organized under the laws of the United States, any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, a substantial portion of the business of which consists of receiving deposits or exercising fiduciary powers similar to those permitted to national banks under Section 11 (k) of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, and which is supervised and examined by State or Federal authorities, having supervision of banks.

2. The term "bank holding company" as used in paragraph 3 below means a person which is engaged, either directly or through subsidiaries, primarily in the business of owning securities of banks for the purpose and with the effect of exercising control, and does not have any other substantial business either directly or through subsidiaries.

3. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in the foregoing requirements as to exhibits or in items 44 through 51 when a registration statement on Form E-1 is filed by a bank holding company, the special requirements set forth below shall be applied:

(a) Statements of any bank subsidiary need not be certified, and are not to be consolidated with statements of the registrant.

(b) The statements of one or more bank subsidiaries may be combined in a single statement, provided such statement shows the minority interest separately and eliminates any interbank items within the group.

Statements of bank subsidiaries shall be prepared from and in substantially the same form as the "Reports of Condition" and the "Reports of Earnings and Dividends" prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency or Federal Reserve Board or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Such statements shall be accompanied by the schedules called for in such "Reports of Condition" except Schedules A, B, C, and D. The schedules required by this form in support of required financial statements as to unconsolidated subsidiaries need not be furnished as to any bank subsidiary. In case any bank subsidiary did not report to one of such Federal authorities, the financial data concerning such subsidiary shall be drawn from the reports required by its respective State authority, and shall be commensurate with that required concerning a subsidiary that does report to one of such Federal authorities. Each statement as to a bank subsidiary and each combined statement as to such subsidiaries shall be supplemented by an attached statement showing the following:

(1) Book value, and market or, if there is no market, appraised value, separately stated, of: (i) direct obligations of, and obligations fully guaranteed by, the United States Government; (ii) investments in affiliated companies principally engaged in holding banking premises or other real estate; and (iii) other bonds, stocks and securities.

(2) Estimated losses not elsewhere provided for on the following bank assets, separately stated: (i) loans and discounts; (ii) bank premises; (iii) other real estate; (iv) other assets.

(3) The total of loans and other advances to officers and directors of the registrant and security holders named in answer to Item 16 of the registration statement.

(c) No statements need be filed for unconsolidated subsidiaries of the registrant (other than bank subsidiaries) when the aggregate investments not consolidated are not significant in respect of (1) the assets they represent, and (2) the sales or operating revenues of such non-consolidated subsidiaries.

(d) The special requirements set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above shall also be applied with respect to financial statements required for any bank or bank holding company the securities or business and assets of which have been or are to be acquired.

(e) In lieu of any schedule with respect to investments in affiliates otherwise required in support of the balance sheet of a bank holding company, there shall be furnished the two following schedules:
