and the same shall be charged upon and be paid and payable out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament for Great Britain; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are hereby required and authorised, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, to cause such Sum or Sums of Money to be issued and paid out of the said Aids or Supplies to the Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by him distributed and paid to and amongst the respective Proprietors of the several Fortunate or Benefit Tickets, within Two Months after the Conclusion of the Drawing of such Lottery or Lotteries respectively, or as soon as Certificates can be made out for the Sums due in respect of the same, in the manner hereinafter directed.

Treasury may annul Licences.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury at their Discretion, at any time, and for any Cause to them appearing proper, to direct such Licence or Licences as aforesaid to be annulled and made void, and to order and direct Notice thereof to be given to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, and to the Person or Persons so licensed, upon which the same shall be absolutely void and of no Effect; and if any Person or Persons to whom any such Licence or Licences as aforesaid shall be granted, shall be prosecuted and convicted of any Offence against this Act, whether on Prosecution of the Bond to be given in pursuance of this Act, or for any Penalty under this Act, or as a Rogue and Vagabond, or in case any Person or Persons so licensed shall, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, misconduct himself or themselves in any Act, Matter or Thing relating to the Business of or in anywise concerning the Lottery, and the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties shall, after hearing the Parties charged with such Misconduct, be of Opinion that he is or they are guilty thereof, then such Licence or Licences granted as aforesaid by virtue of this Act shall be absolutely void and of no Effect; and the said Commissioners may, in either of the said Cases, if they shall think proper, refuse to grant to such Person or Persons a Licence under any future Act of Parliament which may be made and passed for granting to His Majesty or His Successors a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries.

Persons convicted of Offences shall forfeit their Licence.

Commissioners may refuse Licence.

Persons counterfeiting Licences, or using such as are counterfeit, shall forfeit 500*l.* &c.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged or counterfeited, or assist in forging or counterfeiting any Licence authorised to be made by this Act for the Purpose aforesaid, or shall fraudulently alter or cause to be altered or assist in altering any such Licence as shall be really granted under this Act, or shall knowingly make use of any such forged, counterfeited or altered Licence, such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, One Moiety thereof to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him that shall prosecute or sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in relation to Licences granted in Great Britain, and at Dublin as to Licences granted in Ireland, in which no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance shall be allowed; and shall be also subject to Imprisonment for such Term not exceeding Six Months as the Court in which the Party offending shall be convicted shall appoint.

XXXV. And Whereas many evil-disposed Persons, to evade the Provisions of the Acts made to punish Persons guilty of insuring for or against the Drawing of Tickets, more particularly described in this Act, have empowered and authorised, and do empower and authorise Agents for them to take Money for such illegal Contracts, and have in their Custody or Possession, Account or Accounts, Statement or Statements, Memorandum or Memorandums in Writing of such illegal Contracts entered into; Be it therefore enacted, That upon Information upon Oath made before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, stating any Person to be a reputed Lottery Insurer, and in the Opinion of the Informer to be in Possession of Books, Papers or Memorandums of illegal Contracts entered into relating to Lottery Insurances, it shall be lawful for, and such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace is hereby required to issue his Warrant, directed to a Constable or Officer of Police, to empower him with proper Assistance to search the Person of the said reputed Lottery Insurer, to enter the Dwelling Place and Premises of such Person, and search for and seize all such Papers, Accounts or Memorandums; and if any such be found either upon such or any other Person or Persons in the same Dwelling Place, or in or about the same Dwelling Place or Premises, or if any Memorandums of Insurance in the Lottery or Little Goe should be found at the time of such Search, written in Chalk or otherwise upon or about the Dwelling Place or Premises, then to apprehend and bring the said Person or Persons against whom such Warrant shall have been issued, with such Person or Persons upon whom such Lottery or Little Goe Insurance Papers, Accounts or Memorandums were found, before Two Magistrates or Justices of the Peace, and upon Proof before them by Two credible Witnesses upon Oath that such Papers, Accounts or Memorandums do appear to the best of their Knowledge and Belief to relate to any Little Goe, or to Insurance in any Lottery or in any Little Goe, whether the same Little Goe or Lottery shall have been actually drawn or not, or upon Proof in like manner that such Memorandums were written in Chalk or otherwise on or about the Premises of the Person against whom such Warrant shall have been issued, which could not be brought away without injuring the Premises, such Person or Persons are to be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds, and punished as such.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Share or Agreement for a Share of every Ticket so to be divided shall have written or printed thereon Words or Figures to this Effect; (that is to say,)

Lottery Insurers in whose Premises Papers relating to Insurance are found, &c. shall be punished as Rogues and Vagabonds.

An Act to extend the Period allowed to Persons compounding for their Assessed Taxes, and to give further Relief in certain cases therein mentioned. [24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the 59 G. 3. c. 51.
 ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, inti‘ tuled An Act to relieve Persons compounding for their Assessed ‘ Taxes from an annual Assessment for the Term of Three Years, ‘ from the Sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred § 1.
 ‘ and

‘ and twenty, all Persons assessed to the said Duties for the Year ‘ ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred ‘ and nineteen, were enabled to compound for the same, on the ‘ Terms and Conditions therein contained, with the respective ‘ Commissioners for executing the Acts relating to the said Du‘ ties, at any time on or before the Thirty first Day of October One ‘ thousand eight hundred and nineteen: And Whereas the Com‘ missioners for executing the said Acts in several Districts have ‘ executed and delivered Contracts of Composition after the said ‘ Thirty first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and ‘ nineteen, and in other Districts have received from Persons de‘ siring of compounding or entitled to have compounded before
 ‘ the said Thirty first Day of October One thousand eight hundred ‘ and nineteen, Offers to compound under the Terms and Condi‘ tions of the said Act, but may not have executed the same;
 ‘ and it is expedient that all Compositions which have been so ‘ entered into after the Thirty first Day of October One thousand ‘ eight hundred and nineteen should be confirmed, and that the ‘ Time should be extended for completing Certificates of Compo‘ sition upon Offers to compound under the Terms and Conditions ‘ of the said Act, which were delivered to the said Commissioners, ‘ or their respective Clerks, under the Regulations of the said ‘ Act, on or before the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand ‘ eight hundred and nineteen:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Certificates of Composition which have been entered into and signed by the said respective Commissioners and the Parties compounding, at any time after the said Thirty first Day of October, and on or before the said Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be confirmed and valid, and of the like Force and Effect, and subject to the like Powers and Conditions for Payment, as if the same Compositions had been made and entered into within the Time limited by the said Act; and all and every Person or Persons, Commissioners and others, who shall or may have been in any manner concerned in advising or assenting to or executing such Compositions, in such cases and in such manner and under the like Circumstances as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be and they and every of them are and is hereby fully and effectually indemnified for so doing.

Certificates of Compositions

 Commissioners on or before Nov. 30, 1819,
 confirmed.

Commissioners may contract upon Offers to compound made on or before Nov. 30, 1819, provided the Certificates of Contracts are executed before Dec. 31, 1820.

II. And be it further enacted, That in every case wherein the said respective Commissioners have received any Offer to compound after the said Thirty first Day of October and on or before the said Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and may not have completed the Contracts of Composition before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, being satisfied that the Party so offering to compound was entitled to compound before the Day limited by the said Act as aforesaid for that purpose, and they are hereby authorised and required, to enter into Composition with such Person or Persons respectively, according to the Provisions of the said Act and of this Act; provided the Certificates of such Compo-

Compositions respectively shall be executed by the said Commissioners and the Party so compounding on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and which Certificates of Composition, when executed by the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, and by the Party aforesaid, in the manner by the said Act directed, shall be of the like Force and Effect, and subject to the like Powers and Conditions for Payment, to all Intents, as if the said Composition had been entered into within the Time by the said Act limited as aforesaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act in the cases hereinafter described; Be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons assessed in the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen for a Carriage or Carriages with Four Wheels, as described in the Schedule marked D. No. 1. of the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, shall have entered into Composition for the same under the said Act, or shall enter into Composition for the same under this Act, and not for a Carriage with less than Four Wheels, as described in the Schedule marked D. No. 2. of the said Acts, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to set up, keep and use, during the Period of Three Years, limited by the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid, any such Carriage or Carriages with less than Four Wheels, free of Duty; and where any Person or Persons shall in like manner have been assessed and compounded for any such Carriage or Carriages with less than Four Wheels, and not for any such Carriage with Four Wheels, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to set up, keep and use, during the like Period of Three Years, any such Carriage or Carriages with Four Wheels, free of Duty; and where any Person or Persons shall have been so assessed for any Male Servant as described in the Schedule marked C. No. 1. of the said Acts, and shall have compounded for the same under the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid, or shall compound for the same under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, during the Period of his, her or their respective Compositions, to retain, keep and employ any Male Person or Number of Male Persons described in any other Schedule marked C. No. 2. or No. 3. of the said Acts, free of Duty; and where any Person or Persons shall have been so assessed in respect of any Horse, Mare or Gelding kept for the purpose of riding, or drawing any Carriage chargeable with Duty, as described in the Schedule marked E. of the said Acts, and shall have compounded for the same under the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid, or shall compound for the same under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, during the Period of his, her or their respective Compositions, to keep any Horse, Mare or Gelding, not exceeding the Height of Thirteen Hands, and used for the purpose of riding, or drawing any Carriage last aforesaid, free of Duty granted by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty; and where any Person or Persons shall have been so assessed in respect of any Greyhound chargeable with the Duty of Twenty Shillings, or any Hound, Pointer, Setting Dog, Lurcher, Terrier and for Persons compounding for Dogs,

Terrier or other Dog chargeable with the like Duty of Fourteen Shillings, in and by the Schedule marked G. of the said Acts, and shall have compounded for any such Dog under the said first mentioned Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid, or shall compound for the same under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, during the Period of his, her or their Composition, to keep any Dog or Dogs, or any Number of such Dogs, of any of the Descriptions aforesaid, chargeable with the same Duties of Twenty Shillings and Fourteen Shillings respectively, or either of them, free of Duty; and all and every such Person and Persons respectively so compounding or having compounded as aforesaid, and who is or are hereby authorised to keep or use any Article or Articles herein described free of Duty, shall be freed and exonerated from all Assessments under the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, as fully and effectually as he, she or they would have been, if the said Article or Articles had been of the same Description, and included in the same Schedule of the said Acts, with the Article or Articles on which the Composition shall have been or shall be made; any thing in the said first herein mentioned Act of the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

and for Persons so compounding in respect of Articles free of Duty.

Proviso for effective Members of Volunteer Corps of Yeomanry as to the Duty on Horses.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person, being respectively effective Members of any Volunteer Corps of Yeomanry, who shall have compounded for their Assessed Taxes under the said Act, or shall be entitled to compound for the same under this Act, shall, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, during the Continuance of such Composition, be entitled to the like Exemptions, in respect of their or his Horse or Horses used in the said Corps, as they respectively would have been entitled to in case no such Composition had been entered into, and whether such Composition shall include any assessed Horse or Horses or not; and also, during the Continuance of such Composition, shall be entitled to the like Privileges and Immunities in respect of any additional Horse or Horses by them or him kept as aforesaid, as they or he would have been entitled to had such Composition been entered into in respect of one or more assessed Horse or Horses, in the Cases, and in the Manner, and subject to the Conditions contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act.

59 G. 5. c. 118.

51 G. 5. c. 72.

V. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to give Relief in certain Cases of Assessments of Taxes in Great Britain, and to Persons compounding for their Assessed Taxes in Ireland, from an annual Assessment for Three Years from the Sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, Provision is made for authorising Persons to compound for their Assessed Taxes in Ireland in the manner therein contained: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting Exemptions in certain Cases from the Payment of the Duties charged in respect of Servants, Carriages, Horses and Dogs kept in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, Provision is also made for relieving Persons residing partly in Great Britain and partly in Ireland from Payment of the Duties of Assessed Taxes for the same ‘ same Establishment of Servants, Carriages, Horses and Dogs, in the same Year, in both Parts of the United Kingdom: And Whereas it may happen that Persons partly residing in Great Britain and partly in Ireland, may have compounded or shall compound for their Assessed Taxes in England, and afterwards remove to Ireland, and that such Persons may in like manner compound for their Assessed Taxes in Ireland and afterwards remove to England; and it is expedient that such Persons respectively should have the Benefit of their respective Compositions in each Part of the United Kingdom, in order to their Relief from Double Assessment, in like manner as is provided by the said Act passed in the Fifty first Year aforesaid with respect to annual Assessments;’ Be it therefore enacted, That the Yearly Sum payable on any Composition entered into in Great Britain on Removal of the Person so compounding to Ireland, and the Yearly Sum payable on any Composition entered into in Ireland on Removal of the Person so compounding to Great Britain, shall severally and respectively be deemed, received and taken in Ireland and Great Britain respectively as a Yearly Assessment to the Amount of Duty payable on Servants, Horses and Carriages respectively in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Composition was entered into, and which the Party might by virtue thereof keep and use.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Composition entered or to be entered into by Commissioners of Districts, in which the Amounts of Taxes compounded for have been assessed wholly or in part out of the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners, Parties to the said Composition, is declared to be as valid and effectual as if the whole Amount of Taxes contained therein had been assessed by them, any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Assessments out of the said District included in the said Certificate of Composition shall be discharged in the respective Districts where the same were made by the Commissioners acting for the same respectively, on the Certificate of the Commissioners by whom the Composition was entered into; and all Discharges heretofore made for the same Cause are hereby declared to be valid, and all Commissioners, Officers and other Persons who have acted in directing or discharging the same Assessments are hereby indemnified in so doing; provided that in every Case of Composition to be executed after the passing of this Act, Two of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall, by their Certificate, countersigned by their Secretary, certify the same to the Commissioners of the respective Districts in which such Composition shall be intended to be made and in which the Taxes shall be assessed, and upon such Certificates being transmitted to the respective Commissioners aforesaid, they are hereby respectively required to enter into such Composition, or to vacate and discharge such Assessments accordingly.

‘ VII. And Whereas by the said first recited Act, passed in the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid it is directed that the Duties on inhabited Houses and on Windows and Lights contained in the Schedules marked A. and B., or either of them, in the Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, shall be compounded for separate and distinct from all and every the other Duties therein men-

Persons compounding in England or Ireland, to have the like Relief on Removal from Double Assessment, as is provided by 51 G. 3. c. 73. in respect to annual Assessments.

Compositions for Taxes in One District, of Persons assessed elsewhere, confirmed.

Indemnity to Parties;

and, upon Certificate, Discharges in other Districts allowed.

59 G. 3. c. 51. § 2.

Compositions for Houses and Windows and other Assessed Taxes in One and the Commissioners to distinguish the Proportions of Duty by Indorsement on the Certificate.

Contract confirmed;

Contracts entered into by Party, having paid Instalment but not signed, may be signed by Agent.

Such Contracts binding, though not signed.

In what cases where Certificates prepared but not signed, tioned, by reason that on the Removal of the Person compounding for the Dwelling House, in respect of which the Duties in the said Schedules shall have been compounded for, the Composition in respect of the said Dwelling House is directed to cease and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after such Removal: And whereas in some Cases the Commissioners of certain Districts have allowed Persons to compound for all the said Duties in and by one Certificate of Composition, without distinguishing the said respective Duties; Be it further enacted That in all such Cases last mentioned it shall be lawful for any Two Commissioners acting for the Division in which such Certificate of Composition shall have been entered into, and they are hereby required, to certify by Indorsement on such Certificate, and also in the Abstracts of such Compositions, the particular Duties charged in respect of such Dwelling House under the Schedules A. and B. aforesaid, with the Amount of the Composition thereon, and to distinguish the same from the rest of the Duties so compounded for, with the Instalments payable on each Description of Duty, in like manner as if the same had been compounded for under separate Certificates of Composition; and the same Certificates of Composition shall be enforced under the Powers of the said Act and this Act, in respect to all or any Part of the respective Instalments thereby payable under the Provisions of the said Act or this Act; and all and every such Certificates of Composition shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, as valid and of the same Force and Effect in respect to the Continuance of the Composition for each Description of Duty, and enforcing the Payment of the same under the Powers of the said recited Act or of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Composition for the Duties on Houses and Windows had been made separate and distinct from the Remainder of the said Duties compounded for by such Certificate under the Provisions of the said Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That where by Absence, Sickness or other reasonable Cause, Persons who have given Notice to compound under the said recited Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year aforesaid, may have been prevented from signing their respective Contracts of Composition, but have paid or discharged one or more Instalment or Instalments due thereon, it shall be lawful for him, her or them to sign such Contract or Contracts himself or herself, or by any Agent or Agents to be appointed for that Purpose by him or her, in Writing under his or her Hand, duly attested and certified to the Commissioners acting for the District in which such Composition shall be made; and the Appointment or Authority for such Agent to sign the said Contract shall be free of any Stamp Duty, and the same being delivered to the Commissioners of the said last-mentioned District or their Clerk, shall be a sufficient Authority for the Agent so appointed to sign such Certificate of Contract; and all Contracts on which any Instalment shall be paid, although not signed by the Party or his or her Agent, shall be binding on him or her, as if the same had been duly signed under the Provisions of the said Act; and in all cases where Certificates of Composition prepared on Notices by the Parties compounding under the said recited Act or this Act shall shall not be signed by such Parties or their Agents, and any Instalment or Instalments shall not be paid thereon for the Space of Eight Months after the passing of this Act, such Certificates of Composition shall be null and void, and the several Commissioners in the respective Districts are hereby authorised and required to restore the Assessment on such Persons in respect of which such Certificates of Composition were prepared and intended to be made, and to cause the same to be levied and collected to all Intents and Purposes as if Notices of such Composition had not been given by the Persons so intending to compound and neglecting to complete their Compositions as aforesaid; and if any such Composition or any Portion thereof shall have been made on an Assessment out of the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners Parties to the said Composition, then such Commissioners shall certify the same to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, with the Amount of the Taxes so contracted for, and the District of Assessment; and the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes are hereby required to certify the same to the Commissioners of the District of Assessment, who shall, on Receipt thereof, cause the said Assessments to be restored as well for the Year in which the Composition was made as for the subsequent and all future Years, and collected together with the other Assessed Taxes, as if Notice of such Composition had not been given as aforesaid.

such Certificates void; and Assessments restored and levied.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in default of Payment of the respective Instalments on any Composition entered or to be entered into under the Provisions of the said recited Act or of this Act, on the respective Days of Payment specified in the respective Certificates of Contracts for such Compositions, and of Neglect of the respective Collectors to distrain for the same under the Warrant of the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for any such Collector, and he is hereby required, immediately upon any such Default in Payment of any such Instalment, to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners acting for the District in which such Composition shall have been made, or to the Receiver General acting for the said Duties or his Deputy, a Schedule in Writing containing the Particulars of such Default, with an Affidavit subscribed and verified by such Collector before any Commissioner acting for the said Duties, that the Amount of such Instalment or Instalments to be contained in such Schedule, is or are due and unpaid to such Collector or to any other Person for him to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and every such Schedule being certified under the Hand of the Receiver General, or his Deputy, of the County or Division where the said Arrears accrued, to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, shall be received and taken as sufficient Evidence of a Debt due to His Majesty, and shall be a sufficient Authority to the Barons of the said Court, or any one of them, to cause Process to be issued against such Defaulter named in the said Schedule, to levy the whole Sum in arrear and unpaid by such Defaulter; and the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the said Process shall be directed, shall without Delay cause the whole Sum in arrear to be levied by due Course of Law, as a Debt to His Majesty on Record, with all Costs and Expenses attending the same, and shall pay the Monies so levied, after deducting the said Costs and Expenses, to the said Receiver

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered or repealed by any Act to be made in the present Session of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE (A.) to which this Act refers.

CASES of Relief to effective Members of Corps of Yeomanry Cavalry.

FIRST CASE.—Every effective Member of any such Corps, who at the Time of entering into, or giving Notice to enter into Composition for his Assessed Taxes under the said Acts, or either of them, who shall not by reason of such Service have been assessed for any Horse, Mare or Gelding in the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be entitled to and may exercise the like Privileges in keeping and using more or additional Horses, Mares or Geldings free of Duty during the Time he shall continue such effective Member, and shall use or provide such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, in such Service, as if such Member had been assessed and made Composition for the same Horse, Mare or Gelding, or Horses, Mares or Geldings, on Payment annually of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the Duty so exempted.

SECOND CASE.—Every effective Member of any such Corps, who shall keep One Horse, Mare or Gelding, and no more, and who hath not been assessed for any other Article mentioned in the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes (his Dwelling House excepted), may, within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, enter into Composition in respect of such One Horse, Mare or Gelding, on Payment annually of the Sum of Three Shillings, computed from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, during the Period of such Composition, and his continuing in the said Corps as such effective Member.

THIRD CASE.—Every Person who hath entered or shall enter into Composition for his Assessed Taxes under the said Act or this Act, and who hath afterwards or shall become an effective Member of any such Corps, shall be entitled to the like Exemptions for any Horse, Mare or Gelding used or provided by him, in like manner as if no such Composition had been entered into by him; all which Privileges, Immunities and Exemptions shall be granted and allowed according to the following Rules:

FIRST RULE.—The Amount of Composition payable in pursuance of the Provisions in the first of the said Cases shall be ascertained and settled by Two of the Commissioners acting for the Assessed Taxes in the same District in which the Composition shall have been made, and certified by them under their Hands
by

by Endorsement on the Certificate or Contract of such Composition, on the Production thereof, and of the Certificate of effective Service, as provided by the said Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, and which Certificate the said Commissioners for their respective Districts are hereby required and authorised to endorse and sign accordingly; and the Sum so charged and added to the Amount of the said Composition in and by such Certificate, and to the Abstract thereof, shall and may be levied and recovered by the same Instalments and in like manner as the Amount of Composition inserted in the Body of the said Contract, and in addition thereto.

SECOND RULE.— The Amount to be charged in the Second Case before mentioned shall be inserted in each annual Assessment for the same Parish or Place in which the Exemption shall have been claimed, and shall be collected therewith, and levied and accounted for as in other Cases of Assessed Taxes.

THIRD RULE.— The respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts in their respective Districts, shall and are hereby authorised and required, on the Production of the Certificate of effective Service for any one Year, in the Manner prescribed by the Schedule marked E. in the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, and the Certificate of Contract and Composition by such Person or Persons, by Certificate under the Hands of any Two of the said Commissioners, to be endorsed on the said last mentioned Certificate, to remit and deduct from the annual Amount payable on such Contract, but nevertheless for the particular Year only in and for which such Certificate of effective Service shall have been produced, and such Exemption shall have been acquired, a Sum equal to the Amount of Duty for any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, in respect of which such Exemptions shall have been so acquired, and to discharge the Amount from the Abstract of Composition prepared by the said Commissioners, in like manner as they would have discharged the same from the annual Assessment for such particular Year of Exemption in case such Exemptions had not been entered into; and in all Cases where such Exemptions shall have been claimed and established for and in respect of the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the Instalments on such Composition shall have been paid for that Year, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to certify the Amount of Duty so discharged by reason of the said Exemption for the said Year, with the Cause thereof, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and in that case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to order and direct the Receiver General of the County, Riding or Division, in which such Composition shall have been entered into, to repay the same to the Party, which Order shall be an Authority to such Receiver General to make such Payment, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts.

C A P. LXXIV.

An Act to grant certain Duties in Scotland upon Wash and Spirits made from Corn or Grain, and upon Licences for making and keeping of Stills; and to consolidate and amend the Laws for the Distillation of such Spirits for Home Consumption; and for better preventing private Distillation in Scotland. [24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS the Regulations for the Extraction, Manufacture, Distillation, Rectification and Compounding of Spirits for Home Consumption in Scotland, have become numerous and complicated, and it will tend to the public Benefit to consolidate and simplify the same, and to abolish all Distinctions, Limitations and Restrictions between the Highland and Lowland and intermediate Districts in Scotland, as described in any Act or Acts relating to the Distilleries in Scotland: And Whereas the Duties payable in Scotland upon Wort, Wash and Spirits, and Distillers' Licences, will expire on the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Ninth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, all and singular the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, for the Extraction, Manufacture, Distillation, Rectification and Compounding of Spirits from Corn or Grain, malted or unmalted, for Home Consumption in Scotland; and all and singular the Distinctions, Limitations and Restrictions, between the Highland and Lowland and intermediate Districts in Scotland, as described in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Distilleries in Scotland, in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying of any Arrears of Duty respectively which shall or may then remain unpaid, or of any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time under the said Acts, or any of them, at any time before the said Ninth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

The Regulations for the Extraction, Manufacture, Distillation, Rectification and Compounding of Corn Spirits, shall be repealed, except as to the Recovery of Arrears and Penalties.

Duties herein mentioned shall be levied.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon and after the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Excise hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, Duties on Wort and Wash from Corn.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Persons in Partnership, and carrying on Trade and Business in One House or Place only, shall not be obliged to take out more than one such Licence in any one Year for carrying on such Trade in such House or Place; and that no one Licence which shall be granted by virtue of this Act, shall authorise or empower any Person or Persons to whom the same shall be granted, to prepare or make any Wort or Wash, or to distil any Low Wines or Spirits, or to rectify or compound any Spirits, or to make or use any Still or Stills, in any other House or Premises than the Houses or Premises mentioned in such Licence, and in no other House, Place or Premises whatever.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That upon the Insolvency, Bankruptcy or Death of any Person so licensed as a Dis-tiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, or upon the Removal of any Person so licensed from the entered House or Premises in which the Licence shall authorise such Person to prepare or make Wort or Wash, or to distil Low Wines or Spirits, or to rectify or compound Spirits, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being, or any one or more of them, and to and for the several Collectors and Supervisors of Excise in Scotland, within their respective Collections and Districts, to authorise and empower the Assignees of such Insolvent, or the Factor or Factors, Trustee or Trustees of such Bankrupt on his sequestrated Estate, or the Executors or Administrators, or the Wife, Child or lawful Heir of such deceased Person, or the Assignees or Assigns of any such Person so removing, who shall be possessed of such House or Premises, in like manner to prepare or make Wort or Wash, or to distil Low Wines or Spirits, or to rectify or compound Spirits in the same entered House or Premises where such Person so licensed by virtue of such Licence carried on such Trade, during the Residue of the Term for which such Licence was originally granted, without taking out a new Licence during the Residue of the said Term, but subject to and under the same Terms, Conditions, Rules and Regulations, as the Person or Persons to whom such Licence was originally granted.

cences expire.

XIII. And

Persons applying for Licences to swear that the Stills, &c. are their own Property, &c.

The Particulars to be specified in Licences.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be capable of taking out or receiving a Licence as a Distiller for Home Consumption in Scotland, save only the actual Owner or Owners of the Still or Stills intended to be worked by virtue thereof, and of the Implements, Backs and Vessels to be employed or used in carrying on the Trade or Business of a Distiller; and every such Person or Persons demanding such Licence shall take and subscribe an Oath before one or more of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or any Justice of the Peace for the County in which such Person or Persons shall reside, (and which Oath such Commissioners or Justice are and is hereby empowered to administer), that the said Still or Stills, and Implements, Backs and Vessels to be used, are his, her or their own Property, and that the Trade or Business intended to be carried on is at his, her or their Risk, and on his, her or their own Account; and in every Licence which shall be granted by virtue of this Act, there shall be expressed and specified the Christian Name or Names, and the Surname or Surnames of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be respectively granted, the Place or Places of his, her or their respective Residence, and the House or Place, and the Name of the particular County and Parish in which such House or Place shall be situate, where such Still or Stills are intended to be employed, worked or used, together with the respective Contents or Capacities of every such Still, and specifying for what particular Use each respective Still is intended to be employed, whether it be for the Distillation of Wash, or for the Distillation of Low Wines; and also specifying the Gravity of the Wort or Wash which such Distiller shall declare in Writing to be his Intention to brew or prepare during the whole Continuation of his Licence, and also the Number of Gallons of Spirits to be produced from every Hundred Gallons of Wash in proportion to such Gravity, in the Distillery for which such Licence shall be granted, and also specifying the Sum paid for the Duty for such Licence, and the Time of commencing, and when such Licence shall cease and expire.

Wash Stills may be used as Low Wine Stills and contrariwise, on giving Notice; and One Still may be licensed for distilling Wash and Low Wines, on declaring such Intention.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding any thing contained in any Licence granted under this Act, any Wash Still or Stills in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act may be used in the distilling of Low Wines, and that any Low Wine Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller may be used in the distilling of Wash; provided that Twelve Hours' previous Notice thereof shall be given by the Distiller to the proper Officer of Excise, and that the Cause for such Alteration shall be truly stated in the said Notice; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to prevent the employing or using of one and the same Still for the Distillation of Wash and for the Distillation of Low Wines, in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act; provided that such Distiller shall declare the Intention of so doing at the time of obtaining such Licence as aforesaid, and so as such Intention shall be specified in such Licence; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XV. And

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Person requiring any Licence under this Act, as a Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, shall, before obtaining any such Licence, make out, sign and deliver, at the nearest Office of Excise for the District within the Limits of which the Distillery, Workhouses, Storehouses, or other Places of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively are situated, an Account and Declaration in Writing, to be entered and registered in the said Office of Excise; and which Account and Declaration shall specify and contain the Name or Names and Place or Places of Abode of all the Persons requiring such Licence, and of all the Partners in the Concern, and shall be signed and subscribed by each and every such Partner; and such Account and Declaration shall also describe every Distillery, Storehouse, Warehouse, Building, Room or other Place intended to be made use of in carrying on the Business of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder (as the case may be), and also all Coppers, Tuns, Backs, Coolers, Stills, Casks, Vessels, and other Utensils, which such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively shall make use of for brewing, mixing, fermenting, distilling, rectifying, compounding or keeping any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or Feints; and in every such Account and Declaration shall be specified the particular Purpose for which each such Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Still, Cask, Vessel and Utensil is intended to be used; and in such Account and Declaration every such Distiller shall set forth, specify and declare at what Gravity of Wort or Wash such Distiller intends to work during the whole Continuance of his Licence, and shall declare his Consent to be charged with the Percentage on Spirits to be produced from Wort or Wash according to the Gravity thereof so set forth, specified and declared, and according to the Rates prescribed by this Act; and if any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall neglect or refuse to make out, sign and deliver such Account and Declaration as aforesaid, or shall omit to specify and set forth in such Account and Declaration any of the Matters or Things hereinbefore required to be set forth and specified therein; or if after such Entry any Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Still, Cask, Vessel or Utensil mentioned in such Entry shall be used in the Distillery or other entered Premises of any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively, for any other purpose than that to which any such Copper or other Vessel or Utensil is in such Entry specified to be intended to be applied or used, every such Distiller, Rectifier and Compounder respectively, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and every such Vessel or Utensil, together with the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or Feints found therein at the time when the Offence shall be committed, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in every such Account and Declaration as aforesaid, every Building, Room, Place, Still, Copper, Cooler, Vat, Back, Vessel and Utensil whatsoever, shall be distinguished and described by a particular Letter or Number, and the Person making such Account shall paint or cause to be painted such respective Letter or Number in a large and distinct Character upon some convenient and conspicuous Part of the Walls

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits for Consumption in Scotland shall begin to distil, rectify or compound any Spirituous Liquors, such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively, shall cause to be painted in Black upon a White Ground, or in White upon a Black Ground, over the outward Door of the Still House, Storehouse, Warehouse, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place respectively, made use of by such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, for distilling, rectifying, compounding or keeping of British Spirituous Liquors, in Letters of not less than Six Inches in Length, the Name or Names of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, and the Words Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors (as the Case may be), and shall keep the same so legibly painted, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXIX. And for the more effectually preventing the receiving or buying, by any Person whomsoever, of British made Spirits, from Persons privately distilling the same without Licence, be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, or any other Person whatsoever, in any Part of Scotland, shall receive or buy, or shall procure or employ any Person to receive or buy, any British made Spirits from any Person or Persons whomsoever, except from some Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, whose Name shall be painted over the outward Door of his Stillhouse, Storehouse, Warehouse, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place, in manner required and directed by this Act; or from some licensed Dealer in or Retailer of British made Spirits, or at some public Sale of British made Spirits, condemned and sold under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise or Customs; every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XXX. And

XXX. And for the more effectual Discovery of such Offenders, be it further enacted, That either of the offending Parties, whether Buyer or Seller of such British Spirits, who shall first discover and inform against the other of such offending Parties, before any Information has been lodged against such informing Party for such Offence, shall thereupon be discharged and acquitted from all Penalties to which, at the Time of such Information given, such informing Party may be liable for or by reason of any such Offence committed by such informing Party.

Either Buyer or Seller informing acquitted of Penalty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons not being duly licensed as a Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder under this Act, or if any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder not having duly made Entry of all the Places by them respectively made use of for distilling, rectifying, compounding, or keeping of British Spirits, shall paint, or cause to be painted, over the outward Door of any Place to them respectively belonging, the Words Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors, or either of them, every Person so offending shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall also be subject to the several Penalties and Forfeitures to which Persons distilling, rectifying or compounding Spirituous Liquors, without being licensed and making Entry, are by this Act subjected unto.

Persons not licensed, &c. painting over any of their Doors the Words Distiller, &c.

Penalty 200l. &c.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties granted by this Act on Wort, Wash and Spirits, shall be charged by the Officers of Excise according to the Gauge or Gauges taken by them in the different and respective entered Backs, Casks or other Vessels, and that the Contents of all Backs, Casks or other Vessels for containing, keeping or holding of Wort, Wash or other Liquor for Distillation, and of Low Wines, Feints and Spirits of any Kind or Sort whatsoever, shall be taken and calculated according to English Wine Measure.

Wort, &c. to be charged by English Wine Measure; and Casks, &c. to be so gauged.

XXXIII. And, to remove all Doubts respecting the Denomination of Spirits of different Distillations, be it further enacted, That all Spirits of the first Extraction drawn or distilled from Wort or Wash shall be deemed and taken to be Low Wines within the Meaning of this Act; and that all pure Spirits of the Second Extraction, or which shall have been once distilled from Low Wines, shall be deemed and taken to be raw British Spirits within the Meaning of this Act; and that all impure Spirits of the Second Extraction, or which shall have been once distilled from Low Wines, and all impure Spirits of the Third Extraction, or which shall have been twice distilled from Low Wines, shall be deemed and taken to be Feints within the Meaning of this Act; and that all pure Spirits of the Third Extraction, or which shall have been twice distilled from Low Wines, and have had any Flavour communicated thereto, and all Liquors whatsoever which shall be mixed or mingled with any such Spirits, shall be deemed and taken to be British Brandy within the Meaning of this Act; and that all pure Spirits of the Third Extraction, or which shall have been twice distilled from Low Wines, and shall not have had any Flavour communicated thereto, and all Liquors whatsoever which shall be mixed or mingled with any such Spirits, shall be deemed and taken to be rectified British Spirits within within the Meaning of this Act; and that all pure Spirits of the Third Extraction, which shall have been distilled with Juniper Berries, Carraway Seeds, Annise Seed, or any other Seeds, Preparation or Ingredient whatsoever, used in the compounding of Spirits, and all Liquors whatsoever which shall be mixed or mingled with any such Spirits, shall be deemed and taken to be British Compounds within the Meaning of this Act; and that all British Spirits of the Strength of Forty two per Centum above Proof, as denoted by the Hydrometer called Sikes's Hydrometer, and all Spirits of a greater or higher Degree of Strength, shall be deemed and taken to be Spirits of Wine within the Meaning of this Act; and if any Question shall arise whether any Spirits removed by any Permit are bonâ fide such raw British Spirits, rectified British Spirits, British Brandy, British Compounds, or Spirits of Wine respectively, as are described and specified in the Permit accompanying the same, or granted for the Removal thereof, although such Spirits shall appear to have been kept Account of in the Officer's Books, or Account of the Stock from which such Spirits were removed, by the same Name or Description as is specified in such Permit, the Proof that such Spirits are really and bonâ fide of the Sort specified in such Permit, shall lie upon the Owner or Claimer thereof, who shall prove the same by the Oaths of Two creditable Witnesses, being skilful and experienced Persons competent to decide by Examination thereof.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller or Distillers licensed under this Act, in preparing Grist for the Mash Tun, in order to extract Wort therefrom, shall use, or cause to be used, more Wheat than in the Proportion of One Quarter of Wheat to Two Quarters of any other Corn or Grain, every such Distiller or Distillers shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That during such Time as the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain shall not be prohibited by Law in Scotland, no Low Wines or Spirits shall be made, extracted or distilled in Scotland from Sugar or Molasses, or any Mixture with the same, or either of them, or from any Honey, or from any Refused Wine, Cyder, Perry, or any other Ingredients whatever, other than and except Corn malted or unmalted; and that if any Distiller licensed under this Act shall make use of any Refused Wine, Cyder or Perry, Molasses, Sugar, Sugar Wash, Honey, or any Composition or Extract of Sugar, in brewing, making or preparing Wash for Distillation, or in making or extracting Low Wines or Spirits, or if any such Distiller shall referment and redistil Wash commonly called Spent Wash, after the same has been through the Still, or shall distil any kind of fermented Liquor whatsoever, other than and except the Wash prepared or made from Corn or Grain within the Distillery of such Distiller; or if any Quantity of Refused Wine, Cyder or Perry, Molasses, Sugar or Honey, or any Sugar Wash or Composition or Extract of Sugar, or any kind of fermented Liquor not prepared or made from Corn or Grain in the Distillery of such Distiller, shall be conveyed or received into or be found in the Distillery of such Distiller, the same, together with the Casks or other Packages in which the same shall be contained, and the Carts

Carts and other Carriages, and Horses or Cattle used for conveying the same, shall be respectively forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and every such Distiller or Distillers shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and every Servant of such Distiller, and every Person who shall be aiding and assisting in the using any such Refused Wine, Cyder or Perry, or other fermented Liquor, or any Molasses, Sugar or Honey, or any Sugar Wash or Composition or Extract of Sugar, in the Distillery of such Distiller, or in carrying or conveying the same into any Distillery, Still House, or other Place belonging to such Distiller, shall also for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and in default of Payment thereof shall suffer Imprisonment for Three Calendar Months.

Penalty, Forfeiture and 200l.

Assisting therein, Penalty 20l. or Three Months' Imprisonment.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Officer of Excise in charge of the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, shall make out a Return or Voucher to the Commissioners of Excise, or to such Person as the said Commissioners shall appoint, of the Amount of Wash distilled or decreased from the Wash Backs in the Distillery of such Distiller, in every Week ending on the Saturday during the Continuance of the Licence of such Distillery, and also of all the Spirits made and distilled in such Distillery and taken account of by such Officer during such Week, and of the several Duties chargeable and charged on such Wash and Spirits respectively in each and every such Week, which Return or Voucher shall be a Charge upon the Distiller; and the Officer of Excise shall, within Three Days after the End of every such Week, deliver to or leave with such Distiller, or at such Distillery, a true Copy of such Return or Voucher, containing the Amount of all the Wash distilled or decreased, and all the Spirits made and taken an Account of by such Officer, and charged with Duty for such Week respectively.

Officers to make out a Weekly Return of Wash distilled and Spirits charged, to be a Charge upon Distiller.

Officers to leave a Copy of such Return with Distiller.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted; That such Return or Voucher of such Officer shall be a Charge upon every such Distiller for such Week, and such Distiller shall pay the Duties appearing by such Return to have become due and payable on the Wash so distilled or decreased, and the Spirits so made and distilled, on some Market Day within Fourteen Days after the last Day of the Week for which such Return shall be made and such Duty charged, or shall for every Default forfeit a Sum equal to Double the Duty so returned and charged.

Distiller to pay Duty on such Return.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller licensed under this Act shall, under the proper Hand of such Distiller, or under the Hand of the Brewer or Chief Workman of such Distiller, or of some Person for whom such Distiller shall be responsible, make a true and particular Entry or Return in Writing, declaring to the Truth thereof before the proper Supervisor of the District, of the Quantity of the Wort or Wash which shall have been decreased from the Wash Backs or distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller into Low Wines or Spirits, in every Week ending on the Saturday during the Continuance of the Licence of such Distiller, and of the Quantity of Spirits, calculated at the Strength of Seven per Centum above Proof, which shall have been made or distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller within Distiller, &c. to make Entry every Week by declaring the true Quantity of Wash distilled and Spirits made in each Week.

such Week; and in case of Omission, Neglect or Default in the making of such Entry or Return, or if any false Entry or Return shall be made, every such Distiller shall for every such Omission, Neglect or Default, and for any such false Entry, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds. ..

Penalty of 200l.

Distiller not compelled to travel for making Entries, &c. except to next Market Town.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Distiller licensed under this Act shall be compelled to travel for the making of the said Entries or Returns, or for the Payment of the said Duties, or for any other Cause relating to or concerning the same, if such Distiller shall reside in a Market Town; and if such Distiller shall reside out of a Market Town, then such Distiller shall not be compelled to travel to any other Place than to the Market Town nearest to the Residence of such Distiller in the same County on the Market Day.

Treasury may empower Commissioners of Excise to allow Distiller Time for Payment of Duties, with Interest at 5l. per Cent.

XL. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, by any Warrant, Order or Instruction, signed by any Three or more of them, to authorise and empower the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being, by any Licence or Authority in Writing under the Hands of any Three or more of the said last mentioned Commissioners, to allow such Time as they shall think fit for the Payment by any Distiller licensed under this Act, of the Duties granted by this Act, not exceeding Two Calendar Months from the Time when the same respectively became due and payable, and to take such Security or Securities for the Payment thereof, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Day on which the same were payable according to the Directions of this Act, until the same shall be paid, as the said Commissioners of Excise shall think proper, subject to such Limitations, Conditions, and Restrictions as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit; any thing contained in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Distillers, &c. to provide Ladders and Lights to enable the Officers to gauge Vessels and assist the Officers, &c.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller, Rectifier and Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, shall provide proper Ladders and Lights, to enable the Officers of Excise from time to time to gauge and ascertain the Capacities or Contents of any Copper, Tun, Back, Still or other Vessel or Utensil, used or to be used in the Distillery or Premises of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively; and every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, or some Person or Persons on his, her or their behalf, shall be aiding and assisting to the said Officers in gauging or measuring all Vessels and Utensils whatsoever, and in dipping, gauging or examining the Liquors contained therein; and if any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall neglect or refuse to provide proper Ladders and Lights for the Purposes aforesaid, or shall not by himself, or by some other Person or Persons on his behalf, assist the said Officers in setting up the Ladders and in gauging or measuring any Vessel or Utensil, or in dipping, gauging or examining the Liquors contained therein as aforesaid, or shall by any means whatever hinder or obstruct the Officer or Officers of Excise in gauging or measuring any Vessel or Utensil, or in dipping, gauging or examining the Liquor contained tained therein, then and in every such Case the Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder so offending shall for each Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds. Penalty 200l.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, to enlarge or alter in any respect the Size, Situation or Position of any Still, Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, or other fixed Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, after the same shall have been erected, set up and fixed, and the Capacities or Contents thereof ascertained, either by Gauge or Measure, by any Officer or Officers of Excise, without giving at the least Four Days' previous Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey the Distillery or Premises of such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder shall then be; and if the Size, Situation or Position of any Still, Copper, Vat, Tun, Back, Cooler, or other fixed Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, in the Distillery or Premises of any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder licensed under this Act, shall be enlarged, or in any respect altered, after the same shall have been set up and fixed, and the Capacities or Contents thereof ascertained, either by Gauge or Measure, by any Officer or Officers of Excise, without such Notice having been given as aforesaid; or if any Board, Stone, Wood, or any other Materials, Substance, Matter or Thing, shall be placed at, in or upon the Dipping Place or Places of any Still, Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Cask, Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, or if any Alteration shall be made in such Dipping Place or Places, or if any other Act, Matter or Thing shall be done, whereby or by reason or means whereof the Officer or Officers of Excise may be prevented or hindered from taking true Dips or Gauges of any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits and Feints therein, every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, in whose Distillery or Premises any such Offence shall be committed, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds. Penalty 200l.

No Distiller, &c. to enlarge or alter the Size or Position of any Vessel, without giving Four Days' previous Notice in Writing to Officer; nor to put any Matter or Thing at, in or upon the Dipping Place of any Vessel.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, licensed under this Act, who shall have made Entry of any Building, Room or Place, or of any Still, Copper, Vat, Tun, Back, Cooler or other Utensil whatsoever, for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade or Business of a Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder (as the Case may be), shall be permitted to withdraw such Entry, whilst any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or Feints are remaining in any Place, or in any Still, Copper, Vat, Tun, Back, Cooler or other Utensil so respectively entered as aforesaid; but that after any such Entry shall be made as aforesaid, the Officers of Excise, under whose Survey such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall then be, shall continue to survey the Places and Utensils mentioned in each such Entry, until all the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, and other Materials shall be worked off, and until the Produce thereof shall be removed from and out of the said entered Places, and then, and not till then, shall any such Entry made as aforesaid be withdrawn.

No Entry of any Place or Utensils to be withdrawn whilst Wash or other Materials are remaining therein.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise at all times, by Day or by Night, to enter into and continue in every Distillery, Stillhouse, Storehouse, house, Officers of Excise may enter Still Houses, &c. by Day or by Night, to take account of Wort, Wash, &c. or to examine Stills, or to regauge Utensils, &c.

house, Warehouse, Cellar or other Place made use of by any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, licensed under this Act, for brewing, making, keeping or distilling Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, or for rectifying or compounding Spirits, and by gauging, measuring, or otherwise, in such Manner and by such Instruments as to such Officers shall appear most proper and effectual for that Purpose, to take account of the Quantity, Quality and Strength of the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints and Spirits, in the Stock, Custody or Possession of every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, and also of the Quantity, Quality and Strength of the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints and Spirits, which shall from time to time be brewed, made, distilled, rectified, compounded or kept by such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder (as the Case may be), and to enter such Account of the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints and Spirits, in a Book or Books to be kept by such Officer or Officers for that Purpose; and also to examine every Still and the Materials therein, if not at work; and if at work, to stay and continue in such Distillery, Stillhouse or Place until such Still shall be worked off, and then to examine the same, and what Materials were used or distilled, or worked therein, and also to regauge or remeasure any Still or Stills, or the Head or Heads or any Part thereof, or any Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Cask, Vessel or Utensil, so as to discover whether any Alteration may have been made thereon or thereto, either in the Size, Situation or Position, without due Notice in Manner required by this Act, or to discover whether any Substance, Matter or Thing may have been placed at, on, or upon the Dipping Place or Places of any Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Still, Cask, Vessel or Utensil, so as to prevent the taking of true Dips or Gauges of the Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or Feints therein; and in case any Officer or Officers of Excise shall not be permitted and suffered to enter into, or to continue in the Distillery, Stillhouse or other Place aforesaid, of any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, or to take such Account as aforesaid, or to make such Examination as aforesaid, or to regauge or remeasure any Still or Stills, or the Head or Heads, or any Part thereof, or any Copper, Tun, Back, Cooler, Cask, Vessel or Utensil, or to examine the Dipping Place or Places thereof for the Purpose or Purposes aforesaid, or if any such Officer or Officers shall be hindered or obstructed in the due Execution of any Part of his Duty; then and in every such Case such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and after any Obstruction of any Officer or Officers of Excise, from entering into any such Distillery, Stillhouse or other Place aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any and every such Officer, with proper Assistants, and on producing his Commission, to break open by Force any Doors leading or belonging to such Distillery, Stillhouse or other Place aforesaid, or any of the Windows thereof, or to break through any of the Walls, so far as shall be necessary for obtaining Entrance thereunto.

Distillers to give Twelve Hours' Notice of their Inten-

XLV. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller who shall be licensed under this Act shall, Twelve Hours before beginning to mix, mash or brew any Malt or Grain to be made into into Wort, give or cause to be given to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey the Distillery of such Distiller shall then be, a Notice in Writing, specifying therein the particular Time and Hour when such mixing, mashing or brewing is intended to be begun, and the true Quantity of Winchester Bushels of Malt, and of unmalted Grain, intended to be mixed, mashed, or brewed, as the Case may require; and every such mixing, mashing or brewing shall be begun and proceeded on at the Time and Hour mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid, or within Three Hours next after the Expiration of such Time and Hour, otherwise such Notice shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void, and every such Distiller shall give or cause to be given a fresh Notice to the Officer of Excise, before beginning to mix, mash or brew any Malt or Grain; and if any such Distiller shall neglect or refuse to comply with the several Particulars aforesaid, such Distiller shall for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Penalty 50l.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Distiller licensed under this Act, to mix, mash or brew any Malt or Grain at any time whilst any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller is or are employed or used in distilling or making Low Wines or Spirits, or whilst any such Still or Stills is or are charged with any Wort, Wash or Low Wines for the purpose of distilling the same; and that whenever any such Distiller shall begin to distil any Wort or Wash, the Distillation of such Wort or Wash shall be continued without Interruption until the whole of the Wort or Wash then in the Custody or Possession of such Distiller shall be distilled into Spirits; and that all Operations of mixing, mashing or brewing, shall cease and be suspended so long as any such Wort or Wash as aforesaid shall be in Progress of Distillation into Spirits, and until the several Duties shall be duly charged on such Wash, and on the Spirits produced therefrom; and all Notices given by any such Distiller for the mixing, mashing or brewing of any Corn or Grain, whilst any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller shall be employed or used in distilling or making Low Wines or Spirits, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatever: And it shall not be lawful for any such Distiller to employ or use any Still or Stills in the distilling any Wash or Low Wines or Feints, nor to charge any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller with any Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Feints, at any time whilst any Corn or Grain shall be in the Progress of being mixed, mashed or brewed; and that all Operations of Distillation, or of charging any Still or Stills for the Purpose of Distillation, shall cease and be suspended so long as any such Corn or Grain shall be in Progress of being mixed, mashed or brewed, for the Purpose of making or preparing Wort; and that every such Distiller, after he has completed his Operations of mixing, mashing or brewing, shall make out and deliver to the proper Officer of Excise a true Declaration in Writing, specifying that all the Wort, Wash and Bub, in his Custody or Possession, is collected into the entered Wash Backs for Fermentation; and all Notices given by any such Distiller for taking Wash from any fermenting Back or Tun, or for opening any Lock or Locks for the Purpose of Distillation, whilst the Distillers brewing while the Still is working, or distilling while the Corn is mashing, or unduly using or charging Stills or otherwise offending as herein mentioned.

Operation of mixing, mashing or brewing any Corn or Grain shall be carrying on or proceeding, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and every Distiller in whose Distillery any Malt, Corn or Grain shall be mixed, mashed or brewed, or any Still shall be charged with Wort, Wash or Low Wines, or any Wort, Wash or Low Wines shall be distilled, or any Spirits shall be made at any Time so as aforesaid prohibited by this Act, or who shall neglect or refuse to make out and deliver a Declaration as aforesaid, or shall make out and deliver a false Declaration, shall, over and above all other Penalties, forfeit and lose for each and every Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Penalties.

Proviso for Distillers now licensed and being licensed before Nov. 10, 1820, to distil not more than 2000 Gallons.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Regulations immediately hereinbefore contained, for prohibiting the mixing, mashing or brewing any Malt or Grain in the Distillery of any Distiller whilst any Still or Stills in such Distillery is employed in distilling or making Low Wines or Spirits, and for prohibiting the employing any Still in the distilling any Wash or Low Wines, or Feints, at any time whilst any Corn or Grain shall be in the Progress of being mixed, mashed or brewed, shall not extend to any Distiller who shall be licensed to keep or use any Still for Distillation, for Consumption in Scotland, at the Time of the passing of this Act, and who on taking out a Licence to keep or use any Still under this Act at any time on or before the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall declare that he does not intend to distil more than Two thousand Gallons of Spirits in any Still or Stills so licensed during the Continuance of such Licence; and in whose Licence such Declaration shall be specified and set forth.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That after any Wort shall have been drawn off from the Mash Tun, no Mixture called Lob, nor any other Mixture or Substance whatsoever, shall be thrown into or mixed with such Wort, by means whereof the Gravity of such Wort may be increased; and if any such Mixture called Lob, or any other Mixture or Substance whatsoever, shall be thrown into or mixed with any such Wort, after the same shall have been drawn off from the Mash Tun, by means whereof the Gravity of any such Wort, or the Wash made therefrom, or any Part thereof, shall be increased; or if any Wort or Wash, after the Gravity thereof shall be ascertained and taken account of in manner required by this Act, shall be mixed with any other Wort or Wash brewed or made on any previous or subsequent Day; or if any such Wort or Wash as aforesaid, shall be mixed with any other Wort or Wash contained in any Back or Vessel whatsoever, or if any Wort or Wash shall be conveyed away or concealed, every Distiller in whose Distillery any such Offence shall be committed, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty 200L.

The whole Quantity of Wort for Fermentation to be collected within Six Hours, and Declaration

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That the whole Quantity of Wort intended to be placed in any Wash Back for Fermentation, at one and the same Time, in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, shall be collected in such Wash Back within the Space of Six Hours from and after the Commencement of running or conveying any Part of the said Wort from the Coolers or other Vessels; and every such Distiller shall within such such Six Hours make and deliver to the proper Officer a Declaration in Writing that such Wort so collected as aforesaid is of a Gravity not exceeding Eighty one, Seventy five, Seventy, or Sixty five respectively, as indicated by Allan's Saccharometer, according to the Gravity at which such Distiller shall be licensed to make or brew his Wort for Fermentation respectively; and in such Declaration there shall also be stated the exact Number of dry Inches of the Wash Back in which such Wort shall be collected, set or prepared, and also the Number of such Wash Back; and if any Wort, after being so collected as aforesaid, shall be found to exceed such Gravity as aforesaid respectively, every such Distiller shall immediately reduce the same with Water to the proper Gravity in the Presence of the Officer of Excise, who shall charge the Duty imposed by this Act on the increased Quantity of Wort occasioned by such Reduction in Gravity; and every such Distiller shall be charged from and by the highest Gauge or Quantity found by the Officer at any time from the Period when the Wort shall be collected and set for Fermentation, and until the Wash made therefrom shall be run and conveyed to the Still, without any Allowance for Waste, Leakage, Dregs, Yeast, Sediment or Bottoms whatsoever; and if any such Distiller shall refuse or neglect so to collect all such Wort within the Time aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to make and deliver such Declaration as aforesaid, or shall make any false Declaration respecting the same, or shall ferment or mix such Wort with any Yeast, or with any other Matter or Thing for or occasioning Fermentation, before the proper Officer of Excise shall have examined and taken an Account of the Gravity of such Wort by such Saccharometer; or if at any time after any such Declaration shall be made and delivered, the Quantity of Wash in such Wash Back shall be increased to any Amount exceeding Seven Gallons in One hundred, every Distiller in whose Distillery any such Offence or Neglect shall be committed or take place, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Neglecting to make such Declaration, or making false Declaration.

Penalty 200l.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise to take a Sample or Samples of any Wort at any time or times after the same shall have been drawn off from any Mash Tun, as often as may be necessary for the Purpose of ascertaining the Gravity thereof; and in like manner it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise to take a Sample or Samples of any Wash, at any time or times after the same shall have been put into any Wash Back for the Purpose of Fermentation, or into the Jack Back, Charging Back, or any other Back or Vessel whatsoever: Provided always, that all such Samples, when the same shall have been used for the Purposes of this Act, shall be returned into the Back or Vessel out of which the same shall have been taken; or otherwise may be kept by the said Officer, paying the full Value thereof, at the Option of such Officer.

Samples of Wort or Wash may be taken by Officer returning or paying for the same.

LI. And be it further enacted, That every Wash Back which shall be used or kept in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, for the Purpose of preparing or fermenting Wort or Wash, shall have a Hole or Dipping Place in the Top, and shall be so placed and constructed as that the Officer of Excise may be conveniently enabled to take his Dip or Gauge at such Hole Hole or Dipping Place at the Top thereof; and that there shall upon the Bottom of such Hole or Dipping Place be fixed and screwed a Plate of Brass or Iron, to prevent the same from being worn or altered; and every such Distiller shall, to the Satisfaction of the proper Supervisor of the District, or other Superior Officer, provide and fix, or cause to be provided and fixed, in every Wash Back as aforesaid, at any Distance within Thirty Inches from the Bottom thereof, a Brass Cock for the Purpose of enabling any Officer of Excise to draw off, without Inconvenience or Delay, any Sample or Samples of the Wort or Wash contained therein; and if any Wash Back, without such Hole or Dipping Place at the Top, or without such Cock as aforesaid, shall be kept or used in the Distillery of any Distiller, or if any such Wash Back shall be so placed or constructed as that the Officer of Excise cannot conveniently be enabled to take his Dip or Gauge, or to take such Sample or Samples as aforesaid, or if such Officer shall be hindered or prevented by any Person in such Distillery from taking any such Sample or Samples as aforesaid, every Distiller in whose Distillery such Offence or Neglect shall be committed or shall take place, shall for every such Offence or Neglect forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty 200l.

On Increase of Gravity Double Duty to be paid, and Penalty of 200l.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if upon making Trial of or taking an Account for the Purpose of ascertaining the Gravity of the Wort or Wash in any Wash Back, by the said Instrument called Allan's Saccharometer, it shall appear that the Wort or the Wash made therefrom shall have increased in Gravity since the last preceding Trial of the same with the same Instrument, to the Extent of Five Degrees, as indicated on that Instrument, the Wort or Wash in any and every such Wash Back shall be deemed and taken to have been fraudulently altered or changed, and the whole Quantity of Wort or Wash in such Wash Back shall be charged with Double the Duty which would have been payable under this Act upon such Wort or Wash if no such Alteration or Change had taken place, and every Distiller in whose Distillery such Offence shall be committed shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Saccharometers to be provided to ascertain the Gravity of Wort or Wash.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That the Instruments to be used in order to ascertain the Gravity of Wort or Wash, as directed by this Act, shall be those made in the manner of a certain Instrument called a Saccharometer, invented by Doctor Thomson, but described, from the Maker's Name, Allan's Saccharometer; and it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, by and with the Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and they are hereby required, to provide a sufficient Number of such Saccharometers to be used by the Officers of Excise acting in the Execution of this Act; and that One of the Instruments known by the Name of Allan's Saccharometer, to be provided by the Commissioners of Excise as aforesaid, shall be and remain at their Office in the City of Edinburgh, and shall be shewn to any Distiller who shall desire to see the same, between the Hours of Eleven in the Morning and Three in the Afternoon.

than the Dipping Place before mentioned, by which any Wort, Wash, or any other Liquor fit for Distillation, may be conveyed into or out of such Wash Back, on pain of forfeiting for every such private Pipe, Stop Cock, Conveyance, Vessel, Utensil or Hole, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LVI. And for the better Discovery of all private Pipes, Stop Cocks, and other private Conveyances and Utensils, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of Excise, or any of them, by Night or by Day, on Request first made and Cause declared, to break up the Ground in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, or the Ground near adjoining, or any Wall, Partition or other Place, to search for any such Pipe, Stop Cock, or any other private Conveyance or Utensil; and upon finding such Pipe or other Conveyance, to break up the Ground, House, Wall, or other Partition or Place through or into which any such Pipe or other Conveyance shall lead, and to break up or cut any such Pipe or other Conveyance, and to turn any Cock or Cocks, to try and examine whether such Pipe or other Conveyance may or can convey any Wort, Wash, or other Liquors fit for Distillation, out of one Back into another, or from any such Back into any Still or Stills, or into any other Utensil or Place whatsoever.

Water not drawn off from Worm Tub when Spirits are not running upon Request of Officer.

Penalty 100l.

Removing Wash from Back where fermenting or fermented until Duty be charged.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise shall at any time when Low Wines or Spirits shall not be running off from a Still, require that the Water contained in any Worm Tub belonging to such Still shall be drawn or run off for the purpose of examining such Worm, and the Tub or Vessel containing the same, the same shall be drawn or run off accordingly; and if the same shall not be drawn or run off by some Person in the Distillery, it shall be lawful for any such Officer to draw or run off such Water, or so much thereof as he shall think necessary; and if the Water shall not be so drawn or run off at the Request of such Officer, the Distiller in whose Distillery such Worm Tub shall be situate, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Wash in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, shall be put into the Jack Back, Charging Back, or into any Still or Stills, or otherwise removed from the Back wherein the same was fermented, until such Wash shall have been gauged, and the Duty charged thereon by the proper Officer of Excise; and if, contrary to the Directions of this Act, any such Wash shall be put into any Jack Back, Charging Back or Still in the Distillery of any Distiller, or shall be otherwise removed from the Back wherein the same was fermenting or fermented, before the same shall have been gauged, and the Duty charged thereon, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

'Twelve Hours' Notice of running Wash to the Jack Back.

In what case Notice void.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller licensed under this Act shall be desirous of running or conveying Wash into the Jack Back for the Purpose of being pumped into the Charging Back, and from thence run into any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller, to be distilled into Low Wines, every such Distiller shall give or cause to be given to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Distiller shall then be, a Notice in Writing at least Twelve Hours before the particular Time and Hour of the Day or Night when such Wash is intended to be run or conveyed as aforesaid, expressing in such Notice the particular Number of the fermenting Wash Back from which such Wash is to be taken; and in case the running or conveying of such Wash from the fermenting Wash Back into the Jack Back shall not be begun at the Time and Hour mentioned in such Notice, or within Two Hours next after the Expiration of such Time and Hour, then every such Notice shall be and is hereby declared null and void, and every such Distiller or Distillers shall be obliged to give, or cause to be given, another like Notice in Writing Writing, before the Officer shall be bound to open the Discharge Cock or Wash Pump so locked and sealed as aforesaid.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Excise shall from time to time attend, agreeably to such Notice so to be given as before directed, or at farthest within One Hour after the particular Time or Hour mentioned in any such Notice; and such Officer shall open the Wash Pump and the Discharge Cock of the Fermenting Wash Back specified in such Notice; and every such Distiller, or his, her or their Servants, shall proceed, without unnecessary Delay, to run off into the Jack Back, and from thence to convey into the Wash Charging Back, the whole Quantity of Wash intended to be distilled into Low Wines within the next Twelve Hours, reckoning from the Time or Hour mentioned in the Notice to be given to the Officer as aforesaid; and such Officer shall continue in the House all the Time that such Wash is running into the Jack Back, and until the whole Quantity as aforesaid shall be pumped up to the Charging Back; and such Officer shall immediately thereupon lock and secure, as before, the Wash Pump and Discharge Cock of the Fermenting Wash Back from which the Wash was taken, and shall ascertain the Quantity of Wash decreased from such Wash Back, and shall also dip and gauge the Quantity conveyed into the Charging Back before any Part thereof shall be run into the Still or Stills; and in case such Officer shall find a greater Quantity of Wash in the Charging Back than shall appear to be decreased from the Fermenting Wash Back, the whole Quantity found in such Charging Back shall be deemed Wash of one and the same Quality, and every such Distiller shall be charged with and shall pay the Duties imposed by this Act on Wort or Wash for every such Surplus Quantity found by the Officers of Excise in such Charging Back in the Manner aforesaid; and if any Quantity of Wash shall be run and conveyed into the Jack Back, from any Wash Back not particularly mentioned or described in the Notice as before mentioned, or if any Quantity of Wash shall be run or conveyed into any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller, before the Officer shall have gauged and ascertained the Quantity of Wash pumped into the Charging Back, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and it shall be lawful for the Officer to turn the Discharge Cock of any Still or Stills, to examine whether any Wash has been run or conveyed therein, and to gauge and ascertain the same; and every such Distiller shall be charged with, and shall pay for the same, at the same Rate of Duty as for the Wash contained in the Charging Back at the Time when such Offence shall be committed.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That no Feints, or any other Liquor whatsoever, shall be mixed with or amongst the Wash in the Wash Charging Back, or in any Still or Stills, or other Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, in the Distillery of any Distiller; and if any Feints, or any other Liquor fit for Distillation, shall be mixed with or amongst the Wash in any such Wash Charging Back, or if any Officer of Excise shall find any Increase of the Quantity in such Wash Charging Back, over and above the Quantity found therein, on the Survey immediately preceding (except when Wash is conveyed therein according to Notice), every such Increase shall

Not making such Openings, or not paying for and maintaining Fastenings, or if opening or damaging any Lock or Fastening, &c.

Penalty 200l.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That no Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, shall have or keep any Opening, fixed Pipe or other Conveyance whatever, leading to any Still or Stills belonging to or used by such Rectifier or Compounder, other than and except One Charging Pipe to each such Still, and one Hole or Opening made according to the Directions of this Act, to the Intent that the Officers of Excise may take Gauges and Samples, nor shall have or keep any Opening, fixed Pipe, or other Conveyance whatever, leading from any such Still or Stills, save and except the Discharge Cock to each Still respectively belonging, and the Head of such Still, terminating in the Worm; and proper Locks and Fastenings shall be provided and maintained by the proper Supervisor of the District, at the Expense and Charge of every such Rectifier or Compounder, for properly and sufficiently locking and securing the Charge and Discharge Cock of each and every Still respectively used by such Rectifier or Compounder; which Locks and Fastenings shall be locked and sealed by the proper Officer of Excise, and shall be and remain always so locked and sealed when the Still is at work; and if any such Rectifier or Compounder shall have or keep any such Opening, fixed Pipe, or other Conveyance (not before excepted) leading to or leading from such Still or Stills, or shall refuse Rectifiers or Compounders having Conveyances to or from Stills not allowed, or not paying for Locks and Fastenings for securing the Charge and Discharge Cocks, or opening or breaking Locks or Fastenings.

refuse to pay for and maintain such Locks and Fastenings as aforesaid, or shall prevent or hinder the Officer from affixing any Lock or Fastening as aforesaid, or shall wilfully open, break or damage, or cause or suffer to be opened, broken or damaged, any of such Locks, Seals, or Fastenings as aforesaid, every such Rectifier or Compounder shall, for every such fixed Pipe, Opening or Conveyance, (not before excepted) and for every such Lock, Seal, or Fastening, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty 200l.

Directions as to fixing Discharge Cock in the Body of the Still to which it belongs.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Discharge Cock belonging to each and every Still of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, shall be so fixed and placed in the Body of the respective Stills, as that the Officers of Excise may have free and convenient Access to the same; and for that Purpose every such Discharge Cock shall be continued in a straight Line from the Body of the Still to which it is fixed, and such Discharge Cock shall not, in any Case, project more than Three Feet from the Body of any such Still, nor more than Eighteen Inches from the Brickwork, or other Materials whereon the said respective Still or Stills shall be erected or placed; and if any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, shall fix or place the Discharge Cock of any Still otherwise than as herein directed, or shall in any respect offend in any of the Matters or Things aforesaid, every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty 100l.

Distillers, &c. to have the Keys of every Charge Cock and of every Discharge Cock made and constructed in the manner herein mentioned.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Keys of every Charging Cock, and of every Discharge Cock, that shall be made use of by any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, licensed under this Act, for charging, or for discharging and emptying any Still or Stills, or any entered Back, Vessel or Utensil respectively made use of by such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, shall be had, made and constructed in manner following, and in no other Form or Manner whatever; that is to say, the Key of each and every such Cock shall be made with an open Eye or Hole in the Top Part thereof, and every such Eye or Hole shall be of such a Size as to be capable of receiving a Leaver, sufficient to turn the respective Cock or Cocks, at the Times when the Officers shall have Occasion to turn the same, in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities to them given for that Purpose; and every such Key of every such Cock and Cocks shall be of One Piece; and such Charging Cocks and Discharge Cocks respectively shall not have any Hole or Place of Discharge, but at the Mouth only; and no such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall, for any Purpose, or on any Pretence whatsoever, fix or place, or suffer to be fixed or placed, any Grate, Strainer or any other Thing whatsoever, on or before the Mouth of any such Charge Cock, or of any Discharge Cock; but the Mouths of each and every such Cock shall be left free and clear from every thing that can or may prevent the Officers of Excise from searching and examining the Inside of the Mouth or Opening of each and every such Cock; and no such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall have or keep any Iron or other Cap or Covering upon any such Cock, so as to prevent the Officers of Excise from distinctly seeing and easily examining every such Cock; and if any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall make use of, or shall fix or place any Charge Cock or Discharge Cock to any Still or Stills, or to any other entered Backs, Vessels or Utensils, of any other Construction or Make than that hereinbefore mentioned; or shall in any respect offend in any of the Matters or Things aforesaid; then and in every such Case every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall for each Offence respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds. Penalty 100l.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, licensed under this Act, shall be desirous to have the Furnace Door of any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder unlocked, and to have a Fire lighted under such Still or Stills, such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall give, or cause to be given, to the proper Officer of Excise, under whose Survey such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall then be, a Notice in Writing at least Twelve Hours before the particular Time and Hour of the Day or Night when such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder is desirous to have such Fire lighted; and in case any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall not have a Fire lighted under such Still or Stills at the Time and Hour mentioned in such Notice, or within Two Hours next after the Expiration of such Time and Hour, then every such Notice shall be and is hereby declared null and void; and every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall be obliged to give another like Notice in Writing before the Officer shall be bound to open the Furnace Door of any such Still or Stills as aforesaid.

Distillers, &c. to give Notice to Officer of having the Furnace Doors of Stills opened, and of lighting a Fire under the same.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Excise shall from time to time attend agreeably to such Notice so to be given as before directed, or, at farthest, within One Hour after the particular Time or Hour mentioned in any such Notice, and such Officer shall open the Furnace Door of any Still mentioned in such Notice: Provided always, that such Officer shall not on any Pretence open the Furnace Door of any Still belonging to any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirit which shall not be fully charged, nor until he hath examined the Contents of such Still or Stills, and hath seen the Head or Heads of such Still or Stills respectively actually put on and ready to be locked down; and that such Officer, when attending on any such Notice at the Still House of any such Rectifier or Compounder, shall not be obliged to continue more than One Hour at any one time; and if such Rectifier or Compounder shall not within that Time have charged the Still or Stills mentioned in such Notice, and have put on the Head or Heads of such Still or Stills respectively, so as such Head be ready to be locked down, every such Rectifier and Compounder shall be obliged to give another like Notice in Writing, before the Officer shall be obliged to attend again to open the Furnace Door or Doors of any such Still or Stills.

Directions relative to Officer's Attendance for opening, and to his opening the Furnace Doors of Stills.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That every such Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits shall, before beginning to draw off any Spirits from any Still or Stills, charge the same with a Quantity of Liquor, in the Proportion of not less than Seven Parts in Ten of the whole Quantity of Liquor which any such Still, including the Head, is capable of containing; and every such Still shall remain and continue so charged until the Rectifier or Compounder shall Rectifiers not charging their Stills as herein directed, or not working them off in due time.

begin to draw off Spirits therefrom; and every such Still shall be worked off within Eight Hours, to be computed from the Time of the Officers taking the Gauge of the Still or Stills respectively; and if any such Rectifier or Compounder shall begin to draw off any Spirits from any Still or Stills not so charged, or shall not work off the same respectively within such Eight Hours, such Rectifier or Compounder shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty 100l.

Distillers may charge their Stills with any Proportion of Liquor, and work them off.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Distiller of Spirits licensed under this Act to charge any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller with any Proportion of Wash, Low Wines or Feints, and to work off any Still or Stills when charged with Wash, Low Wines or Feints, within any such Period of Time as such Distiller shall think proper and convenient.

Rectifiers or Compounders shall cause the Heads of their Stills to be taken off so soon as the same shall cease to be worked, &c.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That every such Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits shall take off, or cause to be taken off, the Head or Heads of any Still or Stills when and so soon as any such Still or Stills shall have ceased to be worked; and the Head or Heads of such Still or Stills shall in no Case, nor on any Pretence or on any Account, be put on such Still or Stills until each such Still shall be again charged and ready to work, nor until the Officer shall have examined the Quality of the Spirits then in each such Still; and if any such Rectifier or Compounder shall neglect to take off each and every Head from each respective Still when and so soon as each such Still shall have ceased to be worked, or shall in any Case, or on any Pretence or Account whatsoever, put on any such Head or Heads on any Still or Stills before such Still or Stills shall be charged and ready to work, and before the Officer shall have examined the Quality of the Spirits then in such Still or Stills, every such Rectifier and Compounder so offending, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty 100l.

Officers may take Still Gauges and Samples, Wash mixed with Low Wines, &c. in Still.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of Excise, and they are hereby authorized and required to take Still Gauges, when they shall deem it necessary so to do, of all Liquors of any Kind whatsoever, which shall be put into any Still or Stills belonging to any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, at any time or times after any Still is charged, and before such Still has begun to work, and to take Samples of such Liquors at any time or times after such Still is charged, and before such Still has begun to work, and also after such Still or Stills are worked off; and if any Officer of Excise shall at any time discover in any Still in the Distillery of any such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, any Wash put into or mixed with any Low Wines, Feints, or Spirits, every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall, for every such Offence, over and above all other Penalties, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Penalties.

No Distiller, &c. to distil, rectify or compound Spirits till proper Fastenings are found.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, shall proceed to distil, rectify or compound Spirits, before such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder respectively shall have found and affixed proper and sufficient Fastenings, Locks and Keys, provided, vided, certified and approved of in Writing by the proper Supervisor of the District, for locking and securing every Vessel, Utensil, Conveyance, Cock, Pipe, Pump, Article and Thing required in pursuance of the Directions of this Act to be so locked and secured; every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall, for each and every Neglect, Refusal or Offence in any such Particular, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when and so often as it shall be found necessary to have any Lock or Fastening opened for the Purpose of cleaning, repairing or amending any Vessel, Utensil, Conveyance, Cock, Pipe, Pump, Article or Thing, required by this Act to be locked and secured, or either of them; then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Officers of Excise to open the same for all the Time the Workmen shall be actually employed in cleaning, repairing and amending the same; but in such Case the Officers shall lock and secure every Still Head, Wash Pump and Furnace Door belonging to any Still every Night, when and so soon as the Workmen so employed shall leave off their Work; and such Officers shall attend at Six of the Clock each Morning whilst such Repairs are doing, in order to open such Still Heads, Wash Pumps and Furnace Doors.

Penalty 200l.

Officers to open Locks and Fastenings for cleaning or repairing Utensils.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Distiller licensed under this Act, upon giving Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise as required and directed by this Act, to alter or enlarge the Size or Capacity of any Still or Stills used or employed in the Distillery of such Distiller, or to erect a new Still or Stills, without taking out a fresh Licence for the same, during the unexpired Term of any Licence of such Distiller then in force; provided that due Entry of such Still or Stills shall be made pursuant to the Directions and in Manner hereinbefore mentioned with respect to any Still or Stills; and provided also, that in every such Case such Distiller shall apply to the Commissioners of Excise, or to the Person or Persons appointed by them, and authorised to grant Licences, or to the Collector and Supervisor of Excise within whose Collection and District such Distiller or Distillers shall reside; and the said Commissioners or other Persons, or such Collector or Supervisor, shall indorse on the original Licence granted to any such Distiller, the Size or Capacity of such Stills when so altered or enlarged, or of any new Still or Stills erected and set up by any such Distiller, together with the Time when such Alteration or Enlargement took place, or when any new Still or Stills was or were erected; and if any such Distiller or Distillers shall alter or enlarge any Still, or shall erect any new Still without complying with the Particulars aforesaid, such Distiller shall be liable to all the Penalties imposed by this Act for working with unlicensed Stills.

Distillers may alter or enlarge the Size of Stills, or erect new Stills, without taking out a fresh Licence, upon complying with the Conditions herein contained.

Penalties.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Distiller, licensed under this Act, at any time to discontinue the working of any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller, at any time during the Continuance of the Licence of such Distiller, upon giving Four Days' previous Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise, of the Intention of such Distiller Distillers may discontinue the working of Stills on Notice.

LXXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Distiller or Distillers shall be subject or liable to any Penalty under this Act, for not providing and fixing a Pipe leading from the Pump placed in the Feint Receiver to the Low Wine Charging Back before mentioned, or for pumping or conveying the Feints from the Feint Receiver to such Low Wine Charging Back, if such Distiller shall erect a separate Charging Back for containing Feints only; and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Distiller to erect a Feint Charging Back for receiving the Feints from the Feint Receiver after the Officer has gauged and taken an Account of the same in the said Feint Receiver, and has ascertained the Strength thereof; and every such Feint Charging Back shall have a Cover and a Dipping Hole cut therein, to enable the Officers of Excise to take their Gauges thereout, which Dipping Hole shall shall not be more than One Inch in Length, and Three tenths of an Inch in Breadth; and such Feint Charging Back shall not have any Pipe or other Communication with any Vessel or Vessels, Utensil or Utensils whatsoever, except the said Feint Receiver, by means of the fixed Pump therein, and a close Metal Pipe leading from the said Pump, having one End thereof firmly fixed to the said Pump, and the other End thereof firmly fixed to the said Feint Charging Back, and except the Pipe for conveying the Feints from such Feint Charging Back to the Still, one End of which Pipe shall be firmly fixed to the Bottom of the said Feint Charging Back, and the other End shall communicate with and be attached to the Pipe leading from the Low Wine Charging Back before mentioned to the Still, so as there shall be only One Pipe or Conveyance into any Still, and only One Charge Cock for any Still; and the said Feint Charging Back shall likewise be placed in the Still House, and not hidden or concealed, but exposed to open View, and accessible to the Officers of Excise on all Parts thereof, and shall also be placed as near as conveniently may be to the Still or Stills to which it forms the Means of Charge, and shall be capable of containing the whole Quantity of Feints at any time contained in the said Feint Receiver, and proper Fastenings shall be provided for securing the Cover of the said Feint Charging Back in the same Manner as is directed respecting the Low Wine Charging Back before mentioned; and every such Distiller or Distillers who shall provide such Feint Charging Back shall comply with all the Rules and Conditions aforesaid, in respect to the Low Wine Charging Back, on pain of incurring a like Penalty for each and every Offence, except as before excepted; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty.

XC. And be it further enacted, That all and every Part of the Spirits extracted either from Low Wines or Feints by any Distiller licensed under this Act, shall be immediately and directly run from the Safe or open Vessel before mentioned, for the Receipt of such Spirits from the Still, into a fixed Spirit Receiver, to be provided in the Distillery of every such Distiller, and duly entered and gauged for that Purpose, which Receiver shall be of a Capacity or Size sufficient to contain and hold the whole of the Spirits which shall or may be distilled by such Distiller at any time during the Space of Four Hours at the least, and shall have a Cover thereon, and a Dipping Hole cut in the same, of not more than One Inch in Length, and Three tenths of an Inch in Breadth, and shall be placed in the Still House, and as near to the End of the Worm of the Low Wine Still as conveniently may be, and not hidden or concealed, but shall be exposed to the open View of the Officers of Excise; and such Spirit Receiver shall not have any Pipe or other Communication with any Vessel or Vessels, Utensil or Utensils whatsoever, except a close Metal Pipe, having one End thereof firmly fixed to the Safe or open Vessel, and the other End thereof firmly fixed to the said Spirit Receiver for running or conveying the Spirits therein, and in every such Spirit Receiver there shall either be a Pump placed and fixed for emptying the same, or a proper Discharge Cock for drawing off the Spirits from such Receiver; and no such Distiller shall at one XCVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, to sell and send out, accompanied with a true and lawful Permit, to any Person or Persons, any Quantity of Spirits at any Strength not exceeding Seven per Centum above Hydrometer Proof, except Spirits of Wine, which shall be made, kept and sent out of the Strength of Forty two per Centum above Hydrometer Proof at the least; and that if any Spirits shall be sold or sent out contrary thereto, all such Spirits, with the Casks or other Packages containing the same, and all Horses, Cattle, Carriages and Boats made use of in removing such Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and no Allowance whatever shall be granted to any such Rectifier or Compounder for any Increase by Water, Sugar, Syrup or Fruit; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Forfeiture.

No Spirits to be sent out or received into Stock, unless Permit truly express the Strength.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act shall send out or remove from his, her or their Stock, Custody or Possession, nor shall any such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder receive into his, her or their Stock, Custody or Possession, any British Spirits, unless the Permit or Permits accompanying such Spirits shall truly express the Strength of all such Spirits at the time of the Removal thereof; and all such Spirits so removed, sent out or received, not being accompanied with true and lawful Permit or Permits expressing the Strength thereof, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder so sending out or receiving such British Spirits, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Forfeiture and Penalty 100l.

No Dealer to send out or keep any British Spirits, except Spirits of Wine, of a certain Strength.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That no Dealer or Dealers in, or Retailer or Retailers of, Spirits in Scotland, shall sell or send out, or have or keep in his, her or their Stock, Custody or Possession, any British Spirits, except Spirits of Wine, of any greater or higher Degree of Strength than Seven per Centum above Hydrometer Proof, nor any Spirits of any less Degree of Strength than Seventeen per Centum under Hydrometer Proof, on pain of forfeiting all such Spirits as shall be sold, sent out, had or kept, contrary hereto, with the Casks or other Packages containing the same, which shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

C. And

C. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of Excise in Scotland, having under his Survey the Stock of any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, licensed under this Act, shall, once in every Thirty Days at the least, or oftener if necessary, take an accurate and true Account of the Quantity and Strength of all British Spirits in the Stock, Custody or Possession of all and every such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, and shall compute the same at the Strength of Seven per Centum above Hydrometer Proof; and if, after making Allowance for the Spirits for which Permits shall have been granted since the last Reckoning of the Stock of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, computing the same at the Strength aforesaid, it shall be found that the Quantity of Spirits remaining in the Stock, Custody or Possession of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, shall exceed the Quantity for which such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall have Credit in the Books of the proper Officer, whether such Credit shall have arisen from what was on hand at the last preceding Reckoning or from what may have been lawfully made or received subsequent thereto, such Excess shall be deemed and taken to be Spirits illegally received, and a Quantity of Spirits equal to such Excess shall and may be seized out of any Part of the Stock of such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, in whose Stock, Custody or Possession such Excess shall be found, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds. Penalty 200l.

CI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Still of any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits shall happen to be charged and at work at the time when any Officer shall take account of the Stock of any such Rectifier or Compounder, then and in every such Case all the Spirits produced from that Charge of the Still shall be kept separate and apart from the rest of such Stock till the Account of the rest of such Stock shall have been completely taken, after which the Spirits produced from that Charge shall be added to such Stock. Spirits produced from Stills at work when Stocks are taken, to be afterwards added.

CII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Strength of any Part of the Stock of any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, by being mixed with any Sugar, Syrup, Seeds, Fruit or any other Ingredients or Materials, cannot be easily ascertained by the Hydrometer, every such Rectifier or Compounder shall, immediately on being required by any Officer or Officers, cause the true Quantity and Degree of Strength of such Spirits, so mixed, to be legibly marked on the Outside of the Cask or Casks, or Vessel or Vessels containing the same respectively; and if the Strength of such Spirits shall be found to have been untruly marked by such Rectifier or Compounder on the Outside of such Cask or Casks, or Vessel or Vessels, or if such Rectifier or Compounder shall, upon being required by the Officer or Officers of Excise as aforesaid, neglect immediately to mark the Quantity and Degree of Strength of such Spirits as aforesaid, such Spirits, Syrup, Seeds, Fruit and other Ingredients, together with the Casks and Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and every such Rectifier or Compounder shall also, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds. CIII. And, for enabling the Officers of Excise the more readily to take the several Accounts by this Act directed, be it further enacted, That all standing or fixed Casks used for the keeping in Stock of any raw British Spirits, rectified British Spirits, British Brandy, British Compounds or other Spirits, in the Distillery of any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, licensed under this Act, shall, before the same shall be made use of, be entered at the proper Office of Excise, and be truly gauged and inched to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, upon pain of Forfeiture, by the Owner or Owners thereof, of the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Cask which shall be used without having been duly entered, gauged and inched as aforesaid, and also of every such Cask, with the Liquor contained therein; and that every moveable Cask used for the sending out or keeping of raw British Spirits, rectified British Spirits, British Brandy, British Compounds or other Spirits, by any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, shall have the full Measure thereof, in English Wine Gallons, or the Quantity of Liquor which such Cask is capable of containing, legibly painted or cut on both Ends or Heads thereof, upon pain that the Owner of any moveable Cask so used, not having such full Measure in English Wine Gallons, or such Quantity so painted or cut, or the Person sending out such Cask, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every such Default, Omission or Offence.

CIV. And, to the Intent that the Officers of Excise may the more conveniently examine into and give Proof (if necessary) of the Strength and Quality of any British Spirits, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at all times, to take any Sample or Samples of any such Spirits whatsoever at any time found in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, paying for such Sample or Samples (if demanded) according to the Market Price for which Spirits of the like Quality shall be sold at the time when such Sample or Samples shall be taken; and if any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer or Officers in the taking any such Sample or Samples as aforesaid, such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

CV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Stills, Vessels and Utensils, and also all Materials for Distillation, and all Spirits in the Custody or Possession of any Distiller licensed under this Act, or in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons to the Use of or in Trust for such Distiller, and all and every the Stills, Vessels and Utensils used by such Distiller, into whose Hands soever such Stills, Vessels or Utensils shall pass or come, and by what Conveyance or Title soever the same may be claimed, shall be subject and liable to, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to, and chargeable with all Duties of Excise in Arrear and owing by such Distiller, for or in respect of any Wort, Wash or Spirits respectively made, prepared or distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller, and shall also be subject to all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Distiller for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act; and it shall and may be be lawful in all such Cases to levy such Duties, Fines and Penalties, and to use such Proceedings as it may be lawful to do in case the Debtors or Offenders had been truly and really the Owners and Proprietors of the Stills, Vessels and Utensils.

CVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to repeal or in any manner to alter or affect so much of an Act made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, among other Things, for better regulating the Exportation of British made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, as was or remained in force immediately before the passing of this Act; nor to repeal or alter or affect so much of another Act made in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, among other Things for better regulating the distilling of Spirits in England for Exportation to England, and in Scotland for Exportation to England, as was or remained in force immediately before the passing of this Act; nor to repeal, alter or affect any other Law or Laws in force immediately before the passing of this Act relating to Distillers making or distilling Spirits in England for Exportation from thence to Scotland, or in Scotland for Exportation from thence to England, or relating to such Spirits so made or distilled for such Exportation respectively; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

And be it further enacted, That every Licence granted to any Person or Persons in Scotland, who shall carry on the Trade or Business of a Chemist, or any other Trade or Business requiring the Use of any Still or Stills (except that of a Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits), shall specify the Name or Names, Trade and Business of the Person or Persons thereby licensed, and the Place where such Trade or Business is intended to be carried on, and the Number of Stills so licensed, if more than one, and the Capacity or Content of every such Still respectively; and no Chemist, or other Person or Persons (except as aforesaid), shall use or have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, in any Part of Scotland, any Still or Stills of any greater Capacity or Content than that of Fifty Gallons English Wine Measure, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for every such Still; and if any such Chemist, or other Person or Persons (Distillers, Rectifiers and Compounders excepted), shall use any Still or Stills for any Purpose whatever, without first taking out such Licence for the same, or shall make use of any other Still or Stills than such as shall be specified in such Licence, or shall make use of any such licensed Still or Stills at any Place other than the Place which shall be specified in the said Licence, or in any House or Place other than his, her or their usual Dwelling, or known Place of carrying on his, her or their Trade and Business, every such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, that any useful Processes or Experiments in Chemistry, in any Part of Scotland, shall require a Still or Stills of greater Content or Capacity than that of Fifty Gallons English Wine Measure as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Excise to grant, or authorise and direct a Licence to be granted to the Owner or Owners of such Chemical Work or Works, to use, for the Purposes aforesaid, a Still or Stills of larger Content or Capacity than as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at all Hours in the Daytime, to visit such Work or Works, and such Still or Stills belonging to any Person or Persons licensed under the Authority of this Act, and to examine by all proper Means the Liquor or Matter coming from the said Still or Stills, to open the said Still or Stills, unless the said Officer or Officers shall not otherwise be allowed to examine the Liquor or Matter coming from the said Still or Stills; and if any such Still or Stills shall at any time be used or employed for the Purpose of distilling Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Still or Stills, and all Utensils belonging thereto, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Owners and Users thereof shall be subject and liable to all the Pains and Penalties made and provided by this Act against Persons working with unlicensed Stills.

CX. And be it further enacted, That before any Person in Scotland shall make any Still, such Person shall take out a Licence for for that Purpose, as before mentioned, and shall permit and allow any Officer or Officers of Excise, at all Hours in the Daytime, to enter any Workhouse, Shop or other Place made use of by such Person for making or keeping Stills, and to inspect and examine the same; and all Stills which shall be used by any Person or Persons so licensed, shall be made of Copper only, and not of any other Metal; and every such Maker or Makers of Stills shall stamp his, her or their Name or Names, and the progressive Number, and the Content or Capacity of every Still made by him, her or them, upon the Shoulder of every such Still; and in order that the Content of the said Still or Stills may be distinctly ascertained, the said Maket or Makers shall, and he, she and they is and are hereby required, within Three Days after finishing any Still, to give Notice to the proper Supervisor or Officer of the District or Division where such Still hath been so made, that the same is ready to be gauged and stamped; and such Supervisor or Officer is hereby required, within Three Days after such Notification, to gauge such Still, and to grant a Certificate specifying the progressive Number, Content and Maker's Name of such Still; and in case any such Maker or Makers shall not take out such Licence as aforesaid, or shall make any Still of any Metal other than Copper, or shall neglect to give such Notice to the Supervisor or Officer as aforesaid, or shall in any respect offend in any of the Particulars aforesaid, such Maker or Makers shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Officers to examine their Stills; and to give Notice to the Officers of Excise that Stills may be gauged and stamped, on

CXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall import or bring any Still or Stills into Scotland from England or Ireland, or from Foreign Parts, such Person or Persons shall, within Three Days after the Arrival of such Still or Stills, give Notice of the same, and of the Place where the same is deposited, to the proper Supervisor or Officer of the District or Division; and such Supervisor or Officer shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of such Notice, gauge and cause to be stamped the said Still or Stills, in the same Manner as is hereinbefore directed in the Case of a Still or Stills being made in Scotland; and if any Person who shall so import or bring any Still or Stills into Scotland shall neglect or omit to give such Notice thereof as aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every Still so imported or brought.

Penalty of 50l.
Persons importing Stills into Scotland to give Notice to the Officers.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Still or Stills shall be erected and made use of, or be found in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons in Scotland, without having been previously gauged by the proper Officer of Excise, and marked in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned, every such Still shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Owner and Owners thereof shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, over and besides all other Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act for the unlawful using the same.

Penalty 50l.
Stills found in Custody without having been gauged, &c. forfeited, and Penalties.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer or Officers of Excise shall know or have Cause to suspect that any private or concealed Still, or any Back, Vat, Cooler, or other Vessel, or any Spirits, Low Wines, Wort or Wash, or other Materials materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, are set up or kept in any House or Place, by any Person not licensed under this Act, then and in such Case, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers, before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Place where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be set up and kept, setting forth the Ground of such his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices before whom such Oath shall be made, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by special Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to authorise and empower such Officer or Officers, by Day or by Night, to break open the Doors or any Part of such House or Place where he or they shall so know or suspect that such private or concealed Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel, Spirits, Low Wines, Wort, Wash, or Materials for Distillation, are so set up or kept, and to enter into such House or Place, and to seize all and every such Stills, Backs, Vats, Coolers and other Vessels, and all such Spirits, Low Wines, Wort, Wash and other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, which shall be there found and discovered, and either to detain and keep the same in the House or Place where found, or to remove the same to the Office of Excise next to the Place where the same shall be so discovered and found; and in case the same shall not, within Ten Days next after such Seizure, be claimed by some Person as the true and lawful Owner thereof, then the said Stills, Backs, Vats, Coolers and other Vessels, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash and other Materials for Distillation, shall be absolutely forfeited, and the Proprietor of any such private or concealed Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose, for every Place in which every such private Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel shall be so found, and also for every such Still, Back, Vat, Cooler and Vessel found therein, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct, oppose, molest or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise, or others acting in their Assistance, in the seizing any such private or concealed Stills, Backs, Vats, Coolers or other Vessels, or Spirits, Low Wines, Wort, Wash or other Materials for Distillation, or in detaining or keeping the same in the Place where found, or in removing the same, or any of them, after Seizure, to the next Office of Excise as aforesaid, then and in every such Case every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

CXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to make it unlawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to search for and discover any private or concealed Still, Back or other Vessel for the making, preparing or keeping of Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, or other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation in any Part of Scotland, without such Warrant as aforesaid, or from seizing every such Still, Back or other Vessel, and all such Low Wines, Spirits, Wort, Wash and other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, which he or they shall so find and discover, or to do therewith in the same Manner as aforesaid; and every such Person with whom the same shall be found, or who shall obstruct any such Officer or Officers, or shall otherwise offend offend in any of the Particulars aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as if such Officer or Officers had been authorised by such Warrant as aforesaid; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

CXV. And Whereas Wort or Wash, and other Materials fit and proper for Distillation, are often found in the Custody and Possession of Persons notoriously concerned in private and illicit Distillation, and such Offenders frequently escape from the Penalties of the Law by the Removal and Concealment of their Still or Stills; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That all and every Person and Persons in Scotland, not being a licensed Distiller, Brewer or Vinegar Maker, in whose Possession any Quantity of Wort or Wash, fermenting or fermented, exceeding the Quantity of Twenty Gallons, or any Quantity whatever of Low Wines or Feints, shall be found, shall severally forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all such Wort or Wash, Low Wines or Feints, together with the Casks or Vessels containing the same, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; which said Penalty of One hundred Pounds it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace in Scotland, by or before whom such Person or Persons shall be convicted, under any Pretence whatsoever to mitigate* or lessen under Twenty Pounds; and if the Penalty adjudged against such Person or Persons be not forthwith paid down to the Prosecutor, or to the Person authorised by him to receive the same, such Justice or Justices of the Peace by or before whom such Person or Persons shall be convicted, are hereby authorised and strictly enjoined and required immediately, by his or their Warrant under his or their Hands, to commit such Offender and Offenders to the Gaol or Prison of the County for any Time not exceeding Twelve Months, nor less than Six Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid.

‘ CXVII. And Whereas Persons who are immediately concerned in the making of Spirits privately, or are connected with others employed in such unlawful Practices, frequently escape Punishment, because no direct Proof can be adduced that they were actually employed or connected with others in such private Distillation, although it may be evident that such private Distillation could not be carried on without their Knowledge and Consent;’ For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That in every Case where sufficient Proof shall not be adduced to convict the Party of having been actually employed or concerned in such private Distillation, it shall be lawful to offer Proof, and for the Court before whom the Case shall be heard to receive Proof, that the private Distillery was carried on in some Part of the House, Outhouses, Yards, Gardens, Lands or Premises belonging to or in the Occupation of the Party accused, and that from the Situation of the Place, or other Circumstances, such private Distillation was or must have been carried on with the Knowledge and Privy of the Party accused; and in such case it shall be lawful for such Court to fine the Party in any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, nor less than Twenty Pounds; and in case the Fine be not immediately paid, to commit the Party to the Gaol or Prison of the County, for any Time not exceeding Twelve Months, nor less than Six Calendar Months, unless the Fine be sooner paid.

‘ CXVIII. And Whereas when the Officers of Excise have discovered private or unlawful Distilleries, it has often been found impossible or difficult to remove the Spirits, Materials and Utensils to a Place of Safety;’ For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That when any Officer or Officers of Excise shall find or discover discover any unlawful Distillery in any Part of Scotland, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers, at his or their Discretion, immediately upon the Discovery of such private or unlawful Distillery, and the Seizure of any Spirits or Materials, Implements or Utensils for Distillation, effectually to spill, break up, and destroy the same; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

and destroy all Materials and Utensils found at private Distilleries.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller of or Dealer in Spirits, or other Person in Scotland, licensed or not licensed, shall sell or send out, or shall knowingly suffer to be sent out of his or her Stock, Custody or Possession, or shall receive, or knowingly suffer to be received into his or her Stock, Custody or Possession, or shall suffer any other Person for his or her Use or Account to receive at one time any Quantity of British Spirits exceeding the Quantity of Two Gallons, without the same being accompanied with a true and lawful Permit; or if any Carrier, Boatman or other Person in Scotland, shall knowingly carry, remove or transport, or by means of his Horse, Cart, Vessel, Boat or other Conveyance, shall knowingly suffer to be carried, removed or transported, or shall be aiding or assisting in carrying, removing or transporting from any Part of Scotland to another Part thereof, any Quantity of British Spirits, at one time, exceeding the Quantity of Two Gallons, without being accompanied with a true and lawful Permit; every such Distiller, Dealer, Carrier, Boatman or other Person whatsoever, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, over and above every other Penalty and Forfeiture to which he or she is or may be liable by virtue of this Act.

No Person in Scotland shall send out or receive any British Spirits exceeding the Quantity of Two Gallons without Permit, nor shall any Person carry the same.

Penalties

CXX. And be it further enacted, That when any Suit or Action shall be commenced, or any Information filed or exhibited against any Person receiving such British Spirits, unaccompanied with a true and lawful Permit, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture in such Case by this Act imposed, it shall be sufficient for the Defendant or Defendants to prove that a lawful Permit to accompany the Removal of such Spirits was duly obtained by the Party selling or sending out the same, and that there had been a corresponding Decrease in the Stock of the Seller or Sender out thereof, to answer the Quantity of such Spirits so sent out and removed; and upon such Proof being made, such Spirits shall be adjudged to have been legally received, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: Provided always, that where any Person receiving such Spirits (not being an entered Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of, or Dealer in, or Retailer of Spirits,) shall, within Ten Days from the Receipt thereof, send or deliver to the nearest Officer of Excise the Permit which actually accompanied the same, every such private Person so delivering the Permit as aforesaid, shall be held and deemed to have complied with the Provisions of this Act, in respect to the receiving of such Spirits.

When Suits, &c. are commenced, what Proofs shall be given of the Permit having been obtained.

Proviso.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, by any Warrant, Order or Instruction, signed by any Three or more of them, to authorise and empower the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being, by any Order or Warrant signed Treasury empowered to reward Officers for detecting or preventing illicit Distillation.

signed by any Three or more of them, to grant such Rewards to Officers, to be paid out of the Duties of Excise in Scotland, for Services performed by them in detecting and preventing illicit or fraudulent Distillation, as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think proper, subject to such Rules, Conditions, Directions and Modifications, as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall prescribe, in order to make it the Interest of such Excise Officers, that no illicit or fraudulent Distillation whatever shall be carried on within their respective Districts or Divisions.

Obstructing Officers in Cases not otherwise provided for.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits licensed under this Act, or any Workman or Servant belonging to, or employed or authorised by such Distiller, Rectifier or Compounder, or any other Person or Persons whosoever, shall molest, disturb, hinder, oppose or impede any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted, or any of them, except in such Cases for which any Penalties are by this Act specially provided, every such Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty 200l.

Officers entering into collusive Agreement,

CXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise, of whatever Rank or Degree he shall or may be, employed under the Authority of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, shall make any collusive Agreement with any Distiller, or with any other Person for or on his Behalf, as his Agent, to omit to do any thing belonging to the Execution of his Employment as such Officer, or to connive at or to conceal any Fraud, or Breach or Neglect of the Law by such Distiller, or any Servants, Workmen, or Agent of such Distiller, or to make any false Return in respect of any of the Matters and Things required by this Act, or any other Act of Parliament for the better securing any Duty or Duties on Spirits made in Scotland, or for the Prevention of Smuggling in Scotland, or to do, or to connive at, or to conceal, or to omit to do any other Act, Matter or Thing by the doing or the Omission whereof His Majesty's Revenue shall be defrauded, or shall directly or indirectly ask or demand, or take or receive any Bribe, Gratuity, Fee, Recompence or Reward for the Neglect or Nonperformance of any Part of his Duty, or for the restoring or abandoning any Seizure, or for the forbearing to make any Seizure of any Still or Utensil, or any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints or Spirits, or the Casks or Vessels containing the same, or any other Goods, Matters or Things forfeited by Law, every such Officer therein offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and shall be for ever after incapable of serving His Majesty in any Office or Employment, Civil or Military; and if any Distiller licensed under this Act, or any Person on his behalf, or as his Servant or Agent, shall directly or indirectly give or promise, or offer to give or promise, any Bribe, Recompence, Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for the Performance or Nonperformance of the Duty of such Officer, or shall make any collusive Agreement with any Officer of Excise to forbear or neglect the due Performance and Discharge of his Duty as such Officer, in any of the Matters and Things required by

An Act to repeal so much of an Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty, as prohibits the Sale in England of any Spirits not being Spirits of Wine, British Brandy, British Gin or Compounds. [24th July 1820.]

57 G. 3. c. 123. § 11.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for imposing a Duty of Excise on the Excess of Spirits made from Corn in England above the Proportion of Nineteen Gallons of Spirits for every One hundred Gallons of Wash; and for further securing the Duties on Wort or Wash made for distilling Spirits in England; and for authorising the Shipment of Rum for Stores in Casks containing Sixty Gallons; it is amongst other Things enacted, that no Rectifier or Rectifiers of Spirits shall sell, send out or deliver in England any rectified Spirits, not being Spirits of Wine, British Brandy, British Gin or Compounds; and that no Raw Spirits shall be sold, removed or delivered to, or brought, taken, had or received by or into the Stock or Possession of any Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits or Wine whatsoever in England, not being an entered Rectifier of Spirits: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal the said recited Enactment:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

C A P. LXXVII.

An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, several Acts for regulating the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland reciprocally, to consolidate the countervailing Excise Duties payable on the Importation of Irish Spirits into Great Britain, and to amend the countervailing Excise Duties paid on the Importation of Irish Spirits from Scotland.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland reciprocally; and which by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, was continued until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to amend and continue the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid, and to grant and allow new countervailing Duties and Drawbacks on Spirits imported and exported between England and Scotland and Ireland respectively, the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid was further continued, except so far as the same was altered by the last mentioned Act, until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and the said recited Acts respectively were by certain Acts passed respectively in the Fifty seventh, Fifty eighth and Fifty ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, further continued until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty: And Whereas the Duties imposed and Drawbacks allowed and made payable by the said Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year aforesaid, were by certain Acts made in the said Fifty ninth Year repealed, and other Duties and Drawbacks granted and allowed in lieu thereof; and it is expedient that the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid, so altered as aforesaid, and such Parts of the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year aforesaid as are now in force, and are not repealed or altered by any Act or Acts of the said Fifty ninth Year, should be further continued, for regulating the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland reciprocally, and to secure, levy and collect the several Duties imposed and payable by Law on such Spirits: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid, as altered by the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year aforesaid, and also such Parts of the last mentioned Acts as are now in force, and are not repealed or altered by this Act, or by any Act or

An Act to reduce the Duties payable upon Licences for the Sale of Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail in certain Cities, Towns and Places in Ireland; and to amend the several Acts for securing the Payment of the Duties of Excise upon certain Licences in Ireland; and also to amend the Laws relating to Licensed Brewers in Ireland.

[24th July 1820.]

55 G. 3. c. 19.

Sched. (A).

Licences to sell Spirits, Wine, &c. within the Places herein mentioned may be obtained on paying 15l. British Currency and an additional 1s. in the Pound.

‘ WHEREAS in and by an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to grant certain Duties of Excise upon Licences for the Sale of Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail, and upon Licences to Persons dealing in exciseable Commodities in Ireland, in lieu of the Stamp Duties payable upon such Licences; and to secure the Payment of such Excise Duties, and to regulate the issuing of such Licences, and to discourage the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland; and by the Schedule thereto annexed, a Duty or Sum of Twenty two Pounds British Currency, together with the Sum of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of such Duty, is granted and imposed upon any Licence to any Person to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Porter, Ale, Cider or Perry, Metheglin or Mead, by Retail, in any Place within the Cities and Towns following; that is to say, the Cities of Armagh, Londonderry and Kilkenny, and the Towns of Bandon, Carlow, Cashell, Clonmell, Coleraine, Drogheda, Dundalk, Newry, Sligo, Wexford and Youghall, and within One Mile of the Market House or Market Place therein respectively: And Whereas it may be expedient that such Licences should in certain Cases be granted for the Sale of Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail in the said Cities, Towns and Places respectively, on Payment of a less Sum than the said Sum of Twenty two Pounds:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to have or obtain at his, her or their Desire, a Licence to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Porter, Ale, Cider or Perry, Metheglin or Mead, by Retail, in any Place within the respective Cities of Armagh, Londonderry and Kilkenny, and the respective Towns of Bandon, Carlow, Cashell, Clonmell, Coleraine, Drogheda, Dundalk, Newry, Sligo, Wexford and Youghall, or within One Mile of the Market House or Market Place therein respectively, on Payment of the Sum of Fifteen Pounds British Currency, together with a further Sum after the Rate of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount thereof; any thing in the said recited Act, or in the Schedule thereto annexed, or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland for amending the said Act, or for the regulating the granting of such Licences, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to

to all such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Directions, Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things, with respect to the obtaining of such Licence, as are contained and set forth in the said several Acts, or any of them, so far as the same are consistent and compatible with each other, and so far as the same are not altered by this Act: Provided always, that any Person on whose Licence such Sum of Fifteen Pounds shall be paid, shall be authorised to sell Spirituous Liquors in any Quantity not exceeding Twenty Gallons at one Time, and no more: Provided also, that if any Person in any of the said Cities, Towns or Places shall pay the full Sum of Twenty two Pounds payable under the said recited Act, or if any Person in any of the said Cities, Towns or Places, having paid the said Sum of Fifteen Pounds, shall pay such additional Sum as shall make the whole Duty paid by such Person amount to Twenty two Pounds British Currency, together with a further Sum after the Rate of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of such Twenty two Pounds, or on such additional Sum, as the Case may be, such Person shall be authorised to sell Spirituous Liquors in any Quantity not exceeding Twenty five Gallons at any one Time, and no more, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act.

What Number of Spirits Licence to authorise Sale of, at one Time on such Payment, and also on Payment of 22l. and additional Shilling in the Pound.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, in their Discretion, to allow or to repay to any Person who shall have paid or shall pay the said Duty or Sum of Twenty two Pounds on any Licence for the Sale of Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, in any of the Cities, Towns or Places aforesaid, to be in force after the Fifth Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, until and upon the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the Sum of Seven Pounds British Currency, together with a further Sum after the Rate of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount thereof; and every such Allowance or Repayment shall be made under such Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners or any Three of them shall direct or appoint; and after such Allowance or Repayment, such Licence shall be good and valid according to the Import thereof, and according to the Provisions of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Commissioners may repay 7l. to Persons having paid the 22l., &c. for Licence.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Complaint or Information, or other Proceeding, shall be had, filed, instituted or prosecuted for the Breach of any of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for the regulating of any Occupation, Trade or Calling, for the exercising or carrying on of which any Excise Licence is by Law required to be taken out by the Person exercising or carrying on the same, it shall not be lawful for the Claimant or Defendant to allege or set up as a Defence to such Complaint, Information or other Proceeding, that such Person so exercising or carrying on any such Occupation, Trade or Calling, was not licensed at the Time of the Offence charged in or by any such Complaint, Information or other Proceeding, or to allege any Defect, Informality or other Imperfection in any Licence which shall have been or shall be granted to such Person; and it shall not be necessary, on the Trial of any such Complaint or Information, or other Proceeding, for the case of a Company or Copartnership, then by one of the Copartners in the Name of such Firm, Company or Copartnership, setting forth the several Quantities of Malt received into the Brewery of such Brewer, or the Stores thereto belonging, on or after the Sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the Date when each Quantity was so received, and the total Quantity of Malt so received within such Period; and also setting forth the Dates of the different Brewings or Mashings made in the Brewery of such Brewer during such Period, and the real and true Quantity of Malt actually used in each such Brewing or Mashing, and the total Quantity of Malt so used in such Period; and every such Account shall be in such Form, and shall contain such further or other Particulars, as the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, shall from time to time direct and appoint.

Officers in charge of Breweries to deliver to the Collector of the District Accounts of the Malt, &c. made up for the same Period.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyor or Gauger, or other Officer in charge of the Brewery of such Brewer, shall within Thirty Days next after the Fifth Day of the said Month of July make out and sign and deliver to the Collector of the District, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, an Account of the several Quantities of Malt received into the Brewery of such Brewer, or the Stores thereto belonging, on or after the Sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and the Date when each Quantity was so received, and the total Quantity of Malt so received within such Period, and also of the several Quantities of Malt actually permitted to the Mash Tun or Kieve of such Brewer within such Period ending on such Fifth Day of July, setting forth the Number and Date of each Permit for the Removal of all such Malt; and the Quantity of Malt expressed therein.

Oath to be taken by the Brewer and his principal Workman as to the Quantity of Malt received and used, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, to whom such Account shall be delivered, shall, at the Time of the Delivery thereof by such licensed Brewer, require such Brewer so delivering such Account, and also the principal working Brewer employed in the Brewery of such licensed Brewer, to make, take and subscribe, in the Presence of such Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, an Oath (or if a Quaker, a solemn Affirmation) of the Tenor, Purport or Effect following; that is to say,

‘ I A. B. of _____ licensed Brewer, and I C. D.
 ‘ of _____ the principal working Brewer employed ‘ in the Brewery of the said A. B. situate at _____ ‘ within the District of _____, do severally make ‘ Oath [or solemnly affirm], That within the Period commencing on ‘ the Sixth Day of January and ending on the Fifth Day of July
 ‘ One thousand eight hundred and twenty, both inclusive, there ‘ were actually received into the said Brewery, and the Stores ‘ thereto belonging, _____ Barrels of Malt and no more, and ‘ that the whole of such Malt was attended with legal and proper ‘ Permits for the same; and that within the said Month there ‘ were actually and bonâ fide mashed or brewed within the said ‘ Brewery

‘ Brewery Barrels of Malt and no more; and I the said
‘ C. D. do also make Oath [or affirm], that all such Malt so ‘ mashed or brewed was duly conveyed by Permits into the Mash
‘ Tun or Kieve in the said Brewery, and that the said Permits ‘ were fairly and legally obtained, without any Fraud or Decep‘ tion, and without Injury to His Majesty’s Revenue, directly or ‘ indirectly; and I the said A. B. and I the said C. D. do also se‘ verally make Oath [or affirm] that all Duties of Excise on the ‘ said Malt so mashed or brewed were duly paid, and that no de‘ leterious Ingredient whatever, nor any Ingredient prohibited by ‘ Law, had been used in the brewing or making or preparing of ‘ any Beer or Ale or Porter in the said Brewery, at any Time ‘ within the said Period; and all this I the said A. B. and I the ‘ said C. D. do severally swear [or affirm] to the best of the ‘ Knowledge and Belief of me the said A. B. and me the said
‘ C. D. respectively, according to the best Information which it ‘ has been in the Power of me the said A. B. or me the said C. D.
‘ to obtain. ‘ So help me GOD.’

And such Collector, or other Officer so appointed as aforesaid, shall have full Power and is hereby authorised and required to administer and receive such Oath or Affirmation, and shall attest the same by subscribing his Name to the Jurat on taking of the same; and if any such licensed Brewer, or his principal working Brewer, shall, when thereto respectively required, neglect or refuse to make, take or swear, and subscribe such Oath or Affirmation, then and in such Case such licensed Brewer shall not be entitled to Payment of any Allowance under this Act.

Collector, &c. to administer and receive such Oath, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Collector of such District, or other Officer so appointed as aforesaid, shall be satisfied of the Truth of the several Matters and Things stated and set forth in the several Accounts, Oaths or Affirmations which shall have been delivered and made pursuant to the Provisions aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Collector, or other Officer aforesaid, to give such Brewer a Certificate under his Hand of the Quantity of Malt appearing to him to have been used and consumed by such Brewer within such Period, from the Sixth Day of January to the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and upon Production of such Certificate to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, or any Three of them, to pay or cause to be paid out of any Revenue under their Management to such Brewer, or to be allowed to such licensed Brewer, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, a Sum after the Rate of Three Shillings and Sixpence for every Barrel of Malt which shall appear to have been so actually used and consumed by such Brewer in the making or brewing of Beer, Ale or Porter, within such Period.

Collector satisfied as to Truth of Account to deliver a Certificate to Brewer, entitling him to receive an Allowance of 3s. 6d. for every Barrel of Malt used.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or any Three of them, from time to time to make such further or other Rules, Orders and Regulations, with respect to the obtaining and Payment of any Allowance or Sums of Money under this Act, and for the preventing of Frauds in claiming the same, as the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes to make Regulations for Payment of Allowances and for preventing Frauds.

Commissioners or any Three of them shall think fitting or expedient; and all such Rules, Orders and Regulations, when so made, shall be obeyed and complied with by all Persons claiming Payment of such Sums; and that no such Sums of Money or Allowance shall be paid to any Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to comply with such Rules, Orders and Regulations, when the same shall be so made.

Perjury.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall take such Oath, or make such Affirmation, as is by this Act required to be taken or made, shall wilfully or knowingly swear or affirm falsely therein, every such Person, being duly convicted thereof, shall suffer the Pains and Penalties to which Persons guilty of wilful or corrupt Perjury are or shall be subject by any Law in force in Ireland; and if any Person shall corruptly procure or suborn any other Person or Persons to swear or affirm falsely in any such Oath or Affirmation, every such Person, being duly convicted of such procuring or suborning, shall for every such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures, Pains and Disabilities, as Persons convicted of Subornation of Perjury are respectively liable unto by any Law in force in Ireland.

Subornation of Perjury.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

An Act allowing Importers of Sugar in Ireland to give Certificates for Sugar sold by them, in lieu of Permits.

[24th July 1820.]

‘ W H E R E A S it is expedient to allow importing Merchants, in certain Ports in Ireland, to give Certificates for such Sugar as they shall sell to Persons residing within the same Port, which Certificates shall be in lieu of Permits:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for importing Merchants, in Ports in Ireland where Tobacco may by Law be imported, to give Certificates for all such Sugar as they shall sell to Persons residing within the same Port or Place where they shall have imported the same, of the several Parcels or Quantities of such Sugar which they shall have sold; which Certificates shall have the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, to protect such Sugar within such Port or Place, as Permits have in respect to Goods conveying or conveyed from one Place to another; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and every such Certificate of such importing Merchant shall be written or printed in plain legible Characters, and shall contain such Particulars as the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, shall direct or appoint, and shall be signed by the importing Merchant with his Christian Name and Surname, and in his usual manner of writing the same.

Importers (in Ports where Tobacco may be imported) may give Certificates for Sugar sold by them to Persons residing at the Port of Importation, which shall have the Effect of Permits.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any importing Merchant or Merchants shall give any Certificate of having sold any Sugar to any other Person or Persons, the Quantity of such Sugar shall be deducted from the Credit of the Person or Persons giving the same; and all Surplus or Excess of Sugar above such Credit, which shall be found in the Custody or Possession of the importing Merchant or Merchants who shall have given such Certificate, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise.

Sugar so sold deducted from Credit of Importer.

Excess forfeited.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any such importing Merchant shall give any such Certificate of having sold any Sugar to any Person or Persons, and if the Sugar mentioned in such Certificate to have been sold shall not have been actually sold and delivered to the Person or Persons to whom the Sugar mentioned in such Certificate was sold, and was to be delivered, then and in every such Case such importing Merchant or Merchants shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and upon the Trial of any Information for the aforesaid Penalty, the Defendant or Defendants therein shall be convicted, unless such Defendant or Defendants shall prove that the Sugar mentioned in such Certificate was actually imported by such Defendant or Defendants, and was actually sold and delivered to the Person or Persons in such Certificate named to be the Person or Persons to whom such Sugar was sold.

Importer giving Certificate without delivering the Sugar,

Penalty 50l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons to whom any such Sugar shall be sent, shall, within Twenty four Hours, or in case a Sunday, Christmas Day or Good Friday shall intervene, within Forty eight Hours after the Arrival of the Sugar at the Place of Destination, repair with the Certificate of the importing Merchant under which such Sugar shall be sent to the proper Officer for granting Permits, where an Office for that Purpose shall be established, and lodge the same with the proper Officer in such Office, and in all other Places to the Surveyor or Officer of Excise of the Walk, and lodge the said Certificate with him; and every such Officer shall carefully examine such Sugar, and shall without Fee or Reward, upon Oath or Affirmation made by the Person to whom such Sugar shall be delivered, or (in case of his or her Inability to attend) by his or her known Clerk or Agent; which Oath or Affirmation every such Officer is hereby respectively authorised to administer, that the Sugar mentioned in such importing Merchant's Certificate was to the best of the Knowledge or Belief of such Person really and truly brought from the importing Merchant, and from the Place mentioned in such Certificate, give the Person by or on whose Behalf such Certificate shall be so lodged an Excise Certificate, signed by such Officer, that such importing Merchant's Certificate was lodged with him, which Excise Certificate shall be dated and shall contain in the Body thereof a Copy of such importing Merchant's Certificate; and if any Sugar shall be found in the Possession of any Person dealing in Sugar after the Expiration of Twenty four Hours, or Forty eight Hours respectively, after the Arrival thereof (the Proof of the Time of such Arrival to be on the Owner or Claimant, and not on the Officer or Prosecutor); and if such Excise Certificate as is hereinbefore mentioned shall not be produced Certificates to be lodged with the proper Officer within a limited Time, for which an Excise Certificate shall be given.

Oath.

Sugar forfeited in case of Non-compliance.

by

by or on Behalf of the Person in whose Possession such Sugar shall have been found, all such Sugar shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise.

Excise Certificate renewed after Three Months for Sugar remain- ing unsold.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such Excise Certificate shall not protect the Sugar mentioned therein for any longer Space of Time than Three Calendar Months after the same shall be granted; and that at or before the Expiration of such Time the proper Officer shall, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, grant, without Fee or Reward, a new Excise Certificate for such Sugar, or for so much thereof as shall appear to such Officer upon Examination thereof to remain on Hand and undisposed of; and at the Time of such new Certificate being granted, the former Certificate shall be delivered up to the Officer granting such new Certificate.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act shall be paid and payable in British Currency, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, sued for, recovered and applied in such Manner, and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such Ways and Methods, and according to such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the Recovery of any Penalties or Forfeitures in and by an Act made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for the settling of the Excise or new Impost upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenues of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were herein repeated and enacted; with the like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said recited Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. LXXXI.

An Act to amend several Acts made in the Fifty seventh and Fifty eighth Years of His late Majesty, for the Advance of Money for carrying on Public Works, and for other Purposes, so far as the said Acts relate to Ireland.

[24th July 1820.]

57 G. 3. c. 34. § 7.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was made in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to authorise the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the

' the United Kingdom, and the Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in Manner therein mentioned: And Whereas the said recited Act was amended by Two Acts, the one passed in the said Fifty seventh Year and the other in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty: And Whereas by the said first recited Act it is among other Things enacted, that any Two of the Commissioners to be appointed for Ireland as therein mentioned should, before they should act as such, take an Oath therein set forth before One of the Barons of the Exchequer of Ireland, and that every other of such Commissioners should take the same Oath before such Two Commissioners so sworn: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act every Commissioner who shall be nominated and appointed for the Purposes of the said recited Acts and of this Act, by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall, before he shall enter on the Execution of any of the said recited Acts or of this Act in Ireland, take an Oath before any Two or more of the Commissioners for the time being for the Execution of the said recited Act or of this Act, and that the Tenor of such Oath shall be as follows; (that is to say),

57 G. 3. c. 124.
58 G. 3. c. 88.

Commissioner, on his Appointment, to take the following Oath before Two or more of the Commissioners,

' I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully and impartially execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act intitled [here set forth the Title of the said first mentioned Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign,] and by the several Acts made for amending the said Act, according to the best of my Judgment, and according to the Purport of the said several Acts.'

Which said Oath the Commissioners for the time being, or any Two or more of them, are hereby authorised and required to administer.

' II. And Whereas it is by the said first recited Act among other Things enacted; that the Principal Sum which should be advanced in Ireland under the Certificates of the said Commissioners there, the Payment whereof should not be otherwise provided for pursuant to the said Act, should be paid, with Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum by the Year, into the Receipt of the Exchequer in Ireland, in Manner in the said recited Act mentioned; Be it enacted, That all Principal Sums which shall or may have been advanced or lent in Ireland out of the Consolidated Fund at any time before the passing of this Act, under and in pursuance of the Certificates of the Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts, or of any or either of them, in Ireland, shall be paid without any Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the same after such Rate as shall have been directed and appointed with respect to such Sums respectively, into the Bank of Ireland, to the Account of the Teller for the time being of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, by such Instalments, and in such Proportions, and at such Periods and Times as the said Commissioners shall or may have directed and appointed at any time before the passing of this Act; any thing in the 57 G. 3. c. 34.

Money advanced before passing of this Act to be repaid with Interest, by such Instalments, &c. as shall have been directed by the Commissioners.

the said recited Acts or either of them, or any thing in the Contracts made for the Repayment of the said Sums respectively, or the Securities for the same, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Money advanced after the passing of this Act shall be repaid in like manner, with Interest, as shall have been directed.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Principal Sums which at any time after the passing of this Act shall be advanced or lent in Ireland, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts or of this Act, shall be paid without Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Six Pounds or Five Pounds, as shall or may be directed by the said Commissioners, for every One hundred Pounds, by the Year, into the Bank of Ireland, for the Account and to the Credit of the Teller for the time being of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, by such Instalments and in such Proportions and at such Periods and Times as the said Commissioners shall, by and with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, direct and appoint, and as shall be specified in the Securities to be taken by the said Commissioners for the Repayment of such Money.

The Lord Lieutenant may reduce the Interest.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to order, if he or they shall, either on the Recommendation of the said Commissioners or otherwise, think proper so to do, that the Interest payable on any Sum or Sums of Money which shall have been advanced or lent as aforesaid, shall be reduced from the Rate of Interest at or upon which the same shall have been so lent, to any lesser Rate of Interest which shall be specified in such Order; and also to order that any such Sum so to be hereafter advanced or lent in Ireland shall be so advanced or lent at any lesser Interest than Five Pounds per Centum, which shall be specified in such Order; and the same shall be so lent or advanced accordingly, and so repaid as aforesaid in all respects, save that such lesser Interest, and no more, shall be received thereon or paid therewith.

Five Commissioners may act, unless where otherwise specially provided.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Acts, Matters and Things which the Commissioners in Ireland for the Execution of the said recited Acts and of this Act are required or authorised to do or execute by virtue of the same respectively, shall and may, unless otherwise specially provided, be done and executed by any Five or more of such Commissioners in Ireland; any thing in the said recited Acts or any of them, requiring the Assent of the Majority of such Commissioners, in anywise notwithstanding.

Three Commissioners may receive Applications for Advances for Public Works; and Five Commissioners may grant the Loan required.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners in Ireland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to receive Applications in Writing from any Person or Persons whomsoever, for the Loan and Advance of Money by Exchequer Bills or otherwise, for the making or improving any public Road, Railway, Bridge, Canal or Harbour in Ireland, or for the making or executing any Work whatsoever, whether of a public or private Nature, in Ireland; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, to grant such Loan or Loans, in pursuance of such Applications, as they shall think fit, out of the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds in the said first recited recited Act mentioned, provided it shall sufficiently appear to the said Commissioners that such Works respectively will give Employment to the labouring Classes of People where such Works are to be carried on, and having due Regard to the Security proposed for the Repayment of the Money or Exchequer Bills to be so advanced, and the Interest thereof.

Proviso.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Bond, Mortgage, or other Security or Instrument to be executed or taken in Ireland under the said recited Acts or this Act, nor any Examination, Affidavit, Deposition, Receipt or Consent by Sureties or Surety to an Extension of Time granted by the said Commissioners, for the Payment of any Exchequer Bills or Money advanced to any Principal by virtue of the said recited Acts or this Act, nor any Receipt or other Document which may be taken or made under and by virtue of the said recited Acts or this Act, and for the Purpose of carrying the said Acts and this Act into Execution in Ireland, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatsoever; any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

No Bond or other Instrument liable to Stamp Duty.

VIII. And Whereas a considerable Part of the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds remains still undisposed of, and it would be useful to apply and employ on certain Conditions a Portion thereof in Aid of divers public Works herein after mentioned, which are likely to be undertaken if so encouraged but not otherwise, and which would tend greatly to promote the useful Objects above mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to appoint and remove at his or their Pleasure Two or more Civil Engineers in Dublin, who shall act without Salary, Fee, or Reward in the several Matters hereinafter directed.

The Lord Lieutenant may appoint, &c. Civil Engineers to act without Salary.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons who shall be desirous of applying to any Grand Jury or Grand Juries in Ireland for any Presentation or Presentments for any new Line of Road; or to and for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, who shall be desirous of altering the Line or any Part of the Line thereof; or for the Trustees or Proprietors of any Harbour, Canal, Railway, or other public Work whatever, to procure at his or their own Expense a Map, Section and Estimate of such proposed Road or Work, to be made by such Surveyor or Surveyors, Person or Persons, as he or they shall think proper, and lay the same before the said Engineers so to be appointed by the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

Maps and Estimates of new Roads, Harbours, Canals and other Public Works, may be laid before such Engineers.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Engineers to be appointed, by Examination on Oath before them, or any Two or more of them, of the Person or Persons who shall have so prepared such Map, Section and Estimate respectively, or of such other Person or Persons as shall be produced for that Purpose before them, or as they shall think proper to summon for that Purpose, or by making or causing to be made any new Survey, Section or Estimate of such Road or Work, or of any Part thereof, or by such other Ways or Means as they shall think proper, to examine into the Merits of such Road or Work, and of the proposed Plan so laid before them for the Execution thereof, and to certify under their Hands and Seals their Opinion thereon fully and particularly to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

Engineers to inspect the same, and certify thereon to the Lord Lieutenant.

pike Roads.

XI. And be it further enacted, That as soon as any such Proposal, whether with or without Alteration, shall have been approved of by such Engineers, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Grand Jury of any County through which any such new Line of Road, or any Part thereof, shall run, if such Road shall be a Presentment Road, and they are hereby required, to make a Presentment for One Moiety of the Expenses of making such Road, and to direct that such Plan and such Approbation thereof, and a Copy of such Presentment duly certified, shall be laid before the Commissioners for the time being for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act; or in case such Road shall be a Turnpike Road, then such Plan and the Approbation thereof, and the Estimate of the Expense thereof, may be laid before the said Commissioners by the Trustees of such Turnpike Road; and in case of any Harbour, Canal or other Public Work, then such Plan and Estimate so approved shall be laid before the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act by the Trustees or Proprietors of such Harbour, Canal or other Public Work; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to certify to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Three of the said Commissioners, the Amount of such Presentment; or in case of a Turnpike Road, Harbour, Canal or other Public Work, the Amount of such Estimate; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to direct by his or their Warrant, if he or they shall think fit, that a Sum equal to the whole of such Presentment, or equal to the Half Part of such Estimate for any Turnpike Road, Harbour, Canal or other Public Work, shall be paid out of the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds in the said first recited Act mentioned, in Aid of such Road or Work, in Manner hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say,) that as soon as it shall be ascertained to the Satisfaction of the said Engineers or any Two or more of them, by Examination on Oath before them respectively, that One Moiety or Half Part of the Amount of any such Presentment or Estimate hath been well and bonâ fide expended in, upon, and towards the Execution and Completion of the Road or Work therein mentioned, or any Part or Parts thereof, and that Two or more of the said Engineers shall have certified under Hand and Seal that the same hath been so ascertained to their Satisfaction, then and thereupon One Moiety of the Sum so ordered by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors to be paid as aforesaid, shall be paid by Warrant of such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors to the Treasurer of the County, or to his Order, if such Road shall be a Presentment Road; and if such Road shall be a Turnpike Road, then to the Trustees thereof or to their Order; or in case of a Harbour, Canal or other Public Work, then to the Trustees or Proprietors thereof

Application of Sums presented.

or to their Order; and as soon as and whenever it shall be in like Manner certified that the Residue of the Amount of such Presentment or Estimate hath or have been expended in and upon the Road therein mentioned, and that the same hath or have been completed, then and thereupon the Residue of the Sum so ordered to be paid by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall be paid to such Treasurer or Trustees in Manner aforesaid respectively.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Sums so to be paid for such Purposes, under the Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall not in the whole exceed the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, and shall be paid out of the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds in the said first recited Act mentioned, and not out of any other Fund.

Amount of Money issued out of Sum granted by recited Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to include, in any such Presentment or Estimate for any Road, not only the Road so to be made, but also all and every Bridges, Gulleys, Parapets, and all other Works, Matters and Things necessary or proper for making such Road, or for safely and conveniently using the same; but that it shall not be lawful to include in any such Estimate for any Road, Harbour or Public Work, the Value or Price of any Ground which shall be taken or required for the same, or the Amount of any Traverse for Damages or Compensation in respect thereof, or of the Sum found or presented under any such Traverse, but that all such Matters shall be paid and discharged respectively as if this Act had not been made.

Estimates for Roads may include Bridges, &c.

but not the Price of Ground for Public Work.

XIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no such Order for the Payment of any Money under any such Presentment or Estimate, shall be made after the Expiration of Five Years from the passing of this Act.

Limitation of Order.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Engineers to be appointed in Manner aforesaid under this Act, or any Two or more of them, to administer any Oath required in the Execution of their Duty under this Act; and that if any Person shall knowingly swear falsely therein, such Person being thereof duly convicted shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall be punished accordingly.

Engineers may administer Oaths.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the Encouragement and Improvement of the Irish Fisheries.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the further Encouragement and Improvement of the Irish Fisheries, it is among other Things enacted, that a Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton shall be paid annually, out of His Majesty's Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners

59 G. 3. c. 100. § 1.

‘ sioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, to the Owner or ‘ Owners of all such decked Vessel or Vessels, if not less than ‘ Fifteen Tons Burthen, or to the Person or Persons hiring or ‘ chartering such Vessel or Vessels, which shall be fitted out from ‘ any Port in Ireland for Fishing and curing Fish in the Irish ‘ Fisheries, in the Manner and under the Conditions therein par‘ ticularly described: And Whereas it is expedient that the said ‘ Bounty should be repealed, so far as regards the Herring ‘ Fishery, and another Bounty granted in lieu thereof, and that ‘ the said Act should be altered and amended:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after passing of this Act the said Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton shall cease and determine, and shall be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as regards the Herring Fishery in the said recited Act mentioned; and that in lieu of the Bounty so repealed, a Bounty of Three Pounds per Ton shall be paid annually out of His Majesty’s Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, to the Owner or Owners of any whole decked or half decked Vessel or Vessels, if not less than Fifteen Tons Burthen, or to the Person or Persons hiring or chartering such Vessel or Vessels, being Irish or British built, or a Prize Vessel legally condemned in any of His Majesty’s Courts of Admiralty, and owned in Great Britain or Ireland, and manned, navigated, and registered according to Law, which shall at any time after the passing of this Act be fitted out from any Port in Ireland for and shall be actually employed in the open Sea White Herring Fishery, in the Manner and under the Conditions mentioned in the said Act and in this Act: Provided always, that such Bounty shall not, in respect of any Vessel, be computed or paid on any greater Number of Tons than Sixty, although such Vessel shall be of greater Burthen.

The Bounty of 50s. per Ton granted by recited Act repealed, so far as regards the Herring Fishery; and instead thereof
 3l. per Ton shall be paid for Vessels of not less than 15 Tons.

No Vessel to be paid for more than 60 Tons.

Vessels to be provided with Two Barrels and Three Bushels of Salt and 335 Square Yards of Netting for every Ton, &c.

To be manned as herein mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel shall be deemed to be properly fitted out for and to be duly employed in the open Sea White Herring Fishery, so as to entitle the Owner or Owners to any Bounty on the Tonnage thereof by virtue of this Act, unless such Vessel be provided with Two sufficient Barrels and Three Bushels of Salt at least for every Ton of the Admeasurement of such Vessel, nor unless such Vessel shall be provided with Three hundred and thirty five Square Yards of Netting, at the least, for every Ton of her Admeasurement, together with a suitable Rope of proper Dimensions to ride by the Nets of such Vessel, and other necessary Materials for the Equipment and Mounting thereof; nor unless such Vessel shall be manned with the Number of Men following at the least; that is to say, with Five Men if such Vessel shall not exceed the Burthen of Twenty Tons; with Six Men if she shall exceed the Burthen of Twenty Tons and shall be under the Burthen of Thirty Tons; and if she shall exceed the Burthen of Thirty Tons, then with such Number of Men more than Six as shall from time to time be required by any Regulations to be made for that Purpose by the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That in order to entitle any Person who shall claim any Bounty on the Tonnage of any Vessels to receive such Bounty by virtue of this Act the Crew of every such Vessel shall fish in the open Sea (and not in any River, Bay or Lock), off some Part or Parts of the Coast of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Isle of Man, and shall shoot and haul the Nets directly from and into the Vessel, without the Intervention or Use of a small Boat, the Nets being attached to the Vessel while they are set, and the Vessel not being at Anchor when the Crew are shooting the Nets during the Time the Nets are set, nor while the Crew are hauling or taking them in, (except in any Case where it may be necessary to cast Anchor for the Safety of the Vessel, such Necessity to be stated in the Journal after mentioned); that the said Crew shall diligently prosecute the Fishery in an orderly and regular Manner for Sixty Days, exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays, reckoning from the Day of first shooting the Nets; that the Crew shall have the Nets shot during such Part of every Twenty four Hours of the said Sixty Days as shall be necessary for the successful Prosecution of the Fishery, and shall not impede or obstruct the Crew of any other Vessel or Boat employed in the Fishery; and if from Stress of Weather, Loss of Nets, or other unavoidable Cause, the Crew shall be compelled to discontinue fishing, they shall, at the Expiration of the said Sixty Days, exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays, continue to fish for such longer Time as shall be equal to the Number of Days the Fishing shall have been so discontinued by them; that is to say, such Crew shall fish Sixty Nights complete, whatever Interruption they may have experienced, before the Voyage is completed; and if at any time it shall happen that only Part of the Netting required to be on board shall be set upon any Fishing Night, the Quantity actually set, and the Cause why the whole was not set, shall be distinctly inserted in the Journal.

The Crew to fish in the open Sea.

Regulations to be observed in fishing.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Crew of any such Vessel shall take no Fish other than Herrings, except for their Sustenance, nor receive on board the Vessel any Herrings not taken by them; that the Herrings taken intended for Bounty shall be gutted and packed into Barrels on board the Vessel, and the Barrels shall be headed up and stowed away on the same Day the Herrings are caught, if possible; that the Herrings shall not be landed except in the Presence of an Officer of the Fishery, nor shall any Vessel be allowed to return to Port oftener than at the End of each Week (unless compelled by Stress of Weather, or other unavoidable or necessary Cause, to be specified in the Journal), at which Time whatever Deficiency may have taken place in the Number of the Crew, or in the Quantity of the Fishing Materials and Stores required to be on board, shall be supplied and taken on board before the Vessel proceeds again to Sea.

Crew to take no Fish but Herrings, except for Sustenance. Herrings to be gutted and packed in Barrels.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every such Vessel shall make Oath, before an Officer of the Fishery, of the Observance of the foregoing Regulations; that the said Master shall keep a Journal containing an Account of every Day's Transactions, mentioning particularly the Distance of the Vessel from the Shore every Time the Nets are shot and hauled, and to what Place

Master to make Oath as to Observance of Regulations, and to keep a Journal, which shall be verified on Oath.

Place on the Shore the Vessel is then opposite, the Quantity of Herrings caught every Day, together with the Number of Barrels thereof gutted and packed the same Day, and the Marks put upon the Barrels; and that the Truth of the Journal shall be in like manner verified upon Oath by such Master, who shall deliver the Original Copy thereof to the Officer of the Fishery, together with a fair Copy if required.

Herrings to be inspected and certified for Bounty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Herrings caught, gutted and cured by the Crew of any such Vessel shall be kept separate and apart from all other Herrings until they shall be produced to the proper Officer of the Fishery, to be inspected, branded, and certified for Bounty; and that the Master and Two of the Mariners shall make Oath before such Officer that the Herrings so produced to him as Herrings caught and cured by the Crew of such Vessel were all and every Part thereof really and truly so caught and cured by the said Crew, and were taken in the open Sea, according to the Regulations hereinbefore mentioned.

Every Information required by the Officers to be given.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Employer, Master, and Crew of every such Vessel shall honestly and truly give every Information that shall be required of them by the Officers of the Fishery relative to the Manner in which the Voyage has been conducted, exclusive of the Information contained in the Master's Journal; and that every Rule and Regulation prescribed by the said recited Act, as amended by this Act, or which has been or shall be prescribed by the Commissioners for the Irish Fishery, with respect to Herrings cured on board Vessels or Boats, or on Shore, shall be observed and complied with in regard to Herrings caught and cured by the Crews of any such Vessel, so far as the same are applicable; and that the said Commissioners shall be fully satisfied of the Industry and faithful Dealings of the Crew of every such Vessel.

Deficiency of Netting and of Men by Accident to be immediately supplied.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Netting shall be diminished by Stress of Weather or other Accident, and the Number of Men required by this Act shall be reduced by Death, Desertion or otherwise, the Master shall use his utmost Exertions to have the Deficiency supplied, according to such Regulations as the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries shall make, for the purpose of satisfying themselves that the Loss or Diminution happened entirely from Accident, and not from Conivance or Design.

The Bounty of 5s. per Barrel granted by 59 G. 3. c. 109. § 11. repealed as to Herrings; and instead thereof a Bounty of 4s. shall be paid for every Barrel containing 32 Gallons of White Herrings.

IX. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, it is among other things enacted, that in order to give Employment and Encouragement to the Industrious Poor residing on the Coasts of Ireland, there shall and may be paid a Bounty of Three Shillings per Barrel to all Persons residing in Ireland who shall cure and pack Herrings, Pilchards, and Mackerel, according to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries shall make and appoint for that Purpose; and it is expedient that the said Bounty should be repealed, and that another Bounty should be granted in lieu thereof, under the Regulations contained in the said recited Act and this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Bounty Bounty of Three Shillings shall cease and determine, and shall be and the same is hereby repealed, in so far as regards Herrings; and that in lieu thereof a Bounty of Four Shillings a Barrel shall be paid, out of His Majesty's Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, for every Barrel containing Thirty two Gallons of White Herrings which shall be caught on any Part of the Coasts of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Isle of Man, and landed in Ireland, and which shall be cured and packed according to the Directions of the said Act and of this Act, and which shall be produced to and inspected by the proper Officer of the Fishery.

X. And Whereas by the said recited Act it is among other things enacted, that the Bounties thereby granted per Barrel on Herrings, Pilchards and Mackerel, shall not be paid or allowed unless, among other things, the Barrel shall contain of Fish, exclusive of the Salt and Brine, Two hundred and twenty four Pounds Weight, except Herrings, Pilchards and Mackerel intended to be exported to any Place out of Europe, which shall and are thereby required to be repacked with Great Salt, the Barrel of which Herrings, Pilchards and Mackerel shall contain Two hundred and twelve Pounds of net Fish: Be it enacted, That (over and above the several Particulars in the said Act required for the obtaining of the Bounty per Barrel, and which are not repealed or altered by this Act), the Bounty of Four Shillings per Barrel granted by this Act shall not be paid or allowed for any Herrings of which the Barrel shall not contain of Fish, exclusive of the Weight of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and thirty five Pounds Weight, except Herrings intended to be exported to any Place out of Europe, which shall and are hereby required to be repacked with Great Salt, the Barrel of which Herrings shall contain Two hundred and twelve Pounds of net Fish; and that the said Bounty of Four Shillings per Barrel shall not be paid or allowed for any Herrings that were not originally gutted and cured and packed within Twenty four Hours after they were caught, or for any Herrings which were cured in Bulk, or otherwise than in Barrels, or which, having been cured in Barrels, shall have been afterwards laid in Bulk, or which shall not be bung-packed or repacked, and in all respects properly cured and packed, or for any Barrel of Herrings on which any Mark or Character whatsoever formerly branded shall be found to have been altered or defaced; and if any Herrings (other than Herrings repacked with Great Salt) of which the Barrel shall not contain of net Fish, exclusive of the Weight of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and thirty five Pounds, or if any Herrings repacked with Great Salt, of which the Barrel shall not contain of net Fish Two hundred and twelve Pounds Weight, or any Herrings which were not originally gutted, cured and packed within Twenty four Hours after they were caught, or which were cured in Bulk, or otherwise than in Barrels, or which having been cured in Barrels shall have been afterwards laid in Bulk, or any Herrings mixed or packed with any such Herrings as aforesaid, shall be produced to any Officer of the Fishery, to be branded in his Presence and certified by him, for the Purpose of obtaining the said Bounty of Four Shillings for the same, all such Herrings, with the Barrel or 59 G. 3. c. 109. § 24. Barrel of Fish, exclusive of Salt and Brine, to contain 235 lbs. except Herrings to be exported out of Europe, which shall be repacked, and the Barrel to contain 212 lbs. of net Fish.

Herrings to be packed within 24 Hours, &c.

On Noncompliance with the above Regulations Herrings, on production for the Bounty, forfeited.

Barrels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery.

No Barrel of Herrings repacked, &c. entitled to Bounty, unless 15 Days intervened from original Packing, &c.

Forfeiture.

Herrings to be gutted with a Knife.

Commissioner of Irish Fisheries to make Regulations.

If Herrings are gutted otherwise than with a Knife, Commissioners may withhold Part of the Bounty.

Contents of Half Barrels.

What Mesh Herring Nets, &c. to have.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Barrel of Herrings repacked or bung-packed, shall be deemed entitled to the Bounty of Four Shillings per Barrel granted by this Act, unless a Space of Time not less than Fifteen Days shall have intervened from and after the Day when the said repacked Herrings were originally cured and packed, and before the Day when the same were begun to be repacked, or unless a Space of Time not less than Fifteen Days shall have intervened from and after the Day when such bung-packed Herrings were originally cured and packed, and before the Day when the same were completely bung-packed; and if any Barrel of Herrings repacked or bung-packed shall be produced to any Officer of the Fishery in order to obtain the said Bounty, not being entitled thereto according to the Provisions of this Act, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, Herrings, in respect of which the Bounty by this Act granted shall be intended to be claimed, shall be gutted with a Knife in the Manner practised by the Dutch Fishermen; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries to make Rules and Regulations for carrying the Purposes of this Provision into effect; and every Person who is required by the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His late Majesty to keep a Journal or Account of Herrings cured, shall mention therein whether the Herrings taken, cured and gutted every Day, or what Part thereof, were wholly gutted with a Knife according to the Regulations to be made pursuant to this Act; and if any Barrels or Half Barrels of Herrings which shall have been gutted otherwise than with a Knife in the Manner hereby directed shall be produced to any Officer of the Fishery in order to be branded and certified for the Bounty hereby granted, the said Officer shall, in the Debenture or Certificate to be granted by him pursuant to the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, describe or distinguish such Barrel or Half Barrels of Herrings as have been gutted otherwise than as hereby directed; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries, in the Allowance under the Hands of the said Commissioners required by the said Act to be made at the Foot of the Debenture or Certificate of the Officer, to cause to be disallowed and withholden a Part of the Bounty granted by this Act, not exceeding Sixpence for each and every Barrel, and Three Pence for every Half Barrel of such Herrings as last above mentioned.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Half Barrel of White Herrings shall, whether bung-packed or repacked, contain Half the Quantity of Fish, exclusive of Salt and Brine, which a Barrel of Herrings, whether bung-packed or repacked, is by this Act required to contain respectively, and shall be entitled to Half of the Bounty, and be subject to all Rules, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which a Barrel of Herrings in the like Case is liable.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person shall use in any River or Lock, or at Sea,

Sea, in or on the Coast of Ireland, any Herring Net, or any Trawl Net, Drag Net, or other Sea Net for the taking of Herrings, which shall have a Mesh of less than One Inch from Knot to Knot, or which shall have any False or Double Bottom, Cod or Pouch, or shall put any Net, though of legal Size, behind any other Net or Nets, to destroy the small Fish; and that every Person offending herein shall forfeit every such Net as aforesaid, and the Sum of Forty Pounds for every such Offence; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries to cause every such Net to be burnt.

No false or Double Bottom, &c.

Penalty 40l. and Net burnt.

XV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no White Herrings or Pilchards or Mackerel, or other Fish, shall be cured, packed or put up in Ireland, or on board any Vessel or Boat employed in the Irish Fishery, in any Barrel which shall be made in Whole or in Part of Fir; and that no White Herrings, Pilchards or Mackerel shall be cured, pickled or put up in any Barrel which shall not be One half Part of an Inch in Thickness throughout of made Work, or which shall contain less than Thirty two Gallons English Wine Measure; and that no Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel, shall be cured, pickled or put up in any Barrel which shall not be Three fourth Parts of an Inch in Thickness throughout of made Work, nor in any Barrel which shall not be Three Quarters bound (but not twigged), nor in any Barrel which shall contain less than Thirty two Gallons English Wine Measure; and that if any White Herrings, Pilchards or Mackerel, Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel respectively, shall be cured, packed or put up in any Barrel contrary to the Directions of this Act, all such Herrings, Pilchards, Mackerel, Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel respectively, with the Barrel containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery, Customs or Excise.

No White Herrings, &c. to be packed in a Fir Barrel.

Thickness, &c. of Barrels to be used.

Fish packed in Barrels contrary to the Directions of this Act forfeited.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any White Herrings caught and cured in the British Fishery, and for which the Bounty granted for the Encouragement thereof shall have been paid or allowed, shall be produced to any Officer of the Irish Fishery for the Purpose of obtaining the Bounty granted by this Act; or if any White Herrings caught and cured in the Irish Fishery, and for which the Bounty granted by this Act shall have been paid or allowed, shall be produced to any Officer of the British Fishery for the Purpose of obtaining the Bounty granted for the Encouragement of the Herring Fishery in Great Britain, all such Herrings with the Barrels containing the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery, Customs or Excise; and the Person or Persons producing the same shall also forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds British Currency, to be received and applied in such Manner as any Penalty is directed to be received and applied under any Act or Acts in force for the Encouragement of the Fisheries in Great Britain or Ireland respectively.

Herrings produced to obtain a second Bounty forfeited, and Penalty 500l.

XVII. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, it is among other things enacted, that a Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Five thousand Pounds in any one Year may be paid to the Annual 5000l. by 59 G. 3. c. 109. § 66. not applied to increase

Tonnage or Barrel Bounty. ' the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries out of the Revenues
' of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, to be applied by
' of the said Commissioners in the Encouragement of such Coast
' Fisheries, under such Orders, Rules, Regulations and Directions
' as the said Commissioners shall from time to time think fit to ' make for that Purpose: ' Be it enacted, That the said Sum or Sums of Money shall not be applied by the said Commissioners in any Manner or Way so as to increase the Tonnage or Barrel Bounty granted by this Act for the Encouragement of the Herring Fishery in Ireland; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Bounty for Cod, &c. cured on Coasts of Ireland. XVIII. And be it further enacted, That there shall and may be paid a Bounty of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Barrel of Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel taken on the Coasts of Ireland, and cured with Pickle, by Persons residing in Ireland, and curing such Fish according to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries shall from time to time make and appoint for that Purpose.

Fish taken by Vessels fitted out before Act, entitled to Bounty of 59 G. 3. c. 109. XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Vessel or Vessels shall have been fitted out or shall have sailed from any Port in Ireland for the Irish Fisheries at any time before the passing of this Act, all Fish which shall be taken or purchased by the Crew of every such Vessel, and which shall be cured according to the Directions of the said recited Act, shall be entitled to the Bounties granted by the said recited Act, and under the Rules and Regulations in the said recited Act contained; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Salt to be taken Duty free under the Regulations of 46 G. 3. c. 87. XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to take, free of Duty, any Quantity of Salt from and out of any Storehouse, Warehouse or Cellar, in which such Salt shall have been deposited, under the Regulations contained in an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act more effectually to regulate the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandises imported or exported into or from Ireland, and the Payment of Bounties, Allowances and Drawbacks thereon; provided that the Person or Persons so taking out such Salt shall first enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with sufficient Sureties, in the Sum of Fifteen Shillings for every Bushel of such Salt, containing Fifty six Pounds to every Bushel, which shall be so taken out of Warehouse, with Condition that such Salt, or any Part thereof, shall not be landed in Great Britain or the Isle of Man, but that the same shall really and truly be used and expended in the curing of Fish under the Regulations of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for the superior Officers of the Customs (not being under the Degree of a Coast Surveyor or Land Waiter) at the Port of Place where such Salt shall be warehoused, to take such Bond; and the giving such Bond or Security shall vacate the Bond or Security entered into on the warehousing of such Salt, so far only as relates to the Quantity of such Salt so taken out of such Warehouse and used in the curing of such Fish, but no further; and such Bond so given under the Directions of this Act

Act shall be vacated on the Production of such Certificate for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries as shall be satisfactory to the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland.

Commissioners of Irish Fisheries to make Regulations as to Quantity of Salt taken, &c.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries from time to time to make such Regulations as to them shall seem fit and necessary, for the regulating the Quantity of Salt to be taken on board any Vessel employed in fishing for Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel; and also to make such Regulations as to the said Commissioners shall seem expedient, for the Payment of the Bounties granted by this Act in respect of such Vessels as shall be employed in taking and curing such Cod, Ling, Hake, Haddock, Glassen or Conger Eel.

XXII. And be it declared and enacted, That the Bounties which after the passing of this Act shall be payable under the said recited Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and this present Act, shall be paid according to the Amount thereof in British Currency.

Bounties under 59 G. 3. c. 109. in British Currency.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and remain in force for Four Years from the passing thereof, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

C A P. LXXXIII.

An Act to amend Two Acts of the Fifty seventh and Fifty eighth Years of His late Majesty, for the Encouragement of Banks for Savings in England. [24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS certain of the Provisions contained in an Act made in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to encourage the Establishment of Banks for Savings in England; and of an Act made in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for amending the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year, have been found inconvenient and ineffectual; and it is expedient that other Provisions should be made for the like Purposes: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, so much and such Parts of the said recited Acts, or either of them, whereby the issuing of any Debenture or Debentures by or under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, is authorised or required upon the Payment of any Money into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Commissioners by the Trustees of any Saving Bank; and also so much of the said recited Acts, or either of them, as relates to the Renewal of any such Debentures, or to the Payment of the Principal or Interest of any such Debentures, or any Part thereof, or to the transferring of any Bank Annuities in lieu of paying off the Principal and Interest of any such

57 G. 3. c. 130.
58 G. 3. c. 48.

So much of said Acts as relates to the issuing, renewing or paying Debentures in future, repealed.

such Debenture or Debentures in Money, shall, as to any such Payments which shall be made into the Bank of England by the Trustees of any Saving Bank, at any time after the said First Day of August, cease and determine, and shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

On Payment of Money into the Bank by Trustees of Saving Banks to Account of Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, their Officer to give a Receipt for the same, carrying Interest at 3d. per Cent. per Diem.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank of England, at any time after the said First Day of August, to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, by the Trustees of any Saving Bank, under the said recited Acts, in Manner directed by the said recited Acts, and under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, it shall be lawful for the Officer of the said Commissioners in that Behalf, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, to issue, upon every such Payment being made, a Receipt signed by One of the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for the Amount of such Payment, carrying Interest at the Rate of Three Pence per Centum per Diem from the Day of such Payment inclusive, payable with the Principal at the Bank of England, whenever the same shall be required or drawn for in Manner directed by this Act; and such Receipt shall be dated on the Day on which the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be made respectively; and every such Receipt shall be in such Form as shall be from time to time directed by the said Commissioners; and the Principal and Interest of all Sums mentioned in any such Receipt shall be charged and chargeable upon, and the same are hereby charged and made payable out of the Monies or Funds standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Bank of England.

Interest on all such Sums to be calculated Halfyearly up to 20th November and 20th May, and carried to Account of the Saving Banks as additional Principal.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Interest which shall become due and payable upon any Sum of Money mentioned in any such Receipt upon the Twentieth Day of November and the Twentieth Day of May in every Year next after the Date of any such Receipt, shall be from time to time calculated and computed by the Officer of the said Commissioners, and shall in each and every Year be placed to the Credit of the Saving Bank on whose Account any such Sum of Money was paid, within Thirty Days from such Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May respectively, and shall be carried to and written on the Account of such Saving Bank, and shall become Principal, and shall from thenceforth carry Interest as Principal Money paid into the said Bank of England on the Account of such Saving Bank; and a Receipt, according to such Form as the said Commissioners shall approve, shall be signed by the Officer of the said Commissioners, and shall be issued by the said Officer Half-yearly, within Thirty Days after such Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May (and such Receipt shall bear Date the Twenty first Day of November and Twenty first Day of May respectively) for the Amount of such Interest so credited and made Principal as aforesaid, as if the Amount thereof had been a Payment made by the Trustees of such Saving Bank, to the Account of the said Commissioners. Provided always, that no Interest shall be computed or calculated on the fractional Part of a Pound, or any Sum less than a Pound of the Half-yearly yearly Balance standing in the Books of the said Commissioners, on Account of any Saving Bank, on any Twentieth Day of November or Twentieth Day of May respectively: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Managers and Trustees of any such Saving Bank, if they shall so think fit, to direct that all Interest which shall become due and payable to the Depositor on any Sum of Money deposited in such Saving Bank, shall twice in each and every Year be calculated and computed by the Trustees of such Saving Banks, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, and shall be carried to the Credit of the Person or Persons depositing the said Sum or Sums of Money, and shall become Principal, and shall from thenceforth carry Interest in all respects as other Principal Money deposited in the said Bank, or as if the said Sum of Interest so calculated had actually been paid to the said Depositors, and by them repaid to the said Trustee or Trustees; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Interest on fractional Parts of a Pound.

Interest arising to Depositors to be calculated twice a Year, and carried to their Credit as Principal.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any Trustees of any Saving Bank shall, at any time after the said First Day of August, make any Order or Draft for Payment by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of any Sum or Sums of Money, under the said recited Acts or this Act, the Trustees of such Saving Bank shall make, give, sign and execute an Appointment, under the Hands and Seals of not more than Four of such Trustees, and the Execution of which shall be attested by Two Managers of the same Saving Bank, empowering and authorising some Person or Persons named in such Appointment to be Agent or Agents for receiving all and every such Sum and Sums of Money as such Trustees shall from time to time require to be paid by such Commissioners; and every such Appointment shall be produced by or on behalf of the Person or Persons named therein, to the Officer of the said Commissioners, Fourteen Days at least before the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money on Account of such Saving Bank; and such Appointment shall remain deposited in the Office of such Officer; and every such Appointment shall be made in such Form and under such Regulations as shall from time to time be directed or required or approved of by the said Commissioners or their Officer.

Before drawing for Money, Trustees of Saving Banks to sign an Appointment of an Agent to receive the same, which shall be deposited with Officer of Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any Saving Bank, by whom any such Appointment shall be made, given, signed and executed, or for the Survivors or Survivor of such Trustees, to revoke such Appointment by any Certificate or other Instrument under the Hands and Seals of Hand and Seal of such Trustees or Trustee, attested by Two Managers of such Saving Bank, and in such Form and under such Regulations as shall be directed or required or approved of by the said Commissioners or their Officer; and in case of the Decease of every such Trustee except one, it shall and may be lawful for the surviving Trustee, together with any other Trustee or Trustees, not exceeding Four in the whole, of the said Saving Bank; and in case of the Decease of all such Trustees, it shall and may be lawful for any other Trustees of the said Saving Bank, not exceeding Four in the whole, from time to time to make, give and execute an Appointment in manner aforesaid, reappointing the Person or Persons named in such Appointment, or any other Person or Persons in his or their Room or Stead, to be the Agent or Agents of such Trustees; and every such Certificate or Instrument of Revocation, and every such new Appointment, shall be produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners, by the Person or Persons named in such new Appointment, Fourteen Days at the least before the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money to the Person or Persons named in such new Appointment, and shall remain deposited in the Office of such Officer.

Appointments may be revoked or others granted from time to time.

Trustees of Saving Banks may draw at any time for the Whole or any Part of any Sum placed to their Account, by Drafts on Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt, which shall be indorsed by their Officer, with the Interest added thereto, and paid by the Cashiers of the Bank.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any such Saving Bank, from time to time (by any Draft or Order in Writing under the Hands of any Two Trustees of such Saving Bank, attested by Two other Trustees or Managers, or by any Two credible Witnesses, according to such Form as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall from time to time direct) to require that the Whole or any Part of the principal Sum or Sums of Money, standing in the Books of the said Commissioners, to the Credit of the Trustees of such Saving Bank respectively, shall be paid to such Person or Persons as such Trustees shall from time to time require, being the Agent or Agents named in some Appointment executed under this Act, and lodged with the Officer of the said Commissioners as hereinbefore mentioned and then remaining in force, and every such Draft or Order shall be addressed to the said Commissioners; and upon the same being produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners, the said Officer shall, within Five Days after the Production thereof, upon the Back of such Draft or Order indorse and sign an Order in such Form as shall or may from time to time be directed and required by the said Commissioners, for the Payment of the Sum mentioned in the Draft or Order of such Trustees, together with the Amount of all Interest due on such Sum up to the Day immediately preceding the Day of the Date of the Order of such Officer, and which Order of such Officer, previous to the issuing thereof, shall be entered and countersigned by the Clerk making such Entry, and shall be addressed to the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England; and such Cashiers, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Order, pay the Sum mentioned therein to the Person or Persons mentioned in the Draft or Order of the said Trustees, and the Signature of such Person or Persons jointly or severally, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Governor and Company; and all Payments made in pursuance of such Drafts or Orders respectively, shall be deemed and taken to be Payments made by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to the Trustees of such Saving Bank respectively, according to the numerical Order and Priority of Date in which the original Receipts for Money deposited on account of such Saving Banks respectively shall have been issued to the Trustees thereof respectively, in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

Trustees appearing in Person may receive Payments of

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in case any one or more of the said Trustees who shall have made, given, signed and executed any such Appointment, shall at any time appear in Person

Person at the Office of the said Commissioners, and require Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money which might be required by the Person or Persons authorised to receive the same by such Appointment, and if he or they produce a Draft or Order signed by any Two or more Trustees of the said Saving Bank, and if the Identity of the Person of the said Trustee or Trustees so appearing shall be ascertained to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners or their Officer, it shall be lawful for the said Officer to direct Payment to be made to such Trustee or Trustees so appearing, of any Sum or Sums required to be paid by the Order or Draft of any Two or more Trustees of the said Saving Bank, in like Manner as if the Person or Persons authorised by such Appointment to receive the same had required such Payment; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Drafts of Trustees instead of their Agent.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be due on the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, or on the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or on the Twentieth Day of November or Twentieth Day of May in any subsequent Year after the passing of this Act, for Interest upon or in respect of any Debenture or Debentures which shall have been or shall be issued under the said before recited Acts, at any time before the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and which may be outstanding on any such Twentieth Day of November or Twentieth Day of May respectively, shall, within Thirty Days after such Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May respectively, be placed to the Credit of the respective Saving Banks on whose Account respectively such Debentures were originally issued; and the said Interest so due shall be consolidated with the Interest which shall accrue from time to time on every such Twentieth Day of November and Twentieth Day of May respectively, upon all or any other Sums then standing on the Account of such respective Saving Banks under and by virtue of this Act.

Sums due on existing Debentures outstanding on any 20th November or 20th May, to be placed to Account of the several Saving Banks, and the Interest to be consolidated with the Interest accruing.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Saving Bank, on whose Account any such outstanding Debentures may have been issued, (by an Order made under the Hands of any Two of such Trustees, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall direct, and upon the Production of the Debentures to which such Order shall refer, severally indorsed with the Names and under the Hands of the same Two Trustees who shall sign the said Order,) to draw upon the said Commissioners for Payment in Money of the whole or of any Part of the Principal Sum contained in any such outstanding Debenture or Debentures (together with the Interest due thereon); and that at any time on or after the Twenty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty, it shall and may be lawful for such Trustees, in lieu of receiving the whole Amount of such Principal and Interest, or any Part thereof, in Money, to accept from the Officer of the said Commissioners a Receipt for the whole, or for any Part of such Principal and Interest, according to the Provisions of this Act, dated either before or on or after the said Twenty first Day of December; and Trustees may receive the Whole or Part of Debentures in Money, or take a Receipt for the same, according to the Provisions of this Act.

and it shall be lawful for the said Officer to indorse such Order of the said Trustees for Payment of the whole Principal and Interest of such Debenture or Debentures, or any Part thereof, in Money, in the Manner hereinbefore directed, or to issue and deliver to the Person or Persons applying for the same, a Receipt carrying Interest at the Rate of Three Pence per Centum per Diem (according to the Directions contained in this Act) for such Sum of Money as shall be required by such Order of such Trustees, and such Sum of Money contained in such Receipt shall thereupon be carried to the Account of the Trustees of such Saving Bank, as if the same had been an original Deposit under the Directions of this Act, and shall be subject to all the Regulations contained in this Act and in the said recited Acts, as the same are altered or amended by this Act; and all Debentures which shall be so paid or exchanged shall be thereupon cancelled, and shall cease, determine, and become utterly void.

Receipts may be given for Money remaining due on renewed Debentures.

X. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if at any time between the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the Twenty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Trustees of any Saving Bank shall require any Payment to be made in Part or on Account of any renewed Debenture, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees to require, and for the Officer of the said Commissioners to issue a Receipt for the Whole of the Principal and Interest which shall remain due on such Debenture, after deducting the Payment required to be made thereon; and the Sum of Money specified in such Receipt shall be carried to the Account of the Trustees of such Saving Bank, in like Manner as is hereinbefore provided and directed with respect to Receipts to be issued at any time after the said Twenty first Day of December.

Debentures may be paid in Stock under recited Acts.

XI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to prevent the Trustees of any Saving Bank from demanding and receiving Payment in Stock of any one or more Debenture or Debentures which may be outstanding at the Time of the passing of this Act, according to the Provisions and Regulations prescribed by the said recited Acts, or either of them, in case such Trustees shall think fit to demand and require the same.

Charitable Societies may subscribe any Portions of their Funds into the Funds of Saving Banks.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any Charitable Institution or Society in England, from time to time to subscribe the Whole or any Part of the Funds of such Institution or Society, as they shall from time to time direct, through their Treasurer, Steward, or other Officer or Officers, into the Funds of any Saving Bank, provided that the Majority of the Trustees of such Saving Bank shall signify their Consent to receiving the same, and under such Terms and Conditions as shall be specially provided for that Purpose by such Trustees or the Majority of them: Provided also, that the Receipt or Discharge of the Treasurer, or other Officer of such Charitable Institution or Society for the time being, for any Money, Stock in the Public Funds, or other Security, paid, transferred or delivered according to the Requisition of such Treasurer or other Officer apparently authorised to require such Payment, Transfer or Delivery, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the

the same; and the Saving Bank in which such Deposit shall be made shall not be responsible for any Misapplication of any such Money, Stock or Security, by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be so paid, transferred or delivered, or for any want of Authority of the Person or Persons requiring or receiving such Payment, Transfer or Delivery.

Saving Bank not responsible for any Misapplication of such Money.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Joint Stock or Property of the Depositors in any Saving Bank in England may have been or may be increased by any Change of Stock, or by any increased Rate of Interest paid or to be paid on any Debentures or Receipts, beyond the Rate of Interest payable to the Depositors by the original Rules and Regulations of such Saving Bank, or by any other Means, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustees for the time being of any such Saving Bank, to make such Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Application and Disposal of any increased Stock or Property belonging to any such Saving Bank, to and amongst the Depositors therein, either by way of an Increase of Interest beyond the Rate of Interest originally stipulated to be paid to such Depositors, or by way of Bonus or Increase of Capital to the Sums deposited by them respectively, or by both such Means, as the Trustees and Managers of such Saving Bank, or the major Part of them, at any General Meeting to be duly convened according to the Rules, Orders and Regulations of such Saving Bank, shall from time to time think fit and proper; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for such Trustees and Managers, or the major Part of them, from time to time, at any other General Meeting so duly convened, to revoke, annul; alter or make void any such Rules, Orders and Regulations, and to make any other Rules, Orders, or Regulations relating thereto, as such Trustees and Managers for the time being, or the major Part of them, shall think fit and proper.

Trustees may make Rules for the Application of increased Stock or Property.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever the Sum to be drawn for by the Trustees of any Saving Bank shall amount to Two thousand Pounds or upwards, the Draft or Order for that Purpose shall be signed by not less than Four such Trustees; and that the Signature of each and every of the said Four Trustees shall be separately attested by at least one Manager of such Saving Bank, or by some one other credible Person; and that any Manager or other Person attesting the Signature of any one of the said Four Trustees, shall not be an attesting Witness to the Signature of any other of such Four Trustees.

Drafts of 2000l. and upwards, to be signed by Four Trustees, and attested by separate Witnesses.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Debenture which shall have been issued under the Authority of the said recited Acts, or either of them, at any time before the passing of this Act, shall have been or shall be lost, destroyed or defaced, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on Application by any Two Trustees on behalf of the Saving Bank on whose Account such Debenture was originally issued, and upon proving on Oath or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of the Date, Contents and Value of such Debenture, and of the Circumstances of the Loss, Destruction or defacing thereof, to direct and order the Officer of the said Commissioners to issue to to the Rules pre-

the Person or Persons making such Application, upon their giving and entering into such Security as shall be required and directed by the said Commissioners, (in case the said Commissioners shall think any such Security to be requisite,) a Receipt carrying Interest as aforesaid, according to the Directions contained in this Act, for a Sum of Money equal in Amount to the Principal and Interest due on such Debenture so lost, destroyed or defaced; and such Sum of Money shall thereupon be carried to the Account of the Trustees of such Saving Bank, as if the same had been an original Deposit under the Directions of this Act, and shall be subject to all the Regulations contained in this Act and the said recited Acts, as the same are altered or amended by this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases where the whole Estate and Effects of any deceased Depositor, for or in respect of which any Letters of Administration shall be granted pursuant to the Directions of the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, shall be under the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling, no Stamp Duty shall be chargeable upon the Bond required to be given by the Administrator for the due Administration of the Effects of such deceased Depositor, nor upon any Affidavit or Document leading to or connected with such Administration; but that every such Bond and Affidavit shall be exempted from Stamp Duty in like manner and under the like Regulations as are provided in and by the said recited Act with respect to such Letters of Administration; and that no Receipt, nor any Draft or Order, nor any Appointment of any Agent or Agents, nor any Certificate or other Instrument for the Revocation of any such Appointment, nor any other Instrument or Document whatever, required or authorised to be given, issued, signed, made or produced in pursuance of the said recited Act or this Act, shall be subject or liable to any Stamp Duty whatever; any thing in any Act for imposing any Duty of Stamps to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Trustees or Managers of any Saving Bank shall, at any time after the Expiration of Six Months after the Decease of any Depositor, have paid and divided any Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall, at the Time of such Payment, appear to such Trustees or Managers to be entitled to the Effects of any deceased intestate Depositor, according to the Statute of Distributions, the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Demand of any other Person or Persons as next of Kin to such deceased intestate Depositor, or as the lawful Representative or Representatives of such Depositor, against the Funds of such Saving Bank, or against the Treasurer or Trustees or Managers thereof; but nevertheless, such next of Kin or Representatives shall have Remedy for such Money so paid as aforesaid, against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Regulations and Provisions in this Act contained, relative to Money paid into the Bank of England, and Debentures issued on account thereof, shall shall be applicable to Payments so made, and Debentures issued under the Authority of an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Protection and Encouragement of Friendly Societies, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses therein. scribed in the 59 G. 3. c. 128.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to appoint and employ such and so many Clerks and other Officers as shall be necessary for carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to settle and appoint such Allowances as shall be proper for the Service, Pains, and Labour of any Clerks or other Person or Persons to be appointed and employed by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in manner and for the purposes aforesaid, and out of any Aids or Supplies which shall be granted for the Service of any Year, to discharge and pay all such Allowances and all other incidental Charges which shall necessarily attend the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, in such Manner as to them shall seem just and reasonable. Commissioners may employ Clerks, &c.
Treasury may pay them, and discharge incidental Expenses.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Acts of the Fifty seventh and Fifty eighth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, and this Act, shall be construed together as One Act, so far as the same are compatible and consistent with each other, and so far as the said Acts are not expressly repealed or altered by this Act. Recited Acts and this Act to be construed together as One Act.

An Act to regulate the Payment of Army Prize Money.

[24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for regulating the Payment of Regimental Debts, and the Distribution of the Effects of Officers and Soldiers dying in Service, and the Receipt of Sums due to Soldiers: And 53 G. 3. c. 73.
 ‘ Whereas it is expedient to allow of Payment to Agents, in certain cases, of Sums actually advanced by them to Officers or Soldiers, or their Representatives, before the passing of the said recited Act:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, it shall be lawful for any Agent or Agents, appointed for the Distribution of Army Prize or Bounty Money, Grant or other Allowances of Money in the Nature thereof, or for the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, to pay the Share, or any Part of the Share, of any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier to any Person or Persons duly authorised by the Party entitled thereto Agents, &c. may pay Shares of Noncommissioned Officers or Soldiers, to Persons duly authorised, provided it be certified by the Secretary at War that Proof has been given that the Money was advanced before the passing of the recited Act.

Payments may be made to next of Kin, &c. not exceeding 20l. though Probate, &c. not taken out.

thereto to receive the same; provided it shall be certified by the Secretary at War to such Distributing Agent aforesaid, or to the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, that such Person has given satisfactory Proof that he did actually advance the Sum demanded, and that such Advance was made before the passing of the said recited Act, if in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in Guernsey, Jersey or Isle of Man, or within Six Months after the passing of the said Act if in any other Country or Place; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea to authorise their Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer to pay to any Person or Persons who shall prove him, her or themselves, to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, or of the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, to be the next of Kin, or legal Representative, or otherwise legally entitled to any Share of Prize Money due to any deceased Commissioned or Warrant Officer of His Majesty's Land Forces, any such Share not exceeding Twenty Pounds, although such Person shall not have regularly taken out Letters of Administration, or have procured the Probate of any Will of such deceased Officer.

An Act to make further Provisions respecting Naval Prize Money. [24th July 1820.]

59 G. 3. c. 36.
§ 4.

“ WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Regulations as to the Payment of Navy Prize Orders; and it was in the said Act, amongst other things, enacted, that certain Persons therein mentioned should take out a Licence from the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy before they should act as Agents for receiving the Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, or other Allowances of Money, of Petty Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Seamen or Marines, and should enter into a Bond, in the Form set out in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, for the Purposes therein mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Act as relates to the Bonds so to be entered into, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as relates to the Bonds directed to be entered into by licensed Agents, and also so much and such Parts of the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His late Majesty as are by this Act altered, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sched. (A).

So much of recited Act as relates to Bonds entered into by licensed Agents repealed.

Persons approved by Treasurer of the Navy to be licensed shall enter into Bond with Two sufficient Sureties

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Person and Persons approved by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to be licensed for receiving the Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, or other Allowances of Money, of any Petty Officers, Noncommissioned Officers, Seamen or Marines, shall, previously to receiving his Licence to act as such Agent, enter into a Bond with Two sufficient Sureties, to be be jointly and severally bound to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds, that such Person so taking out such Licence shall demean himself properly, and duly account to all Persons for whom or for whose Use any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money, or other Allowances of Money, shall have come to his Hands; which said Bond shall be in such Form as the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being shall approve and direct: Provided nevertheless, that this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to prevent such Agents as have already taken out Licences from the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in conformity to the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, or who have entered into any other Bond of a different Nature from that set forth in the said Act, from acting as such licensed Agents during their respective existing Licences.

Proviso for Agents now acting under Licences.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy for the time being to revoke the Licence granted to or taken out by any Person to enable him to act as an Agent for receiving the Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money, of any Petty Officers, Noncommissioned Officers, Seamen or Marines, in case it shall appear to the said Treasurer that such Agent has been guilty of any Misconduct, or shall remove or change his Office or Place of Abode without giving Notice thereof in Writing to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, and to the Clerk of the Check of Greenwich Hospital for the time being, in addition to the Penalty imposed by Law for Neglect in giving such Notice.

Treasurer may revoke Licences in case of Misconduct or removing without giving Notice.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Registrar or proper Officer of the High Court of Admiralty shall and he is hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, and every succeeding Three Months, to send to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, and to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, the Name and Description of every Person or Persons who shall have entered into a Bond or Bonds to the said Court of Admiralty, on registering any Letter of Attorney appointing him or them as the Agent or Agents for any Prize or Bounty Money, Grant or other Allowances of Money distributable amongst any Persons entitled thereto.

Names, &c. of Persons entering into Bonds, &c. to be sent to the Treasurer of Navy, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Names and Places of Abode and of transacting Agency Business of every such licensed Agent, shall be inserted in a List, and which List shall be kept by the Officer for Prizes of the Navy Pay Office in Somerset Place, for the Inspection of such Persons as shall resort thither on Business; and such Lists shall be renewed from time to time, as Occasion may require; and the said Officer shall from time to time transmit Copies of such Lists to the Navy Pay Offices at the several Outports of the United Kingdom, and to the Clerk of the Cheque of Greenwich Hospital, and to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

List of Agents shall be kept at the Navy Pay Office for Inspection, and sent to Outports.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Agent or other Person authorised and empowered to receive or distribute any Prize or Bounty Money, or other Monies as aforesaid, shall, within Ten Days after he shall have rendered or ought by Law to have rendered to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, and verified his Statement and Account of the Proceeds and Distribution of any such Prize or other Monies, deliver or transmit to the Treasurer or Paymaster of His Majesty's Navy, a Copy of such Statement and Account (the Charge for copying the same being allowed to the said Agent), under the like Penalty for Neglect as is by the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty imposed, for neglecting to render such Statement and Account to the Treasurer of the said Hospital or his Deputy.

Orders made in Ireland, &c. to receive Wages, &c. to be signed by the Minister, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That upon all Orders made by Noncommissioned Officers, Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, at any Place in Ireland, or in Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney or Sark, where there is no Deputy or Agent of Greenwich Hospital residing, to enable an Agent to receive Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowance of Money, the Certificate required by Law to be printed upon the said Order shall be signed by the Minister and One of the Churchwardens of the Parish in which the said Order is made.

Orders made in favour of Parents, &c. to be in the Form of Sched. (A).

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Orders authorised by the said Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His late Majesty, to be made by Petty Officers, Noncommissioned Officers, Seamen and Marines, Supernumeraries or Boys, in favour of their Parents, Children, Brothers or Sisters, shall, if made after the passing of this Act, be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A), and that all such Orders as are made in any other Form shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

Orders in Possession of Insolvent Agents available only for Money advanced.

IX. And be it enacted, That in case any licensed Agent shall take the Benefit of any Act passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, all Orders made in favour of such Agents, under or by virtue of any former Acts, or under this present Act, which shall be in his Possession, or to which he may be entitled at the Time of his Insolvency, shall be available against the said Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, for so much Money only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital to have been advanced upon such Orders by the Agent in whose favour the said Orders are made.

any Period during which he shall be absent, except when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, which Leave shall not extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One third of the Noncommissioned Officers and Drummers at the same Time, except in case of certified Sickness.

Adjutants, &c. Noncommissioned Officers or Privates, not to lose their Right to Chelsea Pensions, &c.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Adjutant, Quartermaster, Noncommissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man in the Regular Militia, entitled to receive any Chelsea Pensions or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Subaltern or Surgeon's Mate forfeit or lose his Right to receive any such Chelsea Pension or Allowance by reason of his receiving the Allowance of Two Shillings and Sixpence or Two Shillings a Day granted by this Act to Subalterns or Surgeons' Mates when disembodied.

Adjutants, after a Service of 20 Years, and unfit for further Service, to receive an Allowance of 8s. per Day, provided they do not hold an Appointment under His Majesty of Three Times the Value.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, every Adjutant of Regular Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years in the whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon obtaining an Order from the Secretary at War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster aforesaid shall be and is hereby authorised to pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Diem; provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Eight Shillings a Day: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Adjutants also entitled to Half Pay.

Quartermasters, after a Service of 30 Years, entitled to an Allowance, and also to Half Pay or Out Pension.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, any Quartermaster of Regular Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been as a Quartermaster of Regular Militia, and who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and obtaining from the Secretary at War an Order founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster of the Regiment shall be and is

is hereby authorised to pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of his Pay when serving in the disembodied Regular Militia: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance: Provided also, that no such Quartermaster shall, by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, forfeit any Right which he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Proviso.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Surgeon of Regular Militia, having faithfully served in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Militia for the full Term of Twenty Years, shall by Age or Infirmary be rendered unfit for further Service, he shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years in the whole (Ten of which he shall have served as a Surgeon of Militia), from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and obtaining an Order from the Secretary at War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster of the Regiment shall be and he is hereby authorised and required to pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings per Diem, commencing the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty; provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Six Shillings a Day; but no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

Surgeons, after a Service of 20 Years, and unfit for further Service, to receive 6s. per Day, provided they do not hold an Appointment under His Majesty of Three Times the Value.

Right to Half Pay preserved.

C A P. LXXXVII.

An Act for enabling Landlords more speedily to recover Possession of Lands and Tenements unlawfully held over by Tenants.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS the Laws heretofore made for preventing the Losses to which Landlords are exposed by the unlawful holding over of Lands and Tenements by Tenants, or Persons claiming under them, after the Expiration or legal Determination of their Terms or Interests, have been found by Experience insufficient, and it is therefore expedient to provide in certain Cases a more expeditious Mode for recovering the Possession of Lands and Tenements so held over: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where the Term or Interest of any Tenant now or hereafter holding under a Lease or Agreement in Writing any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, for any Term or Number of Years certain, or from Year to Year, shall have expired or been determined either by the Landlord or Tenant by regular Notice to quit, and such

Landlords bringing Ejectments may give Notice to Tenants to appear in Term, and then on Production of the Lease or Agreement, to move on Affidavit for a Rule Nisi on the Tenant to enter into certain Undertakings and give certain Bail.

such Tenant, or any one holding or claiming by or under him, shall refuse to deliver up Possession accordingly, after lawful Demand in Writing made and signed by the Landlord or his Agent, and served personally upon, or left at the Dwelling House or usual Place of Abode of such Tenant or Person, and the Landlord shall thereupon proceed by Action of Ejectment for the Recovery of Possession, it shall be lawful for him, at the Foot of the Declaration, to address a Notice to such Tenant or Person, requiring him to appear in the Court in which the Action shall have been commenced, on the First Day of the Term then next following, or if the Action shall be brought in Wales, or in the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster or Durham respectively, then on the First Day of the next Session or Assizes, or at the Court Day or other usual Period for Appearance to Process then next following, (as the Case may be,) there to be made Defendant, and to find such Bail, if ordered by the Court, and for such Purposes, as are hereinafter next specified; and upon the Appearance of the Party at the Day prescribed, or in case of Nonappearance on making the usual Affidavit of Service of the Declaration and Notice, it shall be lawful for the Landlord, producing the Lease or Agreement, or some Counterpart or Duplicate thereof, and proving the Execution of the same by Affidavit, and upon Affidavit that the Premises have been actually enjoyed under such Lease or Agreement, and that the Interest of the Tenant has expired, or been determined by regular Notice to quit, as the Case may be, and that Possession has been lawfully demanded in manner aforesaid, to move the Court for a Rule for such Tenant or Person to show Cause, within a Time to be fixed by the Court on a Consideration of the Situation of the Premises, why such Tenant or Person, upon being admitted Defendant, beside entering into the common Rule, and giving the common Undertaking, should not undertake, in case a Verdict shall pass for the Plaintiff, to give the Plaintiff a Judgment, to be entered up against the real Defendant, of the Term next preceding the Time of Trial, or if the Action shall be brought in Wales, or in the Counties Palatine respectively, then of the Session, Assizes or Court Day (as the Case may be) at which the Trial shall be had, and also why he should not enter into a Recognizance, by himself and Two sufficient Sureties, in a reasonable Sum, conditioned to pay the Costs and Damages which shall be recovered by the Plaintiff in the Action; and it shall be lawful for the Court upon Cause shown, or upon Affidavit of the Service of the Rule in case no Cause shall be shown, to make the same absolute in the whole or in part, and to order such Tenant or Person, within a Time to be fixed, upon a Consideration of all the Circumstances, to give such Undertakings, and find such Bail, with such Conditions and in such Manner as shall be specified in the said Rule, or such Part of the same so made absolute; and in case the Party shall neglect or refuse so to do, and shall lay no Ground to induce the Court to enlarge the Time for obeying the same, then upon Affidavit of the Service of such Order an absolute Rule shall be made for entering up Judgment for the Plaintiff.

On Rule made absolute, if Tenant shall not conform, Judgment to be for the Plaintiff.

On Trial of any Ejectment between Landlord and Ten-

II. And be it further enacted, That wherever hereafter it shall appear on the Trial of any Ejectment, at the Suit of a Landlord against a Tenant, that such Tenant or his Attorney hath been served erved with due Notice of Trial, the Plaintiff shall not be nonsuited for Default of the Defendant's Appearance, or of Confession of Lease, Entry and Ouster, but the Production of the Consent Rule and Undertaking of the Defendant shall in all such Cases be sufficient Evidence of Lease, Entry and Ouster; and the Judge before whom such Cause shall come on to be tried shall, whether the Defendant shall appear upon such Trial or not, permit the Plaintiff on the Trial, after Proof of his Right to recover Possession of the Whole or of any Part of the Premises mentioned in the Declaration, to go into Evidence of the Mesne Profits thereof, which shall or might have accrued from the Day of the Expiration or Determination of the Tenant's Interest in the same, down to the time of the Verdict given in the Cause, or to some preceding Day to be specially mentioned therein; and the Jury on the Trial, finding for the Plaintiff, shall, in such Case, give their Verdict upon the whole Matter, both as to the Recovery of the Whole or any Part of the Premises, and also as to the Amount of the Damages to be paid for such Mesne Profits: Provided always, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to bar any such Landlord from bringing an Action of Trespass for the Mesne Profits which shall accrue from the Verdict, or the Day so specified therein, down to the Day of the Delivery of Possession of the Premises recovered in the Ejectment.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which such Undertaking shall have been given, and Security found as aforesaid, if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Plaintiff, but it shall appear to the Judge before whom the same shall have been had, that the finding of the Jury was contrary to the Evidence, or that the Damages given were excessive, it shall be lawful for the Judge to order the Execution of the Judgment to be stayed absolutely till the Fifth Day of the Term then next following, or till the next Session, Assizes or Court Day (as the Case may be); which Order the Judge shall in all other Cases make upon the Request of the Defendant, in case he shall forthwith undertake to find, and on Condition that within Four Days from the Day of the Trial he shall actually find, Security by the Recognizance of himself and Two sufficient Sureties, in such reasonable Sum as the Judge shall direct, conditioned not to commit any Waste, or Act in the Nature of Waste, or other wilful Damage, and not to sell or carry off any standing Crops, Hay, Straw or Manure produced or made (if any) upon the Premises, and which may happen to be thereupon, from the Day on which the Verdict shall have been given to the Day on which Execution shall finally be made upon the Judgment, or the same be set aside, as the Case may be: Provided always, that the Recognizance last above mentioned shall immediately stand discharged and be of no effect, in case a Writ of Error shall be brought upon such Judgment, and the Plaintiff in such Writ shall become bound with Two sufficient Sureties unto the Defendant in the same, in such Sum and with such Condition as may be conformable to the Provisions respectively made for staying Execution on bringing Writs of Error upon Judgments in Actions of Ejectment, by an Act passed in England in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and by an Act passed in Ireland in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth ant, Consent Rule to be Evidence of Lease, Entry and Ouster, if Defendant make Default, and Jury to give Damages for Mesne Profits down to the Verdict, or to a Day specified therein.

On Trials after Undertakings given and Bail found, Judge may stay the Execution till Fifth Day of next Term absolutely, &c. or on Tenant's finding Security.

Recognizances to be taken as other Recognizances of Bail; Limitation of Actions thereon.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Recognizances and Securities entered into pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, may and shall be taken respectively in such manner and by and before such Persons as are provided and authorised in respect of Recognizances of Bail, upon Actions and Suits depending in the Court in which any such Action of Ejectment shall have been commenced; and that the Officer of the same Court with whom Recognizances of Bail are filed, shall file such Recognizances and Securities, for which respectively the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, shall be paid; but no Action or other Proceeding shall be commenced upon any such Recognizance or Security, after the Expiration of Six Months from the Time when Possession of the Premises, or any Part thereof, shall actually have been delivered to the Landlord.

Removal of Actions of Ejectment from Great Sessions in Wales.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Defendant to remove any Action of Ejectment commenced by a Landlord under the Provisions of this Act from any of the Courts of Great Session in Wales to be tried in an English County, unless such Court of Great Session shall be of Opinion that the same ought to be so removed upon special Application to the Court for that Purpose.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases wherein the Landlord shall elect to proceed in Ejectment, under the Provisions hereinbefore contained, and the Tenant shall have found Bail, as ordered by the Court, then if the Landlord upon the Trial of the Cause shall be nonsuited, or a Verdict pass against him upon the Merits of the Case, there shall be Judgment against him with Double Costs.

Proviso for former Remedies.

VII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prejudice or affect any Right of Action or Remedy which Landlords already possess, in any of the Cases hereinbefore provided for.

Act not to extend to Scotland.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall extend to all Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, except Scotland.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act to continue, until the Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, an Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty, for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and to amend the Acts relating to the Post Horse Duties. [24th July 1820.]

57 G. 3. c. 59.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the Recovery of the said Duties, the Duties granted by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, in Great Britain,

44 G. 3. c. 98.

 ‘ in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, ‘ for a Term of Years which will expire on the Thirty first Day ‘ of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one: And ‘ Whereas it is expedient that the said Duties, so granted by the ‘ said Act of the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late ‘ Majesty, should be let to farm for a further Term:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
 and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, for the time being, and they are hereby empowered, from time to time as it shall be necessary, either by themselves, or by the Commissioners of Stamps, in Great Britain, or any Three or more of them, for the time being, to let to farm the said several Duties granted by the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for and in respect of Horses, Mares and Geldings hired in the Manner therein mentioned, to such Person or Persons as shall be willing to farm the same, after the Expiration of the present Leases thereof, in such separate and particular Districts, and for such Term or Terms as shall be deemed proper and convenient, and under and subject to the Regulations and Restrictions contained in an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, to let to farm the Duties granted by an Act made in the Twenty fifth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post, and by Time, to such Persons as should be willing to contract for the same, with regard to the Duties hereby authorised to be let to farm, so far as the same are applicable, and not altered by the said Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty: Provided always, that none of the said Duties shall be let to farm for any longer Term or Time than until the Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four.

 this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations and Directions contained in and prescribed by the said Acts of the Twenty seventh, Forty fourth and Fifty seventh Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, shall respectively be deemed and taken to be in full Force and Effect with respect to the said Duties hereby allowed to be let to farm, and to the letting of the same, and to the Farmers thereof, and to all other Persons, Matters and Things relating thereto, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, and not altered by or repugnant to the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said Duties hereby allowed to be farmed.

in Great Britain by the Day, be it further enacted and declared, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Duty of One Shilling and Nine Pence per Day imposed by the said hereinbefore mentioned Act of the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty upon every Horse, Mare or Gelding, hired for drawing on any Public Road any Coach or other Carriage as mentioned in the said Act, shall be deemed to attach and be payable for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding which shall be hired to be used in travelling in Great Britain, in all Cases where the Distance shall not at the Time of such Hiring be ascertained, and that when the Distance shall be ascertained, the Duty of One Penny Halfpenny for every Mile of such Distance shall be charged in respect of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of the Peace residing near the Place where the Offence shall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence against this Act, or an Act made and passed in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, relating to the Duties on Post Horses, or any of the Acts herein mentioned, which subject Offenders to any pecuniary Penalty not amounting to Fifty Pounds, which said Justice of the Peace is hereby authorised and required, upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made in that behalf, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and to examine into the Matter of Fact, and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party, or by Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to give Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal, or for the Penalty or Forfeiture, according as in and by the said Act of the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty is directed as to Penalties or Forfeitures, and to award and issue out his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the levying any pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures so adjudged on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within Six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any, and where the Goods of such Offender cannot be found, sufficient to answer the Penalty, to commit such Offender to Prison, there to remain for the Space of Six Months, unless such pecuniary Penalty shall be sooner paid and satisfied ; and if any Person or Persons shall find himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment or Sentence of any such Justice, then he, she or they shall and may (upon giving Security to the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties sought to be recovered, together with such Costs as shall be awarded by such Justice in case such Judgment or Sentence shall be affirmed) appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, or Place, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same ; and in case the Judgment or Sentence of such Justice shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such Justices to award the Person or Persons to pay Costs occasioned by such Appeal, as to them shall seem meet : Provided always, that if the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall fall within Six Days after such Judgment or Sentence, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons so finding himself himself or themselves so aggrieved as aforesaid, if he or they shall think fit, giving such Security as aforesaid, to appeal to the next subsequent Quarter Sessions; and that no such Proceedings so to be had or taken shall be quashed or vacated for want of Form, or removed by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proceedings not quashed for want of Form, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person or Persons shall commence any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties incurred or to be incurred under any of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties on Horses, Mares or Geldings let to hire pursuant to the before mentioned Acts, or any of them, until the Expiration of Fourteen Days after such Person or Persons shall have delivered or caused to be delivered to the Person or Persons incurring such Penalties, or left for him, her or them at his, her or their Dwelling House, or usual or last Place of Abode, a Notice in Writing of the Intention of such Person or Persons to apply to the Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain for Leave to commence such Action or Suit, and which Notice shall state the Offence or Offences committed, the Day of committing the same, and the Amount of each Penalty intended to be recovered; and that it shall not be lawful for such Person or Persons, at the Trial of such Action or Suit, to give in Evidence any Matter or Thing relating to any Offence not specified and set forth in such Notice.

No Action for Penalty commenced until after 14 Days' Notice.

VI. And be it further enacted, That a Conviction, or a Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal, in the Form and to the Effect following, (mutatis mutandis), as the Case shall happen to be, shall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without stating the Casé or the Facts or Evidence in any particular manner; that is to say, Conviction and Judgment of Dismissal to be in the following Form.

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the County of _____ A. B. came before me C. D. One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said _____ residing near the Place where the Offence was committed, and informed me that E. An Act for imposing additional Rates and Duties on the Conveyance of Letters between Port Patrick in Scotland and Donaghadee in Ireland. [24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that additional Duties of Sea
 ‘ Postage should be imposed on Letters and Packets pass‘ ing between Great Britain and Ireland by the Way of Port ‘ Patrick in Scotland and Donaghadee in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty’s Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto sufficiently authorised, to demand, have, receive and take, for the Port and Conveyance of Letters by the Post from Great Britain to Ireland and from Ire- land to Great Britain, passing between the Ports of Port Patrick in Scotland and Donaghadee in Ireland, the following Rates of Sea Postage, in addition to the Amount of the Rate of Postage now chargeable upon all Letters; (that is to say,) for every Single Letter, Two Pence; for every Double Letter, Four Pence; for every Treble Letter, or other Letter under an Ounce in Weight, Sixpence; and for every Ounce in Weight, and for every Packet not exceeding an Ounce in Weight, Eight Pence; and so in proportion for every other Letter or Packet of greater Weight than an Ounce.

Additional Rate of Postage for Conveyance of Letters between Port Patrick and Donaghadee, viz.

Provisions of former Acts relating to Postage to extend to this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Privileges, Advantages, Disabilities, Penalties, Forfeitures and Distribution thereof, and all Clauses and other Matters and Things contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the time of the passing of this Act, relating to the Post Office, or any Rates or Duties payable on the Port or Conveyance of Letters or Packets,
 and

and not repealed or altered by this Act, shall, so far as the same are applicable, continue in force, and be applied and extended, and shall be construed to apply and extend, to this present Act, and to the Rates and Duties hereby granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been particularly repealed and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties hereinbefore granted shall be paid from time to time into the Hands of the Receiver General for the time being of the Revenue of the Post Office in Great Britain, who shall pay the same (the necessary Charges for collecting, paying and accounting for the same being first deducted) into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, on such Days and Times and in such Manner as the present Rates and Duties are directed by Law to be paid; and the said Duties, so to be paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any time or times be sued, molested or prosecuted for any thing by him, her or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter or Thing herein contained, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his, her or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her or them, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

An Act to remove Doubts, and to remedy Defects, in the Law, with respect to certain Offences committed upon the Sea, or within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled For Pirates, it is enacted, that all Treasons, Felonies, Robberies, Murders and Confederacies committed in or upon the Sea, or in any other Haven, River, Creek or Place where the Admiral or Admirals have or pretend to have Power, Authority or Jurisdiction, shall be enquired, tried, heard, determined and adjudged in such Shires and Places in the Realm as shall be limited by the King's Commission or Commissions to be directed for the same, in like Form and Condition as if any such Offence or Offences had been committed or done in or upon the Land: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for remedying certain Defects in the Law respecting Offences committed upon the High Seas, after reciting the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and also reciting that it was expedient to declare that other Offences committed on the Seas might be enquired of, tried and determined in like Manner, it was enacted, that all and every Offence and Offences which, after the passing of the said Act of the ‘ Thirty ninth Year of the Reign aforesaid, should be committed upon the High Seas, out of the Body of any County of this Realm, should be, and they were thereby declared to be, Offences of the same Nature respectively, and to be liable to the same Punishments respectively, as if they had been committed upon the Shore, and should be enquired of, heard, tried and determined and adjudged, in the same Manner as Treasons, Felonies, Murthers, and Confederacies are directed to be by the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth; and it was by the said Act of the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty further enacted, that when any Person or Persons should be tried for the Crime of Murder or Manslaughter committed upon the Sea, by virtue of any Commission directed under the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and should be found guilty of Manslaughter only, such Person or Persons should be entitled to receive the Benefit of Clergy in like Manner, and should be subject to the same Punishment, as if he or they had committed such Manslaughter in or upon the Land: And Whereas another Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Prevention of malicious shooting, and attempting to discharge loaded Fire Arms, stabbing, cutting, wounding, poisoning, and the malicious using of Means to procure the Miscarriage of Women, and also the malicious setting fire to Buildings; and also for repealing a certain Act made in England, in the Twenty first Year of the Reign of the late King James the First, intituled “ An Act to prevent the destroying and murdering of Bastard Children;” and also an Act made in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, also intituled “ An Act to prevent the destroying and murdering of Bastard Children;” and for making other Provisions in lieu thereof: And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether Persons tried by virtue of any Commission directed under the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, for any other Crime or Offence than those of Murder or Manslaughter, and found guilty of Manslaughter, are entitled to receive the Benefit of Clergy, although if such other Crimes or Offences had been committed in or upon the Land, the Person or Persons committing the same would have been entitled to receive the Benefit of Clergy in respect of some of such Crimes and Offences; and Doubts have also arisen whether the Offences mentioned in the said Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, can, if the same be committed upon the Seas out of the Body of any County of this Realm, be tried and punished by virtue of any Commission directed under the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, in the same Manner as if the said Offences had been committed upon the Land, by reason that the said Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty extends only to the Offences therein mentioned, if the same be committed either in England or Ireland; and it is expedient that the said several Doubts should be removed, and the Provisions of the said Act of the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His said

' said late Majesty extended, as hereinafter mentioned; ' Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any Person or Persons shall be tried for any Capital Crime or Offence committed upon the Sea, out of the Body of any County of this Realm, and within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty, by virtue of any Commission directed under the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and shall be found guilty of any Crime or Offence which, if committed in or upon the Land, would be clergyable, such Person or Persons shall be entitled to receive the Benefit of Clergy in respect of such Crime or Offence, in like Manner, and shall be subject to the same Punishment for such clergyable Crime or Offence, as if he, she or they had committed such clergyable Crime or Offence in or upon the Land.

Persons found guilty of clergyable Capital Offence at Sea, to receive Benefit of Clergy as if committed on Land.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Crimes and Offences mentioned in the said Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, which, after the passing of this Act, shall be committed upon the High Seas, out of the Body of any County of this Realm, shall be and they are hereby declared to be Offences of the same Nature respectively, and to be liable to the same Punishments respectively as if they had been committed upon the Land in England or Ireland, and shall be enquired of, heard, tried and determined and adjudged, in the same Manner as Treasons, Felonies, Murthers and Confederacies are directed to be by the said Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth.

An Act for the further Prevention of forging and counterfeiting of Bank Notes. [24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS the Forgery of Bank Notes hath of late very ‘ much increased in this Kingdom; and as well for the ‘ Prevention thereof, as to facilitate the Detection of the same,
‘ the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have, after ‘ great Consideration, Labour and Expense, formed a new Plan
‘ for printing Bank Notes, in which the Groundwork of each Bank
‘ Note will be Black or Coloured, or Black and Coloured Line ‘ Work, and the Words “Bank of England” will be placed at the ‘ Top of each Bank Note, in White Letters upon a Black, Sable ‘ or Dark Ground, such Ground containing White Lines in‘ tersecting each other, and the numerical Amount or Sum of ‘ each Bank Note in the Body of the Note will be printed in Black ‘ and Red Register Work, and the Back of each Note will dis‘ tinctly show the whole Contents thereof, except the Number and ‘ Date, in a reversed Impression:’ Therefore, for the better Pre‘ vention of the Forgery of Bank Notes, and for the Security of the ‘ Public, be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by
‘ and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Tem‘ poral, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and ‘ by the Authority of the same, That from after the passing of this ‘ Act, if any Person or Persons (other than the Officers, Workmen, ‘ Servants and Agents for the time being of the said Governor and ‘ Company, to be authorised and appointed for that Purpose by the ‘ said Governor and Company, and for the Use of the said Go‘ vernor and Company only) shall engrave, cut, etch, scrape, or by ‘ any other Art, Means or Device make, or shall cause or procure
‘ to be engraved, cut, etched, scraped, or by any other Art, Means ‘ or Device made, or shall knowingly aid or assist in the engraving,

II. And be it also further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions and Regulations in the said Acts before mentioned, or any of them contained, for the levying, enforcing or recovering any Penalty or Forfeiture thereby imposed, shall and may be exercised and applied for the levying, enforcing or recovering any Forfeiture or Penalty by this Act imposed, in as ample and full a manner as if the same had been hereby enacted; and all and every Penalties and Penalty, when recovered, shall be applied and disposed of in such manner as Forfeitures and Penalties under the said recited Acts or any of them are, by the said Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, directed to be paid and applied.

Powers in former Acts for Recovery of Penalties, to be exercised for enforcing Penalties of this Act.

III. And be it also further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Court of Quarter Sessions to which any Appeal may be made in pursuance of any Provisions contained in the aforesaid Acts, or any of them, or of this Act, respecting the Payment or Receipt of Wages, to award Treble Costs to be paid by the Appellant or Appellants, in any case where the Cause of such Appeal shall be by such Court of Quarter Sessions determined against any such Appellant or Appellants, and to enforce the Payment of such Treble Costs in like manner as such Court may be authorised to enforce the Payment of common Costs awarded by such Court in ordinary cases.

Quarter Sessions on Appeal may, in certain Cases, award Treble Costs.

IV. And Whereas it is by an Act made in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better adjusting and more easy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and for the better Regulation of such Servants, and of certain Apprentices, it is enacted, that all Complaints, Differences and Disputes which shall arise between Masters and Mistresses, and Artificers and Labourers, hired for a Year or longer, respecting Wages, shall be determined by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace; and in case of Nonpayment of the Sum ordered by the Space of Twenty one Days, then the same may be levied by Distress and

An Act for taking an Account of the Population of Great Britain, and of the Increase or Diminution thereof.

[24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to take an Account of the total Number of Persons now within the Kingdom of Great Britain, together with the progressive Increase or Diminution thereof from the Year One thousand eight hundred and ten to and for the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within that Part of Great Britain called England the respective Overseers of the Poor, or some substantial Householder of every Parish, Township and Place, to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned, and within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, such Persons as shall be for that Purpose appointed in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, to act in and for every Parish and Place, shall at the Time and in the Manner hereinafter directed, severally take an Account of the Number of Persons who shall be actually found at the Time of taking such Accounts to be within the Limits of such Parishes, Townships and Places respectively, and shall set down the several Particulars respecting the same, according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act.

The Overseers of Poor, &c. to take account of the Number of Persons, &c.

Printed Copies of Act and Schedules to be transmitted by the King’s Printer to the Clerks of the Peace, &c. for Distribution.

II. And, for the more speedy and effectual obtaining of such Accounts, be it further enacted, That a sufficient Number of printed Copies of this Act and of the Schedule thereto shall, so soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, be transmitted by His Majesty’s Printer to the Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks of the several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Precincts, Sokes, Franchises, Liberties, Cities, Boroughs, Towns

Towns and Counties Corporate in that Part of Great Britain called England; and that the said several Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks shall and they are hereby required, with all convenient Speed, to cause the said Act to be distributed amongst the Clerks of the Divisional Meetings within their respective Limits; and also to cause a sufficient Number of the Schedule to this Act annexed to be delivered to the High Constables, or where there are no High Constables, to such other proper Officers who have the Execution of Precepts from Justices of the Peace to inferior Officers within their respective Limits, at the Easter Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, a sufficient Number of printed Copies of this Act and of the Schedule thereto shall in like manner be transmitted to the Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes and Provosts of the Royal Burghs of Edinburgh and Glasgow, who shall cause a sufficient Number of the said Schedule to be delivered to such Persons and at such Times as are for that Purpose hereinafter mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That within that Part of Great Britain called England, the High Constables or other proper Officers so described as aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions aforesaid, shall, at the said Easter Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, pursuant to the Directions aforesaid, receive from the Clerks of the Peace or Town Clerks the said printed Schedules, and forthwith deliver or cause to be delivered One such Schedule to the Rector, Vicar, Curate or other officiating Minister, and One other such Schedule to One of the Overseers of the Poor of every Parish, Township or Place, as well within Towns Corporate as without, in their respective Limits, and also One such Schedule to the Overseer or Overseers of every Extraparochial Place within the said Limits, or instead thereof to some one substantial Householder residing within the said Parish, Township or Extraparochial Place, and well acquainted therewith, if he shall be directed so to do by any Justice of the Peace within the District; and thereupon the said Overseers (or such fit Person as they shall appoint by and with the Consent of Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace), or substantial Householders as aforesaid, taking to their Assistance the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens, or any Person or Persons appointed by any Justice of the Peace at the Request of such Churchwardens or Chapelwardens, Sidesmen, Parish Clerk and Vestry Clerk (if any), and employing, if they shall think fit, the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Peace Officers for such Parishes, Townships or Places, or any fit Person or Persons thereunto appointed by any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, upon Application to that Effect by the Overseers or substantial Householders charged with the Execution of the Provisions of this Act, (such several Persons except the aforesaid Churchwardens or Chapelwardens being hereby required to be aiding and assisting therein for that Purpose), shall, upon the Twenty eighth Day of May in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, proceed to take an Account in Writing of the Number of Persons at that Time being

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Rector, Vicar, Curate or other Officiating Minister of every Parish, Township or Place (Extraparochial or otherwise) in England, including Free Chapels, Donatives and Peculiars, to whom such Schedule shall have been delivered as aforesaid, shall forthwith prepare an Answer or Return to the Questions relative to Baptisms, Burials and Marriages in the said Schedule set forth, and shall, on or before the Twenty first Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, duly transmit such Answer or Return to the Bishop, within the Limits of whose Diocese the said Parish, Township or Place is situate; and the several Bishops shall, on or before the Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, transmit the same to the Archbishops of their respective Provinces, and thereupon the said Archbishops shall, on or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, cause the same to be laid before His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, who shall cause an Abstract thereof to be prepared and laid before both Houses of Parliament, within Three Months after the said First Day of August, or if Parliament shall not be then sitting, within the First Fourteen Days of the Session next ensuing.

Justices to appoint a Time and Place for Overseers, &c. to attend with Returns and Answers.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace, or any Two or more of them, within their respective Jurisdictions in England, shall, at or so soon as conveniently may be after the said Easter Quarter Sessions in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, appoint a Time and Place, or Times and Places, (which Time shall be not sooner than the Twenty fifth Day of June, nor later than the Twenty first Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and may be at the Midsummer Quarter Sessions if they shall think fit,) for the Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes, Townships and Places

Places within their respective Divisions or Limits, or for such substantial Householders as aforesaid, as the case may be, to attend them for the Purpose of this Act, with Returns and Answers to the said Six first Questions stated in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and cause Notice of such Time and Place to be given to such Overseers and Householders respectively, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act, and also to the High Constables, or where there are no High Constables, to such other proper Officers as aforesaid; and thereupon the said Overseers or substantial Householders as aforesaid, or some one of them, in and for every such Parish, Township or Place, shall and they are hereby required to attend the Justices of the Peace at such Meeting or Meetings respectively, and then and there deliver to the said Justices in Writing, signed by himself or themselves, a just and true Answer and Return to the said Questions upon Oath, (or being of the People called Quakers, on Affirmation), as hereinafter directed; and the said High Constables, or other proper Officers so described as aforesaid, shall and they are hereby required to attend the said respective Meetings for the Purposes hereinafter directed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace shall and they are hereby required to receive and take, at such Meetings so to be appointed by them as aforesaid, the Answers and Returns to be made pursuant to the Directions aforesaid, and then and there to administer to the said Overseers or substantial Householders respectively, the Oath or Affirmation contained in the said Schedule; and, if they see Cause, to examine such Overseers and Householders upon Oath or Affirmation, touching any of the Matters contained in such Questions and Answers, and, if necessary, to adjourn the said Meetings at any Time or Times, not later than the said Twenty first Day of July, and to any Place or Places, in order that the said Returns may be rendered more complete or satisfactory; and shall then deliver such Answers and Returns to the respective High Constables or other proper Officers as aforesaid, who shall thereupon indorse on each of such Returns the Name of the County, and also of the Riding, Division, Rape, Wapentake, Lathe, Precinct, Soke, Franchise, Liberty, City, Borough, Town or County Corporate, wherein the Parish, Township or Place therein mentioned is situate, and shall deliver or transmit such Returns, together with a true and perfect List of every Parish, Township and Place, and also of the Overseers and Householders aforesaid, to whom such Schedule shall have been delivered as aforesaid, to the several Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks for the Jurisdiction in which the said Justices are authorised to act, at their respective Offices, on or before the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

VII. And be it further enacted, That within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Sheriff Deputes and Stewart Deputes, or their Substitutes, in their respective Counties and Stewartries, and the Provost of the Royal Burghs of Edinburgh and Glasgow within the said Burghs, shall nominate and appoint, in Writing under the Hand of their respective Clerks, the Schoolmaster or other fit Person or Persons, in each Parish or Place, to take account

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff Deputes and Stewart Deputes or their Substitutes, for Scotland, and the Provosts of the Royal Burghs of Edinburgh and Glasgow, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall appoint a Time or Times, which shall not be sooner than the First Day of June, nor later than the last Day of June, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, for the Schoolmaster, Person or Persons appointed by them as aforesaid, to attend at their Offices, or at such other Places as they shall appoint, with the Returns and Answers to all the Questions stated in the Schedule to this Act; and the said Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes or their Substitutes and Provosts shall cause Notice to be given to them respectively for that Purpose accordingly; and shall then and there receive the Answers and Returns to be made as aforesaid, and administer the Oath contained in the said Schedule to the Schoolmaster, Person or Persons appointed to make such Returns as aforesaid; and such Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes or their Substitutes, and Provosts aforesaid, if they see Cause, may examine the said Schoolmaster, Person or Persons, upon Oath, touching any of the Matters contained in such Questions and Answers, and shall thereafter direct their respective Clerks to indorse the same with the Name of the County or Stewartry, or District thereof, wherein the Parish or Place therein mentioned is situated; or otherwise, in cases where the said Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes or their Substitutes shall think proper, they shall direct the Schoolmasters and other Persons aforesaid to verify the said Returns and Answers upon Oath, before any Justice of the Peace within the County or Stewartry, and thereafter to transmit the Schedule, previous to the said last Day of June, in any convenient Manner, to the said Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes, or their Substitutes, who shall direct the same to be indorsed as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several Accounts so taken in Writing by the Overseers and Schoolmasters or other Persons so appointed as aforesaid, in every Parish, Township or Place within Great Britain, for the Purpose of preparing the aforesaid Answers and Returns, shall be safely kept and preserved by the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens in England, and by the Schoolmasters or other Persons appointed as aforesaid in Scotland, for the time being, of the several Parishes, Townships or Places to which the same relate, and shall be delivered over by them to their Successors in Office respectively; and that the said Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks throughout that Part of Great Britain called England, and the Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes or their Substitutes, and Provosts in Scotland, shall, on or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, transmit with all convenient Speed such Answers and Returns as they shall have received in manner aforesaid, together with a List of the Parishes, Townships, and Places within their respective Counties, Stewartries, Ridings or Divisions, from whence no Returns have been made to them, to the Office of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and that the same shall be digested and reduced into Order by such Officer as such Secretary of State shall appoint for that Purpose; and that an Abstract thereof shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within Three Months after the said First Day of August, or if Parliament shall not be then sitting, within the first Fourteen Days of the Session next ensuing.

X. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid and allowed for the Trouble and Expenses of the several Persons employed in the Transactions aforesaid, for every Return which shall be so made and transmitted to the Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks respectively, pursuant to the Directions aforesaid, the Sums following; (videlicet), To the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, for the Return which shall be made from every such Parish, Township or Place in England, the Sum of One Shilling; to the High Constable or other proper Officer in England, for the like, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence; to the Clerks of the Justices of the Peace throughout England, for the like, the Sum of One Shilling; and that the Justices of the Peace in England, at their respective Midsummer Quarter Sessions, or at the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions following, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, shall and they are hereby required to make an Order upon their respective Treasurers, to pay the same out of the Rates to be made and collected for the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Precincts, Sokes, Franchises, Liberties, Cities and Counties Corporate, or shall cause the same to be paid Accounts for preparing Returns preserved by Churchwardens, &c in England, and other Persons in Scotland, and delivered to Successors.

An Act for obtaining Returns from Turnpike Road Trusts of the Amount of their Revenues, and Expense of maintaining the same. [24th July 1820.]

‘ WHEREAS it is of great public Importance that the Communications between the different Parts of the Kingdom should be rendered as commodious and expeditious as possible : And Whereas it will greatly facilitate the adopting Measures for the Improvement of the Turnpike Roads, and of the Laws for making, repairing, and maintenance of the Turnpike Roads in Great Britain, if Information was obtained, and accurate Returns were laid before Parliament, of the Extent of the said Roads, and the Funds for and the Expenses of maintaining the same; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for obtaining such Information and Returns: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a sufficient Number of Printed Copies of this Act and of the Schedule thereto, shall, so soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, be transmitted by His Majesty's Printer to the Clerks of the Peace of the several and respective Counties, Ridings and Divisions of England, Scotland, and the Principality of Wales; and the said several Clerks of the Peace shall and they are hereby required forthwith on the Receipt of the said Copies of the said Act and of the said Schedules, to cause a Copy of the said Schedule to be delivered to the Clerk and Treasurer of every Trust for making, repairing, and maintenance of the Turnpike Roads within the Limits of their respective Counties, Ridings and Divisions.

‘ II. And Whereas it may happen, that the said Clerks of the Peace may not be acquainted with the Place or Places of Abode of all the said Clerks and Treasurers of the Trustees of Turnpike Roads within their Counties, Ridings, Divisions or Stewartries, whereby they may be unable to forward the said Schedules to them; Be it therefore enacted, That the said several Clerks of the Peace shall and they are hereby required, immediately on receiving the said printed Copies of this Act and of the said Schedules, to insert or cause to be inserted in some one Newspaper or Newspapers usually circulating within their respective Counties, Ridings or Divisions, a Notice in the Form and to the Effect following :

The King's Printer to send a sufficient Number of Copies of the Act and Schedule to the Clerks of the Peace in England, Scotland and Wales.

‘ To the Clerks and Treasurers of the Trustees of the Turnpike Roads within the County of County } PURSUANT to the Directions of an Act passed in of } the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King ‘ George the Fourth, intituled An Act for [insert the Title of this Act,] I do hereby give Notice to the several Clerks and Treasurers of every Trust for making, maintaining and repairing the Turnpike Roads within this County, that printed Copies of the Schedule of the said Act are now ready for Delivery at my Office; and all the said Clerks and Treasurers who have not already received Copies of the said Schedule, are hereby required, within Fourteen Days from the Date hereof, to apply for the same; and the said Clerks and Treasurers are hereby further required to make a true and accurate Return in Writing, verified on Oath, to my Office in _____ of the several Matters in the said Schedule contained, on or before the Day of _____ in the Year _____ Dated this Day of _____ (Signed) ‘ A. B. Clerk of the Peace.’

Penalty.

And every such Clerk of the Peace who shall omit to forward the said Copies of the said Schedule, or to cause such Notice to be inserted, or to deliver a Copy of the said Schedule, on Application to him by any such Clerk or Treasurer, who shall make wilful Default in any other Matter or Thing required of him by this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, nor less than Twenty Pounds, at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices before whom Complaint shall be made.

Clerks and Treasurers to Trustees to obtain Information required by Schedule, and make Returns verified on Oath.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Clerk or Treasurer to every Turnpike Trust, shall forthwith, on receiving the said Schedule, proceed in obtaining the Information required by the said Schedule, and shall prepare a true and correct Return of all the several Matters and Things required by the said Schedule; which said Return shall be fairly copied out in Writing, and shall be signed by the said Clerk and Treasurer in the Presence of any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace acting for the County, Riding or Division, or Stewartry, within which the Turnpike Road to which such Return shall relate is situated; which said Return when so signed, shall be verified by the said Clerk and Treasurer by an Oath, to be taken before the said Justice or Justices, (who is and are hereby authorised to administer the same), in the Form and to the Effect following :

‘ I A. B. do swear, That this Return, and all Things therein contained, is and are true, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, and that I have not wilfully omitted any thing required to be returned by me. So help me GOD.’

Or in case the Party making such Return shall be a Quaker, then by Affirmation to the same Effect: And the said Justice or Justices before whom the said Return shall be signed and verified shall, and he or they is and are hereby required to certify the same to have been so signed and verified before him or them, by Writing ing under his or their Hand; at the Foot or on the Back of such Return.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Clerks and Treasurers to the Trustees for making, maintaining and repairing the Turnpike Roads, shall respectively transmit the said Returns to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division within which the Turnpike Road in respect whereof the Return shall be made is situated, and shall cause the same to be deposited in the Office of the said Clerk of the Peace, on or before the First Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and the said Clerks of the Peace shall and they are hereby required, on or before the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, to transmit all such Returns as they shall have received, (together with a List of the Treasurers to Trustees who shall not have made any Return), to the Office of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and all the said Returns, and the said List of Persons omitting to make such Returns, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Two Months after the said First Day of October, or if Parliament shall not then be sitting, within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of the ensuing Session.

Clerks, &c. to transmit Returns to Clerks of the Peace, who are to transmit same, with a List of Persons omitting to make Returns, to Secretary of State.

V. And Whereas there are certain Turnpike Trusts which are, by the Arrangement of the Trustees or by Law, divided into Districts, for the more conveniently repairing and maintaining the Roads under such Trusts, and more effectually carrying into Execution the Purposes of such Trusts; Be it therefore enacted, That in every such case the Return of the particular Treasurer or Clerk of each District, on the Return of the general Treasurer and principal Clerk in manner hereinbefore directed, shall be deemed sufficient, provided that such Return contains all the Information and all the Matters and Things required to be returned according to the said Schedule to this Act; and that such general Treasurer and principal Clerk, or such particular Clerk and Treasurer, describe themselves as such in signing such Return, and state the Trust in respect of which such Return shall be made to be a divided Trust.

How Returns are to be made for divided Trusts.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Duties of Clerk to any Turnpike Trustees, and the Duties of Treasurer to any such Trustees, shall be discharged by one and the same Person, then and in every such Case a Return, signed by such Person, describing himself as holding both the said Offices, shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall be a sufficient Return, provided the same contains all the Information and all the Matters and Things required by the Schedule to this Act to be returned.

Proviso for signing Return where Duties of Clerk and Treasurer performed by One Person.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Turnpike Road in respect of which any such Return shall be required, shall be continued and situated in more Counties than One, or in more than One Riding or Division of the same County, that then and in every such Case it shall be sufficient for the Clerk and Treasurer to the Trustees for repairing such Road, to make One Report to the Clerk of the Peace for any one of the Counties, Ridings or Divisions into which such Road shall be continued and be situate: Provided nevertheless, that the Clerk and Treasurer making such Return as last mentioned shall send, or cause to be sent, a Notice to the Clerks of the Peace of the other Counties, Ridings or Divisions through which such Road shall pass, stating to whom they have made their Return.

to

Clerks and Treasurers omitting to make Return or making false Returns.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk or Treasurer to any Trustees of any Turnpike Road shall neglect or omit to make such Return as aforesaid, duly signed, verified and certified, according to the Directions of this Act, within the Time hereinbefore limited for making such Returns, and delivering the same to the Clerk of the Peace; or if any such Clerk or Treasurer shall wilfully omit any Matter or Thing required to be stated in such Return, or shall wilfully make a false or inaccurate Return, or wilfully mistake any Thing therein, every such Clerk or Treasurer so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in case such Offence shall be committed in England; in case of such Offence being committed within a County Palatine, in the Courts of Record of such County; and in the Great Session of the Principality of Wales, in case the Offence shall be committed in Wales; and in the Court of Session of Scotland, in case the Offence shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain.

Penalty 50l.

Clerk of the Peace to provide a Book or entering Returns.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every such Clerk of the Peace shall provide a Book or Books of sufficient Size for the Purpose, and shall, previous to the transmitting such Returns to the Office of the Secretary of State as hereinbefore directed, cause all such Returns to be fairly and accurately copied into such Book or Books; which said Book or Books shall for ever thereafter remain in the respective Offices of the said Clerks of the Peace, who are hereby required to allow any Person or Persons desirous of inspecting the said Copies of the said Returns, and paying for such Inspection the Sum of Two Shillings, to inspect the same, and to grant a Copy or Copies of any such Returns so entered in such Book or Books, to any Person or Persons requiring the same, taking for the Copy or Copies so granted from such Book or Books, the Sum of Five Shillings for the Copy of each Return, and no more.

An Act for defraying, until the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the Charge of the Pay and Clothing of the Militia of Ireland; and for making Allowances to Officers and Quartermasters of the said Militia during Peace. [24th July 1820.]

[This Act is the same as 59 G. 3. c. 117. except as to Dates, and the Sections that are here inserted.]

Subalterns, &c. claiming Allowances to take the following Oath.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers and Assistant Surgeons of the said Militia, who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, take and subscribe an Oath before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in his proper County in the United Kingdom in which they shall respectively be, in the Words or to the Effect following; (videlicet),

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I belonged to the Regiment of the Militia of Ireland when the same was disembodied, and that I have continued to serve therein from that Time until the Day of _____ inclusive, as a Lieutenant, Ensign, Assistant Surgeon, (as the case may be); and that I was not in my own Right or in Right of my Wife, during any Part of the Period for which I now claim to receive any Allowance, that is to say, from the Day of _____ to the Day of _____ both inclusive, in the actual Possession and Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, of such an annual Value above Reprizes as would qualify me to hold a Commission of Captain of a Company in the Militia of a County at large in Ireland; that I have

‘ I have not, during the Period last mentioned, held the Appointment of Adjutant or Surgeon in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia; that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, during the said Period, any Office or Income whatsoever from the Public or from any other Government, except my Half Pay as a reduced in His Majesty’s Army or Navy or Marines (as the case may be), besides my Allowance as of the Militia.

Which Oath so taken and subscribed shall be by the said Justice forthwith certified and transmitted, and he is hereby required to certify and transmit the same, to the Paymaster of the Regiment or Battalion of Militia in which such Subaltern Officer or Assistant Surgeon shall be then serving.

Justices to transmit Oaths to the Paymaster.

XII. And be it further enacted, That upon such Certificates as aforesaid of such Justice of the Peace and Commanding Officer as aforesaid, or where any Regiment or Battalion of Militia shall not have been called out to their annual Exercise as aforesaid, upon a Certificate of any such Justice of the Peace only being produced to or received by the respective Paymasters, it shall be lawful for such Paymasters, and they are hereby authorised and required to pay to the said Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon, according to their respective Commissions of Lieutenant, Ensign, or Assistant Surgeon, the Allowance above mentioned for Three Months, or other proper Period, on the Twenty fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the other Proportions of the same on the Twenty fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, without any Deduction whatsoever; the Certificates before mentioned to be by them preserved and produced among the Vouchers for the Payments from time to time made by them in pursuance of this Act.

Allowances to be paid quarterly without Deductions.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Non-commissioned Officer or Private Man in the said Militia, entitled to receive any Pension or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army from Chelsea Hospital or Kilmainham Hospital, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the said Militia.

Chelsea or Kilmainham Pensions not to be affected.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, every Adjutant of the said Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty’s Regular Forces or in the said Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years in the whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of the said Militia, who shall by Age or Infirmary be rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Paymaster of the Regiment a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster aforesaid shall be and he is hereby authorised to pay to such Person producing such Certificate as aforesaid, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Day: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance

Adjutants, after 20 Years’ Service, 10 of which as Adjutants of Militia, to receive 8s. per Day; provided they do not hold any Appointment under His Majesty of the Value of Three Times the Amount of such Allowance.

Allowance as aforesaid who shall have served for a less Term than Ten Years as an Adjutant in the said Militia, or who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Eight Shillings a Day: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

The like as to Surgeons, after 20 Years' Service, to receive 6s. per Day.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Surgeon of the said Militia, having faithfully served either in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Militia for the full Term of Twenty Years, shall by Age or Infirmitv be rendered unfit for further Service, he shall, on producing to the Paymaster of the Regiment a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years in the whole, Ten of which he shall have served as a Surgeon of Militia, from the Commanding Officer of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, be entitled to receive, and the said Paymaster shall be and he is hereby authorised and required to pay to such Person producing such Certificate as aforesaid, an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings per Day: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Six Shillings a Day; but no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

Quartermasters, after 30 Years' Service, to receive an Allowance after the Rate of their Pay while Militia is disembodied.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, any Quartermaster of the said Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the said Militia, for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been as a Quartermaster of the said Militia, who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmitv rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or in his Absence to the Under Secretary, a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid, from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and obtaining from such Chief Secretary, or in his Absence such Under Secretary, an Order founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster of the Regiment shall be and is hereby authorised to pay such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of his Pay when serving in the said Militia while disembodied: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance: Provided also, that no such Quartermaster shall, by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, forfeit any Right which he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension, but shall XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioned and Noncommissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the said Militia, shall receive the same Pay, Clothing and Contingencies, and in like Manner, as those of the other Militia Forces of this Kingdom, and no other; and that the Pay, Clothing, Money, Contingent Expenses, and Allowances of the said Militia, when disembodied, shall be issued in the same Manner as is or shall be directed by any Act which now is or hereafter shall be in force for defraying the Charges of the Pay and Clothing of the Militia of Great Britain, and the same shall be subject to the Regulations directed by or contained in any such Act.

Pay, Clothing, &c. of Militia.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the said Militia shall and is hereby required, as often as the same shall be called out to annual Exercise, as before directed, and within Fourteen Days after the Time of assembling, to return to the said Commissioners a true State of such Regiment; and in case the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the said Militia shall refuse or neglect, for the Space of Three Calendar Months after the said annual Exercise, so to do, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

State of Regiment, when called out to annual Exercise, returned by Colonel to Commissioners.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which His Majesty is or shall be authorised to draw out and embody the Militia of England, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct the said Commissioners with all convenient Speed to draw draw out and embody the said Militia, or such Part as His Majesty shall in his Wisdom deem necessary, and in such Manner as shall be best adapted to the Danger, and to put the same under the Command of such General Officers as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint, and to direct the said Militia to be led by its respective Officers into any Part of Great Britain, for the repelling and Prevention of any Invasion, and for the Suppression of any Rebellion or Insurrection within the same.

In case of Invasion, &c. His Majesty may order Militia to be embodied.

Allowance in lieu of Quarters.

XXVII. And in order to prevent the Privileges of the said City from being infringed by the billeting or quartering of Soldiers therein, be it further enacted, That the Noncommissioned Officers, Drummers and Fifers, and Private Men serving in the said Militia, shall, when embodied or called out for annual Exercise or in any manner be in actual Service within the City of London, or Liberties thereof, and the Noncommissioned Officers, Drummers and Fifers of the said Militia shall, when disembodied, be allowed in lieu of Quarters at the Rate of One Shilling and Nine Pence per Week each Man, to provide Lodgings, in addition to their Pay: Provided always, that if it shall appear that any or either of the said Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers or Fifers, have not actually and bonâ fide resided within the said City, or within One Mile thereof, then and in such case such Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer or Fifer, shall not be entitled to the said Allowance or any Part thereof.

Allowance in lieu of Quarters paid out of Trophy Tax.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That when the said Militia shall be disembodied, the said Allowance of One Shilling and Nine Pence a Week in lieu of Quarters to the Noncommissioned Officers, Drummers and Fifers serving therein, shall be charged upon and be defrayed out of the Trophy Tax raised for the said City.

When Commissioners may appoint an Agent.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That when the said Militia shall be embodied or drawn out into actual Service, and during the Time they shall continue in actual Service, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to appoint an Agent to the said Militia, and the said Commissioners shall take Security from such Agent.

Lord Mayor, or any Three Magistrates, may call out permanent Staff for Suppression of Riots, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That when the Regiment shall be disembodied, the Lord Mayor for the time being, or any Three Magistrates of the said City, shall have Power and Authority to call out the Whole of the Permanent Staff in the Receipt of Daily Pay, or any Part thereof, for the Suppression of Riots, or any other Duty for which their Services may be required, for the better Preservation of the Peace of the said City; and during the Time of their being so called out, they shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as when embodied, and shall also be subject to the Mutiny Act; and the Lord Mayor, or other Magistrates so calling out the said Permanent Staff, or any Part thereof, shall make a Report of his or their having so called out the same, and of his or their Reasons for so doing, to the next Court of Lieutenancy to be held after such calling out.

Subject to Mutiny Act, &c.

Permanent Staff of former Militia to continue One Month after passing this Act;

XXXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Permanent Staff of the said Two Regiments of London Militia, now receiving Pay, shall continue to receive such Pay, and to be subject to the Provisions of the said Two Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, for One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act; and that from and after after the Expiration of the said Month this Act shall commence and take effect, with regard to the Permanent Staff of the said Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and the Pay to be received by such Staff: Provided always, that the Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, Corporals, Drum Majors and Drummers, now on Permanent Pay, in the said Two Regiments, and who may be desirous to serve in the said Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and who shall take the Oath hereby required to be taken by Serjeants, Corporals and Drummers, shall with the Approbation of the Commanding Officer of the said Regiment, but not otherwise, be at Liberty so to do; but no Vacancy occasioned by the Death, Discharge or Removal of any such Serjeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall be filled up, until the Number of such Serjeants, Corporals and Drummers shall be reduced below the Number of Serjeants, Corporals and Drummers which the said Regiment is allowed by virtue of this Act.

Noncommissioned Officers, &c. desirous of serving may do so with Consent of Commanding Officer.

‘ XXXII. And Whereas in consequence of the Repeal by this Act of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the Adjutants, Surgeons, Paymasters and Quartermasters of the said Two Regiments of London Militia, who are now receiving Pay as Staff Officers of the said Regiments, and the Lieutenants, Ensigns and Surgeons' Mates of the said Two Regiments, who are now entitled to an Allowance, as having been actually serving in the said Militia at the Time of its being disembodied, under and by virtue of the annual Act passed to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent Expenses of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain, will cease to be entitled to such Pay and Allowances, unless Provision is made to the contrary by this Act; and it is just that such Persons should continue to receive the same Pay and Allowances, under the like Regulations and Restrictions as they now receive the same; Be it therefore further enacted, That every Adjutant, Surgeon, Paymaster and Quartermaster, now serving in the said Two Regiments of London Militia, and receiving Pay, and who shall not be elected or appointed to any Commission or Office in the Regiment to be raised under and by virtue of this Act, and every Lieutenant, Ensign and Surgeon's Mate now serving in the said Regiments, and receiving any Allowance by virtue of any Act now in force for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent Expenses of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain, shall continue to be entitled to receive the same Pay or Allowance as he now receives, subject to such Regulations and Restrictions as now or hereafter shall be in force in relation thereto, by any Act or Acts for defraying of the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent Expenses of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain; and such Pay and Allowances shall be issued to the Paymaster of the Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and shall be by him paid to the several Persons who shall be entitled to receive the same, in the like Manner as the present Pay and Allowances are issued to the respective Paymasters of the said Two Regiments, and under the like Regulations, or such other Regulations as may be directed by any future Act or Acts, having relation to the disembodied Militia of Great Britain:
Provided

Pay received by Adjutants, &c. as Staff Officers in the former Militia, and Allowances received by Lieutenants, &c. to be continued as herein mentioned under the like Regulations as they now receive the same.

Proviso for re-appointing Adjutants, &c.

Provided nevertheless, that nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to disqualify the Adjutants, Surgeons, Paymasters or Quartermasters now serving and entitled to receive disembodied Pay, from being reappointed to the same Rank which they now hold, and from executing the Duties thereof; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso for Officers in former Militia retaining Rank.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Officers who now hold any Commission in either of the Two Regiments of London Militia raised by virtue of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and who shall be appointed to any Commission in the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall, during the Time they shall respectively hold such Commission, retain the same Rank in the Army as they now hold.

Militia to enjoy the same Rights to the Artillery Ground as the former Militia.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act shall possess and enjoy the same Rights and Privileges as are reserved or granted to the Militia raised by virtue of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, by any Lease or Leases, granted by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London, under which the Honourable the Artillery Company now possess and enjoy the Artillery Ground, situate in the Parish of Saint Luke in the County of Middlesex.

Charges of the Militia to be defrayed according to Stnt. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 3.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That for defraying the necessary Charges and Incidental Expenses of the said Militia, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to continue to raise and levy as heretofore, in every Year, the Proportion of One Month's Tax, amounting to Four thousand six hundred and sixty six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four Pence, which the said City hath been used to pay by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for ordering the Forces in the several Counties of this Kingdom; and no Warrant shall be issued for the raising of any Trophy Money, till the Justices of the Peace, or the major Part of such Justices, at some General or Quarter Sessions for the said City, shall have examined and allowed the Accounts of the Trophy Money last raised, levied and collected, and certified such Examination of the said Accounts, under the Hands and Seals of Three or more of such Justices to the said Commissioners; and the said Justices are hereby required forthwith to examine the said Accounts accordingly.

Commissioners to appoint a Treasurer and Clerk.

XXXVI. And, for the better and more speedy Execution of the Premises, be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required to appoint One or more Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, for receiving and paying such Monies as shall be received or levied by virtue of this Act, and of all which Receipts and Disbursements the said Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, are, before any new Trophy Tax is raised, to give their Accounts in Writing and upon Oath to the said Commissioners, which Oath the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to administer; and that a Duplicate of the said Accounts, so far as the same relates to the Receipts and Disbursements of the Trophy Tax by the said Commissioners, shall Corporation before a new Rate.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to take such Security from the Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, to be appointed by virtue of this Act, for the due Execution of their respective Offices, as shall be satisfactory to the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners may make such other Civil Appointments as they may see necessary for carrying the Purposes of this Act into Execution.

Security to be taken from Treasurer and Clerk.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Collectors duly appointed for the Collection of the said Proportion of One Month's Tax as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to perform his Duty in the Collection thereof, or having collected the same, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same to the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said City, to summon the Party before him or them, and to fine him for such Neglect or Refusal any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels (in case such Fine shall not be forthwith paid), by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of any one or more of the said Justices, causing the Overplus, if any, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to be rendered to the Party; and the Penalty so adjudged shall be paid to the said Treasurer to the said Commissioners, to be applied by him as they shall direct.

Collectors of the Month's Tax neglecting Duty.

their Treasurer.

XL. And be it further enacted, That for the several Purposes aforesaid, His Majesty's said Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the said City are hereby authorised and empowered from time to time to accept and take, in the Name of their Treasurer for the time being, and his Successors, any Grant, Demise, Lease or Agreement of Ground and Premises whereon to erect and build such Head Quarters as aforesaid, and to charge and make liable the said Trophy Tax with the Payment of such Rent, Fine or Acknowledgment as may be by them deemed a proper Rent or Compensation for such Land and Premises, and to authorise and empower such Treasurer, on their Behalf, to enter into proper Covenants and Agreements for the Purposes aforesaid, and to execute a Counterpart or Counterparts of any such Grant, Demise, Lease or Agreement, and such Treasurer shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act.

XLI. And Whereas there is now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a Sum of Three Pounds per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of Nathaniel Newnham, Edward Wigan and Christopher Porter, Esquires, who are all now dead; and the said Edward Wigan was the Survivor; and Jane Wigan, Widow, Edward Wigan, Esquire, and John Alfred Wigan, Esquire, are the Executors of the said Edward Wigan; and there is also a Sum of Money accrued due for Dividends on the said Sum of Three Pounds per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities; and there is a further Sum invested in Exchequer Bills, which are in the Possession or Power of the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan and John Alfred Wigan; and there is likewise a Sum of Money in the Hands of Messrs. Everett, Walker, Maltby, Ellis and Company, Bankers, standing in the Names of the said Nathaniel Newnham, Edward Wigan and Christopher Porter: And Whereas the said several Sums of Money have arisen from Savings made in the Regiment of London Militia in recruiting Men to serve in the said Regiment, and from Dividends and Interest thereon, and it is doubtful whether any Person has now any legal Claim to the said several Sums: And Whereas it is considered, that if the said several Sums of Money and Securities were to be paid and transferred to the said Commissioners, to be by them applied in aid of the Expense of building an Head Quarters for the London Militia, subject nevertheless to such Claims (if any) as any Person or Persons may have on the same, it would be a fit and proper Appropriation of the same; and the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan and John Alfred Wigan, the Executors of the said Edward Wigan, may be willing and desirous so to apply the same, or some Part thereof, on their being fully indemnified and discharged from all Claims and Demands in respect thereof, or of so much thereof as they may think fit so to apply; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan and John Alfred Wigan, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, if they shall think Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were severally and separately re-enacted in and made Part of the Body of this Act; and that from and after the passing of this Act, the several Powers and Authorities given, granted and contained in the said Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, so far as the same are repugnant to this Act, shall no longer be applied or put into Execution with respect to the City of London: Provided always, that nothing in the said Acts contained, or any of them, shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle the Wives and Families of the Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, Fifers and Private Men of the said Militia, or any of them, to any Maintenance or Allowance whilst the said Militia shall be embodied, or otherwise be in actual Service, by reason of such Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, Fifer or Private Man being serving in the said Militia.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to their Warrants, shall extend to the said Mayor and Aldermen, and also to His Majesty's said Commissioners and the Assessors and Collectors in the Execution of this Act, or any other which relates to the said Militia, in like manner and as fully and effectually as the same extend to Justices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

XLIV. And in order that the Rights and Privileges of the City of London may not be infringed, be it further enacted, That this Act or any thing herein contained shall not diminish or be prejudicial to the Rights, Privileges, Immunities and Exemptions to which the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, or the Suburbs and Liberties of the same, or of all privileged Places within the Limits and Precincts of the same, as well within the Liberties as without, are entitled to enjoy by Prescription, Act of Parliament, Charter or Usage; but the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, shall and may continue to enjoy all and singular the said Rights, Liberties, Usages, Customs, Privileges, Immunities and Exemptions, in as full, ample and beneficial a manner as if this Act had not been made.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required and empowered to hold Courts of Lieutenancy for the said City from time to time, as often as they shall think expedient, and to issue such Precepts at the said Courts, and to make such Orders as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act directed, which shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recoverable by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance shall be allowed; and that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall not

not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall, on Proof upon Oath of the Offence before the Mayor, or any other Magistrate of the said City, or any Justice of the Peace for the County, Liberty or Place where the Offence shall be committed, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the said Mayor, Magistrate or other Officer, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Person whose Goods and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold; and for Want of sufficient Distress the said Mayor, Magistrate or Justice is hereby required, in all Cases where no particular Time of Commitment is by this Act directed, to commit such Offender to Prison where the Offences shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, the Application whereof is not otherwise particularly directed by this Act, shall be paid to the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, to be applied for the purposes of this Act.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Distress shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in any Proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the Party or Parties be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers ab initio on account of any Irregularity which shall afterwards be done or committed by the Party or Parties distraining, but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case.

Distress not unlawful for want of Form.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Rate or Assessment, nor any Order to be made, or Proceedings to be had, or any other Matter or Thing to be done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or by His Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the time being, or the Assessors or Collectors acting under the Authority of this Act, or by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, shall be vacated or quashed for Want of Form only, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity, Trespass or other Proceedings, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on the behalf of the Party or Parties who shall have committed or caused to be committed any such Irregularity, Trespass or wrongful Proceedings, before such Action brought; in case no such Tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where any such Action shall depend, at any time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings or Order and Judgment shall be had, made and given in and by, or the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature of the Island of Ceylon, respectively, accordingly as the Witnesses proposed to be examined shall be resident within any one or more of the said Presidencies, or the said Island, for the Examination upon Oath of all such Witnesses as shall be produced before them touching the Allegations of such Bill, and touching any Notices or other Matters which shall in such Warrant be specified; and that in all Cases where such Warrants shall be so issued, Duplicates of such Warrants, together with Copies of such Bill, shall be transmitted by different Ships, at the Desire of the Agent of the Party or Parties soliciting such Bill, to the Persons to whom such Warrants shall be directed.

Duplicate of Warrant transmitted.

II. And be it enacted, That in all Cases immediately upon the Receipt of such Warrant or Warrants, the Judges or Recorder to whom the same shall have been directed, shall appoint some Time or Times, with all convenient Speed for the Examination of Witnesses, and receiving other Proofs touching the Allegations of such Bill, and in opposition thereto, and touching such Notices and other Matters as shall in such Warrant have been specified, and in the meantime shall cause such public Notice to be given of such Examination, and shall issue such Summons or other Process as may be requisite for the Attendance of Witnesses, and of the Agents or Counsel of all or any of the Parties respectively, and of such other Witnesses as after mentioned, and to adjourn from time to time as Occasion may require; and such Examinations as aforesaid shall be then and there openly and publicly taken vis à voce upon the respective Oaths of Witnesses, and the Oaths of several Religions, administered according to the Forms of their several Religions, and shall, by some sworn Officer of the Court, be reduced into Writing, and that Two Copies thereof shall be made; and that the Judges or Recorder before whom such Examination shall have been taken, shall certify the same under the official Seal of their several Courts, together with a Declaration of such Judges or Recorder, that such Examinations have in their or his Judgment been fairly and properly conducted, and that all such Witnesses had been produced as were fit to be produced, for the Purpose of ascertaining the whole Truth, so far as the Attendance of such Witnesses could be reasonably obtained; and shall transmit the same by different Ships to the Speaker of either House of Parliament, under whose Warrant such Examination shall have been taken; and every such Examination so returned to the Speaker of either House of Parliament as aforesaid, shall be competent and admissible Evidence, and shall be allowed and read in both Houses of Parliament, or either of them respectively, as Occasion may require; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Judges in India, on receipt of such Warrant, to examine such Witnesses.

Notice thereof.

Two Copies of such Examinations to be certified and transmitted to the Speaker of either House of Parliament.

Examination returned to be Evidence.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Judges or Recorder, upon any such Examination, to ask any such Questions of any Witness who shall be produced before them or him, and to require such further Witnesses resident within such Presidency or Island respectively to be produced, as shall appear fit and necessary for the due Investigation of the Allegations of such Bill, or of any other Matters in such Warrants specified; and to allow such Attendance by Counsel, and such

An Act for making general the Provisions of an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for removing Difficulties in the Conviction of Offenders stealing Property from Mines. [24th July 1820.]

56 G. 3. c. 73.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for removing Difficulties in the Conviction of Offenders stealing Property from Mines, it is among other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, and shall be deemed sufficient to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, for the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders charged in any Indictment with Grand or Petty Larceny, for or on account of stealing any Minerals, or any Timber, Iron or other Materials used in or for the working of Mines, being the personal Property of any Company or Adventurers carrying on the same, to allege and aver that the Minerals, Timber, Iron or other Materials so stolen, are the Property of some one or more of the Partners or Adventurers in such Mining Concern, and others his or their Partners or Adventurers, without naming such other Partners or Adventurers : And Whereas the said Enactment has been found to facilitate the Conviction of Offenders, and to promote the due Administration of Justice, without depriving Persons accused of any fair Means of Defence :’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Provisions of the said extended to

said Act, with respect to Offenders charged as in the said Act is mentioned, shall be deemed and taken to extend to all Cases of Offenders charged in any Indictment with Burglary, Felony, Grand or Petty Larceny, or criminal Breach of Trust, committed on the Goods, Chattels or personal Property, of what nature soever, of any Partners whatsoever, in as ample a manner as if they had been particularly specified in the said Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in order to give Employment and Encouragement to the industrious Poor residing on the Coast of Great Britain, and to Persons fitting out Vessels for the Fishery, not for the Tonnage Bounty, there shall and may be paid and allowed to all Persons residing in Great Britain, and who shall cure and dry Cod Fish, Ling or Hake taken on the Coasts of Great Britain, Ireland or the Isle of Man, according to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of the British Herring Fishery shall make and appoint for that Purpose, a Bounty of Four Shillings for every Hundred Weight of all such dried Cod Fish, Ling or Hake; and there shall be also paid and allowed, under the like Rules and Regulations, to such Persons residing as aforesaid, and curing any Cod Fish, Ling or Hake, with Pickle, a Bounty of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Barrel of all such pickled Cod Fish, Ling or Hake; provided always, that no such Bounty or Bounties shall be paid on account of any Fish in respect whereof any Part of the aforesaid Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton shall have been paid, or shall be payable or allowable to the Master or Owner of any Vessel or Vessels fitted out for the Tonnage Bounty; and provided also that the said several Bounties of Four Shillings per Hundred Weight, and Two Shillings and Sixpence per Barrel on such dried or pickled Cod Fish, Ling or Hake respectively, shall not be paid or payable, unless the Inspector or Officer to be appointed for that purpose, shall have previously inspected all such Cod Fish, Ling or Hake respectively, and shall have marked all such dried Fish, and branded the Casks containing such pickled Fish respectively; and shall certify in Writing to the Commissioners of the British Herring Fishery that such Cod Fish, Ling or Hake respectively, are properly cured and dried, or pickled and packed, and made up either for the Home or Foreign Market.

V. And be it further enacted, That for an Encouragement to all His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland who shall engage in the British Fisheries, there shall be paid out of the Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, a Bounty of Three Pounds per Ton for every Ton of Oil extracted from Whales, and Three Pounds per Ton for every Ton of Oil extracted from other Fish taken on the Coasts of Great Britain and the Isle of Man, and manufactured therein; and also a Bounty of Four Pounds for every Hundred Weight of all Fins of Whales, commonly called Whalebone, taken on the Coasts of Great Britain and the Isle of Man, and manufactured therein.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the British Herring Fishery from time to time to make such Regulations for the Payment of the several Bounties granted by this Act in respect of such Vessels, and of such Cod Fish, Ling or Hake so cured and dried, or cured with Pickle respectively; and with respect to the shipping of Salt for the said Fisheries, and with respect to the Exportation of of any such Fish cured or dried, or cured with Pickle, as to the said Commissioners shall from time to time seem fitting and expedient; and that all such Regulations shall be as valid and effectual as if the same were set forth in this Act, and shall be obeyed and carried into Execution by the Officers of the British Herring Fishery, and all other Persons concerned; and that no Bounty granted by this Act shall be allowed and paid to any Person or Persons unless all such Regulations shall be duly complied with by the Person or Persons claiming such Bounty; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in all Cases where they shall be satisfied that such Rules and Regulations have been duly complied with, to grant Certificates under the Hands of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, of the Amount of Bounty payable either in respect of the Tonnage of any Vessel, or of the Quantity of any Fish cured and dried, or cured in Pickle; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively to direct such Bounties to be paid to the Persons respectively entitled thereto.

Bounty not paid unless Regulations complied with. Certificate of Bounty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force for Four Years from the passing thereof, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

An Act to enable His Majesty to defray the Charge of a certain Barrack by the Grant of an Annuity on the Consolidated Fund.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS by Articles of Agreement bearing Date the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and made or expressed to be made between Osborne Markham Esquire, the Comptroller of the Barrack Department, of the one Part, and Samuel Baker the elder, of Rochester, in the County of Kent, Timber Merchant and Builder, and William Nicholson of Rochester aforesaid, Builder, of the other Part, after reciting that the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, in consideration of the Annuity thereafter mentioned, did thereby agree with the said Comptroller, to erect within the Regent's Park, in the Parish of Saint Mary le Bone in the County of Middlesex, upon a Scite to be provided by the said Comptroller, certain Erections or Buildings, of the Dimensions and in all respects in conformity to the Tender or Proposal of the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, and the Plan in the said Agreement respectively referred to, the same Erections and Buildings being intended as a Barrack for the Accommodation of His Majesty's Forces, and completely to finish the same for the Reception of Troops, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and in consideration of the Engagements in the said Agreement entered into by the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, the said Comptroller did thereby agree with the said Agreement, dated June 30, 1820, for the Erection of Barracks in the Regent's Park.

Samuel

‘ Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, to pay to them, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, the Annual Sum of Five thousand four hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, for the Term of Thirty one Years, to be computed from the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, without any Deduction whatsoever on account of Taxes, Charges, Fees of Office, or otherwise, by equal Half yearly Payments, on the Twenty fourth Day of June and the Twenty fifth Day of December in each Year, the First Payment thereof to be made on the Twenty fifth Day of December then next ensuing; and in the said Agreement is contained a Proviso, that unless the said Works should be completed within the Period aforesaid, the Payment of the said Annuity should be suspended until after the Completion of the said Works, to be certified in the manner mentioned in the said Agreement:’

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, under and by virtue of His Royal Sign Manual, to grant unto the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, one Annuity, yearly Rent or Sum of Five thousand four hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be issuing and payable out of, and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sum and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts to be paid out of the same, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may thereafter be charged upon or payable out of the said Fund), and to direct that the same shall from time to time be paid Half yearly, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, to the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the Term of Thirty one Years, to commence and take effect from the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or from such other Time as to His Majesty shall seem just, in conformity to the Tenor and Effect of the said Agreement, and from thenceforth to continue payable for and during the Term of Thirty one Years, by even and equal Half yearly Payments.

An Annuity of 5400l. granted to S. Baker and W. Nicholson for 31 Years, to be payable Half yearly.

Treasury by Warrant to direct the Auditor to pass Debentures.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, now and for the time being, or for the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, and they or he are or is hereby authorised and required by Warrant under their or his Hands or Hand, to direct the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer for the time being, to make forth and pass Debentures from time to time, for paying the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of Five thousand four hundred Pounds in manner as aforesaid, and as the same shall from time to time become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same, or any Part thereof; which said Warrant, and the Debentures to be made forth and passed passed thereupon, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Rent, or Sum to the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, and the respective Half yearly Days to be appointed for Payment thereof, without any further or other Warranty to be sued for, had or obtained in that behalf.

Debentures a sufficient Authority to the Officers of the Exchequer for Payment of the Annuity.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That after signing of such Warrant, the same shall be good, valid and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof and of this Act; and shall not be determinable or revocable by or upon the Demise of His Majesty (whom God long preserve), or of any of His Heirs or Successors, or by or upon the Death or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them or any of them.

Warrant not revocable.

IV. And it is further enacted, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury now being, and the Lord High Treasurer, Chancellor and Under Treasurer, Chamberlains, and Barons of the Exchequer, and all other the Officers and Ministers of the Court of Exchequer, and of the Receipt thereof for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorised and strictly enjoined and required to do, without Fee or Reward, all such Acts, Matters and Things as are hereinbefore directed and required, or shall be necessary to be done and performed by them, or any or either of them, in order to render this Act and the several Payments hereby directed effectual.

No Fee to be taken.

V. And be it enacted, That the Acquittance and Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts of the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Sum, without any further or other Warrant to be sued for or obtained in that behalf; and that the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of Five thousand four hundred Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Impositions, and other Charges whatsoever; and in case any of the Officers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, or any Part thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or to do any Act necessary to enable the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to receive the same, then the said Samuel Baker and William Nicholson, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, may from time to time sue, prosecute and implead such Officers, or any of them, their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, by Bill, Plaint or Action of Debt, and shall and may recover Judgment, and sue out Executions thereupon, against such Officers respectively, their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, for so much of such Sum or Sums of Money then due and owing upon the said Annuity, yearly Rent or Sum, or any Part thereof, as shall have been in the Hands of the Officers or Officer of the Receipt of the Exchequer at the time or times when Demand shall have been legally made of the Payment of the said Annuity, yearly Rent or Sum, Acquittances of S. Baker and W. Nicholson to be sufficient Discharges for Payment of Annuity.

Proceedings in default of Payment.

Sum, or any Part thereof as aforesaid, or for the Refusal or Neglect to do any Act necessary to be done by such Officer or Officers respectively.

- WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for erecting Five distinct Rectories and Parishes within the Rectory and Parish of Simonburn, in the County of Northumberland, and for separating the same from the Rectory and Parish Church of Simonburn; and for providing Parish Churches, Church Yards, and Parsonage Houses for the same; and for restraining the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, from presenting to the Rectory of Simonburn, or the said new Rectories, any other Persons than Chaplains in the Royal Navy, it was enacted, that so soon as any Chaplain of the Royal Navy should be presented to either of the Rectories in the said Act named, such Chaplain should no longer receive or be entitled to Half Pay, or any other Bounty or Allowances payable by Government to Chaplains in the Royal Navy: And Whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act in manner hereinafter

‘ after mentioned :’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as extends to prevent Chaplains of the Royal Navy, appointed to the said Rectories, or either of them, from receiving Half Pay or any other Bounty or Allowances payable by Government to Chaplains in the Royal Navy, be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of recited Act as excludes from Half Pay repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Chaplain in the Royal Navy, who shall be presented to either of the Rectories of Simonburn, Wark, Bellingham, Thorneyburn, Fallstone or Greystead, in the said County of Northumberland, or to the Chapelry of Humshaugh, to receive during the Time he shall hold either of the said Rectories respectively, such Half Pay, or any other Bounty or Allowances payable by Government to Chaplains in the Royal Navy, to which he may be entitled by virtue of his Services performed in His Majesty’s Navy, as the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being may direct.

Chaplains of the Royal Navy presented to Simonburn, &c. entitled to receive Half Pay, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, to apply so much of the General Funds of the said Royal Hospital as may be necessary for the Purpose in the Redemption of the Land Tax chargeable upon all or any of the said Rectories of Simonburn, Wark, Bellingham, Thorneyburn, Fallstone or Greystead, and upon the Chapelries to either of the said Rectories belonging.

Land Tax chargeable on the Rectories may be redeemed.

‘ IV. And Whereas the Amount of the First Fruits, Tenths and other Ecclesiastical Dues chargeable upon the ancient undivided Living of Simonburn has not been divided and apportioned upon the said several Rectories, but is wholly charged upon the Rector of Simonburn for the time being;’ Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to declare what Proportion of the said First Fruits, Tenths and other Ecclesiastical Dues now charged or chargeable upon the said Living or Rectory of Simonburn, Wark, Bellingham, Thorneyburn, Fallstone and Greystead, which said several Sums so apportioned upon the said several Rectors shall henceforth be paid by them respectively; and the said Lord Bishop of Durham shall in manner aforesaid, and he is hereby authorised to divide and apportion the Sum heretofore payable as First Fruits upon the said Living of Simonburn, amongst the said several Rectories aforesaid, and the same shall hereafter be so set, divided and apportioned in the proper Books or Records of the said First Fruits, and payable accordingly.

Sums heretofore paid as First Fruits upon Simonburn to be apportioned by the Bishop of Durham.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Rector for the time being of the Parish of Simonburn, to nominate or present to the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being any Person to be licensed to

to the Perpetual Curacy of the Chapel of Humshaugh, but the Right of Nomination shall henceforth be vested in the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, and the said Commissioners and Governors shall in such Nomination be subject to the same Restrictions, and have the same Powers, as the Rector of Simonburn would have had or been subject to in case this Act had not been made.

Presentation to the said Rectories regulated in case of Lapse either to the Bishop of Durham, the Metropolitan or the Crown.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Presentation to the said Rectories of Simonburn, Wark, Bellingham, Thorneyburn, Fallstone or Greystead, shall lapse either to the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, or to the Metropolitan, or to the Crown, no Spiritual Person or Persons whomsoever shall be capable of being presented, instituted and inducted to the said Rectories of Simonburn, Wark, Bellingham, Thorneyburn, Fallstone or Greystead, save and except only such Clerk or Clerks, (being in Priest's Orders, who shall have taken a Degree in one of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge or Dublin), as shall have been rated and served as Chaplains of the said Royal Navy for Seven Years at the least, on board any of His Majesty's Ships actually employed in Service at Sea, and who shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy; and in case no such sufficient Clerk who shall have served as aforesaid shall be found, then a sufficient Clerk, who shall have been rated and shall have served for Ten Years on board any Ship or Ships in His Majesty's Navy, and who shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy; and in case no Clerk having so served shall be found, then, and in that case only, any other sufficient Clerk who shall have been rated and served as aforesaid for any shorter Period, provided he be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exclude from the Benefit of this Act any sufficient Clerk, who in the Discharge of his Duty as Chaplain in His Majesty's Navy shall have lost a Limb, or suffered any Wound or other Injury equally prejudicial to the Habit of Body to the Loss of a Limb, provided he shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy.

Description of Person to be licensed to the Chapelry of Humshaugh, in case of Lapse of Nomination thereto.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Nomination to the said Chapelry of Humshaugh shall lapse either to the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, or to the Metropolitan, or to the Crown, no Spiritual Person shall be capable of being licensed to the said Chapelry, save and except a Clerk being in Priest's Orders, who shall have taken a Degree in one of the Three Universities of Oxford, Cambridge or Dublin, and who shall have been rated and served as a Chaplain in the Navy during Three Years at the least on board any of His Majesty's Ships actually employed in Service at Sea, and who shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy; and if no such can be found, any other sufficient Clerk who shall have been rated and served for Six Years on board any of His Majesty's Ships, and who shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy; and if no such can be found, then, and then only, any other sufficient Clerk, who shall have been rated and served as aforesaid for any shorter Period, provided he shall be on the List of Chaplains of the Royal Navy: Provided always, that in case no Clerk or Spiritual Person who shall have served in the Royal Navy, and shall be on the List of Chaplains as aforesaid, shall be found sufficient, proper and willing to accept any of the said Rectories, or the said Perpetual Curacy, then and in that case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and Governors, or in case of Lapse, the said Lord Bishop of Durham, or the Crown, to nominate a sufficient Clerk or Spiritual Person to such vacant Rectory or Curacy who has not been a Chaplain in the Royal Navy.

C A P. CVII.

An Act for appropriating to the Use of the Master of the Rolls for the time being the Rents of the Rolls Estate, and the Dividends of the Funds in the Court of Chancery arising from the Surplus Rents of that Estate.

[24th July 1820.]

17 G. 3. c. 59.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled 'The Master of the Rolls empowered to make Leases for Years, in order to new build the old Houses belonging to the Rolls; and for the better regulating the Method of granting Leases of the said Rolls Estate for the future; and for making Compensation to the Earl of Macclesfield and Sir Thomas Sewell for their beneficial Rights and Interests in certain Leases made of the Rolls Estate; and for regulating the Method of making Leases of the said Estate for the future; after reciting (amongst other things) that it was § 6. proper that some reasonable Part of the Rents and Profits of the said Rolls Houses, as the same should from time to time accrue and become due and payable, should be appropriated for or towards keeping in Repair and properly supporting and rebuilding the said Houses and Premises, or any of them (except as therein mentioned), as there might be occasion, and that a Receiver of the said Rents and Profits should be appointed for that purpose; it was thereby enacted, that such Person as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or the Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, should from time to time approve of and appoint, should be Receiver of the Rents and Profits of the said Houses and Profits, with such Salary to be paid to or retained by him out of the said Rents and Profits as the said Court should direct, not exceeding the yearly Sum of Fifty Pounds, such Receiver first giving Security as the said Court should direct; which Receiver should, out of the said Rents and Profits, pay the Land Tax, and also pay to the Master of the Rolls for the time being the clear yearly Sum of One thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, by Two equal Half yearly Payments, on the Fifth Day of January and Fifth Day of July in each Year, and with such Apportionment thereof on the Death of any Master of the Rolls as therein mentioned; and that the Surplus of the said Rents and Profits, beyond and after Payment of the said Receiver's Salary and the Land Tax, and such Payment to the Master of the Rolls as aforesaid,

§ 7.

' aforesaid, should, by virtue and in pursuance of any Order or ' Orders of the said Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or
 ' the Lord Keeper, or the Commissioners for the Custody of the ' Great Seal as aforesaid for the time being, be paid into the ' Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Ac' countant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed
 ' to an Account to be entitled " The Account of the Rolls Estate,"
 ' in order to be paid and applied, in manner thereafter men' tioned, in or towards the Repairs and the Support of the said
 ' Houses and Premises (exclusive of and except as aforesaid), and
 ' the rebuilding of the same, as there might at any time or times
 ' thereafter be occasion, and of insuring the said Houses and ' Premises from Fire, except such Part or Parts of the said Rents
 ' and Profits as by any such Order or Orders of the said Court
 ' should be directed to be paid and applied by the Receiver for ' those purposes, or any of them, without paying the same into
 ' the Bank; and that the said Receiver should, at the End of ' each and every Year, (or oftener, if thereto required and ordered ' by the said Court), deliver in, upon Oath, his Accounts of his
 ' Receivership to the said Accountant General, and pay his Bal-
 ' lances into the Bank from time to time in the Name of the said
 ' Accountant General, to be placed to the same Account: And ' it was thereby further enacted, that out of such the Surplus
 ' Rents and Profits of the said Houses and Premises thereby ap' propriated for the purpose of repairing, supporting, and rebuild' ing and insuring the said Houses and Premises, (exclusive of and ' except as aforesaid), or out of what the same or any Part thereof
 ' should be invested in, such Sum and Sums of Money as the Lord
 ' High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or ' Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great ' Britain, should from time to time direct or appoint, should be ' paid and applied in or towards the repairing and supporting of ' the said Rolls Houses and Premises, or in rebuilding the same,
 ' or any of them, and in insuring the said Houses and Premises
 ' from Fire, in such manner as by any Order or Orders of the ' said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, to ' be made for those purposes respectively, should be directed;
 ' and that the said Fund or any Part thereof should and might
 ' from time to time, by virtue and in pursuance of any Order or
 ' Orders of the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords
 ' Commissioners for that purpose, be placed out and invested in ' Government Securities, in the Name of the said Accountant
 ' General, and placed to the said Account of the Rolls Estate,
 ' and the Interest or Dividends thereof be laid out and invested
 ' in other such like Securities, in the Name of the said Account-
 ' ant General, and placed to the same Account, and so from time ' to time as often as the Interest or Dividends of the said original ' Securities and such new purchased Securities should amount to ' a competent Sum, in order to accumulate and increase the said
 ' Fund, for the purpose of repairing, supporting and rebuilding,
 ' and insuring from Fire, the said Houses and Premises, and to ' be sold, applied and disposed of for those Purposes, or any of ' them, by Order of the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or ' Lords Commissioners as aforesaid, from time to time as there ' might

‘ might be occasion: And whereas there is now standing in the ‘ Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery to ‘ the aforesaid Account, “ The Account of the Rolls Estate,” in ‘ Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities, Four thousand and ‘ eighty one Pounds Four Shillings and Four Pence, and in Cash,
 ‘ the Sum of Four hundred and twenty two Pounds Eight Shillings
 ‘ and Eight Pence, arising from the Dividends of the said Bank ‘ Annuities and from the Surplus Rents and Profits of the said ‘ Rolls Estate, which have been paid into the said Court under ‘ and by virtue of the Provisions contained in the said first recited ‘ Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be ‘ enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Ma‘ jesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual ‘ and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assem‘ bled, and by the Authority of the same, That the above recited ‘ Act made and passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His ‘ said late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal an Act made in the ‘ Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, ‘ The Master of the Rolls empowered to make Leases for Years, in ‘ order to new build the old Houses belonging to the Rolls;’ and ‘ for the better regulating the Method of granting Leases of the said ‘ Rolls Estate for the future; and for making Compensation to the ‘ Earl of Macclesfield and Sir Thomas Sewell for their beneficial ‘ Rights and Interests in certain Leases made of the Rolls Estate;
 ‘ and for regulating the Method of making Leases of the said Estate ‘ for the future, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, so far only
 ‘ as respects the Payment of the yearly Sum of One thousand two ‘ hundred and fifty Pounds to the Master of the Rolls, out of the ‘ Rents and Profits of the said Estate and Premises called The ‘ Rolls Estate, and so far as relates to the Application of the Sur‘ plus of such Rents and Profits.

 of the Rolls out of the Rents, and to the Application of the Surplus Rents, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Four thousand and eighty one Pounds Four Shillings and Four Pence Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities, so standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, shall be and remain in the said Court to the said Account, entitled “ The Account of “ the Rolls Estate,” and that the same shall be and form a Fund for the purpose (if necessary) of repairing, supporting and rebuilding the said Houses and Premises, called The Rolls Estate, and keeping the same insured from Loss or Damage by Fire (except as in the said first above recited Act is mentioned), and be sold, applied and disposed of for those purposes, or any of them, as there may be occasion, by Order of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, from time to time as there may be occasion; and that the Dividends, Interest and annual Produce thereof, now due or hereafter to accrue due, may from time to time be paid by the said Accountant General, without any Order or Draft for that purpose, to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, subject nevertheless to any Order of the said Court, as hereinbefore mentioned.

The Sum of

An Act for improving and completing the Harbour of Port Patrick in Scotland, so as to render the same a more fit Situation for His Majesty's Packets. [24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS the present Harbour of Port Patrick, in the County of Wigton in Scotland, has been found insufficient for the Purpose of affording proper Accommodation to His Majesty's Packets on the Station between Port Patrick and Donaghadee; and it is desirable and expedient that, for the more regular and speedy Conveyance of the Mails, a fit and proper Harbour for that Purpose should be constructed at Port Patrick: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there shall be issued and paid at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, from time to time, to such Persons as shall be appointed Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, any Sum or Sums not exceeding Ten thousand Pounds, without any Deduction whatever, to be applied by such Commissioners towards improving of the said Harbour and rendering the same a more fit Situation for His Majesty's Packets.

10,000*l.* paid out of Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners for executing Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That Sir William Maxwell of Commissioners. Monreith, Baronet, Sir Andrew Agnew of Lochnaw, Baronet, Sir James Dalrymple Hay of Park Place, Baronet, Sir Hew Dalrymple

Treasury to add Four to the Number of Commissioners.

Three Commissioners may act.

Treasury to supply Vacancies.

Commissioners to take the following Oath.

ple Hamilton of Bargarry, Baronet, James Hunter Blair, Esquire, Thomas Francis Kennedy, Esquire, John Vans Agnew, Esquire, of Shenchan, John Cathcart, Esquire, of Genoch, Edward Hull, Esquire, the Reverend John M'Kenzie, Doctor in Divinity, the Collector of the Customs at Port Patrick for the time being, and also such other Person or Persons, not exceeding Four in Number, as shall be nominated and appointed by the Lord High Treasurer, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, who is and are hereby authorised and empowered to make such Nomination and Appointment, shall be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Three or more of them, who are hereby declared to be a Quorum, to do any Act, Matter or Thing whatever in the Execution of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Vacancy or Vacancies by Death or Resignation of any one or more of the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, for the time being, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as he or they may think proper to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies; and that every Person so nominated and appointed shall be invested with all such Powers as are by this Act given to any Commissioner appointed by this Act, in whose Room such Person or Persons shall be nominated and appointed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Commissioner for the Execution of this Act shall take and subscribe the Oath following, before he shall take upon himself the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, other than administering the said Oath:

' I A. B. do swear, That I will, without Favour or Affection, Hatred or Malice, truly, faithfully and impartially, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform all and every of the Powers, Authorities and Duties of a Commissioner, reposed in me under and by virtue of an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act].
' So help me GOD.'

Which Oath any one of the said Commissioners, or any Person named in any Appointment of Commissioners, is hereby authorised and required to administer at the first or any other Meeting to be held by virtue of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, for the time being, from time to time to nominate and appoint a Secretary to the said Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to nominate and appoint One or more Clerk or Clerks, and also from time to time to employ such Engineers, Surveyors and other Officers, and such Labourers, Workmen and Artificers, as the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any

Three of them, shall think proper and expedient for the better carrying into execution the Purposes of this Act, and to pay and allow to such Secretary and Clerk such Salary or Allowance as the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, with the Consent of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, shall think fit.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Secretary and Clerk, and every Engineer, Person and Officer to be appointed under this Act, shall take and subscribe the following Oath, before he shall take upon himself the Execution of any of the Duties annexed to his said Office; which Oath any one of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or any Justice of the Peace of the said County of Wigton, is hereby authorised and empowered to administer:

Secretary and other Officers to take the following Oath.

‘ I C.D. do swear, That I will truly and faithfully, without Fraud or Concealment, do, perform and execute the several Duties attached to the Office of Secretary (Clerk, Engineer, Surveyor, &c.) to which I have been appointed under the Commissioners for improving and completing the Harbour at Port Patrick in the County of Wigton; and that I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any Monies, Fees, Perquisites or Profits, by way of Commission, Premium, Percentage, Poundage or otherwise, for or by reason of the said Office or any of the Duties annexed thereto, or by reason of any Account, Contract or Payment made or to be made, or in any way relating to the said Harbour, or any of the Materials or Works thereof, save such Payment and Compensation only as shall be paid or allowed to me by the said Commissioners. So help me GOD.’

And if any such Secretary, Clerk, Engineer, Surveyor or Officer, shall be guilty of any Fraud, Concealment or other Matter contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Oath, and be thereof convicted, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and it shall be lawful for the Court, by and before whom such Person shall be tried and convicted, to inflict such Punishment as may be by Law inflicted on a Person guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Officers guilty of Fraud; Misdemeanor.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary for the time being; and that all Actions, Suits, Prosecutions, Informations, Appeals and other Proceedings whatsoever, that may be had, taken, prosecuted or defended by or against the said Commissioners, shall be had, taken and prosecuted in the Name of their said Secretary; and that no such Action, Suit, Prosecution, Information, Appeal or other Proceedings, shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Secretary, but that the Secretary for the time being shall be always deemed the Party suing or defending in every such Action.

Commissioners may sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or such Person or Persons as they shall by any Writing or Writings under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three or more of them, nominate and appoint, and their Agents, Officers, Workmen and Servants, and they are hereby authorised, empowered and required, to XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That just Compensation shall be made to the Owners and Occupiers of all Lands, Grounds, Houses, Walls and Fences required for the Purposes of this Act, and for all Damage done to the same by carrying this Act into Execution; and before entering upon any such Lands, Grounds, Houses, Walls or Fences, or injuring the same, the said Commissioners shall give at least Six Calendar Months' Notice in Writing to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, and shall also make Payment or a Tender of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be agreed upon, or shall be ascertained to be a just Compensation for the same as herein directed, or in case of Refusal to take or accept the same, shall deposit the same in one of the Banks after mentioned, as hereinafter directed.

Purchase Money, if refused, paid into Bank.

If Persons cannot agree as to Value of Premises, or refuse to treat, a Jury to be summoned to value Premises.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act cannot agree with the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands or Hereditaments required for the Purposes of this Act, or the Damage to be done to the same in the Execution thereof, as to the Value of such Lands, Houses or Hereditaments, or the Amount of such Damage; or in case such Owners or Occupiers shall refuse to treat with the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for the same, Application shall be made by the said Commissioners or their Secretary, to the Sheriff of the said County, to summon a Jury, in order to value the Grounds or Hereditaments so required, or to ascertain the Amount of such Damages; and the said Sheriff is hereby empowered and required upon such Application to order Notice to be given to the Owner or Owners, and Occupier or Occupiers of such Ground or Premises, and afterwards to issue a Summons in the usual Manner for for calling together and impannelling a Jury, consisting of Twelve Persons, who being duly sworn, the said Sheriff shall proceed to examine upon Oath in their Presence such Witnesses as shall be summoned by either Party, and upon their Testimony and other competent Evidence, such Jury shall determine the Price or Damages to be paid by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and in estimating the Sums to be paid to the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Houses or Hereditaments as aforesaid, and in making up their Verdict, the said Jury are hereby empowered to take under their Consideration all Circumstances, particularly the Advantages arising to the Owners and Occupiers by the Alterations or Improvements directed by this Act; and after a Verdict is pronounced as aforesaid, the said Sheriff is hereby required to adjudge Payment of the Value and Amount of the Loss or Damage thereby awarded to the Persons having a Right thereto; and upon Payment or a Tender of Payment being made by the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall from thenceforth be entitled to take and use the Ground and Premises so valued for the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually ever after to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Owner or Owners, and Occupier or Occupiers of the Lands, Houses, Grounds or Hereditaments, had executed regular Conveyances of the same; and the said Proceedings and Orders of the Sheriff shall be final and conclusive, and not removeable to, or liable to review by any Court whatever, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in the event that such Jury shall award a greater Compensation than the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall have offered, but less than the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, shall have required, the Expense of the Proceedings shall be defrayed and borne by the said Commissioners, and the said Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, equally; but in case the said Jury shall award to such Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, the Sum so required, or any greater Sum, the whole of the said Expense shall be paid by the said Commissioners; and on the other hand, if the said Jury shall award the Sum offered by the said Commissioners, or a less Sum, the whole of the said Expense shall be paid by the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers: Provided always, that in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall by reason of Absence be prevented from treating with the said Commissioners, such Costs and Expenses shall be borne and paid by the said Commissioners.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, purchased, taken or used by virtue of the Powers of this Act, for the Purposes thereof, which are held under Entail, or are subject to Life Rents, Annuities or other Incumbrances, or shall belong to any Corporation, married Woman, Infant, Lunatic, or Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, such Money, in case the same shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, shall be, under the Direction and by the Authority of the Court of Session, with all convenient Speed, paid into the Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company,

C A P. CXIII.

An Act for granting a certain Sum of Money towards improving the Harbour of Donaghadee in Ireland, and rendering it a more fit Situation for His Majesty's Packets.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS the Port of Donaghadee in the County of Down in Ireland is now a Station for His Majesty's Packets to and from Port Patrick in Scotland; and the improving and completing the said Port of Donaghadee and the Harbour there would be highly beneficial in facilitating the Intercourse between His Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain and Ireland, and in affording Accommodation to Cruizers employed in the Prevention of Smuggling, and to the Shipping navigating the Channel: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland arising in Ireland there shall be issued and paid, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, to such Persons as shall be appointed Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds British Currency, without any Deduction whatever; which Sum shall be applied by such Commissioners towards improving the said Harbour, and rendering the same a more fit Situation for His Majesty's Packets.

A Sum not exceeding 10,000*l.* to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners for executing this Act.

The Lord Lieutenant may appoint 12 Persons to be Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, to appoint by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, any Persons whom he or they may think proper, not exceeding Twelve in Number, to be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, who shall act without Fee or Reward; and such Persons so to be appointed shall be and are hereby appointed Commis-

Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for any Three of the said Commissioners to do any Act, Matter or Thing whatever, in the Execution of this Act, except in Cases specially provided for by this Act.

Three Commissioners may act.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to revoke or annul the Appointment of any Person or Persons so appointed to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and that in case of any Vacancy or Vacancies, either by such Revocation, or by the Death or Resignation of any one or more of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for the time being, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, from time to time to nominate and appoint such other Person or Persons to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall think proper and fit to supply such Vacancies; and every Person so nominated and appointed shall have such and the like Power and Authorities for carrying this Act into Execution, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as the Persons originally appointed to be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act.

Appointments may be revoked.

Lord Lieutenant to supply Vacancies.

New Commissioners to have the like Power.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Commissioner for the Execution of this Act shall take and subscribe the Oath following, before he shall take upon himself the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, other than administering the said Oath:

Commissioners to take the following Oath.

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will, without Favour or Affection, Hatred or Malice, truly, faithfully and impartially, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform all and every of the Powers, Authorities and Duties of a Commissioner reposed in me under and by virtue of an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act, &c. &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].
‘ So help me GOD.’

Which Oath any one Commissioner for the Execution of this Act, or any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, is hereby authorised and required to administer at the first or any other Meeting to be held by virtue of this Act.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint a Secretary.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and he and they is and are hereby authorised, empowered and required, from time to time to nominate and appoint a Secretary to the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorised and empowered to nominate and appoint one or more Clerk or Clerks, and also from time to time to employ such Engineers, Surveyors and other Officers, and such Artificers, Workmen and Labourers, as the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them shall think proper and expedient for the better carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act, and to pay and allow to such Secretary and Clerk or Clerks such Salary or Allowance as the said Commissioners with the Consent of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit: Provided always, that every such Secretary, Clerk, Engineer, Surveyor or other Officer shall take and subscribe the following Oath, before such Secretary or Clerk shall take upon himself the Execution of any of the Duties annexed to his said Office; which Oath any one of the said Commissioners or any Justice of the Peace is hereby authorised and empowered to administer:

Commissioners to appoint Clerks and employ Engineers, &c. and Workmen.

Secretary and other Officers to take the following Oath.

‘ I C. D. do swear, That I will well, truly and faithfully, without Fraud or Concealment, do, perform and execute the several Duties attached to the Office of Secretary or Clerk, Engineer, Surveyor, or other Officer, as the Case may be, to the Commissioners for improving and completing the Harbour of Donaghadee; and that I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any Monies, Fees, Perquisites or Profits, by way of Commission, Premium, Percentage, Poundage or otherwise, for as by reason of any Account, Contract or Payment made or to be made, or in any way relating to the said Harbour, or of any of the Materials or Works thereof, save such Payment and Compensation only as shall be paid or allowed to me by the said Commissioners.’

Officers guilty of Fraud to be punished for a Misdemeanor.

And if any such Secretary, Clerk, Engineer, Surveyor or other Officer so sworn, shall be guilty of any Fraud, Concealment or other Matter, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Oath, and shall be thereof convicted, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and it shall be lawful for the Court by and before whom such Person shall be tried and convicted, to inflict such Punishment as may be by Law inflicted on a Person guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Commissioners may enter into Contracts.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for the time being, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to contract and agree with any fit and proper Person or Persons, Engineer, Surveyor, Artificers, Workmen and others, for the making, doing, completing and finishing all or any of the Quays, Piers, Walls, Erections, Roads and Works, requisite to be done and performed for the improving, enlarging and completing the said Harbour at Donaghadee, or any Part thereof, or for supplying any of the Materials for the same; and every such Contract shall be signed by the Person or Persons contracting or agreeing to perform such Works respectively, and also by Three or more of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, or by the Secretary, authorised by Four or more of the said Commissioners for that Purpose; and that all Contracts which shall be so entered into shall be and the same are hereby declared good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Commissioners may purchase Premises.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to purchase all such Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, as may be fit, proper and requisite for enabling the said

Com-

Commissioners to carry the Purposes of this Act into due Execution and Effect.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That a Map or Plan of all such Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises so required to be purchased, shall be laid before the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and his or their Consent and Approbation shall be obtained for the Purchase of all such Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, before the Purchase of the same or any Part thereof shall be carried into effect by the said Commissioners; and all such Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, which shall be so purchased and employed for the Purposes of this Act, shall, when so purchased, be vested in the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and shall be taken Possession of and shall be employed for the Purposes of this Act, according to the Directions of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, under the Regulations in this Act mentioned and contained.

Plan of such Premises to be laid before the Lord Lieutenant for his Consent.

Premises, when purchased, to vest in the Commissioners.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Tenants for Life, or in Fee Tail, General or Special, Parsons, Vicars, and Feoffees in Trust, Committees of Lunatics and Idiots, Executors, Guardians, Administrators and other Trustees whatsoever, for or in behalf of any Infants, Females or Cestuique Trusts, and for all and every Person and Persons whomsoever, who are or shall be seised, possessed of or interested in any of the Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises to be purchased as aforesaid by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to treat, contract and agree with the said Commissioners for the Purchase of such Lands, Grounds, Buildings, Houses, Hereditaments and Premises, or any Part or Parts thereof, and for their Interest or Interests therein, for the Purposes aforesaid, and to sell and convey the same as Occasion shall be or require; and all Contracts and Agreements, Sales and Conveyances, which shall be so made, shall be valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes, any Law, Statute or Usage, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all Feoffees in Trust, Committees of Lunatics and Idiots, Executors, Guardians, Administrators and Trustees, Corporations Aggregate and Sole, and all other Persons, are and shall be hereby indemnified for what they shall do by virtue or in pursuance of this Act.

Bodies Corporate, &c. may enter into Contract with Commissioners for the Sale of Premises.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons seised or possessed of or interested in any Ground, Lands, Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises, which shall be deemed necessary to be purchased by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall refuse to treat or agree for the Sale thereof, or shall not agree with the said Commissioners in the Sum of Money offered to be given for the same, or shall not or cannot produce a clear Title to the Premises they are in possession of, or the Interest they claim therein, that then and in every such Case, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or any Three of them, not being Rights, Titles, Terms and Interests as aforesaid, and the said Commissioners or any Three of them, not being interested as aforesaid, or their Secretary, shall and may award and give Judgment for such Sum or Sums of Money so to be assessed and awarded; which said Verdict or Verdicts, and the said Award, Judgment and Determination thereupon, Notice in Writing being given to the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, interested, at least Twenty one Days before the Time of the first Meeting of the said Jury, declaring the Time and Place of the Meeting and the Purposes for which the same is had, by leaving such Notice at the Dwelling House of such Person or Persons, or at his, her or their usual Place or Places of Abode, if then resident within Ireland, and if not, then with the known Agent or Receiver of the Rents of such Person or Persons as shall be then absent from Ireland, or if a Body Politic or Corporate, then with the ostensible or acting Officer of such Body Politic or Corporate, shall be binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, against all and every Person and Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, claiming any Estate, Right, Title, Trust, Use or Interest into or out of any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Houses or Premises, either in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or Expectancy, as well Infants and Issue unborn, Lunatics, Idiots and Feme Coverts, and Persons under legal Incapacity or Disqualification, and all other Custuige Trusts, his, her and their Successors, Executors and Administrators, and against all other Persons whomsoever; and the said Verdicts, Awards, Judgments and Decrees, and all other Proceedings of the said Commissioners and Juries, to be made, given and pronounced as aforesaid, shall be fairly written on Parchment, and signed by the said Commissioners who shall pronounce such Judgment.

Verdict and Judgment thereupon to be binding on all Parties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when the Value of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or the Recompence for any Damage done or to be done in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall be submitted to a Jury, such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and the Damage done thereto, shall be valued by such Jury with respect to the actual State, Situation and Value of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in like Manner as if this Act had not been made, and not according to the additional Value which such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments may acquire or be supposed to acquire by the making, improving and completing the said Harbour, or by any future Improvements to be made, or which might be made in any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in consequence of such Harbour, or the Expenditure which shall be laid out for the Purposes of this Act.

Actual Value of the Premises, without any Reference to future Improvement, to be submitted to the Jury.

XII. And be it further enacted, That upon Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money so to be awarded or adjudged to the Person, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, to whom the same shall be awarded for the Purchase of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments as aforesaid, or for the Purchase of any Estate, Right, Title, Term or Interest therein, or on depositing the same in the Bank of Ireland, in Manner by this Act directed, as the case may be, such Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, shall make and execute, or cause or procure to be made

Verdicts and Proceedings to be enrolled in the Court of Chancery of Ireland, and deemed Evidence, and thereupon, and on Payment of Purchase Money or Deposition thereof into the Bank, Premises to vest in the Commissioners.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Judgments, Verdicts, Sentences, Decrees, Orders, and other Proceedings of the said Commissioners and Juries, as relate to or concern the Premises aforesaid, shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and the same or true Copies thereof shall be deemed and taken to be good and sufficient Evidence and Proof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity whatsoever; and immediately on the Entry of such Verdicts, Judgments, Sentences, Decrees, Orders, and other Proceedings of the said Commissioners and Juries as aforesaid, and on Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money agreed on or adjudged or awarded for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to the Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to the Person or Persons who shall be entitled to receive such Money, or on Payment of such Money, respecting which any Difficulties, Disputes or Differences shall arise, into the Bank of Ireland in Manner and for the Purposes herein mentioned, all the Estate, Right, Title, Term, Interest, Use, Property, Claim and Demand in Law and Equity, of the Persons to whom or to whose Use such Money shall be paid as aforesaid, shall pass to and be vested in the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, who shall be deemed in Law to be in the actual Possession thereof, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

How the Expenses of Jury to be paid.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Jury shall give a Verdict for more Monies as a Recompence for the Right, Interest or Property of any Person or Persons in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, than what shall have been offered by the said Commissioners before the summoning or returning the Jury, as a Recompence for any such Right, Interest or Property; that then and in such case, the Costs and Expenses attending the deciding the same by such Jury and Witnesses shall be borne and paid by the said Commissioners out of any Money received by such Commissioners by virtue of this Act; but if such Jury shall give a Verdict for no more or for less Monies than shall have been offered by the said Commissioners before the summoning and returning the said Jury, as a Recompence for any such Right and Interest or Property as aforesaid, that then the Costs and Expenses attending the deciding the same by such Jury and Witnesses shall be borne and paid by the Person or Persons to whom such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall belong.

How Purchase Money for Lands, &c. belonging to Corporations or incapacitated Persons

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments purchased by virtue of the Powers and for the Purposes of this Act, which shall belong to any Corporation, Feme Covert, Infant, Lunatic, or Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or seised or possessed of only a particular or determinable minable Estate or Interest therein, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with all convenient Speed be paid into the Bank of Ireland, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be placed to his Account ex parte the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, to the Intent that such Money may be applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way by the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the same Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, towards the Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or such other Incumbrances or Part thereof as the said Court shall authorise to be paid, affecting the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or affecting other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments standing settled therewith to the same or the like Uses, Intents or Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for and upon such and the like Trusts, Uses, Intents and Purposes, and in the same Manner as the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments which shall be so purchased, taken or used as aforesaid, stood settled or limited, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing, undetermined and capable of taking Effect; and in the meantime and until such Purchase shall be made, the said Money shall by Order of the said Court of Chancery, upon Application thereto, be vested by the said Accountant General in his Name in the Purchase of some of the Public Funds or Annuities transferrable at the Bank of Ireland; and in the meantime and until the said Public Funds or Annuities shall be ordered by the said Court to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid, the Dividends and Annual Produce of the said Funds or Annuities shall from time to time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Person or Persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such Purchase or Settlement were made.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments purchased for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person or Persons under Incapacity or Disability as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in such case the same shall, at the Option of the Person or Persons for the time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Hereditaments taken or used, or of his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, in case of Infancy or Lunacy (to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands), be paid into the Bank of Ireland, in the Name and with the Privy of the said Accountant General of the said High Court of Chancery, and be placed to his Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in the Manner hereinbefore directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid at the like Option to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person or Persons making such Option, and approved of by the Commissioners for executing this Act, (such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties,) in order that such Principal Money and the Dividends arising therefrom may be applied in Manner hereinbefore directed, so far as the same may be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Chancery.

When Purchase Money does not exceed 20l.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where such Money so agreed or awarded to be paid as last before mentioned, shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, then and in all such cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Hereditaments so purchased, taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall think fit; or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, then to his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons entitled respectively.

In default of Title, Refusal to execute Conveyance, or if the Owners cannot be found, Money awarded shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland, in the Name of the Accountant General in Chancery, for the Parties interested.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so ordered to be paid as aforesaid shall not be able to make a good Title to the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or shall refuse to execute such Conveyance or Conveyances, or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so ordered to be paid as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments be not known or discovered, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order the said Sum or Sums of Money so awarded to be paid into the Bank of Ireland in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account, to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, describing them, subject to the Order, Controul and Disposition of the said Court; which said Court, on the Application of any Person or Persons making claim to such Sum or Sums of Money or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, shall be and is hereby empowered, in a summary Way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, or to order Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Estate and Estates, Title or Interest of the Person or Persons making Claim thereunto, and to make such Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier of the Bank of Ireland, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, is and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums of Money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received, to such Person or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the said Bank as aforesaid.

Cashier to give Receipts specifying for whose Use the Money is paid.

XIX. Pro-

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of Ireland in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or to the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Annuities, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Lands or Hereditaments at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shewn to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Monies, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

In Cases of Question touching Title, Persons in Possession deemed Owners until the contrary shewn to the Court of Chancery.

XX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of any Person or Persons or Corporation entitled to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the said Court, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be settled to the like Uses in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expenses of all Purchases to be made from time to time in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expenses as the Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Order, to be paid by the said Trustees, who shall from time to time pay such Sum of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

In Cases where Money is paid into Court to be laid out in the Purchase of other Premises, Expenses to be paid by Trustees.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, by and with the Consent and Advice of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to contract for the granting, leasing, selling, or disposing of, and to grant, lease, sell and dispose of any Part of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall or may from time to time be purchased under this Act, and which shall or may not be necessary for the Purposes thereof: Provided always, that every Contract and every Lease or Sale of any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Part of them, shall receive the separate and distinct Approbation and Consent of such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, and shall be made after public Notice given of such intended Contract, Lease or Sale, in such Manner and under such Regulations as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall from time

c. 23.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled An Act for the better apprehending, prosecuting and punishing of Felons that commit Burglary, Housebreaking or Robbery, in Shops, Warehouses, Coachhouses or Stables, or that steal Horses, it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every Person and Persons that shall at any time or times, by Night or in the Daytime, from and after the Twentieth Day of May in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety nine, in any Shop, Warehouse, Coachhouse or Stable, privately and feloniously steal any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, being of the Value of Five Shillings or more, although such Shop, Warehouse, Coachhouse or Stable be not actually broke open by such Offender or Offenders, and although the Owners of such Goods, or any other Person or Persons be or be not in such Shop, Warehouse, Coachhouse or Stable, to be put in Fear, or shall assist, hire or command any Person or Persons to commit such Offence, being thereof convicted or attainted by Verdict or Confession, or being indicted thereof shall stand mute or will not directly answer to the Indictment, or shall peremptorily challenge above the Number of Three and twenty Persons returned to be of the Jury, shall be absolutely debarred and excluded of and from the Benefit of Clergy: And Whereas the said Act has not been found effectual for the Prevention of the Crimes therein mentioned; and it is therefore expedient that so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited should be repealed: And Whereas it might tend more effectually to prevent the Crime of Larceny in Shops, Warehouses, Coachhouses and Stables, if every such Offence were punishable more severely than simple Larceny: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as is herein-

Repealed.

hereinbefore recited shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed, as to privately and feloniously stealing any Goods, Wares or Merchandises under the Value of Fifteen Pounds.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Person who shall privately and feloniously steal any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, of the Value of Five Shillings or more, being under the Value of Fifteen Pounds, in any Shop, Warehouse, Coachhouse or Stable, or who shall aid or assist any Person to commit such Offence, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for such Term, not less than Seven Years, as the Court before which any such Person shall be convicted shall adjudge; or shall be liable, in case the said Court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol, House of Correction or Penitentiary House, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

Persons privately stealing Goods of the Value of 5s. and under 15l. liable to be transported, &c.

C A P. CXVIII.

An Act for reducing, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the Duty on Malt made from Bear or Bigg only, for Home Consumption in Scotland.
[25th July 1820.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties of Excise on Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, Pepper, Malt and British Spirits, and consolidating the same with the former Duties thereon, and for amending certain Laws of Excise relating thereto; whereby an Excise Duty of Two Shillings and Sixpence was imposed for and upon every Bushel of all Malt made in Great Britain from Barley or any other Corn or Grain: And Whereas it is expedient that a smaller Duty should for a limited time be levied upon such Malt as shall be made for Home Consumption in Scotland from Bear or Bigg only, than upon Malt made from Barley or other Corn or Grain: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the Sum which (in addition to the annual Duty of One Shilling per Bushel) shall be raised and levied pursuant to the said recited Act upon such Malt as shall from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, be made from Bear or Bigg only, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Home Consumption in Scotland, shall be the Sum of Two Shillings for and in respect of every Bushel of such Malt as shall, from and after the Day last aforesaid, be made from Bear or Bigg only, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Home Consumption in Scotland, in place of Two Shillings and Sixpence, being the Amount of Duty granted by the said recited Act: Provided

59 G. 3. c. 53.

Sched. A.

Malt made from Bear or Bigg to be charged 2s. instead of 2s. 6d. per Bushel, imposed by recited Act:

But 2s. 6d. per Bushel to be paid for Malt brought into England.

nevertheless, that from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Duty of Two Shillings and Sixpence imposed by the said recited Act shall be charged and paid, according to the Provisions thereof, for and upon every Bushel of all Malt whatsoever, which shall be made in and brought from Scotland into England, or which shall be made by any Maltster or Maker of Malt in Scotland, save and except such Malt only as shall be made for Home Consumption in Scotland by any such Maltster or Maker of Malt from Bear or Bigg only, according to and under the several Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions hereinafter mentioned.

Makers of Malt from Bear or Bigg to make Entry of Cistern and Vats, &c. at the next Office of Excise, and make Declaration as herein mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, all and every Person or Persons who shall propose or intend to make Malt from Bear or Bigg only in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Home Consumption in Scotland, before he, she or they shall erect, set up, alter, enlarge or make use of any Cistern, Uting Vat or other Utensil for wetting or steeping Bear or Bigg to be made into Malt, or any Kiln, Floor, Room or other Place for the making or keeping of such Malt, or for the laying or keeping of Bear or Bigg for the Purpose of being made into Malt, shall make a true and particular Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise of every such Cistern, Uting Vat, Utensil, Kiln, Floor, Room or Place whatsoever, and shall in such Entry express and declare that he, she or they is or are to make Malt for Home Consumption in Scotland from Bear or Bigg only, and from no other Grain whatsoever mixed or unmixed with Bear or Bigg, on pain of forfeiting for every Cistern, Uting Vat, Utensil, Kiln, Floor, Room or Place whatsoever, erected, set up, altered, enlarged or made use of by such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt as aforesaid, without such Entry, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling; and if any such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt, shall not, in the Entry so made or directed to be made as aforesaid, express and declare that he, she or they is or are to make Malt for Home Consumption in Scotland from Bear or Bigg only, and from no other Grain, then and in every such Case such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt respectively, shall be deemed and taken to be, and is and are hereby expressly declared to be, a Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt from Barley or other Corn or Grain, subject to the full Duty imposed by the said recited Act, of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Bushel of Malt made by him, her or them, and to all other Duties, Regulations, Provisions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which any Maltsters or Makers of Malt from Barley or other Corn or Grain are subject and liable by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force.

Penalty of 200l.

Maltsters not making such Declaration deemed Maltsters malting from Barley subject to 2s. 6d. per Bushel.

In what Case Entry to remain in force for Three Months, and from that Time till Notice of withdrawing the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when and so often as any such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt from Bear or Bigg only, shall have made such Entry as aforesaid, expressing that he is to make Malt for Home Consumption in Scotland from Bear or Bigg only, such Entry shall be and remain in force, as to such Maltster or Maker, and the Place and Utensils in such Entry mentioned, for the Space of

Three

Three Months at the least from the making thereof, and shall likewise continue in force at all times after the Expiration of such Three Months until such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt respectively, shall deliver to and leave with the proper Officer of Excise a Notice in Writing signifying that he, she or they has or have withdrawn and renounced the said Entry, and is or are no longer to continue to make Malt from Bear or Bigg only in manner aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt, for Home Consumption in Scotland, from Bear or Bigg only, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be permitted to withdraw or renounce his, her or their Entry so made as aforesaid, at any time, until all the Bear or Bigg in his, her or their Custody or Possession shall have been and is completely made into Malt and dried off, and until the whole thereof has been taken account of, and the Duties thereon have been duly charged by the proper Officer of Excise, and paid; but the Officers of Excise shall and may continue to survey such Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt, until the whole of such Bear or Bigg is completely made into Malt, dried off, taken account of, and charged with Duty, and such Duty is paid, as before mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of Ju'y One thousand eight hundred and twenty, no Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt in Scotland, from Barley or other Corn or Grain, shall be permitted to make an Entry under the Provisions of this Act as a Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt from Bear or Bigg only, for Home Consumption in Scotland, until all the Malt made by him, her, or them from Barley or other Corn or Grain, or from Bear or Bigg mixed with other Grain, shall be completely dried off, taken account of, and charged with Duty, and such Duty paid, and until all the Barley and other Corn or Grain mixed or unmixed with Bear or Bigg, in his, her or their Custody or Possession, shall be completely removed and carried away from his, her or their Possession and Premises; and no Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt for Home Consumption in Scotland from Bear or Bigg only, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be permitted to make an Entry as a Maltster or Maltsters, or Maker or Makers of Malt from Barley or other Corn or Grain, until all the Malt so by him made under the Provisions of this Act, from Bear or Bigg only, for Home Consumption in Scotland, shall be completely dried off, taken account of, and charged with Duty, and such Duty paid, and shall be completely removed, and carried away from his, her or their Possession and Premises, and until after the Expiration of Three Months from the Time of making such Entry for making Malt for Home Consumption in Scotland, from Bear or Bigg only as aforesaid; and all or any Entry or Entries which shall be made, or offered or tendered to be made, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall be and is hereby declared to be wholly null and void.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, no Maltster or Maltsters, Maker or Makers of Malt from Barley Maltsters not allowed to withdraw Entry till the Bear or Bigg in Possession is made into Malt, and accounted for and charged with Duty.

she was committed to Prison, Thirty Days before any such Sale shall be made, shall, under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, approve; and every such Assignee or Assignees, at the End of Three Months at the farthest from the Time of his, her, or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance as aforesaid, and so from time to time as Occasion shall require, shall make up an Account of such Prisoner's Estate, and make Oath in Writing, before an Officer of the said Court to be appointed for that Purpose, or before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty or Place in which such Assignee or Assignees shall reside, that such Account contains a fair and just Account of the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner got in by or for such Assignee or Assignees, and of all Payments made in respect thereof, and that all Payments in every such Account charged were truly and bonâ fide made and paid, which Account so sworn shall be filed with the proper Officer of the said Court; and if it shall appear that such Assignee or Assignees has in his or their Hands any Balance wherewith a Dividend may be made amongst the Creditors of such Prisoner, whose Debts are expressed in the Schedule delivered by such Prisoner, such Assignee or Assignees shall forthwith declare the Amount of the Balance in his Hands, wherewith such Dividend may be made; and Notice of the making of every such Dividend shall be published, in like Manner as a Meeting of Creditors is hereinbefore directed to be published, Thirty Days at least before such Dividend shall be made; and every Creditor whose Debts shall be stated admitted in the Prisoner's Schedule shall be allowed to receive a Share of such Dividend, unless such Prisoner, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, or any other Creditor of such Prisoner, shall object to any such Debt, in which Case the same shall be examined into by the said Court, who shall have full Power for that Purpose to require and compel the Production of all Books, Papers, and Writings which may be necessary to be produced, as well by the Person or Persons claiming such Debt, as by the Prisoner against whom the same shall be claimed, or his or her Assignee or Assignees, and to examine all such Persons and their Witnesses on Oath, as the Nature of the Case may require, and to take all other Measures necessary for the due Investigation of such Claim; and the Decision of the said Court upon such Claim shall be conclusive with respect to any Dividend of the Effects of such Prisoner, under the Provisions of this Act.

‘ VIII. And Whereas Prisoners discharged by virtue of this Act may be entitled to Annuities for their own Lives, or other uncertain Interests, or to reversionary or contingent Interests, or to Property under such Circumstances that the immediate Sale thereof, for Payment of their Debts, may be very prejudicial to them, and deprive them of the Means of Subsistence which they might otherwise have after Payment of their Debts; and it may be proper in some Cases to authorise the raising of Money by way of Mortgage, for Payment of the Debts or Part of the Debts of a Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, and defraying the Expenses attending the Execution of this Act, instead of selling the Property of such Prisoner for such Purposes;

' Purposes; ' Be it enacted, That in all such Cases it shall be lawful for the said Court to take into Consideration all Circumstances affecting the Property of any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, either at the Time of the Discharge of such Prisoner or at any subsequent Time; and if it shall appear to the said Court that it would be reasonable to make any special Order touching the same, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to do, and to direct that such Property as it may be expedient not to sell, or not to sell immediately, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall not be so sold, and from time to time to order and direct in what Manner such Property shall be managed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner, until the same can be properly sold, or until Payment of all such Creditors according to the Provisions of this Act, and to make such Order touching the Sale or Disposition of such Property as to the said Court shall seem reasonable, considering the Rights of the Creditors of such Prisoner to Payment of their Demands, and the future Benefit of such Prisoner after Payment of his or her Debts, and upon such Terms and Conditions with respect to the Allowance of Interest on Debts not bearing Interest, or other Circumstances, as to the said Court shall seem just; and if it shall appear to the said Court that the Debts of such Prisoner can be discharged by means of Money raised by way of Mortgage on any Property of such Prisoner, instead of raising the same by Sale, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to order, and to give all necessary Directions for such Purpose, and generally to direct all things which may be proper for the Discharge of the Debts of such Prisoner, in such Manner as may be most consistent with the Interests of such Prisoner in any Surplus of his or her Effects after Payment of such Debts.

Court to give Directions as to the Disposal of Property in the Cases herein mentioned.

Property may be mortgaged if more beneficial.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case such Prisoner, or any of his or her Creditors, or the said Court, shall at any time be dissatisfied with the Account of any Assignee or Assignees, so rendered upon Oath as aforesaid; or in case any such Assignee or Assignees shall neglect to render such Account, or shall neglect to dispose of the Property, or collect the Effects of such Prisoner, or shall in any manner waste or mismanage the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, or neglect to make a due Distribution thereof; it shall be lawful for such Court, or of any such Creditor as aforesaid, to require such Assignee or Assignees to render such Account, on Oath, as is directed by this Act, if not before rendered, and to examine any Account so rendered, and to inquire into any Waste, Mismanagement, or Neglect of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, and direct a proper Administration thereof, and ascertain the Produce of such Estate and Effects, to be divided amongst the Creditors of such Prisoner, and direct the Distribution thereof accordingly; and to require and compel the Production of all Books, Papers, and Writings necessary for such Purposes, and to examine all Parties, and their Writings, on Oath, as the case may require; and to take all such Measures as shall be necessary for the compelling and rendering of such Account, and the due Investigation thereof, and the proper Disposition and Distribution of the Effects of such Prisoner, according to this Act. and to award Costs against any of the Parties, as Justice shall

XI. Provided, and be it also enacted, That no Suit in Law be proceeded in further than an Arrest on Mesne Process, or Suit in Equity be commenced by any Assignee or Assignees of any such Prisoner's Estate and Effects, without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall meet together pursuant to a Notice to be given, at least Fourteen Days before such Meeting, in the London Gazette, or other Newspaper which shall be published in the Neighbourhood of the last Residence of such Prisoner, for that Purpose, and without the Approbation of One of the Commissioners of the said Court.

XII. And Whereas many Persons who may claim the Benefit, or be brought within the Operation of this Act, are seized and possessed of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to hold for the Term of their natural Lives, with Power of granting Leases and taking Fines, reserving small Rents on such Estate, for One, Two or Three Lives, in Possession or Reversion, or for some Number of Years determinable upon Lives, or have Powers over such Real or Personal Estate which such Prisoners could execute for their own Advantage, and which said Powers ought to be executed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoners; Be it therefore enacted, That in every such case all and every the Powers of leasing such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other such Powers as aforesaid over such Real or Personal Estates, which are or shall be vested in any such Prisoner as aforesaid, shall and are hereby vested in the Assignee or Assignees of the Real and Personal Estate of such Prisoner, by virtue of this Act, so far as the Prisoner could by Law vest such Power in any Person to whom he might lawfully have conveyed such Property, to be by such Assignee or Assignees executed for the Benefit of all and every the Creditors of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful at all times hereafter for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Prisoner, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall shall be present at a Meeting to be had on Fourteen Days' Notice previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned in the London Gazette, if the Prisoner was in Custody in London or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City or Place in or near which such Prisoner shall have been in such actual Custody, and with the Approbation of one of the Commissioners of the said Court, to make Compositions with any Debtors or Accountants to such Prisoner, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debts as can upon such Composition be gotten in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts; and to submit to Arbitration any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons, for or on account or by reason of any Matter, Cause or Thing relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the Premises in pursuance of this Act.

and submit to Arbitration.

Indemnified.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Assignee so appointed shall be unwilling to act, or in case of the Death or Incapacity or Misconduct of any such Assignee, it shall be lawful to and for any Creditor of such Prisoner to apply to the said Court to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act to the original Assignee or Assignees; and the said Court shall have Power to remove such Assignees, and to appoint such new Assignee or Assignees, and to oblige any Assignee who shall be removed, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of any deceased Assignee, to account for and deliver up all such Estate and Effects, Books, Papers, Writings, Deeds, and all other Evidences relating thereto, as shall remain in his or her Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act; and the Decision of the said Court thereupon shall be final and conclusive; and from and immediately after such Appointment, all the Estate, Effects, Rights, and Powers of the said Prisoner, vested either in the Provisional Assignee or such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, shall become and the same are hereby vested in such new Assignee or Assignees.

Court may appoint new Assignees in case of Death or Removal.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Assignee or Assignees, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any deceased Assignee or Assignees, shall not deliver over any Part of such Estate or Effects, or pay the Balance of the Produce of any such Estate or Effects found to be in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees, or of such Heirs, Executors or Administrators as aforesaid, according to the Tenor of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court to be established by virtue of this Act to order the Person or Persons so offending to be arrested and committed to the County Gaol nearest to the Place where they shall reside, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Person or Persons shall have fulfilled the Duty required by this Act, or until this Court shall make other Order to the contrary.

When Assignees shall not deliver over Balance of Property, Court may order them to be arrested, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Court shall forthwith, after such Petition and Schedule shall have been respectively filed in the said Court, cause Notice thereof to be given to the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be

Court to give Notice in the London Gazette, &c. to Creditors, after Petition and Schedule shall have been filed.

Creditors may oppose Prisoner's Discharge, put Questions, &c.

Accounts of Prisoner may be referred to an Officer of the Court.

Court, if satisfied with Schedule, &c. may order Prisoner to be discharged as herein mentioned.

What the Order is to specify.

When it shall appear to the Court that such Prisoner shall have destroyed detained, or the Attorney or Agent of such Creditor or Creditors, and to the other Creditors named in the Schedule of such Prisoner, or such of them as the said Court shall think fit, and to be inserted in the London Gazette, and also, if the said Court shall think necessary, in some other Newspaper or Newspapers, and shall appoint a Day and Place for the hearing of the Matter of such Petition; and in case such Notice as the said Court shall direct shall have been given by any Creditor, of his or her Intention to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, it shall and may be lawful both for the said Creditor, and any other of the Creditors of the said Prisoner, to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, and for that Purpose to put such Questions to such Prisoner and examine such Witnesses as the said Court shall think fit, touching the Matters contained in such Petition and Schedule, and touching such other Matters as the said Court shall be of opinion that it may be fit and proper to enquire into, in order to the due Execution of this Act; but no Creditor shall examine or oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner, until he shall make Oath or Affidavit of his Debt, or otherwise satisfy the Court of his Right to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, if required so to do by such Prisoner: Provided always, that at such Hearing, any Creditor or Creditors so opposing may require, or the Court may, if it shall deem it necessary, order that it shall be referred to an Officer of the said Court, to investigate the Accounts of the said Prisoner, and to examine into the Truth of the Schedule of such Prisoner, and to report thereon to the said Court; and the said Court may at such Hearing proceed on the other Matters in opposition to the Discharge of such Prisoner, or adjourn the said Hearing thereof until such Officer shall have so made his Report; and in case such Prisoner shall not be opposed, and the Court shall be satisfied with the said Schedule, and that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, then and in such Case such Court shall so declare, and shall order such Prisoner to be discharged from Custody forthwith, or so soon as such Prisoner shall have been in Custody at the Suit of One or more of the Persons who were Creditors at the Time of petitioning, or who have since become Creditors in respect of Debts then growing due, for such Period or Periods not exceeding Six Months in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed from the Time of filing the Petition of such Prisoner, and shall in such Order specify the several Debts of the said Prisoner to which such Charge shall apply; and such Discharge shall extend to all Process issuing from any Court for any Contempt of any Court, Ecclesiastical or Civil, by Non-payment of Money, or of Costs or Expenses in any Cause or Proceeding in any Court, Ecclesiastical or Civil; and in case it shall appear to such Court, that the Opposition to the Petition of such Prisoner, by any of such Creditors, is frivolous and vexatious, that then it shall and may be lawful for such Court to award such Costs to such Prisoner as shall appear unto the Court to be just and reasonable.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the said Court, that such Prisoner shall, with Intent to conceal the State of his Affairs, or to defeat the Objects of this Act, have destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented or purposely withheld held the Production of any Books, Papers or Writings, relating to such of his Affairs as are subject to Investigation under this Act; or shall have kept or caused to be kept false Books, or made false Entries, or have wilfully and fraudulently altered or falsified any such Books, Papers or Writings; or shall in any respect have been guilty of Fraud, in discharging or concealing any Debt due to or from the said Prisoner; or shall have fraudulently made away with, charged, mortgaged, or concealed any Part of his or her Property of what Kind soever, either before or after the Commencement of his or her said Imprisonment, for the Purpose of diminishing the Sum to be divided among his or her Creditors, or of giving an undue Preference to any of the said Creditors; then it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to order that such Prisoner shall not be discharged out of Custody by virtue of this Act, or receive or be entitled to any Protection under the same, until he shall have been in Custody at the Suit of some one or more of the Persons who were Creditors at the Time of his petitioning the said Court, or had since become Creditors in respect of Debts then growing due, and from whose Claims he shall be discharged by the Judgment of the said Court, for such Period or Periods, not exceeding Three Years in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed from the filing of such Prisoner's Petition to the said Court.

Books or acted fraudulently, &c. Term of Imprisonment may be extended to Three Years.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the said Court that any such Prisoner shall have contracted any of his Debts fraudulently, or by means of false Pretences, or without having had any reasonable or probable Expectation at the Time when contracted of paying the same, or shall be indebted for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation, or for seducing the Daughter of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for a malicious Prosecution, or for any other malicious Injury, or shall have put any of his or her Creditors to any unnecessary Expense, by any vexatious or frivolous Defence to any Suit for recovering the same, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to order that such Prisoner shall not be discharged out of Custody by virtue of this Act, or be entitled to any Benefit or Protection under the same, as to any Debt so contracted, or as to any Damages so incurred, or as to any Debt for recovering of which he shall so have occasioned unnecessary Expense as aforesaid, until he shall have been in Custody at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors whose Debts shall have been so contracted or Damages so incurred, or who shall have been so put to Expense, for such Period or Periods, not exceeding Two Years in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed as aforesaid.

When Prisoners shall have contracted Debts fraudulently, &c. or put their Creditors to any unnecessary Expense, the Court may extend Time of Imprisonment to Two Years.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all cases where such Prisoners shall not be ordered to be discharged forthwith, but to be liable to Imprisonment at the Suit of his Creditor or Creditors, or of any or either of them, it shall be lawful for the said Court, on the Application of such Prisoner, to order the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, to pay to such Prisoner such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Rate of Four Shillings by the Week in the whole, at such Times and in such Manner as the said Court shall direct;

Court may order Creditors to pay Prisoners any Sum not exceeding 4s. per Week.

direct; and that on Failure of Payment thereof as directed by the said Court, such Prisoner shall be forthwith discharged from Custody at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors so failing to pay the same.

Justices of the Peace to appoint in their Districts Examiners, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for every County, Riding, City, Cinque Port, antient Town or Members, Division, Liberty or Place, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, and from time to time afterwards as Occasion may require, shall and may in open Court appoint as many fit Persons as they shall judge sufficient, to be Examiners for the purposes of this Act, within their respective Jurisdiction.

The Court may direct final Examinations to be taken at Quarter Sessions.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Court established by virtue of this Act, shall and may in all cases, as they shall think fit, order and direct that any Prisoner, instead of being brought before such Court for final Examination, shall be examined by the Justices of the Peace in open Court, at their General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at some Adjournment thereof, for any County, Riding, City, Cinque Port, antient Town or Member, Division, Liberty or Place, who are hereby respectively empowered and required to take such Examination pursuant to such Order; and the said Court shall forthwith cause Twenty one Days' Notice to be given in the London Gazette, and in such one or more Newspapers as the said Court shall direct, of the Day on which, and the Place where, the said Prisoner shall be brought before the said Justices for his Examination; and such Prisoner shall, according to such Order, be carried before such Justices, for which such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant; and in case any One Creditor shall give Two Days' Notice to such Prisoner of his or her Intention to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, then it shall and may be lawful for such Creditor, or for any other Creditor, to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, and to put to such Prisoner all such Questions as to such Justices shall appear relevant and proper, and such Prisoner shall answer upon Oath all such Questions; and if it shall appear to such Justices to be expedient and proper that the Accounts of such Prisoner, and the Matters of the Schedule of such Prisoner, should be further investigated and examined, then it shall be lawful for such Justices to adjourn the Hearing of the Petition of such Prisoner to some subsequent General or Quarter or Adjourned Sessions, and at the Request of any one or more Creditors, to order and direct that some one of the Examiners appointed by the said Justices by virtue of this Act, shall examine into the Matters of the said Schedule, and certify his Opinion thereon to the said Justices at such General or Quarter or Adjourned Sessions to which the Hearing of such Petition shall have been adjourned, and of which Adjournment all Parties interested shall take Notice; and that such Examiner shall and may receive for his Trouble the Sum of One Pound and no more for every Meeting under such Order, to be paid for by the Person or Persons requiring the same; and in case it shall appear to the said Justices upon such Examination, or by Evidence, that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, then the said Justices shall so declare and adjudge, and shall certify the same to the Court to be established by virtue of this Act; and in case it shall appear to the said Justices by such Examination, or by Evidence, that such Prisoner shall have contracted any Debts, against which he shall seek to be discharged, fraudulently, or without any reasonable or probable Expectation, at the time of contracting the same, of being able to pay the same, or shall, with Intent to conceal the State of his Affairs, or to defeat the Objects of this Act, have destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented the Production of any Books, Papers or Writings, relating to such of his Affairs as are subject to Investigation under this Act, or shall have kept, or cause to be kept, false Books, or made false Entries, or have wilfully and fraudulently altered or falsified any such Books, Papers or Writings, or shall in any respect have been guilty of Fraud, in contracting, discharging or concealing any Debt due from the said Prisoner to any of his or her Creditors, or shall have fraudulently made away with, charged, mortgaged or concealed any Part of his or her Property, of what Kind soever, either before or after the Commencement of his or her said Imprisonment, for the purpose of diminishing the Sum to be divided among his or her Creditors, or of giving an undue Preference to any of the said Creditors, or that such Prisoner shall have put any of such Creditors as shall have proved their Debts to unnecessary Expense, by any vexatious or frivolous Defence, or improper Delay in any Suit for recovering the same, or that such Prisoner shall have wilfully or fraudulently omitted any Effects or Property whatsoever, to the value of not less than Twenty Pounds in the whole, in the Schedule which the said Prisoner shall first have delivered in to the said Court, then such Justices shall so declare and adjudge, and shall also declare and adjudge in like Manner, and subject to the same Limitations as are hereinbefore mentioned and imposed in such Cases upon the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, for what Period of Time such Prisoner shall remain in actual Custody before such Prisoner shall be discharged from Custody by virtue of this Act; and such Justices shall forthwith certify the same to the Court to be established by virtue of this Act; and thereupon such Court shall accordingly order and direct, that the said Prisoner shall be discharged from Custody when and so soon as he shall have been in such actual Custody for the full Period of Time expressed in such Certificate as aforesaid.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Prisoner, after his Commitment to such actual Custody as aforesaid, shall be removed by any Writ of Habeas Corpus or otherwise, from the Place of such actual Custody, or shall be rendered in discharge of his Bail, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to receive the Affidavits of any Creditor or Creditors, or of any other Person or Persons, in Opposition to the Discharge of such Prisoner under this Act; and also, if such Court shall think fit, to permit Interrogatories to be filed for the Examination or Cross-examination of every Person making or joining in such Affidavit, and also to stay the Discharge of every such Prisoner until such Interrogatories shall be fully answered, to the Satisfaction of such Court: Provided always, that this shall not extend to any Prisoner who shall have been in such actual Custody, Justices to certify to the Court if Prisoner is entitled to Discharge; but if Prisoner shall have acted fraudulently, &c. Justices shall adjudge accordingly.

Justices to certify.

After Prisoner's Committal, Affidavits of Creditors may be received in Opposition to Discharge.

Custody, or arrested, within the Counties of Middlesex or Surrey, or the City of London.

Order of Court for Discharge of Prisoner to be final, unless obtained upon false Evidence, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That such Order of the said Court for the Discharge of such Prisoner shall in all Cases be final and conclusive, and shall not be reviewed by the said Court, unless such Court so making the said Order shall, after such Order made, see good and sufficient Cause to believe that such Adjudication, and the Order founded thereon, shall have been made on false Evidence, or otherwise fraudulently obtained; in which Case it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor of the said Prisoner, to apply to the said Court to direct the said Prisoner to be brought again before them; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, upon due Notice to be given by such Creditor, to rehear the said Matter, and make such further Order. as to them shall seem fit in Execution of the Powers in this Act contained: Provided always, that in case such Court, or such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall entertain any Doubt, touching any Matter alleged against such Prisoner at the Time of his final Examination before mentioned, to prevent his or her Discharge, or touching the Examination of such Prisoner, it shall be lawful for such Court, or such Justices, to remand such Prisoner to Custody, and afterwards to cause such Prisoner to be again brought up for Examination, as often as to the said Court or the said Justices shall seem fit.

Prisoner may be remanded, and afterwards brought up for Examination.

Perjury.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Prisoner who shall apply for his or her Discharge, under the Provisions of this Act, or any other Persons taking an Oath under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully forswear and perjure himself or herself in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he or she so offending shall suffer such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

When Order for Discharge of Prisoner is made, Court may order that Judgment shall be entered up against the Prisoner in one of the Superior Courts, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That when any Order for the Discharge of any Prisoner shall be made, the said Court may also order that a Judgment shall be entered up against such Prisoner in some one of the Superior Courts of Westminster, in the Name of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, or of such Provisional Assignee as aforesaid, if no other Assignee shall then have been appointed and shall have accepted such Office, for the Amount of the Debts of such Prisoner which shall at the Time of such Order remain due and unpaid to the said Creditors, and from which such Prisoner shall be discharged by such Order; and the said Prisoner shall execute a Warrant of Attorney to authorise the entering up such Judgment; and such Judgment shall have the Force of a Recognizance; and such Order of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, shall be a sufficient Authority to the proper Officer for entering up such Judgment; and when it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court that such Prisoner is of ability to pay such Debts, or any Part thereof, or that he is dead, leaving Assets for that Purpose, the Court may permit Execution to be taken out upon such Judgment, or put in force any other Power given by this Act against the Property acquired by such Prisoner after his Discharge, for such Sum of Money as under all the Circumstances of such Prisoner

Court may permit Execution to be taken out on such Judgment where there are Assets, and Prisoner of Ability to pay.

Prisoner the Court shall order; such Sum to be distributed rateably amongst the Creditors; and such further Proceeding shall and may be had, according to the Discretion of the said Court, from time to time, until the whole of the Debts due to the several Persons against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained shall be fully paid and satisfied, together with such Costs as such Court shall think fit to award; and no Scire facias shall be necessary to revive such Judgment on account of any Lapse of Time, but Execution shall at all times issue thereon by virtue of the Order of the said Court: Provided always, that in case any such Application against such Prisoner shall appear to the Court to be ill founded and vexatious, it shall be lawful for the Court not only to refuse to make any Order on such Application, but also to dismiss the same with such Costs as to the Court shall appear reasonable.

No Scire facias necessary.

Vexatious Applications.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Prisoner who shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, shall at any time after such Discharge be imprisoned by reason of the Judgment so as aforesaid entered up against him in the Name of such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, or of any Judgment or Decree or Order obtained for Payment of Money only, or for Debt, Damages, Contempt of any Court, Ecclesiastical or Civil, by Nonpayment of Money or Costs contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing, or growing due at the Time of the Commencement of such actual Custody, and expressed in such Discharge, or shall be in Prison for any Costs, taxed or untaxed, to the Payment of which he may be then liable in consequence of or by reason of any Contempt, or in order to the purging the same; but that upon every Arrest or Detainer in Prison upon any such Judgment or Decree or Order, or for or on account of any such Debt, Damage, Contempt, Costs, Sum and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court from which any such Process shall have issued, upon shewing to such Judge a Copy of the Order for such Discharge as aforesaid, attested by the proper Officer of the said Court, to release from Custody such Prisoner as aforesaid, and at the same Time, if such Judge shall in his Discretion think fit, to order the Plaintiff in such Suit or Suits, or any Person or Persons suing out such Process, to pay such Prisoner the Costs which he or she shall have incurred on such Occasion, or so much thereof as to such Judge shall seem just and reasonable, such Prisoner causing a common Appearance to be entered for him or her in the Action or Suit for any such Debt as aforesaid.

Prisoner after Judgment is entered up, not to be subject to Imprisonment by reason of the same.

If arrested, may be released.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action be brought against any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper of any Prison, or any Person, for performing the Duty of his Office in pursuance of this Act, such Judge, Justice, Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper, or other Person, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his or her Action, or Verdict shall pass against him or her, or Judgment shall be had upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

Proviso for Proceedings which could not be put in force at his Discharge.

When Prisoner shall, after Discharge, become entitled to Property which cannot be taken in Execution, Assignee may apply by Petition to the Court for Relief.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That after the said Court shall have declared any Prisoner to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act as aforesaid, no Writ of Fieri facias shall issue on any Judgment before then obtained against such Prisoner, for any Debt contracted or Cause of Action arising before the Time of the Commencement of such actual Custody as aforesaid, except upon the Judgment entered up by Order of the Court as aforesaid; and that if any Scire facias, or Action of Debt, or any other Suit or Action, shall be brought against any Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, upon any Judgment obtained against any such Prisoner, or any Statute or Recognizance acknowledged by him or her, or any other Cause of Action arising before the Commencement of such actual Custody by virtue of this Act, except upon the Judgment entered up against such Prisoner under the Order of the Court as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for any such Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, to plead generally, that such Prisoner was duly discharged according to this Act, by the Order by which such Discharge shall have been obtained, and that such Discharge remains in force, without pleading any other Matter specially, whereto the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may shew the Defendant or Defendants not to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or that such Prisoner was not duly discharged according to the Provisions of this Act, in the same manner as the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs might have replied, in case the Defendant or Defendants had pleaded this Act and his Discharge by virtue of this Act specially; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be non-suited, discontinue his or her Action, or Verdict pass against him, her or them, or Judgment shall be had on Demurrer, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to proceed against any Prisoner so discharged upon any Judgment, Recognizance, or other Security obtained or given, and which could not have been put in force against such Prisoner at the Time of his obtaining such Discharge; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any such Prisoner shall, after his Discharge out of Custody as aforesaid, become entitled to or possessed in his or her own Right of any Stock in the Public Funds of this Country, or of any Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes, or other Choses in Action, or other Property which by Law cannot be taken in Execution under the said Judgment so to be entered up in the Names of the said Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, and such Prisoner shall have refused to convey, assign, or transfer such Stock, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes or other Choses in Action, or other Property, or so much of them as may be sufficient to satisfy the said Judgment, then and in such cases it shall and may be lawful for the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner to apply by Petition in a summary Way, setting forth the Facts of the Case, to the Court, and to pray that the said Prisoner may be taken and remanded to Custody notwithstanding any any such Discharge; and thereupon, if upon Examination by the said Court, and hearing as well the said Assignee or Assignees as the said Prisoner, in case he shall appear, or the said Assignee or Assignees only, in case such Prisoner, due Notice having been given to him, shall not appear, it shall appear to the said Court that the Contents of such Petition are true, then and in such case such Court shall so declare and adjudge, and shall thereupon order the said Prisoner to be apprehended and remanded to Custody, which shall in such cases always be within the Walls of the Prison from whence such Prisoner shall have been discharged, and not within any Rules or Liberties thereof, until he shall convey, assign, and transfer such Stock, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes, or other Choses in Action, or other Property, or as much thereof as the Court shall direct, towards the Satisfaction of such Judgment, to such Assignee or Assignees, for the general Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner.

In what case Court may order Prisoner to be apprehended.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, shall after the Discharge of any such Prisoner out of Custody as aforesaid, become possessed of, or have under his or their Power or Control, any Stock in the Public Funds of this Country, or any Legacy, Money due or growing due, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes, Securities for Money, Goods and Chattels, or any other Property whatsoever belonging to such Prisoner, or held in trust for him, or for his Use and Benefit, or to which such Prisoner shall be in any way entitled; or in case any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, shall be in any manner indebted to such Prisoner; it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, upon the Application of any Assignee or Creditor of such Prisoner, to cause Notice to be given to such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, directing him or them to hold and retain the said Property till the said Court shall make such further Order concerning the same; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court further to order such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, to deliver over such Property, and to pay such Debts as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, to the Receiver of the said Court, or to the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, for the general Benefit of his Creditors entitled to claim under such Judgment entered up by Order of the said Court as aforesaid.

When Prisoners, after Discharge, become entitled to Stock in the Public Funds, &c. Court to make further Order.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall and may admit at their Discretion any Number of fit Persons to practise in the said Court as Attorneys or Agents, on Behalf of such Prisoners in such actual Custody as aforesaid, which Admissions shall in all Cases be made without the Payment of any Fee or Gratuity whatsoever, and shall be filed of Record in the said Court; and that in case any Person not admitted on the Files of the said Court shall practise in the said Court as an Attorney or Agent, on the Behalf of any Prisoner in such actual Custody as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Contempt of the said Court.

Wilfully omitting any thing in Schedule as finally amended, (Exception) Imprisonment and hard labour.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Prisoner shall, with intent to defraud his Creditor or Creditors, wilfully and fraudulently omit in his Schedule, as finally amended and filed in the said Court, at the Time of the Order for his Discharge from such actual Custody as aforesaid, any Effects or Property whatsoever, or retain or except out of the Schedule, as Wearing Apparel, Bedding, Working Tools and Implements, and other Necessaries, more in Value than Twenty Pounds, every such Person so offending, and any Person aiding and assisting him to do the same, shall, upon being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Offender shall have been so tried and convicted, to sentence such Offender to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour for any Period of Time not exceeding Three Years.

All Affidavits used, to be sworn before the Court, &c.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Affidavits to be used before the said Court, or any Commissioner thereof, or any Justices of the Peace, at their General or Ad-journed Sessions, or any Examiner appointed under this Act, shall and may be sworn before the said Court, or any Commissioner appointed by the said Court for the Purpose of taking Affidavits, or any Master Extraordinary in Chancery, or Commissioner for taking Affidavits in any of the Superior Courts of Westminster Hall; and that no Conveyance, Assignment, Letter of Attorney, Affidavit or other Proceedings whatsoever before or under any Order of the said Court, or before any Justices of the Peace acting in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable to the Payment of or be chargeable with the Payment of any Stamp or other Duty whatsoever.

No Proceeding liable to Stamp Duty.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Sum of Three Shillings, and no more, shall be paid to any Printer or Proprietor of any Newspaper, for the Insertion of any Advertisement hereinbefore directed to be inserted in any Newspaper, and all Printers and Proprietors of Newspapers are hereby required to insert the same on Payment of the said Sum of Three Shillings for the Insertion thereof, in such Form as the said Court shall from time to time direct; and that no such Advertisement shall be liable to the Payment of or chargeable or charged with any Stamp or other Duty whatsoever.

And Whereas it is expedient, that the Powers given to the Court established by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and Two Acts of the Fifty fourth and Fifty sixth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, to amend the said Act, should be continued and vested in the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, in so far as any of the same relate to the Persons who have already obtained their

‘ their Discharge by virtue of that Act, and their Estate and Effects;’ Be it further enacted, That the Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall and may exercise all such Powers, and do all such Acts, and make all such Orders respecting Persons who have already obtained their Discharge by virtue of the said recited Act, or their Estate and Effects, or their respective Assignee or Assignees, or the Provisional Assignee appointed by the Court established by virtue of the said recited Act, as might have been exercised, done and made by the Court established by virtue of the said recited Act, in case the said recited Act had been continued by this Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Records, Papers, Documents and Money, of and belonging to or received under the Authority of the Court established by virtue of the said recited Act, shall immediately after the Time when the Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall have been fully constituted and established as aforesaid, be delivered over to the Chief Clerk of the said last mentioned Court, by the Officer or Officers, or other Persons having the Custody of the same; and which said Records shall be deemed and taken to be the Records of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act.

XXXVIII. Provided ‘always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to entitle the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, being an Officer of the Army or Navy, or in the Naval or Military Service of the East India Company, or a beneficed Clergyman or Curate, to the Pay or Pension of such Officer, or to the Income of such Benefice or Curacy, for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for such Assignee or Assignees to apply for and obtain a Sequestration of the Profit of any such Benefice, for the Payment of the Debts of any such Clergyman, and the Order for such Discharge shall be a sufficient Warrant for granting of such Sequestration, without any Writ or other Proceedings to authorise the same, and such Sequestration shall accordingly be issued, as the same might have been issued upon any Writ of Levare facias, founded upon any Judgment against such Clergyman: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Court to order such Portion of the Pay or Half Pay or Pension of any such Officer of the Army or Navy, or Naval or Military Service of the East India Company, as on Communication from the said Court to the Secretary at War, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or the Court of Directors of the united East India Company, he or they may respectively consent to, by Writing under the Hand of the said Secretary at War, or the Lords Commissioners or Secretary of the Admiralty, or the said Secretary of the Court of Directors, to be applied in Payment of his Debts, and for that Purpose to be paid to his Assignee or Assignees; and such Order and Consent being lodged in the Office of the Paymaster of His Majesty’s Forces, or of the Treasurer of the Navy, or the said Secretary of the said Court of Directors, as the Case shall require, such Paymaster or Treasurer or Secretary shall give Directions accordingly, and such Portion of the Pay, Half Pay, or Pension of such Officer, as shall be specified Justices of Kesteven and Holland may hold Quarter Sessions for this Act in Lindsey.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace acting for the several Parts of Kesteven and Holland in the County of Lincoln, shall and may hold their several General Quarter Sessions or other Sessions of the Peace for such Parts or Divisions respectively, by Adjournment or otherwise, in the Parts or Division of Lindsey, in the said County of Lincoln, for the Purposes of this Act, and shall and may meet and act therein for such Purposes only, and they are hereby empowered to meet and act accordingly.

Act not to extend to Crown Debtors, unless Treasury give Consent.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debt due to His Majesty, or His Successors, or to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or of any Person for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamp or Salt Duties, or any of them, or any Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other Public Officer upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any other Branches of Public Revenue, unless Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall certify under their Hands their Consent to such Discharge.

Prisoners under Writ of Capias in Cases of Ex-tents, as herein mentioned, may apply to the Barons of Exchequer to be discharged.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who may now or shall hereafter be imprisoned under or by virtue of any Writ of Capias, in any immediate Extent or Extents issued and remaining in force at the Instance or for the Benefit and Reimbursement of any Surety or Sureties, or other Person or Persons, or the Inhabitants of any Parish, Ward or Place, who shall or may have advanced and paid the Debt to the Crown, and by reason whereof the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may not be authorised to give their Consent last aforesaid, to apply to the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland, for his, her or their Discharge, giving One Month's previous Notice in Writing to the Surety or Sureties, or Person or Persons aforesaid, or to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parish, Ward or Place, at whose Instance or for whose Benefit respectively such Extent or Extents shall remain in force, of the Intention of such Person or Persons so imprisoned to make such Application, and an Enumeration and Description of all and every the Property, Debts and Effects whatsoever, of such Person or Persons, in his, her or their own Possession or Power, or in the Possession or Power of any other Person or Persons for his, her or their Use; and for the said Court to whom such Application shall be made, to order such Person or Persons to be brought before them, or before any Baron of the said Court, to be examined upon upon Oath touching and concerning his, her or their Property and Effects; and if such Person or Persons respectively shall upon such Examination make a full Disclosure of all his, her or their Property and Effects, and it shall otherwise appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court reasonable and proper that such Person or Persons should be no longer imprisoned under such Writ, for such Court or Baron to order a Writ of Supersedeas quoad Corpus to be issued out of the said Court for the Liberation of such Person or Persons from such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no such Liberation as aforesaid shall be held or deemed to satisfy or supersede such Extent or any Proceedings thereon, except as to such Imprisonment as aforesaid, or the Debt or Debts seized under and by virtue thereof, and for which such Person or Persons shall be so imprisoned.

To make a full Disclosure of Effects.

XLII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Prisoner against whom any Commission of Bankrupt shall have issued and shall remain in force, and who shall not have obtained a Certificate of his or her Conformity to the several Statutes concerning Bankrupts under such Commission, shall be entitled to be discharged by virtue of this Act from any Debt for which such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody, and which might have been proved under such Commission, unless such Prisoner shall have been so detained in Prison for the Space of Three Years before the Time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge under this Act.

Uncertificated Bankrupts not entitled to Discharge under this Act, unless in Custody for Three Years.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have been at any time discharged by virtue of this Act, or of any other Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall again be entitled to the Benefit thereof within the Space of Five Years after such Discharge, unless Three-fourths in Number and Value of the Creditors against whom such Person shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act, shall signify his, her or their Assent to such Discharge, or it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, that such Person has, since his or her former Discharge, endeavoured by Industry and Frugality to pay all just Demands upon him or her, and has incurred no unnecessary Expense, and that the Debts which such Person has incurred, subsequent to such former Discharge, have been necessarily incurred for the Maintenance of such Person, or his or her Family, or that the Insolvency of such Person has arisen from Misfortune, or from Inability to acquire Subsistence for himself or herself, and his or her Family.

In what case only Person having taken the Benefit of an Insolvent Act entitled to further Relief within Five Years.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall at any time be a Prisoner in any such Prison as aforesaid, upon any such Process as aforesaid, shall be or become of unsound Mind, and therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act in such manner as he or she might have done if of sound Mind, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison shall forthwith require One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division or Place wherein such Prison shall be, to attend at the said Prison and enquire into the State of Mind of such Prisoner; and thereupon, and also in case any such Justice
