think no better and no worse of it, for its being a patent medicine. I look at it as an article of commerce and domestic convenience, and do not hesitate to say it is the best-made Pill in the kingdom : a muscular purge, an mucous purge, and a hydrogone purge combined, and their effects properly coutolled by a dirigent and corri-gent. That it does not commonly produce baemorrhoids, like most aloctic pills, I attribute to its being theroughly soluble, so that no undissolved particles adhere to the mucous membrane." T. C. Insurance Companies, Shipping Companies, Hotel Keep-ers, Merchants, Traders, and others who wish to force their business on the notice of the public, all alike value the privilege of Railway Station Advertising. There is no reason why the privilege should not be also especially valuable to Advertisers in India. Looking to the great and increasing number of Native Railway passengers on the two trunk lines of Western India, native merchants, traders, &c., (seeing that they have the privilege of ad-vertising in their own language) should find the publication of their announcements at Railway Stations a lucra tive means of extending their bysiness. By the latest published returns the number of passengers by the Bombay, Baroda, and Central India Revilway in the week ending 17th November was 29,087; and on the G. I. P. BOMBAY RECLAMATION COMPANY. To the Editor of the Bombay Guzette.
Str.,—As I think the article under the abore heading copied into your journal from the last number of the Bombay Builder doos the Engineering Department an injustice, 1 hope you will insert into your columns the following explanation, which will show how far the en-gineers are to blame for the mismanagement of the Company, and the position they held. The Builder is, 1 admit, correct in denouncing the system adopted of ordering plant and stores from England before matured plans were got up; but who is responsible for this? The promo-ters and directors pressed, and I may say insisted, upon the engineers, at once giving them " an idea" of their requirements, and ordered the articles named by the engineers, as well as many others, which the manager thought would be necessary. The dear boy wants to persuade the people that public Companies are more merciful than Go-vorment in dealing with bunder fares, —actual-ly maintaining wharfage and godown charges considerably below those of Government, and scattering all sorts of bunder blessings about. "Charles" shinks he has clinched the argument in favour of public Companies. He has almost persuaded an individual so" hard in the horr" and suspicious as the undersigned. Let me ex-plain to my young acquaintance how he may plain to my young acquaintance how he may convert the tough sceptics of Bombay. He should tell us why the Elphinstone Land and should tell us why the Elphinstone Land and Rs. 20,000 in Government 54 per cent. securi-Press Company's Bunder charges are "so and ties and Rs. 20,25 in cash, against known so," and not 50 or 100 per cent. in excess of pre-liabilities to the amount of Rs. 19,477-14.8 with

In the event of a civil war the Christians in In the event of a civil war the Christians in In the event of a civil war the Christians in In the event of a civil war the Christians in In the event of a civil war the Christians in Turkey may depend upon having the goal wishes of their coreligionists in Roumaries, but they cannot count upon any active assistance. If Austria still possessed her former prestige in the ower, her geographical position alone would point her out as a natural arbiter in the approaching conflict, but the present state of the Empire will prevent Austria from incerfor-ing in the affairs of any of her neighbours with-out an imperative necessity. Prussia has ne ing in the affairs of any of her neighbours with-out an imperative necessity. Prussia has no real interest in the matter, and is no mach engaged in consolidating her new power to desire any further complications in Europe. England and France are both anxious for peace. With the exception of Prussia, the armies of Europe are not yet armed with, and trained to the use of, the weapon with which future campaigns are to be decided; these armies, besides, are being re-organized. Every man on the Continent is to be made a strained soldier, and it will take years to carry out the new system.

new system. It may be fairly presumed, then that fof the first year at least-the Christians and Mussul-mans in Turkey will be left to fight their battles mans in Turkey will be left to fight their battles -without any foreign interference. Whether the threatening civil war will bottal-ly be waged, and with what result, depends mainly upon the settlement of the dispute now pending between Turkey and Servia. The Serbes will never be satisfied till they have been put on an equal footing with the Roumans, and the Turks seen resolved to make no further concessions. Backed by Servia, the insurrection of the Christian subjects of Turkey—the Rayahs —will be very formidable ; without that aid they will probably be quelled after a more or less protracted struggle, if they take place at al.

If the Eiphinstone Land and Press Company are very meroifal towards commerce, and dars increase their bunder charges, then the share holders might want to know why the deuce they don't increase the revenue at once; but if the Company cannot demand higher rates upon the tariff, how shall young "Charles" ask the public to bless this Esan? I Abaid like to address "Charles" upon the etceteras, the roundabouts, and the necessarily mescaled privileges which is seen to belong to privace boundars, but I fast to over-dose him, knowing that the law forbids even the kind act of "cohoking a dog with build and Baturday.

would have usen simply a pointical crime. Cleacency is one thing, and a weak fostering of the principles of sedition quite another. Still, it cannot be denied that as far as regards legal technicalities the President's policy was much nearer to the letter of the Constitution than that of Congress, nor that Congress has practically been obliged to override both Constitution and President to obtain its way as There was, when the cession took place, an exhoe-rant outburst of exultation, and prophecies of a glorious future abounded on every lip. The new own Parliament, the practical tribunal in exe-tion to the prophecies of a glorious future abounded on every lip. The new King himself declared his ambition to create in own Parliament, the practical tribunal in exe-citative, no less than in legislative, matters. It is now attempting to check the exercise of the strictly executive power of the President both as regards pardons and appointments. In other words, Congress is statching an al-most English Parliamentary power for itself inst as we are crying out that our own Parlie.

through whose egotism, jealousy, and incapacity the country has seen its allairs so grossly maladministered. There was a depth of auarchy most English Parliamentary power for itself inst as we are crying out that our own Parlia-ment should resign much of its power in favour of irremovable ministers like Mr. Johnson and Mr. Seward, And this is the more instructive, because this effort at a silent revolution in America is made under discouragements and in spite of obstructions which have no mistence for us. The policy of Congress may be said to be a case of the 'pursit of parliamentary government under difficulties,' — and these no slight difficulties. If the United States succeed in their present policy of gaining a much more substantial power United States succeed in their present policy of gaming a much more substantial power for Congress than they have ever yet had, it will general understanding in Europe, Greece should be making progress, and enjoying the benefits of a more fixed, firm, and beneficent Government.

It is a treasure of classic tradition, a repository of

Imagine the North British Railway Company governing, or trying to govern, its policy through the directors it has just actually turned out, but without power to turn them out, for three years to come, and without power of any kind to convince them that their policy was disbonest and bad. Yet such very nearly is the position of the Congress in relation to the President and his secretaries. Congress, so far as it exerts execu-tive power at all, exerts it against the theory of the Constitution, by roundabout devices contrived specially to swade it. Of course it is not nearly so strong,—nor has it such a clear sense of res-ponsibility to the people, as if it were chosen ex-pressly to exercise the powers which by hook and by crook it very justifially usurps. And there is another great source of parlia-mentary weakness in Congress which is indeed different source of the heavy hand of a Pacha from Con-stantinople. Fearful has been the havoc wrought of whether the heavy hand of a Pacha from Con-stantinople. Fearful has been the havoc wrought
