

THE BEE.

PUBLISHED DAILY, BY CHARLES PAYSON.
C. PAYSON & CO., PUBLISHERS.—IT MUST BE PRESENTED TO THE GOVERNOR.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1834.

J. R. DAWSON.

Things to be remembered at the Polls.

Remember that Edward D. White voted in favor of a law calculated to bring distress and ruin upon the people's trustworthiness of our State.

Remember that we sent him to Congress to advocate our views and to represent our wants.

Remember that he said the one and mocked at the other, that John B. Dawson was raised to be a man, we have grown up together, from a dependent province to an independent State.

Remember that he has ever been respected

as a statesman, loved as a man, and honored as a judge.

SECTIONAL DISTRICT:

EE. MARGRUY.

For Congress, Mr. D. CH. GAYARRE,
JAMES BRADFORD,
J. WALKER.

The meetings of AD. EVE, we are given to understand, will be held again after next Sunday evening;

those who have not visited them, should avail themselves of that opportunity; probably the last they may ever have.

The mail yesterday brought Charleston dates to the 23d

Washington to the 15th and Philadelphia to the 15th, affording news of the day preceding.

Some important news in congress of importance.

The president of the U.S. had submitted to the Senate's "protector general's resolution passed by that body," in which he is seen to be assuming authority and power not conferred upon him by law, or that of Coffee; but in the trade are generally of opinion that it will be fully equal to the consumption.

The House is exceedingly masterly and in our judgment, bound to the style of strength and expediency of the day preceding.
