Rank collar insignia	2 each
Name-tapes	4 sets each
Green undershirt	6 each

b. Wear

(1) Proper wear of the Camouflage Utility Uniform

(a) Design - The camouflage utility uniform is designed for field wear and should be loose-fitting and comfortable. The item selected should be fitted loosely to allow for some shrinkage without rendering the garment unusable.

(b) Blouse - The camouflage blouse will not be tucked into the trousers. Large or heavy objects should not be carried in the pockets.

(c) Trousers - Trousers will be worn around the waist, and the bottom of the leg should reach the floor when not wearing boots. While wearing boots the trousers will be bloused using boot bands to hold in place..

(d) Cover - All personnel, E-4 and above, will wear a subdued cap device on their field cover. No device will be worn over the Eagle Globe and Anchor.

(e) Belt - Navy personnel will wear the issued khaki web belt with gold buckle. The Marine Corps Martial Arts Program has a designated belt ranking system, only those individuals who attend this course and qualify, are authorized to wear the appropriate belt.

(f) Sweater - Navy officer and enlisted personnel may wear the green (Wooley Pulley) or green service sweater with the camouflage utility uniform. The sweater will be worn underneath the camouflage utility blouse with sleeves down.

(g) Raingear - Navy personnel will wear organizational rainwear as issued by the Marine Corps, with the camouflage utility uniform.

(h) Boots - Only USMC issued boots with Eagle Globe and Anchor embossed on the outside of the heel will be worn. Boots will be laced left over right as you look down at it. There will be an identification tag worn in the left boot laces between the 2nd and 3rd eyelet, tucked into leather flap.

(1) Insignia

(a) The rating insignia is worn on the left collar, bisecting the angle of the point of the collar, and equally spaced $\frac{1}{2}$ inch from either side of the collar (see figure 1).

c. Unauthorized wear of the utility uniform.

(1) The wearing of the camouflaged utility uniform and its policies are much like the Navy's Working Uniform. Members are prohibited from wearing the utility uniform as a liberty uniform off-base or during inappropriate circumstances such as:

(a) At restaurants, pizza parlors, bars, lounges, etc.

(b) When dealing with public officials (police, courthouse, attorneys, etc.)

(c) While attending classes or activities, or conducting business at education facilities

(d) At commercial airports / bus stations for travel or entering pick up/drop off areas

(e) At retail/rental stores, shopping malls, and shops for shopping or paying bill

(f) At grocery stores/supermarkets

(g) At movie theaters, mini-golf, or other similar entertainment, recreational or sporting activities

d. Grooming standards/personal appearance.

Members will present the best possible image at all times and continue to set the example in military presence. Members are prohibited from:

(1) Mutilation of the body or any body parts in any manner.

(2) Attaching, affixing or displaying objects, articles, jewelry or ornamentation to, through or under skin, tongue or any other body part. Female members may not wear earrings in utility uniform.

(3) Tattoos or brands on the neck and head. On other areas of the body, tattoos or brands that are prejudicial to good order and discipline and morale or are of a nature to bring discredit upon the Marine Corps are also prohibited.

(4) Eccentric or faddish styles of hair, jewelry, or eyeglasses. The good judgement of all members at all levels is key to enforcement of Marine Corps standards with this issue.

(5) Chewing gum, chewing tobacco, cigarettes or the consumption of food while in formation or walking in uniform

(6) Articles that are not authorized for wear as a part of a regulation uniform will not be worn exposed with the uniform such as: pens, watch chains, backpacks / bags, barrettes / hair ribbons, CD / MP3 players or other similar items.

(7) Pagers and cell phones are not authorized for wear on a regulation uniform unless specifically authorized.

(8) Sunglasses will be conservative in nature and will not be worn indoors or in formations unless authorized by a medical representative.

(9) The wear of clothing articles not specifically designed to be normally worn as headgear (e.g. bandannas, doo rags) is strictly prohibited in civilian attire and regulation uniform.

(10) No part of a prescribed uniform, except those items not exclusively military in character, will be worn with civilian clothing.

e. Care - During washing, drying and finishing cycles, use the lowest possible setting so that at no time will the garment be exposed to temperatures greater than 130 degrees. Some laundry facilities may not press utilities due to potential damage from automated presses. Thus, any pressing required will be the individuals responsibility. The use of starch, sizing and any process that involves dry cleaning or a steam press will adversely affect the treatments and durability of the uniform and is not recommended. These uniforms are designed as a wash and wear uniform. A hand iron set on a low heat may be used.

f. Marking - Enlisted Sailors will plainly and indelibly mark every article of uniform clothing with the owner's name (except for organizational clothing).

(1) Size - Marks will be of a size appropriate to the article of clothing and the space available for marking and will consist of block letters not more than ½ inch in size. Marking machines, stencils, name tapes, or stamps, may be used.

(2) Color - Names are marked in black, on light colored material and utilities, and in white on dark material. Marks will be placed so that they do not show when the clothing is worn.

(3) Location - The precise location for marking the following gear is as follows:

(4) Duffel bag - On the outside of the bag on the bottom

(5) Web belt - On buckle side only, as near to the buckle end as possible

(6) Cap - Inside, on the sweatband to the left

(7) Coats and overcoats - Inside, on the neckband

(8) Drawers - Outside immediately below the waistband, near the front

(9) Gloves - Inside, at the wrist

(10) Shoes and boots - Inside, near the top

(11) Socks - Outside, on top of the foot

(12) Utility blouse - Name-tape sewn above right breast pocket, service tape sewn above left breast pocket

(13) Trousers - Name-tape sewn above right rear pocket

(12) Undershirt - Inside back, near the neck-band under the tag

2. STAND A UNIFORM INSPECTION.

a. Inspection criteria- the inspection criteria covers ten different areas of a uniform. Each area is graded for servicability, proper marking, and proper fitting. Each hit is counted and added up for a total score. No hits is an Outstanding, 1 hit is Excellent, 2 hits is Above Average, 3 hits is Below Average, 4 hits is Unsatisfactory and a failure of the Uniform inspection. The areas that are inspected are:

(1) Cover - This gets checked for serviceabilty, cleanliness, proper fit, proper marking, loose threads hanging down and anything else that does not keep with the good appearance of the uniform.

(2) Dogtags - These will be checked to ensure the member is wearing them and that they are the correct information on the dogtag.

(3) Blouse - This is checked for serviceability, cleanliness, proper fit, proper marking, loose threads hanging down, rating badge and service stripes.

(4) Undershirt - The undershirt is checked for cleanliness, proper marking and proper fit.

(5) Ribbons - Not applicable on utility uniform.

(6) Belt - The belt will be checked for serviceability and cleanliness, proper length, buckle appearance, military alignment and that it is properly marked.

(7) Hygiene - Hygiene will be inspected for proper shave, clean and cut fingernails, fresh haircut, and trimmed mustache.

(8) Trouser - Trousers will be checked for serviceability, proper fit, proper markings, and loose threads.

(9) Shoes - Shoes will be checked for serviceability and proper lacing.

(10) Military Knowledge - Inspector will ask basic military knowledge pertaining to the individual being inspected.
