BRITISH LABOR MINISTRY WINS TEST IN COMMONS WITH LIBERALS' SUPPORT

Asquith and His Followers Join Members of Government Party in Defeating Conservative Motion For Reduction of Salary of Thomas Shaw, Minister of Labor

London, May 29.—Former Premier Asquith, the Liberal leader, announced to-night that the Liberals would not vote against the Government. This stand of the Liberals means that the Labor Government will not be defeated in the expected test to-night.

The test is on a motion by the Conservatives to reduce the salary of Thomas Shaw, Minister of Labor, this being a technical expression of disapproval of the Government's policy toward relieving unemployment. A similar motion was talked out in the House a week ago, the Government and its supporters preventing closure by a majority of only thirty-four votes.

Mr. Asquith's announcement ended a long and bitter struggle in the office of the Labor Ministry. Premier MacDonald had indicated that if the Government should be defeated it would go before the country in a general election.

Thus everything depended upon Mr. Asquith's advice to his followers in to-day's Liberal meeting. ELECTION NOT WANTED

It was conceded by the correspondents of the Liberal papers that if the Liberals should vote merely according to their feelings on the unemployment question, the Government would go down, but they did not dispute the fact that if the Liberals should turn out the Ministry, involving a dissolution of Parliament, they would make themselves unpopular with the public, whose last desire is for another election.

Former Premier Lloyd George is credited in many quarters with the view that the Government has already had enough tether and is said to be prepared to vote against the Laborites, but it is not suggested that he is in revolt against Mr. Asquith.

DECLARES FARMERS' INTERESTS ARE NOT GEN. MCGRAE'S CARE

Premier Oliver Tells Okanagan Fruit Growers Provincial Party Insincere

If Irrigated Land Prices Too High Government Will Consider Reduction

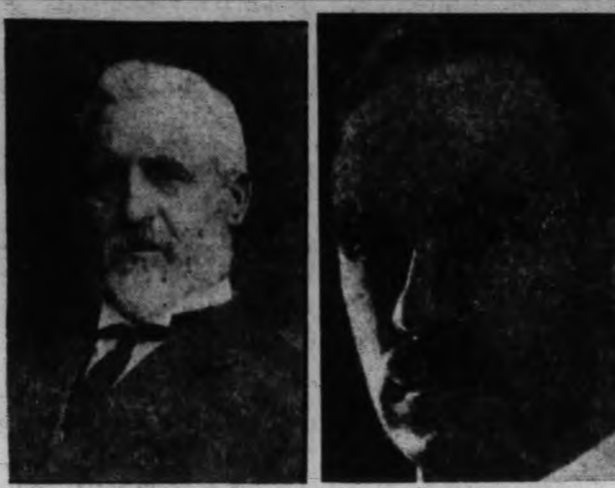

By Staff Correspondent. Penticon, B.C., May 29.—Farmers of interior British Columbia who are supporting General A. D. McRae's Provincial Party will find they are playing the historic role of the lamb lying down with the lion, says Premier Oliver.

After delivering this warning to Okanagan fruit growers at meetings in Oliver and Penticon yesterday, the Premier launched into a vigorous attack on the promises which J. B. Bowser, Conservative leader, has been making to the agricultural interests of the interior. Dealing with Mr. Bowser's plan to extend forty years the period during which the fruit growers may pay for their credit, Mr. Oliver declared: "Such a scheme as this were put in effect, the credit of British Columbia would quickly disappear altogether. However, it is perfectly clear that Mr. Bowser's promises are things, because he realizes, and the people realize, that he will never be elected to office to fulfill them."

NO LENGTHY INTEREST. The Premier has not in his life displayed any lively interest in the problems of the farmers of this country. His agricultural experience has consisted chiefly of farming, and the Premier went on: "I have been deceived. The Premier urged voters not to consider themselves bound to support the Provincial Party because they had signed pledges to do so, but that they should pay certain money for a piece of land and then it is discovered that he had been persuaded to enter this agreement by fraud or misrepresentation, the courts release him from his obligation."

D'OISY OF FRANCE NOW IN CITY OF PEKING AND NEW PLANE SENT TO MACLAREN

Peking, May 29.—Captain Pelletier d'Oisy reached here late to-day, completing a long-distance stage of his flight from Paris to Tokio. The dashing French aviator left Shanghai this morning and arrived at the Capital after making brief stops at Suchow and Tsinan, Shantung Province. He reached the latter place at two o'clock this afternoon.

D'Oisy, whose original French plane was wrecked in landing, to-day used a machine loaned by General Ho Peng Ling, Military Governor of Shanghai. He passed over Nanking at 6:45 a.m. and alighted at Suchow at 8:40 a.m. At the latter place he discovered and repaired a broken strut in the aeroplane, and refueled.

278 ITALIANS ARRIVE AT HALIFAX AND CREATE NEW IMMIGRATION PROBLEM

Nearly 400 Already There Have Been Refused Admission; Steamship Held By Officials At Port Until Instructions Sent From Department In Ottawa

Halifax, May 29.—The arrival from Naples and Genoa of the trans-Atlantic Italian steamship Dante Alighieri with 278 Italian immigrants, has created a fresh problem for the local Immigration authorities. Of the 400 Italian settlers landed here May 13 from the steamship America, only a few have been admitted and it is doubtful if those who have just arrived will be allowed to land. It is understood the steamship will be held here awaiting instructions from Ottawa and that the passengers will remain aboard in the meantime.

India Not Ready For Home Rule Yet Says J. R. Clynes

Lighted Path For Night Fliers in New U.S. Mail Service

Washington, May 29.—The lighted airway for night flying on the air mail service's transcontinental route will be extended at both the eastern and western ends, adding 600 miles to the 1,000 already lighted, it is announced by the Post Office Department. The apparatus will be in working order by July 1, when the first air mail will be started across the country from both Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

BRITISH MINE WAGE DISPUTE IS ENDED. Workers Accept Terms Agreed on by Their Representatives and Owners. London, May 29.—The prolonged dispute over the question of the coal miners' wages was definitely settled to-day when a full conference of the miners' delegates voted 473 to 311 to accept the terms of the agreement reached by the Miners' Federation representatives with the owners on May 15.

NOISY MEETINGS IN SOUTH AFRICA. Number of Election Gatherings of Government Party Have Been Broken Up. Cape Town, May 29 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters)—The feature of the campaign in the Rand has been the organized rowdiness and holliganism at the meetings of the South African (Government) Party. Evidence of this was a turbulent day prior to the Rand revolt in March, 1922.

ALLEGED PLOT TO BOMB CONSULS' OFFICES IN KOREA

Special Guards Posted; Plan of Koreans Opposed to Japanese Rule

Tokio, May 29—Discovery of an alleged Korean plot to bomb the United States and British consulates in Seoul, Korea, is causing some uneasiness there, press dispatches indicate. Semi-official confirmation has been given to a report that special guards have been posted at the U. S. consulate. It is said that the guard will be kept there for the present. It is learned that the United States consul has been advised directly as well as by the Japanese police of the alleged plot.

DECIDES RAFT IS DISTINCT ENTITY

Judgment of Importance to Towing and Insurance Interests Handed Down

Vancouver, May 29—A Davis raft is a distinct entity, according to Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, who today awarded the Morrison Mill Company of Anacortes judgment in the sum of $1,250 against Queen Insurance Company of America. The judgment is based on a policy by which the defendant company insured the Morrison Mill Company against loss of a Davis raft between Cumshewa, Queen Charlotte Islands, and Anacortes. While in low of the tug Imbrocra the raft broke up on October 23 last in Heate Strait. A portion of the raft was subsequently recovered and delivered at the mill. The point, important to towing and insurance interests, was whether a Davis raft, like a ship, could be subject to constructive total loss, or whether, like a boom of logs, some of which were subsequently recovered, a partial loss would occur. The Morrison Mill Company claimed the full amount of the insurance and contended there has been a constructive total loss. On the other hand, the insurance company contended liability on the ground there had been a partial loss and the policy insured against total loss or total constructive loss.

Mr. Justice McDonald pointed out that what was insured was a deep-sea raft built by P. A. Kelly & Company. It was an intact mass supposed to stand the weather. There was a constructive total loss of the raft and the plaintiff was entitled to recover. Charged on remand in Saanich police court yesterday with driving to the common danger, J. Ribbet was fined $25. The charge followed an accident on the Saanich highway when cars driven by H. O. Kirkham and the defendant came together.

PROVINCIAL NOMINATIONS, 1924

EVE OF NOMINATION DAY PROMISES LARGE ROSTER OF CANDIDATES

Prospect of About 166 Being Nominated in Provincial Contest, With Full Conservative and Almost Full Liberal and Provincial Tickets

Forty returning officers throughout the Province will sit tomorrow to receive nominations for the forty-eight seats in the Legislative Assembly. The Liberals will have candidates in forty-six seats, twenty-one members of the late house being candidates for election, and will leave the Alberni and Comox seats without official candidates.

The Conservatives will have candidates in every riding, and will submit for re-election ten members of the late house. The Provincial party has forty-two candidates in the field, and its local representatives have also endorsed the Farmer-Labor candidate in Nelson.

Of the other five ridings it is expected they will have nominations in three of them. They have only one retiring member of the late House, F. Duncan, whose adhesion to the party has come since prorogation. One third of their candidates are farmers, the largest representation of rural interests of any of the three parties. Of professional men they have two doctors and two lawyers.

The Federal Party is re-submitting for election its three retiring members of the late House, and altogether has nineteen candidates in the field. They represent the Federated Labor, the Socialist, and the newly formed Canadian Labor Party (B.C. Division).

There are two Independent members of the late House seeking re-election, and six others are known to be in the field. An Independent Government candidate is spoken of in the Delta, and an Independent position candidate will be nominated in Esquimalt.

On the basis of the Provincial Party having forty-five candidates in the field, there will thus be 166 nominations made to-morrow. Five former members of the House, who were not in the late House, are seeking return to it. There are altogether eight women in the field, two Liberal, two Provincial, two Labor and one Conservative and one Independent.

BRITAIN IS BEHIND IN POULTRY MATTERS MINISTER POINTS OUT

London, May 29—(Canadian Press Cable)—Canada and the United States are ahead of Great Britain in poultry matters and Britain must yield the palm to them also in education and research, declared Noel Buxton, Minister of Agriculture, presiding at a Government dinner given last night to the Canadian and United States delegates to the world's poultry congress. Last year Great Britain imported poultry and eggs to the value of £16,000,000, he said. Her own output of poultry and eggs was greater than her wheat output and amounted to about £14,000,000.

IMMIGRATION

To the Editor:—In last night's Times you seem to ridicule Mr. Tom Richardson rather strongly for his attack on Canada. Every man who does not agree with everything Canada does, is put in the category of "reactionary" and "narrow minded" unless he has accepted the offer of a good man.

Because a man stays in the country does not mean that he has made good. You say, sir, it is only the misfits we hear most about. Were the thousands of Britishers, native daughters and native sons that went over to the States misfits? Our British Columbia is monopolized too much by yellow labor and white immigration here. No sir, let's put the house in order, then I say "Let 'em all come."

WAS NOT DOORKEEPER

To the Editor:—In this evening's Times, on the front page, the following paragraph appears: "Harry Price was acting as doorkeeper and being instructed to clear the hall of interlopers protesting to Chairman Harry Savage on behalf of the onlookers. Being compelled to clear the spectators as the first choice ballots were taken up, Doorkeeper Price again admitted the interested folk, who included a number of ladies who had been routed out of the private office of the secretary."

The above story is absolutely untrue, and your reporter could not have possibly been in the hall, or he would have seen the 300 delegates say, "I would state that I have been, for over a month, and am now competing to use crutches. That he is the doorkeeper of the onlookers was seated with my ward delegates, and did not move until the election was over. We had fifty delegates and we were handed fifty ballots. For your information I would state that the doorkeepers were Messrs. Booth and Blair."

I have become accustomed to attacks through the columns of the Times and I have had a lot of fun out of the statements that have been held in Victoria for the last thirty years, but I have played the game fair, and numerous Liberal speakers and election managers will bear evidence to this.

I feel that you should give my letter the same prominence as you gave to the statement I commented about, because the charge is unfair and shows a spirit of bias, and infidelity that is left out of political matters."

W. H. PRICE Victoria, B.C., May 29

DR. HUNTER'S COMPLAINT

To the Editor:—If your report published to-night had not contained a statement written by Dr. Hunter, I would not trouble you to print this and in fairness to Dr. Hunter I believe that he would have repudiated the statement that "H. Price" was doorkeeper. The whole management of the arrangements were entirely in the hands of Dr. Hunter, his supporters were at the door and in full charge, so that if anything was wrong, then the blame is theirs; personally I don't believe the statement, and I would not accuse them of wrong-doing, at least through the press. There is a proper place, viz: the executive of the association. Harry Price was in his seat at the top end of the room away from the door, and when he did come down (I sat close enough to notice this), the people had been allowed in and were standing there; these people were alternates. Your report is absolutely without truth as regards H. Price. Dealing with Dr. Hunter's written statement, apparently the Doctor is sore at being beaten but it is a pity that, like others who were beaten, he does not take it in a manly spirit (we can't all win), and he should remember his statement on the platform after nomination, viz: if he was not selected as a candidate he would stand behind those who were. His remedy is at the executive, of which he is a member, and also chairman of a ward. The men who aspire for political honors should be prepared to take a licking without squealing. I have had many a one,

If this becomes necessary, the Times says, the outraged people may be trusted to take measures that will be effective.

Compulsory Eight-Hour Limitation

By A. A. FREEMAN

Some time ago, when the proposition to make eight hours a compulsory limitation and to make it an offence to contract for more than eight hours per day, I wrote an article in which I criticized this piece of legislation, an effort on the part of the Parliament to prescribe to a citizen how much of his time should be devoted to work and how much to loafing.

It is now my purpose to demonstrate that this piece of attempted legislation is absolutely and necessarily void. It is ultra vires, that is, beyond the power and scope of legislative authority and is therefore not worth the paper on which it is printed. Men are vested with two kinds of right. The one is an imperfect right, the other a perfect right. The imperfect right is that which is bestowed by legislation, and as it is bestowed by legislation, it may be withheld by legislation, but a perfect right is one that a person does not hold subject to any power on earth to interfere with. Of course the most prominent of all perfect rights is the right to life. That right is not granted by the Crown, nor the Government, nor the Legislature, it is a right which God has bestowed beyond all branches of the Government, unless the party does something to forfeit his right.

If a citizen has an inherent right to live, it follows as a corollary that he has a right to avail himself of the means of supporting life. If, therefore, he finds that eight hours' work per day is not sufficient for the support of his wife and his children, he has a right to work ten, or twelve, or fourteen hours, without getting anybody's consent. I believe there is some provision made for the appointment of a superior officer to act as a kind of supervisor under given circumstances. This is so far from being an extension of this offensive legislation that it is rather an aggravation. No free Canadian wants to allow some man to stand about him and to tell him when to work and when not to work. He ought to be allowed to judge for himself. I believe, in fact I have no doubt, but that the courts of this Province will declare this act to be ultra vires and void. We have a good judiciary here and they are not dependent on office, nor their tenure of office, nor their salary. They can afford to do right, and so far as my acquaintance goes they are men of sufficient ability and courage to do the right.

I should have said in its proper connection that all attempts upon the part of the Legislature Department to interfere with the social or industrial rights of the people ought to be abandoned, such laws are in themselves offensive and ought to be avoided. The people should be allowed the greatest liberty in the conduct of their own affairs and should not be subject to the supervision of any power in this matter. Jefferson, among the many wise things he never said a wiser one than that, "that people are best governed, who are least governed."

If a citizen has a right to work more than eight hours in a day, if he chooses to do so, it follows as a necessary consequence that he has a right to employ assistance. That provision of the act, therefore, that seeks to make it a misdemeanor to contract for more than eight hours must necessarily be void.

and French Indo-China field. The latter field he opened up. In addition to his regular missionary work and the care of the church there, he had found time to establish what is generally recognized to be the most efficient and largest vernacular printing plant in the interior of South China. He is also editor and publisher of one of the most widely read bible magazines in China, which is published in both Chinese and Korean. Two days ago at the annual meeting of the Council of the Alliance Dr. Jaffray was elected vice-president and a cable was sent to him informing him of his appointment. It was hoped that Dr. Jaffray would return to America and take up the work of the Alliance. A reply has been received to the cable. "I suffered from Dropsy and Diabetes are caused by weak kidneys and that the right way to treat them is to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, is again shown by the experience of Mrs. P. Shaw, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place. "I suffered from Dropsy and Diabetes. My back and head used to ache, and I always felt tired and nervous. My limbs ached and I was depressed and low spirited. I have taken Dodd's Kidney Pills in all, and they are doing me a lot of good. I have found them very satisfactory." Mrs. Shaw's ailments were caused by weak kidneys failing to do their work of straining the impurities out of the blood. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not heal and strengthen weak kidneys. (Adv.)

C.N.R. Committee of Parliament is Now Suggested

Ottawa, May 28.—Defence of the Canadian National Railway administration was made in the Senate yesterday by Senator Dandurand, Government leader, replying to charges made by Senators Bennett and Taylor. Senator Dandurand opposed the idea of a committee of inquiry in the Senate. It would damage the credit of the road and hamper its administration. He promised the charges made against the Canadian Government Merchant Marine in Vancouver would be investigated by a Royal Commission if the inquiry now being conducted by the Canadian National officers was not satisfactory.

Emphasizing the danger of making public matters which were necessarily private business of the road, Senator Dandurand suggested that perhaps a representative parliamentary committee could be kept informed privately of the road's affairs and bring to the people an assurance of the success of the management. Members of this committee might have the right of an appeal to Parliament.

APPEALS TO PENSION BOARD TOTAL 2,121

Six Months' Work of Federal Organization Reported; Assisting Britain

Ottawa, May 28 (Canadian Press)—The Federal Appeal Board, which is the court of appeal in matters of pensions in veterans' affairs, has been in operation for eight months, and the figures of the work done during its first six months are available for the first time.

Of the 2,121 cases filed with the board, 472 have been heard, 651 have been ruled upon as being outside the jurisdiction of the board, 505 are outstanding and the remainder are ready for or are in the course of preparation for hearing.

Pensions have been granted by the board in 125 cases, while treatments with pay and allowances have been granted in 193 cases. Claims totalling $29 have been adjusted, in favor of the men through appeals to the board.

JUNE HEARINGS
During June the board will sit in each of the Maritime Provinces and each of the Western Provinces to deal with all re-appeals from decisions rendered by individual commissioners. A total of over 200 cases will be dealt with.

Last year Parliament voted $350,000 for Appeal Board work in 1923 and 1924. About $15,000 has been used, including the expenses of official soldiers' advisers who are not under control of the board.

BRITISH APPEALS
As an indication of the confidence with which the board is regarded, the British Government has requested it to hear appeals of ex-members of the British forces now resident in Canada and the United States, and to make recommendations to the British pension appeal tribunal. The board has agreed to undertake this work without pay to its members. As the expenses incurred are to be recovered from the British Government, the board hopes by a judicious arrangement of sessions to provide for the hearing of both Canadian and British appeals at one session, and to effect a material saving in the cost to the Canadian Government of the administration of the board.

BRITISH EXPORTS FOR YEAR ARE REPORTED

Canada Bought Goods to Total Value of $27,452,000; India's Total $85,356,000

London, May 28 (Canadian Press cable)—The values of exports from Great Britain and Northern Ireland for the twelve months ended March 31 last were:

To New Zealand, £20,028,000; Australia, £56,326,000; South Africa, £29,309,000; Canada, £27,452,000; India, £85,356,000; France, £46,508,000; United States, £57,563,000; Germany, £44,042,000; Italy, £18,908,000; and to Russia, £2,185,000.

This information was given in the House of Commons yesterday by William Lunn, Parliamentary Secretary for Overseas Trade, in reply to a question about British exports.

Newspaper Parties In Saskatoon on Way to B.C. Coast

Saskatoon, May 28.—The members of the Canadian Daily Newspapers' Association and the Canadian Press party en route by the Canadian National Railway from Toronto to the British Columbia coast, were entertained by the Saskatoon Board of Trade and Saskatoon newspaper men yesterday afternoon. The programme included a motor drive to various parts of the city, including the exhibition grounds and the University of Saskatchewan. At the latter place the newspaper men from Winnipeg and the East were received and welcomed by President W. L. Murray, who showed them over the buildings and grounds, which are the pride of the city.

Later in the afternoon the newspaper men and their wives were entertained at a tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Lynch. The tea was under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club.

Among those who assisted in the reception of the visitors were: Mayor W. H. Clare, Major J. B. Gunn, president of the Saskatoon Board of Trade; G. F. Stacey, secretary of the Board of Trade; Sheriff L. G. Calder, and D. A. Lubach of the Saskatoon Star.

Evening of the special cars were again picked up by the westbound Canadian National train and the party left for Edmonton, from where the parties will proceed to Jasper National Park and thence to Prince Rupert.

After their business sessions in Vancouver the parties will come to Victoria. They will arrive June 7 and leave for Vancouver June 8.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY LEGISLATION URGED

Woodsworth, Winnipeg M.P., Makes Suggestion to Committee of Commons

Ottawa, May 28.—The Federal Government might have legislation passed to extend the operation of the eight-hour day in industry as a test case of the power of Federal Government in such matters, J. S. Woodsworth, Labor, Winnipeg Centre, suggested yesterday at a sitting of the House Committee on Industrial and International Relations.

Mr. Woodsworth had no doubt the Government has jurisdiction over all public undertakings, and that such control could be extended. The British Empire Steel Corporation was doing Government work on eleven and thirteen-hour shifts, while its competitors in the United States were working on an eight-hour basis. Mr. Woodsworth drew attention to legislation and the Minister said he offered no apologies for his activities along the line of immigration. Every new citizen was a new producer because he had to work to keep alive. Increased production meant prosperity and reduced taxation.

SERVICES NEEDED BY SETTLEMENTS

Government Not Abandoning Isolated Areas of B.C., Says Pattullo

Minister of Lands Addresses Meeting in Point Grey

Vancouver, May 28.—"Opposition candidates may say that by giving you a business government they are going to reduce your taxes are talking pure bunk," declared Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, addressing a meeting of Liberals at Point Grey last night. "Get them on this platform and ask them what expenditures they purpose cutting out."

"The extravagant booster policies of McBride have settled this Province with little colonies in widely separated places and those communities are entitled to the services of Government. This has built up a tremendous overhead which when we took office we could not eliminate. I dare any man to tell you that he will cut out the functions of Government for those remote settlements of people who have staked their all in trying to make homes for themselves in British Columbia."

TO CONTINUE SERVICES
"We are not going to abandon the P.G.E. We are not going to close down the Labor Department. We are not going to discontinue mothers' pensions. We are going to continue taking care of the deaf, the dumb and the blind. Is that quite clear? When the Conservatives and the Provincials come here to address you and talk about reduced expenditures ask them where they are going to make the reductions."

In speaking of opposition criticism of the Government, Mr. Pattullo stated that nobody was perfect. If a candidate at an examination was awarded ninety per cent he was considered to have passed with high honors. If the Liberal Government had done its work ninety per cent efficiently the volume of its whole work was so great that a very strong indictment could be presented against it by talking only of the ten per cent of error. But the opposition never spoke of the ninety per cent of the Government's work well done.

TO AVOID MISTAKE
Mr. Pattullo counselled strongly against voting for independent or third party candidates, saying that to do so would invite a return to the chaotic days before Sir Richard McBride introduced party government. When men trafficked in seats to get personal support and when governments changed at a few hours' notice.

"That means government by compromise and you can't get things done that way," he declared.

The only way to get taxes down, he said, was to introduce new population and the Minister said he offered no apologies for his activities along the line of immigration. Every new citizen was a new producer because he had to work to keep alive. Increased production meant prosperity and reduced taxation.

FREIGHT RATE FIGHT
Mayor Blatchford said he wished to speak a good word for Premier Oliver, who was admitted by the people of Alberta for his good work in the freight rate fight. "We have already got a little reduction and we are hoping for brighter things in the future if you keep in office a Premier with the fighting ability of Mr. Oliver," he said. "Reduction in freight rates and the western route for grain are the liveliest issues on the prairies today and if the Conservatives go into office, you will be set back for ten years."

DELEGATES TO VISIT CHILD MIGRANTS

Committee From Britain Will Study Condition of Young Newcomers in Canada

London, May 28.—A private member's motion on the question of emigration to the Dominions and colonies produced a long and interesting debate in the House of Commons last night.

Sir John Marriott, Unionist, invited the House to express regret that the rate of progress being made under the Empire Settlement Act was disappointingly slow and to urge the Government to do everything possible to give the fullest effect to the policy embodied in the act.

William Dunn, Parliamentary Secretary to the Overseas Trade Department, dwelt on the desirability of attempting to bring pressure to bear which might lead to dumping people in the Dominions without regard to their future. "There must, he said, be co-operation between the British Isles and the Dominions in the reception and settling of the people. The question had never been considered as a cure for unemployment in Britain. The Government, he said, accepted the second part of Marriott's resolution and also the Economic Conference resolution on the matter.

AUSTRALIAN PLAN
Mr. Dunn described the proposal made to Australia with the concurrence of the Treasury after a conference with Premier Theodore of Queensland and Senator Wilson of Australia. This was to pay one-half the interest for five years on loans not exceeding £20,000,000 in addition to loans to the Commonwealth Government, which would undertake to reorganize and place on a proper basis the existing arrangements for the reception and training of settlers under government supervision.

It was contemplated these loans would be raised in instalments during the next ten years, and it was stipulated that for each £1,000 of loan, the Australian Government would undertake to settle at least one family without capital, averaging five persons together with five other assisted emigrants. Government proper would migrate to Canada.

Referring to emigration to Canada, Mr. Dunn said he believed most of the members of the House had re-

WARM WAVE IN SAN FRANCISCO
San Francisco, May 28.—The thermometer climbed to 88 in San Francisco yesterday, the hottest May day since 1910. The weather bureau advised many points in California and other states to be on the lookout for forest and brush fires.

It was the hottest day since last September 8, when the temperature climbed to about the same figure. High north winds in some points in the state increased the fire hazard greatly.

Ladner Herds Convince Many

One only has to drive around through the Ladner district to understand why Pacific Milk is so rich and so good. We have tried to give the words as they were given to our young lady, and while they may not be an exact quotation, they are in substance as they were spoken by a woman on First Avenue West, who had been on a trip to Boundary Bay the day previous. A drive through either Ladner or Abbotsford districts would convince many others that finer quality milk is not produced in Canada.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEW JUSTICE

MR. M. A. MACDONALD, K.C., who has been appointed to the British Columbia Court of Appeal, has shown, in his legal and public activities, a marked ability which brings general commendation on his appointment.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S DEBT

TO the assistance of the Hon. T. G. Coventry, who has already made a name for himself in the campaign as a wild gambler in figures, there was called last night Mr. Herbert Carmichael.

Hon. Mr. Coventry said British Columbia's net debt was $75,000,000. Mr. Carmichael calmly stepped it up to $137,000,000.

However, no matter what flights of fancy Hon. Mr. Coventry and Mr. Carmichael may take in their efforts to entertain the electorate of Saanich, the people of British Columbia in considering their Provincial debt must keep to the actual figures of Government financing.

This audit shows the gross debt of the Province on January 1, 1924, to be $71,432,261. The net debt is $38,775,267.

No matter what Hon. Mr. Coventry and Mr. Carmichael would like it to be, those figures show what it is, and it is on those figures that the Province has to meet interest and sinking fund charges, and not on the fanciful totals built up by Hon. Mr. Coventry and Mr. Carmichael, thank heaven.

ELECTRICITY'S EXPANSION

ELECTRICITY is man's newest source of power on a large scale. Rapidly as it has developed in the last twenty-five years, it stands now upon the edge of an even more rapid and striking development.

The National Electric Light Association at its Atlantic City meeting has just heard that $10,000,000,000 will be invested in the next ten years to complete developments already filed with the Federal Power Commission.

BACK TO LIBERALISM

A letter from a Liberal to The London, Ontario, Advertiser on the effect of the tariff readjustment policy adopted by the Mackenzie King Government at Ottawa is worth noting.

"I cannot help feeling that the present situation at Ottawa has done more to put new life into the Liberal Party than anything that has happened in years," he says.

"When we have national work of this calibre being carried out at Ottawa surely there is every reason for us to follow it up to make it permanent and effective."

'Twas No Love Feast

FROM the avalanche of charges of plugging and counter-plugging, manipulation of ballots between factions, accusations and denials and the secreting of delegates in back rooms, Tuesday night's Conservative nominating convention seems to have been anything but a love feast.

Dr. J. D. Hunter, one of the candidates for nomination, was so much disgusted with the way he alleges things had been worked, that he wrote and signed the following significant statement for The Times:

Since the closing of the nominating convention of the Liberal-Conservative party, I have been approached by a great number of my friends as to my willingness to stand as an independent Conservative in the coming election.

That is a diplomatic way of saying that the doctor was somewhat displeased with what had been put over and that he was so disgusted that he wanted to break away from the whole organization.

Last night, however, after what had been said on the streets during the day and the publication of his statement to The Times, the wrath of the doctor was appeased and he was lined up to sign his name to a statement in which he declares that: "I am, as always, a Conservative and intend to give the Conservative Party my hearty support in the present campaign."

Dr. Hunter, personally, has been dealt with, but there stand the charges of plugging and counter-plugging and the mystery of delegates in back rooms and strange passings in and out. No wonder Mr. Harry Price rises in his indignant righteousness to deny that he was official doorkeeper at such an interesting gathering!

Some of the parents who go to see motion pictures to be sure they won't hurt the children's morals are so often disappointed.

Wonder if that New York paper was thinking of British Columbia when it said last Friday: "Only conceivable basis for a third party is an impossibly unanimous group."

A writer objects to these "Fifty Years Ago Columns" found in some newspapers because of the errors the editors sometimes fall into of mentioning ladies popularly supposed not to be further along than the late '30's.

Enthusiasm of stamp collectors seems to be breaking out again. In a Bond Street window in London there appears this advertisement: "A Riverside residence with lovely grounds, only forty minutes by train from London. Will take in exchange a valuable collection of postage stamps."

The cost of the war in men to Germany is given in the Year Book of the Reich. It appears certain that the killed were no less than two millions. Of these twenty-five per cent. were between ages of 19 and 22; fifty per cent. were between ages of 19 and 25; sixty per cent. were between ages of 19 and 29. About sixty per cent. of the dead were unmarried.

Through its new restrictive immigration law, United States is really aiming at consolidating its race question with the hopes of producing a definite indigenous American type. The problem before the country can be realized when it is pointed out that out of the population of 110,000,000 there are 36,000,000 who are foreign-born. It may take two or three generations to absorb completely that large foreign element.

CAN STILL MAKE MONEY

AN AMERICAN STATESMAN'S POLITICS

I wish well to all nations and to all men. My politics are plain and simple. I think every nation has a right to establish that form of government under which it conceives it may live most happily; provided it infracts no right, or is not dangerous to others; and that no Governments ought to interfere with the internal concerns of another, except for the security of what is due to themselves.—Washington.

CANADA'S REDUCED SPENDING

Mr. Meighen, by a process of figuring, shows that the Ottawa Government has a deficit, not a surplus. Premier King's reply is that if Mr. Meighen were to use now the same system of figuring that he used when in office himself, there is a surplus. It results from reduced spending. Where the Meighen Government spent nine dollars, the King Government has been spending seven.

EDUCATION OF CHILDREN

The greatest defect of our educational process is the absence of a moral element. The heart is ignored. Children should not be intellectualized simply, but revised.—Howard Moore.

The pure science of heredity is curiously baffling.—Canon Barnes.

THE FAR AWAY PRINCESS

Your eyes are on a Princess far away, My love, my love. She sits you to these dreams, Not I, my dearest dear, with whom you play At life and loving. If sometimes it seems I wear her very smile upon my face, It is not mine. Alas, sad heart, I know, In every woman's eyes you seek a trace Of her who sealed your forehead long ago.

In all things lovely she has left a lure— In music, or some half-forgotten phrase; Dawn, or a night too lonely to endure. She waits in quiet places all your days— A tranquil moon upon a troubled sea— A ghost of love who will not set you free.—Yram.

Dr. Frank Crane On "Estimation by Contempt"

WE form a sort of estimate of our real worth by the friends we have been able to make.

A man who forms his opinion of himself from the compliments he has received is quite likely to get a swollen head.

The one kind of criticism that we cannot afford to neglect is that which comes from the people who hate us.

Contempt is apt to tell the truth. Indeed, it exceeds that. For one who is angry with you is likely, expressed it, to tell "the truth, the whole truth and more than the truth."

Any man that accomplishes anything is sure to reap a crop of envy, for the very terms of his success are that he has exceeded his competitors; that he has done something that they have tried to do, and could not.

For every storekeeper doing a lively business on the street, there are ten who have failed. For every politician who has got himself elected, there is at least one candidate, and often more, defeated.

It is too much to expect from human nature that those who have been outdistanced in the race shall be good sports and congratulate the winner.

In fact, the surprising fact about the world of business and of social life, where strife is the abiding condition and where the survival of the strongest is an iron law, is not that there is so much envy, but that there is so little. It is rather amazing, after all, that the vast majority of human beings who are mediocre get along so well with the few who are superior.

The Lost Advantage at Sackett's Harbor

IT would be exasperating for a Canadian to read an account of the British attack on Sackett's Harbor on Lake Ontario in 1813 if it were not for the redeeming brilliance of the conduct of the British and Canadian private soldiers.

Sir George Prevost was the general. He was Governor-General of Canada during the War of 1812 and Commander-in-Chief of the defending forces. Throughout the first half of the struggle he seemed obsessed with the strange idea, possessed as he was of too keen an appreciation of the overwhelming resources of the United States compared to those available in Canada, of fighting gently and considerably so as not to awaken undue animosity or rouse the full effort of the Republic.

Sir James Yeo, capable young captain in the navy, who had just arrived from England to command the fleet on Lake Ontario, urged an attack on Sackett's Harbor, the American base for Lake Ontario and that region, having learned that the majority of the eight thousand troops recently there had left to attack the Canadian Fort George at Niagara.

The troops were transferred to the landing boats, held waiting for considerable time, and then, to their bewilderment, put back aboard the vessels. The opportunity of complete surprise was lost. Throughout that afternoon and night militia reinforcements poured into the fort from all the surrounding countryside.

OWING to the strong representations of Sir James Yeo, Sir George Prevost allowed the attack to proceed, and, at daybreak of May 29, the British fleet, becalmed eight miles out, sent its landing force of seven hundred and fifty men ashore in the boats under Colonel Baynes. Of course, the artillery of the fleet was useless at eight miles, and the British landed with no protecting fire and in the face of heavy firing from Fort Tompkins and from field batteries on the shore.

On the mainland the British formed two columns, one on the right under the gallant Major Drummond, which followed the path of the retreating militia toward the town; the other, on the left, under Colonel Young, which marched directly through the woods and woodlands against Fort Tompkins at the south of the harbor. The United States garrison, which numbered nearly a thousand regulars and three hundred and fifty militia, opposed Colonel Young among the woods with about five hundred of their number. In front of the village the two British columns joined and forced the Americans into fort and barracks. The latter, anticipating defeat, set fire to the ships in the harbor and on the stocks in the navy yard, the naval store house, and the barracks.

Just in the lull before the final attack of the British up came Prevost and Baynes and ordered a retreat. In vain Colonel Young protested and Major Drummond pleaded for a few minutes promising to present the General with the fort. Cursing in their humiliation, officers and men retired to their boats on the beach, quite unmolested, while the Americans, just saved from crushing defeat by this British general, gaped in amazement and then turned their efforts to salvaging something from the flames they had started in their panic.

Colonel Baynes and General Prevost collaborated in compiling the reports to the Home Government a fine array of excuses and extenuations—calm weather, distance of fleet, landing party far outnumbered, fort too strong, everything but the real cause; a general who did not know enough to let his troops win his battle for him.

MOTOR-VAN CHURCHES

From The Montreal Herald Motor vans carrying church services to the widely-scattered pioneer communities of the Province of Saskatchewan has been operated for trips twenty-two weeks in length at an average cost of seven cents a mile, it is reported in the Christian Century. While most of the farms are now within reach of churches, there are still some places so remote that the church, if it is to reach them, must go to them. The motor-van church seems to have solved the problem.

A Great Settlement Builder PROVINCE'S SAWMILLS ITS PIONEER LANDMARKS Lumber Industry Has Placed 400 Communities on the Map of B. C.

THE lumber industry has placed more towns on the map of British Columbia than any other single agency. Moreover, it has assisted their growth by providing a livelihood to their populations and attracting fresh forms of business activity into their midlands.

Just as in the case of the city of Vancouver itself, which has grown up around the Hastings Mill, the forest was cleared, then came the sawmill, the pulp mill or the logging camp, then the store and schoolhouse, to be followed by the church, the hotel, the assembly hall, the playing grounds and all essentials that go to make up a live and happy community. This is the story of most of the B. C. towns to-day, whose pioneer landmark is almost invariably the old sawmill.

Whitist some settlements thus established have grown into prosperous cities and towns, others have preserved their individuality and remain lumbering centres pure and simple. Such are Fraser Mills, with its 1,400 inhabitants, Chemainus, Genoa Bay, Wardner, Bull River, Wycliffe, Waldo, Lumberton, Huttor, Yaha and others too numerous to mention. Add to these the progressive and well-appointed pulp and paper ports of Powell River, Ocean Falls and Swanson Bay.

There are 400 of the cities, towns and settlements in the Province of B. C. possessing over 3,000 logging camps and plants manufacturing wood products and maintaining a combined population of approximately 120,000 men, women and children directly dependent on some branch of the lumbering industry.

WILL HOLD GARDEN PARTY AT "ARRAN"

Lady Douglas Chapter Raising Funds For Memorial Sunroom

Through the kindness of Judge and Mrs. J. C. McIntosh the magnificent gardens of "Arran," York Place, Oak Bay, will be thrown open to the public on Tuesday, June 10, from 3 to 6 o'clock, when a garden party under the auspices of the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held in aid of the chapter's hospital fund.

The gardens are amongst the finest in Victoria.

A delightful programme of music and folk-dancing is being arranged by Mrs. E. W. Glend, which will lend additional variety to the pleasure of the afternoon.

There will be tables of home-cooking, candy and fancy goods, a fish pond and bean tub, dear to the hearts of children and the fore-telling of the future by talented seers.

Fest, strawberries and ice cream will be served on the shady terraced lawn and Hunt's orchestra will be in attendance.

A hearty invitation is extended to the friends of Victoria and visitors who may be in the city on that date. The proceeds will go towards furnishing a sun-room of the new Jubilee Hospital in memory of Sir James Douglas, founder of Victoria.

Arrivals on the Empress of Russia in two weeks' time will include Messrs. McClellan, C.B., O.B.E. and J. S. Pringle, O.B.E. from the Orient.

Mrs. Adair, who for the past week has been the guest of Mrs. T. S. Milligan, Leighton Road, returned yesterday afternoon to her home in Seattle.

Mr. McClimont and the Misses McClimont, who have been spending a few months in Victoria, on their return from California left yesterday for their home in Vernon.

Mrs. Powell, after spending the past few weeks in Vancouver as the guest of her brother, Mr. Oscar Orr, returned to her home in Victoria yesterday.

Mr. Barris, who has been on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Nelson, has been removed to Victoria to the Government Street branch of the bank.

Miss R. A. Collingridge, well-known in local musical circles, now on the staff of Colborne Hall at New Westminster, will visit her home in England this Summer returning in time for next Fall's college term.

Mr. C. H. Wheatley, who has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wheatley, Jubilee Avenue, for the past week, left yesterday for Nelson where he is one of the staff of the Bank of Montreal.

Mrs. Molyneux and her sister, Miss Dolia Dunsmuir, have returned to Victoria after an extended absence in England and on the continent and are visiting their mother, Mrs. James Dunsmuir at Hatley Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Vibert who have been occupying the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Goward, 1605 Westside, are expected to return to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Crump, 1212 Beach Drive.

Her many friends in Victoria will be relieved to learn that latest cable advice state that Mrs. J. A. Sayers, who is lying seriously ill in London, shows a slight improvement in her condition. It will, however, be three or four months before she will be well enough to be removed home.

The engagement is announced between Edith Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. G. V. Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, 925 Moss Street, and Mr. Anslie James Heimcken, second son of the late Mr. J. D. Heimcken, of the late Heimcken of Beach Drive, the marriage will take place shortly.

Mrs. G. W. Anderson of Robertson Street entertained on Tuesday at a handkerchief shower in honor of Miss Edith Richardson whose marriage to Mr. Anslie Heimcken will take place shortly. The guests, who numbered about twenty, included only relatives of the prospective bride and groom.

Mrs. S. B. Huston of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huston of St. Helens, Oregon, Mrs. Harold Clifford and Miss Dorothy Clifford of Baker, Oregon, all of whom were visitors in Victoria for the Chalonier-Huston wedding party, took place on Tuesday evening, left yesterday for their homes in the South.

Mr. Arthur M. Gee, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gee of Victoria, has just taken his degree of M.D.C. at Queen's University, Kingston. He will remain there for two weeks to appear before the Dominion Medical Board, and will then return to this city. Dr. Gee was at St. Joseph's Hospital for four months last year while studying for his examination.

Mrs. A. J. Dallain was hostess at a silver tea at her home on Niagara Street yesterday afternoon when her hospitality brought the direct result of 225 which will be used in the purchase of chairs for the Christ Church Cathedral's Guild in the new Memorial Hall. Miss Isabel Dallain was in charge of a table of fancy work and Mrs. Thomas sold delicious candy. The reception rooms and tea table were most attractively decorated with flowers and the affair proved a delightful social success.

Prior to the departure of Hon. Walter C. Nichol for Canada, Mr. P. C. Wade, agent-general for B.C. entertained at a dinner in his honor at the Canadian Club of Greater Britain when the guests included Sir George McLaren Brown, Col. B. M. Humble-Burkitt, Col. C. A. Griffin, Brig-Gen. H. T. Husher, Major W. H. Hayward, Mr. Victor Gordon (High Commissioner for Newfoundland) and Messrs. H. B. Thompson, David Doug. D. M. Rogers, Brierley staff Wilson, A. T. Goward, J. A. Lindsay, A. McT. Campbell, Earle Spicer, Malcolm-Campbell, and J. Rudd.

A most enjoyable time was spent by those who attended the birthday social on Wednesday arranged by the Ladies' Aid of Congregation Church. The proceedings were opened with a grand march, followed by music and games. The following contributed to the programme, Rev. McMin acting as chairman; Mrs. Townsend, songs at piano; Miss G.

WILL OPEN SCHOOL FOR COSMETICIANS

Miss H. Coupe Has Ambitious Venture Under Consideration

Miss Mary H. Coupe, M. C. M. C., of the Marinello Beauty Parlors has returned to the city from Portland, Oregon, where she has been taking a course at the College of Cosmeticians. This course includes special instruction in permanent waving and other phases of beauty culture.

Miss Coupe who opened her parlors some years ago has met with so much success that she is now contemplating a much bigger venture. With commendable initiative she is planning to open a local, well-equipped school for the training of beauty specialists in the Fall. It is known as the B. C. School of Cosmeticians.

This school which will be the first of its kind in this province will help to keep in Canada many of the ambitious girls who now go to the United States for training in the various branches of beauty culture. The course will include practical instruction and lectures in physiology, anatomy, hygiene, sterilization, facial band and arm massage, hair dressing and treatment and other subjects.

FACE BROKE OUT WITH PIMPLES

Hard, Red and Large. Itched and Burned. Cuticura Healed.

"My face broke out with pimples that looked terrible. They were very hard, red and large, and they feasted and scaled over. The pimples itched and burned something terrible. My face looked terrible and I hated to go any place. The trouble lasted over a year."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and after using several cakes of Soap and a couple of boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Gertrude Wagner, Rt. 5, British Ave., Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 10, 1923.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum daily and keep your skin clear and healthy.

Sample sent free by mail. Address: Canadian Dispensary, P. O. Box 2414, Montreal, Que., or The Cuticura Sales Office, 150 St. James Street, Toronto, Ont. Try our new Shaving Stick.

Schoolgirl Tennis Prodigy Plays Close Game With Veteran

The New Edison $135

London, May 29.—Betty Nuttal, England's thirteen-year-old tennis prodigy, hastened from school to-day to meet Mrs. Molla Mallory in a match at Chiswick, where the Mid-dieax championships are in progress. Betty was easily beaten in the first set 6-1, but in the second put up a remarkable fight, once leading by 6-5 and finally losing 6-8.

The little schoolgirl came to the front last year, showing extraordinary skill and strength and defeating opponents twice her size.

Nowhere can you find better value nor purity of tone than in this Cabinet Model New Edison. Sold on Terms

Aged Recluse Was Burned to Death

Aylesford, N.S., May 29. — John Gayley, an aged recluse, was burned to death here yesterday when his home was destroyed by fire caused by the explosion of an oil lamp.

Muscles will be sore the next day. Another simple but beneficial exercise, is the following: Stand erect with your feet together. Raise your arms over your head, palms outward. Bring your hands down slowly until you touch the floor with the tips of your fingers, not bending your knees. After a short time you will be able to touch the floor with the palms of your hands.

Or you may try heel and toe exercises. Place the hands on the hips, heels together and raise yourself on your toes. Then bend the knees forward and come down on the heels. When you have tried these simple exercises a few days you will be able to do them all with ease, but take pains not to over-exercise. You will be surprised how much better you will feel for exercising. Persons shut up in offices all day do not move vigorously enough to get the blood into circulation. Good health can be had by everyone. Begin to-day to improve your health!

RICH, CLEAN, SWEET and PURE!

Carnation is twice as rich as ordinary milk. It is just 100 per cent cows' milk with about 60 per cent of the natural water evaporated away.

Scrupulously clean condensers and the Carnation method of sealing in airtight tins and sterilizing, render it always safe, sweet and pure.

Let Carnation be your family milk supply. Ask your grocer for it.

An address will be given at the meeting by H. W. Davey.

Mrs. W. Randall wishes to extend her grateful thanks to her nominee, Mrs. P. J. Sinnott, and the many friends who attended the Victoria Convention on Tuesday last to give her their support and hopes that all her numerous supporters will join with her in working for an supporting the four candidates in favor of whom Mrs. Randall withdrew her nomination.

SOUND FIREMEN ON COMPROMISE

Eleventh Hour Effort to Avoid Closing Victoria West Fire Hall

Rather than close a fire hall and thereby bring into effect the increase in fire insurance rates which will cost the citizens a considerable sum in excess of the cost of retaining the hall, another effort at a compromise is being made. Three aldermen sounded out the firemen to know if any way of meeting the difficult situation could be found and as a result the negotiations, it is understood, will be resumed.

The divisions on the matter have already shown that three or four of the aldermen would vote for the increase of pay without any strings, and if sufficient of a majority would join in a compromise, it is believed it might be possible to save the anticipated friction with the department, and the penalty imposed on holders of policies in board companies if the city should revert to a third class risk instead of its present grade.

As the matter stands the Victoria West fire hall will close on Sunday, in spite of the emphatic protest recently voiced by residents of the district, by the City School Board, and in the Chamber of Commerce protest meeting.

ROTARY WELCOMES DELEGATION HERE

Australian and New Zealand Delegates to Toronto Arrive To-morrow

Arrangements were made to-day at the luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club, for the welcome to the delegates to the Toronto International Rotary Convention due here to-morrow on the liner Niagara from Australia and New Zealand. These delegates, six in number, will receive a radio message from the local club to-day, asking them to be prepared to meet the Victorians shortly after the ship arrives in this port. The club will entertain the transient guests during their short stay here.

An invitation from the Port Angeles Rotary Club to the member of the Victoria branch, was conveyed here to-day by William Kelly, just returned from the mainland. The Port Angeles Rotarians promise their guests a wonderful reception, and ask that they come to the American city for the celebrations on July 4.

Percy Scourrah, Stewart Williams and Wilfred Gibson gave short addresses during the course of the programme after luncheon, as a part of the Rotary education committee's propaganda. Mr. Scourrah spoke of the early days of Rotary international, which began with the formation of the Winnipeg Club, after several years of organization in the United States. The recognition of Winnipeg by American Rotary credit made the club international said Mr. Scourrah. The original club was started in Chicago, in 1905, and that time it has now grown until it is now to be found in eight different countries of the world.

Mr. Scourrah conducted a short catechism, to the vast amusement and edification of the members.

Wilfred Gibson spoke on Rotary's beginnings in Victoria, and the success it has since attained.

Ira Dilworth rendered pianoforte solos which were greatly appreciated.

POLICE QUESTIONING USERS OF NARCOTICS

Chicago, May 29.—Investigation of the death of Robert Franks, thirteen-year-old son of a Chicago millionaire, whose body was found in a railroad culvert a week ago at the same time as a $3,000 ransom demand was delivered to his parents, assumed a new angle to-day when police began rounding up narcotic drug addicts for questioning.

The police are questioning users, at the behest of a well-informed principal, slew the boy, has been in the hands of the authorities for several days. According to State Attorney Crowe, the investigators expect to find some user of narcotic drugs who was sufficiently well acquainted with the movements of the Franks family to have conceived a kidnapping plot and engaged someone else to carry out the plan.

"The killing was an accident," the state's attorney said, "and everything that followed was undertaken to cover the accident. Narcotic drugs will be found at the bottom of it all."

A BURIAL STORY

An eye-witness account of what the informant believes was the midnight burial of the body of Robert Franks was given to the police yesterday afternoon. The man who volunteered the information was John H. Shackelford of Gary, Ind., a railroad switchman who said that late Wednesday night last he saw a green sedan near the swamp in which the boy's body was found. He noticed three men and a woman in the car and one of the men left it with a bundle which he first thought was a coat, but which he now believes was the body of the youth. When the man returned he did not have the bundle, Shackelford said.

Despite the fact that the police have been working on the theory that the boy was kidnapped and his body later carried to the swamp by persons riding in a gray sedan, State Attorney Crowe said he believed Shackelford's information the best evidence yet obtained.

Not identified shackelford was

Winnipeg, May 29.—Eastern interests, it is reported here, are seeking to gain control of the Winnipeg Electric Railway Company. The annual meeting of the company is scheduled for Tuesday next, but in view of the attempt to secure proxies by interests referred to, may be postponed.

E. H. Nesbitt, head of the firm of Thomson Nesbitt and Company, bond dealers, is said to be leading the campaign and many stockholders have received letters from Mr. Nesbitt asking them to send him their proxies to be voted at the meeting. It is said that if the plan matures the active direction of the company will pass into the hands of eastern capitalists, and that the annual meeting of the company will in future be held in Montreal. Sir Augustus Nanton, president of the company, has been away on a health-seeking trip, but arrived back in Winnipeg to-day.

MUSICAL EVENING

All those who heard the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Sunday School orchestra last Winter, will be glad of the opportunity of hearing them again on Friday evening of this week. The orchestra of twenty-five pieces under the leadership of Jesse Longfield has been working hard on this, their final programme of the season, and have prepared a number of real good selections, including: Lauspiel overture and The Gondoliers.

Mrs. Jesse Longfield, who needs no introduction to the musical circles of the city will provide another treat for those attending. In addition to Miss Beth Simpson and Charles Conyers, both well-known vocalists, and Miss Mary MacFadden, elocutionist, will contribute items to the programme.

WILL TRY TO SOLVE BOWKER CREEK FLOOD PROBLEM BY EXCHANGE

An effort will be made by the public works committee of the City Council, to-morrow afternoon, to reach some settlement with the owners of land along the line of Bowker Creek, looking to the exchange of land there for other locations.

A section which runs from Cedar Hill Road through Oaklands was recently visited by the aldermen who found the householders divided from the road, and in some cases their gardens cut in two by the ditches, rendered necessary to get rid of storm water. An exchange of property was suggested as a solution, and a report on the legal status of the matter is now ready.

The committee has not met for two or three weeks, and some arrears of work have to be cleared up.

PIONEER DIES OF WOUNDS INFLICTED BY 70-YEAR-OLD FARMER

Winnipeg, May 29.—Edward Bailey, pioneer farmer of the Manitowish district, who was wounded on May 15 by Peter McCrimmon, Elm Creek, farmer, as a culmination of a feud of forty years standing, died to-day. McCrimmon, who is seventy years old, is being held by the police pending the coroner's verdict.

OLIVER OUTLINES CLEAR-CUT CONSTRUCTIVE POLICY; RATE FIGHT IS SUPREME ISSUE NOW

Premier, On Interior Tour, Pledges Himself To Continue Campaign For Justice In Transportation Costs Until Battle Is Won; Plans Relief For Farmers, Real Effort To Relieve P. G. E. Load, and Just Revision of Timber Royalties

By Times Staff Correspondent

Penticton, B.C., May 29—Clear-cut and constructive are the policies upon which the Oliver Government is appealing to the electors of British Columbia. As outlined by Premier Oliver in the course of his speaking tour through the interior, the Government's programme includes these outstanding and definite projects: Continuation of the freight and express rate fights until the West receives full justice.

Efforts to dispose of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to the Canadian Pacific Railway or the Canadian National Railways as part of the development of the rich Peace River district.

Relief to the farmers of the country through a more equitable system of land assessment.

Revision of the present timber royalty system so as to protect the ernment's timber revenues in the new revision.

Completion of the Transprovincial Highway as rapidly as provincial finances will permit and development of tributary roads so as to make the highway available for the use of the whole Province.

RATES BIG ISSUE

Of all these plans the Premier, of course, considers the freight and express rate fights by long odds the most important. Lower transportation costs, he has declared emphatically, are the paramount needs of Western Canada to-day and to get them he is ready to fight, as he says, to the last ditch. If he cannot secure justice in any other way, in fact he is prepared to rally the whole of Western Canada and make a political issue of the transportation question, a far-reaching and startling threat, but that the Premier means what he says, there can be no doubt. His present tour has pledged him definitely to make the transportation fight the supreme effort of his administration.

The Premier's freight plans have been heard with eagerness and enthusiasm everywhere in the interior for upon the cost of transportation the interior farmer is dependent to a great extent for his prosperity. The present cost of shipping products to market is one of the chief reasons for hard times in the agricultural industry. The Premier's fight holds out hope to the people of the interior, while the opposition parties are offering little more than criticism and abuse.

HAS REAL HOPE

Mr. Oliver sees real hope of relief from the burden of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway in the inter-provincial conference which will be held this Summer to discuss the development of the Peace River district. The Provincial Government, he says, is prepared to go to any reasonable limit in offering British Columbia's ill-fated railway to one of the two transcontinental systems as part of a scheme for the exploitation of the Peace River country's enormous natural wealth.

The Premier already has won an important point by persuading the Federal Government to hold up its plans for building a railway into the Peace River country until it has investigated thoroughly British Columbia's proposal that the line be built westward through British Columbia instead of eastward through Alberta. It is the Premier's proposal that the westward line be linked up with the P. G. E. at Prince George. This would give the railway company operating the Peace River railway, whether it were the C. P. R. or the C. N. R., a direct grain route to the Coast.

ONLY CHANCE OF RELIEF

"This plan is the first that has ever offered a ray of hope in the general gloom surrounding the P. G. E.," Mr. Oliver said in one of his recent speeches in the Boundary country. "I cannot see any other possibility of reducing the crushing burden of that railway's fixed charges and operating costs for years to come. I sincerely believe that there is a real chance of success in this scheme and that the Government is prepared to go to almost any length to achieve it."

The Premier has made it clear in all his speeches that he and his Government refuse absolutely to accept the responsibility for the P. G. E. fiasco. "That railway," he said in a recent address, "is not my baby." It was built by the Conservative Government, which you have heard of in a recent address, "is not my baby." It was built by the Conservative Government, which you have heard of in a recent address, "is not my baby." It was built by the Conservative Government, which you have heard of in a recent address, "is not my baby."

REFUSES RESPONSIBILITY

"I would rather resign than accept that responsibility. We accept responsibility, however, for the work we have done since we came into office and whether we have carried out this work honestly or not was pretty clearly shown by the recent P. G. E. inquiry, I think."

Mr. Oliver has shaped a real programme of substantial assistance for the farmers of the Province. He takes the stand that when the Government is in a position to reduce taxes at all, the producer must have first consideration. Meanwhile, he proposes to relieve the farmer's burden by a revision of the present land assessment system.

TIMBER ROYALTIES

The interests of the people and the revenues of the Province will be closely guarded in legislation framed to alter the present timber royalty system, the Premier has stated. Timber royalties, he intimated, will go up next year, but to increase to the figure provided by the present schedule, he added, would cripple the timber industry.

RIVER DRIVER REPORTED MISSING

Nelson, B. C., May 29.—L. Kelly employed river driving for J. B. Winlaw at Wynndel in the Creston area, disappeared Wednesday of last week when he failed to get into Creston from working on the Kegonay flats, now submerged. Five other men with him made a raft to cross the water with, but Kelly was accustomed to keep to the land route, using a log when there was water to cross. It was the last day of the drive, and Kelly's failure to show up at any of his possible destinations was not checked in for some days.

Speed Objective Of Both Fighters In Michigan Bout Flashy Footwork and no Heavy Hitting Features Gibbons' Training Georges Studies Tommy's Work in Film of Fight With Dempsey

Michigan City, Ind., May 29.—With a spirited ten-round session with the gloves, the heaviest workout of his training campaign, Tom Gibbons of St. Paul wound up his boxing preparation for his ten-round boxing contest with Georges Carpentier here next Saturday afternoon.

Gibbons will do no more boxing, but will do light work to-morrow and Friday merely to keep his muscles loose and keep his condition on razor edge. He finished in perfect condition. Gibbons faced five sparring partners, each for two rounds, carrying them along at a spirited pace and revealing an unusual set of speed and flashy footwork. He did not attempt any heavy hitting, except when he faced Andre Anderson, a 230-pounder and Tillie (Kid) Herman, a 150-pounder. He opened up his boxing with a flashy two rounds against Sammy Mandell, the Rockford 130-pounder, who meets Paul Fritsch, French junior lightweight in the semi-windup.

Gibbons went about his work good naturedly with a smiling countenance whenever the "Rockford Flash" missed swinging left hooks. He attempted mainly to sharpen his speed against Mandell and his footwork and head slipping punches were a revelation to his admirers.

PERFECTLY TRAINED Gibbons looked like a perfectly trained athlete after the workout. He ventured the opinion that his condition was as good as when he boxed Jack Dempsey at Shelby, Mont., last night of July 2, 1919. Gibbons was gleamed with a healthy glow and perspiration dripped off his forehead and shoulders, indicating to his handlers that he had reached the peak satisfactorily.

While Gibbons was engaging in his last boxing, Carpentier strolled out of the city with Jack Currier, his American representative, and others for a private exhibition of the motion picture of the Gibbons-Dempsey fight. Carpentier wanted to see for himself how Gibbons boxed the heavy-weight champion. The Frenchman declined to comment on Gibbons' showing, but was evidently pleased with what he saw. The French boxer, who usually five miles of road work on the sandy beach of Lake Michigan this morning and loafed during the afternoon.

STRAIGHT RULES Carpentier will do his final boxing to-morrow, according to programme. Emerson Dickerson of Chicago, selected as referee, will meet Carpentier and Gibbons to-morrow to explain the rules. Dickerson said strict rules would prevail, and that the boxers must protect themselves until ordered to break. On the command to break they must step back a full step and a barrier is permitted to hit in the break-away. In the event of a knockdown, the boxer on his feet must retire to a neutral corner before the fight will be started. Dickerson stated the rabbiting and kidney punches as well as the throat blows would be barred.

Jack O'Brien Has New Pari Mutuel Machine Patented New Visible System Contains Features Which Will Make It Popular With All Unusual interest has been aroused among the racing fraternity over the exhibition and official examination of a new Canadian-manufactured pari-mutuel machine, patented and manufactured to comply with the Canadian law by J. T. O'Brien of this city.

At all times the patrons may glance at the machines and see how much money has been placed on a given horse. The registration is mechanical in nature and the calculations are not made behind closed doors and later posted, as at present.

DISPLAY GROSS RECEIPTS Calculation boards display to the public the correct gross receipts on each race, the method of deducting the tax and commissions. Straight, and on the end of the race the public can keep their eyes on the play. This he says, is the cardinal tenet of "pari-mutuel," or in English, "mutual betting."

Northwest Golf Cup Is Now in Victoria The handsome sterling silver cup, presented to the Seniors' North-west Association by the Hon. W. C. Nichol, the Lieutenant-Governor, to be played for annually, was brought from Seattle a few days ago by Mr. A. S. Kerry, the captain of the Canadian team at the first annual tournament of the Seniors' held last November at Oak Bay. Owing to the match resulting in a tie it was arranged that the American team should keep the cup for six months, and at the end of that time return it to Victoria.

The wanderings of Polly

SOMEHOW Polly's vacation had developed into one long series of parties—always at the homes of her school friends. In vain had Mother suggested luncheons and dinners at home. Polly at first was evasive. Then she admitted that they just didn't have the necessary things to entertain as the other girls did. Silverware, for instance!

Perhaps you, too, and your children would give many parties in your own home if you had more silverware. Yet you do not have to limit your guests by your knives and forks and spoons. In "1847 Rogers Bros." it is so easy and inexpensive to provide the pieces you need. You will be particularly interested in the niceties of the table—serving pieces, salad forks, bouillon spoons, ice cream forks. Here is silverware of unmatched durability, and so beautiful that it will make every meal more delightful.

Leading dealers throughout the Dominion carry "1847 Rogers Bros."

May we send you a copy of our booklet, "Etiquette, Entertaining and Good Sense"? Its illustrations of table settings are authoritative to the last degree. You will find it full of suggestions for successful entertaining. Write for it to-day. Meriden Britannia Co., Limited, Hamilton, Ontario.

NAVAL APPEAL TO BE LAUNCHED

To Seek Funds For Entertainment of British Special Service Squadron

A canvass of the city will be conducted to supplement the available funds for the reception to the British Special Service Squadron on its arrival here next month. This course was decided upon at a meeting called by Mayor Hayward to organize a committee held at the City Hall last evening.

A canvassing committee will be appointed to conduct the canvass which is to be general.

PRELIMINARY EXPLANATION

Explaining the object of the meeting Mayor Hayward, who presided, stated that the executive committee had been working hard. Appeals from public organizations had not been as satisfactory as expected, and the committee found that the entertainment could not be financed without additional assistance, he said. Briefly alluding to the action of the Dominion Government in restricting its contribution to its own entertainment, he pointed out that unless $10,000 was obtained it was impossible to carry out what had been planned. At present they had only $5,900 in sight. His words were met out that the whole plan had been co-ordinated through himself, as official representative.

W. Miller Huggis, executive secretary, reviewed the work of the committee since February 7, now composed of thirty-six members, and including members of sub-committees seventy-three in all. He argued that to put on a proper celebration worthy of the city, the sum of $15,000 was needed, and a minimum of $10,000 as the mayor had suggested.

His Worship then read a summary of the budget, based on a total of $10,827, allowing an adequate sum for street decorations.

TAKE UP MOTION

Frank Gloima moved a motion that the newspapers should be asked to open a subscription list, and the same suggestion be advanced that banks, hotels, and institutions should be asked to have lists available for subscriptions, as well as the department stores.

Major Longstaff seconded the motion.

Herbert Kent hoped the Mayor would issue an appeal.

A personal canvass was suggested by F. J. O'Reilly, and had the endorsement of J. S. MacMillan.

J. E. Clearhouse also supported a personal canvass.

ROWN ON TAG DAY

The discussion turned to a tag day proposal, but it was considered doubtful if that was the best course. Arthur Manson indicated that he should continue to oppose a tag day, as not befitting the character of the object.

Mr. Manson pointed out that no appeal had been made to the citizens in connection with the Victoria Day celebration, nor did he think it would be necessary.

Mr. Clearhouse thought a residence appeal would be better, avoiding the frequent applications to the business section.

Major W. H. Langley said he did not agree with the objection to a canvass of the business district. He alluded to the financial advantage to be secured from the visit, over $100,000, and that about 2,000 men for ten days. While not wishing to emphasize that aspect, he did desire to point out that the individual aspect should be impressed on the citizens—a personal welcome rather than a public, formal one.

EMPHASIZES IMPORTANCE

"This affair is not generally recognized by the citizens of Victoria in its importance," Major Langley contended, "in describing what an imposing parade the fleet would make. There was plenty of money in the city, and lots of people who had as yet not raised a finger to aid in the reception. There should be a determined effort to get that money for the entertainment of the fleet. He alluded to the fact that the impression going out to the world that the reception was a cheap one here.

OTHER VIEWS

Capt. F. James, R.N., retired, vice-chairman of the entertainment committee, suggested that the situation should be reported to the Lieutenant-Governor on his return on Saturday. The motion then carried unanimously.

Alderman Harvey, chairman of the entertainment committee, pointed out that the question of accommodation was of importance, and must be considered carefully.

Lieut. P. A. Raynor advocated a downtown carnival, as of practical business value to the merchants. Such dances would enable the sailors to get into direct touch with the citizens.

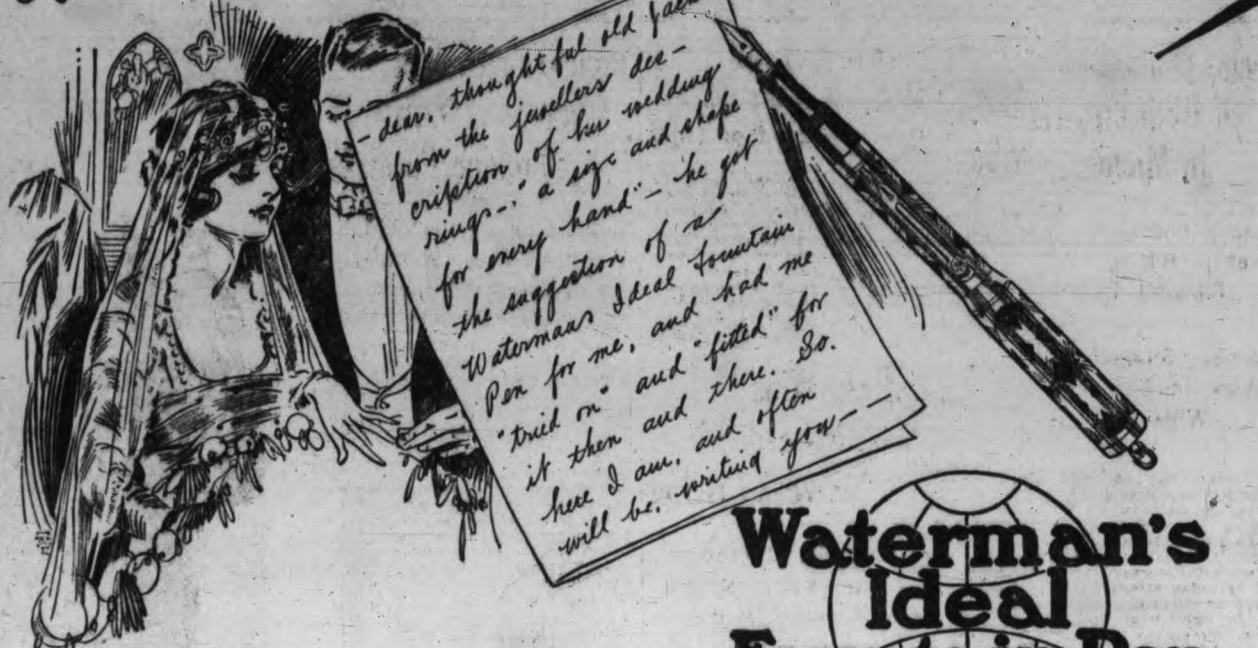

Mr. Gloima stated that the Publicity Bureau would undertake the publicity for the fleet from Vancouver to Portland, the remaining matter to go out early next month.

MUNICIPALITIES BENEFIT UNDER THE PRESENT SYSTEM

Government Returns More Than it Takes in Taxation

Answering assertions from his opponents that the Liberal Government had overtaxed the municipalities of British Columbia during its last few years of office, Hon. F. A. Pauline, ex-member of the House for Saanich, assured his audience at Celar Hill last night that such was not the case. "The total revenue collected within municipal areas for the year ending March 31, 1923, was $3,612,460.65, but during the same period of time the Province gave back to the municipalities by way of grants and assistance in various undertakings, $4,008,282.70," Mr. Pauline said.

The speaker proved his point with facts and figures, and presented these in a systematic and tabulated form.

"The amount returned to the municipalities by the Provincial Government is therefore $395,823.05 greater than what the authorities took away through various forms of taxation," Mr. Pauline continued, "and in the face of these proofs there is no reason for anyone to claim that the municipalities have been either overtaxed or ignored. It will be noted that the municipalities do not credit with providing any share of the liquor profits, but this money is not derived through taxation but through voluntary contribution. Besides, it is impossible to segregate and definitely say where the money comes from. But this item, whatever it may be, is more than offset by the service rendered in the upkeep of the University of B.C., the Normal School, the Provincial Police force, and the assistance and supervision of the Department of Health in the prevention and control of disease.

GREATER SERVICE

"A further and greater service than all of these is rendered in and by the administration of the vast unorganized area in the Province, upon which our towns and cities largely depend, and without which they cannot flourish or prosper," declared Mr. Pauline. "My figures show that for every $100 the Government receives from the municipalities, it returns over $110; in other words, we give far more than we receive, and our work is in the service we accomplish for the good of others," he stated.

Replying to a charge of his political opponent, T. G. Coventry, Conservative candidate in Saanich, that he had stolen the maternity benefit plank from the former's platform, Mr. Pauline said that he had done no such thing. He had merely stated his views as being entirely in accord with those of Mr. Coventry on this question. He spoke of the splendid work which the Saanich Health Centre was accomplishing, referring to the statement made by Dr. M. T. MacEachern, well-known Canadian surgeon, and now president of the American Hospital Association, who said that the Health Centre was more efficient than any other institution of a like character in Canada or the United States.

FAITH IN PREMIER

"I am asking for your vote," Mr. Pauline went on to say, "as a supporter of Premier Oliver. I see no other man on the political horizon fit to take his place at this time and to undertake the great things that he has already started to accomplish. I know of no man who has the ability, the honesty, the experience, and the dogged fighting qualities which he possesses. I believe that under his sane and sagacious leadership the people of British Columbia will make rapid and steady progress towards a brighter and a better future."

Dr. Melbourne Raynor, Liberal candidate for the Victoria riding, gave an illuminating address on the activities of the Liberal Government in working for the welfare of the people of British Columbia along social improvement lines. This was one of the greatest necessities which any country wanted, and this Province had already made progress in this regard, he stated. But there was still much to be done, he said, and the next great piece of social service legislation should be for the care and better treatment of the mothers of the country, who were, after all, the founders of the race.

Mothers in the past, he declared, had received all too little attention and sympathy in their heroic work of raising a family, and the consideration due to them as builders of nationhood should not be underestimated, he believed. The speaker, being a man of medical science, was in a position to realize and see more clearly into the true state of affairs than was the average layman, and he described present conditions as being utterly deplorable in some instances.

The meeting, held in St. Luke's Hall, was particularly well attended.

LAKE HILL CENTRE

The final 500-drive of the season by the Lake Hill Community Centre was held in the Community Hall on Monday and a most enjoyable game resulted, the first prizes going to Mrs. Calvert, Mr. J. Scott, Mr. J. Douglas and Mr. S. Campion. The second prizes were won by Mrs.

Service, Mrs. Wm. Peattie, Mr. Cockerell and Mr. Butts. The ten bid after cutting, Mrs. Cockerell and H. A. Haycock.

The lucky numbers for the tem-bola prizes were held by Mrs. Kirkham, Mrs. Holdcroft, Mr. Ferriman and Mr. Butts.

Will the holder of blue ticket No. 1569 in the recent May Queen contest please communicate with the secretary at Lake Hill P. O.

The usual monthly meetings of the Centre will be held through the Summer on the first Saturday in each month at 8 p.m. in the Community Hall.

Sugar-Crisp CORN FLAKES

OF AGE IN BASEBALL.—Twenty-one years of big league baseball and still going strong is the unique record of Ty Cobb, manager and veteran outfielder of the Detroit Tigers. Congress recently presented him with a set of twenty-one books to commemorate the occasion.

A KICK IN HIM YET.—General Isaac R. Sherwood, Ohio congressman and Civil War veteran, who plans to retire and, at the age of 80, start out in life afresh as a journalist. Sherwood says he is through with "free seed artists for ever."

"HUSBAND" WAS WOMAN, TOO!—For fifteen months Bertha James (left) of Cleveland believed herself to be the wife of Harry Meyers. Then neighbors began to gossip and Bertha learned her "husband" was a woman, too. And "Meyers" (right), now booked on the police blotter as Lillian Huffman, was arrested on a suspicion charge. But she still wears her male attire. For seventeen years Lillian has worked and dressed as a man, police say. At the time of her arrest she was employed in a cabinet factory. The two never lived together, Lillian contending her wages were not sufficient to keep them both. But Bertha received more than half of "husband's" pay each week. Now Bertha is pleading for Lillian's release.

COVENT GARDEN FAMED PEA-SHELLERS.—When it comes to gossip the afternoon tea parties have to surrender to the old lady pea-shellers of Covent Garden, London, who seem to be able to discuss many sensations even before the newspapers get hold of them. The woman at extreme left has been in the "shell game" for half a century.

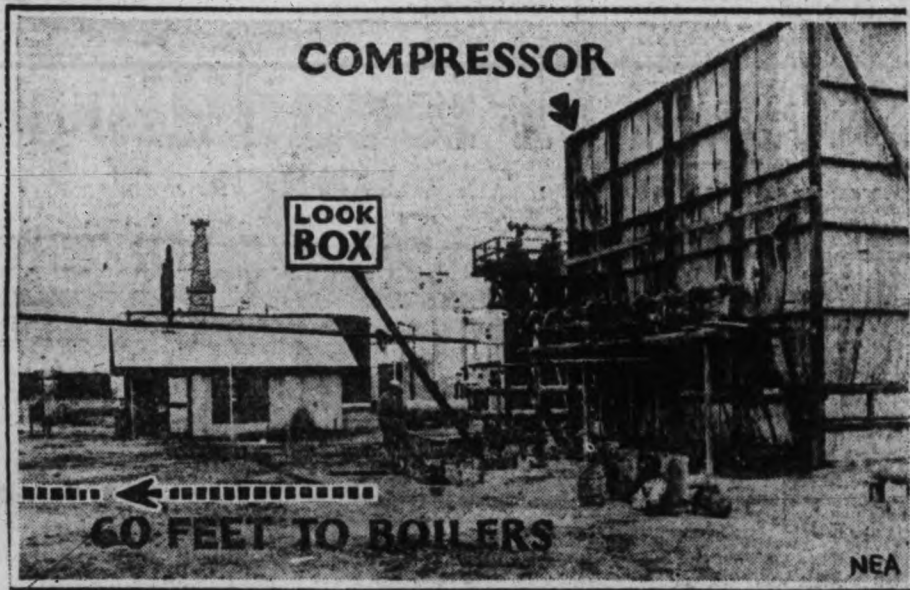

THEY ALMOST CAUSED RIOT.—The American Olympic rugby football team, whose winning of the Olympic contest in Colombes Stadium, Paris, all but started a riot. Hissed and booed by the Paris crowds the Yankee boys played a great game. Fist fights took place in the stand when Americans cheered their team.

NOBLE RUM RUNNER.—Sir Broderick Hartwell, who, despite the obstacles raised by the new Anglo-American liquor treaty, has just delivered his fourth cargo of liquor to the United States and paid members of his joint-stock company, a dividend of twenty per cent.

THIS PHOTOGRAPH WAS TELEPHONED.—This remarkable example of transmission of a photograph by telephone is one of fifteen pictures sent from Cleveland, O., to New York—the first time pictures by wire have been sent with success. Within forty-five minutes of the time a photo had been taken in Cleveland it was being exhibited, completely developed, to a group of interested spectators in the American Telegraph and Telephone Company Building, New York City. A new process of transmission by electricity has been perfected, making this possible. The picture here appearing was not retouched, as is customary in the arrangement of most news pictures. An action picture is used to give an idea of how well detail is preserved by this process.

THREE KILLED IN FREAK BLAST.—Three men were killed and the lives of a score of others were endangered when a "look box" at a Standard Oil Company compressor plant in the Santa Fe Springs oil field, near Whittier, Calif., burst and sent a flood of gasoline racing toward an open fire box sixty feet away. The explosion that followed could be felt miles away. The accident is one of the most unusual ever occurring in the district.

CAN'T BLAME HER.—Hadji G. Rasul, adopted son of the Sultan of Sulu, is willing to go to the ends of the earth for his white wife. She left him, he says, when she discovered he had several native wives. Hadji came over on the Admiral Oriental liner President Jackson.

QUITS.—Walter Mitchell, Liberal M.P. for St. Antoine, Montreal, and former Provincial Treasurer of Quebec, who resigned his seat in the House of Commons this week.

FLIVVERS BALKED, TOO!—Looks like Venice. But it isn't. It is Pittsburgh. Rowboats superseded automobiles when the Monongahela River overflowed its banks and raced through the streets of the waterfront district. Merchants and warehousemen suffered heavy losses.

TRUTHFUL.—Ketchum & Canham, Salt Lake City employment agents, insist there is nothing in a name after all. And, through this sign tacked up in front of their office, they want the world to know it. The proprietors, John Ketchum and Hyrum Canham, have been friends since boyhood.

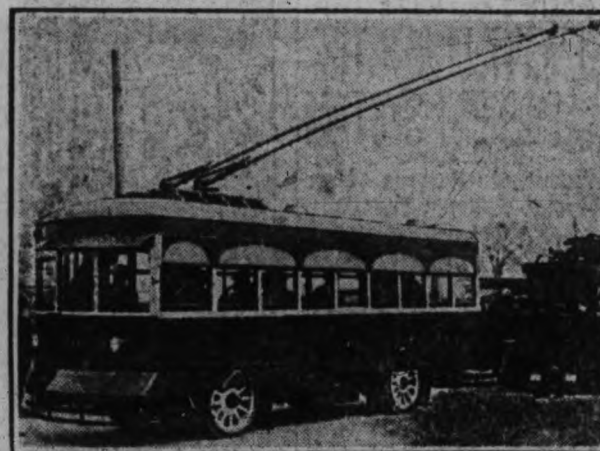

TORNADOES CAN'T STOP SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Tornadoes may sweep away churches and houses, but Sunday school goes right on just the same—as witness this picture taken in Lawrenceville, Ga., on the site of the late Baptist Church. The organ was spared, and the youngsters with their goat and dog go merrily ahead.

PORTIA.—When Miss Minnie Goldman of Chicago won her diploma to practice law she never guessed that one day her father would be her client. But now he is the defendant in her "biggest case." Her father, Abraham Goldman, faces federal trial in Worcester, Mass., with his son-in-law, Joseph B. Marino, Chicago, charged with embezzlement in connection with the looting of the Warren National Bank.

GORGEOUS GEORGES ARRIVES.—Georges Carpentier, snapped upon the deck of the liner Majestic, when he arrived in New York, apparently in good form for his bout with Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City. With him is Francois Descamps, his manager.

IT RUNS WITHOUT TRACKS.—Detroit is experimenting with trackless trolley cars on its municipal street railway system. They have rubber-tired truck wheels. And the beauty of them is that they don't have to follow a straight course like the regular street cars.

REEVE LOCKLEY IS EXTENDING STRONGER

Independent Conservative Forces Organize in Esquimalt

The impetus with which Reeve Lockley has plunged into the election fight in the Esquimalt riding, and the manner in which his campaign is steadily gaining in the weight of its supporters, points to the obvious split existing in Conservative ranks.

Mr. Lockley is taking every advantage of this situation. His supporters are boosting him on the Independent Conservative ticket, and are organizing at a meeting held in Kent's Hall last night elected officers.

TWO COMMITTED FOR TRIAL ON WITNESS CHARGE

Wallace McNaughton and James Smith go before Higher Court

At the close of a preliminary hearing in the City Police Court this morning Wallace McNaughton and James Smith, charged on remand with attempting to defeat the course of justice by enticing one likely to be a witness to leave the jurisdiction of the court, were committed for trial by higher court.

Mr. McNaughton, a seventeen-year-old girl told of leaving Canada by ferry for Seattle, and of registering under a fictitious name. This morning an official of the C.P.R. officers showed the court a copy of the berthing sheet of the St. Frances Louise. The list contained the name formerly given by the first witness, asserted the Crown.

Mr. Fry was called as to the status of the girl in the charge of seduction resting against McNaughton. Witness said she was one of the principal witnesses, Stuart Henderson, with Ernest Miller for the defence, protested against the admission.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Chocolate Bunny

(Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

By Howard R. Garis

Once upon a time a little boy was given, for Easter, a large, brown chocolate bunny. It was very large—almost as large as a real rabbit, like Uncle Wiggily, and the little boy was quite proud of his chocolate bunny.

"I'm going to put him on the window sill, where he can look out," said the little boy to his mother, as he hugged his chocolate rabbit.

"Maybe he'll see a real bunny some time—maybe my chocolate bunny will."

"Maybe," said the mother with a smile.

"Aren't you going to eat your chocolate bunny?" asked the little boy's sister. "Chocolate rabbits are good to eat, you know," and she looked hungrily at the brown candy rabbit.

"Eat my chocolate bunny? No, never!" cried the little boy. "I am just going to let him sit on the window sill, where he can look for a real rabbit."

Now the little boy's sister was very fond of candy. She did not intend to eat her chocolate bunny, but when, after day, she saw that chocolate Easter bunny sitting on the window sill, staring out, that little sister grew sick and hungry.

"I—I feel that I must take a bite of him!" she whispered. The chocolate bunny heard and said:

"Oh, I don't want to be eaten!" he thought.

But being unable to talk girl language, he couldn't tell little sister not to eat him. Nearer and nearer she tiptoed toward the chocolate rabbit, looking at him hungrily.

"Oh, I just could eat you all up!" she sighed. The chocolate rabbit shivered.

"Now the little girl's mother had told her she must not touch brother's chocolate bunny, but the little girl forgot. Not only did she touch the candy rabbit, but she lifted him up, and she touched tongue to the tip of his chocolate nose.

"Oh, she's kissing me!" thought the chocolate rabbit. Well, that is better than being eaten!"

"I'd like to eat you, but I don't dare," whispered the little girl. "But I can taste of you with my tongue!"

And this she did. She kissed off a little bit of sweet chocolate. "Oh, that's good!" sighed the little girl.

ASKED TO SUPPORT B.C. PRODUCTS WEEK

Sidney Board of Trade Hears Report on Mill Bay Ferry

Special to The Times
The Sidney Board of Trade at its adjourned monthly meeting on Tuesday received a communication in favor of the B.C. Products week next week.

The industrial committee reported that the promoters of the new industry at Roberts Bay for the reduction of dog fish into fish meal and fish oil had commenced work on the plant, and that the necessary license had been received from the Dominion Department of Marine and Fisheries. The plant will commence operation as soon as the new machinery arrives. Further steps will be taken by the committee to interest other manufacturers to locate in the district.

MILL BAY FERRY
The Mill Bay committee reported as follows:
"As you are aware the Mill Bay Ferry scheme has been before the board for many years. In fact, the idea was put forth by Mr. M. B. Jackson about 1917. I need not tell you how long ago the many resolutions were passed about three years ago the idea was taken up by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, but no practical solution was formed till last fall, when among several proposals put forth, one by the Cascade Towing and Freighting Company formed the basis of negotiations. The company is prepared to operate an all-year-round ferry service from Mill Bay to the Saanich Peninsula, on the only condition, that landing facilities be provided. The question was then taken up with the Provincial Government and as the result, an arrangement was made whereby the ferry company undertook to pay $1,000 per annum as rent for five years to the Government, for the use of the wharf. Business men of Victoria were invited to bid the necessary funds for the company.

In regard to the location on the peninsula, which we are interested, the first location proposed was Cole Bay, but by lack of depth and presence of boulders it was found that the wharf should be located at the point giving so much exposure.

There is also the question of road provision, although that could have been taken care of if other conditions had been favorable.

Deep Cove has been tried, but distance is against that site, besides other difficulties and various other reasons such as Mt. Newton Cross Road had a very steep grade, the location decided upon is only three quarters of a mile across the Inlet. No provision has to be made for roads nor any appropriation of land. All the money can be used for the building of the wharf. It is practically the centre of the Peninsula and, as trucking is the chief business looked for, has the added advantage of a short haul to Victoria.

"Any member who wishes further information can call at the offices of the company, Hibben-Bone Bldg. Bldg.

"Your committee was met in the fullest and frankest way, all information, correspondence, contracts and logs being placed before them by the company.

"Your committee submits its report with confidence that the best possible arrangement has been made from a business standpoint."

The committee was thanked for its services.

The Arion Club concert reported a very favorable financial result. The board voted thanks to the Arion Club, and the ladies who had so ably assisted with the refreshments, also the committee.

AUTOMOBILE PARK
The auto park committee reported having secured a five years lease of the park, and the completion of arrangements with Mr. J. Greenwood, who will operate the auto park under contract with the Sidney Board of Trade. The result of this arrangement means that Sidney will now have an up-to-date automobile parking under efficient management. It was reported that the work of improvements were already in hand.

The auto park committee were congratulated on their work and requested to carry on.

POUNDKEEPER
The question of poundkeeper was again discussed, and it was reported that a man had been found willing to undertake the duties if a pound can be found.

It is hoped some arrangements can be made whereby this vexed question will be satisfactorily settled.

Among communications received were several from the North Saanich Women's Institute, one asking for a change on the closing day of June 2. The secretary was instructed to reply that six months' notice was required.

CROW'S NEST PASS
The Crow's Nest Pass Agreement rates were discussed, and the board voted to record against its restoration as an unjust discrimination against British Columbia. The secretary was instructed to forward the resolution to C. H. Dickie, M.P. for Nanaimo.

TWO NANAIMO TEAMS WIN HONORS IN FIRST AID
Nanaimo Wins Provincial Championship
Western Fuel Junior Team Wins Wallace Nesbitt Trophy

Hon. William Sloan, as President of the B.C. Division of the St. John Ambulance Association, has received the statement of awards for the recent first aid competitions in St. John Ambulance work, conducted by Col. C. A. Hodgetts, M.D., on his recent visit to British Columbia.

In connection with the Provincial trophy, it is explained by Secretary H. W. Edvardson, that the marks gained by the Nanaimo A. team winners of the trophy, count towards the contest for the Montclair-Dunsmuir trophy, no further being made, each Provincial winner having a chance for the national honors.

Gold and silver medals are carried respectively with the first and second placings for the Wallace Nesbitt (Junior) trophy.

The placings are as follows:

CHANGE IN DIVORCE LAW IS DISCUSSED
Sub-committee of Commons Considers Innocent Parties' Right of Remarriage

Ottawa, May 29.—The question whether a divorce bill should grant to the innocent party the right to marry again is now being considered by the Private Bills Committee of the House of Commons. The Senate, where divorce bills originate, has this year, altered the form of the bill in several respects, the chief being that the usual section granting to the innocent party the right of remarriage has been dropped.

The whole question has been referred to a sub-committee for consideration and report.

NEW SERIAL STORY

The Black Gang

By CYRIL McNEILE, "Sapper"

Author of "Bull-dog Drummond," "No Man's Land," etc.

"Who are they?" asked Janet, as they entered their sitting-room.

"That square-jawed man is John Pender," answered a cigar. "Worth about three millions. He's good for dining with, though I'm not over here on any side-shows."

"And then for two hours until he got up and rang the bell, the Reverend Theodosius remained engrossed in work; while his little Janet, lying on the sofa, looked considerably more bored than one would have expected a vicar's daughter even to possess. And occasional surges of laughter seemed to prove that Guy de Maupassant appeals to a more Catholic audience than he would have suspected."

She was knitting decorously when the waiter came in, and her father ordered a little supper to be sent up.

"Some chicken, please, and a little foie gras. I am expecting a friend very soon—so lay for three. Some champagne—yes, Perrier J. & Co. will do. I'm afraid I don't know very much about wine. And a little Vichy water for my daughter."

The waiter withdrew, and the Reverend Theodosius chuckled. "There's a very good bath you can empty it down, my dear," he said. "But I don't think a little Janet should drink champagne so late. It might make her head go funny."

She smiled and then grew serious. "What time do you expect Zadowa?"

"He should have been here by now. I don't know why he's late. It's not only for a short while."

"Did you see him this afternoon?"

"No. I was down at the office, but only for a short while. The sound of voices outside the door caused Janet to resume her knitting, and the next moment Count Zadowa was announced. For an appreciable time after the waiter had withdrawn he stood staring at them; then a smile crossed his face.

"Magnificent," he murmured. "Superb. Madame, I felicitate you. Well, though I know your powers, this time you have exceeded yourself."

"Cut that out, and get to business," returned little Janet. "I'm tired."

"But should we be interrupted," remarked the Reverend Theodosius, "we have just returned from an extensive tour in the famine-stricken area round Vienna and smiled again. "Get on, get on," he said quietly.

"And now we will certainly get to business. For I have the most wonderful news for you, my dear."

A warning gesture from the girl announced the arrival of supper, and for a while the conversation turned on the rival merits of different types of soup kitchen. "It was not until the outer-door finally closed behind the waiter that the Reverend Theodosius bit the end of another cigar and stared at his visitor with eyes from which every trace of kindness has vanished.

"It's about time you did have some good news, Zadowa," he snapped. "Anything more damnable than this, but than the way you've let this so-called Black Gang do you in, I've never heard of."

But the other merely smiled quietly.

"I admit it," he murmured. "Up to date they had scored a faint measure of success, exaggerated, my friends, greatly exaggerated by the papers. To-night came the reckoning, which incidentally is the reason why I am a little late. To-night"—he leaned forward impressively—"the leader of the gang himself honored me with a visit. And the leader will lead no more."

"You killed him," said the girl, helping herself to champagne.

"I did," answered the Count. "And without the leader I think we can ignore the gang."

"That's alright as far as it goes," said the Reverend Theodosius in a slightly mollified tone. "But have you covered all your bases? In this country the police get peevish over murder."

The Count gave a self-satisfied smile.

"Not only that," he remarked, "but I have made it appear as if he had killed himself. Listen, my friends, and I will give you a brief statement of the events of the past few days. It was the day before the affair of Sheffield which caused such a commotion in the papers, that I suddenly found out that the leader of this gang had discovered my headquarters in Hoxton. I was actually talking to that wretched man latter in my office at the time, when I heard outside the call of an owl. Now from the information I had received, that was the rallying call of his gang, and I dashed into the passage. Sure enough, standing by the door at the end was a huge man covered from head to foot in black. Whether it was bravado that made him give that cry or whether it was a ruse to enable me to see me in immaterial. Now as I say—he is dead. But—and this is the point—it made me decide that the office there, convenient though it was, would have to be given up. There were far too many incriminating documents to allow me to run the risk of a police raid; and since I frankly admit now that I was not at all sure what were the relations between this gang and the police, I decided to move my headquarters."

Count Zadowa helped himself to a sandwich before continuing, with a pleasant feeling that the motionless attention of the Reverend Theodosius was a compliment to his powers as a raconteur. And as the hunchback reflected complacently, there was no falling off in this story—no "Some chicken, please, and a little foie gras."

"To-night," he continued, slipping his glass, "I was completing the final sorting out of my papers with my secretary, when the electric warning siren on my desk glowed red. I was in the office was empty, and the red light meant that someone had opened the door outside. I heard nothing, save a sound of footsteps, and I switched off every important paper, switched off all lights, and went out through the secret door, which was waiting for me as a raucous note. And as the hunchback reflected complacently, there was no falling off in this story—no "Some chicken, please, and a little foie gras."

"When attacked by pain in the back (lumbago), or limbs, neuritis, or shooting pains anywhere, it indicates usually that the kidneys are not working properly—not eliminating as they should the poisonous uric acid from the blood.

You may be nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, spots appearing before the eyes, and lacking all ambition. The latest and most effective means of overcoming such trouble is to drink plenty of water between meals and to take a single An-uric (anti-uric-acid) tablet before each meal for a while.

An-uric was originated at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., by Dr. Pierce, Pres., after observation and treatment of thousands of kidney cases. Get An-uric at any drug store or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., for a trial package. (Advt.)

GEN. MCRAE TELLS ESQUIMALT VOTERS ABOUT PROVINCIALS

Third Party Chieftain Addressed Big Meeting at Rex Theatre

General A. D. McRae, Provincial Party leader, had a heart-reception last night from over 250 Esquimalt voters, when he addressed a meeting in the Rex Theatre.

On the platform with the General were Capt. R. P. Matheson, Provincial Party candidate in Esquimalt riding and Alderman A. E. Todd, one of the candidates in Victoria City. W. H. H. Cochrane, president with a most orderly meeting only mildly interrupted by a questioner of General McRae, seeking his views as to labor, land and Orientals.

Introducing General McRae, the chairman, introduced the Provincial Party as an able business man, with a great record of essential work well done.

General McRae declared he was saying nothing of his war record as a business organizer, believing that "the men entitled to talk are the men who went over the top and they are saying nothing at all about it."

Delighted with the large audience, Gen. McRae failed to understand the growing interest in him, "save on grounds of curiosity to view what the remains of the look like since I have been undergoing bombardment."

MUST DESTROY FIRST

"The men behind the old political organizations loudly proclaim that no housecleaning is necessary. We believe such action is essential, and further, we believe cleaning from the inside to be impossible, so we must start from the outside and tear those barnacle encrusted political structures down," said the General amid applause.

"You are asked to give the old parties your approval. What does that mean? We have become too used to consulting political parties for private profit.

"The time has come when we must re-establish the old sound idea that public office is a public trust."

IN ALMOST ALL RIDINGS

"By to-morrow evening, the last of our nominations, we will have fifty-six or forty-seven candidates in the field in the forty-eight constituencies, men of the most prominent type and holding the trust of their communities.

"On the provincial platform, as candidates, we have eight of the foremost labor men in the Province, fourteen farmers, two doctors, two rising lawyers and the rest are business men of the highest type," declared the General.

UNSYMPATHETIC PRESS

"The problem which the Provincial Party has had from the outset has been to get to the public the real information, and in that work we have been greatly handicapped by the attitude of the press. Lincoln, I think,

"TIZ" GLADDENS SORE, TIRED FEET

"Tiz" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters and bunions.

"Tiz" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "Tiz" brings restful foot comfort. "Tiz" is wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Your feet just tingling for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight.

Get a box of "Tiz" now from any drug or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. (Adv't.)

said, 'give the people a light and they will find a way,' and if the people could, in the past, have had the real information before them, this Province would not have strayed so far away from its own best interest.

UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCES

"We have held nearly 700 meetings in this great experiment of telling the people the truth. I am a business man and have had some peculiar and unpleasant experiences as a result. For instance, over in the Legislature, because of our work in getting news to the people, the Government put through an Act declaring any audacious enough to question their acts was in turn to be quizzed, even to the day of his birth.

"So I went home, took a few days off, and they could ask me nothing, all I could do was slip in a dozen words about vast Liberal and Conservative campaign funds and was hurriedly told to step down," said the General amid laughter.

NO LABEL SUIT YET

"Then there was Mr. Sloan's promise to sue me; I've never seen the writ yet, don't expect to until two days before the election, too late to have friend Sloan up for discovery and give you the facts.

"These phony label suits are nothing new in this Province, even Premier Oliver has indulged in the pastime, with the usual abandonment after the election.

PORT MANN EXPLAINED

General McRae declared the Port Mann Towasse charges that he had made $1,500,000 from that flotation were incorrect. "The whole affair was owned by Mackenzie and Mann and no one could say he had sold anyone a lot or advised any such purchase.

Davidson & McRae, his firm, had been fiscal agents for Mackenzie & Mann, but had made a heavy loss on the deal, and he, the General, as an inactive and unwilling partner, had been required to bear one-third of the loss suffered by his firm.

General McRae denounced Premier Oliver for charging him with heavy profit making and basing those charges on Land Registry records.

"I have no such business methods. My name as purchaser was used to conceal during accumulation the real railway ownership of those lands, making the obvious fictitious price of $1 mentioned in the deeds.

"Another charge was for nearly a million dollars consideration. That was not cash, but shares in the land company, in which I had not a dollar of interest, and which I sold to the Mackenzie & Mann operation, and the Premier knows it, and I have let him run along and hang himself with his fake discoveries."

THREW MONEY TO FISHES

General McRae declared he was a loser on the whaling company venture, had kept his shares and never passed on his losses in any venture to any other man's shoulders.

An interrupter asked: "What of the Chinamen?" and General McRae declared: "I happen to be the hon. president of the Asiatic Exclusion League and could talk on that subject for a week. There is no manufacturer in the Province would dare refuse to replace ten per cent. of his Orientals per year. But what's the use? Those Chinamen would only go into some other occupation. The best solution I know is, load up a couple of trains each week with Orientals and send them to Ontario. It will be the best investment you ever made, by opening the eyes of Eastern Canada to this peculiarly B.C. problem.

"I'll say this, I have never had a Chinaman in my direct employ or around my place.

The same interrupter asked Gen. McRae to send the Chinamen out of his mills, and the speaker cordially agreed "we will gladly do so when you get the white labor and show us how to keep the Chinese out of the other fellow's job." He declared he was not now in direct management of his lumber concerns.

PURSE PAINS

Gen. McRae touched upon his campaign contributions of $1,000. "Now that means me, as a Scotsman, a very great pain. When I went into this thing I was pretty green, didn't know what it meant. When I went around the country and saw conditions, I found it impossible to quit putting up the money to pay for the meetings.

"We have been told that the delegates to our Vancouver convention had their expenses paid. That is untrue save in this instance, two delegates from the Peace River had their expenses granted, and who would reimburse them under those conditions?"

Speaking of the provincial platform, he compared it with the Liberal and Conservative situation. "Liberals have nothing save their record and beer money to put before you. Bowser has brought out, at various times, a number of planks, has a collection of lumber in case, and does not intend to stand on any of it anyway. I think our platform is a token of our sincerity to the people. It won't please everyone, being admittedly a compromise," he said.

Touching on land settlement, Gen. McRae objected to the Pattullo scheme of bringing Danes out to Stuart Lake and locating them forty-five miles from roads or railway.

"It will be cheaper to move them to the vacant $8,000,000 Oliver irrigation scheme or to Sumas and its drainage lands, which cost you $5,000,000. He also described the crofter scheme as "another silly thing to do."

Mr. McRae said, "I am a Scot, who was, 'in effect, betting the Scotsmen $50 they will stay up the coast one winter, and the Minister is going to lose."

TIMBER AND THE GENERAL

"There has been a lot of talk about timber and me, there is now. I'm charged with seeking office to steal your timber. Lord bless you, if I were to steal timber from you, I would be behind a door with Bill or John, and who'd I have your timber.

"What I want is to see our resources properly used, so bringing some people here. And maybe, when that happens, I will be able to sell some of the newcomers some of the too much timber I already have."

TAX MINE PROFITS ONLY

Touching on development of mineral resources, Gen. McRae declared he had no "hot cash" to invest in any of his mining ventures, but he hadn't been found out yet. He regretted the disappearance of the prospector, considered annoying restrictions should be cancelled and the prospector encouraged, at a cost estimated small compared to the essential services rendered the country. "I think we could well afford to forego taxation on the mining man and his properties, being content to tax his profits.

"We have to give the mining man a more than ordinary business deal, and then to wipe the hazard of the work, I am sure we shall get a lot of development and a lot of money into the Province to be used.

DEBT DISCUSSED

"There is no magic wand to cure things when the Provincials get into power. It will take hard-headed work, and we want in this Province is another Tallow; it was after he got out the deficits began. Mr. Bowser did a good job, but he left millions in his last year. Then Mr. Oliver got into his seat, grabbed the reins in the same place, said giddap, and went to the rescue of the millions of millions of more debts."

Gen. McRae declared that, including Provincial debt, he left a deficit of $12,000,000, and that the Home Bank-Industries Board loans were guaranteed but less interest paying investments, had accumulated enough to pay the debt to bring the total to $71,000,000.

"Cabinet Ministers tell you this Province will have to continue borrowing and so it will if you return the Liberals.

OTTAWA TO RESCUE

"My opinion is that eighty per cent. of the people of this Province already made up their minds to have a change. The local Government has sent out the call to Ottawa, and those Federal hired men of ours are coming to the rescue of their friends," he said.

He described the Provincial Party's effort as the only one of its kind in the history of North America, and if failure were possible, a serious condition would exist, backed as the movement has been by 35,000 voting members and 200 active unpaid workers of prominence.

"It is the sign of the end of the old machines which has resulted in the muster of the Ottawa clans to the rescue."

CAPT. MATHESON

Capt. R. P. Matheson, Provincial candidate in Esquimalt, who preceded General McRae, closed an outline of Provincial Party aims by crediting Premier Oliver with being five-sixths of the Government, and coupled with this, Premier Oliver's assertion that the Provincial Party was no independent affair, but at the beck and call of General McRae, "as he put up the money."

Miss Marie McLaughlin sang delightfully between the speeches, the audience applauding with enthusiasm and insisting upon encores.

ANCIENT HISTORY

Alderman A. E. Todd spoke briefly upon the platform of the Provincial Party. He recalled that the fifty-five years ago the Government of that day had promised the Port Renfrew settlers a wagon road from Victoria.

"And that road is not existing yet, despite the promises of the old parties. Now I will pledge the Provincial Party to nothing, but will pledge myself to this, that I will make the lives of all Provincial Party executives miserable until that road is completed and a logging railway is operating to bring that fine timber to your mills," he said.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

UPPER MOUNTAIN

General McRae declared the Upper Mountain charges that he had made $1,500,000 from that flotation were incorrect. "The whole affair was owned by Mackenzie and Mann and no one could say he had sold anyone a lot or advised any such purchase.

Davidson & McRae, his firm, had been fiscal agents for Mackenzie & Mann, but had made a heavy loss on the deal, and he, the General, as an inactive and unwilling partner, had been required to bear one-third of the loss suffered by his firm.

EDUCATIONAL WORK IN WEST CHINA

Parker A. Bayne, Professor of Biology, Spends Two Days Here

Useful educational work is being done among the Chinese in Seachuan province, West China, according to Parker A. Bayne, of Toronto, who is Professor of Biology in the West China Union University at Cheng-tu. Mr. Bayne arrived with his family on the Empress of Asia on Monday, and spent two days here, leaving for the East yesterday afternoon. He has been sixteen years in China, and now goes to Ontario to take advantage of a post graduate Rockefeller Scholarship.

The university is divided into five faculties—arts, science, medicine, theology and dentistry; and he is a lecturer on the science and medical side. The distance he is located from Shanghai may be gauged by the fact that he had a five day trip by native chair to the Yangtze River, and then 150 miles by native boat, and 1,300 miles by river steamer. The Spring freshets being at their worst on the way down, considerable difficulty was experienced in the rapids and canons of the upper river reaches. The up-steamer, they were due to meet met with an accident, while that one which was following them was completely destroyed when she foundered in the rapids.

There has been a good deal of brigandage down stream recently, Mr. Bayne said, and the river steamers have armored shields for protection of the passenger using them, which are attached along the sides of the vessels to protect against rifle fire. The forces of Sun Yat Sen have been dominant in the province until recently, but recently Wu Yi Fu's men took over the control. When he left, the feeling towards foreigners was not too good, the status of Caucasians having seriously deteriorated since the war, the Russians and Germans having lost prestige, and as a consequence the effect on other nationalities has been detrimental, Mr. Bayne said.

TWO EX-ONTARIO CIVIL SERVANTS ARE SENT UP FOR TRIAL

Toronto, May 29.—E. V. Donnelly and H. R. Thomas, chief clerk and clerk, respectively, in the Ontario Provincial Secretary's Department, were committed for trial by Magistrate Edmund Jones here yesterday on charges of stealing $8,128.75, and destroying, altering and mutilating books, papers and valuable securities with intent to defraud, making false entries in cash books, etc.

The Crown put in evidence to show that Donnelly's yearly salary was $2,300 and Thomas's $1,200, less contributions to the superannuation fund. Bail was renewed.
