Double rations are allowed to the Major General commanding the Army, to officers in command of Military Departments, to the commanding officers of permanent or fixed posts garrisoned with troops, and of arsenals.

Commanding Officer of a Company is entitled to $10 per month for responsibility of arms and clothing.

Officers' subsistence is commuted at twenty cents per ration; forage $8 per month for each horse actually owned and reported in service. Every commissioned officer below the rank of Brigadier General is entitled to one additional ration per day for every five years' service.

Officers are entitled to the pay of a private soldier, $2 50 per month for clothing, and one ration per day for each private servant actually employed.

One dollar per month is to be retained from the pay of each private soldier until the expiration of his term of enlistment, and twenty-five cents per month from each non-commissioned officer, musician and private for the support of the Military Asylum. Two dollars per month for the second enlistment and $1 per month additional pay for each subsequent continuous enlistment is allowed to each enlisted man.
