CHAMBER OF COM. MEETING THIS EVE IN THE PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEES

Municipal Christmas Tree Will Be Discussed; Other Important Matters May Be Considered.

The regular meeting of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce will be held in the public library building this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. There are several matters of importance that will probably be discussed, among them being the proposed municipal Christmas tree, and the proposition of entering a float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. The final report of the general committee having charge of the Community Fall Festival will probably be made at this meeting.

There are some other matters of considerable importance to the community that may be discussed, and a cordial invitation is extended every citizen, whether a member or not, to attend.

The question of the Community Fall Festival for next year will be taken up at this meeting.

NEW LESSONS FOR THE HUNTINGTON INN.

DR. V. J. HOYT AND J. C. ROGERS THE NEW MEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Burns have leased the Huntington Inn to Dr. Vance J. Hoyt of Los Angeles, and J. C. Rogers of the Perris valley, and the new owners will assume control of this well-known hostelry Saturday morning, December 1st.

Dr. Hoyt is a graduate M. D. and osteopath and has been practicing in Los Angeles for about two years, being an energetic young man of pleasing personality.

This action on the part of Mr. Rogers is indicative of his great faith in Huntington Beach, as two weeks ago announcement was made of his backing his step-son, F. J. Alberty, in the purchase of an interest in the Arrow Garage.

Dr. Hoyt states that the Inn will be conducted along similar lines as in the past, and there will be no change in the name.

Mr. Burns states that he and Mrs. Burns will leave soon for Canada, but will still retain an interest in the Health Farm.

A TOBACCOLESS DAY HAS BEEN SUGGESTED.

WOULD MEAN AN ENORMOUS SAVING.

There has been some mention of a "Tobaccoless Day," now that meatless and wheatless days have been established. Some of the women of Huntington Beach have asked the News to suggest a tobaccoless day in this city.

There are some men who could abstain from the use of tobacco for 24 hours, and there are others who would find it very difficult to do so as long as it was on sale. Most of those who confine their use of tobacco to the cigar could assist in a tobaccoless day, but it would be difficult with most of those who use the cigaret, as they would probably rather hear of an eatless day than a cigaretless day, for they could pull along for 24 hours with nothing to eat if they had their usual allowance of cigarets. Will there be a "Tobaccoless Day?"

DONATED RUG TO RED CROSS.

Mrs. H. F. Shorting donated a rug to the Red Cross auxiliary, which was sold for $8, Saturday, and yarn has been purchased with the money.

BUYS A FORD TOURING CAR.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR SETTLES MISUNDERSTANDING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—Beet growers of California were assured fair treatment in marketing their 1918 crops, in a statement made here by Ralph P. Merritt, Federal food administrator for California, to clear up an apparent misunderstanding of the situation by growers.

"Our figures show," Mr. Merritt said, "that with normal production next year, the contract offered by the factories will yield the growers a reasonable profit, except in a few cases that are now being investigated. The refiners are under Federal license and will not be allowed unjust profits."

In the future, a representative of the food administration and one representing the growers will inspect all weights and tests of beets at the factories, Merritt said.

The food administrator declared it was absolutely necessary for California to produce more sugar in 1918 than in 1917 if the Pacific coast is to escape a sugar famine late next year.

The growers have been offered $7 a ton for beets containing 15 per cent sugar, with an upward sliding scale for greater sugar content. On this basis, it was declared, the average return to Southern California growers would be $8.35 a ton.

MOST RANCHERS ARE NOW BUSY PLOWING.

BIG HERDS OF CATTLE IN THE VALLEY.

Although there has been no rain to speak of this fall, the ranchers were never much busier than they are at this time, as a trip through the valley reveals much activity among the tillers of the soil. Most of the growers are working early and late to get their ground stirred before the winter rains begin to fall, so that it will be in condition to hold all the moisture that may subsequently fall upon it.

The ground is being turned with four, five and eight-horse teams and caterpillar engines, and a large amount of the land in the far-famed Santa Ana river valley has already been placed in prime condition for the expected winter precipitation.

Prior to the recent hot days the ground was in fair condition for the plow, but is now somewhat hard and dry in certain sections, but the plowing continues without interruption, and if the fair weather continues for two or three weeks longer most of the bean and beet acreage in the valley will have been plowed and ready for the patter of the rain drops that accompany the long winter nights.

At the present time there are thousands of cattle being fattened on sugar beet tops in the larger fields of this vicinity, and the landscape has the appearance of a great stock range. In a short time there will be trainloads of fat animals being shipped to the big slaughter houses of Los Angeles and Anaheim.

ANAHEIM BAND HERE MONDAY NIGHT.

AN OYSTER SUPPER SERVED THE VISITORS.

There was joint practice by members of the Huntington Beach Municipal Band and members of the Anaheim band, in Odd Fellows' hall, Monday night. An oyster supper was served after the practice work.

The Huntington Beach boys will go to Anaheim for practice one week from next Monday, when the dates will be set for the massed band concert to be given in Huntington Beach, Anaheim, Santa Ana and Orange, the proceeds to go to Red Cross work.

SOME NICE SHOW WINDOWS.

There were some very creditable displays in show windows for the Fall Festival, among which were those of the McElfresh store, M. A. Turner Co., and McKenney & Bentley.

FAIRVIEW FARMS MAN AWARDED FIRST PRIZE

A GREAT EXHIBITION OF FARM PRODUCTS.

FESTIVAL WAS A BIG SUCCESS

George Hall of Fairview Farms, A. J. Young and W. T. Newland Win General Display Premiums.

The Community Fall Festival, held Friday and Saturday of last week, was an unparalleled success, being far and beyond the fondest dreams of any of those who labored so faithfully for the successful termination of the celebration.

There have been celebrations held in Huntington Beach in the past, but it is generally conceded that the one last week was the most successful that has ever been given in this city. Some in the past have been more largely attended than the Fall Festival, but when the community spirit is considered and the benefits that will follow, there is little room for comparison with past events.

When the Festival was first mentioned, there were some who said it was so late in the season there was nothing to exhibit, and nearly everyone admitted that it was too late in the season for much of a display but thought an effort should be made anyway, and the result was an amazing display of almost every conceivable product that can be grown in this section of California.

There was a cash prize of $10 for the best general display of farm products, which was won by George Hall, one of the enterprising ranchers of the Fairview Farms tract on the Newport mesa. The second prize for this section of the exhibit was awarded to A. J. Young, the noted potato expert, the amount being $5, and the third prize went to W. T. Newland, one of the big ranchers of Orange county, formerly president of the First National Bank, and member of county highway commission.

One of the chief attractions of the Festival was the two boxes of apples displayed by Donald J. Dodge of Newport Mesa. Most of those who inspected them stated they were the finest they had seen in California.

The general display by H. B. Woodrough of the same section was a very creditable one. There are certainly some "live-wire" ranchers on the Newport Mesa.

The only other cash prize offered was for the largest pumpkin, being $2.50 by D. W. McDannald, lecturer for Orange county at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and was won by J. O. Pyle of Wintersburg.

It was supposed that A. J. Young would carry off the blue ribbon for the best exhibit of potatoes, and he did so. He had on display two lug boxes filled with the finest specimens of tubers imaginable, and those who were fortunate to see those potatoes will doubtless never forget them. Every potato looked just like the other potatoes, in appearance and size, and it is doubtful if there was more than one ounce difference in the weight of any of the lot.

There was a marvelous display of fancy work, which was really one of the great features of the Festival. No one supposed that there was such a wonderful lot of needle art work in this community. Some who had visited the expositions at San Diego, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle stated they saw nothing that surpassed in quality the exhibit over which Mrs. Edgar Edwards presided.

The most valuable article, and one attracting the most attention was the linen bed spread made by Mrs. L. R. Farwell, valued at $800 to $1,000. Mrs. Farwell used seven dozen spools of linen thread in making this artistic spread.

The bed spread made by Mrs. John Barthole of Wintersburg was a close second with the large number of visitors that thronged the room Friday and Saturday, being valued at about $600. The crocheting of these wonderful spreads required great dexterity.

The largest number of pieces exhibited by one person was the display belonging to Miss Bertha Proctor. The fancy work of Miss Proctor has been admired by her friends for several years, and was greatly admired by those who attended the Festival.

Mrs. George M. Gunn was second, with 26 pieces, and Mrs. Mae Foglar of Westminster was third, with 24. Each of the displays attracted much attention.

The youngest exhibitor was Margaret Shank, who was awarded a ribbon for some knit pieces.

Almost every article on exhibition is worthy of special mention, but it would require a fair-sized book to do so.

There was also a surprisingly fine exhibit in the canned fruit and jelly department, and the first prize for an individual display was won by Mrs. W. S. Hill, who had an exhibit that probably would have captured a blue ribbon at any fair, large or small. Mrs. Hill was also awarded first prize for her display of jelly. Mrs. J. J. Graham was awarded first prize for the general display in this department; Mrs. Rhoda Gerhart, second, and Mrs. E. L. Cassells, third, and they were all fine.

The Thomas Crawford Co. of Anaheim was awarded a special ribbon for orange marmalade and jelly, as was E. L. Pearce for tomatoes.

Jackson's Candy Shop showed enterprise by having a fine display of home-made candies in this department, for which a special ribbon was awarded.

The antiques, shown under the direction of the Woman's Club, with Mrs. Leonard Obar in charge, attracted many visitors and considerable interest. One of the most valuable articles of the collection was a cabinet belonging to Mrs. H. F. Shorting, valued at $1,000. A Bible, published in 1711, the property of F. G. Cook, is said to be worth $1,000. The oldest article in the room was a cradle, owned by Wm. C. O'Connor, and cataloged as being 450 years old. A mirror, by Mrs. Alex. P. Nelson, was 400 years old and a chair 250.

As there were no premiums awarded in this department, no record was kept of the entries, and most of the exhibitors were too modest to place their names on the articles. Otherwise, more information could be given.

TEN YEARS AGO

W. T. Newland returned from the east, where he went in the interest of the Celery Growers' Association, and he has words of encouragement for the growers of this section. He believes that the present poor market in the east will not continue for any length of time. The conditions in the east, Mr. Newland states, are unusual.

The lima bean crop in the peatlands this year has proven very profitable in spite of the fact that the beans were damaged by the wet weather during the harvest last month. The crop will approximate $65 per acre on the 400 acres of bean land this year. Considering the fact that this was the first crop and that a part of the acreage did not yield on account of poor selection of soil and mistakes in cultivation, the average is good. From less than 400 acres threshed by A. L. Whiteside the yield was approximately 6500 sacks, an average of over 16 sacks per acre. On account of financial conditions, there is little demand for beans, and the price is $4 per sack of 80 pounds. At this price the crop is a profitable one, notwithstanding that the beans will have to be hand-picked. Mr. Whiteside threshed 2926 sacks from the 118 acres he farmed himself, an average of 25 sacks per acre. There is talk of a large acreage next year. Those who grew beans this year were Leo Borchard, W. A. Patterson, Robert Gisler, Will Grislet, A. W. Brown, Mrs. L. Bushard, A. L. Whiteside and M. Kujancky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ellison of Concordia, Kansas, are visiting with Mrs. Ruth A. Williams at the Evangelina. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ellison are sisters.

Mrs. T. W. Cadd has gone to Ontario to join Mr. Cadd, who is employed there.

H. T. Sundbye has rented the Wilson cottage on Eighth street and the family will soon occupy it.

O. L. Emery of Colton was in Huntington Beach last week. He is a cousin of G. O. Franklin.

Mrs. C. M. Bentley and children and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Turner and children of La Crosse, Wis., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McKenney. Mrs. Bentley is a sister of Mrs. McKenney.

C. F. Kerr and family left last week for Calexico, where they will visit before going to El Centro to make their home.

The first league game of basketball was played on the Huntington Beach grounds Saturday, the boys winning by 8 to 15 and the girls losing 15 to 4. The girls composing the Huntington Beach team were: Miss Rogers, Miss Peake, Miss Osterhaus, Miss Plavan, Miss Pryor and Miss Forte. The boys: Blodget, Newland, Hall, Thompson, Lamb and Planchon.

Pleasant Reception.

One of the recent pleasant events was the reception held at the home of Mrs. Harriet L. R. Grove, November 15th. The pleasant living room resembled a bazaar, the beautiful curios being arranged on tables. There were articles not only from the Holy Land and India, but from England, Scotland, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Japan and China. A hand-embroidered bedspread, made by native men of India, attracted much attention. All embroidery work in India is done by the men. A handsome Persian velvet table cover and a brass chocolate tray from Moradabad, India, were also of much interest. Mrs. Grove was gowned in a beautiful "Sari," the street dress of the Indian women. The visitors showed their appreciation by liberal offerings of silver and gold.

HUNTINGTON BEACH MAN AN INVENTOR.

C. J. GARDNER HAS PATENTED A HARVESTER.

C. J. Gardner, a well-known citizen of Huntington Beach, has invented a small harvester, which he has patented and expects to manufacture in large quantities in the near future.

The machine is designated as Gardner's Pony Harvester, and a model was on exhibition at the Community Fall Festival, attracting considerable attention from many of the ranchers.

Mr. Gardner states that his invention is the lightest and most efficient machine ever made for harvesting beans, peas, onions, garlic, and other small crops, and that as much work can be done with one horse with his machine as with three using other machines. It is also used for furrowing, bordering and weed cutting.

WEEKLY GREETING.

Real greatness has nothing to do with a man's sphere. It does not lie in the magnitude of his outward agency, in the extent of the effects he produces. . . The greatest man is he who chooses the right with invincible resolution, who resists the sorest temptations from within and without, who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully, who is calmest in storms and most fearless under menaces and frowns, whose reliance on truth, on virtue is most unfaltering.— William E. Channing.

VOTES FOR WOMEN IN NEW YORK.

The unexpected happened in New York City at the recent election, when the equal suffrage amendment was approved by a large majority of the voters of the American metropolis.

It had been generally conceded that New York would be one of the last states in the Union to grant the franchise to women, on account of the notorious Tammany organization in Gotham.

For some reason not yet explained that organization supported the amendment, or, at least, did not exert its powerful influence against it. The vote outside of New York City was comparatively close, and had the Tammany tiger desired to defeat the issue he could have done so beyond any doubt. It would be interesting to know what or who converted Grand Sachem Charles F. Murphy and his lieutenants to the good cause.

The result in the Empire State is a great victory and will have a tremendous influence upon the eastern section of the Union, being the first state east of Mississippi to equalize the sexes at the voting booth.

Another feature about the result in New York is the fact that it is the first state to adopt this amendment that has not been contiguous territory to some other state where women enjoyed the privilege of voting, excepting, of course, the original state of Wyoming.

Women voted at the last national election in the state of Illinois, but the privilege has not been made a part of the organic law of that great state. It will no doubt be approved by the voters in the near future.

By winning in New York the women of the Nation have crossed the Rubicon, and there is little doubt but what other states will fall into line in comparatively rapid succession.

PROHIBITION WINS AND LOSES.

State-wide prohibition amendments were submitted to the voters of the states of New Mexico and Ohio at the Nov. election, with the result that one more star has been added to the field of the White Flag. Everyone of the 26 counties in New Mexico returned a favorable majority for prohibition, making the majority for the amendment overwhelming. New Mexico is the twenty-sixth state now in the dry column.

While the official returns show an adverse majority of 1723 in the state of Ohio, the close vote is a signal victory for the dry crusaders, as the last election resulted in a wet majority of more than 84,000, and the year previous close to 150,000. Consequently, there is little doubt but what the next time the voters are permitted to state their preference on this great National issue, the saloon will be banished by a large majority.

I say the profoundest service that poems or any other writings can do for their reader, is not merely to satisfy the intellect or supply something polished and interesting, nor even to depict great passions, or persons, or events, but to fill him with vigorous and clean manliness, religiousness, and give him good heart as a radical possession and habit.—Walt Whitman.

"To be wealthy, a rich nature is the first requisite and money but the second. . . To be rich in admiration and free from envy, to rejoice greatly in the good of others, to love with such generosity of heart that your love is still a dear possession in absence or unkindness—these are the gifts which money cannot buy, and without which money can buy nothing."—R. L. Stevenson.

WOMEN ON NORWEGIAN FARMS.

"In Norwegian farm life, women take their full share of hard work, and indeed more. In summer time from early morning until late at night the women have but little, if any, leisure. In addition to the housework," writes Thomas B. Wilson, "the wife and daughters have to help in the hay-making, if they have not gone to tend the cattle at the saeter, and hay-making, especially in rainy weather, needs very constant attention. The farmer cuts the grass either with his small scythe (ljaa), which is admirably adapted for rough and uneven ground, or, if he has more level ground, and can afford it, with one of the cheap American mowing and reaping machines which are now so common in Norway. When this is done the women and children busy themselves in placing the grass on the long hesjer which are erected in the fields. They consist of poles stuck into the ground at intervals of a few yards, and rows of wire or strong cords connecting them. On these the newly mown grass is placed and left to dry. It has to be turned occasionally, so that all parts may be exposed to the sun and air. This is a method of saving hay admirably adapted to a country like the western parts of Norway, where heavy rain frequently falls, as the grass is kept off the ground, and much may be brought in safety to the farm, which if it had been left on the ground, would either have been altogether lost or only fit for bedding cattle.

"When the reaping of the corn comes on, the women are no less actively employed in binding the sheaves and carrying them to the long poles, about ten feet high, fixed in the ground, on which the sheaves are impaled, one above the other. This quaint and useful way of drying corn produces a very weird effect when seen at night, as the fields appear to be peopled with rows of gigantic ghostly figures.

"Another harvest of an unusual kind may be noticed in some parts of Norway. The necessity of providing as much food as can possibly be obtained for the cattle during the winter leads to the stripping of the mountain ash or rowan trees. A curious appearance is given to the countryside at the end of August in those parts where they use these leaves. Here, too, the women do the work. Each leaf is pulled off, and the beautiful clusters of red berries are all carefully collected and stored for winter fodder. These 'bare, ruined choirs where once the sweet birds sang' look very strange, standing without a leaf, while the other trees around are still covered with their green foliage. The young shoots of the birch trees are also cut off, and kept in small bundles for the sheep. When the hay crop is removed from the hesje its place is taken by the potato haulm, which is carefully dried and stored for bedding the cattle."

FROM "THE LINDEN."

Its leaves are a harp for the playing breeze, Nectar is there for the murmuring bees; And a poet seeks it alone and apart, With a song on his lips and a dream in his heart. These are things that shall one day be, Because I have planned a linden tree.

—Lida Calvert Obenchain.

The works which you are doing are good works. If you can perform them without seeking their result and without thinking that you are the "doer," then it will be still better. The highest result of works done in this selfless manner is the attainment of true love for God.—Ramakrishna.

Do you desire not to be angry? Then do not be inquisitive. The man who inquires what has been said about him, who digs up malicious gossip, even if it has been confidential, merely disturbs his own peace.—Seneca.

GOVERNMENT LOOKING UP BEET SITUATION.

LETTER ADDRESSED TO ALL GROWERS.

The following letter has been mailed to the beet growers and is self-explanatory:

To the Beet Growers of California:

The sugar beet production for 1918 is of vital importance to the nation. Enclosed with this letter you will find a personal communication from Mr. Hoover, calling upon all those who can produce sugar beets to increase the production next year. An affirmative answer by the growers of this state will be of importance in helping to win the war.

Enclosed herewith you will also find a postal card, which I would ask you to fill out and send to this office. The card is addressed and does not need a stamp.

At this time there is a sugar famine on the Atlantic seaboard. During October, November and December, or 1918, there will be a great scarcity of sugar throughout this country and in Europe, unless our beet sugar production can be increased. The food administration has limited the profits of all sugar refiners and dealers. Speculation has been eliminated, so that sugar will be sold to the consumer for a price representing the cost of production and a profit to the manufacturer and distributor, which is limited by the government's regulation.

The responsibility, therefore, for production rests wholly upon the grower. Will you sign the enclosed card and indicate in what degree you can respond to your country's need?

Very truly yours,
RALPH P. MERRITT.

"A STORMY KNIGHT" FOR SATURDAY EVE.

Combination Program Sunday Night.

"THE INEVITABLE" TUESDAY NIGHT.

If the regular patrons of the Princess were asked to name their favorite star among the male screen actors, no doubt Franklyn Farnum would be one of the favorites, and justly so, for as an entertainer in comedy drama he has few equals on the screen. He will be seen at the Princess on Saturday night in "A Stormy Knight," one of the best productions in which he has ever appeared. The plot and story of the play could easily be a melodrama were it not for the many comedy situations which are interspersed. It has all the action, all the mystery, and all the intrigue of a sure-enough melodrama; but while you are holding your breath, Franklyn Farnum appears on the screen in some ridiculous situation that turns it all to a joke. Those who saw Mr. Farnum in "The Man Who Took a Chance" will recall with what dash and vigor he played that part, and when it is added that "A Stormy Knight" is a sequel to that stirring picture and equal and, in fact, superior to it in every way, the picture needs no higher praise. The mystery of the beautiful girl is not revealed until the very end of the picture, but when it is known the whole story is evolved in a logical and interesting way, with an appealing love story interwoven.

Sunday night, Mollie Malone will be seen in a railroad drama of three reels. A story of action and mystery, followed by Gale Henry in one of her funniest farce comedies. Two reels of fun and mirth.

Anna I. Nilesen, the beautiful star of "The Inevitable," the Art Drama which will hold the screen on Tuesday night, is a native of Sweden, and while there was the recipient of many tributes from the most noted artists of the country. She was selected from among eight thousand contestants as the finest type of national beauty, and the selection was made by the most noted artist of Sweden. In addition to her wonderful and dazzling beauty, Miss Nilesen is possessed of histrionic talent to a marked degree, and as an emotional actress ranks among the headliners. The picture in which she will appear on Tuesday night is one of action and intrigue. It can be no better described than as a melodrama with an appealing heart interest. It is a story of the conflict between love and a thirst for vengeance, and love finally wins the contest. Miss Nilesen is supported by a long list of able stars, among whom we may mention such names as Chester Barnett, Lucile Dorrington and William Bailey, and in such capable hands this superb story is sure of an unusually fine interpretation.

LEXINGTON BREAKS DESERT RECORDS.

OLDFIELD'S TIME SAID TO HAVE BEEN BEATEN.

The following telegram, sent to T. B. Talbert & Co., agents for the Lexington "Minute-Man Six" car, shows that this comparatively new car has broken all records for desert runs. A letter written by Wisdom & Co., agents for Southern California and Arizona, states that the time made on this run was faster than that made by Barney Oldfield on his last run to Phoenix by almost two hours, from Kingman to Los Angeles:

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 27, 1917.

NOTICE.

All persons holding bills against the Community Fall Festival are requested to send them to the committee at once.

KAISER KNOCKED OUT.

The Kaiser has been knocked out, and as soon as the German soldiers hear the news they will probably stop fighting.

By some unknown and mysterious method the Kaiser was induced by the Woman's Club to visit the Community Fall Festival, and appeared on the vacant lot next to Obarr's drug store, accompanied by Mr. Sparks.

As soon as some of the patriotic citizens noticed the monster that is seeking to enslave mankind they made a beeline for him, and would have wrecked everything in that section of town had not Mr. Sparks informed them that they could purchase three baseballs for 5 cents, or 7 for a dime; and if they knocked the demon down four straights they got a cigar for their good work.

Mr. Sparks was one of the busiest men in the city, and the Kaiser's visit netted the club $21.40.

WHEATLESS DAY.

When one of the food director's assistants was in Huntington Beach two weeks ago, he left written instructions that the wheatless day related to white bread only. Letters mailed under date of November 28th change this to include all wheat products of every kind, including breakfast foods.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business.

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more places to satisfy those urgent needs.

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all your trading at home. It will be profitable to you as well as to the entire community.

NATION-WIDE DRIVE BY THE RED CROSS.

A nation-wide Christmas membership drive has been planned by the Red Cross War Council. The building up of Red Cross membership to 15,000,000 in the United States is the goal of the campaign. This means an addition of approximately 10,000,000 names to present muster roll.

The drive is to start December 17th and continue unceasingly to Christmas Eve. The general features of the membership campaign were worked out and approved at conference at national headquarters of Red Cross, in which representatives of each Red Cross division of continental United States participated.

A national Christmas membership drive committee has been appointed by the War Council to have general charge of planning and later conducting the whole campaign. Theodore N. Vail, president American Telegraph & Telephone Company, has accepted the chairmanship, and Dr. H. N. MacCracken, president Vassar College, will be executive secretary. Other members of the committee are: Cardinal Gibbons; Bishop William Lawrence, Boston; Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former minister to the Netherlands, Princeton, N. J.; John A. Britton, San Francisco; Benjamin Gratz, St. Louis; Ban Johnson, Chicago; Harvey Lindley, Seattle; John Mitchell, New York City.

"Make it a Red Cross Christmas" is to be the recruiting slogan. Everyone taking out a membership in the Red Cross during the drive is known as "Christmas Member," and effort practically will be limited to securing annual members paying annual dues of one dollar or two dollars in case of subscribing or magazine members.

PASADENA TOURNAMENT OF ROSES.

Moving picture men representing the famous news film "weeklies" and the distributors of travel and educational films are preparing to have batteries of camera men in Pasadena, New Year's Day, for the annual Rose Tournament and all the towns co-operating in this Southern California event are planning to put their best float forward. All the entries in the parade are to be "shot" by the movie cameras, set up at vantage points at the start and along the line of march.

Inasmuch as these films will be subsequently shown in every city, town and hamlet in the country and throughout the world as well, it will give every Southern California city a fine opportunity to advertise.

There will be all the features of the Rose Tournament retained this year, including the East and West football game and the grand ball at the Hotel Maryland on New Year's night. The net proceeds from the big football game will go to the Red Cross and the entire theme of the Tournament will be patriotism.

HEARING WILL BE HELD ON NEWPORT HARBOR.

IN SANTA ANA, A WEEK FROM TUESDAY.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23, 1917.
To Whom It May Concern:
The River and Harbor Act of August 8th, 1917, calls for a preliminary examination, and, if necessary, a survey of harbor at Newport, Cal. The purpose is to determine whether or not it is advisable for the United States to improve this harbor, and, if so, the character and cost of the necessary work.

Persons interested in this subject are invited to be present at a public hearing, to be held in the Board of Supervisors' room, No. 15, county court house, corner 6th and Sycamore streets, Santa Ana, Cal., at 2 p. m., Tuesday, December 11th, 1917. At this hearing all will be given an opportunity to present their views.

While oral statements will be received, it is desired that all ideas shall be reduced to writing and submitted in triplicate, as thereby they will be on record and will be given full consideration, which may not be possible in the case of oral statements. Written communications will be forwarded to the War Department with the report of the preliminary examination to be submitted by the undersigned.

The points on which information is desired are:

- The character and location of the improvement desired. For what draft of vessels intended? For what probable volume and character of imports and exports?
- Would the commercial benefits to be derived from such improvements be commensurate with the cost thereof?
- Would these benefits be "local," confined to the population of the immediate neighborhood, or to a small number of people anywhere, or will they be "general," affecting other portions of the United States?
- Would the benefits from such improvements accrue to the general public or to private interests?
- What have local interests, public and private, already done to foster commerce at Newport harbor? What are they prepared to do in the future in co-operation with the United States?

ECONOMY BRINGS A REVIVAL OF LACE.

"This is a season when the mode acknowledges the supremacy of old lace. Of course real lace is always more or less 'fashionable,' though for the last few years it has not been used so extensively. But now, as a war-time economy, women have gone to their treasure chests and brought out their old laces from their wrappings of blue tissue paper. In fact, these exquisite laces are being used so recklessly that, by the time Palm Beach days are here, we will find whole frocks made of real lace. And such a frock will be absolutely priceless—for it is doubtful if these wonderful laces of the past can ever be produced again, as the devastation of Belgium has all but destroyed the art."

Your Chance!

I WANT HUNTINGTON BEACH PROPERTY.

If you have a good cottage, lots, business or nearby acreage and have the least ambition to own a ranch, I want to talk business with you.

I have 20 acres in the well-known Charter Oak district; 13 acres trees, over half 10 years old; Valencias and Navels, mostly Valencias, balance 4-year-old Valencias, except 150 1-year-old lemons. There is an attractive modern 3-room house, built upon a terraced hill; a good large barn; a large covered cement reservoir on hill; plenty of water and packing house stock.

This is conservatively worth from $12,000 to $15,000. In-cumbrance, $4,800; but pay no attention to value, submit your property, as I am going to give someone the chance of a lifetime in an exchange and will sacrifice. So get busy.

TURKEY SHOOT WAS A BIG SUCCESS.

SOME GOOD SCORES WERE RECORDED.

The turkey shoot conducted by Trustee D. W. Huston and his assistants, F. H. Rigdon, Raymond Grey and L. A. Lawton, was successful, and a profit of $8.95 was turned over to the general committee.

Some good scores were recorded, the highest one with a shotgun was scored by R. L. Obarr, who got credit for 28 out of a possible 50 blue rocks. The best rifle scores were made by Boyden Hall and P. J. DeHetre, who each made perfect scores with six chances.

Mr. DeHetre won two birds. Others winning two were: Will Jones and C. H. Maddux. Mr. Obarr, Boyden Hall, George Hall, L. A. Lawton, Emery Rennick, W. L. Campbell, H. H. Ferris, R. C. Labadie, W. S. Waite, Mr. Whitmore and Mr. Radcliffe each carried away one turkey. Mrs. W. R. Higgins was the only woman who entered the shoot, but did not score a win.

PASTOR HAS SOME VERY OLD BOOKS.

OLDEST ONE WAS PUBLISHED IN 1538.

The display of antiques shown by the Woman's Club at the Community Fall Festival, Friday and Saturday, revealed the fact that Dr. C. Carey Willet, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, has a valuable collection of old books, including several Bibles.

Dr. Willet loaned the club women eight volumes of much interest, six of them being Bibles and one a Greek and Latin Grammar. The Grammar was published in 1538, and is therefore among the earliest books of the kind printed with movable type. Of course, there are many older volumes, but they are very rarely seen outside of the museums.

The other six books were Bibles, three of them being known as "Breeche's" Bibles, dated 1597, 1599 and 1603. One, Cambridge black letter, with complete genealogical tables, published in 1633. One, "Bill and Barker," 1663. One published by Jon Canne, folio size, in Amsterdam, in the reign of Charles I, about 1642, and circulated in England without royal authority.

The other rare volume of the collection was the writings of Dr. Willet, a great controversial author and commentator, of the time of Queen Elizabeth, being especially well preserved, published in 1634.

These old books were purchased about forty years ago in London by Dr. Willet, and no doubt is one of the rarest collections of Bibles in Southern California.

CHRISTMAS TREE FROM STATE OF WASHINGTON.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR THE MUNICIPAL TREE.

Raymond Grey, manager of the E. K. Wood Lumber Co., has assured the committee having charge of the municipal Christmas tree that his company will transport a big fir tree, free of charge, on one of its vessels leaving Hoquiam or Bellingham, Wash., regularly, to be used for the municipal tree that is being arranged for this city.

This generous offer on the part of this big concern assures the community one of the finest trees ever seen in this section of California. When the lumber vessel arrives at San Pedro the tree will be hauled to Huntington Beach on a trailer.

BOYDEN HALL ELECTED MASTER OF BOY SCOUTS.

Boyden Hall has been elected Scout Master by the Boy Scouts of Huntington Beach. After the scouts have been organized they will be at the call of the city, and parents are invited to attend the meetings.

The Boy Scouts are to be congratulated upon their selection of Mr. Hall as their scout master. The Boy Scouts are doing good work, their activities being especially noticeable at the Community Fall Festival, under the direction of Scout Master Cecil McCoy.

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS STILL SOARING.

There Is Money In Beach Acreage

There are only 8½ miles of high beach frontage now available close to Los Angeles, and 5 miles is occupied by the cities of Santa Monica, Redondo and Long Beach. Huntington Beach has the other 3½ miles.

If you price close-in acreage at the older and larger beach cities, you will find it has reached a figure that is almost prohibitive, and that there is no longer a chance for quick increase and good profits, while at Huntington Beach you can buy good, close-in acreage for

$350 to $500 an Acre

Easy Terms

Terms—$50.00 cash, balance $25.00 every three months. Now is the time to buy, while prices are low.
