..Tremont Theatre..

There comes a time every year when Boston's theatre-going public simply becomes hungry to see the real sure enough burnt cork minstrel show. This appetite will be satisfied when Mr. Lew Dockstader and his company (numbering 75) begins his annual engagement at this theatre, January 7th. Mr. Dockstader has a capital show this season, plenty of good singers and some clog and wing dancers far above the average. Mr. Dockstader's vocal contributions "Good Morning Ezra" and "Anybody But You" are sure to become popular even more so than his famous "Dark Man Comin' With a Bundle" and "Everybody Works But Father." His skit in which he will be seen as the Editor of the Bungville Corker portrays the troubles of a newspaper man and is bound to be screamingly funny. He is surrounded by an exceptionally clever company, which contains such favorites as Neil O'Brien, Eddie Leonard, Manuel Romaine, The Foley Bros., Mat Keefe, Geo. F. Weller, James B. Bradley and Geo. Dove.

The stage settings are the most sumptuous ever attempted by a minstrel company and will surely delight the eye of the observer.

The sale of seats will begin on Monday, January 1st.

..Tremont Theatre..

It is highly gratifying to announce the extraordinary success which has been achieved in Boston by the production of "Coming Thro' The Rye." This delightful "song-play" has made a hit of the most substantial kind and very justly so, because it is an entertainment of the highest degree of excellence. The newspaper critics, as with a single voice, have declared it to be all that the original announcements had claimed for it which is also a source of gratification to the Tremont Theatre management. This engagement, we regret to say has only two more weeks, including the present to run. If it were possible to effect a continuance of it, it would be prolonged indefinitely. But, previously made contracts render this impossible, and Saturday night, January 5th, will witness the last performance of this delightful musical comedy in this theatre. The seats are now on sale for the remainder of the engagement and it may be taken as a kindly suggestion that all who wish to see this performance, or who wish to advise their friends to see it should make a point of securing seats as early in advance as possible.

Mendelssohn Music Company

Will send free and postpaid to any address a very interesting booklet by Rupert Hughes, author of "American Composers," "Love Affairs of Great Musicians," etc., telling how Rosenthal, the celebrated pianist, was deceived and bewitched by a piano player, how Daniel Frohman, the well known theatrical manager, gained his knowledge of musical masterpieces through the aid of a piano player, and many other facts of surprising interest to anyone with a desire for music, but without the ability or time to become proficient.

The CECILIAN piano player is rapidly dispelling the belief that good music can be produced only through the agency of human fingers. If you want to know ALL about the possibilities of piano players, send us your address at once on a postal card, mentioning this program, and we will forward by return mail "A Causerie on Music" and other literature.
