
Places where Petitions and Proceedings relating to Persons in Custody
may be heard.

XLIX. And Whereas it may be convenient that the Hearing of the Petition, and other Proceedings relating thereto, of all Persons confined for Debt, Damages, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Nonpayment of Money, in the Custody of the Sheriffs of the City of London and Sheriff of the County of Middlesex, and of the Warden of the Fleet Prison, should be heard and determined in some convenient Place the nearest to the Prisons of such Sheriffs; Be it therefore enacted, That all Petitions and other Proceedings relating thereto, of all Persons confined as aforesaid, and in the Custody of the Sheriffs of London and Sheriff of Middlesex, and of the Warden of the Fleet Prison, may, if the said Court shall think fit, be heard and determined at the Guildhall in and for the said City of London, or at the Sessions House in the Old Bailey, or at such other Place in the City of London as the said Commissioner for the time being shall appoint for that Purpose.

Persons discharged from Contempts of Court for Non-payment of Costs to be relieved from other Costs, &c.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons who have been discharged under any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors from Contempts of any Court for Nonpayment of Money or Costs, shall be deemed and taken to have been discharged, not only from Costs ordered to be paid, but also from all Costs which such Persons would be liable to pay in consequence or by reason of such Contempts, or on paying the same; and also that all Persons from whose Demands for Costs any Persons shall be discharged by virtue of this or any former Act or Acts, shall be deemed and taken to be Creditors of such last mentioned Persons, and entitled to the Benefit of all the Provisions made for Creditors by such Act or Acts.

Proviso for Proceedings in Bankruptcy.

LI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to defeat the Proceedings in any Commission of Bankrupt which may be issued against any Prisoner who may claim the Benefit of this Act, before such Prisoner shall have obtained an Order for his Discharge under this Act, but that every such Commission shall have relation to avoid any any Assignment of the Estate and Effects of the said Prisoner under this Act, as such Commission would have had to avoid any Assignment by such Prisoner if this Act had not been made.

LII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, and thenceforth until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. Continuance of Act.

LIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, may be repealed or altered by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to make Provision for Her Majesty the Queen. [23d February 1821.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WHEREAS in and by the Treaty for the Marriage of His present Majesty, then Prince of Wales, and Her Majesty the Queen, then Princess Caroline of Brunswick, it was stipulated and agreed, that in the event of the Death of His Majesty, the annual Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds should be secured to Her said Majesty, in lieu of Dower: And Whereas an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better enabling His Majesty to make Provision for a sure and certain Jointure for her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, for the Term of her Life: And Whereas no Letters Patent for granting any Annuity under this Act were ever granted by His said late Majesty: And Whereas another Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty to settle an Annuity upon Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, during the joint Lives of His Majesty and Her Royal Highness; whereby it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful to and for His Majesty, then Prince Regent, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to give and grant to Her said Majesty, then Princess of Wales, one Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, for and during the joint Lives of His late Majesty and of Her Majesty, then Princess of Wales; and it was further enacted, that His Majesty, then
1 & 2 GEO. IV. B Prince

‘ Prince Regent, was thereby declared to be and should be, and was by that Act freed and fully indemnified against and wholly discharged from all Debts, Claims and Demands which might thereafter be incurred by, or might in any manner have arisen or might thereafter arise out of any Expenditure of Her Majesty, then Princess of Wales; and every Action, or Suit, or Proceeding against His Majesty, then Prince of Wales, or against any Commissioner or Officer of His Majesty, then Prince of Wales, or affecting any Revenue of His Majesty, then Prince of Wales, for or in respect of any such Debt, Claim or Demand, should be and was thereby declared to be wholly null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: And Whereas by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, granted and executed in pursuance of the said last recited Act, an Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, was given to Her Majesty the Queen, then Princess of Wales, to commence from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and to continue during the joint Lives of His said late Majesty and Her Majesty: And Whereas the said Annuity having ceased by the Demise of His late Majesty, it is necessary that further Provision should be made for Her Majesty the Queen: Therefore We, Your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to give and grant to Her said Majesty the Queen, for the separate Use of Her said Majesty, One Annuity of Fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be issuing and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; which Annuity of Fifty thousand Pounds shall commence and take effect from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and continue from thenceforth for and during the natural Life of Her Majesty; and that on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the Sum of Sixty two thousand five hundred Pounds shall be issued and paid to Her Majesty out of the said Consolidated Fund, being the Amount of the said Annuity accruing between the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty and the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the said Annuity shall be paid and payable at the Four most usual Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April in every Year, by even and equal Portions; the First Quarterly Payment thereof to be made on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and that the said Annuity of Fifty thousand Pounds shall and may be

His Majesty empowered to grant an Annuity of 50,000l. to the Queen: to commence Jan. 5. 1820.

62,500l., the Money accruing to be paid on April 5. 1821; afterwards Annuity to be paid Quarterly.

be issuing and payable out of the said Consolidated Fund, after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums as shall have been directed to be paid out of the same by any Act or Acts of Parliament made previous to the time of passing this Act; and with a Preference to all other Payments which shall or may at any time or times after the passing of this Act be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity of Fifty thousand Pounds shall be paid and payable at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer; and the Auditor of the said Receipt shall and he is hereby required, by virtue of such Letters Patent, to make forth and pass Debentures from time to time, for paying the said Annuity, as the same shall become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any part thereof; and the Acquittance or Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts of Her said Majesty, or of such other Person or Persons as shall by Her said Majesty be duly authorized and appointed to receive the said Annuity or any part thereof, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof; and the said Debentures, to be made forth and passed as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity to Her said Majesty, or any such Person as aforesaid, during the Continuance thereof, without any further or other Warrant to be sued for, had or obtained in that behalf.

III. And Whereas the Sum of Thirty thousand two hundred and seventy seven Pounds Eight Shillings and Ten pence has been advanced to Her Majesty, out of the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds granted in the last Session of Parliament, to enable His Majesty, among other things, to make such Advances as might be necessary for the Expences of Her Majesty until Parliament should make other Provision in respect thereof; Be it therefore enacted, That out of the first Monies directed to be issued and paid to Her Majesty out of the Consolidated Fund, under the Provisions of this Act, there shall be retained in the Exchequer, to continue and remain, and be carried to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund, a Sum equal to the said Sum of Thirty thousand two hundred and seventy seven Pounds Eight Shillings and Ten pence, so advanced to Her Majesty as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity of Fifty thousand Pounds, and every part thereof, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Rates and Assessments, and all other Charges whatsoever, imposed or to be imposed by Authority of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever; and such Annuity shall be and be deemed to be a Bar to any Right or Claim under the said Marriage Treaty, or the said recited Act of the Thirty fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, or otherwise howsoever, or to Dower, or to any Part of any Personal Estate of His Majesty, in the event of Her Majesty surviving His Majesty.

Annuity to be payable at the Exchequer;

without fee.

Debentures, a sufficient Authority for Payment.

30,277l.8s.10d. advanced to Her Majesty out of 200,000l. granted last Session, to be retained in the Exchequer.

Annuity, free from Taxes, &c. and to be in Bar of Dower, &c.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty eighth Year of His late Majesty, for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging Attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole. [23d February 1821.]

58 G. 3. c. 20.

§ 12.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty eighth year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging Attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole, it was enacted, That if any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or to His Majesty, shall first find out and sail through any Passage by Sea between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans in any Direction or Parallel of the Northern Hemisphere, the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, if belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or the Commander or Commanders, Officers, Seamen and Marines of such Ships or Vessels if belonging to His Majesty, so first finding out and sailing through such Passage, shall receive a Reward for such Discovery of Twenty thousand Pounds: And Whereas it was further enacted, that if any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, should approach within One Degree of the Northern Pole, the Owner of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, if belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or the Commander or Commanders, Officers, Seamen and Marines of any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, if belonging to His Majesty, so first approaching within One Degree of the Northern Pole, should be entitled to receive a Reward of Five thousand Pounds: And Whereas it was further enacted for the Encouragement of Persons who may attempt the said Passage or Approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same, that the Commissioners for Discovering the Longitude at Sea, might by their Memorial propose to His Majesty in Council to direct and establish proportionate Rewards to be paid to such Person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain Proportions of the said Passage or Approach; and if His Majesty in Council should be pleased to sanction and approve the said Proposal, then that the same should be published in the London Gazette, and any Person or Persons accomplishing such Passages, or the specified Proportions of them, should be entitled on the Award of the said Commissioners to receive such total or proportionate Sums as may have been offered for the Object which he or they may have then accomplished: And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether such proportionate Rewards be over and above the said Sums of Twenty thousand and Five thousand Pounds respectively, or only Parts and Proportions of the said Sums: For the Removal of all such Doubts, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, such proportionate Rewards shall be held and taken to be Proportions and Parts only of the said Sums of Twenty thousand and Five thousand Pounds respectively, and that such proportionate Rewards as His Majesty may be pleased hereafter to direct and establish by His Order in Council under the said Act, shall be Parts and Proportions only of the said Sums, so that no more than the said respective Sums of Twenty thousand and Five thousand Pounds shall be paid or payable under such Order in Council, for the Accomplishment of the whole of the said Passage or Approach respectively, whether the same shall be attempted or accomplished by Proportions or Parts, or by One Voyage only.

The proportionate Rewards

passing

II. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council to revoke, annul, alter or amend, as from time to time may seem necessary and proper, any Order or Orders in Council already made, or hereafter to be made, under the Authority of the said recited Act or of this Act.

directed by recited Act, and pursuant to any Order in Council, held to be Parts only of the several Sums of 20,000l. and 5000l.

Orders in Council under this or recited Act may be revoked.

C A P. III.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff, Foreign Spirits and Sweets, in Great Britain; and on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, in England; for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

[23d February 1821.]

[This Act is the same as 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 3. except as to Dates and Sums, and as to the Sections that are here retained.]

II. AND be it further enacted, That the said Duties on Malt, Tobacco and Snuff, hereby continued and imposed, shall be respectively raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid and applied, in such and the like manner, and in or by any or either of the general or special Means, Ways or Methods by which other the Duties of Excise upon Malt, Tobacco and Snuff, are or may be by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid and applied; and the said Persons, Goods, Wares and Merchandize, or Commodities by this Act respectively made liable to the Payment of or chargeable with the said Duties hereby imposed, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions and Forfeitures, to which such Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandize or Commodities, were generally or specially subject and liable by any such Act or Acts of Parliament as aforesaid, now in force relating to or concerning His Majesty's Revenue of Excise on Malt, Tobacco or Snuff respectively; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine or Forfeiture, of any Nature or Kind whatever, for any Offence whatever committed against or in breach of this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force for securing Duties of Excise on Malt, Tobacco or Snuff respectively, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers and Directions therein contained, shall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised and put in Execution, for and in respect of the said several Duties of Excise respectively hereby imposed, in as full and ample manner to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and reenacted in the Body of this Act.

How the Duties on Malt, Tobacco, and Snuff shall be raised.

Steepings of Malt for Exportation shall be kept separate till measured.

V. And Whereas Maltsters and Makers of Malt for Exportation do frequently mix the Produce of Two or more Steepings of Corn or Grain that have been entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or as soon as it comes off from the Kiln, by reason whereof the Officers for the Duties on Malt cannot ascertain the real Produce thereof, by which Means great Quantities of each Steeping of such Malt are or may be privately conveyed away, and made use of for Home Consumption, though the same has not been charged with the Duty, as all Malt made for Home Consumption ought to be: Be it enacted, That all and every Maltster or Maltsters, or Maker or Makers of Malt for Exportation, shall keep the whole and entire Quantity of his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt for Exportation, of One Steeping or Wetting, when the same shall be on the Kiln, or after the same shall be taken off the Kiln, separate and apart from all and every Part of any other former Steeping or Wetting of Corn or Grain, until the same shall have been measured by such Maltsters or Makers of Malt, in the Presence of some Officer or Officers for the Duty upon Malt, on pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Penalty 50L

Notice to Officers for taking Malt off Kilns.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all such Maltsters, or Makers of Malt for Exportation, shall give Notice in Writing to some Officer or Officers of the Duties upon Malt, or shall leave Notice in Writing at the next Office of Excise where the Journal is kept, of the Hour when he, she or they shall intend to take any Malt off the Kiln or Kilns, that such Officer or Officers may attend the measuring of such Malt; and after such Malt has been measured, the same shall be immediately carried on Shipboard, if intended to be then exported, or else shall be immediately locked up and secured in some Storehouse or other Place belonging to such Maltsters or Makers of Malt, in the Presence of the said Officer or Officers, on pain of forfeiting the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Clandestinely opening Locks of Storehouses.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Maltster or Maltsters, or Maker or Makers of Malt, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, by his Order, Privy or Direction, after any Steeping or making of Malt shall have been locked up and secured in any Storehouse or other Place or Places in manner as aforesaid, shall open any of the Locks or Doors, or shall make any way or kind of Entrance into such Storehouse or other Place or Places, or shall remove any Part whatsoever of the Partition between any such Storehouse or Place and any other Place or Places whatsoever next thereunto adjoining, or shall remove out of the said Storehouse or other Place any Quantity whatsoever of the Malt that has been so locked up and secured, without the Knowledge and Consent of, or without first having given Notice to some Officer or Officers for the said Duties, he, she or they shall respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty 100L.
Additional Duties on

XI. And Whereas the additional Duties of Excise on Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ or Strong Waters, imported into Great Britain, ‘ Britain, and on Sweets or Made Wines made in Great Britain for Sale, granted by an Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and on Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ or Strong Waters imported into Great Britain, granted by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, which would have expired at a certain limited time after the Ratification of the definitive Treaty of Peace, had not the same been continued, were and are, by an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, continued until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and it is expedient further to continue the same:’ Be it therefore enacted, That all the said additional Duties of Excise on Brandy, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ or Strong Waters imported into Great Britain, and on Sweets or Made Wines made in Great Britain for Sale, granted respectively, and continued as aforesaid, shall be, and the same respectively are hereby further continued until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

VII. Pro-

Deserter enlisted for a limited Term may be sentenced to serve for Life, &c. and be adjudged to other Forfeitures.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier in any Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's Regular Forces, so convicted of Desertion, shall appear to have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, it shall be lawful for such Court to sentence any such Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier so enlisted in any Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's Regular Forces to serve for Life as a Soldier, or for any Number of Years beyond the Period for which such Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier shall have enlisted in the Regiment in which he so enlisted, or generally in any Regiment or Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier may in any Case of Desertion be adjudged to forfeit all Benefit or Advantage as to Increase of Pay, or as to Pension or Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier from the Length of his previous Service, and such Forfeiture may in such Cases of Desertion be adjudged in addition to any other Punishment, if the Court should think fit.

General Courts-martial to consist of 13 or 9 Commissioned Officers, except in certain Places.

XX. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That all General Courts Martial held under the Authority of this Act shall consist of Thirteen or Nine Commissioned Officers, as the Case may require; except the same shall be holden upon any Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Private Soldier of His Majesty's Forces, which shall be serving in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, or out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in His Majesty's Colony of the Bermuda Isles; in which cases any General Court Martial may consist of any Number not less than Seven; and except the same shall be holden in Africa or in New South Wales, in which Places such General Courts Martial may consist of any Number not less than Five; of whom none shall be under the Degree of a Commissioned Officer; nor shall the President of any General Court Martial be the Officer commanding in Chief, or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless where a Field Officer cannot be had; nor in any Case whatsoever under the Degree of a Captain.

General Courts Martial (except, &c.) not to consist of less than 13 Members.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no General Court Martial for the Trial of any Officer (except the same shall be holden in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, and out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in His Majesty's Colony of the Bermuda Isles, or in Africa, or New South Wales), shall consist of less than Thirteen Members.

No General Court Martial of less than 13, (exception) to sentence Soldier to Loss of Life, &c.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no General Court Martial, consisting of any less Number than Thirteen Commissioned Officers, unless holden in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, or out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in His Majesty's Colony of the Bermuda Isles, or in Africa, or New South Wales as aforesaid, shall sentence any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier to Loss of Life or Limb, or Transportation.

‘ XCIX. And Whereas various Persons are in the Habit of advertising for Recruits for Regiments of the Line, the Embodied Militia, or for the Service of the Honourable the East India Company, and also under the Pretence of procuring Substitutes for the same, to the great Detriment of the Service:’ Be it therefore further enacted, That all Persons whomsoever who shall after the passing of this Act advertise, post or disperse, or cause to be advertised, posted or dispersed, Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes, or shall open or keep any Houses or Place of Rendezvous purporting in any manner whatever to be connected with the Recruiting Service or Department for the Line, Embodied Militia, or East India Company, or shall interfere or be concerned directly or indirectly in any manner or way therewith (except such Recruiting Parties as may be stationed under the Command and Direction of the respective Field Officers of Districts, without the express Permission in Writing of the Adjutant-General, if for the Line or Embodied Militia, or of the Court of Directors, if for the Honourable East India Company’s Service), or shall receive any Person or Persons as aforesaid at his House or Office under any such Bill or Advertisement on any Pretence whatever, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered on Conviction before a Magistrate, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the Parish where such Information shall be laid; and on Default of Payment thereof shall be committed to the Common Gaol or other Public Prison, at the Discretion of the Magistrate, for any Period not exceeding Three Months, and not less than One Month, for each and every such Offence.

An Act for further facilitating the Despatch of Business in the Court of King's Bench. [6th April 1821.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that further Means should be provided for facilitating the Despatch of Business in the Court of King's Bench; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, unless prevented by Illness, Public Business or other reasonable Cause, to meet at Serjeants' Inn Hall, or at some convenient Place in Westminster, according to their Discretion, on the Tuesday Fortnight, or some subsequent Day before Easter Term now next ensuing, and also on the Twentieth Day of October and the Tenth Day of January for ever hereafter, unless either of the said last mentioned Days shall be a Sunday, and then on the following Day; and also on some Day, to be by Three Judges of King's Bench may meet at Serjeants' Inn Hall, &c. at the Times herein mentioned.

by them appointed, before every other Easter Term, if the Time of the Circuits shall so permit, and to sit on the several Days hereinbefore appointed, and so on from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until the Commencement of the Term next following, for the Despatch of all such Matters as now are, or, at the End of any Term preceding the said respective Days, hereafter may be depending in the said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea Side thereof, and to hear, decide and pronounce Rules, Orders and Judgments upon all such Matters; which Rules, Orders and Judgments shall be drawn up and entered of Record, either as of the Term last past before the pronouncing thereof, or as of the Term then next ensuing, as the said Judges shall direct; which said Meetings of the said Judges shall be called The Sittings before Term.

Enlarged Rules to shew Cause, pronounced at such Sittings, to be deemed such, as well at Sitting as in the next Term.

II. And be it further enacted, That all enlarged Rules to shew Cause, which have been or hereafter may be pronounced or drawn up by or by the Direction of the said Court, for shewing Cause in any Term next after any of such Sittings, shall be deemed and taken to be Rules to shew Cause, as well at such Sittings as in the Term then next following, and may be heard and decided at such Sittings accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or affect the Return of any Writ, either Mesne or Judicial, or require any Return of such Writ or Appearance thereto before the Day therein mentioned.

The Judges may omit their Sittings, or otherwise, at their Discretion.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if at any time it shall appear to the Judges of the said Court that the Matters so depending therein, as before mentioned, do not for the public Convenience require the said Judges to meet or sit on all or any of the said Days or Times hereinbefore in that behalf directed, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Judges either to omit such Sittings altogether, or to commence the same on any later Day than the respective Days hereinbefore appointed; or having commenced such Sittings, to adjourn or discontinue the same wholly or in part for that Turn, as the public Convenience may appear to them to require or permit.

C A P. XVII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, for better regulating the Payment of Fees of Attornies and Solicitors, and other Purposes therein mentioned. [6th April 1821.]

7 G. 2. (I.)

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Seventh Year of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the Relief of Mortgagees, and for making the Process in Courts of Equity more effectual against Mortgagees who abscond and cannot be served therewith, and against Persons who being served refuse to appear; and also for better regulating the Payment of the Fees of Attornies and Solicitors; it was amongst other things provided, that no Attorney or Solicitor should commence or maintain any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any Fees, Charges or Disbursements, at Law or in Equity, Equity, until the Expiration of One Month or more after such Attorney or Solicitor respectively should have delivered unto the Party or Parties to be charged therewith, or left for him, her or them at his, her or their Dwelling House or last Place of Abode, a Bill of such Fees, Charges and Disbursements, written in Words at Length, except Times and Sums: And Whereas the said Provision hath been found inconvenient; and it is just and reasonable that the Law of Ireland should, with respect to the Mode of writing such Bills of Costs, be assimilated to the Law of England; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for every Attorney, Clerk in Court, and Solicitor in Ireland, to write his Bills of Fees, Charges and Disbursements, with such Abbreviations as are now commonly used in the English Language; any thing in any former law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Attornies, &c. may write Bills of Fees, &c. with such Abbreviations as are now used in the English Language.

‘a like Cocket, Certificate, Let Pass or Transire, as is given and ‘conformable to all the like Regulations in force in case of ‘Goods sent Coastwise from one Port of Great Britain to ‘another Port therein, or from one Port in Ireland to another ‘Port in Ireland, respectively: And Whereas it is expedient to ‘extend the Provisions of the said Act to certain other Articles ‘exported from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to ‘Great Britain;' Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to export from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, any Articles, the Produce or Manufacture of either Country respectively, which are not subject to Duty, nor entitled to Drawback, under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as in the case of Corn exported from one Country to the other respectively.

An Act to indemnify Persons who shall give Evidence before the Lords Spiritual and Temporal on the Bill to exclude the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, from sending Burgesses to serve in Parliament, and to enable the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, to send Two Burgesses to serve in Parliament in-lieu thereof.

[6th April 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled have passed a Bill intituled An Act to exclude the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, from sending Burgesses to serve in Parliament; and to enable the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, to send Two Burgesses to serve in Parliament in lieu thereof: And Whereas it is alleged that there was the most notorious and general Bribery and Corruption, previous to the Election of Burgesses to serve in the last Parliament for the said Borough of Grampound, in order to procure the Return of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough: And Whereas it is necessary to examine, as Witnesses, at the Bar of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in respect of such alleged Bribery and Corruption, several Persons: And Whereas the Evidence of such Persons may lead to Disclosures tending to expose them to penal Consequences: And Whereas it is expedient to indemnify such Persons, as they are hereinafter indemnified, upon their truly and faithfully making such Disclosure and Discovery as hereinafter mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the more effectually prosecuting the said Enquiry, that all and every Person and Persons, not having been Candidates or a Candidate for the said Borough at the last Election, who may or Persons implicated in Bribery, not having been Candidates, examined

as Witnesses, and making a faithful Disclosure, indemnified.

hath been or may have been implicated or engaged in such alleged Bribery and Corruption at or connected with any Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Gram-pound, and who shall be examined as Witnesses or a Witness at the Bar of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, touching such alleged Bribery and Corruption, and who shall upon such Examination make a true and faithful Discovery and Disclosure, to the best of his, her or their Knowledge, touching all Acts, Matters and Things to which he, she or they shall be so examined, shall be, and he, she and they is and are hereby freed, indemnified and discharged of, from and against all penal Actions, Forfeitures, Punishments, Disabilities and Incapacities, and all Criminal Prosecutions which he, she or they may have been or may become liable or subject to, or which he, she or they may have incurred or may incur, at the Suit of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, for or by reason or means of or in relation to any Act, Matter or Thing done or committed by such Person or Persons, in respect of such alleged Bribery and Corruption, respecting or concerning which such Person or Persons shall be so examined as aforesaid, and shall make such true and faithful Discovery and Disclosure as aforesaid.

Not to extend to Persons giving false Evidence, or suppressing any Matter in question.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act or any thing herein contained shall not extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to give any Benefit or Advantage to, or to indemnify, free or discharge, any Person or Persons from or against any Forfeitures, Penalties, Punishments, Disabilities or Incapacities, or any Prosecutions, who, being examined as aforesaid, shall give any false Evidence, or make any false Discovery, or suppress or refuse fully and truly to disclose any Act, Matter or Thing within his, her or their Knowledge, touching or concerning which such Person or Persons shall be so examined as aforesaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

In cases of Actions, Copies of Entries of Examination in the Lords' Journals, may be given in Evidence.

III. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for all Persons who shall be so examined as aforesaid, upon any Action or Prosecution commenced or instituted, or to be commenced or instituted, of or in respect of any of the Matters to which they shall be so examined as aforesaid, to give in Evidence, upon the Trial of such Action or Prosecution, Copies of the Entries contained in the Journals of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of such their several Examinations; and that such Copies shall be conclusive Evidence, upon the Trial of all such Actions and Prosecutions, of the Fact of the Examination of such Persons, and of the Questions proposed to such Persons, and of the Answers given by them to such Questions.

C A P. XXII.

An Act for altering and amending the Laws of Excise for securing the Payment of the Duties on Beer and Ale brewed in Great Britain. [19th April 1821.]

WHEREAS the Laws made for securing the Duties of Excise upon and in respect of Beer have been found in-

‘insufficient for the Purposes thereby intended;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, every Brewer of Beer for Sale shall and is hereby required to enter, or cause to be entered, in a Book or Paper to be delivered to him by the Officer of Excise for that Purpose, and at all Times kept by such Brewer in some public and open Part of his entered Premises ready for the Inspection of the Officers of Excise, the Quantity of Malt which he or she shall intend to use in his or her next Brewing, together with the Day when such Brewing is intended to be made, and that such Entry shall be so made before any Part of such Malt shall be mashed, or any Water or other Liquor put thereto, or mixed therewith; and that every such Brewer shall at the Time of making such Entry write, or cause to be written, in such Book or Paper, opposite such Entry as aforesaid, the Date when such Entry was so made as aforesaid; and that if any such Brewer shall refuse or neglect to make such Entry as aforesaid, or shall cancel, obliterate or alter, or cause or suffer or permit to be cancelled, obliterated or altered, any such Entry, or shall make any untrue Entry therein, or shall not at all Times keep such Book or Paper in some public and open Part of his entered Premises ready for the Inspection of the Officers of Excise, or shall mash, or put to or mix any Malt with Water or other Liquor before such Entry shall be made as aforesaid, he or she shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

II. And be it further enacted, That no such Brewer as aforesaid shall remove or cause to be removed his or her Malt which has been mashed, or any Part thereof, from the Tun or Vessel in which the same has been mashed, until the proper Officer shall have gauged and taken an Account of the Quantity of such Malt, or use, cause, permit or suffer to be used, any Means whatever to prevent or hinder such Officer or Officers of Excise from taking an accurate Gauge and Account thereof; and that if any Person or Persons shall remove, or cause, suffer or permit to be removed, any Part of such Malt as aforesaid before such Officer shall have gauged and taken an Account of the same, or shall use any Means as aforesaid, or obstruct, hinder, molest or prevent any such Officer or Officers in or from so doing, or in Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities given or granted to him or them by this Act, every such Person or Persons shall severally forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that no such Brewer or other Person shall incur the Penalty aforesaid, for removing any such Malt as aforesaid after all the Worts have been drawn off from such Malt without any Officer having gauged and taken an Account thereof as aforesaid, if such Brewer shall at the Time of making such Entry as aforesaid have specified in such Book or Paper and Entry as aforesaid the Time for such Officer to attend to take such Gauge and Account as aforesaid, and such Officer or Officers shall

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to take a Sample or Samples, not exceeding One Pint at each Time, of any Wort or Worts at or on the entered Premises of any such Brewer as aforesaid, at any time or times after the same shall have been drawn from the Mash Tun, as often as may be necessary for the Purpose of ascertaining the specific Gravity thereof; returning such Sample and Samples to such Brewer after the specific Gravity thereof has been ascertained, or paying him or her for the same at and after the Rate of the current Price of Beer made from such Wort or Worts; and that no such Brewer shall ferment or mix, or cause, permit or suffer to be fermented or mixed, any Wort or Worts with any Yeast or other Matter or Thing for or occasioning Fermentation, until the proper Officer or Officers has or have taken such Sample and Samples as aforesaid; and that if any such Brewer as aforesaid shall ferment or mix, or cause, permit or suffer to be fermented or mixed, any of his or her Wort or Worts with any Yeast or other Matter or Thing for or occasioning Fermentation, until such Officer or Officers has or have taken such Sample and Samples as aforesaid, he, she or they shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that no such Brewer as aforesaid shall incur the Penalty last aforesaid, for fermenting or mixing any of his or her Wort or Worts with Yeast, or any other Matter or Thing occasioning Fermentation, after the Expiration of One Hour after such Wort or Worts has or have been run or drawn off from the Copper in which the same has or have been boiled with Hops, without any Sample being thereof taken as aforesaid, if such Brewer shall at the Time of making such Entry as aforesaid have specified in such Book and Paper and Entry as aforesaid the Time for such Officer or Officers to attend to take and draw such Sample and Samples as aforesaid, and such Officer and Officers shall not attend for that Purpose within an Hour after the Time so specified.

IV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be delivered by the proper Officer of Excise to every such Brewer as aforesaid, and to every Dealer in Beer or Ale, a Book or Books to be prepared with proper printed Forms and Titles for the Purpose hereinafter mentioned, and kept by every such Brewer and Dealer in some public and open Part of his or her entered Premises; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July, no Beer or Ale shall be sold, sent out or delivered by the Brewer thereof, or by any Dealer therein, to any Brewer, Victualler, Dealer in or Retailer of Beer or Ale, or other Person or Persons, without a Certificate filled up and cut out progressively from the printed Forms for such Certificates contained in such Book as aforesaid, to be left therewith, signed by such Brewer or Dealer selling, sending out or delivering the same, or some Person on his Behalf, certifying the Date, Quantity and Quality of such Beer or Ale, to whom sold, and that the Duty has been duly charged thereon, and at what Place, at what Rate, and upon what Person Person such Charge was made; and that the Brewer or Dealer selling, sending out or delivering any such Beer or Ale as aforesaid, shall at the same Time make a correspondent Entry thereof, containing the same Particulars, in such Book as aforesaid; and that such Book, with such Entries so made therein as aforesaid, shall at all Times be open and exposed in the entered Premises of such Brewer or Dealer as aforesaid, to the Perusal of any Officer or Officers of Excise surveying the said Premises, and shall be delivered by such Brewer or Dealer to any Officer or Officers of Excise upon Demand; and if any such Brewer or Dealer as aforesaid shall at any time sell, send out or deliver any Beer or Ale to any Brewer, Victualler, Dealer in or Retailer of Beer, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, without delivering such Certificate as aforesaid, or making such Entry in such Book as aforesaid, or shall convey away or conceal any such Book or Books, or Cancel, obliterate, destroy or tear out any Leaf or Leaves therefrom, or Entry or Entries therein, or shall make any false Entry or Entries therein, or shall oppose, molest, obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in inspecting any such Book, or any such Entry or Entries therein as aforesaid, or shall at any Time neglect or refuse, when required, to give up to any Officer or Officers such Book or Books as aforesaid, every such Brewer or Dealer as aforesaid so offending shall for every such Offence severally forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted; That from and after the said Fifth Day of July, if any Officer or Officers of Excise shall discover and find any Increase in the Stock of any Brewer, Victualler; Dealer or Retailer, over and above the Quantity of Beer or Ale which the Officer found in such Brewer, Victualler, Dealer or Retailer's Custody at the Time of the last preceding Survey upon such Brewer, Victualler, Dealer or Retailer, and which Increase such Brewer, Victualler, Dealer or Retailer shall not thereupon satisfactorily account for, as arising from Beer duly received with such Certificate as aforesaid; or brewed by himself or herself, and on which the Duty has been duly charged, such Increase, or a Quantity of Beer or Ale equal thereto, shall be deemed and taken to be Beer or Ale brewed without Payment of Duty, and shall be forfeited and lost; and a Quantity equal to the increased Quantity shall and may be seized and taken by the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall discover the same, from and out of such Stock; and the Person or Persons, in whose Stock such Increase shall be discovered and found, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such Ways, Means or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Suc-

An Act to amend the Law respecting the inclosing of Open Fields, Pastures, Moors, Commons and Waste Lands, in England. [19th April 1821.]

WHEREAS great Inconveniences have arisen to Landlords and other Persons, owners of Allotments allotted and set out to them by the Commissioner or Commissioners under or by virtue of several Acts, already passed for dividing, allotting and inclosing of open and uninclosed Fields, Pastures, Moors, Commons and Waste Lands, in England, by reason that such Landlords and other Persons, Owners of Allotments as aforesaid, cannot, before the Execution and perfecting of the Award or Awards by such Acts directed to be made by such Commissioner or Commissioners, distrain for the Rent in arrear or unpaid for or in respect of such Allotment or Allotments; or support an Action of Trespass for any Damage or Injury done to such Allotment or Allotments, or an Action of Ejectment to recover the Possession of such Allotment or Allotments, in consequence of the Freehold or Legal Seisin thereof respectively not being vested in such Landlords and other Persons, Owners of such Allotment or Allotments, by the Award or Awards of such Commissioner or Commissioners as aforesaid: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons, to whom any Allotment or Allotments of Land has or have been set out or allotted, or which shall or may hereafter be set out or allotted, and to whom the Possession of such Allotment or Allotments hath been already given, by virtue of any Order or Direction, Orders or Directions, or to whom the Possession thereof shall hereafter be given, by virtue of any Order or Direction, Orders or Directions in Writing, in the Form and specified in the Schedule hereto annexed, and signed by the Commissioner or Commissioners acting under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now or hereafter to be passed for dividing, allotting and inclosing any Open Fields, Pastures, Commons, Moors and Waste Lands in England, and who shall have demised the same, or any Part thereof, to any Tenant or Servant, or for their, his or her Bailiff or Agent, Bailiffs or Agents, or any Person or Persons by them, him or her authorized and employed for that Purpose, to enter into and upon any such Allotment or Allotments, and to seize and distrain any Goods, Chattels or Effects which may be in or upon such Allotment or Allotments, or in or upon any other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, ditaments, held, occupied or enjoyed by the Tenant or Occupier of such Allotment or Allotments along and together with any such Allotment or Allotments, for any Rent that may be in Arrear and unpaid for all or any Part of such Allotment or Allotments, and either alone or together with any such Allotment or Allotments, and any other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, held, occupied or enjoyed therewith, notwithstanding the Award or Awards of the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed in or named by or by virtue of any such Act or Acts so made and passed, or to be hereafter made and passed, shall not be executed and perfected by such Commissioner or Commissioners, by virtue or in pursuance of any such Act or Acts of Parliament.

Landlords or Persons acting under their Orders may enter upon Land allotted and demised by them, and seize and distrain for Rent, notwithstanding the Commissioners' Award shall not be executed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person or Persons, to whom any such Allotment or Allotments is or are already set out or allotted, or which shall or may be hereafter set out or allotted, and to whom such Possession as aforesaid hath been already given, by virtue of any Order or Direction, Orders or Directions, or the Possession whereof shall hereafter be given to such Person or Persons by virtue of any Order or Direction, Orders or Directions in Writing, in the Form specified in the said Schedule as aforesaid, and signed by such Commissioner or Commissioners as aforesaid, and to his, her or their Tenants, Stewards, Bailiffs, Agents or Servants, to commence, prosecute and maintain any Action or Suit at Law, for any Injury or Damage that may be done or committed by any Person or Persons whomsoever, to the Ground, Soil or Herbage of any such Allotment or Allotments, or to the Walls, Hedges, Fences, Ditches, Gates, Posts, Rails, Stills, Cloughs, Bridges or Tunnels, already erected or to be erected in or upon any such Allotment or Allotments, and to bring, maintain and prosecute any Action or Actions of Ejectment, for recovering the Possession of any such Allotment or Allotments, or any Part or Parts thereof, from any Person or Persons whomsoever, notwithstanding the Award or Awards of the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed in or named by or by virtue of any such Act or Acts now made and passed, or to be hereafter made and passed, shall not be executed and perfected by such Commissioner or Commissioners, by virtue or in pursuance of any such Act or Acts of Parliament; any thing in any Act or Acts, or any Construction of or Implication from any Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent or take away the Right of any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, and his, her and their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, to appeal against the Award or Awards, Order or Directions of any such Commissioner or Commissioners, when made and executed, or the Right of Possession to any such Allotment or Allotments, which may be affected by the Judgment of the Court or such Appeal; or to prevent or obstruct, or in anywise lessen or prejudice, any Alteration or Alterations to be made, ordered or directed by any such Commissioner or Commissioners as aforesaid, for or in respect of any such Allotment or Allotments, in and by his or their Award or Awards, Actions at Law in respect of Damage, &c. done on such Premises may also be brought.

Proviso for Appeal against Award of Commissioners.

Awards, to be made and executed by virtue or in pursuance of any such Act or Acts of Parliament as aforesaid.

Where Leases granted under 11 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 109. become void before the Expiration of their Term, Incumbents may grant new Leases as herein mentioned.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Lease or Leases to be granted by any Rector, Vicar or other Incumbent, under the Powers or Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for consolidating in one Act certain Provisions usually inserted in Acts of Inclosure, and for facilitating the Mode of proving the several Facts usually required on the passing of such Acts, shall by any Means become forfeited or void, or be surrendered before the Expiration, by Effluxion of Time, of the Term or Terms thereby granted, then and in such case, and as often as the same shall so happen, it shall and may be lawful for the Rector, Vicar or other Incumbent for the time being of the same Rectory, Vicarage or Parish, by and with the previous Consent of the Ordinary and Patron, to grant a new Lease of the Lands so demised, for such Term or Terms of Years as shall, at the Time or Times of such Avoidance, be then to come and unexpired of the original Term or Terms granted by such original Lease or Leases, subject nevertheless to the Provisions and Conditions contained in such original Lease or Leases, and then remaining unperformed and capable of having Effect.

Powers of this Act only binding in Cases where not otherwise provided.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Powers, Authorities and Provisions in this Act contained shall be only so far effective and binding, in each particular Case, as they or any of them shall not be otherwise provided and enacted in any Act hereafter to be passed, for dividing, allotting and inclosing, any Open Fields, Pastures, Commons, Moors or Waste Lands in England.

SCHEDULE to which the Act refers.

‘ Gold, of the Fineness declared by Law to be the Standard of
 ‘ and for the lawful Gold Coin of the Realm, the same having ‘ first been assayed and stamped at the Assay Office in Dublin, or ‘ at His Majesty’s Mint in London, as shall at the said Rate of ‘ Three Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Ten Pence Halfpenny ‘ British Currency, at an Exchange at Par, for every Ounce of ‘ such Gold, be equal to the Amount of the Notes so presented ‘ for Payment; and it was in and by the said recited Act further ‘ provided and enacted, that the Governor and Company of the ‘ Bank of Ireland, if they should see fit, might at any Time on ‘ or after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and ‘ twenty two, pay or exchange the lawful Coin of the Realm for ‘ any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company payable ‘ on Demand, any Provisions in the Acts thereinbefore recited, or ‘ in that Act to the contrary notwithstanding: And Whereas it is ‘ expedient, that on and after the First Day of June One thousand ‘ eight hundred and twenty one, the said Governor and Company
 ‘ of the Bank of Ireland should be enabled, if they shall see fit,
 ‘ to pay any Debt or Demand to which they are or shall be sub‘ ject or liable, in the lawful Coin of the Realm, in manner and ‘ under the Limitations hereinafter mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if they shall see fit, and they are hereby authorized, at any Time or Times, to pay any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, or any other Debt or Demand whatsoever, to which the said Governor and Company shall be subject or liable, in the current and lawful Coin of the Realm; any Provisions in the said recited Act, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament therein recited, or in this present Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank of Ireland may pay Notes, &c. in Coin.

No Person offered to be paid in Coin, to be allowed to demand Payment in Ingots.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall propose or offer to pay any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, or any other Debt or Demand whatsoever, in the current and lawful Coin of the Realm, it shall not be competent to the Bearer or Bearers of such Note or Notes, or to the Person or Persons to whom any such Debt or Demand shall be due or payable, to demand Payment thereof in Ingots or Bars of Standard Gold, as directed and provided by the said recited Act; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

Persons not offered to be paid in Coin, not to be deprived of Right of Payment in Ingots.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to deprive the Bearer or Bearers of any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, payable on Demand, and which the said Governor and Company shall not propose or offer to pay on Demand in the current and lawful Coin of the Realm, to demand and require Payment thereof, at any Time before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in Ingots or Bars of Standard Gold of Sixty Ounces each, calculated after

the Rate of Three Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Ten Pence Halfpenny British Currency, at an Exchange at Par, for every Ounce of Gold, as directed and provided by the said recited Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, as often as any of their Notes shall be offered to them in Exchange for One Pound Notes, or for the legal Gold Coin of the Realm, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be required, and they are hereby required, to pay on Demand to the Bearer of the said Notes, the Amount of the Notes so offered as aforesaid, either in One Pound Notes of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or in the legal Coin of the Realm, at the Option of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

Bank may pay in One Pound

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act for abolishing the African Company, and transferring to and vesting in His Majesty all the Forts, Possessions and Property now belonging to or held by them.

[7th May 1821.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for extending and improving the Trade to Africa: And Whereas another Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the Application of a Sum of Money therein mentioned, granted to His Majesty for making Compensation and Satisfaction to the Royal African Company of England, for their Charter, Land, Forts, Castles, Slaves, Military Stores and all other Effects whatsoever; and to vest the Lands, Forts, Castles, Slaves, and Military Stores, and all other their Effects, in the Company of Merchants trading to Africa; and for other Purposes in the Act mentioned: And Whereas another Act passed in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for repealing an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for repealing the Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for vesting the Fort of Senegal and its Dependencies in the Company of Merchants trading to Africa;" and to vest as well the said Forts and its Dependencies, as well as all other the British Forts and Settlements upon the Coast of Africa, lying between the Port of Sallee and Cape Roque, together with all the Property, Estate and Effects of the Company of Merchants trading to Africa, in or upon the said Forts, Settlements and their Dependencies, in His Majesty; and for securing, extending and improving the Trade to Africa; and for vesting James Fort in the River Gambia, and its Dependencies, and all other the British Forts and Settlements between the Port of Sallee and Cape Roque, in the Company of Merchants trading to Africa; and for securing and Regulating the Trade to Africa: And Whereas in pursuance

25 G. 2. c. 40.

23 G. 3. c. 65.

Reasons for passing this Act.

‘ of the said several recited Acts of Parliament, the whole of ‘ the Forts and Settlements upon the Gold Coast of Africa, held ‘ and occupied by His Majesty’s subjects, have become vested in ‘ the Body Corporate of the Company of Merchants trading to ‘ Africa, created by the said first recited Act of the Twenty ‘ third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second,
 ‘ and have been governed and managed by Officers and Servants ‘ appointed by them; but the whole Expence of such Manage‘ ment has, for many Years past, been entirely defrayed by Sums ‘ granted by Parliament for the Support of the said Forts and ‘ Settlements, the said Company having, in their corporate Capa‘ city, no Funds whatever out of which any Part of such Expences
 ‘ could be defrayed, and having no beneficial Interest in the said ‘ Forts or Settlements: And Whereas it is expedient that the ‘ Company of Merchants trading to Africa should relinquish the ‘ Government and Management of the said Forts and Possessions,
 ‘ and should surrender the same to His Majesty; and it is there‘ fore necessary that the said Company, created by the said re‘ cited Act of the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His late ‘ Majesty King George the Second, should cease and be wholly ‘ abolished as a Body Corporate and Politic, and that all the said ‘ Forts and Settlements, and all the Property and Effects of the ‘ said Company therein, should vest in His Majesty, and that ‘ His Majesty should be enabled to grant such reasonable Al‘ lowances as He may see fit, to such of the Officers and Servants
 ‘ of the said Company who may not be retained in the Government ‘ or Management of any of the said Forts, or otherwise em‘ ployed in His Majesty’s Service, as His Majesty should deem ‘ just and reasonable, and for charging the Allowances so granted ‘ upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great ‘ Britain and Ireland:’ May it therefore please Your Majesty ‘ that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King’s Most Ex‘ cellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the ‘ Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Par‘ liament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from ‘ and after the Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred ‘ and twenty one, the said Corporation of the Company of Mer‘ chants trading to Africa shall wholly cease and determine and ‘ be abolished, and the said Company of Merchants trading to Africa ‘ shall no longer be or be deemed to be a Body Politic or Cor‘ porate; and all Grants made to the said Company by or under or ‘ in pursuance of the said recited Acts of Parliament, or any or ‘ either of them, or in pursuance of any thing therein contained, ‘ shall and the same are hereby declared to be henceforth null and ‘ void; and the said Company shall be, and they are hereby di‘ vested of and from all Forts, Castles, Buildings, Possessions or ‘ Estate or Rights, which were given to the said Company by or ‘ under or in pursuance of the said recited Acts, or any or either ‘ of them, or which have been since purchased or otherwise ac‘ quired by the said Company in addition thereto, or which now
 ‘ are possessed or claimed or held by the said Company on the said ‘ Coast; and the said Forts, Castles, Buildings, Possessions, Estate
 ‘ and Rights, so acquired, possessed, enjoyed or claimed, or now ‘ held by the said Company, shall henceforth be, and the same
 ‘ and

The African Company abolished, and their Possessions vested in His

and every of them are and are hereby declared and enacted to be fully and absolutely vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors for ever.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to grant such reasonable Allowances as His Majesty may deem just and fit; to such of the Officers and Servants of the said Company as may appear deserving of the same, and may not be retained in the Government or Management of any of the said Forts, Castles or Possessions of the said Company, or may not be otherwise employed in His Majesty's Service, and to charge the same upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; which Allowance, when so granted, shall commence from the Time of the respective Persons to whom the same may respectively be granted ceasing to be employed in the Management of any of the said Forts, Castles or Possessions, or otherwise in His Majesty's Service, and shall be payable and paid quarterly after such Commencement respectively, at the Receipt of the Exchequer at Westminster, out of the said Consolidated Fund, free and clear of and from all Taxes, Charges and other Deductions whatsoever; but that no such Allowance shall be considered as finally and conclusively granted until the same shall have been first submitted to Parliament: Provided always, that if any Officer or Servant of the said Company, to whom any such Allowance may in the first Instance be granted under the Provisions of this Act, should be afterwards appointed to any Office or Employment in His Majesty's Service, of equal or greater Emolument, such Allowance shall, from the Date of such Appointment, altogether cease and determine; but if the said Office or Employment be of less Emolument, a Deduction shall in such case be made from such Allowance, equal to the Amount of the Salary and Emoluments of such Office or Employment.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct that all or any of the Forts and Possessions hereinbefore mentioned, and also any Territories, Islands or Possessions on the West Coast of Africa, between the Twentieth Degree of North Latitude and the Twentieth Degree of South Latitude, which now do or at any Time hereafter shall or may belong to His Majesty, shall be annexed to or made Dependencies on the Colony of Sierra Leone; and that from the Date of their being so annexed or made Dependencies on the said Colony, they shall be subject to all such Laws, Statutes and Ordinances as shall be in force in the said Colony, or shall at any Time thereafter be made, enacted or ordained by the Governor and Council of the said Colony, and shall not be disallowed by His Majesty, in the same Manner as if the said Forts, Possessions, Territories or Islands had originally formed Part of the said Colony of Sierra Leone.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this Session of Parliament.

His Majesty may grant Allowances to Officers, &c. of Company not continued in Employment or otherwise in His Majesty's Service, and charge same upon Consolidated Fund:

If afterwards appointed, Allowance to cease or be reduced.

The Possessions held by the African Company, and also the Territories belonging to His Majesty on the West Coast of Africa herein mentioned, annexed to Sierra Leone.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to remove Doubts on the Allowances of the Duty paid on Irish Starch imported into Great Britain, payable on such Starch consumed in preparing Manufactures of Flax or Cotton in Great Britain, and for Regulating the Importation thereof. [7th May 1821.]

WHEREAS Doubts have arisen, whether the like Allowances are payable of the Duty paid for or upon Irish Starch imported into Great Britain, when employed and consumed in Great Britain in preparing and finishing any Manufactures from Flax or Cotton for Sale, or in finishing new Linen in the Piece for Sale, as are by Law allowed and paid for and upon Starch made in Great Britain, and so used: To obviate all such Doubts, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the like Allowance and Allowances of the Duty paid for or upon Starch made in Great Britain, and used, employed, spent and consumed in Great Britain in preparing and finishing any Manufactures of Flax or Cotton for Sale, (except such as shall be used in finishing new Linen in the Piece for Sale,) and for or upon such Starch, when used, employed, spent and consumed in Great Britain in finishing new Linen in the Piece for Sale respectively, is and are payable and shall be allowed and paid for and upon every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Starch made in Ireland, and imported into Great Britain; and for and upon which the Duties payable on the Importation thereof have been duly charged and paid, and which shall be used, employed, spent and consumed in Great Britain as aforesaid; subject and liable nevertheless to the like Provisions made by Law for or in respect of such Allowance and Allowances, payable on Starch made in Great Britain and so employed and consumed as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That for the due and regular Importation into Great Britain of Starch made in Ireland, and better Security of the Duties payable thereon, all Person and Persons intending to export any Starch made in Ireland to Great Britain, shall, Six Hours at the least before he or they shall ship the same, give to the proper Officer of the Customs of the Port or Place in Ireland, where the same shall be intended to be shipped, a Notice thereof in Writing, specifying in such Notice the Number of Boxes or other external Packages, and also the Number of Pieces or Parcels, and Net Weight of the Starch contained in each such Boxes or other external Package respectively, intended to be so shipped, with the respective Marks and Numbers of every such Box or other external Package, and the Tare thereof, (every such external Package having the Word Starch permanently marked on the Outside thereof in distinct Letters of Two Inches in Length at the least, and containing at the least Two hundred and twenty four Pounds Net Avoirdupois of such Starch, and the Starch therein being in Pieces or Parcels, and and each Piece or Parcel enclosed in a separate Paper, tied up with a String, the Ends of which shall cross each other on that Side of the Piece or Parcel where the Ends of the Paper are folded,) and also specifying in such Notice the Quay or Place where such Goods are lying, and from which they are intended to be shipped, and the Time when such Shipment is intended to take place, and the Name of the Ship or Vessel in which the same are intended to be shipped and exported, and of the Master or Commander thereof, and of the particular Port or Place in Great Britain to which such Goods are intended to be exported; and such Officer shall, upon the Receipt of such Notice and the Production of such Goods, take an Account of such Starch, and of the Marks and Numbers of each of such Boxes or other external Packages, and shall ascertain the Gross Weight of each of such Boxes or other external Packages of Starch, and compare the same with the Particulars expressed in such Notice as aforesaid; and the Shipper or Exporter of such Goods shall thereupon nail, screw or fasten down each of such Boxes or other external Packages; and before shipping the same, give and enter into Bond with sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the proper Collector of the Customs in Ireland, in a Penalty calculated at the Rate of Seven Pence British Currency for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of the Starch mentioned in such Bond, with a Condition thereunder written, that such Starch (being therein described according to the several Particulars specified and contained in such Notice as aforesaid, if upon such Examination as aforesaid the Goods and Packages are found to agree with such Notice) and that every Part thereof shall be shipped and exported as aforesaid, and shall not be unshipped, unladen or laid on Land, or put on board any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain (except in case of Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident); which Bond the Collector of the Customs of the Port or Place in Ireland from which such Starch is intended to be exported, is hereby directed to take in His Majesty's Name, and to His Majesty's Use; and shall without Fee or Reward, after the Boxes or other external Packages containing such Starch have been seen and inspected on board of such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, for the Exportation thereof, deliver a Certificate of such Shipment, describing therein the Number of Boxes, or other external Packages, with the respective Marks and Numbers thereof; and the Number of Pieces or Parcels of Starch papered and tied up as aforesaid contained therein respectively, together with the Tare of each such Box or other external Package, and the Net Weight of the Starch therein contained, and also the Date of such Shipment and Bond as aforesaid, with the Name of the Ship or Vessel, and of the Master or Commander thereof, and the Port or Place in Ireland at which shipped and from which exported, and the Port or Place in Great Britain to which the same is intended to be exported, according to the Particulars contained in such Bond as aforesaid, and shall thereupon deliver such Certificate to such Master or Commander, to accompany the Goods on the said Voyage, and shall transmit a Duplicate of such Certificate by the Post, at the Expence of the Shipper of such Goods, to the Inspector or Port Surveyor of Excise of the Port or Place in Great Britain

Officers to take an Account of such Starch, and of Marks, &c. of Packages.

Bond to be given for the due Exportation.

Certificate of Shipping, without Fee, to be given by the proper Officer to the Master of the Vessel.

Duplicate sent to Surveyor of Port of Importation.

On Arrival Certificate produced, and on Entry of Goods, and Officer satisfied and Duties paid, Certificate to be transmitted to Ireland, and Bond cancelled.

Britain mentioned in such Certificate; and that upon the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at such Port or Place as aforesaid, or from Necessity at any other Port or Place in Great Britain, such Master or Commander shall show the same to every Officer of Excise who shall board the said Ship or Vessel and demand the Inspection of such Certificate, and shall deliver such Certificate to the proper Inspector or Port Surveyor of Excise, at the Port or Place in Great Britain of such Importation, and upon Entry of such Goods being made at such Port or Place in Great Britain as last aforesaid, for Payment of the Duties payable thereon, the Inspector, Surveyor or Officer of Excise duly appointed for that Purpose, shall and may open every such Box or other external Package, and weigh and compare the Contents thereof with such Certificate thereof as aforesaid, and if he deem it necessary, open the Ends of the Paper in which each Piece or Parcel of such Starch is enclosed and tied up, so as to satisfy himself that the same contains only Starch made in Ireland; and if upon such Weighing and Examination thereof, he shall find the same to agree with the Particulars specified in such Certificate as aforesaid, and to be a fair and legal Importation, he shall forthwith, after the Duties payable on the Importation of such Starch shall be fully paid, make out and deliver to the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel a Certificate of the due Importation, Landing and Examination of, and Payment of Duty on such Starch, specifying the several Particulars aforesaid, and shall, at the Expence of the Importer of such Starch, transmit by Post a Duplicate of such last mentioned Certificate to the Collector of the Customs of the Port or Place in Ireland from which such Starch was shipped or exported as aforesaid, who upon the Receipt of such Certificate is hereby required, after comparing the same with such Bond as aforesaid, to cancel such Bond, if such Certificate and Bond are found to correspond and agree; and such Importer is, after the Delivery of such Certificate as aforesaid, hereby required thereupon, at his own Expence, but in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, strongly to affix with warm Paste made with Glue on every Piece or Parcel of Starch so papered and tied up, a Label of thin Paper Three Inches long and Three Inches broad at the least, of a different Colour to that in which the Starch is wrapped; videlicet, if the Starch is wrapped in Blue or Brown Paper, the Label shall be White, and if wrapped in White Paper, the Label shall be Blue; and such Label shall be affixed on that Side of the Piece of Starch where the Ends of the Paper shall be folded, and in such Manner as to prevent the opening thereof without tearing the Label; and the proper Officer of Excise shall thereupon stamp every Label on every Piece or Parcel of such Starch, with such Stamp as shall be directed by the Commissioners of Excise for the Duties upon Starch.

III. And be it further enacted, That if upon the proper Officer of the Customs in Ireland taking an Account of and weighing any Packages of Starch produced to him as the Goods specified and described in any such Notice as aforesaid, shall find and discover the same not to agree with the Particulars specified in such Notice, or not according to the Provisions of this Act, every such Notice shall be void, and the Person and Persons giving such Notice shall forfeit forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds British Currency, to be recovered, paid, and applied as any other Penalty or Penalties by any Law relating to His Majesty's Customs in Ireland; and that if any Starch for which any such Bond shall be given as aforesaid, for the due Shipment and Exportation thereof to Great Britain, shall not be landed in Great Britain (Shipwreck and other unavoidable Accident excepted), and the Duty payable thereon paid, and for which such a Certificate thereof as is hereinbefore mentioned shall not be delivered to the proper Collector of the Customs in Ireland within Three Calendar Months after the Date of such Bond, the Penalty of such Bond shall be forfeited; and if any Starch made in Ireland shall, after the Expiration of One Month after the passing of this Act, be shipped in Ireland and imported into Great Britain otherwise than as aforesaid, or without such Irish Certificate as is hereinbefore provided for that Purpose, or not agreeing therewith in the Weight, Quality and Description of the Goods or Packages therein specified, or for which such Certificate is not received or delivered at the Time of Importation, or which is not duly entered, and the Duties paid thereon, or on any Piece or Parcel of which the Importer thereof refuses or neglects to affix such Label as aforesaid, or of which any Piece or Parcel shall be removed or concealed from the proper Officer before the same has been marked or stamped thereon by such Officer to denote the Charge of Duty, all such Starch, with the Packages containing the same, shall be forfeited; and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and if any Package or Packages shall be imported as aforesaid as Starch made in Ireland, which shall be or contain any Foreign Starch or any other Goods or Commodity than Starch made in Ireland, all such Goods and Packages shall be forfeited; and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Importer and Importers thereof, and every Person concerned therein, shall, over and above such Forfeiture, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or Treble the Value of such Goods and Packages, at the Election of His Majesty's Attorney General, to be recovered, paid and applied as any other Penalty or Penalties by any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise in Great Britain.

Starch so imported to be labelled and stamped as herein directed.

Notice void if Packages do not agree in Particulars; and Penalty 20l.

If Starch be not landed in G. B. (Exception) and Duty paid, &c. within Three Months, Bond forfeited.

If Regulation not complied with, Starch forfeited.

Packages imported as Starch made in Ireland containing Foreign Starch or other Goods, forfeited, and Penalty.

British Gum to be deemed Starch.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Article and Commodity called British Gum, or by any other Name or Description, being a Preparation of or from Starch, or of or from any of the Materials from which Starch is made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain, shall be deemed Starch, and subject and liable to all the Duties, Allowances and Drawbacks imposed, granted and allowed for and upon Starch, and to the several Laws and Regulations touching or relating thereto.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

An Act for declaring valid certain Indentures of Apprenticeship, and Certificates of Settlements of poor Persons, in England. [28th May 1821.]

WHEREAS in divers Parishes, Townships, Hamlets, Chapelries and Places in England, for a long Period of Time, only One Churchwarden or Chapelwarden has been annually appointed, where Two or more Churchwardens or Chapelwardens had been formerly been appointed for each of such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets, Chapelries or Places: And Whereas divers Indentures for the Binding of Parish Apprentices, and Certificates of the Settlements of poor Persons, which may have been executed and signed by such single Churchwarden or Chapelwarden, acting in and for a Parish, Township, Hamlet or Place, for which formerly Two or more Churchwardens or Chapelwardens had been appointed, may on that account, if contested in a Court of Law, be deemed to be null and void: And Whereas much Litigation has recently arisen between Parishes, owing to the Discovery of such Defect as above mentioned in the Appointment of Churchwardens and Chapelwardens; and it would tend to prevent future Litigation, if such Indentures and Certificates as before mentioned were in certain cases declared to be valid and effectual: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Indentures for the Binding of Parish Apprentices, and Certificates of the Settlement or Settlements of poor Persons, which have been, previous to the passing of this Act, executed or signed by One Churchwarden or Chapelwarden, acting or purporting to act in the Capacity of Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Chapelwarden or Chapelwardens, for any Parish, Township, Hamlet, Chapelry or Place in England, for which Two Churchwardens or Chapelwardens had formerly been appointed, shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Indentures or Certificates had been executed by One or more Churchwarden or Chapelwarden, Churchwardens or Chapelwardens legally appointed; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certain Indentures and Certificates of Settlement declared valid.

Proviso for Decisions already made.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect or set aside any Decision or Judgment made or given in any Court of Judicature respecting any such Indentures or Certificates, or to alter, impeach or affect the Settlement of any Person for whose Removal any Order of Justices shall have been duly made, previous to the passing of this Act, or to legalize or make valid any Indentures or Certificates to be signed or executed as hereinbefore mentioned, after the passing of this Act.

any such District shall consist of only One County, or County of a City or County of a Town, and no more, every such Asylum shall be sufficient to contain such Number of Lunatic Poor, not being less than Fifty, as shall seem expedient to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council; and every Order of Council to be made for any such Purpose shall be published in the Dublin Gazette.

III. And be it further enacted, That at any Time after any such Order of Council shall be made and published in the Dublin Gazette, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any and every County, County of a City and County of a Town, within any such District, or of which such District shall consist, at any Assizes to present such Sum or Sums of Money to be raised off such County, County of a City or County of a Town respectively, as shall be requisite for defraying the Expences of erecting and establishing such Asylum, and for maintaining the same, to such Amount and in such Proportions as shall be directed by any Order to be made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, to order and direct that any Sum or Sums of Money shall be advanced and issued and paid out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom arising in Ireland, to such Person or Persons as shall be named in any such Order of Council, or into the Bank of Ireland, in the Names of any such Person or Persons, to be paid and applied for the Purpose of erecting and establishing any such Asylum for the Lunatic Poor in any such District in Ireland, in such Sums and at such Times, and in such Manner and Proportions, and under such Rules, Regulations, Terms and Conditions, and to annex such Penalties for Breach of such Rules, Regulations, Terms and Conditions, as to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council shall seem best suited for promoting the beneficial Purposes of this Act; and after any such Asylum shall be fit for the Reception of such Lunatic Poor, the Grand Jury of every County, County of a City or County of a Town, within the District in and for which such Asylum shall be erected and established, or of which such District shall consist, shall present such Sum or Sums of Money at the several ensuing Assizes, for the Repayment of the Money so advanced, and at such Times and in such Proportions as shall be directed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, to nominate and appoint such Persons as he and they shall think fit and proper, to be Governors or Directors of every or any such Asylum, in any such District; and also to nominate and appoint any Persons not exceeding Eight in Number, to be Commissioners for general Controul and Correspondence, and for the superintending and directing the Erection, Establishment and

Regulation

Regulation of all such Asylums; and also that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and Privy Council, to make, frame and establish, or upon the Suggestion and Recommendation of such Commissioners for general Controul and Correspondence, to adopt and authorize any Rules and Regulations for the good Conduct and Management of such Asylums in general, or of any such Asylum in particular: Provided always, that every Person who shall be appointed to be a Governor or Director of any such Asylum, or to be One of the Commissioners for such general Controul and Correspondence, shall act without any Salary, Fee, Reward or Emolument whatsoever.

No Allowance to Director, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in each and every case, where an Order of Council for the Erection of a District Lunatic Asylum shall have been made and published in the Dublin Gazette as in this Act is provided, the said Commissioners for general Controul and Correspondence shall have full Power and Authority to rent or purchase any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, on the Scite or Scites of which it shall be proposed to erect or maintain any such District Lunatic Asylum; and any Houses, Lands, Tenements, Buildings or Hereditaments, so rented or purchased, shall and may be conveyed to the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, and to their Heirs and Successors, in Trust to and for the Uses and Purposes of the said District Lunatic Asylum.

Commissioners may rent and purchase Premises for erecting Lunatic Asylums.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, in or for which, wholly or in part, any such Asylum hath been or shall be established, or hath been or shall be ordered or directed so to be under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act; and such Grand Jury are hereby required, at the Assizes next ensuing the Day or Time when such Purchase shall be made, or such Rent shall become due, or any Expenditure shall have been made for supplying or maintaining any such Asylum, or the Officers or Attendants thereof, or the Patients therein, or as soon after as shall be requisite, and so from time to time whenever the Case shall happen, to present to be raised off any such County, County of a City or County of a Town, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be necessary for completing such Purchase, or paying such Rent or Rents, or any such Disbursements and Expenditures, or any of them, or any Part or Proportion thereof, to be ascertained by an Order to be made by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, in Council as aforesaid; and if the said Grand Jury shall refuse to make any such Presentment, the Court shall order the Sum or Sums which ought to be so presented, to be raised as if the same had been so presented, and the same shall be raised and paid accordingly.

Grand Juries, as Assizes, to present for Expenses, &c. of Asylums;

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Bodies Politic and Corporate, Trustees, Guardians of Infants, Committees of Lunatics, Femes Covert with their Husbands, and all other Persons whatsoever, who are or shall be seized or possessed of, or interested in, or entitled unto any Estate or Interest whatsoever in the Lands, Houses, Grounds, Tenements, Bodies Corporate, &c. may sell and convey Premises for such Purposes.

Tenements, Buildings or Hereditaments which by the said Commissioners shall be thought necessary to be rented or purchased for any of the Purposes of this Act, by Deeds indented and enrolled, to demise, sell and convey all and any such Grounds, Houses, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, and all the respective Estates and Interests therein, to the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, and their Heirs and Successors; and that all Contracts, Agreements, Bargains, Sales and Conveyances that shall be so made, shall be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that such Commissioners, and their Heirs and Successors, shall be Trustees of all such Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as shall be conveyed to or vested in them under and by virtue of this Act, for the Purposes herein provided, and for no other Purpose whatsoever.

Sheriffs to proceed in making Valuations of Premises, as they are empowered to do in Cases of Valuation of Gaols under 50 G. 3. c. 103.

IX. And for the better ascertaining the Rent or Value of any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments as may be rented or purchased for the Purposes of this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to issue a Warrant or Warrants, or Precept or Precepts, to the Sheriff of the County, or County of a City or County of the Town wherein the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments proposed to be purchased, are lying and being; and such Sheriff or Sheriffs respectively shall thereupon proceed to take such Steps for the Valuation of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, as are prescribed for the Valuation of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments taken for the Scites of Gaols, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for repealing the several Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland, and for re-enacting such of the Provisions thereof as have been found useful, with Amendments, or of any Act or Acts for amending the same.

Powers vested in Commissioners for building Gaols, to extend to Commissioners for building Lunatic Asylums.

X. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers vested in the Commissioners for building Gaols in the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, or of any Act for amending the same, shall be, and are hereby vested in the Commissioners of General Controul and Correspondence for the District Lunatic Asylums of Ireland, or any Three of them, so far as the same relate to the holding a Court, and proceeding to the Valuation of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, on the Scite of which any District Lunatic Asylum shall, or may have been, or may be erected, under and by virtue of this Act, or the said recited Acts.

Provisions of 50 G. 3. c. 103. and other Acts, affecting Purchase and Valuation of Scites, to extend to this Act, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, or any Act for amending the same, which affect or relate to the Purchase and Valuation of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments for the Scites of Gaols or Prisons, or to any Notices, Proceedings, Summonses, Verdicts and Judgments, or to any Conveyances or Enrolments, or to the Lodgments of Consideration Money, or to Petitions to the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, or to any Payments of Purchase Money, or to any Rights and Titles of Parties interested, shall be held to apply to the Valuation of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments rented or or taken for the Scites of Lunatic Asylums under this Act, or the said hereinbefore recited Acts; and such Verdicts, Judgments and Conveyances, shall be binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every Case, when a Jury shall be impannelled and sworn for the Valuation of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments rented or taken for the Scite of any Lunatic Asylum as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to appoint, by an Instrument in Writing under their Hands and Seals, by and with the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors in Council, not less than Six Persons, nor more than Twelve, Three of whom shall be competent to act on Behalf of the said Commissioners, in presiding at such Court, and receiving the Verdicts of such Jury as shall be held and impannelled for such Valuation, such Persons so appointed and approved of being Magistrates for One or more of the Counties, Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns, comprehended within the District for which such Asylums respectively have been or shall be erected, or of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, of which such District shall consist; and the Acts of such Magistrates, or any Three of them, shall be of equal Force and Validity with those of the Commissioners themselves, so far as relates to holding a Court for such Valuation, and performing the Duties necessary for such Valuation, as prescribed by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, or any Act or Acts for amending the same.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Rent or Purchase Money so fixed and ascertained as aforesaid, shall be provided for out of the general Funds for the Erection of and Maintenance of Lunatic Asylums, by virtue of this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and so in every succeeding Year before the Twenty fifth Day of March in each Year, the Governors or Directors of the several Lunatic Asylums in Ireland, which have been or shall be established under the said recited Acts hereby repealed, or under this Act, or the Treasurer or other proper Officer of such Lunatic Asylum respectively, shall yearly and every Year make out and deliver and transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of Ireland, a Return containing a Statement and Accounts of all the Funds intrusted to the Governors or Directors of every such Lunatic Asylum respectively, for the Benefit of every such Asylum, and of the Application of such Funds, for the Year ending on the Twenty fifth Day of December preceding such Twenty fifth Day of March, with the Balances of the Debts and Credits, and of the whole Funds of every such Asylum respectively, on such Twenty fifth Day of December; and also the Number of Patients or Persons received into and sent out of every such Asylum respectively during such preceding Year, and the Number of Patients remaining therein at the time of such Return, and the Number and Names of the Physicians, Surgeons, Officers, Servants and other Persons employed in or about the Management of every such Asylum respectively, and all such Persons appointed by Commissioners, with Consent of Lord Lieutenant, to preside in Court, to receive Verdicts of Juries in Cases of Valuation as under 50 G. 3. c. 103.

XVI. And Whereas Persons charged with Offences in Ireland may have been or may be of unsound Mind at the time of committing the Offence wherewith they may have been or shall be charged, and by reason of such Insanity may have been or may be found not guilty of such Offences; and it may be dangerous to permit Persons in such cases to go at large; Be it therefore enacted, That in all cases where it shall be given in Evidence on the Trial of any Person in Ireland, charged with Treason, Murder or any other Offence, that such Person was insane at the Time of the Commission of such Offence, and such Person shall be acquitted, the Jury shall be required to find specially whether such Person was insane at the time of the Commission of such Offence, and to declare whether such Person was acquitted by them on account of such Insanity; and if they shall find that such Person was insane at the time of the committing such Offence, the Court before whom the Trial shall be had, shall, if it shall be thought necessary or proper, order such Person to be kept in strict Custody, in such Place and in such Manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall be known; and it shall thereupon be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to give such Order for the safe Custody and Care of such Person, during the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, in such such Place and in such Manner as shall seem fit; and in all cases where any Person before the passing of this Act has been acquitted of any such Offences, on the Ground of Insanity at the time of the Commission thereof, and has been detained in Custody as a dangerous Person by Order of the Court before whom such Person has been tried or otherwise, and shall remain in Custody at the time of the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to give the like Order for the safe Custody and Care of such Person, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, is or are by this Act enabled to give in the cases of Persons who shall hereafter be acquitted on the Ground of Insanity.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person indicted in Ireland for any Offence shall be found to be insane, by a Jury lawfully impannelled for that Purpose, so that such Person cannot be tried upon such Indictment; or if, upon the Trial of any Person so indicted, such Person shall appear to the Jury charged with such Indictment to be insane, it shall be lawful for the Court before whom such Person shall be brought to be tried as aforesaid, to direct such Finding to be recorded, and thereupon to order such Person to be kept in strict Custody, and to be taken care of, until the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall be known; and if any Person charged with any Offence shall be brought before any Court to be discharged for Want of Prosecution, and such Person shall appear to be insane, it shall be lawful for such Court to order a Jury to be impannelled to try the Sanity of such Person; and if the Jury so impannelled shall find such Person to be insane, it shall be lawful for such Court to order such Person to be kept in strict Custody, in such Place and in such Manner as to such Court shall seem fit, until the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall be known; and in all cases of Insanity so found, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to give the like Order for the safe Custody and Care of such Person so found to be insane, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, is or are by this Act enabled to give in the cases of Persons acquitted on the Ground of Insanity.

Criminals found insane at the Time of their Indictment, or of being brought up to be discharged for want of Prosecution, &c. may be detained under Order of Courts, and Direction of Lord Lieutenant.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever and as soon as there shall be a Lunatic Asylum built or maintained, either wholly or in part, in any County, County of a City or County of a Town, wherein such Prisoner, in any of the cases aforesaid, shall be tried or found insane as aforesaid, then and from thenceforth such insane Person shall, without Delay, be removed to such Asylum, and shall be kept therein so long as such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody.

Such insane Criminals to be removed and detained in Lunatic Asylums, when provided.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Public Notaries in Ireland. [28th May 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent illiterate and in‘ experienced Persons being admitted or acting as Public ‘ Notaries in Ireland:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, no Person in Ireland shall act as a Public Notary, or use and exercise the Office of a Notary, or do any Notarial Act, unless such Person shall have been duly sworn, admitted and enrolled, in manner hereinafter directed, in the Court wherein Notaries have been accustomed to be sworn, admitted and enrolled.

Public Notaries
to be duly sworn and admitted.

No Person admitted unless he shall have served as an Apprentice for Seven Years; and if bound after July 1, unless Affidavit of certain Particulars be made, which shall be filed in the proper Court.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said
 First Day of July, no Person shall be sworn, admitted and enrolled as a Public Notary, unless such Person shall have been bound by Contract in Writing, or by Indenture of Apprenticeship, to serve as a Clerk or Apprentice for and during the Space of not less than Seven Years to a Public Notary duly sworn, admitted and enrolled, and for and during the said Term of Seven Years shall have continued in such Service; and also unless every such Person, who shall from and after the said First Day of July be bound by Contract in Writing, or Indenture of Apprenticeship, shall within Three Months next after the Date of every such Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, cause an Affidavit to be made and duly sworn by One of the subscribing Witnesses, of the actual Execution of every such Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship by such Public Notary, and by the Person so to be bound to serve as a Clerk or Apprentice as aforesaid; and in every such Affidavit shall be specified the Names of such Public Notary, and of such Person so bound, and their Places of Abode respectively, together with the Day of the Date of such Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship; and every such Affidavit shall be sworn and filed within the time aforesaid, in the Court where the Public Notary to whom every such Person respectively shall be bound as aforesaid, shall have been enrolled as a Notary, with the proper Officer or Officers, or his or their respective Deputy or Deputies, who shall make or sign a Memorandum of the Day of filing every such Affidavit on the Back or at the Bottom of such Contract or Indenture.

Such Affidavit openly read in Court.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall after the said First Day of July become bound as aforesaid, shall be admitted or enrolled a Public Notary in the Court of Faculties for admitting

admitting and enrolling Public Notaries, before such Affidavit shall be produced and openly read in such Court, at the time of such Person's Admission and Enrolment.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall have been before the said First Day of July bound by Contract in Writing, or Indenture of Apprenticeship, to serve as a Clerk or Apprentice to a Public Notary, duly sworn, admitted and enrolled, for a Term less than Seven Years, it shall be lawful for the Parties to such Contract, by a further Contract in Writing duly executed by them, to enlarge the time of such Service, and extend the same to the full Term of Seven Years from the time of the original Contract; and such Person having actually served during the full Term of Seven Years shall be entitled to be admitted and enrolled a Public Notary, in the same Manner as he would have been entitled if the original Contract had been for the Term of Seven Years; the Facts of such Contracts, and of such Service for the full Term of Seven Years, being proved by Affidavit to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Faculties.

V. And be it further enacted, That the following Persons shall be deemed and taken to be the proper Officers for taking and filing such Affidavits; (that is to say), the Lord Archbishop of Armagh, his Commissary or Commissioners for the time being.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Officer filing such Affidavits as aforesaid shall keep a Book wherein shall be entered the Substance of such Affidavit, specifying the Names and Places of Abode of every such Public Notary and Clerk, or Person bound as aforesaid, and of the Person making such Affidavit, with the Date of the Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship in such Affidavit to be mentioned, and the Days of swearing and filing every such Affidavit respectively; and such Officers shall be at liberty to take, at the time of filing every such Affidavit, the Sum of Five Shillings, and no more, as a Recompence for his Trouble in filing such Affidavit; and which Book shall and may be searched in Office Hours by any Person or Persons whomsoever, upon Payment of One Shilling for such Search.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of July no Public Notary shall take, have or retain any Clerk or Apprentice, who shall become bound as aforesaid, after such Public Notary shall have discontinued or left off, or during such time as he shall not actually practise or carry on the Business of a Public Notary.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall, from and after the said First Day of July, become bound by Contract in Writing or Indenture of Apprenticeship to serve any Public Notary, as hereby directed, shall, during the whole Time and Term of Service to be specified in such Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, or during the Time and Space of Seven Years thereof at least (if bound for a longer Term than Seven Years), continue and be actually employed by such Public Notary in the proper Business, Practice or Employment of a Public Notary.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any such Public Notary, to or with whom any such Person shall be bound,

If Party bound before July 1, for a less Term than Seven Years, another Contract may be entered into for enlarging the Time to Seven Years.

Service.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person who, from and after the said First Day of July, shall become bound as Clerk or Apprentice as aforesaid, shall, before he be admitted and enrolled a Public Notary according to this Act, make before and file with the proper Officer hereinbefore for that Purpose mentioned, that he hath actually and really served and been employed by such practising Public Notary or Notaries to whom he shall have been bound as aforesaid, during the whole Term of Seven Years, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Notary acting as such, or permitting his Name to be used for the Profit of any Person not entitled to act, struck off the Roll.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of July, if any Public Notary shall act as such, or permit or suffer his Name to be in any Manner used, for or on account or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to act as a Public Notary, and Complaint shall be made in a summary Way to the Court of Faculties wherein he hath been admitted and enrolled, and Proof made upon Oath to the Satisfaction of the said Court, that such Notary hath offended therein as aforesaid, then and in such Case, every such Notary so offending shall be struck off the Roll of Faculties, and be for ever after disabled from practising as a Public Notary, or doing any Notarial Act, save and except as to any Allowance or Allowances, Sum or Sums of Money, that are or shall be agreed to be made or paid to the Widows or Children of any deceased Public Notary or Notaries, by any surviving Partner or Partners of such deceased Notary or Notaries.

Notary without being admitted,
Penalty 50l.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of July, in case any Person shall, in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person, make, do, act, exercise or execute and perform any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in any-wise appertaining or belonging to the Office, Function and Practice of a Public Notary, for or in Expectation of any Gain, Fee or Reward, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XIII. Pro-

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not be taken or construed to exclude any Person from being sworn, admitted and enrolled a Public Notary, in the accustomed Court aforesaid, who hath on or before the First Day of July been bound, by Contract in Writing or Indenture of Apprenticeship, to serve as a Clerk or Apprentice to any Public Notary, for the Term not less than Seven Years, notwithstanding that such Term of Seven Years shall not expire till after the said First Day of July; and provided that such Clerk or Apprentice shall actually serve for the Remainder of the Term of Seven Years: Provided always, that an Affidavit shall be previously made and filed, in manner hereinbefore directed, of such actual Service, of any Term not less than Seven Years, to any such qualified Notary; and every such Person may, after the Expiration of such Term of Seven Years, and Affidavit of such Service having been previously made and filed, as before directed, be sworn, admitted and enrolled to be a Public Notary, in the same manner as Persons to be admitted, sworn and enrolled Public Notaries are hereby required to be sworn, admitted and enrolled respectively; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Proctor in any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, nor to any Secretary or Secretaries to any Bishop or Bishops merely practising as such Secretary or Secretaries, or to any other Person or Persons necessarily created a Notary Public for the Purpose of holding or exercising any Office or Appointment, or occasionally performing any Public Duty or Service under Government, or created a Public Notary for practising within a limited District, and not as general Practitioner or Practitioners; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt or be construed to exempt any Proctor, being also a Public Notary, or any Person created a Public Notary for practising within a limited District only, from the Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities by this Act imposed upon any Public Notary who shall permit or suffer his Name to be in any manner used for or on account or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to act as a Public Notary.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person, who on or before the passing of this Act shall have been duly admitted as a Public Notary, from acting as a Public Notary, or using or exercising the Office of a Notary, or doing any Notarial Acts whatever, as fully as if such Notary had been admitted, sworn and enrolled pursuant to the Regulations and Provisions of this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties imposed on any Person or Persons for Offences committed against this Act, shall and may be sued for and recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Impar-

Proviso for Persons who have been bound on or before July 1, for Seven Years, though Term expires after 1st July.

Affidavit as before mentioned.

Proviso for Proctors in Ecclesiastical Courts, Secretaries to Bishops, &c.

Proctors being Public Notaries, &c. liable to Penalties as herein mentioned.

Proviso for Persons who, on or before passing this Act, have been admitted as Notaries.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

parlance shall be allowed, and wherein the Plaintiff, if he or she shall recover any Penalty or Penalties, shall recover the same for his or her own Use, with full Costs of Suit.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs on the Importation into Great Britain of certain Sorts of Wood and Timber, and certain Drawbacks or Allowances in respect of such Duties, and to grant other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof. [28th May 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Customs payable upon the Importation into Great Britain of several Sorts of Wood and Timber, and certain Drawbacks allowable in respect of certain of the said Duties, should cease and determine, and that other Duties and Drawbacks should be granted and allowed in lieu thereof;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Duties of Customs payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, upon the Importation into Great Britain of the several Sorts and Descriptions of Wood and Timber enumerated or described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), and the Drawbacks allowable in respect of the Duty on certain Sorts or Descriptions of such Wood or

or Timber used in Mines, shall cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering any Arrears thereof respectively which may remain unpaid or unallowed on the passing of this Act, or relating to any Fines, Forfeitures or Penalties in respect thereof which shall have been incurred at any time before the passing of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in lieu and instead of the several Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the several Sorts and Descriptions of Wood and Timber enumerated and described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), imported into Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted or described and set forth in Figures in the said Table marked (A.); and that in Lieu and instead of the Drawbacks and Allowances in respect of the Duties on certain Sorts or Descriptions of Wood or Timber used in Mines, and hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks also respectively inserted, described and set forth in the said Table marked (A.) to this Act annexed.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Drawbacks specified in the Table to this Act annexed, to be allowed upon certain Sorts of Deals used and employed in any of the Mines of Tin, Lead or Copper in the Counties of Devon or Cornwall, and also the Drawbacks specified in the said Table upon certain Sorts of Fir Timber used and employed in any of the said Mines, shall be paid and allowed in such Manner, and under such Regulations as are contained and expressed in an Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for granting a Drawback on Deals and Timber used in Mines, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, with respect to the Drawbacks payable and allowable under that Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing contained in this present Act, or in the Table thereto annexed, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Sort of Wood or Timber of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, nor to any Sorts of Wood or Timber imported into Great Britain from His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof; but that all such Wood and Timber shall be and remain subject and liable to such and the same Duties as the same were subject and liable to under any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain on or immediately before the passing of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Payment of the several Duties of Customs imposed by this Act and the Table thereto annexed, on the Importation of Timber being the Produce of Newfoundland, and imported directly from thence, shall be, and the same are hereby suspended; and the said Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Timber so imported into Great Britain until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, inclusive; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Instead thereof, the Duties and Drawbacks specified in Table A. shall be paid and allowed.

Drawbacks herein mentioned to be allowed, under the Regulations of 51 G. 3. c. 43.

Proviso for Wood imported from Limits of East India Company's Charter, and Cape of Good Hope.

Duties on Newfoundland Timber imported suspended till July 5. 1824.

Proviso for Entry and other Regulations.

notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Timber shall be duly entered and landed, and shall be subject in every respect to all the Regulations required by Law; and that the Duty on such Timber hereby suspended shall revive and become payable, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, in such and the like Manner as if the said Suspension of Duty had not taken place.

Duties imposed by this Act may be secured by Bond.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to compel the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Sorts of Wood or Timber, on which any Duty is imposed by this Act and the Table thereto annexed, to pay the said Duties upon the Importation or Landing thereof in Great Britain in any Case where such Wood or Timber might, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, have been secured without Payment of Duty, or in any Case where Duties on such Wood or Timber are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain on and immediately before the passing of this Act; but that in all such Cases the Duties specified in the Table to this Act annexed, marked (A.), may be secured by Bond or otherwise in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are contained in any such Act or Acts: Provided always, that in case the Importer or Proprietor of any such Sorts of Wood or Timber (other than Deal Ends and Batten Ends), which shall have been entered and secured without Payment of Duty by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, shall be desirous of taking any such Wood or Timber from any place wherein the same shall be secured, for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, then and in such Case the Duties imposed by this Act on such Sorts of Wood and Timber respectively (other than Deal Ends and Batten Ends), shall be payable thereon, notwithstanding such Wood or Timber may have been imported and secured before the passing of this Act.

On taking Wood or Timber already secured, for Home Consumption, (Exception) the new Duties to be paid.

Deal Ends or Batten Ends taken for Home Consumption to be subject to the former Duties only.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Importer or Proprietor of any Deal Ends or Batten Ends which shall have been entered and secured without Payment of Duty by virtue of any Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, shall be desirous of taking any such Deal Ends or Batten Ends from any Place wherein the same shall have been secured, for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, then and in such Case the said Deal Ends or Batten Ends shall not be subject to the Duty imposed by this Act, but the Duties imposed on such Deal Ends or Batten Ends by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act shall be and remain payable thereon, and no more; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

30 G. S. c. 29.
§ 2. Wood and Timber described in Table A.

VIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, among other Things for regulating the Duties on the Importation of Goods

Goods and Commodities the Growth and Production of the Countries bordering on the Province of Quebec, it is enacted, that all Goods and Commodities whatsoever, being the Growth or Production of any of the Countries bordering on the Province of Quebec, and brought by Land or Inland Navigation into the said Province, conformably to the Regulations established by Law in the said Province for bringing in the same by Land or Inland Navigation from any of the Countries bordering thereon, shall and may be imported into any part of Great Britain from the said Province of Quebec, and the same respectively shall be admitted to Entry, and be charged with Duty, or exempted from Duty, in like Manner as such Goods and Commodities respectively would be charged with or exempted from Duty if the same were of the Growth or Production of the said Province of Quebec, and were imported directly from thence into Great Britain: Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the several Sorts and Descriptions of Wood and Timber enumerated or described in the Table marked (A.) annexed to this Act, being of the Growth or Production of the Countries bordering on the Province of Quebec, or on the Province of Upper or Lower Canada, and having been brought by Land or Inland Navigation into the said Provinces, and imported from the said Provinces into Great Britain at any time after the passing of this Act, shall be subject and liable to the like Duties as if such Wood and Timber had been imported into Great Britain directly from any of the United States of America; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

the Produce of Countries bordering on the Provinces of Quebec or Canada, and imported from those Provinces into G. B., liable to the same Duties as if imported directly from America :

IX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That any Sorts of Wood or Timber enumerated or described in the Table to this Act annexed, being of the Growth or Production of any of the Countries bordering on the Province of Quebec, or on the Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada, and which shall have been brought by Land or Inland Navigation into any Part of the said Province of Quebec, or of the said Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada, at any time before the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, conformably to the Regulations established by Law for bringing in the same, by Land or Inland Navigation, from any of the Countries bordering thereon, shall and may be imported into Great Britain from the said Province of Quebec, or from the Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada, and the same shall be admitted to Entry, and shall be charged with Duty, or exempted from Duty, in like Manner as such Wood or Timber would be charged with or exempted from Duty if the same were of the Growth or Production of the said Provinces of Quebec or Upper or Lower Canada, and were imported directly from thence into Great Britain: Provided nevertheless, that it shall appear by Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and the Naval Officer at the Port of Exportation in the said Provinces, that such Wood or Timber was brought into the said Provinces at some time before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and conformably to the Regulations established by Law there, by Land

Such Wood or Timber brought into such Provinces before March 25. 1821, may be imported under the same Conditions as if such Wood or Timber had been the Production of those Provinces.

Certificate of Customs and Naval Officer.

Land or Inland Navigation, from the Countries bordering thereon, and specifying from what Places such Wood or Timber were so brought, and under and subject to the like Rules, Regulations and Conditions, in all Respects, as are directed or required by the said recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign.

Before Mahogany of the Production of Jamaica is admitted to Entry, a Certificate from the Port of Importation, testifying its being of such Production, shall be produced.

Oath by Master of Conformity of Mahogany to Certificate.

A like Certificate to be produced before any Wood or Timber of the British Colonies in America admitted to Entry.

The like Oath by Master of Ship.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, before any Mahogany imported into Great Britain, as being of the Growth or Production of the Island of Jamaica, shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty imposed on such Mahogany by this Act, or the Table thereto annexed, the Master, or other Person having or taken the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Mahogany shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs, or the Naval Officer at the Port or Place where such Mahogany shall have been taken on board, testifying that Oath had been made before him (who is hereby required and authorized to administer such Oath and to grant such Certificate), by the Shipper of such Mahogany, that such Mahogany was really and bonâ fide the Growth or Production of the Island of Jamaica; and the Master, or other Person having or taking the Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Mahogany shall be imported into Great Britain, shall make Oath, before the Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation (who is hereby required and authorized to administer the same), that the Mahogany so imported is the same as mentioned and referred to in such Certificate; and on Failure of such Certificate being produced, such Mahogany shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Growth, and shall be charged with the Duty imposed by this Act, and the Table thereto annexed on Mahogany of Foreign Growth, and imported directly from Foreign Countries.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, before any Wood or Timber imported into Great Britain, as being of the Growth or Production of any British Colony or Plantation in America, shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty imposed on such Wood or Timber by this Act or the Table thereto annexed, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Wood or Timber shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs, or the Naval Officer at the Port or Place where such Wood or Timber shall have been taken on board, testifying that Oath had been made before him (who is hereby required and authorized to administer such Oath and to grant such Certificate), by the Shipper of such Wood or Timber, that such Wood or Timber was really and bonâ fide the Growth or Production of some Place in the British Colonies or Plantations in America, and which Place shall be specified in such Oath and Certificate; and the Master, or other Person having or taking the Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Wood or Timber shall be imported into Great Britain, shall shall make Oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation (who is hereby required and authorized to administer the same), that the Wood or Timber so imported is the same as mentioned and referred to in such Certificate; and on Failure of such Certificate being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, such Wood and Timber shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Growth, and shall be charged with the Duty imposed by this Act and the Table thereto annexed on Wood or Timber of Foreign Growth and imported directly from Foreign Countries.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs granted and allowed by this Act shall and may be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed in such and the like manner as the Duties and Drawbacks on the several Sorts and Descriptions of Wood and Timber hereby repealed were or might have been managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, as such Wood and Timber were subject and liable to by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act.

Duties and Drawbacks, how levied and paid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs by this Act imposed and allowed as shall arise in England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the time being.

To be under the Management of the Customs.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising from the Duties imposed by this Act (the necessary Charges of receiving and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same manner as the Duties hereby repealed were directed to be appropriated and applied by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act.

Monies carried to Consolidated Fund.

How appropriated.

XV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for establishing Regulations respecting certain Parts of the Proceedings in the Court of Session, and in the Court of Commissioners for Teinds, and respecting the Duties, Qualifications and Emoluments of certain Clerks and other Officers of the said Courts. [28th May 1821.]

48 G. 3. c. 151.

50 G. 3. c. 112.

53 G. 3. c. 64.

55 G. 3. c. 70.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act concerning the Administration of Justice in Scotland, and concerning Appeals to the House of Lords; and an Act was passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for abridging the Form of extracting Decrees of the Court of Session in Scotland, and for the Regulation of certain Parts of the Proceedings of that Court; and an Act was passed in the Fifty third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Court of Session in Scotland; and an Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for better regulating the Formation and Arrangement of the Judicial and other Records of the Court of Session in Scotland: And Whereas by a Warrant under the Sign Manual of His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, acting in the Name and Behalf of His Majesty, dated the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, Commissioners were appointed for inquiring into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the several Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice of the Courts in Scotland, and for reporting what Regulations might be fit to be established respecting the same; which Commissioners have accordingly made certain Reports, and the same have been laid before Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should, in certain Particulars, be amended, and that certain Regulations should be established, which cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted, by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon Bills of Advocation and Suspension, complaining of final Judgments of Sheriffs and other inferior Judges, it shall hereafter be competent either for the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, or for the Court, to remit the Cause to the inferior Judge, with Instructions how to proceed; but no such Remit shall be made, except in the Case of a Suspension of a Decreet in Absence, without hearing Counsel, or receiving a written Answer on the Part of the Respondent.

Power to remit, with Instructions on Bills of Advocation and Suspension (Exception).

Procedure on Bills of Advocation on final Decrees of removing.

Regulations in certain Cases of Equality of Voices.

II. And be it enacted, That the Procedure on Bills of Advocation, complaining of final Decrees of removing, shall hereafter be the same as is now established for Bills of Suspensions of such Decrees.

III. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which, upon Report of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills to the Lords of either Division, there shall be a Difference of Opinion, and an Equality of Voices, such Lord Ordinary on the Bills shall vote in the Case; and in all other Cases when, in consequence of such Difference of Opinion and and Equality of Voices, the Cause or Matter shall be appointed to remain for subsequent Discussion, if the Question shall have previously depended before any Lord Ordinary of the same Division, being at the Time of such Discussion One of the permanent Ordinaries, such Lord Ordinary shall, without Regard to any Rotation, be called in to be present at the Discussion, and to vote in the Case.

IV. And be it enacted, That in case of the Death, Sickness, necessary Absence, or legal Declinature of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills during the Period of the Session, but at a time when the Court is not actually sitting, any one of the permanent Ordinaries, on a due Statement by any of the Clerks of the Bills of such Fact, and of some Urgency in the Case, shall and may pronounce on any Bill which may in such Case be laid before him, such Interlocutor as Circumstances may require, without Prejudice, quoad ultra, to the Provisions of the aforesaid Act, passed in the Fifty third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, and also without Prejudice to the Power of either Division, upon legal Declinature of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills when represented to them in any Case, to remit the same to another Ordinary in his Stead.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be competent and lawful for the Court in either Division, in all Cases when great Avisandum is made with a Process of Reduction, instead of granting Warrant to enrol the same in the next Regulation Roll, to remit to the Fifth or Junior Lord Ordinary for the Time, to hear Parties thereon, and to discuss the Reasons of Reduction and other Conclusions of the Libel, without Prejudice to the Power of the Court, on the Ground of Contingency, or any other sufficient Cause, to make such Remit to any of the permanent Lords Ordinary; and the Court is authorized and required to regulate by Act of Sederunt the Time and Manner of enrolling such Processes of Reduction so to be remitted to the Fifth or Junior Lord Ordinary, and of calling the same before the Lord Ordinary in pursuance of such Remit.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act (with the Exception hereinafter specified), no Person shall be capable to be appointed a Principal Clerk of the Bills, except a Principal Clerk of Session; and every Person to be hereafter appointed to the said Office shall personally discharge the Duties thereof, in manner provided by the said Act, passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and shall, in respect of such Appointment, be entitled to the Salary hereinafter provided, but to no Fees or other Emoluments whatsoever: Provided always, that the Two Principal Clerks of Session, who shall be appointed Principal Clerks of the Bills, pursuant to this Act, shall not belong to the same Division of the Court at the same Time, but one shall be appointed from each Division.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing herein provided shall be so construed as to compel any of the present Principal Clerks of Session to accept the said Office of Principal Clerk of the Bills; but every Person to be hereafter appointed a Principal Clerk of Session shall, in case of his being subsequently appointed to be one of the Principal Clerks of the Bills, be bound to accept the said Office and perform the Duties thereof; and in case, at the Time of any Vacancy arising in the Office of Principal Clerk of the Bills, there shall be no Principal Clerk of Session willing or bound Provision in case of Death, Sickness, &c. of Lord Ordinary on the Bills during Session, but when the Court is not sitting.

Court may remit Processes of Reduction to be decided by junior Lord Ordinary for the Time.

Principal Clerks of Session alone capable of Office of Principal Clerks of the Bills.

Salary but no Fee.

Clerks of Session now in Office not compelled to accept of Office of Principal Clerk of the Bills.

Vacancy how supplied.	bound to accept the same in Terms of this Act, it shall be lawful to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in such Case, to appoint a fit and proper Person, legally qualified, to be appointed a Principal Clerk of Session to fill the said Vacancy.
Only Two Depute Clerks of the Bills.	VIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the Time when, in Terms of the Regulations contained in the said Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, there shall be only Two Depute Clerks of the Bills, each of whom would be entitled, by virtue of the said Act, to draw One Sixth Part of the total Fees payable to the Clerks of the Bills, the several Clerks of the Bills shall be entitled thenceforth to receive, from the Collector of the Fee Fund, the annual Salaries under mentioned, payable Quarterly, viz. for every Principal Clerk of the Bills, not being also a Principal Clerk of Session, Six hundred Pounds; for every Principal Clerk of the Bills, being also a Principal Clerk of Session, Three hundred Pounds; and for each of the Depute Clerks of the Bills, Four hundred and fifty Pounds; and the said Clerks shall be thereafter entitled to no Fee or other Emolument whatsoever, but the whole Fees now legally exigible by the said Clerks shall thenceforth be paid over on the First Monday of every Month to the Collector of the Fee Fund, conformably to an Account thereof to be delivered to him, signed by one or other of the said Depute Clerks, and to the Verity of which the said Depute Clerk shall make Oath, if required.
Salaries.
No Fee.
Fees paid over upon Oath.
Qualification of Principal Clerk of Teinds. Principal or Depute Clerk of the Bills practising as an Advocate, &c. Deprivation.	IX. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person shall be capable to be appointed Principal Clerk of the Commissioners for Teinds, except a Person legally qualified to be appointed a Principal Clerk of Session; and no Principal or Depute Clerk of the Bills, to be hereafter appointed, shall after his Appointment practise as an Advocate or Agent before the Court of Session, under Pain of Deprivation of Office; nor shall any Person henceforth to be appointed Clerk to the Commission of Teinds practise as an Advocate or Agent before the Commission of Teinds, under Pain of the like Penalty.
Provision for better conducting Business of the Teind Court.	X. And Whereas the Provisions heretofore made for the more regularly conducting the Business before the Teind Court, and bringing the Processes of Augmentation and Locality which come before it to a Conclusion, have been found insufficient in Practice, and other Provisions and Regulations are required: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session, as Commissioners for Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, to pass any Act or Acts of Sederunt from time to time regulating the Form and Manner of Proceedings in all Processes of Augmentation and Locality that may come before them, in such Manner as they may see proper and expedient for the Dispatch of Business, and for bringing such Processes to a final Conclusion: Provided always, that Copies of all such Acts of Sederunt shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be by him laid before both Houses of Parliament, at or immediately after the Commencement of the ensuing Session; and no such Act or Acts of Sederunt shall become in force or receive effect, until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of the Meeting of such Session of Parliament.
Copies of Acts of Sederunt transmitted to Secretary of State for Home Department.

IX. And

' XI. And Whereas it is expedient to abolish the Practice of directing Brieves to the Macers of the Court of Session in certain Services; Be it enacted, That in all Cases in which it is now lawful and competent to grant Commission by Authority of the Court of Session, to the said Macers for proceeding in any Service, and in which the Brief issued from Chancery is thereupon directed to the Macers, such Commission shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, be granted, and such Brief issued, according to similar Forms, to the Sheriff Depute of Edinburgh or his Substitute, as Sheriff in that Part specially constituted, whether such Service may relate to Lands and Heritages situated in or beyond the Sheriffdom of Edinburgh, or in several Sheriffdoms; and in all Cases of Competition of Brieves, as well as where a Party claiming Right to appear and oppose a Service, shall make such Appearance, either Party may apply for and obtain Advocation of the Brieves to the Court of Session, not only from any inferior Judge, but also from the said Sheriff of Edinburgh, acting under special Commission; and the Lord Ordinary, before whom the Letters of Advocation shall be called, shall advocate the Brief, and remit to the Fifth or Junior permanent Lord Ordinary for the Time, to be Judge in the said Service, without Prejudice, nevertheless, to the Power of the Court, whether on Declinature or any other Cause shown, to remit to any other Ordinary to be Judge in any Service; and every such Service, whether before the Lord Ordinary on Advocation, or before the Sheriff of Edinburgh on Special Commission, shall proceed in the same Place, Form and Manner (unless in so far as the same may hereafter be otherwise regulated in manner hereinafter authorized) as services have heretofore preceded before the Macers, except that the said Sheriff shall not be required to take any Oath de fidei Administratione, as in the Case of the Macers; and that the Practice of applying to the Court of Assessors shall be and is hereby abolished; and the Court of Session is hereby empowered, by any Act or Acts of Sederunt, to make such Rules and Regulations as may be deemed expedient for altering and amending the Form and Manner of issuing of Brieves and executing the same, and of conducting the Procedure in such Services; and for every such Service, deduced before the said Sheriff on Commission, he shall be entitled to a Fee of Five Guineas on every Service in Lands whereof the valued Rent is upwards of Two thousand Pounds Scots, and in every Service of a Peer, and of Two Guineas in every other Service.

Direction of Brieves to the Macers in Services prohibited.

Other Proceedings by issuing Brief to Sheriff Depute of Edinburgh, &c.

Sheriff not required to take the Oath de fidei Administratione, as in the Case of Macers.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to any Person to be Clerk to any such Service before the Lord Ordinary on Advocation, or before the Sheriff of Edinburgh on Commission, unless he be a Writer to the Signet; and the Clerk to every Service whatsoever of a Retourable Brieve shall, along with the Verdict, deliver or cause to be delivered into Chancery, to be preserved, subject to the Orders of the Lord Clerk Register, the original Claim of Service, Minutes of the Proceedings, and Depositions of the Witnesses; and no Retour of any Service shall be issued without such previous Delivery.

Clerks to such Services to be Writers to the Signet.

' XIII. And Whereas Expences are occasionally incurred under the Authority of the Court, in making up Reports for the Information formation and by Order of the Houses of Parliament, as well as in other Matters connected with the Administration of Justice, for the Payment of which no fund has been hitherto provided; Be it enacted, That the Net Amount of all such Charges shall, from time to time, be paid on the Order of the Barons of Exchequer, on an Account of the same being presented to them, certified under the Signature of the Lord President of the College of Justice, out of the Monies charged by certain Acts made in the Seventh and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, with the Fees, Salaries and other Charges allowed, or to be allowed, for keeping up the Courts of Session, Justiciary, and Exchequer.

Provision for Contingent Expenses incurred under Authority of the Court.

Keepers of the Inner House Rolls, and Clerks of the Judges, to receive Salaries instead of their present Fees.

Fees now exigible to be received and paid Monthly to Collector of the Fee Fund. Court may direct any other Mode of Collection.

XIV. And Whereas it is expedient that fixed Salaries should be paid to the Keepers of the Inner House Rolls, and the Clerks of the Judges, instead of the Fees now exigible by them; and also that certain Allowances should be granted for providing Liferent Annuities to them, payable on the Death or Resignation of the Judges to whom they are respectively attached; Be it enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, there shall be payable by the Collector of the Fee Fund to the Keepers of the Inner House Rolls, who are also Clerks to the Lord President and Lord Justice Clerk respectively, a Salary of Five hundred Pounds Sterling each per Annum, and to the Clerks of the Thirteen Ordinary Judges a Salary of Three hundred Pounds Sterling each per Annum, payable quarterly; and none of the said Keepers or Clerks shall thenceforth be entitled to any Fee or other Emolument whatsoever; but the whole Fees now legally exigible by them shall be received by them respectively, and paid over on the First Monday of every Month to the Collector of the Fee Fund, conformably to signed Accounts to be delivered to him, and to the Verity of which they shall make Oath, if required by the Accountant of the Fee Fund: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to the Court, by any Act or Acts of Sederunt (which they are hereby empowered to make for that Purpose), to authorize and direct any other Mode of Collection of the said Fees, or of any Part thereof, which may be deemed more expedient, so as the whole of such Fees may, in the most easy and convenient Manner, be paid over to the Collector of the said Fund.

Annual Allowance to Keepers of Inner House Rolls, and Clerks of Lord President and Lord Justice Clerk.

XV. And be it enacted, That from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, an annual Allowance of One hundred Pounds Sterling for each of the Keepers of the Inner House Rolls, being as aforesaid also Clerks of the Lord President and Lord Justice Clerk respectively; and a like Allowance of Fifty Pounds Sterling for each of the Clerks of the Thirteen Ordinary Judges, shall be paid by the said Collector to such Person or Persons as shall be named and appointed to receive the same by the said Court, by their Act or Acts of Sederunt from time to time; which Allowances, when so received, shall, under the Authority of the Court, be invested, for forming a Fund for the Purpose of providing eventual Liferent Annuities as aforesaid, and thereafter applied for the said Purpose, all in such manner as shall be directed and enjoined by the said Act or Acts of Sederunt, which the said Court is hereby authorized and required to make to that Effect.

Duties of Keeper of the

XVI. And be it enacted, That after the Death or Resignation of the present Keeper of the Outer House Rolls, the Duties of that that Office shall be performed by the Clerks of the Eight Judges who are not permanent Ordinaries, according to a weekly Rotation to be established among them by the Direction or with the Approbation of the Court; and the Fees now legally exigible by the said Keeper shall thereafter be received by them each in his Turn, and paid over weekly to the Collector of the Fee Fund, to whom a printed Copy of the Rolls of the Week shall, at the same Time, be delivered for the Satisfaction of the Accountant; and the said Collector shall, from time to time, thereafter defray the necessary Expence of Paper and Printing for the said Rolls, according to Accounts thereof, to be duly certified by any Two or more of the said Clerks.

XVII. And be it enacted, That so much of the said Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign as provides that the Six Assistants of the Principal Clerks of Session shall prepare the abridged Forms of Extracts therein directed to be observed, and as provides Salaries to such Six Assistants in respect of the Preparation thereof, shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, be repealed; and all Extracts whatsoever which are now in pursuance of the said recited Act prepared by the said Assistants shall thenceforth be prepared by one or other of Four Extractors, to be appointed in manner hereinafter directed, and their Successors in Office, and shall be authenticated by the Signature of the Extractors by whom the same shall have been prepared respectively, in the same Manner and to the same Effect as such Extracts are now authenticated by the Signature of a Principal Clerk of Session; and the Forms of Extracts enjoined by the said Act to be used shall be so far altered.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Duplicates of all Decrees for the Record, and also all Abbreviates of Decrees of Adjudication, which have been heretofore signed in compliance with the Act of Regulations, in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety five, by the Lords Ordinary pronouncing Decree, as well as those Abbreviates of Decrees of Adjudication which have been heretofore signed, in compliance with an Act of Sedent in the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety three, by the Principal Clerks of Session, shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, be authenticated by the Signature of the Extractors respectively by whom the Decrees shall be prepared and signed.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Nomination of each Extractor shall be made by the said Principal Clerks jointly, the senior Clerk having, in case of Equality, a casting Voice; and every such Nomination shall be made without receiving therefor any Price, Gratuity or valuable Consideration of any Kind, and shall be forthwith reported to the Court; and the said Extractors shall hold their Offices during the Pleasure of the said Principal Clerks, or the major Part of them, the senior Clerk having, as above directed, a casting voice in case of Equality; and the said Extractors shall give obedience to such Regulations as may be made by the Principal Clerks of Session from time to time, for establishing and preserving Order and Regularity in the Performance of their Duties, and for the faithful Performance of which Duties repealed.

Extracts prepared by Extractors appointed as hereinafter directed.

Duplicates of Decrees for the Record, and Abbreviates of Adjudications, to be signed by the Extractors.

Extractors to be appointed by the Principal Clerks of Session without Gratuity.

Principal Clerks responsible for Duty;

the Principal Clerks of Session shall be responsible; and the said Principal Clerks shall be bound as heretofore to maintain and exercise a constant and regular Superintendence, Control, and Direction regarding the official Conduct of the Extractors, and all other subordinate Officers in their Department, and for that Purpose at least one of them shall attend personally for such Time as shall be necessary, at least Three Days in every Week, in the Register Office; and the said Principal Clerks shall also prepare and deliver to the Lord Clerk Register or his Deputy, at the Commencement of every Winter and Summer Session, a Report setting forth such Matters as have occurred in the intermediate Period, relating to their Department, and appearing to be worthy of Notice, with a View to the Public Benefit.

and to present Report to Lord Clerk Register or Deputy.

Salaries to Extractors.

XX. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid to each of the said Extractors, by the Collector of the Fee Fund, a Salary of Two hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling per Annum, and they shall not be entitled to any Fee or other Emolument whatever, except the ordinary Charge for copying, paid for copying at the time in the Court of Session.

No Fees (Exception).

50 G. 3. c. 112. § 53.

XXI. And Whereas by the aforesaid Act, passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, specific Compensations were provided for Seventeen Extractors whose Offices were abolished, including in that Number the Six Assistants of the Principal Clerks of Session, being also Extractors, but a Deduction of Two hundred Pounds per Annum was made from the Amount of the Compensations ascertained to be due to each of the said Assistants, which Deduction was made in Consideration of their Appointment to be Preparers of Extracts, with a Salary to each of Two hundred Pounds: And Whereas it is just and equitable that when the said Salaries are withdrawn, the corresponding Deduction from the Compensation should cease to operate; Be it therefore enacted, That an Annuity of Two hundred Pounds Sterling shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, be paid to each of the Six Persons now filling the joint Offices of Clerks Assistant and Preparer of Extracts, upon the Order of the Barons of Exchequer, in the same Manner and at the same Times with the specific Compensations allowed by the said Act.

Compensation to Preparers of Extracts.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the Keeper of the Judicial Records of the Court of Session, and the Six Assistants of the Principal Clerks of Session for the Time, shall, in virtue of their respective Appointments, be Members of the College of Justice.

55 G. 3. c. 70. § 2.

XXIII. And Whereas by the said Acts passed in the Fiftieth and Fifty fifth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, certain Regulations were made with regard to unextracted Processes, which have not been found effectual; and it is expedient that the Court of Session should be empowered to make a new Regulation as to that Matter, and also to provide for and facilitate an Arrangement of extracted Decrets, according to the Dates of the last Interlocutors in the Processes; Be it enacted, That the said Court shall be empowered by Act or Acts of Sederunt, from time to time, to make such Regulations with Regard to the Disposal and Arrangement of Processes remaining unextracted, whether final Decree may or may not have been pronounced therein,

Act of Sederunt to be made with regard to unextracted Processes.

as shall be deemed fit and expedient; and to order and direct, if they shall see fit, that all extractable Processes shall be extracted in such Form and Manner as may seem expedient, and to make Provision for Payment out of the Fee Fund of the Charge, at the ordinary Rate for copying, for making the Record Copies of such Decrees as the Parties may not require to be extracted; and to make Regulations with regard to the Manner and the Person by whom Extracts of Decrees shall be authenticated after the Transmission of Processes to the Keeper of the Records, and also with regard to the Manner and the Person by whom Extracts shall be authenticated, of all registered Deeds and Probative Writings, Charters, Precepts and Instruments whatsoever, issued after the Transmission thereof to the General Register House; all which Orders and Regulations shall be valid and effectual; any thing in the said Two Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that Copies of all such Acts of Sederunt shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be by him laid before both Houses of Parliament, at or immediately after the Commencement of the ensuing Session, and no such Act or Acts of Sederunt shall become in force or receive effect until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of the Meeting of such Session of Parliament.

Copies of such Acts transmitted to Secretary of State for Home Department.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Copies of printed Papers and Interlocutors and Minutes of the Court, appointed by the said Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, to be received in Evidence when an Appeal is taken to the House of Lords, and the authenticated Copies of Proceedings in any Cause which the Assistants of the Principal Clerks of Session are by the said Act required to furnish, shall and may be certified by the Signature either of one of the said Clerks, or of one of the said Assistants, for whom the Principal Clerk shall be responsible.

Certified Copies for Appeals, &c. may be signed by the Clerks or Assistants.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Fee payable to the said Assistants, for comparing the said Copies of printed Papers shall be Four Pence for each printed Page, and no more: Provided always, that the said Fee shall in no one Case, of whatever Length the said Copies may be, exceed Ten Pounds in the whole: And provided also, that the said Fee is exclusive of the ordinary Charge of copying Interlocutors and Minutes, according to the Rate for copying paid at the Time in the Court of Session; and the Fee payable to the said Assistants, for preparing Bonds granted by the Purchasers of Estates judicially sold for the Prices thereof, shall be One Half of the Fee which would be payable to a professional Agent for similar Bonds on occasion of a voluntary Sale, and no more.

Fee for comparing certified Copies for Appeals.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Principal and Assistant Keepers of the Register of Deeds, Probative Writings and Instruments of Protest, recorded in the Books of Council and Session, shall be under the immediate Control and Direction of the Lord Clerk Register and his Deputy for the Time, in the Performance of the Duties of their Offices; and whenever a Vacancy shall arise in any of the said Offices, the same shall be supplied by the Nomination of the Lord Clerk

Principal and Assistant Keepers of Register of Deeds, &c. appointed by Lord Clerk Register.

Register, and every such Nomination shall be forthwith reported to the Court; and the Extracts or Office Copies of all such Deeds, Probative Writings, and Instruments of Protest, before the Transmission thereof to the General Register House, shall be authenticated by the Subscription of one or other of the said Keepers, in the same Manner and to the same Effect as such Extracts have heretofore been authenticated by the Signature of a Principal Clerk of Session.

Indexes of certain Registers to be formed as directed by Acts of Sederunt.

‘ XXVII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Keepers of the several Registers of Records of Seisins, Reversions, Abbreviates of Adjudications, Inhibitions, and Deeds, and Probative Writs recorded in the Books of Council and Session, should form Alphabetical Indexes of the Persons and Matters to which those Records relate, for the Purposes of easy Reference to the same respectively;’ Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session, by any Act or Acts of Sederunt, from time to time, to regulate the Form and Manner in which such Indexes shall be formed and rendered accessible to the Public, and to provide such Remuneration for the Persons who shall be employed to form the same, as may be just and suitable, by the Imposition of a Fee on the Registry of the Writings to which the said Indexes shall bear Reference, not exceeding One Fourth Part of the ordinary Charge paid for copying at the Time in the Court of Session: Provided always, that Copies of all such Acts of Sederunt shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty’s Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be by him laid before both Houses of Parliament at or immediately after the Commencement of the ensuing Session; and no such Act or Acts of Sederunt shall become in force or receive effect until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of the Meeting of such Session of Parliament.

Fees of Macers regulated, and Salaries provided for them.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Fees upon Services heretofore payable to the Macers shall be abolished from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, and that the Fees heretofore collected and accounted for to them, by the Clerks of the Bills and by the Keeper of the Outer House Rolls, shall be thereafter accounted for, and paid over weekly, to the Collector of the Fee Fund; and the said Collector shall retain those Fees which have heretofore been received by him on account of the Macers, and paid by him to them; and the other Fees now legally exigible by the said Macers, or any of them, shall remain so exigible, and shall, along with all Gratuities receivable by them, or any of them, in their Capacity of Macers, form a common Fund of Division among the whole Seven Macers of the Court, including the one by Hereditary Right or his Deputy, instead of being as heretofore exclusively divisible among Four of their Number; and the Fees now legally exigible by the Two Macers of the Court of Teinds (being also Macers of the Court of Session), shall in like manner form a common Fund of Division among the whole Seven Macers, who shall all equally be liable to perform the Duty of Macers without Distinction, whether in the Court of Session, Court of Teinds, or elsewhere; and the Salaries now payable to the said Macers, of Ten Pounds each to Four of their Number, shall, from and after the said Twentieth Day of June in Other Fees to form Funds as herein mentioned.

in this present Year, cease and determine, and the said Seven Macers shall thereafter receive a Salary of One hundred and twenty Pounds each, payable in the same Manner and at the same Times in which Salaries of One hundred and Twenty Pounds each are now paid and payable to Three of their Number; the Salaries herein provided for them being in lieu and stead thereof.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the Remuneration of the Collector of the Fee Fund, including the Expence which may become necessary of a Clerk or Assistant, shall, from and after the Twentieth Day of June in this present Year, be fixed at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum on the whole Sums received by him, until such Sums shall amount to Eleven thousand Pounds Sterling in each Year, with the Addition of a Rate of Two Pounds per Centum on the further Sums received by him in such Year beyond Eleven thousand Pounds Sterling, and that in lieu and stead of the Remuneration fixed by the said Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign: Provided always, that in case in any Year the said Remuneration at the Rate aforesaid shall fall short of Six hundred Pounds, the said Collector shall, in such Year, be entitled to retain the full Sum of Six hundred Pounds, as the Allowance for his Trouble and for the Expence aforesaid; and every Person filling the said Office shall, in virtue of his Appointment, be a Member of the College of Justice.

XXX. And be it enacted, That any Balance remaining in the Hands of the Collector, on the Twentieth Day of December in any Year, shall be disposed of in Manner described by the said Act, passed in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty's Reign; and in case of the Insufficiency of the said Fund at any time for the Payment of the Sums which the said Collector is required to pay, the Deficiency shall be supplied in the manner now practised in pursuance of the said Act.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That in case it shall at any time appear that the Fees by which the said Fund is created, produce annually a Sum materially exceeding the Amount required, it shall be competent to the said Court to diminish the Amount of, or altogether to abolish any of the said Fees; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if, by any Diminution or Abolition, the Fund shall become insufficient for the legal Demands upon it, the said Court shall restore the said Fees in whole or in part, so as to keep the Fund as nearly as may be equal to the Burthens thereon: Provided further, that a Copy of every Order or Act of Sederunt to be made by the said Court, diminishing the Amount of the said Fees or abolishing any of the same, or restoring such Fees, shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall cause a Copy of the same to be laid before each House of Parliament at or immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session thereof; and upon the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of such Session, but not sooner, every such Fee shall become diminished, or be abolished, or be restored, in the same manner as if the same had been diminished, or abolished, or restored, by Authority of Parliament.

‘ XXXII. And Whereas the Office of Auditor of Accounts in the Court of Session was established by Acts of Sederunt of the Lords of Council and Session, and the Fees payable to and exigible by the Auditor were afterwards regulated and established by the aforesaid Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the reign of His late Majesty, by which it was provided, that, in the Event of there being an Auditor of each Division, such Fees should be equally divided between the Two Auditors: And Whereas the said Office has been found useful and beneficial;

Be it therefore enacted, That the said Office of Auditor of Accounts shall hereafter be and remain a permanent Office in the Court of Session, and the Person at present filling the said Office shall continue to hold the same, ad vitam aut culpam, with Power nevertheless to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to appoint another Auditor of Accounts, so that there may be an Auditor of Accounts for each Division whenever it shall be certified to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the Lord President of the Court of Session and the Lord Justice Clerk, that in the Opinion of the Court the due Dispatch of the Business of the said Office shall require that there shall be Two such Auditors, every such Auditor being a fit and proper Person, who shall have practised for not less than Three Years as a Writer to the Signet, or as a Member of the Incorporation of Solicitors before the Supreme Courts in Scotland; and every person filling the said Office shall, in virtue of his Appointment, be a Member of the College of Justice, and shall hold the same, ad vitam aut culpam; and that upon every Vacancy in the said Office, by Death, Resignation or otherwise, it shall be lawful to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to nominate and appoint a fit and proper Person, of the Description aforesaid, to supply such Vacancy; and no Person holding the said Office shall, under Pain of Deprivation of Office, practise either directly or indirectly as an Agent before the said Court of Session: Provided always, that in the Event that Two Auditors of Accounts shall be appointed, it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session, and such Court is hereby empowered by an Act or Acts of Sederunt, to regulate the manner in which the Business of the said Office shall be performed by the said Two Auditors, and the Manner in which the Fees granted by the said recited Act shall be divided between them, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided further, that a Copy of every such Act of Sederunt shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall cause a Copy thereof to be laid before each House of Parliament, at or immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session; and upon the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of such Session, but not sooner, such Act of Sederunt shall become in force in the same manner as if the Regulations prescribed therein had been made by the Authority of Parliament: Provided nevertheless, that in case the present Auditor or any Auditor henceforth to be appointed, shall be unable to discharge the Duties of the said Office, by reason of temporary Indisposition or Absence, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to appoint a fit a fit and proper person, though continuing to practise as an Agent before that Court, to discharge the Duties of such Auditor during the Period of such temporary Indisposition or Absence.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful to extract any Decree for the random Sum of Expences concluded for in the Summons; and that in all cases in which Decree is pronounced in Absence of the Defender or Defenders, an Account of Expences shall be lodged in Process, and taxed by the Auditor, and that a Report thereon by the Auditor shall be a sufficient Warrant and Authority to the Extractor to fill up the Amount of Expences to be awarded against the Defender or Defenders in the extracted Decree, without the said Report being brought under the Consideration of the Lord Ordinary, unless by his own Direction, or that of the Auditor, or on the Motion of any Party interested; and for the taxing of all such Accounts, in cases of Decrees in Absence, the Auditor shall be entitled to charge a Fee of Five Shillings, and no more, when the Amount of the Account shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling; and when the Amount of the Account shall exceed that Sum, he shall be entitled to charge according to the Rates of Fees specified and contained in the Schedule annexed to the aforesaid Statute passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

Decrees in Absence not to be extracted without the Account of Expences being taxed by the Auditor.

Fee on Taxation.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any of the Keepers of the Inner House Rolls, or Clerks of the Judges, or other Officers of Court, shall make Application to the said Barons, and shall make it appear that he has suffered or will suffer pecuniary Loss from the Operation or Effect of any of the aforesaid Regulations, beyond the Salaries allowed and fees reserved by this Act, due Consideration being had of the Circumstances of each individual Case, the said Barons are hereby authorized and required to examine into such Claims, and to decide whether any or what Compensation is due to all or any of the said Officers.

Compensation to certain Officers.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Sum of Compensation to be awarded under the Authority of this Act, shall be paid and payable upon the Order of the said Barons, in such manner and at such time or times as they shall direct, free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, out of the Monies charged or made chargeable by several acts made in the Seventh and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, with the Fees, Salaries and other Charges allowed or to be allowed for keeping up the Courts of Session, Judiciary and Exchequer; and every Order for Compensation so made as aforesaid, shall be laid before Parliament within One Month after the Commencement of the Session next ensuing the making of the same: Provided always, that no such Decision of the said Barons shall be final and conclusive until Three Months after a Copy of the Order of such Barons for Compensation shall have been laid before Parliament.

Fund from which Compensations under this Act to be made.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Courts of Admiralty in Scotland, and of certain Proceedings in the Court of Session, connected therewith. [28th May 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS by a Warrant under the Sign Manual of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, dated the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, Commissioners were appointed for enquiring into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the several Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice of the Courts of Scotland, and for reporting what Regulations might be fit to be established respecting the same, which Commissioners have accordingly made certain Reports; and the same have been laid before Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that Regulations should be established regarding the Courts of Admiralty in Scotland, for which the Authority of Parliament is required;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That hereafter it shall not be competent to insist in any Civil Process before the High Court of Admiralty, where the subject Matter in Dispute, exclusive of Expences, is of less value than Twenty five Pounds Sterling, excepting only Maritime Cases wherein the said Court has a privative Jurisdiction, and Actions for Recovery of Premiums of Insurance on Ships and Cargoes, and Actions for Mercantile Claims against Shipmasters and Owners of Vessels, if preceded by Arrestment of the Vessel.

Reasons of Suspension of Admiralty Decrees, to be discussed upon the Bill.

No Letters of Suspension.

Proviso for Rules in the Bill Chamber, &c.

Suspensions and Reductions of Admiralty Decrees deemed Inner House Processes.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where a Bill of Suspension, complaining of a Decree of the said Court in a Matter of Maritime Jurisdiction, shall be reported to the Lords of either Division of the Court of Session, and in all cases when a Petition shall be presented to the said Lords, reclaiming against an Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills refusing any such Bill, the said Lords shall discuss the Reasons of Suspension upon the Bill, without Letters of Suspension being expedite thereon, the same being in such cases hereby prohibited, but with the same Powers and Authorities as if Letters of Suspension had been already expedite: Provided always, that this Regulation shall in no wise impair the Effect of the Rules in the Bill Chamber with respect to Caution, nor shall the Obligations of the Cautioners in such cases be extinguished or impaired by the expediting of the Letters of Suspension being prohibited.

III. And be it enacted, That every such Process of Suspension complaining of a Decree of the said Court in a Matter of Maritime Jurisdiction, as well as all Processes of Reduction of such Decrees after the Production shall have been satisfied, and Avizandum made therewith to the Lords in common Form, shall be deemed Inner House Processes, and the Reasons whether of Suspension or Reduction shall be discussed in the most expeditious manner in the Course of the Summer Roll; and it shall be lawful to the Court in either Division to remit any such Process, whether of Suspension or Reduction, to the Judge of the said Court of Admiralty, with Instructions in what manner to proceed further therein: Provided always, that no Proceeding, whether in the Form of Suspension or Reduction, shall be competent for bringing under Review any Decree pronounced in Absence by the Judge of the said Court in Maritime Causes; it being reserved nevertheless to any Party aggrieved by such Decree to apply to the said Judge in competent Form for review of the same.

Power to remit with Instructions.

IV. And Whereas it is expedient to shorten the Induciae of Summonses of Reduction, raised for bringing under Review of the Court of Session Decrees pronounced by the Judge of the said Court in cases wherein the Pursuer is desirous to bring his Action of Reduction without Delay; Be it enacted, That it shall be competent and lawful to raise such Summonses of Reduction with all usual and necessary Conclusions upon One Diet of Six Days, whether the Defender or Defenders be within Scotland or forth thereof: Provided always, that the Pursuer or Pursuers shall within Six Days after the last Step of Proceeding in the Court of Admiralty give Notice, by a Notarial Instrument of Intimation, to the Agent in that Court of the opposite Party or Parties, that such Process or Reduction is to be forthwith raised; and provided also, that the Summons shall contain a Narrative of such Intimation, and shall be passed under the Signet within Six Days after the Date of the Intimation, and thereafter regularly executed against the Defender or Defenders, without any undue delay.

Reductions of Admiralty Decrees, in certain Cases allowed on One Diet of Six Days.

V. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the High Court of Admiralty shall discharge the Duties of his Office personally: Provided always, that the Effect of this Enactment shall be suspended until the Death or Resignation of the present Principal Clerk of the said High Court.

Clerk of Admiralty to act personally.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duty of the Office of Auditor of Accounts in the said High Court shall be performed by the Clerk of the Judge Admiral.

Auditor of Accounts.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Judge Admiral shall be, and he is hereby authorized and required forthwith to frame proper and suitable Regulations for abridging the Forms of Extracts now in use in the various Courts of Admiralty, and also relative to the Consignation in one or other of the public Banks, of all Monies required to be consigned in consequence of any Proceedings in any of the said Courts, having regard to the Forms for Extracts prescribed by an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for abridging the Form of extracting Decrees of the Court of Session in Scotland, and for the Regulation of certain Parts of the Proceedings of that Court.

Judge Admiral to make Regulations for abridging Forms of Extracts, &c.;

50 G. 3. c. 112.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Judge shall be and he is hereby authorized and required to frame a proper and suitable Table of Fees, including the Fees of Extract and of Consignation, for regulating and ascertaining the Emoluments which shall be justly exigible by the Clerk of the High Court of Admiralty, in such manner as to make his total Net Emoluments amount, as nearly as may be, to Six hundred Pounds per Annum; and also a proper and suitable Table of Fees for regulating and ascer-and also a Table of Fees to be taken by the Clerk;

ascertaining the Emoluments which shall be justly exigible by the Deputy of the said Principal Clerk, until the Death, Resignation or Removal of his Principal, when the Fees of such Deputy shall cease and determine; and also for regulating and ascertaining the Emoluments which shall be justly exigible by the Clerk of the said Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, having regard to the Report of the said Commissioners hereinbefore recited in that Behalf.

and also a Table of Fees for the other Clerks, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Judge shall also, and he is hereby required to frame a proper and suitable Table of Fees, for regulating and ascertaining the Emoluments which shall be justly exigible by the Person acting as Clerk to the Deputy Judge Admiral of the Clyde, and by the Clerks of inferior Courts of Admiralty, and by the Assessors of such Courts, and Procurators Fiscal, Macers and other Officers of such Courts: Provided always, that in case any such Clerk or other Officer shall not be willing to accept of the Fees specified in such Table of Fees, in lieu of those now received by him, the Operation of such Table of Fees shall be suspended, until the Death, Resignation or Removal of such Clerk or other Officer.

Regulations and Table of Fees to be sanctioned by the Court of Session by Act of Sederunt.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Regulation and Table of Fees to be framed pursuant to this Act shall be presented by the said Judge to the whole Lords of Council and Session, by whom the same shall be considered, and after Deliberation and Conference, if necessary, with the said Judge, shall, with or without Alteration, be adjusted and published as an Act of Sederunt of the Court of Session; and it shall be lawful to the said Lords to alter any such Regulation and Table of Fees by a new Act or Acts of Sederunt, from time to time thereafter, as they shall see cause: Provided further, that a Copy of every such Act of Sederunt, made pursuant to this Act, together with the Regulation and Table of Fees to which it refers, shall be transmitted by the President of the Court of Session to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall cause a Copy of the same to be laid before each House of Parliament, at or immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session thereof; and after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the First Day of such Session, every such Act of Sederunt and Regulation shall become in force; and thereafter, but not sooner, every such Fee shall, according to the Terms of such Act of Sederunt, be and be deemed and taken to be a legal Fee, and payable and receivable as such.

Copy of such Act, &c. transmitted to Secretary of State for Home Department.

No Gratuity for Appointment of Officers.

XI. And be it enacted, That all Appointments and Nominations to any Office in any of the said Courts of Admiralty shall be made without receiving any Price, Gratuity or valuable Consideration of any Kind, and shall be forthwith reported to the Judge of the said High Court.

Compensation to Clerks in certain Cases.

XII. And be it enacted, That if the Clerk of the High Court of Admiralty or his Deputy shall make Application to the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, and either of them shall make it appear that he has suffered or will suffer pecuniary Loss from the Operation or Effect of any of the aforesaid Regulations, beyond the Fees and other Emoluments to be thereby allowed or reserved, due Consideration being had of the Circumstances of the case, the said Barons Barons are hereby authorised and required to examine into such Claims, and to decide whether any or what Compensation is due to either of the said Clerks; and every Order for Compensation so made as aforesaid shall be laid before Parliament within Three Months after the Commencement of the Session next ensuing the making of the same: Provided always, that no such Decision of the said Barons shall be final and conclusive until Three Months after a Copy of the Order of such Barons for Compensation shall have been laid before Parliament.

Proviso.

XIII. And be it enacted, That any Sum of Compensation to be awarded under the Authority of this Act shall be paid and payable upon the Orders of the said Barons, in such manner and at such time or times as they shall direct, free and clear of all Taxes and other Deductions whatsoever, out of the Monies charged or made chargeable by several Acts, made in the Seventh and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, with the Fees, Salaries and other Charges allowed for keeping up the Courts of Session, Justiciary and Exchequer.

Funds from which Compensations are to be paid.

C A P. XL.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, for preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, as inflicts Capital Punishment on certain Offences therein specified; and to provide more suitable and effectual Punishment for such Offences.

[28th May 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to prevent Frauds committed by Bankrupts, it is among other Things enacted, that if any Person or Persons who shall become Bankrupt, within the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and against whom a Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Ireland shall be awarded and issued out, whereupon the said Person or Persons against whom such Commission shall issue, shall be declared Bankrupt or Bankrupts, shall not within Forty two Days after Notice thereof in Writing, to be left at the usual Place of Abode of such Person or Persons, or Personal Notice, in case such Person or Persons be then in Prison, and Notice given in the Dublin Gazette, that such Commission or Commissions is, are or have been issued, and of the Time and Place of a Meeting of the Commissioners therein named, or the major Part of them, surrender him, her or themselves to the said Commissioners named in the said Commission, or the major Part of them, and sign or subscribe such Surrender, and submit to be examined from time to time upon Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, upon the solemn Affirmation by Law appointed for such People, by and before such Commissioners, or the major Part of them, by such Commission authorized, and in all Things conform to the said Statute; and also upon his, her or their Examination, fully and truly disclose and discover all his,

An Act for giving greater Facility in the Prosecution and Abatement of Nuisances arising from Furnaces used and in the working of Steam Engines: [28th May 1821.]

WHEREAS great Inconvenience has arisen, and a great Degree of Injury has been and is now sustained by His Majesty's Subjects in various Parts of the United Empire, from the improper Construction as well as from the negligent Use of Furnaces employed in the working of Engines by Steam: And Whereas by Law every such Nuisance, being of a public Nature, is abateable as such by Indictment; but the Expence attending the Prosecution thereof has deterred Parties suffering thereby from seeking the Remedy given by Law: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court by which Judgment ought to be pronounced in case of Conviction on any such Indictment, to award such Costs as shall be deemed proper and reasonable to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors, to be paid by the Party or Parties so convicted as aforesaid, such Award to be made either before or at the Time of pronouncing final Judgment, as to the Court may seem fit.

Court may award Costs.

II. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Court by which Judgment ought to be pronounced in case of Conviction on any such Indictment, that the Grievance may be remedied by altering the Construction of the Furnace so employed in the working of Engines by Steam, it shall be lawful to the Court, without the Consent of the Prosecutor, to make such Order touching the Premises as shall be by the said Court thought expedient for preventing the Nuisance in future, before passing final Sentence upon the Defendant or Defendants so convicted.

Court may make Order for preventing the Nuisance.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Provisions of this Act, as far as they relate to the Payment of Costs and the Alteration of Furnaces, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the Owners or Proprietors or Occupiers of any Furnaces of Steam Engines erected solely for the Purpose of working Mines of different Descriptions, or employed solely in the smelting of Ores and Minerals, or in the manufacturing of the Produce of such Ores or Minerals on or immediately adjoining the Premises where they are raised.

Proviso for Owners of Furnaces erected solely for working of Mines, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent Expences of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain; and to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Surgeons' Mates and Serjeant Majors of Militia, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two. . . [28th May 1821.]

[This Act is the same as 1 G. 4. c. 86. except as to Dates and the Sections that are here retained.]

Reduced Adjutant to receive 4s. per Day till March 24. 1822.

XXI. AND be it further enacted, That in case any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia shall have already ceased and determined or been reduced in its Establishment or shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to such Person as has actually served as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or from the Time such Regiment shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment, as the case may be, to the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits and Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Four Shillings a Day; but no such reduced Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay of the Navy, Army, Marines or Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Right to Half Pay.

Reduced Adjutants may take such Allowance with any Pay or other Allowance to which they may be entitled. 26 G. 3. c. 107.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every reduced Adjutant entitled to any Allowance granted under the said Act of the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Year aforesaid, and continued by any subsequent Acts or by this Act, may receive and take such Allowance, together with any Full Pay, Half Pay or Allowance which was tenable, together with such reduced Allowance under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or under the Provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall be entitled to receive any Allowance under this Act during the Time he shall hold any Military Office of Profit under His Majesty other than such as aforesaid, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits and Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of such reduced Allowance.

The Court of Chancery empowered to lay out Part of the Funds arising from the Sale of the old Meeting House in Prince's Street, Westminster, purchased by the Commissioners under recited Act, in the Purchase of a Site for the Erection of a new one, to be settled to the like Uses.

Erection of a Meeting House and Vestry Room, with all necessary Offices and Outbuildings, to be settled, conveyed and assured to, for and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Intents and Purposes, and in the same Manner, as the Ground, Meeting House and Premises purchased by the said Commissioners as aforesaid stood settled and limited at the time of the Purchase thereof by the said Commissioners; which Piece or Parcel of Ground, when so purchased as aforesaid, shall be thereupon immediately conveyed, settled and assured to, for and upon the said Uses, Trusts, Intents and Purposes accordingly, or such of them as at the time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect.

When a Site for the Erection of a new Meeting House shall be purchased and settled as aforesaid, the Residue of the Money (46 G. S. c. 89.) arising from the Sale of the old Meeting House to be paid to Trustees, and applied in the Erection of a new Meeting House on such Site.

Application of the Surplus Money, if any.

II. And be it further enacted, That so soon as a Piece or Parcel of Ground, suitable as a Site for the Erection of a Meeting House and Vestry Room, with the Appurtenances as aforesaid, shall be conveyed, settled and assured to the Uses, upon the Trusts, and for the Intents and Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said High Court of Chancery, upon a Petition to be preferred to the said Court in a summary Way, by or on Behalf of the major Part of the Persons who were Trustees of the said Meeting House and Premises at the time of the Purchase thereof by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and notwithstanding any thing herein, or in the said Act of the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty contained to the contrary, to order and direct the said Accountant General of the said Court to sell and dispose of so much of the said Bank Three per Centum Annuities, and of any Annuities purchased or to be purchased out of the Dividends payable thereon, as shall not have been sold and applied in the Purchase of such Piece or Parcel of Ground, and thereupon to pay the clear Monies to be produced by such Sale or Disposition, and all Dividends and Interest then accrued due on the said Annuities, which shall not have been applied to the Purposes aforesaid, to such Two or more of the said Persons who were the Trustees of the said Ground, Meeting House and Premises purchased by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, at the time of such Purchase, as shall for that Purpose be nominated by the major Part of such Persons, and approved of by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them (such Nomination and Approval to be testified by some Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties), to the Intent that the same Monies may forthwith be applied, by or under the Direction of the Persons who were the Trustees of the said Ground, Meeting House and Premises at the time of the Purchase thereof by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, or under the Direction of the major Part of them, in the erecting, building and finishing a proper and suitable Meeting House and Vestry Room on the Ground so purchased, and in providing the necessary Fixtures and Fittings for the same, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said High Court of Chancery for the doing thereof; and that in case any Part of the said Monies, after answering the Expences of purchasing the said Ground, and erecting, building and finishing the said Meeting House and Vestry Room, and purchasing and providing the necessary Fixtures and Fittings for the same, and paying all incidental Costs and Expences, shall remain unapplied to the Purposes

Purposes aforesaid, or otherwise, pursuant to this Act, the same may be held by the said Two or more Trustees, so to be nominated and approved of as last aforesaid, in Trust, and in the Manner in which Money agreed or awarded to be paid for any Ground, Buildings or Premises, purchased for the Purposes of the said Act of the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty, and belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity, where the same shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, is to be held by the Trustees to whom such Money is authorized to be paid by virtue of that Act, and may be applied in any Manner authorized by that Act, or by this Act, so far as the case may be applicable, without obtaining, or being required to obtain, the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Chancery.

III. And be it further enacted, That in the mean time, and until the said Bank Three per Centum Annuities, now standing in the Name of the said Accountant General in Trust as aforesaid, and the Dividends due and to grow due thereon, shall be laid out, invested, applied or paid, in the Manner hereby authorized and directed, the Interest, Dividends and Annual Produce thereof shall from time to time be applied and disposed of in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said High Court of Chancery from time to time to make such Order or Orders as to the said Court shall seem fit, for settling and ascertaining the Costs, Charges and Expences incident to and attending or in anywise relating to the Sale to the said Commissioners of the before mentioned Ground, Meeting House and Premises, and the Purchase of any Ground or the Erection of any Buildings hereby authorized to be purchased or built; and the Costs of the several Applications to be made to the said Court, respecting the Matters aforesaid, and the Costs of taking the said Monies out of the Bank, and investing such Monies in the Purchase of Ground, or the Erection of Buildings as aforesaid, and also the Costs and Expences attending the Execution of all other the Trusts of this Act, and for Payment of all such Costs, Charges and Expences, by Sale of the aforesaid Consolidated Annuities now standing in the Name of the said Accountant General as aforesaid, or by and out of the Dividends and Interest thereof.

How the Interest of the Funds, until applied under this Act, to be disposed of.

The Court of Chancery may order Payment of Costs.

An Act to regulate the Attendance of Jurors at the Assizes, in certain cases. [8th June 1821.]

WHEREAS the Jurors returned by Sheriffs and other Officers, for the Trial of Causes at the Assizes of the several Counties in England and Wales, and the Counties Palatine of Chester, Durham and Lancaster, are by Law compelled to remain and continue in Attendance from the Beginning of the Assizes, in the Counties aforesaid, to the End thereof: And Whereas, from the great Length of Time that the Assizes frequently last in many of the Counties of England and Wales, and the Counties Palatine of Chester, Durham and Lancaster, the Attendance of Jurors from the Beginning to the End of the Judge of Assize, &c. may direct Two Sets of Jurors to be summoned, one to attend at the Beginning of each Assizes, and the other to attend the Residue thereof, to serve indiscriminately on the Criminal and Civil Side.

Regulation as to Summons and Attendance of Jurors.

Jurors entitled to Certificates and Exemptions as heretofore.

Juries for Trial of Causes at Nisi Prius to be drawn from the Set in Attendance.

‘ Assizes is in many cases extremely burthensome and expensive to the said Jurors:’ For Remedy whereof be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from henceforth, in any County in which the Judge or Justices of Assize in England, or the Judge or Justices of the Grand Sessions in any County of Wales, or the Justices of the Courts of Sessions held for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Durham or Lancaster, shall think fit so to direct, the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Return of the Venire facias Juratores or other Process for the Trial of Causes at Nisi Prius doth belong, shall summon and impanel not more than One hundred and forty four Jurors or such lesser Number as the Judge or Justices of Assize in England or the Judge or Justices of Assize of the Grand Sessions in Wales or the Justices of the Courts or Sessions in the Counties Palatine of Chester, Durham or Lancaster, shall think fit to direct, to serve indiscriminately on the Criminal and Civil Side; and shall divide such Jurors equally into two Sets, the first of which Set shall attend and serve for so many Days at the Beginning of each Assizes, as the Judge or Justices of Assize in England, or the Judge or Justices of the Grand Sessions in Wales, or the Justices of the Courts of Sessions in the Counties Palatine of Chester, Durham or Lancaster, shall before or at the Commencement of such Assizes respectively think fit to direct; and the other of which Sets shall attend and serve for the Residue of such Assizes.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Sheriff or other Officer shall, in the Summons to the Persons in each of such Sets, require the Attendance of such Persons at the said Assizes generally, according to the Mode now in Use, but upon the Back of each Summons he shall indorse whether the Person named therein is in the First or Second Set, and shall specify at what Time the Attendance of such Person will be required.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Attendance and Service of such Jurors shall entitle such Jurors to the like Certificates and Exemptions as they have been heretofore entitled to, for their Attendance and Service during the whole Assizes.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Return of the Venire facias Juratores or other Process for the Trial of Causes at Nisi Prius doth belong, shall upon his Return of every such Writ or Process annex thereto a Panel, containing the Christian and Surnames, Additions and Places of Abode, of the Persons in each of such Sets; and during the Attendance and Service of the First of such Sets, the Jury on the Civil Side shall be drawn from the Names of the Persons in that Set, and during the Attendance and Service of the Second of such Sets, from the Names of the Persons in such Second Set.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to exclude the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, from sending Burgesses to serve in Parliament; and to enable the County of York to send two additional Knights to serve in Parliament, in lieu thereof.

[8th June 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS there was the most notorious and general Bribery and Corruption previous to the Election of Burgesses to serve in the last Parliament for the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, in order to procure the Return of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough and it should therefore be excluded from hereafter returning Burgesses to serve in Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that Two additional Knights of the Shire should be returned for the County of York, to serve in Parliament in lieu of Two Burgesses for the Borough of Grampound: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, shall cease to elect and return Burgesses to serve in the High Court of Parliament.

Grampound to cease sending Members to Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted, That if, during the present Parliament, the Election of the Two Burgesses now serving therein for the same Borough of Grampound or either of them shall by Death or otherwise become void, then and in every such case an additional Knight or Knights shall be returned to serve in the High Court of Parliament for the County of York; and that from the End of the present Parliament, and at all Times thereafter, the said County of York shall return, to serve in the High Court of Parliament, Four Knights of the Shire instead of Two Knights of the Shire, as the said County has heretofore returned; the said Knights respectively to be elected and chosen by virtue of Your Majesty's Writ, to be awarded by the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain for the Time being, in that Behalf to the Sheriff of the County of York; and the said Knights to be elected and returned in the same manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as Knights have been heretofore returned for the County of York.

Two Knights of the Shire to be added to the County of York in the Events herein mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Statutes now in force touching or concerning the Qualification, Election and Return of Knights of the Shire to serve in the High Court of Parliament, shall be held to extend and the same are hereby declared to extend to the Qualification, Election and Return of the Knights of the Shire for the County of York, to be returned in pursuance of this Act, in the same manner as they have heretofore been held to extend to the Knights of the Shire returned for the said County.

Statutes concerning Qualification, Election, &c. to extend to the Return of the Four Knights for Yorkshire.

An Act to amend the several Acts for the Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors. [8th June 1821.]

2 G. 2. c. 23.
§ 5.

‘ W H E R E A S by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors, it was among other Things enacted, that from and after the Time in the said Act mentioned, no Person should be permitted to act as an Attorney or Solicitor respectively, in any of the Courts of Law or Equity in England in the said Act mentioned, unless such Person should have been bound by Contract in Writing to serve as a Clerk for and during the Space of Five Years to an Attorney or Solicitor respectively, duly and legally sworn and admitted, as in the said Act is directed, in some or one of the Courts of Law or Equity in England in the said Act mentioned; and that such Person for and during the said Term of Five Years should have continued in such Service: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty second

22 G. 2. c. 46.

Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, for making further Regulations (among other Things) with respect to Attornies and Solicitors, it was enacted, that every Person who should so have been bound to serve any Attorney or Solicitor should, during the whole Time of such Service, continue and be actually employed by such Attorney or Solicitor, or his or their Agent or Agents, in the proper Business, Practice or Employment of an Attorney or Solicitor; and also, that every Person bound as a Clerk as aforesaid, should, before being admitted an Attorney or Solicitor, cause an Affidavit of himself, or of such Attorney or Solicitor to whom he was bound, to be duly made and filed, that he had actually and really served and been employed in manner aforesaid, during the said whole Term of Five Years: And Whereas by an Act passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the Amendment of the Law in relation to Popish Solicitors, and for remedying other Mischiefs in relation to the Practitioners in the several Courts of Law and Equity, it was enacted, that no Person should be admitted an Attorney, or licensed to be a Solicitor, who shall not have served an Apprenticeship for the Space of Five Years at least, to a Six Clerk of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, or to a Six Clerk of the High Court of Chancery in England, or to an Attorney of one of the other Courts in Ireland, or to an Attorney or Solicitor duly admitted or licensed in that Kingdom, or in England: And Whereas it may happen that Persons who have taken or may take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or of Law, in either of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or of Dublin, may afterwards be desirous of becoming Attornies or Solicitors, but may be deterred by the Length of Service required for that Purpose by the said recited Acts; and it is expedient that the Admission of such Graduates should be facilitated, in consideration of the Learning and Abilities requisite for the taking such ‘ Degree :

‘ Degree: And Whereas it would tend to the better qualifying
 ‘ of Persons to act as Attornies and Solicitors if Part of the said ‘ Service of Five Years were allowed to be performed in manner ‘ hereinafter mentioned;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Person who shall have taken or who shall take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Law, either in the University of Oxford, or in the University of Cambridge, or in the University of Dublin, shall, at any time after he shall have taken or shall take such Degree, be bound by Contract in Writing to serve as a Clerk, for and during the Space of Three Years, to an Attorney or to a Solicitor, or to a Six Clerk duly and legally sworn and admitted under the Provisions and Directions of the said recited Acts of the Second Year and Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Second, or of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts in force for the Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors, in some or One of the Courts of Law or Equity in the said recited Acts mentioned, and during the said Term of Three Years shall continue in such Service, and during the whole time of such Three Years’ Service, shall continue and be actually employed by such Attorney or Solicitor, or Six Clerk, or his or their Agent or Agents, in the proper Business, Practice or Employment of an Attorney or Solicitor, and shall also cause an Affidavit, or being one of the People called Quakers, a solemn Affirmation of himself, or of such Attorney or Solicitor or Six Clerk to whom he was bound as aforesaid, to be duly made and filed, that he hath actually and really so served and been employed during the said whole Term of Three Years, in like manner as is required by the said recited Acts of the Second Year, and of the Seventh Year, and of the Twenty second Year of the Reign of King George the Second, with respect to Persons by the said Acts required to serve for the Term of Five Years, shall and may be qualified to be sworn, or to take his solemn Affirmation, and to be admitted and inrolled as an Attorney or Solicitor respectively (according to the Nature of his Service) in the several and respective Courts of Law or Equity, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as any Person having been bound and having served Five Years is qualified to be sworn or to take his solemn Affirmation, and to be admitted or inrolled under or by virtue of the said recited Acts, or any other Act or Acts for the Regulation of Attornies or Solicitors in England; any thing in the said Acts, or any of them, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Any Person who has taken a Degree at Oxford, Cam- bridge or Dub- lin, may act as an Attorney or Solicitor, or Six Clerk, after having served a Clerkship of Three Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person who now is or hereafter shall be bound by Contract in Writing to serve as a Clerk as aforesaid, for the Space of Five Years in manner mentioned by the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, or any other Act now in force relating to the Service of Persons intended to be admitted as Attornies or Solicitors in England or Ireland, shall actually and bonâ fide be and continue as Pupil to any practising Barrister, or to any Person bonâ fide practising as a certificated Special Pleader in Persons bound for Five Years, and serving Part of that Time, not exceeding One Year, with a Barrister or Special Pleader, may be admitted, on applying

 in

to a Judge or other sufficient Authority.

in England or Ireland, for any Part or Parts of the said Term of Five Years, not exceeding One Year, it shall be lawful for the Judge or other sufficient Authority to whom such Person shall apply to be admitted as Attorney or Solicitor as aforesaid, upon Affidavit or Affirmation of such Clerk, and of such Barrister or Special Pleader, to be duly made and filed, and upon being satisfied that such Person so applying for Admission had actually and really been and continued with, and had been employed as Pupil by such practising Barrister or Special Pleader as aforesaid (but not otherwise), to admit such Person as Attorney or Solicitor, in like manner as is now done in cases where the Clerk has served Part of the Term of his Clerkship with the Agent of the Person to whom he has been bound.

‘ III. And Whereas an Act was made in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act for the better Regulation of Public Notaries in England;’ Be it enacted, That nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Registrars or Solicitors of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge or to the Steward or Solicitors of any College or Hall within the said Universities or to the Chapter Clerk of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, acting only as such Registrars, Solicitors, Stewards or Chapter Clerks.

41 G. 3. U. K. c. 79. not to extend to the Registrars or Solicitors of the Universities, &c.

This Act to extend only to Bachelors of Arts who have taken their Degrees within the Periods herein mentioned, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to any Person who shall have taken or shall take such Degree of Bachelor of Arts, unless such Person shall have taken or shall take such Degree within Six Years next after the Day when such Person shall have been or shall be first matriculated in the said Universities respectively; nor to any Person who shall take or shall have taken such Degree of Bachelor of Law within Eight Years after such Matriculation; nor to any Person who shall be bound, by Contract in Writing, to serve as a Clerk to any Attorney, Solicitor or Six Clerk, under the Provisions of this Act, unless such Person shall be so bound within Four Years next after the Day when such Person shall have taken such Degree.

CAP. L.

An Act to alter and amend an Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the Making and Sale of Bread out of the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, where no Assize is set; and for establishing other Provisions and Regulations relative thereto.

[8th June 1821.]

59 G. 3. c. 36.
§ 11.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal certain Acts now in force for regulating the Making and Sale of Bread out of the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, where no Assize is set; and for establishing other Provisions and Regulations relative thereto: And Whereas it is deemed expedient that the said recited Act, so far as the same relates to the Weight of Bread, and to the Punishment of Bakers or Sellers of Bread, who shall sell the same deficient in its due Weight, should be repealed, and that more effectual Provisions should be established for punishing Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour or Bread; But as such beneficial Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act, so far as the same relates to the Weight of Bread, and to the Punishment of Bakers or Sellers of Bread who shall sell the same deficient in its due Weight, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Certain Parts of recited Act

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Mortgages and Securities which by any of His Majesty’s Subjects already have been, or after the passing of this Act shall be made and executed in Great Britain, of or concerning any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Slaves, Cattle or other Things, lying and being in Ireland, or in any of the said Colonies, Plantations or Dominions respectively, or any Estate or Interest therein, to any of His Majesty’s Subjects, for securing the Repayment of the Sums of Money thereon respectively really and bonâ fide advanced and lent, with Interest for the same, whether payable in Great Britain or in the Country, Island, Plantation or Place where the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Slaves, Cattle or other Things mentioned and comprized in any such Mortgage, Security, Transfer or Assignment as aforesaid, severally lie or are; and all Bonds and Covenants which have been, or which, after the passing of this Act, shall be made and executed in Great Britain, either by the Person borrowing such Sums of Money or by any other Person or Persons, either residing in Great Britain or elsewhere, by way of collateral Security for the Payment of such Interest, and all Transfers and Assignments which have been, or which, after the passing of this Act, shall be made and executed in Great Britain, of such Mortgages, Securities or Bonds to any of His Majesty’s Subjects, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as such Mortgages, Securities, Bonds, Covenants, Transfers or Assignments would have been if the same had been made and executed, and the Interest thereon had been made payable, and the Person or Persons entering into such Bonds or Covenants by way of collateral Security, had resided in the Country, Island, Plantation or Place where the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Slaves, Cattle or other Things mentioned and comprized in any such Mortgage, Security, Transfer or Assignment as aforesaid, severally lie or are; and that none of His Majesty’s Subjects in Great Britain shall be subject or liable

C A P. LII.

An Act to improve the Land Revenues of the Crown, and of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, and for making Provisions and Regulations for the better Management thereof.

[15th June 1821.]

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for the better Support of Her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; and of an Act passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of the Crown, and for the Sale of Fee Farm and other unimproveable Rents; and of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to improve the Land Revenue of the Crown of England, and also of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, the several Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Woods, and other Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, and within the Survey of His Majesty's Exchequer, are now demiseable by Lease under the Great Seal of England, or the Exchequer Seal, for such Terms of Years or other Interests, and subject to such Restrictions, and in such Manner as are therein respectively mentioned: And Whereas special Provisions are contained in an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary le bone Park and the Northern Parts of the Metropolis, in the Parish of Saint Mary le bone, to Charing Cross, within the Liberty of Westminster, and for making a more convenient Sewage for the same; and in an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for ratifying Articles of Agreement entered into by the Right Honourable Henry Hall Viscount Gage, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and for the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown, for leasing the Houses, Buildings, Lands and Hereditaments therein specified: And Whereas certain Leases for long Terms of Years, heretofore granted under the Great Seal, or Exchequer Seal, of Estates belonging to the Crown, and within the Survey of His Majesty's Exchequer, have lately expired, and other similar Leases are about to expire, and the Estates so fallen in, or about to fall in, or certain Parts thereof, might be advantageously relet for building; or other

‘ other Purposes, in small Portions: And Whereas the usual ‘ Mode of granting and passing Leases of the Estates of the Crown ‘ within the Survey of His Majesty’s Exchequer, under the Great ‘ Seal or the Exchequer Seal, is unavoidably attended with ‘ great Delay, Inconvenience and Expence; and it would encourage ‘ Builders and other Persons to take Leases and make Improve‘ ments on various Parts of such Estates, and thereby promote the ‘ Interest of the Crown, if the Commissioners for the time being ‘ strictions hereinafter mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, by and with the Consent and Approbation in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of the Commissioners of His Ma-jesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to be signified by Warrant under the Hand of the said Lord High Treasurer, or under the Hands of any Three or more of such last mentioned Commissioners, from time to time after the passing this Act, and without any other Warrant or Authority, to demise or lease, or previous to any such Demise or Lease, to enter into any Contract or Agreement for the demising or leasing all and every or any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Woods, Mines, Minerals and other Hereditaments for the time being belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and within the ordering or survey of His Majesty’s Exchequer, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, for such Terms, Estates and Interests, at such Rent or Rents, to be reserved and made payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and for such Fine or Fines, and under and subject to such Covenants, Clauses, Conditions and Restrictions, as the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Mines, Minerals, Woods, and other Hereditaments, or any of them, may or might now be granted or demised under the Great Seal or Exchequer Seal, by virtue of the said recited Acts of the First Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and of the Thirty fourth and Forty eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law, Custom or Usage whatsoever, provided that the Lessee or Lessees in such Leases respectively to be named, do and shall duly execute a Counterpart or Counterparts of the Lease or Leases so to be made to him, her or them respectively; and all such Leases as shall be made pursuant to this Act shall be as good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been passed through the Office of the Clerk of the Pipe in the Exchequer, and all other Offices, according to the usual Practice heretofore observed in passing Leases of the Possessions of the Crown under the Great Seal or Exchequer Seal, and had been accordingly granted under such Seals, or One of them.

II. Pro-

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice, alter or affect the Powers given to the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, by the said Acts of the Fifty third and Fifty seventh Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, of demising or leasing, or of contracting or agreeing to demise or lease, all or any of the Houses, Buildings and Hereditaments purchased, erected, built, altered, repaired and improved, or to be purchased, erected, built, altered, repaired and improved, under or by virtue of the said last mentioned Acts, or either of them; but nevertheless it is hereby expressly enacted, that subject and without prejudice to such last mentioned Powers, and to any Leases which have been or shall hereafter be granted pursuant thereto, all the said last mentioned Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, shall be subject and liable to the Powers of leasing hereby vested in the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas the Right Honourable William Cavendish Bentinck, commonly called Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, holds for the Term of his Life, by virtue of Letters Patent, bearing Date the Twenty fifth Day of October, in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, the Offices of Ingrosser of the Great Roll or of the Clerk of the Pipe in the Exchequer, and of Clerk of the Pipe of the same Exchequer, and of Maker, Writer and Ingrosser of all Leases, Indentures and Letters Patent of Demise, or Grant of the Possessions of the Crown made under the Seal of the Court of Exchequer, and of Maker and Writer, and Ingrosser of all Paper Books, and Transcripts of Leases sealed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and also certain other Offices mentioned in the said Letters Patent; and in Right of such Offices or some of them, the said Lord William Cavendish Bentinck is entitled to divers Wages, Fees, Allowances, Advantages and Emoluments: And Whereas by the Operation of this Act the Fees and Emoluments of the said Offices will be considerably reduced, and it is reasonable that a Compensation should be made to the said Lord William Cavendish Bentinck for the Losses which will be sustained by him in consequence thereof; Be it therefore further enacted, That a Compensation and Satisfaction shall be made to the said Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, for the Damages he will sustain by the Operation of this Act, in the Loss, Deprivation or Diminution of the Wages, Fees, Salaries, Allowances, Advantages or Emoluments, heretofore enjoyed by him by virtue of his aforesaid Offices, or any of them; the Quantum or Amount of which Compensation or Satisfaction shall be referred to and ascertained by such Person as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues shall for that Purpose nominate and appoint on the Part of His Majesty, and by such indifferent Person as shall be nominated and appointed on the Part of the said Lord William Cavendish Bentinck; and in case the Referees so to be appointed as aforesaid shall not agree between themselves touching or concerning the Quantum or Amount of such Compensation or Satisfaction as aforesaid, then the Quantum or Amount of such Compensation or Satisfaction shall be settled, ascertained and determined, by such competent and indifferent Person as the said respective Referees shall, before they shall respectively proceed to the Consideration of the Matters so referred to them, by Writing under their Hands, nominate and appoint to act as Umpire concerning the Premises, and the Judgment and Determination of such Referees or Umpire therein shall be final, binding and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and such Referees and Umpire are hereby respectively empowered to send for Persons and Papers, and to examine Witnesses upon Oath, if necessary, which Oath any One of the Persons so to be nominated a Referee or Umpire as aforesaid is hereby authorized and empowered to administer; and the Amount of such Compensation or Satisfaction, when so ascertained as aforesaid, may be paid by the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, or out of any Monies applicable as Land Revenues of the Crown.

48 G. 3. c. 73.

IV. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, Powers were given to the Surveyor General, with the Approbation and Authority of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, to make Exchanges of any Parcel or Parcels of Land belonging to the Crown, in the Survey and ordering of the Exchequer, for Lands of equal or nearly equal Value, in the Manner and under the Regulations therein mentioned: And Whereas such Powers are now vested in and exercised by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the Time being, and have been found in many cases to be beneficial; but Doubts have arisen whether any Exchanges can be made, by virtue thereof, of any of the Possessions of the Crown in Perpetuity, for any Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments held by the Persons making the same, for any partial Estate, or for any Term or Terms of Years or Chattel Interest; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that such Powers should be extended to authorize the Acceptance on the Part of the Crown of any Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments held by the Person or Persons making such Exchanges for any partial Estate, or any Term or Terms of Years, or Chattel Interest, where the Reversion or Remainder of such Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments expectant on the Determination of such Estate or Interest, shall be either immediately or ultimately in the Crown, in Exchange for any Messuages, Lands, or Hereditaments held by the Crown in Perpetuity; Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, shall have full Power and Authority, with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, to convey any of the Possessions of the Crown in England or Wales within the Survey and Ordering of the Exchequer, in Perpetuity or otherwise, in Exchange for any Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments in England or Wales, held by the Person or Persons making the same, for any partial Estate or Interest, or for any Term or Terms of Years,

The Commissioners of Woods, &c. empowered to make Exchanges of Freehold Estates for partial or chattel Interests of equal Value in other Estates,

Years, or any Chattel Interest, where the Reversion or Remainder of such Messuages, Lands or Hereditaments expectant upon the Determination of such partial Estate, Term or Interest, shall be either immediately or ultimately in the Crown; all which Exchanges shall be made and carried into Effect in such or the like Manner, and under such or the like Rules and Regulations, as nearly as Circumstances will admit, as the Exchanges authorized by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid are now usually made or carried into Execution; and all Sums of Money to be paid or received for Equality of Exchange, shall be paid, received or applied in like manner as any Monies to be paid or received for the like Purpose upon any Exchanges made under the said Act are now payable or applicable; and all Deeds or other Instruments, by which the same Exchanges shall be effected, or which shall relate thereto, shall be exempt from all Stamp Duties; and, in making such Exchanges, the Lands or Possessions of His Majesty so to be given in Exchange shall be vested in the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be conveyed, for such Estate or Estates, Uses, Trusts, Intents or Purposes, as shall be in or by such Deeds or Instruments, or by Reference therein to any other Deeds or Instruments, expressed or declared of and concerning the same; and the Messuages, Lands and Hereditaments to be given or taken in Exchange for the same shall vest in His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or in the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be conveyed, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Right of his Crown, for all the Estate, Term, Title or Interest of the Person or Persons making the same Exchange, or for so much or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be agreed, contracted or intended to be given, conveyed or assigned to or in Trust for His Majesty, in or upon the Treaty for such Exchange; and all such Exchanges, when so made, shall be good, valid and effectual, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

the Reversion whereof is or shall be in the Crown.

Deeds free from Stamp Duties, and Lands given in Exchange vested accordingly.

V. And Whereas Doubts have been entertained, whether any Stewards of Courts, Game Keepers, Forestal or other Officers of any of His Majesty's Hundreds, Manors, Lordships, Forests, Chases or Warrens, and other Places, can be legally appointed for or within any such Hundreds, Honors, Manors, Lordships, Forests, Chases, Warrens or other Places by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, should be authorised on Behalf of His Majesty to appoint Stewards, Game Keepers and other Officers for and within such Hundreds, Honors, Manors and Lordships, Forests, Chases, Warrens and other Places in certain Cases; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Instrument in Writing under their Hands, or the Hands of any Two of them, from time to time to appoint such Person or Persons as they shall think fit, to be the Steward or Stewards of any Hundreds, Honors, Manors, or Lordships belonging to the Crown, within

IX. And Whereas the Theatre, situate on the East Side of the Haymarket, in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, is erected and stands on Land belonging to the Crown in the said Parish, and the Lease under which the same hath been long held hath lately expired, and the said Theatre is now about to be taken down and a new Theatre is erecting in lieu thereof on other Land of the Crown immediately adjoining thereto, and which will front towards the said Street in like Manner as the said former Theatre, and it will tend to improve the Access to the said new Theatre, and to promote the Convenience of Persons frequenting the same, if a Colonnade were erected in the Front thereof in lieu of that in Front of the said Theatre so about to be taken down and removed as aforesaid; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lessee or intended Lessee of the Crown of the said new Theatre, to erect, set up and make a Portico, Colonnade or covered Way, projecting from the front Line of the said new Theatre and extending over the Foot Pavement or Footway of the said Street along the Front of such new Theatre, provided such Portico, Colonnade or covered Way does not extend further into the said Street than the Western Extremity of the said Foot Pavement, and be at least Nine Feet broad in the Clear between the Columns, Piers or Supports thereof and the front Line of such new Building, and that the same be formed of Stone, Brick or Metal or of Stone or Brick covered with Stucco or Cement, except the Joists and Bearers which shall form the Covering over the said Footpath or Footway, and which may be of Wood covered with Plaster or Stucco or other uninflamable Composition, and provided that such Portico, Colonnade or covered Way be so erected and set up under the Authority and with the Licence and Consent of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and upon such Plan and of such Dimensions and with such Architectural Decorations as shall be directed, ordered or approved by them; any thing in any existing Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

X. And Whereas the Commissioners for carrying the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty into Execution have, under the Power thereby vested in them, purchased or contracted on His Majesty's Behalf to purchase all or most of the Buildings which were situate between the East Side of Swallow Street and the West Side of King Street, and also several Buildings in and adjacent to Vine Street, and have taken down most of the said Buildings and have appropriated Part of the Sites whereon the same stood to the Formation of the New Street now forming under the said Act, and have, on His Majesty's Behalf, let or contracted to let the Remainder of such Sites or Ground to Persons who are now building several large and commodious Houses thereon; and inasmuch as several of such Buildings have been erected or are intended to be erected with a View to carry on certain Trades or Businesses therein, with Warehouses, Workshops or Outhouses adapted for such Trades, it will be a Convenience to the Persons occupying the same and an advantage to that Part of the Estate of the Crown, if Gateways were made from some of the said Premises into King Street aforesaid, and also if a Gateway were made from some of the same Premises into Vine Street aforesaid, so as to afford Access for Carts or other Carriages from or out of the said Streets to such Warehouses or other Buildings; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, on His Majesty's Behalf, to licence and empower such of the Builders or Occupiers of the said Houses or Buildings so erected or erecting or to be erected as aforesaid, as shall be desirous so to do, to open or make any Gateway or Passage from their said Houses and Premises into King Street, and also to open a Gateway or Passage at the South East End of Vine Street aforesaid, facing Little Vine Street, so as to afford Access for Horses, Carts or Carriages from such Streets to the Warehouses or other Buildings belonging or to belong to the said Houses, so as the Person or Persons to whom such Licences shall be granted be bound or obliged to bear the first Expence of paving the Entrance into such Gateways in a proper Manner, and such Licences shall be and are hereby declared to be good and sufficient Authority for the making such Gateways, taking up, removing and altering the Pavement in Front thereof in the said Streets, and doing all Things requisite thereto, and for the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be granted, granted, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to keep and use such Gateways as Accesses to his, her and their Warehouses and Buildings at all Times thereafter, without any other Licence or Authority whatsoever; any thing in any existing Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; saving always to the Committee or other Persons who for the time being shall have the Controul of the Pavements of the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, all such Powers and Authorities relative to the paving and repairing the said Gateways, and removing and preventing Nuisances and Obstructions therein, as they could or might have had in case this Act had not been passed.

Proviso for Rights of Committee of Pavements of Saint James, Westminster.

‘ XI. And Whereas the Commissioners for carrying the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty into Execution, did some Time since, in order to encourage Builders and other Persons to take the Ground on the Sides of the said new Street, and to erect Houses and Buildings thereon, contract and agree for and on the Behalf of His Majesty to purchase and redeem the Land Tax charged on all the Houses, Buildings and Grounds belonging to the Crown, situate in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, which were wanted or were about to be taken down, removed or used for the Purpose of forming the said new Street, and have since caused most of the Houses or Buildings aforesaid to be taken down, and have set out and appropriated a great Portion or Part of the Ground on which the same stood, to the Formation of the said new Street or public Highway; and, in forming the Line of the said Street, have let some small Portions of the Ground which formed the old Street or public Highway, with Part of the Ground upon which the Land Tax has been so redeemed, to Builders and other Persons who have, in Expectation that the Whole thereof was exonerated from the said Tax, erected and are erecting Houses and Buildings thereon; but doubts have arisen whether such Parts or Portions of the said Houses or Buildings as stand upon the Site of the said old Street, and the Builders or Occupiers of the same, will not now become liable to be charged or assessed to the Payment of the Land Tax in respect thereof: And Whereas such Portion of the Ground in the said Parish, upon which the Land Tax has been so redeemed, as has been appropriated to the public Street as aforesaid, greatly exceeds such Portion of the Site of the said old Street or public Highway, as has been so built upon or is intended to be built upon, and it is therefore just and reasonable that the latter should be exonerated from the said Tax in lieu and stead of the Ground so given up to the public Use as aforesaid; Be it therefore further enacted, That no Part or Portion of the Ground situate in the said Parish of Saint James, Westminster, which at the Time of the passing the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, formed Part of any of the public Streets or Highways thereby intended to be widened, altered or improved, nor any Houses or other Buildings erected or to be erected thereon, nor any Person or Persons holding or occupying the same for or in respect thereof, shall be liable to be assessed, rated or charged with the said Tax or any Portion thereof; but shall be wholly freed, exonerated and discharged charged therefrom, in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Ground, Houses or other Buildings had been comprised in the Contract or Contracts made by the said Commissioners for the Redemption of the said Land Tax, in lieu and stead of the Ground which has been so given up to the public Use, and is now made Part of the said new Street as aforesaid.

‘ XII. And Whereas The King’s Majesty is seized in Right of His Crown or of His Duchy of Lancaster of certain Rights of Forest, free Chase or free Warren extending over the Lands of Individuals, independent of and not being appurtenant to any existing Manor or Lordship: And Whereas it is expedient, that where the Owners or Proprietors of the Lands over which such Rights extend shall be desirous of purchasing the same, with a View to the Abolition or Extinction of such Rights, the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and the Chancellor and Council of His Majesty’s Duchy of Lancaster should be enabled to sell such Forestal and other Rights to such Owners or Proprietors of the said Lands for those Purposes; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, where such Lands are within the Survey of the Exchequer, and for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, where such Lands are within the Survey of the said Duchy, to contract and agree with the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, of the Lands over which any such Rights of Forest, Chase or free Warren, shall or do extend, for the Sale of such Rights or any of them, in order that the same may be abolished and extinguished, and the said Lands for ever freed, exonerated and discharged therefrom, for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Commissioners or the said Chancellor and Council shall be enabled to procure for the same; and thereupon to sell and convey such Rights of Forest, Chase or free Warren, as shall be so contracted for, to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, to the End and Intent that the same may be abolished or extinguished, and the said Lands freed, exonerated and for ever thereafter discharged therefrom; and the Purchase Money to be paid for such of the said Rights as shall extend over any Lands within the Survey of the Exchequer, shall be paid into the Bank of England and placed to the Account of “The Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being the Woods and Forests Fund,” and shall be laid out and applied from time to time by the Order of the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, in such and the like manner; and such Rights so sold or contracted to be sold by them, shall be conveyed by such and the like Instruments, and in such and the like form, as nearly as Circumstances will permit, and every such Sale shall be made and completed under the like Rules, Regulations and Provisions, and be to all Intents and Purposes as valid and effectual as if the same had been made under the said Act of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty; and the Purchase Money to be paid for such of the said Rights as shall extend over any Lands within the Survey of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall from time to time be paid into the Hands of the Receiver

Rights of Forest and other Rights of the Crown over Lands of Individuals, not appurtenant to any Manor, may be sold to such Individuals.

Application of Purchase Money as if made under 57 G. 3. c. 97.

ceiver General of the Revenues of the said Duchy, in the like Manner as the Monies arising from the Sale of Manors and other Property of the said Duchy authorised to be sold by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty, or any Act or Acts thereby referred to, are directed to be paid; and all Sales made under this Act by the said Chancellor and Council of the said Duchy, shall be made in the same Manner and Form, as far as Circumstances will permit, and shall be to all Intents and Purposes as valid and effectual as if the same had been made under the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty, or any Act or Acts thereby referred to; and from and after the Payment of such Purchase Money in Manner aforesaid and the Completion of every such Sale, the Rights so purchased shall cease and be for ever thereafter abolished and extinguished, and be no longer exercised, and the Lands over which such Rights do extend shall be for ever thereafter freed, exonerated and discharged therefrom, as fully and absolutely, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Rights had never existed.

Sales to be made and be effectual as if made under 48 G. 3. c. 73. &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors respectively, to whom any Sale or Disposition of any such Forestal or other Rights shall be made as aforesaid under or by virtue of this Act, shall in lieu and stead thereof, at all Times thereafter, have and enjoy full Power and Authority to depute or appoint a Game Keeper or Game Keepers to preserve the Game, and to take and kill Game in, over and upon all or any of the Lands within and over which such Forestal or other Rights as shall be so purchased by him or them as aforesaid did extend, provided such Lands shall not be locally situate within any existing Manor or Manors; and every such Game Keeper, during the Continuance of his Deputation or Appointment, shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities, Exemption from Penalties, Privileges and Protections, in regard to all Acts by him done in or upon any of the Lands within the Limits of his Deputation or Appointment, and by virtue thereof, and shall obtain such or the like Certificate, and be liable and subject to such and the like Game Duty, and shall register and enter his Deputation or Appointment in the like Manner, and be subject to such and the like Rules and Regulations as Game Keepers of any Manors or Royalties in England now have or enjoy or are liable or subject to by any Law, Usage or Act or Acts of Parliament now in force; but nothing herein contained is to or shall extend or be construed to authorise the Appointment of more than One Game Keeper, with Power to take or kill Game within the same Tract or District of Land.

The Purchaser of such Rights may appoint a Game Keeper.

Deputation to be registered, &c.

ports relating to the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, to the Court of Common Pleas and to the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer respectively, in Ireland; and it appears that it is expedient to regulate the Proceedings in the said several Courts and the several Offices thereof respectively, as hereinafter is provided; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Fee whatsoever shall in any case be paid or payable in Ireland to any of the Officers of or in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, or of or in the Court of Common Pleas, or of or in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, save such Fees as are made payable to any Tipstaff, Pursuivant or Serjeant at Arms, or to the Crier of the said Court of Exchequer, under Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed; and that no Officer, Deputy, Clerk or other Person mentioned in the several Schedules to this Bill annexed, save those mentioned in Schedule (E.), who shall at any time be employed or act in the Business of the said Courts respectively, or in any Part or Department of the said Business shall, under any Pretence whatsoever, ask, demand, receive or accept any Fee, Perquisite, Emolument, Gratuity, Profit or Advantage whatsoever, for or in respect of the said Business of such Court respectively, contrary to this Act; and if any Person shall offend herein, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be for ever afterwards incapable of holding or of acting in any Office of or in any of the Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland, whether as Principal, Deputy, Clerk or otherwise.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Chancellor of the Exchequer of Ireland, or to any Fees payable by Law in right or respect of the said Office; but that all such Fees shall remain and continue payable, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not passed; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act there shall be One Prothonotary in the Civil Side of the said Court of King's Bench, One Prothonotary in the Court of Common Pleas, and One Clerk of the Pleas in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, who shall be and be deemed the Principal Officers employed in the Business of the said Courts respectively; and that besides the said Principal Officers respectively, there shall be in each of the said Three Courts One Clerk of the Rules, and One Filacer; and that there shall be in the Court of King's Bench on the Civil Side, and in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, One Clerk of the Writs, and One Clerk of the Appearances; and that there shall be in the Court of Common Pleas, One Clerk of the Pleadings, and One Chirographer; and that all the said several Principal and other Officers shall be entitled to receive the several and respective Salaries in that Behalf set forth in the Schedules marked (A.) (B.) and (C.) to this Act respectively annexed; and that that all the said several principal and other Officers shall be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland; and that all the said principal and other Officers shall be appointed and shall hold their Offices respectively during good Behaviour; and that the said principal and other Officers shall in and for the Discharge of the Duties of their respective Offices, have the several Clerks and Assistants in the said Schedules (A.) (B.) and (C.) to this Act annexed, in that Behalf respectively set forth; and that such Clerks and Assistants shall be appointed by such Officers respectively, and shall hold their said Situations respectively for and during the Pleasure of such Officers respectively by whom they were appointed; and that the said Officers shall at all times be responsible for the Conduct of their said Clerks and Assistants respectively; and that there shall be paid and payable to the said Clerks and Assistants respectively the several Salaries in that Behalf respectively set forth in the said Schedules.

Clerks and Assistants to such Officers.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect or conclude the Claim, Right or Title of any of the existing Judges to the Appointment of any of the Offices hereinbefore mentioned.

Proviso for Rights of present Judges.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Officer of the said Courts respectively, and he is hereby required to retain and employ in his Office such Number of fitting and competent Persons as shall be necessary to do the Business of writing, copying and engrossing in every such Office respectively.

Officers to employ fit Persons for copying.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Officer shall appoint or employ as his Clerk or Assistant in any of the Capacities mentioned in the said Schedules (A.) (B.) and (C.) to this Act annexed, any Person who shall hold or enjoy any other Office, Place or Employment in the said Courts or any of them, or who shall act as Clerk or Assistant to any other Officer in the said Courts, or any of them.

Clerks and Assistants to hold only One Office.

VII. And be it further enacted, That there shall also be in the said Courts respectively One Crier to each of the said Three Courts, One Seal Keeper and Registrar of Attornies' Licences in the Court of King's Bench, One Seal Keeper and Registrar of Attornies' Licences in the Court of Common Pleas, and also One Clerk of the Juries, One Clerk of Errors and Essoigns, and One Clerk of Outlawries in the Court of Common Pleas, who shall be appointed to and shall hold their said Offices as heretofore respectively; and that the said Officers shall respectively receive such Salaries in respect of the said several Offices as are respectively mentioned and set forth in the Schedule marked (D.) to this Act annexed; and that there shall be in the said Three Courts respectively, Tipstuffs, Pursuivants and Serjeants at Arms, who shall be appointed to and shall hold their said Offices as heretofore respectively, and shall be entitled and authorized to receive the Fees set forth in the Schedule marked (E.) annexed to this Act.

Crier to each Court, Seal Keeper, &c. in K.B. and C.P. Clerk of Juries, Errors and Essoigns, and Clerk of Outlawries in C.P. with Salaries as in Sched. (D.) Tipstuffs, &c. with Fees as in Sched. (E.)

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person, who at any time after the passing of this Act shall be appointed to any Office in any of the said several Courts, to hold or exercise the Duties of any other Office or Place whatsoever; provided Officers not to hold any other Office, except Clerk of Juries.

vided always, that the Offices of Clerk of the Errors and Essoigns, and Clerk of Outlawries in the Common Pleas, may be held by the Clerk of the Juries in the same Court.

Schedules deemed Part of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several Schedules to this Act annexed, and all Directions, Matters and Things in the said Schedules respectively contained, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act.

Salaries to be paid Quarterly out of Consolidated Fund;

X. And be it further enacted, That the said several Salaries in the said Schedules respectively set forth as aforesaid, shall be payable from time to time out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Salaries respectively shall be payable Quarterly on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October in every Year; and that for Provision for the necessary incidental Expences in each Court, there shall also be payable in like Manner out of the same Fund, to the Prothonotaries in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, and in the Court of Common Pleas, and to the Clerk of the Common Pleas in the said Court of Pleas in the Exchequer, being the Three Principal Officers to be employed in the Business of the said Courts respectively, on each and every of the said Days, such Sum as shall in each and every Quarter be certified in Writing under the Hands of not less than Two Judges of the Court respectively to which such principal Officers belong, to have been necessarily incurred as and for the Costs of the Clerks employed in writing, engrossing and copying in the Offices of the said Courts respectively as aforesaid, and as and for the Expences of Coals, Candles and all other Expences of the said several Offices in the said Courts, and in the several Chambers of the said Courts respectively, including therein the Remuneration of the Court Keeper, not exceeding Fifty Pounds yearly, and of such Stationery as shall be requisite for the Purposes of the said Offices and Chambers respectively, and which shall not be delivered out to Individuals; and every such Certificate shall be given on an Examination on Oath of the principal Officer of each Department in or for which any such Payment shall be required, and of such other Person or Persons, if any, as such Judges respectively shall think proper, or as shall be produced before them for that Purpose.

and also Expences of Copying Clerks, Coals, Candles, Stationery, &c. on Certificate of Two Judges.

XI. And Whereas the Office of Prothonotary and Filacer, and Keeper of the Writs, Processes, Rules, Orders and Records in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, is now holden and possessed by the Right Honourable Henry Seymour Conway, commonly called Lord Henry Seymour Conway, and by Robert Seymour Conway, commonly called Lord Robert Seymour Conway, having been granted to them for and during the Term of their natural Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; and the Office of Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas is now holden and possessed by the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Viscount Northland and the Honourable Vesey Knox, having been granted to them for and during the Term of their natural Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; and the Office of Filacer and Exigenter of the said Court of Common Pleas is now holden and possessed by the Honourable Daniel Toler, Esquire: And Whereas the several Duties of the said respective Offices have been hitherto discharged by Deputies, and it is expedient that

‘ that the Duties of the said Offices should hereafter be discharged by Persons actually holding such Offices;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the commencement of this Act, the several and respective Rights of the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, Thomas Lord Viscount Northland and Vesey Knox and Daniel Toler, of, in and to the said Offices respectively, shall severally cease and determine; and that they, the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, shall receive during the Term of their natural Lives, and the Survivor of them shall receive during the Term of his natural Life, and the said Thomas Lord Viscount Northland and Vesey Knox shall receive during the Term of their natural Lives, and the Survivor of them shall receive during the Term of his natural Life, and the said Daniel Toler shall receive during the Term of his natural Life, the several Allowances in that Behalf hereinafter provided, in Compensation and Consideration of the Loss incurred by them respectively, by the ceasing and determining of their several Rights in the said Offices respectively.

‘ XII. And for the ascertaining the Amount of the Allowance and Compensation to be made to the said present Holders of the said last mentioned Offices, upon the ceasing and determining of their Rights in the said Offices respectively as aforesaid;’ Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to make Inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of the said Office of Prothonotary and Filacer and Keeper of the Writs, Processes, Rules, Orders and Records in the Civil Side of the said Court of King’s Bench, and of the said Office of Prothonotary of the said Court of Common Pleas, and of the said Offices of Filacer and Exigenter of the said Court of Common Pleas, and to ascertain the Annual Amount of the Salaries and Emoluments of the said Offices respectively, upon the Average of the Seven Years next preceding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, or upon the Average of the Seven Years next preceding such Day prior to the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, up to which the last Account of the Emoluments of the said several Offices shall have been settled by the said Officers respectively, including out of such Average all such Emoluments and Income as shall appear, according to the best Judgment that the said Commissioners can form thereof, to have arisen from any new Fees or from an Increase of Fees not arising from an Increase of Business, introduced subsequent to the Appointment of the present Holders of the said Offices respectively, or from any Fees or any Increase of Fees which may have been introduced within Twenty Years prior to the Commencement of this Act, or from any Fees of right belonging to any other Officer, or from any Fees which may have been demanded or received contrary to the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or in anyway contrary to Law; and for that Purpose and for the Purpose of every Inquiry which they are directed or authorized by this Act to make, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inquiry for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and required

The Rights of the present Patentees of the Offices of Prothonotary, &c. in K. B. and C. P., and of Filacer and Exigenter in C. P., shall cease, and Compensation be made to them.

How annual Amount of Emoluments of the said Offices shall be ascertained and certified by Commissioners of Inquiry.

Commissioners may examine upon Oath; and certify.

quired to examine upon Oath all Parties interested in every such Inquiry, and also all such other Persons as shall be produced before them the said Commissioners, or as they shall think proper to require, and whom they are hereby respectively empowered to summon, together with all such Accounts, Books and Vouchers, as the said Commissioners shall call for; and the said Commissioners of Inquiry for the time being, or any Three of them, shall thereupon certify, under their Hands and Seals, the Amount of the yearly Income of every such Officer, on the Average of the said Seven Years, as reduced by the Exclusion of such Emoluments as aforesaid, and also by the Exclusion of all such Part, Share or Proportion of the Fees or Profits remaining after such Reduction as shall, during the said Period of Seven Years, have been paid to or received or retained by or on Behalf of the Deputies or Clerks of the said Offices respectively, and also by the Exclusion of all Disbursements and other Deductions whatever, (except in the case hereinafter mentioned and provided for,) so as to state only the net Annual Income of the said Offices respectively, on the Average of the said Seven Years, according to the said Mode of estimating the same; and the said Certificate shall contain a Statement of the particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments on which such Averages shall have been taken as aforesaid, and also of the Fees, Profits and Emoluments heretofore received, which shall be excluded from such Averages, and the said Certificate shall be filed in the Office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, without any Fee being paid for the same, and shall remain there as a Record.

Proviso as to an Allowance of 200l. per Annum paid by Prothonotaries of King's Bench to Thomas Church.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That a certain yearly Sum of Two hundred Pounds, which has been for several Years paid out of the Emoluments of the said Office of the said Prothonotary of the Court of King's Bench to Thomas Church, by the Bounty of the said Lords Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway; and which will continue to be paid to the said Thomas Church in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall not be deducted out of the Annual Income of such Office received during the said Seven Years, as a Disbursement under the Meaning of this Act; but that the said yearly Sum of Two hundred Pounds shall be considered as forming Part of the Annual Income of the said Office, payable to the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, and shall be included by the said Commissioners of Inquiry in the Amount of the net average Annual Income of the said Office, to be certified by the said Commissioners in manner aforesaid.

Amount of Compensation to be paid to each Officer during his Life.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the filing of the said Certificate of the said Commissioners of Inquiry, there shall be issued and paid and payable to the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, and to the Survivor of them, in respect of the said Offices of Prothonotary and Filacer and Keeper of the Writs, Processes, Rules, Orders and Records of the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench; and to the said Thomas Viscount Northland and Vesey Knox, and to the Survivor of them, in respect of the said Office of Prothonotary of the said Court of Common Pleas; and to the said Daniel Toler, in respect of the said Office of Filacer and Exigenter of the said Court of Common Pleas, and to their Assigns respectively, yearly and every Year during the Term of the respective natural Lives of the said Persons respectively, respectively, and according to the Rights and Titles of such Persons respectively, unless Parliament shall otherwise provide in manner hereinafter set forth, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, a Sum equal to the Sum which shall be so ascertained by such Certificate to be the net Annual Amount of the Income and Emoluments of each of the said Offices respectively, in full of all Compensation under this Act; and such Annual Sums, unless any Parliamentary Provision to the contrary be made as hereinafter mentioned, shall be paid and payable to all and every such Persons and Person, and their and his Assigns, during the Term of the several natural Lives of all and every such Persons and Person, and according to the Rights and Titles of such Persons respectively, by Four equal Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, in each and every Year: the first Payment thereof to become due on the Fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, together with a rateable Proportion of such Sum as may become due on the said Account during the Interval between the Commencement of this Act and the said Fifth Day of October, but not to be paid until after the filing of the said Certificate; and also such Proportion of any such Quarterly Payments as at the Time of the Decease of any such Person shall be due from the Quarter Day next preceding the Time of such Decease.

Payable Quarterly.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the yearly Sum of Two hundred Pounds shall be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, by such Four equal Quarterly Payments, to the said Thomas Church, during the Term of his natural Life, and shall be deducted out of the Sum payable under this Act as a Compensation to the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, and the Survivor of them; and that from and after the Decease of the said Thomas Church, the said Annual Sum of Two hundred Pounds shall be paid to the said Henry Seymour Conway and Robert Seymour Conway, and the Survivor of them, as Part of the Compensation payable to them under this Act, in case they or either of them shall survive the said Thomas Church.

The 200l. per Annum to Thomas Church for Life to revert to Prothonotaries.

XVI. And Whereas Rowley Heyland, the present Deputy Clerk of the Rules in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, has heretofore discharged the Duty of the said Office of Clerk of the Rules, and the Income rising therefrom will be so much diminished by the Provisions of this Act, that it is deemed reasonable to increase the Salary of the said Office of Clerk of the Rules whilst it shall be holden by the said Rowley Heyland: And Whereas the Case of William Houghton, Clerk of the Appearances and Attachments in the Court of Pleas in the Exchequer, is one of peculiar Hardship and Loss, so as to render it expedient and reasonable to increase the Salary of the said Office whilst it shall be holden by the said William Houghton; Be it therefore enacted, That the said Rowley Heyland and William Houghton shall be and they are hereby continued in their respective Offices during their good Behaviour respectively; and that so long as they the said Rowley Heyland and William Houghton shall respectively

Additional Salary of 400l.
to the Deputy Clerk of the Rules in King's Bench, and 300l. to the Clerk of Appearances and Attachments in the Court of Pleas in Exchequer, while held by the present Officers.

Deputy Filacer and Exigenter to be continued in that Office.

A Compensation of 300l. yearly to Richard Patten, late Clerk of the Satisfactions, &c. in the Exchequer.

A Compensation to be made to the Cursitor of the Court of Chancery, on Certificate of the Commissioners.

respectively hold their said several Offices, the said Rowley Heyland shall receive the yearly Sum of Four hundred Pounds, and the said William Houghton the yearly Sum of Three hundred Pounds, in Augmentation of the Salaries of the said Offices holden by them respectively as aforesaid; and that the said Annual Sums and Augmentations respectively shall be payable in the same Manner, at the same Time, and out of the same Fund, as the Salaries of the said Offices are respectively payable.

‘ XVII. And Whereas it is just and reasonable that Provision should be made for John Clancey Gentleman, who has long discharged the Duties of Filacer and Exigenter of the Court of Common Pleas, as Deputy to the said Daniel Toler, the present Filacer and Exigenter; Be it further enacted, That the said Office of Filacer and Exigenter shall be and the same is hereby declared to be vested in John Clancey Gentleman, the present Deputy in the said Office, during his good Behaviour; and that it shall not be lawful for the Chief Justice of the said Court, by whom the Right of Appointment to the said Office has been heretofore exercised, notwithstanding the Saving herein contained, to remove the said John Clancey from the said Office during his good Behaviour therein.

‘ XVIII. And Whereas Richard Patten hath for many Years transacted the Business of Clerk of the Satisfactions, and Plaintiffs Judgment Book, in the Office of Clerk of the Pleas of the said Court of Exchequer; and it hath been found impracticable to make any Arrangement of the Offices in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the said Court, so as include the said Richard Patten therein; and as an Assistant to the Clerk of the Pleas, he cannot, under the Provisions of this Act, be entitled to receive any larger Salary than Five hundred Pounds, and it is reasonable to make some further Provision for him; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the said Richard Patten shall be entitled to receive yearly, during his Life, the Sum of Three hundred Pounds, the same to be payable in the same Manner, and at the same Time and Times, and out of the same Fund, as the Salaries aforesaid respectively.

‘ XIX. And Whereas the Cursitor of the Court of Chancery in Ireland hath been accustomed to receive from the Filacer of the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland certain Fees or Proportions of Fees or Sums, which Fees or Sums will cease by reason of the Provisions of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Inquiry to ascertain and certify (in like manner as is hereinbefore directed in other cases) the Amount of the net yearly Sum so received by the said Cursitor on an Average of such Period of Seven Years, and such Certificate shall be filed in like manner as is hereinafter directed with respect to other Certificates of the said Commissioners, and that from and after the filing of such Certificate there shall be paid to the Person now holding the Office of Cursitor of the said Court of Chancery, or his Assigns, so long as he shall live and hold the said Office, an annual Sum equal to the net annual Amount so ascertained by such Certificate, by like Quarterly Payments and out of the same Fund as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any other Compensation granted by this Act.

XX. And

XX. And be it further enacted, That wherever any Officer, Deputy, Clerk or Assistant in any of the said several Courts, except the principal Officer in each such Court respectively, shall apply for Payment of the Salary due to him, or any Part thereof, he shall produce a Certificate from the principal Officer of the Court for the time being, stating that he is the Person then holding such Office or Employment respectively, and is entitled to receive the Salary annexed by Law thereto, and then due to him as such Officer, Deputy, Clerk or Assistant.

Inferior Officers, &c. on applying for Salary, to produce Certificate of Chief Officer of Court.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Officers, Deputies, Clerks or Assistants, shall die in the Course of any Quarter, or shall have held his Office or Situation during Part only of any Quarter, such Officer or Clerk, or his Executors or Administrators, shall be entitled to receive a rateable Proportion of the Salary of such Office or Situation, for the Part of such Quarter during which such Officer held such Office: Provided always, that any Executor or Administrator of such Officer deceased, whether a principal Officer or other, shall, on receiving Payment of the Salary due to such Officer at the Time of his Decease, produce the Certificate of the then Chief Officer of the Court, stating that the Party deceased did, at the Time of his Decease, hold the Office or Employment in respect of which such Proportion of Salary shall be demanded, and was entitled to receive the Salary annexed by Law thereto.

In cases of Officer dying, &c. Executors entitled to Proportion of Quarter.

Executors to produce Certificate.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That each of the said Three principal Officers in the said several Courts shall, at all times respectively, superintend the Conduct and Proceedings of the several other Officers and Clerks of each of the said Courts respectively as aforesaid, and shall inspect their respective Offices, and all Records, Books, Papers and Documents therein respectively; and shall hear and receive all Complaints which may be made to them the said principal Officers respectively, of or concerning any Neglect, Delay or Misconduct in any of the said Offices in the said Court respectively, or in any of the Business thereof respectively, and shall inquire into the same, and shall admonish such Officers and Clerks respectively when they shall find reason so to do, and in any case which they shall deem of sufficient Importance, shall report the Facts specially to the Court; and it is hereby declared to be the Duty of all the subordinate Officers and Clerks in the said several Courts, to submit themselves at all times quietly and respectfully to such Superintendance and Admonition as aforesaid; and if at any time any of the said Courts shall have occasion to inquire into any Neglect or Misconduct of any such subordinate Officer or Clerk, such Court shall also inquire whether the principal Officer thereof has, with reasonable Diligence, superintended the Conduct of such subordinate Officer or Clerk.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That such Taxing Officers shall be in all respects equal the one to the other, and shall divide between them the said Business of Taxation, according to such Mode and Arrangement as they shall agree on between themselves; and if they shall not so agree, then according to such Mode and Arrangement as shall be ordered and directed from time to time by the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the time being.

Taxing Officers to divide Business equally, &c.

XLII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Taxing Officer shall be excused from any Attendance on the Business of his said Office on Good Friday, and also on Christmas Day, and on the King's Birth Day, or Day which shall be celebrated as such, in every Year; and that in Easter Week, and from Christmas Day to and on the First Day of January, and in the Months of August, September and October in every Year, it shall not be deemed necessary that more than One of the said Taxing Officers should be in Attendance for the Taxation of such Costs, and if One shall be so in Attendance, it shall be lawful for the other to be absent; and that it shall be lawful to and for the said Taxing Officers to arrange between themselves at what particular Holidays and Vacations of Taxing Officers.

Times during the said Periods respectively they shall respectively be entitled to be absent, and Two Copies of such Arrangements being made in Writing, and signed by the said Parties interchangeably, shall be valid and binding; and if the said Taxing Officers cannot agree on such Arrangement, it shall be lawful for the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench to order and make such Arrangement at his Pleasure, and the same being so made and signed by such Chief Justice, shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be valid and binding on the said Parties.

In case of Sickness, &c. Taxing Officer may appoint a Deputy, with Consent of Chief Justice of King's Bench.

XLIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if either of the said Taxing Officers shall, from Sickness or other reasonable Cause, have Occasion to be absent from the Business of his said Office, further or otherwise than as aforesaid, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Taxing Officer, by and with the Permission of the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, signified by his Order in Writing signed by his Hand, to appoint a Deputy to tax Bills of Costs in his Place and Stead, during such Time as shall be expressed in such Order in that Behalf, the Name of such Deputy, and also the Cause and Time of such Absence being stated in such Order; and such Permission may be prolonged, or a Change of Deputy be allowed from time to time by the Chief Justice of the said Court, by Indorsement on such Order; and every such Deputy shall, in every such case, be paid by the Principal by whom he shall have been so appointed.

On Vacancies, &c. Chief Justice of K. B. may appoint a Deputy.

XLIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the Office of either of the said Taxing Officers shall be vacant, or if it shall happen, by reason of Sickness or Absence of any such Officer or otherwise, that such Officer shall be unable to act in his said Office, and shall also be unable to appoint a Deputy therein, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to appoint a Person to perform the Duty of the said Taxing Officer, until there shall be an effective Officer to discharge the same.

Power of Deputy, &c. and how he shall be paid.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That every such Deputy, and also such Person so appointed by the said Chief Justice to perform the Duty of a Taxing Officer as aforesaid, shall, during the Continuance of such Deputation or Appointment, have all and every the Rights, Powers and Authorities, and be subject to all the Duties of a Taxing Officer, under this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and shall be a complete Taxing Officer to all Intents and Purposes, save that such Deputy shall be paid by his Principal as aforesaid, according to their Agreement, and shall not have any Claim on the Fund out of which the Salaries are payable to the Taxing Officers; and that every Person who shall be so appointed by the said Chief Justice to act during the Vacancy of the Office or the Inability of any Taxing Officer, shall receive from the said Fund such Proportion, and no more, of the Salary of such Taxing Officer, for and during the Period of his Service, as shall be directed in and by the Warrant under which he shall be so appointed, and the Residue only of such Salary shall for such Period be payable to such Officer.

XLVI. And

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Taxing Officer, and every Person acting as such, shall, in the Taxation of any Bill of Costs or any Part of a Bill of Costs, for any Business performed or transacted in any of the said several Courts, be and be deemed and taken to be an Officer of the Court in which such Business shall have been transacted or performed, and shall be subject to the Controul and Directions of such Court in respect of such Taxation, whether the same shall relate to the revising, reconsidering, or retaxing any such Bill, or any Part thereof, or to the Allowance or Disallowance of any particular Item or Items thereof, or to any other Matter or Matters which such Court respectively may think proper to order in relation thereto.

Taxing Officer deemed an Officer of the Court in which the Business was done.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Taxing Officer, or any Deputy or Person so appointed to perform the Business of a Taxing Officer, shall do any Act as such, he shall take the following Oath before one of the Judges of one of the said Courts; that is to say, Oath of Taxing Officer.

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will diligently tax all Bills of Costs which shall be submitted to me for that Purpose, and which I shall be empowered by Law to tax; and that I will tax the same fairly, and without Favour, Partiality or Malice, and according to the Rules and Course required by Law, to the best of my Skill and Knowledge. ‘ So help me GOD.’

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That before allowing any Sum claimed in any Bill of Costs, as a Fee or Payment to any Counsel or to any Officer of the said Courts, the Taxing Officer shall require to see the Documents necessary to ascertain that such Counsel has been so employed and has received such Fee, and that the Fee or Payment to such Officer has been the right and proper Fee, and has been paid where such Document can conveniently be produced; and if it shall appear on the Examination of any such Bills of Costs, or otherwise, that any one Charge, either for Counsel, Attorney, Officer or Stamp Duty, hath been united in any such Bill of Costs with any other Charge in one Sum, then such united Charges shall altogether be disallowed.

Taxing Officer to ascertain actual Payment to Counsel, &c.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That upon all Taxations of Bills of Costs, whether between Party and Party, or between Attorney and Client, it shall be the bounden Duty of the Taxing Officer, whether he shall be required so to do or not, and whether any Objection shall have been made or not, to take due Care of the Interest of the Person or Persons to be charged by such Bill when taxed, and for that Purpose to examine and ascertain by all reasonable Methods, that each and every Charge in any Bill of Costs contained, whether such shall be a Fee for Counsel, Solicitor or Officer of Court, or Stamp Duty or any other Disbursement whatsoever, is the proper Charge which under the Circumstances of the case ought to be made; and that upon all such Taxations the Taxing Officer shall determine upon all Charges made by any Officer of any of the said Courts, and allow any such as shall appear to him to have been made, according to the true Right of such Officer respectively; and shall also determine whether any Taxing Officer bound to examine the Propriety of all Charges in Bills of Costs.

Attendance or other Business, Matter or Thing, for which any Charge shall be made in such Bill of Costs, actually took place or was actually performed, and whether the same was proper under the Circumstances, and such as ought to be charged for in such Bill of Costs or not.

No Charges for Agency of Officers of Courts to be allowed.

L. And be it further enacted, That no Taxing Officer shall on any Taxation of any Bill of Costs whatsoever, whether as between Attorney and Client or between Party and Party, allow any Sum under the Name of Agency or otherwise howsoever, as paid to any Officer or Clerk of any of the said Courts, or any Sum whatever as paid to any such Officer or Clerk, save only for the Price of Stamps and Paper or for Fees permitted by this Act.

Judge opening the Court, on the Essoin Day of Term, to examine the State and Keeping of the Records there.

LI. And be it further enacted, That in each and every of the said several Courts, on the Essoin Day of each and every Term, the Judge who shall open the Court on that Day shall immediately after the opening the same satisfy himself, so far as he can by personal Inspection, that the Records of each and every of the said Courts respectively are duly and regularly kept and preserved, so as to be safe, dry, sound and legible, and in such Order and Arrangement and with such Means of Reference to the same, that all Persons having Occasion to inspect the same respectively shall and may have easy Access thereto; and the said Judge shall report to the other Judges of the Court, on the First Sitting Day of such Term, the Result of such Examination; and if there shall be any Default or Error therein, the same shall be (as soon as may be) examined into by the Court, and shall be rectified as soon as possible; and that for the Purpose of rendering such Access more easy and of better preserving such Order and Arrangement, when and so soon as the Schedules and Inventories of the Records of the said several Courts now forming under the Direction of the Commissioners of Records in Ireland shall have been severally completed, such Schedules and Inventories shall be continued from Year to Year by the several Officers of the said Courts and their Successors, in whose Custody such Records shall respectively be or remain.

Schedules of the Records to be kept.

Fines and Recoveries to be written as other Records.

LII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, all and all Manner of Fines and Recoveries, and all Exemplifications thereof respectively, shall be written in the same Hand Writing as the other Records of the said Court and Documents issuing therefrom respectively.

Officers herein named authorized to take Affidavits in the several Courts.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Officers hereinafter named, of and in the several Courts aforesaid, and the said Officers are hereby fully authorized, empowered and directed, whenever they shall be thereunto required, (except on Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day.) to take Affidavits or Affirmations in all Matters relating to the Business of the said Courts respectively, and to administer the necessary Oaths or Affirmations for that Purpose; that is to say, in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench and in the Court of Common Pleas, the Prothonotary, the Clerk of the Rules and the Filacer; and in the Pleas Side or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, the Clerk of the Pleas, the Clerk of the Rules and the Filacer; and all such Oaths, Affidavits and Affirmations shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect, and shall and may be filed and used and acted upon respectively, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been sworn or affirmed before the said Courts, or all or any of the Judges thereof respectively; and any Person who shall wilfully or corruptly swear or affirm any thing false in any such Affidavits or Affirmations, shall be subject to all Pains, Penalties, Punishments and Disabilities for wilful and corrupt Perjury, in like Manner in all Respects as if such Affidavits had been made in any of the said several Courts, or before all or any of the Judges thereof respectively; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall not be considered a Part of the Duty of any of the Judges of the said Courts respectively, to take any Affidavits or Affirmations, except on their Circuits, or in such cases where they shall think fit and proper so to do.

False swearing, Perjury.

LIV. And in order that the Suitors of the said several Courts, and all other Persons having Occasion to make Affidavits or Affirmations relating to the Business of the said several Courts, may, at all reasonable Times, have free Access to some Person qualified to take such Affidavits respectively; Be it enacted, That the said several Officers of the said Courts, so hereby authorized to take such Affidavits or Affirmations therein respectively as aforesaid, shall attend each in their Turn for one Day at his Office, or at such other Place, and at such Times, and for so many and such Hours in the Day, and according to such Order of Succession, as they shall for that Purpose arrange and agree upon amongst themselves, so as that no Suitor or Person having Occasion to make any Affidavit or Affirmation shall experience any Inconvenience or Delay; and in Default of such Arrangement being so made between the said Officers, it shall be lawful for the Chief Judge of each of the said Courts respectively to direct such Arrangements, and to make such Order in that Behalf as he shall think fitting and expedient.

Such Officers to attend daily by Turns.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall be confined by Illness or detained in Prison, within the Circular Road of Dublin, or within Half a Mile of the said Road, and who shall have Occasion to swear an Affidavit before any of the said Officers, shall send such Affidavit engrossed and ready to be sworn to any such Officer respectively, and that such Affidavit shall contain an Allegation that such Person is so detained in Prison, or is confined in any such House, therein stated and sufficiently described, by bodily Ailment, so as to be unable, without Danger to the Life or Health of such Person to leave such House, then it shall be the Duty of such Officer to attend at such House or Prison, at a reasonable Hour and without unnecessary Delay, to take such Affidavit; or if such Hour shall not be within the Time of Duty of such Officer according to such Arrangement as aforesaid, then such Officer shall send such Affidavit to the Officer within whose Time of Duty such Hour shall be, who shall attend as aforesaid to take such Affidavit.

Affidavits of Persons confined by Illness or in Custody, &c. may be taken by Officer at the House,
&c. where such Person is confined.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, every Officer of any of the said several Courts shall respectively execute the Duty of his Office in Person, except only in case of Sickness or unavoidable Absence; and that

Offices in the Courts to be executed in Person, except in cases of Illness or unavoidable Absence, and then by Deputy appointed with Consent of the Judge.

in any such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer, by Deputation in Writing under his Hand and Seal, by and with the Consent in Writing of the Chief Justice or Chief Baron of the Court to which such Officer shall belong, or in the Absence of such Chief Justice or Chief Baron, then of the next Senior Judge of the said Court then in Dublin, to appoint a Deputy to execute the Duties of such Officer during such Period as shall be specified in such Deputation; and the Name of such Deputy, and also the Occasion for appointing him, and the Approbation of such Chief Justice, Chief Baron or Judge, and the Time for which such Appointment is to continue, shall be specified and set forth in such Deputation; and such Deputation shall be signed or indorsed by such Chief Justice, Chief Baron or Judge; and the Period mentioned in such Deputation may be afterwards prolonged, if necessary, by such Officer, with the Approbation of such Chief Justice, Chief Baron or Judge, by Indorsement of the said Officer, and of the said Chief Justice, Chief Baron or Judge upon such Deputation.

In case of Incapacity of Principal to appoint, and on Vacancies, Chief Justice may appoint a Deputy till Vacancy is supplied.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen that any Officer of the said several Courts, by reason of Accident or Infirmary, shall be unable to appoint a Deputy, or whenever any Office in any of the said Courts shall become vacant, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Chief Justice or Chief Baron of the said Courts respectively, if applied to for that Purpose, to appoint and swear into Office a fit and proper Person to perform the Duty of such Officer, until there shall be an Officer capable of discharging his own Duty; and that every such Person so appointed and sworn shall be, to all Intents and Purposes, a complete Officer according to the Terms of such Appointment; save that such Person so appointed as aforesaid shall not be entitled to any greater Proportion of the Profits of such Office than shall be specified in such Order.

Justices at Assizes may grant Summonses and make Orders in Causes to be tried before them, although not Judges of the Court in which the Actions are brought.

LVIII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer in Dublin, should have Power and Authority, upon their respective Circuits for taking the Assizes, to grant Summonses and to make Orders in Actions and Prosecutions, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer in Dublin, and each and every or any one of them, during their respective Circuits for taking the Assizes, to grant such and the like Summonses, and to make such and the like Orders, in all Actions and Prosecutions which are or shall be depending in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, in which the Issue, if brought to Trial, would be to be tried upon such their respective Circuits, as if such Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, were respectively Judges of the Court in which such Actions or Prosecutions respectively are or shall be depending; although such respective Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, may not be Judges of the Court in which which such Actions or Prosecutions are or shall be depending ; and such Summonses and Orders shall be of the same Force and Effect as if such Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, were respectively Judges of the Court in which such Actions or Prosecutions are or shall be depending.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Fee whatsoever shall on any Occasion or Account be payable to any of the Judges of the Courts of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or to any of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and that in lieu of all Fees heretofore payable or paid to the said Judges and Barons respectively, and of all and every Income and Emolument derived to such Judges and Barons respectively thereby, there shall be payable to the said Judges the several yearly Sums hereafter in that Behalf respectively mentioned ; that is to say, to the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the yearly Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds ; to the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, the yearly Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds ; to the Chief Baron of the Exchequer, the yearly Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds ; and to each of the other Justices and Barons of the said Courts respectively, the yearly Sum of Eight hundred and fifty Pounds ; and the said several Sums are hereby charged and made payable, and shall be paid to the said Chief Justices, Chief Baron, Judges and Barons respectively, out of the said Consolidated Fund, in addition to the yearly Salaries or Payments to the said Chief Justices, Chief Baron, Judges and Barons respectively, to which they are now respectively entitled by Law, and at such Times and in such Manner as such yearly Salaries and Payments are now respectively payable.

LX. And Whereas it may happen that the said additional Salaries may be insufficient to compensate some of the said Judges for the Diminution of their Income, by the Abolition of all Fees heretofore payable to them ; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, and they are hereby authorized and required, upon the Desire being expressed by any of the said Judges to that Effect, to ascertain, in like manner as is hereinbefore directed in other cases, the Annual Amount of the Fees of any such Judge on the Average of Seven Years next preceding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and to certify under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, the average Annual Amount of such Fees, and the Difference between such Amount, if any, and the additional Salary provided for such Judge by this Act ; and every such Certificate shall contain a Statement of the particular Fees on which such Average shall be taken as aforesaid, and also of the Fees excluded from such Average ; and every such Certificate shall be filed in manner hereinbefore required by this Act, and thereupon there shall be paid to every such Chief Justice, Chief Baron, Judge or Baron, who shall have caused

No Fees to be taken by Judges after Commencement of this Act, and in lieu thereof the additional yearly Salaries herein mentioned to be paid to them.

If such additional Salary not sufficient to compensate Loss by Fees, further Allowances to be made on Certificate of Commissioners of Inquiry.

caused such Certificate to be so filed, a yearly Sum equal to the Excess of such average Annual Amount of such Fees, so long as he shall continue in Office, over and above the said additional Salary to which such Chief Justice, Chief Baron, Judge or Baron will be entitled as aforesaid under this Act, and which said additional Annual Sum shall be paid out of the same Fund, and at the same Time, and in the same Manner as the said additional yearly Salary under this Act.

Salaries to be free of Taxes.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all the Salaries and Allowances made payable by this Act out of the Consolidated Fund shall be paid and payable free and clear of all Taxes and of all Deductions whatsoever for Fees, Pells, Poundage or otherwise.

Courts may order Sums not less than 20l. to be paid into the Bank, to the Credit of any Cause, &c.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any of the said several Courts shall deem it necessary or conducive to Justice, that any Sum of Money, not being less than the Sum of Twenty Pounds, should be brought in by any Party or Person, so as to be under the Orders and Disposition of the Court, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to make an Order that such Money shall be lodged and deposited in the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the proper Cause or Matter, in the Name and with the Privity of the Chief Officer of such Court, and such Money shall be lodged and deposited accordingly, and shall from time to time be drawn out or be transferred by such Chief Officer respectively, by and under the Orders of the Court, as such Court shall deem fitting and just.

Officers to proceed in Accounts, Inquiries, &c. peremptorily on the first Summons.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That on any Account or Inquiry, or other Matter whatsoever, which shall be referred to or shall be depending before any Officer of any of the said several Courts, or which such Officer shall have Authority or Power to proceed in, or to determine or report upon, and for, upon or relative to which it shall be necessary or proper to summon any Party or Parties, or Person or Persons whomsoever, such Officer shall proceed peremptorily on the First Summons which shall appear to him to have been duly served, and shall, at the Time and Place appointed in such Summons, hear the Parties, if they shall attend, and if only one Party shall attend, and the other Party shall make default, and no sufficient Excuse for such Default shall be laid before such Officer, he shall then proceed ex parte, in like manner as such Officer would, according to the Practice heretofore used, have proceeded upon a Third or peremptory Summons; and the Proceedings, Report or Decision of such Officer, upon such Account, Inquiry or other Matter whatsoever, shall be subject to the Order, Direction and Controul of the Court in all respects as heretofore.

Regulation as to serving, &c. of Summonses.

LXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Summons shall be served on the Party required to attend Three clear Days at least (exclusive of Sundays) before the Time fixed for the Attendance, and that the precise Object for which such Summons is issued shall be stated in the same, or at the Foot thereof; and the Taxing Officers and the principal Officers of the said Courts shall and they are hereby required to keep Books, and to enter therein in alphabetical Order every Summons which they shall issue, the Hour appointed for Attendance, and the Object for for which such Summons is issued; and such Books shall at all reasonable Times, during the Attendance of such Officers, be open for Inspection without Fee or Reward.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Commissioner appointed for Inquiry into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts of Justice as aforesaid, to proceed in the making any Inquiry by this Act directed or required to be made, until such Commissioner shall have previously taken and subscribed the following Oath, which Oath any One of the said Commissioners of Inquiry is hereby authorized to administer; that is to say,

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will well and truly, without Favour or Ill Will, and according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, inquire into and certify the several Matters which I shall or may be required to inquire into and certify under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act].

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That Copies of all Certificates required by this Act to be given by the Commissioners of Inquiry for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of any Compensation granted or made payable under this Act, shall be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Office of the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament at the Commencement of the Session of Parliament next ensuing the Date of such Certificate; or if Parliament shall be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days next after the Date of such Certificate; and that in case no legislative Provision shall be made for the Compensation of the several Officers whose Claims shall have been so decided upon by the Commissioners of Inquiry under this Act, in the Course of the Session in which such Certificate shall be laid before Parliament, the said Certificate shall then, and not before, become final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

‘ LXVII. And Whereas the Rights of the Crier and the Usher of the Courts of Exchequer have not as yet been sufficiently ascertained; Be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Inquiry as aforesaid shall proceed to investigate the Fees and Emoluments of the said Officers; and that their Report upon the same shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Commencement of the Session of Parliament next ensuing the Commencement of this Act; and that the said Report shall be made in like Manner as has been hereinbefore provided for the Certificates of the average Profits of the Prothonotaries and Filacer of the said Court.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to limit, abridge, bar, prejudice or defeat any Action or Indictment, or any Remedy or Proceeding whatsoever, which at any time heretofore may or might have been brought, found, had or taken against any Officer, Deputy or Clerk, in or under any of the said Courts hereinbefore mentioned, for or in respect of any Misconduct in Office which may have occurred or taken place, or which may take place at any time before the Commencement of this Act, but that all such Actions, Indictments, Remedies and Proceedings for any such Misconduct may be brought, found, had or taken, as if this Act had never been made.

Recovery of Penalties under 50l. summarily before Court.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Penalty imposed by this Act, amounting to less than the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall and may be recovered in a summary Way, on Complaint or Motion to the Court to which the Offence where such Penalty shall be incurred shall relate; and it shall be lawful for such Court, after receiving such Evidence as they shall think proper, to make an Order for the Payment of such Penalty; and that any Penalty imposed by this Act, which shall amount to and not exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall and may be recovered by any Party who will sue for the same, by Civil Bill before the Chairman of the Sessions at Kilmainham; and that all Penalties exceeding the Sum of Fifty Pounds shall and may be recovered by any Party who shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the Three Courts of Common Law aforesaid, wherein no Essoign, Protection nor Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor more than One Impar lance; and that One Moiety of all Penalties imposed by this Act shall be to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

50l. before the Chairman of Kilmainham.

Above 50l. in all superior Courts.

Perjury.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That if in any Oath or Affirmation required or authorized to be taken, or on any Examination or Inquiry on Oath, required or authorized to be made by this Act, any Person shall swear or affirm falsely, such Person shall, on Conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall be punished accordingly.

Commencement of Act.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and every Clause and Matter therein, shall commence and have Effect from and after the Sixteenth Day of June in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and not sooner, save and except in cases where any Clause, Matter or Thing is expressly directed to take Effect from the passing of this Act.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, during the present Session of Parliament.

C A P. LIV.

An Act to regulate the Office of Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, in Ireland. [15th June 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it appears, from the Seventh Report of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, that it is expedient to regulate the Office of Clerks of Assize or Nisi Prius, otherwise called Judge's Registrar, in Ireland, as hereinafter is provided:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, in Ireland, or any Person acting as such, in any case or under any Pretence whatsoever, to ask, demand, receive or accept any Fee, Reward or pecuniary or other Consideration or Recompence whatsoever, for or in respect of the Performance of any of the Duties of such Office, or for or in respect of any Payment as for the Judges on the Occasion of Trials at Nisi Prius, or on the hearing of Civil Bill Appeals, or for or in respect of any Matter incident to or arising out of any such Trial, other than such Allowance as is hereinafter authorized by this Act; and if any such Officer shall offend herein, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, by any Person who shall sue for the same in any of the Superior Courts in Dublin, one Moiety to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Informer.

Clerks of Nisi Prius not to take any Fees or Recompence for performing the Duties of their Office, except according to this Act.

Penalty 500l.

II. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the Fees so abolished, and of all Salaries now payable to any such Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, in Ireland, there shall be paid, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, after the last Day of each and every Easter Term and Michaelmas Term, to every Person having held the Office of Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius to any Judge of Assize, at the then next preceding Circuit, whether such Judge of Assize shall be one of the Judges of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin or not, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling; the First of such Payments to be made after the last Day of Easter Term, which will be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; and that after the last Day of each and every Term which shall succeed the Michaelmas Term next ensuing the Commencement of this Act, there shall be paid at the Receipt of the said Exchequer, to every Person having held the Office of Clerk of Nisi Prius to any of the Chief Judges of His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer in Ireland, in the then next preceding Term and Sittings, the Sum of Seventy five Pounds Sterling, the First of such Payments, in respect of the said Michaelmas Term, to be made after the last Day of Hilary Term then next ensuing.

In lieu of all Fees and Salaries at present payable, certain Sums made payable at the Exchequer to Clerks of Assize or Nisi Prius.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius shall, on or after the last Day of the Term next succeeding each Circuit or Sittings, lodge at the Office of the Auditor General, in Dublin Castle, a Certificate from the Chief Judge of the Court, or Judge of Assize respectively, as follows:

‘ I Do hereby certify, That during the Michaelmas Term [or, Hilary, Easter or Trinity Term] and Sittings [or, during the Spring or Summer Assizes now last past, as the case may require], A. B. hath discharged the Duty of Clerk of Nisi Prius to in Person [or, by a sufficient Deputy appointed for that Purpose, with my Approbation, in consequence of the Illness of the said A. B., or, in consequence of the unavoidable Absence of the said A. B., occasioned by [here let the Cause of Absence be set forth], and proved to my Satisfaction [as the case may require].’

And thereupon, and not before, such Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius shall be entitled to receive Payment of the several Sums aforesaid, pursuant to the Directions of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, shall, within the first Four Sitting Days of the Term next ensuing any Trial which shall take place, either on Circuit or at the Sittings after any Term, and within Two Days after any Trial which shall take place in Term Time, lodge and deposit with the Prothonotaries of the said Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and with the Clerk of the Pleas of the said Court of Exchequer respectively, the Postea on all Records which issued from their several Courts, and which shall have been tried before the Judge to whom he shall have been appointed or acted as Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, except only in cases where such Judge shall certify on the Back of the Record that he authorizes such Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Registrar, to postpone so lodging and depositing the Postea; and in such cases such Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, shall lodge and deposit such Record, with such the Judge's Certificate thereon, with the said Prothonotaries or Clerk of the Pleas respectively, in lieu of the Postea; and in every case where any Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, shall make Default in lodging or depositing such Postea, or such Records, with such the Judge's Certificate thereon, in lieu thereof, within the Times and in the Manner hereinbefore limited and appointed for the so doing, it shall be lawful to and for any and every Party aggrieved thereby, at any time after such Default, to enter with the Officer of the Court in which such Postea or Record and Certificate thereon ought, according to the Provisions of this Act, to be lodged and deposited, a conditional Rule for imposing a Fine of Twenty Pounds on the Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, so making Default, for each and every such Postea or Record, and Judge's Certificate thereon, which he shall so neglect or refuse to lodge and deposit in manner hereinbefore required, within the Time by this Act limited or appointed for so doing; and every such conditional Rule shall be made absolute as of course, unless such Clerks of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, shall, within within Four Days next after the Entry of such conditional Rule, show Cause, to the Satisfaction of such Court, why such conditional Rule should not be made absolute; and for the Recovery of such Fine, Process shall issue in like manner as for the Recovery of other Fines imposed by such Court.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Clerks of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, shall not within the Four Days next after the Entry of such conditional Rule, lodge and deposit with the proper Officer either the Postea or the Record, with the Judge's Certificate thereon, in lieu thereof, an Attachment shall issue against such Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, upon the Certificate of the Officer of such Default, without further Motion, unless the Court shall in its Discretion otherwise direct.

If Postea not lodged within Four Days, Attachment to issue, unless Court interpose.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be any Part of the Duty of any Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius to prepare or engross any Bill of Exceptions or Special Verdict, or to give any Copy thereof respectively; but that when and as often as any Copy of any Bill of Exceptions or Special Verdict, or of the Dominical thereof respectively, shall be produced to any such Clerk of Nisi Prius by the Attorney of either of the Parties, such Clerk of Nisi Prius shall compare the same, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be necessary, with any Originals or Documents to be then lodged with him, or which may have been then in his Custody, and shall attest and authenticate the same respectively by his Certificate and his Signature thereto.

Duty of Clerk of Nisi Prius as to Bills of Exception and Special Verdict.

VII. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further Prevention of the Sale and Brokerage of Offices, shall extend and shall be deemed and construed to extend to prevent the Sale or Brokerage of the Office of Clerk of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar, in Ireland, in as full and ample a Manner as if such Office had been mentioned in the said recited Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

49 G. 3. c. 126. against Sale of Offices, extended to Office of Clerks of Assize, &c.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to limit, abridge, bar or defeat any Remedies or Proceedings whatsoever, which might have been taken or might be taken if this Act had never been passed, against any Clerk of Nisi Prius, or Judge's Registrar in Ireland, for any Misconduct which may have taken place in his Office at any Time before the Commencement of this Act.

Proviso for Proceedings against Clerk of Nisi Prius for Misconduct previous to Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the End of the several Summer Assizes in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and not sooner.

Commencement of Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

An Act to remove Doubts as to the Amount of Stamp Duties to be paid on Deeds and other Instruments, under the several Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively. [23d June 1821.]

Stamp Duties on Deeds relating to Property, &c. in Ireland and G.B. respectively, how to be charged.

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force relating to the Stamp Duties payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, different Rates of Duty are payable in respect of Deeds, Agreements and other Instruments; and Doubts have arisen as to the Cases in which the same are chargeable with one or other or both of the said different Rates of Duty: For the Removal of such Doubts, be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Deed, Agreement or other Instrument, which shall relate wholly to any Real or Personal Property in Ireland, or to any Matter or Thing (other than the Payment of Money) to be done in Ireland, shall be chargeable with such Stamp Duties as are or shall be payable by the Laws in force for imposing and regulating the Stamp Duties in Ireland, and not with any other Stamp Duty; and that every Deed, Agreement or other Instrument, which shall relate to any Real or Personal Property in Great Britain, or to any Matter or Thing (other than the Payment of Money) to be done in Great Britain, or elsewhere than in Ireland, shall be chargeable with such Stamp Duties as are or shall be payable by the Laws in force for imposing and regulating the Stamp Duties in Great Britain; and that every Deed, Agreement or other Instrument, which shall relate to any Real or Personal Property in Ireland, or to any Matter or Thing (other than the Payment of Money) to be done in Ireland, and also to any Real or Personal Property in Great Britain or elsewhere than in Ireland, or to any Matter or Thing (other than the Payment of Money) to be done in Great Britain or elsewhere than in Ireland, shall be chargeable with such Stamp Duties as are or shall be payable by the Laws in force for imposing and regulating the Stamp Duties in Great Britain, and not with any other Stamp Duty: Provided always, that every such Deed, Agreement or other Instrument, shall be charged and chargeable with such Stamp Duties accordingly, and no more, whether the same shall be ingrossed and executed at any Place or Places within the United Kingdom, or at any Place or Places not within the United Kingdom, and whether any of the Parties to such Deed, Agreement or other Instrument, shall be resident in or executing the same at any Place, either in Great Britain or Ireland, or elsewhere; and that any Deed, Agreement or other Instrument duly stamped pursuant to this Act, shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty by reason of the same also containing any Covenant, Agreement or Obligation, for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, at whatever Place such Money may be made payable, or may by Law be payable.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted, That every Bond, Covenant and Agreement, for securing the Payment of Money only (where the Money so secured shall not be also charged or secured upon or issuing out of any Real or Personal Property), shall be liable to Stamp Duty in manner following; (that is to say,) where there shall be only one Obligor or Covenantor or Person liable to pay such Money, or where the Obligors, Covenantors or Persons liable shall be all resident in Great Britain, or shall be all resident in Ireland, such Bond, Covenant or Agreement shall be charged with the Stamp Duty payable in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in which such Obligor or Obligors, Covenantor or Covenantors, or Person or Persons liable, shall bonâ fide reside at the Time of the Execution of such Bond, Covenant or Agreement; and where some or one of several Obligors, Covenantors or Persons liable to the Payment of the Money secured by any such Bond, Covenant or Agreement, shall at the Time of the Execution thereof be bonâ fide resident in Great Britain or elsewhere not in Ireland, and some other or others shall be bonâ fide resident in Ireland, the Residences of such Persons shall be respectively truly described and expressed in such Bond, Covenant or Agreement; and such Bond, Covenant or Agreement shall be charged with the Stamp Duty payable in Great Britain, and not with any further or other Stamp Duty: Provided always, that the Payment of any Rent or of any Annuity shall be deemed to be the Payment of Money within the Meaning of this Act.

As to charging Stamp Duty on Bonds and Covenants for Payment of Money.

Proviso as to Description of Residence of Obligor, &c. in such Bond or Covenant.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend in any case to alter or affect the Stamp Duties payable in respect of Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes, or to charge with Stamp Duty any Cheques, Drafts or Orders, which are not now liable to such Duty.

Proviso for Stamp Duties on Bills of Exchange.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Deed, Bond, Covenant, Agreement or other Instrument, stamped according to the Provisions of this Act, shall and may, so far as may respect the Stamp Duties thereon, be given in Evidence in any and every Court of Law or Equity, either in Great Britain or Ireland.

Stamped Deeds to be given in Evidence.

Houses and Lands.

' invalidates the Appointment of Guardians in any subsequent Year; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Guardians, or the Visitor and Guardians for the time being, of the Poor of any Parish, Township or Place, or of several united Parishes, Townships or Places, which hath or have adopted, or shall hereafter adopt the Provisions of the said recited Act, or the major Part or Number of such Acting Guardians, and jointly with the Visitor, if any, for the time being (notwithstanding any Omission to appoint Guardians in each successive Year, and also notwithstanding any Informality in the Appointment of any such Acting Visitor or Guardians), and they are hereby authorized, under the Order and Direction of the Inhabitants of any such Parish, Township or Place, or each of several such united Parishes, Townships or Places, in Vestry assembled, and with the Consent of Two Justices acting in and for the County, Division, City, Borough or Place, or several Counties, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs or Places, within which such Parish, Township or Place, or several Parishes, Townships or Places, shall be situate, to sell and dispose of any Workhouse or other Houses, Tenements and Buildings, Outhouses, Offices, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, Lands and Grounds, with their Appurtenances, which may have been purchased or erected by or on Behalf of such Parish, Township or Place, or several united Parishes, Townships or Places, for the Purposes and under the Authority of the said Act, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, or any other Estate or Interest therein; and by Bargain and Sale to convey and assure the same unto the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof respectively, and his, her and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, or as he or they shall direct, and to give and sign Receipts for the Purchase Money, which Receipts shall be effectual Discharges to the Purchaser or Purchasers, and his, her or their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, without any Obligation on him, her or them to see to the Application of his, her or their Purchase Money; and from and after every such Sale, the Workhouse or other Houses, Tenements and Buildings, Outhouses, Offices, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, Lands and Grounds, with their Appurtenances, so sold, shall be discharged from all the Trusts and Purposes of the said recited Act.

Application of Money to arise
by such Sale.

II. And be it further enacted, That a competent Part of the Money arising from every such Sale shall be applied in defraying the Expences attending the Sale, and in or towards discharging any Incumbrances affecting the said Workhouse, or other Houses, Tenements and Buildings, Outhouses, Offices, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, Lands and Grounds respectively, and any Debts which may have been contracted by the Guardians, or Visitor and Guardians of such Parish, Township or Place, or united Parishes, Townships or Places respectively, by way of Charge on the Poor's Rates or otherwise; and the Residue of any such Money shall be paid by such Guardians, or Visitor and Guardians, to the Churchwardens and Overseers for the time being of such Parish, Township ship or Place, or several united Parishes, Townships or Places respectively, in the like Shares or Proportions as they contributed towards the Purchase or Erection of the Workhouse, or other Houses, Tenements and Buildings, Outhouses and Offices, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, Lands and Grounds respectively, which shall be so sold, and be applied by such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor respectively, as Part of the Rates to be collected for the Relief of the Poor of the same Parish, Township or Place, or several Parishes, Townships or Places respectively.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to Prisons in Ireland. [23d June 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was made in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing the several Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland, and for reenacting such of the Provisions thereof as have been found useful, with Amendments: And Whereas by the said Act the several Grand Juries throughout Ireland have certain Powers vested in them, and are required to perform certain Duties with regard to the Regulation of the several Prisons within their respective Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, and to the regular Supply of Food and other Necessaries for the Prisoners confined therein: And Whereas it is expedient to provide for the Visiting and Superintendance of such Prisons, and for carrying into Effect the Regulations of the said Act, and for making other Regulations for the Prevention of all Abuses in such Prisons; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, or any Three or more of the Grand Jurymen, having been sworn as such at any preceding Assizes for such County, or County of a City or County of a Town, from time to time, as they shall think fit or see occasion, to visit any Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or any other Prison within such County, County of a City or County of a Town, and belonging thereunto; every such Visit to be on such Day and Hour, and either by previous Appointment or not, as such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen shall think fit and proper; and it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, to enquire concerning the due Performance of the Rules and Regulations in and by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty prescribed and required to be observed in Prisons throughout Ireland; and also concerning the due Performance of such other Rules and Regulations as may have been lawfully made under the Authority of any other Act of Parliament, or of His Majesty’s Court of King’s Bench in Ireland, or of the Judges of Assize, under the Authority of this Act, in manner hereinafter provided, or under any other lawful Authority whatsoever; and also to examine into the Conduct and Situation of

Grand Jury, or Three Grand Jurymen, empowered to visit all County Prisons, and examine how far the Regulations under 50 G. 3. c. 103. &c. are complied with; the Situation and Conduct of the Prisoners, &c. and in case of any Misconduct report to Lord Lieutenant or the Grand Jury at the Assizes, &c.

of the Prisoners in any such Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or Prison respectively, and of all Persons concerned in the Government or Management thereof, or holding any Office or Employment therein or relating thereto respectively; and such Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, are hereby authorized and empowered to examine on Oath any Person or Persons touching the Conduct of any Officer of any such Prison or of any Prisoner therein, or touching or relating to the Government and Management of such Prison, and the Promotion of Industry and Order therein, and the Classification and Distribution of Offenders and Prisoners in any such Prison, and the Separation of Male and Female Prisoners, and of Prisoners committed for Trial only, from such as shall have been convicted of Crimes and under Sentence of Punishment; and if it shall appear to the said Board, by Evidence on Oath or otherwise, that the Persons concerned in the Government or Management of any such Prison, or any of them, or any Person holding any Office or Employment therein or relating thereto, have misbehaved therein, by any Neglect or Breach or Non-observance of the Rules and Regulations or any of them, to which they were respectively bound by Law to conform, then it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, to make a Report respecting such Misbehaviour to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, without Delay, or otherwise to make such Report to the Grand Jury at the next Assizes, or to the Sheriff of the County, or to all or any of them, at the Discretion of such Visitors; and in the mean time to admonish and reprimand all Persons guilty of any Misconduct in or relating to such Prison.

Keepers, Inspectors and Officers of Prisons to attend, and answer all Enquiries of the Grand Jury.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Keeper of any such County Prison, and the Inspector and every other Officer of such Prison, shall, at all reasonable Hours, attend in such Prison, on due Notice for that Purpose, in order to give to such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen such Information as may be necessary, on Oath or otherwise, as shall be required by such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen, concerning such Prison, and the Officers thereof or any of them, and concerning the Prisoners therein or any of them, and relating to all Matters connected with the Order and good Government of such Prison; and if any such Keeper, Inspector or other Officer, shall refuse so to attend, or to be examined, or to give sufficient Answers to any Enquiries, it shall and may be lawful for any one of such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen to make Complaint thereof to the Court or Judge at the next ensuing Assizes to be held for such County or County of a City or Town, and such Court or Judge may commit such Offender, as in cases of Contempt of Court committed in the Face of the Court at such Assizes.

Punishment.

Poor Prisoners to be supplied with Food and Necessaries at the public Expence.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, any Prisoner of whatever Description, in any Prison whatsoever in Ireland, who shall desire to receive Food and other Necessaries, and who shall not be of sufficient Ability to procure the same, shall be supplied in manner hereinafter mentioned respectively, with such Food and Necessaries at the public Expence; and every such Prisoner, as long as he shall be so supplied, shall be deemed deemed and taken to be a poor Prisoner within the Meaning of this Act, and shall be subject as such to all Rules and Regulations hereinafter provided in that Behalf; and it shall not be lawful for any such Prisoner who shall be so supplied at the public Expence to accept or receive any Food or Liquor, other than such as shall be so supplied under this Act; and if any such Prisoner shall accept any Food or Liquor contrary to this Act, such Prisoner shall no longer be supplied at the public Expence, and shall thereupon cease to be deemed and taken to be a poor Prisoner within the Meaning of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Money required for the Payment of any Person or Persons who shall supply, or shall contract to supply any such Food or other Necessaries, Articles, Matters or Things respectively, for the Use of such poor Prisoners, shall be raised and levied in every County, County of a City and County of a Town, throughout Ireland, by Presentment of the Grand Jury, in like manner as Money for similar Purposes has been heretofore raised and levied under the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign; save as in and by this Act is otherwise expressly provided.

V. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, it is among other Things provided, that the Inspector of every Prison in Ireland should oversee and regulate the providing Food as he should judge most proper, to the Value of not less than Five Pence per Day, for every Person confined for any Offence under his Inspection, who should stand in need of such Assistance, and it is expedient that the said Provision should be altered as hereinafter is provided; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as prescribes any Amount in Value for such Provisions shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act, every Inspector of Prisons in Ireland shall make out a regular Dietary Table for each and every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison within his Inspection respectively, setting forth the Quantity and Description of Food for each and every Day during the Week, to be allowed per Head to all poor Prisoners therein; which Dietary Table so prepared, in cases where such Prison shall be situate in the County of Dublin, or the County of the City of Dublin, shall be submitted to the Divisional Justices of the Castle Division; and where such Prison shall be situate in any other Part of Ireland, such Table shall be submitted to such Three Grand Jurymen or Three Justices of the Peace of the County of a City or County of a Town, in which such Prison shall be situate, whose Residences shall be near to such Prison, in order that such Table may be approved, or may be altered or amended, as such Justices respectively, or such Three Grand Jurymen, shall think fit; and such Dietary Table, when approved of by such Justices or Grand Jurymen respectively, shall be adopted and strictly adhered to in such Prisons respectively, for which the same shall be so appointed, until a new Dietary Table shall be appointed for such Prison; and a Copy of every such Dietary Table shall be placed by such Inspector in some conspicuous Part of the Common Hall in every such Prison within his Inspection; and according to such Table Provisions shall be provided for and distributed

Not to be supplied in any other Way.

Money for providing such Food and Necessaries to be raised by Presentment.

50 G. 3. c. 103.

tributed to all poor Prisoners in such Prisons respectively, in the same manner as and in lieu of the Provisions directed by the said Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign.

Dietary Table may be altered by Justices, Inspector, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Divisional Justices in Dublin, and for any such Three or more Grand Jurymen or any Five Justices of the Peace of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, or for the Inspector of Prisons, with the Consent of any Three such Justices of the Peace respectively, from time to time, as they shall think fit, to alter or vary any such Dietary Table at their Discretion; and thereupon such Table so altered shall be forthwith copied out by the said Inspector, and set up in the Place of any former Dietary Table, to be in every respect pursued and abided by, until such Table shall be again duly altered as aforesaid.

Copy thereof set up.

Contracts for supplying Food to be entered with the Clerk of the Peace.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts for Supply of Food or other Necessaries for the Use of any Gaol, when approved of by the proper Authority, shall be entered into by such Contractors with the Clerks of the Peace in the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively; and that it shall and may be lawful for any such Clerk of the Peace, under the Directions of the Grand Jury, to sue for the Breach of any such Contract.

50 G. 3. c. 103.
§ 45.

VIII. And Whereas by and under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to appoint one Inspector General of Prisons in Ireland: And Whereas the said Inspector General of Prisons is, by the said Act, required to visit every Prison in Ireland once at least in every Two Years, as also every Madhouse or Lunatic Asylum, and to report thereupon to the Lord Lieutenant and to Parliament: And Whereas the said Duties have been found too extensive and arduous for the Performance of one Officer, and it is necessary to provide more effectually for the due Execution of the same; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the time being, to nominate and appoint two fit and proper Persons to be Inspectors General of Prisons in Ireland, removable at the Will and Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being; and such Two Persons shall perform all the Duties prescribed for the Inspector General of Prisons under the said hereinbefore recited Act, and as directed by this Act.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint Two Inspectors General of Prisons.

Counties to be apportioned into Two Circuits, the Prisons of which shall be visited yearly by an Inspector General.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to apportion the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, in Ireland, into Two Circuits, for the Purposes of this Act; and each of the said Inspectors General shall once at the least in every Year visit every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, Penitentiary or other Prison, and every Madhouse and Place where Lunatics and Idiots are confined, for the Purpose of making an annual Inspection, and report upon the State thereof within one of the said Circuits respectively alternately, in each succeeding Year, so that every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, rection, Penitentiary, Madhouse and other Prison and Place as aforesaid, shall be visited and reported upon by each of the said Inspectors General once in every Two Years at the least:

X. And be it further enacted, That a Copy of the several Reports of each of the said Two Inspectors General shall be laid before the Grand Juries of the Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, to which such Reports shall relate, at the several Spring and Summer Assizes; and every such Report shall contain an Account of each and every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, Penitentiary or other Prison, and of every Madhouse and Place where Idiots and Lunatics are confined within the said Counties, and Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurers of such Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns as aforesaid, to pay to the Inspector General for the Year, who shall make such Reports, a Sum of Twenty Pounds, which Sum shall be charged by such Treasurer in his Accounts, and shall be allowed by the said Grand Jury.

XI. And be it further enacted, That each of the said Inspectors General to be appointed under this Act shall and may in the Circuit which he shall annually make, exercise and possess all the Powers, and perform all the Duties, given and prescribed to the Inspector General of Prisons by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

XII. And be it further enacted, That within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, the several Inspectors General of Prisons in Ireland shall make out Lists of all Marshalseas, Penitentiary Houses, Gaols, Bridewells, Houses of Correction and all other Prisons in Ireland, of what Nature or Kind soever the same may be respectively, and also of all Houses and Establishments for the Reception or Care of any Idiots or Lunatics within the Circuit of each such Inspector General, and whether the same be supported by any public Fund or Duty, or by any Charitable Fund, or by Subscription or for Profit, or by any Two or more of the said Modes; and at the Foot of such Account each such Inspector General shall make Affidavit before the Lord Mayor of Dublin that the same is a true, full and perfect List of all such Prisons, Houses and Establishments, as far as such Inspector General has been able to ascertain the same; and each such Inspector General shall forthwith, after making such Affidavits, deliver such List, so verified, to the Chief Clerk at the Civil Side of the Office of the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, in the Castle of Dublin, to be there preserved and copied into some proper Book for that Purpose; and a Copy of such Lists shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That on or before the Twentieth Day of December in each and every Year, each Inspector General of Prisons in Ireland for the time being shall, in like manner, make a Return at the said Office of such Chief Secretary in Dublin, setting forth each and every Alteration which shall have taken place within the Circuit of such Inspector General, with respect to all such Prisons and Establishments as aforesaid, since the last preceding Return; and if no Alteration shall have so taken place, Reports of Inspectors General to be laid before the Grand Juries at the Spring and Summer Assizes.

Allowance of 20l. to the Inspector General.

Powers of Inspector General as by 50 G. 3. c. 103.

Inspectors General to make out Lists of Prisons, &c. within their Circuit.

Lists verified before Lord Mayor of Dublin; and preserved in Castle of Dublin.

Returns to be made yearly of State of Prisons at Office of Chief Secretary, and laid before Parliament.

place, then stating the same accordingly; and such Return shall be verified, on Oath, in like manner as aforesaid; and after every such Return in which any Alteration shall be set forth, a new List of all such Prisons and Houses as aforesaid, corrected according to such Return, shall be made, so as that there shall be at all Times in the said Office a List of all such Prisons and Houses in Ireland, corrected according to such Returns respectively; and a Copy of all such Lists shall be, from time to time, laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Inspector General to visit every Prison, &c. once in Two Years, and report.

Salary not paid to Inspector General, but under Certificate of Chief Clerk in Secretary's Office, that regular Returns, &c. have been made.

Making false Return, Penalty 500l. and Loss of Office.

50 G. S. c.103.
§ 42. repealed.
Grand Jury to appoint Local Inspectors.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be the bounden Duty of every such Inspector General to visit each and every such Prison, and each and every such House and Establishment, once in Two Years at the least, and to report thereon, in manner required by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, and this Act; and that the Salaries and Allowances provided by the said recited Act for the Inspector General of Prisons in Ireland shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be payable and paid in Two equal Parts, to and between the Two Inspectors General to be appointed under this present Act; and that no Part of such Salary or Allowance, payable under the said recited Acts out of the Consolidated Fund, shall be at any time paid to any Inspector General until he shall produce, to the Officer who is to pay the same, a Certificate from the Chief Clerk in the said Office of the Chief Secretary, bearing Date subsequent to the Day on which such Money became due, and certifying that such Inspector has, on or before the Day of the Date of such Certificate, made the Report required by Law in that respect; and no such Certificate shall be granted until such Inspector General shall have delivered in to such Chief Clerk a Copy of the last corrected List which shall then be in such Office, with a Statement opposite to each Prison, House and Establishment therein, setting forth on what Day, Month and Year such Inspector General or his Predecessor in Office last visited and reported on the same respectively; which List, with such Statements thereon, shall be signed and dated by such Inspector General; and no such Certificate shall be so granted thereon, unless it shall appear thereby that such Inspector General has done his Duty in the Premises as fully as it was in his Power to do.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Inspector General of Prisons in Ireland shall, in any List or Return required to be made by him, knowingly state any thing false, he shall forfeit a Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be thenceforth incapable to hold the said Office, and shall lose and forfeit the same.

XVI. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, it is among other Things provided, that in every Appointment to be made of any Local Inspector of any Gaol, the Minister or Curate of the Parish where such Gaol shall be situated shall be preferred; Be it enacted, That the said recited Provision of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for every Grand Jury, in the making such Appointment, to select any Persons to be Local Inspectors as to such Grand Jury shall seem most fit and proper to discharge the Duties of the said Office: Provided always, that it may be lawful for the Grand Jury to appoint such Minister or Curate to be such Local Inspector, if such Grand Jury shall think such Minister or Curate to be a fit and proper Person for that Purpose.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in all future Appointments of Protestant Chaplains to any Gaol, the Protestant Minister or Curate of the Parish wherein such Gaols shall be situated, and in all future Appointments of Roman Catholic or Dissenting Chaplains, the Clergyman or Curate of such Persuasion respectively, who shall act within the Parish in which such Gaols respectively are situate, shall be preferred, if such Minister, Clergyman or Curate will accept such Appointment, and if there does not appear, on Examination, to be any just or reasonable Objection to such Minister, Curate or Clergyman as aforesaid.

What Ministers appointed Chaplains.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in every Gaol, House of Correction, Marshalsea, Bridewell, Penitentiary House, Sheriff's Prison and other Prison throughout Ireland, a Book shall be kept and constantly remain therein, in order that any Three or more of the Grand Jury in Execution of this Act, and also the several Officers in Attendance in such Prison, and the Keeper thereof, shall and may, from time to time, make and enter therein such Observations as they shall respectively think fit; and every Inspector, Chaplain, Physician, Surgeon, Apothecary or other Officer attending on or required to attend on such Prison, shall in his Turn insert in such Book, in his own Hand Writing, his Name and the Date of such Visit, together with any Observations which may occur to him relative to the State of the Prison and the Conduct of the Prisoners, and of the Officers of the Establishment; and every Keeper of every such Prison shall be responsible for the safe Custody of such Book, and shall, at all times when required so to do, produce the same for Inspection to the Grand Jury or any Member thereof, or to any Justice of the Peace of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, wherein such Prison shall be situate, without Fee or Reward.

Book to be kept in each Prison, in which Members of Grand Jury and Inspector, &c. are to enter Observations.

Date of Visit.

Conduct of Prisoners, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in the Appointments of Physicians, Surgeons and Apothecaries to any Gaols respectively, the attending Physicians, Surgeons and Apothecaries of the County Infirmary shall be preferred, unless such Physician, Surgeon or Apothecary shall refuse to accept such Appointment, or unless it shall appear, upon Examination, that there exists any just or reasonable Objection to any such Physician, Surgeon or Apothecary, and provided that the said County Infirmary shall be situate within Three Miles of the Gaol to which such Appointments shall be respectively made: Provided also, that such Physicians, Surgeons and Apothecaries, so appointed, shall be subject to all the Rules and Regulations contained in this Act, as well as in the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign.

Appointments of Physicians, Surgeons and Apothecaries; who are subject to 50 G. 3. c. 103.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Grand Jury in Ireland, at any Assizes or presenting Term respectively, if they shall think it proper, to appoint and † a Matron, and such inferior Female Attendant or Attendants as they shall deem necessary, for any County Prison within their respective Counties; and every such Matron and Attendant shall Grand Juries to appoint Houses of Correction in Prisons, and Keepers.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Grand Jury of any County, or County of a City or County of a Town, to appoint and appropriate such Parts of the several Gaols respectively as such Grand Jury shall think fit, to be Houses of Correction for the Custody and Punishment of convicted Prisoners; and it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury, in every such case, to appoint a Keeper or Governor of such House of Correction, with such Salary as to such Grand Jury shall seem meet; and every such Keeper or Governor of such House of Correction shall be subject and liable to, and shall obey and comply with all the Rules and Regulations prescribed for Gaolers in and by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign and this Act: Provided always, that nothing in the said recited Act or this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prevent the Governor or Keeper of the House of Correction in any County, County of a City or County of a Town, from being appointed by the Sheriffs respectively to be the Keeper or Governor of the Common Gaols within their respective Jurisdictions.

50 G. 3. c. 103.
But Sheriffs may appoint such Keepers.

Bridewells distant more than Three Miles from County Gaols to be visited by officiating Clergyman of Parish as Inspector.

XXII. And Whereas many Bridewells are situate at so great a Distance from the Gaol of the County, that it is impossible that any Benefit can be derived to such Bridewells from the Inspectors and other Officers of such Gaols respectively; Be it enacted, That the officiating Clergyman of the Established Church of and in every Parish in Ireland in which there shall be a Bridewell, which shall be distant more than Three Miles from the Gaol of the County, shall be deemed and reputed to be, and is hereby made and declared to be the Inspector of such Bridewell; and it shall be lawful to and for such Clergyman to execute the Duty of directing and superintending, according to Law, the Supply of such Bridewell with Necessaries; and all poor Prisoners therein shall be supplied with such Necessaries in the same manner and out of the same Funds as poor Prisoners in the County Gaol.

Prisoners to be sent from Bridewells to County Gaols without Delay.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Prisoner shall be detained in any Bridewell longer than Three Days from the Day of Committal, unless Two Justices of the Peace of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, shall think proper to order that such Prisoner be longer detained for the Purposes of Examination, and then only for the time mentioned in such Order, or any Renewal thereof, but that all such Prisoners shall be diligently transmitted to the County Gaol: Provided always, that if any such Bridewell shall be distant more than Twelve Miles from such County Gaol, then any such Prisoner may, if the Committing Magistrate shall so direct, be detained in such Bridewell until the First Week in the Calendar Month next after such Committal, but not longer, so that all Prisoners committed in any one Calendar Month may be sent under one Escort.

Proviso where distant more than Twelve Miles.

Poor Prisoners to be kept to work under Orders of Grand Jury, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of any Prison in Ireland shall have full Power and Authority, and he is hereby required, when practicable, to keep every poor Prisoner in such Prison to Labour of such Kind as the said Divisional Justices in in Dublin, or the Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, or, in their Default, any Three Justices of the Peace respectively, shall direct and appoint, by any Order to be made for that Purpose; and if the Work to be performed by any such poor Prisoner shall be of such a Nature as may require previous Instruction, proper Persons shall be provided to give the same, by the like Order, to whom a suitable Allowance shall be made, to be paid by Presentment on such County, County of a City or County of a Town.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Materials and Tools necessary for any such Work, and all Books and Teachers necessary for the Instruction of every such poor Prisoner, shall be in like manner provided, and the Expence thereof raised by Presentment, as aforesaid.

Tools, &c. to be provided by Presentment.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Prison in Ireland an Account shall be kept, by the Keeper of such Prison, of the Profits of the Work of each poor Prisoner therein; and One Third of such Profits shall be for the Use of such poor Prisoner, and the other Two Thirds of such Profits shall be applied in and towards the Payment of and for the several Necessaries supplied to the poor Prisoners in such Prison, as therein provided, and the Balance only shall be paid, from time to time, out of the Funds herein directed in that Behalf respectively.

Poor Prisoner to have One Third of his Earnings, and Two Thirds applied to his Maintenance.

XXVII. And Whereas it may hereafter be found expedient that new and additional Rules and Regulations for all Prisons, or for any particular Prison in Ireland, should from time to time be made, or that any Rules or Regulations established by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign should be modified so as to meet Events or Exigencies which cannot now be foreseen; Be it therefore enacted, That on Petition to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland, from the Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, or any Three Justices of the Peace for the County, City or Town in which any Prison shall be situate, and after such Inquiry made on Oath or otherwise, if any, as such Court shall think proper, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court to order, direct and ordain, that any such Rules or Regulations shall be altered, or that any new Rules and Regulations shall be made and established for the better Government of such Prisons, and the Officers thereof, and the Provisions therein, and for the Classification and Distribution of such Prisoners, and for the Separation of Male from Female Prisoners, and of Prisoners committed only for Trial from such Prisoners as shall have been convicted of Crimes, and under the Sentence of Punishment, and generally either with respect to all Prisons, or to any Kind or Description of Prisons, or to any particular Prisons or Prison in Ireland, at the Discretion of such Court; and all such Rules, so altered or established, shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect, but not otherwise, as if expressly enacted by the said recited Act or this Act; any thing in the said recited Act or in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Court of King's Bench empowered to make new Rules and Regulations on Petition of Grand Jury, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That like Petitions may be presented to the Judges of Assize at any Assizes for any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, and the same

Judges of Assize, on like Petition, may alter or make new Regulations.

† Sec.

shall be given † charge to the Grand Jury at such Assizes; and that such Grand Jury shall enquire into the Matter of such Petition, on Oath or otherwise, and shall deliver to the Court their Recommendation thereon; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Judges of Assize, in like manner, to direct that any existing Regulations may be changed or altered, or that any new Regulation or Regulations may be established for any of the Purposes aforesaid, pursuant to such Recommendation, if such Judge shall think proper so to do, by Order to be made for that Purpose; and every such Order shall be of the same Force and Effect as to all Prisons of such County, or any of them to be specified in such Order, as if made by the said Court of King's Bench.

Grand Juries (except in City and County of Dublin) may appoint not less than Six nor more than Twelve Persons, One Third being Justices or Grand Jurymen, to be a Board of Superintendance of the Gaols, &c. within the County.

Three to be a Quorum, One being a Justice; their Acts to be as valid as if done by Grand Jury or Three Grand Jurymen.

XXIX. And Whereas it may often happen that Grand Juries and Jurymen will be necessarily occupied with public Business of great Importance, both of a local and general Nature, so as to be thereby prevented from giving the requisite Attention to the Exercise of all the Powers vested in them, or the effectual Performance of the Duties required of them under the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, and under this present Act; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland (save and except the Grand Juries of the County of Dublin and the County of the City of Dublin), and any such Grand Jury are hereby authorized and empowered, if they shall think proper so to do, at each and every or any Assizes, with the Consent and Approbation of the Court or Judge at such Assizes, to appoint not less than Six nor more than Twelve Persons, One Third of whom at least shall be Justices of the Peace for the County, County of the City or County of a Town, wherein such Appointment shall take place, or Members of the said Grand Jury, to be a Board of Superintendance of every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison within such County, County of a City or County of a Town respectively, and being a Prison of such County, County of a City or Town; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury, at any subsequent Assizes for any such County, County of a City or County of a Town, to appoint other Persons to compose a new Board of Superintendance, as the case may require, or to remove any Member or Members of the existing Board, or to appoint so many new Members of any such existing Board as they shall think proper, but so as that there shall not at any time be more than Twelve Members of any such Board; and any Three or more of such Board of Superintendance, One of whom at the least shall be a Justice of the Peace, shall be in all cases competent to do and perform any matter or thing whatsoever, in execution of any Duty required by this Act to be done and performed by the Grand Jury of such County, or County of a City or Town, or by any Three or more of such Grand Jury, in the visiting, superintending and directing of any Gaol, Bridewell or House of Correction, or any other County Prison within such County, or County of a City or County of a Town, and in all other respects whatever relating to any such Gaol, House of Correction or County Prison, and to the Gaoler and Officers thereof, and to the Prisoners therein, as such Grand Jury, or any Three of them, could or might lawfully do; and every such such Act shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall be described and expressed as the Act of the whole Board of Superintendance, and shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been done by such Grand Jury, or any Three of them, under the express Provisions of this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, from time to time to make such Rules, Orders and Regulations as shall appear to the said Lord Lieutenant and the Privy Council to be requisite and necessary for the Management and Regulation of the Smithfield Penitentiary and of the Richmond Bridewell in Dublin, and for the Appointment of the Gaolers, Keepers and all other Officers of the said Penitentiary and Bridewell respectively; and such Prisoners only shall be committed to and confined in the said Penitentiary and Bridewell respectively as shall be specified and directed in and by such Rules, Orders and Regulations; and such Rules, Orders and Regulations may be, from time to time, altered and amended in like manner; and also that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of the said Privy Council, to make and give such Rules, Orders and Regulations as shall appear to the said Lord Lieutenant and the Privy Council to be requisite and necessary for the Classification of Prisoners within the Gaol of Newgate, in the City of Dublin, and also within the said Penitentiary and Bridewell respectively; and for the Separation of Male from Female Prisoners, and of Prisoners labouring under any Sickness, Disorders or Diseases, from such Prisoners as are in Health, and of Prisoners committed for Trial only from such Prisoners as shall have been convicted of any Crime or Offence, and shall be under Sentence of Punishment; and generally to make such Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Classification and Distribution of the Prisoners hereinbefore mentioned, and in all other Respects, as may conduce to the safe Custody, Health and moral Reformation of the Prisoners, as well in the said Gaol of Newgate as in the said Two Penitentiaries; and all such Rules, Orders and Regulations as shall be made with respect to the said Gaol of Newgate, shall be transmitted to the Sheriffs of Dublin, and shall be carried into Execution under the Superintendance of the said Sheriffs, who are hereby required to obey and to cause Obedience to be paid to all such Rules, Orders and Regulations as shall be so from time to time made by the said Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Person shall be lawfully convicted before any Court or Judge, or Justice of Peace, of any Offence, and shall be punishable by Imprisonment, it shall and may be lawful for such Court or Judge, or Justice, to sentence such Offender to be confined in any Penitentiary House within the County, County of a City or County of a Town, where such Offender shall be convicted; and such Offender shall and may be committed to and detained in such Penitentiary House accordingly; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXII. And Whereas by the said hereinbefore recited Act of Lord Lieutenant may make Orders for the Regulation of the Smithfield Penitentiary and Richmond Bridewell, and Appointment of Officers, and for the Classification of Prisoners, within the Prisons herein mentioned.

Offenders punishable by Imprisonment may be committed to any Penitentiary House within the County.

50 G. 3. c. 103. § 18.

Title to Lands heretofore purchased under Valuations by Juries summoned under Warrants, though improperly directed, &c. declared valid. Such Warrants in future directed to Sheriff of County where Lands lie.

Proviso as to certain Prisons and Lands herein described.

Presentments may be made for repairing or enlarging Gaols.

Lord Lieutenant may order Advances to be made out of the Consolidated Fund to the Treasurer of the County.

the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it is among other Things provided, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for building or enlarging Gaols or other Prisons therein mentioned, or any three or more of them, to issue their Warrants or Precepts for impannelling Juries for the Valuation of Lands or Tenements necessary for such Purpose, to the Sheriff of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, to return a sufficient Pannel: And Whereas Lands and Tenements have been from time to time purchased under Valuations made by such Juries, but doubts have in some Instances arisen as to the Sheriff to whom such Precept ought to have been directed; and it is expedient that such Valuations and Purchases should be established, and such Doubts prevented for the future; Be it therefore enacted, That the Title to any Lands, Grounds, Houses, Tenements or Buildings heretofore purchased under the Provisions of the said recited Act, for any of the Purposes therein mentioned, shall be and be considered good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, notwithstanding any Objection that may arise or be made thereto on account of any Warrant or Precept of any such Commissioners having been directed to a Sheriff to whom any such Warrant or Precept ought not to have been directed, and notwithstanding any Error that may have arisen from or by reason of such Misdirection in any of the subsequent Proceedings; and that from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases wherein any such Commissioners shall proceed to require a Jury to be impannelled under the said recited Act for any of the Purposes therein mentioned, the Warrant or Precept for that Purpose shall be directed to the Sheriff of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, wherein the Land, Ground, Tenements or Hereditaments so to be purchased respectively shall be situate: Provided always, that if such Prison shall belong to a County at large, and shall be situate or intended to be built within any County, County of a City or County of a Town, and the Lands, Ground, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased, shall be the Estate of or belong to the Corporation of such County of a City or County of a Town, or to any Corporation within the same, then and in every such case such Precept shall be directed to the Sheriff of such County at large.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, to present any Sum or Sums of Money to be raised for the repairing or enlarging of, or for the making any Addition to any Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison in Ireland, and to direct that such Presentment shall be raised by Half Yearly or Yearly Sums or Instalments, in like manner as Grand Juries are, by the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, authorized to do for the building of any new Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison; and that as soon as any such Presentment shall be made, or at any time after the making of such Presentment, and before the Completion of such Work, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, if he or they think proper so to do, to cause such Advances to be made out of the the Consolidated Fund to the Treasurer of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, on the Faith of such Presentment, as by the said recited Act are authorized with respect to Advances on the Faith of Presentments made for the building any new Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison; and it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to advance any Sum or Sums on the Faith of such Presentment, and all such Advances shall be made, and shall be applied and repaid in such manner, and under such Rules, Regulations and Directions, in all Respects, as are contained in the said recited Act with respect to Advances authorized to be made by the said recited Act, in case of Presentments for building any new Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Prison.

How Monies advanced, applied and repaid.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Fourteen Days next after the passing of this Act, there shall be hung up in a conspicuous manner, in the Chapels and Day Rooms of each and every Prison in Ireland, a Notice in the following Words; videlicet, "Notice is hereby given, that all Prison Fees whatsoever are abolished by Act of Parliament; and any Gaoler, Turnkey, Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace or his or their Deputy or Deputies, or other Officer, taking or demanding any Fee, Gratuity or Reward, is thereby subject to a Penalty of Five Pounds."

Notice to be put up in every Prison that Fees are abolished.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Acts and Duties to be performed by the several Grand Juries at the Assizes, under this Act, may, in the County of Dublin, be performed by the Grand Juries at the presenting Terms, duly met and impanelled.

Proviso as to Duties of Grand Juries in County of Dublin;

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act before contained shall extend to the Marshalsea of the Four Courts of the City of Dublin, nor to the Marshalsea of the City of Dublin.

and for Marshalsea Courts.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, within this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

An Act to regulate the Expences of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for Ireland. [23d June 1821.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the Expences of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, no other Charges shall be made, for any thing performed or done in the Execution of any Writ or Precept for holding an Election in Ireland, besides the Charges set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Charges for Elections in Ireland but as in Sched. (A.)

II. And be it further enacted, That no other Person, besides the Persons mentioned in the said Schedule, shall be entitled to receive any Fee or Reward for any thing performed or done in the Execution of any Writ or Precept for holding an Election, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons in Schedule (A.) only, entitled to Fees.

No Rewards,
&c. to Returning Officers.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person to be hereafter elected to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Town or Borough, shall, by himself, his Friends or Agents, or by any Person or Persons employed in his Behalf, directly or indirectly give any Fee or Reward of any Kind, or make any Payment of Money by way of Compliment or Gratuity, or upon any Account whatever, to any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer, Clerk of the Peace or Deputy Clerk of the Peace; and that every such Person or Persons, who shall so give any Fee or Reward of any Kind, or make any Payment of Money by way of Compliment or Gratuity, or upon any Account whatever, to any Sheriff or Under Sheriff, Deputy, Deputy Sheriff, Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer, Clerk of the Peace or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, shall be and is and are hereby declared to be disabled and incapacitated to serve in Parliament upon such Election for such County, City, Town or Borough.

tions, repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, and for repealing the several Acts therein mentioned, as provides that no Candidate for any County shall employ at or for any Election for the said County more hired Agents or hired Clerks than after the Rate of One Agent and One Clerk for each Barony or Half Barony in said County, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Agents, &c. to be paid as in Schedule (B.)

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Candidate at an Election for any County, City, Town or Borough, shall pay to any Barrister, Agent, Inspector or Clerk, any Sum or Sums of Money, for his Attendance or Trouble at any such Election, which shall exceed the Sum or Sums set forth in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed.

No Rewards,
&c. to be given to Agents, &c. above what is specified in Schedule (B.)

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Candidate shall give, by himself, his Friends or his Agents, or by any Person or Persons employed by him or them, any Sum or Sums of Money, Fee, retaining Fee, Office, Place or Employment, Gift or Reward, or any Promise or Security for any Money, Fee, retaining Fee, Office, Place or Employment, to any Barrister, Agent, Inspector or Clerk, for doing any thing of and concerning any Matter relating to any such Election, directly or indirectly, over and above the Sum or Sums set forth to be paid in the said Schedule to any Barrister, Agent, Inspector or Clerk, he shall be and he is hereby declared to be disabled and incapacitated to serve in Parliament upon such Election for such County, City, Town or Borough.

C A P. LIX.

An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland.

[23d June 1821.]

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the occasional Acts which have, from time to time, passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the Discharge of many Prisoners, for small Debts, by charitable Donations, great Numbers of Persons generally remain confined for Debt in different Prisons in Ireland; and it is therefore desirable to make a permanent Provision for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, under certain Restrictions: And Whereas the Duty of discharging Insolvent Debtors, heretofore principally executed by His Majesty's superior Courts and the Judges of Assize in their respective Circuits, has caused great Obstruction and Delay, in many Instances, of the ordinary Business of the said Courts and Judges; and it is deemed expedient that the Jurisdiction in all Matters of Insolvents should be exclusively vested in a Court to be constituted for that Purpose in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors receive Dividends, as under the Bankrupt Laws.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Creditor and Creditors of any such Prisoner for any Sum and Sums of Money payable by way of Annuity or otherwise at any future Time or Times, by virtue of any Bond, Covenant or other Securities, of any Nature whatsoever, may and shall be entitled to be admitted a Creditor or Creditors, and shall be entitled to receive a Dividend or Dividends of the Estate of such Prisoner, in such Manner and upon such Terms and Conditions as such Creditor or Creditors would have been entitled unto by the Laws now in force if such Prisoner had become Bankrupt; the Amount upon which such Dividend shall be calculated, and the Terms and Conditions on which the same shall be received, being first settled by the said Court, and without Prejudice in future to their respective Securities, otherwise than as the same would have been affected by a Proof made in respect thereof by a Creditor under a Commission of Bankrupt, and a Certificate obtained by the Bankrupt under such Commission.

XVI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Suit in Law be proceeded in further than an Arrest in Mesne Process, or Suit in Equity be commenced by any Assignee or Assignees of any the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner, without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall meet together pursuant to a Notice to be given Fourteen Days at the least before such Meeting, in the Dublin Gazette or other Newspaper which shall be published in the Neighbourhood of the last Residence of such Prisoner, for that Purpose, not without the Approbation of the said Court.

How far Suits not to be commenced without Consent of Majority in Value of Creditors.

XVII. And Whereas many Persons who may claim the Benefit, or be brought within the Operation of this Act, may be seized and possessed of Lands and Tenements and Hereditaments, to hold for the Term of their natural Lives, with Power of granting Leases and taking Fines, reserving small Rents on such Estate, for One, Two or Three Lives in Possession or Reversion, or for some Number of Years determinable upon Lives, or have Powers over such Real or Personal Estate, which such Prisoners could execute for their own Advantage, which said Powers ought to be executed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoners; Be it therefore enacted, That in every such case, all and every the Powers of leasing such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other such Powers as aforesaid, over such Real or Personal Estates, which are or shall be vested in any such Prisoner as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby vested in the Assignee or Assignees of the Real and Personal Estate of such Prisoner, by virtue of this Act, so far as the Prisoner could by Law vest such Power in any Person to whom he might lawfully have conveyed such Property, to be by such Assignee or Assignees executed for the Benefit of all and every the Creditors of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

When Persons claiming Benefit of Act are seized of Lands, with Power to lease, like Power extended to Assignees.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, at all times hereafter, for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Prisoner, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner, who shall be present at a Meeting to be had on Fourteen Days' Notice previously given for the Purpose hereinafter mentioned in the Dublin Gazette, if the Prisoner shall have been in Custody in the City or in the County of Dublin, and if not, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City or Place in or near which such Prisoner shall have been in such actual Custody; and with the Approbation of the said Court, to make Compositions with any Debtors or Accountants to such Prisoner, where the same shall appear necessary and reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debts as can upon such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts, and to submit to Arbitration any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons, for or on account or by reason of any Matter, Cause or Thing relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the Premises, in pursuance of this Act.

Assignees, after giving Notice in Gazette, &c. may make Composition for Debts owing to Prisoner, and submit to Arbitration.

Court may remove and appoint new Assignees in case of Death or Removal.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Assignee so appointed shall, at any time, be unwilling to act, or in case of the Death or Incapacity or Misconduct of any such Assignee, it shall be lawful to and for any Creditor of such Prisoner to apply to the said Court to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act to the original Assignee or Assignees, and the said Court shall have Power to remove such Assignee, and to appoint such new Assignee or Assignees, and to oblige any Assignee who shall be removed, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of any deceased Assignee, to account for and deliver up all such Estate and Effects, Books, Papers, Writings, Deeds and all other Evidences relating thereto, as shall remain in his or her Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act, and the Decision of the said Court thereupon shall be final and conclusive; and from and immediately after such Appointment, all the Estate and Effects, Rights and Powers of the said Prisoner, vested either in the provisional Assignee or such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, shall become, and the same † hereby vested in such new Assignee or Assignees.

† Sic.

Assignees not delivering over Balance of Property.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Assignee or Assignees, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any deceased Assignee or Assignees, shall not deliver over any Part of such Estate or Effects, or pay the Balance of the Produce of any such Estate or Effects, found to be in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees, or of such Heirs, Executors or Administrators as aforesaid, according to the Tenor of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, to order the Person or Persons so offending to be arrested, and committed to the County Gaol nearest to the Place where they shall reside, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until such Person or Persons shall have fulfilled the Duty required by this Act, or until the said Court shall make other Order to the contrary.

And be it further enacted, That the said Court shall forthwith, after such Petition and Schedule shall have been respectively filed in the said Court, cause Notice thereof to be given to the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be detained, or the Attorney or Agent of such Creditor or Creditors, and to the other Creditors named in the Schedule of such Prisoner, or such of them as the said Court shall think fit, and to be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and also, if the said Court shall think necessary, in some other Newspaper or Newspapers; and shall appoint a Day and Place for the Hearing of the Matter of such Petition; and in case such Notice as the said Court shall direct shall have been given by any Creditor of his or her Intention to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, it shall and may be lawful, both for the said Creditor and any other Creditor or Creditors of the said Prisoner, to oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner, and for that Purpose to put such Question to such Prisoner, and examine such Witnesses as the said Court shall think fit, touching the Matters contained in such Petition and Schedule, and touching such other Matters as the said Court shall be of Opinion that it may be fit and proper to inquire into, in order to the due Execution of this Act; but no Creditor shall oppose or examine the Discharge

Creditors may oppose Prisoner's Discharge, &c.

Discharge of such Prisoner, until he shall make Oath or Affidavit of his Debt, or otherwise satisfy the Court of his Right to oppose such Prisoner's Discharge, if required so to do by such Prisoner; Provided also, that at such Hearing any Creditor or Creditors so opposing may require, or the Court may, if it shall deem it necessary, order that it shall be referred to the Chief Clerk of the said Court to investigate the Accounts of the said Prisoner, and to examine into the Truth of the Schedule of such Prisoner, and to report thereon to the said Court; and the said Court may at such Hearing proceed on the other Matters in Opposition to the Discharge of such Prisoner, or adjourn the said Hearing thereof until such Officer shall have so made his Report; and in case such Prisoner shall not be opposed, and the Court shall be satisfied with the said Schedule, and that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, then and in such case such Court shall so declare, and shall order such Prisoner to be discharged from Custody forthwith, or so soon as such Prisoner shall have been in Custody at the Suit of One or more of the Persons who were Creditors at the Time of the petitioning, or who have since become Creditors in respect of Debts then growing due for such Period or Periods, not exceeding Six Months in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed from the Time of filing the Petition of such Prisoner, and shall in such Order specify the several Debts of the said Prisoner, to which such Discharge shall apply; and such Discharge shall extend to all Process issuing from any Court for any Contempt of any Court, ecclesiastical or civil, by Non-payment of Money, or of Costs or Expences in any Cause or Proceeding in any Court, ecclesiastical or civil; and in case it shall appear to such Court, that the Opposition to the Petition of such Prisoner, by any of such Creditors, is frivolous and vexatious, that then it shall and may be lawful for such Court to award such Costs to such Prisoner as shall appear unto the Court to be just and reasonable.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the said Court that such Prisoner shall, with intent to conceal the State of his Affairs, or to defeat to † Objects of this Act, have destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented, or purposely withheld, the Production of any Books, Papers or Writings relating to such of his Affairs as are subject to Investigation under this Act, or shall have kept or caused to be kept false Books, or made false Entries, or have wilfully and fraudulently altered or falsified any such Books, Papers or Writings, or shall in any respect have been guilty of Fraud, in discharging, concealing or altering any Debt due to or from the said Prisoner, or shall have fraudulently made away with, charged, mortgaged or concealed any Part of his or her Property of what Kind soever, either before or after the Commencement of his or her said Imprisonment, for the Purpose of diminishing the Sum to be divided among his or her Creditors, or of giving an undue Preference to any of the said Creditors, then it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to order that such Prisoner shall not be discharged out of Custody by virtue of this Act, or receive or be entitled to any Protection under the same, until he shall have been in Custody at the Suit of some or more of the Persons who were Creditors at the Time of his petitioning Accounts of Prisoner may be referred to an Officer of the Court.

If Prisoner not opposed, and Court is satisfied with Schedule, Prisoner to be discharged forthwith, or as soon as he shall have been in Custody Six Months.

tioning the said Court, or had since become Creditors in respect of Debts then growing due, and from whose Claims he shall be discharged by the Judgment of the said Court, for such Period or Periods, not exceeding Three Years in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed from the filing of such Prisoner's Petition to the said Court.

When Prisoners shall have contracted Debts fraudulently, &c. or put their Creditors to any unnecessary Expence, the Court may extend Time of Imprisonment to Two Years.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the said Court, that any such Prisoner shall have contracted any of his Debts fraudulently, or by means of false Pretences, or without having had any reasonable or probable Expectation, at the Time when contracted, of paying the same, or shall be indebted for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation, or for seducing the Daughter of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for a malicious Prosecution, or for any other malicious Injury, or shall have put any of his or her Creditors to any unnecessary Expence by any vexatious or frivolous Defence to any Suit for recovering the same, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to order that such Prisoner shall not be discharged out of Custody by virtue of this Act, or be entitled to any Benefit or Protection under the same, as to any Debt so contracted, or as to any Damages so incurred, or as to any Debt for recovering of which he shall so have occasioned unnecessary Expence as aforesaid, until he shall have been in Custody at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors whose Debts shall have been so contracted, or Damages so incurred, or who shall have been so put to Expence, for such Period or Periods not exceeding Two Years in the whole, as the said Court shall direct, to be computed as aforesaid.

Court may order Creditors to pay Prisoners any Sum not exceeding 4s. per Week.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all cases where such Prisoner shall not be ordered to be discharged forthwith, but to be liable to Imprisonment, at the Suit of his or her Creditor or Creditors, or of any or either of them, it shall be lawful for the said Court, in case it shall think right under the Circumstances of the case so to do, on the Application of such Prisoner, to order the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, to pay to such Prisoner such Sum or Sums not exceeding the Rate of Four Shillings by the Week in the whole, at such times and in such manner as the said Court shall direct; and that on Failure of Payment thereof, as directed by the said Court, such Prisoner shall be forthwith discharged from Custody, at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors so failing to pay the same.

If not paid, Prisoner discharged.

In what case, after Prisoner's Committal, Affidavits of Creditors received in Opposition to Discharge,

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Prisoner, after his Commitment to actual Custody as aforesaid, shall be removed by any Writ of Habeas Corpus or otherwise, from the Place of such actual Custody, or shall be rendered in discharge of his Bail, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to receive the Affidavits of any Creditor or Creditors, or of any other Person or Persons in Opposition to the Discharge of such Prisoner under this Act; and also, if such Court shall think fit, to permit Interrogatories to be filed for the Examination or Cross Examination of every Person making or joining in such Affidavit; and also to stay the Discharge of every such Prisoner, until such Interrogatories shall be fully answered to the Satisfaction of such Court:

Provided

Provided always, that this shall not extend to any Prisoner who shall have been in such actual Custody or arrested within the County of Dublin or the County of the City of Dublin.

except Dublin and County.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That such Order of the said Court for the Discharge of such Prisoner shall, in all cases, be final and conclusive, and shall not be reviewed by the said Court, unless such Court so making the said Order shall, after such Order made, see good and sufficient Cause to believe that such Adjudication, and the Order founded thereon, shall have been made on false Evidence, or otherwise fraudulently obtained, in which case it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor of the said Prisoner to apply to the said Court to direct the said Prisoner to be brought again before the Court; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, upon due Notice to be given by such Creditor, to rehear the said Matter, and to receive such further or new Evidence, and make such further Order, and as to the said Court shall seem fit, in execution of and according to the Powers in this Act contained, and to proceed thereon as if the same had been the original Hearing of the case of such Prisoner: Provided always, that in case such Court shall entertain any Doubt touching any Matter alleged against such Prisoner at the Time of his final Examination before mentioned, to prevent the Discharge, or touching the Examination of such Prisoner, it shall be lawful for such Court to remand such Prisoner to Custody, and afterwards to cause such Prisoner to be again brought up for Examination, as often as † the said Court shall seem fit.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Prisoner who shall apply for his or her Discharge, under the Provisions of this Act, or any Persons taking any Oath under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully swear falsely in any Oath to be so taken, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he or she so offending shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall suffer such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Perjury.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That when an Order for the Discharge of any Prisoner shall be made by the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the said Court may also order, that a Judgment shall be entered up against such Prisoner, in some one of the superior Courts in Dublin, in the Name of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, or of such Provisional Assignee as aforesaid, if no other Assignee shall then have been appointed and shall have accepted the Office, for the Amount of the Debts of such Prisoner which shall at the Time of such Order remain due and unpaid, and from which such Prisoner shall be discharged by such Order, and the said Prisoner shall execute a Warrant of Attorney to authorize the entering up such Judgment, and such Judgment shall have the Force of a Recognizance, and such Order of the Court established by virtue of this Act shall be a sufficient Authority to the proper Officer for entering up such Judgment; and when it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court, that such Prisoner is of Ability to pay such Debts, or any Part thereof, or that he is dead, leaving Assets for that Purpose, the said Court may permit Execution to be taken out upon such Judgment, or put in force any other Power given by this Act against the Property acquired by such Prisoner after his Discharge, for such Sum of Money as, under all the Circumstances of such Prisoner's Case, the Court shall think proper, and the said Court shall order such Sum to be distributed rateably amongst the Creditors; and such further Proceedings shall and may be had, according to the Discretion of the said Court, from time to time, until the Whole of the Debts due to the several Persons against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained shall be fully paid and satisfied, together with such Costs as such Court shall think fit to award; and no Scire Facias shall be necessary to revive such Judgment on account of any Lapse of Time, but Execution shall at all times issue thereon, by virtue of the Order of the said Court: Provided always, that in case any such Application against such Prisoner shall appear to the Court to be ill founded and vexatious, it shall be lawful for the Court not only to refuse to make any Order on such Application, but also to dismiss the same, with such Costs as to the Court shall appear reasonable.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That where any Prisoner shall be in Custody in any County Gaol or other Gaol or Prison in Ireland, except in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, upon any Process whatsoever, out of any of His Majesty's superior Courts in Dublin, or out of any Court whatsoever in Ireland, then and in such case, upon Petition being made to the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors by such Prisoner, in manner directed by this Act, and upon such Schedule being delivered into the said Court as is required by this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court, and the said Court is hereby authorized and required, on the Application of such Prisoner, to make a Rule or Order, to cause such Prisoner to be brought to and to appear at the Court House in the Assize Town for the County, County of a City or County of a Town, where such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, on such Day and at such Time as shall be mentioned and specified in such Order, not being more than Four Calendar Months after the Date of such Order; and the Expence of conveying such Prisoner to any such Assize Town, in every case where the Gaol in which such Prisoner shall be confined shall not be situate within such Assize Town, not exceeding One Shilling a Mile, shall be paid to the Keeper or Gaoler or Officer who shall bring such Prisoner to such Assize Town, in Obedience to such Rule or Order, out of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, if the same shall be sufficient to pay such Expence, and if not, then such Expence shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in which such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, as the same shall be directed or ordered by the Commissioner of the said Court before whom such Prisoner shall be brought; and the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, is hereby empowered and required to present the Amount thereof at the Assizes next ensuing the Day mentioned in such Rule or Order; and Notice of every such Petition and Schedule of such Prisoners, and also of such Rule or Order of the Court for bringing such Prisoner to such Assize Town thereupon, shall be given in manner required by this Act, to all and every the several Persons required quired to have Notice of such Petition as aforesaid, Fourteen Days at the least before the Day mentioned in such Order, for the Appearance of such Prisoner at such Assize Town.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That on such Day, so appointed by Order of the said Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it shall be lawful for any one Commissioner of the said Court, and he is hereby authorized and required to attend at the Court House in such Assize Town, and to proceed on such Day, and from Day to Day, if requisite, in hearing the Matter of the Petition of any and every such Prisoner or Prisoners, who shall appear at or be brought to such Assize Town, and to pronounce any such Judgment, and to make all such Orders, and to give all such Directions, and to do all such other Matters and Things requisite for the discharging or remanding of any and every such Prisoner, and for the Assignment and Application of the Estate and Effects of any and every such Prisoner; and such Commissioner shall have such Power to discharge or to remand any and every such Prisoner, and in all other Respects to act and do with respect to any and every such Prisoner, and with respect to the Petition of any and every such Prisoner, and the Matter of the same, and with respect to the Estate and Effects of any and every such Prisoner, and with respect to the Creditors of any and every such Prisoner, as the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors could or might do under or by virtue of this Act, if such Petition had been presented to the said Court in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court in Dublin, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Judgments, Orders, Directions, Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things, for or relating to the discharging or remanding of any and every such Prisoner, so made, given, taken or done by such Commissioner, shall be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Judgments, Orders, Directions, Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things had been done by the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Dublin, in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and the same shall be made a Record of the Proceedings in such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors at Dublin, and shall be transmitted to such Court, signed by such Commissioner, to be a Record of the said Court, and to be kept as such among the Records thereof.

Commissioner to attend at such Court House, and give such Relief to Prisoners, or otherwise act in respect of them as if they appeared in the Insolvent Court in Dublin.

The same to be of Record in the Insolvent Court.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That one of the said Commissioners of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or each of the said Commissioners alternately, shall, from time to time, make a Circuit or Circuits to, and give his Attendance at the several Assize Towns at which any Prisoner or Prisoners shall be ordered to appear in manner aforesaid, so that there shall be Three such Circuits in each Year, if requisite; and that while one of the said Commissioners shall be making and attending on such Circuit, the other of the said Commissioners shall be attendant and presiding in the said Court in Dublin; and the Time and Manner of making such Circuits, and the Officers necessary to attend the Commissioners making the same, shall be regulated in such manner as shall be agreed on between the Two Commissioners of the said Court, with the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

be taken and remanded to Custody, notwithstanding any such Discharge; and thereupon, if upon Examination by the said Court, and hearing as well the said Assignee or Assignees as the said Prisoner, in case he shall appear, or the said Assignee or Assignees only, in case such Prisoner shall not appear, due Notice having been given to him, it shall appear to the said Court that the Contents of such Petition are true; then and in such case such Court shall so declare and adjudge, and shall thereupon order the said Prisoner to be apprehended and remanded to Custody, to the same Prison from which such Prisoner shall have been discharged, until he shall convey, assign and transfer such Stock, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes, Legacies or other Choses in Action, or other Property, or so much thereof as the Court shall direct, towards the Satisfaction of such Judgment, to such Assignee or Assignees, for the general Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner.

When Persons in trust for Prisoner after Discharge, become possessed of Property, Court to give notice and make Order for retaining such Property in the Hands of any Person or Body Corporate.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate, shall, after the Discharge of any such Prisoner out of Custody as aforesaid, become possessed of, or have under his, her or their Power or Controul, any Stock in the Public Funds, or any Legacy, Money due or growing due, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bank Notes, Securities for Money, Goods, Chattels or any other Property whatsoever, belonging to such Prisoner, or held in Trust for him, or for his Use and Benefit, or to which such Prisoner shall be in any way entitled; or in case any such Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate, shall be in any manner indebted to such Prisoner, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, upon the Application of any Assignee or Creditor of such Prisoner, to cause Notice to be given to such Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate, directing him or them to hold and retain the said Property, till the said Court shall make further Order concerning the same; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court further to order such Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate, to deliver over such Property and to pay such Debts as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, into the Bank of Ireland, with the Privity of the Chief Clerk of the said Court, or to the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, for the general Benefit of his Creditors entitled to claim under such Judgment, entered up by Order of the said Court as aforesaid: Provided always, that in case no such further Order shall be made by the said Court within Three Calendar Months next after the Date of such Notice, then and from thenceforth such Notice shall be null and void altogether.

Limitation of such Order.

Persons admitted Attornies or Solicitors may act as Attornies or Agents on Behalf of Prisoners, without Fee.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Persons, being sworn and admitted Attornies in any of the superior Courts, or Solicitors in the Court of Chancery, to practise in the Court which shall be established by virtue of this, as Attornies or Agents on Behalf of such Prisoners in such actual Custody as aforesaid, or of their Creditors or other Suitors of the said Court respectively, without the Payment of any Fee or Gratuity whatsoever; and that in case any Person, not sworn and admitted as aforesaid, shall practise in the said Court as an Attorney or Agent on the Behalf of any Prisoner in such actual actual Custody as aforesaid, or of any Creditor or other Person, he shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Contempt of the said Court.

XL. And be it further enacted, That in cases wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the solemn Affirmation of any Person being a Quaker shall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Person making such Affirmation, who shall be convicted of wilful false Affirmation, shall incur and suffer such and the same Penalties as are inflicted and imposed upon Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Affirmation of a Quaker

XLI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Prisoner shall, with Intent to defraud his Creditor or Creditors, wilfully and fraudulently omit in his Schedule as aforesaid any Effects or Property whatsoever, or shall retain or except out of the Schedule, as Wearing Apparel, Bedding, Working Tools and Implements, and other Necessaries, more in Value than Fifteen Pounds, every such Person so offending, and any Person aiding and assisting him to do the same, shall, upon being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Offender shall have been so tried and convicted to sentence such Offender to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour for any Period of Time not exceeding Three Years.

Prisoner wilfully omitting,
&c. in Schedule, (except Wearing Apparel,
&c. not exceeding 15l.) subject to Three Years' Imprisonment.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Affidavits to be used before the said Court, or any Commissioner thereof, shall and may be sworn before the said Court or any such Commissioner, or before any of the superior Courts of Law or any Officer of the said Court, who may be authorized to take Affidavits, or any Master Extraordinary in Chancery or Commissioner for taking Affidavits in any of the superior Courts of Law in Dublin; and that no Conveyance, Assignment, Letter of Attorney, Affidavit or other Proceedings before or under any Order of the said Court, shall be liable to or chargeable with the Payment of any Stamp or other Duty whatsoever.

Before whom Affidavits are to be sworn.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Three Shillings and no more shall be paid to any Printer or Proprietor of any Newspaper, for the Insertion of any Advertisement hereinbefore directed to be inserted in any Newspaper; and all Printers and Proprietors of Newspapers are hereby required to insert the same on Payment of the said Sum of Three Shillings for the Insertion thereof, in such Form as the said Court shall, from time to time, direct; and that no such Advertisement shall be liable to the Payment of or chargeable or charged with any Stamp or other Duty whatsoever.

No Proceeding liable to Stamp Duty.

Rate for Insertion of Advertisements, 3s.

No Stamp Duty.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioner, Clerk of the Peace, Officer or other Person in anywise concerned in the Execution of any Duties or Powers under this Act, shall, on any Account or under any Pretence whatsoever, take, accept or receive any Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for or in respect of any Matter or Thing done by him in or about the Execution of the said Duties or Power, save as in this Act is expressly provided; and if any such Person shall offend herein, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

No Fees for Duties performed under this Act.

XLV. And

Powers of Commissioners under 53 G. S. c. 138. 54 G. S. c. 114. 56 G. S. c. 126. continued as to Persons discharged under these Acts.

XLV. And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers given to the superior Courts in Dublin respectively, by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, and of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth, and of one other Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, to amend the said Act of the Fifty third Year, should be continued and vested in the Court established by virtue of this Act, in so far as any of the same relate to the Persons who have already obtained their Discharge by virtue of those Acts or any of them, and their Estate and Effects; Be it further enacted, That the Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall and may exercise all such Powers, and do all such Acts, and make all such Orders, respecting Persons who have already obtained their Discharge by virtue of the said recited Acts, or any of them, or their Estate and Effects, or their respective Assignee or Assignees, or the Provisional Assignee appointed by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, as might have been exercised, done and made by the said Courts respectively, by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, in case the said recited Acts had been continued by this Act.

Former Records to be delivered over to the Chief Clerk.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Records, Papers and Documents of and concerning the Discharge of Insolvents, by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, shall, immediately after the Time when the Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall have been fully constituted and established as aforesaid, be delivered over to the Chief Clerk of the said last mentioned Court, by the Officer or Officers, or other Persons having the Custody of the same, and which said Records shall be deemed and taken to be Records of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act.

Proviso as to Assignees of Effects of Officers of the Army or Navy, &c. or Beneficed Clergymen.

XLVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to entitle the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, being an Officer of the Army or Navy, or in the Naval or Military Service of the East India Company, or a Beneficed Clergyman or Curate, to the Pay or Pension of such Officer, or to the Income of such Benefice or Curacy, for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for such Assignee or Assignees to apply for and obtain a Sequestration of the Profit of any such Benefice for the Payment of the Debts of any such Clergyman, and the Order for the Discharge of such Clergyman shall be a sufficient Warrant for granting of such Sequestration, without any Writ or other Proceedings to authorize the same; and such Sequestration shall accordingly be issued as the same might have been issued upon any Writ of Levari facias, founded upon any Judgment against such Clergyman: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Court to order such Portion of the Pay or Half Pay or Pension of any such Officer of the Army or Navy, or Naval or Military Service of the East India Company, as on Communication from the said Court to the Secretary of War or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or the Court of Directors of the United East India Company, he or they may respectively consent to by Writing under the Hand of the said Secretary at War, Sequestration of Profit of Benefice may be applied for. Portion of Pay of Officers may be obtained by Application.

War, or the Lords Commissioners or Secretary of the Admiralty, or the said Secretary of the Court of Directors, to be applied in Payment of his Debts, and for that Purpose to be paid to his Assignee or Assignees; and such Order and Consent being lodged in the Office of the Paymaster of His Majesty's Forces, or of the Treasurer of the Navy, or of the said Secretary of the said Court of Directors, as the case shall require, such Paymaster or Treasurer or Secretary shall give Directions accordingly, and such Portion of the Pay, Half Pay or Pension of such Officer, as shall be specified in such Order and Consent, shall be paid to his Assignee or Assignees, until the said Court shall make Order to the contrary.

Proceedings.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debts due to His Majesty or His Successors, or to any Debt or Penalty with which any such Prisoner shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or of any Person for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise or Stamps, or any of them, or any Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other Public Officer upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise or Stamps, or any other Branches of Public Revenue, unless Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall certify under their Hands their Consent to such Discharge.

Act not to extend to Crown Debtors, unless Treasury give Consent.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who may now or shall hereafter be imprisoned under or by virtue of any Writ of Capias; in or on any immediate Extent or Extents issued and remaining in force, at the Instance or for the Benefit and Reimbursement of any Surety or Sureties, or other Person or Persons, or the Inhabitants of any Parish, Ward or Place, who shall or may have advanced and paid the Debt to the Crown, and by reason whereof the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may not be authorized to give their Consent as last aforesaid, to apply to the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, for his, her or their Discharge, giving One Month's previous Notice in Writing to the Surety or Sureties, or Person or Persons aforesaid, or to the Churchwardens of the Parish, Ward or Place, at whose Instance or for whose Benefit respectively such Extent or Extents shall remain in force, of the Intention of such Person or Persons so imprisoned to make such Application, and an Enumeration and Description of all and every the Property, Debts and Effects whatsoever of such Person or Persons, in his, her or their own Possession or Power, or in the Possession or Power of any other Person or Persons for his, her or their Use, and for the said Court to whom such Application shall be made, to order such Person or Persons to be brought before them, or before any Baron of the said Court, to be examined upon Oath touching and concerning his, her or their Property and Effects; and if such Person or Persons respectively shall upon such Examination make a full Disclosure of all his, her or their Property and Prisoners under Writ of Capias, in Cases of Extents as herein mentioned, may apply to the Barons of Exchequer to be discharged.

and Effects, and it shall otherwise appear, to the Satisfaction of the said Court, reasonable and proper that such Person or Persons shall be no longer imprisoned under such Writ, it shall be lawful for such Court or Baron to order a Writ of Supersedeas quoad Corpus to be issued out of the said Court, for the Liberation of such Person or Persons from such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no such Liberation as aforesaid, of any Debtor so in Custody under an Extent, shall be held or deemed to satisfy or supersede such Extent or any Proceedings thereon, except as to such Imprisonment as aforesaid, or to discharge the Debt or Debts for which such Person or Persons shall be so imprisoned.

Uncertificated Bankrupts not entitled to Discharge under this Act, unless in Custody for Three Years.

L. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Prisoner against whom any Commission of Bankrupt shall have issued and shall remain in force, and who shall not have obtained a Certificate of his or her Conformity to the several Statutes concerning Bankrupts under such Commission, shall be entitled to be discharged by virtue of this Act, from any Debt for which such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody, and which might have been proved under such Commission, unless such Prisoner shall have been so detained in Prison for the Space of Three Years before the Time when such Prisoner shall apply for his or her Discharge under this Act.

Person having taken Benefit of Insolvent Act, not entitled to further Relief within Five Years, unless in the Cases herein mentioned.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have been at any Time discharged by virtue of this Act, or of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall again be entitled to the Benefit thereof, within the Space of Five Years after such Discharge, unless Three Fourths in Number and Value of the Creditors against whom such Person shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act shall signify his or her Assent to such Discharge, or it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, that such Person has, since his or her former Discharge, endeavoured by Industry and Frugality to pay all just Demands upon him or her, and has incurred no unnecessary Expence, and that the Debts which such Person has incurred subsequently to such former Discharge have been necessarily incurred for the Maintenance of such Person, or his or her Family, or that the Insolvency of such Person has arisen from Misfortune, or Inability to acquire Subsistence for himself or herself, and his or her Family.

Mode of Proceeding with Prisoners of unsound Mind.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall at any Time be a Prisoner in any such Prison as aforesaid, upon any such Process as aforesaid, shall be or become of unsound Mind, and therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act, in such manner as he or she might have done, if of sound Mind, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison shall forthwith require Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, City or Place, wherein such Prison shall be, to attend at the said Prison, and inquire into the State of Mind of such Prisoner; and thereupon, and also in case any such Justices shall receive Information by other Means, that any such Prisoner is of unsound Mind as aforesaid, such Justices shall go to the said Prison, and by their own View, and by Examination on Oath of such Person or Persons as they shall think fit to examine, (which Oath the said Justices are hereby empowered to administer,) shall inquire into the State of Mind

Mind of such Prisoner; and if it shall appear to such Justices upon such Inquiry that such Prisoner is of unsound Mind, and therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act in such a manner as a Person of sound Mind might do, such Justices shall forthwith make a Record of the Fact, which Record shall contain the Names of the Witnesses who shall by such Justices have been examined, and such Justices shall certify the same to the Court to be established by virtue of this Act; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Court, at the Instance of any Person or Persons, on Behalf of such Prisoner, to order Notice to be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and in Two or more public Newspapers usually circulated in the Neighbourhood of such Prison, and in the Neighbourhood of the usual Residence of such Prisoner before he or she was committed to such Prison, as the said Court shall see fit; and shall in such Order specify and direct, that Application will be made to such Court for the Discharge of such Prisoner, on any Day to be specified in such Order, being Fourteen Days at least from the Day of Publication of such one of such Gazettes and Newspapers containing such Notice as shall be last published; which Notice, together with Service of the like Notice on the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody, or his, her or their Attorney or Attornies in such Suit, shall be deemed sufficient to authorize the said Court to proceed to the Discharge of such Prisoner, if otherwise entitled to such Discharge, according to the true Intent and Meaning of such Act; and such Court shall proceed accordingly, and shall discharge such Prisoner, and do all other Acts under this Act, in case it shall appear that such Prisoner might have obtained his or her Discharge under this Act if of sound Mind.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That in every such case, where any such Prisoner shall be or become of unsound Mind as aforesaid, all and every Estate, Right, Title, Interest in Law or Equity, real or personal, Power, Benefit or Emolument whatsoever, which, if such Prisoner were of sound Mind, could or ought to be assigned by such Prisoner, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, shall by force and virtue of the said Order for the Discharge of such Person be vested in the provisional Assignee of the said Court, as fully and effectually, and in the same Plight and Manner, and with all and every the same Consequences and Effects, both in Fact and in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Prisoner had been of sound Mind, and had duly conveyed the same to such provisional Assignee at the Time and in Manner hereinbefore provided.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Clerk of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act shall on the reasonable Request of any such Prisoner, or of any Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner, or his, her or their Attorney, produce and shew to such Prisoner, Creditor or Creditors, or his, her or their Attorney, at such Times as the said Court shall direct, such Petition, Schedule, Order and Judgment, and all other Orders and Proceedings made and had in such Matter; and that a true Copy of every such Petition, Schedule, Order, Judgment and other Proceedings, signed by the Chief Clerk in whose Custody the same shall be, or his Deputy, certifying the same to be a true ‘ LV. And Whereas the Estates, both Real and Personal, of any Prisoner who may be discharged by virtue of this Act, may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the Schedule before directed to be delivered on Oath by such Prisoner, or the Assistance of such Prisoner may be necessary to adjust, make out, receive or manage his Estate or Effects, for the Benefit of his or her Creditors;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Assignee and Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner, who shall obtain his or her Discharge in pursuance of this Act, from time to time to apply to the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, that such Prisoner may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his or her Estate and Effects by such Court; and in case such Prisoner shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Court to be examined by such Court, if the Court shall think fit so to order, or appearing before such Court shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such Questions as shall be put to him or her, relating to the Discovery of his or her said Estate and Effects, then and in any of such cases it shall be lawful for such Court, by Warrant, to commit such Prisoner so offending to the Common Gaol of any County or Place, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Time as he or she shall submit himself or herself to such Court, and answer upon Oath or otherwise as shall be required, to all such lawful Questions as shall by such Court be put or ordered or † to be put to him or her, for the Purposes aforesaid.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That each and every such Warrant shall expressly state the Cause for which the said Prisoner shall have been so committed, and that a Copy thereof shall be given to every such Prisoner, and that it shall and may be lawful to every such Prisoner to apply by Petition to such Court, praying to be brought either before the Assistant Barrister or before such Court according to the Tenor of the former Order of the said Court and to be examined as aforesaid; and every such Prisoner submitting himself or herself to the said Court, and answering upon Oath or otherwise, as shall be required, to all such lawful Questions as shall by such Court be ordered to be put to him or her for the Purposes aforesaid, shall thereby be freed and cleared from the Contempt for which he shall have been committed.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or any one Commissioner of the said Court, shall immediately after the End of Six Calendar Months next after the Appointment of an Assignee or Assignees under this Act, at the Request of any one or more Creditor or Creditors, summon such Assignee or Assignees before such Court or Commissioner, and examine such Assignee or Assignees upon Oath or otherwise, touching his, her or their Receipts and Payments, and shall thereupon order the Money in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees to be paid into the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit Credit of such Matter, with the Privy of the Chief Clerk of the said Court, and that such Dividend be made of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner as the said Court may think proper; and in case any Dividend or Dividends shall remain in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees for the Space of Twelve Months next following the declaring thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Court, and such Court, or any one Commissioner thereof, is hereby authorized to order and direct that such unclaimed Dividend or Dividends shall be immediately paid into the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid; and in Default of Payment of such Dividend or Dividends by the Time by the said Court to be for that Purpose limited, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court to order such summary Remedy for the Purpose of a Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Assignee or Assignees, in the Name of such Creditor as shall desire the same, as to the said Court shall seem proper; and if no sufficient Distress can be found, then and in such case the said Court shall be at liberty to commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, without Bail or Mainprize, there to remain until the said Court shall make other Order to the contrary.

Dividends remaining in Hand for Twelve Months to be paid into Bank; or Distress.

If no Distress, Imprisonment.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which under the Provisions of this Act shall be lodged in the Bank of Ireland, shall be so lodged with the Privy of the Chief Clerk of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, to the Credit of the Matter in which the same shall be so lodged; and the same shall be subject to the Orders of the said Court, and shall from time to time, as Justice shall require, be drawn out of the said Bank by the Drafts of the said Chief Clerk, drawn under and in pursuance of the Orders of the said Court, authenticated by Copies of such Orders respectively dated and signed by the said Commissioner of the said Court, which Copies shall remain, together with such Drafts, in the said Bank; and that any such Draft shall be void unless presented for Payment within One Calendar Month from the Date of such Copy of such Order, and the same shall be expressed in every such Order.

How Money paid into Bank drawn out by Chief Clerk of the Court.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Distress, made under the Authority of this Act, shall be replevied, it shall be sufficient for the Creditor in whose Name such Distress was made, in his Avowry to set forth a Copy of the Order of the said Court under which such Distress was so made, without any other Cause, Matter or Thing whatsoever, and the same shall be and be deemed, taken and held to be a good and sufficient Justification of such Distress, and to entitle such Creditor to Judgment, and his Costs, and a Writ of Retorno habendo.

In Replevin on Distress, Avowry to set forth Order of Court as Justification.

LX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which the said Court is by this Act authorized to award Costs against any Person or Persons, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to cause such Costs to be recovered from such Person or Persons in the same manner as Costs awarded by a Rule of any of the superior Courts at Dublin may be recovered.

Costs how recovered.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who have been or shall be discharged under any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or under this Act, from Contempts of any Court for Nonpayment of Money or Costs, shall be deemed and taken to have been and to be discharged, not only from Costs ordered to be paid, but also from all Costs which such Persons would be liable to pay in consequence or by reason of such Contempts, or on paying the same; and also that all Persons from whose Demands for Costs any Persons shall be discharged by virtue of this or any former Act or Acts, shall be deemed and taken to be Creditors of such last mentioned Persons, and entitled to the Benefit of all the Provisions made for Creditors by this Act, or such Act or Acts.

LXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to defeat the Proceedings on any Commission of Bankrupt which may be issued against any Prisoner who may claim the Benefit of this Act, before such Prisoner shall have obtained an Order for his Discharge under this Act; but that every such Commission shall have relation to avoid any Assignment of the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner under this Act, as such Commission would have had to avoid any Assignment by such Prisoner if this Act had not been made, but not further or otherwise.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

An Act for exempting Ships in Ballast in the South Sea Trade from certain Tonnage Duties. [23d June 1821.]

55 G. 3. c. 57.
§ 5.

No Duty on Tonnage of Vessels in Ballast engaged in the South Sea
Trade.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the Provisions of former Acts granting exclusive Privileges of Trade to the South Sea Company, and to indemnify the said Company for the Loss of such Privileges, it is enacted, that there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon Ships or Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, entering Outwards or Inwards at any Port within the United Kingdom to or from any Port or Place within the Limits of the sole and exclusive Trade heretofore granted to the South Sea Company, a Duty of Customs of One Shilling and Sixpence upon every Ton Burthen of every such Ship or Vessel: And Whereas it is expedient to exempt Ships and Vessels in Ballast only, entering Outwards or Inwards at any Port within the United Kingdom to or from any Port or Place formerly within the said Limits; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, no Duty of Customs shall be charged or payable upon or in respect of the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel in Ballast only, entering Outwards or Inwards at any Port within the United Kingdom to or from any Port or Place

Place within the Limits of the sole and exclusive Trade heretofore granted to the South Sea Company; any thing in the before recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXI.

An Act to regulate the Appropriation of unclaimed Shares of Prize Money belonging to Soldiers or Seamen in the Service of the East India Company. [23d June 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS divers Sums of Money belonging to Officers and Soldiers employed in the Service of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, under and by virtue of divers Charters and Acts of Parliament, authorizing them to raise and maintain a Military Force in the East Indies, and other the Parts mentioned in such Charters, or some of them; and divers other Sums of Money belonging to Commanders, Officers and Crews of Ships hired by or belonging to the said United Company, which said several Sums of Money have arisen from, or have become distributable in respect of Services in War, now remain and are in the Hands of Prize Agents and other Persons: And Whereas it is expedient that all unclaimed Shares of such Money should be appropriated as hereinafter is provided; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Shares and Share of Booty, Prize Money, Head Money, Bounty Money and Salvage Money, and of Money arisen from or distributable in respect of any Capture or other warlike Service whatsoever, belonging to Officers or Soldiers, or to any Officer or Soldier in, or having been in the Service of the said Company, in whatever Service the same may have accrued, now remaining in the Hands of any Prize Agent or Agents, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, shall be paid over to the said United Company in London, or at any of their Settlements abroad, according to the Residence of the Party or Parties paying the same, or as the Court of Directors of the said United Company shall direct; and all Sums of Money, when so paid over, shall be applied to the Fund established by the Right Honourable Robert late Lord Clive, for the Relief of Persons and the Widows of Persons in the Military Service of the said United Company, commonly called “Lord Clive’s Fund,” for the Purpose and Objects of the said Fund, according to the Rules and Regulations for the time being thereof; subject nevertheless to be refunded without Interest to any Person or Persons entitled to the same, and establishing his, her or their Claim or Claims thereto, to the Satisfaction of the Court of Directors of the said Company, or of the Governor and Council of the Settlement where the same shall have been paid over to the said Company.

Prize Money, &c. belonging to Soldiers, remaining in Hands of Agents and others, to be paid over to the East India Company.

Application of the Money so paid over.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every Shares and Share of Booty, Prize Money, Head Money, Bounty Money and Salvage Money, and of Money arisen from or distributable in respect of any Capture or other warlike Service whatsoever, belonging to Commanders, Officers, Sailors or other Persons, or to any Prize Money, &c. belonging to Seamen, in the Hands of Agents and others, to be paid over to the East India Company.

Commander, Officer, Sailor or other Person, serving or who may have served on board of any Ship or Vessel in the Service of the said Company, whether hired or belonging to the said Company, in whatsoever Service the same may have accrued, now remaining in the Hands of any Prize Agent or Agents, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, shall be paid over to the said United Company in London, or at any of their Settlements abroad, according to the Residence of the Party or Parties paying the same, or as the Court of Directors of the said United Company shall direct; and all Sums of Money when so paid over shall be applied to the Hospital Fund established for the Relief of Persons and Widows of Persons belonging to Ships and Vessels in the Service of the said United Company, commonly called "Poplar Hospital," for the Purposes and Objects of the said last mentioned Fund, according to the Rules and Regulations for the time being thereof; subject nevertheless to be refunded without Interest to any Person or Persons entitled to the same, and establishing his, her or their Claim or Claims thereto, to the Satisfaction of the Court of Directors of the said Company, or of the Governor and Council of the Settlement where the same shall have been paid over to the said Company.

An Act to regulate the Times for holding the General Sessions of the Peace, in the several Counties in Ireland.

36 G. 3. (1.)

38 G. 3. (1.)

39 G. 3. (1.)

‘ WHEREAS the Recovery of Small Debts by Civil Bill, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary Way, at the Sessions of the Peace of the several Counties at large within Ireland, except the County of Dublin; and also under Two Acts, passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty eighth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to amend the said recited Act of the Thirty sixth Year aforesaid, has been found very beneficial to the King’s Subjects in Ireland: And Whereas the ordinary Business of the Sessions of the Peace, and of the Assistant Barristers, has, from various Causes, considerably increased, and by reason thereof it is found inconvenient to the Public, and to the Practitioners attending Courts of Quarter Sessions, that the Quarter Sessions of the Peace should be holden at the Periods now required by Law; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the General Sessions of the Peace shall be holden in every County at large in Ireland (except the County of Dublin) Four Times in the Year, in each of the Two Divisions of every such County, at the Times following; that is to say, One General Session of the Peace, in some One Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day between the Fifth and the Twelfth Day of January in each Year; and One other of such Sessions, in the other Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day within Fourteen Days from the First Day of such former Session; One other of such General Sessions of the Peace, in some one Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day in Easter Week, and One other of such Sessions, in the other Division of every such County, shall commence within Fourteen Days from the First Day of such Session last mentioned; One other of such General Sessions of the Peace, in some one Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day after the Fifth Day next ensuing the last Day of Trinity Term,

General Sessions to be held in Two Divisions of each County, except Dublin, Four Times in the Year, at the Periods herein mentioned.

Term, and before the Twelfth Day from the said last Day of the said Term; and One other of such Sessions, in the other Division of every such County, shall commence within Fourteen Days from the First Day of such Sessions last mentioned; and One other of such General Sessions of the Peace, in some one Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day in the Month of October, between the Tenth and Eighteenth Days of the said Month; and One other of such Sessions, in the other Division of every such County, shall commence on some Day within Fourteen Days from the First Day of such Session last mentioned.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to alter or affect the Manner or the Time, as now by Law provided, of determining and making known the Periods at which the several Sessions shall be held.

III. And be it further enacted, That all and every the several Sessions which shall be held as aforesaid, shall be continued from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until they shall be finished respectively.

Time of holding Sessions made known, as at present.

Sessions continued from Day to Day.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to enable Justices of the Peace to act as such, in certain cases, out of the Limits of the Counties in which they actually are.

[2d July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to enable Justices of the Peace to act as such, in certain cases, out of the Limits of the Counties in which they actually are, it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace acting for any County at large, to act as such at any Place within any City, Town or Precinct, being a County of itself, and situate within, surrounded by, or adjoining to any such County at large; and that all and every such Act and Acts, Matters and Things done by such Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County at large, within such City, Town or other Precinct, should be as valid and effectual in the Law as if the same had been done within the said County at large, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: And Whereas doubts have been entertained whether Justices of the Peace for Counties at large are thereby empowered to act for such Counties at large within any City, Town or other Precinct having exclusive Jurisdiction, but not being a County of itself; Be it therefore enacted and declared by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace acting for any County at large, or for any Riding or Division of a County in which there are several and distinct Commissions of the Peace, to act as a Justice or Justices for such County at large, Riding or Division, in Sessions or otherwise, at any Place within any City, Town or other Precinct, having exclusive Jurisdiction, but not being being a County of itself, and situate within, surrounded by or adjoining to any such County at large, Riding or Division; and that all and every such Act and Acts, Matters and Things which shall be done or which may heretofore have been done by such Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County at large, Riding or Division, within such City, Town or other Precinct, shall be as valid and effectual in the Law as if the same had been done within the said County, Riding or Division, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to give Power to the Justices of the Peace for any County at large, Riding or Division, not being Justices for such City, Town or other Precinct, or any Constable or other Officer acting under them, to act or intermeddle in any Matters or Things arising within any such City, Town or Precinct, in any manner whatsoever.

C A P. LXIV.

An Act to amend the Laws now in force relating to Vagrants, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty two. [2d July 1821.]

‘WHEREAS the Provisions heretofore made, and now in force, relative to the apprehending and passing of Rogues, Vagabonds, Vagrants, incorrigible Rogues and other idle and disorderly Persons, are productive of great Expence; and it has been found by Experience that great Frauds and Abuses are committed in the Execution thereof; and it is therefore deemed expedient to discontinue the same, and to make certain other Provisions for the better and more effectual Restraint of such Offenders: Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of September next, all Provisions heretofore made and now in force relative to the passing of any Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant, incorrigible Rogue or other idle and disorderly Person, to his or her Place of legal Settlement or Place of Birth or to the Place of Abode of his or her Father or Mother, shall cease and determine; and that from and after the First Day of September next, it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to grant any Pass or to give any Directions for the Conveyance of any Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant, incorrigible Rogue or idle and disorderly Person, to any such Place as aforesaid, or to grant any walking or permissive Pass, or any other Pass whatever, to any Person or Persons whatever.

Passing of Vagrants to their Place of Settlement to be discontinued.

Justices not to grant any Passes either to Vagrants or others.

Present Rewards for apprehending Vagrants abolished.

II. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to claim or demand of or from any Justice of the Peace, any Order for any Sum of Money or Reward for apprehending and carrying before such Justice of the Peace or delivering to any Constable or other Person, any Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant, incorrigible Rogue or idle and disorderly Person; nor shall it be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to order or direct to be paid to any Person or Persons, for apprehending any such Offender, any Sum of Money or Reward other than as is hereinafter in that Behalf mentioned and provided; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant, incorrigible Rogue or idle and disorderly Person, shall be apprehended and brought before any Justice of the Peace by any Person or Persons, or shall be apprehended and delivered, to any Constable or other such Officer by any Person or Persons (not being a Constable or other such Officer), it shall and may be lawful for such Justice, if in his Discretion he shall so think fit, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to order any Overseer of the Poor of the Parish or Place wherein such Act of Vagrancy shall be committed, to pay to the Person or Persons so apprehending such Offender a Sum of Money not exceeding Five Shillings for every Offender so apprehended; which Sum shall be allowed to such Overseer in his Account, he producing the Justice's Order, and a Receipt under the Hand of the Person or Persons to whom such Sum was paid; and if such Overseer shall neglect or refuse to pay the said Sum, the said Justice, on Oath thereof made, may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, order the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Overseer, and the Overplus (if any), after the Charges of such Distress are satisfied, shall be returned to such Overseer, who in such case shall not be allowed the Sum so levied in his Accounts.

IV. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of September next, it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace (except the Justices in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled) to commit any Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant, incorrigible Rogue or idle and disorderly Person, to any Gaol or House of Correction, for any Space of Time exceeding Three Months or less than One Month, unless such Offender shall be so committed to remain in the said Gaol or House of Correction until the next General or Quarter Sessions; and every such Offender, who shall be committed to the said Gaol or House of Correction, shall be there kept to hard Labour during the Period of his or her Confinement therein: Provided always, that it shall be in the Discretion of the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom any Person apprehended as a Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant or idle and disorderly Person, shall be brought, either to commit or discharge such Person, although an Act of Vagrancy be proved against the Person so charged.

V. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any such Justice or Justices as aforesaid shall commit any such Offender to the House of Correction, there to remain till the next General or Quarter Sessions, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice or Justices to require the Person or Persons by whom such Offender shall be apprehended, to become bound in sufficient Recognizance to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to appear to the said General or Quarter Sessions, to prosecute and give Evidence against such Offender, touching his said Offence; and the Justices at their said General or Quarter Sessions are hereby authorised and empowered, at the Request of any Person who shall become bound in any Recognizance Visiting Justices may order Part of Vagrants' Earnings, &c. to be paid to them when discharged.

VI. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any such Offender as aforesaid, who shall have been committed to the Gaol or House of Correction, shall be duly discharged therefrom, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices visiting the said Gaol or House of Correction, to order and direct such Portion of the Earnings of such Offender during his Confinement therein, or such Sum of Money, to be paid by the Gaoler or Keeper of the said Gaol or House of Correction to such Offender, as such Justices in their Discretion shall think fit; which Sum shall be repaid to the said Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol or House of Correction, by the Treasurer of the County, Riding or Division in which such Gaol or House of Correction is situated.

Two Justices may pass Vagrants in certain cases.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That wherever it shall appear to Two Justices of the Peace, that any Person apprehended as a Rogue, Vagabond, Vagrant or idle and disorderly Person, and directed to be discharged without being committed, or to the said Visiting Justices or Two or more of them, where any Person shall have been committed to Gaol and discharged therefrom, that it is necessary and proper that such Person or Persons, or any of them, ought to be passed as a Vagrant or Vagrants to his, her or their Place of Birth or of Settlement, or to the Place of abode of his, her or their Father or Mother, that then, and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to cause such Person or Persons to be passed and conveyed in like manner as he, she or they might have been before the passing of this Act.

Proviso for 59 G. 3. c. 12. and for Orders for Removal of poor Persons not Vagrants.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to alter the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, or in any manner to affect the Mode of passing poor Persons born in Scotland and Ireland, and in the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, who may become chargeable to Parishes in England, or in any manner to alter or affect the Mode in which, by by the Laws now in force, poor Persons, not having committed Acts of Vagrancy, are directed to be removed to their Places of Settlement.

IX. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and no longer. Continuance of Act.

C A P. LXVI.

An Act for regulating the Fur Trade, and establishing a Criminal and Civil Jurisdiction within certain Parts of North America. [2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS the Competition in the Fur Trade between the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's Bay, and certain Associations of Persons trading under the Name of "The North West Company of Montreal," has been found for some Years past to be productive of great Inconvenience and Loss, not only to the said Company and Associations, but to the said Trade in general, and also of great Injury to the native Indians, and of other Persons Subjects of His Majesty: And Whereas the Animosities and Feuds, arising from such Competition, have also for some Years past kept the Interior of America, to the Northward and Westward of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and of the Territories of the United States of America, in a State of continued Disturbance: And Whereas many Breaches of the Peace, and Violence extending to the Loss of Lives, and considerable Destruction of Property, have continually occurred therein: And Whereas, for Remedy of such Evils, it is expedient and necessary that some more effectual Regulations should be established for the apprehending, securing and bringing to Justice all Persons committing such Offences, and that His Majesty should be empowered to regulate the said Trade: And Whereas Doubts have been entertained, whether the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for extending the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Justice in the Provinces of Lower and Upper Canada, to the Trial and Punishment of Persons guilty of Crimes and Offences within certain Parts of North America adjoining to the said Provinces, extended to the Territories granted by Charter to the said Governor and Company; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the said Act should be further extended: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make Grants or give His Royal Licence, under the Hand and Seal of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to any Body Corporate, or Company, or Person or Persons, of or for the exclusive Privilege of Trading with the Indians in all such Parts of North America as shall be specified in any such Grants or Licences respectively, not being Part of the Lands or Territories heretofore granted to the said Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading to Hudson's Bay, and not being Part of any

45 G. 3. c. 138.

His Majesty may make Grants for exclusive Trade with Indians in certain Parts of North America.

any of His Majesty's Provinces in North America, or of any Lands or Territories belonging to the United States of America; and all such Grants and Licences shall be good, valid and effectual for the Purpose of securing to all such Bodies Corporate, or Companies, or Persons, the sole and exclusive Privilege of trading with the Indians in all such Parts of North America (except as hereinafter excepted), as shall be specified in such Grants or Licences; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

For what Periods such Grants may be made.

Reservation of Rents.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Grant or Licence, made or given by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of any such exclusive Privileges of trading with the Indians in such Parts of North America as aforesaid, shall be made or given for any longer Period than Twenty one Years; and no Rent shall be required or demanded for or in respect of any such Grant or Licence, or any Privileges given thereby under the Provisions of this Act, for the first Period of Twenty one Years; and from and after the Expiration of such first Period of Twenty one Years, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to reserve such Rents in any future Grants or Licences to be made to the same or any other Parties, as shall be deemed just and reasonable, with Security for the Payment thereof; and such Rents shall be deemed Part of the Land Revenues of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and be applied and accounted for as the other Land Revenues of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall, at the time of Payment of any such Rent being made, be applied and accounted for.

Persons to whom such Grants made, to enter into Security,

for the Purposes herein mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Governor and Company of Adventurers trading to Hudson's Bay, and every Body Corporate and Company and Person to whom every such Grant or Licence shall be made or given as aforesaid, shall respectively keep accurate Registers of all Persons in their Employ in any Parts of North America, and shall, once in each Year, return to His Majesty's Secretaries of State, accurate Duplicates of such Registers, and shall also enter into such Security as shall be required by His Majesty for the due Execution of all Processes criminal and civil, as well within the Territories included in any such Grant, as within those granted by Charter to the Governor and Company of Adventurers trading to Hudson's Bay, and for the producing or delivering into safe Custody, for Purpose of Trial, of all Persons in their Employ or acting under their Authority, who shall be charged with any Criminal Offence, and also for the due and faithful Observance of all such Rules, Regulations and Stipulations as shall be contained in any such Grant or Licence, either for diminishing or preventing the Sale or Distribution of Spirituous Liquors to the Indians, or for promoting their moral and religious Improvement, or for any other Object which His Majesty may deem necessary for the Remedy or Prevention of the other Evils which have hitherto been found to exist.

IV. And Whereas by a Convention entered into between His Majesty and the United States of America, it was stipulated and agreed, that any Country on the North West Coast of America, to the Westward of the Stony Mountains, should be free and open to the Citizens and Subjects of the Two Powers, for the Term ' Term of Ten Years from the Date of the Signature of that Convention;' Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to authorize any Body Corporate, Company or Person, to whom His Majesty may have, under the Provisions of this Act, made a Grant or given a Licence of exclusive Trade with the Indians in such Parts of North America as aforesaid, to claim or exercise any such exclusive Trade within the Limits specified in the said Article, to the Prejudice or Exclusion of any Citizens of the said United States of America, who may be engaged in the said Trade: Provided always, that no British Subject shall trade with the Indians within such Limits, without such Grant or Licence as is by this Act required.

Such Grants not to interfere with Trade of United States Westward of the Stony Mountains.

Proviso.

V. And be it declared and enacted, That the said Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for extending the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Justices in the Provinces of Lower and Upper Canada, to the Trial and Punishment of Persons guilty of Crimes and Offences within certain Parts of North America adjoining to the said Provinces, and all the Clauses and Provisoes therein contained, shall be deemed and construed, and it is and are hereby respectively declared, to extend to and over, and to be in full force in and through all the Territories heretofore granted to the Company of Adventurers of England trading to Hudson's Bay; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or this Act, or in any Grant or Charter to the Company, to the contrary notwithstanding.

43 G. 3. c. 138. extended to Territories granted to Hudson's Bay Company.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Courts of Judicature now existing, or which may be hereafter established in the Province of Upper Canada, shall have the same Civil Jurisdiction, Power and Authority, as well in the Cognizance of Suits, as in the issuing Process, mesne and final, and in all other Respects whatsoever, within the said Indian Territories, and other Parts of America not within the Limits of either of the Provinces of Lower or Upper Canada, or of any Civil Government of the United States, as the said Courts have or are invested with within the Limits of the said Provinces of Lower or Upper Canada respectively; and that all and every Contract, Agreement, Debt, Liability and Demand whatsoever, made, entered into, incurred or arising within the said Indian Territories and other Parts of America, and all and every Wrong and Injury to the Person or to Property, real or personal, committed or done within the same, shall be and be deemed to be of the same Nature, and be cognizable by the same Courts, Magistrates or Justices of the Peace, and be tried in the same Manner and subject to the same Consequences, in all Respects, as if the same had been made, entered into, incurred, arisen, committed or done within the said Province of Upper Canada; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Grant or Charter, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that all such Suits and Actions relating to Lands, or to any Claims in respect of Land, not being within the Province of Upper Canada, shall be decided according to the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and shall not be subject to or affected by any Local Acts, Statutes or Laws of the Legislature of Upper Canada.

Courts of Judicature established in Upper Canada to take Cognizance of Causes in Indian Territories.

Actions relating to Lands not within Upper Canada decided according to Law of England.

Proceedings of Courts issued as heretofore.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Process, Writs, Orders, Judgments, Decrees and Acts whatsoever, to be issued, made, delivered, given and done by or under the Authority of the said Courts, or either of them, shall have the same Force, Authority and Effect within the said Indian Territory and other Parts of America as aforesaid, as the same now have within the said Province of Upper Canada.

Effect of such Decree, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, notwithstanding any thing contained in this Act, or in any Charter granted to the said Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading to Hudson's Bay, from time to time, by any Commission under the Great Seal, to authorize and empower any such Persons so appointed Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, to sit and hold Courts of Record for the Trial of Criminal Offences and Misdemeanors, and also of Civil Causes; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order, direct and authorize the Appointment of proper Officers to act in aid of such Courts and Justices within the Jurisdiction assigned to such Courts and Justices in any such Commission; any thing in this Act, or in any Charter of the Governor and Company of Merchant Adventurers of England trading to Hudson's Bay, to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may issue Commissions under Great Seal, empowering Justices to hold Courts of Record for Trial of Criminal and Civil Offences.

Such Courts constituted as His Majesty shall direct.

Power of Court not to extend to Capital Offences; nor to Civil Actions where the Amount in Issue exceeds 200l.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That such Courts shall be constituted, as to the Number of Justices to preside therein, and as to such Places within the said Territories of the said Company, or any Indian Territories, or other Parts of North America as aforesaid, and the Times and Manner of holding the same, as His Majesty shall from time to time order and direct; but shall not try any Offender upon any Charge or Indictment for any Felony made the Subject of Capital Punishment, or for any Offence or passing Sentence affecting the Life of any Offender, or adjudge or cause any Offender to suffer Capital Punishment or Transportation, or take Cognizance of or try any Civil Action or Suit, in which the Cause of such Suit or Action shall exceed in Value the Amount or Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and in every case of any Offence subjecting the Person committing the same to Capital Punishment or Transportation, the Court or any Judge of any such Court, or any Justice or Justices of the Peace, before whom any such Offender shall be brought, shall commit such Offender to safe Custody, and cause such Offender to be sent in such Custody for Trial in the Court of the Province of Upper Canada.

Appeal.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Judgments given in any Civil Suit shall be subject to Appeal to His Majesty in Council, in like manner as in other cases in His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, and also in any case in which the Right or Title to any Land shall be in question.

Proviso for Hudson's Bay Company.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to affect any Right, Privilege, Authority or Jurisdiction which the Governor and Company of Adventurers trading to Hudson's Bay are by Law entitled to claim and exercise under their Charter; but that all such Rights, Privileges, Authorities and Jurisdictions shall remain in as full force, virtue and effect, as if this Act had never been made; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

'unlawful Lotteries and such Insurance Offices as are therein mentioned, a Drawback of all the Duties charged on Coals carried coast- § 54.
 wise is granted on Coals used for smelting Copper and Tin Ores within the Counties of Cornwall and Devon: And Whereas by an Act made in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His late 14 G. 2. c. 41.
 Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of One Million out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying other Sums therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty one; and for allowing a Drawback of the Duties upon Coals used in Fire Engines for draining Tin and Copper Mines in the County of Cornwall; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets and Orders, lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed; and for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties omitted to be paid-for the Indentures and Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices, a Drawback of all the Duties paid on Coal is allowed on Coals which shall be used in Fire Engines for the draining Water out of the Mines of Tin and Copper within the County of Cornwall: 51 G. 3. c. 88.
 And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for allowing the like Drawback of Duty paid on Coals used in certain Mines and Smelting Mills in Devonshire, as is now allowed in the County of Cornwall, it is enacted, that for all Coals that shall be used for Fire Engines in Mines of Tin, Copper or Lead, or for calcining or smelting Lead Ores within the County of Devon, and for which Duties have been first answered and paid, a Drawback shall be allowed and made of all such Duties: And Whereas by 53 G. 3. c. 18.
 an Act made in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for allowing a Drawback of the Duty on Coals used in Fire or Steam Engines for raising Ores in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, the Drawback is extended to all Coals consumed in Fire or Steam Engines used for the Purpose of raising Ores or Dead Stuff or Rubbish out of Mines in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon: And Whereas by an Act 56 G. 3. c. 134.
 made in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for allowing a Drawback of the Duty on Coals consumed in Lead Mines in Cornwall, the Drawback granted by the Act of the Fifty first Year of the King, to Lead Mines in the County of Devon, is extended to the County of Cornwall:
 And Whereas it will be expedient to repeal the whole or such Parts of the said Acts as relate to Drawbacks on Coals used within the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, to consolidate some of the Provisions of the said Acts, and to extend others: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Acts as relates to granting a Drawback of the Duties on Coals used and consumed in the working of Mines and smelting Minerals, in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

So far as relates to Drawback on Coals, repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, for all Coals that shall be consumed in Fire or Steam Engines, used for drawing Water, drawing Ores, Dead Stuff or Rubbish, for stamping

Engines for drawing Water, Ores, &c. in Mines of Cornwall or Devon.

stamping or pulverizing Ores, or for any other Purposes, in Mines of Copper, Tin, Lead, Zinc, Arsenic or other Metal, within the Counties of Cornwall or Devon, and for all Coals used in roasting, calcining, smelting or refining any Copper, Tin, Lead, Zinc, Arsenic or other Metal, or any of their Ores, within the said Counties, and for which Duties have been first answered and paid, a Drawback shall be allowed and made of all such Duties, upon Proof by Oath made before the Collector of the said Duties (which Oath he is hereby empowered and required to administer), that such Coals have been so used and applied, and the Amount of the Duties so drawn back shall be returned and paid by the Collector of the said Duties to the Persons making Proof as aforesaid.

Proof of Payment of Duty, and that Coals were so consumed, to be made on Oath.

‘ III. And Whereas it is expedient that, previously to the Drawback being repaid upon Coals used or consumed as aforesaid within the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, Proof should be made that the Duties upon the same have been actually paid, and that the said Coals were bonâ fide used or consumed, and that no Part of the same have been or shall be used or sold for domestic Purposes, or as Culm for burning Lime, or for any other Purpose not contemplated by Law;’ Be it therefore enacted, That previously to any Drawback being paid upon Coals used or consumed as aforesaid in the Counties of Cornwall or Devon, Proof shall be made upon Oath, either by some one of the Proprietors or Adventurers in such Mine or Work, or by a managing Agent, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs (which Oath they are hereby respectively authorized and required to administer) of the Port where the Drawback shall be paid, that he verily believes that the Duties upon the said Coals have been actually paid, and that the said Coals were bonâ fide used and consumed in such a Manner as to entitle them to the Drawback under the Provisions of this Act.

Drawback of Duty on Coals used in Steam Engines for draining of Coal Mines in Pembroke.

‘ IV. And Whereas it is expedient that a Drawback of the Duties on Coals should be allowed on all Coals used in Steam Engines employed in draining Coal Mines in the County of Pembroke;’ Be it therefore enacted, That a Drawback of the whole of the Duties payable on Coals shall be paid and allowed for all Coals used in Steam Engines which shall be employed in draining Coal Mines in the County of Pembroke; and such Drawback shall be paid and allowed under the same Rules and Regulations as the Drawbacks hereinbefore mentioned are directed to be repaid and allowed.

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act to repeal so much of several Acts to prevent the excessive Price of Coals, as relates to Coal Yards established at the Expence of the Public in Dublin and Cork.

[2d July 1821.]

1 G. 3. (1.)

3 G. 3. (1.)

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to prevent the excessive Price of Coals in the City of Dublin; and by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Third Year of His said late Majesty, for amending and continuing the said first recited Act, and by an ‘ Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for enabling the Lord Lieutenant to regulate the Price of Coals to be bought for the Benefit of the Poor of the City of Dublin, divers Provisions and Regulations were made for the establishing and regulating Public Coal Yards for supplying the Journeymen, Tradesmen and Manufacturers, and the Poor of the City of Dublin, with Coals at moderate Prices: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should be repealed, so far as relates to such public Coal Yards;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, so much and such Parts, Clauses and Provisions of the said recited Acts of the First and Third and Fifty second Years of His late Majesty’s Reign, shall be repealed, as relate to any such public Coal Yard or Coal Yards in the City of Dublin, or to the buying in or supplying Coals at any of the said public Coal Yards, or to the selling out Coals from the said Coal Yards, or to the appointing any Director or Superintendant of any such Coal Yards, or to the Advance of any Money out of the Treasury to such Director or Superintendant for the Purchase of Coals, or to the Payment of any Salary to such Director, or any Clerks under him, or to the Appointment or Payment of any Comptroller of the Accounts and Conduct of such Director, or as in any way relate to such Coal Yards, or the Purchase or Sale of Coals there; and the said Parts, Clauses, and Provisions of the said recited Acts shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, cease and determine, and are hereby repealed accordingly.

Recited Acts repealed, so far as relates to public Coal Yards in Dublin, &c.

‘ II. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, among other things, for the continuing, reviving and amending several temporary Statutes, it was among other things enacted, that the said Acts of the First and Third Years of His said late Majesty’s Reign, hereinbefore recited, and all and every Clause and Clauses therein contained, should extend to the City of Cork, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if the said City had been expressly mentioned in the said Acts, except only as is provided and enacted in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty’s Reign, and whereby the said recited Acts of the said First and Third Years were amended, so far as relates to the said City of Cork: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions of the said recited Act of the said Fifth Year of His late Majesty’s Reign should be repealed;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, so much and such Parts of the said recited Act of the said Fifth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, whereby the said recited Acts of the said First and Third Years of His said late Majesty’s Reign, and all and every Clause and Clauses therein, are extended to the said City of Cork, and all Clauses, Enactments and Provisions in the said recited Act of the said Fifth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign,

5 G. 3. (1.)

So far as it extends 1 G. 3. & 3 G. 3. to City of Cork, repealed.

Reign, for carrying into effect the said recited Acts of the said First and Third Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, in the said City of Cork, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and shall thenceforth cease and determine; any thing in the said recited Acts or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Directors of Coal Yards in Dublin and Cork not to purchase any more Coals. Coals in Store to be sold, and Produce paid into Exchequer at Dublin.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Director or Superintendent of the several Coal Yards in Dublin or Cork, or any of them, to buy or purchase any Coals for the Supply of the said Coal Yards in Dublin or Cork, or any of them, at any Time after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act; and that the said Directors or Superintendants of the said several Coal Yards in Dublin and Cork respectively, shall, before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, sell out and dispose of all Coals which are or shall be stored in the said Coal Yards, or any of them respectively, at such Times, and at and for such Price or Prices, as shall be appointed or directed by any Order or Orders of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for that Purpose; and every such Order shall be signified in Writing to such Director or Superintendent, by the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary of the Civil Department; and that all Money arising from the Sale of such Coals shall be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin.

C A P. LXIX.

An Act for vesting all Estates and Property, occupied for the Ordnance Service, in the principal Officers of the Ordnance; and for granting certain Powers to the said principal Officers. [2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS divers Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, have been at various times purchased for the Use of the Department of His Majesty's Ordnance, and have been conveyed to or to several different Persons, in Trust for His Majesty and His Royal Predecessors, and His and their Heirs and Successors, and the same have been placed under the Charge of the said Department: And Whereas certain Parts of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, not being now wanted for the Service of the said Department, the principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance have lately entered into conditional Contracts or Agreements in Writing for the Sale and Disposal thereof to sundry Persons, but such Contracts or Agreements cannot be carried into Effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: And Whereas it may be expedient that such other Parts of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as may not be wanted for the Service of the said Department, should from time to time be also sold and disposed of: And Whereas, for effectuating such Sales, it is necessary that all and every the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, so already purchased or used, and

‘ and occupied by or for the Service of the said Ordnance Department, and all other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, that may be hereafter purchased, or in any manner used and occupied by or for the Service of the said Department, should be vested in the principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance for the time being:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately from and after the passing of this Act, all Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which have been heretofore purchased or taken by or in the Name of or by any Person or Persons in Trust for His Majesty or His Royal Predecessors, and His or their Heirs and Successors, for the Use or Service of the said Ordnance Department (by whatever Mode of Conveyance the same shall have been so-purchased or taken), either in Fee, or for any Life or Lives, or any Term or Terms of Years, or any other or lesser Interest; and all Erections and Buildings which now are or which shall or may be hereafter erected and built thereon, together with the Rights, Members, Easements and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging (other than and except such Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as may be of Copyhold Tenure), shall be and become and remain and continue vested in the principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance for the time being, and their Successors in the said Office, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same Hereditaments respectively, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Service of the said Ordnance Department, or for such other public Service or Services as His said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall from time to time, by any Order in Council, be pleased to direct.

Lands purchased for the Service of the Ordnance, and all Buildings thereon, vested in principal Officers.

Exception.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Purchase and Conveyance, Grant or Demise thereof, all other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (other than and except as aforesaid), which shall at any time or times hereafter be purchased by the principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance for the time being, or by any other Person or Persons, by their Order, for the Service of the said Ordnance Department, and all Erections and Buildings which shall then or which may thereafter be erected and built thereon, with the Rights, Members, Easements and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, shall in like manner be and become and remain and continue vested in the principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance for the time being, and their Successors in the said Office, according to the Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several and respective Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust as aforesaid.

Lands to be hereafter purchased, and also the Buildings thereon vested in like manner.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation or Removal of the present principal Officers of the Ordnance, or of any of them, or of any future principal Officers or principal Officer, all such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements

In case of Death, &c. such Premises (Exception) to vest in Successors.

and

and Hereditaments respectively (other than and except as aforesaid) shall become vested in, and be held by the succeeding principal Officers, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust as aforesaid.

Lands may be sold, exchanged or let by the said principal Officers.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said principal Officers for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to sell, exchange or in any manner dispose of, or to let or demise, as well any of the Freehold and Leasehold Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments respectively, which shall be vested in them under and by virtue of this present Act, with their respective Appurtenances, as also any of the Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which shall have been surrendered to and vested in any Person or Persons, and his, her or their Heirs and Assigns, in Trust for His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Service of the said Ordnance Department, either by Public Auction or Private Contract; and as to the said Freehold and Leasehold Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said principal Officers or any Three or more of them, and as to the said Copyhold Messuages, Land, Tenements and Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Person or Persons in whom the same shall be so vested as aforesaid, in due Form of Law, to convey, surrender, assign or make over, or to grant or demise the same respectively (as the case may require) to any Person or Persons who shall be willing to purchase or take the same in exchange or otherwise respectively, and also to do any other Act, Matter or Thing in relation to any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which shall by the said principal Officers be deemed beneficial to the Public Service, in relation thereto or for the better Management thereof, which might be done by any Person having a like Interest in any such like Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to give to the said principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance for the time being a greater or better Estate in the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any of them, than was vested in His Majesty at the Time of the passing of this Act.

Principal Officers not to take a greater Estate than was in the Crown.

Purchase Monies to be paid to Treasurer of the Ordnance, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise and be produced by the Sale or Exchange of any of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be so sold or exchanged under the Provisions of this present Act, shall be paid by the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or the Person or Persons making such Exchange, into the Treasury of His Majesty's Ordnance in the Tower of London, unto the Ordnance Treasurer there for the time being, or to such other Person or Persons as the said principal Officers for the time being, or any Three or more of them, shall direct or appoint to receive the same, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that the Receipt of the said principal Officers, or of any Three or more of them, for such Monies (such Receipt to be indorsed on every such Conveyance, Surrender or Assignment, as aforesaid,) said,) shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Purchasers, or Person or Persons by whom or on whose Account the same shall be paid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That immediately from and after the Payment of such Purchase Money, and the Execution of every such Conveyance, Surrender and Assignment as aforesaid, the Purchaser or Purchasers therein named, or the Person or Persons making such Exchange as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seized and possessed of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which shall be so purchased or taken in exchange by, and conveyed, surrendered, assigned or made over to him, her or them respectively, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all and all manner of prior Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims and Demands whatsoever, which can or may be had, made or set up, in, to, out of or upon or in respect of the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by any Person or Persons whomsoever on any Account whatever (save and except such Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims and Demands, as in any such Conveyance, Surrender, Deed of Exchange or Assignment, shall be excepted).

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall have any just and legal or equitable Right to any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which shall be so sold, exchanged and conveyed as aforesaid, or to any Part or Parts thereof, or to any Charge, Incumbrance or Demand affecting the same, and not being under any of the Disabilities hereinafter mentioned, and shall within Five Years next after such Right shall by Law or Equity accrue to or become vested in him, her or them respectively, or being Females Covert (except Females Covert whose Estates have been or may be sold under the Authority of this or any other Act of Parliament for that Purpose), Persons within the Age of Twenty one Years, or out of the Realm, or not of whole Mind at the Time of such Sale, Exchange and Conveyance as aforesaid, shall within Five Years next after they shall respectively come and be discoverd, at their full Age of Twenty one Years, out of Prison, within this Land, or of whole Mind, make out and establish such Right or Claim to the Satisfaction of the principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance for the time being, then and in such case the said principal Officers shall make or cause to be made a fair and reasonable Compensation or Satisfaction for every such Right and Claim so made out and established as aforesaid; but such Compensation or Satisfaction shall not in any case exceed the Amount of the Purchase Money or Purchase Monies which shall have been paid to and received by the said principal Officers, for the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in respect whereof such Right or Claim shall be so made out as aforesaid, or a proportional Part thereof, exclusive of the Value of any Buildings or Improvements which shall have been erected or made thereon for the Use of the said Ordnance Department.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That until any such Sale, Exchange and Conveyance of any of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or of any Part

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case such Purchase Money shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in

tion of the National Debt of Great Britain, shall be and become Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom, and that the said Commissioners shall have all such Powers and Authorities as are or may be given in and by any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland, relative to the Reduction of the National Debt of Great Britain or the National Debt of Ireland; and that the several Sums which, under and by virtue of several Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, are required to be set apart at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Great Britain and the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, respectively, on Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of Great Britain, and of the National Debt of Ireland, shall continue to be so set apart; and that all such Sums so set apart, or any Part or Parts thereof, shall and may be issued and paid from time to time into the Bank of England, or into the Bank of Ireland, as shall be directed and required by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and shall be from time to time applied, under the Direction of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Purchase of such Capital Stock, Funds, Debentures or Annuities, or towards any Public Loan, either in Great Britain or Ireland, as shall seem most expedient to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom; and that the Orders of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom shall at all times be sufficient Authority to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and of the Bank of Ireland, for the Application of any Part of the Money from time to time remaining in the Bank of England, or Bank of Ireland, on account of the said Commissioners, to the Purchase of any Stock, Funds, Debentures or Annuities, or towards any Public Loan in Great Britain or Ireland: And Whereas the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies, have resolved, that the Sum of Thirteen Millions be raised by Annuities in manner hereinafter mentioned: And Whereas the Commissioners under the said recited Act have agreed to subscribe the said Sum of Thirteen Millions in manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds in Great Britain, and Five hundred thousand Pounds British Currency, being Five hundred forty one thousand six hundred and sixty six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four Pence Irish Currency, in Ireland: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Monies which have heretofore been issued, or are required or directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be issued to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom, shall continue to be issued and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners as heretofore.

The Money heretofore issued to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to continue to be so issued.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, out of the Monies which shall be issued and carried to their Account at the Bank of England, after the passing of this Act, to order and direct their Agent or Agents, or proper Officers, to pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, on account of the Sum of Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the said Loan of Thirteen Millions so agreed to be subscribed and advanced by the said Commissioners, the Sum of Two millions seven hundred thousand Pounds within the Quarter of the Year ending on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the Sum of Three millions seven hundred thousand Pounds within the Quarter of the Year ending on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the Sum of Two millions six hundred thousand Pounds within the Quarter of the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and the Sum of Three millions five hundred thousand Pounds within the Quarter of the Year ending on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in such Proportions, and at such Times in each of such respective Quarters, as the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the time being, shall order and direct: Provided always, that no larger Sum in each Quarter than is before specified, and no further Sum in the Whole than Twelve Millions five hundred thousand Pounds, shall be so paid and advanced by the said Commissioners out of the Monies in the Bank of England on account of the said Commissioners.

12,500,000l. to be paid by the Commissioners in the Proportions and at the Times herein mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That for every One hundred Pounds of the said Sum of Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds so paid, advanced and contributed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to the Principal Sum of One hundred Pounds in Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, transferrable at the Bank of England, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and to be added to and made One Joint Stock with certain Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, which were reduced from Four Pounds to Three Pounds per Centum by an Act made in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and to be payable and transferrable at the Bank of England at the same Time and in the same Manner, and subject to the like Redemption, as the said Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities; and to the further Principal Sum of Thirty Pounds Seven Shillings and Sixpence in Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to commence from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and to be added to and made One Joint Stock with the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities consolidated by the Acts of the Twenty fifth, Twenty eighth, Twenty ninth, Thirty second and Thirty third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and by several subsequent Acts, and to be payable and transferrable to the like Redemption, as the said Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities and Debentures transferrable at the Bank of Ireland; and the said Annuities shall be made Capital Stock in the Names of the said Commissioners, and the Dividends payable thereon shall be charged and chargeable upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any other Duties and Revenues which shall be appropriated for that Purpose by any Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament; and such Capital Stock, and the Annuities arising therefrom, shall be deemed Part of the Stock and Annuities applicable in Ireland, by the said Commissioners, to the Purposes of the Sinking Fund; and annual Sums shall be issued as a Sinking Fund for the Redemption thereof, according to the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts in force for that Purpose.

When the last mentioned Sum on account of the Loan shall be paid, the Auditor to grant Certificates as herein mentioned; on Production at the Bank of such Certificates, the Stock is to be placed to the Credit of the Commissioners.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the Whole of the said Sum of Five hundred forty one thousand six hundred sixty six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four Pence Irish Currency, so authorized to be raised in pursuance of this Act, shall have been paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer at Dublin, by or on Behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the Auditor General of the said Exchequer, or the Loan Clerk there, shall grant a Certificate stating that the said Sum has been so paid, in which Certificate the Amount of the Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, to which the said Commissioners will become entitled upon Payment of the Whole of the said Sum, shall be specified; and upon the Production and Deposit of the said Certificate with the Accountant General of the Bank of Ireland, the Governor and Company of the said Bank shall thereupon cause the Amount of the Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities specified therein to be written and entered to the Credit of the Account of the said Commissioners, in the Books kept by the said Governor and Company for entering the Accounts of the said Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities; and the said Commissioners shall, after the Production and Deposit of the said Certificate at the said Bank, be entitled at the next Half Yearly Period for the Payment of the Dividends upon the said Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, which shall ensue after the full Payment of the said Sum of Five hundred forty one thousand six hundred sixty six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four Pence Irish Currency, to receive the Dividends upon the Amount of the said Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities which shall then have been entered to the Credit or Account of the said Commissioners from the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, from which Period such Dividends are directed to commence by this Act.

Treasury may issue the Money to such Services as shall have been voted.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Lord High Treasurer of the said United Kingdom for the time being, to issue and apply from time to time all such Sums of Money as shall be paid under this Act into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster and Dublin as aforesaid, to such such Services as shall have been voted by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in this present Session of Parliament.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, respectively, to advance or lend to His Majesty, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, or at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, upon the Credit of the several Sums to be subscribed and advanced by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in pursuance of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of Thirteen Millions British Currency, any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; so that no greater or higher Sum, by way of Interest, Discount, Gratuity or other Consideration, shall be demanded or taken by such or any of the said Governors and Companies respectively, or by any Person on their Behalf, than at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum for any Money so advanced.

Bank of England or Ireland may advance Money on the Credit of the Loan after the Rate of 4 per Cent.

An Act for raising the Sum of Twenty nine Millions by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one. [2d July 1821.]

[This Act is the same as 1 G. 4. c. 31. except as to Dates.]

C A P. LXXII.

An Act to establish an Agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for advancing the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency; and to empower the said Governor and Company to enlarge the Capital Stock or Fund of the said Bank to Three Millions. [2d July 1821.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland are willing and have proposed to advance the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, for the Public Service, in the Manner and upon the Terms and Conditions hereinafter mentioned, upon the said Governor and Company being authorized and empowered by Parliament to increase their Capital Stock, which now consists of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, to Three Millions, and that the proposed Increase of Five hundred thousand Pounds may be appropriated amongst the Proprietors of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Ireland, at the Rate of Twenty Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of such Capital Stock which they respectively shall hold on the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and until Repayment to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, upon the Promissory Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable to Recital of Agreement with the Bank of Ireland.

' Bearer on Demand, being received in Payment of all Sums of ' Money which now are or shall become payable for any Part of ' the Public Revenue of Ireland, and being accepted by the ' Collectors, Receivers and other Officers of the Revenue of ' Ireland, authorized to receive the same, if offered to be so
 ' paid, fractional Parts of Twenty Shillings only excepted; and ' that in Consideration of the above proposed Increase of the Ca' pital Stock of the Bank of Ireland, and of the Notes of the said
 ' Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland being received
 ' in Payment of every Branch of the Public Revenue in Ireland
 ' as aforesaid, the said Governor and Company shall advance the ' said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, for ' the Public Service, to be paid on the Fifth Day of July in the ' present Year, the Repayment thereof to be secured with Interest
 ' at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, payable Half
 ' Yearly, and to be repaid on the First Day of January One thou' sand eight hundred and thirty eight, and to be charged and ' chargeable upon and to be repaid out of the Consolidated Fund
 ' of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unless ' otherwise provided for by Parliament: And Whereas the said
 ' Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland have consented ' to a Provision being enacted in this Act, that from and after the ' passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Number ' of Persons in Ireland, acting in Copartnership, and residing and
 ' carrying on their Business not less than Fifty Miles from Dublin,
 ' to borrow, owe and take up any Sum or Sums of Money on ' their Bills or Notes payable on Demand, and to make and issue
 ' such Bills and Notes accordingly, payable on Demand, at any ' Place exceeding the Distance of Fifty Miles from Dublin, all
 ' the Individuals composing such Copartnership being liable and ' responsible for the due Payment of such Bills and Notes; but ' that no other Power, Privilege or Authority shall, previous to ' the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ' thirty eight, nor until after Repayment to the said Governor
 ' and Company of all such Sum and Sums of Money as now are ' or shall or may hereafter be due to them by Government, be ' granted to any Copartnership or Society of Persons whatsoever,
 ' contrary to the Laws now in Force for establishing and regul' ating the Bank of Ireland, save and except the Power for ' Persons in Ireland, acting in Copartnership, and residing and
 ' carrying on their Business not less than Fifty Miles from Dublin,
 ' to sue and be sued in the Name of a Public Officer, if Par' liament shall think fit to grant such Authority: Now we, Your ' Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the ' United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament as' sembled, being desirous to raise, with as much Ease and Advan' tage as possible to Your Subjects, the necessary Supplies, and to ' encourage the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland
 ' to advance the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, do
 ' most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and ' be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with
 ' the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and
 ' Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Au' thority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for
 ' the

the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, to advance and lend to His Majesty, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, upon the Credit of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, at an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, such Interest to be payable Half Yearly to the said Governor and Company, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Repayment of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, and the Interest thereof at the Rate aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby charged and made chargeable upon the said Consolidated Fund, unless otherwise provided for by Parliament; and that such Interest shall be paid Half Yearly to the said Governor and Company, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, the first Half Yearly Payment thereof to commence and be made on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; and that the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, with all Arréars of Interest thereon, shall be repaid to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty eight.

III. And be it further enacted, That in Consideration of the said Advance of Five hundred thousand Pounds for the Public Service as aforesaid, the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be and the same is hereby increased and extended from the Sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, of which the same now consists, to the Sum of Three Millions Irish Currency, making an Increase or Addition of Five hundred thousand Pounds Capital Stock; and that the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Capital Stock shall be appropriated and divided amongst the several Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, who shall be Proprietors of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Ireland on the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, at the Rate of Twenty Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of Bank Stock of which such Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, shall then be respectively Proprietors, or which they shall have standing in their respective Names in the Books kept by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland for the Entry and Transfer of such Stock, and so in proportion for a greater or lesser Sum; and such Division and Appropriation shall be placed to the Credit of the respective Names of such Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, in the Books of the said Governor and Company accordingly; and all such Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, shall, from the time of such Division and Appropriation, be lawfully entitled to the additional Sum of Bank Stock so placed in or to the Credit of their respective Names, and shall respectively be entitled to be paid the same Rate of Dividend thereon, and to possess and enjoy the same Profits, Privileges and Advantages in respect thereof, in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as they are or shall be entitled to be paid, possess and enjoy, in respect

And be it further enacted, That the Scale upon which every such Transfer shall be made under the Authority of this Act, of any Sum or Sums from the several before mentioned Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Debentures transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written into or consolidated with the said several before mentioned Stocks, Funds or Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, shall be as follows; that is to say, that every Person who shall so transfer any such Sum or Sums shall, for every One hundred Pounds in the Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum Annuities and Debentures, transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, so transferred, be entitled to the Sum of Eighty Pounds Sixteen Shillings in the Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Consolidated Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England; and for every Sum of One hundred Pounds in the Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities, transferrable at the said Bank of Ireland, so transferred, every such Person shall be entitled to the Sum of Ninety two Pounds Six Shillings and Sixpence in the said Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Consolidated Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England; and for every Sum of One hundred Pounds in the Five Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities and Debentures transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, every such Person shall be entitled to the Sum of Ninety two Pounds Six Shillings and Sixpence in the said Navy Five Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England; and so in proportion for any greater or less Sum than One hundred Pounds of any such Stocks, Funds or Annuities, exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds, so transferred respectively.

No Transfers to be made at the Bank of Ireland after certain Days preceding the several Dividend Days.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to make any Transfer, for the Purposes of this Act, of any such Irish Three Pounds and Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum Annuities and Debentures, or of any such Irish Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, at any time on or after the Twelfth Day of December next preceding the Fifth Day of January, nor on or after the Twelfth Day of June next preceding the Fifth Day of July in any Year, nor to make any Transfer for the Purposes of this Act of any such Irish Five Pounds per Centum per Annum Annuities or Debentures, transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, at any time on or after the Twelfth Day of March next preceding the Fifth Day of April, nor on or after the Twelfth Day of September next next preceding the Tenth Day of October in any Year; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

V. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to write into or consolidate any such Sum or Sums in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, relating to the Four Pounds per Centum per Annum Consolidated Annuities transferrable at the said Bank, at any time on or after the First Day of March next preceding the Fifth Day of April, nor on or after the First Day of September next preceding the Tenth Day of October, in any Year; nor to write in or consolidate any such Sum or Sums relating to the Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, usually called The Navy Five per Cents, transferrable at the said Bank of England, at any time on or after the First Day of December next preceding the Fifth Day of January, nor on or after the First Day of June next preceding the Fifth Day of July, in any Year; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons having or possessing any Stock in the several before mentioned Stocks, Funds or Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, to apply in Writing to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or to cause Application to be made to the said Governor and Company by some Person on his, her or their Behalf, and which Application shall be according to such Form as shall be established by the said Governor and Company, in concurrence with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and shall be the same in all cases, for Permission to transfer or cause to be transferred such Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Debentures respectively, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written in and consolidated with the several Stocks, Funds or Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, set forth in this Act, as the case may require, according to the Provisions of this Act; and thereupon, and upon such Person or Persons transferring or causing to be transferred such Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Debentures, so transferrable at the Bank of Ireland, into the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of their cancelling and discharging the same from the National Debt in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of Ireland, or for the Accountant General or Deputy Accountant of the said Governor and Company, or for the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of the said Governor and Company for the time being, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, to grant a Certificate to the Person or Persons making such Transfer, or on whose Behalf such Transfer shall have been made, directed to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and which Certificate shall be also according to a Form which shall be established by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, in concurrence with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and shall be the same in all cases; and such Certificate shall state that the Person or Persons therein mentioned has or have transferred or caused to be transferred the Stock, Funds, Annuities or Debentures therein described, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of having corre-

No Sums to be written into the Books of the Bank after certain Days preceding the several Dividend Days.

Transfer to Commissioners.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in every case where any Transfer shall be made as aforesaid, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall cause Notice thereof to be given and transmitted to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, at their Office in London, on the same Day on which such Transfer shall be made; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the Receipt thereof, transmit the said Notice to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

Stock transferred to Commissioners cancelled.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That immediately upon any such Transfer as aforesaid being made at the Bank of Ireland to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the Stocks, Funds or Annuities so transferred to them shall be cancelled, and for ever discharged from the Amount of the National Debt in Ireland.

Books to be provided at Bank of Ireland for entering such Transfers.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in the Office of the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland for the time being, a Book or Books shall be provided and kept, in which shall be fairly entered the Names of all Persons making any such Transfer of any such Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Debentures to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under the Provisions of this Act, to which Book or Books it shall and may be lawful for all Persons making any such Transfer, their respective Executors, Administrators and Assigns, from time to time and at all seasonable times, to resort and to inspect the same without any Fee or Charge; and the said Accountant General shall, on or before the Fifteenth Day of March, the Fifteenth Day of June, the Fifteenth Day of September, and the Fifteenth Day of December, in each and every Year, transmit a Certificate fairly written on Paper, of the total Amount of the several Stocks, Funds or Annuities so transferred, specifying the annual Interest thereon, into the Office of the Auditor of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, and also into the Office of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in London; and the Monies heretofore set apart at His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, for the Payment of the Interest of the Capitals of the said Stocks, Funds, Annuities or Debentures so transferred, shall thenceforward cease and determine, and be no longer issued out of the Consolidated Fund in Ireland.

Interest no longer issued out of Consolidated Fund in Ireland.

On Production of Certificates of Bank of Ireland, Bank of England to write the Sums into their Books to be consolidated with the several existing Stocks

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and they are hereby authorized and required, upon the Production to them of any such Certificate or Certificates of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of Ireland, or of the Accountant General or Deputy Accountant, or of the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of the Governor and Company of the said Bank, so given for the Purposes of this Act, to write or cause to be written into the Books of the Bank of England relating to the several Stocks,

C A P. LXXIV.

An Act to repeal an Act, passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating Payments to the Treasurer of the Navy under the Heads of Old Stores and Imprests, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof. [2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS the Regulations contained and provided in and by a certain Act, made and passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for regulating Payments to the Treasurer of the Navy under the Heads of Old Stores and Imprests, have been found by Experience to be productive of much Inconvenience to the Public Service, by reason that all Monies payable on Account of Old Naval Stores must, in conformity with the said Regulations, be paid to the Cashier of the Bank of England, notwithstanding it may frequently happen at the Out Ports where Sales of old Stores take place, and the Purchase Money for the same is paid, that Monies are then wanted for immediate Public Services at those Ports, to answer which Services other Monies must necessarily be remitted from the Navy Pay Office in London, whereby much unnecessary Expence and Risk are occasioned to the Public; and it is therefore expedient that other Provisions should be made in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act so passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, and all and every the Clauses, Regulations and Provisions therein contained, shall be, and the same are hereby wholly repealed.

repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, and his Cashiers or other Persons deputed by him, shall be, and they are hereby respectively authorized to receive all Sums of Money that shall or may be tendered to them on account of the Naval and Victualling Service, save and except such Sums as shall be issued from His Majesty's Exchequer, or paid by other Public Departments not being Naval Departments.

Monies as shall be received at the Navy Pay Office in London under the Authority of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby required to be paid into the Bank of England on Two Days in each Week, to be appointed for the Payment of such Monies into the Bank, and that the same shall, when so paid in, be placed by Commissioners of Navy and Victualling to empower Clerks of Cheque, &c. to apply Money received for Old Stores, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling respectively, to authorize and empower the Clerks of the Cheque and other Officers under their respective Controul, at the several Dock Yards and Victualling Yards and Stores, instead of remitting to the Bank of England as heretofore, pursuant to the said Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty, the Sums of Money respectively received by them on account of old Stores, or on any other Public Service, to apply and dispose of, for the Public Use, all such Public Monies as are now in or may hereafter come to their Hands, in and towards the carrying on the Services of their respective Departments, under such Regulations, Orders and Directions as the said Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling shall respectively make and direct concerning the same; which Monies shall be charged against such Clerks of the Cheque and other Officers respectively by Imprest Bills assigned upon the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

Commissioners of Navy resident at Dock Yards, yearly to take Account of Public Monies in Hands of Clerk to Treasurer, and to certify to Commissioners of Navy in London, who shall take an Account of Monies issued, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That on the First Day of January, or (that Day being Sunday) on the following Day in every Year, the Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy resident at each of the Dock Yards or Out Ports at which there is a Clerk to the Treasurer of the Navy, shall and he is hereby required to inspect and take an Account of the Public Monies which shall remain in the Hands or Charge of such Clerk at the Close of the preceding Year, and shall certify the Amount thereof to the Commissioners of the Navy in London; and the Commissioner of the Navy in London, whose Duty it may be to controul the Payment of Seamen's Wages there, shall also and is hereby required, at the like Period, to inspect and take an Account of the Public Monies which have been issued to and shall actually remain chargeable to the several Cashiers for the Payment of Seamen's Wages, and of Allotments, and of Navy Bills, and of Victualling Bills respectively, and shall certify the Amount thereof to the Commissioners of the Navy, as far as respects the Balances due to them on account of the Navy Office, and to the Commissioners of Victualling, as far as respects the Balance due to them on account of the Victualling Office, in order to ascertain the Correctness of the said Balances by comparing them with the Certificates or Monthly Accounts for the current Month of January made up at the Navy Pay Office, and transmitted to the Navy and Victualling Offices respectively for Examination; and the said Commissioners respectively shall, within Three Months from the Commencement of each Year, make out and transmit Certificates of the Amount of the said Balances to the Auditors of Public Accounts, that it may be seen whether the same, together with the Balance in the Account of the Treasurer of the Navy at the Bank, shall correspond with the whole Balance charged to the said Treasurer at the Close of the Account of the preceding Year.

Certificates of Balances to be sent to Auditors of Public Accounts.

. XVII. And be it further enacted, That for the more effectual Prevention of such Frauds, all Dealers in such Marine Stores as aforesaid, shall keep a Book or Books, fairly written, in which Entries shall be from time to time regularly made, of all such old Marine Stores as shall be by them from time to time bought, containing a true Account and Description of the Times when the same were so respectively bought by them, and of the Names and Places of Abode of the respective Sellers thereof; and before any Person who shall obtain such Permit for the cutting up of any such Cable (as hereinbefore required to be obtained), shall proceed to cut up the same by virtue thereof, there shall be published, by the Space of One Week at least before the cutting up the same, One or more Advertisement or Advertisements in some public Newspaper printed nearest to the Storehouse, Warehouse or Depôt where the Articles shall be deposited, notifying that such Party had obtained such Permit for the Purpose of cutting up such Cable, and of such Kind and Quality as therein described, and also specifying the Place where such Articles shall be deposited; whereupon it shall be lawful for all and every Person or Persons who may have just Cause to suspect that such Articles are the Property of such Person or Persons, and shall have verified upon Oath the Fact of such his or their Suspicion before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near to the said Storehouse, Warehouse or Depôt, by Warrant for that Purpose thereupon granted, to require of and from such Dealer, who shall have so advertised, and shall be so sworn to be suspected as aforesaid, the Production and Examination of the Book or Books of Entries hereby required by him or her to be kept, and inspect and examine the Cables described in such Permit; and in case any such Dealer, when so thereunto required as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to produce to the Person named in such Warrant, as the Person on whose Oath the same shall have been obtained, the Book or Books containing the Entries of such Dealer so required to be made therein as aforesaid, or shall neglect to keep any such Book or Books in which Entries, containing Accounts of the several Particulars hereinbefore required to be entered, shall be made, or to permit such Inspection or Examination as aforesaid, or shall, after obtaining such Permit for the cutting up of any such Cable, and before the cutting up of the same, neglect to publish such One or more Advertisement or Advertisements relative thereto, as is hereinbefore directed and required, the Dealer or Dealers so offending in all or any of the Particulars hereinbefore mentioned shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence, being his, her or their First Offence, any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Ten Pounds; and for every Second or further Offence, any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds, One Half of which Penalty shall, on Conviction before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near as aforesaid, be paid to the Informer, and the other Half to the Poor of the Parish or Township in which such Offences shall be committed; and in case any of the Penalties by this Act imposed

General Quarter Sessions. Justices of the Peace before mentioned, of any Offence or Offences against this Act, within Three Calendar Months next after such Conviction, to appeal to the Justices of the Peace assembled at the General Quarter Sessions holden for the County, City or Place where the Matter of Appeal shall arise, first giving Ten Days' Notice of such Appeal to the Person or Persons appealed against, and of the Matter thereof, and entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace for such County, City or Place, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and for abiding the Determination of the Court therein; and such Justices at the General Quarter Sessions shall, upon due Proof of such Notice having been given and Recognizance entered into, hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and may either confirm or quash and annul the said Conviction, and award such Costs to either Party as to them shall seem just and reasonable, and the Decision of the said Justices therein shall be final, binding and conclusive; and no Proceeding to be had or taken in pursuance of this Act shall be quashed or vacated for want of Form only, or be removed by Certiorari or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Inhabitants may be competent Witnesses. XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Inhabitants of any Parish, Township or Place, shall be deemed and taken to be competent Witnesses, for the Purpose of proving the Commission of any Offence against this Act, within the Limits of such Parish, Township or Place, notwithstanding the Penalty incurred by such Offence or any Part thereof, is or may be given or applicable to the Poor of such Parish, Township or Place or otherwise, for the Benefit or Use or in Aid or in Exoneration of such Parish, Township or Place.

Offences tried in County where Articles found, or if sold in Foreign Parts, where Offenders reside. XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Felonies, Misdemeanours and other Offences under this Act, shall and may be laid to be committed, and shall be tried in any City or County (being a County) where any such Article, Matter or Thing, in relation to which such Offence shall have been committed, shall have been found in the Possession of the Person committing the Offence; or if the same shall have been sold in foreign Parts, then in the County or Place in which the Person selling the same shall reside.

Proviso for 48 G. 3. c. 130. XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to or be in force within the Limits specified and directed in an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for preventing the various Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship Owners and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for remedying certain Defects relative to the Adjustment of Salvage under a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, or in any manner to affect any of the Provisions of the said Act, but the said recited Act shall remain in full force within the Limits therein specified, as if this Act had not been passed: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, take away or alter any of the Clauses, Powers or Provisions contained in an Act and for 48 G. 3.

c. 104.

Act of Parliament made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Pilots, and of the Pilotage of Ships and Vessels navigating the British Seas; but that the said Act shall remain in full force as if this Act had not been passed.

XXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby further declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, prejudicing or impeaching, in any manner whatever, the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty of England, or the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty Court of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Members, or of the Admiralty Court of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, or of the Admiralty Court of the Borough of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk, or of the Admiralty Court of the Borough of Southampton, in the County of Hants, or of the Admiralty Court of the Borough of Southwold, in the County of Suffolk, or of the Admiralty Court of the Borough of Lynn Regis, in the County of Norfolk; but that it shall and may be lawful for the said Courts respectively, and the Judge or Judges thereof for the time being, to have, use, exercise and enjoy Jurisdiction over all such Matters, Rights and Offences as they have heretofore had, used, exercised and enjoyed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Proviso for Rights of High Court of Admiralty, &c.

XXV. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That neither this Act nor any thing herein contained shall any ways extend, or be construed to extend, to deprive or in any ways prejudice the Rights of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors or any claiming under them or any of them, or any Patentee or Grantee of the Crown, or any Lord or Lords, or Lady or Ladies, of any Manor or Manors whatsoever; but that such respective Rights shall be enjoyed in as full, ample and beneficial a Manner, in every respect, as if this Act had never been made.

Proviso for Rights of the Crown, and of Lords and Ladies of Manors.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Lord or Lady of any Manor, or other Person who may be entitled to or claim to be entitled to Wreck of the Sea or to any Goods found jetsam, flotsam or lagan, shall be entitled to appropriate such Wreck or Goods to his, her or their own Use, or otherwise to dispose thereof, until he, she or they shall have caused a Report thereof in Writing to be given to the Deputy Vice Admiral of that Part of the Coast where the same shall have been stranded, wrecked or found, or to his Agent; or if there shall be no such Deputy Vice Admiral or Agent residing within the Distance of Fifty Miles, then to the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond; which Report shall contain an accurate and particular Description of the Wreck or Goods found, and of the Place or Places and time or times where and when the same may have been found, and of any Marks that may be thereon, and of such other Particulars as may the better enable the Owner or Owners thereof to recover the same, and also of the Place or Places where the same are deposited and may be found and examined by any Person claiming any Right to such Wreck or Goods, nor until the full Expiration of a Year and a Day after the Delivery of such Notice, any thing in any Law to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Deputy Vice Admiral or Agent aforesaid shall, within Forty eight Hours after receiving such Report as aforesaid, transmit a Copy thereof to the Secretary of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, upon pain of forfeiting for any Neglect to transmit such Account as aforesaid, the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person who will sue for the same; and the said Secretary shall cause such Account to be placed in some conspicuous Situation, for the Inspection of all Persons claiming to inspect and examine the same: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in any manner to affect any of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for charging Foreign Liquors and Tobacco, derelict, jetsam, flotsam, lagan or wreck, brought or coming into Great Britain, with the Duties payable on Importation of such Liquors and Tobacco.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Goods which shall be found or taken Possession of by any Lord or Lady of any Manor, or Person entitled or claiming to be entitled to Wreck of the Sea, or to Goods found flotsam, jetsam or lagan, or his or her Agent or Servant, or by any Vice Admiral, or his Deputy or Agent, or by any Officer or other Person whatsoever acting by or under the Authority of this Act, or of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue and amend certain Acts for preventing various Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship Owners and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, shall be of so perishable a Nature, or so much injured or damaged, that the same cannot be kept, then and in every such case such Goods shall and may, at the Request of any of the Persons interested or concerned therein, or in the saving and preserving thereof, and with the Consent and Approbation of some Justice of the Peace, not interested or concerned in the same, or in the saving or preserving thereof, and in the Presence of such Justice, or of some Person for that Purpose specially appointed by such Justice, be sold by public Auction or private Contract, as such Justice may direct by some Writing under his Hand, which Writing shall contain an accurate and particular Account of the Goods, and of the Marks that may be thereon, or other Particulars belonging thereto, and of the Times and Places of the finding and intended Sale thereof; and the Money raised by such Sale, after defraying the reasonable Expences of the Sale, to be settled and allowed by such Justice, shall be deposited and remain in the Hands of the Lord or Lady of the Manor, or other Person, or Deputy Vice Admiral, who would have received the Custody of the Goods so sold, to abide and be subject and liable to the Claims of all Persons, in like manner as the Goods themselves would be subject and liable if remaining unsold: Provided always, that all Persons required to transmit Reports to the Deputy Vice Admiral of the finding of any Goods, shall, in case of any such Sale as last aforesaid, likewise transmit to such Deputy Vice Admiral an Account of such Sale, and of the Proceeds thereof; and the said Deputy Vice Admiral shall forward such Reports to the Secretary of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, within the like Periods and under and subject subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect therein, as in Cases of any Goods found and required to be reported under the Provisions of the said recited Act and this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, and they are hereby required to permit all Goods, Wares and Merchandize saved from any Vessel or Vessels stranded or wrecked on their respective Homeward Voyage, to be forwarded to the Port or Ports of their original Destination; and also to permit Goods, Wares and Merchandize saved from any Vessel or Vessels stranded or wrecked on their respective Outward Voyage, to be returned to the Port or Ports at which the same were shipped; but such Commissioners are to take Security for the due Protection of the Revenue in respect of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize.

Goods saved from Vessels wrecked to be forwarded to the Ports of their original Destination.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Vice Admiral of the Part of the Coast where any Ship or Vessel shall be stranded or wrecked, or where any Wreck of the Sea or Goods shall be cast on Shore, and for his Agent, and also for the Owner or Master of any such Ship or Vessel, and for the Owners of any such Goods, or of any Part thereof, and for any Officer of the Customs or Excise, and other Officer, and for all Persons whatsoever employed or acting in aid of or in the assisting of any such Deputy Vice Admiral, Officer, Master or Owner as aforesaid, in the saving or recovering any such Ship or Vessel, or the Cargo, Stores, Tackle or other Articles belonging to the same, or the preserving the Lives of the Crew or Persons belonging thereto, or of any Wreck as aforesaid, to pass and repass with their Horses, Carts, Carriages or Servants, over any Lands near to the Part of the Sea Coast where such Vessel shall be so wrecked or stranded, or on which such Wreck shall be cast, without Interruption or Obstruction by the Owner or Occupier thereof, for the Purpose of rendering Assistance in saving, recovering and preserving any such Ship or Vessel, or Goods or Stores, or any Cables, Anchors, Spars, Masts, Cordage or other Tackle or Articles belonging to any Ship or Vessel, or for saving or otherwise assisting in preserving the Lives of the Crew, or of any Persons on board of any such Ship or Vessel, or for the taking Possession of and securing for the Benefit of the Owners thereof, of any Wreck or Goods, or other Things cast on Shore, or found on Shore, or found near thereto, provided there shall be no Road by which the Parties may pass and repass with as much Convenience and Expedition as over such Lands; and also to place any Planks, Timber or any Part of the Wreck, or any Goods or Stores removed or saved from any such Ship or Vessel, or any other Wreck or Goods as aforesaid, upon any such Land for a reasonable Time, until they can be removed to some Warehouse or safe Place of Deposit, making Compensation to the Occupier of such Lands for any Damage done by the Means aforesaid, which Compensation shall be a Charge upon the Wreck or Goods in respect whereof the Damage may be done, in like manner as Salvage; and in case the Parties cannot agree as to the Amount thereof, then the same shall be ascertained and settled by Two Justices of the Peace, or of a Third Person to be named by them, in such manner and within such times as the Amount of Deputy Vice Admiral, &c. with Carriages may pass over private Lands near the Coast where Vessels are wrecked, for the Preservation of the Wreck, &c.; if no other fit Road.

Compensation to Occupiers. If Disagreement, Two Justices to settle it.

Salvage is directed to be ascertained and settled by the said recited Act in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign.

Refusing Persons so employed to pass over Lands, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Owner or Occupier of any Land or Premises, over which any Person is authorized by this Act to pass and repass, for any of the Purposes in this Act before mentioned, shall interrupt, impede or hinder any such Person from passing over his Land or Premises, with Horses, Carts, Carriages and Servants, for the Purposes in this Act before mentioned, or any or either of them, by locking his Gates, or refusing upon Request to open the same, or otherwise, or shall obstruct or hinder the placing any Wreck, Goods, Stores or other Articles upon his Land, or shall prevent their remaining there for a reasonable time, until the same can be removed to some Warehouse or safe Place of public Deposit, such Occupier shall forfeit and pay to any Person who will sue for the same the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt.

Penalty 100L.

Jurisdiction of Courts respecting Questions of Salvage.

XXXI. And Whereas Questions have arisen as to the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Record at Westminster, and of the High Court of Admiralty, in cases of Salvage of Ships and Goods per- formed between High and Low Water Mark; Be it therefore enacted, That any Question in relation to Salvage of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Goods, which shall be performed between High and Low Water Mark, shall be and be deemed to be within the Jurisdiction or Cognizance of the High Court of Admiralty, or of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of Damage done by a Foreign Vessel in Harbour, &c. Judge may cause Vessel to be arrested until Owners, &c. undertake to appear and be Defendant in any Action.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which any Damage shall be done by any Foreign Ship or Vessel to any British Ship or Vessel, Barge, Boat or other Craft, or any Buoy or Beacon, in any Harbour, Port, River or Creek, and it shall appear on a summary Application, made to any Judge of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or to the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty respectively, that such Damage or Loss has probably been sustained or arisen by the Misconduct or Negligence of the Master or Mariners of such Foreign Ship or Vessel, then and in such case it shall be lawful for such Judge to cause such Foreign Ship or Vessel, being in any Harbour, Port, River or Creek, to be arrested and detained, until the Master, or Owner, or Consignee, or some Agent of the Owner, Master or Consignee of such Ship or Vessel, shall undertake to appear and be Defendant in any Action which may be brought for such Loss or Damage, and give such sufficient Security, by Bail or otherwise, for all Costs and Damages, if recovered, as shall be directed and ordered by such Judge, if it shall upon the Trial of such Action or Suit appear that such Loss or Damage shall have arisen from such Negligence or Misconduct as aforesaid; and in such Action or Suit the Person giving Security shall be made Defendant, and shall be stated to be the Owner of the Foreign Ship or Vessel doing such Damage; and it shall not be necessary in any such Action or Suit to give any other Evidence of the Liability of such Person to such Action or Suit, than the Production of the Order of the Judge, made in relation to such Security as aforesaid.

Penalties how recoverable. c. 76. post.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures above the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or which by this Act, or by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue and amend certain Acts for preventing the various Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship Owners and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, or any or either of them, or by this Act, are made to be recoverable by Action or Suit, shall and may be sued for and recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

XXXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, hindering, prejudicing or impeaching of any Grant, Liberties, Franchises and Privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Corporation of the Trinity House of Kingston upon Hull, or in the Commissioners acting under the Provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Adjustment of Salvage for Anchors, Cables and other Ships' Materials found in the River Humber, or in the Masters, Wardens and Brethren of the Trinity Houses of Newcastle upon Tyne and Scarborough respectively; but that the said Corporation, and the said Masters, Wardens and Brethren, shall hold and enjoy the same as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as they might have done in case this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Proviso for Rights of Trinity Houses of Kingston upon Hull, Newcastle upon Tyne and Scarborough.

XXXV. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or take away any Right, Property, Authority or Jurisdiction of the Mayor of the City of London, or of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, to, in and upon the Rivers of Thames and Medway.

And for Rights of City of London.

XXXVI. Provided also, and be it hereby further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to those Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland and Ireland.

Act not to extend to Scotland or Ireland.

XXXVII. And Whereas it is expedient, that the like Means of conclusively adjusting and recovering the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the said several Persons acting or being employed in the Salvage of any Ship or Vessel, or the Materials or Stores belonging thereto, or Goods of Persons on board thereof, should subsist, and be by Law applicable in cases where the Salvors shall have acted under and by the Employment and Authority of any Magistrate, or of the Commander or other superior Officers, Mariners or Owners of any Ship or Vessel in Distress, as are now by Law provided for adjusting the Quantum of such Monies or Gratuities, which shall have become due in cases where Application shall have been first made to the Officers of the Customs, or other the Officer or Officers in that Behalf named and appointed in and by a certain Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act for preserving all such Ships and Goods thereof which shall happen to be forced on Shore or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, or any other of Her Majesty's Dominions, and where such Assistance shall thereupon have been rendered, in pursuance of the stat. 2. c. 18.,

‘ Provision of that Statute ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That all and every the Means which in virtue of the said last mentioned Act subsist, and may now be by Law applied for the conclusively adjusting, and for the recovering of the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons acting or being employed in the Salvage of any Ship or Vessel, or the Materials or Stores belonging thereto, or Goods, in cases where Application shall have been first made pursuant to the said Act, to Officers of the Customs, or other the Officer or Officers in that Behalf mentioned, and Assistance shall have been thereupon rendered and had, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, shall be by Law applicable and available, in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, in cases where the Salvors shall have acted under and by the Employment and Authority of any Magistrate, or of the Commander or other superior Officers, Mariners or Owners of any Ship or Vessel in Distress, although no such Application shall have been made to, nor any Authority or Assistance derived from, any Officer of the Customs, or other the Officer or Officers in the said Statute in that Behalf mentioned ; and thereupon, upon Payment or Tender and Refusal of the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons who shall have acted or been employed in such Salvage, or in case such Payment or Tender cannot be made, on Security being given for the true Payment thereof, to the Satisfaction of the Justices who shall have adjusted such Quantum or Gratuities, it shall not be lawful for any Officer of the Customs, or other Person or Persons having the Possession or Custody of such Ship, Vessel, Materials, Stores or Goods, any longer to retain the Possession or Custody of the same, or any Part thereof, by Reason or Pretence of any Claim or Right to a Compensation or Gratuity of such Salvage as aforesaid, or for having acted or been employed therein.

Property saved may be sold so far as necessary to defray the Expence of Salvage.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all cases it shall be lawful for the Owner or Owners, or if the Owner or Owners refuse, for the Salvors, to sell so much of the Property saved as will be sufficient to defray the Salvage adjudged, and all Expences attending the same, and such other reasonable Charges and Expences respecting the said Property as shall be allowed by the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Justices acting in Execution of the Provisions of this Act ; and that a Production of an Order or Decree from the High Court of Admiralty, or of an Award made by the Justices acting in Execution of the Provisions of this Act, the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise shall be empowered and required, and they are hereby empowered and required, to allow the Sale of such Goods aforesaid, free from the Payment of all Duties : Provided nevertheless, that in all cases in which they may think it advisable, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise to refer any such Award, which may be produced to them from the Justices acting in Execution of the Provisions of this Act, to the Judgment and Revision of the High Court of Admiralty.

Award may be referred by Customs or Excise to Court of Admiralty.

Public Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

 of of lawful Money of Great Britain, unto the said to answer such Salvage and Expences, or the Value of the Goods [as the case may be], as shall be hereinafter decreed by the said Court, according to the Tenor of the Act in that case made and provided; and unless they shall so do, they hereby consent that Execution shall issue forth against them, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, Goods and Chattels, where-ever the same shall be found, to the Value of the Sum above mentioned.

This Bail was duly taken, acknowledged and received, at the Time and Place above written, before me the undersigned Commissioner; and I do believe and consider the Persons above mentioned sufficient Security for the said Sum of An Act to continue and amend certain Acts for preventing the various Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship Owners and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for remedying certain Defects relative to the Adjustment of Salvage, under a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne.

[2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of 48 G. 3. c. 130.
 His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for preventing Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship Owners and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for remedy-ing certain Defects relative to the Adjustment of Salvage, under a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of Her late Majesty Queen

‘ Anne ; which Act was to continue in force for Seven Years, and ‘ from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament : And ‘ Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His late Ma‘ jesty King George the Third, the said above recited Act, except ‘ so far as the same was altered, was further continued in force ‘ for Seven Years from the passing of the said Act, and from ‘ thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no ‘ longer : And Whereas it is expedient that the said recited Acts ‘ should be further continued, except so far as the same are ‘ altered by this Act ;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the time being to nominate and appoint, by any Instrument or Instruments under his Hand and Seal, Three or more substantial Persons in each of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, to adjust and determine any Difference relative to Salvage (which may arise) between the Master of any Vessel and the Person or Persons bringing such Cables and Anchors ashore ; and in case any Ship or Vessel shall be either forced or cut from her Cables and Anchors, by Extremity of Weather, or by any other Accident whatever, and leave the same in any Roadstead, or other Place within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, and the Salvage cannot be adjusted between the Persons concerned, then the same shall be determined by any Three or more of the said Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, within the Space of Twenty four Hours after such Difference shall be referred to them for their Determination thereof, any Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding : Provided always, that such Commissioners shall, immediately after their Nomination, proceed to elect some fit and proper Person, who shall be a Notary or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, as their Secretary or Register, except to the Port of Dover, where the Register for the time being of the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports shall be the Register ; and which Secretary, or Register, shall enter in a Book, to be kept for that Purpose, all the Proceedings of such Commissioners, and also a Copy of the Awards which they shall from time to time make ; but such Election of Secretaries, or Registers, shall be subject to the Approbation of the Lord Warden for the time being.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, to decide on all Claims and Demands whatever, which shall or may be made by Pilots, Hovellers, Boatmen and other Persons, for Services of any Sort or Description rendered to any Ship or Vessel, as well for carrying off from the Shore to such Ship or Vessel any Anchors, Cables or other Stores from any Part or Port of the Coast of Kent, Sussex, Essex or the Isle of Thanet, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, as for the conducting and conveying such Ships and Vessels from the Downs, and other Bays and Roadsteads on the Coast of Kent, Sussex and Essex, and the Island of Thanet, or from the Sea or any other Place, to Ramsgate, Dover or any other Harbour, Port or Place, on the said Coasts, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, or for

for the saving and preserving, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, any Goods or Merchandize wrecked, stranded or cast away from any Ship or Vessel, the Master or Owners thereof, or their Agents, being present at the Place where the Commissioners shall be sitting; and that the said Commissioners shall have full Power and Authority to hear and determine on all Cases whatever of Services rendered by Pilots, Boatmen and others, to Shipping within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, whether such Ships or Vessels shall be in Distress or not; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners whenever they see Occasion, to examine the Parties or their Witnesses upon their Oath, which Oaths shall and may be administered by the said Secretary or Register.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners so to be appointed, and their Secretary or Register as aforesaid, who shall decide on any such Claims or Demands as aforesaid, to demand and receive of and from the Owners of such Ships or Vessels, or the Proprietors of any such Goods or Merchandizes, against whom any Pilot, Boatman or other Person shall make any Claim or Demand for Services of any Sort rendered to such Ships or Vessels, or for the sole saving and preserving any Goods or Merchandizes wrecked, stranded or cast away within the Jurisdiction aforesaid; and such Owners and Proprietors are hereby required to pay to them such Fee or Reward, for deciding on every such Claim and Demand, as shall be adjudged to them in that Behalf by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the time being: Provided always, that no Person to be appointed a Commissioner by virtue of this Act shall have Power or Authority to act in any other Port or Place than that in which he is resident, or from which his usual Place of Residence is not distant more than One Mile; and that before such Commissioners shall in any case proceed to act, they shall severally take the following Oath before a Magistrate or a Commissioner of the Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or a Master Extraordinary in Chancery; (videlicet), Commissioners and Secretary to be paid by Owners, &c. Fees as allowed by the Lord Warden.

No Commissioner to act out of Place of Residence.

Commissioners to take Oath.

I A. B. do swear, That I have not, neither will I in any way, directly or indirectly, take or receive any Fee, Emolument or Reward, from any of the Parties whose Interests are referred to my Decision (save and except such Fee or Reward as shall be allowed by the Lord Warden to be paid to me by the Ship Owners or Proprietors of the Cargo, or their Agents); and that I will not accept or receive any Fee whatever from the Persons claiming Reward or Salvage; but that I will decide according to the best of my Judgment, on the Evidence to be brought before me, without Favour or Affection to either Party.

Form of Oath.

' So help me GOD.'

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Party or Parties so claiming to be entitled to Salvage or Compensation for Services rendered as aforesaid, or the Party or Parties who are to pay the same, or their Agents, shall be dissatisfied with such Award and Decision of the Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for either of them respectively, within Eight Days after such Award is made, but not afterwards, to declare to the Commissioners his or their Desire of obtaining the Judgment of some competent Court of Admiralty respecting the said Salvage or Compensation as aforesaid, Appeal to High Court of Admiralty, or Admiralty of the Cinque Ports; but Ship to be liberated, on Bail in double Amount of Award.

said, and thereupon such Party or Parties shall forthwith be required by the Commissioners to declare whether he or they will proceed in the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or the High Court of Admiralty of England, and he or they shall so proceed within Twenty Days from the Date of such Award, by taking out a Monition against the adverse Party; but in such case the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to permit the said Ship and her Cargo, notwithstanding such Declaration and Proceeding, to depart on her Voyage, or to deliver to the Owners and Proprietors, or their Agents, any Goods or Merchandizes respecting which any Claim for Salvage shall be made upon the Owners or Proprietors of the same, or their Agents, giving good and sufficient Bail in double the Amount of the Sum awarded; and which Bail the said Commissioners, or any of them, are and is hereby authorized to take and certify according to the Form contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and to transmit the same without Delay to the Court of Admiralty, in which the Intention of proceeding shall be so declared, together with a true Certificate in Writing of the gross Value of the whole Ship and Cargo, or other Goods and Merchandizes respecting which Salvage shall be claimed, and also an official Copy of such Proceedings and Awards, certified by the said Secretary or Register, and the same shall be admitted by such Court of Admiralty as Evidence in the Cause.

Bail to be taken and certified according to Schedule annexed.

Appeal conclusive.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That on an Appeal so as aforesaid being made to the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or to the High Court of Admiralty, the same shall be taken and held to be final, and no ulterior Appeal from Sentence of the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or from the High Court of Admiralty, shall lie to the King in Chancery.

Cutting away or defacing Buoy Ropes, &c. Felony.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink or destroy, or shall do or commit any Act with Intent and Design to cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink or destroy, or in any other way injure or conceal any Buoy, Buoy Rope or Mark, belonging to any Ship or Vessel, or which may be attached to any Anchor or Cable belonging to any Ship or Vessel whatever, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, with Intent thereby to defraud or injure any Person or Persons whatsoever, or Body Corporate, such Person or Persons so offending shall, on being convicted of such Offence, be deemed and adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to be transported for any Period not exceeding Fourteen Years.

Anchors, &c. found within Jurisdiction, to be deposited as herein mentioned, &c. or the Persons having them in Possession adjudged guilty of receiving stolen Goods.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Anchors, Cables, Buoys, Ropes or other Ships' Stores or Materials, or any Goods or Merchandizes of any Sort or Description whatever, which may have been parted with, cut from or left by any Ship or Vessel in the Downs, or elsewhere, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, whether the same shall be in Distress or otherwise, and which shall have been weighed, swept for or taken Possession of by any Pilots, Boatmen, Hovellers or other Person or Persons, shall be by them delivered either at Ramsgate, Deal or Dover, Harwich, Brightlersea or Wivenhoe, Six public Places of Deposit declared by this Act for the Reception of all such Articles, or such other Places as shall be declared by the Lord Warden, in the same State in which they are found, to the Serjeant or Serjeants of the Admiralty of the Cinque Ports aforesaid, their Deputy or Deputies, or such other Person as he shall authorize to receive the same; but if any such Articles so found, weighed, swept for or taken Possession of, shall not be so delivered immediately, or duly reported to such Serjeant or Serjeants, or their Deputies, on the finding thereof, and shall afterwards be discovered in the Possession, Custody or Power of such Pilots, Boatmen, Hovellers or other Person or Persons, he, she or they shall, on Conviction, be adjudged and deemed guilty of receiving Goods knowing them to have been stolen, and shall suffer the like Punishment as if the same had been stolen on Shore.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Merchandize, Materials of any Sort, or Marine Stores of every Description, whether belonging to His Majesty, or to any British Subjects or Foreigners, which may be preserved from any Ship or Vessel stranded, deserted by her Crew or wrecked, either on Shore, or on the Goodwin or any other Sand or Shoal, or any Part of the main Land, or any Port or Place within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, shall be landed and delivered at one of the Six Places of Deposit, belonging to the Lord Warden's Deputies at Ramsgate or Deal or Dover, Harwich, Brightlersea or Wivenhoe, or such other Place as shall be declared and appointed by the said Lord Warden for that Purpose, which ever shall be most convenient or contiguous to the Place where the Loss occurs; and that if any Person or Persons who shall have preserved or taken Possession of any such Merchandize or Marine Stores within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, shall sell, dispose of or otherwise make away with the same, or shall in any Manner conceal, deface, take out or obliterate the Marks or Numbers thereon, or alter the same in any Manner, with Intent thereby directly or indirectly to prevent the Discovery and Identity of such Articles by the Owner or Owners thereof, such Person or Persons shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of Felony.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the preventing or restraining the Serjeant's Deputies, or any other Officer of the Lord Warden, from seizing all such Anchors, Cables, Buoys, Buoy Ropes or other Ships' Stores or Materials as aforesaid, and likewise all such Merchandize and Marine Stores as aforesaid, which he or they shall find concealed, or attempted to be concealed, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, or which he or they shall find in the Possession of any Person or Persons who shall be conveying, or in the Act of preparing to convey the same out of the said Jurisdiction, or from any Place where the same shall have been landed within the said Jurisdiction, to any other Place within the same, other than to one of the said public Places of Deposit aforesaid; but it shall be lawful in all such cases, for all and singular the Officers aforesaid, to seize the same as well on Shore as at Sea, within the said Jurisdiction, and to take and carry the same to one of the said public Places of Deposit, any thing in this or in any other Act, Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And

Wrecked Merchandize and Ships' Stores to be also deposited in like Manner.

If sold, or Marks defaced by the Salvors,

Felony.

Officers of Lord Warden may seize Anchors, Stores, &c. concealed within their Jurisdiction, &c.;

to be deposited as aforesaid.

Receivers subject to same Punishment as though Goods had been stolen on Shore.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, shall knowingly and with Intent to defraud and injure the true Owner or Owners thereof, purchase or receive any Anchors, Cables, Ropes or other Ships' Stores or Materials of any Description whatever, or any Merchandize or Lading which may have been taken up, weighed, swept for or taken Possession of, whether the same shall have belonged to any Ship or Vessel in Distress or otherwise, or whether the same shall have been preserved from any Wreck within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall on Conviction thereof be deemed guilty of receiving Stolen Goods, knowing the same to be stolen, as if the same had been stolen on Shore, and suffer the like Punishment as for a Misdemeanor at the Common Law, and be also liable to be transported for Seven Years, in the Discretion of the Court before which he, she or they shall be tried.

Lord Warden's Officers authorized to seize Anchors, &c. taken up within the Limits of the Cinque Ports, though removed out of such Limits.

XI. And Whereas it frequently happens, that Anchors, Cables and other Marine Stores, or Merchandize, which have been weighed, swept for or taken Possession of, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, are, for fraudulent Purposes, carried away to Rochester, London, Portsmouth and other Places not within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, and the Officers of the Lord Warden cannot, by reason of such Removal, recover the same; Be it enacted and declared, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Serjeant or Serjeants of the Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, Deputies or any other Officer of the Lord Warden, whenever the case shall happen, to seize such Anchor, Cable or other Marine Stores or Merchandize, out of the Jurisdiction aforesaid, and there to take and carry away the same to some One of the aforesaid public Places of Deposit, or to place the same in a Place of Security, till Proceedings shall be instituted against the same, either in the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or in the High Court of Admiralty.

Dealers in Ships' Stores to have their Names painted on their Storehouses.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall trade or deal in buying and selling Anchors, Cables, Sails, old Junk or Paper Stuff, old Iron or Marine Stores of any Kind or Description, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, shall have their Names, with the Words, "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in Letters of not less than Six Inches in Length, upon the Front of all their Storehouses, Warehouses and other Depôts for such Goods; and in default of their so doing they shall, on Conviction before any Person or Persons duly authorized to act as a Magistrate or Magistrates within the Limits aforesaid, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Ten Pounds, One Half of which Penalties shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; and further, that it shall not be lawful for such Dealers or Traders to cut up any Cables or Part of the same, or to uncant, untwine or unlay the same, or Cordage of any Description into Junk or Paper Stuff, nor any wounding, wounding or worming, or any Cable Matting on the same, or on Rigging, on any Pretence whatsoever, without first obtaining a Permit from the Lord Warden's Deputies, or One of them, which Permit shall not be granted unless an Affidavit shall have been first made before some One of the Persons duly authorized Penalty.

No Cables, &c. to be cut up without Permit from One of Lord Warden's Deputies; to be granted upon Affidavit stating as herein mentioned.

authorized to act as Magistrates within the Limits of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, and shall have been delivered to and left with the Person granting such Permit, in which Affidavit there shall be sworn that the Cable and Cordage, so intended to be cut up had been purchased fairly and without Fraud by the Party so intending to cut up the same, and without any Knowledge or Suspicion on his or her Part that the same had been or were dishonestly come by; and in which Affidavit shall also be specified the particular Quality and Description of such Cable or Cordage, and the Name or Names of the Seller or Sellers thereof, which Affidavit shall be recited and set forth at length in the Permit thereupon granted.

Affidavit recited at length in Permit.

XIII. And for the further and more effectual Prevention of Fraud in this respect, be it enacted, That all Dealers in such Marine Stores as aforesaid, within the Limits of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, shall keep a Book or Books fairly written, in which Entries shall be from time to time regularly made of all such Marine Stores as shall be by them from time to time bought, containing a true Account and Description of the Times when the same were so respectively bought by them, and of the Names and Places of Abode of the respective Sellers thereof; and also that before the Party who shall have obtained such Permit for the cutting up of any such Cable or Cordage (as herein before required to be obtained) shall proceed to cut up the same by virtue thereof, there shall be published by the Space of One Week at least before the Time of cutting up of the same, One or more Advertisements in some public Newspaper printed within the Counties of Kent, Sussex and Essex, and near to the usual Residence or Place of Abode of such Party, notifying that such Party had obtained such Permit for the Purpose of cutting up such Quantity of Cable or Cordage, and of such Kind and Quality as therein described, a true Copy of which Permit shall be inserted in such Advertisement; whereupon it shall be lawful for all and every Person or Persons who may have just Cause to suspect, and shall have verified upon Oath the Fact of such his, her or their Suspicion before any of the Persons duly authorized to act as Magistrates within the Limits aforesaid, by Warrant of such Magistrate to him or them for that Purpose thereupon granted, to require of and from any such Dealer who shall have so advertised, and shall be so sworn to be suspected as aforesaid, the Production and Examination of the Book or Books of Entries hereby required by him to be kept, and to inspect and examine the Cable or Cordage described in such Permit; and in case any such Dealer shall, when so thereunto required as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to produce to the Person named in such Warrant as the Person on whose Oath the same had been obtained, the Book or Books containing the Entries of such Dealer so required to be made therein as aforesaid, or shall neglect to keep any such Book or Books in which Entries containing Accounts of the several Particulars hereinbefore required to be entered shall be made, or to permit such Inspection and Examination as aforesaid, or shall, after obtaining such Permit for the cutting up of any Cable or Cordage, and before the cutting up of the same, neglect to publish such One or more Dealers to keep an Account of the Marine Stores bought by them.

To advertise before cutting up Cable or Cordage.

Persons herein described may demand Inspection of Books.

Refusing to produce the Book of Entries, or neglecting to give Notice before cutting up Cable or Cordage, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Inhabitants of any Parish, Township or Place, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be competent Witnesses, for the Purpose of proving the Commission of any Offence against this Act, within the Limits of such Parish, Township or Place, notwithstanding the Penalty incurred by such Offence, or any Part thereof, is or may be given or applicable to the Poor of such Parish, Township, Place or otherwise for Benefit or Use or in Aid or Exoneration of such Parish, Township or Place.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, and the Lieutenant of Dover Castle for the Time being, and the Deputy Wardens of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, and the Judge Official and Commissary of the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and the Members thereof for the Time being, and any other Officer who shall be specially appointed by the Lord Warden, and all and every of them, shall and may execute, perform, and do, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, all the Acts, Matters and Things contained in this Act, in like manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Magistrate or Magistrates, or any Commissioner or Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, is and are authorized to execute, perform and do the same.

XVI. And Whereas by a certain Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled For Pirates, it is among other things enacted to the Effect following, that whenever any Commission for the Punishment of certain Offences therein named shall be directed or sent to any Place within the Jurisdiction of the Five Ports, that then every such Commission shall be directed unto the Lord Warden of the said Port for the Time being, or to his Deputy, or unto

Three

‘ Three or Four such Persons as the Lord Chancellor for the ‘ Time being shall name and appoint: And Whereas by the said ‘ Act it is further enacted to the Effect following, that every ‘ Inquisition and Trial to be had by virtue of such Commission ‘ shall be made and had by the Inhabitants of the said Five Ports, ‘ or the Members of the same: And Whereas of a long Time past
 ‘ no such Commission has been sent to any Place within the Juris‘ diction of the Cinque Ports: Be it enacted, for the more certain and speedy Administration of Justice, That as often as His Majesty shall direct a Commission, according to the Provisions of the aforesaid Act, to the Admiral or Admirals, or his or their Lieutenant Deputy and Deputies, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, on the Application of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, to direct such Commission jointly to the Admiral or Admirals, or his or their Lieutenant Deputy and Deputies, and also to the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, and to his Deputy; and the Commissioners who shall sit by virtue of such Commission, so jointly addressed, to whatever Shire or Place in the Realm the same shall be limited, shall have full Power and Authority to inquire into, try and determine all Offences named in the said Act, or in any other Act relating to Proceedings under such Commission, by the Oaths of Twelve good and lawful Inhabitants in the Shire limited in the said Commission, whether the said Offences shall have been committed within the Jurisdictions of the Lord Admiral of England, or of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports; and all and every Trial, Conviction, Judgment and Proceeding whatsoever under such Commission, shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes in Law, and shall be followed by the same Consequences to the Offender or Offenders, as if the same were had by virtue of any separate Commission to be issued under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of King Henry the Eighth: Provided always, and it is hereby further declared, that this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, prejudicing or impeaching, in any Manner whatever, the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty of England, or the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty Court of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Members; but that it shall and may be lawful for the said Courts respectively, and the Judge or Judges thereof for the Time being, to have, use, exercise and enjoy Jurisdiction over all such Matters, Rights and Offences, as they have heretofore had, used, exercised and enjoyed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if this Act had not been made; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XVII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, hindering, prejudicing or impeaching of any Grant, Liberties, Franchises and Privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond; but that the said Corporation shall hold and enjoy the same as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as they might have done in case this Act had never been made; any thing herein-

Boundaries of Jurisdiction of Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

‘ XVIII. And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the exact ‘ Boundaries of the Jurisdiction of the Lord High Admiral and ‘ the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and it is highly expedient ‘ for the Purposes of this Act that the same should be clearly set ‘ forth; Now it is hereby declared and enacted, That the Bounddaries of the Jurisdiction of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, in regard to any Matter or Thing contained in this Act, shall be and shall be deemed and taken to be as follows; (that is to say,) from a Point to the Westward of Seaford, in the County of Sussex, called Red Cliff, including the same; thence passing in a Line One Mile without the Sand or Shoal called The Horse of Willingdon, and continuing the same Distance without the Ridge and new Shoals; and thence in a Line within Five Miles of Cape Grinez on the Coast of France; thence round the Shoal called The Overfalls, Two Miles distant from the same; thence in a Line without, and the same Distance along the Eastern Side of the Gallop Sand, until the North End thereof bears West North West true Bearing from the West North West Bearing of the Gallop, it runs in a direct Line across the Shoal called The Thwart Middle, till it reaches the Shore underneath the Maze Tower; from thence following in a Line of the Shore up to Saint Orsyth, in the County of Essex, and following the Course of the Shore up to the River Coln to the Landing Place nearest Bright- lingsea; from thence in a direct Line to Shoe Bacon; from thence to the Point of Shellness, on the Isle of Shippey; and from thence across the Waters to Feversham; and from thence following the Line of Coast round the North and South Forelands, and Beachy
Head, till it reaches the said Red Cliff, including all the Waters, Creeks and Havens comprehended between them: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to enlarge or abridge the Local Limits of the ancient Jurisdiction, Rights and Privileges of the Lord High Admiral of England, or the Lord Warden or Admiral of the Cinque Ports respectively, or their respective Representatives; but that the same shall remain according to ancient Usage, and that the Description hereinbefore contained shall only be deemed applicable to the Purposes of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ XIX. And Whereas it is expedient that the like Means of ‘ conclusively adjusting and recovering the Quantum of the ‘ Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons acting or ‘ being employed in the Salvage of any Ship, Vessel or Goods, ‘ should subsist and be by Law applicable in cases where the ‘ Salvors shall have acted under and by the mere Employment and ‘ Authority of the Commander or other Superior Officer, Mariners ‘ or Owners of any Ship or Vessel in Distress, as are now by Law ‘ provided for adjusting the Quantum of such Monies or Gratuities ‘ which shall have become due in cases where Application shall ‘ have been first made to Officers of the Customs, or other the ‘ Officer or Officers in that Behalf named and appointed in and by ‘ late Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, intituled An Act for pre- serv

‘ serving of all such Ships and Goods thereof which shall happen to be forced on Shore or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, or any other of Her Majesty’s Dominions, and where Assistance shall have been thereupon rendered in pursuance of the Provisions of that Statute.’ Be it therefore enacted and declared, That all and every the Means which, in virtue of the Statute last mentioned, subsist, and may now be by Law applied for the conclusively adjusting, and for the recovering of the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons acting or being employed in the Salvage of any Ship, Vessel or Goods, in cases where Application shall have been first made pursuant to that Statute, to Officers of the Customs, or other the Officer or Officers therein in that Behalf mentioned, and Assistance shall have been thereupon rendered and had in pursuance of the Provisions of that Statute, shall be by Law applicable and available, in like manner to all Intents and Purposes, in cases where the Salvors shall have acted under and by the mere Employment and Authority of the Commander or other Superior Officers, Mariners or Owners of any Ship or Vessel in Distress, although no such Application shall have been made to, nor any Authority or Assistance derived from, any Officers of the Customs, or other the Officer or Officers in the said Statute in that Behalf mentioned; and that, upon Payment or Tender and Refusal of the Quantum of Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons who shall have acted or been employed in such Salvage, or in case such Payment or Tender cannot be made, or Security being given for the due Payment thereof, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners who shall have adjusted such Quantum of Gratuities, it shall not be lawful for any Officer of the Customs, or other Person or Persons having the Possession or Custody of such Ship, Vessel or Goods, any longer to retain the Possession or Custody of the same, or any Part thereof, by reason or pretence of any Claim or Right to a Compensation or Gratuity for such Salvage as aforesaid, or for having acted or been employed therein.

For the better Adjustment and Payment of Salvage under 12 Ann. stat. 2. c. 18.

XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all cases it shall be lawful for the Owner or Owners, or if the Owner or Owners refuse, for the Salvors, to sell so much of the Property saved as will be sufficient to defray the Salvage adjudged, and all Expences attending the same, and such other reasonable Charges and Expences respecting the said Property, as shall be allowed by the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or by the Commissioners appointed under this Act; and that on the Production of an Order or Decree from the High Court of Admiralty, or from the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or of an Award made by the Commissioners appointed under this Act, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise shall be empowered and required, and they are hereby empowered and required, to allow the Sale of such Goods as aforesaid, free from the Payment of all Duties: Provided nevertheless, that in all cases in which they may think it advisable, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise to refer any such Award which may be produced to them from the Commissioners appointed under this Act, to the Judgment or Revision of the High Court of Admiralty.

Owners or Salvors may sell so much of the Property saved as will defray Salvage.

Award may be referred by Customs or Excise to Court of Admiralty.

XXI. Pro-

Proviso for Jurisdiction of Cinque Ports

XXI. Provided always, That nothing herein in this Behalf contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or impeach the Jurisdiction to be exercised within the Cinque Ports, or to affect or abridge in any Degree the Jurisdiction or Authority of the High Court of Admiralty.

Public Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act to abolish the Payment, by Prisoners in Ireland, of Gaol Fees, and all other Fees relating to the Commitment, Continuance, Trial or Discharge of such Prisoners, and to prevent Abuses by Gaolers, Bailiffs and other Officers.

[2d July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that all Fees and Gratuities now payable by Prisoners in Ireland, at the several Gaols and Bridewells in Ireland, and all other Fees relating to the Commitment, Continuance, Trial or Discharge of such Prisoners, should be abolished; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Expiration of Fourteen Days next after the passing of this Act, all Fees and Gratuities whatever, paid or payable by any Prisoner in Ireland, on the Entrance, Commitment, Continuance in Custody or Discharge of any such Prisoner, to, in or from any Prison in Ireland, shall absolutely cease and determine; and that no Fee or Gratuity whatsoever shall be paid or payable by any such Prisoner; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

All Gaol Fees abolished in Ireland.

‘ II. And Whereas Prisoners have been frequently detained in Custody for Fees due to the Clerks of the Crown, Clerks of the Peace, and other Officers, and were, during such Detention, supported at the public Expence, and great Inconvenience has arisen thereby from the crowded State of the Gaols and Bridewells in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, for Remedy hereof, That from and after the Expiration of Fourteen Days next after the passing of this Act, no Prisoner shall be detained for his Fees only, and that no Fee whatsoever shall be taken or demanded from any Prisoner, by any Clerk of the Crown or his Deputy, Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Gaoler, Turnkey, Crier or other Officer; any thing in an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, for regulating the Fees payable by Persons charged with Treason, Felony and other Offences, at Assizes and Quarter Sessions in Ireland, or any other Act or Acts, or any Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prisoners not to be detained in Custody for Fees to Clerk of the Crown, &c. under 49 G. 3. c. 101.

‘ III. And be it further enacted, That the several Local Inspectors shall and they are hereby required to affix, in the several Prisons for which such Local Inspectors are appointed, Notice of the Abolition of all Prison Fees, in such Form and Manner as are or may be required by any Act passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and if no Local Inspector be appointed, then the Gaolers or Keepers of such Prison are hereby required to affix the same; and if the said Inspectors, Gaolers and Keepers shall neglect to affix such Notice as aforesaid, any Inspector, Gaoler or Keeper so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds; and that the Expence of fixing such Notices and renewing the same be charged by every Local Inspector, Gaoler or Keeper to the Account of the Prison Necessaries furnished, provided and accounted for by him.

Notice to be affixed in Prisons of the Abolition of all Prison Fees.

Penalty 5l.

U

IV. And

Grand Juries may make Presentments for Fees of Prisoners discharged.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Grand Juries of the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland, in addition to the Sums which they are at present authorized to present off the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, to present for the several Clerks of the Crown, Clerks of the Peace, and other Officers, and their Deputies, Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Gaolers, Turnkeys and Criers, such a Compensation to the said Officer, for the Fees of Prisoners discharged without Payment of Fees, pursuant to the Provisions of this present Act, as would have been payable by such Prisoners themselves, if this Act had never passed.

Amount of Fees presented to be ascertained as under 49 G. 3. c. 101.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Sums to be presented by any Grand Juries under this Act, shall not in any case exceed the Amount of the Fees which would have been payable by the Prisoners, if the present Act had not been made, and that such Amount shall be fixed and ascertained in the Manner provided by the said recited Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, with respect to the fixing and ascertaining the Amount Presentments to be made in lieu of Fees of Persons discharged without Fees.

Prisoners transita.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Presentment shall be made for the Keeper of any Bridewell, for the Fees of any Prisoner who shall have been lodged in such Bridewell, in transitu, to the County Gaol.

Taking Fees contrary to this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Crown or Clerk of the Peace, or any of their Deputies, or any Sheriff or Under Sheriff, or any Gaoler or Under Gaoler, or any Turnkey or Crier at Assizes or Sessions, or any Person acting under them or any of them, shall demand, take or accept any Fee, Gratuity or Reward whatever, directly or indirectly, on the Commitment, Custody, Trial or Discharge of any Prisoner or for any Matter or Thing whatsoever relating thereto, contrary to the Directions of this Act, each and every Person so offending shall for each and every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds British Currency, to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, by Action of Debt, Bill or Plaint, in which no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance shall be allowed; or by Civil Bill, to be heard and determined by the Assistant Barristers at the Sessions of the Peace in such Counties where the said Offences shall be committed.

Penalty 5l.

Proviso for Marshalsea.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the Marshalsea of the Four Courts of the City of Dublin, nor to the Marshalsea of the City of Dublin.

Extortion and Abuses committed by Gaolers, &c.

IX. And for the more speedy punishing Gaolers, Bailiffs and others employed in the Execution of any Process Civil or Criminal, for Extortion or other Abuses in their respective Offices and Places; Be it further enacted, That upon the Petition of any Prisoner or Person, being or having been under Arrest or in Custody, complaining of any Exaction or Extortion by any Gaoler, Bailiff or other Officer or Person in or employed in the keeping or taking Care of any Gaol or Prison or other Place to which any such Prisoner or Person, under or having been under Arrest, or in Custody, by any Process Civil or Criminal, or in any Suit or Action, is or shall have been carried, or in respect of the arresting or apprehending any Person or Persons, by virtue of any Process, Action or Warrant, or of any other Abuse whatsoever, committed or done in their respective Offices or Places, such Petition being presented in Term Time unto any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, from whence the Process issued by which any Person who shall so petition was arrested, or under whose Power or Jurisdiction any such Gaol, Prison or Place is, or in Vacation Time to any Judge of such Court from whence such Process so issued, or upon Petition to the Judges of Assize in their respective Circuits, or to the Judge or Judges of any other Court of Record, where any Prisoner or Person, being or having been under Arrest or in Custody, was arrested or in Custody by Process issued out of or Action entered in any such other Court of Record in Ireland, every such Court or Judge, and every Judge of Assize, and Judge and Judges of other Courts of Record as aforesaid, are hereby authorized and required respectively, within their several Jurisdictions, to hear and determine the Matter of such Petition and Complaints in a summary Way, and to make such Order thereupon, for redressing the Abuses which shall by any such Petition be complained of, and for punishing such Officer or Person complained against, and for making Reparation to the Party or Parties injured, as such Courts or Judges shall think just, together with the full Costs of every such Complaint, where such Courts or Judges shall think the same to be just; and all Determinations which shall be thereupon made by any of the said Courts or Judges as aforesaid respectively, in such summary Way as is herein prescribed, shall have the same Effect, Force and Virtue, and Obedience thereunto may be enforced by the respective Courts and Judges, by Attachment, or in any other Manner, as other Orders of the said respective Courts and Judges may be enforced.

[2d July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS according to Law as hath been adjudged, where a Bill is accepted payable at a Banker's, the Acceptance thereof is not a general but a qualified Acceptance: And Whereas a Practice hath very generally prevailed among Merchants and Traders so to accept Bills, and the same have, among such Persons, been very generally considered as Bills generally accepted, and accepted without Qualification: And Whereas many Persons have been and may be much prejudiced and misled by such Practice and Understanding, and Persons accepting Bills may relieve themselves from all Inconvenience, by giving such Notice as hereinafter mentioned of their Intention to make only a qualified Acceptance thereof;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August now next ensuing, if any Person shall accept a Bill of Exchange, other Place, deemed a general Acceptance.

Bills accepted

Bills accepted payable at a Banker's or other Place only, deemed a qualified Acceptance.

Acceptance to be in Writing on the Bill.

payable at the House of a Banker or other Place, without further Expression in his Acceptance, such Acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all Intents and Purposes, a general Acceptance of such Bill; but if the Acceptor shall in his Acceptance express that he accepts the Bill, payable at a Banker's House or other Place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, such Acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all Intents and Purposes, a qualified Acceptance of such Bill, and the Acceptor shall not be liable to pay the said Bill, except in default of Payment when such Payment shall have been first duly demanded at such Banker's House or other Place.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of August, no Acceptance of any Inland Bill of Exchange shall be sufficient to charge any Person, unless such Acceptance be in Writing on such Bill, or if there be more than one Part of such Bill, on one of the said Parts.

An Act to repeal certain Bounties granted for the Encouragement of the Deep Sea British White Herring Fishery, and to make further Regulations relating to the said Fishery.

[2d July 1821.]

- 48 G. S. c. 110. ' WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the
' the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third,
' for the further Encouragement and better Regulation of the ' British White Herring Fishery, it is among other Things enact-§ 1. ' ed, that from and after the First Day of June One thousand ' eight hundred and nine, a Bounty of Three Pounds per Ton
' shall be paid annually, in the Manner therein prescribed, to the ' Owner or Owners of any whole decked Buss or Vessel, of not ' less than Sixty Tons Burthen, or any Person or Persons hiring
' the same, being British built, owned in Great Britain, and man' ned, navigated and registered according to Law, which shall be ' fitted out for, and be actually employed in the Deep Sea British
' White Herring Fishery, on the Coasts of Great Britain or Ire-
' land in the Manner and under the Regulations therein particu' larly prescribed: And Whereas another Act was passed in the 51 G. S. c. 101. ' Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for amend-52 G. S. c. 153. ' ing the said Act: And another Act was passed in the Fifty ' second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to rectify a ' Mistake, and to carry into more effectual Execution the Pur' poses of the said recited Act; which several Acts, by an Act 54 G. S. c. 102. ' passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Ma' jesty, were continued to the End of the then next Session of ' Parliament: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth 55 G. S. c. 94. ' Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, the said Acts were ' further amended and made perpetual: And Whereas it is ex' pedient that the said Bounty should be repealed; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Bounty of Three Pounds per Ton shall, from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, cease and determine, and shall be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as regards the Deep Sea British White Herring Fishery, in the said recited Acts mentioned.
and

per Ton repealed.

‘ II. And Whereas by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it is among other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to appoint a Commissioned Officer in His Majesty’s Navy, as Superintendent of the said Deep Sea Fishery, for the Purposes and with the Powers therein particularly mentioned, which Person so appointed Superintendent shall annually proceed in a proper Vessel or Vessels of sufficient Force, to be provided for that Purpose, to Brassey Sound in Shelland, which is thereby appointed to be the Place of Rendezvous of the said Deep Sea British White Herring Fishery, so as to arrive there before the Fifteenth Day of June; and that the said Superintendent shall remain with the Vessels which shall be employed in the Fishery during the Continuance thereof for the Season.’ And Whereas the said Provision is rendered unnecessary by Operation of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, so much of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, or of any other Act, as relates to the Appointment of a Superintendent of the said Deep Sea Fishery, and to the Matters and Things to be done by such Superintendent, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal any Act or Provision made for the Appointment or Employment of a Superintendent of the British Herring Fishery, other than the said Deep Sea Fishery.

48 G. 3. c. 110 § 8.

48 G. 3. c. 110. and other Acts relating to Appointment of a Superintendent of Fishery, repealed. Proviso.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the British White Herring Fishery, from time to time to make such Rules and Regulations directing by what Means and Methods the Provisions of the Acts herein recited, and now in force, or of this Act, or of any Act hereafter to be made relating to the said Fishery, shall be observed, performed and put in execution, and the Purposes thereof duly answered and fulfilled, as to the said Commissioners shall seem fitting and expedient; and that all such Rules and Regulations shall be as valid and effectual as if the same were set forth in this Act, and shall be obeyed and carried into execution by the Officers of the British Herring Fishery, and all other Persons concerned; and that no Bounty granted by the said Act of the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign, or by this Act, shall be allowed or paid to any Person or Persons, unless all such Rules and Regulations shall be duly complied with by the Person or Persons thereby required to perform the same.

Commissioners for British Herring Fishery may make Regulations for executing this and recited Acts.

No Bounty unless complied with.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any White Herrings caught and cured in the Irish Fishery, and for which any Bounty granted for the Encouragement thereof shall have been paid or allowed, shall be produced to any Officer of the British Fishery, for the Purpose of obtaining any Bounty granted for the Encouragement of the same; or if any White Herrings caught and cured in the British Fishery, and for which any Bounty granted for the Encouragement thereof shall have been paid or allowed, shall be produced to any Officer of the Irish Fishery, for the Purpose of obtaining any Bounty granted for the Encouragement of the same; all such Herrings, with the Barrels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery, Customs or Excise; and the Person or Persons producing the same shall also forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied in such Manner as any Penalty is directed to be recovered and applied under any Act or Acts in force for the Encouragement of the Fisheries in Great Britain or Ireland respectively.

In what case of Herrings unduly produced to Officers of British and Irish Fishery for obtaining the Bounty, the same forfeited, and Penalty 500l.

‘ V. And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, it is among other Things enacted, that the Commissioners for the British White Herring Fishery be and they are thereby empowered to fix and determine, by Rules or Regulations to be made by them for that Purpose, the Content or Capacity of every Measure commonly called a Cran, by which Fresh Herrings taken in the British Herring Fishery shall be bought and sold, also the Form or Dimensions thereof, the Sort or Sorts of Wood of which it shall be made, the Thickness of every Part thereof, the Number and Dimensions of the Hoops with which it shall be bound, and whether the Whole or what Part of such Hoops shall be of Iron, and also to determine and direct what Marks or Characters shall be set, and upon what Part or Parts of every such Measure, as also to appoint a fit Person or Persons at such Place or Places as they shall think proper to examine the same, and upon finding any such Measure to be conformable in all respects to the Rules or Regulations to be made by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, to cause such Marks or Characters as aforesaid to be branded thereon with an hot Iron in his Presence, according to the Rules and Regulations aforesaid; and if at any Time after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, any Cran or Measure not so marked or branded as aforesaid shall be made use of in the buying or receiving, selling or delivering of Fresh Herrings in the British Herring Fishery, or on any Part of the Coast or Shores of Great Britain, every Person so making use thereof shall forfeit the said Cran or Measure, and also the Sum of Ten Pounds, and the Commissioners for the British Herring Fishery shall cause the said Cran or Measure to be destroyed:’

If Person buying or receiving fresh Herrings make use of, or have in his Possession, any Cran or Measure of undue Content, same forfeited, and Penalty 10l.

And Whereas the Provisions above recited have not been sufficient for the Purposes thereby intended; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person buying or receiving fresh Herrings shall, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Quantity thereof, make use of or shall have in his Possession any Cran or Measure which, whether the same shall or shall not be branded with such Marks or Characters as is required by the above recited Act, shall be of greater Content or Capacity than is or shall be required by the Rules or Regulations of the said Commissioners of the British Herring Fishery, every such Person making use of or having in his Possession any such Cran or Measure, shall forfeit the same, and also the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered and applied in the same manner as the like Forfeitures are directed to be recovered and applied by the last recited Act; and the Commissioners for the British Herring Fishery shall cause the said Cran or Measure to be burnt.

VI. And

VI. And Whereas by the said Act, made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it is among other Things enacted, that from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nine, there shall be paid for every Barrel containing Thirty two Gallons of White Herrings caught in the British Fisheries, and landed in Great Britain, and which shall be cured and packed according to the Directions of that Act, a Bounty of Two Shillings: And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, after reciting the Provision last recited, it is enacted, that from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the said Bounty of Two Shillings shall cease and determine, and in lieu thereof a Bounty of Four Shillings a Barrel shall be granted, which Bounty of Four Shillings shall be paid for every Barrel of Herrings which shall be caught, landed, cured and packed according to the Directions of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and of that Act, for the Encouragement of the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man engaged in the Prosecution of the British Herring Fisheries: Be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the like Bounty of Four Shillings shall be paid for every Barrel of Herrings caught in the Fisheries of the Isle of Man or other British Fisheries, in Vessels or Boats fitted out from the said Isle, landed there, and cured and packed according to the Directions of the said Acts passed in the Forty eighth and Fifty fifth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty and of this Act.

48 G. 3. c. 110

§ 3.

55 G. 3. c. 91.

§ 6.

Bounty of 4s. for every Barrel of Herrings caught in British Fisheries, cured and packed in Isle of Man.

Regulations, &c. in 48 & 55 G. 3. extended to Isle of Man.

Bounty extended to Is of Man to be paid by Excise in Scotland.

Recovery of Penalties.

55 G. 3. c. 94. § 28.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Powers or Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, in or by the said Acts of the Forty eighth and Fifty fifth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign and this Act, or in or by any of them contained or imposed and now in force or to be in force after the passing of this Act, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, and can be put in execution, shall extend to and be in force in the Isle of Man: Provided always, that the Bounty hereby extended to the Isle of Man shall be paid by Order of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, in the same manner as the Bounty of Four Shillings for every Barrel of White Herrings caught in British Fisheries, and landed in Great Britain, is directed to be paid; and that any such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, shall or may be sued for, recovered, levied, mitigated and applied, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, mitigated and applied by any Law or Laws of Custom or Excise in Great Britain, or by any Law of Customs in the Isle of Man.

VIII. And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it is enacted, that when any White Herrings, packed in Barrels or Casks, shall be imported or brought into any Port or Place in Great Britain from any Port or Place in Ireland, the Isle of Man, or from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty's Dominion, the Barrels or Casks containing the said Herrings shall have been, or, within Twenty four Hours after the Landing thereof and before the same shall be put into any Warehouse, shall be branded with such Word or Words as after mentioned respectively; (that is to say,) if imported from any Port or Place in Ireland, with the Word

- “ Irish ;” if imported from the Isle of Man, the Word “ Manx ;” if imported from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty’s Dominion, with a Word or Words descriptive of the Name of such other Island or Colony respectively ; which Word or Words shall be branded on every such Barrel or Cask respectively, in the manner therein directed, and shall remain thereon distinctly legible ; and that any such Herrings shall not be afterwards packed in any other Barrels or Casks unless such Word or Words respectively as aforesaid shall have been so branded thereon as aforesaid ; nor shall any such Herrings be laid in Bulk or mixed with any other Herrings, unless the same shall be so laid in Bulk or mixed in a Manufactory of Red Herrings, for the Purpose of being made into Red Herrings ; and that if any White Herrings, imported in Barrels or Casks from any such Port or Place as is above mentioned, shall be found in Bulk or mixed with any other Herrings, unless as aforesaid, or packed in Barrels or Casks, on which such Word or Words shall not have been branded respectively, or shall not remain thereon distinctly legible as aforesaid, contrary to the said Act, all such Herrings, with the Barrels or Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery or of the Customs ; but it is by the said Act provided, that nothing in the said Act made in the Forty eighth Year, or in the said Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty’s Reign contained, relative to the Size or Thickness of the Barrels or Half Barrels in which White Herrings shall be packed, or against their being made of Fir, or relative to the Exportation of White Herrings, shall extend or be construed to extend to White Herrings imported in Barrels or Casks from Ireland, the Isle of Man, or from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty’s Dominion, such Barrels or Casks being branded in the manner therein directed :
- § 28. And Whereas by the Operation of an Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for the further Encouragement and Improvement of the Irish Fisheries, and of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament for the Amendment of the said last mentioned Act, and by the Operation of this Act, the Provisions of the said recited Act, and the Forfeitures thereby enacted, so far as relates to White Herrings contained in Barrels or Casks imported or brought into any Port or Place in Great Britain from Ireland or the Isle of Man, have become unnecessary and inexpedient ; Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and the Regulations, Restrictions and Forfeitures therein contained, so far as relates to White Herrings contained in Barrels or Casks imported or brought into any Port or Place in Great Britain, from any Port or Place in Ireland or the Isle of Man, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.
- 59 G. 3. c. 109. IX. And be it further enacted, That any thing by this Act directed or required to be done by the Commissioners for the British Herring Fishery shall and may be done by such Number of them as by the Letters Patent for the Appointment of such Commissioners is or shall be determined.

[2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the Purpose (among other things) of amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament several Laws for preventing the Exportation of live Sheep, Rams and Lambs, Wool, Wool Fells, and Manufactures or pretended Manufactures made of Wool, it is enacted, that a Register of all Wool and other Articles in the said Act enumerated and sent Coastwise, and also a Register of the Return of the Landing of the Wool or other Articles so shipped, shall be kept by the Customer or Collector or Comptroller at each Port; and a Copy thereof shall be transmitted once in every Six Months to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs at the Port of London, there to be registered in a Book to be kept at the Custom House by some Person or Persons to be by the said Commissioners appointed for that Purpose, and which Register and Registers shall at all seasonable times be inspected, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling, by any Person or Persons whomsoever, on Application for that Purpose; and a printed Copy of such Register shall, within Sixty Days next after the End of each Year, be transmitted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs at the said Port of London, to the respective Custom Houses within this Kingdom, and which said Copies so transmitted shall be inspected by any Person on Payment of the like Fee in manner aforesaid upon Application for that Purpose: And Whereas it is no longer necessary to require the said Registers to be kept, nor to transmit printed Copies thereof to the several Custom Houses; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act, as is immediately hereinbefore set forth, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

28 G. 3. c. 38.

So much of recited Act as before stated, repealed.

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act for allowing to Distillers of Spirits for Home Consumption in Scotland a Drawback of a Portion of the Duty on Malt used by them; and for the further Prevention of smuggling of Spirits on the Borders of Scotland and England. [2d July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that a Portion of the Duty on Malt used by Distillers of Spirits for Home Consumption in Scotland should be allowed to be drawn back by such Distillers: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, a Drawback of One Shilling shall be allowed to every Distiller of Spirits for Home Consumption in Scotland, for every Bushel of Malt used by such Distiller in the Distillation of such Spirits, for or in respect of which Malt the Duty payable by Law shall have been paid; subject nevertheless to the Conditions and Regulations herein contained to which every such Distiller shall conform, or he shall not be entitled to the Drawback hereby allowed.

Drawback of 1s. allowed for every Bushel of Malt used in Distillation.

Malt to be deposited in an entered Room, Distiller to provide Fastenings, and Excise Officer to keep the Key.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Distiller, meaning to take or who shall be entitled to take the Benefit of this Act, shall provide a proper and secure Room or Place, or proper and secure Rooms or Places, in which all Malt to be used by such Distiller shall be deposited and kept, to be approved of in Writing by the Supervisor of the District, and shall at the time of taking out his or her Licence make entry of every such Room or Place, and produce a written Approbation thereof by such Supervisor; and every such Distiller shall, at his or her own Expence, provide proper and sufficient Fastenings, and the Supervisor of Excise who shall survey such Distillery shall, at the Expence of such Distiller, from time to time provide proper Locks and Keys, and keep the same in Repair, for the Door or Doors of such Room or Place, Rooms or Places, and to be approved of by the said Supervisor; and the Key or Keys of such Lock and Locks shall at all times be kept by the proper Excise Officer authorized by the Commissioners of Excise in that Behalf.

Malt to be deposited in Presence of Officer, to whom 24 Hours' Notice shall be given.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Malt purchased or made by any such Distiller making such Entry as aforesaid, shall be in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise deposited by such Distiller in such Room or Place, Rooms or Places, entered by him or her as aforesaid, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been purchased or made; and that at least Twenty four Hours' Notice in Writing of the time when any such Malt is to be so deposited, specifying the Quantity thereof, shall be given to such Excise Officer, who shall see the same so deposited and take an Account thereof; and if any Malt purchased or made by any such Distiller shall not be so deposited, or any such Distiller shall not provide such Fastenings as aforesaid, or on Demand by such Supervisor pay such Supervisor for any such Locks and Keys respec-

the Key of any such Room or Place belonging to such Distiller shall be kept, upon Oath taken before the Supervisor or Collector of the District or Collection wherein his or her Distillery shall be situated, which Oath such Supervisor or Collector is hereby authorized and required to administer, an Account of all Malt used by such Distiller in the preceding Month, specifying the Dates and Quantities used at any one Time; and every such Distiller shall swear that, according to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, there was not in any such Malt used by him or her any Admixture of unmalted Barley or unmalted Grain, or any Malt except such Malt so deposited and taken account of by the Officer as aforesaid; and every such Distiller swearing falsely shall be liable to the Pains of Perjury; and if such Distiller shall knowingly make any false Entry or Statement in such Account, every such Distiller shall forfeit and pay a Penalty of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and levied as any Excise Penalty may be recovered and levied.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller taking the Benefit of this Act shall purchase or make any Malt which shall not be deposited in such Room or Place, Rooms or Places, entered by him or her as aforesaid, or shall make use of any Malt which shall not have been deposited in such Room or Place, Rooms or Places, so entered by him or her, or which shall not be taken out of the same and ground and mixed with Water in the Mash Tun in the manner herein directed; or if any such Distiller shall permit or suffer any such Malt, or the Wash to be made therefrom to be used by any other Person or Persons, or for any other Purpose than the making of Spirits by such Distiller for Home Consumption; every such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and levied as any Excise Penalty may be recovered and levied.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Officer of Excise receiving any such Certificate, Declaration or Notice as aforesaid, shall keep a Book, in which shall be entered the Particulars contained in every such Certificate, Declaration and Notice, and shall once in every Month make out an Account, shewing each Quantity of Malt with the Date when deposited in each Room and Place so entered as aforesaid, and each Quantity of Malt with the Date when taken therefrom and ground and mixed in the Mash Tun, in the manner herein directed, during the Period to which such Account shall relate; and shall, with such Distiller, make Oath to the Truth of such Account before the Collector of the Collection (which Oath such Collector is hereby empowered and required to administer), and such Officer shall transmit the same, with all the Certificates, Declarations and Notices as hereinbefore directed, received by such Officer during such Period relating to such Account, to the Supervisor of the District, and such Supervisor shall forthwith examine and thereafter transmit the same, with his Observations thereupon, to the Commissioners of Excise at Edinburgh, for their Consideration and further Examination; and if such Commissioners shall be satisfied therewith, they shall make an Order upon the Collector of the Collection, to allow to each Distiller to whom such Account shall relate

the Sum of One Shilling per Bushel for and in respect of every Bushel of Malt so used by any such Distiller during such Period.

X. And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of 59 G. 3. c. 53.
 His said late Majesty, for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties of Excise on Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, § 23.
 Tobacco and Snuff, Pepper, Malt and British Spirits, and consolidating the same with the former Duties thereon, and for amending certain Laws of Excise relating thereto, it is enacted, that from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, every Distiller for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, shall, in each and every Year ending the Tenth Day of October, produce, and shall duly export to and land and pay Duty for, in England or Scotland respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons at the least of Spirits, at the Strength of Seven per Centum above Hydrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made by such Distiller in such Year, except so much of such Spirits as shall be lost by Shipwreck; and if any such Distiller shall in any such Year fail, neglect or refuse to produce, and duly export to and land or pay Duty for, in England or Scotland respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons at the least of such Spirits at the Strength aforesaid, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made in such Year by such Distiller, and shall not within One Month after the Expiration of such Year pay Duty in England or Scotland, as the case may be, at and after the Rate of Duty chargeable by Law for and in respect of such Spirits so imported, for every Gallon of such Spirits below or short of such Proportion as aforesaid, which any such Distiller shall fail to land and pay Duty for as aforesaid, every such Distiller shall for every such Refusal as aforesaid forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Spirits not landed and paid Duty for, except as aforesaid, in such Year: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited, and make further Provision in lieu thereof; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, except as to any Duties which shall have become due or payable, and any Penalties which shall be incurred on or before that Day. repealed.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, every Distiller in England for Exportation to Scotland, and in Scotland for Exportation to England, respectively, shall deposit, store and keep all the Spirits by him or her made or distilled, or made or distilled at his or her entered Distillery for Exportation as aforesaid, in every Year ending on the First Day of October, in a distinct Warehouse or Warehouses, separate and apart from all Spirits made or distilled in any other Year ending as aforesaid, and from all other Spirits; and shall in each and every Year ending on the Fifth Day of January export to, land and pay Duty for, in Scotland or England respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons at the least of Spirits of the Strength of Seven per Centum above Regulations as to Distillers for Exportation to England and Scotland keeping Spirits distilled in distinct Warehouses, and exporting and paying Duty for Spirits herein mentioned.

above Hydrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be distilled into Spirits by such Distiller, or at such Distillery, in the Year ending on the preceding First Day of October, except so much of such Spirits as shall, in the like Proportion, and computed at the Strength aforesaid, be before the said Fifth Day of January exported by such Distiller or Distillers respectively, directly from his or her Stock of Spirits distilled in the Year ending on the preceding First Day of October, to and landed in Ireland, under the Regulations contained and referred to in and by an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for regulating, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, the Trade in Spirits between Great Britain and Ireland reciprocally; and also except so much of such Spirits as shall, after being shipped for Exportation as aforesaid, be lost by Shipwreck; and if any such Distiller respectively as aforesaid shall not deposit, store and keep all the Spirits by him or her made or distilled, or made or distilled at his or her entered Distillery for Exportation as aforesaid, in every Year ending on the First Day of October, in a distinct Warehouse or Warehouses, separate and apart from all Spirits made or distilled in any other Year ending as last aforesaid, and from all other Spirits, every such Distiller shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits not deposited, stowed and kept by him or her as aforesaid, or of Five hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same; and if any such Distiller respectively as aforesaid shall, in any Year ending on the Fifth Day of January as aforesaid, fail, neglect or refuse to export to, land and pay Duty for, in Scotland or England respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons at the least of Spirits of the Strength aforesaid, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be distilled into Spirits by such Distiller, or at such Distillery, in the Year ending on the preceding First Day of October as aforesaid (except as aforesaid), or shall not, within One Month after the Expiration of such Year ending on the Fifth Day of January, pay Duty in Scotland or England, as the case may be, being that Part of the United Kingdom to which such Quantity of Spirits is hereby required to be exported, landed and Duty paid as aforesaid, at and after the Rate of Duty chargeable by Law for and in respect of such Spirits, for every Gallon of such Spirits below or short of such Proportion as aforesaid, which any such Distiller shall fail to land and pay Duty for as aforesaid, every such Distiller shall, for every such Default, Neglect or Refusal as aforesaid, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Spirits not exported, landed and paid Duty for (except as aforesaid), in such Period as aforesaid.

‘ XII. And Whereas Spirits brought by Land from Scotland into England are respectively forfeited; but it is expedient that more effectual Provision should be made to prevent Persons privately distilling Spirits, and removing, harbouring and concealing Spirits on the Borders of Scotland and England respectively; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall remove or cause to be removed, or sell or deliver, or offer for Sale or Delivery, or buy,

C A P. LXXXIV.

An Act to grant Duties of Customs on certain Articles of Wood imported into Great Britain, in lieu of former Duties; and to amend an Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of His late Majesty, for granting certain Duties of Customs in Great Britain.

[2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Customs payable upon the Importation into Great Britain of certain Articles of Wood should cease and determine, and that other Duties of Customs should be imposed in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the several Duties of Customs payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July, upon the Importation into Great Britain of the several Articles of Wood enumerated or described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), shall cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering or allowing any Arrears thereof respectively, which may at the Duties now payable on Wood, described in Table A., to cease, except as to Arrears;

Time of passing this Act remain unpaid or not allowed, or relating to any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures in respect thereof, which shall have been incurred at any time before the said Fifth Day of July.

and instead thereof the Duties specified in said Table.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July, in lieu and in stead of the several Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the several Articles of Wood enumerated and described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), imported or brought into Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted or described, and set forth in Figures, in the said Table marked (A.).

Duties to be paid into Exchequer, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising from the Duties imposed by this Act (the necessary Charges of receiving and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same manner as the Duties hereby repealed were directed to be appropriated and applied by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July.

Duties and Drawbacks under Commissioners of Customs.

IV. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs by this Act imposed and allowed as shall arise in England shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in Scotland shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being.

Duty of 6s. 3d. per Cwt. of Cotton Wool imported from America, specified in Schedule to 59 G. 3. c. 52. suspended.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Duty of Six Shillings and Three Pence on every One hundred Pounds Weight of Cotton Wool, being the Produce of and directly imported from any British Colony or Plantation in America, specified and set forth in the Table marked (A.), annexed to an Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, shall be suspended from the Eleventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

59 G. 3. c. 52. § 12. repealed, and Duty ad Valorem of Cotton Wool to remain.

VI. And Whereas by the said recited Act it is among other Things provided, that upon all Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool which shall have been or shall be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty, at any Time previous to the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven Pence for every One hundred Pounds Weight shall be charged and paid at any Time, as well after as before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when such Cotton Wool shall be taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption: And Whereas by Table (A.) Inwards, annexed to the said recited Act, a Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven Pence the One hundred Pounds Weight is imposed on Cotton Wool the Produce of any British Colony or Plantation in America not being imported directly from

‘ from thence, and on Cotton Wool the Produce of any other Country or Place, until the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, inclusive, if imported in British built Ships: And Whereas it is not expedient that the aforesaid Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven Pence should be charged and paid after the aforesaid Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty; but that the said Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, should be liable to the Duties charged in the aforesaid Table (A.) Inwards, according to the Value thereof:’ Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Proviso or Enactment in the said recited Act as requires the Payment of the aforesaid Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven Pence, after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that so much of the said recited Act, and the Table thereto annexed, as requires or authorizes the Payment of the Duty on Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, according to the Value thereof, shall be and remain in full force and effect.

in part in force.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, all Granite Stone, the Production of Great Britain, brought Coastwise from any Port or Place within Great Britain, to any other Port or Place therein, for the Purpose of the paving or making or mending of any Roads in Great Britain, and all Stone the Production of Great Britain, so brought Coastwise for the Purpose of repairing or upholding Sea Banks or Sea Walls in Great Britain, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be exempt from the Duty imposed upon such Granite Stone and other Stone, the Production of Great Britain, brought Coastwise, under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

Granite and other Stone brought Coastwise, for repairing Sea Banks or Sea Walls, exempt from Duty.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all such Granite Stone and other Stone shall be accompanied with the usual Coast Despatches as in case of Goods carried Coastwise free of Duty; and that the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees, of all such Granite or other Stone respectively, shall, previous to the same being unshipped or landed from on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been brought Coastwise, make a regular Entry of such Stone with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where the same shall be brought Coastwise, and shall make Oath thereon before the said Officer, who is hereby authorized and required to administer the same, that such Stone is intended for the Purposes above mentioned respectively, and no other; and if any such Granite Stone or other Stone shall afterwards be applied to any other Uses or Purposes, such Granite Stone or other Stone shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs; and the Owner or Proprietor thereof shall forfeit for every Ton Weight of any such Granite Stone or other Stone the Sum of Twenty Shillings, One Moiety of which shall be to the Use of the Person who shall give Information thereof, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall sue for the same.

‘ Act made in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, certain Duties of Customs are imposed upon Slate and Stones of the Production of Great Britain, brought Coastwise from any Port or Place within Great Britain to any other Port or Place therein: Be it enacted, That the said Duties of Customs imposed on such Slate and Stone shall be charged and payable only on such Slate and Stone brought Coastwise from any Port within Great Britain to any other Port therein.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Duty shall be payable, nor any Sufferance Warrant, Transire or other Document whatever, shall be required by any Officer or Officers of the Customs for or on the Shipping, carrying, conveying, removing or landing Coastwise within Great Britain of any Chippings of Granite Stone, Kentish Rag Stone or Whin Stone, broken up into small Pieces, or of any Round Pebble or Cobble Stones picked up in the Beds of Rivers or on the Sea Shore, and fit for no other Purpose than repairing Streets and Highways.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, all and singular the Duties of Customs payable on Pepper, Cayenne Pepper, Long Pepper, Guinea Pepper, Capsicum or Chillies, imported into Great Britain, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may remain unpaid on the said Fifth Day of July, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before or on the said Fifth Day of July.

XII. And Whereas by the Laws now in force, French Wines are allowed to be imported into Great Britain in Bottles or Flasks, provided the same are imported in Packages each of which shall contain at least Six Dozen reputed Quart Bottles or Flasks; and it is expedient to permit the Importation of other Wines in Bottles or Flasks, for private Use, under the like Regulations: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, it shall and may be lawful for any Person to import into Great Britain, for private Use, any Wine in Bottles or Flasks, provided that such Wine be imported in Packages each of which shall contain at least Six Dozen reputed Quart Bottles or Flasks, on Payment of the same Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, as French Wine is subject to; and in such Manner, and under and according to such and the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, and subject to such and the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted in any Act or Acts of Parliament with respect to French Wine so imported into Great Britain, so far as the same are applicable thereto.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Wine imported for private Use, and not intended to be sold which

which shall be imported into Great Britain from any Parts within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, under the Regulations contained in the said hereinbefore recited Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign; but that such Wine may be imported, under such Regulations and subject to such Duties as are required and directed by the said recited Act.

Limits of Charter of East India Company.

XIV. And Whereas by the Laws now in force, any Wine whatever is allowed to be imported into Great Britain from Guernsey, Jersey and Alderney, in Bottles or Flasks, as well for Sale as private Use, in Packages, each of which shall contain at least Six Dozen reputed Quart Bottles or Flasks: And Whereas it is expedient that Wine so imported should be subject to the same Duties as French Wine: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, any Wine in Bottles or Flasks shall, on Importation thereof into Great Britain from the Islands aforesaid, be subject and liable to the Payment of the same Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, as French Wine, and shall be subject to the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures as are provided and enacted in any Act or Acts of Parliament with respect to French Wine so imported, so far as the same are applicable thereto.

Wine imported in Bottles or Flasks from Guernsey, Jersey, &c. subject to the same Duties as French Wine.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to compel the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Sort of Wood, liable to any Duties under this Act, to pay the Duties upon the Importation or Landing thereof in Great Britain, in any case where such Articles might, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July, have been secured without Payment of Duty, or in any case where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on such Articles of Wood are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July; but that in all such cases the Duties, specified in the Table to this Act annexed, marked (A.), may be secured by Bond or otherwise, in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are contained in any such Act or Acts, except where it is otherwise provided by this Act: Provided always, that in case the Importer or Proprietor of any such Wood, which shall have been secured by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, shall be desirous of taking any such Wood from any Place where the same shall be secured, for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, then and in such case the Duties imposed by this Act shall be payable thereon, notwithstanding such Wood may have been imported before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

An Act to explain and amend several Acts relating to the assessing, levying and collecting the County Rates.

[2d July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twelfth Year of the 12 G. 2. c. 29.
 ‘ Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, for the ‘ more easy assessing, levying and collecting of County Rates :
 ‘ And Whereas an Act was passed in the Thirteenth Year of the 15 G. 2. c. 18.
 ‘ Reign of His said Majesty King George the Second (amongst ‘ other Purposes), for extending the Powers and Authorities of ‘ Justices of the Peace of Counties, touching County Rates, to the ‘ Justices of the Peace of such Liberties and Franchises as have ‘ Commissions of the Peace within themselves : And Whereas an ‘ Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late 55 G. 3. c. 51.
 ‘ Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend an ‘ Act of His late Majesty King George the Second, for the more ‘ easy assessing, collecting and levying of County Rates: And ‘ Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign 56 G. 3. c. 49.
 ‘ of His said late Majesty, to explain and amend the said last ‘ mentioned Act : And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty 57 G. 3. c. 94.
 ‘ seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to amend ‘ the said last mentioned Act : And Whereas there are several ‘ Parishes, Townships, Hamlets and Places, situated in and ex‘ tending into Two or more Counties, Ridings or Divisions, having ‘ separate and distinct Commissions of the Peace, Part of such ‘ Parishes, Townships, Hamlets and other Places being situated ‘ in one County; Riding or Division, and other Part or Parts ‘ thereof in another County or other Counties, Riding or Ridings, ‘ Division or Divisions, and the Messuages, Lands, Tenements
 ‘ and Hereditaments situated in such Parishes, Townships, ‘ Hamlets or other Places, are rateable to the Relief of the Poor ‘ therein, and to the County Rates of the respective Counties, ‘ Ridings or Divisions, in which such Messuages, Lands, Tene‘ ments and Hereditaments are respectively situated ; but the ‘ Constables, Churchwardens and Overseers are appointed for ‘ the whole of such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or Places,
 ‘ and it frequently happens that such Constables, Churchwardens
 ‘ and Overseers are resident in one Division of such Parishes, ‘ Townships, Hamlets or other Places, and that there are no ‘ Constables, Churchwardens or Overseers residing in the other ‘ Division thereof, or within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the ‘ Justices making such County Rate or Rates, whereby consider‘ able Difficulties have in such Cases arisen in raising the County ‘ Rates in such Divisions :’ For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted
 ‘ by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice
 ‘ and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, ‘ in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of ‘ the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all and ‘ every the Powers and Provisions, Clauses, Pains, Penalties and ‘ Forfeitures, given, granted, provided, made or imposed, by the ‘ said recited Acts or any of them, shall extend, and be deemed, ‘ construed and taken to extend, to all Cases and Places as aforesaid, ‘ where Places where there are no separate

Church-wardens, &c. or where no separate or distinct Poor Rate is made for any Place extending into Two or more Counties, &c.

where there are no separate Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, or where no separate or distinct Rate is made and collected for the Relief of the Poor of any such Division, or Part of any Parish, Township or Place, situated in and extending into Two or more Counties, Ridings or Divisions as aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said several Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, were herein and hereby repeated and reenacted, as to all such Cases and Places as aforesaid; and that from and after the passing of this Act, all and every the Constables, Churchwardens and Overseers of any such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or other Places as are situated in and extend into Two or more Counties, Ridings or Divisions, having separate and distinct Commissions of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be subject to the Precepts, Warrants, Orders and Directions of the several Justices of the Peace for the respective Divisions or Parts of such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or other Places, so far as the same may relate to the making of the Returns required by the said recited Acts or any of them, and the assessing, levying and collecting of the Proportion of the County Rate for such respective Divisions or Parts of such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or other Places, or otherwise to the Execution of the said recited Acts, and of any other Acts relating thereto, within the Parts of such Parishes, Townships, Hamlets or other Places, as shall be situated within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justices making and issuing such Precepts, Orders, Warrants and Directions, and shall be subject to the same Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, for Neglect and Disobedience of the Precepts, Warrants, Orders and Directions of such Justices, so far as the same shall relate to the Matters aforesaid or any of them, or otherwise to the Execution of the said recited Acts or any other Acts relating to the assessing, levying and collecting of the County Rate within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justices making and issuing such Precepts, Warrants, Orders and Directions as such Constables, Churchwardens and Overseers, or other Officers would by the Laws now in force be subject and liable to, if such Constables, Churchwardens, Overseers or other Officers had resided within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justices making and issuing such Precepts, Warrants, Orders and Directions: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed, deemed or taken to extend to authorize any Justice or Justices of the Peace to act in the cases aforesaid, or any of them, beyond the Limits of the Jurisdiction within which he or they shall be generally appointed and authorized to act as such Justices.

And Constables, &c. liable to the same Penalties for Disobedience of the Orders of Justices, &c.

Justices not to act beyond their Jurisdiction.

56 G. 3. c. 49.

‘ II. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, it was enacted, that all Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments situate, lying or being in any extra parochial Place or other Places, whether rated to the Relief of the Poor or not so rated, although the same might not be deemed rateable to the Relief of the Poor within such extra parochial Places or other Places where no Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor, should be and the same were thereby declared to be subject to be assessed, taxed and rated, by and under the Order, Direction and Authority of Justices of

of the Peace, in such and the same manner as the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments within any Parishes or Places where a Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor; and that the Justices of the Peace should, in all cases where the same might be necessary, appoint proper Persons within such extra parochial or other Places, as directed in and by the said therein recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for the assessing, taxing and rating such extra parochial Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and levying, collecting and paying over such Assessments, Taxes or Rates under the Provisions of the said recited Act: And Whereas there are extra parochial and other Places where no Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor, in which there are no Messuages, or no Person or Persons resident proper to be appointed for the assessing, taxing and rating such extra parochial or other Places, and levying, collecting and paying over such Assessments, Taxes or Rates under the Provisions of the said last recited Act; and it is expedient that in those cases the Justices of the Peace should be authorized and empowered, in their Discretion, to appoint proper Persons, who do not reside within such extra parochial or other Places, to assess, tax and rate all Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments situated in such extra parochial or other Places; Be it therefore further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace in and for any County, Riding or Division, shall in all such cases, where they shall deem it necessary, appoint proper Persons within such County, Riding or Division, as directed in and by the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, whether such Persons do or do not reside within such extra parochial or other Place as aforesaid, to assess, tax and rate all such Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as are situated in such extra parochial or other Places as aforesaid; any thing in the said last recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And, for the more effectually levying Money assessed for the Purposes aforesaid, be it enacted, That the Goods of any Person assessed, or by the said recited Acts, or this or any of them, made liable to pay the Rates thereby authorized to be raised and levied, or any Proportion thereof, for any County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town Corporate or Place, and refusing to pay, may be levied by Warrant of Distress, not only in the Place for which such Assessment was made, but in any other Place within the same County or Precinct; and if sufficient Distress cannot be found within the said County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town Corporate or Place, on Oath made thereof before some Justice of any other County or Precinct (which Oath shall be certified under the Hand of such Justice on the said Warrant), such Goods may be levied in such other County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town Corporate or Place, by virtue of such Warrant and Certificate; and if any Person shall find him or herself aggrieved by such Distress as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Person to appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County or Precinct where such Assessment was made, and the Justices there are hereby required to hear and finally determine the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Penalty

In extra parochial Places, where no Poor Rate is made, Justices may appoint Persons not residing there to tax and assess County Rate.

The Goods of Persons liable to pay Rates of this and the said Acts may be seized by Warrant of Distress in any other Place than the Place of Assessment, &c.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

Where sufficient Distress

cannot be found in one County, &c. Justices of other Counties, on Oath thereof certified, may indorse the Warrant, and direct Distress to be there levied.

Penalty, Forfeiture, Fine or other Money may, under or by virtue of the said recited Acts or this Act, or any of them, by the Warrant of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, be directed to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of any Person or Persons, if sufficient Distress cannot be found within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justice granting such Warrant of Distress, on Oath thereof made by One Witness before any Justice of the Peace of any other County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town Corporate or Place, (which Oath shall be by him certified by Indorsement on such Warrant,) such Penalty, Forfeiture, Fine or other Money, or so much thereof as may not have been before levied or paid, shall and may, by virtue of such Warrant and Indorsement, be raised and levied by the Person or Persons to whom such Warrant of Distress shall have been originally directed, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons in such other County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town Corporate or Place; and the Money arising by such Distress and Sale shall be applied and disposed of for such Purpose, and in like Manner, as if sufficient Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons had been found within the Jurisdiction of the Justice originally granting such Warrant; and if no such Distress can be found, such Offender or Offenders shall and may be forthwith proceeded against according to Law.

Justices not accountable for Irregularities in respect of granting Warrant.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Justice who shall endorse any Certificate upon, or authorize the Execution of any such Warrant of Distress, which may not have been granted within his Jurisdiction, shall be answerable or accountable for any Irregularity which may have been committed or done, in or about the obtaining or granting of such Warrant of Distress.

‘ Importation of Corn, certain Provisions were made for regulating the Price at which Foreign Corn, Meal and Flour should there- after be permitted to be imported into the United Kingdom, or be taken out of the Warehouse for Home Consumption;’ Be it enacted, That the Average Prices of all British Corn, by which the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour for Home Consumption shall in future be regulated, shall be made up and computed at Four Quarterly Periods in each and every Year, in manner following; (that is to say,) the said Receiver of Corn Returns shall within Seven Days after the Fifteenth Day of February, the Fifteenth Day of May, the Fifteenth Day of August, and the Fifteenth Day of November in each Year, add together the total Quantities of each Sort of British Corn, and also the total Prices for which the same were sold, as shall appear from the Returns received by the said Receiver of Corn Returns in the Six last Weeks immediately preceding the said Fifteenth Day of February, Fifteenth Day of May, Fifteenth Day of August, and Fifteenth Day of November in each Year, and shall divide the said total Prices by the said total Quantities of each respective Sort of Corn, and the Sum produced thereby shall be deemed and taken to be the aggregate Average Price of each such Sort of Corn, in and for the Six Weeks immediately preceding the before mentioned Periods respectively, by which the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal and Flour for Home Consumption, or the taking out the same from the Warehouse for Home Consumption, shall be governed and regulated in the United Kingdom.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Receiver of Corn Returns shall enter the said Accounts of the Aggregate Average Prices of each Sort of British Corn in a Book, as soon as he shall have made up and computed the same in the manner hereinbefore directed, and shall at the same Time cause the same to be published in the London Gazette, and shall transmit a Certificate thereof to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs, at each of the several Ports in Great Britain, and to the Commissioners of Customs in Ireland, who are hereby required forthwith to transmit Copies thereof to the Collectors or other Chief Officers of the Customs in the several Ports in Ireland; and the Importation of each Sort of Foreign Corn, Meal and Flour for Home Consumption, in the United Kingdom, and the taking the same out of Warehouse for the Purpose of being so consumed, shall be governed and regulated by the said aggregate Average Prices, until new Average Prices shall, under the Provisions of the said above recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty, or under the Provisions of this Act, be made up and computed, and a Certificate thereof be received by such Collectors or other Chief Officers.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Ports of the United Kingdom shall be shut against the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour for Home Consumption, the Ports in the Isle of Man, and in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney and Sark, shall in like manner be shut against the Importation of such Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour for Home Consumption; and that whenever any such Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour shall be permitted to be imported into the Ports of the United

United Kingdom for Home Consumption, Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour, may in like manner be imported into the Ports of the Isle of Man, and of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney and Sark, for Home Consumption.

XXVIII. And in order that due Notice may be given of the opening or shutting of the Ports of the United Kingdom, for the Purposes above stated; Be it further enacted, That the Receiver of Corn Returns in London shall, and he is hereby required within Seven Days after the Fifteenth Day of November, the Fifteenth Day of February, the Fifteenth Day of May, and the Fifteenth Day of August in each and every Year, transmit to the Collectors or Chief Officers of the Customs in the Ports of the said Islands respectively, a Certificate of the Average Prices of British Corn, made up and computed in the manner hereinbefore required; and such Collector or other Chief Officer shall cause the same to be put up in some conspicuous Place in the Custom House; and the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal and Flour into the Ports of the said Islands shall be governed and regulated by such Average Prices, until new Average Prices shall in like manner be made up and transmitted to such Collectors or other Chief Officers, and be by them received.

Receiver of Corn Returns in London to transmit a Quarterly Certificate of Average Prices to Collectors of Customs, by which Importation to be regulated.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Inspectors appointed for the several Cities and Towns named or to be named by virtue of this Act, shall not admit into the Returns to be by them made to the Receiver of Corn Returns in London, of the Quantities and Value of Corn sold in the said Cities and Towns respectively, any Account of Sales or Purchases of Corn which shall be tendered to them by the Dealers or other Persons required by Law to deliver in such Accounts, unless such Inspectors shall respectively have received satisfactory Proof that the Person or Persons tendering such Account shall have made the Declaration required by Law, at least One Calendar Month previous to the Sale or Purchase referred to in such Accounts.

No Account of Sales admitted by Inspectors into Returns, unless on Proof that Dealer has previously made the Declaration.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Justices of the Peace in any of the Counties, Ridings or Divisions, in which any of the Cities or Towns mentioned in this Act are situated, shall think it necessary or expedient that any Alterations should be made in the List of Cities and Towns hereinbefore specified, from which Returns of the Prices of British Corn are to be made, or that any such City or Town should be struck out of the said Lists, or that any other City or Town should be inserted in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, and shall direct a Representation to be made to His Majesty for the above Purpose, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to direct such Alteration, Addition or Omission to be made accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that no such City or Town shall be added to the said List, unless the same be situated in some County, Riding or Division, in which one or more of the Cities or Towns mentioned in this Act are situated.

Power to His Majesty in Council to alter, add to or omit Towns which are to make Returns.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case any City or Town shall be added to the List contained in this Act, from which Returns of Corn are to be made, the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division in which such City or Town shall be situated, or the Mayor or other Chief Officer thereof, if such by the Proprietor or Proprietors, Occupier or Occupiers of such Warehouse or Warehouses.

Officer of Customs to take Samples of Corn warehoused, and to compare with Corn taken out.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, to take a Sample, not exceeding Half a Peck, from the Bulk of each Importation of Corn which have been already warehoused, and also from the Bulk of each Importation which hereafter shall be made and warehoused, and to keep the same until such Corn shall be taken out of the Warehouse, either for Exportation or Home Consumption, and to compare such Sample with the Corn so to be taken out, and if the same shall be found to agree therewith in Quality, the same to be returned; but if it shall appear not to agree therewith, in consequence of any Exchange of the Corn imported and warehoused having taken place, then and in such case the Corn so intended to be taken out shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs.

Obstructing Officers herein, Penalty 200l.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer or Officers of the Customs in taking any such Sample or Samples, the Person or Persons offending therein shall for each and every such Offence severally forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Corn before taken out of Warehouses to be remeasured, &c.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That before any such Corn, Meal or Flour shall be taken out of the Warehouse in which the same shall have been deposited, either for Home Consumption or Exportation, the said Corn shall be remeasured, and the said Meal or Flour reweighed, in like manner as when the same were imported at the Charge and Expence of the Proprietor or Proprietors, Occupier or Occupiers of such Warehouse or Warehouses, under the Inspection of and Certificate thereof delivered to the proper Officer of the Customs, in order to ascertain whether any of the Quantity originally imported and warehoused had or had not been removed or taken out of such Warehouse.

Former Acts for securing Revenue of Customs, &c. to continue in force.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, by which any Conditions, Rules, Regulations or Restrictions were made, established or directed for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from Port to Port, within the said Kingdom, or the entering, landing or shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes whatever, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, shall and they are hereby declared to be and remain in full force and effect, and shall be applied to the Subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution, as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and reenacted in this present Act.

No Fee on taking Oath or Declaration.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Fee shall be taken by the Clerk of any Justice of Peace, or other Person before whom any Oath, Affirmation or Declaration shall be taken or made, by the Directions of this Act, on account of such Oath, Affirmation or Declaration.

How Penalties to be recovered,

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures created and Penalties inflicted by this Act, shall and may be sued for, prosc-prosecuted and recovered, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means and Methods, as Penalties inflicted, or Forfeitures created, for any Offences against the Laws of Customs, may now legally be sued for, prosecuted and recovered, and the Produce disposed of in the like manner, and applied to the like Uses and Purposes, unless otherwise specially provided for by this Act: Provided always, that any Penalty or Forfeiture inflicted by this Act on any Corn Factor, or on any Dealer in Corn, Malt, Meal or Flour, for Sale as aforesaid, or on any Inspector of Corn Returns, may be sued for and recovered before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City or Town where such Corn Factor, or Dealer in Corn, Malt, Meal or Flour for Sale, or Inspector of Corn Returns, shall reside; and such Two Justices shall and they are hereby authorized and required, if upon due Proof and Examination of the Matter it shall appear to them that such Corn Factor, or Dealer in Corn, Malt, Meal or Flour for Sale, or Inspector of Corn Returns, is guilty of the Offence against this Act, then alleged against him, to convict him thereof, and by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to levy such Penalty by Distress and Sale of his Goods and Chattels; and such Penalty shall be applied in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

XLIX. Provided, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That no Bill, Plaint or Information, shall be brought or sued for in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for any Offence against this Statute, in cases where such Offences are by this Act cognizable by Justices of the Peace, relating to the same Offences, or any Forfeitures or Penalties for the same, but that the Determination of the Justices of the Peace in the County where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, shall be final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

L. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing by him, her or them done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Months next after the matter or thing done, and shall be laid in the proper County; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his, her or their Action or Actions, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him, her or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her or them, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Rescue.

[10th July 1821.]

Rescuing Persons charged with Felony.

‘ WHEREAS divers daring Attempts have of late been ‘ made to effect the Rescue or prevent the Detention of ‘ Persons charged with or committed for or on Suspicion of ‘ Felony : And Whereas it might tend more effectually to prevent ‘ the Commission of such Offences if further Provisions were ‘ made for the Punishment of Persons who may hereafter be ‘ convicted thereof, as are hereinafter enacted :’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall rescue, or aid and assist in rescuing, from the lawful Custody of any Constable, Officer, Headborough or other Person whomsoever, any Person charged with, or suspected of, or committed for any Felony, or on Suspicion thereof, then if the Person or Persons so offending shall be convicted of Felony, and be entitled to the Benefit of Clergy, and be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Year, it shall be lawful for the Court by or before whom any such Person or Persons shall be convicted, to order and direct, in case it shall think fit, that such Person or Persons, instead of being so fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, shall be transported beyond the Seas for Seven Years, or be imprisoned only, or be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol, House of Correction or Penitentiary House, for any Term not less than One and not exceeding Three Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall assault, beat or wound any Constable, Officer, Headborough or other Person whomsoever, with Intent in so doing, or by Means thereof, to obstruct, resist or prevent the lawful Apprehension or Detainer of any Person charged with or suspected of Felony ; or if any Person charged with or suspected of Felony shall assault, beat or wound any Constable, Officer, Headborough or other Person whomsoever, with Intent in so doing, or by Means thereof, to obstruct, resist or prevent his or her Apprehension or Detainer ; then and in every or any such case, if the Person or Persons so offending shall be convicted of a Misdemeanor only, it shall be lawful for the Court by or before whom any such Person or Persons shall be so convicted as aforesaid to order and direct, in case it shall think fit, that such Person or Persons shall, in addition to any other Pains, Penalties or Punishment to which he, she or they are now subject or liable, be kept to hard Labour for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and not less than Six Months.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act of the Twenty-second Year of His Majesty King Charles the Second, as restrains the Proprietors of Wharfs between London Bridge and the Temple from erecting any Buildings or Enclosures thereon.

[10th July 1821.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An additional Act for the rebuilding of the City of London, uniting of Parishes, and rebuilding of the Cathedral and Parochial Churches within the said City; it was amongst other Things enacted, that there should be left a continued Tract of Ground from London Bridge to the Temple, of the Breadth of Forty Foot, from the North Side of the River Thames, to be converted into a Quay or public and open Wharf, and that thenceforth after the passing of the said Act there should be no Building or Erection whatsoever (except Cranes, Stairs and Docks) placed or set within or upon the said Forty Foot of Ground or any Part thereof, between the Places aforesaid: And Whereas by the said recited Act it was further enacted, that all the said Tract of Ground of the said Breadth of Forty Foot from the said River, should lie open and at large, without any Division or Separation, and that the Bounds of each Proprietor's Ground therein should be distinguished only by Denter Stones to be placed in the Pavement thereof: And Whereas the said Provisions in the said recited Act have not been found so beneficial to the Trade and Commerce of the City of London as was hoped and looked for at the passing of the said Act, but on the contrary divers and very many Warehouses and other Buildings have, since the passing of the said recited Act, been built and erected, and are now standing and being, nearer to the said River Thames than the Breadth of Forty Feet North of the said River: And Whereas the Erection and Continuance of the said Warehouses and Buildings have been found greatly beneficial to the Trade, Commerce and well being of the City of London; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as restricts the Erection of Buildings, and the keeping of the said Tract of Ground without any Division or Separation, within the Distance and between the Places therein named, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be repealed.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any manner to take away, abrogate, injure or affect any Right or Claim to or in respect of any Public Way, Street, Wharf or Stairs, or any other Right, Claim or Interest belonging to or claimed by the Corporation of the City of London, or the Proprietors of the London Bridge Waterworks, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, other other than and except any Claim which might or may be made or arise from under, or by virtue of the said recited Act.

Not to establish the Right of Persons or Corporations to any Ground embanked from the River, &c.

III. Provided, and it is hereby further enacted, That the Repeal of the said Restrictions, or any thing herein contained, shall not operate, extend or be construed to ratify, confirm or establish the Right or Title of any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, to any Ground or Soil which hath been embanked from or taken out of the said River Thames since the passing of the said recited Act, either by virtue thereof or by virtue of any Letters Patent, Charter or Grant from the Crown, or to prejudice, prevent or restrain any Proceedings on the Part of the Crown to revoke, recall or repeal any such Letters Patent, Charter or Grant, by reason of any Breach, Forfeiture or Non-performance of the Terms or Conditions upon which the same were or was granted, or to prejudice or affect the Right which the Crown had in or to any such Ground or Soil by virtue of any of its Royal Prerogatives, or otherwise howsoever.

An Act to appoint Commissioners for inquiring into the Collection and Management of the Revenue in Ireland, and the several Establishments connected therewith.

[10th July 1821.]

56 G. 3. c. 98.

‘ WHEREAS in pursuance of the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and of an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to unite and consolidate into One Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the General Service of the United Kingdom, it has become expedient that the Collection and Management of the Public Revenues arising in Great Britain and Ireland respectively should be assimilated and placed under the same Rules, Regulations and Management, so far as the Circumstances of the respective Countries may admit; and that for such Purpose, a full and accurate Inquiry and Investigation, relating to the Management and Collection of the Revenues arising in Ireland, should be conducted under the Authority of Parliament;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Right Honourable Thomas Wallace, Thomas Frankland Lewis Esquire, John Charles Herries Esquire, William John Lushington Esquire, and Henry Berens Esquire, shall be and they are hereby constituted and appointed to be Commissioners for carrying this Act into Execution, and for making the Inquiries intended by this Act, and shall be called “The Commissioners of Inquiry into the Collection and Management of the Public Revenue arising in Ireland.”

Commissioners appointed for executing this Act.

Vacancies may be supplied by His Majesty.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Vacancy or Vacancies by Death or Resignation of any One or more of the Commissioners named in this Act, or to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and and Successors, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, may think proper, (not being a Member or Members of the House of Commons,) to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies; and every Person so nominated and appointed shall be subject to all such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, and shall have all such and the like Powers and Authorities for carrying this Act into Execution, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if such Person had been named in this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Appointment of any Person named in this Act, or of any other Person, being a Member of the House of Commons, to be a Commissioner of Inquiry under this Act, shall not make void the Election of any such Person respectively, nor shall any new Writ issue for a new Election in consequence of the Acceptance of any such Appointment; and that the Appointment of any Person to be such Commissioner of Inquiry shall not be deemed or taken to be an Appointment to a new Office or Place of Profit under the Crown; and that any Person by this Act appointed to be One of the Commissioners of Inquiry under this Act shall not be thereby disabled from sitting or voting as a Member of the House of Commons, nor shall be thereby rendered incapable of being elected a Member of the House of Commons; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Commissioner nominated in this Act, or who shall be appointed at any time by virtue of this Act, shall, before he shall act as such Commissioner in carrying this Act into Execution, take an Oath before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, or before the Chief Baron or any One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland for the Time being; (which Oath the said Chancellor of the said Exchequer, and the said Chief Baron and Barons respectively, is and are hereby authorized and required to administer;) and such Oath shall be in the Words or to the Effect following:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially and truly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to appoint Commissioners for inquiring into the Collection and Management of the Revenue in Ireland, and the several Establishments connected therewith, according to the true Tenor and Purport of the said Act. So help me GOD.’

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized to appoint and employ such Secretary, Clerks, Officers and Messengers as they shall think requisite, and to administer and give to every of the said Secretary, Clerks and Officers respectively, an Oath, for his true and faithful Demeanour in all things relating to the due Performance of the Trust reposed in him by the said Commissioners, and in all other things touching the Execution of this Act; and the said Secretary, Clerks and Officers are hereby respectively required faithfully to execute and perform the Trusts in them severally Inquiry, or any Three of them, shall think fit, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Person or Persons shall submit to be examined touching and concerning all Matters and Things necessary for the Execution of the Powers given by this Act, or to make such Production of such Accounts, Returns, Records, Books, Papers, Deeds, Writings or Documents as aforesaid, as the case may require; and if any Person who shall so wilfully neglect or refuse to appear, or to make, give or produce any such Accounts or Returns, or any such Records, Books, Papers, Deeds, Writings or Documents, or to be sworn, or to affirm, or to answer, or who shall be found to prevaricate in answering as aforesaid, shall hold any Office, Place or Employment whatever, in any way relating to or connected with the Collection or Management of the Revenue in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or any Three of them, by an Order under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any Three of them, to direct that such Person who shall so neglect or refuse to appear, or to make, give or produce any such Accounts, or Returns, or Records, Books, Papers, Deeds, Writings or Documents, or to be sworn, or to affirm, or to answer, or who shall prevaricate in answering as aforesaid, shall be suspended from the Exercise of the Duties of such Office, Place or Employment, until the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit, by an Order under their Hands, to direct that such Suspension shall be removed; and that immediately upon and from such Order of the said Commissioners of Inquiry, every such Person shall be actually suspended from the Exercise of the Duties of his Office, Place or Employment, until such Time as such Order of Suspension shall be removed as aforesaid; and in every case of such Commitment or Suspension as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of Inquiry shall forthwith report the Circumstances of the case to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Commissioners to make Reports to Treasury, to be laid before the King and Parliament, with Observations and Plans for Improvement.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Inquiry under this Act shall from time to time at their Discretion, and whenever they shall be thereunto required by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, and as soon as convenient after the Determination of their Examinations and Proceedings by virtue of this Act, without any further Requisition, make a Report or Reports in Writing, of their Proceedings from time to time, under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or any Three of them, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to be laid before His Majesty and both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the first Meeting of Parliament; and the said Commissioners of Inquiry shall, in such Report or Reports, from time to time state such Observations and make such Suggestions as shall occur to them for assimilating the Mode of charging, managing and collecting the several Branches of the Public Revenue, or of the Revenue of the Crown in Ireland, to the Mode practised in Great Britain, or for otherwise securing and improving the due Collection thereof, by Modification of Duties or in any other way that they may deem expedient; and also respecting the Application of such Revenues, previous to the Payment thereof into His Majesty's Exchequer; and for the regulating or abolishing of any Offices, Places or Employments in the several Departments connected with the Receipt, Collection or Management of the said Revenues, or of any Expences, Disbursements, Fees, Gratuities, Perquisites or Emoluments of any such Offices, Places or Employments of any Description whatsoever respectively.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, upon his, her or their Examination before the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or any Three of them, wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is and are hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in force and effect Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Giving false Evidence.
Perjury.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force from the passing thereof for the Term of Two Years, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

An Act to grant certain Bounties on the Exportation of Stuffs made of Silk mixed with Mohair, and of Stuffs made of Mohair mixed with Worsted, the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland.
[10th July 1821.]

WHEREAS a Bounty is by Law payable on the Exportation of Stuffs made of Silk and Grogam Yarn the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, and it is expedient that a like Bounty should be granted on the Exportation of Stuffs made of Silk and Mohair Yarn the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, there shall be paid or allowed to any Person or Persons who shall really and truly export from Great Britain or Ireland respectively, by way of Merchandize, any Stuffs made in Great Britain or Ireland of Silk mixed with Mohair Yarn, a Bounty or Allowance at and after the Rate of One Shilling and Sixpence and Two thirds of a Penny for every Pound Weight Avoirdupoise of such Stuffs so made of Silk mixed with Mohair Yarn.

Bounty granted on Exportation of Silk mixed with Mohair Yarn, 1s. 6½d. per lb.

II. And Whereas it is expedient to allow a Bounty on the Exportation from Great Britain or Ireland of Camblets made in Great Britain or Ireland of Mohair Yarn mixed with Worsted: Be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, there shall be paid to any Person or Persons who shall really and truly export out of Great Britain or Ireland, by way of Merchandize, any Stuffs called Camblets, made in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, of Mohair Yarn mixed with Worsted, and the Warp of which Camblets shall be entirely composed of Mohair Yarn, a Bounty on Camblets of Mohair Yarn mixed with Worsted, 1s. 2d. per lb.

Bounty or Allowance at and after the Rate of One Shilling and Two Pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupoise of such Stuffs called Camblets.

The said Bounties subject to Regulations.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Bounties or Allowances by this Act granted and made payable, shall be paid and allowed in such and the like Manner, and subject to and under such and the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as are prescribed by the several Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland for granting Allowances on the Exportation of the Silk Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, and subject also to all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by the said Acts, or any of them, so far as the same are or may be applicable to such Stuffs so exported.

C A P. XCII.

An Act to authorize the Exchange of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, subject to Trusts for Charitable Purposes, for other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments.

[10th July 1821.]

WHEREAS Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, subjected to Trusts for Charitable Purposes, may be in some cases exchanged for other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, so as to benefit the Objects of the Charity: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, in whom any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall be vested, subject to any Trust for any Charitable Purpose, to grant and convey to any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, and to his, her or their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, or otherwise, as he, she or they shall direct or appoint, any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in Exchange for any other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, under and according to the several Restrictions, Declarations and Provisions hereinafter expressed, and not otherwise.

Persons in whom Lands, &c. are invested for Charitable Purposes may exchange.

Application to be made to the Bishop of the Diocese, who may issue a Commission to ascertain whether an Exchange will be beneficial to the Charity.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be thought advisable by the Trustees or Trustee of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, subject to any Trust for any Charitable Purpose, to exchange the same, or any Parts or Part thereof, for any other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Application shall be made to the Bishop of the Diocese in which any such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, subject to any Trust for Charitable Purposes, and so proposed to be exchanged, shall be situate, stating the Objects of the Charity, the Manner in which such Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments are become vested in such Trustees or Trustee, and for what Reasons it may be fit and proper that any such Exchange should be made, and what Benefit will be derived to the Objects of the Charity by means of such Exchange, which Statement shall be verified on Oath before One of His Majesty's Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division or Place where such Lands shall be situate; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Bishop to direct such Inquiries to be made as he may think proper, and to require such Information to be given to him as he may think necessary, previous to his issuing such Commission, as hereinafter mentioned; and in case such Bishop shall be satisfied that reasonable Ground has been laid before him to warrant his issuing such Commission, then and in such case such Bishop shall issue a Commission, under his Episcopal Seal, directed to Four or more fit and proper Persons, Two of whom at the least shall be beneficed Clergymen, and one of whom shall be a Barrister at Law of at least Five Years' standing, and by such Commission the Commissioners therein named, or any Three of them, one of whom shall be a beneficed Clergyman and one such Barrister as aforesaid, shall be authorized and required to inquire whether such proposed Exchange will be beneficial to the Objects of the Trust, to which the Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so proposed to be exchanged shall be subject, and for what Reason or Reasons such Exchange will be beneficial to the Charity; and for the Purpose of such Inquiry, such Commissioners shall examine upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer) all Persons who may be brought before them for that Purpose, and shall require the Parties applying for such Exchange to bring before them any other Persons to be examined upon Oath touching any Matters which such Commissioners may deem necessary for their Information; and such Commissioners shall also require all Deeds, Papers and Writings, which they may deem necessary for their Information, to be also laid before them. and shall direct such Surveys, Maps and Plans to be made of the Lands proposed to be given and taken in Exchange, as they may think proper; and shall cause such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments respectively, and the Timber and Trees on such Lands respectively, and Rights of Common, and all other Rights belonging thereto, to be valued, so as clearly to ascertain whether the proposed Exchange will be permanently beneficial to the Charity or not, and if permanently beneficial, for what Reason it will be so beneficial, and whether such Exchange is proposed for the Convenience of the Charity, or for the Convenience of any other Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, and whether the Terms upon which the Exchange is proposed to be made are the best which can reasonably be obtained for the Benefit of the Charity; and such Commissioners shall also inquire into the Title to the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments proposed to be given in Exchange for the Benefit of such Charity, so as to enable the Bishop, on the Return of such Commission, to judge of the Propriety of allowing such Exchange to take Place; and such Commissioners shall thereupon certify to the Bishop the several Matters which shall be made to appear to them, together with the Surveys and other Evidence laid before them, closed up, under their Hands and Seals, which shall be deposited with the Registrar of the Diocese.

III. And be it further enacted, That before such Commissioners shall proceed to execute such Commission, they shall respectively take the following Oath :

Of whom the Commission shall consist.

Commissioners to examine on Oath, and may require Production of Deeds, and direct Surveys and Valuations to be made, &c.;

and may inquire into Titles, and certify to Bishop.

Commissioners to take Oath.

‘ I A. B., One of the Commissioners named in a Commission, [describing the Commission,] do swear, That I will faithfully do and execute all the Matters by the said Commission required to be done by me, and a true Report make to the best of my Ability, as by such Commission required. So help me GOD.’

Which Oath shall be administered by One of the said Commissioners, to any other or others of them, and shall be certified to the Bishop, together with the other Proceedings under such Commission.

Bishop may lay Proceedings of Commissioners before Counsel; and may issue a new Commission.

Approbation of Bishop of Exchange, how signified.

Conveyance to be made in manner herein mentioned.

Deeds when inrolled to be produced to Bishop, and a Transcript thereof entered in the Registry of the Diocese.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Return of such Commission it shall be lawful for the Bishop to examine the Proceedings under the same, and, if he shall see fit, to direct the same to be laid before some Counsel learned in the Law for his Opinion and Advice thereupon, and also to direct the Title to the Lands proposed to be given in Exchange to the Charity to be examined in such Manner as he shall think fit; and if he shall think fit, to cause the same to be laid before Counsel learned in the Law for his Opinion thereon; and in case the said Bishop shall not be satisfied with the Return made by such Commissioners, it shall be lawful for him to issue a new Commission or new Commissions, directed to the same or other Commissioners, to the End that he may be fully satisfied of the Propriety of such proposed Exchange; and such new Commission or Commissions shall be executed and returned, and the Return or Returns thereto deposited with the Registrar of the Diocese, as before directed with respect to the first Commission; and if the said Bishop shall be satisfied, upon the Return of the Commission or Commissions so to be issued by him, or by such other and further Information as he shall obtain as aforesaid, that such proposed Exchange is proper and beneficial to the Charity, it shall be thereupon lawful for him to signify his Approbation of such Exchange, by signing and sealing with his Episcopal Seal Two Parts of the Deed of Bargain and Sale hereinafter mentioned; and it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Trustee of the Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments proposed to be exchanged, by Deed of Bargain and Sale, inrolled in the High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months after the Date thereof, to convey the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be given by them in Exchange, to the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, to whom the same shall be directed to be conveyed; and by the same Deed the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, proposed to be given to the Charity in Exchange, shall also be conveyed to the Uses of such Charity, and such Deed shall be acknowledged by the Person or Persons making the Conveyance of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to the Uses of such Charity, for the Purpose of Inrolment; and Two Parts of such Deed shall be prepared and executed, and a Memorandum of the Inrolment shall be indorsed on each Part; and both Parts of such Deed, after the same shall have been inrolled as aforesaid, shall be produced to the Bishop, and a Transcript of such Deed, and of the Memorandum of Inrolment, shall be entered in the Registry of the Diocese; and the Bishop shall thereupon, by Writing under his Hand, indorsed on each Part of such Deed, authorize the Delivery of Possession, according to the Terms of such such Deed, of the Lands before belonging to the Charity, and so conveyed in Exchange; and the Delivery of Possession to the Trustees or Trustee of the Charity, of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so conveyed to them in Exchange, and the Execution of both Parts of such Deed by the several Parties thereto, and the signing of such Authority for Delivery of Possession, shall be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, which Attestation or Attestations shall be indorsed on both Parts of such Deed; and the Attestation of the Execution of such Deed by the Trustees or Trustee of the Charity Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments thereby conveyed, shall express that both Parts of such Deed were signed by the Bishop before the Execution thereof by such Trustees or Trustee; and a Transcript of such Authority for Delivery of Possession, and of such several Attestations as aforesaid, shall be entered in the Registry of the Diocese, and one Part of such Deed shall remain with such Trustees or Trustee, for the Benefit of the Charity, and the other Part shall be delivered to the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, to whose Use the Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall be thereby conveyed in Exchange.

How Deeds disposed of.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That before any such Commission shall issue to make Inquiry touching any Exchange intended to be made under the Provisions of this Act, Three Months' previous Notice shall be given of the Intention to propose such Exchange, by inserting the Particulars, Extent and Situation, and the Tenure of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments respectively proposed to be given and taken in Exchange, for Three successive Weeks in some one and the same Newspaper generally circulating in that Part of the Country where the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments proposed to be exchanged shall be situated; and also by affixing such Notice in Writing on a conspicuous Part of the Door of the Church or Chapel of each Parish or Chapelry wherein such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, shall be situated, on Three successive Sundays whereon Divine Service shall be performed, and shortly before the Commencement of such Service in each Church or Chapel.

Before issuing Commission Three Months' Notice of intended Exchange to be given in Newspapers, &c. stating Particulars, &c.

VI. And Whereas in some cases where there were originally Two or more Trustees of Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments proposed to be exchanged under the Authority of this Act, the Number of Trustees may have been reduced by Death or otherwise; Be it further enacted, That in such cases the Vacancies of Trustees shall be filled up in the usual Manner, prior to any Application for an Exchange pursuant to this Act, except in such cases in which the Number of Trustees living and capable of acting shall be Six or more, in which cases the Majority in Number of Trustees living and capable of acting shall signify their Consent to any proposed Exchange in Writing, by signing the Application to the Bishop to authorize such Exchange as aforesaid; and when the original Trustees shall have been fewer in number than Six, and more than Three, then the Consent of not less than Four of such Trustees shall be so signified to the Bishop; and if the original Trustees shall have been only Three or Two, then the Consent of all the Trustees shall be signified by all of them; or if there shall have been originally only One Trustee, then the Vacancies of Trustees to be filled up prior to any Application for an Exchange, unless when there are Six or more Trustees.

Number of Trustees necessary to give Consent.

Consent of the sole Trustee for the Time being shall be so signified; and if any Body Politic or Corporate shall be a Trustee for any such Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, then such Consent shall be signified under the Seal of the Corporation, whether a Corporation Aggregate or Sole, having a Corporate Seal, and such Signatures, and the affixing of such Seals respectively, shall be attested by Two or more credible Witness or Witnesses.

In what cases Bishop may appoint Trustees in cases of Exchange.

VII. And Whereas in some cases it may not appear in whom Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments subject to Charitable Purposes may be vested, and there may be therefore no Person capable of acting touching any such Exchange as aforesaid, on Behalf of the Charity; Be it further enacted, That in all such cases it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the Diocese in which such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall be situate, upon sufficient Proof of the Fact, by Instrument in Writing under his Hand and Seal, to nominate proper Persons to act as Trustees on Behalf of the Charity, for the Purposes of such Exchange, before any other Proceedings shall be had touching such Exchange; which Trust the Person so nominated shall accept, by executing such Instrument, before they shall act in such Trust; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Trustees to do all Things necessary for the Purpose of such Exchange, as if the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments subject to such Charitable Purposes had been duly vested in them for such Purposes, and to convey the Charity Lands proposed to be exchanged under the Authority of this Act: Provided always, that if it shall at any time afterwards appear in whom such Lands or Hereditaments were actually vested at the Time of such Exchange, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, in whom the same shall be then vested by means of such Exchange, to obtain, at his, her or their own Expence, a Confirmation thereof by Conveyance from the Person or Persons, or their Heirs, in whom it shall appear the same were so vested at the Time of such Exchange; but the Defect of Title of the Trustees so to be nominated by the Bishop as aforesaid shall not prejudice the Title to the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments received in Exchange in Trust for such Charitable Purposes as aforesaid, but the same shall be held and enjoyed for such Charitable Purposes, notwithstanding the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments originally subject to such Charitable Purposes, and so given in Exchange, were not vested, except by the Authority of this Act, in the Persons who may have conveyed the same in Exchange under the Authority of this Act.

Confirmation of Conveyance, how and by whom obtained.

VIII. And Whereas Doubts may arise whether under the Provisions of this Act an Exchange might be legally effected where any Trustee or Trustees of Charity Lands, proposed to be given in Exchange, should also be the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Lands for which such Charity Lands should be so proposed to be given in Exchange; Be it therefore enacted, That under and according to the several Restrictions, Declarations and Provisions hereinbefore expressed, and subject thereto, but not otherwise, it shall and may be lawful for any Trustee or Trustees of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments vested in him, her or them, either alone or jointly with any other Trustee or Trustees for any Charitable Exchanges may be effected; though Trustees may be Proprietors of the Lands to be given in Exchange.

Charitable Purpose or Purposes, to convey or join in conveying, as the case may be, any such Trust Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in lieu of and in Exchange for any other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments of which he, she or they shall be seised in Fee, to and for his, her or their own Use and Benefit: Provided always, that in every such case the Bishop to whom Application shall be made for any such Exchange, shall, upon such Application, and before any other Proceedings touching such Exchange, nominate and appoint some proper Person or Persons, having no Interest in such Exchange, to act as Trustèe or Trustees on the Behalf of the said Charity, in the Matter of such Exchange, in the Place and Stead of the Trustee or Trustees who by reason of such Interest as aforesaid shall be disqualified to act therein; and the Concurrence of the Person or Persons, so to be appointed to act as temporary Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, shall be necessary in all subsequent Proceedings relating to such Exchange.

Bishop, in such cases, to appoint Trustees who have no Interest in the Lands.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Title of any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, by whom any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall be attempted to be conveyed in Exchange for any Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall at any time appear to be in any manner defective, so that such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall in the Whole or in Part be recovered from the Trustees or Trustee, Body Politic or Corporate, in whom the same shall have been vested or attempted to be vested in Exchange under the Authority of this Act, or shall be in any manner charged or incumbered, then and in such case the Trustees or Trustee, Body Politic or Corporate, in whom such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, ought to have been vested indefeasibly for Charitable Purposes as aforesaid, shall enter on the original Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments conveyed in Exchange as aforesaid, and hold the same according to the original Right before the Exchange, for the Benefit of the Charity, in case the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments intended to have been vested by way of Exchange for the Purposes of the Charity shall be wholly evicted, or in case the same shall be partially evicted, or in any manner incumbered, then to hold the same for the Purpose of indemnifying the Charity against the Consequences of any such partial Eviction or any such Incumbrance, and until full Satisfaction shall have been made to the Charity, for any Defect of Title in the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments conveyed in Exchange for the original Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments as aforesaid, and all Costs, Charges and Expences incurred by the Charity in consequence thereof.

Proviso respecting Eviction in case of defective Title.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Part of the Expences attending any Exchange to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be borne by or paid out of the Funds of any Charity, unless it shall be made appear to the Bishop of the Diocese, upon Application for such Exchange as aforesaid, that such Exchange is solely intended for the Benefit of such Charity, and not for any other Purpose, and is in respect of such Convenience advantageous to the Charity, notwithstanding any Expence which may be incurred in effecting the same; and then so much of such Expences only shall be borne by and discharged out of the Funds of such Charity as such Bishop shall shall find to be just and reasonable, and shall, by Instrument under his Hand, allow and declare to be, in his Opinion, an Expence incurred for the Benefit of the Charity, and such as ought to be discharged out of the Funds of such Charity.

Proceedings of the Diocesan not affected in cases of exempt Jurisdictions.

XI. And Whereas Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments may be within some peculiar or exempt Jurisdiction; Be it further enacted, That in such case the Application for an Exchange under the Authority of this Act shall be made to the Bishop of the Diocese within which the Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments proposed to be exchanged shall be situate, and not to any other Authority claiming such peculiar or exempt Jurisdiction; and the Bishop of such Diocese shall proceed in the same manner, in such case, as if such Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments were to all Intents and Purposes within his Jurisdiction as Diocesan; and in case any such Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall be within Two or more Dioceses, then and in such case Application shall be made to the several Bishops of such several Dioceses, to direct before which of such Bishops the Proceedings touching any such Exchange shall be had, and such Bishops shall accordingly direct before which of such Bishops such Proceedings shall be had; and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had before such Bishop in the same manner as such Proceedings might have been had if all such Charity Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments had been within the Diocese of such Bishop.

C A P. XCIII.

An Act for vesting all Estates and Property, occupied by or for the Naval Service of this Kingdom, in the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and for granting certain Powers to the said principal Officers and Commissioners.

[10th July 1821.]

WHEREAS divers Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, have been at various times purchased for the Use of the several Departments of or belonging to the Naval Service of this Kingdom, and conveyed to several different Persons in Trust for His Majesty and His Royal Predecessors, and His and their Heirs and Successors, and the same have been placed under the Charge of the said several Departments respectively: And Whereas it may be expedient that such Parts of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as may not be wanted for the Use of the said Service, should from time to time be sold and disposed of: And Whereas for effectuating such Sales it is necessary that all and every the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, so already purchased or used and occupied by or for the said Service, and all other Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments that may be hereafter purchased or in any manner used and occupied by or for the said Service, should be vested in the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately

Lands heretofore purchased

immediately from and after the passing of this Act, all Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which have been heretofore purchased or taken by or in the Name of any Person or Persons, in trust for His Majesty or His Royal Predecessors, and His or their Heirs and Successors, for the Use of all or any of the several Departments of or belonging to the Naval Service of this Kingdom, by whatever Mode of Conveyance the same shall have been so purchased or taken, either in Fee or for any Life or Lives, or any Term or Terms of Years, or any other or lesser Interest, and all Erections and Buildings which now are, or which shall or may be hereafter erected and built thereon, together with the Rights, Members, Easements and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging (other than and except such Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as may be of Copyhold Tenure), shall be and become and remain and continue vested in the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, and their Successors in the said Office, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same Hereditaments respectively, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Service of the said several Departments of the said Naval Service, or for such other Public Service or Services as His said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall from time to time by any Order in Council be pleased to direct.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Purchase and Conveyance, Grant or Demise thereof, all other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (other than and except as aforesaid), which shall at any time or times hereafter be purchased by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, or the Commissioners for victualling His Majesty's Navy for the time being, or by any other Person or Persons by their respective Order for the Service of the said several Departments of the said Naval Service or any of them, and all Erections and Buildings which shall then or which may thereafter be erected and built thereon, with the Rights, Members, Easements and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, shall in like manner be and become, and remain and continue vested in the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, and their Successors in the said Office, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation or Removal of the present principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy or of any of them, or of any future such principal Officers and Commissioners, all such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments respectively, (other than and except as aforesaid,) shall become vested in and be held by the succeeding principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, and so in perpetual Succession, according to the respective Nature and or taken for the Purposes of the Navy vested in Commissioners of the Navy.

Exception.

Lands to be hereafter purchased (Exception) also vested in Commissioners of the Navy.

Lands to continue so vested in Successors of Commissioners dying, &c. (Exception.)

Quality

Quality of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Navy, by Authority of the Admiralty, may sell, exchange, &c. such Premises.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being or any Three or more of them, by and under the Authority of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being or any Three or more of them, to sell, exchange or in any manner dispose of, or to let or demise, as well any of the Freehold and Leasehold Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments respectively, which shall be vested in them, under and by virtue of this present Act, with their respective Appurtenances, as also any of the Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which shall have been surrendered to and vested in any Person or Persons, and his, her or their Heirs and Assigns, in trust for His said Majesty or any of His Predecessors, His or their Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the said several Departments of the said Naval Service or any of them, either by public Auction or private Contract; and as to the said Freehold and Leasehold Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said principal Officers and Commissioners or any Three or more of them, and as to the said Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Person or Persons, in whom the same shall be so vested as aforesaid, in due Form of Law to convey, surrender, assign or make over, or to grant or demise the same respectively, as the case may require, to any Person or Persons who shall be willing to purchase or take the same respectively; and also to do any other Act, Matter or Thing in relation to any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which shall by the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or by the said principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, be deemed beneficial for the Public Service in relation thereto, or for the better Management thereof, which might be done by any Person or Persons having a like Interest in any such like Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments.

Freeholds and Leaseholds.

Copyholds.

Purchase Monies to be paid to Treasurer of the Navy, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise and be produced by the Sale or Exchange of any of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be sold or exchanged under the Provisions of this present Act, shall be paid by the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or the Person or Persons making such Exchange, unto the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, or to such other Person or Persons as the said principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the time being or any Three or more of them, shall direct or appoint to receive the same, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that the Receipt of the said principal Officers and Commissioners or of any Three or more of them, or of the said Treasurer, for such Monies, (such Receipt to be indorsed on every such Conveyance, Surrender or Assignment as aforesaid,) shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Purchasers, or Person or Persons by whom or on whose Account the same shall be so paid.

VI. And

VI. And be it further enacted, That immediately from and after the Payment of such Purchase Money and the Execution of every such Conveyance, Surrender and Assignment as aforesaid, the Purchaser or Purchasers therein named shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seised and possessed of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which shall be so purchased by and conveyed, surrendered, assigned or made over to him, her or them respectively, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all and all manner of prior Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Charges, Incumbrances and Demands whatsoever, which can or may be had, made or set up in, to, out of or upon or in respect of the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by any Person or Persons whomsoever, on any account whatsoever, (save and except such Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims and Demands, as in any such Conveyance, Surrender or Assignment shall be excepted).

An Act for charging a Duty on British Spirits brought into certain Parts of the District of Lisburne in Ireland.

27 G. 2. (1.)

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for making the River Lagan navigable, and opening a passage by Water between Loughneagh and the Town of Belfast, in the County of Antrim, there was amongst other Things granted to His said late Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for a Term thereby limited, an additional Duty of Four Pence by the Gallon, and proportionably for any lesser Quantity, over and above the Duties

‘ Duties of Excise before payable to His said late Majesty, on every Gallon of Aqua Vitæ, Strong Waters, or Spirits, made or distilled within that Part of the District of Lisburne commonly known and distinguished by The Gaugers’ Walks of Belfast, Lisburne, Moira and Hillsborough, for Sale, or that should be made or distilled in any other Part of the Kingdom of Ireland, and brought into said Walks, or any of them, to be therein vended by Retail: And Whereas the said recited Act hath been from time to time amended and continued by successive Acts of the Parliament of Ireland: And Whereas in and by an Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and continuing several Acts made for the Improvement of the Lagan Navigation, and for further continuing the same, the said additional Duty on Aqua Vitæ, Strong Waters or Spirits, in the said first mentioned Act granted, and chargeable in the manner therein mentioned, and all and every the Clauses and Provisions in the said several Acts which were then in force, subject to the Alterations contained in the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid, were further continued for the Period of Twenty one Years from the Twenty fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: And Whereas by the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is amongst other Things provided, that generally the Subjects of both Countries should be on the same Footing in respect of Trade in all Places of the United Kingdom; and by the said Acts, certain Duties are imposed on the Importation of British Spirits into Ireland, and which Duties from time to time have been increased, according as the Internal Duty, payable on Spirits distilled in Ireland, was from time to time increased; but no Provision has as yet been made for charging or laying any additional Duty on any Spirits made or distilled in Great Britain, and which should be brought into any of the said Gaugers’ Walks of Belfast, Lisburne, Moira or Hillsborough, to be therein vended by Retail; and it is just and reasonable, pursuant to the Provisions of the said Acts of Union, that a Duty should be imposed on all such British Spirits aforesaid, sufficient to countervail the said Duty of Four Pence per Gallon granted and now payable on Spirits distilled in Ireland, under and by virtue of the said first recited Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, and the said several Acts for the Amendment and Continuance of the same: Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance of the said several Acts for the Improvement of the Lagan Navigation, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected and paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of Four Pence by the Gallon, and proportionably for any lesser Quantity, over and above the Countervailing Duties already payable to His Majesty, on every Gallon of Spirits made or Distilled in Great Britain,

An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Coasting Trade of Great Britain.
[10th July 1821.]

50 G. 3. c. 64.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to permit the Removal of Goods, Wares and Merchandize, from the Port in Great Britain where first warehoused, to any other warehousing Port for the Purpose of Exportation, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor or Consignee of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, which have been or may be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse or Warehouses under the Regulations of certain Acts therein enumerated, to remove any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize from any of the said Ports, either by Sea or Inland Navigation, to any other Port in Great Britain where the like Articles are by Law allowed to be secured in Warehouses under the Regulations of the said Acts, or either of them, for the Purpose of being exported from such Port, subject to the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions therein mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient to permit Goods, Wares and Merchandize, so removed from one warehousing Port to another, to be removed a Second Time, for the Purpose of Exportation, to a Port where such Goods are allowed to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, for the Purpose of Exportation: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor or Consignee of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize which have been or may be removed under the Authority of the said last recited Act, to remove any such Goods, Wares

An Act for the Appropriation of certain Proceeds arising from the Capture of Vessels and Cargoes, the Property of the Subjects of the Kings of Spain, Portugal and the Netherlands, taken and seized in Violation of the Conventions made with those States, and for granting Bounties upon Slaves captured in such Vessels, and also for granting Indemnity to the Captors of certain Vessels taken in the Prosecution of the Slave Trade. [10th July 1821.]

58 G. 3. c. 85.
59 G. 3. c. 16.
59 G. 3. c. 17.

‘ WHEREAS several Acts passed in the Fifty eighth and Fifty ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for carrying into execution certain Treaties or Conventions made between His said Majesty and the Kings of Spain, Portugal and the Netherlands respectively, for preventing Traffic in Slaves: And Whereas Vessels belonging to the Subjects of the said States have been captured between the Seventeenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the Period at which the Commissioners appointed in virtue of such Treaties or Conventions have assembled: And Whereas the Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Portugal so captured as aforesaid, are by the Additional Convention with that State, bearing Date the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, made the Subject of special Adjudication under the Mixt Commission established in London: And Whereas during the Period aforesaid certain Proceedings have been had and Decrees have been made, without due Authority or Jurisdiction, in the Vice Admiralty Court at Sierra Leone, in respect of Seizures of the Vessels and Cargoes belonging to the Subjects of Spain, Portugal and the Netherlands, some or all of them, for alleged Contravention of the said Treaties or Conventions: And Whereas it is expedient and necessary to make further Provisions and Regulations respecting all the aforesaid Ships and Cargoes, and also for the Payment of Bounties in certain cases for Slaves seized and taken on board the said Ships: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to direct the original Papers and Proceedings respecting all Ships, Vessels and Cargoes belonging to any of the Subjects of Spain, Portugal or the Netherlands, condemned in the Vice Admiralty Court at Sierra Leone since the Seventeenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to be transmitted to the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty of England; and further, to direct the Proceeds of such Ships and Cargoes, in whosoever Possession the same may be, to be remitted and paid for the Use of His Majesty, in such manner as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may direct and appoint; and further, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to institute Proceedings in the said High Court of Admiralty against any Person or Persons in Possession of the said Proceeds, for the Purpose of obtaining Payment of the same, and to enforce the Payment thereof by Process of the said Court, and to reward the Captors in all the cases aforesaid, by granting to them One Moiety of the Proceeds of every Ship and Cargo captured as aforesaid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Captors shall not be entitled to any such Reward where it shall have been adjudged, by the Mixt Commission established in London for the Adjudication of the Claims of Portuguese Subjects, that such Seizure was wrongfully made, and the remaining Moiety of the said Proceeds shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners shall direct or appoint to receive the same, for the Use of His Majesty.

III. And be it further enacted, That in every Seizure of any Ship or Vessel for being engaged or employed in the illicit Traffic in Slaves, made before the passing of this Act by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or any Ship or Vessel duly commissioned by any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any of His Majesty's Colonies or Settlements, in which it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, that such Seizure has not been wantonly or improperly made, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to order and direct that all the Costs, Charges and Expences which may have been or may be incurred by the Person or Persons making such Seizures in any Proceedings, or for any Matter or Thing relating thereto, or arising out of any such Seizure, shall be paid and defrayed out of the Proceeds of such Capture or Seizure, or out of any of the Proceeds of the said Vessels or Cargoes paid or to be paid to the Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, under the Provisions of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That wherever Ships and Cargoes captured by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or by any Ship or Vessel commissioned by any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any of His Majesty's Colonies or Settlements, have been in fact condemned for illicit trading in Slaves, contrary to the Treaties or Conventions made with the Governments of Spain, Portugal

Treasury may direct the Papers and Proceedings respecting Vessels and Cargoes condemned at Sierra Leone, to be transmitted to Registry of Admiralty Court of England.
Proceedings for Proceeds.

In what case Captors not entitled to Rewards.

Treasury may order the Charges of Proceedings incurred by Captors to be paid out of the Proceeds, &c.

In what case Captors of Vessels and Cargoes condemned for illicit trading in Slaves, confirmed in Possession of Proceeds.

Portugal or the Netherlands, and where Distribution of the Proceeds thereof has been made prior to the passing of this Act, the said Captors shall be confirmed and are hereby confirmed in the Possession of the said Proceeds; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Captors of Vessels, after Condemnation, entitled to Moiety of Proceeds belonging to His Majesty.

V. And be it further enacted, That where any Ship or Vessel employed or engaged in illicit Traffic in Slaves, in Violation of any of the said Conventions hereinbefore mentioned, shall be seized by any Ship or Vessel belonging to His Majesty, duly authorized under the Provisions of the said Conventions to make such Seizure, and shall be afterwards condemned by any of the Commissions appointed in virtue of the Treaties or Conventions aforesaid, there shall be paid to the Captors the Moiety to which His Majesty is entitled under the said Conventions of the net Proceeds of the said Ship and Cargo, the said Moiety of the said net Proceeds to be distributed in the manner hereafter directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessels.

A Bounty of 10*l*. for every Slave seized on board.

VI. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland a Bounty of Ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, for every Man, Woman and Child Slave seized and found on board any Ship or Vessel taken, and by the Commissioners appointed in virtue of any of the said Conventions condemned for illicit Traffic in Slaves, in Violation of any of the Provisions of the said Conventions; such Bounty to be issued and paid by Order from the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid, in such Manner and Proportions as is directed by His Majesty's Proclamation for the Distribution of Proceeds, bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, or by any other Proclamation which His Majesty may from time to time be pleased to issue in this Behalf.

How issued and distributed.

VII. And Whereas certain Treaties were concluded with His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, on the Nineteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and ten, and the Twenty second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and an additional Convention to the said last mentioned Treaty, for the Purpose of preventing the illicit Traffic in Slaves, was also concluded on the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen: And Whereas a Treaty with His Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, for the Purpose aforesaid, was concluded on the Twenty third Day of September One thousand eight hundred and seventeen: And Whereas a Treaty with His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, for the like Purpose, was concluded on the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen: And Whereas prior to the passing of this Act, and since the Conclusion of the said Treaties respectively, divers Seizures have been made of Ships; Cargoes and Slaves on board the said Ships, the said Ships being engaged in Traffic for Slaves, contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaties, some or one of them: Be it further enacted, That in all Captures as aforesaid of Portuguese Vessels made by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any Ship or Vessel duly commissioned by any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any of His Majesty's

Like Bounty of 10*l*. to be paid for every Slave seized on board of Vessels of Majesty's Colonies or Settlements, between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, on account of any Treaty or Convention with Portugal, there shall be paid a like Bounty of Ten Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave so seized and taken; and in all Captures of any Vessel belonging to Spain, Portugal or the Netherlands, captured by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels duly authorized under the Provisions of the said Treaties of the said Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen with Portugal, the said Twenty third Day of September One thousand eight hundred and seventeen with Spain, and the said Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen with the Netherlands, prior to the passing of this Act, and condemned for Contravention of the Provisions thereof, there shall be paid a like Bounty of Ten Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave found on board any such Vessel; to be distributed to the Captors thereof in the same manner as is by the Provisions of this Act hereinbefore directed: Provided always, that in all cases in which the Proceeds of any such Capture shall have been distributed among the Captors, and allowed to be retained by such Captors under the Provisions of this Act, the Amount of the Moiety of the Proceeds shall be deducted from such Bounties.

Portugal, Spain and Netherlands, captured as herein mentioned.

Proviso as to Proceeds that have been distributed and allowed.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Bounty or Bounties, or any Proceeds, are by virtue of this Act given to any capturing Vessel, being a Vessel duly commissioned by any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any of His Majesty's Colonies or Settlements, the said Proceeds and Bounty or Bounties shall be distributed in such manner as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be pleased to direct or appoint.

Proceeds and Bounties distributed as Treasury shall direct.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit under the said Act shall and may resort to the High Court of Admiralty, for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon.

Proviso for Resort to Court of Admiralty.

X. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize, and the per Centage due thereon, to Greenwich Hospital, shall be and are hereby extended to all Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, whether the said Bounty and Proceeds shall be paid to Prize Agents or to any other Person or Persons authorized to receive the same, for the Use and Benefit of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War.

Regulations to which Prize Agents are liable, extended to Bounties and Proceeds distributed under this Act.

XI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to allow Ships taken and condemned for being used in carrying on the Slave Trade, to be registered as British built Ships, it was amongst other things enacted, that all Ships or Ves-

An Act for regulating the Exportation of Hops to Foreign Parts, and allowing a Drawback of the Excise Duty paid thereon. [10th July 1821.]

Drawback of Excise Duty on Exportation of Hops.

' WHEREAS it is expedient to allow a Drawback of the Duty of Excise on British Hops exported as Merchandize to Foreign Parts; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be allowed for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Hops grown, cured and made fit for Use in Great Britain, and exported, from and after the Twelfth Day of January One thousand eight hundred hundred and twenty one, as Merchandize to Foreign Parts, the Whole of the Excise Duty paid thereon.

II. And be it further enacted, That all such Hops as aforesaid shall be exported as aforesaid in the original Package and Packages in which the same were charged with Duty, each such Package containing at the least One Hundred Weight of such Hops, under and subject to the several Provisions contained in an Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the Exportation of Hops to Ireland, and other Acts touching or relating to the Exportation of any Goods subject to a Duty or Duties of Excise, upon Drawback; and that all and singular the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, contained, provided, settled or established in or by the said Act and Acts respectively, shall also be used, applied, practised and put in Execution for and in respect of the Exportation of Hops to Foreign Parts, so far as such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions or Provisions, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures respectively, are or may be applicable or applied thereto, as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and again enacted in this present Act.

Hops to be exported in the original Package containing not less than One Cwt. subject to the Regulations of 26 G. 3. c. 5. &c.

so to do, under and subject to such Conditions, Limitations, Provisions and Regulations as they may direct by any Order or Warrant, Orders or Warrants, to be by them issued for that Purpose.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Goods whatsoever imported into the United Kingdom, and subject to any Excise Duty or Duties, which may by Law be so warehoused and secured as aforesaid, under Bond, without Payment of such Duty or Duties at the Time of the Importation thereof, shall be warehoused as aforesaid under and subject to the Regulations contained in and referred to by this Act; and that in lieu of the Time or Period, Times or Periods, for which any such Bond or Bonds is or are now given or directed to be given for Payment of the Duties charged or chargeable on any such Goods subject to any Excise Duty or Duties, and so warehoused as aforesaid, and not exported before the Expiration thereof, every such Bond shall be made and given for Payment of such Duties within Three Years from and after the Day of the Date of such Bond, except for such Part of the Goods therein mentioned as shall, before the Expiration of such Three Years, be taken out on Payment of Duty for Home Consumption, or duly exported to Foreign Parts; and that no Goods subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, which have been or shall be so warehoused or otherwise secured under Bond as aforesaid, in any Port or Place of the United Kingdom, shall, on Removal to any other Port or Place of the United Kingdom, be warehoused at the Port or Place to which the same shall be removed, without Payment of the Duty and Duties thereon for more than the Residue of the said Term of Three Years then unexpired, from the Day of the Date of the Bond given on the first Importation of such Goods, or of the Goods of which such Goods are a Part, from Foreign Parts into the United Kingdom; and if any such Goods shall not be taken out by the Importer, Owner or Proprietor thereof, from the Warehouse or other Place in which the same shall be secured as aforesaid, and the Duty and all Duties charged or chargeable thereon paid, or exported to Foreign Parts, before the Expiration of the Time or Period for which such Goods shall be secured as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to order all such Goods to be sold for Home Consumption, and to sell the same for Home Consumption for the best Price that can be obtained for the same, (not being less than the full Amount of all the Duties of Customs and Excise, together with the Expences and Charges respectively, charged and chargeable thereon, or for or in respect thereof,) paying the Surplus after the Satisfaction of such Duties in or towards discharging the Expences of such Sale, and afterwards of other the Charges and Expences aforesaid, and the Residue thereof (if any) to the Importer or Importers of such Goods; and if such Price for Home Consumption cannot be obtained, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Owner, Proprietors or Owners of the Warehouse in which any such Goods shall be lodged and secured as aforesaid, the Consent of the Commissioners of Excise being first had and obtained, to sell the same for Exportation only, for the best Price that can be obtained for the same, paying and applying the Proceeds of such Sale towards discharging all Charges and Expences of such Sale and as aforesaid, said, and rendering the Surplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods; and if any such Goods so warehoused as aforesaid shall not, within Three Months next after the Expiration of the Time for which the same have been secured as aforesaid, be sold as aforesaid, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to order all such Goods to be effectually destroyed, and to destroy the same as such Commissioners may think fit, and the Proprietor or Owner of such Goods or Warehouse shall have no Claim either in Law or Equity to the Value of the Goods so destroyed, or any Part thereof: Provided always, that no such Power or Authority to sell or destroy, or to consent to the Sale of such Goods as aforesaid, shall in any respect weaken, lessen or satisfy any such Bond as aforesaid, or hinder or prevent the Commissioners of Excise, if they shall see Cause so to do, from enforcing and putting the same in Suit for the Satisfaction of the Duties or any Part thereof thereby secured, and which have become and remain payable and unpaid: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, by their Warrant or Order, to extend and enlarge the Time during which any such Goods shall or may remain so warehoused, upon such Conditions, and under and subject to such Provisions and Regulations, as they may deem it expedient from time to time to issue and direct for that Purpose.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Goods imported into the Port of London, subject or liable to any Duty or Duties of Excise, and on which all the Duty and Duties imposed or payable thereon have not been paid, delivered for Removal from any Vessel lying in the River Thames, in the Port of London, or from the East India Docks to the London Docks, or to any Wharf in the Port of London; nor shall any Pepper delivered from any Warehouse in which the same shall be lodged and secured without Payment of the Duty chargeable thereon at the Time of the Importation thereof, to be shipped in the Port of London for Exportation; nor shall any other Goods subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, and so lodged and secured and delivered from any such Warehouse in the Port of London, to be shipped in the City Canal or in any Part of the River Thames in the Port of London at or below Blackwall in the said Port, be on such Delivery put in or on board of any Lighter or other Vessel to be so removed or shipped, unless such Lighter be a decked Lighter, having Hatches secured by proper Fastenings, for the Purpose of being locked by the proper Officer of Excise whilst such Goods are on board thereof, and be in other respects safe and secure for the Removal or Shipment as aforesaid of such Goods respectively; and if any such Goods as aforesaid, delivered as aforesaid, shall be put into or on board of any Lighter or other Vessel than as aforesaid, for any such Purpose as aforesaid, without the Decks, Hatches and Fastenings of such Lighter being first examined and approved by the proper Officer of Excise, all such Goods shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and if any Person or Persons shall remove any such Lighter, having any of such Goods on board thereof, before the Hatches of such Lighter have been locked and sealed by the proper Officer of Excise, or shall at any Time whilst any such Goods are on board thereof, break or injure any Part of the Deck or Hatches or any of such Locks or Fastenings of or on board of any such Lighter, or shall in any manner open the same without the Consent and Approbation of the proper Officer of Excise, or remove or conceal any of such Goods put therein, or alter the same in Quantity or Quality, every Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise, if it shall appear to them expedient so to do in any particular Case, to authorise the Removal of any such Goods as aforesaid in any Lighter or Vessel not decked, under such Securities and Regulations as the said Commissioners shall from time to time think fit to direct.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer of any Wine imported into the Port of London, and landed in the London Docks, to warehouse, in some Warehouse or Warehouses at the London Docks, and belonging to the London Dock Company, appropriated for that Purpose only, any Cask or Casks of such Wine for Exportation only, to be secured in such Warehouse by such Bond as hereinafter mentioned; and for the Owner, Proprietor or Bonder of any Wine warehoused and secured in any Warehouse or Warehouses situate at the London Docks in the Port of London, and belonging to the London Dock Company, for Home Consumption or Exportation as aforesaid, who shall be desirous of fitting the same for Exportation by any Alteration in or of the Strength or Quality thereof, to give Notice in Writing to the proper Inspector of Excise, of his or their Desire and Intention to export any of the Casks of such Wine included in any Bond and so warehoused as last aforesaid to Foreign Parts, specifying therein the Marks, Numbers, full Content and Ullage Quantity of the Casks of Wine so intended to be so exported, together with the Names of the Ship by which such Wine was imported, and of the Master thereof, and of the Place from which such Wine was imported, and of the Person by whom Bond was given on such Importation, the Date of such Bond, and the particular Kind or Denomination of such Wine; and such Owner or Proprietor shall thereupon enter into and give Bond, with Sureties as approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, for the due Exportation of such Wine from such Warehouse as herein mentioned directly to Foreign Parts; and after giving such Bond as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Owner and Proprietor, in pursuance thereof, and in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, to remove all such Wine in the original Cask and Casks in which the same was or shall be imported, or in the Cask or Casks into which the same has been or shall be racked off and put for greater Security with the Knowledge of the Officer, from the Warehouse or Place in which the same has been or shall be deposited, placed and secured as aforesaid on the Importation thereof, into a Warehouse, Cellar or Place situated within the outer Wall of the London Docks, and to be specially appropriated and used for that Purpose; and upon such Removal after such Bond is given as aforesaid, the Importer or Importers of the Wine so removed, and the Bond or Bonds of such Importer or Importers given on the the Importation thereof, shall be discharged from such Wine and from the Duties charged or chargeable thereon, in the same manner as if such Wine was actually exported; and all such Wine shall be duly exported directly from the Warehouse, Cellar or Place in which the same is so lodged for Exportation only, to Foreign Parts, before the Expiration of Three Years from the Day of the Date of the Importation of such Wine, or in default thereof, shall be sold or destroyed as hereinbefore provided.

Limitation of time for Exportation.

V. And be it further enacted, That all such Wine, so warehoused for Exportation only as aforesaid, shall be kept in such Warehouse as aforesaid separate and apart by a Wall or a sufficient internal Division or Partition, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise or the Officer authorized by the Commissioners of Excise for that Purpose, from all other Wine, subject and liable to a different Rate or Rates of Duty, except such as shall be mixed therewith as hereinafter mentioned, and from all Wine and Spirits which may be taken out for Home Consumption on Payment of the Duty or Duties thereon, or warehoused for that Purpose; and it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Proprietor or Bonder of any such Wine so warehoused for Exportation only as aforesaid, and for the Purpose of fitting such Wine for Exportation from such Warehouse directly to Foreign Parts, by any Alteration of the Strength or Quality thereof, to give Twenty four Hours' Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise, stating therein the Desire and Intention of such Owner, Proprietor or Bonder, to mix with the Wine in each such Cask a Quantity of other Wine or Brandy then warehoused as aforesaid in the said Docks, without Payment of Duty; and specifying in such Notice the Number, full Content and Ullage Quantity of each Cask of such other Wine or Brandy so warehoused as aforesaid, from which such other Wine or Brandy is intended to be drawn off, and the Cask or Casks of Wine in which it is intended to be so mixed as aforesaid, and the particular Kind and Denomination thereof, together with the Name of the Ship, Captain and Place from whence such other Wine or Brandy was imported, and also the Bonder's Name, the Date when bonded, and the Denomination of such other Wine, or Strength and Quantity of such Brandy, so intended to be taken out of each such Cask of other Wine or Brandy respectively, and mixed with the Wine in each such Cask of Wine; and it shall be lawful for the Owner or Proprietor or Bonder of such other Wine or Brandy, in pursuance thereof, and in the Presence of the proper Officer, to draw off the Quantity of such other Wine or Brandy from the Cask or Casks specified in such Notice without Payment of Duty, and remove the same in one entire Package from the Room or Cellar in which such other Wine or Brandy is so warehoused, into the Room or Cellar in which such Wine with which the same is to be mixed shall be so warehoused or removed and warehoused as aforesaid, and to mix the same with such Wine, in the Presence and to the Satisfaction of such Officer as aforesaid; and the Importer or Importers of such other Wine, or of the Brandy from which such Part as aforesaid has been so drawn off, removed and mixed as aforesaid, and the Bond given on the Importation thereof, shall, after the said Wine is so mixed as aforesaid, be wholly discharged from all such other Wine or Brandy, and from the Payment and all Liability to pay the Duties thereon, as if the same had been separately exported; and if any Person or Persons shall draw off any Quantity of Wine or Brandy as aforesaid, for the Purpose aforesaid, without giving such Notice as aforesaid, or shall not mix the same with such Wine as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons shall respectively forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and also such Wine and Brandy respectively so drawn off and not so mixed, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any Three of them for the time being, by their Warrant or Order to extend the same Privilege of altering and fitting as aforesaid Wine for Exportation, which shall be warehoused and bonded for Exportation only, to the Importers of Wine lodged in such Warehouses in any other Part of the United Kingdom, as shall be built within an outer Wall of a Dock in such Port, and approved of by the said Lords Commissioners as sufficiently and equally secure for that Purpose with the London Dock in the Port of London; subject nevertheless to such Conditions, Provisions and Regulations as they may deem it expedient from time to time to issue and direct in that Behalf.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods imported into Great Britain, subject or liable to any Duty or Duties of Excise, and on which all the Duty or Duties charged or payable thereon have not been paid, and which have been so warehoused as aforesaid, shall be removed from one Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place thereof, otherwise than in some Vessel or Vessels by Sea, Coastwise; and if any such Goods are found removed or removing otherwise than as aforesaid, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer of any Foreign Spirits into the United Kingdom, so warehoused as aforesaid on the Importation thereof, and who shall have given such Bond as aforesaid, to give Notice in Writing to the proper Inspector or Officer of Excise of his or their Desire and Intention to fill up, from one or more of the Casks of Spirits for which such Bond was given, any other of such Casks; specifying in such Notice the Time when such Casks are so intended to be so filled up, the Name of the Ship by which the same were imported, the Master thereof, and the Place from which such Spirits were imported, and also the Name of the Person by whom Bond was given, the Date of such Bond, and the particular Kind or Denomination thereof, and the Marks, Numbers, full Content and Ullage of the Casks so intended to be filled up, and of the Cask or Casks from which the Spirits are intended to be drawn for that Purpose; and such Officer shall attend for that Purpose, and the Importer of such Spirits giving such Notice as aforesaid, shall thereupon, and in the Presence of such Officer, be allowed to draw off such Spirits and fill up such Casks as shall be specified in such Notice, and such Officer shall thereupon take a fresh Account of such Spirits; and such Importer, and also the Officer, Officer, shall be respectively authorized to draw a fresh Sample (returning the original Samples thereof) from the Spirits contained in each such Cask after being so filled up, in like Manner and Quantity as if such Spirits were newly imported: Provided always, that no Casks of Spirits warehoused under Bond as aforesaid shall be filled up more than once during the time that the same shall remain so warehoused, or after the Expiration of Ten Days from the Day on which such Spirits shall be lodged in the Warehouse as aforesaid.

Samples may be taken by Officer.

Casks not to be filled up more than once.

VIII. And Whereas the Flavour and Quality of Wine is improved by the Wine being carried on a distant Foreign Voyage, and it is expedient that Wine warehoused as aforesaid in the Port of London should be permitted to be delivered from the Warehouse, without Payment of Duty, to be shipped and carried on such Voyage for that Purpose, and to be brought back into the said Port; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Importer, Owner or Proprietor of any Wine imported into the Port of London and so warehoused, desirous of sending any such Wine upon a Voyage from London to the East or West Indies or South America and back to the said Port of London for Improvement, to give Notice in Writing for that Purpose to the proper Officer of Excise, specifying therein the Name of the Ship by which such Wine was imported, and of the Master thereof, and of the Place from which such Wine was imported, and of the Person by whom Bond was given on such Importation, with the Date thereof, the particular Kind or Denomination of the Wine, and the Marks, Number, full Content and Ullage Quantity of the Cask or respective Casks intended to be taken out of the Warehouse and shipped and sent on such Voyage for such Purpose as aforesaid; and for such Importer, Owner or Proprietor, on giving and entering into Bond, with sufficient Sureties to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person appointed by such Commissioners for that Purpose, in the Penalty of Double the Duties chargeable upon the Quantity of such Wine so intended to be taken out and shipped as aforesaid, with a Condition thereunder written, that such Importer, Owner or Proprietor giving such Bond, shall remove and take such Wine and every Part thereof without any unnecessary Delay or Interruption, and with all due Diligence and Dispatch, and with the Privy and Consent of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, from and out of the Warehouse or Warehouses wherein the same shall then be lodged and secured, and shall safely ship and stow the same, to the Satisfaction of the Officer, in and on board of the Ship or Vessel mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid and in such Bond, and keep the same so and in such manner as to secure the same on the said Voyage, as well Outward as Homeward, and shall also cause the same to be duly carried and conveyed in and on board of such last mentioned Ship or Vessel on and for such Voyage as aforesaid, and afterwards bring the same in and on board of the same Ship or Vessel back to London, (unless any Cask of such Wine shall be landed and left at some Port beyond the Seas, not being Ireland, or the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and unless it shall be duly indorsed on the Certificate hereinafter mentioned, and signed by the Collector and Comptroller Wine may be sent to the East or West Indies, &c. and brought back, to improve its Flavour, on giving Notice and entering into Bond on the Conditions herein mentioned.

troller of the Customs or other proper Revenue Officers at such Port or Place, that such Wine was duly landed and left there, stating the Marks, Number, Content and Ullage of each such Cask, and the Denomination of the Wine, and the Date of the landing thereof,) without permitting or suffering such Wine, or any Part thereof, to be used or consumed on board or unshipped, unladen or put in and on board of any other Ship, Vessel or Boat (Shipwreck or other inevitable Accident only excepted), or landed in any Port or Place whatsoever otherwise than as aforesaid except at London, on the Arrival there of the said last mentioned Ship or Vessel upon the Return thereof from the said Voyage, and under the Inspection of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise there; and shall then also produce all such Cask and Casks as aforesaid, not sold and delivered as aforesaid with the respective Marks, Letters, Numbers and Figures thereon cut or being at the Time of the Delivery of such Cask or Casks from the Warehouse for Shipment for such Voyage, or the Shipment thereof as aforesaid, and shall upon such relanding thereof as aforesaid at London, on the Arrival there of the said Ship or Vessel on the Return thereof from the said Voyage, pay or secure to be paid the full Duty and Duties of Excise and Customs charged and chargeable on the said Wine according to the Account taken by the proper Officer on the landing and warehousing of such Wine on the first Importation thereof, save and except on such Cask or Casks of such Wine as may have been so landed and left and so certified as aforesaid, and on any Deficiency of or in such Quantity of such Wine so shipped as aforesaid (except as aforesaid), as may have occurred by unavoidable Waste during the said Voyage, not exceeding Ten Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of the Quantity so delivered from the Warehouse to be shipped as aforesaid for the said Voyage; and also save and except on any further or greater Deficiency that shall or may be proved upon Oath by the Master or other Person having the Command of such Vessel, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Excise, to have been occasioned by actual and unavoidable Leakage or Accident or Shipboard (which Oath the Commissioners of Excise are respectively hereby authorized to administer), to take out of any such Warehouse as aforesaid, with the Knowledge and Privity of the Officer, the Cask or Casks of Wine specified in such Notice, without Payment of Duty, and to ship the same for such Voyage as aforesaid, under, subject and according to the Terms mentioned and contained in the Condition of such Bond; and such Officer as aforesaid shall, upon the Shipment of any such Wine from such Warehouse as aforesaid, deliver to the Master of such Ship a Certificate of the said Wine so delivered from such Warehouse, and shipped as aforesaid, containing all such Particulars thereof as aforesaid; which Certificate, with such Indorsement thereon as aforesaid, if any such Wine shall have been so landed and left as aforesaid, shall be redelivered by the Master or other Person having the Command of the Vessel by which such Wine shall be returned and brought back to London, to the proper Officer of Excise of the said Port, within Twelve Hours after such Master or other Person shall or ought by Law to have reported the Cargo of such Ship at such Port, on pain of forfeiting, for every Refusal or Default in delivering such Certificate as aforesaid, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and that upon such Proof as aforesaid (where necessary) being given as aforesaid, and the full Duties charged or chargeable upon such Wine as aforesaid, being fully paid as aforesaid, or secured to be paid, the first Importer and Bondor of such Wine shall be wholly freed and discharged in respect of such Wine from the Bond given and entered into upon the first Importation thereof; but no such Wine shall be again warehoused without Payment of Duty for a longer Period than Three Years from the Date of the first Importation thereof into the United Kingdom; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IX. And Whereas for the better taking and keeping an Account of Pepper imported and lodged in Warehouse without Payment of Duty at the Time of the Importation thereof, and securing the Duty payable thereon, and regulating the Importation thereof, it is expedient that all Pepper should be imported and exported in such sized Packages as hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore further enacted, That all Pepper imported into or exported from the United Kingdom shall be so imported and exported respectively, in Bags or Packages containing not less than One hundred Pounds Avoirdupois of Pepper; and that if any Pepper shall be imported into or exported from the United Kingdom loose and unpacked, or in any Bag or Package containing less than One hundred Pounds Avoirdupois, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: Provided always, that no such Forfeiture as aforesaid shall take place or be incurred for the Importation of any Pepper imported into the United Kingdom from the East Indies loose and unpacked, or in Bags or Packages containing less than One hundred Pounds Avoirdupois of Pepper, previous to the Fifth Day of January which will be in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Owner or Proprietor of Pepper imported into the United Kingdom, and warehoused and secured as aforesaid, or his or her Agent, with the Knowledge and in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, to separate from any Parcel or Quantity of such Pepper, all Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust that shall be mixed therewith, and for such Officer to weigh and take an Account thereof, and for the Commissioners of Excise to order all such Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust respectively to be destroyed, at such Time and Times and in such Manner as they shall think fit; and such Importer, Owner or Proprietor shall thereupon be discharged from so much of such Parcel or Quantity of Pepper as the Weight of such Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust shall amount to, and from the Payment of and all Liability to pay the Duty and Duties charged or chargeable for or in respect thereof, according to the Account taken by the proper Officer of such Pepper at the Time of the Importation thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Powers, Provisoes, Clauses, Matters and Things enacted by any Law or Laws of Excise in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, whether in relation to the Importation or Exportation, Warehousing, Bonding, Delivery or

An Act to repeal so much of an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of His late Majesty, as relates to the Purchase of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, at Sheerness, in the County of Kent, and to vest certain Lands and Hereditaments at Gillingham in the said County, in Trustees, to be appropriated to the Public Service in the Department of the Navy.

[10th July 1821.]

56 G. 3. c. 74.

So much of recited Act as relates to the Purchase of Lands at Blue Town repealed.

Certain Lands called Finsborough Marsh contiguous to ‘ WHEREAS Part of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments at Blue Town, in the Parish of Minster, in the Isle of Sheppey, in the County of Kent, mentioned and described in an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Purchase of certain Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments at Sheerness and Chatham, in the County of Kent, for the Use of the Navy, have been purchased for His Majesty’s Naval Service, and the Residue thereof are not at present likely to be required for such Service;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Purchase of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments at Blue Town aforesaid, in the said Parish of Minster, in the Isle of Sheppey and County of Kent, shall be and the same is hereby repealed to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; save and except as to any Proceedings had or taken under the Provisions of the said recited Act prior to the passing of this Act, all which Proceedings shall be and continue to be of the same Force and Effect as the same were before the passing of this Act.

‘ II. And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be possessed of and enabled to purchase the Lands and Hereditaments hereinafter particularly mentioned, which lie contiguous to His Majesty’s Dock Yard at Chatham, and are wanted for the Public Service: And Whereas the said Lands and Hereditaments are or may be vested in or belong to Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, Infants, Females Covert, Trustees or other Persons who by Law are disabled to make any Contracts or Conveyances; in all which cases, as also when any Owner or other Person or Persons entitled to or interested in the same, designing to obstruct the Public Service, or to make any unreasonable Gain to themselves, insist on extravagant Rates or Prices, it will be necessary to have recourse to the same Methods that have been taken in cases of the like Nature:’ To the End therefore that the true and real Value of the said Lands and Hereditaments, and the Estates, Rights and Interests therein, may be ascertained, and the Owners and Proprietors thereof, or Persons entitled thereto or interested therein, may have a just and reasonable Satisfaction for the same; Be it further enacted, That all that Piece or Parcel of Salt Marsh Land, situate, lying and being in the Parishes of Gillingham and Chatham, in the County of Kent, or in

One

One of them, called or known by the Name of Finsborough Marsh, otherwise Saint Mary's Marsh, otherwise Warden's Marsh, containing together in the Whole One hundred and eighty eight Acres or thereabouts, the same forming an Island, and being bounded on the North, East and West Sides thereof by the River Medway, and separated from the Main Land on the South Side thereof by a certain Creek called Saint Mary's Creek, which said Piece or Parcel of Salt Marsh Land is now in the Whole or in Part occupied by George Nash, together with all Ways, Paths, Passages, Waters, Watercourses, Creeks, Inlets, Mounds, Banks, Ditches, Fences, Easements, Liberties, Privileges, Commodities, Rights, Members and Appurtenances whatsoever, to the said Piece or Parcel of Salt Marsh Land, or any Part or Parcel thereof, belonging or in anywise appertaining, or deemed, taken or known as Part, Parcel or Member thereof or appurtenant thereto, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton, the Right Honourable William Huskisson, Sir Edward Knatchbull Baronet, William Philip Honeywood Esquire, and John Wilson Croker Esquire, their Heirs and Assigns, in Trust nevertheless for such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, as at or immediately before the Time of making this Act was or were the Owner or the several and respective Owners thereof, or had any Estates, Rights or Interests therein, according to their several Estates, Rights and Interests, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or otherwise, until such Estates, Rights and Interests respectively shall be adjudged and determined, and Possession thereof taken by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or other Persons acting under their Authority (which Possession they are hereby empowered to take when it shall be found necessary for His Majesty's Service), and until the Purchase Monies for the same, together with Interest from the Time of taking Possession, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Sum or Sums of Money that shall be agreed upon or assessed as the true Value or Values thereof, shall be paid; and that the said Purchase Monies shall be paid and applied to such and the same Uses, Intents and Purposes as the said Estates, Rights and Interests so vested in the above mentioned Trustees were limited and settled previous to the passing of this Act, so far as the Rules of Law will allow thereof; and that in the mean time, and until such Possession taken and Payment made as aforesaid, the Rents and Profits of the said Lands and Hereditaments shall be paid and applied by the said Trustees to, and all such Estates, Rights and Interests as aforesaid shall be held and enjoyed by such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, as was or were entitled to have, receive, hold and enjoy the same respectively, and in such Proportions, Manner and Form, as the same were payable and were held and enjoyed previous to the passing of this Act.

And be it further enacted, That immediately from and after the time that Payment shall be made of the Sum and Sums of Money agreed for or to be assessed by the said Jury, and decreed and adjudged by the said Commissioners to be by virtue of this present Act appointed, or any Three or more of them, to the Owners and Proprietors of and Persons interested in the said Lands and Hereditaments vested by and to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any or either of them, the Trustees hereinbefore mentioned and their Heirs shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seised of the said Premises respectively, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for ever, freed and discharged of and from all and all manner of Estates, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests, Claims and Demands whatsoever, which can or may be had, made or set up, in, to, out of or upon or in respect of the same Lands and Hereditaments, by any Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, or any Person or Persons whomsoever on any Account whatever.

Application of Money belonging to Bodies Corporate, &c. where it amounts to or exceeds 200l.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or assessed to be paid for any Lands or Hereditaments, or for any other Matter, Right or Interest of what Nature or Kind soever, purchased or taken by virtue of this Act for the Purposes thereof, which shall belong to any Body Politic or Corporate, Feme Covert, Infant, Lunatic or other Person or Persons under any Disability ability or Incapacity, or not legally entitled absolutely to dispose of the Premises by the Sale of which such Money shall be produced, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with all convenient Speed be paid to One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England, with the Privity and to the Account of the Accountant General of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer for the time being, to the Credit and for the Use and Benefit of the Owners and Proprietors of and Persons interested in such Lands or Hereditaments; and such Cashier is hereby authorized and required to receive or accept and to give a Receipt or Discharge for the same, mentioning and specifying the Amount and to whose Use the same is received; and upon the Production of such Receipt or Discharge, the said Accountant General is hereby authorized and required to sign a Certificate to the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, under his Hand, purporting and signifying that such Money or other Consideration was paid into the Bank of England in pursuance of this Act, to the Credit and for the Use and Benefit of such Owners or Proprietors, or other Persons interested, as shall be named in such Certificate; and the said Certificate shall be filed or deposited in the said Court of Exchequer, and an Office Copy thereof, signed by the proper Officer of the said Court for the time being, shall and may be read and allowed as Evidence for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and immediately upon the filing or depositing of such Certificate, the said Lands or Hereditaments shall be and become vested in the Trustees hereinbefore mentioned, and their Heirs, for the Public Service, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or assessed to be paid for any Lands or Hereditaments purchased or taken for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Body Politic or Corporate, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds and shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such cases the same shall, at the Option of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for the time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Hereditaments so purchased or taken, or of the Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees of the Person or Persons so entitled, in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands, be paid to One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England, with the Privity and to the Account of the said Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer for the time being as aforesaid, in order to be applied in the manner hereinbefore directed with respect to Sums exceeding Two hundred Pounds; or otherwise the same shall be paid at the like Option to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate making such Option, and approved of by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy or any Three or more of them (such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties), in order that such Principal Money may be invested in the Purchase of Stock in the Public Funds; and that such Stock when purchased, and the Dividends arising therefrom, may be applied in the manner hereinbefore directed, so far as the case may be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Exchequer.

Application where the Sum less than 20l.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where such Money so agreed or assessed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in all such cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, who would for the time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Hereditaments so purchased or taken for the Purposes of this Act, in such manner as the said Commissioners of the Navy shall think fit; or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, then to his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

A Baron of the Exchequer may pronounce Orders in cases where Money is paid into the Bank on Behalf of Bodies Corporate, &c. and others.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, or any One or more of them, shall and may, and they and he are and is hereby authorized and empowered, in a summary Way, upon Motion or Petition for and on Behalf of any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons entitled to the Benefit of, or interested in, any Money that shall or may be paid into the Bank of England under the Provisions of this Act, or the Interest or Produce thereof, and upon reading an Office Copy of the Certificate directed to be signed by the said Accountant General of the said Court for the time being concerning the same as aforesaid, and receiving such further Satisfaction as they or he shall think necessary, to make and pronounce such Orders and Directions for paying the said Money or any Part of the same, or for placing out such Part thereof as shall be Principal in the Public Funds, or upon Government or Real Securities, and for Payment of the Dividends or Interest thereof, or any Part thereof, to the respective Persons entitled to receive the same, or for laying out the Principal or any Part thereof in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments, to be conveyed and settled to, for and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Intents or Purposes, as the said Lands and Hereditaments so purchased or taken under this Act stood settled at the time of the Payment of such Money as aforesaid, or as near thereto as the same can be done, or otherwise for the Disposition of the said Money or any Part thereof, and the Interest or Produce of the same, or any Part thereof, for the Benefit of the Person and Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, entitled to and interested in the same respectively, or for appointing any Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees for all or any of such Purposes, as the said Court shall think just and reasonable; and also for raising and paying the Costs of any such Motion or Petition and the Proceedings to be had thereupon, or any Part of such Costs, out of the Principal Money paid into the Bank of England under the Provisions of this Act; or out of the Interest or Proceeds thereof, in such Manner and Proportions as the said Court in its Discretion shall think fit under the Circumstances of the case.

chases on Behalf of incapacitated
Persons to order

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, entitled to any Lands or Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the said

said Court of Exchequer, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments to be settled to the like Uses in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expences of all Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expences as the said Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Order, to be paid by the said Commissioners of the Navy, who shall from time to time pay such Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

Commissioners of the Navy to pay Expences.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioner who shall be so employed in the Execution of this Act shall be liable for or by reason of such Execution to any of the Penalties mentioned in the Act of the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Chapter the Second; nor the First of William and Mary, Chapter the Eighth; nor the Thirteenth and Fourteenth of William the Third, Chapter the Sixth; nor the First of George the First, Chapter the Thirteenth.

Commissioners not liable to Penalties under 25 C. 2. c. 2. 1 W. & M. c. 8. 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 6. or 1 G. 1. c. 13.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Commissioners as His Majesty shall nominate for the Purposes in this Act mentioned, or any of them, shall not by reason thereof in any Sort be disabled or disqualified from sitting in the House of Commons, nor their Election thereby become void; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Commissioners may sit in House of Commons.

XVIII. Saving always to The King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, all Estates, Rights, Titles, Privileges and Franchises, of, into and out of the Lands and Hereditaments hereinbefore mentioned, in such and the same manner as if this Act had not been made.

' thereunto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of ' any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great ' Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner, for the ' Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen;
 ' and that when and so soon as such a further Amount of the ' Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been pur' chased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the ' Redemption of Land Tax, or the Purchase of Life Annuities,
 ' as, together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred
 ' as aforesaid, should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend
 ' equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge, in Perpetual
 ' Redeemable Annuities, of the Public Debt of Great Britain
 ' existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven ' hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should there-

 ' to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury
 ' for the Time being, who should in like manner cause every ' such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London
 ' Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament; and whenever any ' such Certificate and Declaration should have been so made,
 ' published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount
 ' of Public Debts, to which such Certificate and Declaration ' should relate, should from time to time be deemed and taken to ' be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of ' Capital Stock, standing in the Names of the said Commissioners
 ' in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of ' England, or of the South Sea Company, should be considered ' to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time
 ' be cancelled as above mentioned, at such Times and in such ' Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parli' ament to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision ' for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded ' Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner:
 ' And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the ' Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and
 ' amend several Acts relating to the Redemption of the National ' Debt of Ireland, and to make further Provision in respect thereof,
 ' it is enacted and declared, that for the Purposes of the said
 ' Act, an Amount of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of
 ' the

' National Debt of Great Britain shall be and become Commis' sioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United ' Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which by the said Act is ' declared to be one joint consolidated Debt; and that the said
 ' Commissioners shall have all such Powers and Authorities as are ' or may be given in and by any Act or Acts in force in Great ' Britain or Ireland relative to the Reduction of the National ' Debt of Great Britain, or the National Debt of Ireland; and ' that the several Sums which, under and by virtue of several ' Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, are ' required to be set apart at the Receipt of the Exchequer of ' Great Britain, and the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland
 ' respectively, on Account of the Commissioners for the Re' duction of the National Debt of Great Britain, and of the ' National Debt of Ireland, shall continue to be so set apart;
 ' and that all such Sums so set apart, or any Part or Parts
 ' thereof, shall and may be issued and paid from time to time
 ' into the Bank of England, or into the Bank of Ireland, as shall ' be directed and required by the Lord High Treasurer, or the ' Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom
 ' of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being; and shall be
 ' from time to time applied, under the Direction of the Com' missioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Pur' chase of such Capital Stock, Funds, Debentures or Annuities, or ' towards any Public Loan, either in Great Britain or Ireland, as ' shall seem most expedient to the said Commissioners for the ' Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom; and Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and all such manufactured Tobacco and Snuff respectively so retailed or sent out as aforesaid shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons removing, carrying or conveying the same, or who shall be or shall have been employed or concerned, or aiding or assisting therein, or in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that every Dealer in or Retailer of Tobacco or Snuff shall send out every Quantity of Tobacco or Snuff exceeding Ten Pounds thereof respectively at one Time, by and accompanied with a legal Permit, and not with or under such Certificate as aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting all such Tobacco and Snuff respectively, which shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, it shall and may be lawful for any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff, at any time or times to strip and separate from the Stalks thereof any Tobacco Leaf which has not been wetted or put into or sprinkled with Water, without giving to the Officer of Excise previous Notice of or for the stripping of such dry Tobacco Leaf, and without such stripping of such dry Tobacco Leaf being deemed or taken to be a Commencement of the Manufacture of Tobacco or Snuff: Provided always, that every such Manufacturer shall, in the Notice given by him or her for commencing the Manufacture of any Tobacco or Snuff, in order that the Officer may weigh the respective Materials intended for that Purpose, and specified in such Notice, describe and mention whether the Tobacco Leaf specified in such Notice and intended to be Part of the Operation, or how much thereof, is Leaf stripped from the Stalks thereof by such Manufacturer, and how much thereof is Leaf unstripped, as the case may be, from the Stalks thereof; and if such Leaf be Leaf stripped from the Stalks thereof, such Stalks shall not be deemed or taken or allowed to be any Part of the Tobacco Leaf to be weighed for the Operation specified in such Notice, but such Manufacturer shall be entitled to and have Credit in his or her unmanufactured Stock for all such Tobacco Stalks.

IV. And Whereas the Word Operation used and employed with relation to the Manufacture of Tobacco and Snuff is so used and employed to express sometimes the Process of manufacturing Tobacco and Snuff respectively, and sometimes the Quantity of Tobacco or other Materials by Law allowed for that Purpose, weighed by the Officer and declared by the Manufacturer at one Time for the Manufacture of the Tobacco or Snuff specified in such Declaration: To prevent therefore Confusion from arising in the Construction of this Act; Be it enacted, That the Word Operation is used and employed in this Act, and shall be construed in this Act to mean and express only the Quantity of Tobacco and other Materials by Law allowed for the Manufacture of Tobacco or Snuff respectively, weighed by the Officer of Excise, and declared by the Manufacturer at one Time for the Manufacture of the Tobacco or Snuff respectively specified in such Declaration.

V. And

V. And be it further enacted, That if before the Expiration of any Period respectively prescribed by this Act, for finishing and declaring to be finished any Operation for the Manufacture of Tobacco, any unforeseen or inevitable Cause or Accident shall occur, by which any such Manufacturer respectively shall unavoidably be prevented from finishing and declaring the same to be finished within such Period, and such Manufacturer shall forthwith give Notice in Writing of such Cause or Accident to his or her surveying Officer of Excise, specifying therein the Nature thereof, and shall give Proof to and to the Satisfaction of the Supervisor of Excise in whose District the entered Premises of such Manufacturer are situate, of such Cause or Accident, and of the unavoidable Delay thereby occasioned, and shall finish such Operation and declare the same to be finished with as much Diligence and Dispatch as the Nature of such Cause or Accident, Hinderance and Obstruction will allow and permit, no such Manufacturer shall incur any Forfeiture or Penalty by reason of the Delay in the Performance thereof within the respective Period prescribed for that Purpose, unavoidably occasioned by such Cause or Accident; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

If Operation not completed within Time limited, owing to unavoidable Accident, of which Notice shall be given, no Forfeiture or Penalty to be incurred.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Manufacturer of Tobacco shall have depending, at one and the same Time, more than Three Operations for the Manufacture of Cut Tobacco, under which Denomination all such Tobacco shall be kept in Stock, permitted and sent out, whether the same be generally called or known by the Name of Short Cut or Shag Tobacco; and that every such Operation, where the Weight of Tobacco or Tobacco and Returns declared for such Operation, shall not exceed Five hundred Pounds Weight Avoirdupois, shall be finished and declared by such Manufacturer to be finished, before the Expiration of Seven working Days from the Date of such Declaration; and that where the Weight of Tobacco, or Tobacco and Returns so declared, shall exceed Five hundred Pounds, such Operation shall be finished and declared by such Manufacturer to be finished, before the Expiration of Ten working Days from the Date of such Declaration; and that every such Manufacturer who shall have depending, at one and the same Time, more than Three Operations for the Manufacture of Cut Tobacco, or who shall refuse or neglect to finish, and declare to be finished, any Operation for the Manufacture of Cut Tobacco, within the Period of Time hereinbefore mentioned, according to the Size of such Operation, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Only Three Operations of Cut Tobacco at one and the same Time to be allowed, and such Operations to be finished within a limited Time, according to the Size of the Operation.

VII. And be it further enacted, That during the Process of any Operation for the Manufacture of Cut Tobacco, every such Manufacturer shall cause all the Tobacco Stalks stripped from the Tobacco or Tobacco and Returns weighed and declared for such Operation, to be from time to time removed, when stripped, and kept and deposited in Bin, Cask, Chest, Box or Parcel, separate and apart from all other Tobacco Stalks, and ticketed or labelled as the Stalks belonging to such Operation, and shall not add to or mix any thing therewith, or conceal or make away with any Part thereof, until the same have been weighed and taken Account of by the proper Officer of Excise, when the Operation to which they

XI. And be it further enacted, That if upon any Notice given by any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff respectively, under any of the Provisions of this Act, the Officer of Excise shall attend as thereby required for the Purpose, and at the Time specified in such Notice, and such Manufacturer shall not within the Space of One Hour after such Officer shall be present as aforesaid begin to do and proceed in doing the Act or Thing specified in such Notice, or for which such Notice was given; or if any such Manufacturer shall previously declare in Writing, delivered to any such Officer, any such Notice void, every such Notice shall be void to all Intents and Purposes, and as if never given; and that it shall and may be lawful for any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff to proceed in any Act, Matter or Thing requiring the Presence only of the Officer when done by any such Manufacturer, and which shall be specified in any such Notice, if such Officer shall not attend for that Purpose; provided always, that no such Manufacturer shall proceed so to do, unless such Officer shall not attend for the Space of One Hour after the Expiration of the Time specified in such Notice for that Purpose; and that no Notice shall be given or Declaration made by any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff (except in case of some unforeseen and inevitable Accident), that shall require the Attendance of any Officer of Excise at or upon the entered Premises of any such Manufacturer, on a Sunday, or at any other Time, or between any other Hours than between Six of the Clock in the Morning and Eight of the Clock in the Evening; and that if any Notice shall be given, or Declaration be made by any such Manufacturer, which shall require such Attendance of the Officers (except as aforesaid), at any other Time, or between any other Hours than as aforesaid, the same shall be void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Manufacturer of Tobacco shall make, manufacture or have in his or her Custody or Possession for Exportation, or shall export on Drawback, or ship, or give Notice for that Purpose, any Cut, Roll or Carrot Tobacco, unless such Tobacco has been wholly made from Tobacco Leaf having the Tobacco Stalks stripped and separated therefrom, or from such Leaf so stripped and Returns of Tobacco Leaf so stripped, and without the Stalks thereof; and if any Manufacturer of Tobacco shall make, manufacture or have in his or her Custody or Possession for Exportation, or shall give Notice to ship, or ship for Exportation on Drawback, any Cut, Roll or Carrot Tobacco, which shall have been made from Tobacco or Tobacco and Returns, without the Tobacco Stalks being first wholly stripped and separated from the Leaf thereof, so that such Cut, Roll and Carrot Tobacco respectively shall have been wholly made from the Leaf of Tobacco from which the whole of the Stalks have been stripped, or from such Leaf so stripped and Returns of Tobacco Leaf so stripped, the same respectively shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and such Manufacturer, who shall so make, manufacture or have the same in his, her or their Custody or Possession for Exportation on Drawbacks, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Supervisor, or other Officer or Officers of Excise of equal or superior Rank to a Supervisor, but in the Presence and with the Approbation of the Collector or General Surveyor of Excise, if in a Town in which such a Collector or General Surveyor is resident, and such Collector or General Surveyor be summoned and required by such Manufacturer to attend for that Purpose, at any time or times, to weigh all or any Part or Parcel of all the Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, Returns, Snuff Work and Snuff of any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff respectively, whether the same or any Part or Parcel thereof be manufactured or unmanufactured, or is in or under any Process of Manufacture (except the Snuff Work of any Operation for the Manufacture of Snuff, between the Time of being put into Process of Cure and the taking out any Part of any of the Snuff Work of such Operation for drying or grinding the same); and if upon any such weighing, such Supervisor or other Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall find in the Possession of any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff respectively any greater Weight of any manufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalk Flour or Snuff respectively, or any unmanufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks or Returns (not being Part of any depending Operation weighed or declared for the Manufacture of Tobacco or Snuff respectively), than the Credit to which such Manufacturer shall be by Law at that Time entitled for such manufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalk Flour or Snuff respectively, or for such unmanufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks or Returns respectively, such greater Weight of manufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalk Flour or Snuff, or unmanufactured Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks or Returns respectively, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and every such Manufacturer shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any such Supervisor or other Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall upon any such weighing of any Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, Returns, Snuff Work or Snuff, weighed or declared for or in or under any Process for the Manufacture of Tobacco or Snuff respectively, find any such Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, Returns, Snuff Work or Snuff, or any Part or Parcel thereof, to be of greater Weight than shall be accounted for by such Manufacturer by the Water added thereto for the Purpose of the Manufacture thereof, every such Supervisor or other Officer and Officers as aforesaid shall and is hereby authorized and required to make thereupon such full and particular Examination, not only of such Operation on which such greater Weight shall be found, and not accounted for as aforesaid, but of all and every other Operation and Operations (if any) for the Manufacture of Tobacco or Snuff of the same Denomination which such Manufacturer shall then have depending, and of every Part and Parcel thereof, and of all the Circumstances relating thereto, as he or they shall think fit, Supervisors and other Officers of equal or superior Rank, to weigh Tobacco in Possession of any Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff.

An Act for repealing the Duties imposed on Husbandry Horses, and to make perpetual several Acts for reducing the Duties on certain Horses and Mules. [10th July 1821.]

48 G. 3. c. 55.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for repealing the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, and certain additional Duties to be consolidated therewith; and also for repealing the Stamp Duties on Game Certificates, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; certain Duties contained in the Schedule marked (F.) of the said Act were imposed and made payable on all Horses, Mares and Geldings, not charged with any Duty, according to the Schedule marked (E.) of the said Act, and on Mules in the cases thereafter mentioned, in lieu of certain Duties thereby repealed: And Whereas also by another Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain new and additional Duties of Assessed Taxes, and for consolidating the same with the former Duties of Assessed Taxes; certain other and additional Duties were imposed and made payable on Horses, Mares or Geldings, and Mules, kept for the Purposes of Husbandry, which are severally contained in a Schedule of the last mentioned Act marked (F. No. II.): And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the Purposes therein mentioned, for Two Years, and for repealing the Acts granting Allowances in respect of Children, the Duties imposed and made payable by the Acts before mentioned, on Horses kept for the Purpose of Husbandry, were discontinued and suspended, so far as the same relates to Persons occupying Farms of the Description and Value therein mentioned, for the Term of Two Years, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and other Duties substituted on Persons occupying Farms as Tenants at a Rack Rent less than Two hundred Pounds per Annum, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, or any other Estate therein described, described, of a Value less than equivalent to a Farm at the Rack Rent of Two hundred Pounds per Annum, and making a Livelihood solely by such Estate, or by such Estate and Farm jointly: And Whereas the said reduced Duties were, by certain Acts passed in the Fifty eighth and Fifty ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, further continued until and upon the fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one: And Whereas an Act was passed on the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, during the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, several Acts of His late Majesty, for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the Purposes therein mentioned, whereby the said substituted Duties were continued until and upon the fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three: And Whereas divers Petitions, praying, amongst other things, for the Repeal of the Duties granted by the said recited Acts, were presented to the Commons in Parliament assembled in the present Session; which Petitions, whilst the said Act last before recited was pending, were referred to the Consideration of a Select Committee of the said Commons; and it was intended to make Provision in the said recited Act for allowing the Amendment or Repeal thereof in the present Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of enabling Parliament to give such Relief to the said Petitioners as to the Wisdom of Parliament should seem expedient; which Provision was, by mistake, omitted to be inserted therein: And Whereas, since the passing of the said last mentioned Act, leave hath been given by the Commons, in Parliament assembled, to bring in a Bill to repeal the said Duties, so far as they relate to and are imposed on Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules, kept and used for the Purposes of Husbandry only; and it is expedient that the said Duties shall be repealed from and after the fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and that the said Act of the present Session for continuing the said Duties, depending upon and connected with the Continuance of the Duties granted by the Two first mentioned Acts, and hereby repealed, should also be repealed from the same Period: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the said several Duties on Persons, in respect of Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules, kept and used solely for the Purpose of Husbandry in Great Britain, and all Assessments thereon, shall severally cease and determine.

52 G. 3. c. 93.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Assessments made or to be made on Persons, in respect of Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules before described, for the Year to end on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in pursuance of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, shall be in force for the Purpose of collecting, levying, receiving or paying the Duties thereon, for One Quarter of the said Year and no longer; and it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners, or any Two or more of them,

‘ III. And Whereas under and by virtue of Two Acts, the one thereof passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and the other thereof passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, divers Persons have compounded for their Assessed Taxes in Great Britain, under Contracts which were made to continue in force for Three Years, and it is expedient to relieve the Persons who have compounded for the Duties on their Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules kept and used solely for the Purpose of Husbandry, for Three Quarters of the Third Year of their respective Contracts, conformable to the Repeal of the said Duties before directed; Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, at their Meetings to be held in their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Stewartries, Cities, Wards, Towns and Places in Great Britain, where any such Contracts shall have been entered into, at any Time after the Payment of One Fourth Part of the Duty chargeable for Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules used for the Purpose of Husbandry contained in any such Contract, and thereby made payable or becoming due within the Third Year of such Contract, whether the Amount of such Composition shall be made payable Quarterly or Half Yearly, to discharge the Residue of the Duty on such Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules contained in any such Contract, but nevertheless without discharging any Part of the additional Duty thereon contracted, thereby to be paid, and to make and return their Schedules of Discharge thereof, in the manner hereinbefore directed to be done in cases of Assessment, under and subject to the like Immunities and Indemnities as are before declared concerning Assessments.

. IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, The Duties on Mules, imposed and made payable on Mules by any of the said Acts, shall cease and determine in respect of all and every the Person or Persons who shall seek his or her or their Livelihood by the Carriage or Conveyance of Ore, Slate, Stone or Coal or Culm to or from the Mine or Pit, or by the Carriage of Lime, Sea Sand, Sea Weed or other Manure; provided that such Ore, Slate or Stone, or Coal or Culm, Sea Sand, Sea Weed or other Manure, be, loaded on the Backs of such Mule, and not otherwise.

‘ V. And

‘ V. And Whereas by the said Acts certain other Duties of Assessed Taxes, in respect of Horses, Mares or Geldings are reduced in certain cases therein described for a limited time, and it is expedient that the said reduced Duties should be made perpetual;’ Be it further enacted, That the reduced Duties imposed by the said Acts on Horses, Mares or Geldings shall, in every case where the same are granted during the Continuance of the said Acts, be further continued and made perpetual by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that nothing in the said Acts or this Act shall be construed to affect any Exemption to which the Use of such Horses, Mares or Geldings may entitle the Person keeping the same, by any Act passed prior to the granting of the said reduced Duties.

Reduced Duties of the said Acts on Horses for riding, &c. granted for a limited Period, made perpetual. Proviso.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to revive any Rate or Duty imposed on Horses, Mares or Geldings, by any Act or Acts repealed by the said first mentioned Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty or by any other Act herein mentioned.

Act not to revive former repealed Duties.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any of the Provisions of the said Acts, relating to any of the Assessed Taxes or any Compositions for the same, other than the Duties or Compositions on such Husbandry Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules before mentioned; and that all the Provisions of the said Acts shall continue to be in force, for the Purpose of making and completing the Assessments and Compositions on such Husbandry Horses, Mares, Geldings or Mules, for the present and all former Years, and for the raising, levying, paying and accounting for the Sums assessed or compounded for, payable before or upon the Period hereby fixed for discharging the Assessments within the present Year as before directed; and also for the levying, collecting and paying all and every the Arrears of the said Duties, which shall have been or shall be charged for any Year prior to the passing of this Act, or which shall have been or shall be charged for the present Year, and not directed to be discharged by this Act, and which shall be in arrear and unpaid; and for the suing for, adjudging and recovering any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall have been or may be incurred in respect of any such Assessment, and for the hearing Appeals against any such Assessment.

Provisions of the said Acts to remain in force for levying Arrears, &c.

Where Loans advanced or to be advanced for carrying on Public Works, repayable by Annual Instalments of not less than 5 per Cent., the Commissioners acting under recited Acts may grant further Time for Payment of such Instalments, and also for Payment of Interest.

' United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in manner therein mentioned, (and which Act was amended by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament,) it was enacted, that it should be lawful for The King's Most Excellent Majesty to authorize and empower the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds, to be issued to certain Commissioners in the said first recited Act named for the Execution of the said Act in Great Britain, and to be by the said Commissioners advanced in Loans for the Purposes in the said several Acts respectively mentioned, to be repaid upon the Terms and Conditions in the said Acts specified and set forth: And Whereas another Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, for amending and continuing the said Two recited Acts, and for extending the Powers of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts in Great Britain: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Commissioners should be authorized and empowered to extend and enlarge the Periods for Repayment of certain Loans advanced by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, for the Purpose of carrying on Public Works: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in any case where any Loan or Loans have been made at any Time before the passing of this Act, and also in any case where any Loan or Loans shall be made at any Time after the passing of this Act, under the Authority of the said recited Acts or any or either of them, or of any Act or Acts of Parliament having reference to the said recited Acts or any or either of them, to any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or to any Company or Companies of Proprietors, or to any Trustee or Trustees of any Roads or Railways, or to any other Person or Persons engaged in the carrying on of any Works of a public Nature, and which said Loan or Loans have been or shall be made repayable by Annual Instalments of not less than Five Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of the Principal Sum or Sums originally advanced, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts to grant any further Time for the Payment of any Instalment or Instalments of Principal, and any Payment or Payments of Interest or either of them respectively, due or to become due on such Loan or Loans, and to alter or postpone all or any of the several Periods stipulated or to be stipulated for the Repayment of such Loan or Loans respectively, and Interest, or of any Instalment, Part or Proportion of such Loan or Loans, and of the Payments of Interest thereof respectively, upon such Terms and Conditions, and under such Regulations and Restrictions as the said Commissioners shall, in their Discretion, think fit, and as they shall, in each case, order, direct and appoint; any thing in the said recited Acts or any or either of them, or any Act or Acts having reference to the said recited Acts or any or either of them, to the contrary in anywise

anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that the ultimate Period for the Repayment of any such Loan or Loans, or of any Instalment, Part or Proportion of such Loan or Loans, and all Interest thereon, shall not in any case be extended beyond the Period at which the Principal of such Loan or Loans would have been repaid by an Annual Instalment of Five Pounds per Centum as aforesaid from the Date of the Advance of the said Loans respectively.

Limitation of such further Time.

C A P. CXII.

An Act to grant, for the Term of Five Years, additional Stamp Duties on certain Proceedings in the Courts of Law, and to repeal certain other Stamp Duties, in Ireland.

[10th July 1821.]

WHEREAS, under and by virtue of certain Acts passed in the present Session of Parliament, divers Sums of Money will become annually payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for Salaries, Allowances or Compensations to the Judges of the superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, and to divers Officers of and in the said Courts, in lieu of certain Fees heretofore payable to such Judges and Officers respectively, and of the Profits of certain Offices which are to cease and determine, or to be abolished; and it is reasonable, in order to meet the said Charges, that certain Duties of Stamps, hereinafter specified, should be granted and paid for, upon or in respect of several Proceedings in the said Courts, heretofore liable to the Payment of Fees to the said Judges or Officers, or some of them: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected and paid in Ireland, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Articles, Matters and Things, mentioned, enumerated and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, the several Sums of Monies and Duties, as they are respectively inserted, described and set forth in Words and Figures in the said Schedule, and in every Part thereof, over and above and in addition to any Stamp Duties or other Duties payable by Law for, upon or in respect of the said several Matters and Things, or any of them respectively; and that the said Schedule, and every Clause, Regulation, Matter and Thing therein respectively contained, shall be and be deemed, taken and considered as Part of this Act.

Certain Stamp Duties specified in Schedule to be raised over and above all other Duties.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Stamps in Ireland, and shall be and be deemed and construed to be Stamp Duties; and that the several Duties, Penalties, Clauses and Matters contained in this Act, shall be subject to the several Rules, Regulations and Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland,

Duties under Care of Commissioners, and subject to Regulations of
 56 G. 3. c. 56.

Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties; so far as the same shall be respectively applicable, and save as hereinafter is otherwise expressly provided.

Duties paid in British Currency; Exception.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties by this Act granted and made payable, shall be paid and payable according to the Amount thereof in British Currency, except a Duty of Four Pence in the said Schedule inserted, which shall be paid and payable according to the Amount thereof in Irish Currency.

Separate Types and Stamps to be used at Stamp Office, for denoting Duties in Schedule.

IV. And be it further enacted, That separate and particular Types, Marks and Stamps shall be kept and used for denoting and marking on Vellum, Parchment or Paper, the several and respective Duties granted by this Act; and that each and every of such Types, Marks and Stamps shall have marked or expressed thereon the Words "Law Fund," exclusive of and besides such other Words, or such Marks, Figures or Devices, as may be deemed necessary for denoting and marking on Vellum, Parchment or Paper, the said several and respective Stamp Duties payable thereon respectively; and that such Types, Marks and Stamps shall be the only true and lawful Types, Marks and Stamps, for the stamping and impressing of all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, to denote the Payment of the Stamp Duties so granted by this Act; and that such Types, Marks and Stamps, shall not be used or deemed to denote any Stamps save those granted by this Act; and that if at any time there shall not be any such Type, Mark or Stamp, denoting precisely any of the Stamp Duties which shall from time to time be so payable, or if it shall for any other Reason be thought fit and expedient so to do, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to direct that Two or more of such Types, Marks or Stamps, the Duties denoted whereby shall in the whole amount to the Stamp Duties so payable respectively, shall be used on the same Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, for denoting such Duties, or, at their Discretion, to cause to be provided new Types, Marks or Stamps, for denoting such Duties, or any of them, and to cause all Vellum, Parchment or Paper chargeable with such Duties, to be stamped or marked with the same; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct that such Devices, Stamps or Marks shall be used, as may express the Amount of the Duty, either directly in Words and Figures, or in any other Manner whatsoever, whereby the same shall or may be sufficiently denoted, at their Discretion.

Where there is no precise Stamp to denote the Duty, Two or more Stamps may be used.

Commissioners may direct Stamps to be used.

Devices may be changed or altered, of which Notice to be given in the Dublin Gazette and other newspapers.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Devices, Types, Stamps or Marks, used or to be used for denoting on Vellum, Parchment and Paper, the Payment of any of the Stamp Duties granted by this Act, which shall be payable from time to time, may be discontinued, changed, varied or altered from time to time, and new or other Devices, Types, Stamps or Marks may be used in lieu of the Devices, Types, Stamps or Marks so discontinued, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, or the Commissioners of Stamps in Ireland for the time being, shall think fit; provided that whenever any of the Devices, Types, Stamps or Marks aforesaid shall be changed, varied or altered, then then and in every such case, public Notice of every such Change, Variation or Alteration shall be given by Advertisement in the Dublin Gazette, and in some other public Newspaper, a convenient Time before the Types, Marks or Stamps, on which such new Devices or Marks shall be made, shall be used.

VI. And be it further enacted, That such Types, Marks or Stamps, having the Words "Law Fund" impressed thereon, together with such other Words, Figures and Devices as before mentioned, shall be the only proper Types, Marks and Stamps for denoting the several Duties granted by this Act; and that all Vellum, Parchment or Paper, not marked with such Types, Stamps or Marks, shall be of no other Effect than if the said Matters respectively had been written or printed on Vellum, Parchment or Paper not marked or stamped, although any other Stamps or Stamp may be impressed thereon, of the Amount by Law required, or of any greater Amount; and all Persons who shall so write or print any such Article, Matter or Thing respectively, on any Paper, Vellum or Parchment having any such improper Stamp or Stamps thereon, shall incur and suffer such Penalty as they would be liable to in case such Article, Matter or Thing respectively, had been written or printed on Paper, Parchment or Vellum not marked or stamped.

The proper Stamps described.

Writings not having such Stamps void.

Writing on Paper, &c. having improper Stamps. Penalty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Matters and Things, in respect whereof any of the said Stamp Duties shall be payable by this Act, shall be written or printed, or written and printed, in such Manner (and if printed or written in part or entirely before being stamped, shall be so stamped) that some Part of the Writing or Printing thereof shall be on the Stamps or Marks which shall be placed on the Vellum or Parchment or Paper thereof, and such Writing or Printing shall from thence be continued in the usual Form of writing, printing or engrossing Deeds or Writings, so that no Blank Space shall be left whereby such Stamps might be made applicable to any other Deed or Instrument whatsoever, upon pain that any Person who shall so write, engross or print or stamp, or cause to be written, engrossed or printed or stamped, any such Writing, Matter or Thing, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Some Part of Writing to cover Stamps, so that they may not be applicable to any other Purpose.

Penalty 10l.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Instrument, Article, Matter or Thing charged with a Duty by this Act, marked with any Type, Device or Mark authorized by this Act, shall have been engrossed or written on Parchment, Vellum or Paper not duly stamped with the proper Amount of Duty, and it shall satisfactorily appear to the said Commissioners of Stamps, upon Oath or Affirmation or otherwise, that the same hath happened either by Accident or Inadvertency, or from urgent Necessity or unavoidable Circumstances, and without any Intention in any Party to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of the Duty chargeable upon such Instruments, then and in every of the said cases, if such Instrument shall, within Sixty Days from the Preparation or first Execution thereof, be brought to the Stamp Office in the City of Dublin to be stamped, and the Duty chargeable upon such Instrument shall be paid, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, if they shall think proper so to do, to remit any Penalty payable on stamping such Instrument, or any Part thereof, so executed without being stamped, and to cause such Instrument to be stamped with the proper Stamp; and every Person concerned in engrossing any such Instrument, or executing the same, shall be thereupon exempt from all Penalties on account thereof.

Where Instruments engrossed inadvertently, without the proper Stamp, are brought to the Stamp Office within Sixty Days, Commissioners may remit Penalty, and cause them to be properly stamped.

Stamps spoiled, from being written upon and not executed or used, &c., may be exchanged for others, Oath being made to certain Particulars and under the circumstances herein mentioned.

IX. And be it further enacted, That upon Proof on Oath, or solemn Affirmation (if by a Quaker), made before the said Commissioners, or any of them, or before any inferior Officer by them in that Behalf appointed (and which Oath or Affirmation such Officer is hereby empowered to administer), to the Satisfaction of such Commissioner or Officer, that any Deed or Instrument, Article, Matter or Thing, written or printed upon any stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper, marked and stamped as required by this Act with the appropriate Stamp for any of the Duties granted by this Act, hath not been executed or signed by any Party or Parties, or that such Vellum, Parchment or Paper hath not been used for any of the Purposes for which the same was or were intended, or that any Form of any Instrument whatever, printed with Blanks to be filled up according to each case, hath by the Death of any Party, Repeal of any Act of Parliament, or other Event or Fatality, become unfit for the Purpose intended, and the Person making such Affidavit or Affirmation hath not, nor hath any other Person on his Account received, and that such Person will not receive any Money or other Consideration for the Stamp thereupon, and that the said Stamp or Stamps is or are really and truly the Property of the Person making such Affidavit, and have or hath been paid for by such Person to the full Amount of the Duty thereon, and that such Person will be a Loser to such Amount unless such Person shall receive other Stamps in lieu thereof; and upon the Person or Persons who should produce such Proof, delivering such stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper as aforesaid, and delivering at the same Time a like Quantity of Vellum, Parchment or Paper to be stamped, then and in every such case the said Commissioners shall cause the same to be stamped or marked with such appropriate Stamps, to denote the several and respective Duties granted by this Act, which shall be stamped, marked or impressed on the stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper so then delivered in, or to denote any of the other Duties granted by this Act which may be required, the Persons so requiring the same first paying the Difference of Amount in that Behalf (if any): Provided always, that such stamped Vellum, Parchment or Paper so delivered in, shall be brought to the Commissioners of Stamps at the Stamp Office in Dublin, within Six Calendar Months next after such Deed or Instrument shall have been engrossed or written, or such blank Form shall have been rendered unfit for the Purpose intended, if the same shall belong to any Person or Persons resident in Dublin, or within Ten Miles of the Castle of Dublin, or within Twelve Calendar Months if the same respectively shall belong to Persons resident elsewhere: Provided also, that the said Commissioners, or any Officer under their Authority, shall not be required or obliged to impress on any Paper, Parchment or Vellum so brought, any Stamp or Mark which shall then be confined to Paper having the Watermark of the said Stamp Office.

Provided such Stamps are brought within the Time herein mentioned.

Provide where Paper has the Watermark of Stamp Office.

Law Proceedings not to be

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall at any time file, or cause to be filed in any Court of of Law, any Pleading, Affidavit or other Proceeding, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in respect whereof any Stamp Duty shall be payable, and there shall not be any Time expressly allowed by Law for stamping the same after the filing thereof, and that such Pleading, Affidavit, Proceeding, Matter or Thing shall not at the Time of filing thereof be duly stamped as directed by this Act, then and in every such case every Person who shall so file the same, or cause the same to be filed, and also every Officer of such Court in whose Office the same shall be received, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Person whosoever shall desire to have any Judgment marked or satisfied, or Officers to pay over the Duty any payable on Entries made in the Courts of Justice.

any other Entry whatsoever made in or upon any Record, Book or Roll of any Court, in respect of which Entry any Stamp Duty shall be payable under this Act, such Person shall pay to the Officer who shall be by him required to make such Entry, the Amount of such Duty, and such Officer shall afterward pay over such Duty in Manner hereinafter mentioned; and if any such Officer, or any Person in his Office, shall make or suffer to be made any such Entry, without having received the Amount of such Stamp Duty thereon, where such Officer is to receive such Stamp Duty, such Officer shall be responsible for such Stamp Duty, and shall be bound to pay over the same in manner hereinafter provided, in the same Manner in all Respects as if he had actually received such Duty.

Principals liable for Duties received by Deputies.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if the Person who shall receive such Stamp Duties on Entries, shall be a Deputy or Clerk acting in the Office of any superior Officer, having Power to appoint such Deputy or Clerk, then and in every such case, if such Deputy or Clerk shall not duly pay over such Stamp Duties respectively, such superior Officer shall be liable to pay the same.

Public Officers to pay Duties as directed under Orders of Court.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Officer or other Person, who under or by virtue of any of the Provisions of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts in anywise relating to the Collection or Management of any Stamp Duty or Stamp Duties payable in respect of any Part of the Business of any Court of Justice, shall, either by himself or by any other Person appointed by him, receive from any Person or Persons whomsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money as or for the Amount, or in Part of any such Stamp Duty or Duties, then and in every such case every such Officer so receiving, or who shall be responsible for the same, shall be accountable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the same, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt from such Person to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and recoverable as such; and that in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court in respect of any Business wherein such Duty shall have been so paid, upon Application to be made for that Purpose, by Affidavit, on Behalf of the Commissioners of Stamps, if the said Commissioners shall think proper to proceed in that manner, to grant a Rule requiring such Officer to shew Cause why he should not forthwith pay, according to Law, the Amount of all such Sums so received and then due by him, and if necessary, why he should not deliver, in such Way as such Court shall direct, an Account on Oath of all such Duties so due, and also to refer the taking of such Account to any Officer of such Court or other Person; and when such Court shall be satisfied as to the Amount of the Sum so due, to make such Order for the Payment thereof, and also of the Costs of so recovering the same, as to such Court shall seem fit.

Court may grant a Rule for Officer to shew Cause why he should not pay the same, &c.

and may make Order thereon.

Duplicate Book of Entries of Judgments, &c. to be kept.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Officer in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, or in the Court of Common Pleas, or in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, in Ireland, who shall have the Custody of any Book wherein the marking of any Judgments shall be entered, or wherein shall be entered the Satisfaction of any Judgment, shall keep and have a Duplicate of every such Book, wherein all such Entries shall be truly copied.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in each and every of the said Courts there shall be kept Two Books, which shall be Transcripts of each other, or as nearly so as the Provisions hereinafter contained shall permit, and that all the final Judgments of such Courts shall be entered in each of the said Books in the same Order and Form; and that the proper Officer of each Court shall Four Times in every Year, that is to say, within Ten Days after the First Day of each and every Term, deliver or cause to be delivered, between the Hours of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Stamp Office in Dublin, to such Person as shall be appointed for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Stamps, one of the said Books, with the Judgments so entered therein in the Term and Vacation next preceding, together with a Certificate therein written and signed by him immediately after the last Entry therein, stating the Number of Judgments liable to any Stamp Duty under this Act entered therein within the said Term and Vacation, and the Amount of the Stamp Duties so payable thereon under this Act; and such Officer shall thereupon pay to the Person to whom he shall so deliver such Book, the full Amount of such Stamp Duties; and if the Sum so paid shall be found to be the Sum properly payable in respect of such Judgments in that Behalf, such Officer shall certify at the Foot of the Judgments then entered in such Book, that the proper Stamp Duty under this Act has been paid thereon; and thereupon such Book shall be stamped with one or more Stamp or Stamps of the Kind required by this Act, denoting the Payment of such Duty, and shall be returned without any unnecessary Delay to the proper Officer of such Court; and that the said Books shall be and be called "The Books of Final Judgments," in such Courts respectively.

Books containing Entries of final Judgments to be kept as directed, and to be delivered at Stamp Office Four Times in each Year, at the Periods pointed out.

If proper Duties paid, Books to be stamped accordingly.

under this Act; and such Officer shall thereupon pay to the Person to whom he shall so deliver such Book the full Amount of such Duties; and if the Sum so paid shall be found to be the Sum properly payable under this Act, in respect of the Entry of the Satisfaction of such Judgments, such Officer shall certify, at the Foot of such Entry or Entries then entered in such Book, that the proper Stamp Duty under this Act has been paid thereon; and thereupon such Book shall be stamped with one or more Stamp or Stamps of the Kind required by this Act, denoting the Payment of such Duty, and shall be returned without any unnecessary Delay to the proper Officer of such Court; and that the said Books shall be and be called "The Satisfaction Judgment Entry Books," in such Courts respectively.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That there shall also be kept in every such Court Two Books, wherein the interlocutory Judgments of such Court shall in like manner be entered; and which shall be called "The Books of Interlocutory Judgments," in such Court, and shall, from and after the Expiration of Ten Months next after the passing of this Act, be the only Books of interlocutory Judgments therein, and which shall, as far as possible, be exact Transcripts of each other, one of which shall be delivered at the time and in manner aforesaid respectively, and shall, when necessary, be forwarded as aforesaid; and every such Book, when so delivered, shall have such Certificate as aforesaid written mutatis mutandis, and signed therein as aforesaid, and the Amount of the Stamp Duty thereon under this Act shall be delivered therewith as aforesaid, and the same shall be examined, certified and returned as aforesaid, and the same shall be made and prepared, dealt with and disposed of, in every Respect in the same manner as concerning the Books of Final Judgments is hereinbefore provided; save only that interlocutory Judgments only; and not Final Judgments, are to be entered therein.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in each and every of the cases aforesaid the Books which shall be so Transcripts of each other shall be of equal Force and Validity, and both of them shall be, and be deemed, taken and considered to be, Originals, and neither of them, as to any Part thereof, be deemed, taken or considered as a Copy.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Books shall be kept so as to agree as nearly as possible with each other; and that whenever any such Book shall be returned from the Stamp Office to the proper Officer, such Officer shall forthwith cause to be fairly and regularly written therein exact Transcripts of all Judgments in the said Court while such Book was out of his Possession, so as to correspond in that respect with the other of the said Books, which remained in his Possession.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That no such Officer shall deliver the same Book in Two successive Terms, but that One of the said Books shall be delivered as aforesaid in Hilary and Trinity Terms, and the other of said Books in Easter and Michaelmas Terms; in every Year, so as that such of the said Books as shall from Time to Time remain in the Hands of the proper Officer shall appear to have been inspected and stamped at the Stamp Office in its turn.

XXIII. And

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any such Officer shall neglect or omit so to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any such Book as aforesaid, at the times and in the manner hereinbefore required, or shall omit to make or cause to be made an Entry of any Judgment in any such Book as aforesaid, he shall for every such Neglect or Omission forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and if such Officer shall wilfully deface or destroy any such Book, or make any false Entry therein, or shall, without the Order of the Court or other competent Authority, erase or alter any Entry therein, or shall knowingly permit or suffer any of the said Matters to be done, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Officers neglecting to deliver such Book, or to enter Judgment, Penalty 50l.

False Entry, &c. 500l.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of the said Courts, having the legal Custody of the several Books belonging to such Courts respectively, or any of them, wherein any Entry whatsoever shall be made relating to the Rules or other Proceedings or Judgments of such Courts, shall within the Ten Days after the First Day of each and every Term produce and bring every Duplicate Book of the Entry of Judgments, or of the Entry of Satisfaction of Judgments, required to be kept as herein mentioned, and every Original Book of any other Entry or Entries, subject to the Payment of any Stamp Duties, to some Person to be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners of Stamps at the Stamp Office in Dublin; and every such Officer so bringing any such Book shall insert therein, immediately after the last Entry therein, at the time of producing the same, a Certificate duly signed by him, stating the Number of such Entries made thereon or therein, in the Term and Vacation immediately preceding, as are subject to any Stamp Duty or Duties under this Act; and every such Officer shall thereupon pay the full Amount of all such Stamp Duties, for or in respect of all such Entries therein respectively, and every such Book shall thereupon be stamped respectively, with the proper and appropriate Stamp or Stamps denoting the full Amount, of the whole of the Stamp Duties under this Act so then paid in respect of the several Entries so made therein respectively in such preceding Term and Vacation, which Stamp or Stamps shall be as few in Number as can conveniently be, to denote the full Payment of the Amount of the said Duties in Pounds, Shillings and Pence, and shall be placed in the same Page or Place on which the Certificate of such Officer shall be written as aforesaid; and if any Officer of the said Courts shall neglect or omit to bring any such Book, or to furnish such Certificate therein, or to pay such Duties as aforesaid, or in case of any false Entry made therein, or in the Copy thereof, or in case of any Omission to make any true Entry or Copy in any such Duplicate Book of Judgments, then and in every such case every such Officer shall, in every such case, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and in such case, whenever such Book shall be produced at the said Stamp Office, if such Certificate shall not appear therein, the proper Officer of the said Stamp Office shall himself make the said Certificate, and on Payment of the Duties thereby appearing to be due under this Act, the said Book shall be duly stamped as aforesaid.

Books of Entries to be produced for Inspection by proper Officer at Stamp Office, within Ten Days after the First Day of each Term.

XXV. And

Clerks, &c. so acting that Officers of Courts shall be subject to Penalty, deemed guilty of Contempt.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if at any time any Clerk or other Person, acting or employed in any Part of the Business of any of the said Courts, shall be guilty of any Neglect or Misconduct, by reason or means whereof any Officer of such Court respectively may be or become liable to any of the Penalties aforesaid, whether such Penalties shall be in fact levied or sued for, or completely incurred or not, then and in every such case every such Clerk or other Person shall be deemed guilty of a Contempt of such Court, and shall and may be attached and punished for the same at the Discretion of such Court, as usual in cases of Contempts.

Distinct Monthly Accounts kept by Commissioners of Stamps of Duties, and Produce paid into Exchequer, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That a separate and distinct Account shall be kept by the Commissioners of Stamps, and by and under their Directions, of all Sums which shall from time to time be received by, from or under the said Duties so made payable by this Act; and Copies of such Accounts shall from time to time, that is to say, on the First Monday in every Calendar Month, and as much oftener as the Nature of the case shall admit of, be furnished to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties; and such Receiver General, as speedily as possible after receiving every such Account, shall, out of any Money in his Hands, or out of the first Money that shall come to his Hands, pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin what shall remain of all and every Sum and Sums appearing thereby to have been so received on account of the said Duties; and all and every Sum and Sums so paid into the Receipt of the said Exchequer shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, until Provision shall be otherwise made by Parliament.

Separate Accounts of Duties, and of Payments to Judges, &c. in lieu of Fees kept at Exchequer, and, with Accounts from Stamp Office, transmitted to Chief Secretary's Office, and laid before Parliament annually.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That a separate and distinct Account shall be kept at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Dublin, of all and every Sum and Sums so paid into the Receipt of the said Exchequer on account of the said Duties granted by this Act, and also of all increased Salaries and Allowances and Compensations which shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund to the Judges of the superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, and to any Officers of or in the said Courts, in lieu of any Fees, or in lieu of the Profits of any Offices which shall cease, determine or be abolished, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament; and that such Account, as also the Account by this Act required to be kept by the Commissioners of Stamps, of all Sums received on account of the Duties made payable by this Act, shall be transmitted by the proper Officer in the said Exchequer, and by the Secretary to the said Commissioners of Stamps, to the Office of the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, within Fourteen Days next after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and in like manner within Fourteen Days next after the Fifth Day of January in every succeeding Year, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after such Fifth Day of January, if Parliament shall be then sitting, or otherwise within Fourteen Days after the then next Meeting of Parliament.

XXVIII. And

‘ XXVIII. And Whereas certain Allowances to a considerable Amount are to be payable to the Persons who heretofore held the Offices of Prothonotaries in the Civil Side of the Court of King’s Bench, and in the Court of Common Pleas, in Ireland, and are to terminate on the Deaths of the Survivors of the said Persons respectively; that is to say, One of the said Allowances to Lords Henry and Robert Seymour Conway, late Prothonotaries of the Civil Side of the Court of King’s Bench; and the other of the said Allowances to Lord Viscount Northland, and the Honourable Vesey Knox, late Prothonotaries of the Court of Common Pleas, in Ireland; and it is therefore reasonable that so much of the said Duties as may be sufficient to countervail the said Allowances should cease at the Deaths of the Survivors of the said Persons respectively;’ Be it therefore enacted, That as soon as the Death of the Survivor of them the said Lords Henry and Robert Seymour Conway, late Prothonotaries of the said Civil Side of the said Court of King’s Bench, shall come to the Knowledge of the Commissioners of Stamps for the time being, in Ireland, they shall forthwith notify and publish the same in the Dublin Gazette; and that from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month from the Publication of such Gazette, the Duties hereinafter immediately mentioned shall cease and determine, and shall be no longer payable; that is to say, the Duties of Five Shillings, Ten Shillings and One Pound, imposed by the Schedule to this Act annexed, on the Certificate of each and every Bill of Costs taxed by any Taxing Officer appointed to tax Bills of Costs in the Court of King’s Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer; and also the Duty of Eight Shillings imposed by the Schedule to this Act annexed, on any Writ or Process which shall issue out of or pass the Seal of any of the said Courts of King’s Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, in any Action or other Proceeding, after any Judgment shall be obtained in such Action or other Proceeding; and that as soon as the Death of the Survivor of them the said Lord Viscount Northland and the Honourable Vesey Knox, late Prothonotaries of the said Court of Common Pleas, shall come to the Knowledge of the said Commissioners of Stamps for the time being, they shall in like manner forthwith notify and publish the same in the Dublin Gazette; and that from and after the Expiration of a like Period of One Calendar Month from the Publication of such Gazette, the Duties hereinafter immediately mentioned shall cease, determine and be no longer payable; that is to say, the Duty of Two Shillings imposed by the Schedule to this Act annexed, on every Affidavit, Affirmation or Deposition taken before any Person or Persons authorized to take the same, in order to be used or filed in any of the said Courts; and also the Duty of Four Shillings, in the said Schedule mentioned, on any Writ, Mandate, Subpœna or other Writ or Process whatsoever, other than Writs of Habeas Corpus, which shall Issue out of or pass the Seal of any of the said Courts of King’s Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer.

Death of Prothonotaries to be notified in the Gazette, upon which certain Duties herein mentioned to cease.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, the Stamp Duty of One Halfpenny upon every Hand Bill, or Bill for posting, 5th April 1822 to remain to the same Amount if compounded for, in respect of the Matters herein mentioned.

under and by virtue of the Acts in force, at and immediately before the passing of this Act, in relation to the Duties on Windows or Lights and on inhabited Houses; and the Assessments made or to be made in like manner, in relation to such other of the Duties of Assessed Taxes as may be comprized in any Composition to be entered into under this Act, for the Year to end on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, shall severally be and remain to the same annual Amount in respect of all and every the Persons or Person who shall compound for the annual Payment of the said Assessments under this Act, for the Term of Six Years, in respect of the said Duties on Houses and Windows and Lights, and for the Term of Five Years in respect of the other Assessed Taxes, to be respectively computed from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

Compositions under former Acts may be renewed, subject as herein mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Compositions entered into under the said recited Acts, on the Duties on Windows or Lights, and on inhabited Houses, may be renewed under the Provisions of this Act for the Term of Six Years, to be computed from the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; and the several Compositions entered into under the said recited Acts on the other Duties of Assessed Taxes may, in respect of such of the said other Duties as are herein enumerated, be renewed under this Act for the Term of Five Years, to be computed from the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in the Manner and subject to the Terms, Conditions and Exceptions herein prescribed.

What new Contracts of Composition are to contain.

III. And be it further enacted, That every new Contract of Composition entered into under this Act, in respect of a Dwelling House, shall contain in the Body thereof a Schedule of the Number of Windows or Lights in the Dwelling House, and the annual Rent or Value thereof; and every such new Contract entered into as aforesaid, in respect of the other Duties of Assessed Taxes, shall contain in the Body thereof the Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses and other Articles of each such Establishment as aforesaid; and the said several Contracts shall be made according to the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act, mutatis mutandis.

Enumeration of Articles to be compounded for under this Act. 48 G. 3. c. 55.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into or renewed under this Act, for any Duty or Duties of Assessed Taxes, other than the Duties on Dwelling Houses mentioned in the Schedules of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, marked (A. and B.); and the other Duties of Assessed Taxes on the following Articles, forming the Establishments of the Persons or Person so compounding, and retained, employed, kept and used for their, his or her own Use, and not for or to the Use, Benefit or Profit of any other Person or Persons, or to be lent or let to hire; viz. the Duties on Servants mentioned in the Schedule of the said Act, and in the Schedule of another Act, passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, marked (C.) No. 1. and No. 2.; on Carriages mentioned in the Schedules of the said Acts respectively, marked (D.) No. 1., No. 2. and No. 4.;

52 G. 3. c. 93.

No. 4.; on Horses, Mares and Geldings, mentioned in the Schedules of the said Acts respectively, marked (E.) No. 1. and No. 3., and (F.) No. 1., whether such Horses, Mares or Geldings are subject to the Rates mentioned in the said Acts, or to any reduced Duty by any subsequent Act or Acts; on Dogs mentioned in the Schedule of the said Acts, marked (G.); on Persons in respect of using or wearing Hair Powder, mentioned in the Schedule of the said Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, marked (I.); and on Persons in respect of using or wearing Armorial Bearings or Ensigns, mentioned in the Schedule of the said last mentioned Act, marked (K.); and every such Composition which shall comprize any other Duty or Duties than the Duties enumerated, shall be void and of no Effect in respect of such other Duties, and for which the Party shall be subject to Assessment as if no such Composition had been entered into, according to the Laws in force relating to such Assessments.

48 G. 3. c. 55.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Persons or Person not having compounded under the said recited Acts, who shall be duly assessed for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two to the Rates and Duties chargeable under the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, are and is hereby declared to be competent to compound for the Rates and Duties assessed on their, his or her Dwelling House for the Term of Six Years, and for their, his or her other Assessed Taxes herein enumerated, for the Term of Five Years respectively, to commence from the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, on the same Amounts annually, as shall be assessed on them, him or her for the Year ending on the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, together with an additional annual Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the respective Amounts so assessed, and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Sum than Twenty Shillings, so as not to include in the said additional Duty any Fraction of One Penny.

Persons assessed to Duties on Houses for Year ending the 5th April 1822 may compound on Amount assessed in that Year, paying an additional Duty of 5l. per Cent.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into or renewed under this Act with any Person in Trade, in respect of any Articles kept for the Purpose of Trade; nor shall any Composition be entered into upon any Assessment charged upon Two or more Persons in Partnership in Trade; nor shall any Composition under the said recited Acts, with Two or more Partners in Trade, be renewed under this Act; nor upon any Carriages, Horses, Mares, Geldings or other Articles let or used for Hire.

Exception as to Taxes in respect of Articles kept for Trade, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person who shall have compounded for the Duties on their, his or her Dwelling House, and Windows and Lights, under the said recited Acts, continuing to reside therein, are and is hereby declared to be competent to renew their, his or her Composition under this Act, for the same Dwelling House, on the same Amount, and under the same Terms and Conditions as are expressed in the Contract of their, his or her former Composition.

Compositions for Duties on Dwelling Houses to be renewed on the same Terms.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person, except as hereinafter is excepted, who have or hath compounded under the said recited Acts for any of the other

Compounders on the other Assessed Taxes may renew the same on the Amount charged thereby, together with a further Duty of 5l. per Cent.

Duties of Assessed Taxes herein enumerated, are and is hereby declared to be competent to renew their, his or her former Composition, as to so much and such Part thereof as relates to the Duties on the Articles herein enumerated, on the Amount of Duty charged on the same Articles, and comprized in the said former Compositions respectively, together with the additional Rate of Duty of Five per Centum also charged therein in respect of the said Articles, which several Sums shall form the Aggregate Amount on which any such Composition under this Act may be renewed; and the Terms and Conditions of such Renewal shall be a further Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the said Aggregate Amount, and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Sum than Twenty Shillings, so as not to include any Fraction of One Penny in the said further Duty; and the Duties on Articles not herein enumerated nor compounded for as aforesaid, shall continue to be assessed as if this Act had not been made.

Persons desirous of continuing their former Compositions, to deliver their Contract or Copy with Notice before the 5th April 1822;

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who are hereby declared to be competent to renew his, her or their former Composition under this Act, and shall be desirous so to do, shall, on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in England, and on or before the Term of Whitsunday in the same Year in Scotland, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners of the District in which such Person or Persons shall reside, or to the Clerk of such Commissioners, the Contract of his, her or their former Composition, or a true Copy or Certificate thereof, under the Hands of any Two of the Commissioners acting for the Division in which such Contract was entered into, annexing thereto a Notice according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, declaring his, her or their Intention to renew the same; and in case the said Composition shall include any Articles not to be compounded for under this Act hereinbefore enumerated, then and in every such case the Person or Persons so desirous of renewing his, her or their Composition, shall insert in such Notice a Schedule of the Number of Articles contained in such Composition as are not to be compounded for; all which Articles, and the Amount of Duty thereon, shall be excluded from such renewed Composition, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to renew the same on the enumerated Articles only, on the Terms and according to the Provisions of this Act.

and insert Schedule of Articles not to be compounded for (if any) in Notice.

Persons having compounded and reduced their Establishments may compound de novo, on the Assessment of 1822, on Notice within Three Months, and a Return annexed to Notice.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having compounded under the said Acts, shall have reduced his or their Establishment since entering into such Composition, whereby such Person or Persons may be chargeable with a lesser Amount of Assessed Taxes for the Year commencing the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, than the Duty compounded for, and shall by reason thereof be desirous of waving the said Composition, and of entering into a Composition de novo, it shall be lawful for him, her or them so to do, upon giving Notice in Writing of such his, her or their Intention, to the Surveyor of the said Duties acting for the District in which such Person or Persons shall reside, within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, annexing to such Notice a full, true and and complete Return or List of the greatest Number of Articles chargeable with Duty, as kept and retained or employed by such Person or Persons respectively, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, so that an Assessment may be duly made for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, on all the Articles chargeable for that Year; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (subject to the Examinations in the manner herein-after provided for Compositions with Persons under this Act, who shall not have compounded under the said recited Acts,) to enter into Composition under the Provisions of this Act, with the Person or Persons giving the Notices aforesaid, upon the Amount of such Assessment as aforesaid, with the additional Duty granted thereon by this Act, to all Intents as if such Persons had not compounded under the said former Acts.

empowered thereon.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to empower any Person to renew his or her Composition in Manner and under the Conditions hereinbefore mentioned, who, since the Commencement of the said Composition, hath come into Possession of any Estate, Real or Personal, upon the Death of any Person, by Descent, Gift or Settlement, or by virtue or in pursuance of any Devise or Legacy, or under the Statute for the Distribution of Estates of Intestates, or by Marriage, and hath thereupon retained any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles which may be comprized in any Composition to be entered into or renewed under this Act, or hath kept any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid, of the same Description and chargeable to the like Duties by the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, to an Extent exceeding the Total Amount of such Composition in the Sum of Twenty five per Centum, in lieu and in the Place of the like Articles kept by the Person so dying, or any Part thereof: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the said respective Commissioners to contract for the Renewal of any Composition, under the Terms and Conditions last before mentioned, with any Person who shall have compounded under the said recited Acts on a less Amount of Duty than ought to have been included in such Composition; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners in every such case, after any such Person shall have made a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses and other Articles of his or her Assessed Taxes, according to the Laws in force relating to the said Taxes, for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in order to an Assessment thereon for that Year, and who shall be duly assessed for that Year to his or her Assessed Taxes, to contract and enter into Composition de novo with such Person on the Amount assessed for that Year on him or her, in respect of the Articles herein enumerated, together with the additional Duty hereby granted on the Amounts of other Assessments compounded for under this Act.

hundred and twenty two, and who shall have opened or made, or shall open or make, any additional Windows or Lights in the same, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and having made such Addition as aforesaid, who shall deliver a Statement as hereinafter required, of the Number of Windows or Lights opened or made in their, his or her Dwelling House after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; also, all and every Persons or Person who shall have removed or shall remove from their, his or her Dwelling House, at any time within the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and shall not be assessed for that Year for the Dwelling House into which they, he or she shall have removed during that Year, but who shall deliver a Statement as aforesaid, of the Number of Windows or Lights in such Dwelling House, and the Rent or Annual Value thereof at which the same is chargeable to the said Duties, are and is hereby declared to be respectively competent to compound for the said Rates and Duties on the Amount chargeable on such Dwelling House in or by such Assessment as shall be made thereon, for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

Persons beginning to keep, or increasing an Establishment in 1821, may compound on Assessment of the succeeding Year.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person who shall have began to keep, use or employ any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles before enumerated, or any additional Number thereof, in the Year ending on the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and who shall deliver a Statement as hereinafter is required, of the Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid, so that an Assessment may be duly made thereon for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, are and is hereby declared to be respectively competent to compound under this Act, on the Amount charged in and by such Assessment to be made for the said Year to commence on the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, on the same Terms and Conditions as if the said Persons or Person had been so assessed for the preceding Year.

Proviso for Exclusion of Articles discontinued and ceased to be kept.
59 G. 3. c. 57.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend any Composition under the same to any Part of any increased Establishment set up by any Person or Persons who hath or have compounded under the said recited Acts, which shall, in pursuance of the said recited Act of the Fifty ninth Year of His said late Majesty, or any other Act, be discontinued and ceased to be kept in the Manner provided by the said Act, and which would not have been assessable on the said Persons or Person on the Year to commence after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, by virtue of the said Act.

Renewed Composition not to extend to Articles of a different Description than authorized by

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend any renewed Composition under the same, to any Articles of a different Description than is authorized by the Composition entered into under the said recited Acts, which shall have been set up or kept since the making of the said Composition, but every such Person shall be assessed assessed for the said Articles, as if the said former Composition had not been renewed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for any such Person who shall have been assessed for the said additional Articles for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, or shall be assessed for the same for the subsequent Year, and who shall renew his or her former Composition, also to compound for the said Additional articles, on the Amount of such Assessment, and the additional Rate granted by this Act, by entering into a separate Contract for the said Articles so assessed.

Composition for additional Articles.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person who shall have compounded under the said recited Acts for the Articles of their, his or her Establishment, and shall have removed from the Division where the former Composition was entered into, and who shall be desirous to renew their or his or her Composition, under this Act, in respect of the same Establishment, shall deliver to the Commissioners of the Division where they, he or she shall reside, the Contract of their, his or her former Composition, or a true Copy or Certificate thereof, under the Hands of any Two of the Commissioners entering into the said Contract, annexing thereto a Notice according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, declaring his, her or their Intention to renew the same; and it shall then be lawful for the said Commissioners to renew the same, according to the Provisions of this Act, in like manner as if the said former Composition had been entered into by the Commissioners of the Division where the same is intended to be renewed.

Compounders having removed to another Division, may, on delivering former Composition, compound therein.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person, entering into any Composition according to the Provisions of this Act, and paying the Amount of the Sums compounded for at the Times and in the Proportions and in Manner specified in the said recited Acts and in this Act, and doing and performing all other Acts, Matters and Things required by the said recited Acts and this Act, shall be entitled to the like Privileges of opening, making or keeping open, free of Duty, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, any additional Number of Windows or Lights in the Dwelling House comprized in their, his or her Contract of Composition, or of setting up or retaining and keeping, using or employing, after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, any additional Article or Articles, composing their, his or her Establishment, to and for their, his or her own Use, but not otherwise, as the Persons compounding under the said recited Acts are or were entitled to according to the Provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, and not otherwise provided by this Act; and shall be exempt from all Assessments on such additional Windows or Lights, and such additional Article or Articles of their, his or her Establishment, during the respective Terms mentioned in such Composition: Provided always, that no Persons or Person, who shall compound under this Act for the Duties on any Carriages with Two Wheels, and not on any Carriage with Four Wheels, shall be entitled to set up, keep or use any Carriage with Four Wheels free of Duty: Provided also, that no Person who shall compound for any Dog or Dogs other than Hounds, shall set up

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Compositions to be entered into under this Act for the Duties on Windows or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, although entered in the same Contract, shall be deemed and construed to be separate and distinct Contracts from the Compositions entered into in respect of the Duties on Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid, which may be compounded for under this Act; and every such Composition for the Duties on any Dwelling House, in respect of the Windows or Lights, or as an inhabited House, shall be entered into by and with the Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where such Dwelling House shall be situate, and not elsewhere; and every such Composition, in respect of the Servants, Carriages, Horses or other chargeable Articles, forming the Establishment of the same Persons or Person in any Part of England, shall be entered into by and with the same Commissioners and in One Contract; and the like Compositions in Scotland shall also be entered into by and with the same Commissioners and in One Contract: Provided that all and every Persons or Person who shall be assessed for any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other chargeable Articles aforesaid, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, in Two or more Places in Great Britain, or who shall be assessed for that Year, or shall have compounded under the said recited Acts, in a different Place than where they, he or she be entitled to compound under this Act, shall and they are hereby respectively required to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners to whom such Application to compound shall be made, a Certificate or Certificates under the Hands of the respective Surveyors of the Districts, where they, he or she shall be so assessed or have compounded under the said recited Acts, containing the Particulars of such Assessment or Composition in every such other Division or Place, according to such Forms as shall be devised by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes pursuant to this Act; and every Composition entered into or renewed contrary to the Provisions before mentioned, shall be vacated and made of no effect, by the Judgment of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, as to Compositions made in England, and of the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, as to Compositions made in Scotland, on due Proof before them by like Certificate of any such Assessment for the said Year, or of any Composition under the said recited recited Acts, which respectively shall not have been certified to the Commissioners, Parties to any such Composition, nor comprized therein, unless it shall be proved to their Satisfaction respectively, that the same has arisen by Error or Mistake; in which cases the said Barons and Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes respectively may consent that a new Composition shall be entered into, to take Effect from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Person from compounding for the Duties on their Dwelling House, without compounding for his or her other Assessed Taxes, and vice versa.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person compounding as aforesaid under this Act, shall be freed and discharged from any Penalty or Penalties contained in the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, imposed on Persons for Non Performance of any Matter or Thing required by the said Act or Acts to be done by Persons chargeable to the Duties contained therein, during the Term herein limited, save and except that every such Person who in his or her Returns, made under the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, shall conceal any Servant or Servants, Carriage or Carriages, Horse or Horses, or other Article or Articles herein enumerated, whereby he or she shall have escaped Assessment for such Servant, Carriage, Horse, Servants, Carriages or Horses, or other Article or Articles aforesaid, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, or who in his or her Statement, Lists and Declarations, to be delivered under this Act, shall conceal any such Article or Articles aforesaid, so that he or she shall not have caused the same to be comprized in his or her Composition under this Act, shall be liable to the like Penalty as if such Person had not compounded under this Act, and had continued liable to Assessment under the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall not compound under this Act shall, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, occupy any Dwelling House, or retain or keep for his or her own Use any Article chargeable with any Duty under the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, which hath been compounded for by any other Person or Persons, or which hath been set up, retained, used, employed or kept by such other Person or Persons, under their, his or her Composition, or under Colour or Pretence thereof, the same Dwelling House or other Article or Articles aforesaid, continuing to belong to the Person or Persons so compounding, and which hath not been compounded for by the Person so occupying the said Dwelling House, or retaining, using, employing or keeping the said Article or Articles chargeable as aforesaid, nor under his or her Composition; every such Person so occupying any Dwelling House, or retaining, using, employing or keeping for his or her own Use any such Article as aforesaid, shall be liable to an Assessment in respect of the said Dwelling House, during the Time of his or her Occupation thereof, and also in respect of any such Article or Articles aforesaid, in like Manner and to the like Amount as if the same Dwelling House or Article or Articles Compositions on Houses may be compounded for without including the other Taxes, and vice versa.

Compounders not liable to Penalties of Assessed Tax Acts, except Penalty for Concealment to evade Assessment for Year ending 5th April 1822, or other Concealment to evade Amount of Composition.

Persons not compounding occupying Houses or keeping Articles compounded for by other Persons, or set up by other Persons under Colour of the Composition, held liable to Duty.

And where Intent to defraud, Penalty.

Procuring a Contract to be entered into to a less Amount than ought to be included, Contract void, and Penalty 50l.

Persons ceasing to be assessed, &c. during Residence out of G. B., or residing out of G. B., not to compound.

Compositions with Persons had belonged to him or her, and as if no Composition had been made by such other Persons or Person; and on due Proof before the Commissioners that the same hath been done with Intent to defraud the Revenue, every such Person shall be assessed in Treble the Amount of Duty payable as aforesaid.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall by Fraud or Covin cause or procure the Assessment on which any Contract of Composition shall be entered into under this Act, to be made on a lesser Amount of Duty than ought to be charged on him or her, or by any the Ways or Means in this Act mentioned, shall cause or procure any Contract of Composition under this Act to be entered into, or any Contract of Composition entered into under the said recited Acts to be renewed under this Act, on a lesser Amount of Duty than ought to be included in the Contract of Composition under this Act, every Contract so entered into or renewed under this Act shall be void and of no Effect; and every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be sued for, recovered and applied as any Penalty contained in the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes may be sued for, recovered and applied.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That no Composition for Assessed Taxes shall be entered into or renewed under this Act, with any Person who shall have resided out of Great Britain before the passing of this Act, for a temporary Purpose only, and who shall have ceased to be assessed to the said Duties, or shall have been assessed to a lesser Amount during such his or her Residence out of Great Britain, and who shall be assessed to the said Duties on a lesser Amount than he or she was assessed before his or her Departure from Great Britain, for the said Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, nor with any Person who shall be out of Great Britain at the Time of executing this Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person residing within Great Britain may, in cases of Sickness or Infirmary, or other reasonable Cause, with the Consent of the said respective Commissioners, execute such Contract in the Presence of the Collectors of Assessed Taxes, or one of them, acting for the Parish or Place where the Person compounding shall reside, any thing in the said recited Acts or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that every such Collector shall testify the Execution of such Contract, by signing the same in the Presence of the Party, so contracting: Provided also, that any Person duly assessed in Great Britain, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and entitled to compound under this Act, but residing in Ireland at the Time of executing the Contract of his or her Composition by the respective Commissioners under this Act, may execute such Contract by his or her lawful Attorney duly constituted, the said Power of Attorney being first delivered to the said respective Commissioners for that Purpose, which Contract so executed shall be of the like Force and Effect as if the Party compounding had personally executed the same.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Composition entered into under this Act, in respect of Servants, Carriages, Horses

Horses or other Articles before enumerated, with any Persons or Person hereinafter described, shall cease and determine at the respective Times hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) if any Person who shall compound under this Act shall afterwards come into Possession of any Estate Real or Personal, or become entitled to the Rents or Profits of any Estate, Real or Personal, upon the Death of any Person, whether by Descent, Gift or Settlement, or by virtue or in pursuance of any Devise or Legacy, or under the Statute for the Distribution of Estates of Intestates, and shall thereupon retain any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid, forming the Establishment of the Person so dying, or shall keep any other Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid of the same Description, and chargeable to the like Duties by the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, in lieu and in the Place of the like Articles kept by the Person so dying, or any Part thereof, or who at any Time after he or she shall come into the Possession of or be entitled unto the Rents or Profits of any such Estate by any the Means aforesaid, and during the Term herein limited for the Continuance of such Compositions as last aforesaid, begin to keep any greater Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles aforesaid, than hath been compounded for by him, the Duties on which increased Number, according to the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, amount unto One Fourth Part of the Amount of Duty so compounded for, then and in every such case the Compositions entered into under this Act, by any Persons or Person hereinbefore described, shall respectively cease and determine at the End of the Year of Assessment, according to the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes in which any such Increase of his or her Establishment took place; also if any Person shall intermarry after entering into any Composition or Compositions under this Act, and entered into by both or either of them, and the Husband shall by such Marriage come into the Possession, or to the Use or Enjoyment of the Rents or Profits of any Estate, Real or Personal, belonging to his Wife before Marriage, whether upon such Marriage the Husband shall acquire any Interest in Law or Equity in such Estate or not, or whether the said Estate shall remain in or be vested to the sole Use of the Wife or not, in case the Husband shall upon such Marriage retain or keep any Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles herein enumerated, kept by or belonging to his Wife before Marriage, or in case the Wife shall after such Marriage retain her former Establishment, or any Part thereof, or in case the Husband or Wife shall upon such Marriage begin to keep any other Servants, Carriages, Horses or other Articles herein enumerated of the same Description, and chargeable to the like Duties, by the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, in lieu and in the place of the Establishment of the Wife before Marriage, or any Part thereof, or so that the separate Establishment of either Husband or Wife, or their joint Establishment, would have been assessable on the Husband if no Composition had been entered into to an Amount of Duty exceeding One Fourth Part of such Composition, then and in every such case the Composition entered into under this Act by any such Persons, or either of them, so intermarrying and keeping any such Establishment as aforesaid, shall respectively cease and determine at the End of the Year afterwards succeeding to Estates and keeping larger Establishments, to the Extent of One Fourth Part on the Amount compounded for, to cease;

so in case of coming into Possession by Marriage.

Proviso for Composition de novo for Remainder of Term.

Year of Assessment in which such increased Establishment began to be kept; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners in every such case, after such Person shall have made a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses and other Articles of his or her Establishment charged with any Duty of Assessed Taxes according to the Laws in force relating to the said Taxes, for the Year next after the Determination of such Composition, in order to an Assessment thereon for that Year, and who shall be duly assessed for that Year to his or her Assessed Taxes, to contract and enter into Composition, de novo, with any such Person for the Remainder of the Term then to come and unexpired on the Amount so assessed on him or her for that Year, together with the additional Duty hereby granted on the Amounts of other Assessments to be compounded for under this Act.

Commissioners and other Officers acting under the former Composition Acts to act in like Manner in the Execution of this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons who for the Time being shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution this Act, and the Powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires and Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns and Places in Great Britain; and the several Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors and Inspectors General for the Time being, appointed or to be appointed to put in Execution the said Acts, shall respectively be Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors and Inspectors General to put in Execution this Act within the Limits of their respective Divisions, Districts and Places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the respective Commissioners and other Persons authorized by the said recited Acts, to contract and agree for such Compositions, or to do or perform any other Matter or Thing for carrying the said recited Acts into Execution, shall severally and respectively contract and agree for the Compositions to be entered into under this Act, and do and perform all such other Matters and Things as are required to be done and performed in the Execution of this Act, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions; and all the Powers and Authorities given and granted to them by or under the said recited Acts shall, and they are hereby declared to be revived and continued for and during the respective Terms herein limited, in as ample and effectual manner as if the same Powers and Authorities were expressly reenacted by this Act, and shall severally be applied, construed, deemed and taken to belong to this Act, as Part thereof, in like Manner as if the same had been herein expressly given, granted and applied by this Act; and the said Commissioners and others before mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, in the like and in as full and ample a manner as they, or any of them, are or were or was authorized to put in Execution the said several recited Acts.

Provisions of former Composition Acts to remain in force;

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts, although expressly applied to the Compositions made under the said Acts, or either of them, shall severally and respectively be construed and deemed to apply apply to the Compositions to be entered into under this Act, and (except where other Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Clauses, Matters and Things are substituted in and by this Act,) shall severally and respectively be used and practised in ascertaining the Amount on which any Composition is to be made, and the additional Rate to be imposed thereon, and in doing and performing all other Matters and Things necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, and shall be construed, deemed and taken to belong to this Act, as Part thereof, in like manner as if the same were severally repeated in and expressly applied to the Provisions of this Act; and where other Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Clauses, Matters or Things are substituted by this Act, in lieu of any Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Clauses, Matters or Things contained in the said Acts, the same respectively shall be construed, used and practised in such Manner, and to the like Effect in all Respects, as if the said recited Acts and this Act had been incorporated, and as if this Act had expressly abrogated and made void the several Parts of the said recited Acts, in lieu whereof any Part or Parts of this Act are or is substituted.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That where the said recited Acts contain any Period or Limitation of Time for the doing or performing of any Act, Matter or Thing therein required, the Powers and Authorities of the said Acts shall be used and practised for the doing and performing the like Acts, Matters and Things required by this Act, observing therein the Period or Limitation of Time expressed in this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person who are or is hereby declared to be competent to compound under this Act, and shall be desirous so to do, shall, on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two in England, and on or before the Term of Whitsunday in the same Year in Scotland, deliver or cause to be delivered, free of Charge, to the Surveyor of the respective Districts acting for the Parishes or Places where such Persons shall respectively reside, a Notice in Writing according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, declaring their, his or her Intention to take the Benefit of this Act, which Notice shall be signed and bear Date on the Day of such Signature by such Person or Persons, (or by some authorized Agent on their, his or her Behalf, residing in such District, and declaring therein the Place of his Residence,) in the Presence of One or more of the Assessors or Collectors of the said Duties for the same Parish or Place where the Persons or Person intending to compound shall reside, or in the Presence of such Surveyor, who respectively shall attest such Signature by signing the same with his proper Name; and every such Notice shall contain the Number and Description of the Articles on which such Persons or Person shall intend to compound, which Notices shall be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and all such Notices shall and may be retained in the Hands of the said Surveyor respectively, until the Expiration of Two Calendar Months after Delivery thereof; and every such Surveyor shall carefully and diligently inspect and examine each and every Assessment, and each and every Contract of Composition entered into under so in respect of Limitation of Time for executing Powers of former Acts.

Persons intending to compound to give and sign Notice thereof, together with a Statement of the Articles of Composition in the Form in the Schedule annexed.

position, &c. and to certify to Commissioners his Satisfaction with Notice, or his Objection thereto.

Compositions entered into contrary to this Act void.

Errors or Mistakes in Compositions may be amended.

Commissioners to insert the Amounts of Duties compounded for in their annual Duplicates of Assessed Taxes.

under the said recited Acts, relating to the Person or Persons so applying respectively, and also the Notice or Notices delivered by the said Persons or Person, under the said recited Acts, to discontinue any increased Establishment set up under such Contract or Contracts, or any Part thereof, and after such Examination thereof, every such Surveyor shall from Time to Time, within the said Period of Two Calendar Months, deliver the same to and therewith certify to the respective Commissioners authorized by this Act to contract for such Compositions for the Parishes or Places where such Applications shall have been made, either his Satisfaction with the Notices delivered in such cases, or his Objection thereto, together with the particular Article or Articles omitted, and the Amount of Duty on which such Composition ought to be made; and no Composition shall be entered into in any of the cases so objected to, until a full and complete Return shall be made of all and every the Articles chargeable with Duty, on which the Composition ought to be made under the Provisions of this Act; and every Composition entered into contrary to the Provisions of this Act shall be void and of no effect, and the Persons or Person entering into the same shall be liable to Assessment, according to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Assessed Taxes, as if no Composition had been entered into, and to the Charge of the respective Surveyors, to be made under the Authority and subject to the Provisions of the said last mentioned Acts.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case where by any Error or Mistake the just Amount of Duty on which the Persons or Person compounding ought to compound, or the additional Rate thereon shall not be duly inserted or calculated in the Contract of Composition, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and the said Barons respectively, by Certificate under the Hands of any Two or more of them, directed to the Commissioners of the Division by whom such Composition was made, to cause the same to be amended, or a new Contract made and executed, in such Manner as may seem to them expedient to obviate such Error or Mistake, and conformable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and the said respective Commissioners to whom such Certificate shall be directed shall cause the same to be amended accordingly.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of the several Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, and of the Acts relating to the several Compositions for the same, shall cause the several Amounts of the Duties compounded for, and the additional Duty charged by this Act, in each Parish, Ward or Place within their respective Divisions, to be inserted in their annual Duplicates of Assessments of Assessed Taxes, on Parchment, in such Form as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall devise, in like Manner as if the same Amounts had been severally charged by Assessment, and shall place the respective Amounts payable in each Parish, Ward or Place, opposite the Names of the Collectors of the same Parish, Ward or Place, that the several Collectors in each Parish, Ward or Place may be answerable for the

the same Amounts as if the same had been to be raised by Assessment under the said Acts.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, that the Monies to arise and become payable by virtue of the Compositions entered into or renewed under this Act, shall be payable and paid to the Collectors of the respective Parishes, Wards or Places mentioned in the respective Contracts of such Compositions, or to One of them, at or before such Times respectively as are herein directed to be expressed in such Contracts; and that all the Powers and Provisions in the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes for the raising, levying, reassessing, paying and accounting for the Duties of Assessed Taxes, shall be used, applied and enforced for the raising, levying, paying and accounting for the Monies to arise under this Act, as if the same had continued in the Assessment; and that the Persons assessed, or who shall compound in each such Parish, Ward or Place, shall be severally answerable for the Default of the Collector or Collectors of each such Parish, Ward or Place under the Acts in force relating to the Assessed Taxes, rateably and in proportion to the Amount of their, his or her Compositions or Composition, and the Remainder of the Assessments for such Parish, Ward or Place.

Composition Monies to be paid to Collectors of Places mentioned in the Contracts.

Persons assessed or compounding, answerable for Collectors.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the like Schedules as are required by the said Acts relating to Assessed Taxes or any of them, in Default of Payment of the Monies arising by Assessment, shall be delivered of Persons making Default in the Payment of Monies to arise by such Compositions, which last mentioned Schedules shall in all cases be delivered to the respective Receivers General, or their respective Deputies, on their next Receipt after each Day of Payment, with an Affidavit subscribed, to be made on the Oath or Affirmation of the said Collector or Collectors, that the several Sums contained in the said Schedule have been demanded from, and are due and wholly unpaid from the respective Persons charged therewith, either to such Collector or Collectors, or to any other Person or Persons for such Collector or Collectors, to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, which Oath the said Receivers General, or their respective Deputies, are hereby respectively authorized and required to administer and subscribe; and it shall be lawful for the respective Receivers General, or their respective Deputies, and they are hereby required forthwith to certify the same to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, in order that Process may thereupon be issued against such Defaulter without Delay.

Schedules of Defaulters to be delivered to Receivers General, Oath of Demand having been made.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in Default of any such Schedule being delivered to any Receiver General, or his Deputy, at such his Receipts as aforesaid, or within the Space of Three Days thereafter, every such Receiver General, or his Deputy, at the same Time that he shall certify the Default of the Collectors in the Non Delivery of Schedules under any Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, shall, in and by the same Certificate, and every Receiver General is hereby required, by himself or his Deputy, to certify also to the said Court of Exchequer, the Amount of the Monies to arise by the said Compositions and remaining unpaid, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and the particular Parish, Ward or Place, and the Division, where such Failure hath happened, pened, together with the Names of the Collectors of the said Parishes, Wards or Places.

Every such Certificate to be an Authority to the Court to issue Process for the Levy of Issues.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Certificate under the Hand of any Receiver General or his Deputy, of any Default of any Collector or Collectors of the Assessed Taxes, or of the Monies arising from Compositions under the said recited Acts or this Act, for Non Delivery of a Schedule as directed by the said Acts or this Act, shall be a sufficient Authority to the Barons of the said Court, or any One of them, to cause immediate Process to be issued out of and from the Office of the King's Remembrancer of the said Court, against the said Collector or Collectors; upon which Writ the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the said Process shall be directed, shall levy Issues after the Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the Sums so unpaid or unaccounted for by the said Certificate, and shall pay the Monies so levied, after deducting the Costs, Charges and Expences, to be settled and allowed by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to the Receiver General or his Deputy; and the said Sheriff shall make immediate Return of the said Process to the Court according to the due Course thereof: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Two or more of them, after Payment of the Duties in Arrear so certified, to cause such Issues, or such Part thereof as they shall think reasonable, and whenever they shall be satisfied that the Default so certified was not wilful, to be remitted and paid to the Collector or Collectors on whom the same was levied, after deducting thereout the Costs and Charges attending such Process and Levy, to be settled and allowed by the said Commissioners.

After Payment of Arrears, &c. Commissioners for Affairs of Taxes may remit such Issues.

Sheriffs, &c. having in Hand Penalties or Issues levied under Assessed Taxes or Compounding Acts, or who shall receive same under this Act, to pay over to Receiver General

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arisen from Fines, Penalties, Issues and Forfeitures or Shares thereof, respectively recovered, levied or received under the said Acts relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes or any of them, or under the said recited Acts relating to Compositions for the said Duties, or which, after the passing of this Act, shall be recovered, levied or received under the said Acts or this Act, shall be paid by all Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, or other the Person or Persons having received or recovered or who shall receive or recover the same respectively, into the Hands of the Receiver General of the said Duties and Compositions, or to his Deputy acting for the County, Division, City or Place within which such Fines, Penalties, Issues and Forfeitures, or Shares thereof, respectively have arisen and have been received or levied, or shall arise and be received or levied, within Ten Days after they respectively shall receive any Order for that Purpose under the Hands of any Two or more of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or to such other Receiver General of the Duties of Assessed Taxes, or Compositions for Assessed Taxes, to be named in such Order, as the said Commissioners last mentioned shall direct.

The Monies arising by Compositions to be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by Compositions entered into under the said recited Act or this Act, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, to the Account of Assessed essed Taxes in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

‘ XXXVII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled *An Act to continue Two Acts, of the Fifty sixth and Fifty eighth Years of His present Majesty, for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the Purposes therein mentioned, to the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and to reduce the Duties chargeable under certain Acts of the Forty eighth and Fifty second Years of His present Majesty, in respect of certain Horses, Mares, Geldings and Mules, certain Duties, as therein mentioned, are directed to be charged and paid on Butchers’ Horses: And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act touching certain Exemptions granted previous to the passing thereof;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, nothing in the said recited Acts contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to deprive any Butcher of any Exemption for or on account of One Horse to be used by him or his Servant or Servants solely for the Purposes of Trade, to which Exemption such Butcher would have been entitled under any Act or Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, in force previous to the passing of the said recited Act.*

C A P. CXV.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, relating to Bankrupts, as requires the Meetings under Commissions of Bankrupt to be holden in the Guildhall of the City of London; and for building Offices in the said City for the Meetings of the Commissioners; and for the more regular Transaction of Business in Bankruptcy.

[10th July 1821.]

5 G. 2. c. 30.

§ 26.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to prevent the committing of Fraud by Bankrupts, it is amongst other Things enacted, that where any Commission of Bankrupt shall issue out, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty two, the Commissioners therein named, or the major Part of them thereby authorized, shall forthwith, after they have declared the Person or Persons against whom such Commission shall issue a Bankrupt or Bankrupts, cause Notice thereof to be given in the London Gazette, and shall appoint a Time and Place for the Creditors to meet, which Meeting for the City of London and all Places within the Bills of Mortality, shall be at the Guildhall of the said City, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; and it was thereby further enacted, that every Person or Persons chosen or who should be chosen Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt, should at some time after the Expiration of Four Months, and within Twelve Months from the time of issuing such Commission, cause at least Twenty one Days public Notice to be given in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place the Commissioners and Assignees intend to make a Dividend and Distribution of such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; at which Time the Creditors who had not proved their Debts should then be at liberty to prove the same; which Meeting for

' for the City of London and all Places within the Bills of ' Mortality should be at the Guildhall of the said City: And
 ' Whereas the Business in Bankruptcy has of late Years greatly ' increased, and in consequence thereof proper and sufficient
 ' Accommodation cannot now be furnished to the Commissioners
 ' for transacting such Business at the said Guildhall of the said
 ' City of London: And Whereas, for the Purpose of providing ' a Remedy for such Inconvenience, an Address was ordered to ' be presented to His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, by ' the House of Commons, on the Thirtieth Day of June One ' thousand eight hundred and nineteen, praying that His Royal ' Highness would be graciously pleased to give Directions, that ' a Sum not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds should be ' issued for the Purpose of erecting a suitable Building for ' Transaction of Business in Bankruptcy: And Whereas in pur' suance of such Address the Lords Commissioners of His ' Majesty's Treasury have authorized and empowered William
 ' Courtenay of Duke Street, Westminster, in the County of Mid- ' dlesex, Esquire, One of the Masters of His Majesty's High ' Court of Chancery, Stephen Rumbold Lushington Esquire, One ' of the Secretaries of His Majesty's Treasury, Matthew Wood of ' South Audley Street, Grosvenor Square, in the County of Mid-
 ' dlesex, Esquire, One of the Aldermen of the said City of London,
 ' Thomas Wilson of the same City, Merchant, and Henry Wrot-
 ' tesley of Lincoln's Inn, in the said County of Middlesex, Esquire,
 ' as Trustees for the Public, to treat and contract for the Pur' chase of the Piece or Parcel of Ground hereinafter described, on ' which such intended new Building may be erected and built,
 ' and also for the erecting and completing the same for the Pur' poses aforesaid: And Whereas in further pursuance of such ' Address, a Contract hath been entered into by the Trustees
 ' above named, with the said City of London, for the Purchase ' of the Piece of Ground nearly adjoining the Guildhall of the ' said City, hereinafter more particularly described; and in pur' suance of such Contract, by Indenture of Feoffment with ' Livery of Seisin endorsed, duly enrolled in His Majesty's High ' Court of Chancery, bearing Date the Thirteenth Day of April
 ' in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and ' twenty, and made between the Mayor and Commonalty and ' Citizens of the City of London of the First Part; the said
 ' William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew
 ' Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, of the Second Part;
 ' Joseph Bushnan of Guildhall London aforesaid, Comptroller of ' the Chamber of the said City of London, and Francis Bligh
 ' Hookey of Guildhall aforesaid, Gentleman, of the Third Part;
 ' and Rowland Wimburn of Chancery Lane, in the said County
 ' of Middlesex, Gentleman, of the Fourth Part; it is witnessed,
 ' that in pursuance of the said Agreement, and in Consideration ' of the Sum of Four thousand one hundred Pounds paid by the ' said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew
 ' Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, into the Chamber ' of the said City of London, as therein mentioned, the said Mayor ' and Commonalty and Citizens did grant, alien, enfeoff and ' confirm unto the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold
 ' Lush-

Contract with the Corporation of London.

' Lushington, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrot-
 ' tesley, and their Heirs, all that Piece or Parcel of Ground situate
 ' and being on the West Side of Basinghall Street, in the Parish ' of Saint Michael Bassishaw of the City of London, Part of ' which Ground lately formed Part of the Site of the ancient ' Cloth Market of Blackwell Hall, or of the Buildings or Offices
 ' belonging thereto, and other Part thereof was the Site, or Part ' of the Site, of Two Messuages or Dwelling Houses situate on ' the West Side of Basinghall Street aforesaid, being Numbers
 ' Eighty two and Eighty three of the said Street; the whole of ' which said Piece or Parcel of Ground measures on the North ' Side thereof, abutting or adjoining to a Messuage or Tenement
 ' and Premises in Basinghall Street aforesaid, now or late in the ' Occupation of Maitland, Esquire, Eighty seven Feet
 ' of Assize, little more or less, in a broken Line; on the East ' Side thereof, abutting on Basinghall Street aforesaid, Ninety ' Feet Nine Inches of Assize, including Half the Thickness of ' the Party Wall, little more or less; on the West Side thereof,
 ' abutting or adjoining to a vacant Piece of Ground, which is ' intended to be left as a Yard or Passage between the Ground
 ' thereby intended to be conveyed, and the new Courts of King's ' Bench and Common Pleas, One hundred and one Feet Six ' Inches of Assize, little more or less, including Half the Party
 ' Wall; and on the South Side thereof, abutting on an intended
 ' new Street or Carriage Way leading from Basinghall Street
 ' aforesaid, to Guildhall Yard, Eighty seven Feet of Assize, little ' more or less, as the said Piece or Parcel of Ground and the ' Abuttals and Boundaries thereof are more particularly described
 ' and delineated in the Ground Plan thereof drawn in the Margin
 ' of the Indenture now in recital, together with the free Use and ' Liberty of Way and Passage in, over and upon the said Court ' Yard or Ground lying between the Western Boundary of the ' Piece or Parcel of Ground thereby intended to be conveyed,
 ' and the said intended new Buildings for the Courts of King's ' Bench and Common Pleas, at all times between the Hours of ' Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon
 ' of every Day in the Year, except Sundays, Good Friday and ' Christmas Day; but excepting and always reserving to the said
 ' Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, their Successors and ' Assigns, the Right to have an Entrance Gate to the said Yard
 ' or Passage, and to lock or fasten the same Gate, so as to pre' vent all Access to or Liberty of Way through the same Gate
 ' and Passage, except when such Right of Way or Passage is to ' be exercised between the Hours of Ten and Four as aforesaid;
 ' to hold the said Piece of Ground and Premises unto and to the ' Use of the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushing-
 ' ton, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley,
 ' their Heirs and Assigns for ever, in Trust for His Majesty and ' His Successors; and to the Intent and Purpose only, that certain ' Buildings might forthwith be erected on the said Ground, for the ' Meetings of the Commissioners of Bankrupts, and for Transaction
 ' of Business in Bankruptcy: And Whereas such Buildings have ' been accordingly erected, and are nearly completed, on the said
 ' Piece of Ground for the Purposes aforesaid: And Whereas by ' reason

‘ reason of the said hereinbefore in part recited Act of Parlia‘ ment, such Meetings of the Commissioners in Bankruptcy as are ‘ therein mentioned must of Necessity be held at the Guildhall of ‘ the said City of London; and it is therefore expedient to repeal ‘ so much of the said recited Act as compels such Meetings to be ‘ there holden, and to direct that all Public Meetings in Bank‘ ruptcy, and also such other Meetings as are hereinafter men‘ tioned, shall be held in the said newly erected Buildings: And ‘ Whereas, besides the Inconveniencies arising from the Want of ‘ appropriate Places of Meeting, considerable Inconvenience has ‘ also been experienced from their being no Provision made under ‘ the existing Laws for keeping a Registry or Journal of the Pro‘ ceedings under Commissions, and such Registry would tend to ‘ the Regularity and Uniformity of such Proceedings: And ‘ Whereas it is expedient that Commissioners acting under any ‘ Commission of Bankruptcy should, whilst so acting, have Power ‘ or Authority to remove or order any Person or Persons to be re‘ moved or taken out of the Room or Place in which they may be ‘ sitting under such Commission, who shall commit or be guilty of ‘ any Riot or Disturbance, or who shall interrupt them in the ‘ Exercise of their Duty, and to have such Person or Persons ‘ taken before any Alderman or Magistrate acting in the Commis‘ sion of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law: And ‘ Whereas by a Resolution of the House of Commons of the ‘ Twenty ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and ‘ twenty one, the further Sum of Two thousand three hundred ‘ Pounds was granted to His Majesty, to enable the said Trustees
 ‘ to defray the Expences of such new Building, and of com‘ pleting, fitting up and furnishing the same for the Purposes ‘ aforesaid: And Whereas it is expedient that a Fund should be ‘ provided, for the Purpose of ensuring to the Public the Repay‘ ment of the Sums so voted for the Purposes aforesaid:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the hereinbefore recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, as directs that any Meetings holden under Commissions of Bankruptcy should be holden at the Guildhall of the City of London, shall be and the same is hereby repealed (subject only to the Proviso next hereinafter contained).

5 G. 2. c. 30.
 § 26. in part repealed;

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That such Part as aforesaid of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, shall continue in force until the Building intended to be erected on the Piece of Ground comprised in the hereinbefore recited Indenture of Feoffment shall be completed, and Notice of such Building being ready for Use, signed by the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, shall be inserted in the London Gazette, therein fixing the time from which Business shall be transacted in such new Building, and which Building shall be called “The Court of Commissioners of Bankrupt.”

but to remain in force as herein mentioned until the new Building completed.

III. And be it further enacted, That from the Time fixed in such Notice in the London Gazette, signed as aforesaid, and for ever

Meetings under Commissions to be held in the new Building.

ever thenceforward, all Public Meetings under Commissions of Bankrupt in London, and all Places within the Bills of Mortality; (as well those fixed by the said Commissioners, as also all Meetings of Creditors under Commissions which are held in pursuance of public Advertisement,) shall be holden within the Building mentioned or referred to in such Notice.

The Ground and Buildings vested in Commissioners herein named.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Piece or Parcel of Ground described in and conveyed by the Indenture of Feoffment hereinbefore recited or expressed so to be, and all Erections and Buildings now erecting and building, or which shall be erected and built thereon, shall from henceforth be and the same are hereby vested in the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, their Heirs and Assigns for ever, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and to the Intent and Purpose that the said Piece of Ground, and the Buildings thereon, may for ever hereafter be used and applied for the Purposes and in Manner mentioned and described by this Act; subject to such Rules and Regulations respecting the Use and Occupation thereof, and of the Rooms and Chambers thereunto belonging; as the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, shall from time to time order and direct, and to and for no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; and the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs and Assigns of such Survivor, are accordingly hereby appointed, and shall from henceforth be and continue Commissioners and Trustees for carrying into Effect the Purposes of this Act.

Appointment of future Commissioners in case of Death, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when any of them the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, or any future Commissioner or Commissioners, Trustee or Trustees, to be appointed as hereinafter is mentioned, shall die, or be desirous of being discharged of and from, or refuse or decline or become incapable to act as a Commissioner and Trustee for the Purposes of this Act, then and so often as by the Means aforesaid the Number of the said Commissioners and Trustees shall be reduced to Three, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to nominate and appoint any other Person or Persons to be a Commissioner and Trustee, or Commissioners and Trustees, for the Purposes of this Act, in the Place or Stead of the Trustees who shall have so died, or desired to be discharged, or refused, declined or become incapable to act as aforesaid.

The said Ground and Buildings vested in such future Commissioners and their Heirs.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, That when and so often as any new Commissioner or Commissioners, or Trustee or Trustees, shall be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, the said Piece of Ground and Premises comprised in the said recited Indenture of Feoffment, and the Buildings thereon, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, shall be thereupon, with all convenient Speed, conveyed and assured in such sort and manner, and so as that the same shall and may be legally and effectually vested in the surviving or continuing Commissioner or Commissioners, Trustee or Trustees,

Trustees, and such new or other Commissioner or Commissioners, Trustee or Trustees, or if there shall be no continuing Commissioner or Trustee under this Act, then in such new Commissioners and Trustees only, and their Heirs and Assigns for ever, upon the same Trust and for the same Intent and Purpose as by this Act is enacted and declared concerning the Commissioners and Trustees hereby nominated; and that every such new Commissioner and Trustee shall and may in all things act and assist in the Management, carrying on and Execution of the Trusts and Purposes of this Act, in conjunction with the other then surviving or continuing Commissioner or Commissioners, Trustee or Trustees, if there shall be any such, and if not, then by themselves, as fully and effectually, and with the same Power and Powers, Authority and Authorities, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever, as if they had been originally in and by this Act nominated Commissioners and Trustees, and as the Commissioners or Trustees in this Act named, in or to whose Place such new Commissioners or Trustees shall respectively come or succeed, are enabled to do, or could or might have done under and by virtue of this Act, if then living and continuing to act in the Trust and for the Purposes hereby directed or declared.

Such new Commissioners to act with the surviving or continuing Commissioners.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Contract and Purchase so as aforesaid made and concluded by and between the said William Courtenay, Stephen Rumbold Lushington, Matthew Wood, Thomas Wilson and Henry Wrottesley, of the One Part, and the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of London of the other Part, shall be, and such Contract and Purchase is hereby ratified, confirmed and established in all Respects whatsoever.

Contract with Corporation of London confirmed, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Consideration Money for the Purchase of the said Piece of Ground, and also the Expences of erecting and completing the intended Buildings thereon, and of fitting up and furnishing the several Rooms and Offices therein, and also the Expences attending the said Contract and Purchase, and the Examination of the Title of the City of London to the said Piece of Ground, and also all Expences of Surveyors and others incurred under the Direction of the said Commissioners, or any of them, in treating for a proper Place for transacting the said Business in Bankruptcy, and in procuring and passing this Act, and the Costs, Charges and Expences of all Proceedings had or to be had in consequence thereof, shall be defrayed by the said Commissioners out of the said Two several Sums of Twenty thousand Pounds and Two thousand three hundred Pounds, issued or to be issued from His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Address and Resolution of the House of Commons hereinbefore recited; and that the Drafts of the said Commissioners, or of any Three or more of them, for the said Monies, or any Part thereof, for the Purposes of this Act, shall at all Times be sufficient Authority and Voucher for the Issue and Payment of the same; and when and so soon as the said Offices and Buildings shall be completed and prepared for the Transaction of Business, an Account shall be rendered by the said Commissioners, to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, of the Payment and Application of the Monies so as aforesaid received by or issued to them for the Purposes of this Act.

Provision for Payment of Expences of Purchase, Buildings, and of this Act.

IX. And

The said Buildings to be under the Direction of the Commissioners, subject to Order of the Great Seal.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners hereby appointed, or the major Part of them, (subject to such Rules and Regulations as the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, shall from time to time think proper to order or direct in the Premises,) to give and enforce such Order and Direction for the Completion of the said Buildings, and for the Occupation and Use of the several Offices or Rooms when completed, for the Purpose of transacting Business in and under Commissions of Bankrupt, and for preserving and keeping the said Buildings, Rooms and Offices in good Condition and Repair, and for insuring and keeping such Buildings and Offices insured from Loss or Damage by Fire, as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall from time to time think proper and advisable for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid.

The said Buildings not to be occupied as a Residence, except by a Registrar and Housekeeper.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Buildings by this Act empowered to be erected or built, or any Chamber or Room, Chambers or Rooms therein, or any Part or Parts thereof, shall not be used or occupied as or converted to the Residence of any Person or Persons whomsoever; save only and except such Part or Parts of the said Buildings as the said Commissioners hereby appointed, or the major Part of them, shall appropriate or direct to be used for the Residence and Occupation of the Registrar and Housekeeper to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, as hereinafter mentioned; but that the said Buildings, and all and every Chamber and Chambers, Room and Rooms therein, and every Part and Parts thereof, shall be used for the public Purpose and Purposes by this Act directed in respect of the same, and for no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

XV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid and allowed to the Registrar to be appointed as aforesaid, during his Continuance in the said Office the clear yearly Salary or Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and to the Housekeeper to be appointed as aforesaid the clear yearly Salary or Sum of Fifty Pounds; and also the further Allowance or yearly Sum of Fifty Pounds towards the Expences of a Servant or Servants in the said Building; the said Salaries to be paid to the said Registrar and Housekeeper respectively, besides an Allowance of Coals and Candles to each of them, to be used in their respective Offices or Apartments within the said Buildings.

A Fund for Reimbursement of Expences under the Act, by Payment of Fees and Charges herein mentioned.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in order to form a Fund towards reimbursing the Public for the Expences of the Purchase of the said Piece of Ground, and the Erection of the Buildings, and the Fitting up and Establishment of the Offices thereon, and for making the several other Payments by this Act directed and provided to be made thereout, there shall be taken from and charged to the Estates of the Bankrupts, the Business under whose Commission shall be transacted in the said Buildings, the following Fees; namely, for every Meeting under each Commission holden within the said Building or Offices, by way of Fee or Charge for the Use of the said Offices, the Sum of Ten Shillings; and to the Registrar, for his own Use, for the Registry of every such Meeting, the further Sum of One Shilling; and for every Search out of Office Hours that may be made in the said Registry, unless by or by the Order of the Commissioners under any Commission of Bankruptcy, the like Sum of One Shilling, to be paid by the Party making such Search; which said first mentioned Fee of Ten Shillings shall be received and accounted for by the Registrar to be appointed under or by virtue of this Act, and shall be in full Satisfaction of all Fees and Charges for or in respect of the Use of the Room or Offices in which such Meetings under Commissions shall be held.

XVII. And in order more effectually to insure the Receipt and Application of all Monies paid for the Use of the said Rooms to the Uses of the said Fund, be it further enacted, That no Meeting of Commissioners or of Creditors called together by public Advertisement, under any Commission of Bankruptcy, shall be held within the City of London, except in the said newly erected Building, unless otherwise specially directed in Writing by the major Part of the Commissioners named in such Commission.

Meetings of Commissioners to be held in new Building only.
Exception.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be received in respect of the Use of the said Rooms directed to be paid by this Act, shall, in the first Place, be applied under the Direction of the Commissioners of this Act for the time being, or the major Part of them, in defraying and discharging the Expences incurred in carrying the Objects of this Act into Effect, and all Costs and Charges incidental thereto; and in particular, in discharging the Salaries of the said Registrar and Housekeeper, and Allowance for Servants, the Expences of Coals and Candles for their Use, and for the Use of the said Commissioners, or of the Creditors attending such Meetings in Bankruptcy in the said Buildings, and for other necessary Expences; and also the Expences of lighting and watching the said Buildings and Premises, and all Taxes, Rates and Assessments payable in respect thereof, and of keeping the same in proper Condition and Repair, and of Insurance, and all other annual or occasional necessary Expences attending the Establishment; and after fully answering and discharging all such Charges and Expences as aforesaid, all and every the Sum and Sums of Money so to be received shall be paid into the Bank, in the Name of the said Accountant General, to the Account before directed, in order that such Monies may form a Fund, and be paid or applied under the Direction or by the Order of the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord Keeper or the Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being, as and when the same shall amount to a competent Sum, into His Majesty's Treasury, for and towards reimbursing the Public the said Two several Sums of Twenty thousand Pounds and Two thousand three hundred Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be issued from His Majesty's Treasury to the Commissioners named in this Act, for the Purchase of the said Piece of Ground, and the Erection and Establishment of the said Buildings and Offices, and all Expences incurred in the Completion of such Contract and Purchase as aforesaid, and in obtaining and passing this Act, and all other Costs, Charges and Expences which shall have been incurred or defrayed by the said Commissioners.

How Money received for Use of the said Rooms to be applied.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if at any time or times hereafter, the Monies so collected for the Use of such Rooms, and for forming such Fund as aforesaid, shall not be found fully sufficient to answer the Purpose of reimbursing the Sums so advanced for

The said Fees for reimbursing Expences may be increased by Great Seal.

for the Purposes of this Act, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, to order and direct such further and additional Sum or Sums to be paid out of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects for the Use of such Rooms, as shall appear to be necessary to make good such Deficiency in the said Fund, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Shillings for each and every such Meeting.

When Expences under the Act shall have been repaid, the Fees to be reduced by Great Seal.

XX. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as, by the Means aforesaid, all such Sum and Sums of Money, Costs and Expences as aforesaid, shall have been fully repaid into His Majesty's Treasury, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, and he and they is and are hereby required to make such Reduction in the Amount of the several Fees and Payments hereby authorized to be charged and taken from the said Bankrupts' Estates, as he or they in his and their Discretion shall think proper, so as to leave the General or Average Annual Amount of such Fees amply sufficient to answer and defray the Salaries, Allowances and other annual and occasional Expences of the said Establishment, hereinbefore directed to be paid and discharged thereout, and also such other Costs, Charges and annual or occasional Expences of all Proceedings under this Act, as the said Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, shall think proper and direct to be defrayed or incurred for the Improvement or better carrying on of the Establishment for the Purposes intended by this Act.

Riotous Persons may be taken into Custody by Commissioners.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners acting under any Commission of Bankruptcy shall have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby empowered and authorized, to order and direct the Messenger or Messengers acting under their Authority in any such Commission, to take into Custody any Person or Persons who shall commit or be guilty of any Riot or Disturbance, or who shall interrupt the said Commissioners in the Exercise of their Duty, and to have such Person or Persons taken before any Alderman or Magistrate acting in the Commission of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law; and the Warrant of such Commissioners shall be a full Authority and Indemnity to such Messenger or Messengers in so doing.

Messenger indemnified.

 ‘ the Truth of the Facts, on an Expectation held out to them of ‘ Pardon for such their Offences:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
 That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to allow for the Support of the said Officers and their Families, by any Warrant under their Hands, such annual Sum or Sums of Money, payable out of the Revenue of Customs, as shall appear to the said Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, reasonable and proper under the particular Circumstances of each case, not extinued.

Excellent

Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Two Acts of the Fifty fourth Year aforesaid shall be and the same are hereby continued in force until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and be then repealed; and that the Provisions of this Act shall thenceforth commence and continue in force for the Term of One Year.

Commencement and Continuance of this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That the Police Office now established in the Parish of Saint John of Wapping, commonly called "The Thames Police Office," and the several Police Offices now established in the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster, Saint James Westminster, Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Leonard Shore-ditch, and Saint Mary Whitechapel, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Parish of Saint Saviour, in the County of Surrey, shall be continued; and that instead of the Police Office now established in the Parish of Saint Paul Shadwell, a new Police Office shall be established in the Parish of Saint Mary le bone, in the said County of Middlesex; and that the several Persons heretofore appointed or who before the Commencement of this Act shall be appointed to execute the Duties of a Justice of the Peace at the Police Offices now established under the said recited Acts, shall continue to execute the same at the said Seven first mentioned Offices, and at the said Police Office so to be established as last aforesaid, together with such other Justices of the Peace for the said Counties respectively as may think proper to attend thereat; and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon every Vacancy by Death or otherwise, to appoint another fit Person, being a Justice of the Peace of the said Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, to execute the Duties of a Justice of the Peace at the said several Police Offices, in lieu of the Person making such Vacancy.

The Public Offices now established continued, but instead of the Office at Shadwell a new Office to be established in Mary le bone.

Justices to act.

His Majesty may appoint Justices to fill up Vacancies.

III. And be it further enacted, That One or more of the said Justices so appointed shall diligently attend at each of the said Police Offices every Day, from Ten of the Clock in the Morning until Eight of the Clock in the Evening, and at such other Times and Places as shall be found necessary, and directed by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and that Two of the said Justices shall in like manner attend together at each of the said Offices, from Twelve of the Clock at Noon until Three in the Afternoon: Provided always, that no such Attendance shall be given on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, unless in cases of urgent Necessity, or when it shall be directed by such Principal Secretary of State.

Time of Attendance of Justices.

Proviso for certain Days.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the present Receiver for the Seven Police Offices established under the said first recited Act, shall become the Receiver for the said Eight Police Offices; and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon any Vacancy in the said Office of Receiver, by Death or otherwise, to appoint any other proper Person, not being one of the Justices appointed to act at either of the said Police Offices, to be the Receiver of the said Eight Police Offices; and Receiver continued, and in case of Death His Majesty may appoint another.

Duty of Receiver;
as to Account of Monies received and disbursed;

that the said Receiver for the time being shall receive all Fees, Penalties and Forfeitures, and other Sums of Money applicable to the Purposes of this Act, and shall keep an exact and particular Account of all such Monies as shall be received by him, and shall apply the same Quarterly in Discharge of the Salaries, Expences and Charges attending the said Police Offices, and in carrying this Act into Execution, and shall make all such Contracts and Disbursements as shall be necessary for purchasing, hiring, fitting up and furnishing proper and sufficient Houses and Buildings, wherein the said Eight Public Offices shall be held, in such manner as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice and Consent of His or their Privy Council, shall think proper to direct and appoint; of which Houses and Buildings so to be hired or purchased, and the Fixtures and Furniture thereof, and of all other Necessaries to be held or purchased for the Purposes of this Act, the Property acquired therein shall be vested in the Receiver for the time being, who shall and may sell, assign and dispose of the same or any Part thereof, under the like Directions and Appointment, as Occasion shall require; and such Receiver shall prepare proper Plans and Estimates of all such Contracts and Disbursements as shall be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall deliver the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and such Receiver shall further do and execute all such other lawful Matters and Things towards the Establishment of the said Eight Police Offices, and towards the carrying this Act into Execution, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His or their Privy Council, shall from time to time think proper to direct.

as to preparing and delivering Plans and Estimates of Contracts and Disbursements, &c.

Justices to employ Constables, subject to Approbation of Secretary of State;

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices appointed as aforesaid, or any Two of them, in their respective Offices, shall appoint, retain and employ a sufficient Number of fit and able Men for the whole Eight Offices, subject to the Approbation of His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department; whom they are hereby authorized and empowered to swear in to act as Constables, for preserving the Peace, and preventing Robberies and other Felonies, and apprehending Offenders against the Peace; which Constables so sworn shall, within the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex and Kent, have all such Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, as any Constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have by virtue of any Law or Statute now made or hereafter to be made; and shall obey all such lawful Commands as they shall from time to time receive from the said Justices respectively, for the apprehending Offenders, or otherwise conducting themselves in the Execution of their Offices; and such Justices may at any Time suspend or dismiss from his Employment any such Constable attached to their respective Offices, whom they shall think remiss or negligent in the Execution of his Duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such Constable shall be so dismissed, or cease to belong to any of the said Offices, all Powers and Authorities vested in him as a Constable under and by virtue of this Act shall immediately cease and determine, to all Intents and Purposes whatever.

and may suspend and dismiss such Constables.

27 G. 2. c. 16.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in some conspicuous Part of each of the said Police Offices and also of the said Public Office in Bow Street, there shall be affixed a Table of the Fees which may legally be taken at such Offices respectively, under an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the settling and ascertaining the Fees to be taken by Clerks to Justices of the Peace; and under another Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for making perpetual several Laws for Punishment of Persons destroying Turnpikes, Locks or other Works erected by Authority of Parliament; and that all Acts made for erecting Courts of Conscience shall be deemed Public Acts; and to empower a certain Number of the Trustees of the British Museum to do certain Acts; and for confirming the Tables of Fees to be taken taken by the Clerks to the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex; and for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures or Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices; and for filing Affidavits in the Execution of Contracts of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors; and for preventing Persons driving certain Carriages from riding upon such Carriages; and that it shall be lawful for any Justice at such Offices respectively, to refuse to do any Act for which any Fee shall be demandable, unless such Fee shall be first paid; and that if any such Act shall be done, and the Fee due thereon shall not be paid, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon the Person from whom such Fee shall be due, and to make Order for Payment of the same, with the Costs of the Proceedings, and in default of Payment to levy the same, with the Costs of the Distress, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal.

Justice may refuse to act unless Fee be first paid, &c. Proviso where such Act done.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Justices so appointed to attend at the said Police Offices, and their Clerks respectively, shall, in Books to be provided for that Purpose, keep a full, true and particular Account of all Fees taken and received at each of the said Offices, together with all Penalties and Forfeitures which shall have been recovered, levied or received in pursuance of any Adjudication, Conviction or Order, had or made at any of the said Offices, or any Process or Warrant issuing from the same; to which Books of Account the said Receiver shall at all Times have free Access; and the said Justices shall, once in every Quarter of a Year, deliver unto such Receiver such Account, verified upon Oath by such Justice or Justices, Clerk or Clerks, or such other Person or Persons as shall be employed in keeping such Accounts respectively, or any Part thereof, before some Justice of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex or County of Surrey, and shall pay the Amount of all such Fees unto such Receiver, to be applied in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

Account of Fees taken at the Police Offices to be kept and delivered Quarterly to Receiver, and Amount of Fees paid to him, on Oath.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by any Act now in force, or shall be by any future Act (unless it shall contain express Words to the contrary) limited and made payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or to any Description of Persons, other than the Informer or Informers who shall sue for the same, or any Party aggrieved, and which shall be recoverable in a summary Way before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, and which shall be recovered or adjudged before any Justice or Justices at either of the said Police Offices, shall be accounted for and paid into the Hands of the said Receiver, by the Justice, Clerk, Constable, Officer or other Person or Persons who shall levy or receive the same; to be applied by such Receiver in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

All Penalties (except to Informers or Parties aggrieved) recovered at the Police Offices, to be paid to the Receiver.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if the said Justices appointed as aforesaid, or any other Person having received any such Fees at any of the said Police Offices, shall neglect to account for and pay the same in manner aforesaid; or if any Justice, Justice's Clerk, Constable, Officer or other Person, who shall levy or receive such Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Penalties or Forfeitures, shall neglect to pay the same into the Hands of such Receiver in manner aforesaid; or if any Person having resigned any such Office of Receiver, or having been removed from the same, shall neglect, within Twenty one Days after Notice for that Purpose, to account for and pay into the Hands of the succeeding Receiver all such Sums of Money as shall remain in his Hands applicable to the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Receiver for the time being, in his own proper Name only, or by his Name and Description of Office, to sue for and recover the same, with Double Costs of Suit, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, in which Action it shall be sufficient for such Receiver to declare as for Money had and received to the Use of such Receiver for the Purposes of this Act; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action may, at the Discretion of any Judge of such Court, be held to special Bail, in such competent Sum as such Judge shall order and direct; and in any such Action the Court in which such Action shall be brought may, if such Court shall think proper, at the Instance of either of the Parties, refer the Account in dispute, in a summary manner, to be audited by any Officer of the Court, or other fit Person, at their Discretion, who may examine both Plaintiff and Defendant upon Oath (which Oath the said Referec shall have Power to administer), and upon the Report of such Referee, unless either of the Parties shall shew good Cause to the contrary, such Court may make a Rule, either for the Payment of such Sum as upon such Report shall appear to be due, or for staying the Proceedings in such Cause, and upon such Terms and Conditions as to the same Court shall appear reasonable and just; or may order Judgment to be entered up by Confession, for such Sum as upon such Report shall appear to be due.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death of any such Receiver, or of any Person having resigned or been removed from such Office, or of any of the other Persons whom the said Receiver for the time being is authorized to sue as aforesaid, in every such case the Receiver for the time being may, in his own proper Name only, or by his Name and Description of Office, sue for and recover such Sum of Money as shall have been remaining in the Hands of such deceased Receiver or other Person, applicable to the Purposes of this Act, or the Executors or Administrators of such Person deceased; in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Deceased was indebted to the Plaintiff for Money had and received for the Purposes of this Act, or that the Deceased died possessed of Money had and received for the Purposes of this Act, whereby an Action accrued to the Plaintiff to demand and have the same of such Executors or Administrators; and the like Action shall and may be brought against any Executors or Administrators of Executors or Administrators; in all which Actions the Defendant or Defendants may plead in like manner, and avail themselves of the like Matters in their Defence, as in any Action founded upon Simple Contracts of the original Testator or Intestate; and in all Actions to be brought by such Receiver by virtue of this Act, Proof of the Plaintiff's acting in the Execution of such Office shall be sufficient Evidence of his holding the same, unless the contrary shall be shewn in Evidence by the Defendant or Defendants in such Action.

XIV. And

XIV. And be it further enacted, That such Receiver shall every Three Months, and oftener if required, deliver to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, a full and particular Account of all Monies by him received and paid as aforesaid, with Vouchers for the same; which Account shall be verified upon Oath before some Justice or Baron of One of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and such Receiver for his Care and Pains in the Execution of such Office, shall and may retain to his own Use, out of the Monies so received by him as aforesaid, such Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council; shall direct and appoint: Provided always, that if at the End of any Year there shall be any Surplus in the Hands of such Receiver, he shall pay the Amount of such Surplus into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and the same shall be carried to and made Part of the said Consolidated Fund.

Receiver to account to Treasury Quarterly, or oftener if required.

Allowance to Receiver.

Proviso as to Surplus.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Justice appointed as aforesaid shall, during his Continuance in such Appointment, be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member of the House of Commons; and that no Justice, Receiver, Surveyor or Constable appointed by virtue of this Act, shall, during the Time that he shall continue in his Office respectively, or within Six Months after he shall have quitted the same, be capable of giving his Vote for the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for the Counties of Middlesex or Surrey, or for the City and Liberty of Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, respectively; nor shall, by Word, Message, Writing or in any other Manner, endeavour to persuade any Elector to give, or dissuade any Elector from giving his Vote for the Choice of any Person to be a Member to serve in Parliament for the said Counties, City or Borough; and every such Justice, Receiver, Surveyor or Constable offending therein, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence shall be committed; to be recovered by any Person that shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Impar lance shall be allowed; such Action to be brought within the Space of One Year after such Offence committed: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act shall extend to subject any such Justice, Receiver, Surveyor or Constable, to any Penalty for any Act done by him at or concerning any of the said Elections, in the Discharge of his Duty in the said respective Capacities.

Justices not to sit in Parliament. No Justice, Receiver, Surveyor or Constable to vote or influence at certain Elections.

XVIII. And Whereas it hath become a Practice of late to open Shops or Rooms for the Sale, or under the Pretence of selling, ready made Coffee, Tea and other Liquors, and to keep such Shops or Rooms open during the Whole or the greatest Part of the Night, thereby affording Shelter and Accommodation to Thieves, Prostitutes and other disorderly Persons, and tending greatly to the Encouragement of Robberies, and to the Concealment of stolen Property; Be it further enacted, That no Shop, Room or Place for the Purpose aforesaid, within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within any of the Parishes hereinbefore mentioned, shall be kept open after the Hour of Eleven o'Clock at Night during any Part of the Year, nor opened before the Hour of Four o'Clock in the Morning between Lady Day and Michaelmas; or before Six o'Clock in the Morning between Michaelmas and Lady Day; and if any such Shop, Room or Place shall be open within the Hours hereinbefore prohibited, or being shut up, if any Person shall during those Hours be found therein, except the Persons actually dwelling there, or having lawful Excuse for being there, then the Master, Mistress, Waiter or other Person having the Care, Government or Management of such Shop, Room or Place, whether he or she be the real Owner or Keeper thereof or not, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, upon Conviction of any such Offence before any Justice of the Peace, by Confession or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the said Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months, unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid; and the said Penalty, when paid, shall be distributed, One Moiety to the Informer, the other Moiety to the Chamberlain of the City of London, if the Offence be committed in the said City or the Liberties thereof; and if out of the said City and Liberties, then the other Moiety to the said Receiver for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or affect any House duly licensed for the Sale of Wines and Spirituous Liquors; and that no such Conviction shall exempt the Owner, Keeper or Manager of any such Shop, Room or Place from any Penalty or penal Consequence whereto he or she may be liable for keeping a disorderly House.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, within the City of London and Liberties thereof, or within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, blow any Horn or use any other noisy Instrument for the Purpose of hawking, selling or distributing any Article whatsoever, it shall be lawful for any Constable, Headborough, Patrole, Watchman or other Person, to apprehend prehend every Person so offending, and convey him before any Justice of the Peace, who shall proceed to examine upon Oath any Witnesses appearing to give Evidence touching such Offence; and if the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence, then and in every such case he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and not less than Ten Shillings, to be applied in such Manner as such Justice shall direct; and in case the Offender shall not upon Conviction forthwith pay the Penalty, such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Ten Days, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid.

Penalty.

If not paid,
Punishment.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Conviction for the Offences aforesaid shall be in the following Form of Words, or in some other Form of Words to the like Effect:

‘ BE it remembered, That on the Day of
 ‘ in the Year of our Lord
 ‘ A. B. is brought before me [or, having been duly summoned

 ‘ Majesty’s Justices of the Peace in and for the County of ‘ [or, City, or Liberty or Place, as the case may be,] and ‘ is charged before me the said Justice with having [here describe
 ‘ the Offence,] and it appearing to me the said Justice, upon the ‘ Confession of him the said A. B. [or, upon the Oath of a cre- ‘ dible Witness, as the case may be,] that the said A. B. is guilty ‘ of the said Offence; I do therefore adjudge the said A. B. to ‘ forfeit and pay the Sum of ; and in ‘ Default of Payment, to be imprisoned in the House of Correc‘ tion at and there kept to hard Labour for the ‘ Term of , unless the said Penalty shall be

 ‘ River Thames, and the Docks and Creeks, Quays and Ware‘ houses adjacent thereto, and the Streets, Highways and ‘ Avenues leading to the said River, Docks, Creeks, Quays and ‘ Warehouses, with Intent to commit Felony on the Persons or ‘ Property of His Majesty’s Subjects; and although their evil ‘ Purposes are sufficiently manifest, the Power of His Majesty’s ‘ Justices of the Peace, to demand of them Sureties for their ‘ good Behaviour, hath not been of sufficient Effect to prevent ‘ them from carrying their evil Purposes into Execution; Be ‘ it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Constable, ‘ Headborough, Patrole, Watchman or other Person to apprehend ‘ every such suspected Person or reputed Thief, and convey him

the said Justice, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, that such Person is a Person of evil Fame and a reputed Thief, and such Person shall not be able to give a satisfactory Account of himself or herself, and of his or her Way of Living, and it shall also appear to the Satisfaction of the said Justice, that there is just ground to believe that such Person was in or on such Park, Field, Street, Highway, River, Dock, Creek, Quay, Warehouse, Avenue or other Place as aforesaid, with such Intent as aforesaid, every such Person shall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every such Conviction shall be in the following Form of Words, or in some other Form of Words to the like Effect :

Form of Conviction.

‘ BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____
 ‘ in the Year of our Lord _____ A. B.
 ‘ is brought before me C. D. Esquire, one of His Majesty’s Jus‘ tices of the Peace in and for the County of _____ [or, City, ‘ Liberty or Place, as the case may be,] and charged before me the ‘ said Justice with being a Rogue and Vagabond, he the said A. B.
 ‘ having been apprehended on the _____ Day of _____
 ‘ in a certain _____ called _____ in the Parish of _____ ‘ in the said County [or, City, et cetera, as the case may be]; and ‘ it appearing to me the said Justice, on the Oath of _____ ‘ a credible witness, that the said A. B. is a Person ‘ of evil Fame and a reputed Thief, and the said A. B. on his ‘ Examination before me, not being able to give a satisfactory ‘ Account of himself, or of his Way of Living, and it also ap‘ pearing to the Satisfaction of me the said Justice, that there is ‘ just ground to believe that the said A. B. was in such ‘ as aforesaid, with Intent to commit Felony on the Person or ‘ Property of His Majesty’s Subjects there being; I do therefore,
 ‘ in pursuance of an Act passed in the First and Second Year of ‘ the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here insert the ‘ Title of this Act] convict him the said A. B. of the said Offence, ‘ and adjudge him to be a Rogue and Vagabond, within the ‘ Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth ‘ Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, ‘ intituled *An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws re‘ lating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons,

 ‘ be committed to the House of Correction for the said County, ‘ until the next General [or Quarter, as the case may be] Sessions ‘ of the Peace to be holden for the said County [City or Place, as ‘ the case may be], then and there to be further dealt with ac‘ cording to Law. [If the Party be committed for a less time than ‘ until the Sessions, then say, there to remain for the Space of ‘ _____.] Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day ‘ and Year first above written.’

Conviction not quashed

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Conviction under this this Act, for any of the Offences aforesaid, shall be quashed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient, for Want of any other Form of Words whatever; nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench; but that if any Person shall think himself aggrieved thereby, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County or City wherein the cause of Complaint shall have arisen, such Person at the time of his Conviction entering into a Recognizance with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Justices at such Sessions assembled; and in case any such Conviction of a reputed Thief shall be affirmed at such Sessions, the said Justices may adjudge the Offender to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and proceed against him or her in the same Manner as they might have done if such Rogue and Vagabond had been committed to the House of Correction until such General or Quarter Sessions; and in case such Offender shall not appear pursuant to the said Recognizance, the Person so convicted by such Justice shall be deemed an incorrigible Rogue, within the Intent and Meaning of the said last recited Act; and the Justices at such Sessions, or any Two of them, shall issue their Warrant to apprehend and commit the Person so deemed an incorrigible Rogue to some House of Correction or Common Gaol within their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the next General or Quarter Sessions for the said County, Liberty or City, as the case may be, then and there to be further dealt with according to Law.

hereinbefore mentioned, when any case of Incompetency, Negligence, Misconduct or Delinquency shall appear to any Two Justices of the Peace acting within the said City or Limits, and Parishes, against any such Watchman or Patrole, it shall be lawful for the said Two Justices, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to declare the same, and to pronounce the Man so found incompetent or guilty of such Negligence, Misconduct or Delinquency, to be either suspended for a limited time, or absolutely dismissed from his Office, as they shall think proper; and to give Notice of such Suspension or Dismissal to the Aldermen and Common Council of the Ward if in the City of London, or to the Vestry or other Authority by whom such Watchman or Patrole was appointed; and every such Watchman or Patrole shall be incapable of being reappointed either for the same or any other Ward, Parish or Place while such Suspension or Dismissal shall remain in force; and if no Watchman or Patrole shall be appointed by the Aldermen and Common Council of the Ward, or by the Vestry or other proper Authority, at their next Meeting after such Notice shall be delivered to the Deputy of the Ward, or to the Clerk or Secretary of such Vestry or other proper Authority, or left at the House or Office where their Business is usually transacted, the said Justices shall appoint a Successor, who shall exercise and enjoy the said Duties and Powers, and receive the same Pay, Emolument and Allowances as if regularly appointed.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no man shall hereafter be appointed within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid by any Authority whatsoever, to be a Watchman or Patrole, who shall be above the Age of Forty Years, unless he shall have been previously and up to the time of such Appointment employed in the said Horse or Foot Patrole.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Alderman and Common Council of the respective Wards in the City of London and Liberties thereof, to make such Allowance to superannuated Watchmen, Beadles or Patroles, as they shall think proper, to be paid out of the Watch Rate to be raised in such Wards respectively.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That for the better Administration of the Police within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Constable or Headborough attending at any Watch House within those Limits and Parishes, between the Hours of Eight in the Afternoon and Six in the Forenoon, to take Bail by Recognizance, without any Fee or Reward, from any Person who shall be brought into his Custody within the said Hours, without the Warrant of a Justice, charged with any petty Misdemeanor, if such Constable shall deem it prudent to take such Bail for the Appearance of such Person before the Justices at the said Public Office in Bow Street, or at One of the said Police Offices to be specified in the Recognizance for Examination, at the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon next after such Recognizance shall be taken, unless that Hour shall fall on a Sunday, or on One of the Days of Absence allowed by this Act, and in that case at the like Hour on the succeeding Day; and that every Recognizance so to be taken, shall be of equal Obligation on the Parties entering entering into the same, and liable to the same Proceedings for the estreating thereof, as if the same had been taken before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace; and the Constable or Headborough shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose in every Watch House the Names, Residence and Occupation of the Party and his Sureties entering into such Recognizance, together with the Condition thereof, and the Sums respectively acknowledged, and shall lay the same before such Justice as shall be present at the time and Place when and where the Party is required to appear; and if the Party does not appear at the Time and Place required, or within One Hour after, the Justice shall cause a Record of the Recognizance to be drawn up, to be signed by the Constable or Headborough, and shall return the same to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, with a Certificate at the Back thereof, signed by such Justice, that the Party has not complied with the Obligation therein contained, and the Clerk of the Peace shall make the like Estreats and Schedules of every such Recognizance as of Recognizances forfeited in the Sessions of the Peace; and if the Party not appearing shall apply, by any Person on his Behalf, to postpone the Hearing of the Charge against him, and the Justice shall think fit to consent thereto, the Justice shall be at Liberty to enlarge the Recognizance to such further time as he shall appoint; and when the Matter shall be heard and determined, either by the Dismissal of the Complaint, or by binding the Party over to answer the Matter thereof, at the Sessions or otherwise, the Recognizance for the Party's Appearance before the Justices shall be discharged without Fee or Reward.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully destroy or damage, or endeavour to destroy or damage, or be wilfully concerned in destroying or damaging, or endeavouring to destroy or damage any Boat belonging to or hired or employed by or by the Authority of the Justices-appointed to attend at the Thames Police Office, or any Part of the Sails, Oars or other Tackle, Stores, Goods or Furniture contained in or belonging to any such Boat, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every Boat so destroyed or damaged, or attempted to be destroyed or damaged, or of which any of the Tackle or other Contents shall have been so destroyed or damaged, or attempted to be destroyed or damaged, any Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, or shall suffer Imprisonment for any time not exceeding Three Months over and above any such Damages as may be recoverable by Action at Law against any such Offender.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Thames Police Surveyor (subject to the Orders of the said Justices appointed to attend the Thames Police Office), having just Cause to suspect that any Felony has been or is about to be committed in or on board of any Ship, Hoy, Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Vessel, lying or being in the said River, Docks or Creeks, to enter at all times, as well by Night as by Day, into and upon every such Ship, Hoy, Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Vessel, and therein to take all necessary Measures for the effectual Prevention or Detection of all Felonies which he has just Cause to suspect to have been or to be about to be committed in and upon the said River,

In Default of Appearance Recognizance forfeited.

Time of Hearing may be postponed.

On hearing, Recognizance discharged without Fee.

Damaging, &c. Boats belonging to Thames Police.

Penalty or Imprisonment.

Surveyor, having just Cause to suspect Felony, may enter on Vessels and take up suspected Persons and seize the Property.

River, Docks or Creeks, and to apprehend and detain all Persons suspected of being concerned in such Felonies, and also all Property so suspected to be stolen, and the same to produce before some Justice, to be dealt with according to Law.

Unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder may be searched for and seized.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Thames Police Surveyor, at any time between Sun rising and Sun setting, to enter any Ship or Vessel (except His Majesty's Ships) in the said River, Docks and Creeks, and to search the same for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder, and also to exercise the same Powers of seizing, removing to proper Places and detaining all such unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder found on board any such Ship or Vessel, and the Barrels or other Packages in which such Gunpowder shall be, as are given to Persons searching for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder under a Warrant of a Justice by virtue of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the making, keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder within Great Britain, and to repeal the Laws heretofore made for any of those Purposes.

12 G. 3. c. 61.

Where Boats are suspected to have stolen Ropes, &c. on board, they may be detained.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Thames Police Constable or Surveyor, or any other Peace Officer within his Jurisdiction, to stop, search and detain in some Place of Safety any Boat which there shall be Reason to suspect of having any Ropes, Cordage, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Stores, Materials or any Part of any Cargo or Lading, stolen or unlawfully procured from or out of any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, in the said River, Docks or Creeks, or from any Wharf, Quay or Landing Place, adjacent to the said River, Docks or Creeks; and also to apprehend and detain, or cause to be apprehended and detained, any Person who may be reasonably suspected of having or conveying any such Articles in such Boat; and such Person so apprehended shall be (as soon as conveniently may be) conveyed before some Justice of the Peace; and if such Person shall not produce the Party or Parties from whom he or she bought or received such Articles, or some credible Person, to depose upon Oath the Sale or Delivery thereof, or shall not give an Account to the Satisfaction of such Justice how he or she came by the same, then the Person so apprehended shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor; and shall suffer as hereinafter mentioned; and such Boat, with her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture and Loading, shall, upon such Conviction, be forfeited and disposed of as is hereinafter directed.

Persons suspected of having conveyed stolen Articles on board.

Proceedings.

Constables, &c. may seize Ropes, &c. suspected to be stolen from out of Vessels in the River, and carry Persons concerned before a Justice, &c.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Thames Police Constable and Surveyor, and every other Peace Officer within his Jurisdiction, shall and may apprehend and detain, or cause to be apprehended and detained, every Person who may reasonably be suspected of having or carrying any Ropes, Cordage, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Stores, Materials or any Part of any Cargo or Lading, stolen or unlawfully procured from or out of any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft in the said River, Docks or Creeks, or from any Wharf, Quay or Landing Place adjacent to the said River, Docks or Creeks, and also shall and may seize all such Articles and detain them in some Place of Safety, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, convey, or cause every Person so apprehended to be conveyed before some Justice of the Peace; and if such such Person shall not produce the Party or Parties from whom he or she bought or received such Articles, or some credible Person to depose upon Oath the Sale or Delivery thereof, or shall not give an Account, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, how he or she came by the same, then the Person so apprehended shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as hereinafter mentioned.

Proceedings thereon.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if on Information given on Oath it shall appear to any Justice that there is reasonable Cause for suspecting that any Materials, Furniture, Stores or any Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel lying or being in the said River, Docks or Creeks, or any Stores belonging to His Majesty, or consigned to any Person for His Majesty's Service, have been stolen or unlawfully obtained from or out of any such Ship or Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, lying or being in the said River, Docks or Creeks, or from any Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place adjacent to the same, or from or in the Way to or from any Warehouse into or from which such Articles had been removing or removed to or from any such Wharf, Quay or Landing Place, and that such Articles, after having been so stolen or unlawfully obtained, are concealed or otherwise lodged in any Dwelling House, Warehouse, Yard, Garden or any other Place, it shall be lawful for such Justice, by special Warrant under his Hand and Seal, directed to any Thames Police Constable or Surveyor as aforesaid, or other Constable within his Jurisdiction, to cause every such Place to be searched at any time of the Day, or by Night, if Power for that Purpose be especially given in and by such Warrant; and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may moreover empower such Constable or Surveyor, with any such Assistance as to the said Justice may appear or by such Constable or Surveyor may be found necessary (such Constable or Surveyor having previously made known such his Authority), to use force for the effecting of such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise; and if upon Search thereupon made any such suspected Article shall be found, then to convey the same forthwith to and before a Justice, or to guard the same on the Spot while the Offenders are taken before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some Place of Safety, subject to the Orders of a Justice in manner above mentioned; and moreover to apprehend and convey before the said Justice the Person or Persons in whose House, Lodging or other Place, the same shall so have been found, as also every other Person found in such House, Lodging or Place, who shall appear to have been privy to the depositing of such Article in such Place, knowing or having reasonable Cause to suspect the same to have been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained; and if such Persons respectively shall not immediately, or within some reasonable time to be assigned by the Justice, make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the Justice, by what lawful Means such Article or Articles came to be deposited or situated in such Place as aforesaid, without any Default on the Part of such Persons respectively, or that they respectively did not know that the same were, or by what Means the same were deposited or situated in such Place, then and in such case the Person or Persons in whose House, Lodging Party from whom Good is bought to be examined by the Justice.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, on being so produced before any Justice to give an Account of any Articles seized and detained, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall declare himself or herself to have bought, received or otherwise obtained such Articles of some other Person, such Justice is hereby authorized and required to examine every such other Person, and also every other prior Purchaser or pretended Purchaser; and if upon the whole of the Evidence, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice, that the Party so suspected at the time of his or her receiving such Articles into his or her Possession, did believe or had reasonable Cause to believe that the same were at any time and by any Person unlawfully come by or obtained, it shall be lawful for such Justice to adjudge such Party to be guilty of Misdemeanor, and the Party so convicted shall thereupon suffer as hereinafter mentioned.

If Goods are found to be unlawfully obtained, Misdemeanor.

XXXVI. And for the more effectual Prevention of Accidents by Fire and other Mischiefs upon the said River, be it further enacted, That if any Master or Commander or other Officer of any Ship or Vessel (except His Majesty's Ships) shall, while such Ship or Vessel shall lie or be in the said River between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, keep any Gun on board such Ship or Vessel shotted or loaded with Ball, or cause or permit to be fired or discharged any Gun on board such Ship or Vessel, before Sun rising or after Sun setting, such Master, Commander or other Officer shall for every such Gun so kept shotted or loaded forfeit the Sum of Five Shillings; and for every Gun so fired or discharged, the Sum of Ten Shillings; and if any Master, Commander or other Officer of any such Ship or Vessel, or any other Person on board of the same, or any Person on board of any Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Craft or Vessel, shall, while such Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat, Craft or Vessel shall lie or be in the said River between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, heat or melt, or cause or permit to be heated or melted by Fire, Logger heat Shot, or any other Means, on board any Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat, Craft or Vessel whatever, any Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Grease, Tallow, Oil or other combustible Matter, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and any One of the Justices appointed to attend at the Thames Police Office, or any other Justice within his Jurisdiction, is hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made in that Behalf, within Ten Days next after any such Offence shall have been committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, or after Oath made of the Commission of any of the Facts above mentioned by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to issue a Warrant to apprehend the Party accused, and upon the Party's Appearance or Contempt in not appearing (upon the Proof of Notice given) such Justice shall proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses on Oath,

For Offences declared Misdemeanors, and for which no Penalty is ap-

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if for the Purpose of preventing the Seizure or Discovery of any Materials, Furniture, Stores or Merchandize belonging to or having been Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel lying in the said River, or the Docks or Creeks adjacent thereto, or of any other Articles unlawfully obtained from any such Ship or Vessel, any such or any other Article shall be wilfully let fall or thrown into the River or in any other Manner directly or purposely conveyed away or endeavoured to be conveyed away from any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Craft, Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place, every Person being Party, Privy or Accessary to such letting fall, throwing or Conveyance, or to any previous Instructions or premeditated Design, so to let fall, throw or convey away any such Article with any such Purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor ; and if any Article whatever of apparent Value shall be wilfully let fall, thrown, conveyed away or endeavoured to be conveyed away from any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, into any other Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, or from any Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place, without the Order, Assent or Privy of the Owner, or of the Person having the lawful Charge of such Article, it shall be lawful for any such Thames Police Constable or Surveyor, or for any Constable of the City of London, within the Jurisdiction of the said City, to seize, apprehend and secure any such Boat, Barge, Lighter or other Craft in which such Article shall be so let fall, thrown or conveyed away, and every Person therein, or who by reason of his or her nearness to the Place where such Offence shall be committed, shall be reasonably suspected by such Constable or Surveyor of being Party, Privy or Accessary thereto, and forthwith to convey every such Person so apprehended before One of the said Justices appointed to attend at the Thames Police Office, or some other Justice in whose Jurisdiction such Offence shall be committed ; and if upon Examination it shall not be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Justice before whom the Offender shall be carried, that such letting fall, throwing or conveying away, or endeavour to convey away, proceeded either from mere Accident or from some lawful Cause, and not from any such fraudulent or evasive Design as aforesaid, every Person so appearing to be Party, Privy or Accessary as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as hereinafter mentioned.

XL. And be it further enacted, That for every Offence hereinbefore declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which no special Penalty is hereinbefore appointed, the Offender shall, at the Discretion of the Justice before whom the Conviction shall take place, either forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds or suffer Imprisonment for any time not exceeding Two Months in any Gaol or House of Correction within the Jurisdiction of such Justice; and in case of the Adjudication of a pecuniary Penalty and Nonpayment thereof, it shall be lawful for such Justice to Commit the Offender to any Gaol or House of Correction for the like Term, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid; and one Moiety of every such pecuniary Penalty shall be paid to such Receiver as aforesaid for the Purposes of this Act, and the other Moiety thereof, under the Direction of the Justice by whom the same shall have been adjudged, shall either be paid and applied to the Use of the Informer alone or be distributed between such Persons as shall have contributed to the Conviction of the Offender, in such Shares and Proportions as such Justice shall think fit.

pointed, Offenders to forfeit not exceeding 5l., or be imprisoned.

Application of Penalty.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which Complaint shall be made or Information given of any Offence by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary Penalty is hereinbefore appointed, with or without Imprisonment in addition thereto or in-lieu thereof, the Matter of such Complaint or Information, if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended within the Jurisdiction of the City of London, may be heard and determined by the Lord Mayor, Recorder or One of the Aldermen of the said City, and not elsewhere; but if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended out of the said Jurisdiction, such Complaint or Information may be heard and determined, either by One of the Justices appointed to the Thames Police Office as aforesaid, or by any other Justice within whose Jurisdiction the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended; and every Conviction thereupon had, shall be certified, filed and entered in such manner as is directed in and by an Act of the Second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to prevent the committing of Thefts and Frauds by Persons navigating Bum Boats and other Boats upon the River Thames, with respect to Convictions under that Act, and may also be drawn up in such Form and Manner, mutatis mutandis, as is appointed in and by the said Act; and neither such Conviction, nor any Proceeding previous thereto, shall be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any Court of Record, but such Conviction shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Offences declared Misdemeanors by whom to be tried.

Convictions certified as under 2 G. 3. c. 28.

No Certiorari.

XLII. And Whereas the Punishments for Misdemeanors provided in and by the said Act of the Second Year of His late Majesty's Reign have been found insufficient for the preventing of such Offences; Be it enacted, That every Person who shall be guilty of any of the Offences respectively made and declared to be Misdemeanors in and by the said Act, may be punished at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices by or before whom the Offender shall be convicted, either with the Punishment appointed in and by the said Act, or by such other Punishment as is hereby appointed for and in cases of Offences declared to be Misdemeanors in and by this present Act.

How Misdemeanors under 2 G. 3. c. 28. to be punished.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which it is directed by the said last enacted Act, that any Boat with her Tackle and Appurtenances, which shall be forfeited, shall be burnt Forfeited Boats may be burnt, or restored or sold.

and destroyed, it shall be lawful for any Justice before whom any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence, whereby any Boat is or should be adjudged to be forfeited under that Act, and also for any Justice by whom any Boat shall be adjudged to be forfeited under this Act, either to direct such Boat, with her Tackle and Appurtenances, to be burnt and destroyed, or to be restored to the Owners thereof, or to be publicly sold, and the Produce of such Sale to be applied in like manner as all other cases of Forfeitures under this Act.

How Produce of Sale applied.

XLIV. And Whereas Disputes frequently arise between Bargemen, Lightermen, Watermen, Ballastmen, Coal Whippers, Coal Porters, Sailors, Lumpers, Riggers, Shipwrights, Caulkers and other Labourers who work for Hire in or upon the said River, and the Docks, Creeks, Wharfs, Quays and Places adjacent, respecting Wages or Money due to them for Work, and the Owners, Masters or Commanders of Vessels and their Agents, and the Owners, Wharfingers or Occupiers of such Wharfs or Quays and their Agents and other Persons employing such Labourers; Be it further enacted, That all Differences, Complaints and Disputes which shall happen and arise between any Bargemen, Lightermen, Watermen, Ballastmen, (except Trinity Ballastmen,) Coal Whippers, Coal Porters, Sailors, Lumpers, Riggers, Shipwrights, Caulkers or other Labourers who work for Hire in or upon the said River, or the Docks, Creeks, Wharfs, Quays or Places adjacent, and the Owners, Masters or Commanders of Vessels or their Agents on the said River, or the Docks or Creeks thereunto adjoining, or the Owners, Wharfingers or Occupiers of such Wharfs or Quays or their Agents or other Employers, respecting Wages or Money due to such Labourers for Work, whether the same Persons be employed for any certain Time or in any other manner, shall be heard and determined by the Justices appointed to the Thames Police Office or any One of them, or any other Justice within his Jurisdiction; and every such Justice is hereby empowered to summon before him any such Master or Commander of any Vessel, or any such Owner thereof or his Agent, or the Owner, Wharfinger or Occupier of any Wharf or Quay or their respective Agents, or any other Employer; and if any such Master, Commander, Owner, Wharfinger, Occupier, Agent or Employer, shall refuse or neglect to attend such Summons, then every such Justice is hereby empowered to issue his Warrant to bring such Person summoned before him, to answer such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath any such Bargeman, Lighterman, Waterman, Ballastman, (other than any Trinity Ballastman,) Coal Whipper, Coal Porter, Sailor, Lumper, Rigger, Shipwright, Caulker or other Labourer or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching any such Complaint or Dispute, and to make such Order for Payment of so much Wages to such Bargeman, Lighterman, Waterman, Ballastman (other than any Trinity Ballastman,) Coal Whipper, Coal Porter, Sailor, Lumper, Rigger, Shipwright, Caulker or other Labourer, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable; provided that the Sum ordered do not exceed Five Pounds, besides all reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution of the Complaint, which Costs the Justice is empowered to order; and in case of Refusal to pay, or Nonpayment of any Disputes about Wages for Labour done on the River, &c. (except Trinity Ballastmen,) to be settled by Justices of Thames Police Office, provided the Sum in question does not exceed 5l.

Who may summon Parties herein named.

XLV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize or empower any Justice, except the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Recorder of the City of London for the time being or some or one of them, to hear and determine any such Differences, Complaints or Disputes as shall or may arise for or in respect of any Employment or Work done within the said City of London or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, or on board of any Ship, Hoy, Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Vessel, lying or being on the North Side of the River, between the Tower of London and the Western Extremity of the Temple adjoining Essex Street, in the County of Middlesex.

Jurisdiction for determining Disputes about Wages for Labour in London, &c.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to deprive the Lord Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, of any Right, Privilege or Jurisdiction heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed within the Town and Borough of Southwark or the Liberties thereof, or to prevent the said Lord Mayor for the time being, or such of the Aldermen of the said City as have borne the Office of Mayoralty, or the Recorder of the said City for the time being, from acting as Justices of the Peace within the said Town and Borough of Southwark, and the Liberties thereof, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made; nor to deprive the Lord Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, of any Right, Privilege, Immunity or Jurisdiction, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed upon the said River, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being as Conservator of the said River; nor to prevent the said Lord Mayor and the said Aldermen and Recorder of the said City, from acting as Justices of the Peace upon the said River or taking Cognizance of Offenders committed upon or within the Limits of the same, in such manner as they might or would have done in case this Act had not been made.

Proviso for Rights of City of London.

XLVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to deprive the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster, or the High Steward or High Bailiff of the City and Liberty of Westminster for the time being, or their respective lawful Deputy, of any Rights, Privileges or Jurisdictions, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed, within the said City and Liberty, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made.

And for the Dean and High Steward of Westminster.

And for Rights of the Trinity Brethren, &c. of Deptford Strond.

XLVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prejudice or derogate from any of the Rights, Privileges or Authorities of the Master, Warden and Assistants of the Guild, Fraternity or Brotherhood of the most glorious and undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement, in the Parish of Deptford Strond, in the County of Kent.

Public Act.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to make further Provision for His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence.

[11th July 1821.]

‘ Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘ WE, Your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the ‘ Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and ‘ Ireland in Parliament assembled, having taken into Consider‘ ation the Message of His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, ‘ acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His late Majesty, of ‘ the Thirteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and ‘ eighteen, communicating that His Royal Highness The Prince ‘ Regent, acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, ‘ having given the Royal Consent to a Marriage between His ‘ Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and the Princess of Saxe
‘ Meiningen, eldest Daughter of the reigning Duke of Saxe Mei- ‘ ningen, was desirous of making a suitable Provision with a View ‘ to the said Marriage;’ Do most humbly beseech Your Majesty
‘ that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most ‘ Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the ‘ Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Par‘ liament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall
‘ and may be lawful to and for The King’s Most Excellent Majesty,
‘ by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom
‘ of Great Britain and Ireland, to give and grant unto His said ‘ Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, for and during His Ma-‘ jesty’s Royal Will and Pleasure, an Annuity or Yearly Sum of Six ‘ thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, in such Pro‘ portions and in such Manner and Form as His Majesty in His ‘ Wisdom shall think fit to direct and appoint the same; which ‘ Annuity shall commence and take effect from the Fifth Day of ‘ April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and shall be ‘ paid and payable Quarterly, in equal Portions, at the Four most ‘ usual Days of Payment in the Year; (that is to say,) the Fifth ‘ Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January
‘ and the Fifth Day of April, in each and every Year; and that the ‘ said Annuity shall and may, in and by such Letters Patent, be ‘ directed to be issuing and payable out of and chargeable upon ‘ the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain ‘ and Ireland, (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such ‘ Sums as have been directed to be paid out of the same by any ‘ Act or Acts of Parliament made previous to the time of passing ‘ this

His Majesty empowered to grant an Annuity of 6000l.
to the Duke of Clarence, to commence from April 5. 1818.

this Act,) but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may, at any time or times after the passing of this Act, be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity shall be paid and payable, during the Continuance thereof, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the Auditor of the said Receipt shall and he is hereby required, by virtue of such Letters Patent, to make forth and pass Debentures from time to time for paying the said Annuity during the Continuance of the same, and as the same shall become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any Part thereof; and the said Debentures, to be made forth and passed as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity as the same shall take effect according to the Directions of this Act, without any further or other Warrant to be sued for, had or obtained in that Behalf.

Annuity payable at the Exchequer, without Fee.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity, and every Part thereof, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Rates and Assessments, and all other Charges whatever, imposed or to be imposed by Authority of Parliament or otherwise.

Tax free.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries. [11th July 1821.]

[This Act is the same as 1 G. 4. c. 72. except as to Dates and Sums, and the Sections that are here inserted.]

XXVII. AND be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons to whom such last mentioned Licence or Licences shall be granted in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, pursuant to this Act, shall before the last Day of drawing each Lottery, if there shall be more than One Day of drawing thereof, and if there shall be only One Day of drawing then before that Day, deposit at the Office or Place to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned by the Commissioners of Stamp Duties in England and Ireland respectively, and divide into Shares, One hundred and twenty whole undrawn Tickets in each of the Lotteries established as aforesaid, for such Licence granted to him, her or them, if only One such Licence be granted, and if Two or more such Licences be granted to the same Person or Persons, then and in that case he, she or they shall, before the Drawing begins, deposit at the Office aforesaid, and divide into Shares, One hundred Tickets for each such Licence, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in England, or One hundred such Tickets in Ireland, when the Lottery shall consist of Twenty thousand Tickets or upwards, and so in proportion for any smaller Number; and every such Licence, for which no such respective Deposit shall be made, shall be void and of no Effect; and every Person acting under any such Licence, in any of the Matters therein contained, after such Default made, shall be adjudged and considered in every respect as an unlicensed Person; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties in England and Ireland respectively, and they Licensed Persons in Great Britain or Ireland to deposit and divide in Shares a certain Number of Tickets in each of the Lotteries, or Licences void, &c.

they are hereby required, upon every such Default, to cause to be published the Names and Places of Abode, and the Description of the Offices of such Person or Persons making such Default as aforesaid, in the London or Dublin Gazette respectively, and declare therein the time when such Default was made, and such Forfeiture shall take place from the Time of such Publication.

Persons dividing Tickets into Shares, &c. contrary to Licence, shall forfeit 100l.

Treasury may authorize Persons to divide Tickets into Shares without Licence from Stamp Office.

No Tickets to be sold but such as are authorized, nor Shares or Chances other than Halves, Quarters, Eighths and Sixteenths. Penalty 50l.

Chances to be in the following

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall divide Tickets into Shares, or issue Chances, without the Authority of such Licence as aforesaid, or in any other House or Place besides that named in the Licence, or in any other manner contrary to such Licence, or to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds: Provided always, that if the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall sell or authorize to be sold any Number of Tickets to the Public without the Intervention of a Contractor or Contractors, nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to prevent any Person authorized by the said Commissioners aforesaid dividing Tickets into Shares, and selling the same, without a Licence from the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper for the Time being in England or Ireland, so as the Shares be stamped as is herein directed and prescribed, and such Persons act under Regulations to be established by the said Commissioners.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall sell any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, in any Lottery or Lotteries, except such as are or shall be authorized by this or some other Act of Parliament to be sold, or shall publish any Proposal or Scheme for the Sale of any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, except such Lottery or Lotteries as shall be authorized as aforesaid, or shall sell any Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, in any Lottery to be drawn in pursuance of this Act, in any other Proportion or Proportions than One Half, Quarter, Eighth or Sixteenth Part or Share only; or shall publish any Proposal or Scheme for selling any Share or Shares, or enter into any Agreement or Agreements for any Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets, Chance or Chances, in the said respective Lotteries, in any other Proportion than One Half, Quarter, Eighth or Sixteenth Part or Share; such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall also be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond, or Rogues and Vagabonds, and shall be punished as such in the manner hereinafter directed.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, so licensed as aforesaid, to issue and sell the Chance of any particular Benefit or Benefits that may belong to any Ticket in any of the said Lotteries, or the Chance of all the Benefits that may belong to any such Ticket, except any particular Benefit or Benefits which shall be specified, and that every such Chance or Agreement for such Chance shall be made out, written or printed in Words or Figures to this Effect; (that is to say.)

be lawful for the said Receiver General, or the Person or Persons having the Custody of the Ticket or Chance in respect whereof such Notice shall be given, and he and they are hereby respectively required, upon such Notice, and upon such Share or Shares being deposited with the Receiver General, or such other Person as aforesaid, to detain such Ticket or Chance accordingly, until the Share or Shares so deposited shall be paid or satisfied, or such Security given as aforesaid; and in Default thereof it shall be lawful for the said Receiver General, or other Person having the Custody of such Ticket, to receive the Prize Money or Benefit which may belong thereto, when the same shall become payable under this Act, and to pay a due Proportion thereof to the Person or Persons who shall have deposited such Share or Shares, and the Residue to the original Proprietor or Proprietors of such Ticket; and in case any Ticket so deposited as aforesaid shall remain unclaimed at the End of Two Years from the Day of the Drawing thereof, the Prize Money or Benefit belonging thereto shall be received by the said Receiver General for the time being, and shall be applied in defraying the Expences of the Stamp Office in executing this Act, and otherwise in such manner as is hereinafter mentioned.

Tickets deposited may be delivered back on the Chances being produced; and where Permission is given by the Treasury to divide Chances into Shares, Tickets to be delivered back in like Manner.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Receiver General, or other Person with whom any Ticket shall have been deposited* by any licensed Person for the Purpose of issuing a Chance thereupon as aforesaid, to deliver back such Ticket at any Time before the same shall be drawn to the Person who shall have deposited the same, upon his producing the stamped Chance of any such Ticket, and also the Stamp Office Receipt for the same, to be cancelled; and that in the same manner, if Permission shall have been given by Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to divide Chances into Shares thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Receiver General, or other Person with whom any Chance of a Ticket shall have been deposited by any licensed Person for the Purpose of issuing Shares thereof as aforesaid, to deliver back such Chance of a Ticket, at any Time before the same shall be drawn, to the Person who shall have deposited the same, upon his producing all the stamped Shares of such Chance of a Ticket, and also the Stamp Office Receipt for the same, that the whole or so much of such Receipt as relates to such Chance of a Ticket may be cancelled; and that it shall be lawful for the said Receiver General, or other Person as above mentioned, in like Manner, after the same Chance of a Ticket shall have been drawn, to deliver the same to the original Proprietor thereof at the End of Fourteen Days, if the Holders of the Shares of such Chance shall not be entitled thereto, upon his delivering up the Stamp Office Receipt for the same, to be cancelled.

C A P. CXXI.

An Act to alter and abolish certain Forms of Proceedings in the Exchequer and Audit Office, relative to Public Accounts, and for making further Provisions for the Purpose of facilitating and expediting the passing of Public Accounts in Great Britain; and to render perpetual and amend an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, for the effectual Examination of the Accounts of certain Colonial Revenues. [11th July 1821.]

‘ WHEREAS it hath been found by Experience, that great Inconvenience, and much unnecessary Labour, Expence and Delay, are occasioned in the passing of Public Accounts, by reason of certain Forms and Proceedings relating thereto, which are required by Law, or by the ancient Course and Practice of various Offices in the Receipt and in the Court of His Majesty’s Exchequer, and in the Audit Office, to the manifest Injury as well of the Public Service as of the Individual Accountant; and it is expedient, for Remedy thereof, that certain of the said Forms and Proceedings should be abolished, and that others of them should be rendered more efficient for the Purposes for which they were designed:’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That instead of the General Imprest Certificates of Monies issued at the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer, by way of Imprest or upon Account, which have heretofore been made out and transmitted Half Yearly to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, General Imprest Certificates of all Monies so issued shall, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, be made out in the Office of the Auditor of the said Exchequer, Four Times in each Year, for the Four Quarterly Periods ending the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July and the Tenth Day of October, in every Year; and shall be signed by him or his Chief Clerk, and be examined in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells, and be signed by his Deputy; which said Certificates shall respectively contain an Account of all Monies issued at the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer, by way of Imprest or upon Account, during the preceding Quarter, and shall specify and distinguish the Date and Amount of every such Issue made within that Period, and whether in Money or in Exchequer Bills; and such Quarterly General Imprest Certificates shall be transmitted to the aforesaid Commissioners, within Thirty Days after each of the said quarterly Days respectively; and all such quarterly Imprest Certificates, which, from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, shall be made out and transmitted to the said Commissioners, shall be written in the English Language in a common legible Hand and Character, and the several Sums of Money expressed therein as the Amounts of the several Issues, as well as the Dates of such Issues, shall be written and described in

General Imprest Certificates to be made out in the Exchequer Four Times a Year instead of Half Yearly;

and to distinguish Date and Amount of Issues; to be written in the English Language and in common Characters, and Sums in common Numerals or Figures.

in common Numerals or Figures, any thing in any Act or Acts now in force, or in the ancient Course or Usage of the Exchequer, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Proviso for Transmission of General Imprest Rolls Half Yearly into Exchequer, and for Accountants demanding Special Imprest Rolls, &c. Exception.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the regular Transmission of the General Imprest Rolls, Half Yearly, to the Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, according to the ancient Usage of the Exchequer; nor to prevent any Person or Persons to whom any Monies may have been issued by way of Imprest and upon Account, from demanding from the Office of the Auditor of the Exchequer a Special Imprest Certificate, or Special Imprest Certificates of all Monies so issued to him or them; and all such Special Imprest Certificates, which shall be demanded after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, shall be made out in such Manner and Form as herein is directed in regard to the said Quarterly General Imprest Certificates; save and except only that such Special Imprest Certificate may contain the Whole of the Issues made to any Person or Persons for the same Service for the Space of One Year.

25 G. 3. c. 52.

46 G. 3. c. 141.

III. And Whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, and of another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for making more effectual Provision for the more speedy and regular Examination and Audit of the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, certain Powers are vested in the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, for compelling all Persons accounting before them to deliver in their Accounts: And Whereas Writs of Distringas ad Computandum, with certain Schedules annexed, commonly called the Ordinary Process, still continue to be issued after Hilary and Trinity Terms in every Year, from the Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, although Proceedings have very rarely been had thereupon; and the said Process hath therefore long since become in a great Degree nugatory and useless; Be it therefore enacted, That the Practice of issuing such Process, in regard to Persons liable to account before the said Commissioners, and all Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things whatsoever, heretofore used or practised in the Office of His Majesty's said Remembrancer in relation thereto, shall, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, be discontinued, and be no longer used or practised in the said Office; any thing in any Act or Acts now in force, or in the ancient Course or Usage of the Exchequer, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

The ordinary Process of issuing Writs of Distringas ad Computandum, from the Office of the King's Remembrancer of Exchequer discontinued.

IV. And Whereas the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts are required by Law or by ancient Usage to make and transmit at various times of the Year, to His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, certain Accounts, Certificates, Lists and Copies or Extracts of Documents in their Office: And Whereas the said Practice hath been found by Experience to be attended with Inconvenience to the Public Service, without ‘ without answering any useful Purpose ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, no Accounts or Copies, or Extracts of Accounts, nor any Certificates or Lists, nor any Copies or Extracts of any Documents in the Office of the said Commissioners, shall be made-up and transmitted by them to the said Remembrancer, other than and except such as may be required to be transmitted to that Officer by the said recited Acts of the Twenty fifth and Forty sixth Years of His late Majesty, or under the Provisions of this Act, or such as the said Commissioners may in their Discretion deem it useful or expedient for the Public Service to continue to transmit to the said Remembrancer, and which, when so transmitted, shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if their transmission had been expressly directed by this Act.

‘ V. And Whereas by the said recited Acts of the Twenty fifth and Forty sixth Years of His late Majesty, and by another Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act made in the Twenty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, and for enabling the Commissioners in certain cases to allow of Vouchers, although not stamped according to Law, certain Public Officers therein named, and every other Public Officer who shall pay, issue or deliver to any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services by way of Imprest or upon Account, are required to transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, periodically at the times therein specified, Certificates or Accounts of all Sums so paid, issued or delivered as aforesaid, in order that such Persons may forthwith be put in Charge, and rendered accountable for the same : And Whereas the Practice of setting Persons insuper in declared Accounts, hath by reason thereof been rendered of no real Utility ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, the Practice by which Persons have heretofore been set insuper in the declared Accounts of any Principal Accountant, in respect of any Public Monies which may have been paid, issued and delivered to them by such Principal Accountants by way of Imprest, and upon Account, shall cease and be wholly discontinued : Provided always, that if the said Commissioners shall, in the Exercise of their Discretion, deem it expedient for the Public Service that the Name or Names of any such Person or Persons so rendered accountable as aforesaid should be entered as a Public Accountant or Public Accountants on the General Imprest Roll of His Majesty’s Exchequer, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to transmit a Certificate, containing the Name of every such Person, and the total Amount of the Sums with which he is become chargeable, and also the Name of the Principal Accountant by whom such Sum or Sums was or were paid, issued or delivered to him, to His Majesty’s Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, who shall, upon the Receipt of such Certificate, cause the same to be inrolled in his Office, and such Inrolment shall be and be deemed a Record in his Office, as valid and effectual to enable any Process or Processes in the Law against the Party so rendered chargeable, and

No Accounts, &c. to be transmitted from the Commissioners of Audit to the Office of the King’s Remembrancer, except such as may be required by the Provisions of 25 G. 3. c. 52., 46 G. 3. c. 141. and this Act.

45 G. 3. c. 55.

Setting Persons insuper in declared Accounts discontinued.

Commissioners may transmit Certificate containing Names of Persons put in Charge, and Amount of Sums with which they are chargeable, to the King’s Remembrancer.

to and for all other Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Party had been then actually returned an insuper Accountant in any declared Account duly inrolled as of Record in his Office.

Treasury may direct Certificates of Monies issued by certain Public Officers to be transmitted to Commissioners of Audit at shorter Periods than is now by Law directed.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, that it will be for the Benefit of the Public Service that the said Certificates or Accounts, which by the said recited Acts of the Twenty fifth, Forty fifth and Forty sixth Years of His late Majesty, or any of them, are required to be periodically transmitted by the respective Public Officers therein mentioned to the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, should be so transmitted at any other shorter Periods than those respectively prescribed in the said Acts, it shall be lawful for the said High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to order and direct that the said Certificates or Accounts shall be transmitted by such Public Officers respectively to the said Commissioners, at such shorter Periods as shall or may be specified in such Warrant; and every such Order and Direction shall be as valid and effectual, and shall be obeyed, observed and kept in such and the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been expressly ordered and directed by this Act.

Regulations for making out Accounts for Declaration to be transmitted to Exchequer and inrolled.

VII. And Whereas much unnecessary Labour and Expence to the Public are occasioned in the Office of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, by the Practice of making up and transcribing two Parts of every Account, one on Paper, and the other on Parchment, for the Purpose of being presented for Declaration before the Chancellor of the Exchequer: And Whereas the passing of declared Accounts, through the respective Offices of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and of the Clerk of the Pipe, is attended with great Inconvenience, and much unnecessary Delay and Expence, without answering any Purpose of real Utility; For Remedy thereof be it enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, one Part only of every Account shall be made up and transcribed in the said Office of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, for the Purpose of being presented for Declaration before the Chancellor of His Majesty's Exchequer, which Account shall be written on Paper in the English Language, in common Characters, and the several Sums of Money expressed therein shall be written and described in common Numerals or Figures; and every such Account, after the same shall have been declared before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and been signed by Two or more of the other Commissioners of the Treasury, shall be transmitted to the Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, and shall there be inrolled as of Record, in like Manner in all Respects as the Part of every Account transcribed on Parchment hath heretofore been inrolled; and after Inrolment thereof, every such Account, instead of being transmitted to the Office of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and from thence to the Office of the Clerk of the Pipe, shall be returned to the Office of the Com-

After Inrolment, Account to be returned to Office of Commissioners

Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, where the same shall finally remain deposited, and be carefully preserved and kept, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and the Inrolment of such declared Accounts in the said Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer shall be as valid and effectual for enabling the Proceeding for and Recovery of any Balances and Interest due or to become due thereon, and for all other Purposes whatever in anywise concerning or relating to such Accounts, as if the same had been also recorded in the Office of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer and of the Clerk of the Pipe, according to the Course of the Exchequer before the passing of this Act.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case it shall at any time be found necessary, for the due Proceeding in any Suit, Action or Process at Law in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer arising upon or out of any Account so declared and inrolled as aforesaid, that such Account or any Part thereof, or any Abstract thereof or Extract therefrom, should become and be made matter of Record in the Offices of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and of the Clerk of the Pipe, or in either of them, then and in every such case His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, or his Deputy, shall and he is hereby required, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, to cause a true and exact Copy to be made from the Inrolment in his Office of such Account, or of such Part or Parts thereof as may be required, and shall certify the same to be a true Copy or Extract of such Inrolment, under his Hand, and shall cause such Copy or Extract so certified to be transmitted to the said Office of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, who shall thereupon cause the same to be inrolled as of Record in his Office, and certify, either by himself or his sufficient Deputy, such Inrolment at the Foot or on the Back thereof, and if necessary, cause the same to be transmitted to the Office of the Clerk of the Pipe, who shall also cause the same, together with the Certificate of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, or of his Deputy, to be inrolled as of Record in his Office; and such respective Inrolments as of Record in the said Offices of the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and of the Clerk of the Pipe, shall be and be deemed as valid and effectual, and shall and may be applied and made use of in such and the like manner, for or towards the due Proceeding in any such Suit, Action or Process at Law, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever, as any Record of any declared Account made before the passing of this Act in the said Offices, or either of them, according to the ancient Course and Practice of the Exchequer hath heretofore been deemed valid and effectual, or could or might be applied or made use of for or towards the due Proceeding in any such Suit, Action or Process at Law, as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, whenever any Account shall have been declared before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall, as soon as conveniently may be after such Declaration, cause a Certificate thereof to be made out, which shall contain the Date of such Declaration, the total Amount of

XI. And Whereas the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer and the Clerk of the Pipe, and such of the Officers and Clerks in those Offices respectively, to whom any Fees or Proportions of Fees were before the passing of this Act payable by Law or ancient Usage on Inrolment or otherwise, in respect of all Accounts examined and audited in the Office of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, will, by reason of the Provisions of this Act, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, lose all Benefit and Advantage whatever arising from such Fees or Proportions of Fees; and it is just and reasonable that some Compensation should be made for the Loss thereof, to the Persons now holding

‘ the said Offices of Lord Treasurer’s Remembrancer and of the Clerk of the Pipe, and also to such of the Officers and Clerks now being in their said respective Offices, as may respectively be in the actual Enjoyment of or entitled by Law or the ancient Usage of Office to succeed to those Situations in the said Offices, in respect of which the said Fees or Proportions of Fees were payable;’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to order and direct that such annual or other Compensations shall from time to time be made to the Persons now holding the Offices of Lord Treasurer’s Remembrancer and Clerk of the Pipe, and to such respective Officers or Clerks in those Offices as aforesaid, for the Loss of Fees or Proportions of Fees which they will respectively sustain by reason of the Provisions of this Act, as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall seem just and reasonable; which Compensation, in case the same shall be annual, shall commence from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one; and all such Compensations, whether annual or in gross, shall be payable by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, out of the same Fund as the Fees now payable in those respective Offices on the passing of Public Accounts are paid: Provided always, that no such Compensation shall be allowed to continue beyond the Lives of the respective Individuals, who at the Time of the passing of this Act were either in the actual Receipt and Enjoyment of the Fees or Proportions of Fees for which such Compensations may respectively have been granted, or of the Individuals now entitled by Law or the ancient Usage of Office to succeed to those Situations in the said Offices, in respect of which such Fees or Proportion of Fees were before the passing of this Act respectively payable: Provided also, that no such Compensation shall be considered as finally and conclusively granted, until the same shall have been first submitted to Parliament.

Treasury may allow Compensation as herein limited for the Loss of Fees in the Office of the Lord Treasurer’s Remembrancer, and the Clerk of the Pipe; to be submitted to Parliament.

XII. And be it further enacted, That for the better enabling the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury to form a correct Judgment of the Nature and Amount of the Compensations which it may be reasonable and proper to grant to the Lord Treasurer’s Remembrancer and Clerk of the Pipe, and to any of their Officers or Clerks, for the Loss of Fees on the passing of Public Accounts, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, or any Two of them, under the Direction of the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, to call before them any Person or Persons whomsoever, and to examine them upon Oath, which Oath any Two of the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts are hereby empowered to administer, in regard to the Nature, Legality and Amount of the Fees on the passing of Public Accounts, in respect of which any such Compensation as aforesaid may be claimed, and as to the Grounds of such Claim, and to transmit the said Examinations to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for their Information and Consideration, previously to the Grant of any such Compensations as aforesaid.

The Commissioners of Audit may examine Persons upon Oath as to the Nature and Amount of Fees on passing of Public Accounts.

‘ Majesty to appoint Commissioners for the more effectual Examination of Accounts of Public Expenditure for His Majesty’s Forces in the West Indies, during the present War; and of another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the more effectual Examination of Accounts of the Expenditure of the Public Money in the West Indies, and for the better Discovery of Frauds and Abuses therein, certain Commissioners were appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for examining and investigating the Public Accounts of Military Expenditure in the West Indies, incurred from the First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ninety three until Twelve Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and for inquiring into all Frauds and Abuses committed by any Persons whatever concerned in such Expenditure: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling the Commissioners appointed to examine Accounts of Public Expenditure in the West Indies more speedily to investigate the said Accounts, further Provision was made for the more effectually carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said Acts: And Whereas the Number of Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said recited Acts of His late Majesty, for the Examination of Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies, hath, by Deaths or Vacancies, otherwise occasioned, been reduced to Three: And Whereas there are still depending in the Office of the said Commissioners Accounts of Expenditure incurred in the West Indies, up to the Expiration of Twelve Months after the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace with America, to a very considerable Amount, the Examination whereof hath not yet been completed; Be it further enacted, That in case His Majesty shall deem it for the good of the Public Service that the Accounts still depending unexamined in the Office of the Commissioners for examining the Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies should be transferred for their further and final Examination and Audit to the Office of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, then and in such case it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to revoke the Commission appointing such Commissioners for the Examination of Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies; and by the same Letters Patent, to order and direct that One of the said Commissioners shall from thenceforth be and be deemed to be a Commissioner for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, in addition to the Number of Commissioners authorized by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty, for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, and such additional Commissioner shall from thenceforth hold his Office by the same Tenure, and be invested with the same Powers and Authorities, and shall have and receive the same Salary, payable in the same manner, and shall be and be deemed a Commissioner for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, as fully and effectually to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes as if he had been appointed a Commissioner for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, under and by virtue of the said last mentioned Act;

Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from and after the Date of such Letters Patent as aforesaid, no Vacancy which may arise in the Number of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall be filled up by the Appointment of any other Commissioners, without the further Authority of an Act of Parliament for the Purpose of authorizing such Appointment, until the Number of such Commissioners shall be reduced to Five or less, in which case His Majesty may from time to time, as often as any such Vacancy shall happen, appoint new Commissioners, so as to keep up their Number always at Six.

Vacancy not filled up without Authority of Parliament, until Number of Commissioners reduced to Five.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in case and whenever His Majesty shall revoke the Commission for appointing Commissioners for the Examination of Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies, and shall direct that One of the Commissioners shall be an additional Commissioner for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to transfer to the Establishment of the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain such of the Officers and Clerks now employed in the Office for examining the Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies, as they may deem it expedient to transfer to that Establishment.

If His Majesty shall revoke the West India Commission, Treasury may make Regulations in Audit Office.

XVI. And Whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the more speedy and effectual Examination and Audit of the Accounts of Military Expenditure in Spain and Portugal; for removing Delays in passing the Public Accounts; and for making new Arrangements for conducting the Business of the Audit Office, One of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain was appointed to be Auditor General of Accounts of the Public Expenditure in Spain and Portugal, with an Establishment of Officers and Clerks under him for that Purpose, and with such Powers and Authorities for the Execution of the said Office there, as in the said recited Act are mentioned: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His said late Majesty, the said Auditor General was invested with the same Powers and Authorities in respect of the Accounts of Public Expenditure in France as were given to and vested in him by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, with respect to the Accounts of Public Expenditure in Spain and Portugal: And Whereas the said Auditor General hath returned with his Establishment to this Kingdom, by reason whereof his peculiar Functions and Powers as Auditor General under the said recited Acts have ceased and determined, but the Examination and Audit of the said Accounts hath not yet been completed, and it is therefore expedient that the Examination of the said Accounts should be proceeded in and completed under his immediate and separate Superintendence and Directions, as One of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, or that some other special Provision should be made for that Purpose; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said

Any Two of the Commissioners empowered to administer an Oath.

XVII. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Twenty fifth Year of His late Majesty, any Three or more of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts are empowered to examine upon Oath, and to administer the same in the manner therein mentioned; and by the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain, it is enacted, that any thing which therein or by any of the Acts therein recited is directed to be done by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, or by any of the Boards into which the said Commissioners might be divided, might be done by the Majority of the said Commissioners, or by the Majority of any of the said Boards respectively: Now be it enacted, That notwithstanding any thing in the said recited Acts, or in any other Acts now in force relating to the Examination and Audit of the Public Accounts of Great Britain contained to the contrary thereof, it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, and they are hereby empowered, to examine upon Oath (which Oath any Two or more of them are hereby authorized to administer), and to do all other Acts, Matters and Things whatsoever, relating to or in anywise concerning the Examination and Audit of any Public Accounts, which by virtue of the said Acts any Three or more, or a Majority of the said Commissioners, or a Majority of any Board into which the said Commissioners might be divided, are authorized and empowered to do.

Persons giving false Evidence to be guilty of Perjury.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, in the Course of any Examination upon Oath before the Commissioner, having for the time being the separate Superintendence and Direction of the Accounts of the Public Expenditure in Spain, Portugal and France, or before any Two of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts for the time being, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in being Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

‘ XX. And Whereas by the said first recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His late Majesty, Provision is made for the Prevention of improper or irregular Expenditure of the Public Monies, by Orders of Persons employed in His Majesty’s Service in Parts beyond the Seas, such Persons not being themselves the Accountants for such Expenditure: And Whereas it is expedient to make further Provision in respect thereof:’ Be it therefore enacted, That whenever it shall be made appear to the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, that any Sum or Sums which shall have been issued, paid or expended, by Orders from any Person employed in His Majesty’s Services, in Parts beyond the Seas, (such Person not being himself the Accountant for such Issue, Payment or Expenditure,) ought not to have been so issued, paid or expended, or ought not to be charged to the Public, then and in every such case the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall thereupon call upon the Person by whose Orders or under whose Authority such Issue, Payment or Expenditure shall have been made, for an Explanation of the Circumstances under which the same was ordered or authorized, and the Reasons or Grounds upon which such Order or Authority was founded; and if upon receiving such Explanation, the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury shall still be of Opinion, that such Person ought to be charged with the Amount of such Issue, Payment or Expenditure, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to authorize and direct the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, to require the Person by whose Order or Authority such Issue, Payment or Expenditure shall have been made, to render an Account of the Monies so issued, paid or expended; and the Person so required to account shall thereupon be and be deemed a Public Accountant with respect to such Monies, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Amount of such Monies had actually been issued to him by way of Imprest and upon Account: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive such Person of such Relief by Application to the Court of Exchequer, as by the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year aforesaid is provided in this Behalf.

Public Officers abroad authorizing or directing any improper or irregular Expenditure, may, by Order of the Treasury, be called upon to account before Commissioners.

1 G. 4. c. 65.

‘First Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue until the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, an Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, for the effectual Examination of the Accounts of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Colonial Revenues in the Islands of Ceylon, Mauritius, Malta, Trinidad and in the Settlements of the Cape of Good

‘ Good Hope, the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, and all other Powers therein contained, were continued and are to be in force until the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one: And Whereas the System established under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, and the Provision thereby made for the speedy and effectual Examination and Audit in Great Britain of the Accounts of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Colonial Revenues in the said several last mentioned Colonies or Settlements, hath been found by Experience to be of great public Utility, and it is expedient that the same should be made perpetual: Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and all the Powers and Authorities, Clauses and Provisions therein contained, except in so far as the same may be varied, altered or repealed by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby made perpetual.

Recited Act of
made perpetual.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Persons who at the Time of the passing of this Act, by virtue of His Majesty's Letters Patent now in force, hold the Offices of Commissioners for the Purposes mentioned in the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, and in the said Letters Patent now in force, shall continue to hold their said Offices during His Majesty's Pleasure; and the Secretary to the said Commissioners, and all Officers, Clerks and other Persons appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to the said Act, to aid and assist in the Execution thereof, shall continue to hold their respective Offices during the Pleasure of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; and the said Commissioners, Secretary, Officers, Clerks and other Persons respectively, shall, from and after the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and during their Continuance in the said Offices respectively, have, use and exercise all and every the Powers and Authorities vested in them under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, or of the said Letters Patent, and Appointments granted in pursuance thereof, for all or any of the Purposes therein expressed, in such and the same manner, and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same Powers and Authorities had been expressly re-enacted in this Act.

The Commissioners and other Officers, &c. in the Office of Colonial Audit to be continued.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty as empowers the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of Great Britain to enter into the Examination and Investigation of Accounts previously examined by the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said Act, and whereof a Statement shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, for the Purpose of preparing the same for Declaration, if they shall deem any further Examination and Investigation thereof unnecessary; and also so much of the said recited Act as requires of the said last mentioned Commissioners to report their Opinion thereon to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and to proceed in such Examination and Investigation; and also so much of the said recited Act as authorizes and directs the said Commissioners for auditing

Certain Parts of
54 G. 3. c. 184.
§ 9. repealed.

auditing the Public Accounts to cause all Sums which shall be specified as Sums which ought to be set insuper in any such Statement as aforesaid, and which shall appear to them to be proper to be set insuper, to be so set insuper on the several Persons therein mentioned, or in the Warrants accompanying the same, unless upon such further Examination as aforesaid it shall not appear to them to be proper that such Sums shall be so set insuper, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

The Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts to prepare Accounts of Colonial Expenditure for Declaration, without any further Examination or Investigation thereof.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts a Statement of any Account which shall have been previously examined by the Commissioners appointed under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty, together with their Warrant to prepare the same for Declaration, the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall and they are hereby authorized and required, in every such case, to make up and prepare for Declaration such Account, in conformity to such Statement or Warrant, without any further Examination or Investigation thereof, or of any Part thereof, or of any Vouchers relating thereto, and to do all other Acts, Matters and Things for the Declaration of such Accounts, and for putting in Charge as a Public Accountant every Person who may be liable to be put in Charge upon such Account, in order to the securing and recovering all Sums of Money due on the same, in like manner as if the said Account had been examined, and a Statement thereof made by the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts.

Persons refusing to attend or to produce Accounts.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatever, who shall be required by the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, or the Commissioners of Colonial Audit, to attend them for the Purpose of being examined upon Oath, or who shall be required to produce any Accounts, Books, Returns, Vouchers or other Papers and Documents relating to any Public Accounts, before the said Commissioners respectively for Examination, shall fail to comply with the lawful Requisitions of the said respective Commissioners, every such Person so refusing shall be liable to the Payment of such Fine to His Majesty, as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to the said Court by the said respective Commissioners, or by His Majesty's Attorney General, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

Penalty.

XXVII. And Whereas it may tend to establish a more efficient Check upon the Public Expenditure, in His Majesty's Colonies and Foreign Possessions, and to a more prompt and effectual Examination of the Accounts thereof, if the Officers there employed from time to time by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, as Commissaries of Accounts, were empowered under certain Restrictions to examine Persons upon Oath; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissariat Officer who may for the time being be intrusted with the Charge of the Department for the Examination of the Accounts of Military Expenditure, in every such Colony or Possession, by and with the Consent and Authority, in each particular case,

Commissariat Officer of Accounts in His Majesty's Colonies or Foreign Pos-

case, of the Governor or Lieutenant Governor or Person acting as Governor of such Colony or Possession, and the Officer for the time being in the Command of His Majesty's Forces in such Colony or Possession, to be signified by Warrant under their Hands, to call before him any of the Officers or other Persons employed in the Commissariat Department, or who may have supplied or furnished, or have been concerned or employed in the supplying or furnishing, any Articles, Matters and Things in or for the Use of the Commissariat Department, or for any Military Services within such Colony or Possession, or who may be able in the Judgment of the said Officer to give any Information relating thereto, and in the Presence of such Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person acting as Governor and Officer in Command of His Majesty's Forces as aforesaid, or of such Person or Persons as may be by them deputed, by Warrant under their Hands, to attend and be present at such Examination, to examine any such Officers or Persons as hereinbefore mentioned upon Oath, (which Oath such Commissariat Officer of Accounts is hereby authorized, in such Presence as aforesaid, to administer,) as to any Accounts, Supplies, Expences or Charges, or any other Matters or Things whatsoever, relating to or in anywise connected with the Military Expenditure within the said Colony or Possession, or necessary for the Elucidation and full Understanding of the Nature and Particulars of such Expenditure, and of all Supplies furnished for any Military Service within the said Colony or Possession, and of all Contracts and Agreements for supplying the same, and also for the full, strict and accurate Examination of the Accounts, Charges and Expences thereof; and also to call for the Production of all Accounts, Books, Returns, Vouchers and Papers of every Description relating thereto; and in case of the Failure by any Person being an Officer, or employed in the Commissariat Department, to comply with any such the lawful Requisition of the said Commissariat Officer of Accounts, every such Person so refusing shall be dismissed from his Situation or Employment, and be incapable of being again employed in the Service of His Majesty.

sessions empowered to examine upon Oath;

and call for Production of Accounts, Books, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person in the course of any Examination upon Oath, before any such Commissariat Officers of Accounts as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in force Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Persons giving false Evidence guilty of Perjury.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons summoned to appear before such Commissariat Officer of Accounts, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Commissariat Officer of Accounts as aforesaid, or to bring or produce any Accounts, Books, Certificates, Warrants, Muniments, Receipts, Bills of Exchange, Notes or other Papers whatever, that shall be in his, her or their Possession or Custody, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him, her or them, or shall refuse to answer to such Commissariat Officer of Accounts any Question on Oath touching or concerning any Matter or Thing relating to any such Accounts, Books, Certificates, Warrants, Muniments,

An Act for appointing Commissioners for carrying into Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions and Offices in England; and an Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of His late Majesty, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight.

c. 3. ante.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff, Foreign Spirits and Sweets in Great Britain, and on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, it was enacted, that all and every the Persons who in and by certain Acts therein mentioned, made in the Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, were named
‘ and

‘ and appointed Commissioners (duly qualifying themselves) for ‘ putting the several Acts therein specified into Execution within ‘ the several Counties, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, ‘ Towns, Divisions and Places of England, Wales and Town of ‘ Berwick upon Tweed, should be Commissioners for putting the ‘ said Act into Execution, so far as the same relates to the Duty ‘ on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, unless before the Day
 ‘ therein appointed for the First Meeting of the Commissioners ‘ for putting the said Act into Execution, so far as the same ‘ relates to the Duties on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, ‘ some Act or Acts of Parliament should be made for naming and ‘ appointing special Commissioners for putting the said Act into ‘ Execution, so far as the same relates to the Duties on Pensions ‘ Offices and Personal Estates: And Whereas it is expedient that ‘ other Commissioners should be appointed for putting into Ex‘ ecution an Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of 38 G. 3. c. 5.
 ‘ His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting an Aid to ‘ His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for ‘ the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety ‘ eight; of which Act certain Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Matters
 ‘ and Things were continued for ever by an Act made in the same ‘ Year, intituled An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption 38 G. 3. c. 60.
 ‘ and Purchase in the manner therein stated, the several Sums of ‘ Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax, for One ‘ Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven ‘ hundred and ninety eight: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Persons hereinafter named and mentioned; (that is to say,) Commissioners appointed.

[Here follow the Names of the Commissioners for England and Wales.]

Being first duly qualified to act as Commissioners of the Land Tax, in manner herein directed, shall be and are hereby declared to be Commissioners for putting into Execution the said cited Act made in this Session of Parliament, so far as the same relates to the Duties on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, and also such of the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Act made in the Thirty 38 G. 3. c. 5. eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, as are continued for ever by the said recited Act made in the same Year within the several Counties, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns and Places respectively in that Part of Great Britain called England and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Person and Persons hereinafter named and mentioned; (that is to say,) Commissioners appointed for Scotland.

[Here

[Here follow the Names of the Commissioners for Scotland.]

Being duly qualified to act as Commissioners of the Land Tax, shall be and they are hereby declared to be Commissioners for putting into Execution such of the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things of the said recited Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, as are continued for ever by the said recited Act of the same Year, within the several Shires, Stewartries and Places respectively, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Qualifications to be the same as required by 38 G. 3. c. 5.

38 G. 3. c. 48.

Inspectors or Surveyors of Taxes disqualified.

In what case Persons in Cities, &c. having Qualification may act as Commissioners.

Justices qualified may act as Commissioners though not specially named.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Persons hereby appointed Commissioners shall have such and the same Qualifications as are required by the said recited Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; and also of an Act made in the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend so much of an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight,' as relates to the Qualification of Commissioners; and shall be subject to the several Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Acts respectively.

IV. Provided also, That no Person who shall have held the Office of Inspector or Surveyor of Assesed Taxes shall from and after the passing of this Act be capable of acting as such Commissioner, although such Person may be named in this Act as such Commissioner.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where in any City, Liberty or Place, the Qualification of a Commissioner to act therein shall consist of Personal Estate, it shall be lawful for any Person having a Personal Estate of the Value required by the said Acts, or either of them, to act as such Commissioner in all cases where such Person shall have been taxed, and shall have paid for such Personal Estate by and upon the last Assessment then made for such City, Liberty or Place, by virtue of any Act, for continuing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates in England, passed before the making of such Assessment; any thing in the said Acts, or either of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that all Persons who shall act as Justices of the Peace of or for any County, Riding, Shire or Stewartry in Great Britain, being duly qualified as aforesaid, may act as such Commissioners, although not specially named in this Act.
