APPENDIX D.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF CANADA.

RECORD BRANCH, January, 1901.

To the Honourable
The Secretary of State.

SIR,—I have the honour to lay before you the following statement of work performed in this branch of your department during the year ending the 31st December 1900.

Section A.—The prolonged illness of a member of the staff has retarded somewhat the calendar begun in 1899, but since he resumed his duties in September last, the work has progressed normally.

Section B.—The number of requisitions received and attended to, during the year, is one hundred and ninety four (194) involving the search of one thousand and thirty two documents (1,032). In nine hundred and sixty-six cases (966) they were found, and in sixty-six (66), they were not found in the office. Amongst the documents searched for, one hundred and eighty four (184) were printed papers, of which number one hundred and fifty six (156) were in the office. It is worthy of notice, and at the same time gratifying, that the greater part of the documents asked for are anterior to confederation. In fact, nearly one half of those belong to the first period; that is before the union of Canada (1841), and the number of men of letters, students of history and professional men requiring those searches is yearly increasing.

Section C.—The two employees in that section have been somewhat disturbed in the work of classification to attend other duties during the illness of the member of the staff above mentioned, but nevertheless the progress has been satisfactory, and during the year, eight thousand six hundred and forty six (8,646) papers were by them examined, indexed in triple form and distributed in one thousand eight hundred and fifty three files.

Early in January, Convict files of 1896 were received from the Correspondence branch of the department and an inventory thereof made.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. AUDET,
Keeper of the Records.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ISSUE OF PASSPORTS.

The following is a synopsis of the regulations governing the issue of passports approved by His Excellency the Governor General in Council on May 13, 1893 :—

1. Applications for passports must be made in writing and inclosed in a cover addressed to 'The Honourable the Secretary of State, Ottawa.'

2. The charge for a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is $4. The fee payable must accompany the application. Postage stamps will not be received in payment.

3. Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to persons naturalized in the Dominion of Canada; they are not limited in point of time, but are available for any time or for any number of journeys to foreign countries. When the party is a 'naturalized British subject' he will be so designated in his passport.

4. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any chartered bank in the Dominion of Canada; or upon the production of a certificate of identity, which may be obtained at the department, signed by any mayor, magistrate, justice of the peace, minister of religion, physician, surgeon, solicitor or notary resident in the Dominion of Canada. In certain cases, the applicant's certificate of birth must be produced in addition to the certificate of identity.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on it, must be forwarded to the Department of the Secretary of State, with the certificate of identity granted in his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such naturalized British subject to sign the passport in his presence.

6. A passport cannot be issued by the Department of the Secretary of State on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British mission or consulate; a passport cannot be issued abroad to a colonial naturalized British subject; except for a direct journey to the United Kingdom or to the colony where he has been naturalized.

7. The bearer of every passport issued by the Department of the Secretary of State should sign his passport as soon as he receives it; without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, or the Kingdom of Roumania at any time in the course of their travels, should first have their passports visés at the nearest Russian, Turkish or Roumanian consulate as the case may be. The addresses in London of these consulates are respectively as follows :—The Russian Consulate, 17, Great Winchester Street, E. C.; the Consulate General of the Sublime Porte, 7, Union Court, Old Broad Street; the Roumanian Consulate-General, 37, Old Jewry, E. C. Persons proposing to enter Germany by way of France should also have their passports visés at the German Embassy in London or Paris. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the diplomatic or consular agents of such country, except as an additional precaution, which is recommended in the case of passports of an old date.

64 VICTORIA, A. 1901

N.B.—Although British subjects are now free to enter Belgium, France, Holland, Italy, Denmark, Sweden and Norway without passports, and the rules about passports have been virtually relaxed in other countries, nevertheless colonial British subjects about to visit foreign countries are recommended not to omit to provide themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be convenient as offering a ready means of identification, and more particularly when letters have to be claimed at a poste restante. For residence in certain districts of Germany or Switzerland a passport is indispensable.

JOSEPH POPE,

Under Secretary of State.

OTTAWA, October, 1896.

NOTE.—Naturalized British subjects should bear in mind that, under the terms of their passports, they are not entitled to British protection when within the limits of the Foreign State to which they originally belonged, unless they have ceased to be subjects of that State, in the manner prescribed by the laws thereof, or in pursuance of a treaty or convention to that effect.
