THE 1951 ATHENA

Ohio University Yearbook

Don Stout, the Athena's guiding light, was assisted by the aesthetic influence of Herb Greif. Bev Brainard tailored the copy. Gene Wells commanded the photo brigade, while the darkroom magician was Don Shee. James Minor made both ends meet. The superman of sales was John Dukawich. Tom Blair directed advertising. The book was printed by the Lawhead Press Inc., Athens, Ohio.

nothing but lines

"This line to the left for skin tests." "Registration fees accepted in the line through that door please." "Buy your 1951 Athena here." "Move on to the next line."

Freshman Week was a constant movement from campus ticket promoters to IQ tests. Caught in this labyrinth of lines were newcomers to Ohio University who found it a little difficult to reconcile reality to movie versions of that glorious college life.

Freshman Week had its lighter moments as upperclassmen extended a warm welcome to those unfamiliar with our campus. OU's reputation as a friendly school was soon proved.

All uncertainty and loneliness vanished at the MUPB mixer, the First Nighter Party, and the all-campus mixer. Days dissolved into coke dates, smokers, rush parties, appointments, and counseling. At first it was hard to put the right name with the right face but everybody smiled.

An endless number of forms had to be filled in. Please print plainly. Blank paper gleamed expectantly in new notebooks. Grand Central Station had nothing on Logan's.

The Registration Hop climaxed this whirlwind week. Men's Gym was crowded with couples dancing to Jon Gant's band. It was a wonderful evening and heralded a good year.

Newspaper Ball

Men's Gym was transformed into a city newsroom with oversized copies of the SDX News when Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism honorary, presented their annual Newspaper Ball. The rhythms of Wib Lanning's orchestra added incentive for a thoroughly enjoyable night.

LIFE WITH FATHER

The applause of the audience at the close of a successful presentation of Life with Father seemed to prophecy another delightful season for the OU theatrical group.

Playwrights Lindsey and Crouse used Clarence Day Junior's memories of his father to create a plot which involves the efforts of Mother to have Father baptized. Young Clarence's feminine problems and Mother's troubles with household accounts have Father roaring continually.

Archie Greer and LeDale Williams portrayed Mr. and Mrs. Day with elegant ease. Other members of the flame-haired family were Phil Nye, Randy Greig, Bruce Roach, and Phil Baedecker.

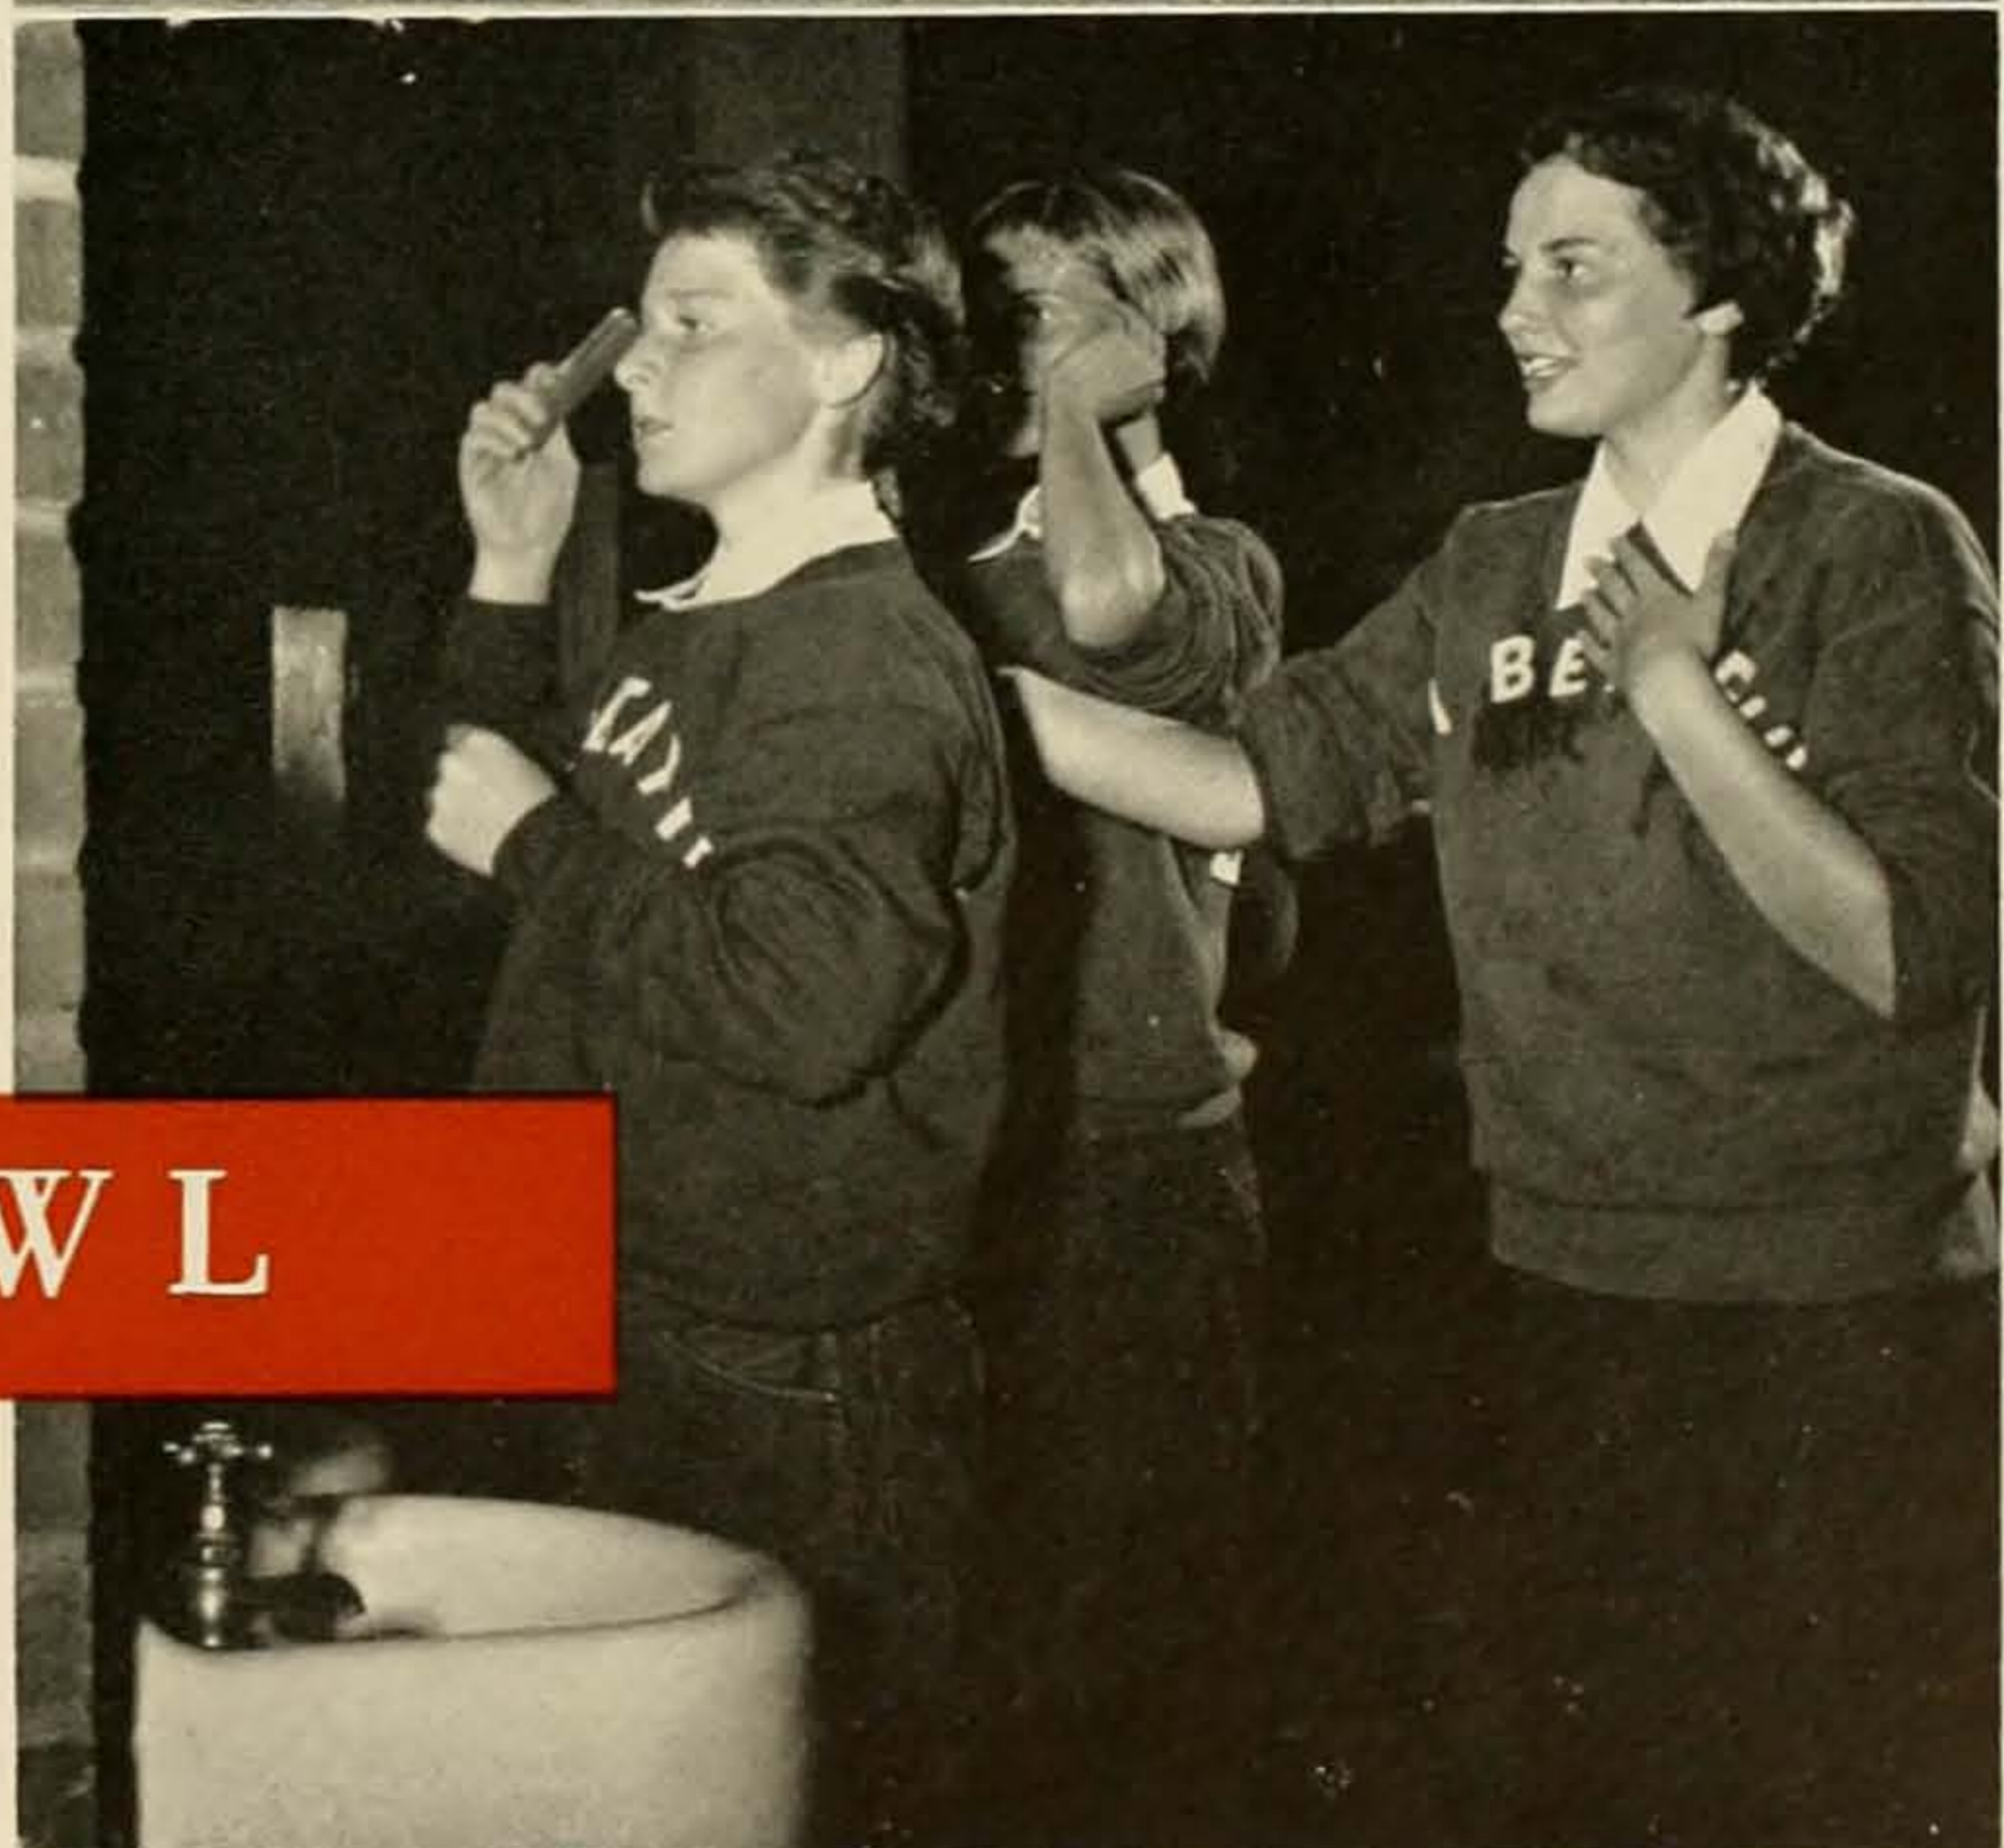

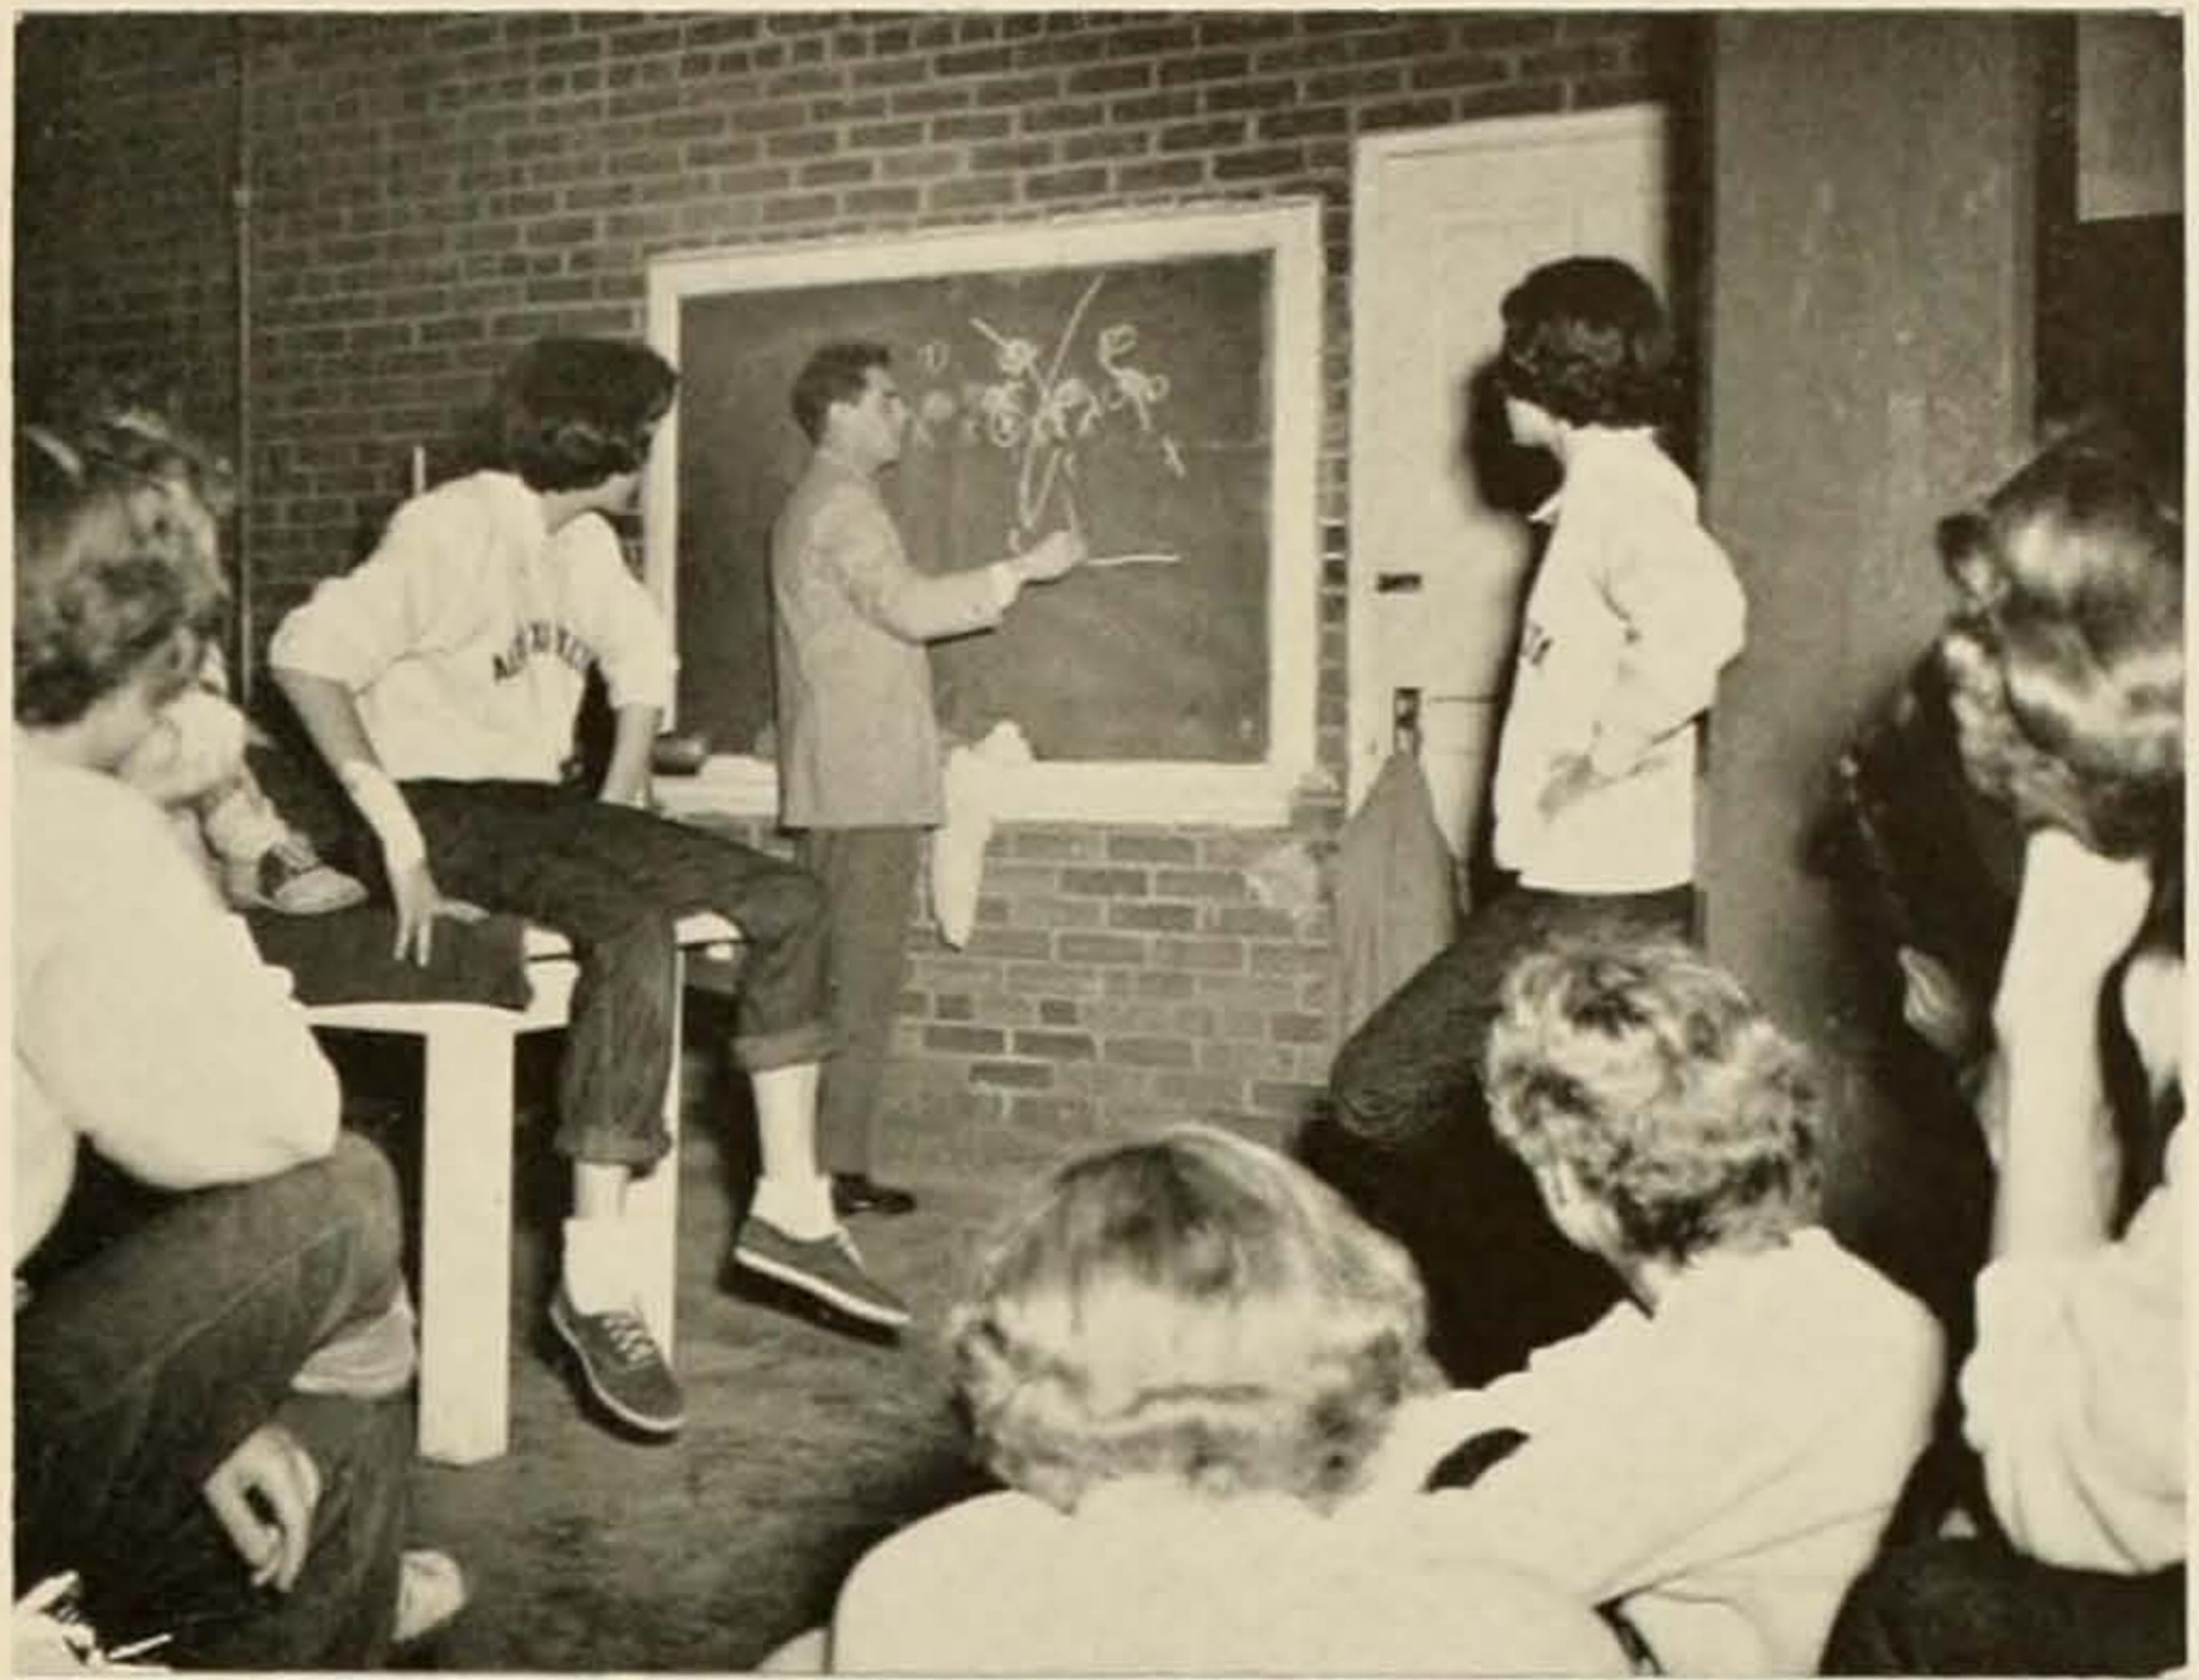

Football underwent its annual change at Ohio University as the girls of Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Xi Delta clashed in the 1950 Powder Bowl.

Regulation touch rules didn't diminish the ruggedness of the game that enriched the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund by six hundred dollars.

Quarterbacked by Nancy Stockwell, the Pi Phis emerged victorious with a score of 31-0. Nancy threw three passes for touchdowns and was hailed as the new Otto Graham.

POWDER BOWL

The week began with feverish preparations and sounds of hammer and saw. By Friday Athens was a near chaos of enthusiastic students and alums. Classes had become an unnecessary evil. Parties were the order of the day. Stand Up and Cheer was sung a thousand times. Friday night a snake dance down to the pep rally at the athletic grounds officially opened the weekend. In effigy, the Miami Redskins bit the dust. Saturday was parade day. Court Street became a mass of cameras, legs, and elbows. People swarmed over the campus gate or leaned out of windows to watch. It was Homecoming, 1950!

OHIO - 20 MIAMI - 28

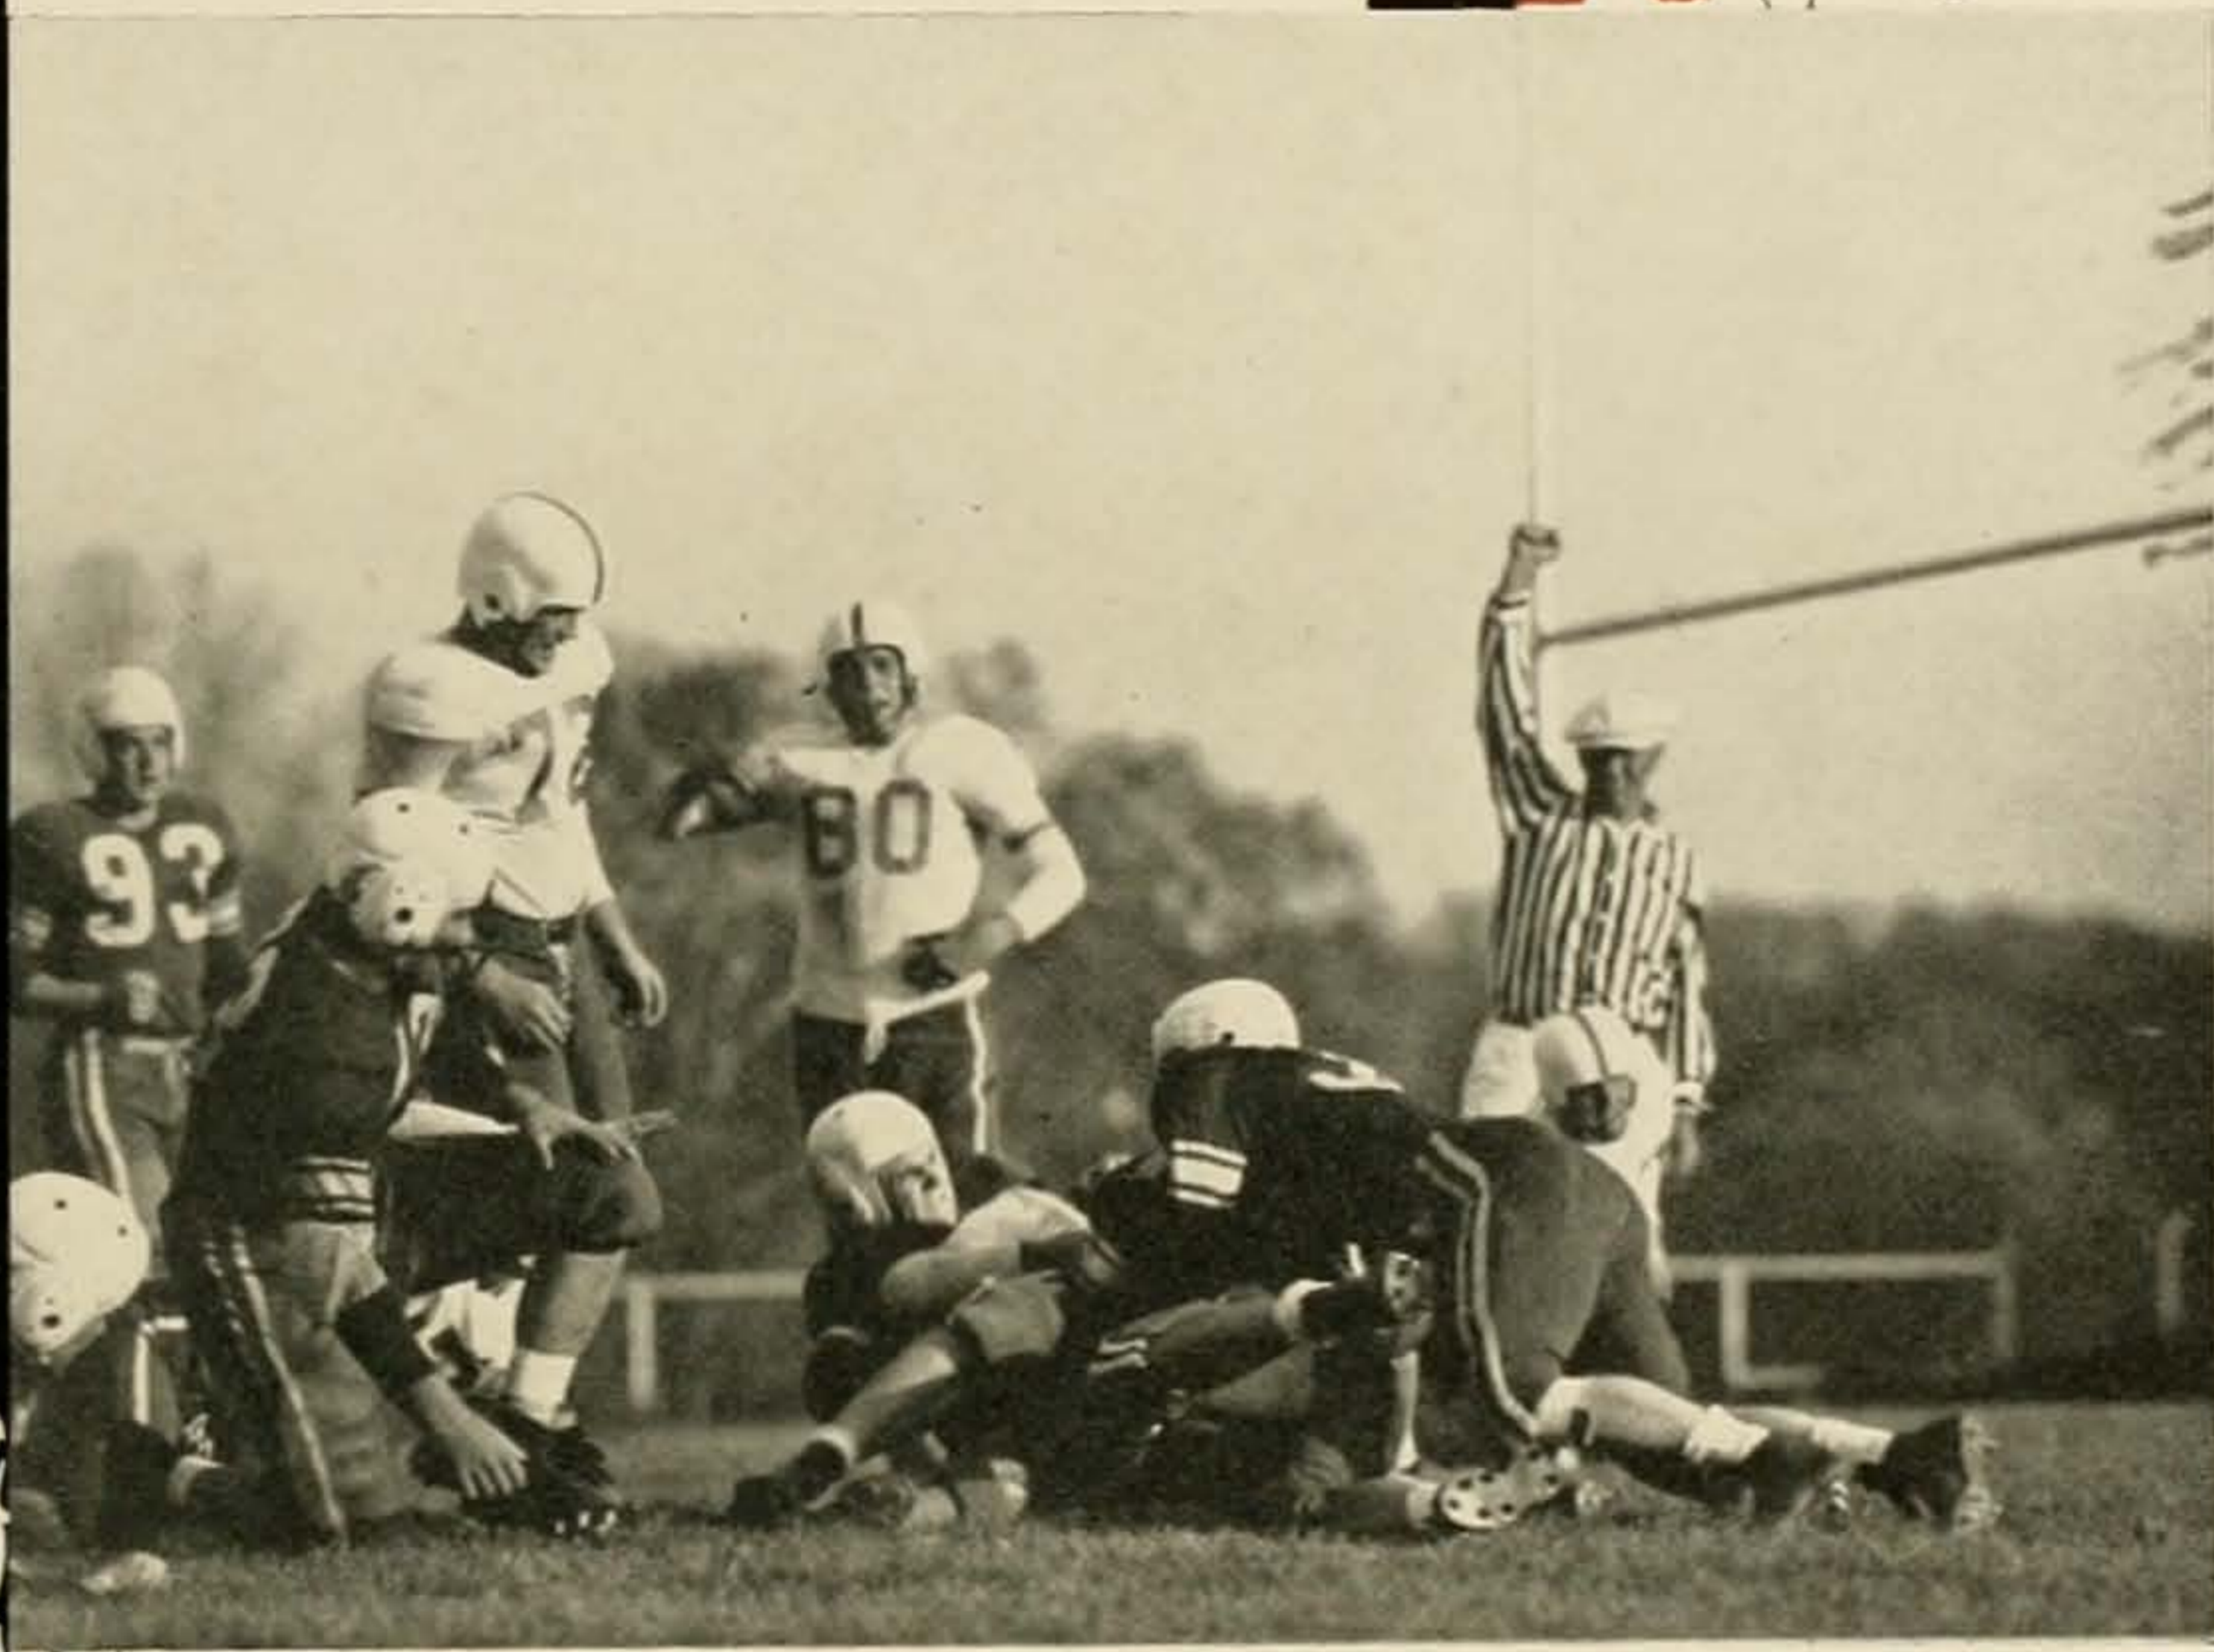

Miami may have defeated Ohio in the Homecoming game but it was more than a moral victory for the Bobcats and their fans. It was one of the most exciting contests ever witnessed in the OU stadium. The spirit with which the team fought when the odds were against them will long be remembered.

For the first three quarters of the game Miami's Boxcar Bailey was too much for the Bobcats as he carried the ball one hundred seventy-five yards in eight tries. At the end of the third period, with the Redskins leading 28-0, OU decided they had seen enough of their half of the gridiron. The team caught fire. Quinn Stumpf led the march downfield.

OU scored and continued to score however, they fought a losing battle with the clock. When the final whistle sounded it was Miami 28, Ohio 20, but every spectator was on his feet cheering the gallant Bobcats.

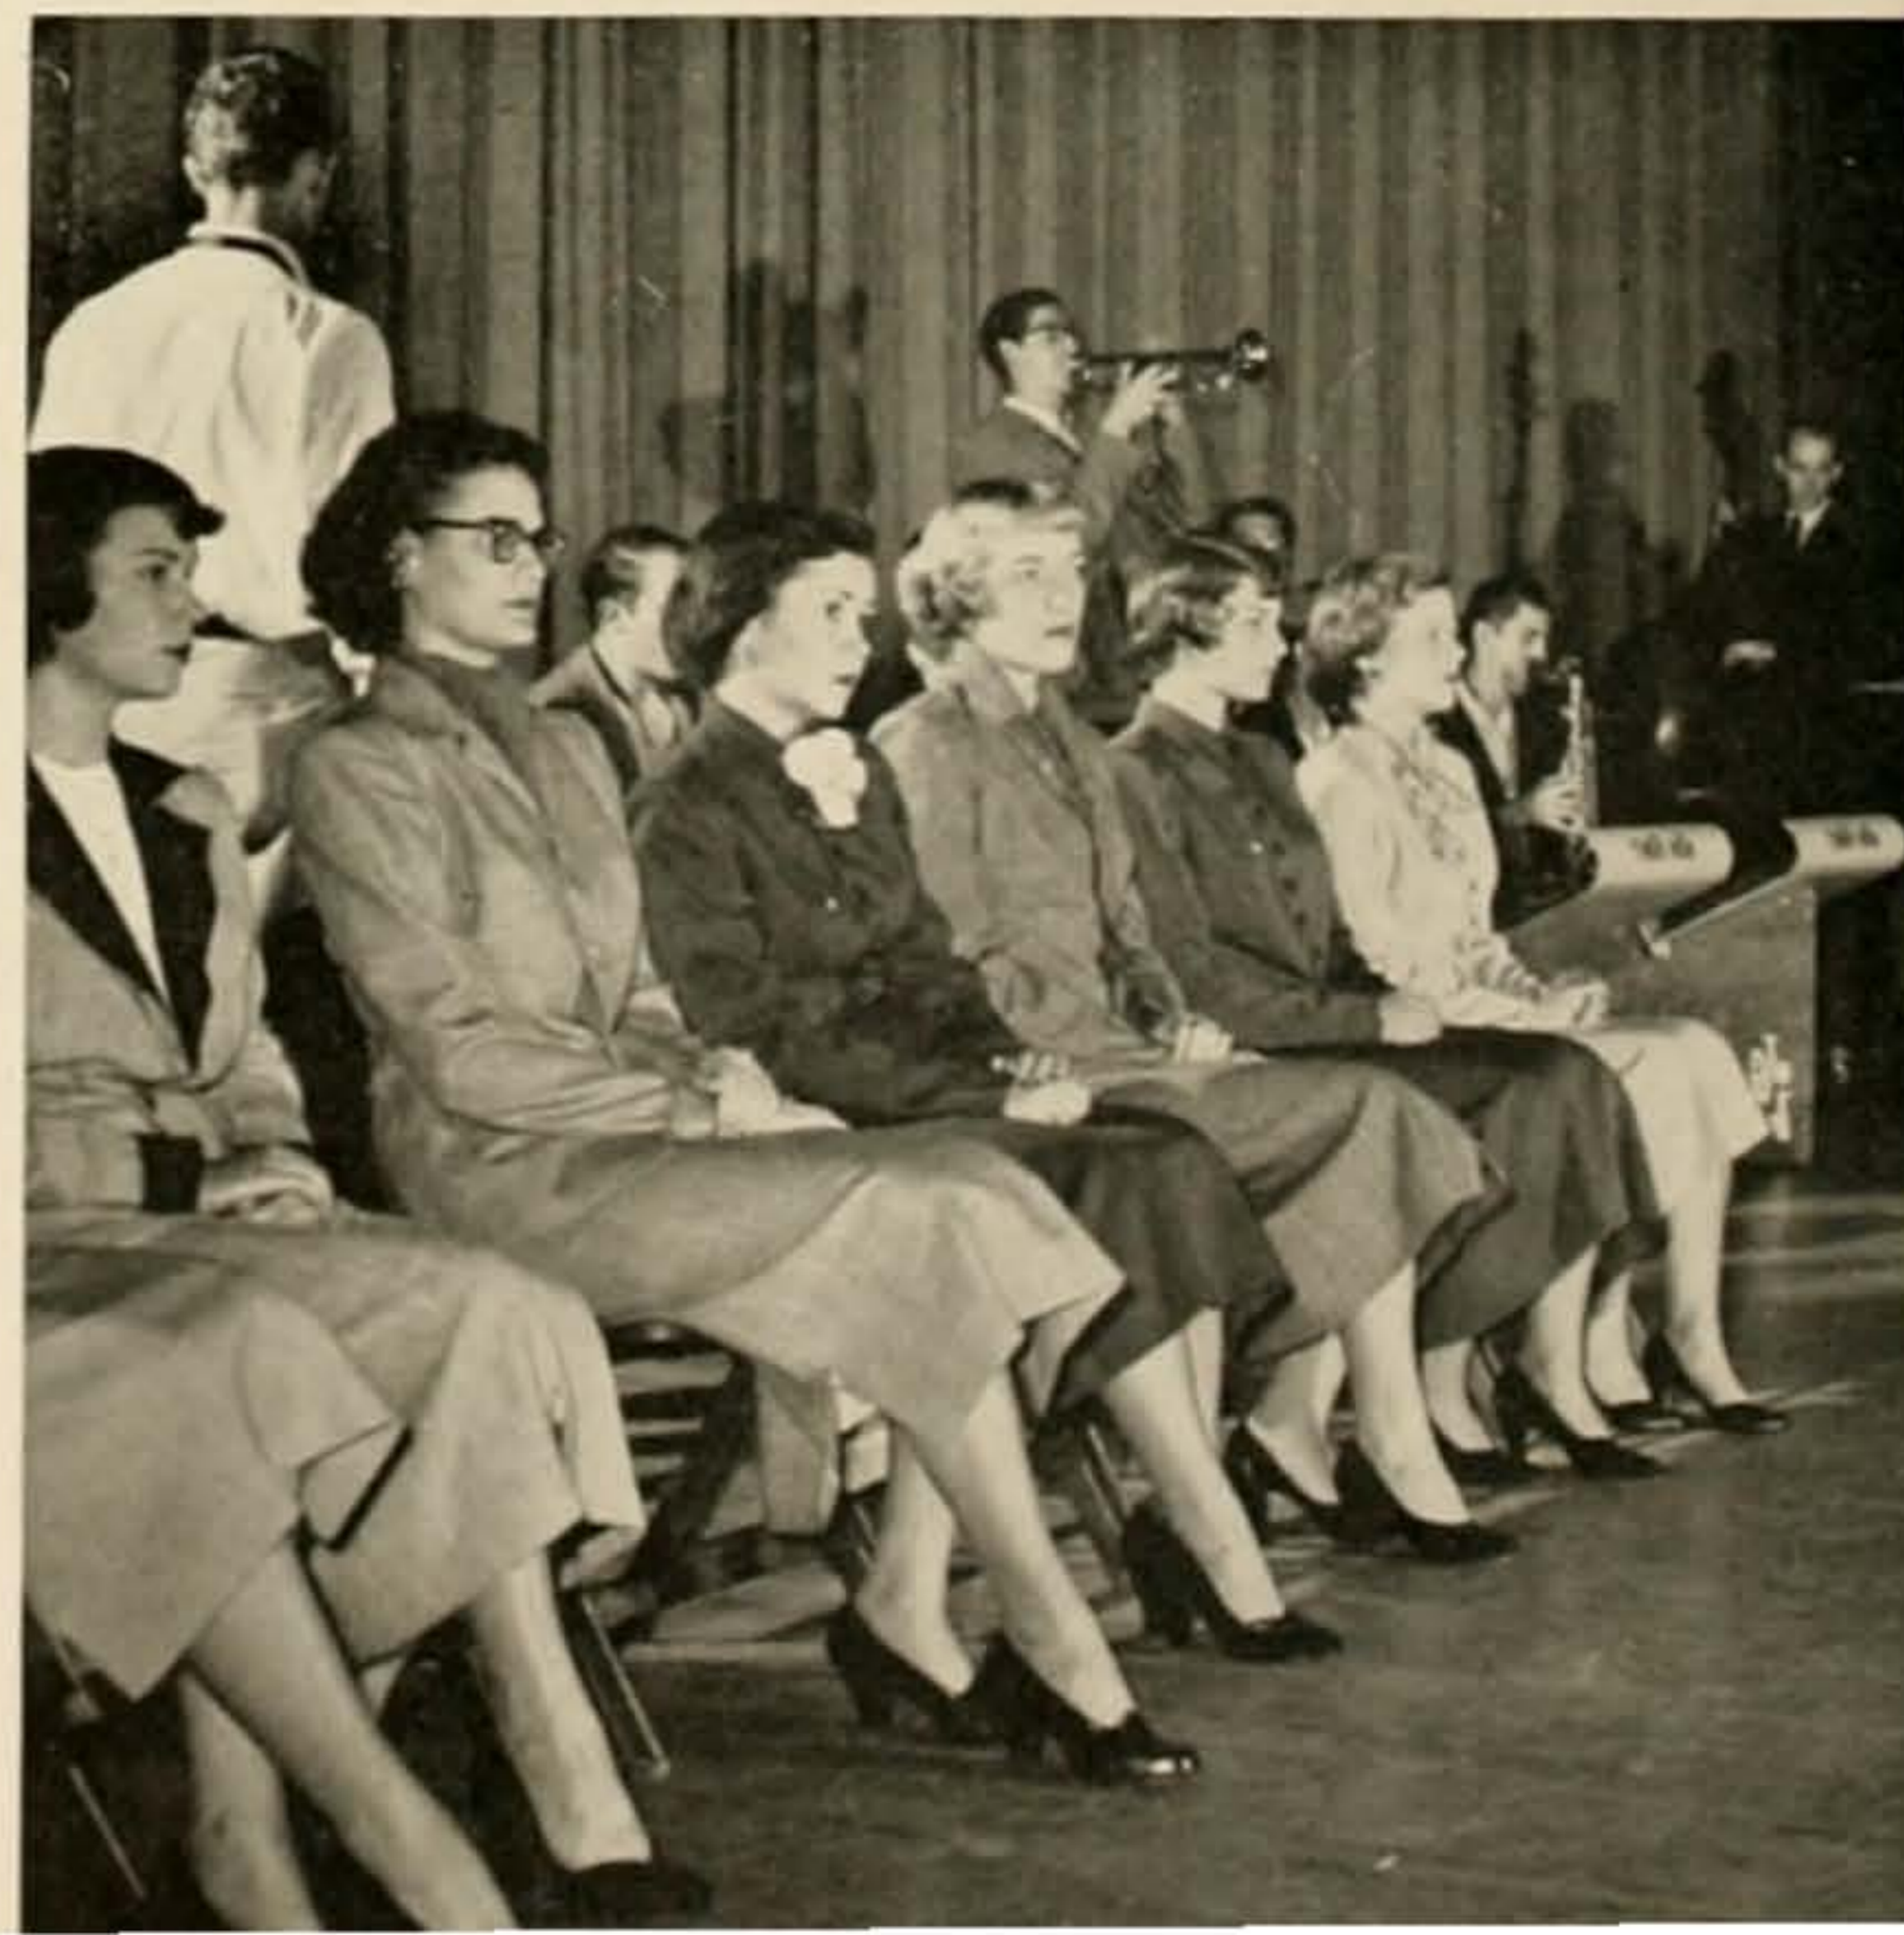

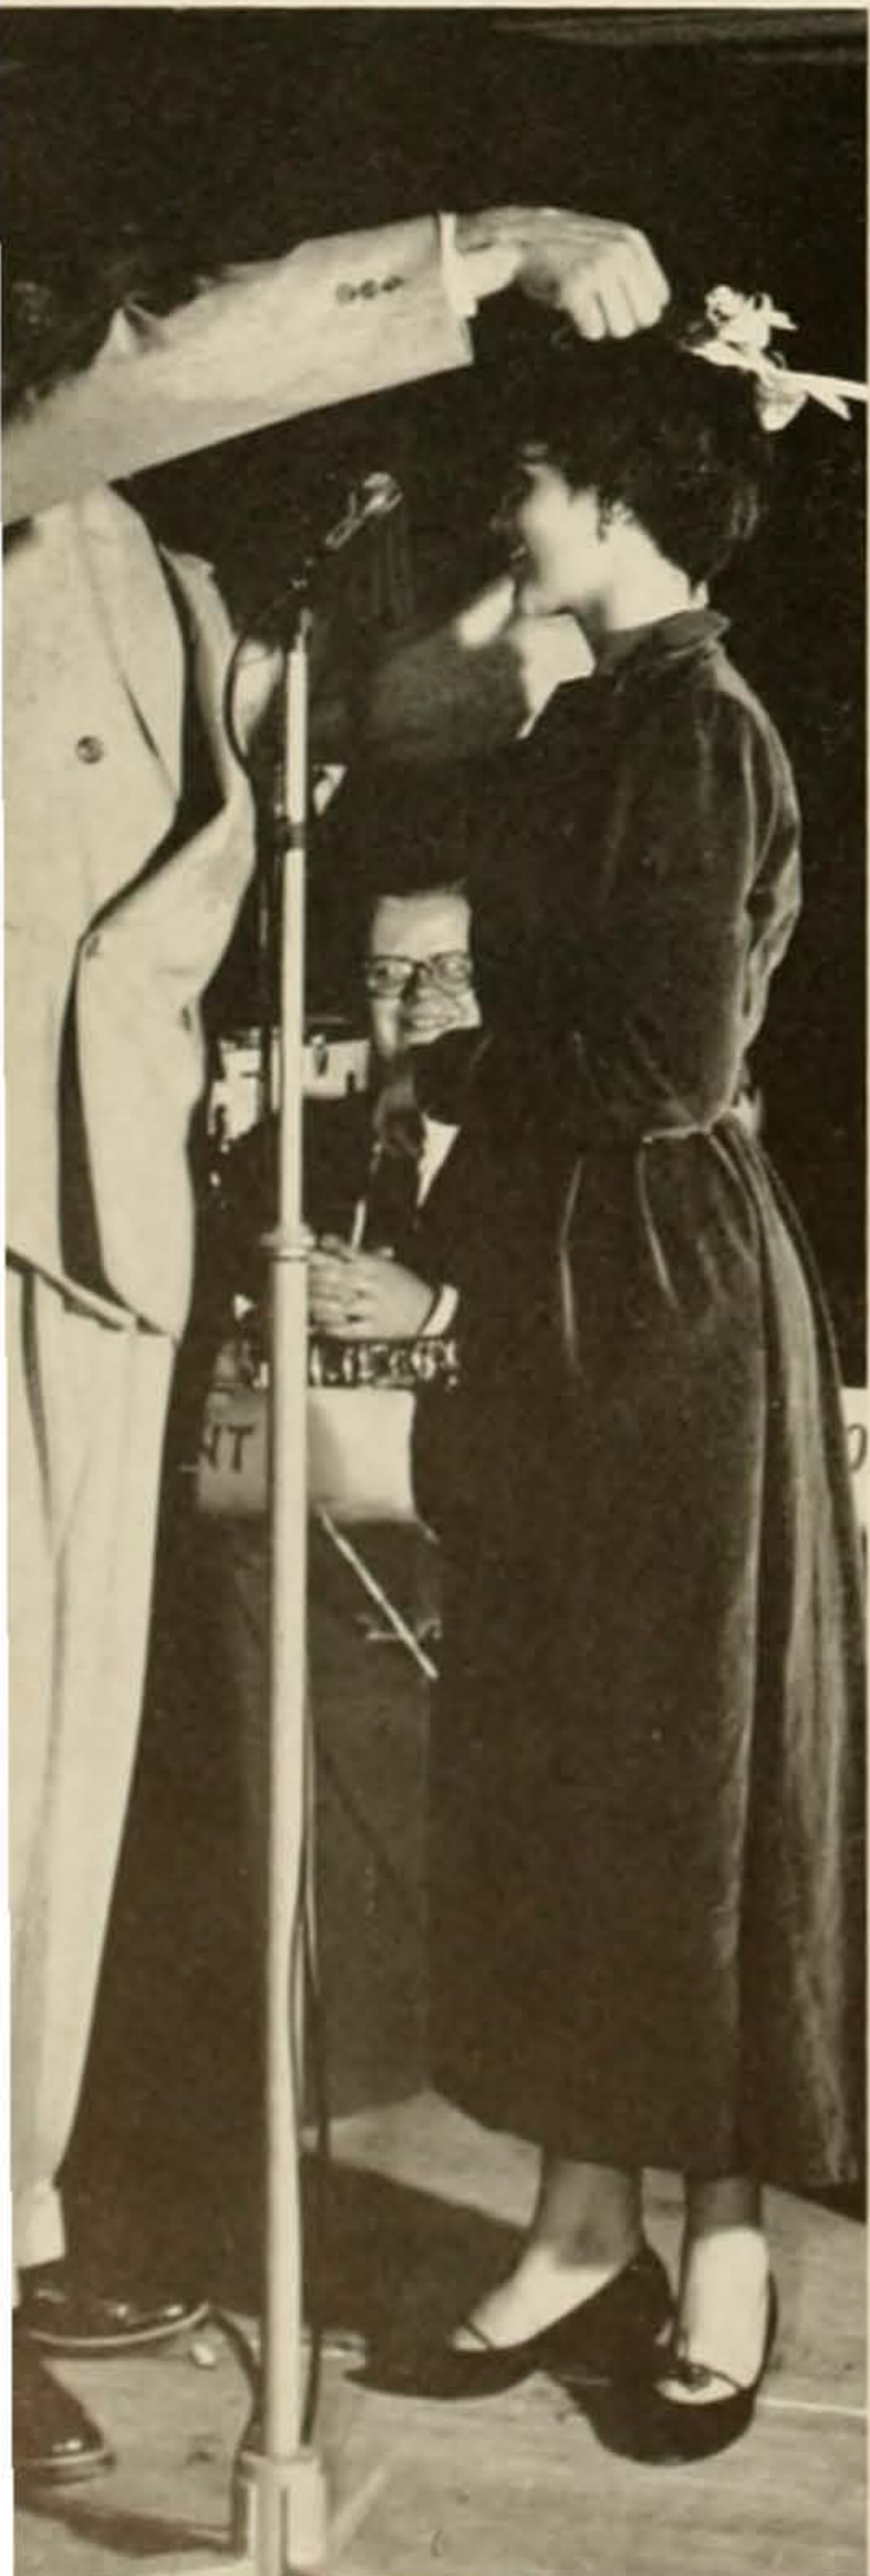

Marilyn Poling, Joey Thornton, Betty Tygard

Petite, brown eyed Joanne Thornton reigned over Homecoming activities this year. "Joey," a sophomore transfer from Bowling Green, calls Perrysburg home. Her major is art and her post-graduation aspiration is advertising. Marilyn Poling, an Athens girl, and Betty Tygard of New Philadelphia were members of the court. The three girls proved the football team's taste for beauty.

The Year in Review

The 1950 edition of the Ohio University Fighting Bobcats compiled the school's best record since 1946 by capturing six victories against only four losses.

In the season's opener, a night contest, the Akron University Zippers felt the sting of the Bobcat attack as they fell 28-6. Tom Anderson, a newcomer to the OU ranks, headed the offensive barrage by completing eleven passes, one of which was good for a touchdown. Captain Quinn Stumpf put Ohio ahead in the second period when he tallied twice on short jaunts. Two more scores were added in the final stanza when Anderson tossed to halfback Bob Haug and when Andy Fabis bulled over from six yards out to complete the evening's scoring. The famed Johnny Karras and his University of Illinois teammates proved to be a little too much for OU as they rolled to a 28-2 win before twenty-six thousand onlookers at Memorial Stadium in Champaign, Illinois. The Bobcats made an early bid for a touchdown as they recovered the fumbled opening kickoff on the Illini thirty-two yard stripe. Anderson pitched to end Wally Duemer on the two yard line but an offside penalty ended the only Bobcat threat of the afternoon. Illinois marched ninety-three yards to score in five plays after holding OU. The second quarter saw the Illini hit paydirt once again when their full-back drove twenty-five yards for the counter. Karras ran and passed for touchdowns in the third period to crush any hopes the gallant Bobcats had of pulling an upset. OU, fighting to the finish, averted a shutout late in the final period when linebacker John Turk nailed Ronnie Clark in his own end zone after a bad lateral.

Butler's Bulldogs provided the Fighting Bobcats with some stiff opposition before they finally bowed 21-14. Stumpf scored in the second period to tie the game 7-7. Late in the third quarter Dick Phillips, an unheralded reserve back, gathered in a Butler punt and raced seventy-four yards downfield to tally OU's second touchdown. An end zone pass assured Bobcat success.

Showing their best offensive form of the year in their first home game, the OU eleven roared to a 35-0 trouncing of Western Reserve. Tom Anderson put on a brilliant passing exhibition. He threw three scoring passes, two to Dick Davis and one to end Nick Fogoros. Dick Phillips and Ed Roberts brought the crowd to their feet with two electrifying touchdown scampers. Phillips repeated his Butler performance, this time returning a punt seventy-three yards to score. Roberts ran eighty-eight yards from scrimmage for the TD. With three victories already tucked away the Bobcats journeyed to Kent State confident of subduing another foe. The Golden Flashes, however, led by their great Jack Mancos, had other ideas. The Bobcats returned home smarting from the resounding 35-13 loss.

Homecoming Day arrived with the enemy, Miami's Redskins, a highly regarded favorite. For three quarters Miami was just that. At the conclusion of the third stanza the scoreboard read: Miami 28, Ohio 0. Suddenly the Fighting Bobcats caught fire. Captain Quinn Stumpf sped thirty-two yards for OU's first score of the afternoon. Minutes later Haug passed to Davis for six more points and Bill Bevan's conversion made it 28-14. With time running out the gridders, headed by Bob Marchi, again marched downfield to score making the final tally read 28-20 in favor of Miami. The comeback was one of the greatest in Green and White history but the clock had outsped the battling Bobcats.

The Migration Day trip proved futile as OU bowed 23-0 to a powerful Cincinnati eleven. The Bobcats piled up the statistics but the Bearcats garnered the points. OU picked up two hundred twenty yards rushing and made eighteen first downs to Cincy's thirteen. Stumpf carried a phenomenal thirty-seven times for one hundred seventy-three yards.

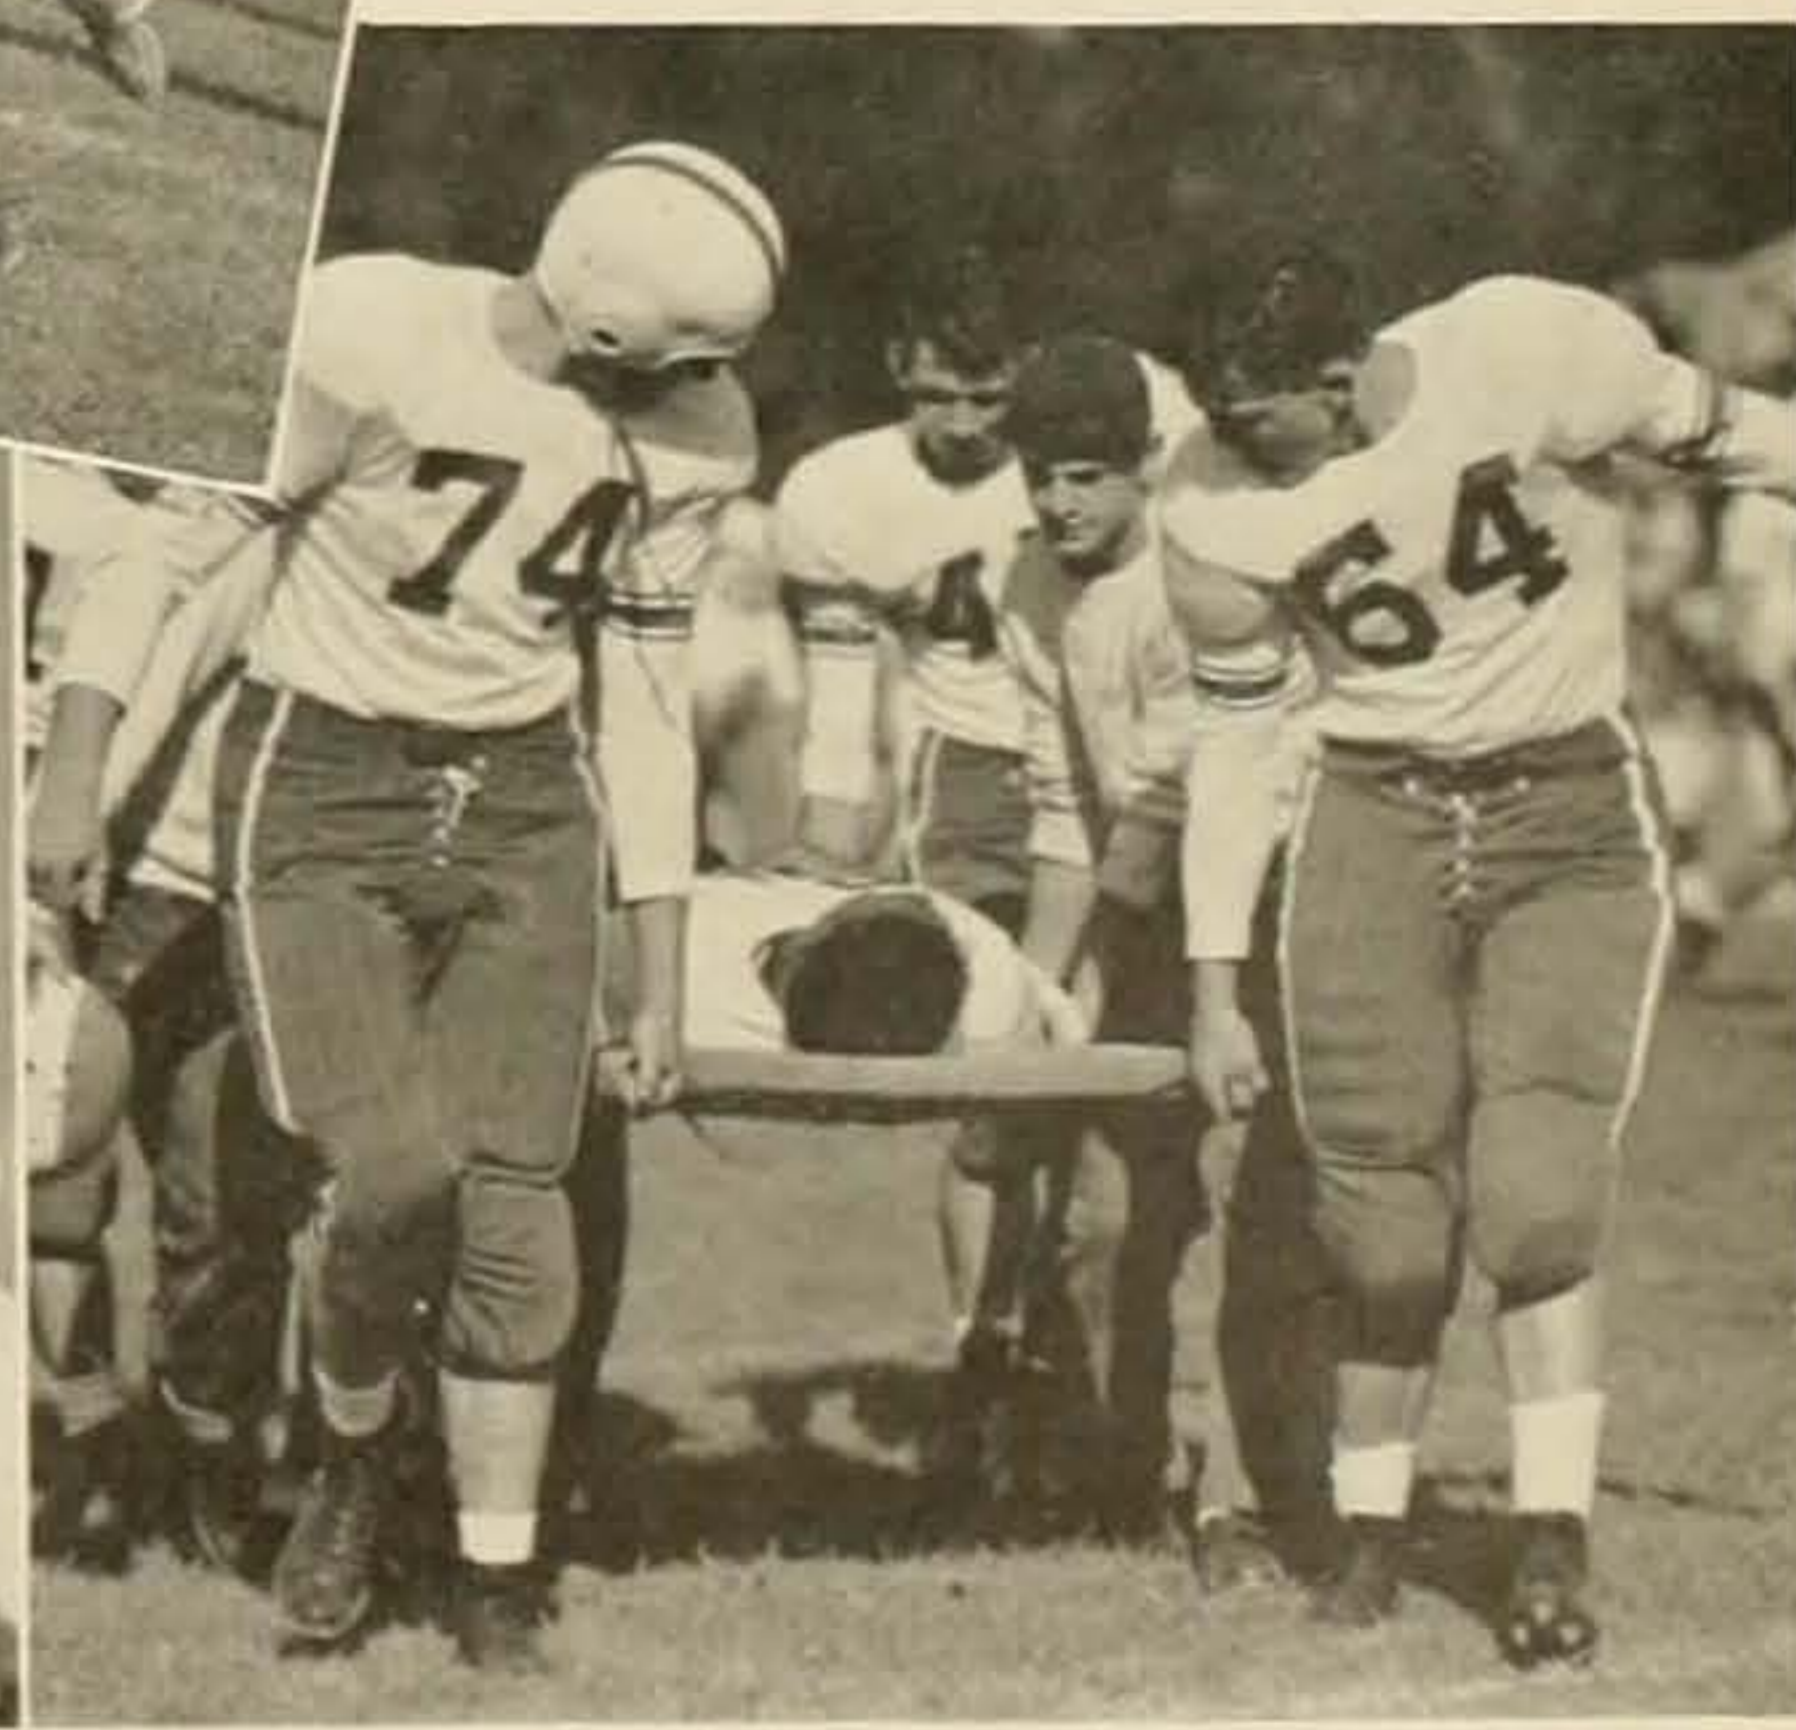

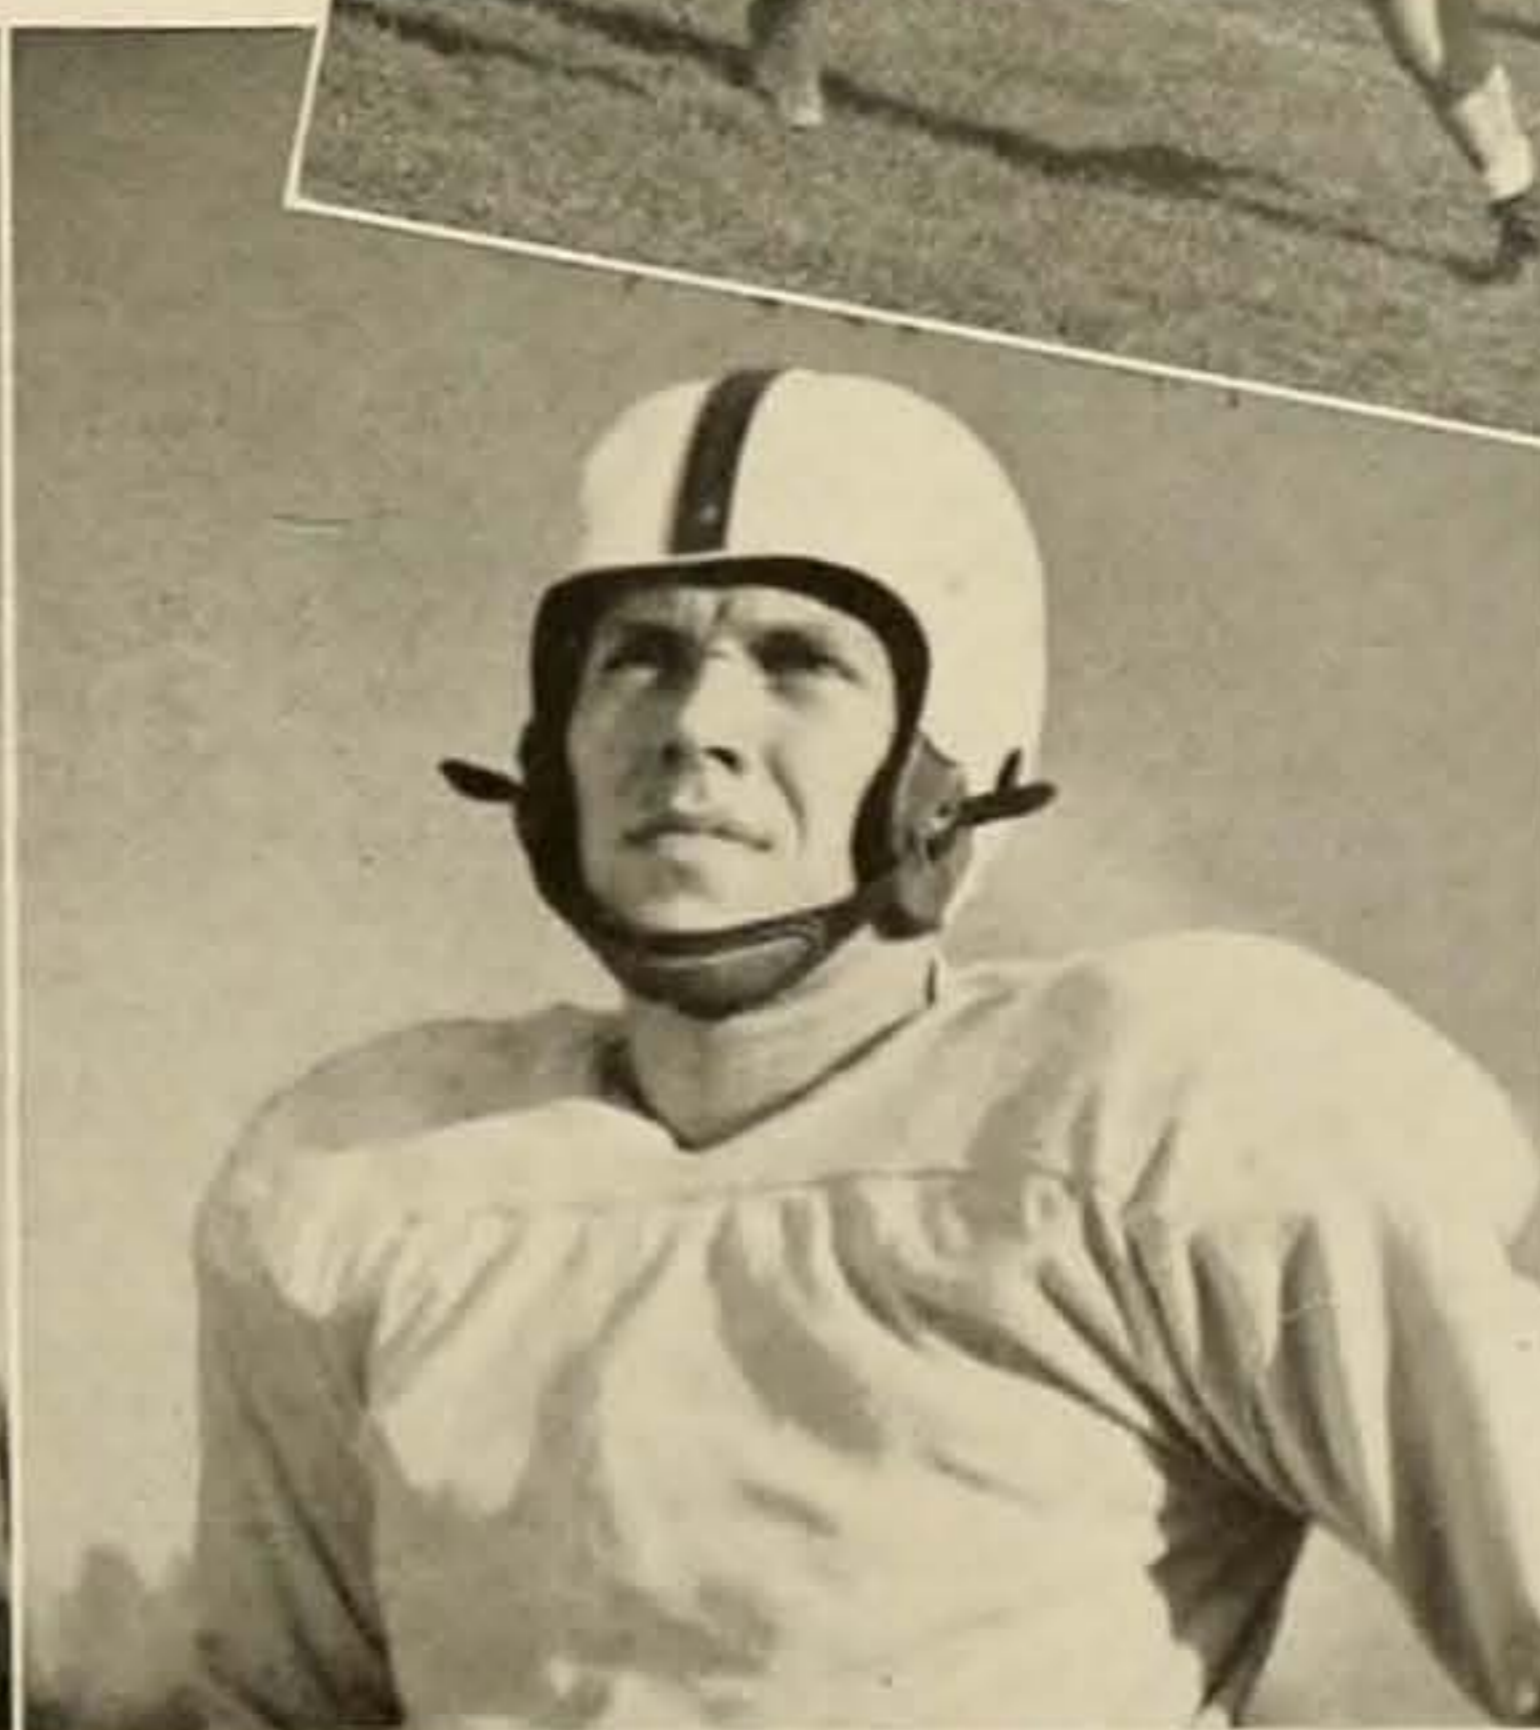

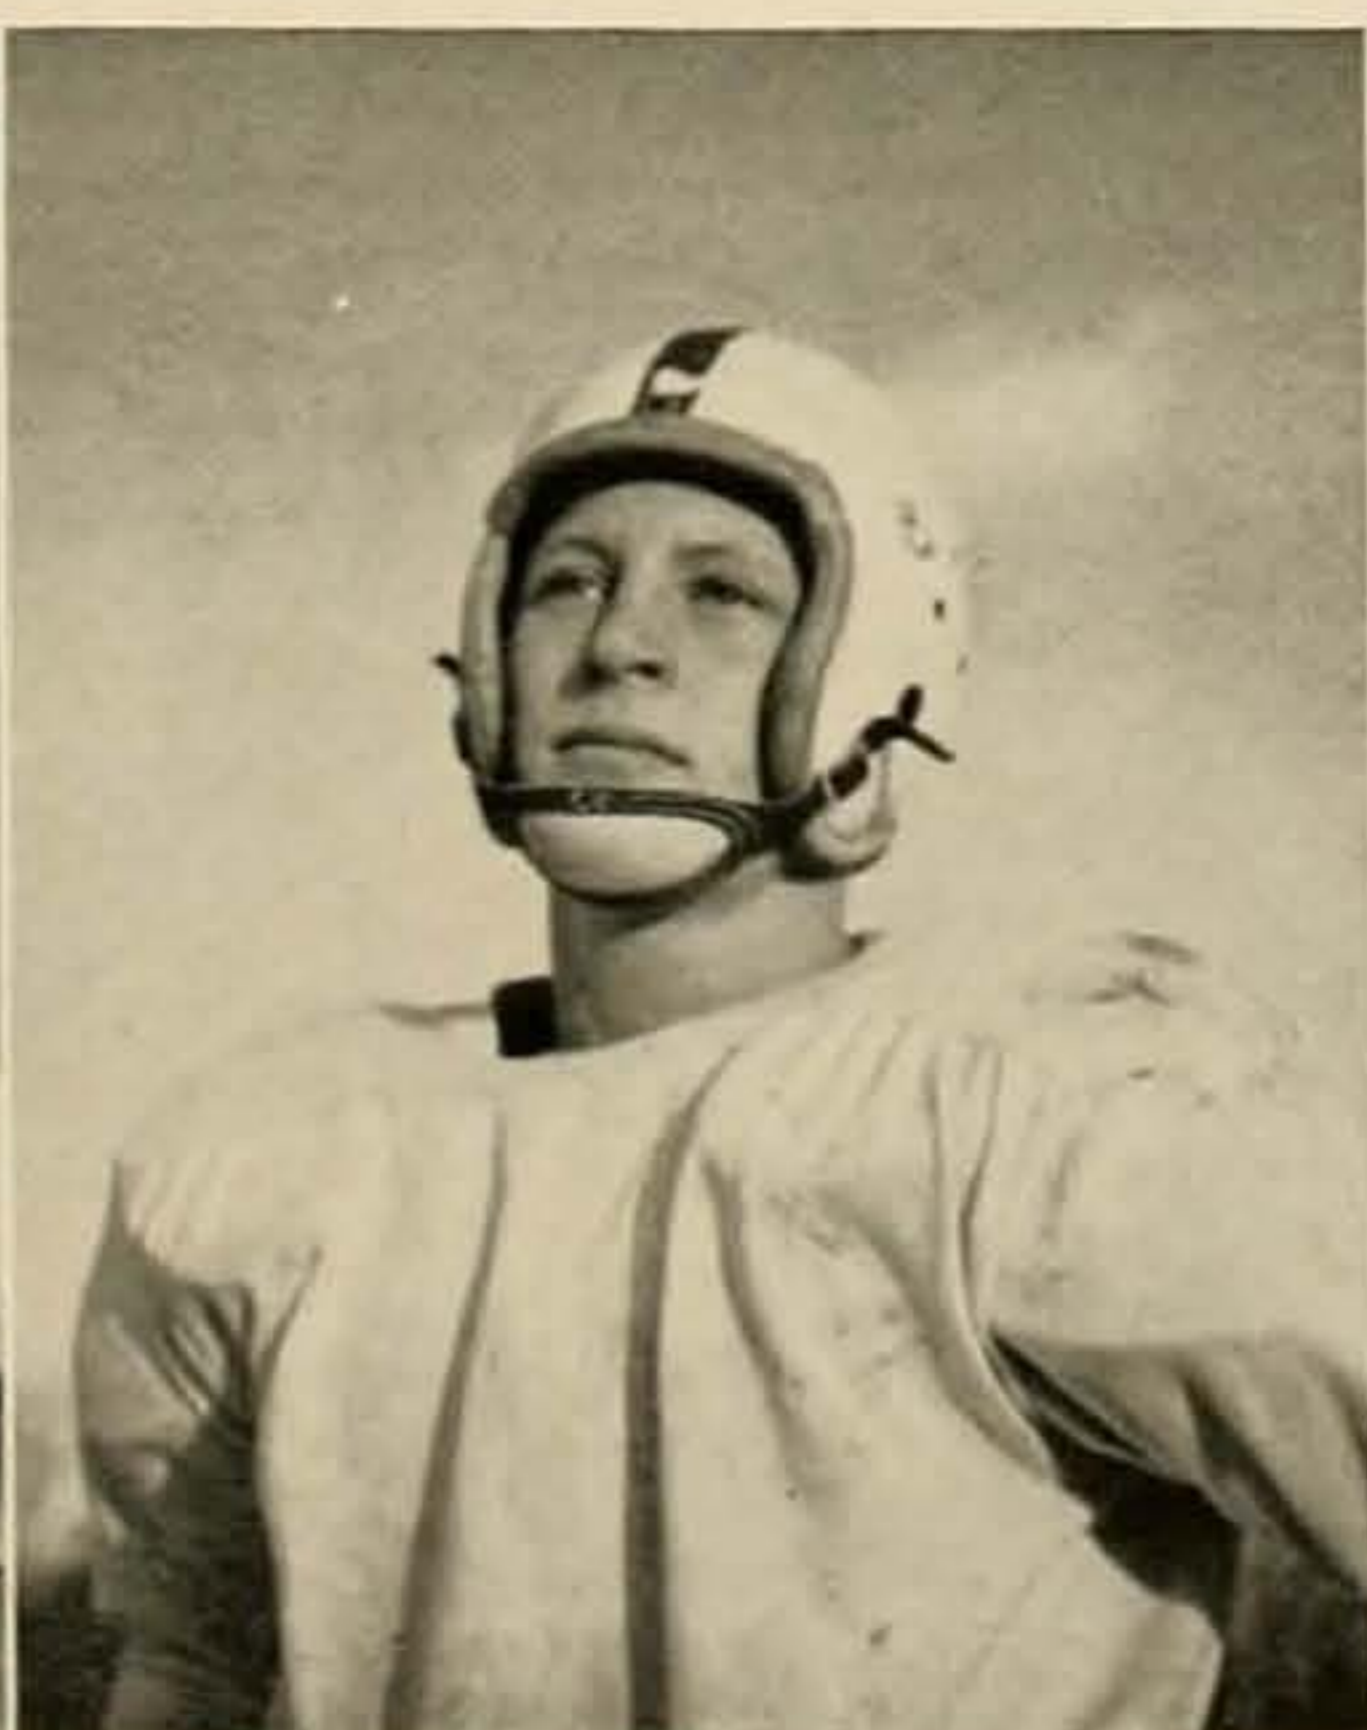

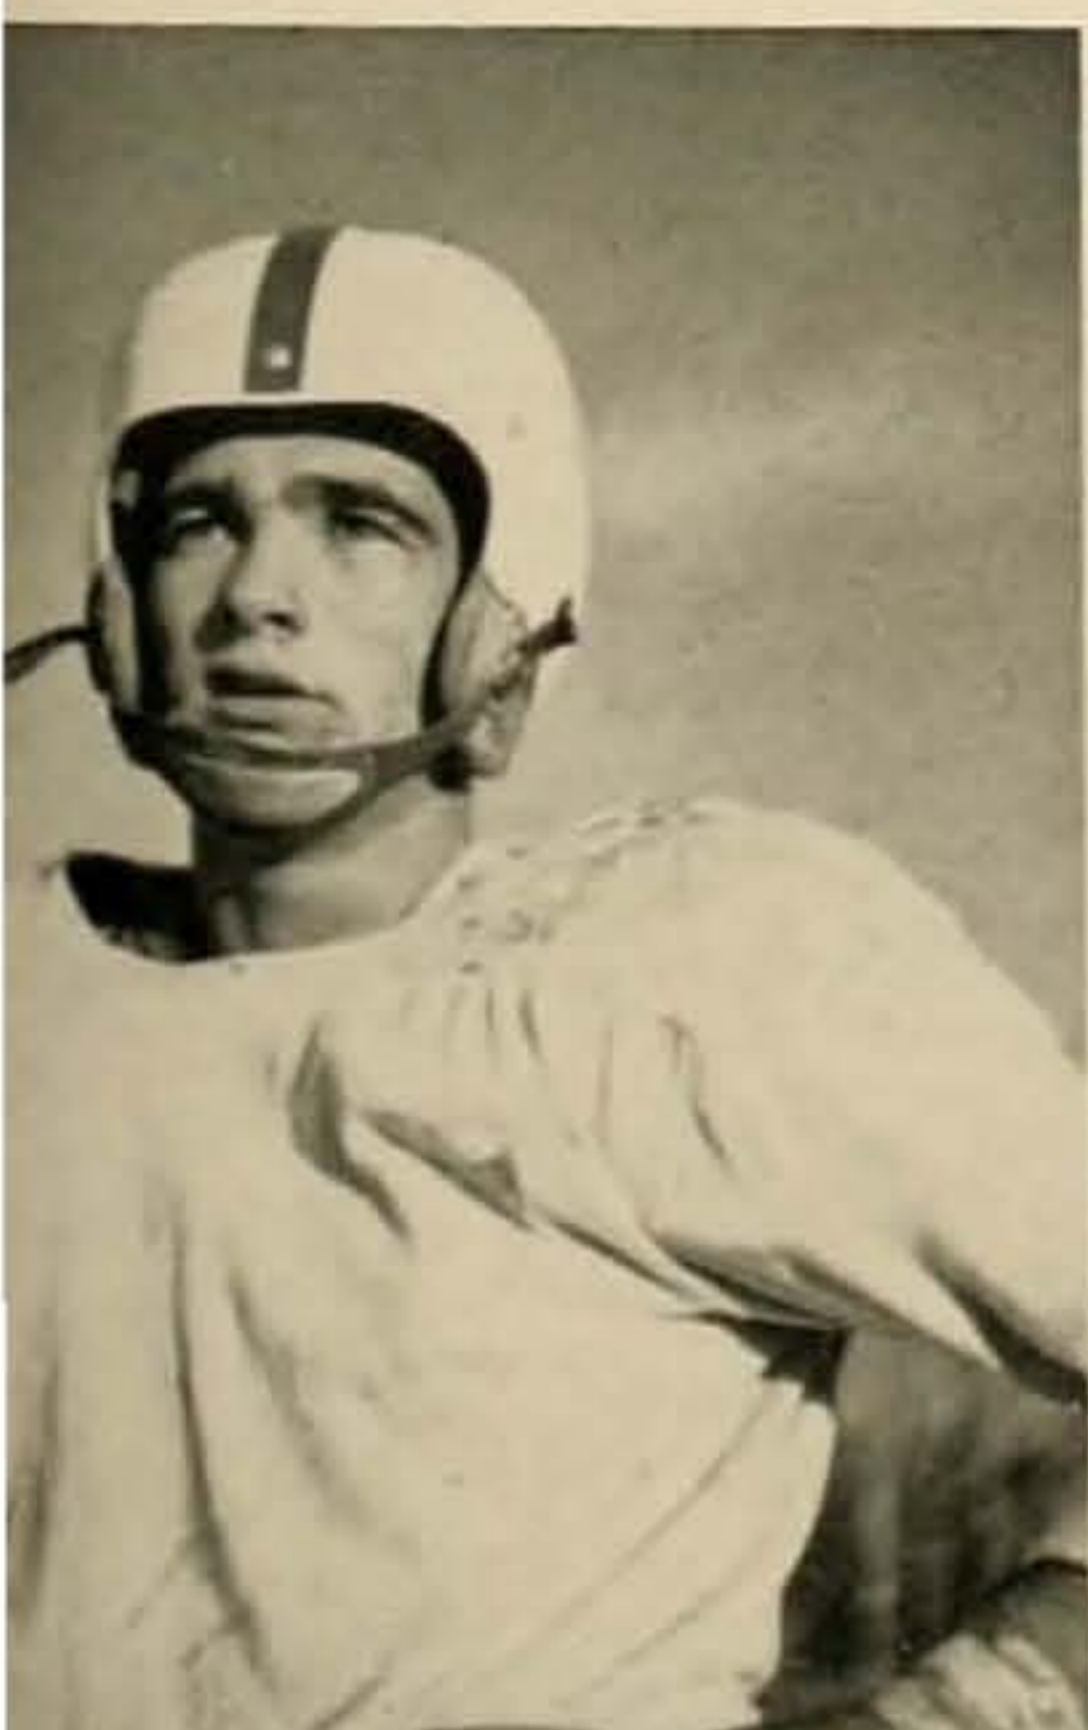

The Bobcats second air trip of the year was a fruitful one as they topped Buffalo University 22-13 at Buffalo, New York. The game was the second and last in the series between the two schools.

In the Western Michigan tilt only four minutes remained and OU trailed 7-0. However, Fabis struck paydirt from one yard out and Bevan tied the game at 7-7 with his conversion. The game appeared destined to end in a deadlock, but with just forty seconds left, Bevan booted a dramatic fifteen yard field goal to give the Fighting Bobcats a thrilling 10-7 victory in their last Mid-American Conference start of 1950.

Bevan's field goal breaks the deadlock in the Western Michigan tilt.

The closing game of the moderately successful season saw OU stop Marshall 14-6 on Thanksgiving Day at Athens. Bob Haug opened the scoring with a fifteen yard dash to put the Bobcats ahead early in the initial period. Marshall threatened later in the first half. However, Dick Phillips came through once again as he returned a punt thirty-five yards to set up the final OU touchdown. Fabis did the actual scoring on a five yard plunge.

Freshman football

The OU Bobkittens undertook a heavy schedule of six games this season facing tough opposition such as Miami, Pittsburgh, and Cincinnati.

In the initial tilt the Green and White gave way by a score of 34-7 to a Pitt powerhouse on a soggy gridiron.

Cincy handed OU its second setback as they capitalized on our fumbles and penalties and won by 7-0.

The freshmen routed Marietta by a score of 59-0. With Poling, Wilson, and Fleitz doing fancy footwork and Costo in the passing position the Bobkittens scored in every period.

Victors again over Bowling Green, the frosh rushed a total of 227 yards for a 27-6 tally.

We were defeated 41-7 by Miami's Redskins.

In the last battle of the year the freshmen evened their record by out-playing Marshall in a hard fought contest.

When three top campus comedians such as Jim Crum, Bob Finley, and Marv Watnick get together there's bound to be explosive hilarity. And there was this November when the 1950 Varsity Nite show "Going Up?" was presented. Quiz shows, army physicals, undertakers, explorers, and scholars were the subject of satirical comment by Jim Durante Crum, Bob Hope Finley, and Marv Morgan Watnick. Included in the show were vocal numbers and dance routines.

Other veterans of the OU stage who appeared in the production were Bob Luecke, Libby Spier, Ann Routsong, Peg Marshall, Jody Nelson, Betty Volas, Marty Jones, Joe Karbonic, Lee Wysong, Bob Triplett, Roy Graber, Al Ivan, Jim Decker, Jack Dunlap, Randy Grieg, and Gene Hanawalt. Barbara Garr, Jane Sharp, and Carolyn Van Hessen were among the newcomers.

The background music was provided by the band under the direction of Charles Gilbert. Wally Bennett directed the show whose proceeds went to the OU band and the Fine Arts production staff.

CONVOS

The Ballet Russe

The organization of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo in 1939 by the Russian impresario Colonel Wassily De Basil created a new world wide interest in the art of ballet. The troupe danced at Convent Garden, London, from 1935 to 1937. They have toured the United States several times since 1933. The program presented at Ohio University by the famed company consisted of four ballets: Les Sylphides, The Blue Bird, Madronos, and Gaité Parisienne. For a few short hours the grace, the gaiety—in short, the magic of the dance world—was ours.

Alec Templeton

Alec Templeton, a Welsh pianist and composer, studied at the Royal Academy of Music in London and the Royal College of Music. He has appeared as a soloist with the London Symphony. The musician came to this country in 1935 and became well-known to Americans through his radio programs.

The concert at OU consisted not only of Debussy, Ravel, and Rachmaninoff, but of several humorous informal improvisations. Mr. Templeton's versatility enabled him to appeal to every listener's taste.

Cornelia Otis Skinner

Cornelia Otis Skinner's appearance at Ohio University was a delight to all who attended her performance. She herself wrote and produced the humorous monologues which she presented.

After study at Bryn Mawr College and in Paris, Miss Skinner returned to the United States and appeared in several plays including "The Searching Wind," "Lady Windemere's Fan," and "Theater." Dissatisfied with this however, she wrote and performed her first character sketches. In addition, the versatile actress has written and starred in her own radio series, made guest appearances on the air, written articles for "The New Yorker" and other magazines, and is writing her own book.

Ice on the sidewalk outside Men's Gym; inside a crowd, tensely excited, watching. Who's got eleven? Get that rebound! Rubber soles thudding on the court. A ball arching high. The walls pulsate with the roar of the crowd. This is the basketball season.

OU court history

OU's first winning basketball team since 1946-47 racked up a total of 1,549 points in twenty-four games for a 64.5 average.

Jack Betts, Glen Hursey, Dave Leichtenheimer, Ralph Readout, and Elwood Sparks were the squad stalwarts this year. Three players bettered last year's top individual average of 11.9. The leading scorer, guard Glen Hursey, had 290 points for a 12.1 average. Forward Jack Betts and guard Elwood Sparks had 263 and 238 points respectively.

In the percentage department the Bobcats hit .306 of their field goals and .631 of their fouls. They made 601 of the 1,964 goals tried and 347 of the 550 free throws attempted.

season

Playing beautifully on their home court but poorly on foreign floors, the Bobcats finished the season with a record of thirteen wins and eleven losses.

The won-lost column, however, doesn't tell the whole story, for coach Jim Snyder's boys played better than the figures indicate. They rose to great heights when they defeated Cincinnati and Bowling Green. At the time of the upsets Cincy ranked fourteenth in the national basketball rating and BG was given honorable mention.

In the first contest of the season the OU cagers used a fast break to good advantage and beat Marietta 57-45. Coach Snyder in this game unveiled his sophomore center, Ralph Readout, who played brilliantly in his varsity debut.

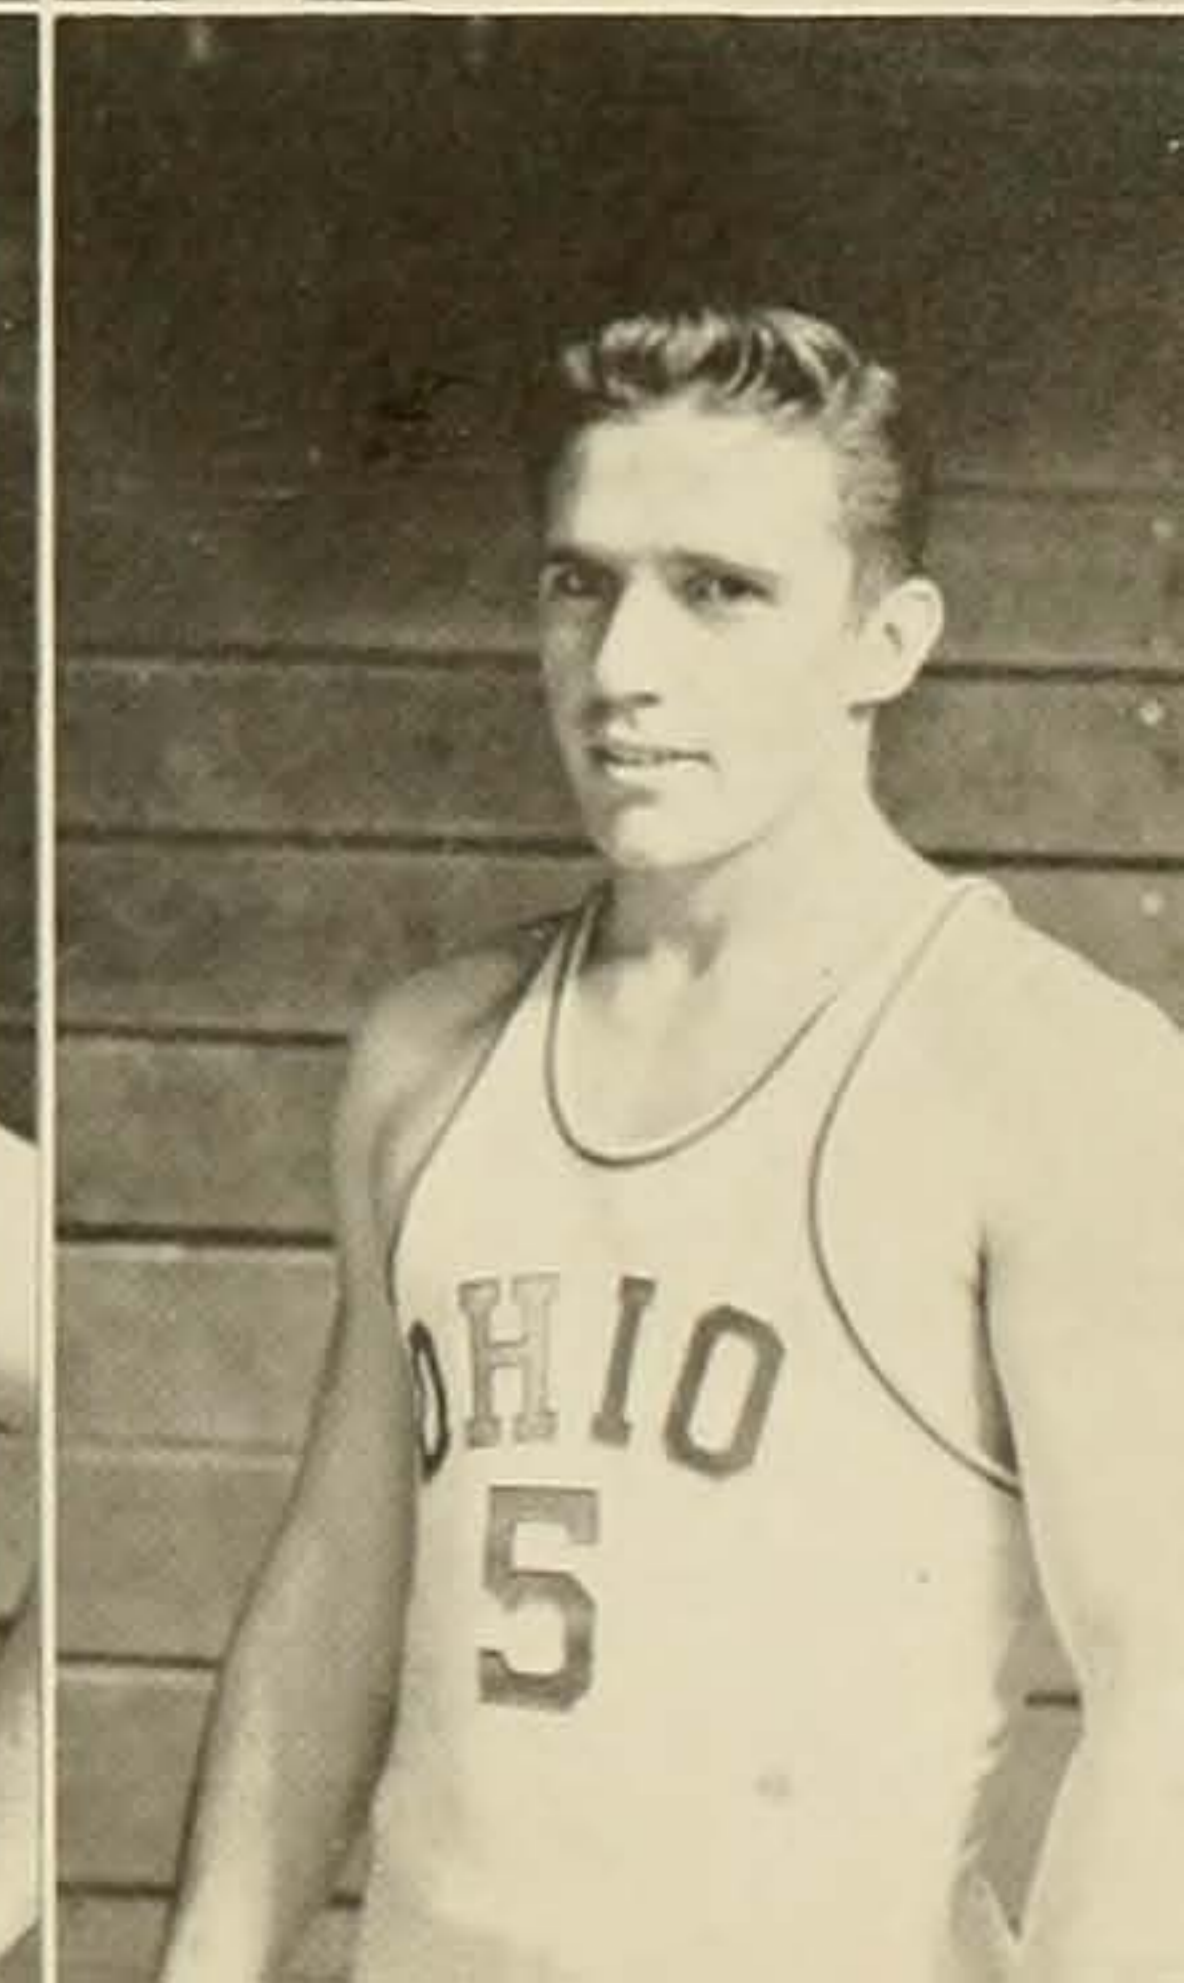

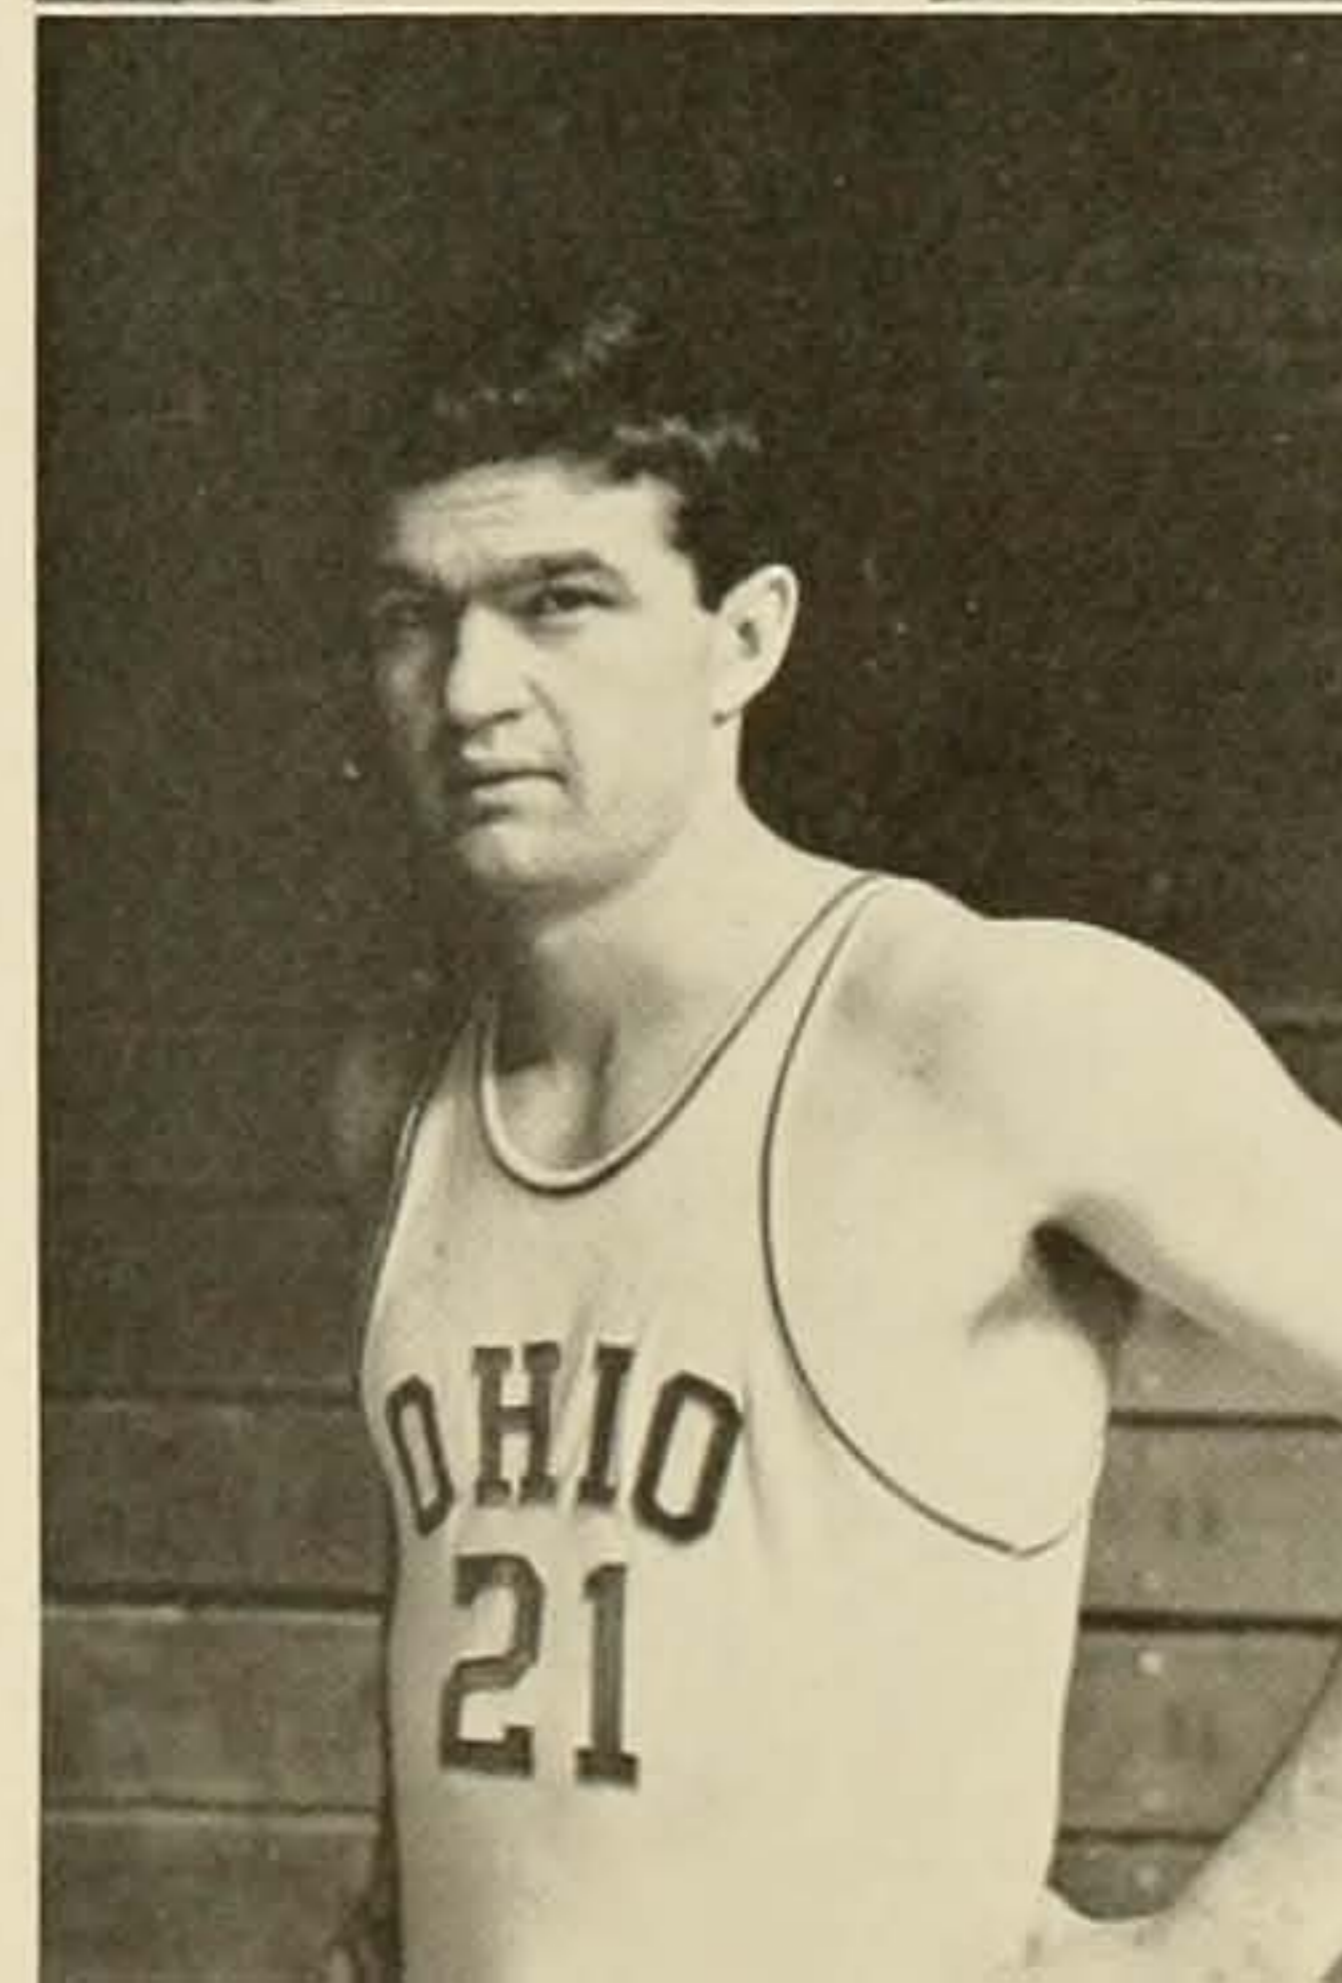

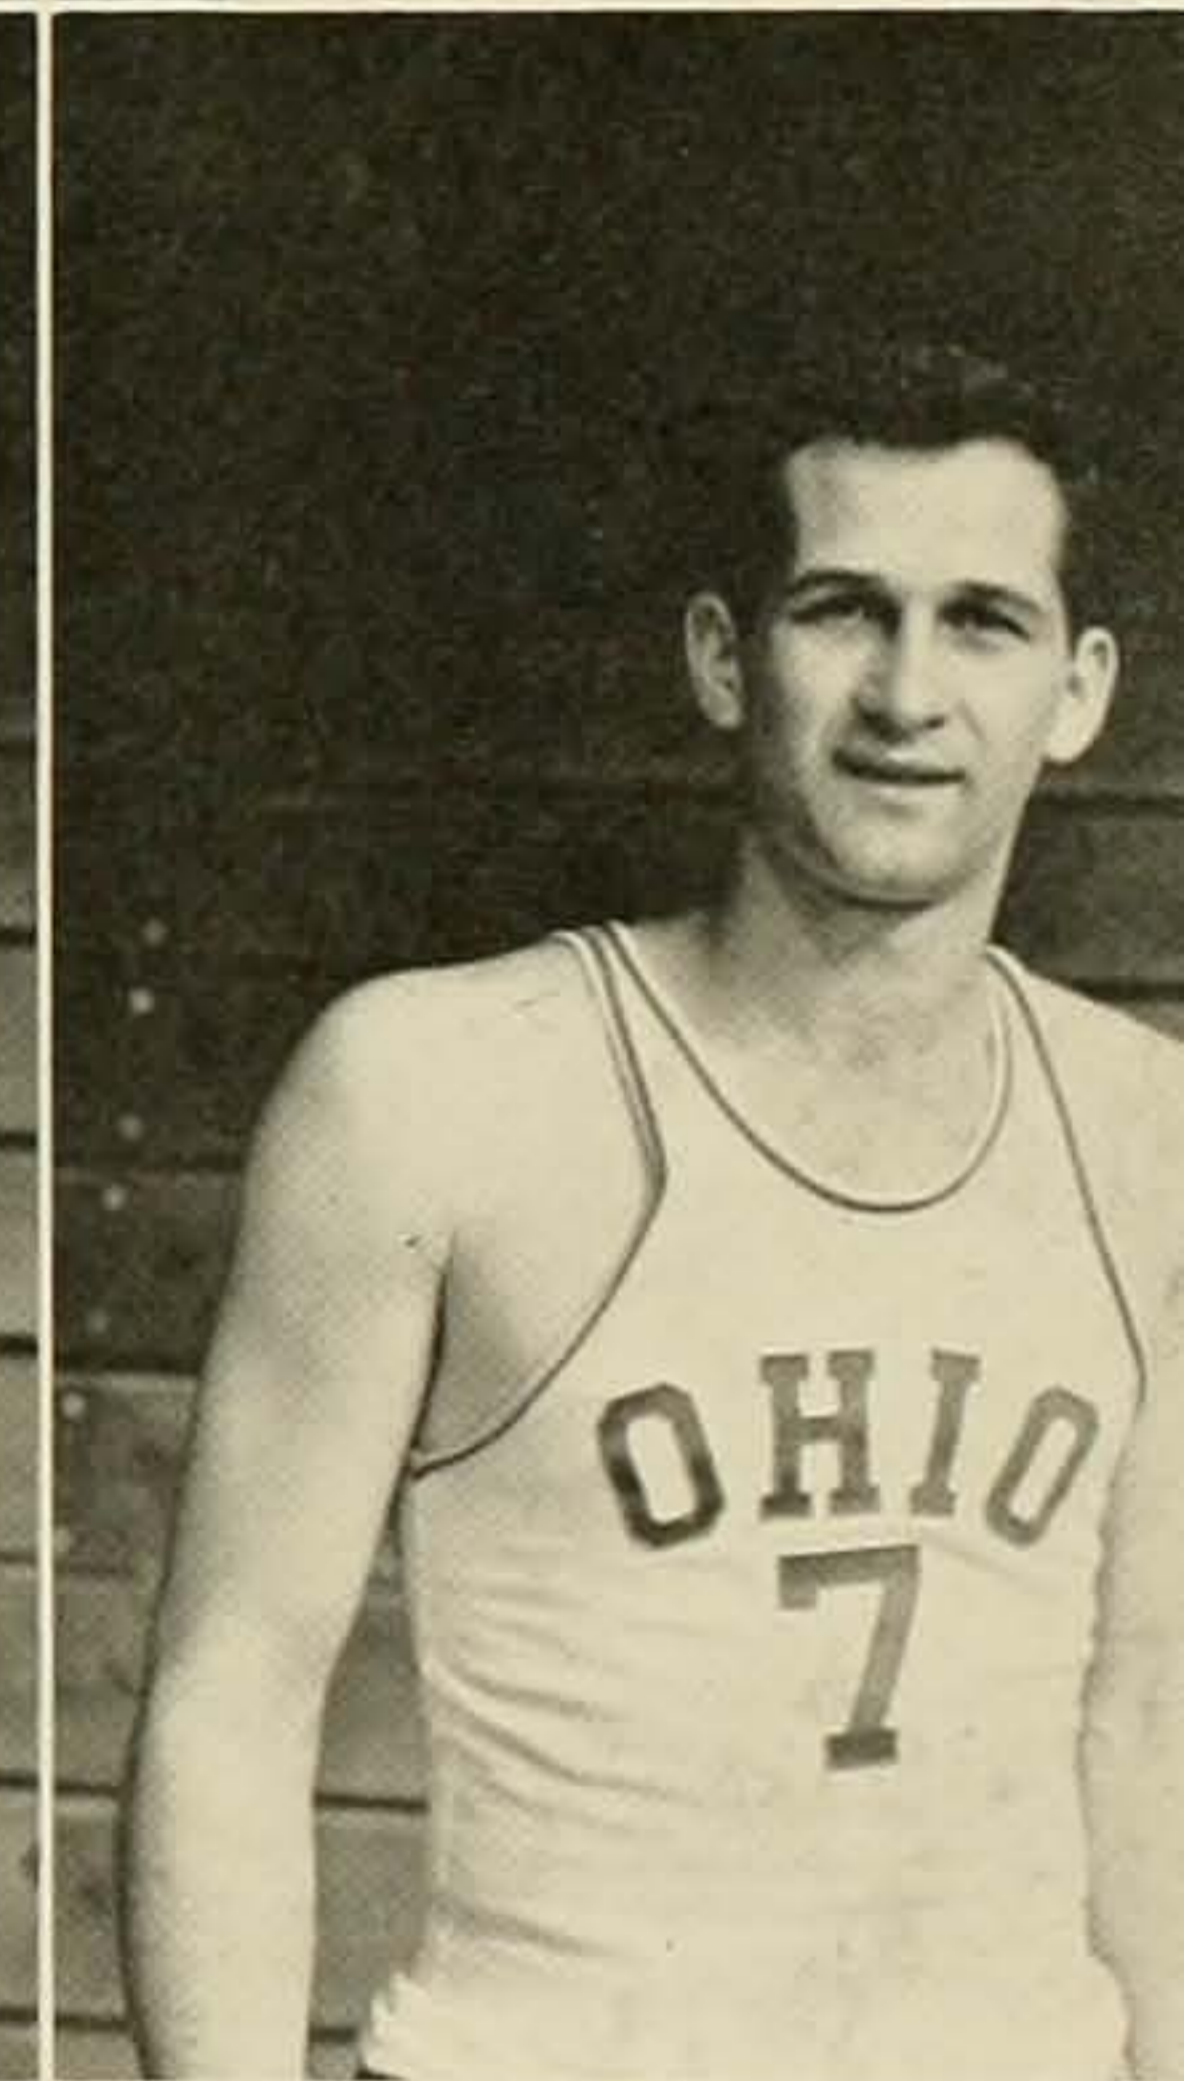

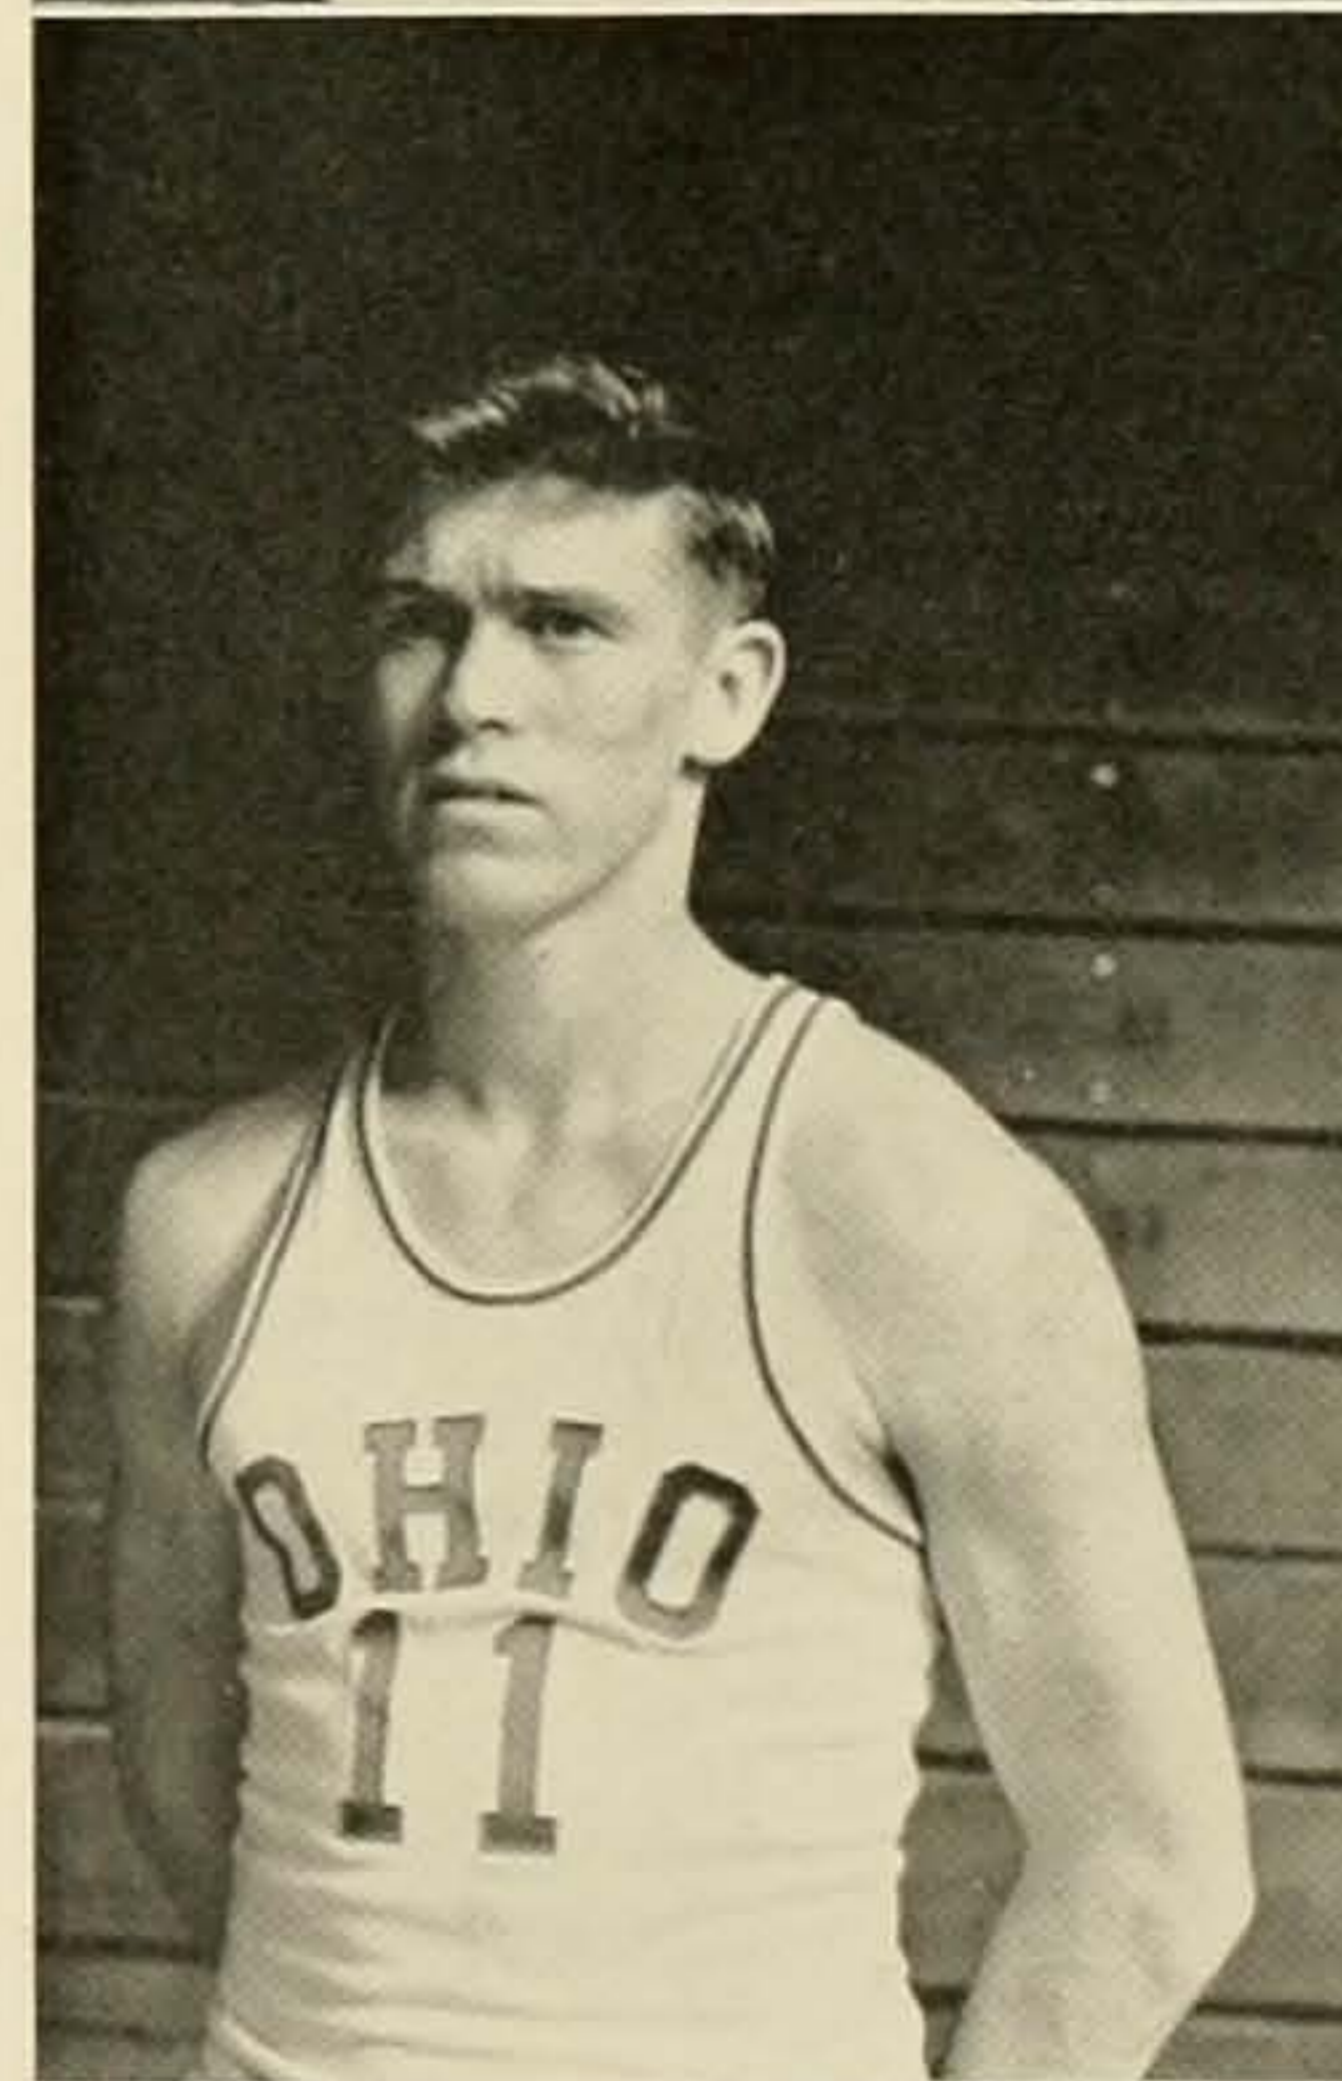

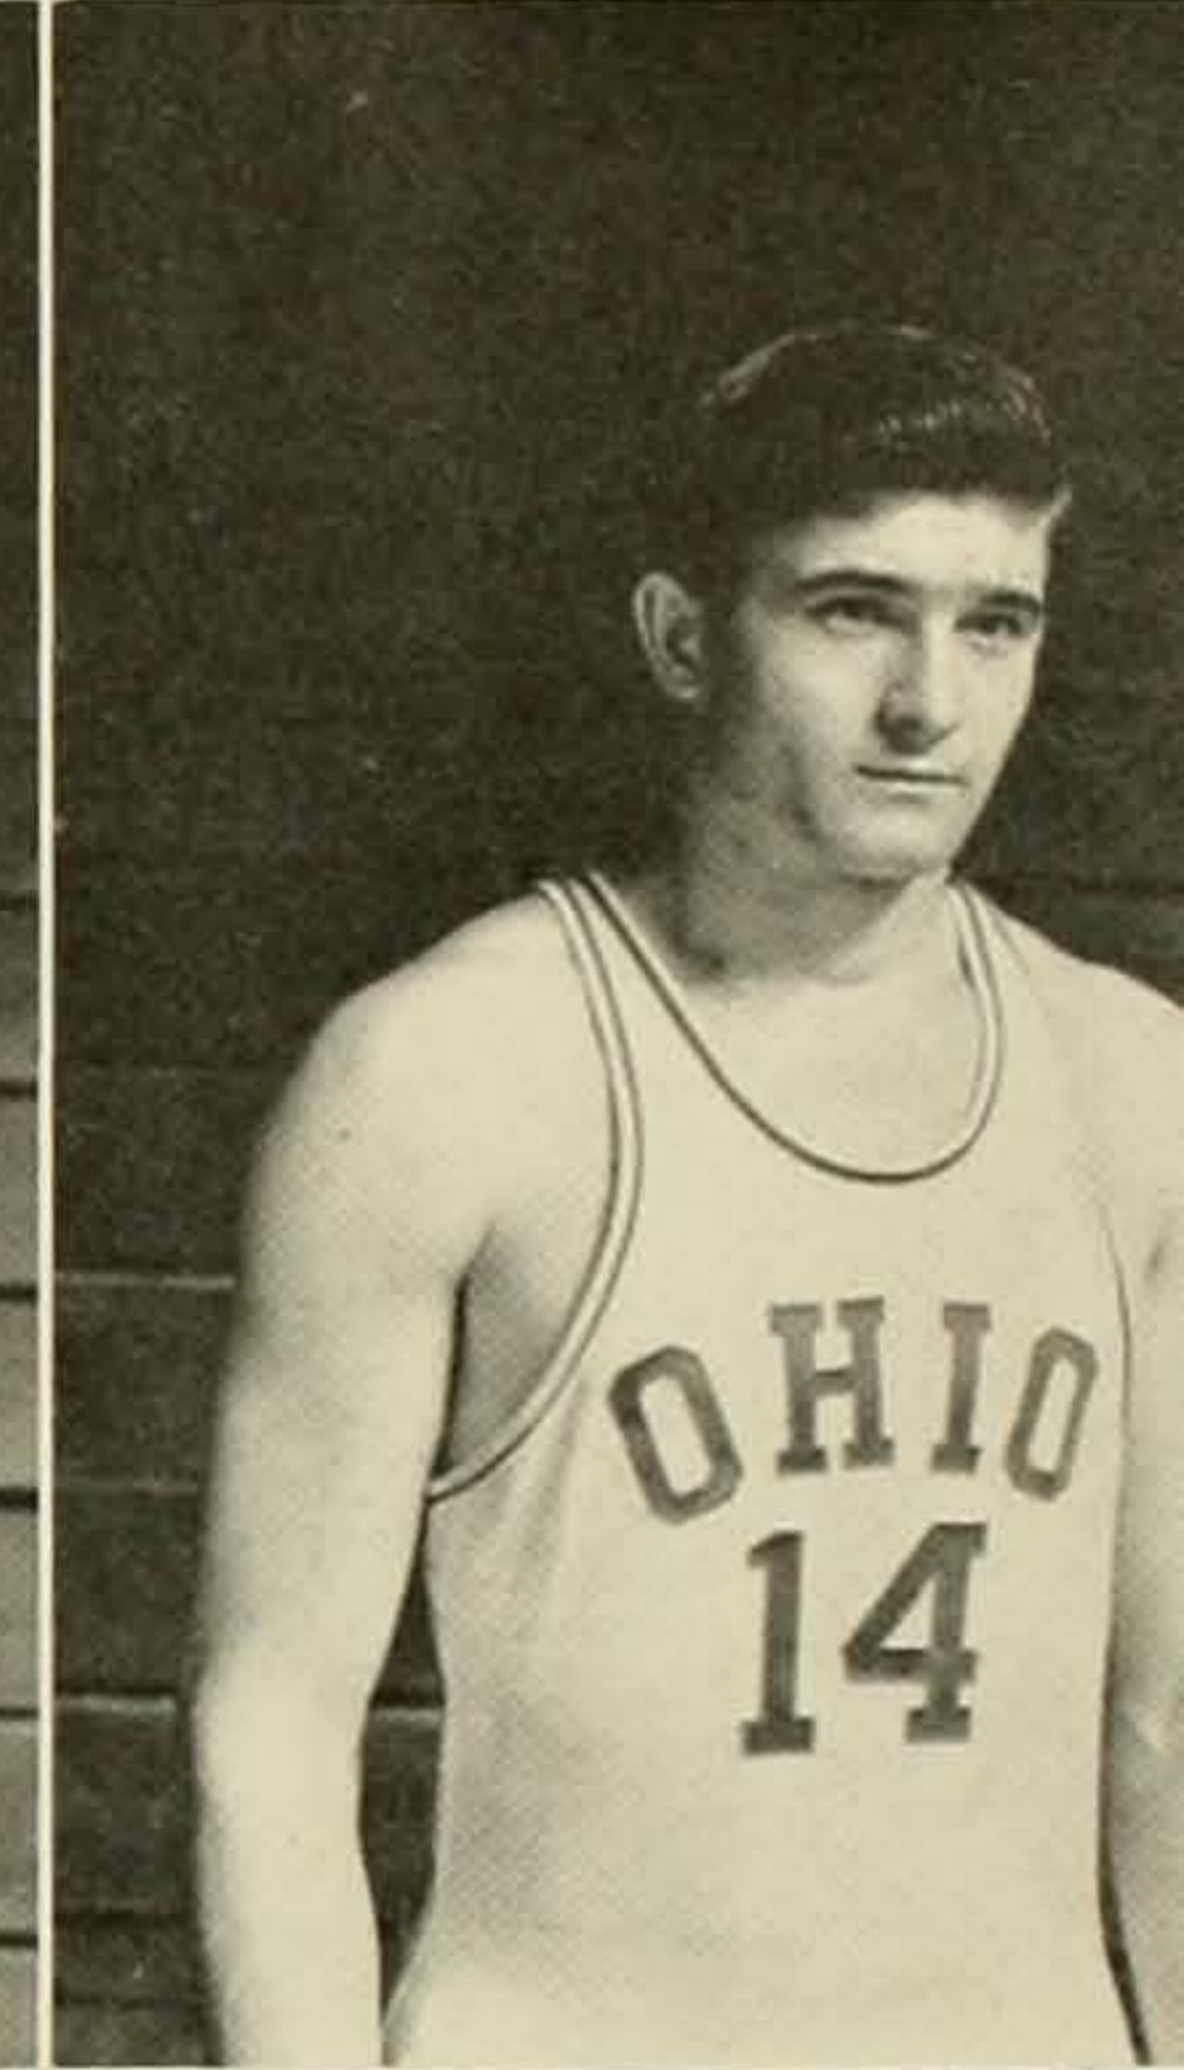

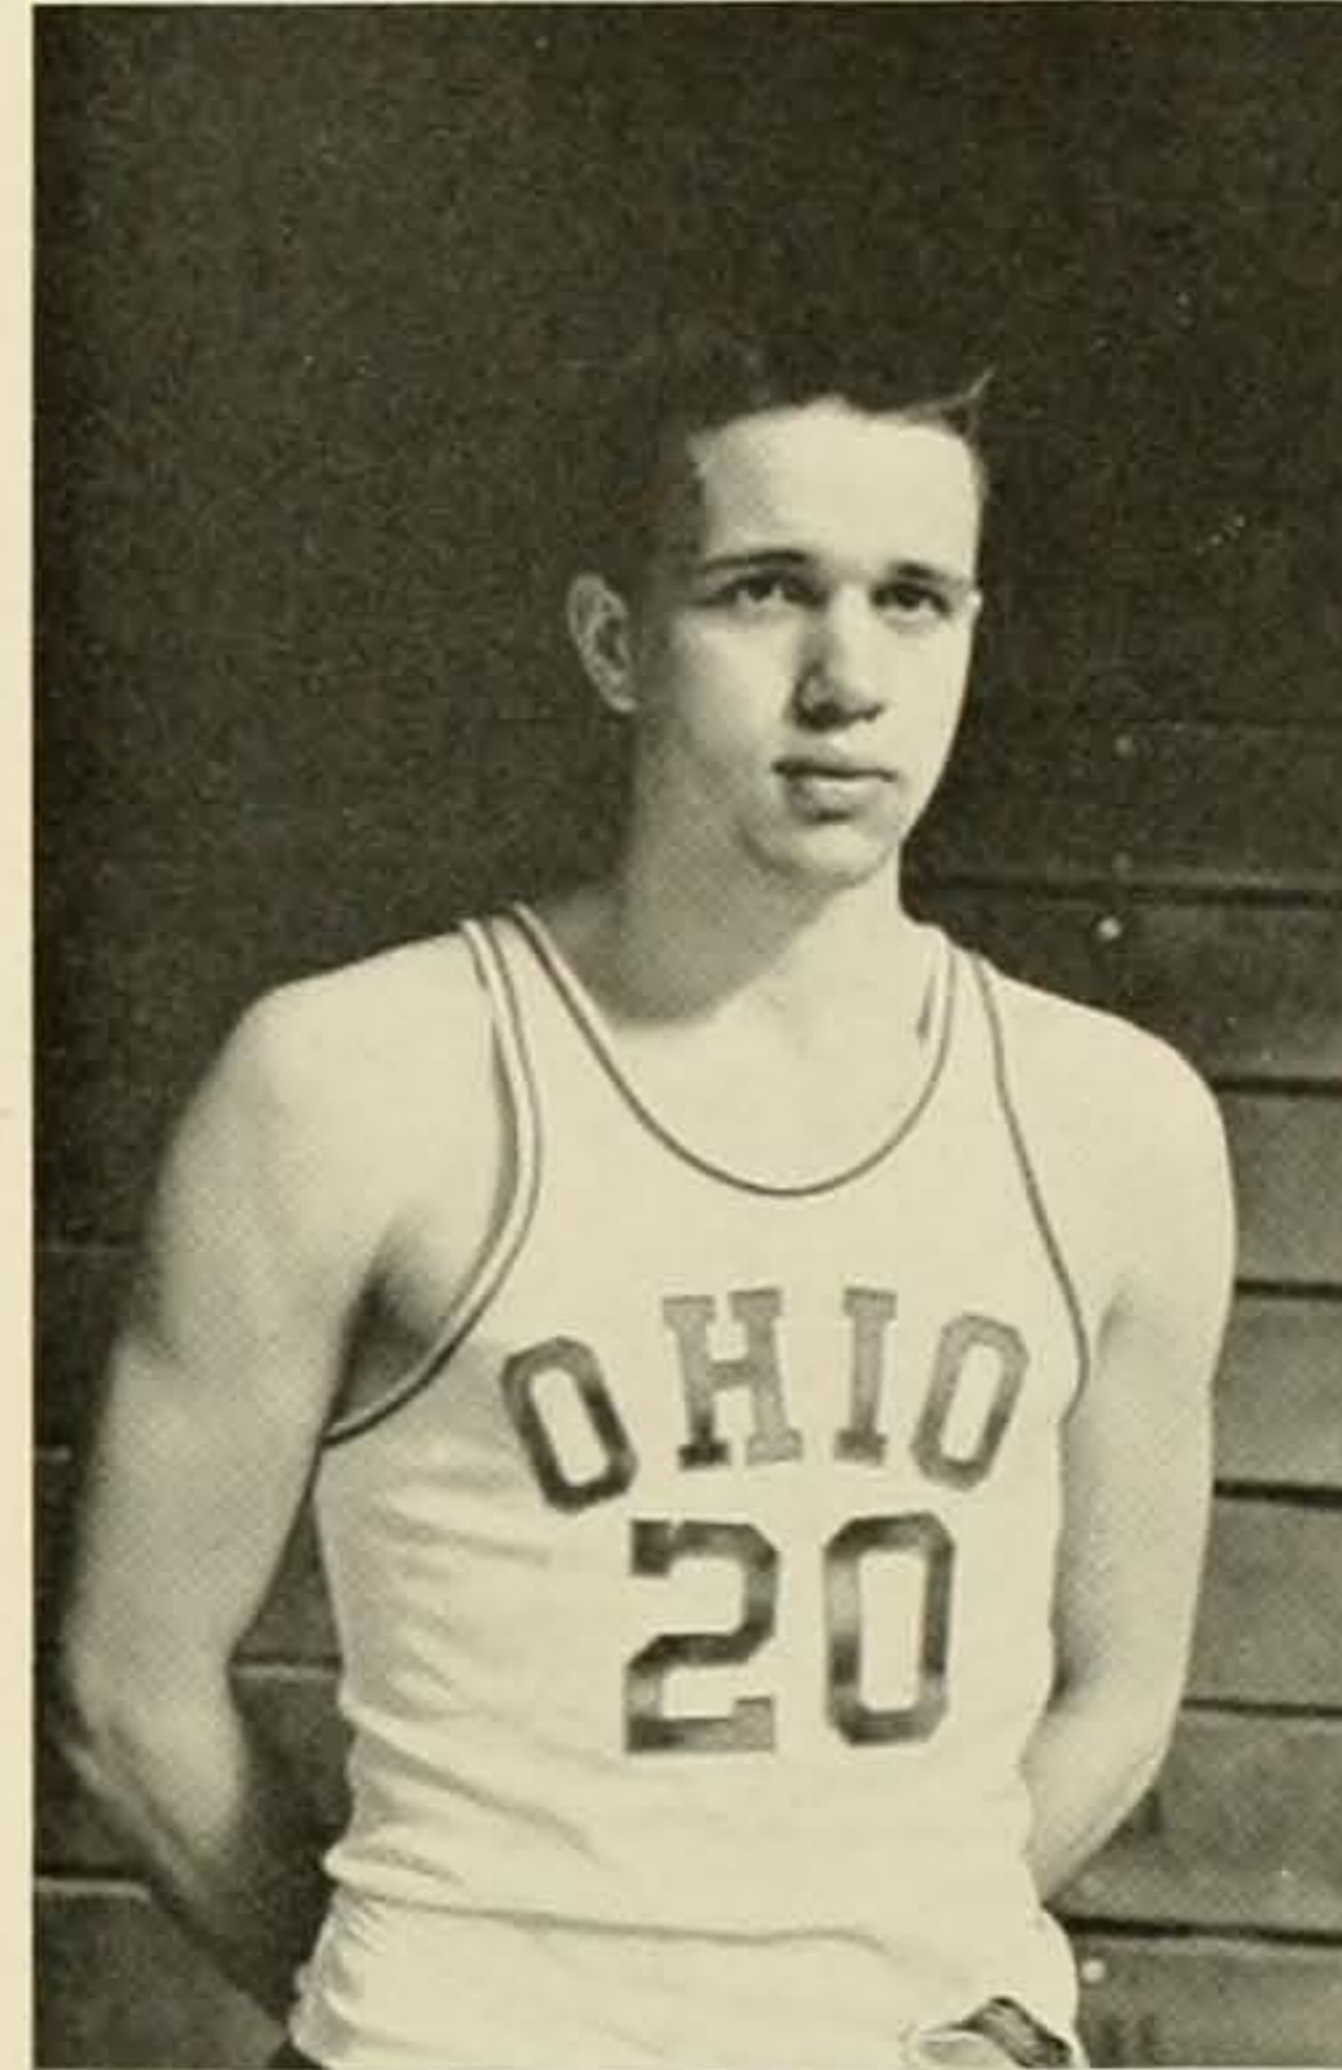

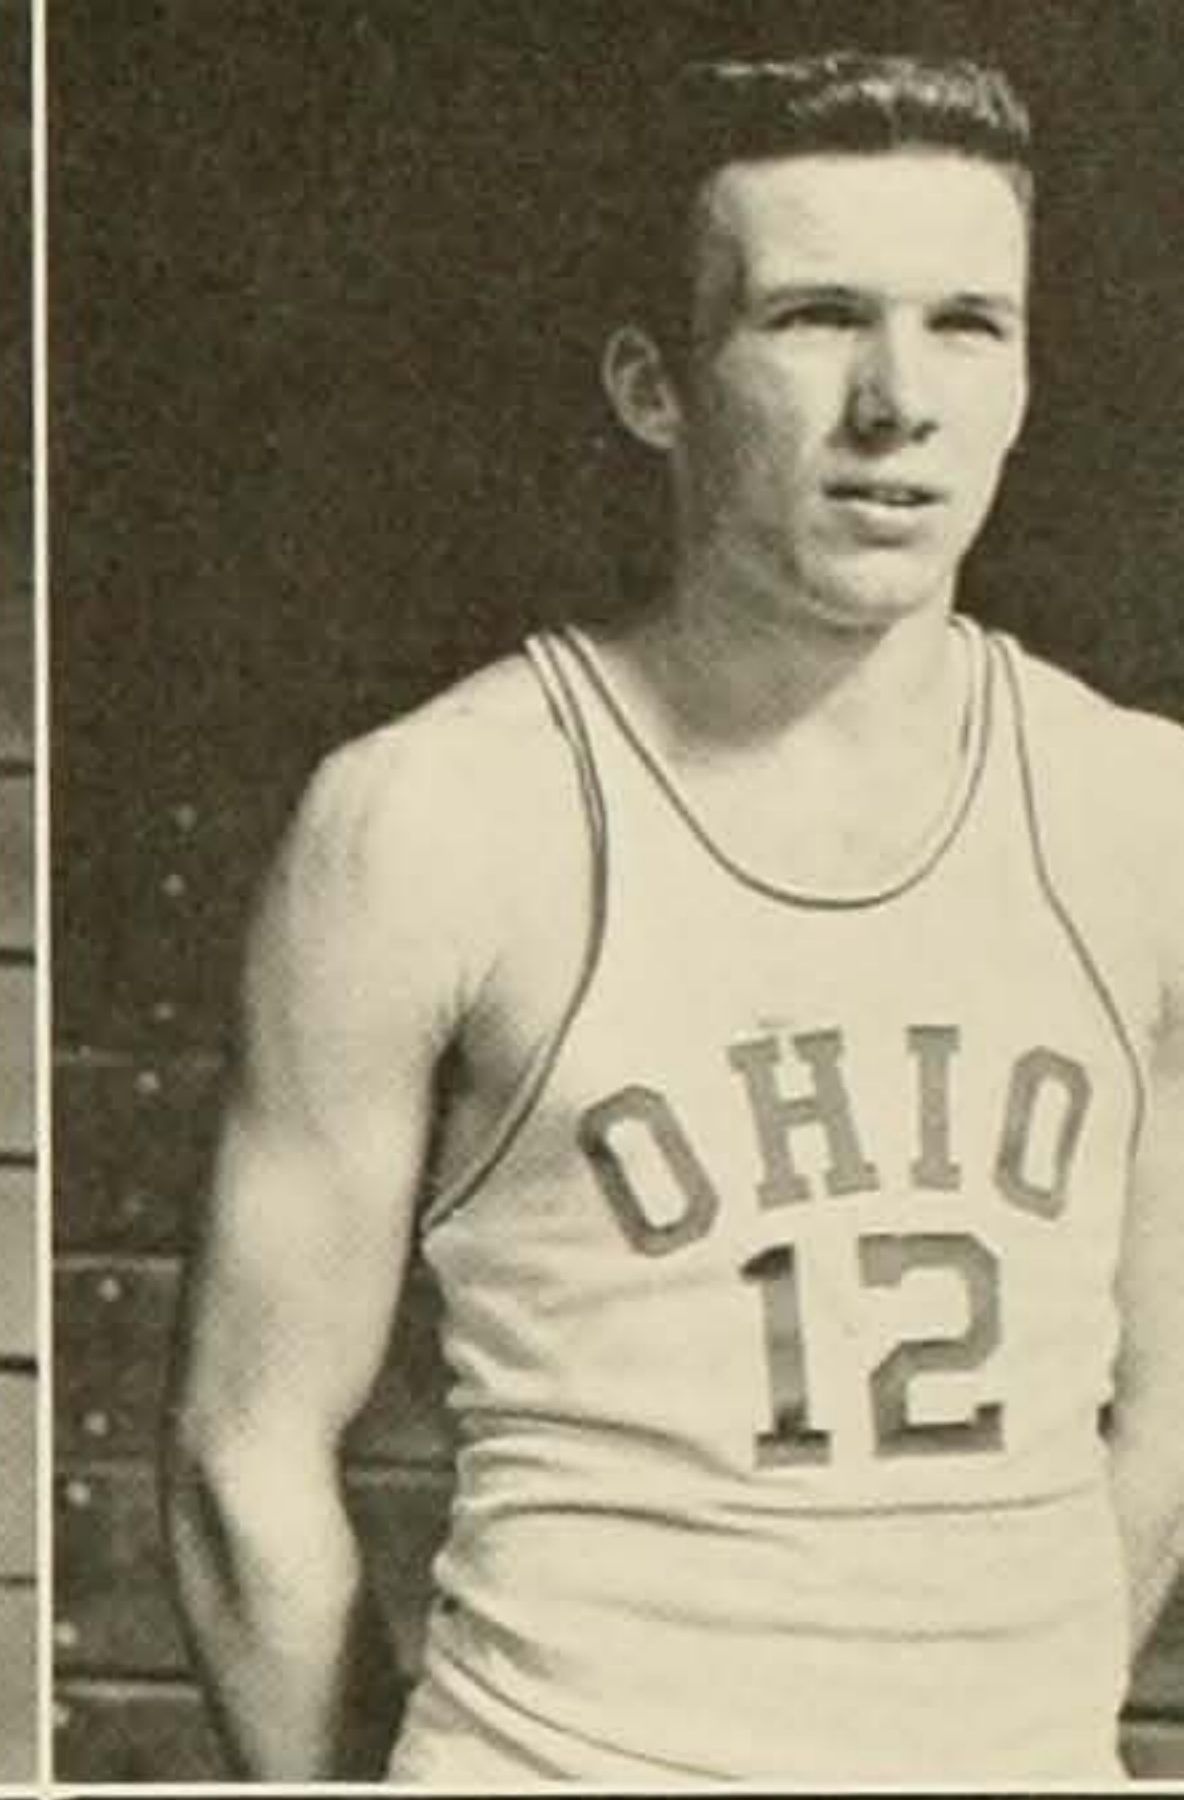

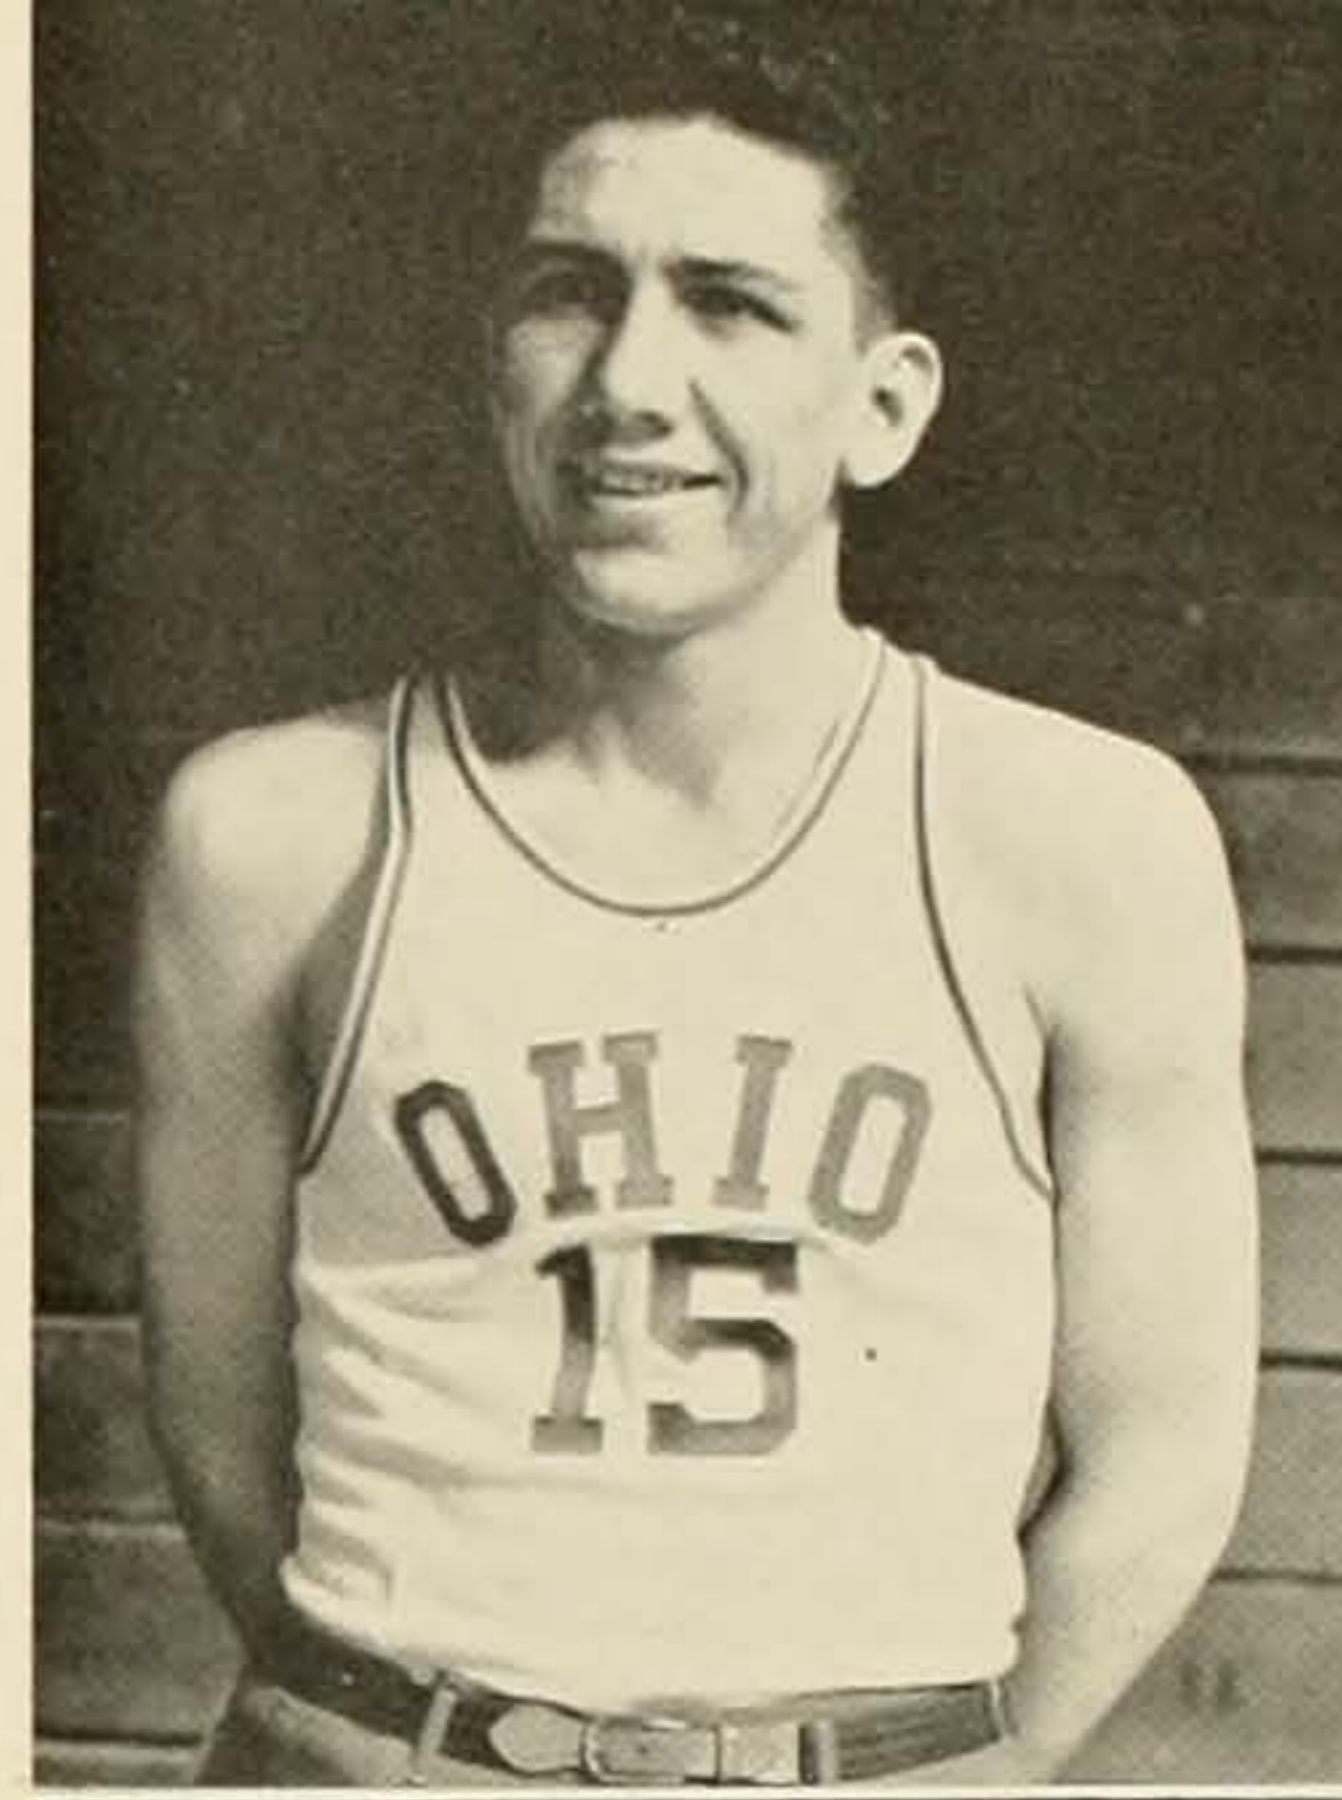

The team remained undefeated for the next three games as they downed Kent State 61-46, Ohio Wesleyan 75-57, and Akron 57-52.

Meeting a red hot Youngstown five, the OU hoopsters suffered their first setback. Youngstown was one of the better shooting clubs played by the Bobcats all season.

In tournament competition Ohio lost a hard-fought game to Bowling Green 74-69, but defeated Kent State for the second time.

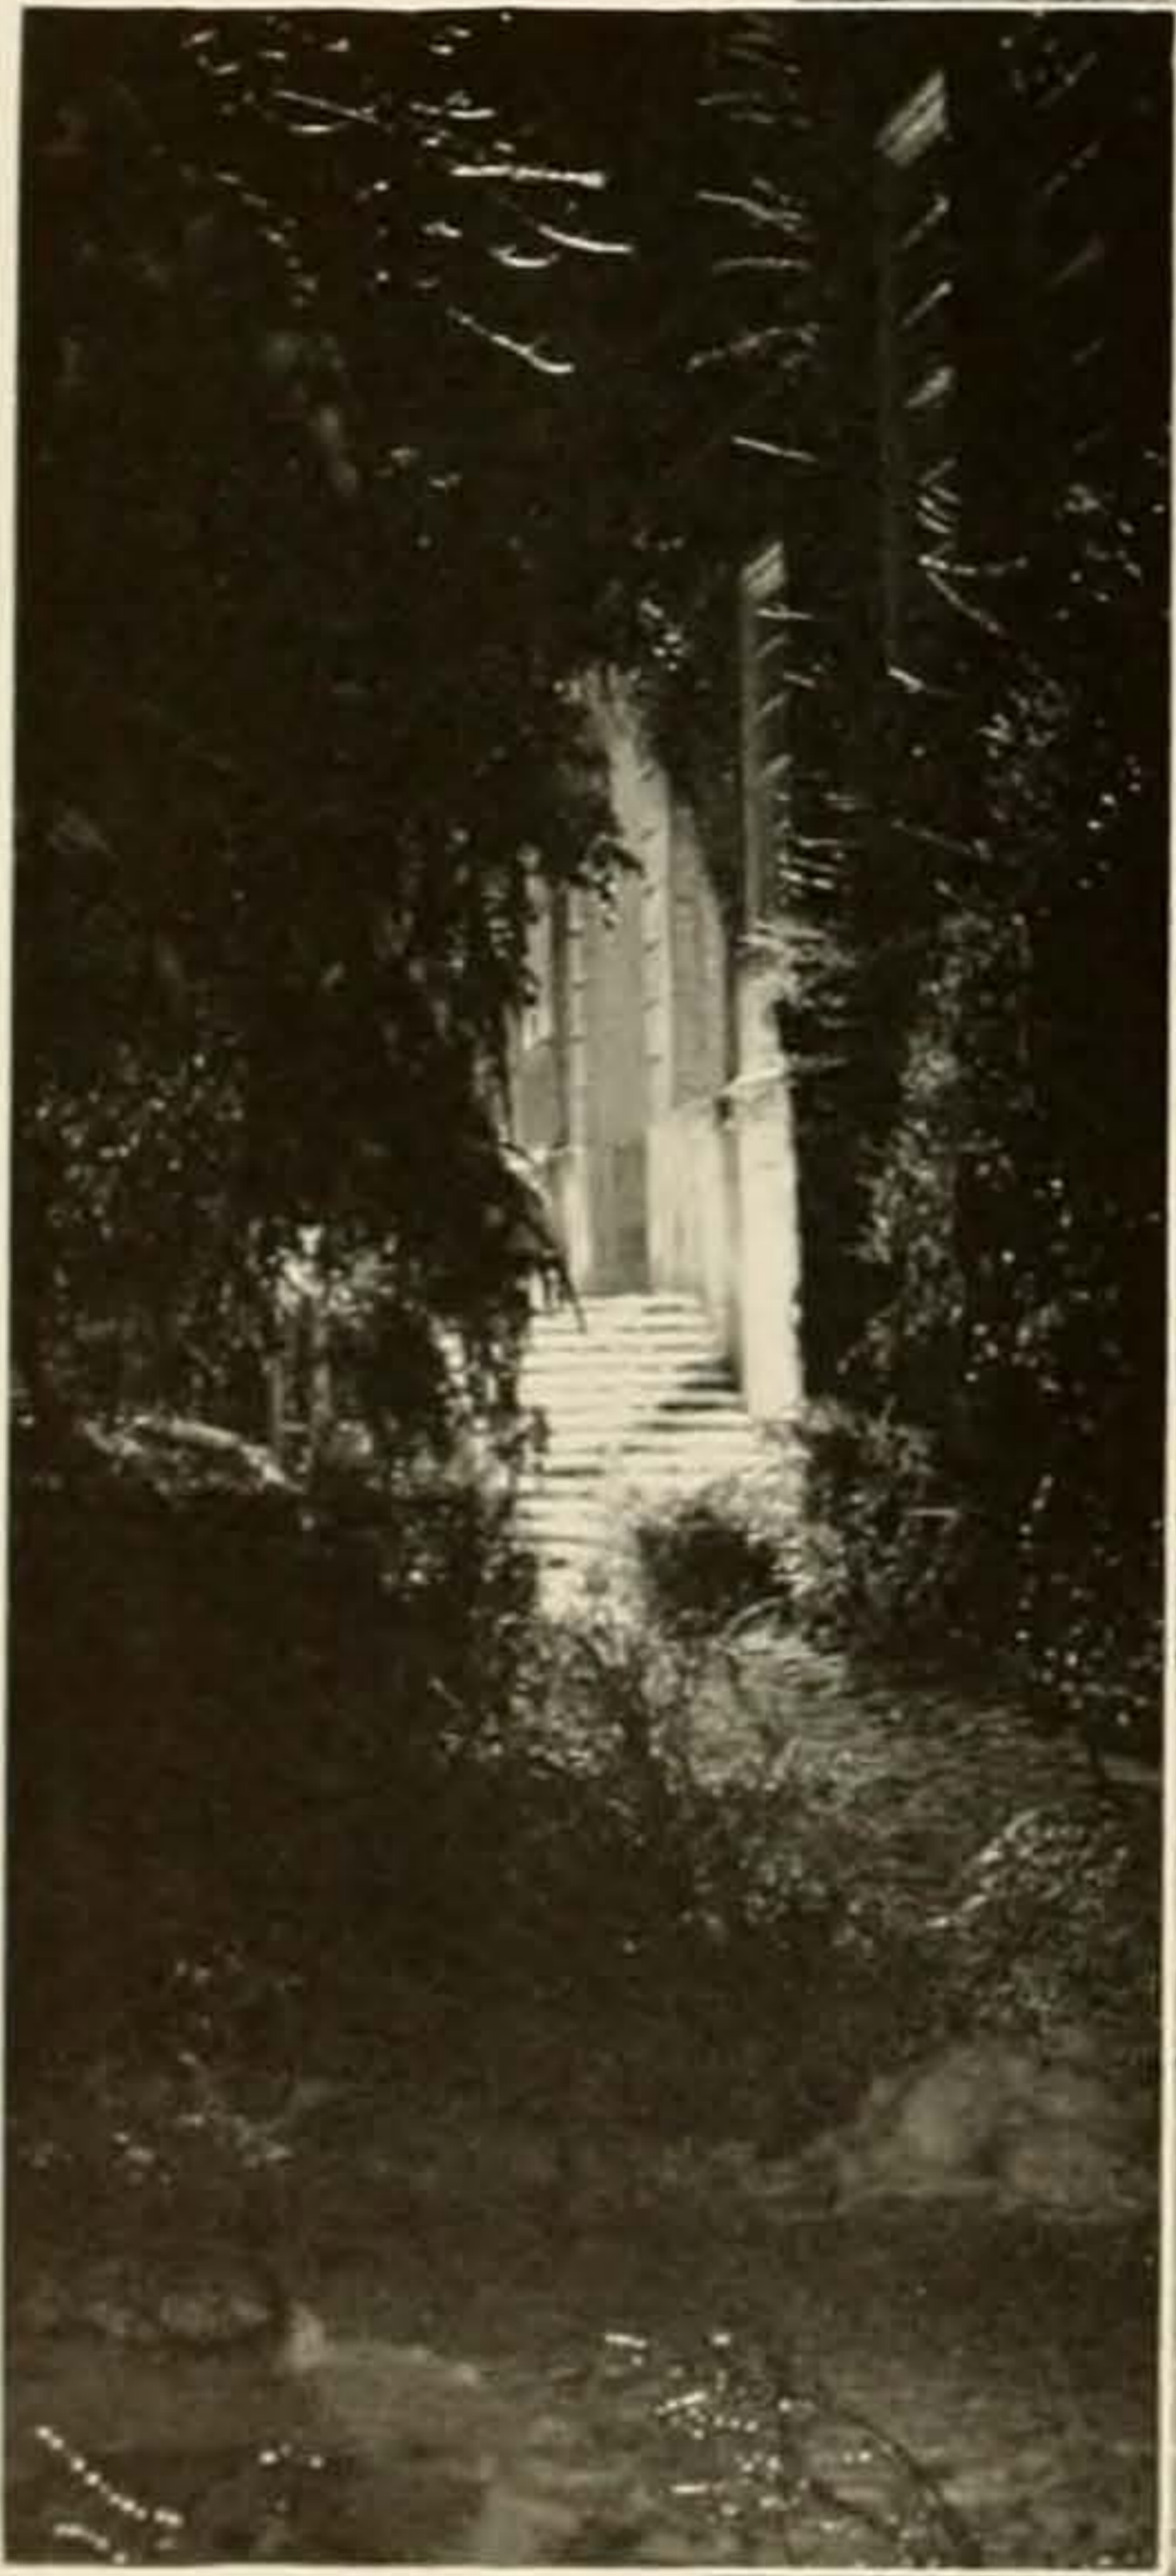

The Western Michigan Broncos were the only team to beat OU twice. The Bobcats split games with Marietta, Bowling Green, Cincinnati, Marshall, and Miami. They racked up double victories over Kent State, Western Reserve, and Cedarville.

ATHENS

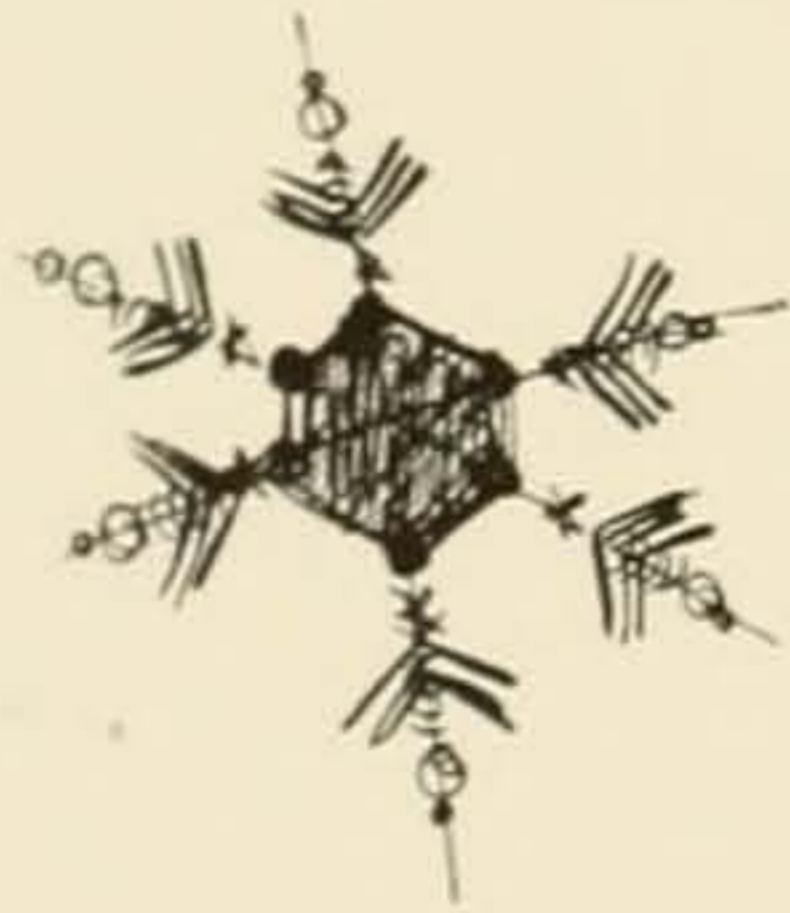

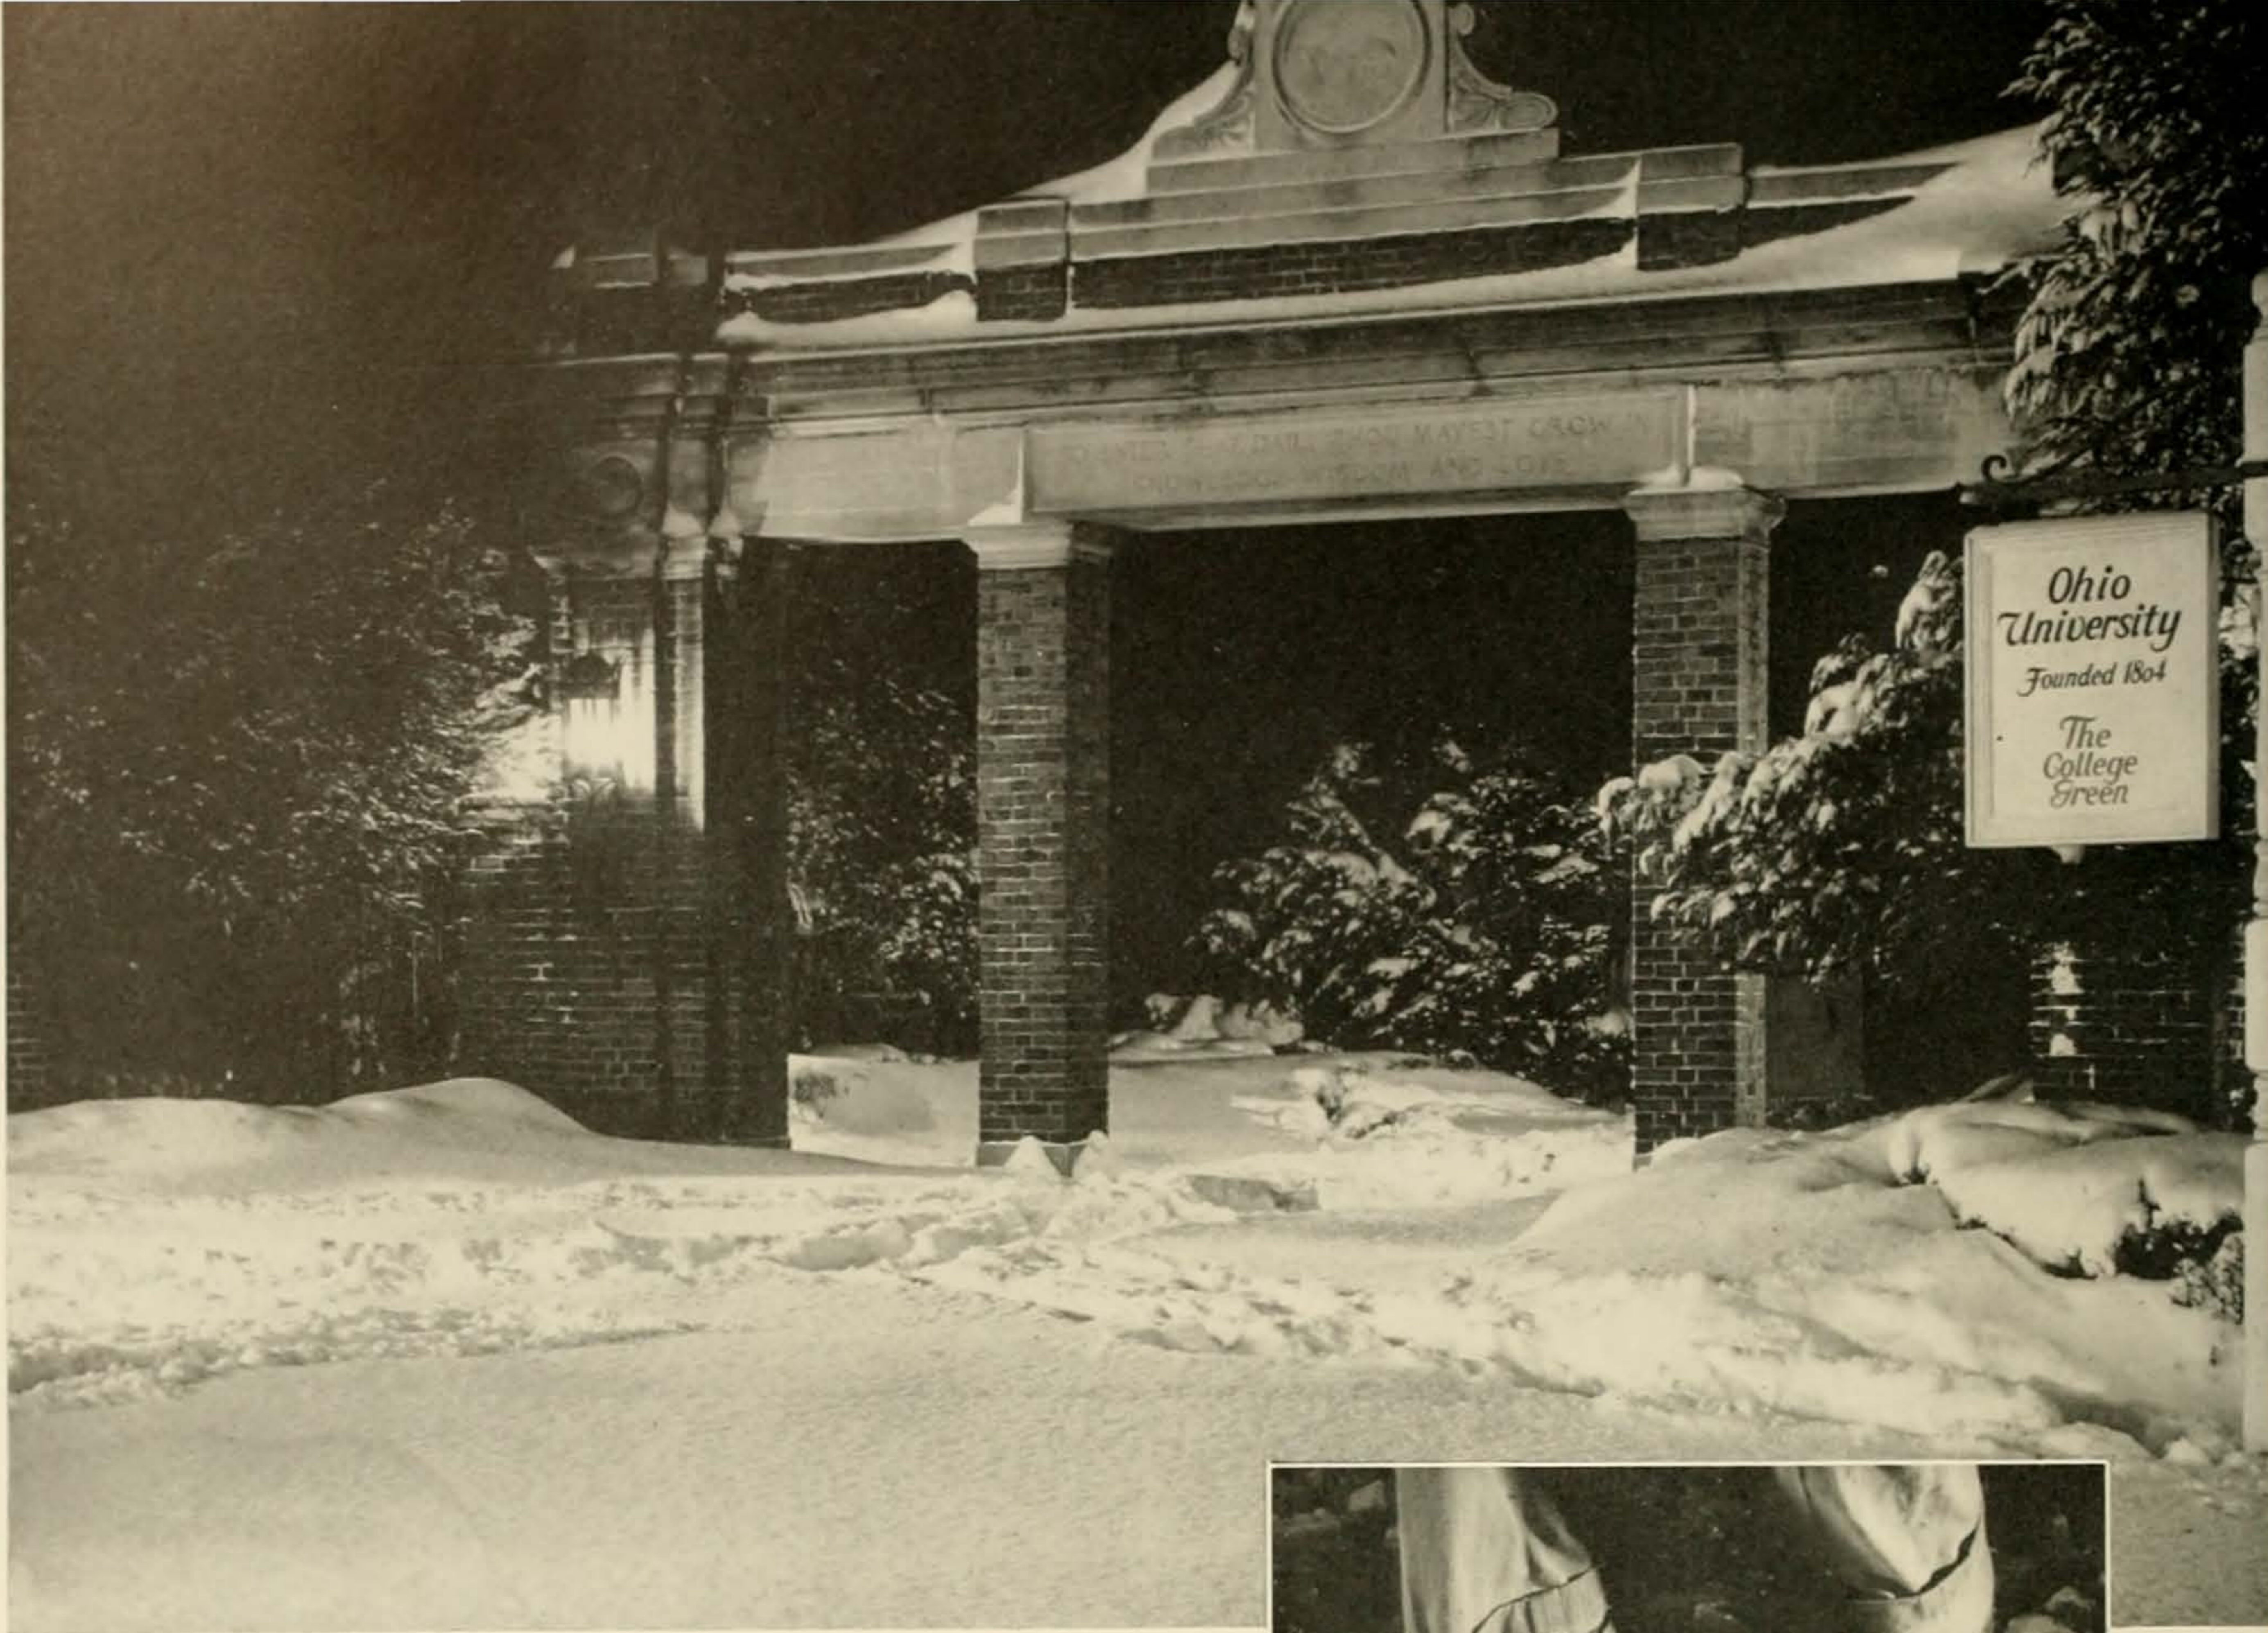

STYLE

It began as snow but the night was still too warm. Rain slashed the snow-sky. We stayed indoors; went to bed early. The cold increased. A viking wind swept in from the north, fierce, ravaging. Then it sped on thrusting the rain and snow before it. We awoke to a glazed world. A million beams of light, diffused through ice, shot into our windows. We stepped cautiously out among the frozen cobwebs. Athens was a crystal cathedral mosaiced with infinite glistening stones.

Footprints on snow marked the hundred different paths of student life

Winter came early to Athens. Flakes sprinkled from the gray sky. They fell in an increased tempo. These were blizzard days, and OU was snowbound. The world became a white monotone in which form was the supreme factor. We tugged on boots, knotted scarves, and ploughed out into the frosty novelty. We threw that extra blanket over the bed; we begged roommates to get up and close the windows. Eight o'clock A.M. was a formidable hour. The snow season brought increased social activity: the Athena dance, Coed Prom, Military Ball. It brought Christmas vacation and it brought studying for finals. We enjoyed winter, but we began to look for that first warm day, a newly returned robin, and spring.

Prom

Coed Prom, February 7th, was the "Night of Knights." At this turnabout affair the coeds did the inviting and escorting. Sir Galahad was a man of leisure as his lady opened doors, checked coats, paid for refreshments, and walked on the outside of the sidewalk.

The gals even took over the flower department. Bird-cages, balloons, valentines, and other reasonable facsimiles of corsages were judged at the dance as to the loveliest and the most original. The prize winners were Judy Henniger, Max Winans, Eileen Burrer, and Harry Dalva.

Men's Gym became the ballroom of a medieval castle. The decorations featured silver knights, weapons, shields, cartoons depicting the adventures of a fearless feudal lord, and a mural of the founding of Ohio University patterned after the Bayeux Tapestry.

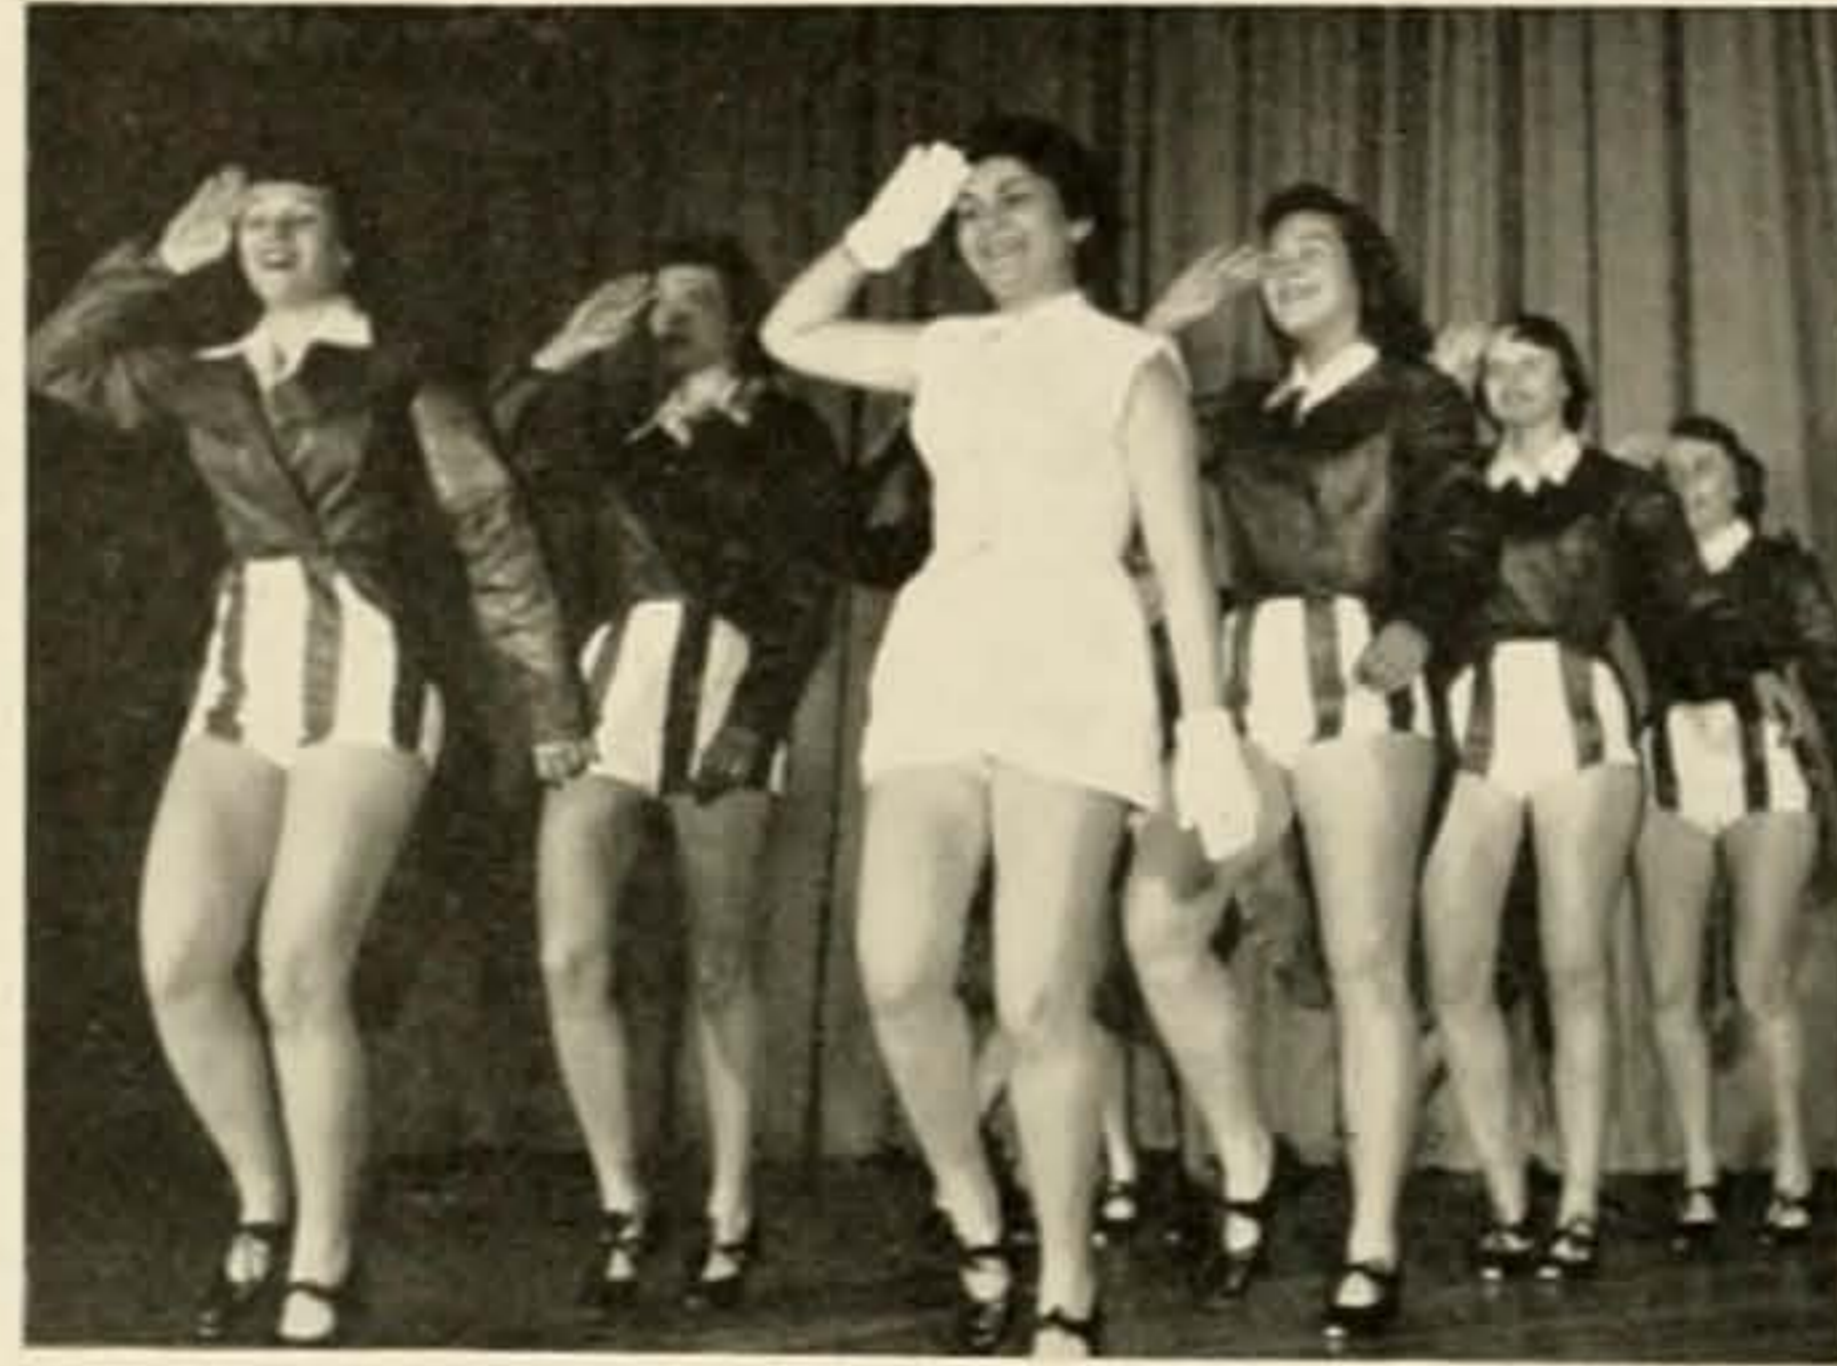

Women's League sponsored the Prom. The organization's committee chairmen connected with the dance were LeDale Williams, social; Bev Brainard, art, and Liz Keating, publicity.

PREP FOLLIES

The 1951 Prep Follies took a musical tour "Across the Nation" from New York to California.

The pledges of each of OU's sororities presented scenes which were combined with pantomime skits by LeDale Williams and Marge Kibler. The opening number was a tap chorus dancing to Yankee Doodle Dandy.

Ann Hammerle and Helen Urban directed the show which was sponsored by the YWCA.

VARSIITY O FOLLIES

The "Good Old Days" were recalled when Varsity O members presented their Follies Wednesday, March 21.

Grandfather Jim McCoy showed grandson Ed Roberts just how things were done way back when.

The skits contrasted modern social life with that of two generations ago. "Saying Good Night," "Football Training," "First College Activity," "Coed Prom," "Rushing Freshman Girls," and "Econ Examination" were among the scenes. Rod Andrew and troupe performed a modern dance number.

SWIMMING

In water: Harry Snavelly, Don Anderson, Alf King, Dave Jones.

Sitting: George Simons, Jack Peter, Dave Koester, George Findlay, Jack Wylam.

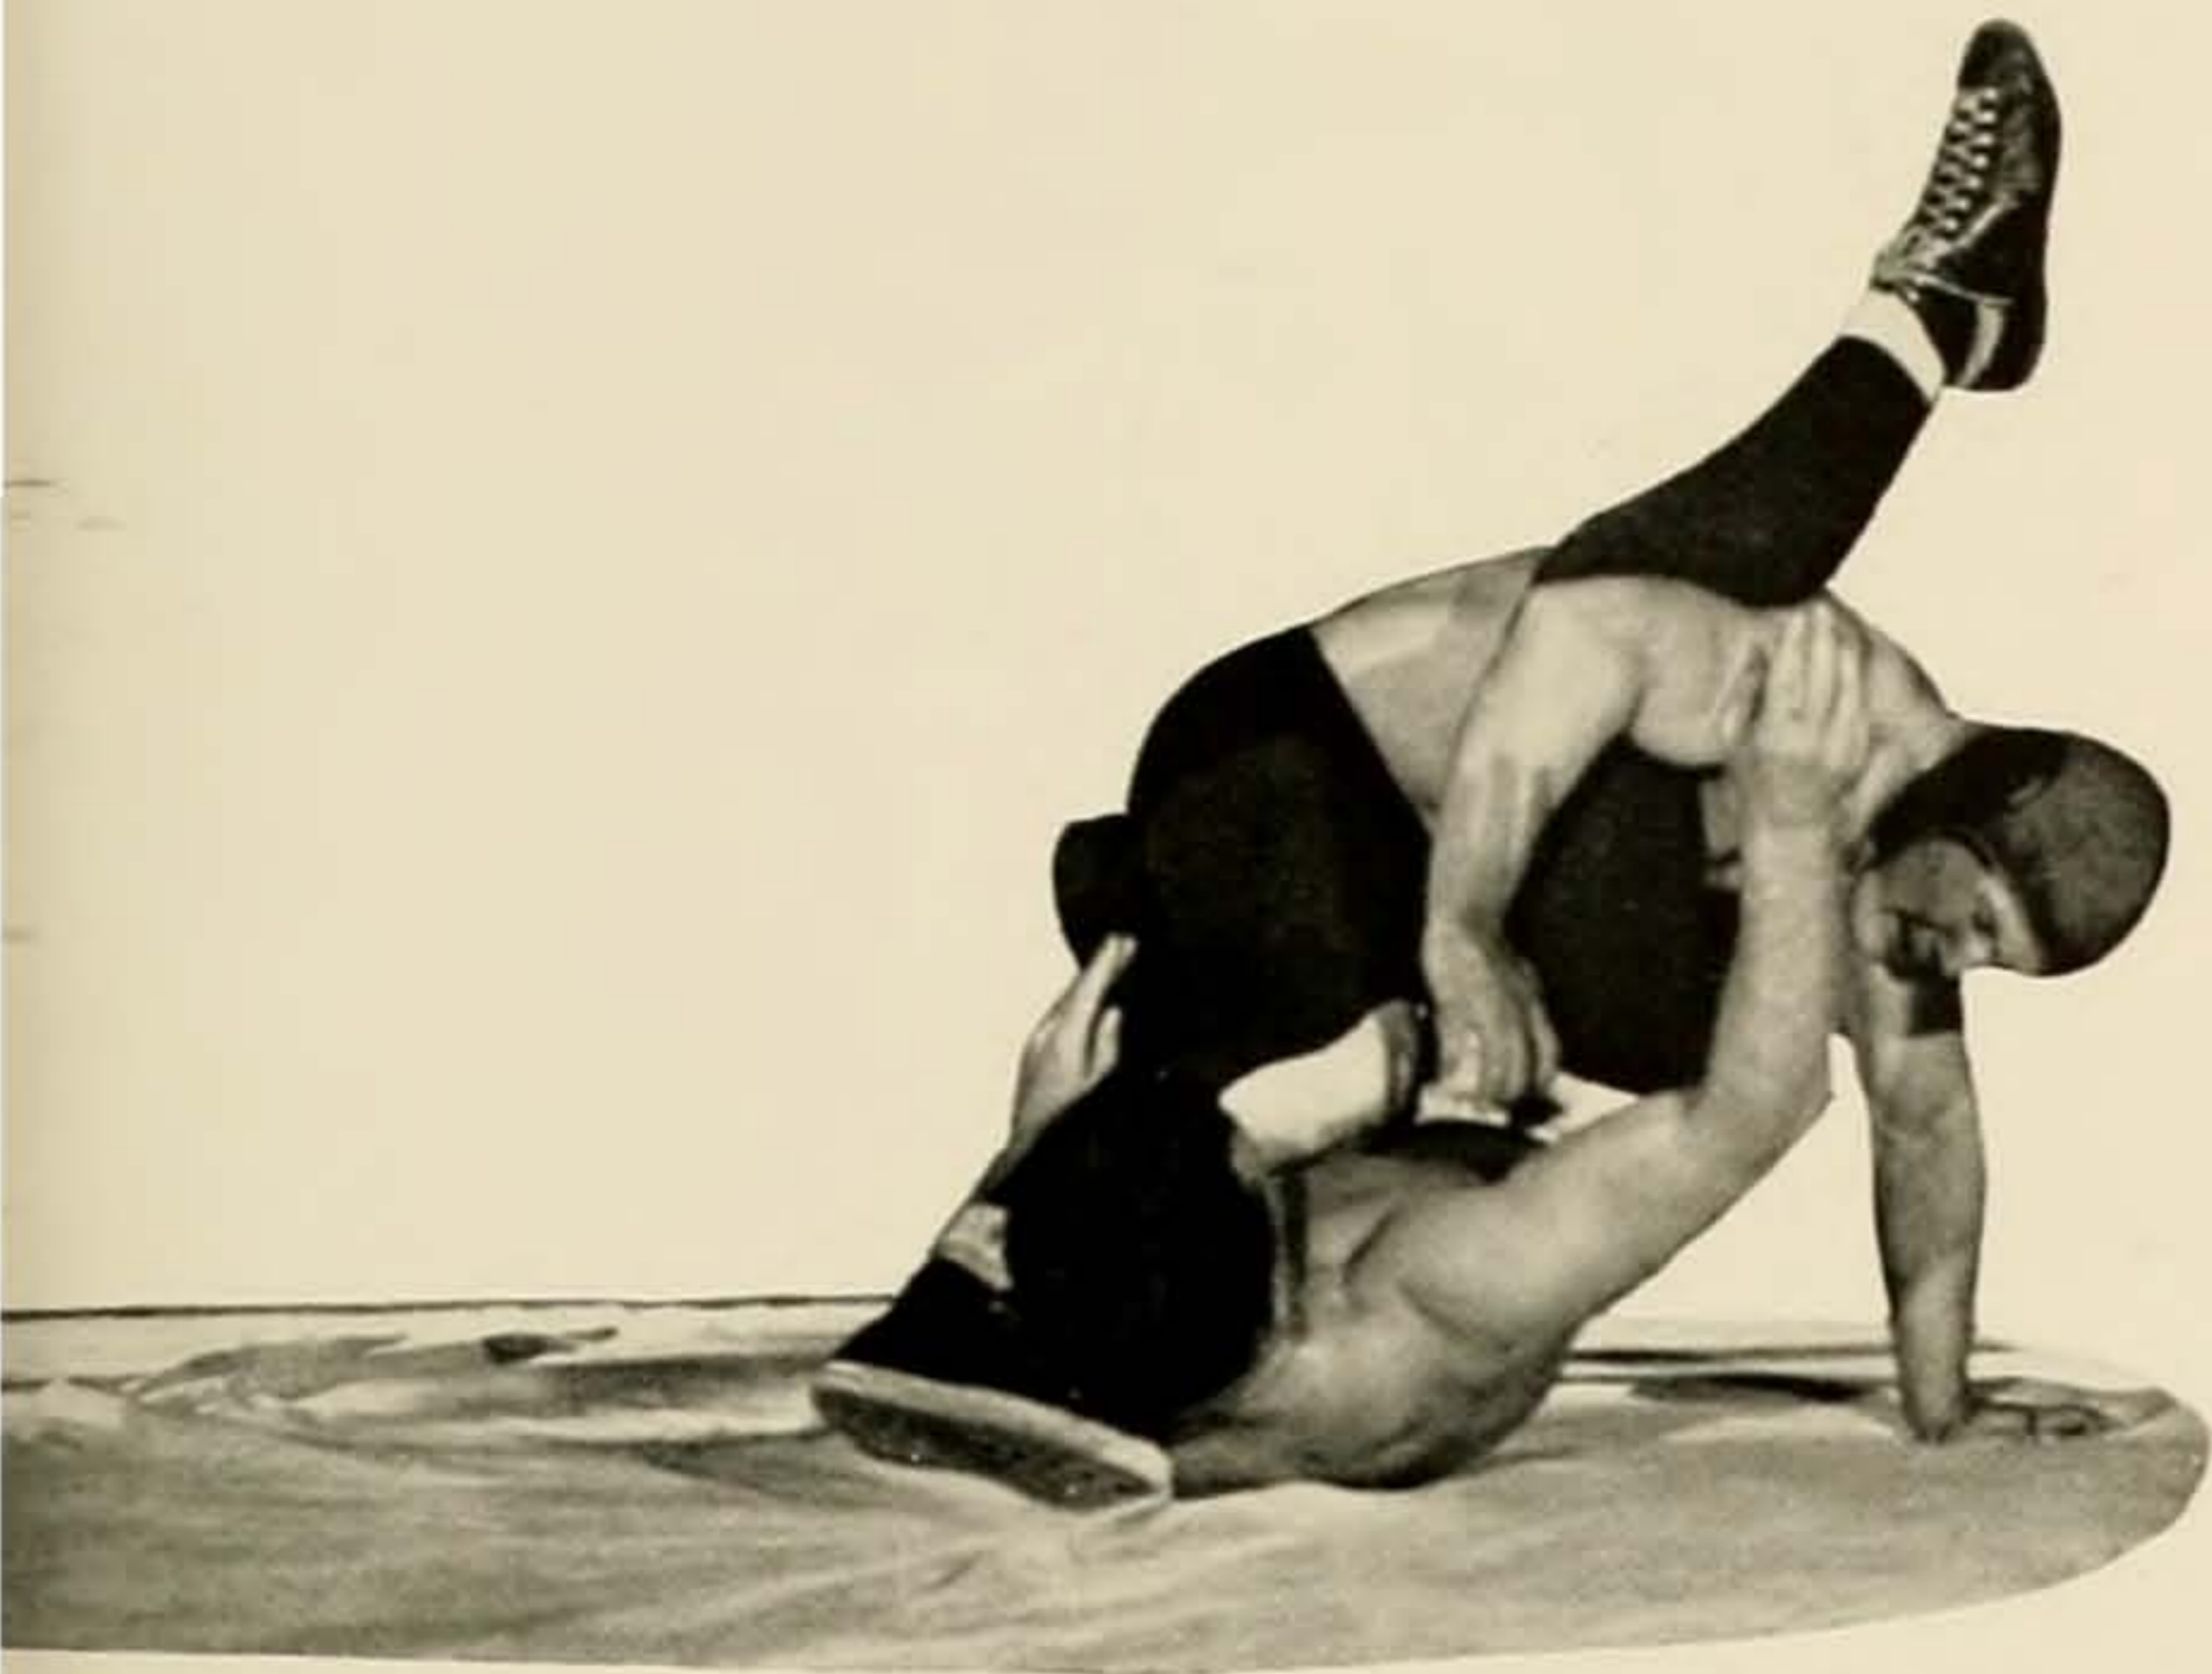

Standing: Oscar Thomas, Bill Price, Jim Cochran, Norm Amidano, Rich Wright, Charlie James, Dave Weinfeldner.

The OU mermen, under coach Oscar Thomas, completed their first season in the new natatorium with a record of seven victories and three losses.

Kenyon, Davis-Elkins, Cincinnati, Detroit, Ohio Wesleyan, Wittenberg, and Fenn bowed to the Bobcats while the powerful squads of Kent State, Bowling Green, and Wayne defeated the OU swimmers.

Dave Koester, competing in the sprint events, garnered most of the OU points. Aiding him in point production were divers Rich Wright and Norm Amidano, distance artists Don Anderson and Harry Snavelly, and breaststroker Alf King.

WRESTLING

A complete reversal of form in the last two matches of the season saved OU's wrestlers from an all-losing record. After dropping nine straight decisions, most of them by narrow margins, the charges of coach Fred Schleicher soundly trounced Western Reserve and Miami 34-0 and 25-3 respectively.

Scott Leeseberg proved that he is one of OU's all-time wrestling greats as he captured ten decisions in eleven outings.

Captain Bill Miller was the Bobcats' second most consistent performer. He wrestled extremely well until receiving a chin injury in mid-season.

Rosemary Bower, Alpha Delta Pi, the honorary colonel, reigned over her regiments of smartly uniformed officers at the annual Military Ball. The dance was presented by the ROTC on February 14.

Assisting the colonel in military strategy were the honorary lieutenant colonel, Ruth Petrokas, Bryan Hall and the honorary majors, Sue Williams, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Mary Lou David, Sigma Kappa.

With decorations of the Armed Services providing the atmosphere, the colonel and staff were escorted to the bandstand during the intermission in true military fashion to receive the hat and cape of their respective ranks.

Brigadoon

Infecting the audience with their gaiety of song and dance, the performers reproduced in a professional manner the mythical tale of the magic village of Brigadoon. Featuring a romantic love story complete with a villain and a happily-ever-after finale, Lerner and Loew's production was sprinkled with humor and suspense.

Under the direction of Professor Christopher Lane and his assistant, LeDale Williams, the romantic lovers, Fiona and Tommy, and the comic Meg and Jeff were brought vividly to life. Intermingling with the plot were picturesque Scotch dances staged by Claire Jackson. Professor Philip Peterson was the singing director.

B A S E B A L L

Although the OU baseball team ended their season with thirteen wins and twelve losses, their record was a good one considering their handicaps. Coach Bob Wren had to field an entirely new squad with the exception of his pitching staff. Then, early in the season, a broken ankle caused the loss of one of his most valuable players, catcher John Biskup.

In the batting department catcher John Turk, outfielder Ed Trytek, and third baseman Mickey Briglia paced the team with averages above the .300 mark. Rod Andrew and Shelley Swank were tremendous assets on the mound.

J — PROM

Athens exploded into a bedlam of sheiks, safaris, Santa Clauses, hula dancers, circus performers, pink elephants, and fire crackers.

The excitement mounted to its peak on Saturday night. We danced to Shep Fields and his orchestra. At intermission the gym walls vibrated with the roar at the announcement: J Prom King, Babe Topole, Phi Delta Theta; and J Prom Queens, Lee delaTorre, Alpha Xi Delta, and Jean Krukenberg, Alpha Delta Pi. On the court were Rae Indoe, Bob Finley, Pat Weaver, and Neal Handley.

WE WALKED BETWEEN the McGuffey Elms toward our diplomas. For some of us this was the last time; others of us would be back, Homecoming perhaps, or J Prom. As freshmen, four years had seemed a long time but now, well, it hadn't been so long. Our kaleidoscopic college life was still in sharp focus. Gradually it would blur, yet it would never quite vanish. College seniors today, world freshmen tomorrow; we were a little cocky, a little scared.

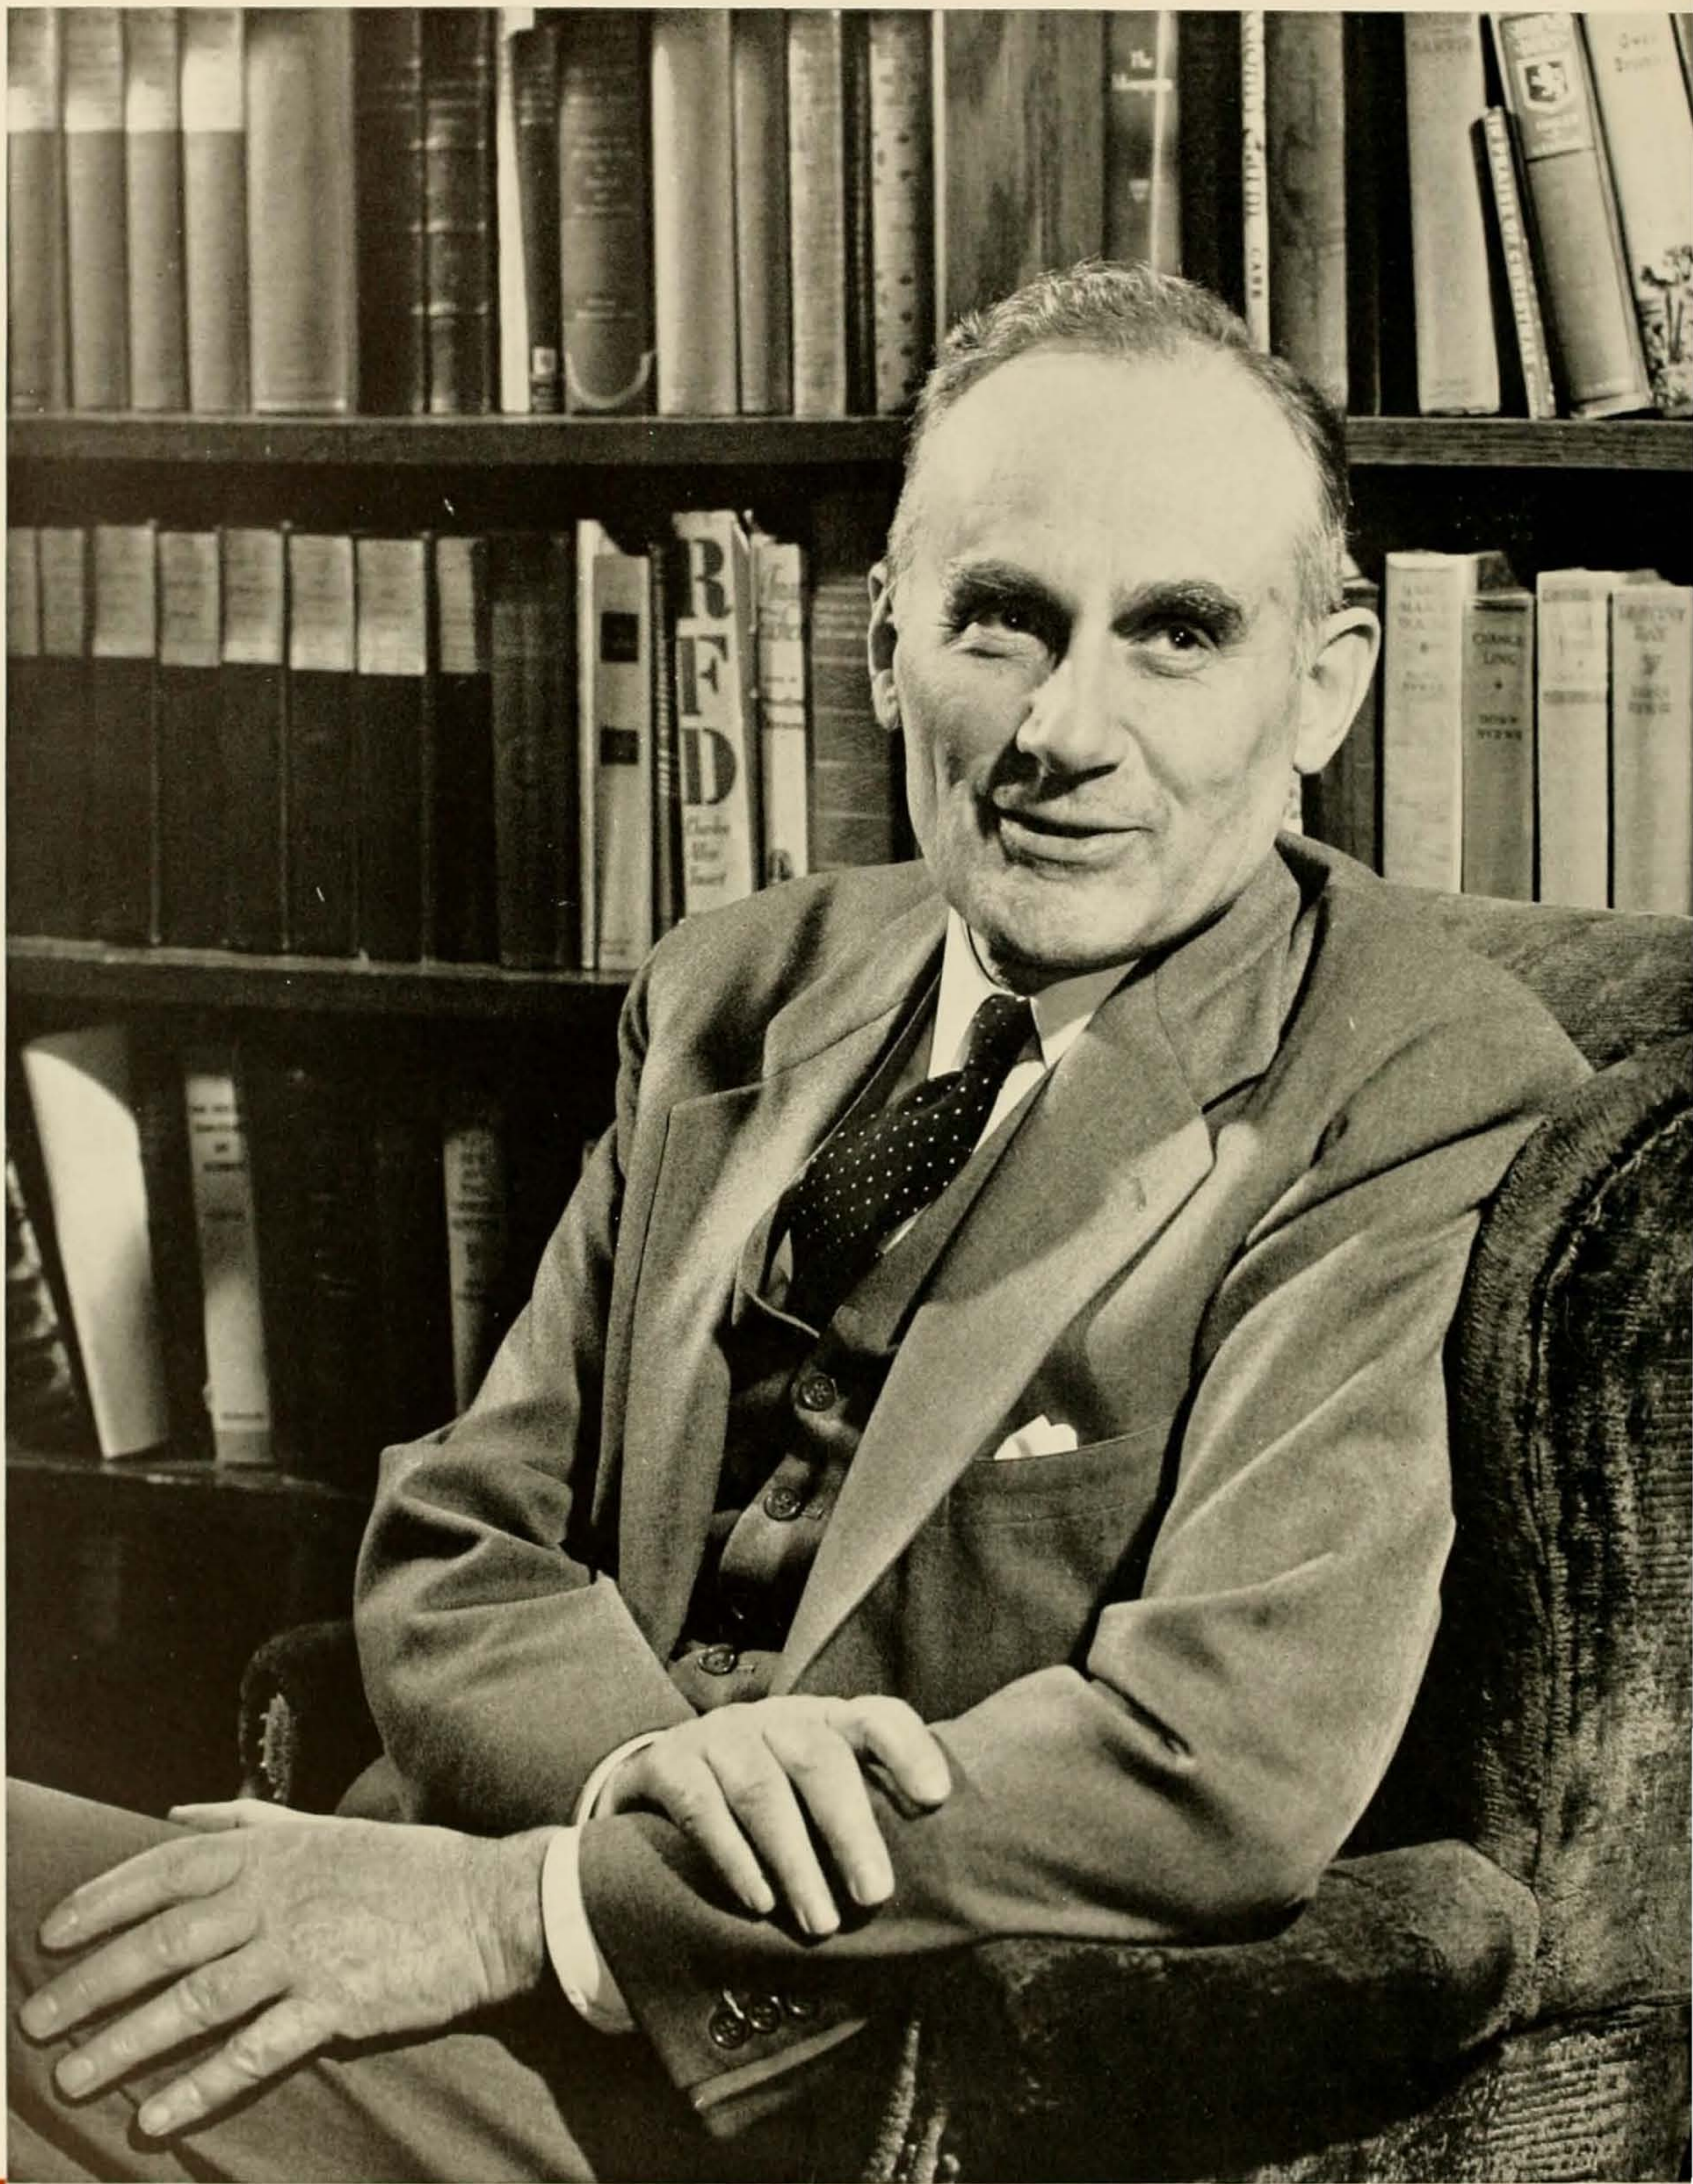

We walked between the Elms. We had been the "big kids" this year, bathing in the limelight, shouldering the responsibility, and enjoying ourselves. We had our class parties such as Club 51 and the junior-senior St. Patricks Day party. Then, remember Senior Day, the convo, the Hocking River regatta, the tug of war, and better yet, no classes, and that last week with its Senior breakfast and Senior Ball?

We received our diplomas and we automatically left a legacy: top offices, the responsibility, one more year of the good life, and another graduation.

OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Responsibility

Capability

Versatility

JOHN CALHOUN BAKER

The responsibility, both direct and indirect, for the general welfare of the entire student body of a university is a big one. OU's president John C. Baker has more than proved his capability in this job. His executive skill, his unswerving good judgment, and, most of all, his interest in our problems show him to be no mere figurehead but a real and accessible friend to all who have known him.

Ohio University is uppermost in President Baker's thoughts and hopes. He wants this to be one of the best universities in this country; he wants the students to be intelligently prepared for post-graduation life.

The epitome of versatility, President Baker is interested in every campus activity from football games to teas. He is a family man and a sportsman; he is our chief administrator and he is our friend.

DEAN OF WOMEN

A difficult job is that of Dean of Women but Leona Felsted finds that it is a rewarding one. Under her administration the women of Ohio University have become a more closely integrated unit.

Friendliness and diplomacy are important qualities for any administrator and Dean Felsted abounds in these. In her informal office students always seem to find a solution to their problems. Her ready smile and gracious personality have endeared her to all who come in contact with her.

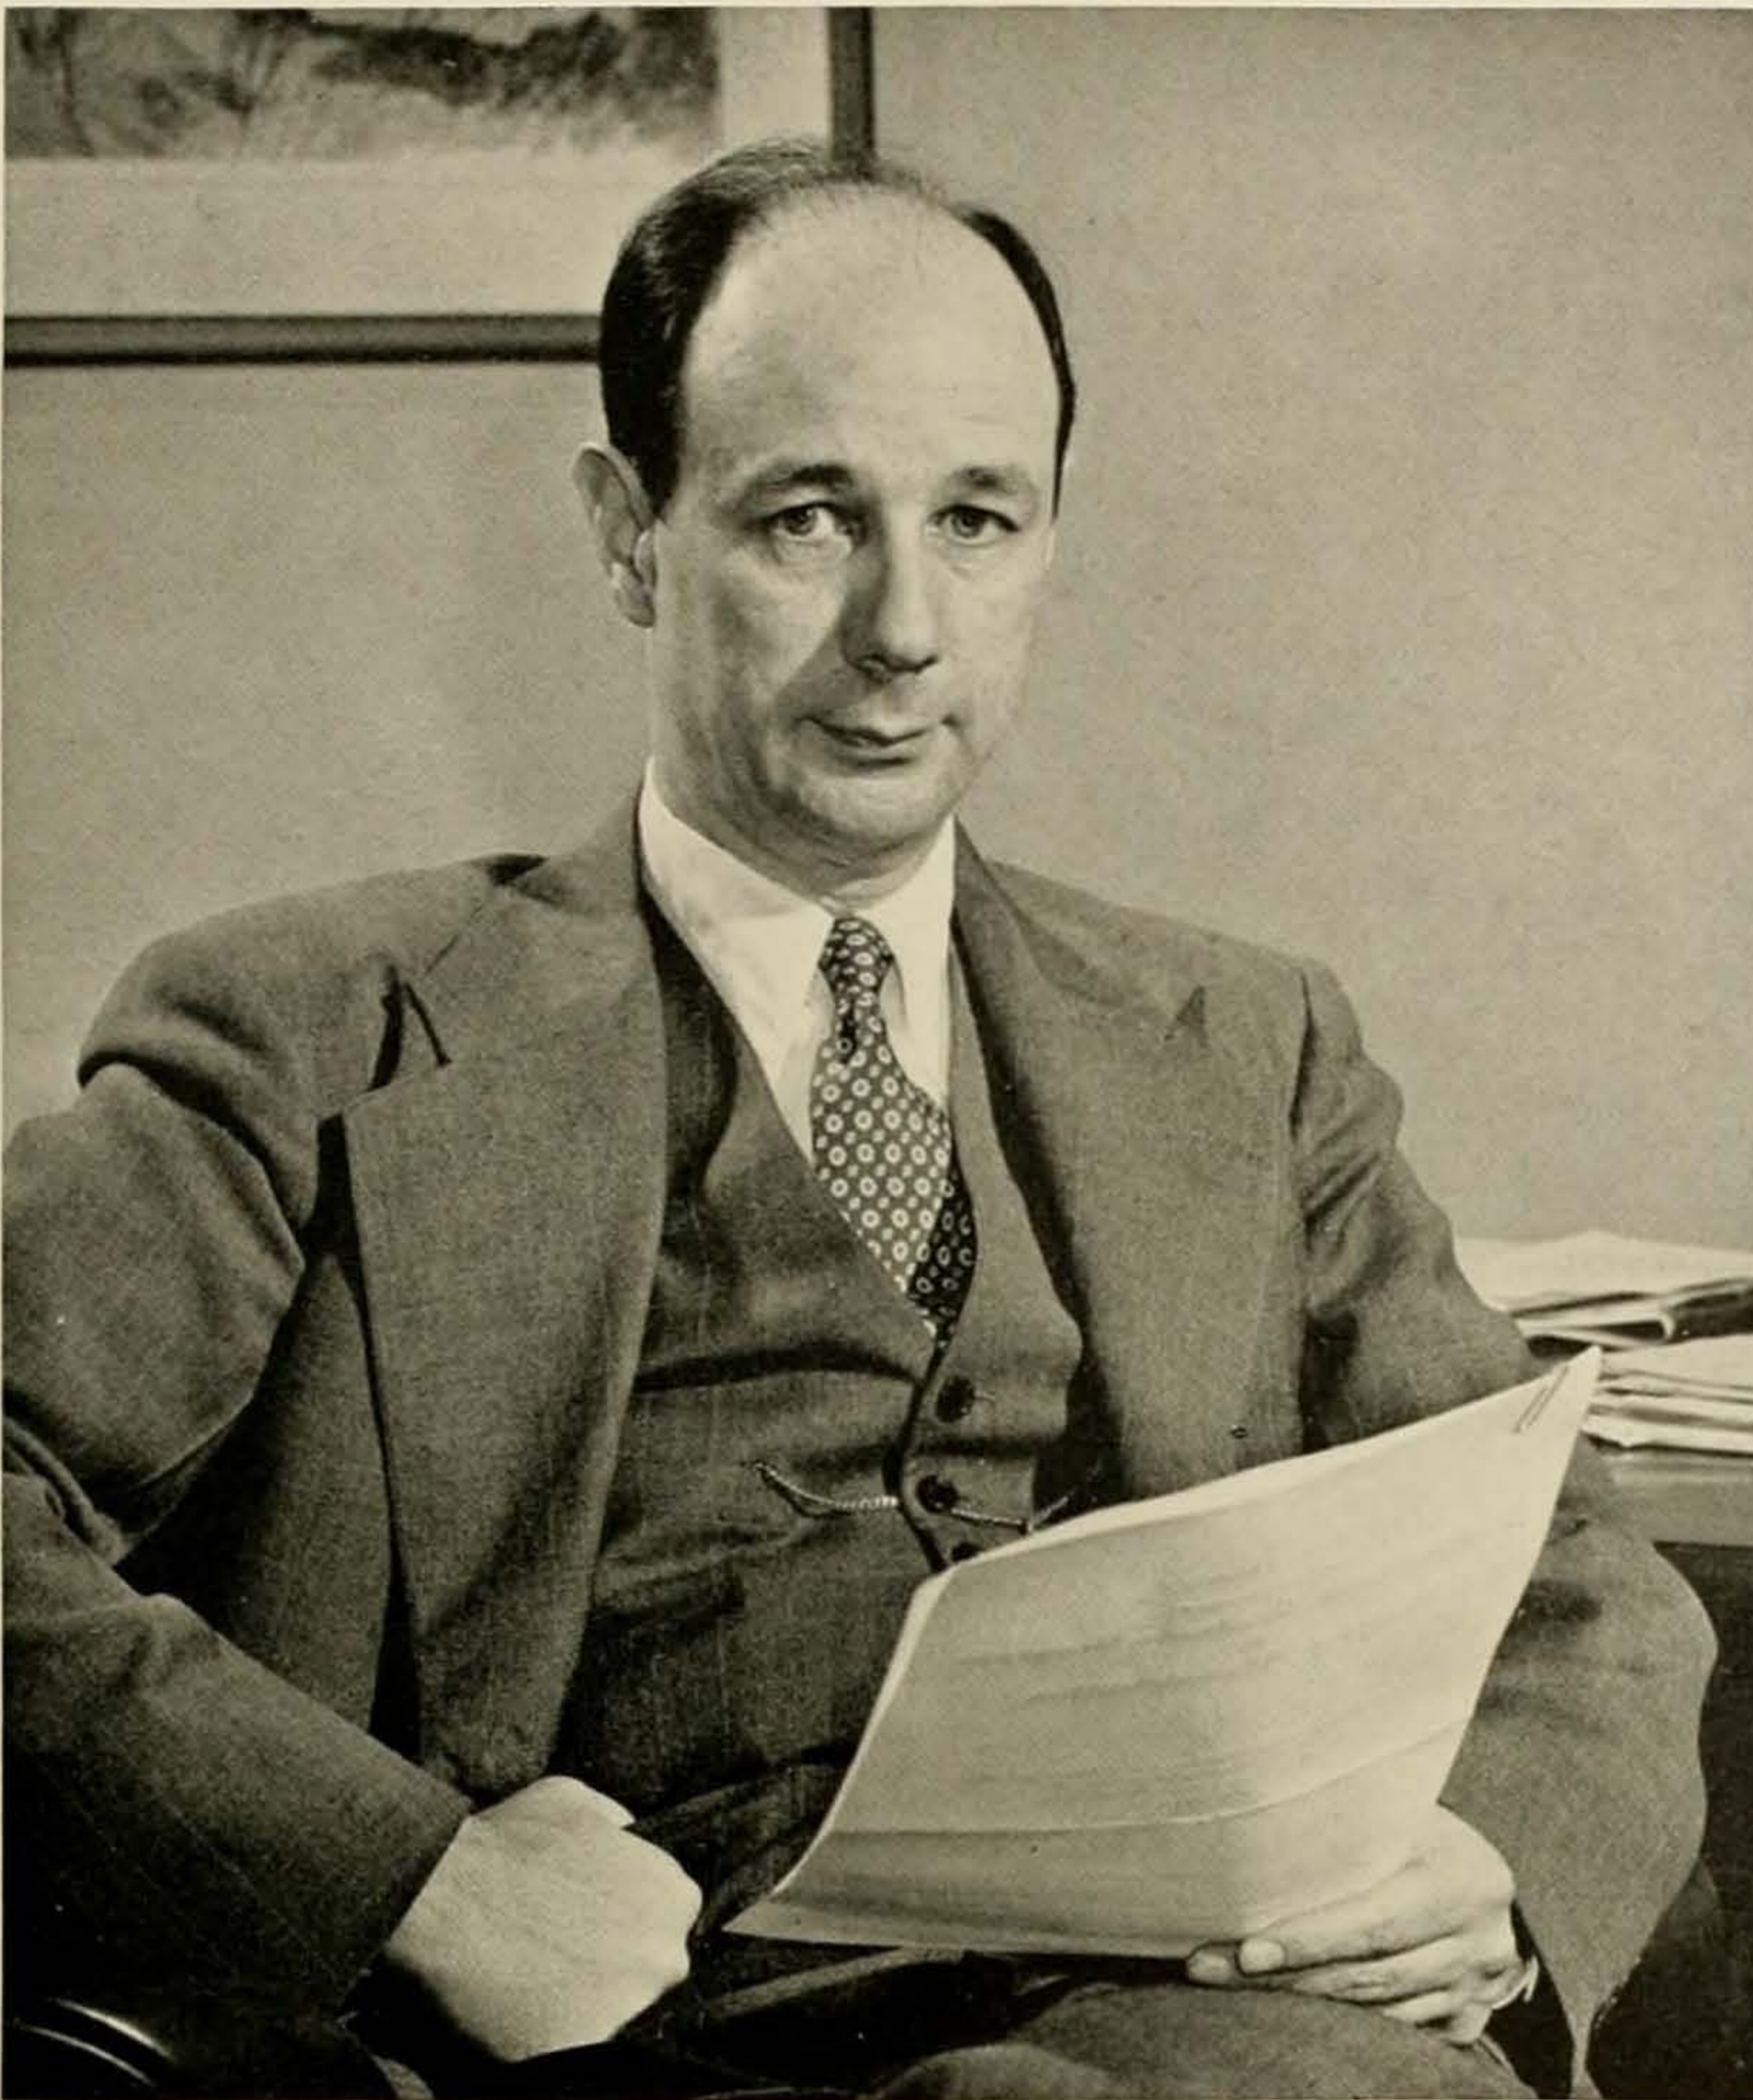

Another side of the Mrs. Felsted is seen in her love of things western. She enjoys camping trips and riding across the open plains. One of her ambitions is owning a ranch house somewhere on the other side of the Mississippi.

Dean Felsted embodies responsibility, capability, and versatility. We are lucky to have her as our Dean of Women.

DEAN OF MEN

Dean Maurel Hunkins is a man who can be depended upon for responsibility, capability, and versatility. He more than adequately fulfills his duties as Dean of Men.

On warm days, when not seated behind his desk in McGuffey Hall, the Dean may be found playing an active game of tennis.

A devotee of music, Dean Hunkins has performed with the New York Symphony. On weekends he spends part of his spare time playing the viola in a string quartet. His wife and children share his enthusiasm for music. Mrs. Hunkins composed the "Smokey Mountain Folk Opera" given in 1950 as a fund raising project. Their children play the cello, piano, and violin.

After serving as Director of Student Personnel at New York University for eighteen years, Dean Hunkins came to Ohio University in 1946.

the College of Education, University College, the College of Fine Arts, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Applied Science, and the College of Commerce are Dean George J. Kabat, Dean George W. Starcher, Dean Earl C. Seigfred, Dean W. S. Gamertsfelder, Dean E. J. Taylor, and Dean Adolph H. Armbruster respectively.

The Deans of the Colleges supervise their departments, check the requirements for issuing degrees to graduating seniors, and generally oversee the subdivisions of each college.

These men were chosen because they possess the qualities of responsibility, capability, and versatility.

IN MEMORIAM

Of Dean Adolph H. Armbruster who died in Athens May 5, 1951 President Baker said, "Those of us who knew Dean Armbruster well recognized his outstanding characteristic as integrity, which is quality in man. In men like him resides the essence of freedom and love, the two most precious things developed by mankind. Dean Armbruster had great dignity, bowed only to the right, and feared no one or no thing in defending justice and principle. Dean Armbruster in all of his decisions took a university-wide point of view. He will be missed not only in his own college but in all divisions of Ohio University."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The gigantic task of co-ordinating all extracurricular and campus-wide activities of Ohio University falls on the competent shoulders of the members of Student Council.

Functions of Student Council begin when school starts and continue through the entire year. With the opening of the football season, the Council made the initial arrangements for the OU cheering card section.

In November Student Council welcomed high school students taking annual civics and history tests given at Ohio University. The students enjoyed a weekend of entertainment which included a dance at the Rec Hall and an evening convocation featuring Cornelia Otis Skinner.

Wally LaBaw served as chairman for the Campus Chest drive. Proceeds from this drive were divided among various service and charitable organizations.

One of the most important undertakings of the Council this year was the investigation and classification of major campus offices into three groups.

Many more projects were carried through by the Student Council. Among these were the organizing of the freshman class, the sponsoring of a campus bridge tournament, and the backing of the Freshman Handbook, which is prepared by Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi, men's and women's journalism honoraries.

Other Council committees included those for Honors Day Convocation, Mother's Weekend, Social Workshop, and Registration Line.

Man, that Be-Bop Hop was mellow!

One of the four student self-governing bodies at Ohio University is Women's League. At registration each coed automatically becomes a member of this association.

The League is divided into a Senate and an Assembly. Senate is composed of the elected officers and the committee heads. Representatives from the housing units make up the Assembly.

A wide range of activities was covered by the League this year.

In the fall the Leaders' Conference for Women helped office-holders do a more efficient job. The program included tips on details such as parliamentary procedure and informal discussions of various problems.

The Coed Prom was one of the top dances of the year. A turnabout affair, the gals did the inviting while the guys had a chance to test their popularity rating.

The Recognition Dinner which honored the key women in all the campus organizations was innovated this year and will become an annual function.

At Foster's University Shop, coeds were given wardrobe advice through the medium of the Clothes Clinic.

Other League activities for the past two semesters were a reception for Dean Felsted, the May Sing, informal parties, and the Housemothers' Tea.

MEN'S UNION PLANNING BOARD

Chuck Nelson, Edwin Roberts, Ralph Dunbar, Chuck Allen, Timothy Chin.

The Men's Union Planning Board is an important factor on campus. Its purpose is to establish a governing body, to provide an extensive extra-curricular program, to encourage and develop campus leadership, and to initiate and enact activities for the furtherance and stabilization of the men students' role on campus.

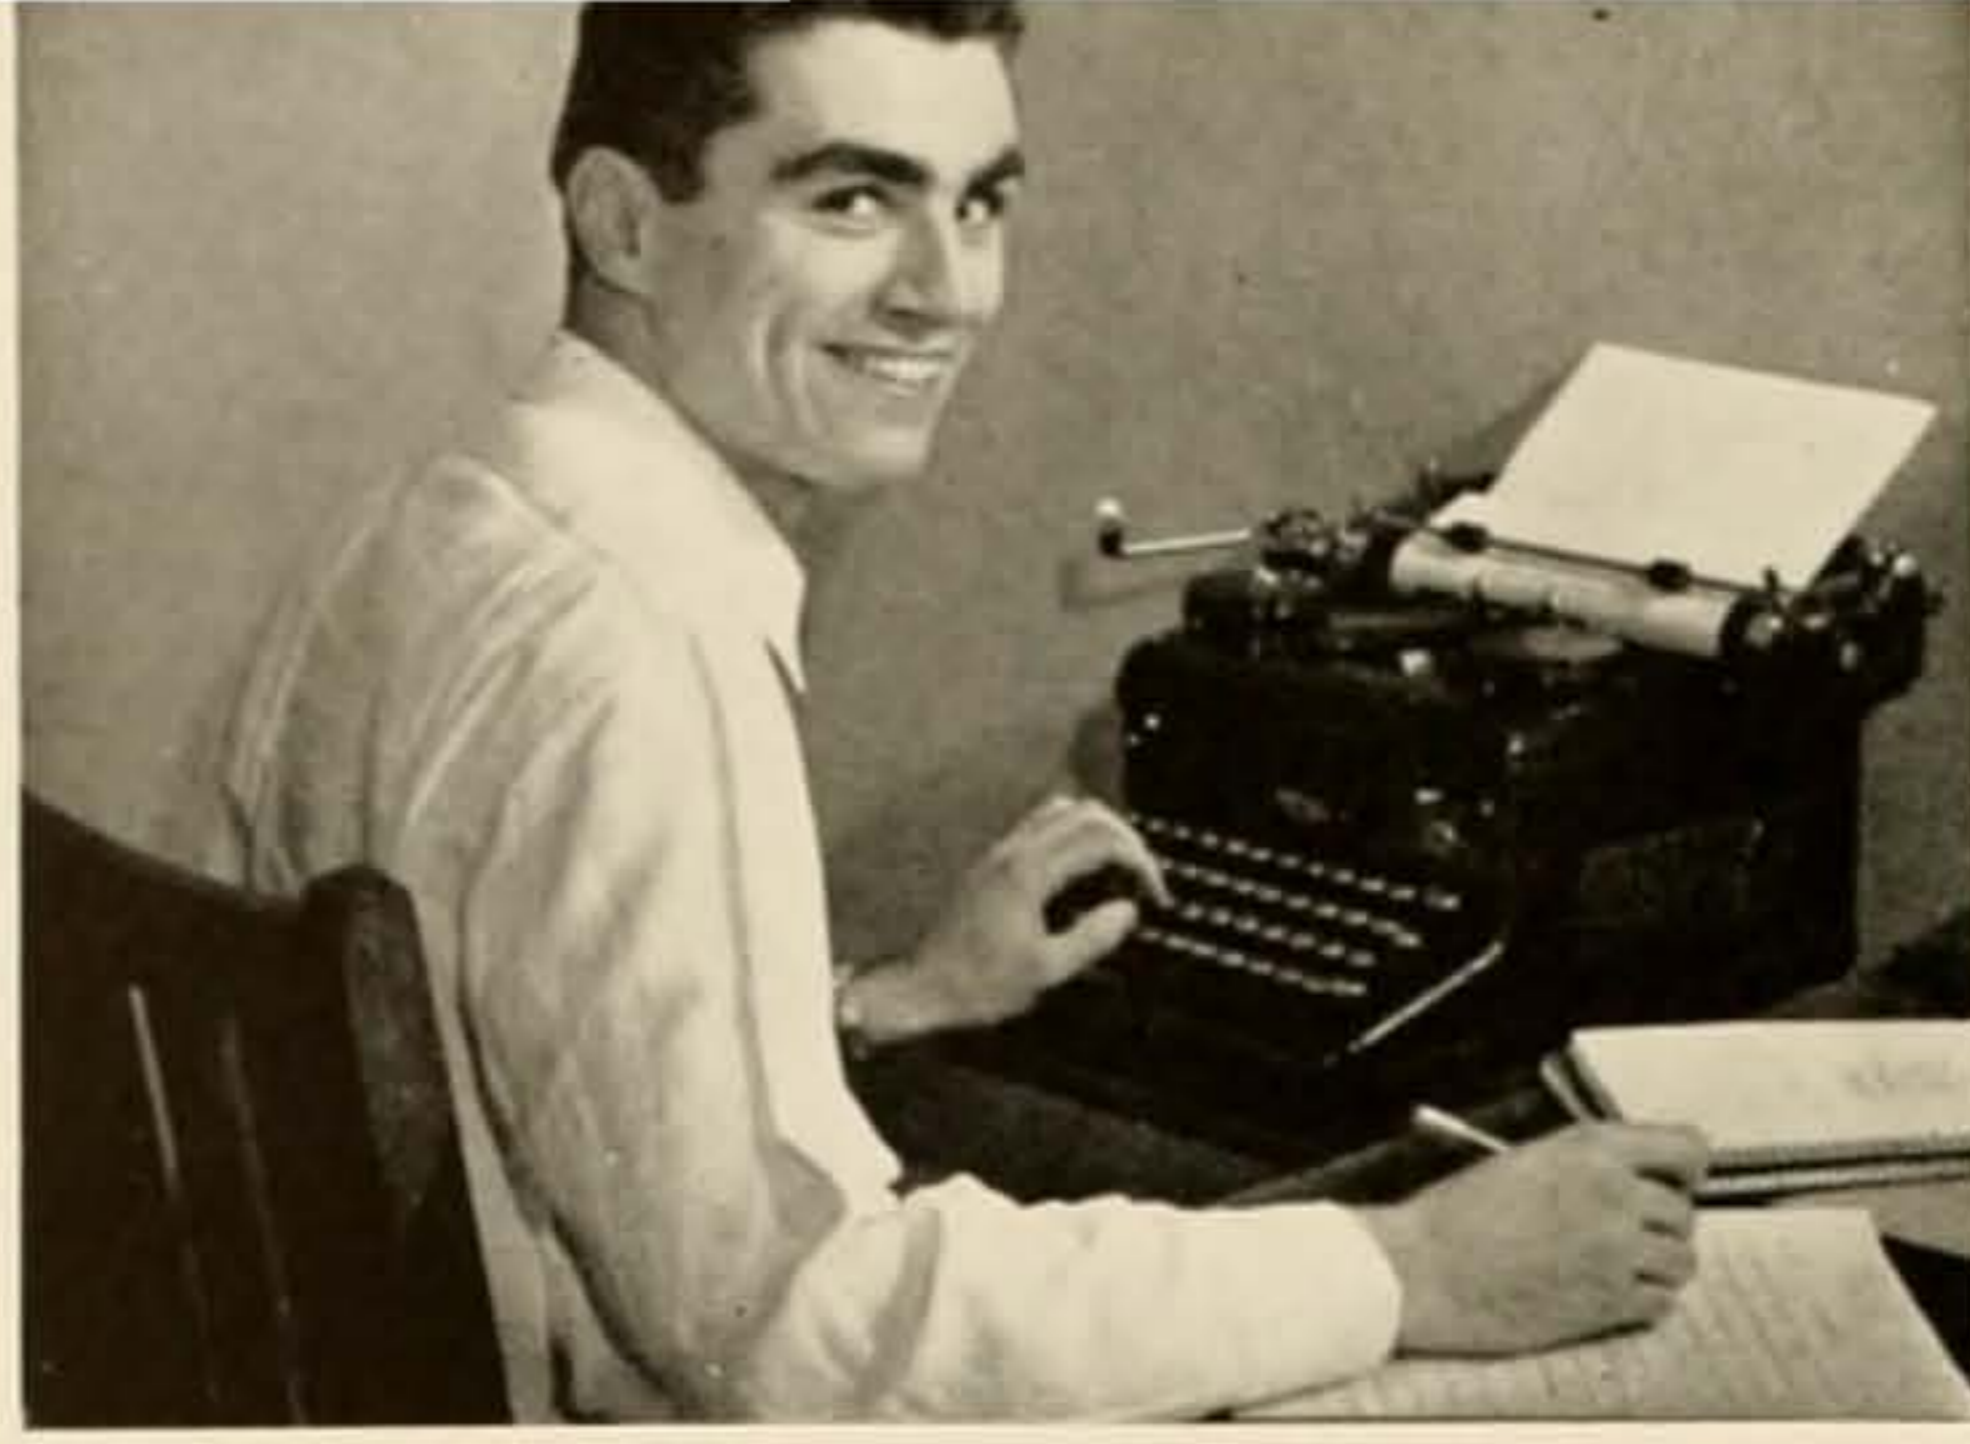

MUPB's program is designed to carry out the organization's purpose. The freshman mixer at the beginning of each semester helped to remove that last vestige of homesickness. In the fall the Registration Hop started the OU social wheel turning. Migration Day was next on the Board's agenda followed by Homecoming and its many activities, Honors Day when scholarships were awarded by the group, and the annual Men's Union Recognition Dinner at which Branch Rickey was the speaker.

Tops in the service department, MUPB has as its main project a fund for foreign students.

"The Wheels" are honored

The OUT Post

Every Tuesday and Friday the campus cry is, "Did you see the Post yet?"

The Ohio University Post published twice weekly is the official student newspaper. It contains any and all the news of interest to the students.

An extracurricular activity, the newspaper has a staff of both experienced and inexperienced workers.

This year the Post had two editors. Rose Marie Peschan was the "chief" the first semester. Bob Carboni took over during the second semester. Other staff members included: Dru Riley, news editor; Don Pease, copy editor; Dave Apisdorf, sports editor; Doug Wetherholt and Gene Fortney, business managers; Jerry Jirik, advertising manager, and Bob Greer, circulation manager. Professor L. J. Hortin advised the publication.

A "publication of a medium sized American university by and for the students" is how editor Herb Levy described the Ohioan. Under his leadership the magazine has had one of its most successful years. The editorial content, the photography, and the art work gave it a campus-wide appeal. The casual humor pervading it from cover to cover made each number a sell-out.

The much discussed Flair magazine was the subject of the much enjoyed parody issue. Pink paper and blue ink carried out the illusion.

Innovations included a Girl of the Month and Ohioan Girl series, a record column, and a campus personalities column.

Art editor Jerry Goldman deserves a word of commendation for his fine work. Other members of the executive staff were: Bev Brainard and Stu Jaffy, associate editors; Don Lothrop, photo editor; Nick Moroz, business manager; Jerry Klein, advertising director, and Ralph Barrows, campus sales manager.

"One good picture is worth a thousand words" was the battle cry of the photography and darkroom staff. They more than proved themselves with the hundreds of good pictures in the 51 Athena.

The advertising staff garnered the ads from local merchants which made the yearbook possible. Tom Blair, head of this department, did the page makeup work.

These are the people who specialize in fast chatter and yearbook receipts. They may have attacked you, politely, in registration or on campus but anyway you now are the proud possessor of the 51 Athena.

the Athena Queen dance

The Men's Gym became the style center of Athens on the night of the Athena Dance. "Fashions of Fifty" was the theme and the decorations were enormous cover styles of magazines such as Vogue, Harper's, and Flair. A balloon tree sprouted from the floor of the gym. The programs, carrying out the theme, were miniature magazine covers.

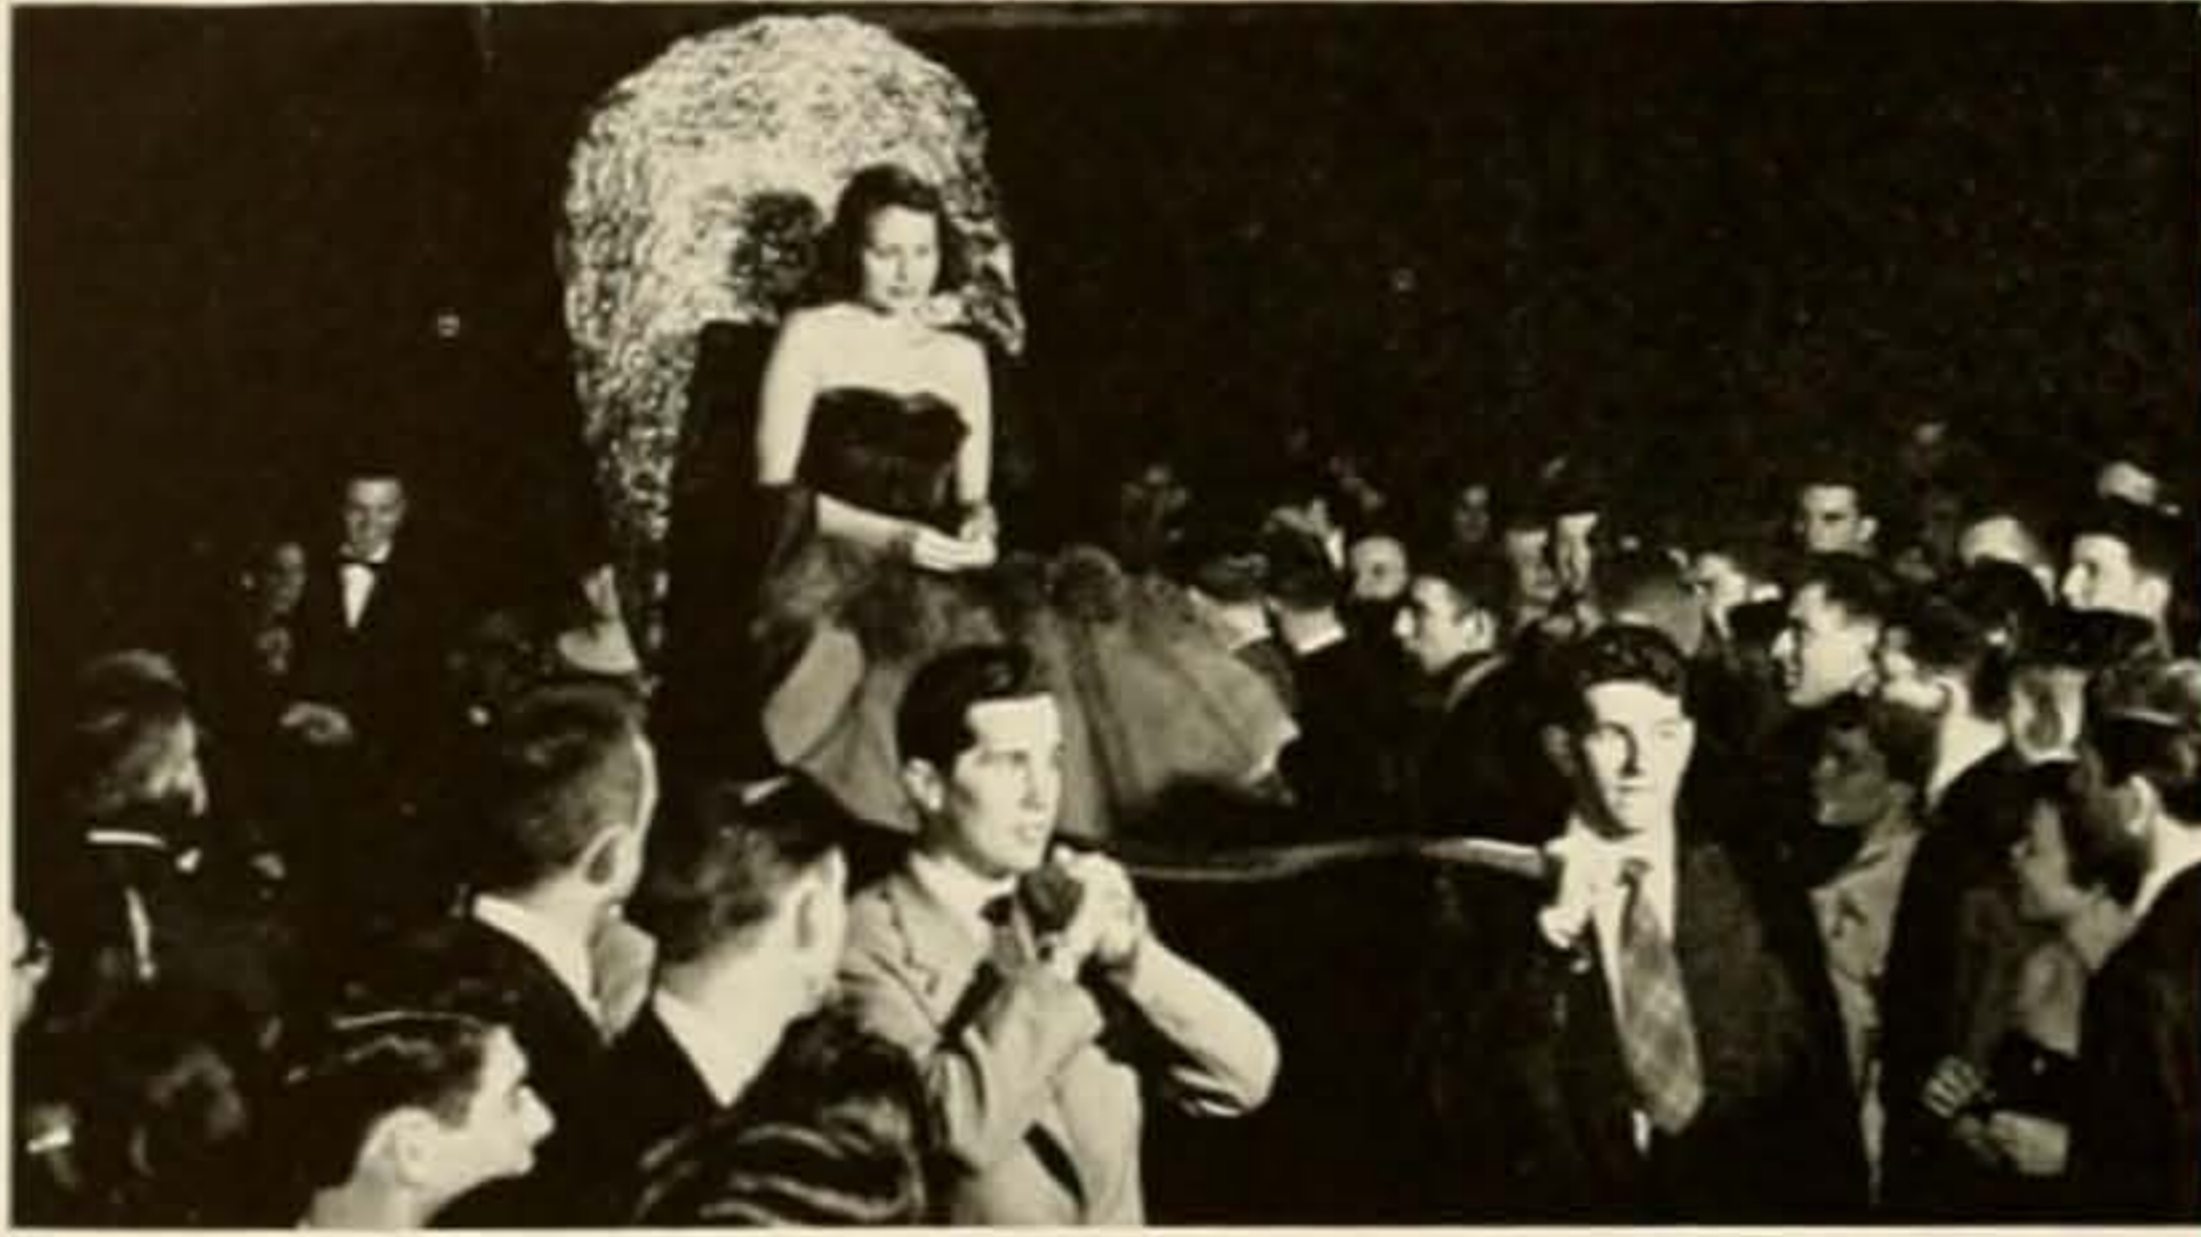

More than five hundred persons danced to Wib Lanning's orchestra and watched the presentation of the Athena Queen and her attendants at the intermission. For the first time in several years the queen was selected by the male vote of the entire campus.

Delta Phi Delta, national art honorary, and Kappa Alpha Mu, national pictorial journalism honorary, were co-sponsors of the dance.

the 1951 athena queen

Janet Guerra of Howard Hall was the choice of OU's male students for the 1951 Athena Queen and a wise choice, we agree! The balloting was done in the Athena offices the week before the dance. At the intermission when the queen was announced she entered the ballroom on a blue and silver throne carried on the shoulders of Athena staff members. Janet was presented with a loving cup, and she and her attendants, Donna Poole, Sigma Kappa, and Joan Pearlman, Phi Sigma Sigma, each received red roses.

The three girls are sophomores. Janet is from Ashtabula, Donna from Portsmouth, and Joan from New York City.

Fraternities and Sororities

From rush week to senior farewell the life among the Greeks is a good one. It's not just the pride of belonging, not the glamour, the excitement of special events; it's hours of work on house decorations, campaigning for your queen, profound three A.M. discussions, and most of all it is a deep, enveloping sense of friendship . . .

Spring, 1951 marked the Centennial Anniversary of the first social sorority in this country, Alpha Delta Pi. It was founded May, 1851 at Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia.

Officers for the year were: president, Jo Ann Paterna; vice president, Janet Zoll; recording secretary, Marilyn Atkin; corresponding secretary, Rosemary Bower, and treasurer, Louanna Stewart.

The ADPI's had more than their share of queens this year. Rosemary Bower was selected as Honorary Colonel at the Military Ball and Jean Krukenberg reigned at J Prom.

Alpha Gamma Delta was originally founded at Syracuse, New York in 1904. It came to OU in 1908.

The main aim of the sorority is to develop lasting friendships and to gain understanding, wisdom, and personality.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Services to the campus include aiding the Cerebral Palsy division of the National Society for Crippled Children.

On this year's calender of social events the Alpha Gams had a winter formal, the Rose Tea, a Christmas tree trimming party, a Carnival, the Mothers' Day Banquet, and a spring formal.

The Alpha Gamma Delta reputation for beauty was upheld when one of their members, Marilyn Poling, was selected for the 1950 Homecoming Court.

Alpha Xi Delta

Alpha Xi Delta was founded in 1893 at Lombard College, Galesburg, Illinois to cultivate friendship and to further learning. It has been on the OU campus since 1911.

Activities of the chapter for the 50-51 year were the Powder Bowl game, the winter formal, the Rose Dance, a campus open house, and a dinner for sorority presidents.

The Alpha Xi's took top honors in the queen department this spring. Jo Cannon reigned over the IFC Dance and Lee dela Torre wore a crown at J Prom.

Pi Beta Phi

OU's varsity football and basketball teams might have taken a lesson or two from the girls at 6 South College Street this year. On the gridiron the Pi Phis had a perfect record when, by the score of thirty-five to nothing, they won the Powder Bowl. With only one loss, they also captured top honors in the sorority basketball league.

Pi Beta Phi, a pioneer among national sororities, was founded back in 1867 at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois. The local chapter came to Ohio University in 1889.

One of the primary purposes of the sorority is social work. The girls aid the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee and contribute to other charitable organizations.

The Athens Country Club became an enchanted forest complete with a gingerbread house when Hansel and Gretel made their appearance at the Pi Phi spring formal.

Phi Sigma Sigma

The exciting Spring Weekend made its bid as the crowning affair for the girls of Phi Sigma Sigma this year. Running a close second was the Parent's Weekend when the mothers and dads were entertained at a semi-formal dinner and a house party.

Birthday parties, open houses, pledge-active parties, and pajama parties are all memories to be treasured.

One of their members, Joan Pearlman, was chosen as an attendant to the Athena Queen.

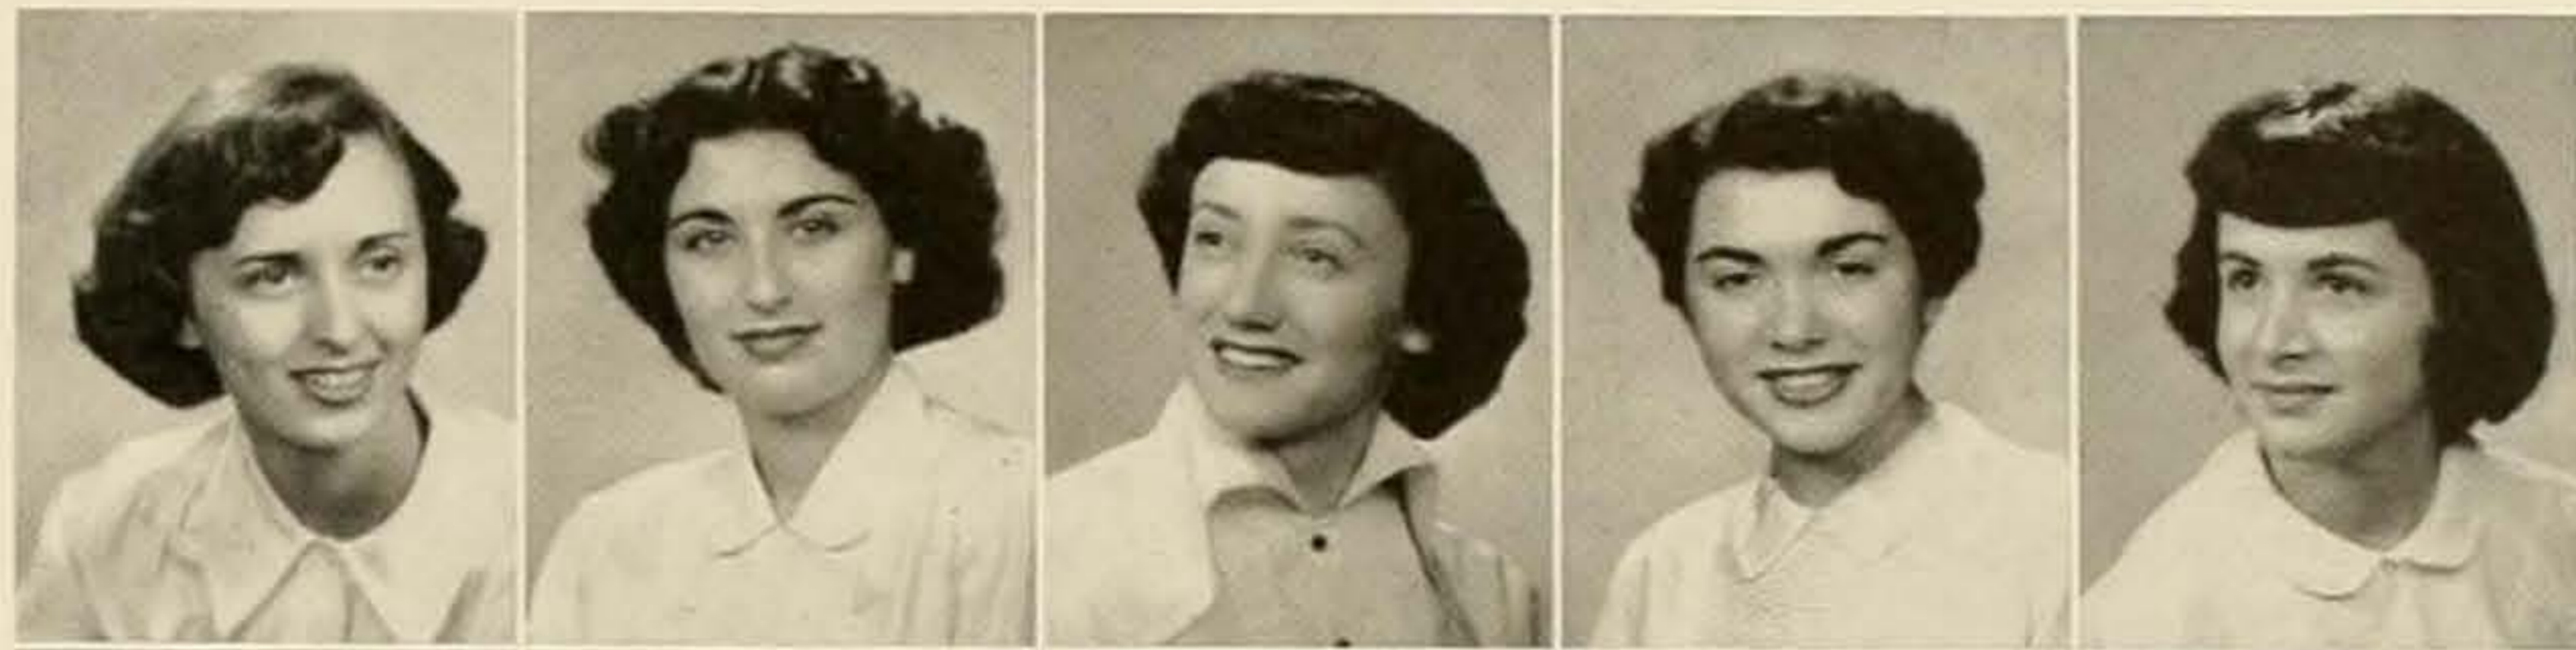

This group, formerly known as Tower, became the Beta Delta Chapter of Phi Sigma Sigma in 1941.

Charity work is one of the sorority's most important functions. The girls made contributions to philanthropic organizations and entertained at the Children's Home.

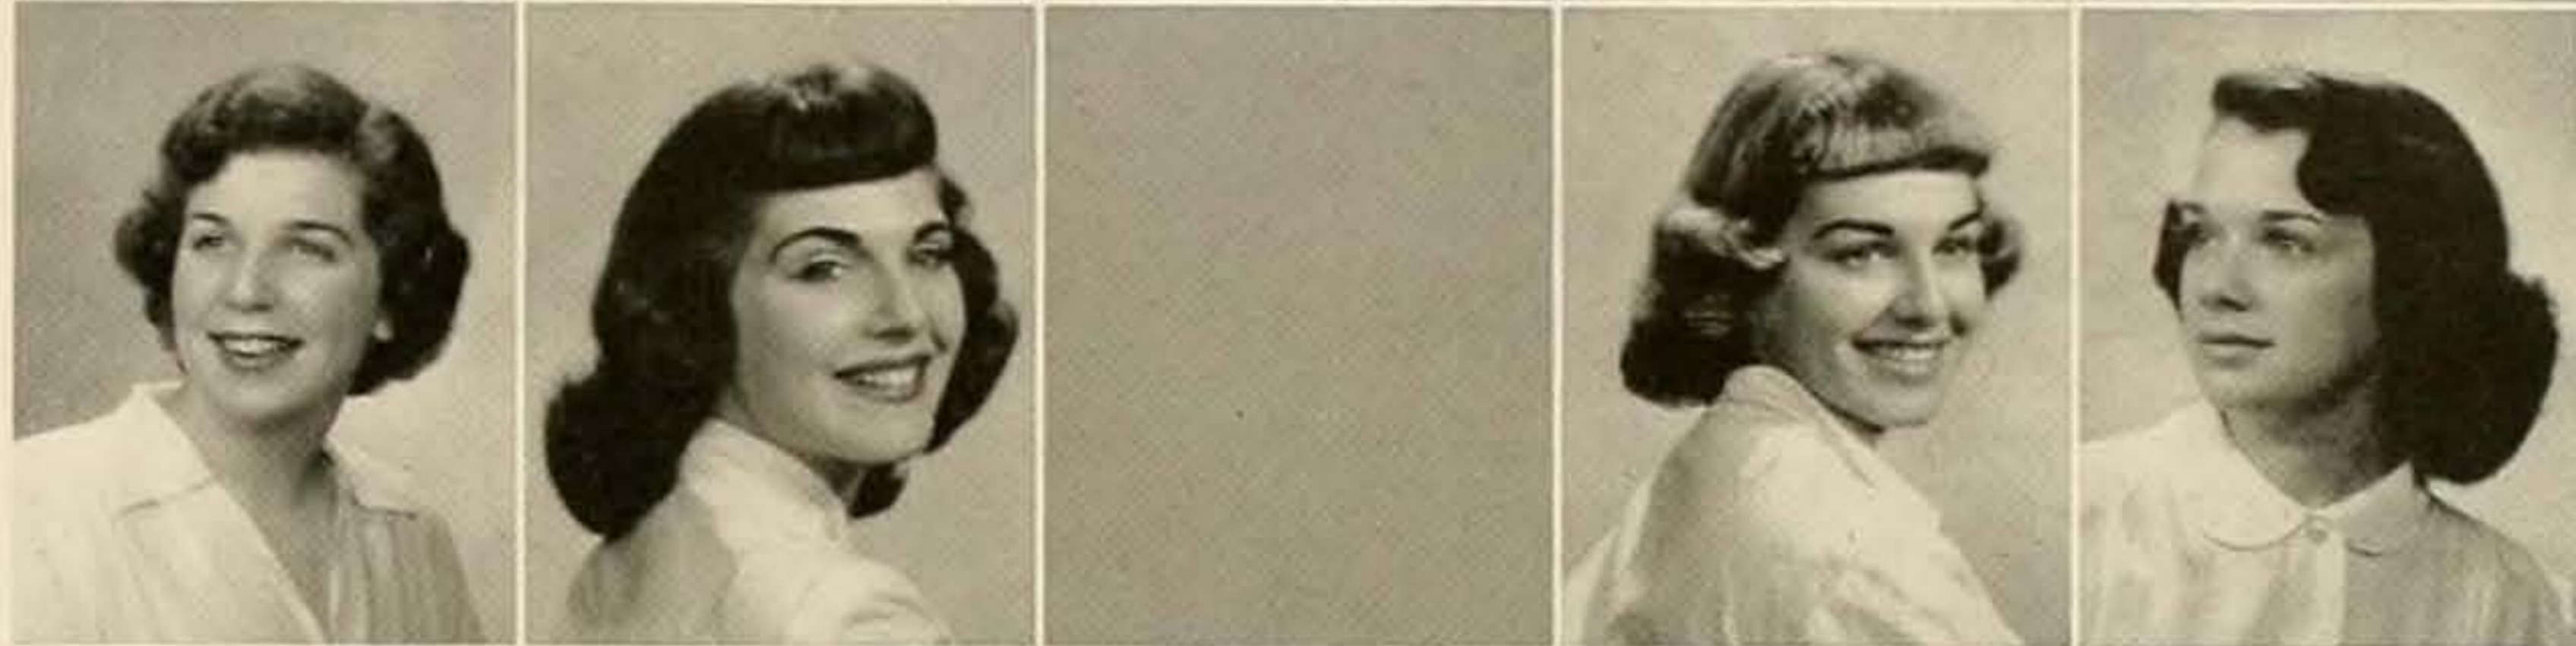

This year's officers were: Norma Weintraub, president; Ilene Schneider, vice president; Marilyn Rubin, treasurer; Adrienne Diamond, recording secretary, and Debby Leeper, corresponding secretary.

Sigma Kappa

When Sigma Kappa's Homecoming float with its huge, white ukelele depicting their theme, "O'Uke Can String Miami," won first prize in the sorority division, the girls all knew this would be an outstanding year.

The sorority was again honored when Donna Poole was selected for the Athena Queen Court. Mary Lou David was commissioned Honorary Major of OU's ROTC at the Military Ball.

Annual activities of the girls were their Founders' Day banquet in November and the beautiful Pearl Dance in March.

In May the group acted as hostesses for the Province Conference of the Miami, Marietta, and Ohio U alumnae chapters.

Charity work is important to the Sigma Kappas. They contributed to the Athens Children's Home and, as a part of their project, helped support the Maine Seacoast Mission.

1951 marked a great year for Alpha Epsilon Phi on Ohio University's campus. Saturday, February 24 was the exciting day. At a beautiful and impressive ceremony the girls of Theta Rho, a local sorority, set aside their old pins and proudly donned the badge of the AE Phis. After the services the new Alpha Phi chapter of the national sorority entertained their distinguished visitors at a banquet at Van Meter's. The group had been granted

Zeta Tau Alpha

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at Virginia State Normal College in Farmville, Virginia, October 18, 1898. Since its establishment at Ohio University in 1922, the Zetas have performed many campus and community services. They annually support the fund for those afflicted with cerebral palsy and this year contributed to the Student Center by sponsoring a basketball game.

The agenda of social affairs was well-filled with a Hayride-Weiner Roast and a Halloween party in October, a Square Dance in November, and a Christmas Tree Party in December. However, the annual Stardust Formal holds the hearts of the Zetas as their loveliest event.

Public opinion proved Zeta Tau Alpha high in beauty honors this year. Betty Barrows was elected to the court of the Homecoming Queen and Sue Williams became a ROTC Honorary Major at the Military Ball.

PAN HELLENIC COUNCIL

The Pan Hellenic Council, founded in 1913, strives to maintain high standards for affiliated women and to unify the sororities on campus into an actively working group.

Seeking continual improvement, the Council holds an annual workshop in which problems and new ideas are brought to the fore. One of their main concerns this year was the rushing system at OU.

Campus service is important to the organization. Each year it arranges board for a foreign student; it co-operates with Campus Chest officials by acting as solicitors for their drive and it helps house high school students on campus for tests.

Socially, the Pan Hellenic Formal was one of the outstanding events of the year.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Greek Week, sponsored by the Interfraternity Council, is an occasion which the entire campus eagerly anticipates each year. When the flamebearer sprints into Athens and lights the torch, the ceremonies are officially begun. Colorful traditions include the crew race on the Hocking and the chariot procession of the Queen candidates. The climax of the week is the IFC Dance with music by an imported name band.

The purpose of the Council is to promote and maintain harmony among OU's fraternities and to insure their co-operation with the university authorities.

Keenly interested in service, the organization aided the Children's Home, provided housing for scholarship participants, awarded a scholarship to a foreign student, and donated trophies for the Ohio relays. Mothers' Weekend and the intramural sports program are under IFC sponsorship.

Acacia

In the fall of 1946, a group of Masons organized a club which, after CAC recognition in 1947 was called Trowel Fraternity. That summer they secured and furnished a house. Trowel realized their goal in February of 1949 when they received their national charter from Acacia Fraternity.

The Athens County Junior Olympics is organized and conducted by this group. They also contact all the county high schools, welfare organizations, lodges, and fraternal groups asking them to back contestants for their National Junior Olympics. These annual athletic contests are an effective means of combating juvenile delinquency.

On the lighter side, throughout the year the brothers enjoyed numerous house parties, exchange dinners, and outings, and their winter and spring formals.

Beta Theta Pi

Beta Theta Pi is justly proud of its outstanding "firsts." The first fraternity to be founded west of the Allegheny Mountains, it was also the initial fraternity to be represented on state college campuses. The organization was the first of its kind to appear at Ohio University; Beta Delta Chapter was established here in 1841.

Casual gatherings, the hilarious Bowery Party, the Triad Dance, and the Christmas Party will long be remembered by the Betas, but the annual Sweetheart Dance will claim the top spot in their recollections.

Chapter elections this year found Bill Miller, president; Wally Bennett, vice president; Carl Laub, recorder, and Roy Graber, treasurer.

Delta Tau Delta

On Homecoming Weekend, returning alums and visitors entering Athens by Route 50 were startled to see in place of the Delt house, a gigantic Bobcat fishing in an aquarium. An electric sign flashed the motto of the prize winning, Delta Tau Delta house decorations: "Let the Sucker Bite, Our Line Will Hold."

Another spectator-gathering Homecoming event was the eighty-eighth Delt Walkaround.

Ohio University's Beta Chapter is the second fraternity founded on our campus and is the oldest chapter of the organization in continuous existence.

Delt activities include the annual Christmas and Circus Parties, the Rainbow Ball and the pledge-big brother tug of war.

The members of this fraternity emphasize scholarship, leadership and responsibility, and service. Under the last heading are: support of the Children's Home, plaques for the Ohio Relays, and the Frank B. Gullum award for scholastic attainment.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Alpha-Omega Zeta Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha functioned at Ohio University from 1918 to 1937. The present chapter was formed as the local Lambda Chi Delta in 1947. It was reinstated in the national organization in May of 1950.

The National is now the largest fraternal group in the country with one hundred thirty-seven chapters in the United States and Canada.

The Athens Children's Home benefits greatly from the Lambda Chis. They delegate several work units to help there and they entertain the children at various parties.

The brothers manifested their gracious hospitality at the Night Club Party, the Apache Party, winter and spring formals, and a Homecoming dance for alums and visitors.

Phi Delta Theta

This was Phi Delta Theta year in the field of intramural sports. The group won the football and bowling championships and the IM swimming meet. Their football team was undefeated and unscored on throughout the entire season.

Gamma Chapter of the fraternity was established at OU in 1868 with the objectives of high scholastic achievement, a closer friendship among its members, and a cultivated standard of morals.

A goal of campus coeds is an invitation to join She Delta Theta. The girls fulfill summonses and are initiated into the society after strenuous pledging. Winter and spring formals, the Triad Dance, the Phi Delt Follies, and other parties kept the year lively for the Phis.

The brothers had a royal personage in their midst this year. Stub Mitenbuler was selected as a Prince of the Powder Bowl.

Phi Epsilon Pi

The cultivation of friendship, attainment of knowledge, and development of high moral standards are the goals for which Phi Epsilon Pi strives.

The first chapter of the fraternity was founded at City College of New York on November 23, 1904. Alpha Rho, the OU chapter, was organized on September 10, 1933.

Besides their beautiful Spring Formal; a Homecoming float, house parties, and participation in intramural sports rounded out the year's activities for the members.

Holding office this year were Arthur Richard, president; Marvin Watnick, vice president; Howard Bernstein, treasurer, and Arnold Heiger, secretary.

The capture of the first place trophy for their Homecoming float began a wonderful year for the Phi Kappas. On the float, a golden Indian riding a golden horse prophesied the "End of the Trail" for the Miami team.

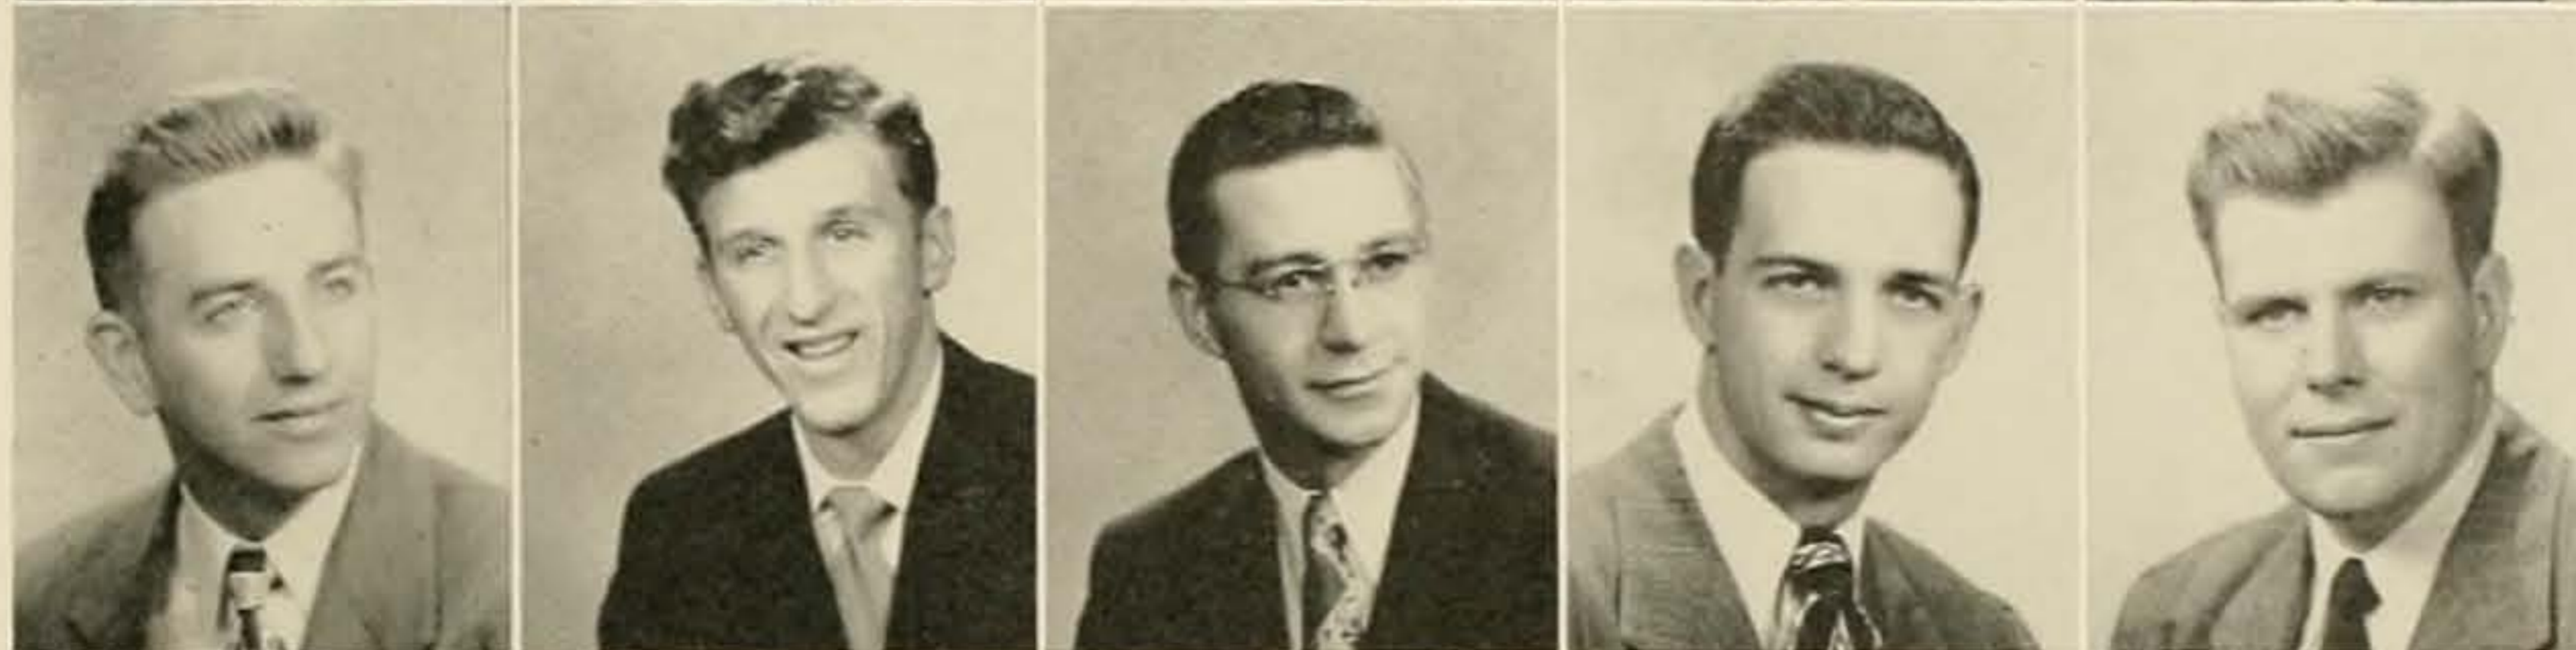

Other memorable events this year included the Christmas Formal, the Children's Christmas Party, the Monte Carlo Party, and the annual Spring Formal.

Phi Kappa Fraternity was founded at Brown University in 1889 as a social organization for Catholic men. It strives to enable its members to form ties which will bring about the true bonds of friendship through religion as well as common activities. Every year a religious retreat is held in February to strengthen this purpose.

Phi Kappa Tau

Phi Kappa Tau was established at Ohio University on October 27, 1910. Since its founding, the fraternity has expanded its aims in service to the community and to the campus. Members have lent their aid to the Children's Home during the past two semesters.

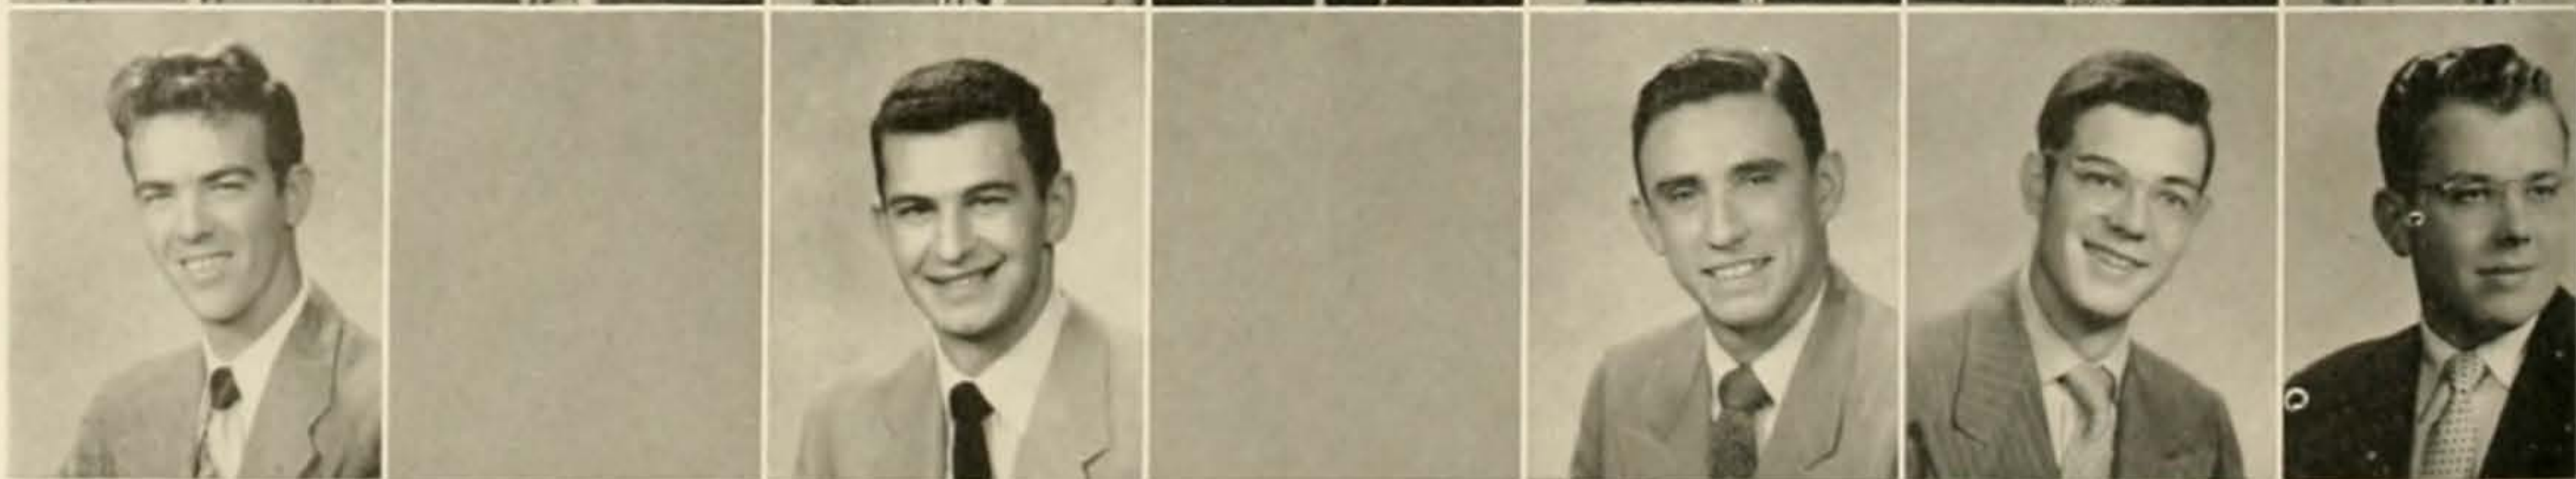

Robert Becker, president; Warren Howard, vice president; Ted Pavlick, secretary, and Fred Pesek, treasurer led their brothers in the year's program. The advisor to the group is Earle Phillips.

The Phi Taus had a busy social year. In addition to the winter and spring formals, the agenda included special parties such as the Hillbilly Hobble, the Bowery Brawl, and the Turnabout Party, when the members' dates took over the house.

The only fraternity of its kind at Ohio University, Beta Sigma fills an important place on campus. Under its motto of "Equality and Understanding," the organization realizes the need of association with different races, colors, and creeds to maintain a richer, fuller fraternity life.

Beta Sigma

Although founded as recently as 1949, the Beta Sigmas were in full swing this year. The members rendered important campus and community services and participated in Homecoming and intramural sports. The Beta Sigma-Pi Phi Swimming Party was a notable event. The guys and gals competed in humorous races and discovered that swimming the bases in water baseball is difficult but hilarious.

Phi Sigma Delta, a non-sectarian fraternity, is founded on the principle of character and personal liking. Basic similarities between people, not differences, are most important to the Phi Sigs.

Originally established in 1947 under the name Sigma Beta, they went national in June 1948 and became Phi Sigma Delta.

The brothers' most important annual events are their Night Club Party and the lovely Sweetheart Dance. Outings at Lake Hope, hayrides, and various other parties comprise their social agenda.

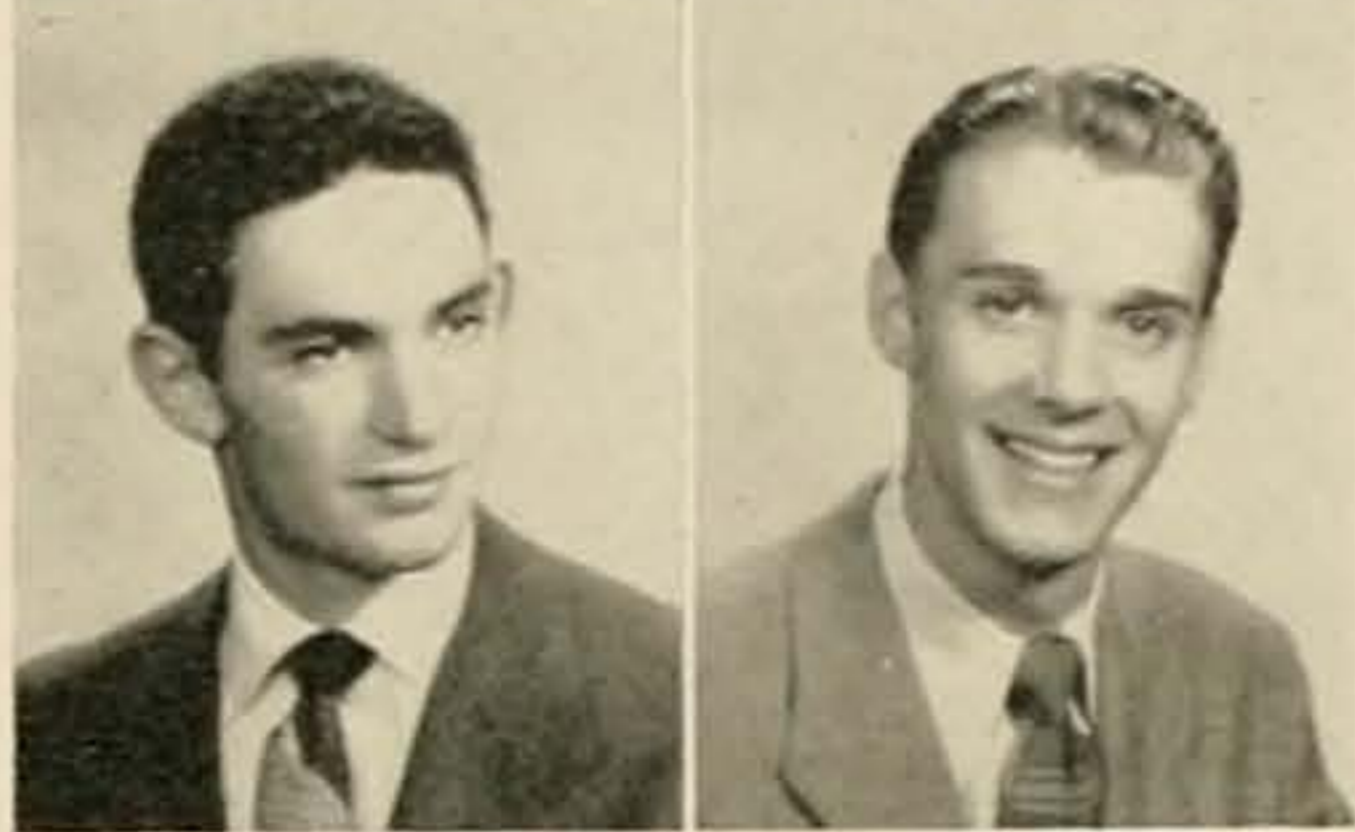

A notable enterprise of the Phi Sigs is their campaign for superior scholarship. They have won scholarship awards for three semesters.

Pi Kappa Alpha

The local fraternity Tau Sigma Delta was founded February 28, 1922 at Ohio University. In 1930 the organization affiliated with national Pi Kappa Alpha and became the Gamma Omicron chapter.

The climactic event of the PiKA social season was their annual Sweetheart Dance at which they chose a lovely coed to be the chapter Dream Girl. Other activities such as the winter formal, the Founders' Day banquet, and several parties brought the year too quickly to a close.

Tony Svet, president; Robert Peters, vice president; and James Bente, treasurer, served as the fraternity officers this year.

Sigma Chi

Sigma Chi, formerly Sigma Theta Gamma, was founded on campus May 14, 1949. The fraternity strives for the furtherance of spiritual, educational, and physical development.

The Sigma Chi Carnival with its circus booths, side shows, and tons of confetti was one of the fraternity's most popular affairs. Other social functions that made up a well-rounded year were the Triad Dance and several parties and open houses.

Springtime found coeds from dorms, housing units and sororities straining their muscles to garner glory for their organization in the annual Siglympics.

The brothers themselves, active in sports, won the basketball and volleyball championships this year.

Sigma Omicron Nu

A local fraternity, Sigma Omicron Nu was founded at Ohio University in 1948.

The members started the year well by moving into a larger house at 27 North Congress Street.

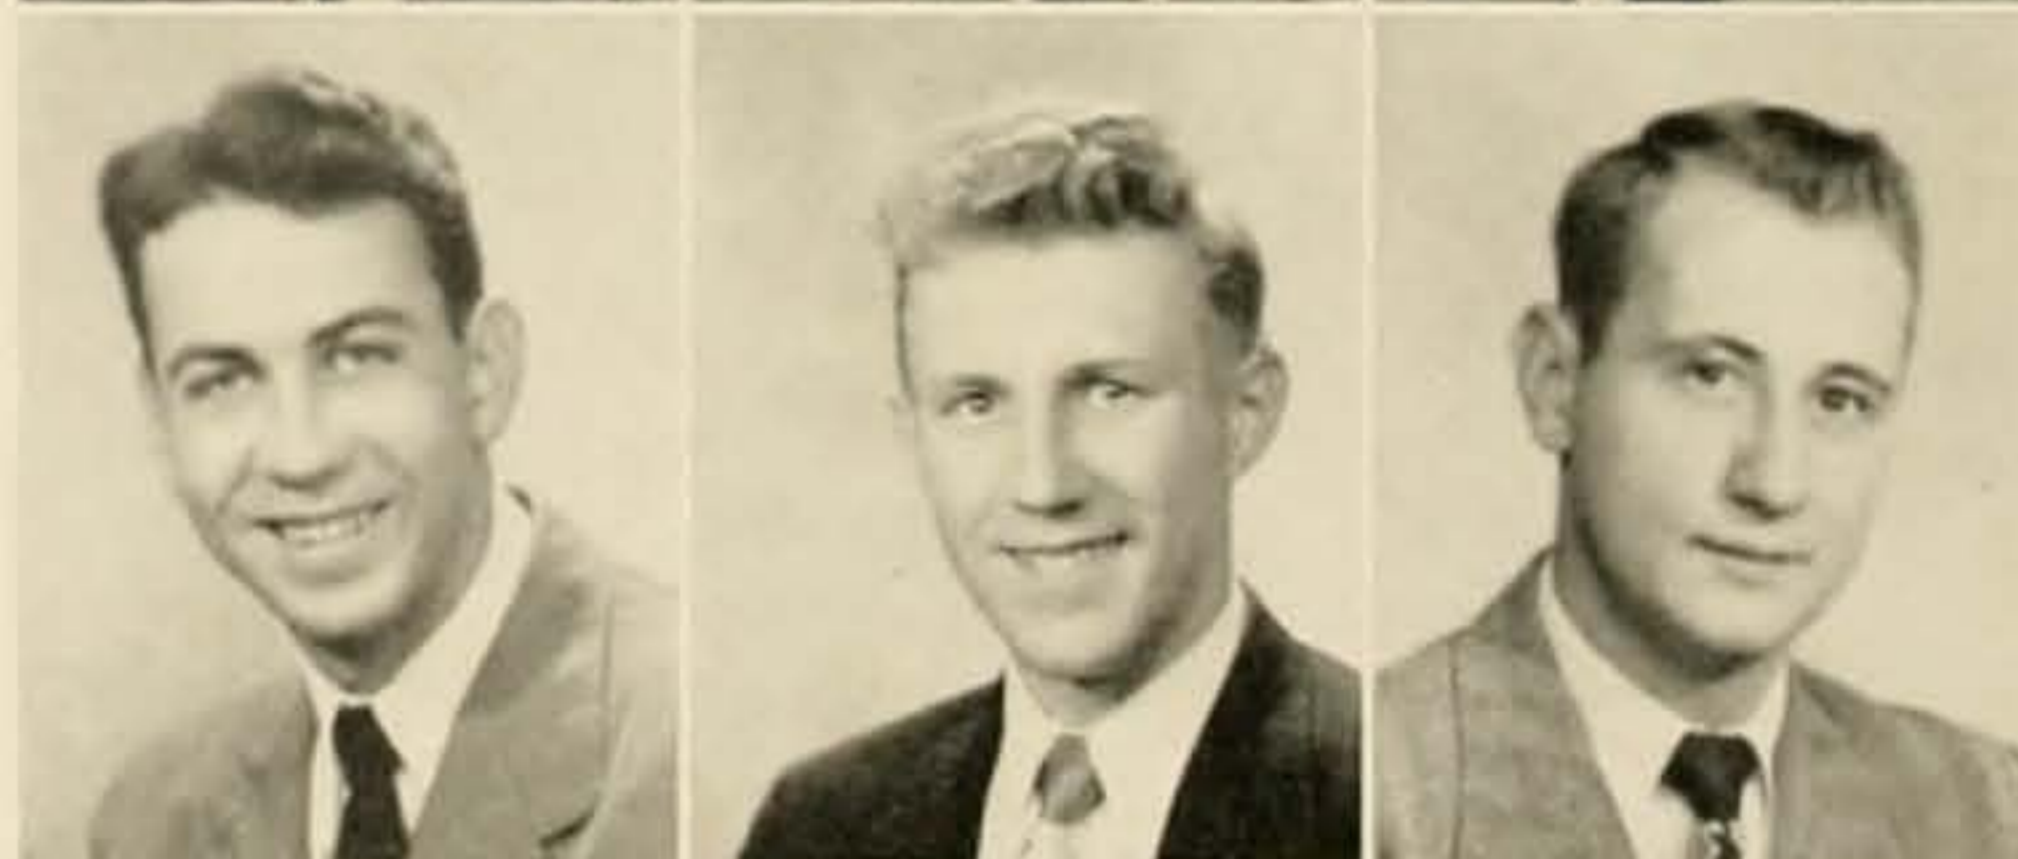

Highlights of the past two semesters were the Founders' Day Dance and the spring formal. Mothers' and Dads' weekends, hayrides, and the pledge-active banquet were other memorable events.

In the way of service, the members of the fraternity contributed wholeheartedly to campus drives such as that of the Red Cross. They also bought a trophy for the annual high school track meet held at OU.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

Once a year OU coeds have a chance to show their swimming prowess. In the Teke Aquacade events, sorority, dorm, and housing unit members vie for possession of the traveling trophy and individual honors.

Originally founded in 1899 at Illinois Wesleyan University, Tau Kappa Epsilon was established at Ohio University in 1927. The fraternity was disbanded during World War II but was reorganized at its conclusion.

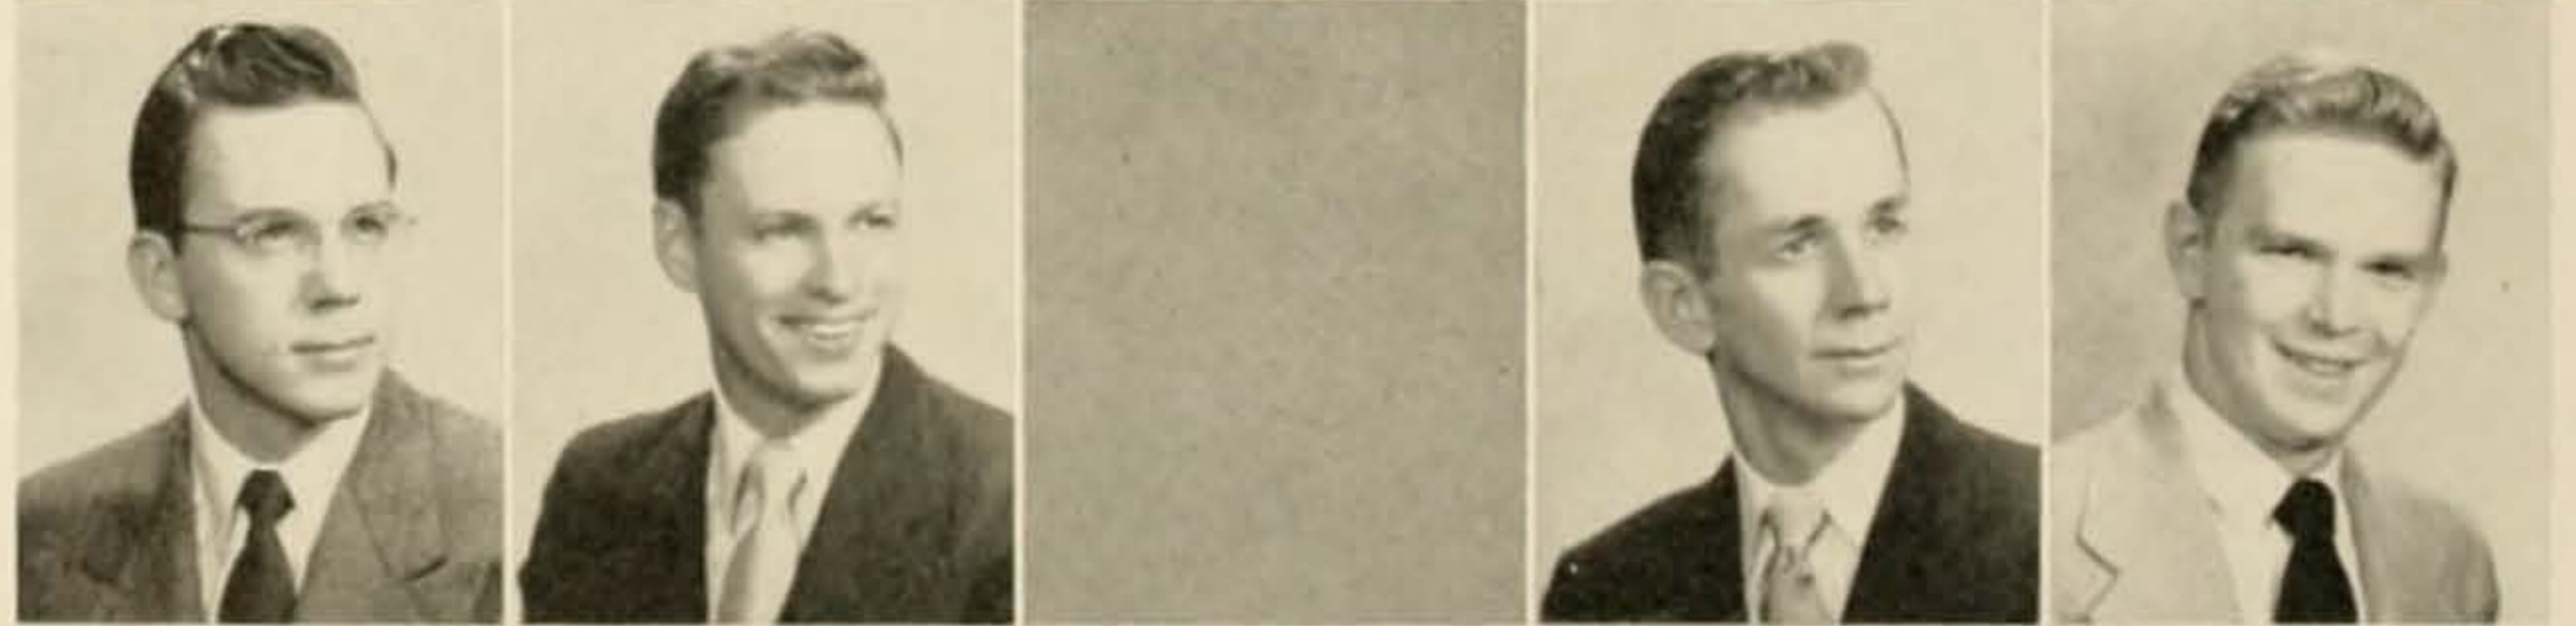

The TKE social calendar included such outstanding dates as those of the winter and spring formals, the French Party, and the Hellsapoppin Party.

Arden Fink, this year's president, was ably assisted by Gerald Ault, Everett Gibbs, Beryl Shaeffer, George Fettel, Ivan Saunders, and Fred Cockman.

Theta Chi

Theta Chi was founded nationally in 1856 at Norwich College in Vermont. It was established at OU on May 9, 1925.

This year's social activities were many and varied for the brothers. Among their top events were the Hawaiian and Prison parties and the winter and spring formals. They also held their annual party for the Powder Bowl participants at which they presented a trophy to the winners. One of their members, Ed Kalapos, was chosen as the Powder Bowl King.

Service is an important word to the group. They had an annual Red Cross party, worked at the Children's Home, and donated blood to the Red Cross.

Alpha Delta Omega

Alpha Delta Omega, founded in February of 1949, is one of the newer fraternities on campus and is designed to follow the principles of brotherhood, scholarship, and character.

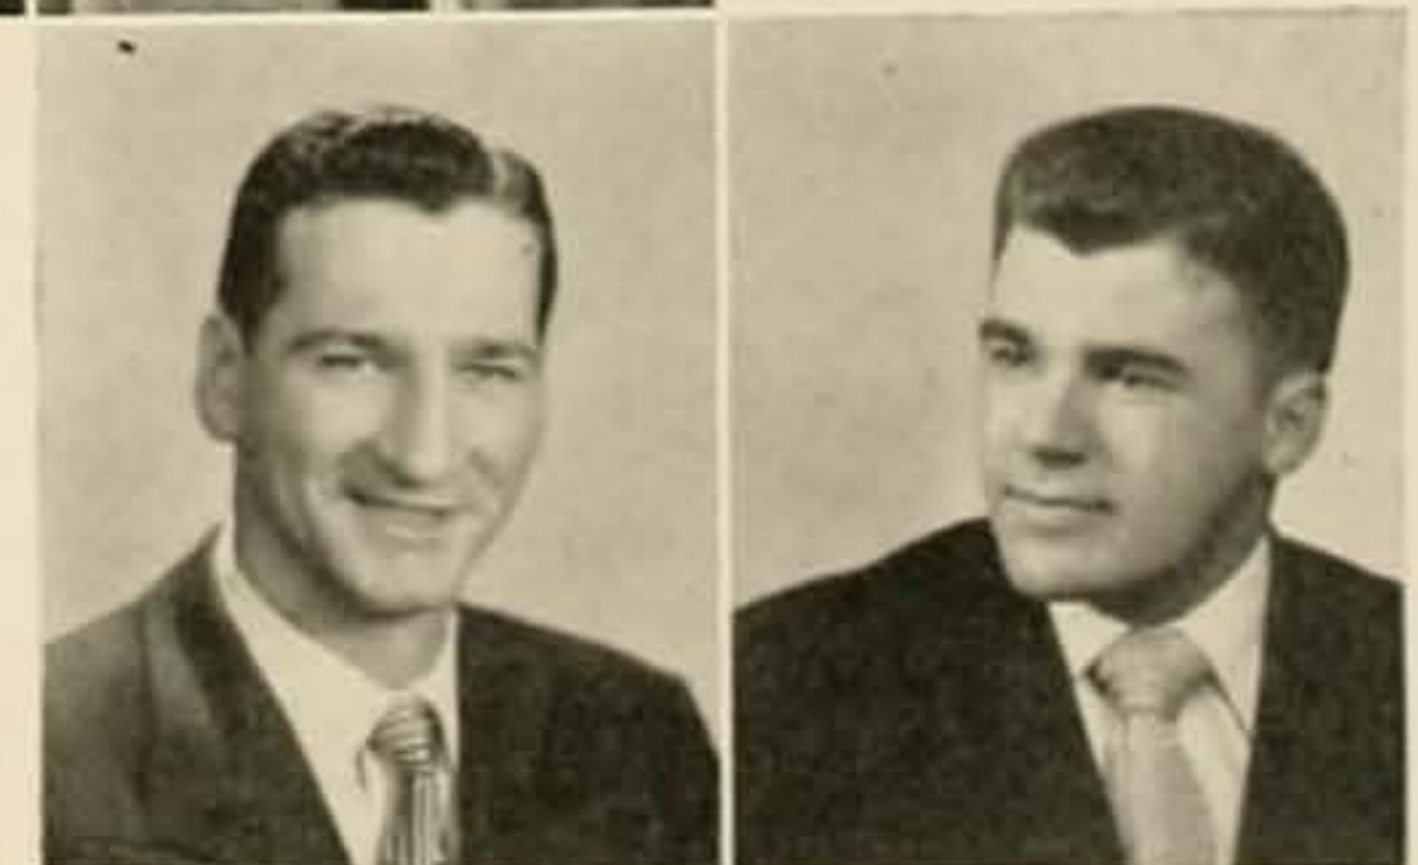

A party launching activities in their new house was the start of a top year for the ADO's. The high spot of the social agenda was the annual Moonlight Ball at which they chose their queen. They also had a winter formal, a handicap softball game with Phi Mu sorority, and several parties and open houses.

This year's officers were: John Buturain, president; Dave Davies, vice president; LaVon Crabill, treasurer, and Robert Wilging, secretary.

Gamma Gamma Gamma

First founded at Ohio University in 1923, Gamma Gamma Gamma was forced to disband in 1932 because of the depression. On May 16, 1950 it was reactivated after alumni and a group of students renewed interest in it. Its purpose is to further good scholarship, moral character, and a fraternal attitude among members while providing them with a wholesome social program.

The officers for the past two semesters were: Edward Hanak, president; Eugene Nuscher, vice president; Lionel Boucher, secretary, and Douglas Johnson, treasurer.

Tri Gam this year had a Founders' Day reunion which they plan to establish as an annual event. They also had winter and spring formals and several other social functions.

Organizations

The realization that the more than five hundred men living in the temporary barracks needed a co-ordinating group prompted the establishment in 1948 of the East Green Council. This governing body is responsible for the activities and improvements bringing a closer unity among the residents.

This year East Greeners participated in intramural sports, entered a float in the Homecoming parade, and held informal parties and dances. In the social limelight were their Winter and Spring Formals.

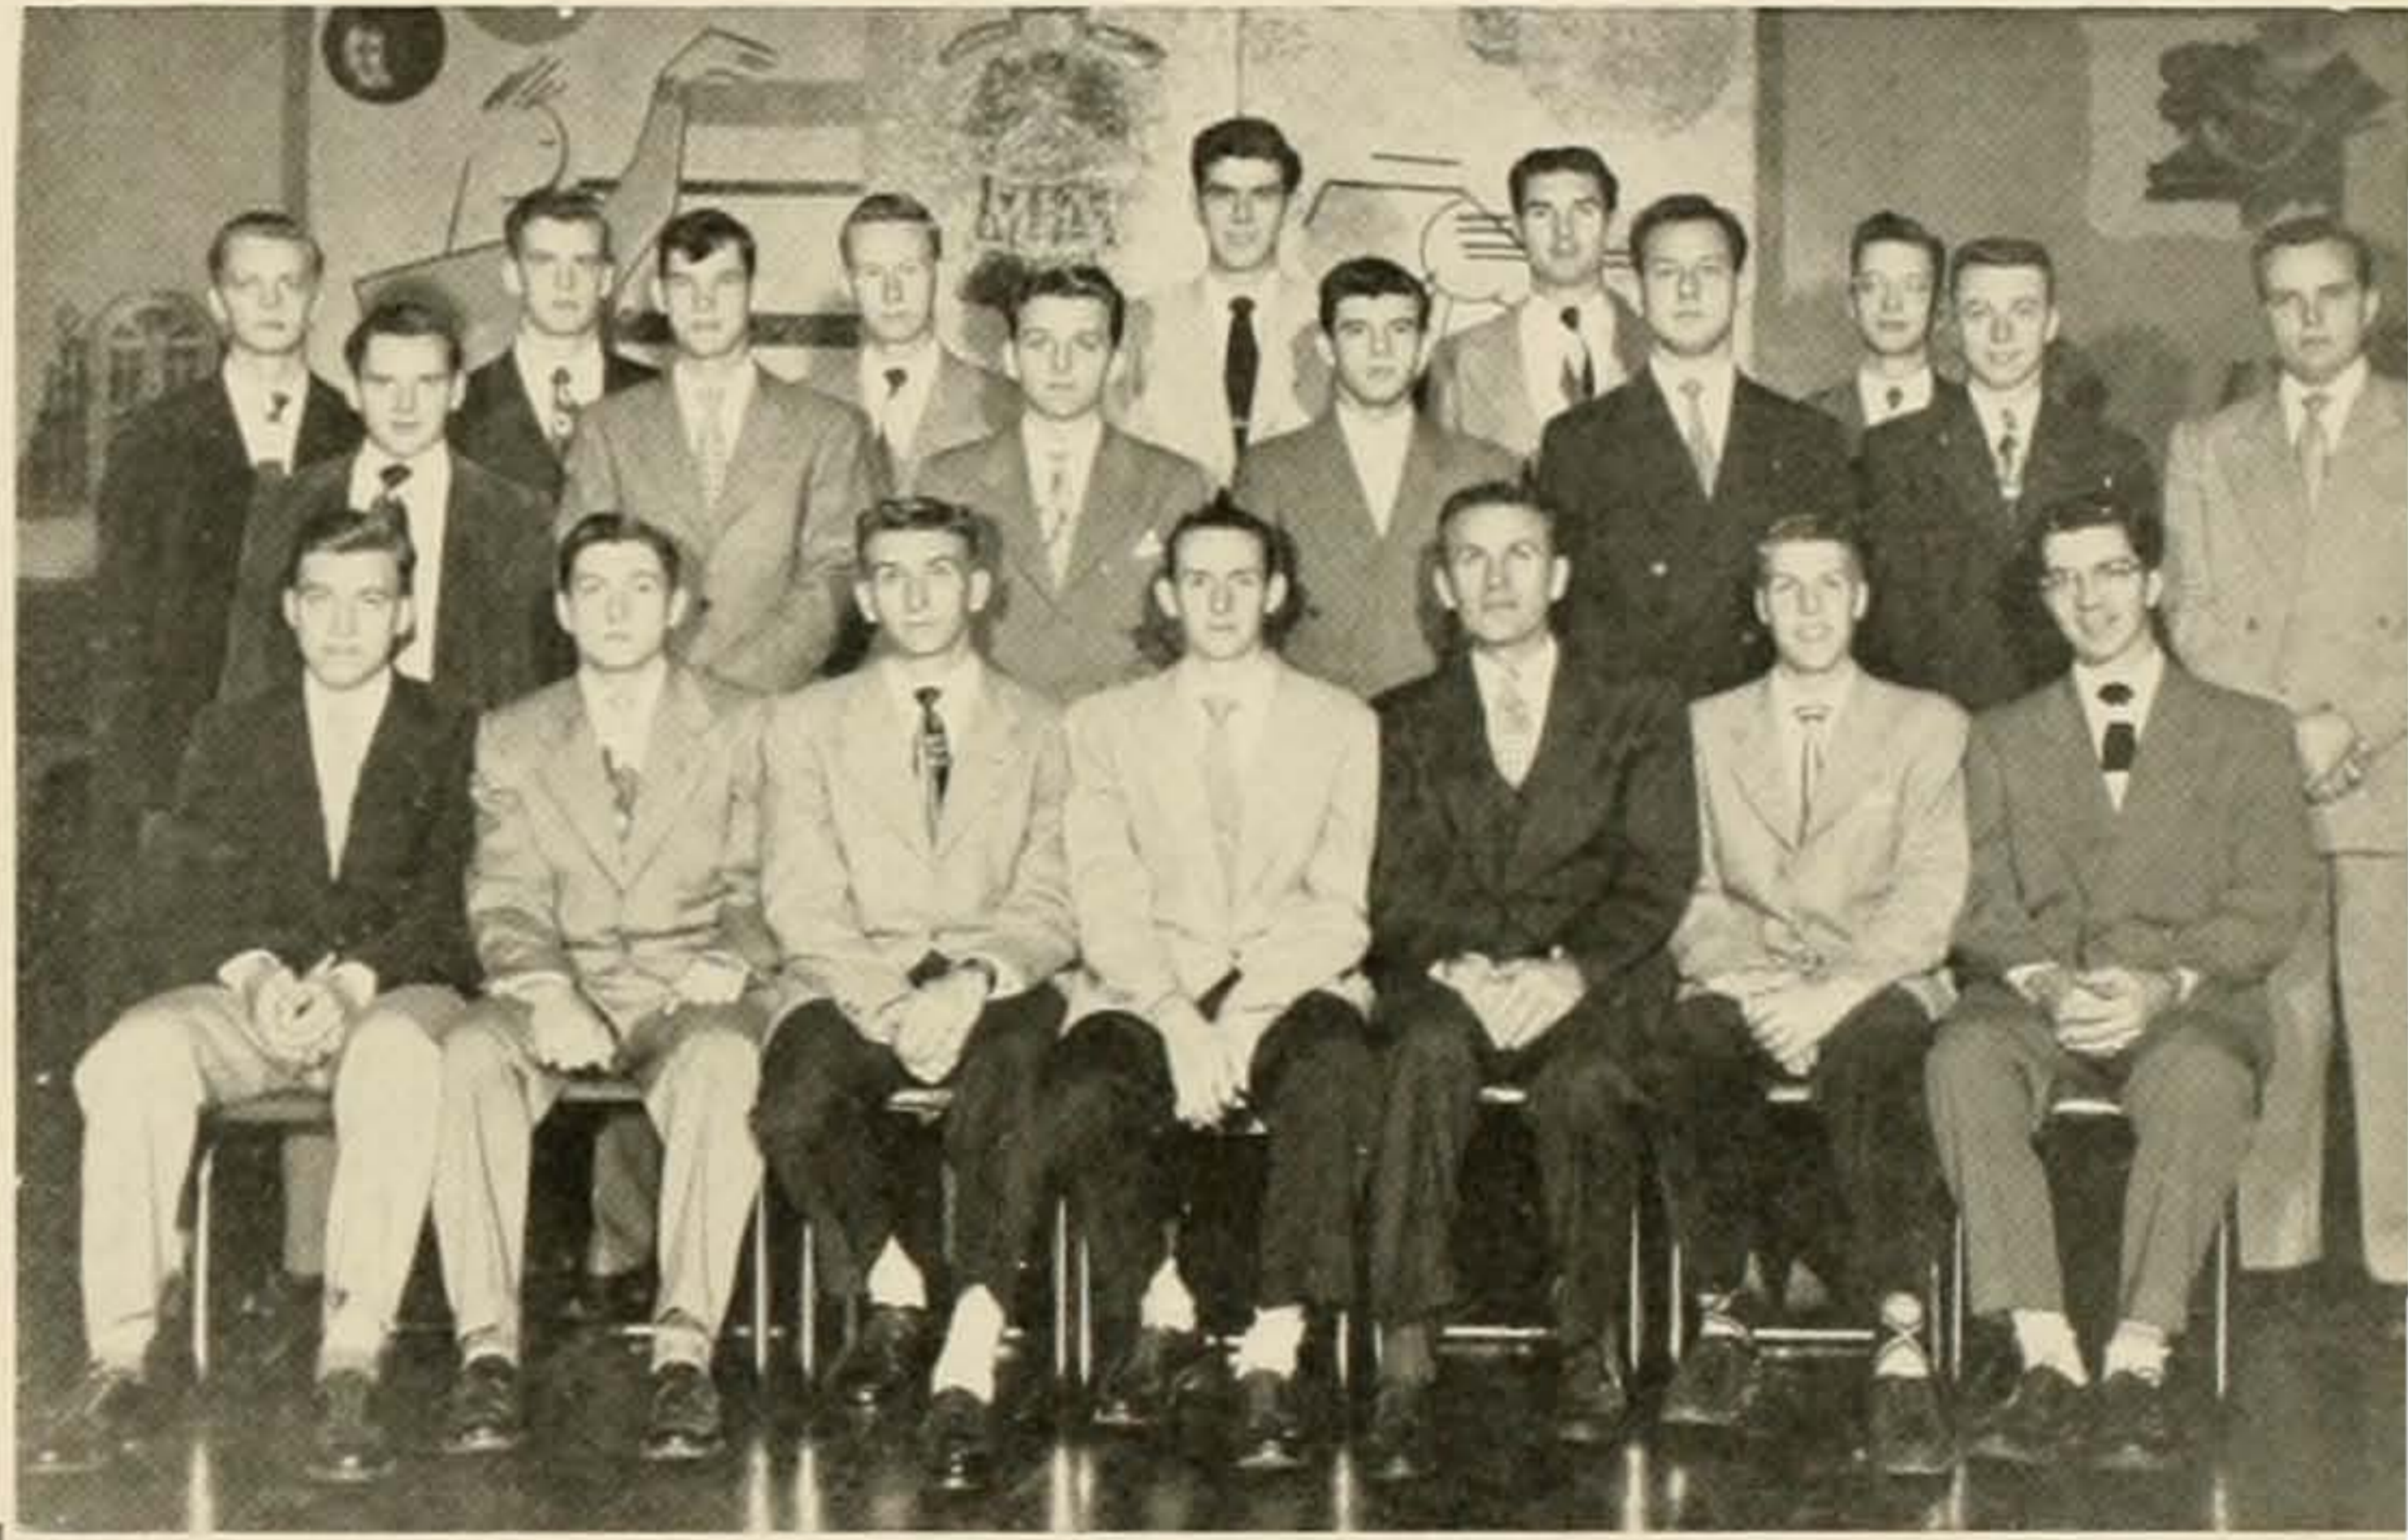

While providing a balanced social program, the Council hasn't neglected other facets of college life. With an eye to improving scholastic standing, two seventy-five dollar scholarships were set up in 1948. Contribution to drives such as those of the Community Chest and Red Cross was also urged.

Election results this year found Jim Decker, president; Ed Maruna, vice president; Larry Patterson, recording secretary; Tom Tykodi, corresponding secretary; and Leroy Ash, treasurer.

SCOTT QUADRANGLE

Scott Quadrangle, one of Ohio University's newest, most beautiful structures, is divided into eight Halls: Dana, Dunkle, Bentley, Evans, Gordy, Hoover, Atkinson, and Copeland. Each unit comprises three floors. The Representative Council is made up of a leader from each floor. It is the duty of these floor representatives to direct the government, the social and scholastic activities of the men residing in the dorm. Joseph Dando and Edward Sudnick act in an advisory capacity making sure that all matters run smoothly.

Scott Quad was begun in 1937 and was known as the Men's Dormitory. The building was renamed for William Henry Scott, the seventh president of OU, when the last section was completed in February, 1950.

This year was an eventful one for the five hundred twenty-five Scott residents. They entertained at two formal dances, a Christmas party, picnics, movie parties, record dances, and open houses.

Front Row: Stanley Bier, Edward Sudnick, Joseph Zita, Joe Dando, Roger Olsen, Bernard C. Szurszewski, Harold Daugherty, Walter Rosinski, Stu Jaffy. Second Row: Henry W. Mrs. Ned Bixler has formed a closely-knit unit at Boyd Hall that creates a true "home away from home" atmosphere appreciated by all of its residents.

The Christmas Dance, informal dances, and a formal dinner were included on the social calendar. The girls also enjoyed playing table tennis and cards in their newly decorated lounge rooms.

Other activities typical of the Boyd spirit of hospitality and friendliness were the "Big Snow" Open House and collective birthday parties.

Boyd "doings" were printed in the dorm newspaper, the "Boyd Banner," which Kathleen Daum edited this year.

Officers of the dormitory were: Norma Bell, president; Pat Miller, vice president; Martha Anderson, secretary; Hazel Smith, treasurer; and Nancy Everhart, social chairman.

Third Row: Ethel Atlas, Eleanor Broderick, Marty Conroy, Ethel Taylor, Doris Blaine, Shirley Miller, Grace Fleischer, Louise Price, Nancy Lohr, Karnella Singleton, Shirley Munn, Hertie Sifers, Ann Harbourt.

The girls of Bryan Hall boast highly of their congenial, comfortable quarters, for Bryan is the newest women's dorm at OU. With the addition of the Bryan Annex and Welsh Cottage it is also the largest.

New as it is, Bryan already is instituting traditions: Freshman Day activities, the thousands of steps to the fourth floor when the elevator won't co-operate, the springtime view of East Green "lake," quicksilver moments of romance underneath the arches, writing for the dorm paper, "Bryantics," and Apple Polishing dinners for profs.

Stepping into the limelight at Homecoming, Bryanites captured the queen's crown for their candidate, Joey Thornton. Other outstanding events for the girls were their Winter formal, "Mistletoe Magic," informal dances, formal dinners, open houses and coffee hours.

BRYAN HALL

Howard Hall is another dormitory that pulled down top honors in the queen contests this year. The girls from Howard saw their candidate, Janet Guerra, enthroned at the Athena Dance.

With events such as Freshman Night, the Tavern Dance, the Christmas Formal, open houses, and numerous informal dances, the year seemed to pass too quickly for Howard's residents.

Scholarship is always emphasized at Howard. A study hall for students with a low point average is maintained in the cafeteria.

Mary Volas, president; Anne Roberts, vice president; Barbara Francisco, secretary; and Anna Agapite, treasurer, capably planned the program of activities for the dorm.

HOWARD HALL

To the incoming freshman Lindley Hall seems a labyrinth of levels. But by the end of the year the residents remember only the good things: the warm friendships, the prolonged bridge games, sunbathing on the fire escape, "Marble Hall."

The Fall Formal, the Christmas dinner, the Cherry Pie Dance, the Halloween Party, record parties, coffee hours, and open houses completed an outstanding social program.

This spring the sound of hammers, drills, and steam shovels announced the start of construction on Lindley's new wing.

LINDLEY HALL

MATTHEWS COTTAGE

The overnight party at the WRA cabin was top contender for the outstanding event of the year for the girls at Matthews Cottage. The girls didn't get much sleep, but the pillow fights and the general hilarity of the night made up for the dark circles under the eyes on the following morning. The group also enjoyed their Christmas party and a dinner at Van Meter's.

Matthew's officers this year were: Peggy Adams, president; Perky Pollsen, treasurer; and Sally Fellabaum, social chairman.

WELCH COTTAGE

Welch Cottage is a newcomer to the OHU. The only freshman cottage on campus, it was formerly the Nurses' Home. Officially it is part of Bryan Hall and the Welch residents eat in the Bryan cafeteria.

Welch girls found it pleasant to live in the extremely attractive, yet informal atmosphere of their residence. They enjoyed the usual number of midnight discussions, card games, and parties; they knew the satisfaction of work well done and of a year well spent.

SLOANE COTTAGE

A warm, friendly spirit always prevades OU's smaller housing units. Sloane Cottage, with its seventeen girls, is no exception. The wide front porch facing Court Street served as a congenial meeting place on sunny afternoons. The girls and the proctor formed a compatible unit throughout the year.

For a small organization, the girls at Sloane had many activities. Among these were the Christmas Party, held next to their gaily decorated tree, and birthday parties for each individual.

PRESTON COTTAGE

The Preston Cottage girls have many wonderful memories connected with their residence.

Last year the cottage won the first scholarship cup to be presented to an organized housing unit. Proud of their achievement, they strove to retain it in 1951. On the lighter side, the girls enjoyed the annual Christmas Party, the yearly "Banquet Before Finals," and several informal gatherings.

Sarajane Coate was president of the group and Betty Hesrick was the secretary-treasurer.

O'BLENESS COTTAGE

Hectic days were plentiful at O'Bleness Cottage this year. Inside Zoology relics abounded; outside dogs, cats, and small children seemed to be attracted to the front porch.

Every week the Battle of the Bands was fought with one faction promoting Kenton and the other, Lombardo.

However, when inventory was taken, the girls discovered that the wonderful times and the advantages of living at O'Bleness far outweighed other considerations.

COLLEGE STREET COTTAGE

A new cottage has been added to the women's housing units this year. Located on College Street directly in back of the Student Grill, this cottage is conveniently near the campus.

The girls living at College Street Cottage already have an organized social program which this year included a WRA cabin party and informal parties at Halloween and Christmas. The proctor, Babette Marks, directed the group in these activities.

Student leaders at the cottage were Jodi Nelson, president; Helen Murphy, secretary-treasurer; and Ruth Hanna, social chairman.

McVEY COTTAGE

Life was never dull at McVey Cottage this year. Any new jazz record in the house occasioned an impromptu party. Organized parties with "hot dogs with everything, from the Union" were held. Art work frequently cluttered the floor.

But the girls found the house a good place to study as well as to play and all agreed that McVey was a wonderful place to live.

Officers of McVey were Mary Lou Young, president; Judy Wherry, treasurer; and Bev Brainard and Bev Spurgeon, social co-chairmen.

WILLIAMS COTTAGE

Last fall the girls at Williams Cottage found themselves without heat or lounge furniture. By the time these necessities had arrived, the unit was already engrossed in campus activities.

The social events of the girls were a weird Halloween party, a Christmas party, and an open house.

In charge of the year's events were the president, Evelyn Moreida; the vice president, Barbara McMahan; the treasurer, Eileen Peugh; and the social chairman, Eileen Yeager.

INTERDORM COUNCIL

The Interdorm Council is the body that makes provisions for the interrelation of the women's dormitories. It plans for the dorm activities and serves as a link between them and the overall program of Women's League.

The Council encourages scholastic standing by awarding a plaque each semester to the girls' dorm with the highest group point average.

Socially, the organization arranges for open houses, exchange dinners and the Interdorm Formal.

ORGANIZED HOUSING UNITS

The University's organized housing units scattered throughout the town need a co-ordinating group. The OHU Council is the organization providing these houses with government, a social calendar, incentive for scholarship, and better fellowship among the residents. The Council binds the girls more closely together and is their representative body on campus. Under OHU the cottages enter a float in the Homecoming parade and candidates in the queen contests. A highlight of the social season was the OHU formal dance.

WOMEN'S INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATION

The Women's Independent Association is the organization providing social, educational, and recreational activities for the women of Ohio University who are not affiliated with social fraternities. It was founded on campus in the summer of 1946 and became a member of the national Association in May, 1948.

The featured event on this year's calendar was the Sweetheart Ball in February. Other functions include the all-campus mixer in conjunction with the MIA, a hayride, an outing at Lake Hope, and several parties.

Acting not only as a social organization, the group also renders valuable service to the school by way of the Student Travel Bureau.

Men's Independent Association

Too quickly the hours passed at the Sweetheart Ball.

The Men's Independent Association of Ohio University promotes the general welfare and well-being of the independent men on campus. This is accomplished by providing them an adequate representation on campus, providing a medium for leadership training, and setting up a complete social, recreational, and educational program.

This group, founded at OU in 1938, was active until 1943. After the war the organization was reactivated and went national on April 14, 1947.

One side of the MIA is revealed by the varied social program it provides for the members. Several mixers were held along with informal dances, hayrides, an outing at Lake Hope, a Cinderella Ball, and a Sweetheart Dance ruled over by this year's queen, Dee Barker.

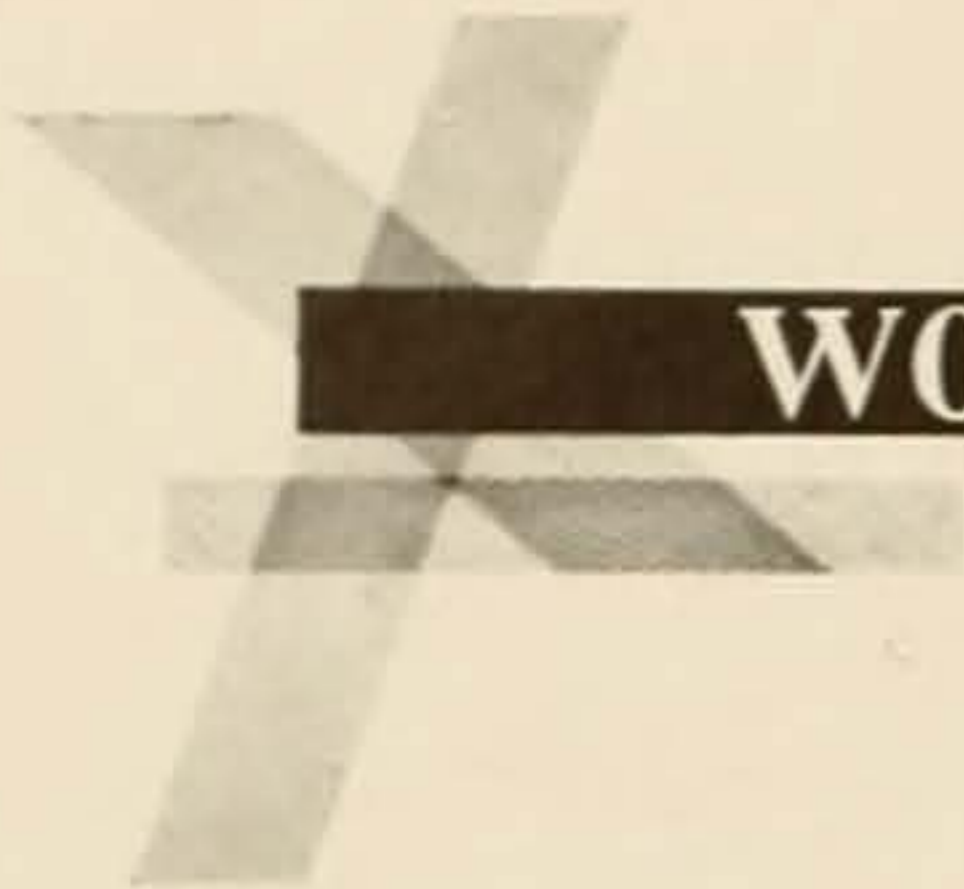

On the other hand, the group lists some very important campus services among its activities. The Student Travel Bureau is under their general supervision, and has saved many weary students from a campus-wide search for a ride home. Favorites at OU are the MIA movies. Outstanding films are shown each Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday night; they're a "pocket saver" for the students.

The MIA holds a formal initiation service once each semester to grant life membership to faithful members.

WOUI

Because of WOUI, Saturday afternoons last fall were football afternoons whether OU's team played at home or away. When the Bobcats took to the road, gals with their knitting, chatting couples, and would-be quarterbacks gathered in Memorial Auditorium to cheer or groan for the team as the description of the game came over the loud speaker.

Owned and operated by Ohio University, WOUI was founded in 1941 primarily to train students for commercial radio. In 1949 the station added a 10 watt educational FM transmitter with separate FM programs.

Varied programs of interest to the campus and the community are scheduled by WOUI.

The station advisor is Mr. Vincent Jukes. Bill Lauer served as the student manager.

Dan Bishop, Bob Moore, Marilyn Glenn, Joe Sallay, Bill Lauer, Vincent Jukes, Sid Davis, Jan Clark, Jo Kiehne, Ed Oravec, Jim Crum.

TENNIS CLUB

When the first robin heralds the trek to the courts, the members of the Tennis Club can be seen every day down at the athletic grounds with their rackets swinging.

This club, co-operating with the WRA, promotes interest in tennis by sponsoring matches and playdays with other schools throughout Ohio.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA

Albert B. Smith

Guiding Alpha Phi Alpha is the motto "Forward and Upward to the Light." The fraternity strives to promote a more perfect union among college men, to aid and insist upon the personal progress of its members, to further fraternal love, and to inculcate the sense of responsibility in its members.

Alpha Phi Alpha isn't a newcomer to the campus, for, although inactive since World War I, it was first established at OU May 17, 1919. The fraternity was reactivated in May of 1950.

Highlight of the year was the Sweetheart Formal held in Columbus in conjunction with the Ohio State chapter of the fraternity.

ARCHITECTURAL SOCIETY

The provision of a Scholarship or Loan Fund for students interested in studying architecture at OU is the primary endeavor of the Architectural Society of Ohio University. The organization also works to promote interest among students in architectural studies, and act as a medium between professional men, instructors, and students.

The officers were William Peery, president; Robert Guss, vice president; Theodore Young, treasurer, and Dick Dittebrand, secretary. Professor Denison advises the society.

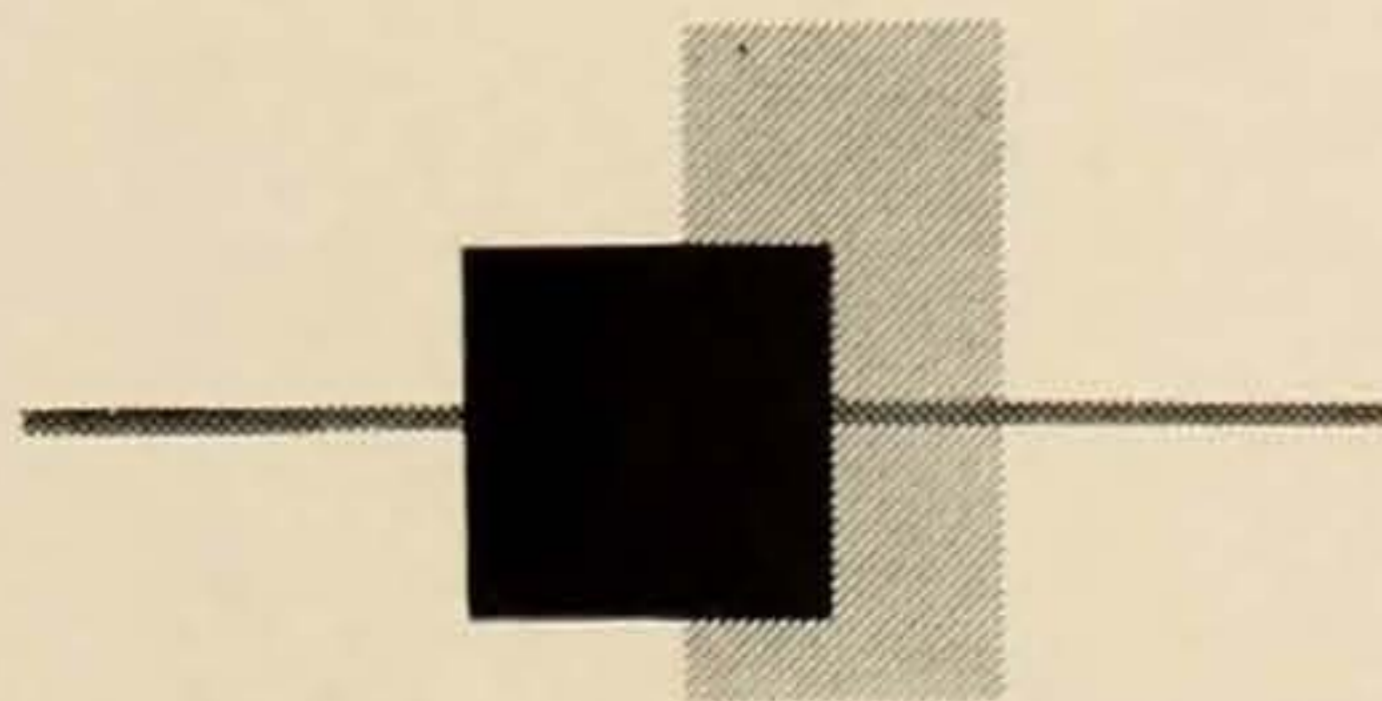

Front Row: Manuel Gonzalez, Ada Gonzalez, Verla Nye, Donald Nye. Second Row: Phillip Chen, Mary Ann Klos, Daubeny Cooper, Kathleen Gales, Simonne Buteau, Nancy Davis, Helmut Weiler, Robert Moorhouse. Third Row: Olga Prado, Sonia Berman, Francis Ememe, Duk Hi Lee, Kweku Ghartey, Loren C. Troescher, Onyerisara Ukeje, Frank Sandelowsky. Fourth Row: Joe Dando, Louise Dando, Esther Brown, Jean Stevenson, Beryl Shapiro, Joy Wiener, Ram Jhawar, Satish Kumar Arora. Fifth Row: Ikem Oluonye, Timothy Chin, Peter Chen, Eudaldo Cabrera, Martha Drake, Chiau Beng Ng, Roland deWit, Daniel Schwartz. Sixth Row: Keichi Nakamoto, Ichiro Seto, George Long, Hitoshi Sato, Salley Slee, Ryszard Lysakowski, Kalu Dike. Seventh Row: Victor Whitehouse, Peter Lhotzky, David Olchanski, John Raiser, Herman Silbiger, Ruth Harp, Kamal Kahn, John Hermann.

OU is known as a friendly school, nevertheless it is a sometimes bewildering, sometimes terrifying experience for a foreign student to try and establish himself at any college. The International Club attempts to alleviate this situation. The organization aims to build better relationships between the foreign students and their fellow collegians, as well as to provide social, cultural, and intellectual activities for its members.

This year's program included dances, movies, plays, and discussions of international relations.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

THE FRENCH CLUBS

L'Alliance Francaise and Le Cercle Francais form the French Quarter at Ohio University.

Both clubs serve to encourage interest in the people of France, their language, and their culture, and to promote more cordial relations between that country and the United States.

Basis for membership in L'Alliance is outstanding scholarship in French studies.

These clubs were founded under the supervision of Dr. Mary T. Noss, who has served the organizations as faculty advisor since their beginnings.

The Childhood Education Club of Ohio University was founded in 1910 to provide a means by which its members may achieve professional improvement and enjoy professional fellowship.

During the year this organization served the Children's Home and sent Christmas packages to children overseas.

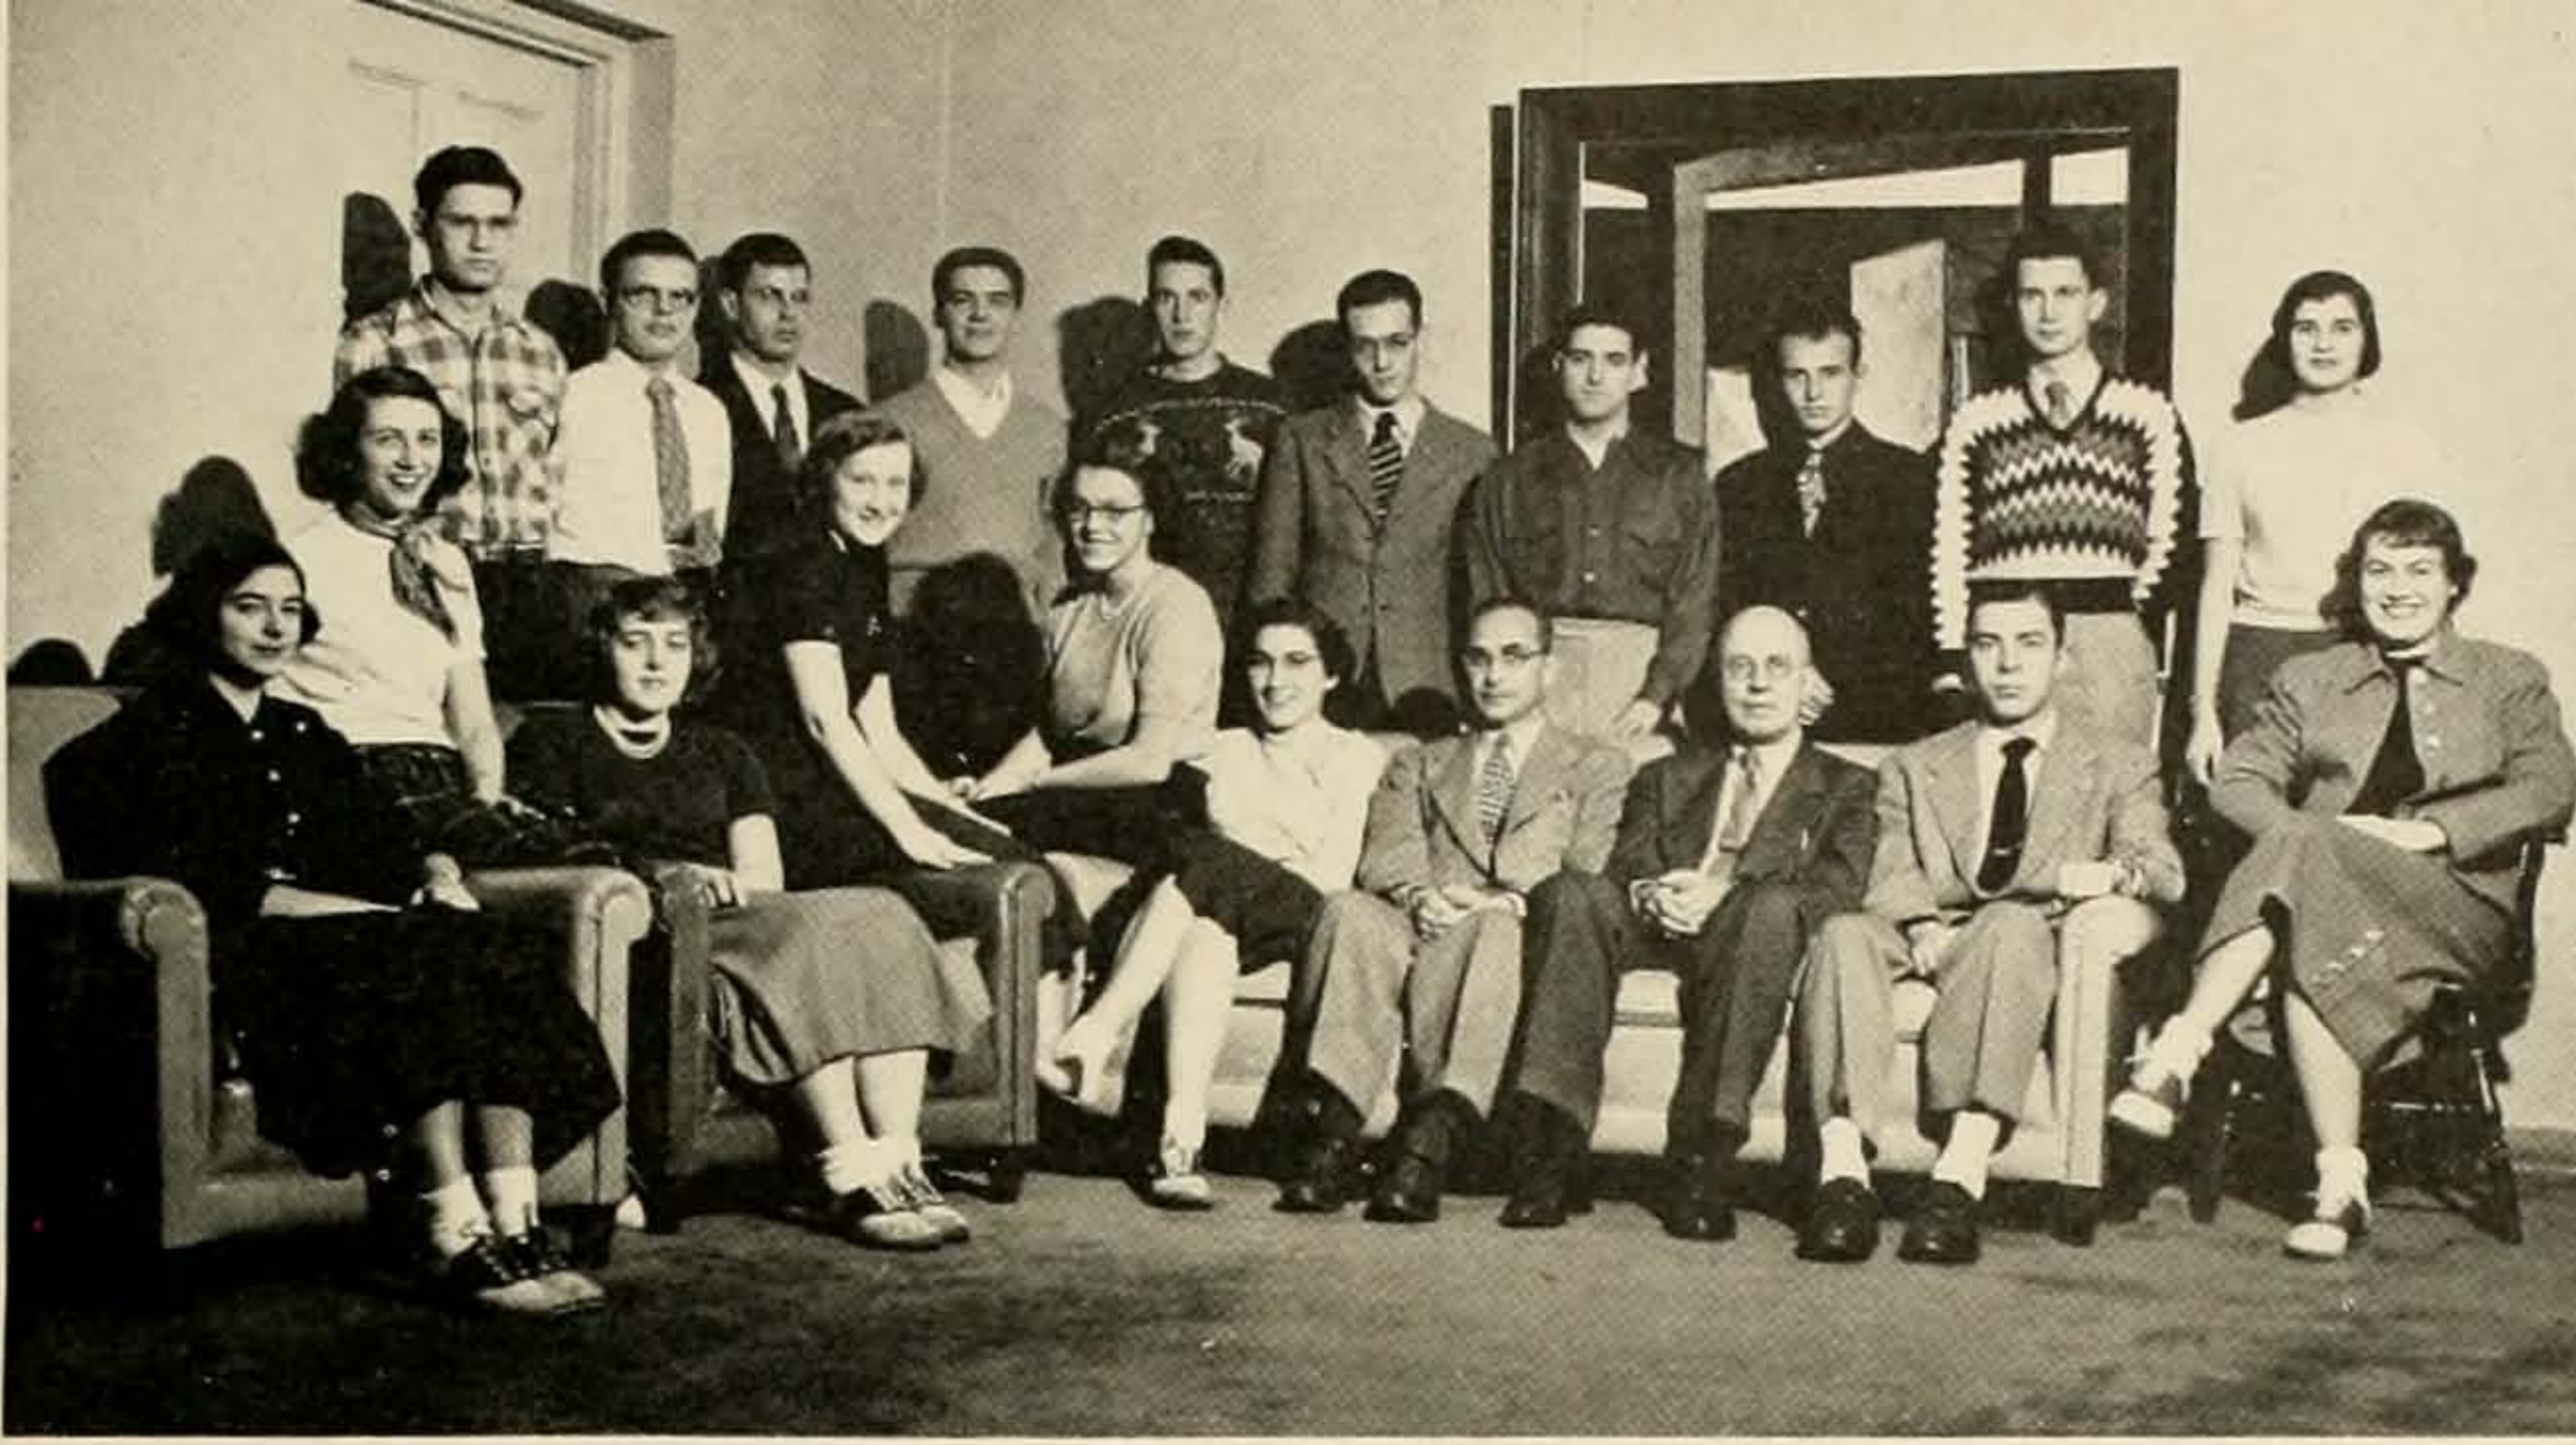

The annual activities of the group are their parties at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Patricia Young, president; Dave Jones, vice president; Barbara Francisco, secretary; and Doris Brunn, treasurer served as the officers of the club. Dr. Marie Quick is the advisor.

CHILDHOOD EDUCATION CLUB

A departmental club, Der Deutsche Verein endeavors to provide additional linguistic, cultural, and social opportunities for students of the German language. Kate Johnson, president; Roger Schluester, secretary, and Robert Peterson, treasurer directed the activities of the group. The faculty advisors of the club are Dr. Hammer and Dr. Krauss.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

KAPPA DELTA PI

Front Row: Ann Mumma, Marilyn Adams, Betty Feiszli, Helen Urban, Miriam Bower, Dorothy Corcoran, Nancy Hanna, Marjorie Fullerton, Kate Hanauer. Second Row: Dean I. C. McCracken, Jean Romero, Mary Ann Dye, Jacqueline Bennett, Marilyn Elder, Carolee Schafer, Norma Bell. Third Row: Donna Buck, Sonia Berman, Babette Marks, Rose Zalar, Martha Miner, Margaret Robe, Helen Mock, Nancy Canfield, Phyllis Kitinoja. Fourth Row: Ray Hurd, Homer Bradshaw, Max Evans, Mel Mihal, Logan Wiley, Ed Gay, Lyle Udall, Edward Shaffer, Frank Downhour, Joan Vance, Shan Hoffmann. Fifth Row: Ed Roberts, Ed Ullman, Tom Hammer, Dave Jones, Allan Bellin, William Yost, Tetsuro Sasaki, Dick Milford, Mrs. M. Burdell Cook, Mrs. Sybil Cook. Sixth Row: Karl Finnen, Darrel Banford, John L. Miller, Kenneth Baker, Dawerence Skatzes, Joseph Van Camp.

The encouragement of high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, and the recognition of outstanding contributions to education is the purpose of the national honorary, Kappa Delta Pi.

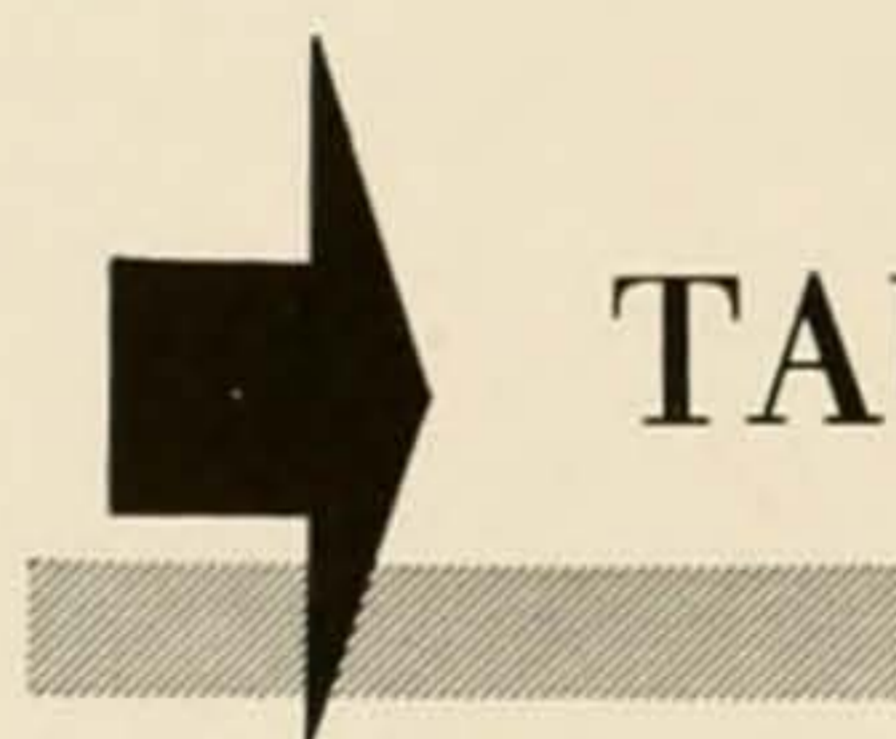

The fraternity, founded on campus in 1923, annually sponsors a band concert for children of the county, brings high schoolers to the campus as prospective students, and authorizes convocations and special meetings.

This year members of Kappa Delta Pi held conferences with recently graduated teachers and honored sophomores in education courses at a tea.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA

Resolved: That Tau Kappa Alpha should give honor to all forensic activity throughout the nation.

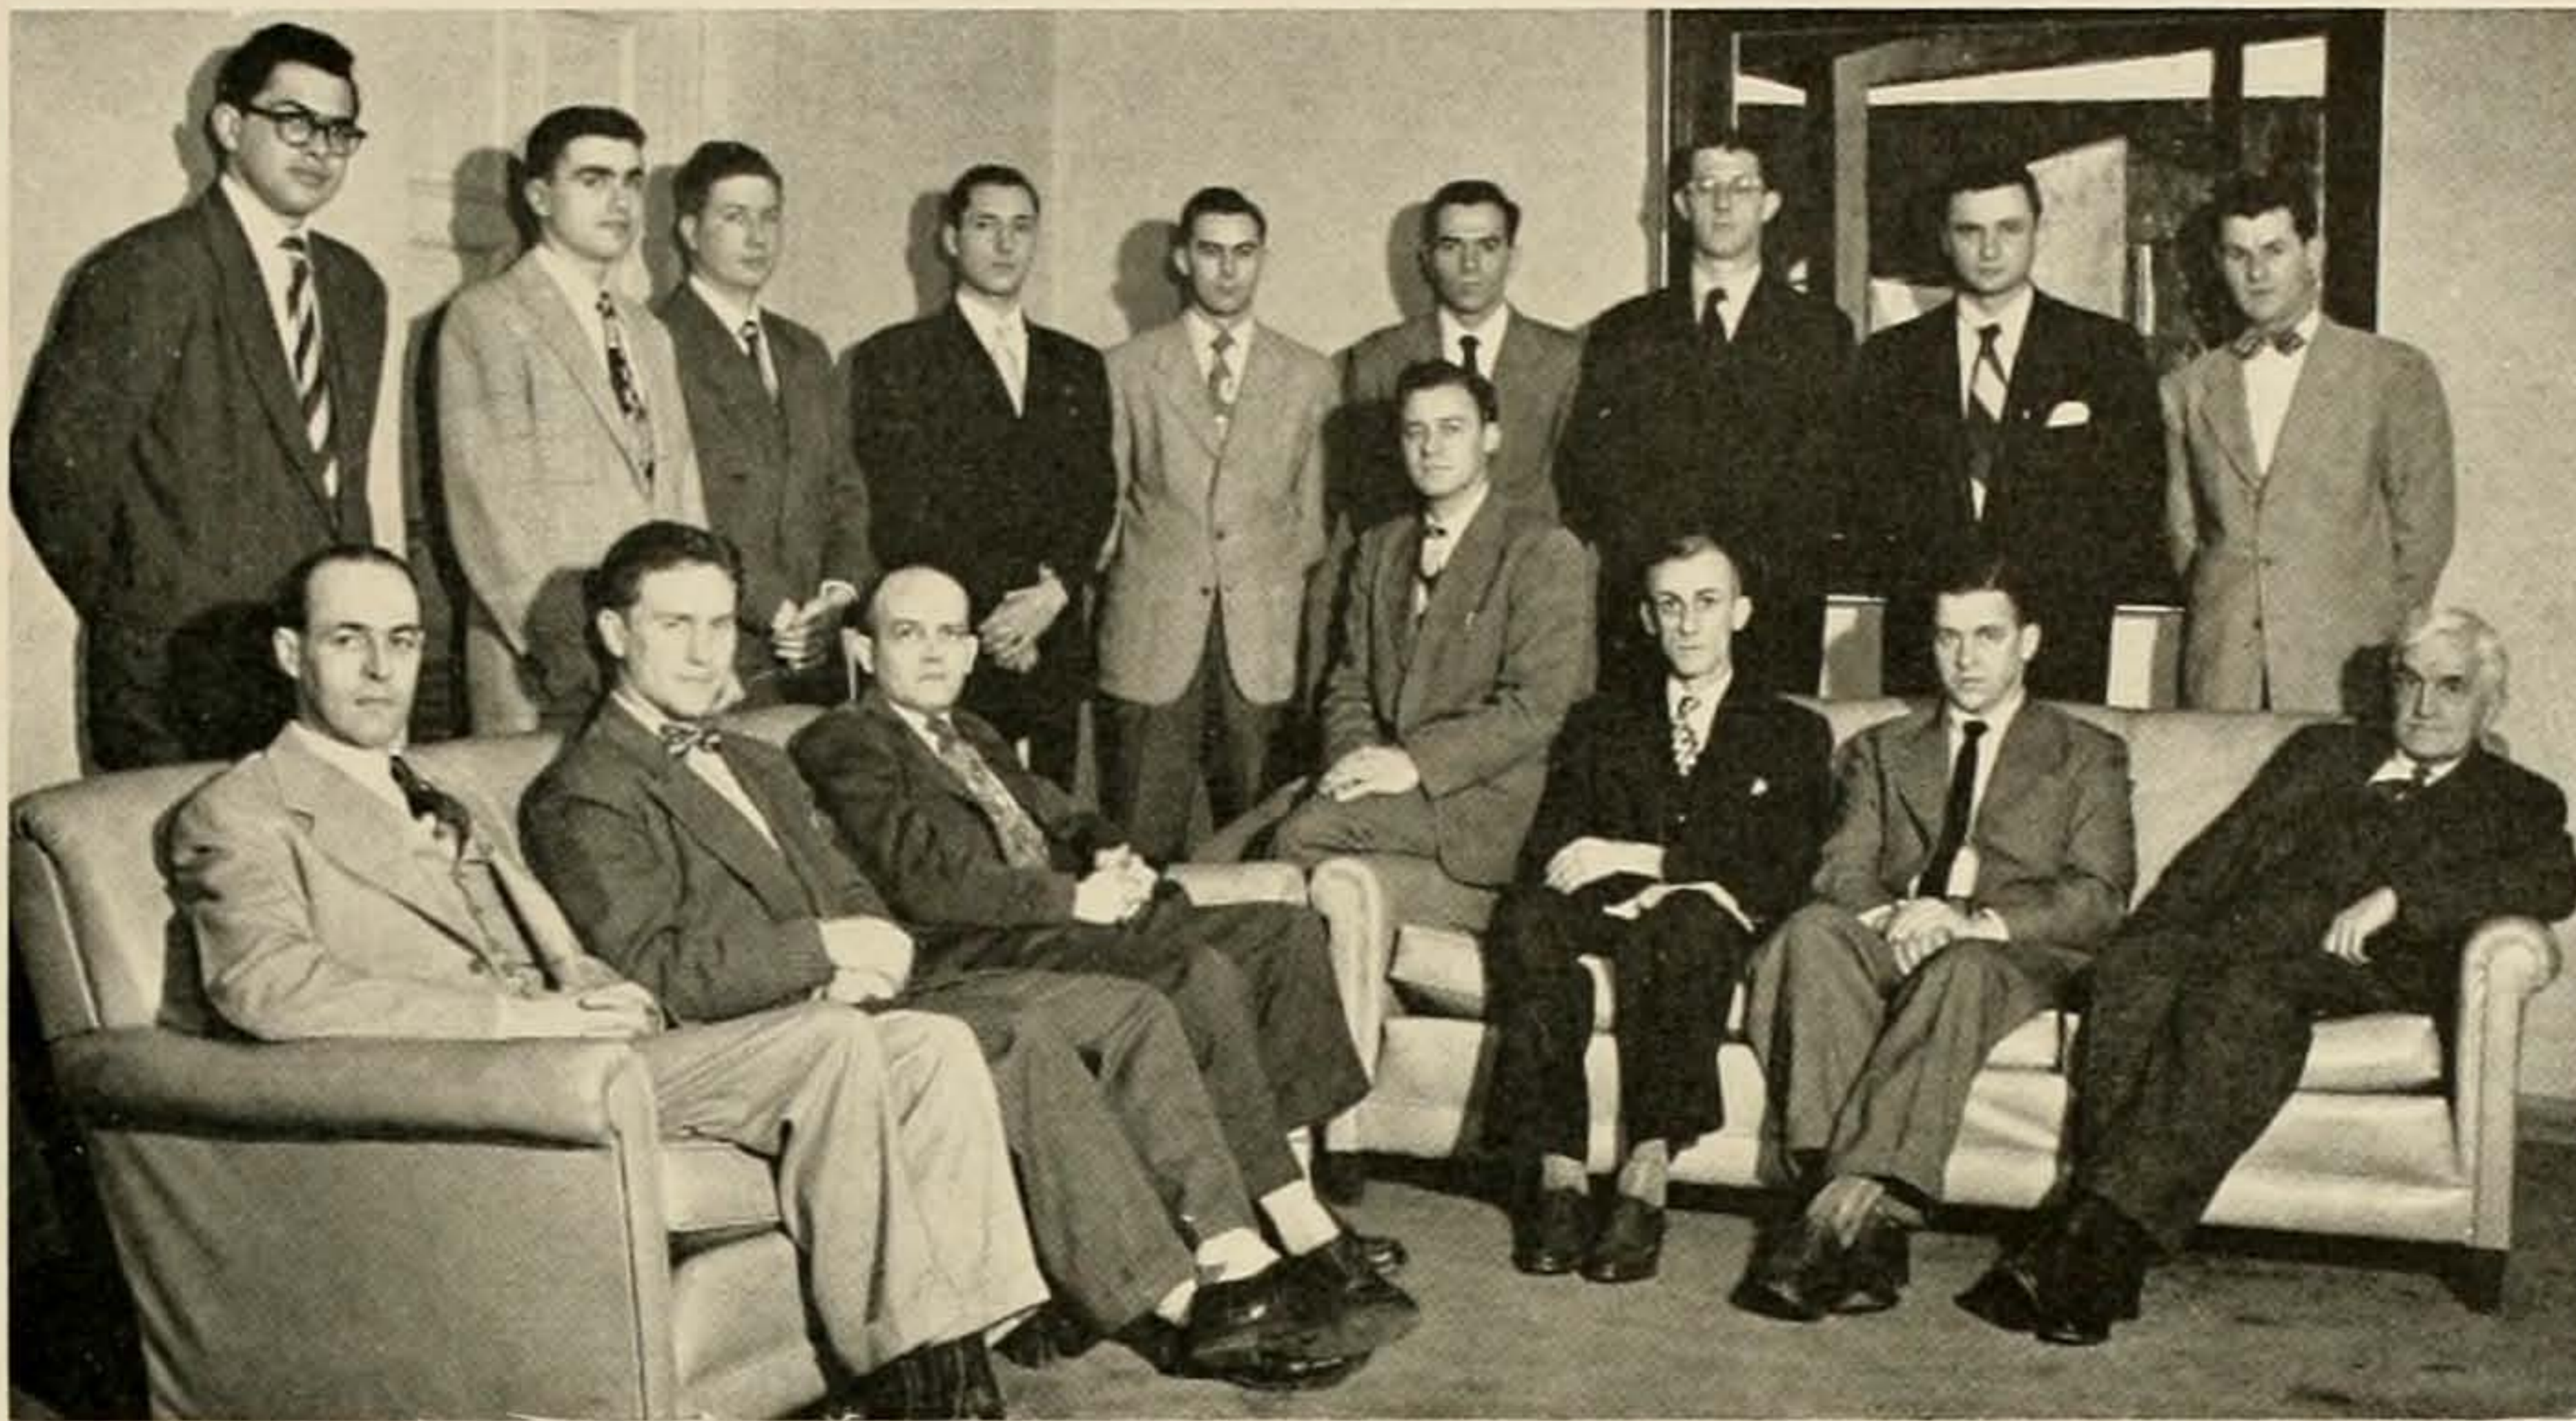

By "should" we mean that TKA can and does serve this purpose.

Established at Ohio University in 1916, this club furthers the interest in debate, oratory, and extemporaneous speech by giving recognition to scholastic attainment in the field of forensics.

Tau Kappa Alpha is responsible for the receptions given to visiting debate teams and speech conventions. Dr. L. C. Staats has aided the group in these and other activities such as the panel discussions on parliamentary procedure. The fraternity also presents an award to an OU professor, not in the speech department, who has given distinctively good lectures.

SIGMA DELTA CHI

The fraternity honoring men in the journalism school is Sigma Delta Chi. This organization, founded at OU in 1932, aims at cultivating an interest in journalism and at establishing and maintaining a higher standard of writing.

SDX and Kappa Alpha Mu back Ohio University's campus humor magazine, the Ohioan.

An outstanding event for the fraternity, as well as for the campus at large, was the SDX Newspaper Ball held last fall.

THETA SIGMA PHI

Outstanding women in the school of journalism are honored by being asked to join Theta Sigma Phi. This national fraternity was established to unite women in journalism and to furnish them with professional aid.

One of the most important campus and community services of the group is the clinic they hold for people interested in publicity.

The girls also sponsored the sale of Time and Life magazines and held a tea for women journalism students.

DOLPHIN CLUB

With the accent on space this year, the Dolphin Club presented one of the most impressive shows seen at Ohio University. The new natatorium provided the setting and these mermaids furnished the cast.

The Dolphin Club, known from 1928 to 1938 as the Ohio Aquatic Club, consists of the best women swimmers on campus. Prospective members are graded at the beginning of each year and if selected become Dolphins at an Initiation and Installation Party.

Guarding at the pool is the chief campus and community service performed by the girls.

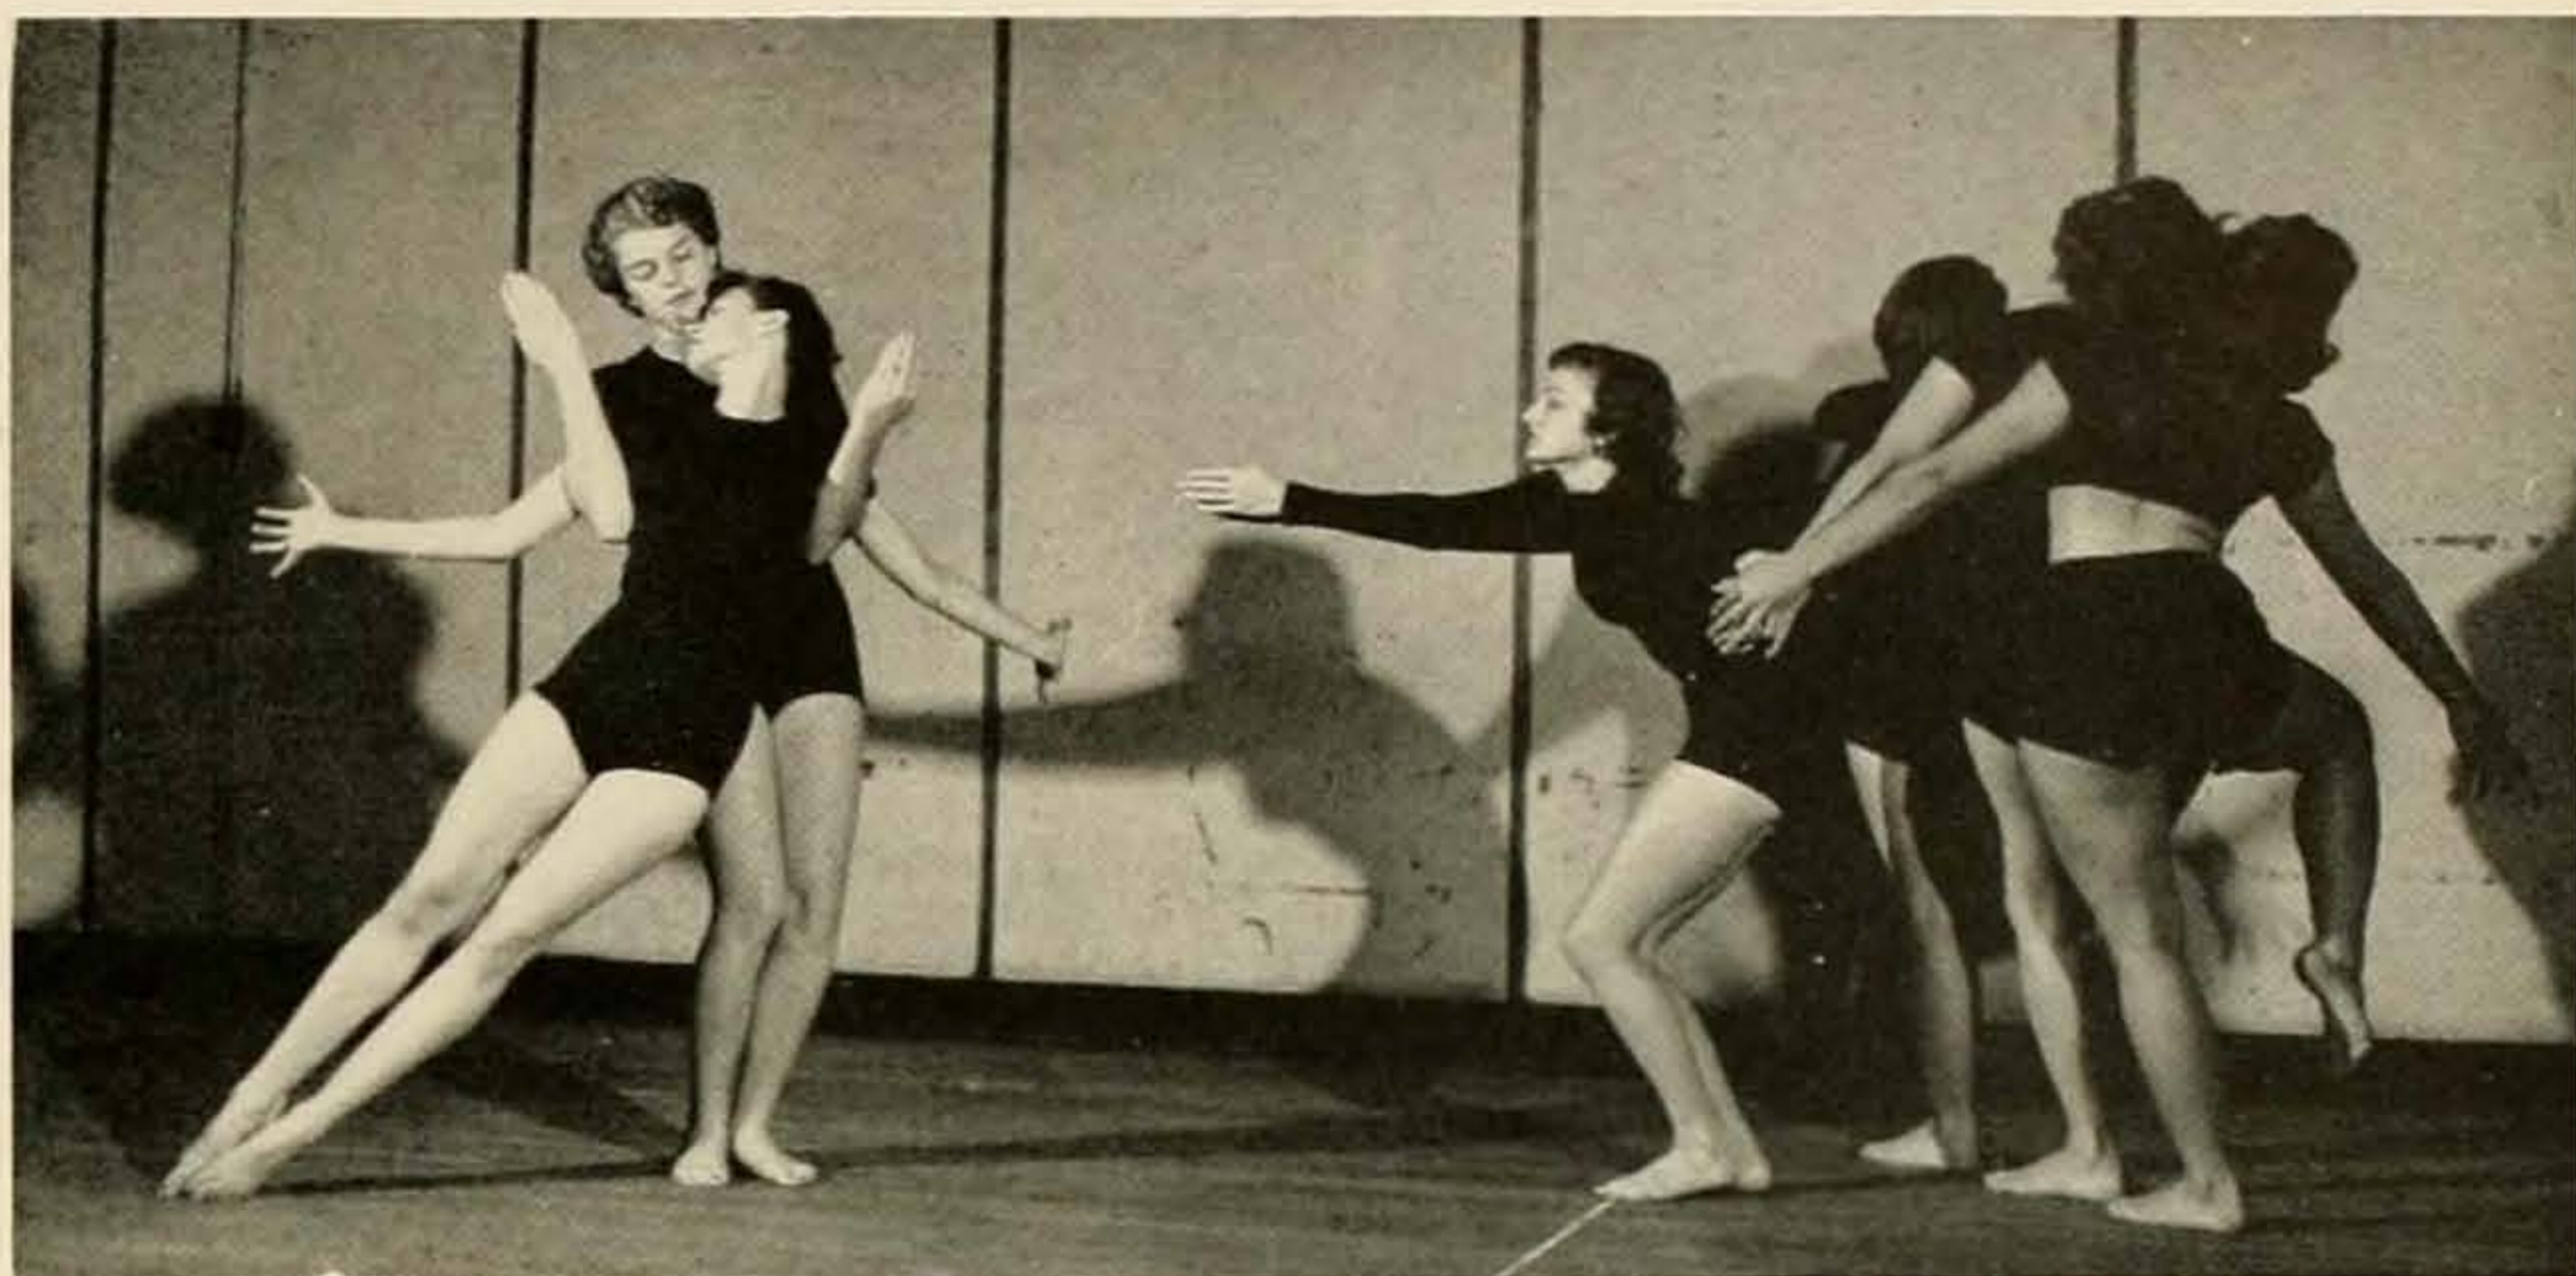

The water show and other events such as mixed swimming parties and competitive meets with other schools were planned by the club's advisor, Miss Jean George, and its officers: Pat Irwin, Babette Marks, Nancy Hanna, and Lavelle Tripp.

Dance Clubbers put the stress on interpretation.

DANCE CLUB

The spring dance concert, presented by the Dance Club in co-operation with CAC and the Convocations Committee, displayed talent of a professional caliber. The club proved its dedication to the appreciation and interpretation of the dance.

Under the leadership of their president, Lavelle Tripp, the girls also performed in the Christmas Choral Concert and a Dance Drama.

Another project of wide interest was Jose Limon's concert which the organization brought to our campus.

Nancy Barron, Jean Gray, and Addie Ruble take to the air.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The YWCA is the first organization with which freshman women at OU come in contact. The YW's First Nighter Party, at the beginning of freshman week, helps to better acquaint the girls and to dispel that initial homesickness.

Members of the YWCA, united under their purpose of realizing a full and creative life for everyone through a growing knowledge of God, assist at the Children's Home, the Salvation Army, and in mining towns. The girls also work with shut-ins and the Y-Teens.

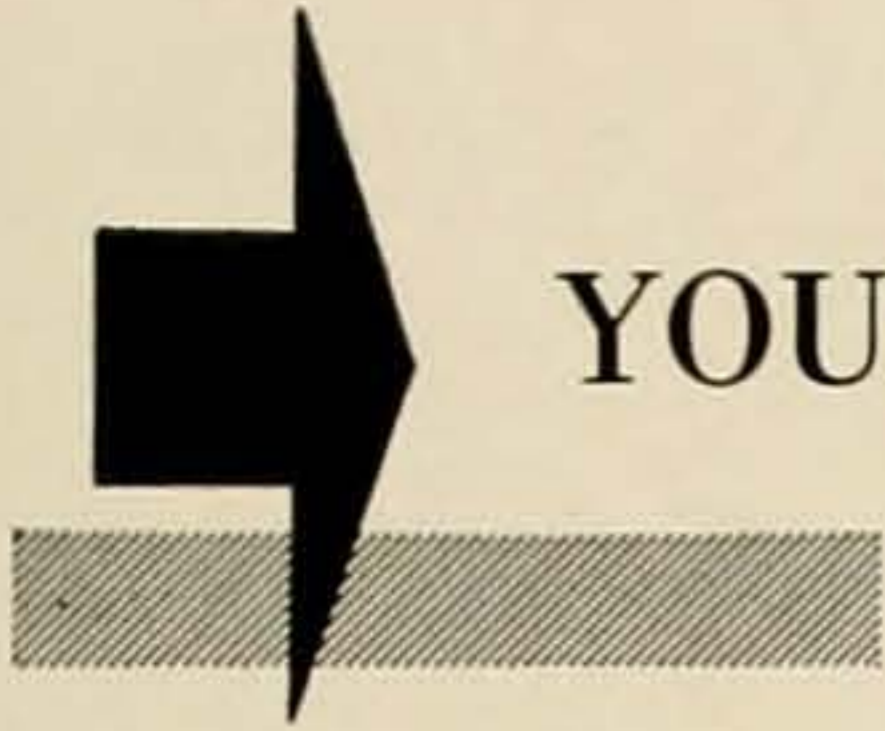

On the social agenda are parties, the May Morning Breakfast and the Melting Pot.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The YMCA more than proves its reputation as a service organization. The Melting Pot Dance, which both the YM and YW sponsor brought together socially the members of Los Amigos and the International Club.

Another YM undertaking, the Book Exchange, is a real financial aid to students.

The men in this organization also gave assistance to the Children's Home and underprivileged areas of the county. They had a symposium on Russia and held a party for freshman men that was similar to the YW's First Nighter Party.

WESTMINSTER FOUNDATION

Students associated with the Westminster Foundation find that fellowship, spiritual guidance, amusement and relaxation are some of the many benefits offered to the group.

Westminster's objective is to stimulate and develop in its members a purpose of God and the promotion of every day living in accordance with the principles of Christ. Westminsterites moved closer to their goals by sharing in Bible study, vespers, and counseling. Friday afternoons members enjoyed themselves at their snack bar.

Discussing Westminster plans are, seated: Dru Riley, president; Mrs. Christene Kirchner, director. Standing: Jody Hannum, Outreach Commission chairman; Shelley March, secretary; Ernie Szaniszlo, Stewardship Commission chairman; Jane Long, Faith and Life Commission chairman; and Frank Dilley, vice-president.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club offers spiritual aid to the Catholic students of Ohio University through Communion breakfasts and guest speaker programs.

The outstanding event of the year for its members was the retreat during the Religion in Life Week.

In the social vein, dances and weekly meetings were held by the group.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

In its twenty-sixth year on Ohio University's campus, the Wesley Foundation is still an active unit in the Methodist student movement. It is the purpose of this group "to lead students to become followers of Jesus Christ and into a vital personal relationship with God, to develop a supporting group in which individuals will mutually strengthen one another in Christian living, and to help create a new world order, the Kingdom of God, embodying Christian ideals and conserving the highest human values."

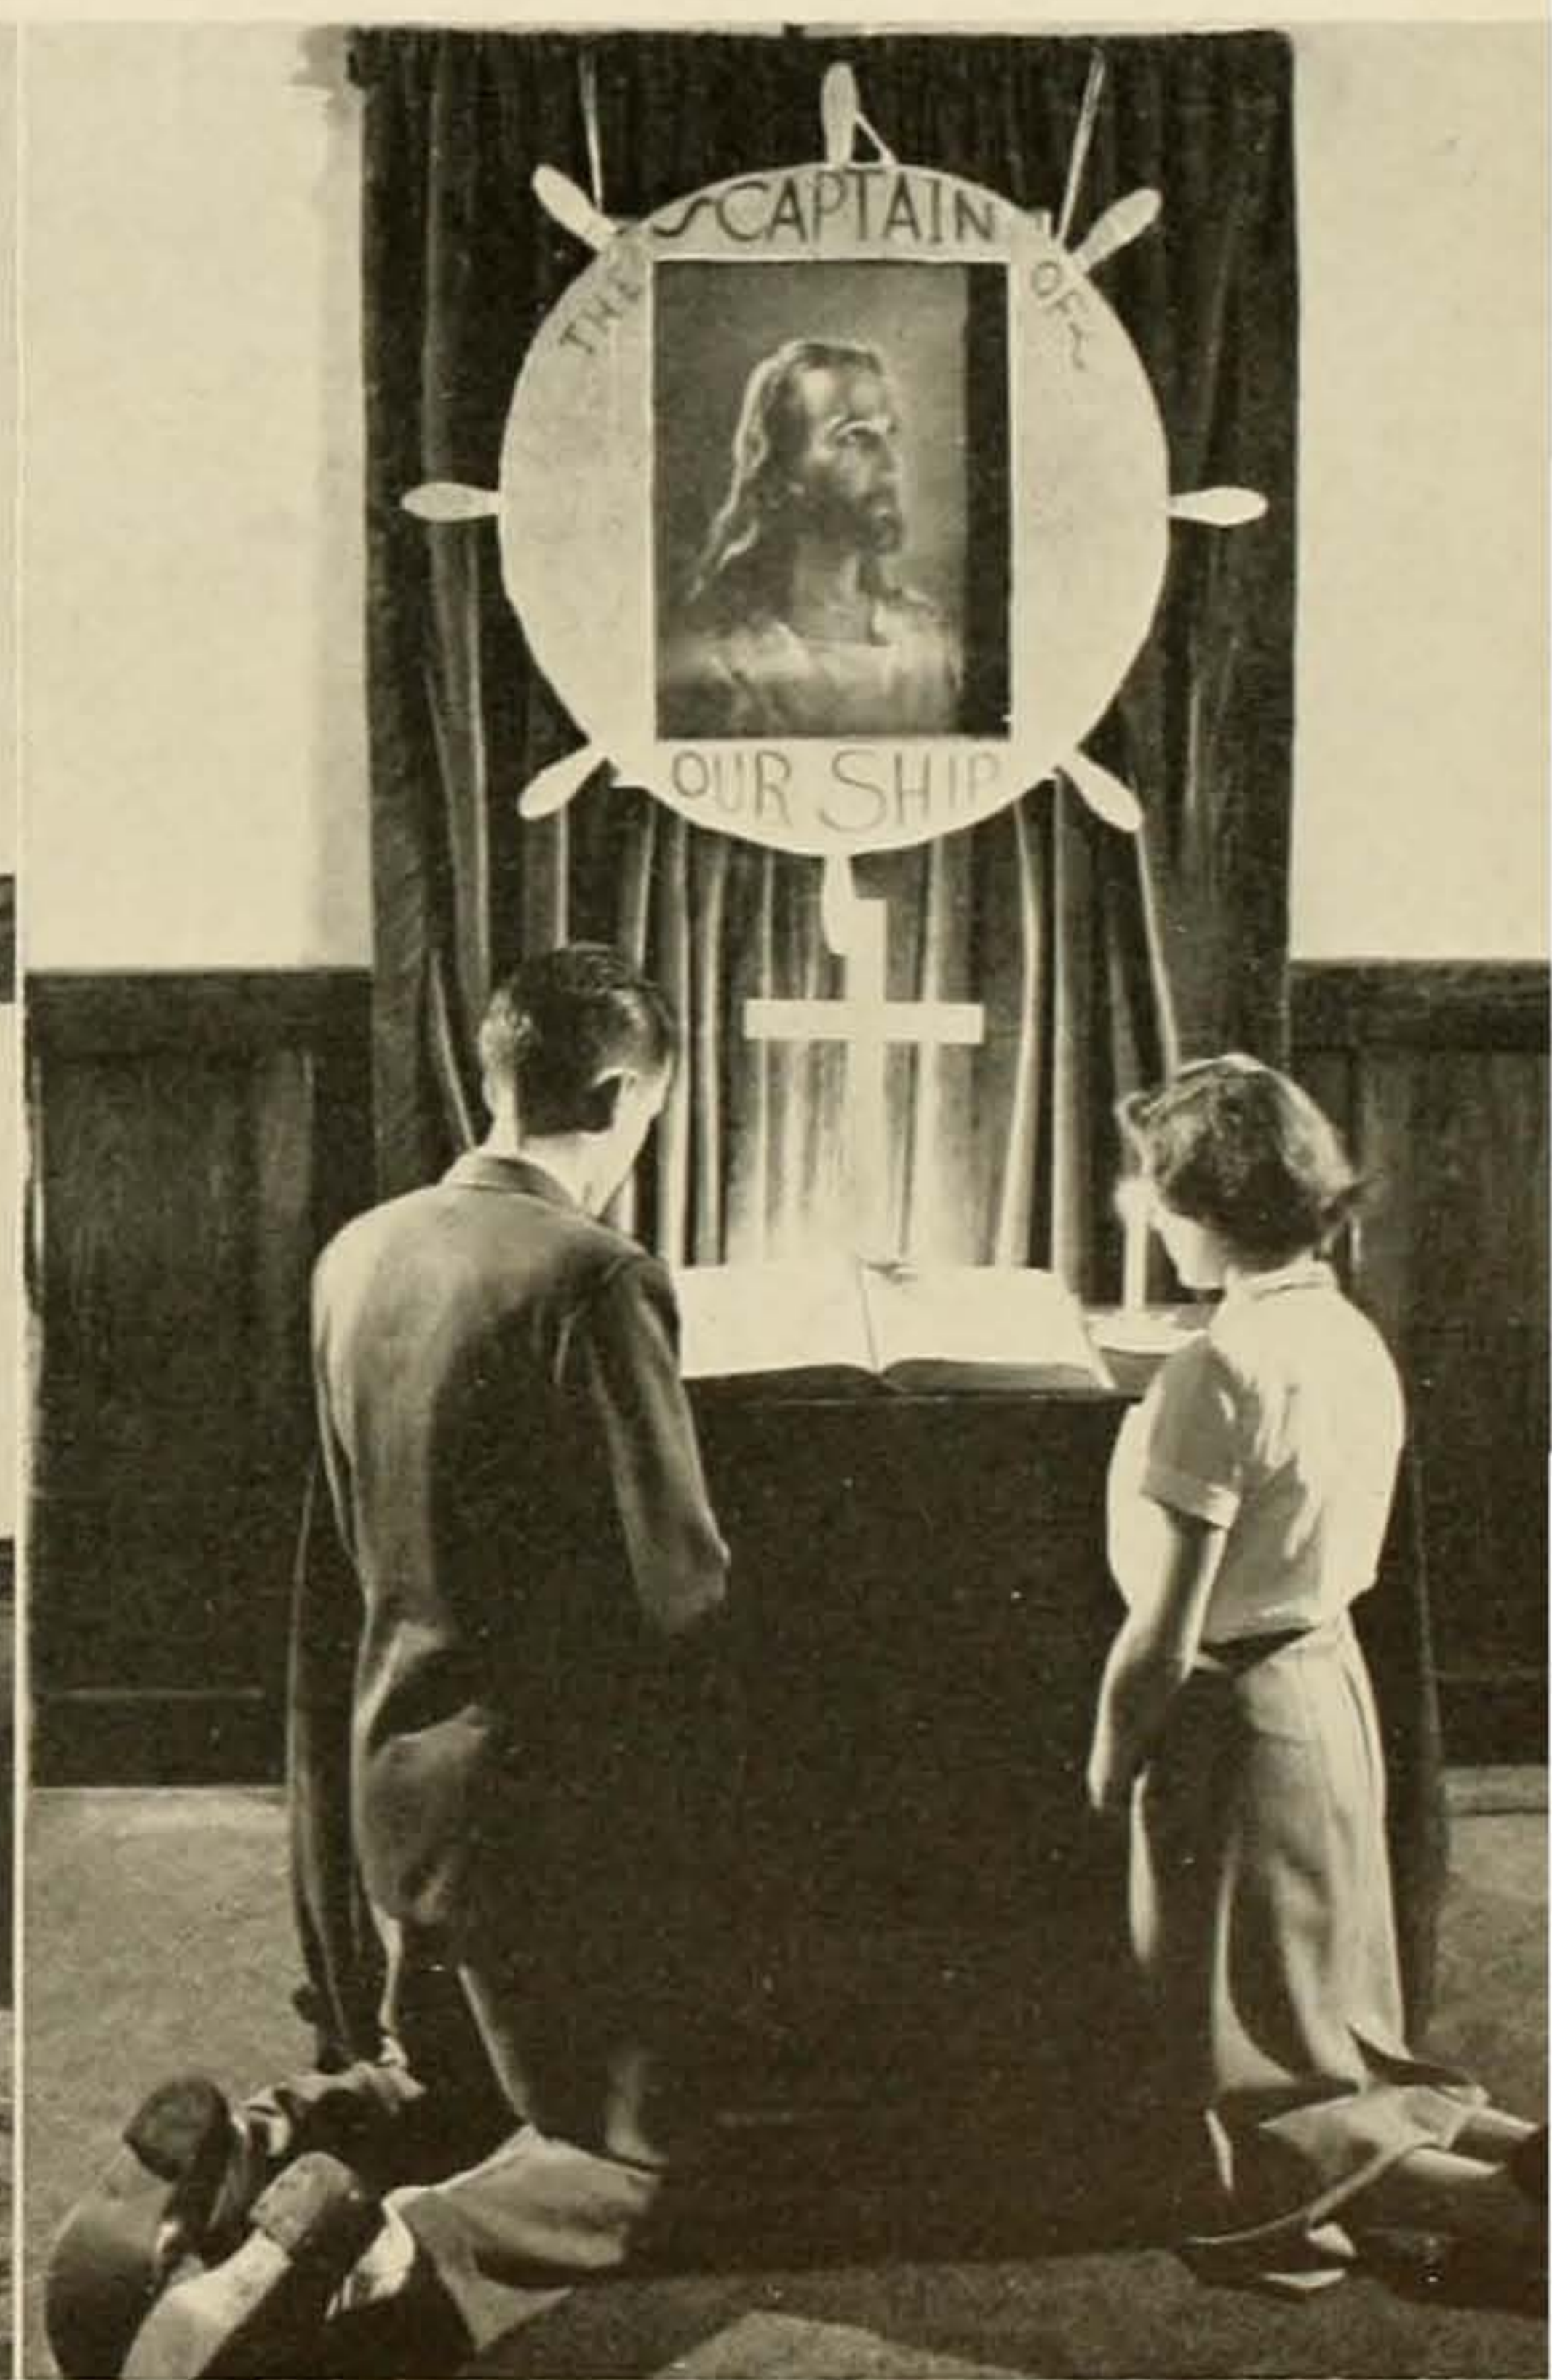

Capably guided by Charles F. Cooley, minister for students, and Dick Burns, president, the Wesley Foundation has undertaken many services to surrounding communities as well as to university students.

Deputation teams comprised of Wesley members were sent to the Chauncey Old Folks Home and churches in neighboring areas to conduct worship services, present entertainment, and repair churches and buildings.

Other activities of the group this year were the Alumni Homecoming Banquet, Christmas and Easter Meditations, the Wesley Choir tour during Easter, and the formal Senior Farewell Banquet held in May. A major Wesley function was the week of Evangelistic Services, open to the campus, with George Harper of Nashville, Tennessee, in charge.

SIGMA THETA EPSILON

The fraternity for men of Methodist preference, Sigma Theta Epsilon, continued to expand its scope of activities this year. Highlighting their program was the Sweetheart Formal. The organization, collaborating with the Wesley Foundation, engaged in work deputations to aid county churches, contributed to the Children's Home project, and sent men, at Thanksgiving, to the National Conclave in Bloomington, Indiana.

"To promote a growing and lasting interest in the related fields of religion, education, and recreation, and to provide extra-curricular activities for the social and religious betterment of the student members" is the goal of the Canterbury Club, the organization for Episcopalian students.

Socially, the members participate in Sunday evening suppers, parties, and an outing with Ohio State's club in the spring.

CANTERBURY CLUB

KAPPA BETA

The winter formal and the initiation banquet were the outstanding activities of Kappa Beta this year, along with a weekend at Lake Hope and several parties.

This organization was founded at Ohio University in 1929 to establish and maintain a friendly relationship among Baptist and Disciples of Christ women on campus.

The girls rendered such services as taking charge of the church nursery, planning a "shut-in" program for the church, and giving medical aid to missionaries in the Belgian Congo.

Organized under the jurisdiction of the Westminster Foundation, Phi Chi Delta aims to develop Christian character, scholarship, and fellowship for its girls.

In an effort to promote a Christian way of life, the sorority's schedule included parties for the Children's Home, teaching Sunday school in the Presbyterian church, and collecting Christmas gifts for needy families.

CAMERA CLUB

Anyone in OU's Camera Club can prove their assertion that taking pictures embodies more than merely clicking the shutter. The students in this organization are interested in photography as a creative art, a constructive hobby, and a worthwhile operation.

The members, led by the club's officers, Lucian Dixon, president; John Swisher, vice president; Judy Melbourne, secretary; and Richard Tunison, treasurer, participate in salons, exhibits, and field trips.

HILLEL FOUNDATION

The past year was an especially noteworthy one for Hillel, the campus organization for Jewish students. The group established itself in a new home and acquired its first full-time director.

In co-operation with the Campus Religious Council, which it helped to organize, Hillel was among the sponsors of Religion in Life Week.

A passover meal in April, Services for a Day of Atonement, Hillel's-a-popin', "Meet Your Professor" meetings, arts and crafts groups, dramatic workshops, and social functions were included on the year's agenda.

The Lutheran Students Association completed a full year under its program of sponsoring Lutheran worship services in Athens, and studying Christian recreation. As well as their regular Sunday services, meetings and parties, the group undertook Sunday school classes. Of invaluable aid to the members was their first full-time pastor, Bill Schmidt.

The association is confident of realizing its goal: the establishment of a Lutheran church in Athens.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

At Piano: Betty Sabol.
Standing: Jean Lee, Ruth Irwin, Virginia Bell, Vicki Kramer, Marta Sigmon.

KEYNOTES

Keynotes, comparable to Kappa Kappa Psi, is the honorary band organization for women. Promotion of better music is the primary objective of these girls who work closely with the men's national band fraternity.

On the lighter side, the two groups enjoy joint parties.

Initiation requirements for the honorary are one year in the band and a high scholastic standing.

BAPTIST DISCIPLE STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Front Row: Raymond Hurd, Al Thompson, Norma Bell, George Long, Doris McGill, Shirley Todd, Marilyn McCutcheon, Dorothy Clutter, Jean Dunham, Nancy Read. Second Row: Robert Byrne, Shirley Smith, Robert Root, Robert Winn, Pat Elder, Richard Elder, Joann Frazier, John Graf, Shirley Stevens, Katherine Hawk, Janice Powell. Third Row: Jean Lee, Mary Maffett, Roberta Todd, Marian Lewis, Jack Dunlap, Marlene Rumbaugh, Virginia Arnold, Virginia Dunlope, Ronald Hess, Rev. Joe B. Maffett. Fourth Row: George Houck, Dow Graham, John A. Raiser, Ned Cameron, Howard Crowl, Yasuo Hashiguchi.

Ray Hurd, president of the Baptist Disciple Student Fellowship, led the group in a particularly active year during which the major events were a retreat at Lake Hope and an all-campus dance.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a Christian fellowship for men and women on OU's campus.

Need a backdrop for Co-ed Prom? Posters for Varsity Night? Delta Phi Delta can more than capably fulfill your request. This national art fraternity is one of the most active honoraries on campus.

It aims to promote and develop professional art interests among students in the art departments and to bring these departments together.

The fraternity lends its services to the campus and community by holding an annual Christmas sale and art exhibit. Through requests from the university, this organization authorizes art projects and encourages freshman art students by awarding a prize each Honors Day for the most outstanding freshman work.

This year the group co-sponsored and decorated the Athena Dance besides producing numerous other art pieces.

Representatives from Camera Club, Dance Club, Delta Phi Delta, Kappa Kappa Psi, National Collegiate Players, Phi Mu Alpha, Sigma Alpha Iota, and Tau Kappa Alpha comprise the Fine Arts Council which was founded in 1942 to develop the Fine Arts Scholarship and Loan Fund and to encourage worthwhile projects in the Fine Arts.

The talent for the "OU Kids," an annual show, was uncovered by the Council in a campus-wide search.

KAPPA ALPHA MU

As their exhibit in the library art gallery proved, the members of Kappa Alpha Mu are doing outstanding work in creative, artistic photography.

This fraternity is the national honorary in photographic journalism. Upsilon chapter was installed at Ohio in April, 1949.

The Ohioan magazine and the Athena Dance were co-sponsored by the group. The members also took charge of the Athens High School Camera Club and held salons.

KAPPA KAPPA PSI

Kappa Kappa Psi, established at Ohio University in 1931, is the national band fraternity which honors notable bandsmen.

The organization promotes and aids the college band, works in co-ordination with other band organizations, and provides its members with convivial associations.

This year special projects of the group were the continuation of record sales of the OU band album and sales promotion of band post cards.

FOOTLIGHTERS

“Front and center, members of Footlighters!” This group, an outgrowth of students interested in dramatics, is now a recognized honorary organization.

Its purpose is to affiliate more closely the students of Ohio University who show a vital interest in dramatic art and to raise dramatic standards and achievements by encouraging participation in experimental and regular productions.

Extensive behind-the-scenes, back-stage management of the operatic production, coat checking at all the plays, furnishing of the kitchen in the new Fine Arts building, and the semi-annual Ohio University Theater Open House were the undertakings of Footlighters' members this year.

PHI MU ALPHA

To promote the cause of music in America is the intent of Phi Mu Alpha, the national music fraternity.

In conjunction with this goal the organization supplied ushers for musical productions, held a pledge concert, and presented the memorable concert of American music.

The members also enjoyed various social functions.

Sigma Alpha Iota has a long record of achievements in promoting high standards of music among college women. This national professional music fraternity was incorporated in 1904 at Ann Arbor, Michigan and was founded on our campus in 1922.

Chief among the activities of its members this year were: participation in the concert of American music, the initiation banquet, and Incorporation Day.

Aid and support of musical functions on campus and ushering at concerts are included in the services these girls render.

OHIO UNIVERSITY BANDS

Everyone who attended OU's football games this year was impressed with the appearance, the new uniforms, and the snappy formations of our band.

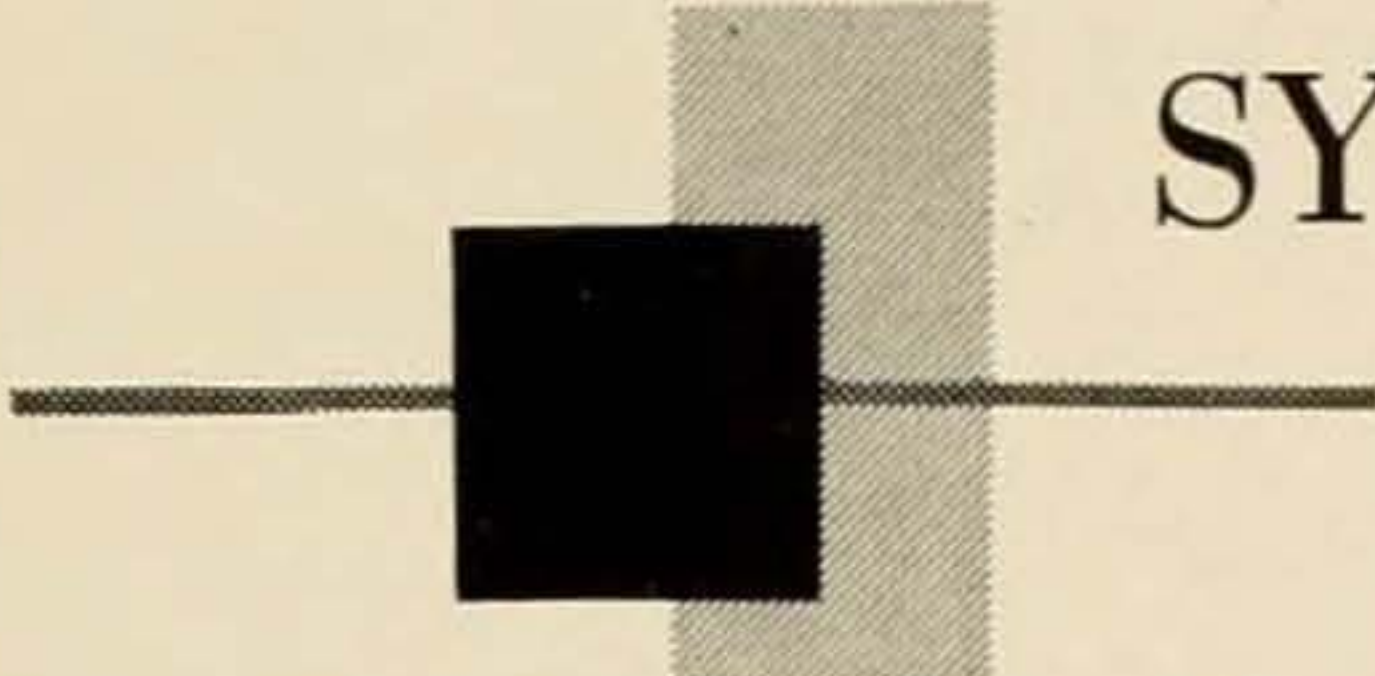

This organization is probably one of the most active and best known on campus.

Founded in 1922 by Homer Baird, the band is now conducted by Charles E. Gilbert and William R. Brophy.

The schedule of the band this year included public appearances at athletic events, a football band trip to Cincinnati, a mid-semester tour, February second through seventh, embracing nine concerts, several other one-night stands throughout Ohio communities, a series of performances in the spring and summer, and a young peoples' concert.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The University Symphony Orchestra is the development of a music-minded campus and community. Faculty, students and townspeople have formed this group to benefit from professional training and to advance a greater understanding and love of music.

This year the orchestra presented a notable series of concerts. Particularly memorable was its performance, in conjunction with the chorus, of the "Messiah." Formal concerts, a spring concert with the chorus, and occasional out of town appearances were scheduled by the organization.

James Reece, president; Betty Mackenzie, vice president; Joyce Mellvain, secretary; and David Wutrick, treasurer comprised the officers of the orchestra.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Men's Glee Club furnishes artistic concerts and special programs for the campus and the community. It also provides a laboratory of vocal ensemble for vocal students and other interested singers.

About 1920 the Glee Club was organized under Professor C. C. Robinson. It has been under the direction of Mr. Peterson since 1935.

The annual Christmas Carol sing was originated by the organization. Among other activities are two joint concerts with the Women's Glee Club, a formal concert, a Mothers' Weekend serenade, and several tours throughout the state.

The group has broadcast over stations in cities such as Cleveland, Akron and Columbus.

In 1941 the Glee Club entered the Fred Waring contest and placed second in its district, losing to Purdue.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Women's Glee Club undertook a large program this year. They presented a joint concert with the Men's Glee Club in December and their own formal concert in the spring. They contributed to the annual Christmas caroling on the portico of the Auditorium. Performances at the Kiwanis Club and various church services were on the agenda along with a short tour through Ohio.

Since 1915 the Women's Glee Club has been an established medium through which the women not only of the music department but of the entire University contribute their individual talents to a combined musical effort.

During the past two semesters officers of the organization were: president, Betty Feiszli; secretary, Betty Volas; treasurer, Carolyn Schroeder; and librarian, Mary Barthelemy.

For about twenty-five years this organization has extended professional interests and developments in Home Economics to its members.

The group sends delegates each year to the state convention and to a tri-state workshop. This year the club acted as host to the regional convention.

During the year the paramount achievement of the organization was their delicious smorgasbord. The members also held parties, luncheons, and open houses.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The equilibrium constant of the Chemistry Club equals outstanding students in the chemistry department plus interest in this field plus an increased sense of fellowship.

Important men of science are brought to the campus by the club. In addition the members travel to various industrial organizations in the Ohio valley.

OU's chapter of the Student Affiliate American Chemical Society was founded in 1912.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON

National Phi Upsilon Omicron was founded at the University of Minnesota on February 10, 1909. The OU chapter was established in 1923.

The aim of the organization is to establish and strengthen bonds of friendship, to promote the moral and intellectual development of its members, and to advance and promote Home Economics.

The girls' main project is the arousing of interest in Ohio University through a colored slide program. This endeavor is financed by a fruit cake sale.

VARSITY O

Three times a year the campus is momentarily startled at the sight of several men wearing towel turbans on their heads and letter sweaters backwards. These are the new initiates of Varsity O.

This organization was founded in 1936 to create fellowship among the athletes of different sports, to promote better athletics, and to be of service to the university.

With the stress on service, the men have many important activities among which are the sponsorship of high school track and basketball tournaments, the Cheerleaders organization, and a scholarship award. In the line of entertainment Varsity O holds a Homecoming Dance and the Varsity O Follies.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

The Society of Mechanical Engineers organized January 17, 1950 has high objectives: the advancement and dissemination of knowledge of the theory and practice of mechanical engineering, the presentation of a proper perspective of engineering work, the opportunity to become acquainted with the personnel and activities of the Society, and the promotion of a professional consciousness and fellowship.

At semi-monthly meetings guest lecturers, industrial motion pictures, and student speakers are presented. There are prizes for the best student speeches.

FENCING CLUB

"En Garde!"

This was the year for fencing. Foils fans banded together and formed the fencing club to further the sport at Ohio University.

Officers of the new group included: two presidents, Peg Marshall and Joe Kovacic; two vice presidents, Doris Moyer and Bill Douglass, and the secretary-treasurer, Nancy Lanphear. Doc Margard was the club's coach.

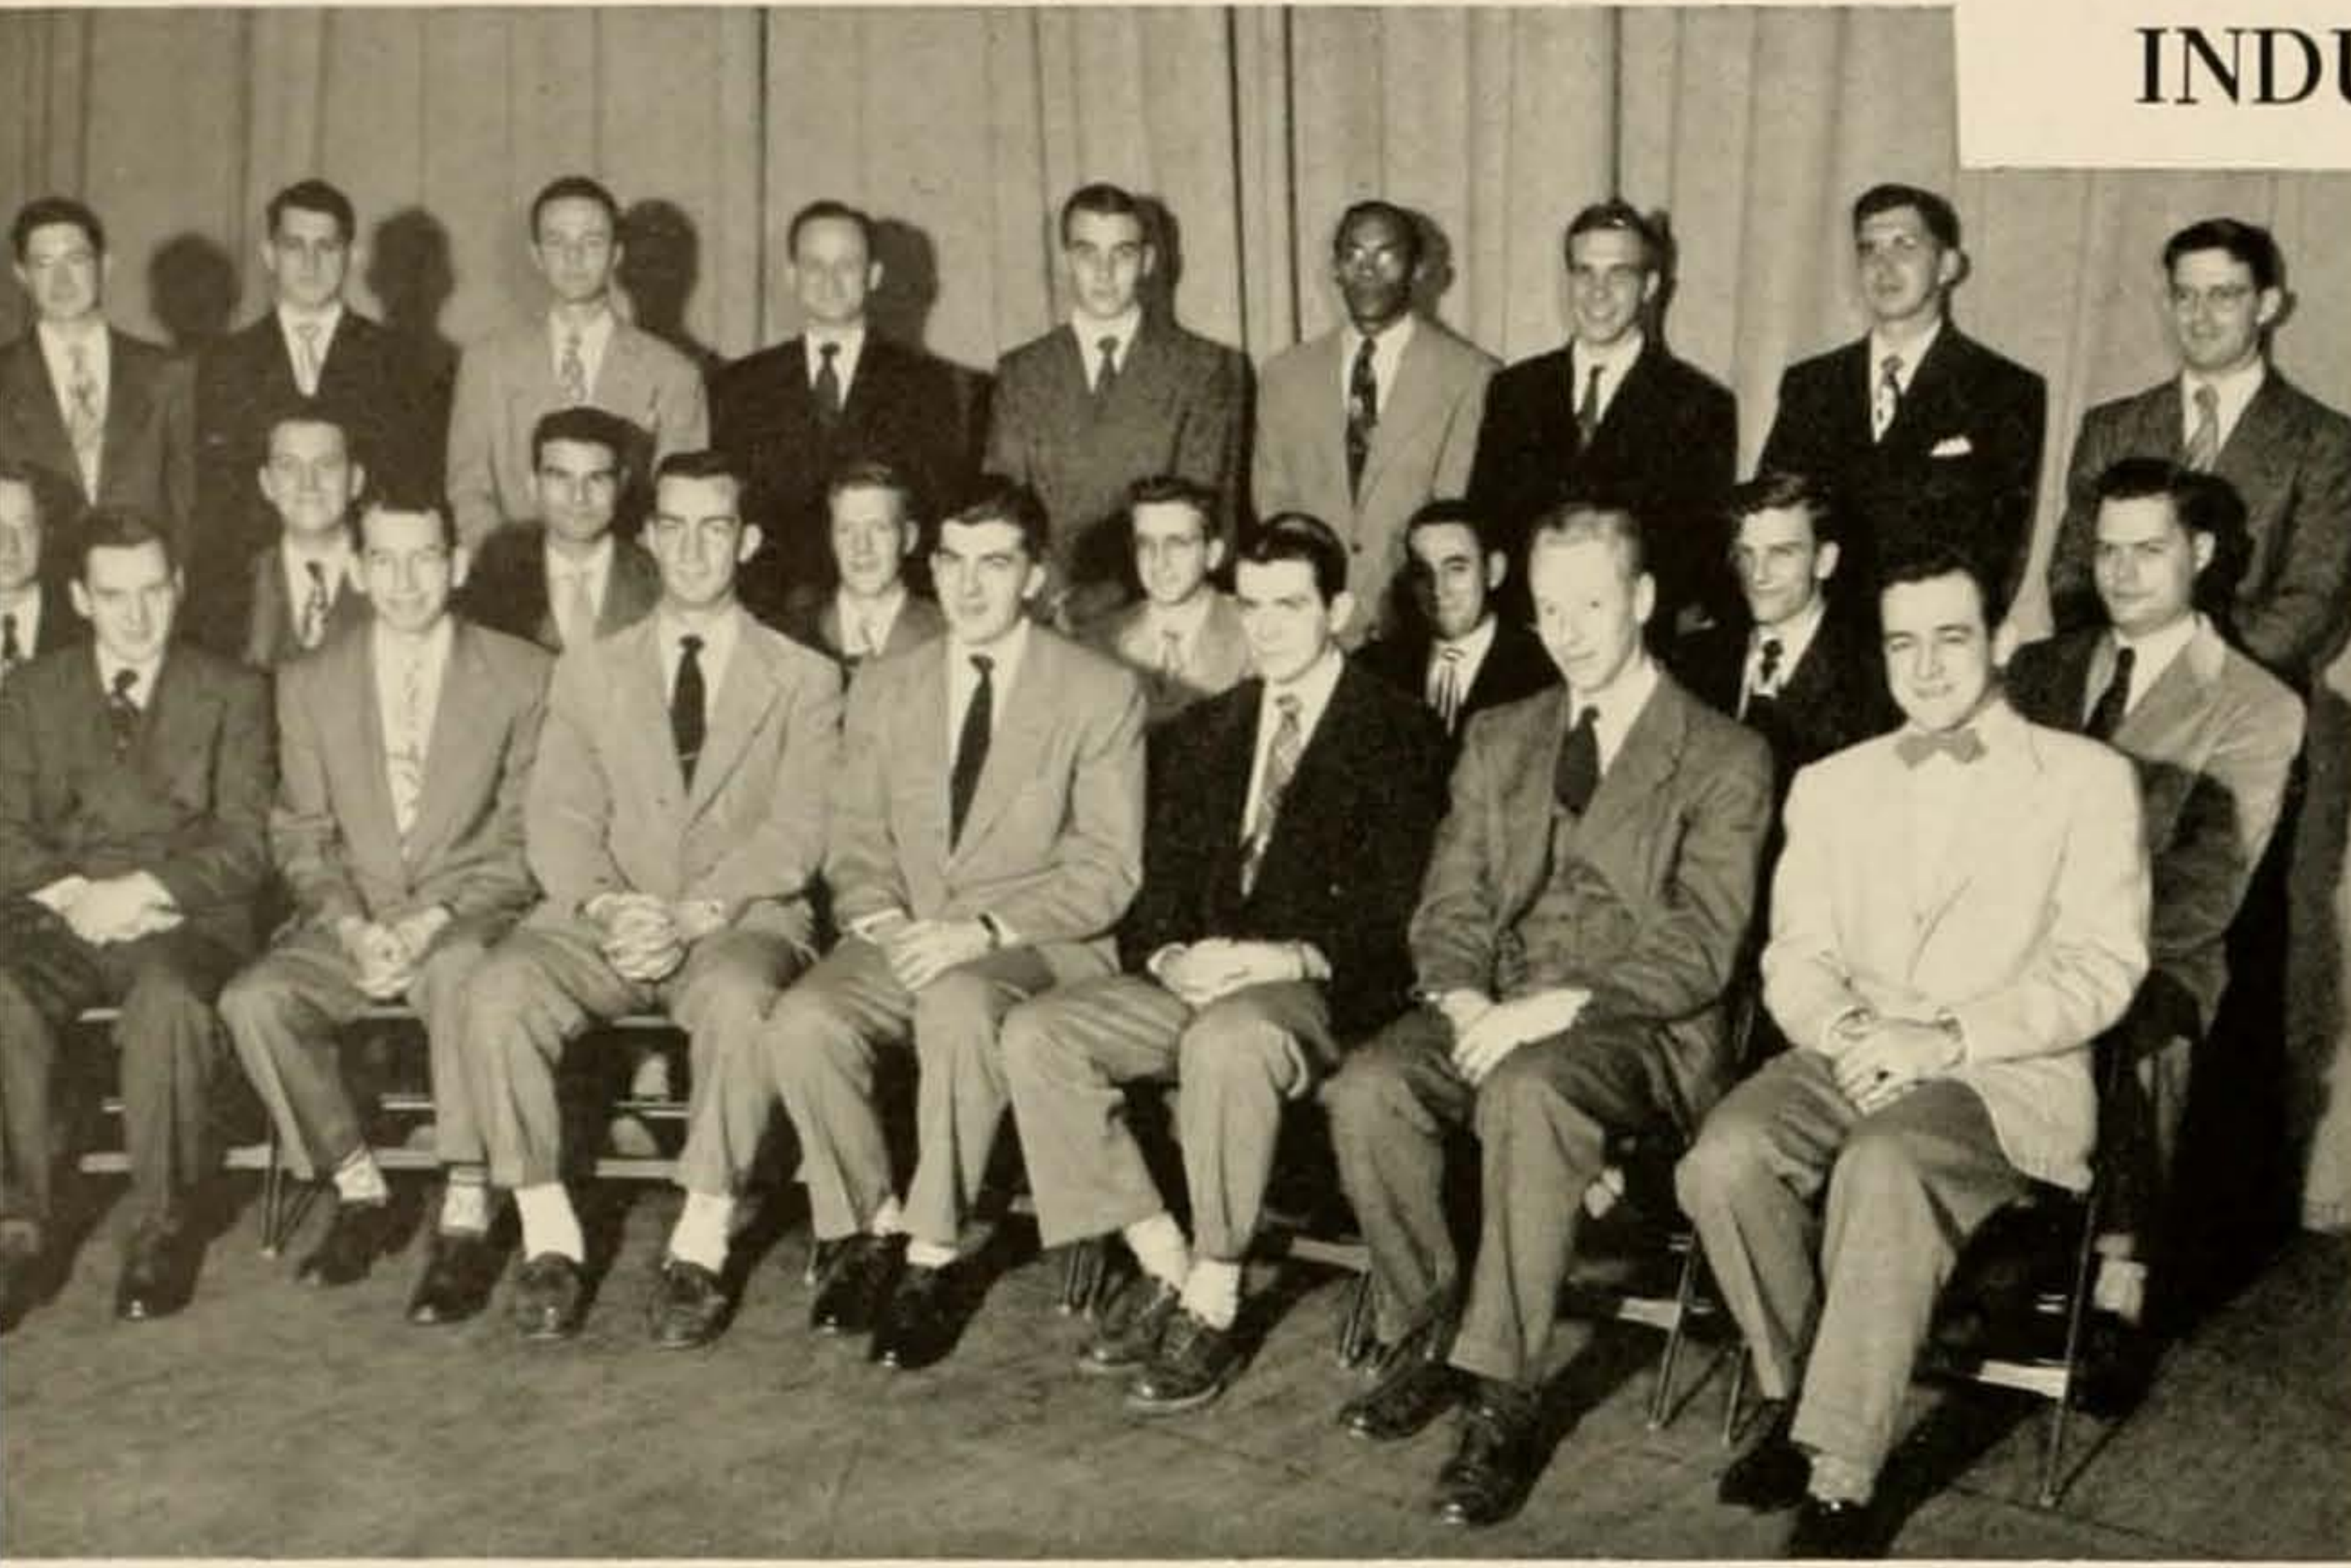

Exhibitions such as those between halves at basketball games were the activities of the organization this year. The members hope to develop a program of team competition in the near future.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club through a series of informative meetings endeavors to promote co-operation among prospective teachers of industrial arts, to foster a spirit of fellowship and to advance the interchange of useful information and ideas.

Students in the department of agriculture make membership in Alpha Omega Upsilon their goal.

This fraternity attempts to promote the profession of agriculture and to establish a spirit of fellowship among its members. The outstanding event of the year for the organization was its annual banquet.

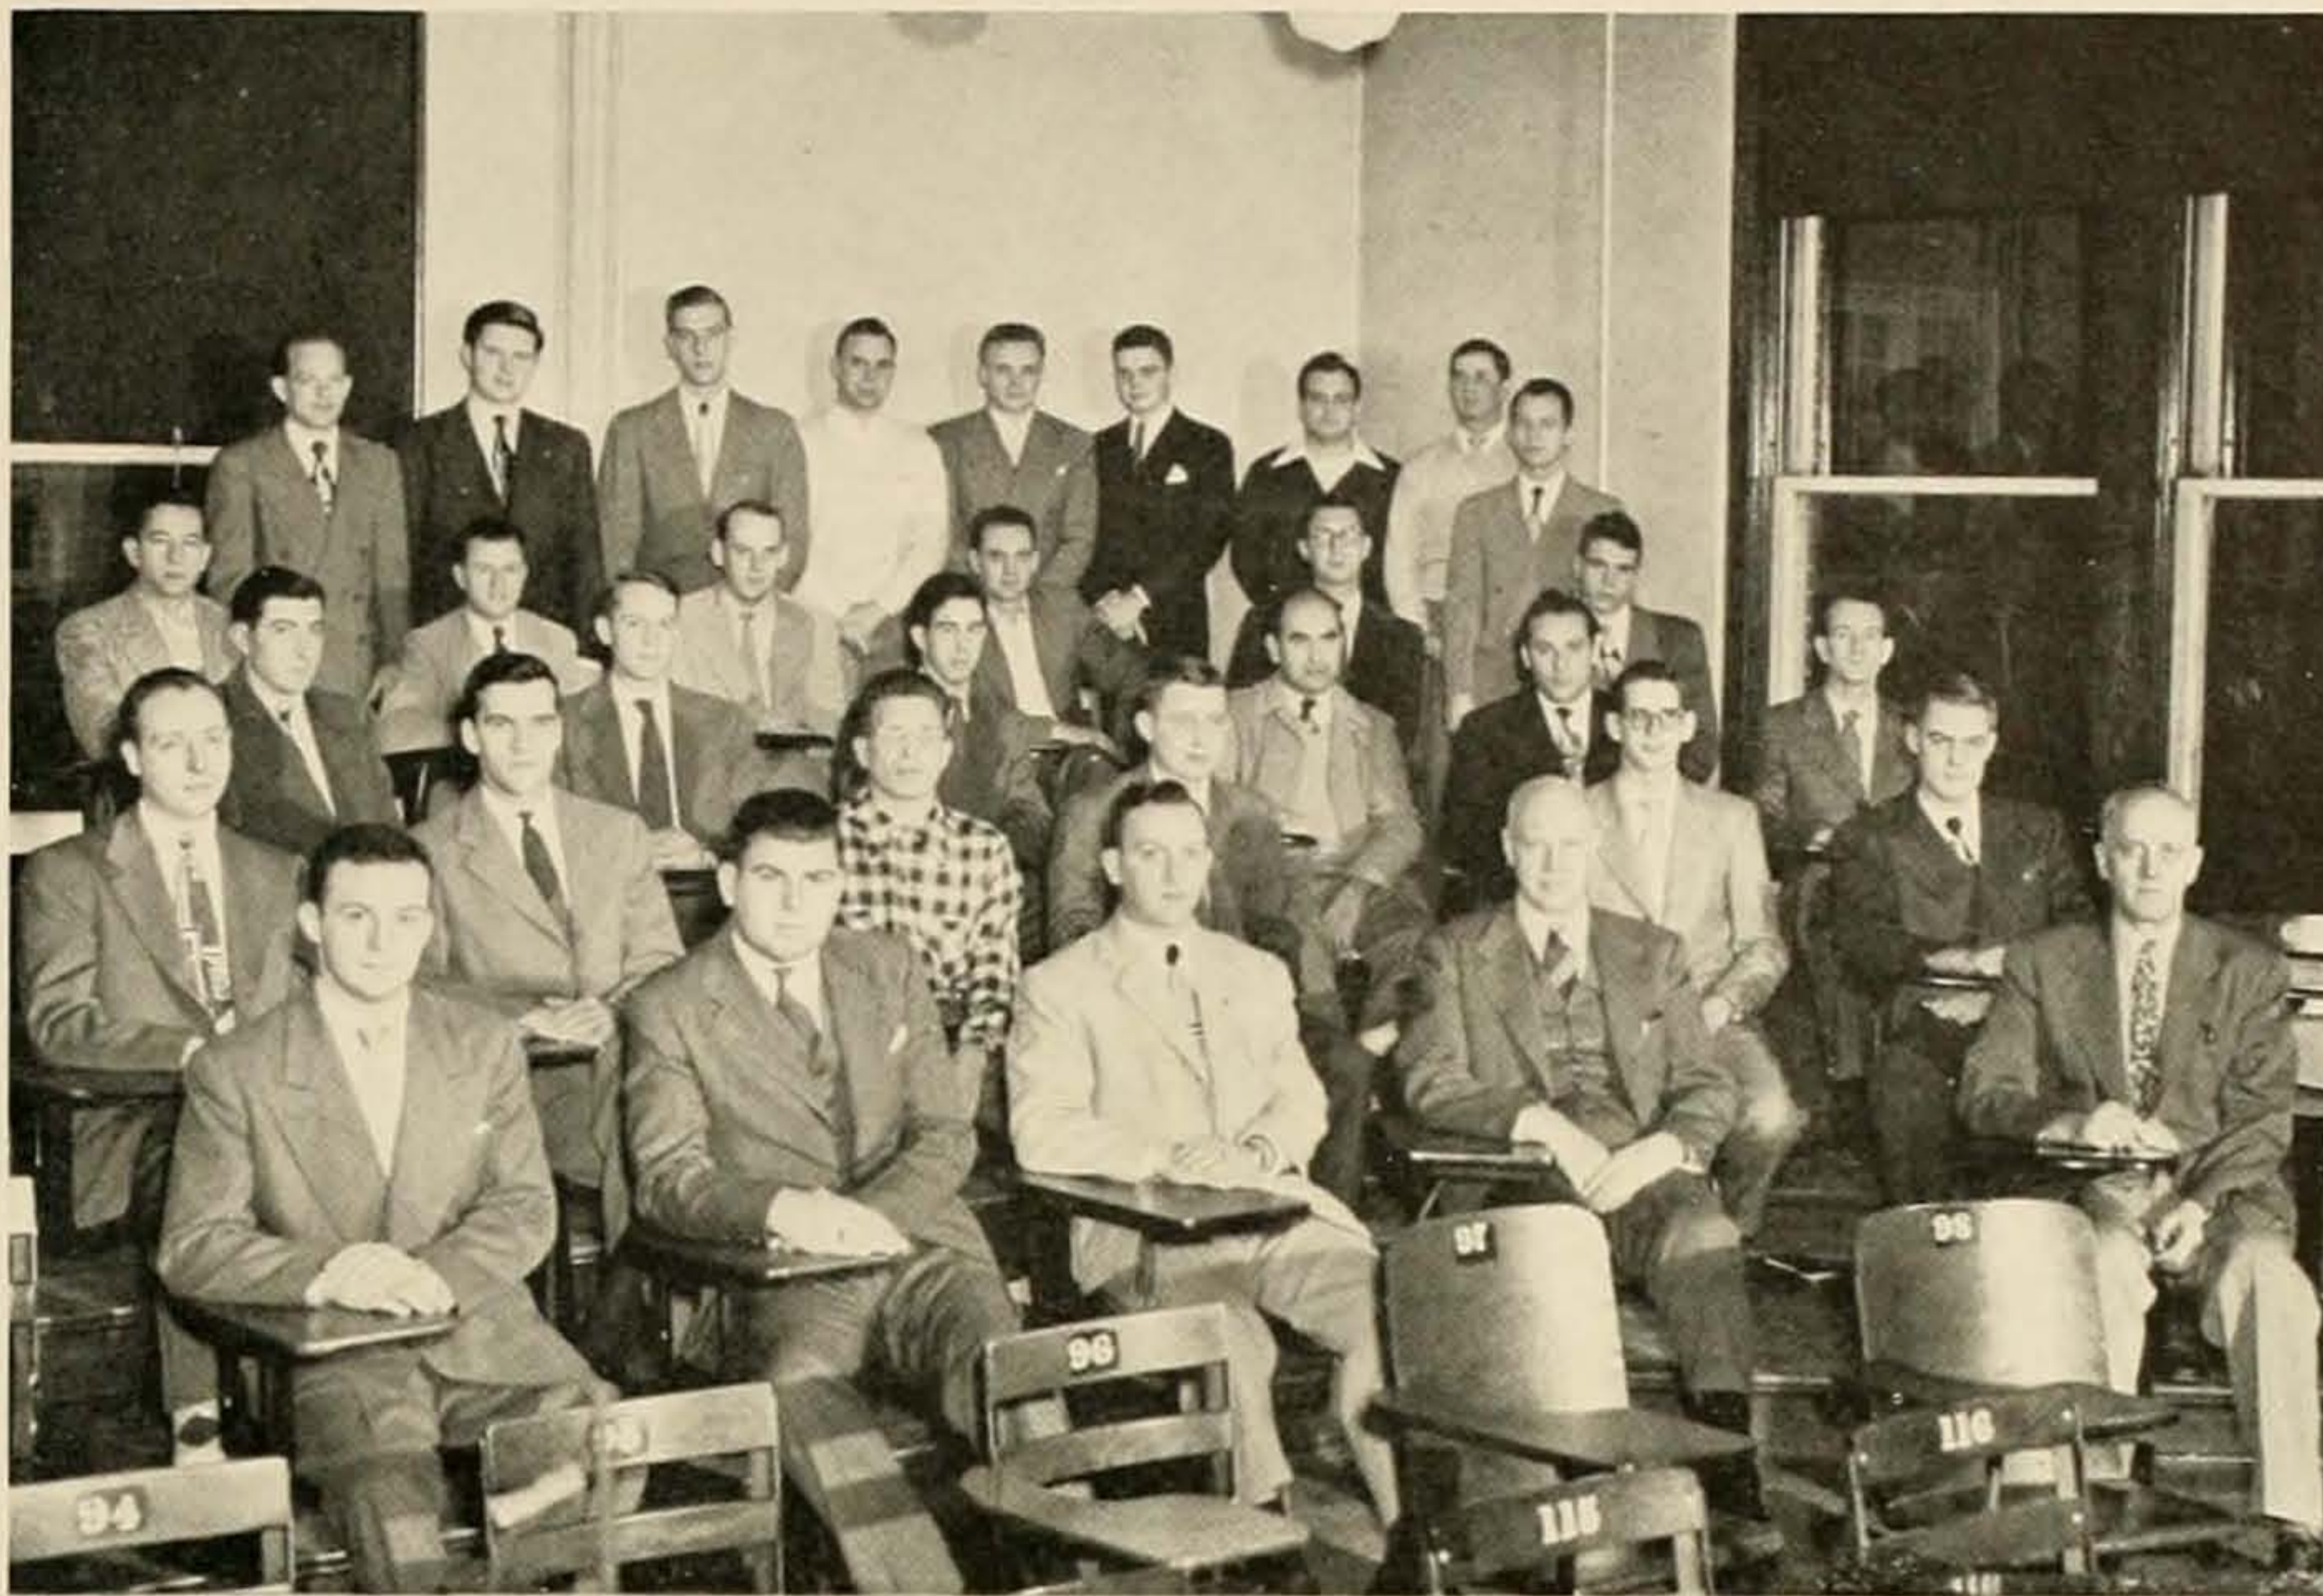

Charles Lyons, president; Jack Hart, vice president; Bob Lawton, treasurer; and John Todd, secretary were the officers of Alpha Omega Upsilon for the past two years.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

Front Row: Bernard Mack, James Lytle, Ralph Moody, Dean E. J. Taylor, Dr. D. B. Green. Second Row: Elmer Kratz, Charles Steinmetz, Edward Kassor, Richard Beedy, Donn van Stoutenburg, Clarence Bode. Third Row: John Williams, David Cox, Whiten Mauk, Arthur Charkoff, William Fleischmann, Byron Clegg. Fourth Row: Frank Mrkva, Marvin Kyer, John Johnston, George Houck, Bill Mraz, Phil Meredith. Fifth Row: Everett Harris, Robert Scott, Robert Kail, Matthew Halter, Arthur Luempert, Louis Listermann, John Graham, Al Lehnerd, Don Teske.

The American Institute of Electrical Engineers has been active on OU's campus for about twenty-five years.

A student branch of the national organization, this group furthers ethical principles, technical knowledge, and a general interest in the field of electrical engineering. Members are kept in touch with the national institute through their monthly journal.

The electrical display for the university open house was arranged by the AIEE.

The group holds an annual essay contest among its members and the winner is sent to the national contest. Richard Beedy garnered the honors this year.

PI EPSILON MU

One of the highest honors for engineering students is a bid to join Pi Epsilon Mu. Scholastic attainment is one factor in selection of the members who must have a 3.0 average. They must meet unanimous approval of the group.

The organization holds two annual banquets during the year. The May banquet is in honor of graduating seniors.

OU ENGINEERS

One of the most interesting campus dances to attend is the Engineers Ball. All the clubs in the department co-operate in presenting the Ball and the decorations feature some spectacular engineering display.

This year the organization was fortunate in having as one of its speakers Mr. L. R. Boulware, a vice president of General Electric.

Among the services that the Engineers perform are safety campaigns and the arrangement of lighting fixtures and wiring for various campus activities.

In 1951 the group inovated the spring Engineers Day.

Founded in 1917, the OU Engineers presents its members with guest speakers, technical information, and organized field trips in the advancement of the engineering profession.

The organization was inactive during the second World War. In 1947 they became a student chapter of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers.

Students in the commerce department aspire to membership in the professional commerce fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi.

Known locally for about fifteen years as Alpha Omicron, the group affiliated with the national fraternity April 28, 1951.

Guest speakers and field trips are the outstanding events with which Delta Sigma Pi provides its members.

An important campus service is the ushers supplied by the fraternity for the Honors Day convocation.

This year the officers of the group were: Melvin Johnson, president; Robert Lambert, vice president; William DePioire, treasurer, and Albert Ivan, secretary.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Without this fraternity the seniors might not be walking down the aisle in robes, for the graduation cap and gown concession is managed by Alpha Phi Omega members. They also provide ushers and guides at various campus functions, assist in collecting blood donors for the Red Cross, and are in charge of the information booth at Homecoming.

Assembling college men in the spirit of the Scout Oath and Law, developing friendships, and serving humanity are the purposes of the fraternity.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

ETA SIGMA PHI

The classics have long been considered a background if not requisite standards for contemporary thought, knowledge, or study. Realizing this, Eta Sigma Phi, the national classical language society, is devoted to maintaining student interest in the classics. Its members study the art, history, and language of ancient Rome and Greece.

The first chapter of the fraternity was founded at the University of Chicago and became a national organization when it affiliated with the chapter at Northwestern University. OU boasts the third chapter established.

ALPHA KAPPA DELTA

Interested and proficient students in sociology courses are honored by being asked to join Alpha Kappa Delta, a national fraternity.

The services that this organization provides are studies on campus life, outstanding vocational speakers and programs, and lectures on current topics. The group also sponsors the sociology club.

Leading the year's activities were the president, Earl Carl; vice president, Adeline Petsche; secretary, Mary Lou Sherer, and treasurer, Elaine Binder.

MEN'S RIFLE CLUB

The Men's Rifle Club is composed of men who are proficient in the sport of shooting. They learn to be experts in the caring for and handling of guns.

The OU organization won honor for itself by being a three time winner of the William Randolph Hearst trophy.

The club takes part in shoulder matches with Ohio State, Cincinnati, and Dayton, in the National Intercollegiate Matches, and in matches with Kent State, Bowling Green, and the Portsmouth Rifle and Pistol Club.

Socially the club has a match-picnic with the Women's Rifle Club.

This year Dick Satava, president; Bill White, vice president; Sonny Westfall, secretary; and Fred Loop, treasurer led the group's activities.

WOMEN'S RIFLE CLUB

Watch out! Here come the Annie Oakleys of Ohio University.

The Women's Rifle Club teaches girls the care and use of rifles. It promotes shooting as an art as well as an interesting sport.

Directing the club in its activities are the president, Eleanor Sugaski; the vice president, Vera Molohoskey, and the secretary-treasurer, Zell Anderson.

The girls participated in a Round Robin at Northwestern and in matches with Cincinnati and Ohio State along with postal matches with universities throughout the country.

Combining sport and social life the Women's Rifle Club holds an annual match and picnic with the Men's Rifle Club.

PERSHING RIFLES

Front Row: Dee Trantarella, Robert Baker, Major Lynch, Julian Wagner, Charles Krauskopf, Bill White, Bob Beattie, Fred Cibula, Budd Werner, James Van Camp. Second Row: Fred Shupe, Capt. Greenzweig, Don Friend, Carl Wirick, Pete Yensen, Steve Ruth, Glen Smith, Don Werner, Ron Miller, Charles Green. Third Row: Sgt. Fourth Row: Bill Morris, Bob Livingston, Dale Britenbacher, Carlton Schramm, George Norton, Jim Miller, Tom Grant. Fifth Row: Jim Ulmschneider, Charles Lochary, John Lusk, George Clark, Robert Westfall, LeRoy Farmer. Sixth Row: Dick McKinstry, Roger Weidenkopf, Bob Mogar, Dick Hinman, William Somerville.

In 1894 General John J. Pershing founded the national society of Pershing Rifles at the University of Nebraska to foster a closer and more complete co-operation among military students.

Company F of the First Regiment was established at Ohio University in May, 1937. It was inactive during three war years but was reorganized in 1946.

The University of Dayton was the scene of the Pershing Rifles members' most important function, the First Regimental drill meet.

Serving its college, the society furnishes a color guard for the Band and a well-trained marching unit for parades.

The group also assumes part sponsorship of the Military Ball.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

Members of Scabbard and Blade are chosen from the outstanding students of the Army, Navy, and Air Force Cadet Corps.

The organization was founded in 1905 at the University of Wisconsin. In 1939 Company A-8 was established on our campus. There are now eighty-nine companies in colleges throughout the country.

To raise the standard of military education in American colleges and universities is the purpose of this group.

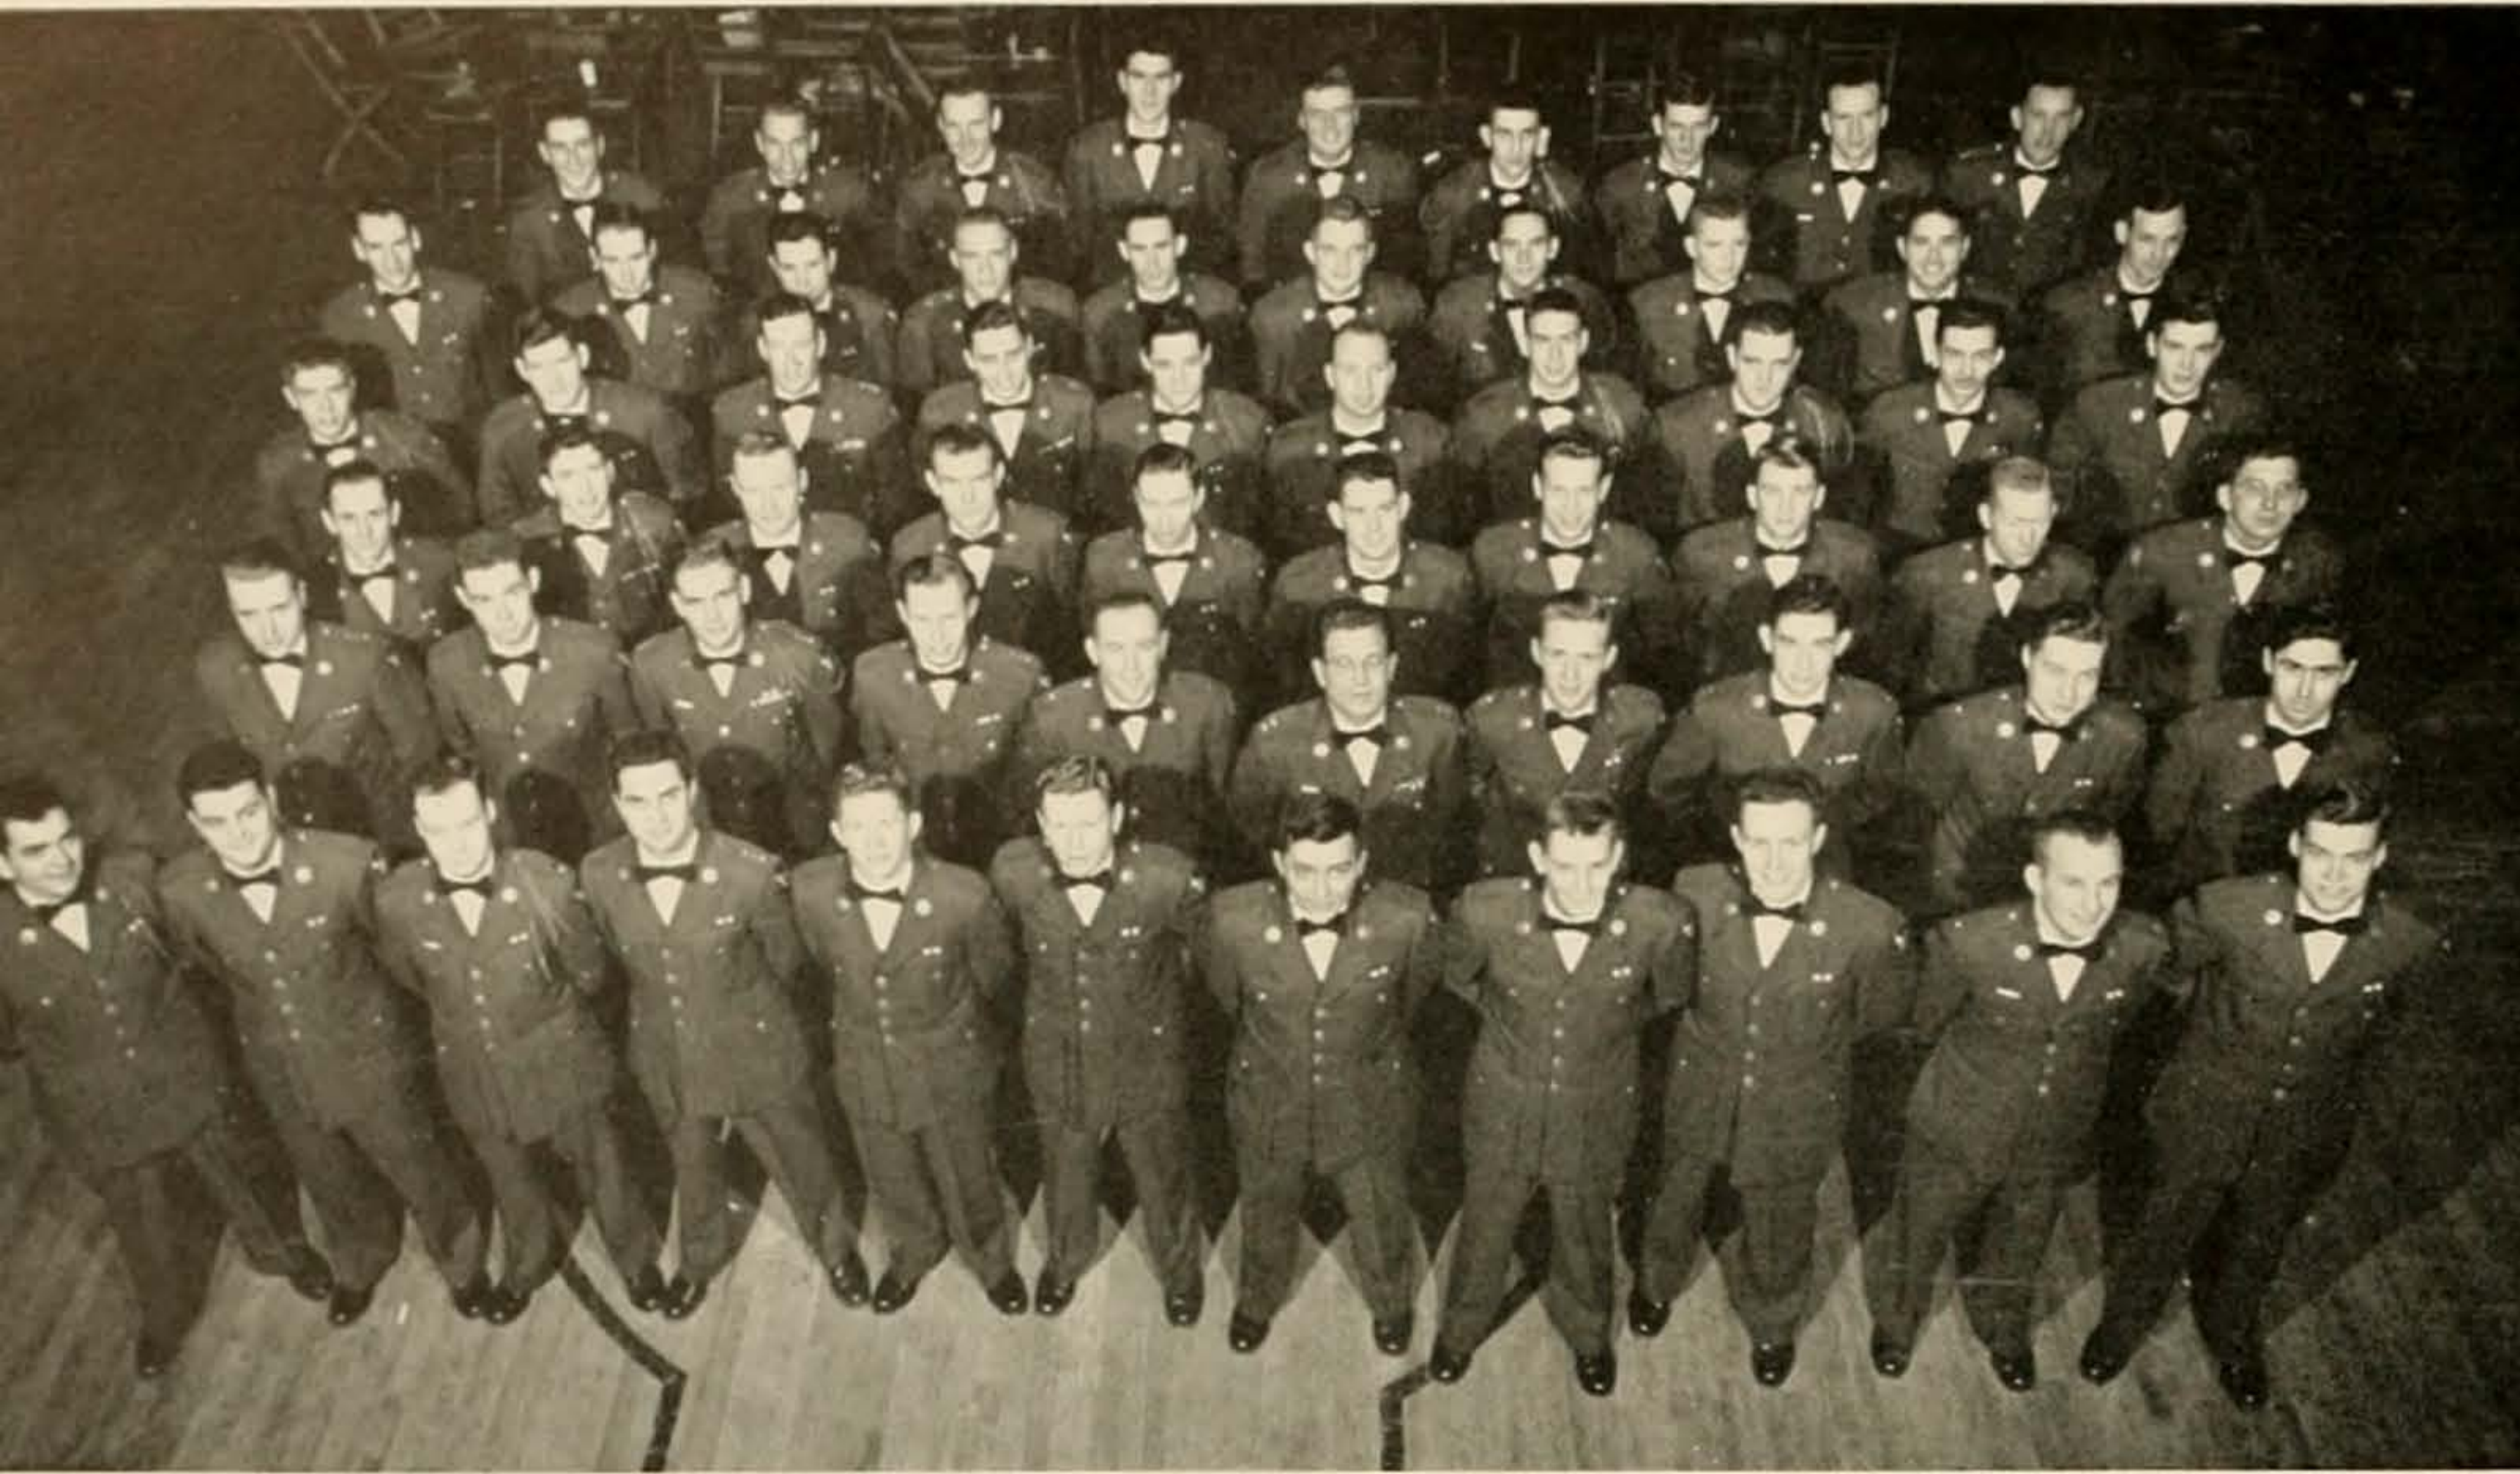

Captain Ralph Dunbar leads the Ohio University Company of Scabbard and Blade, with Bill McCalla as his First Lieutenant; Lorne Smith, Second Lieutenant; and Wendell Matthews, First Sergeant.

Military Ball, rifle matches, and Army Day ceremonies head the list of the activities of these men.

Out of a need for furthering interest in the Air R.O.T.C. program, a new organization, the Arnold Air Society, was founded at the University of Cincinnati in April, 1950. By May, 1950 it had been established at Ohio University.

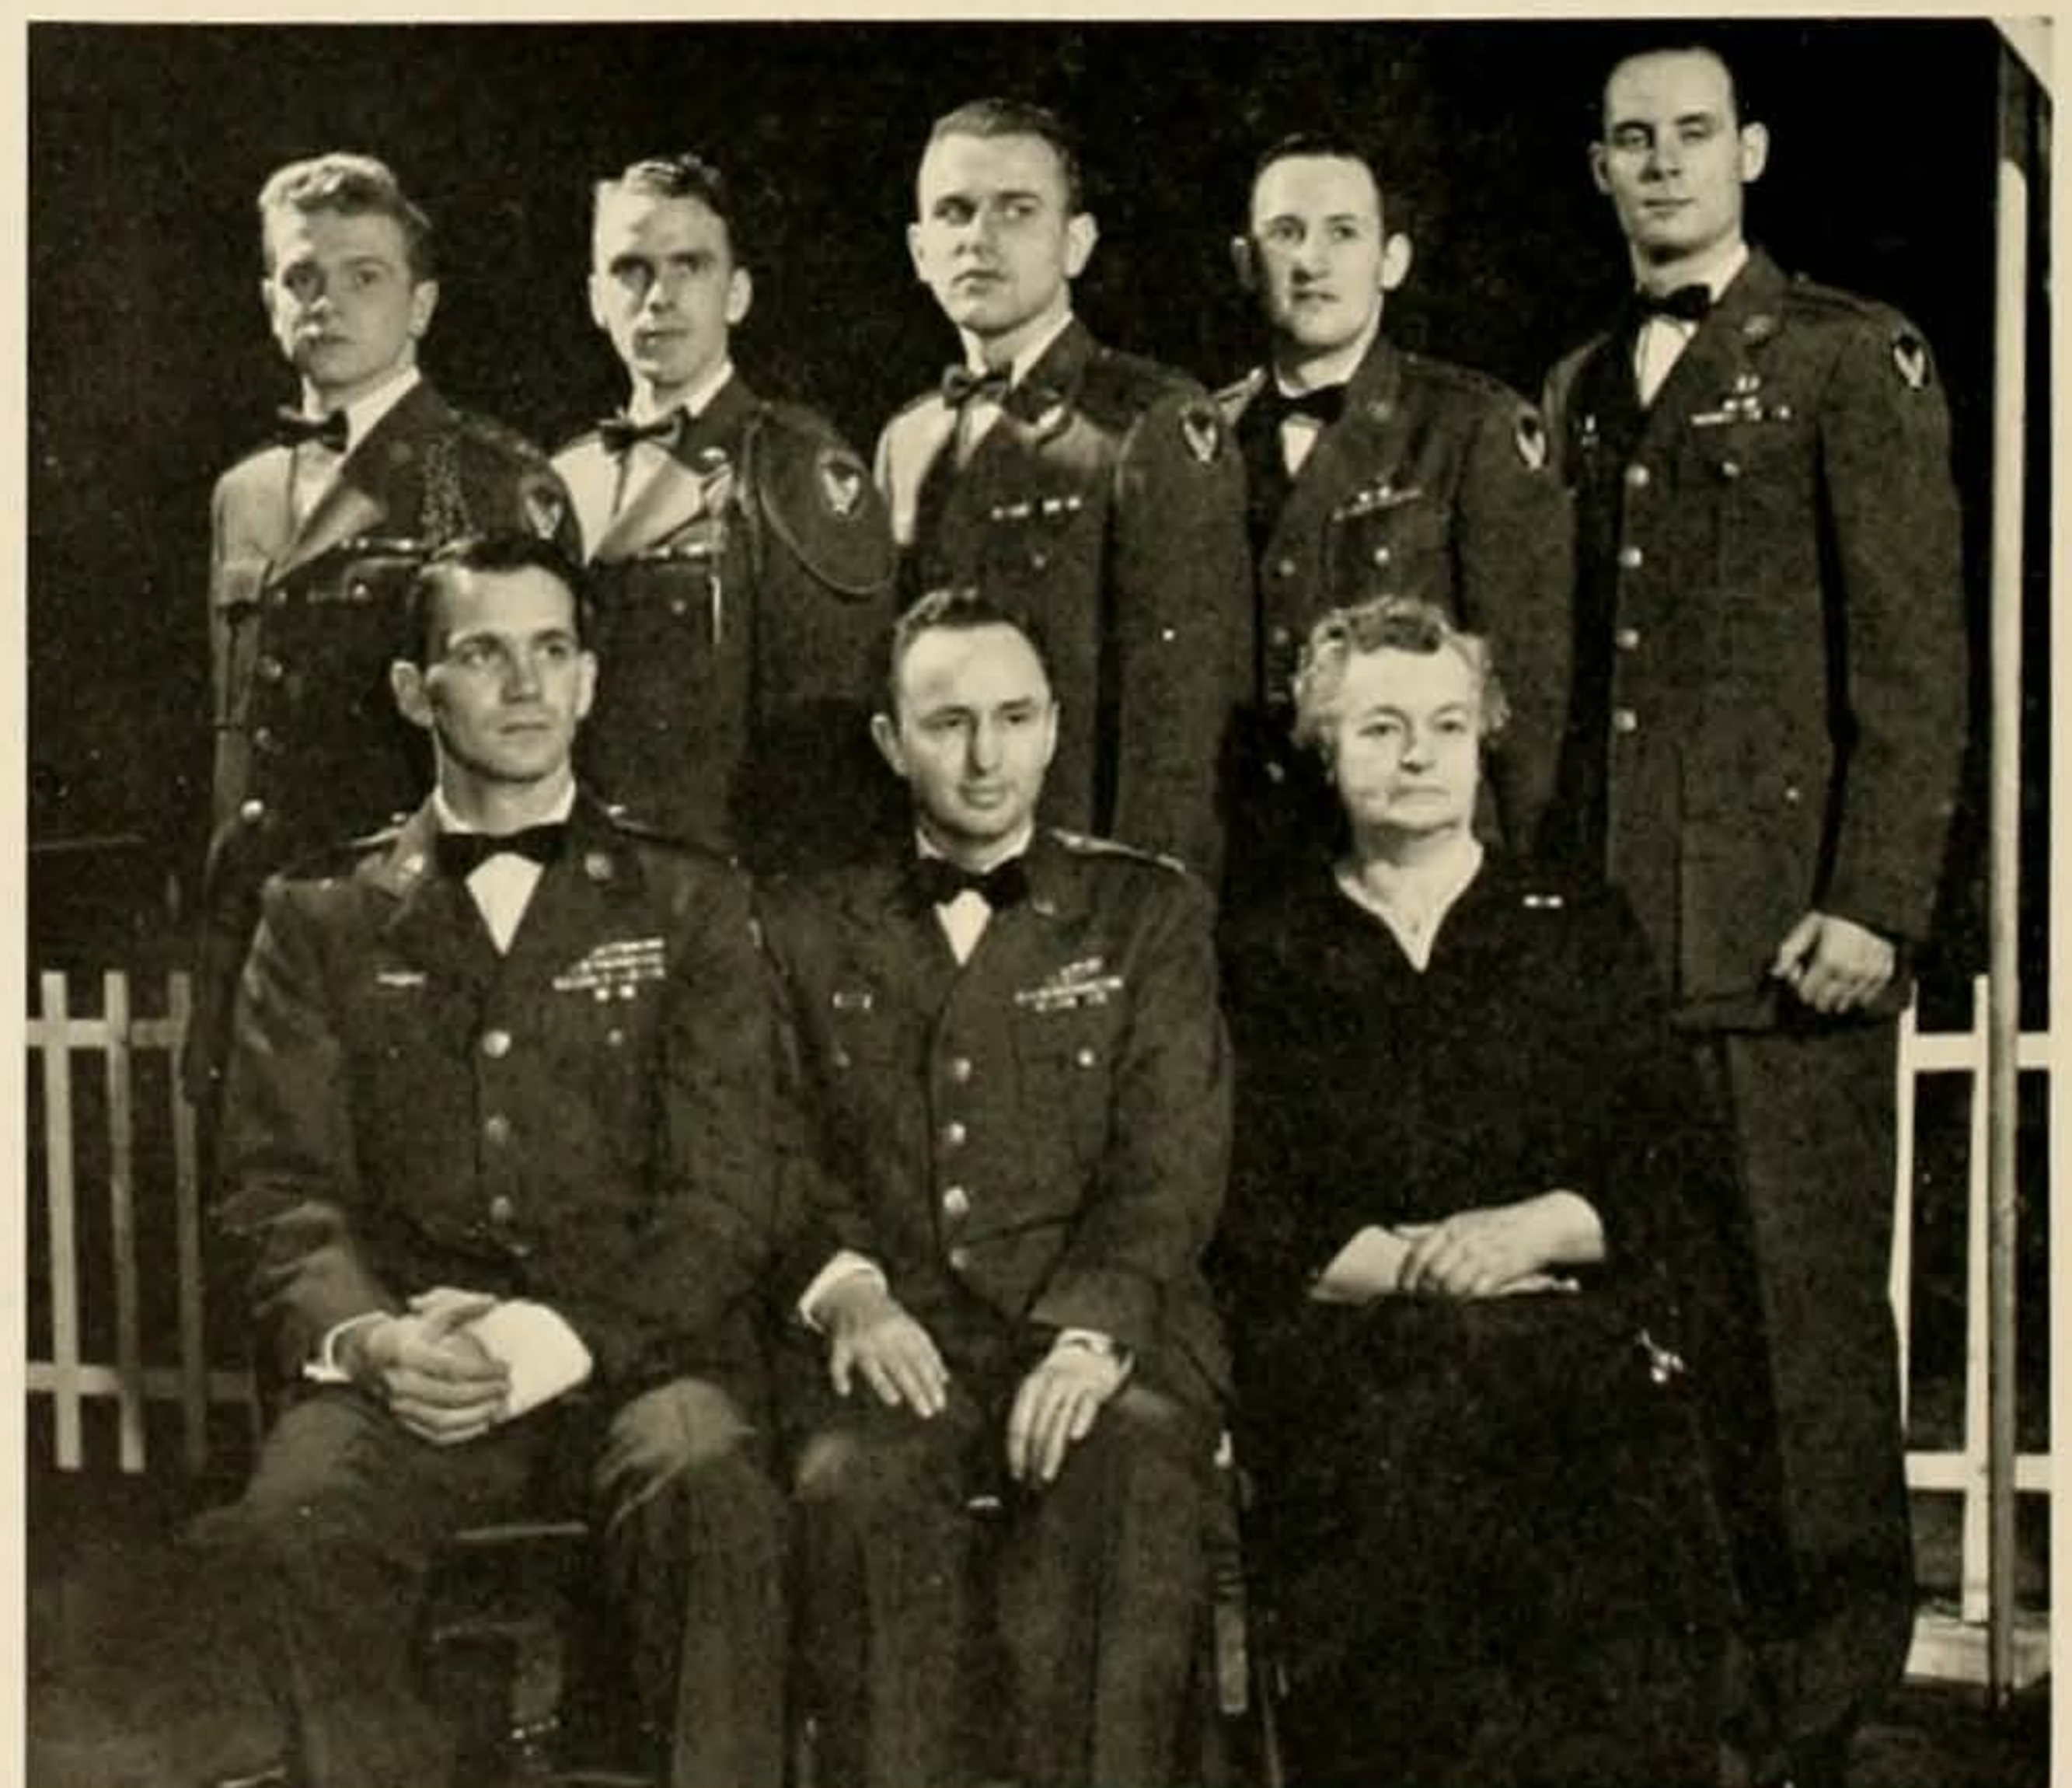

This society is the result of a merger of three Air Force R.O.T.C. clubs and is named after General H. H. Arnold, a leader and proponent of American air power.

The purpose of the Arnold Air Society is to further the mission of the United States Air Force at university level by encouraging greater teamwork, technical knowledge, and cooperation among students in the Air R.O.T.C. program.

Leo Bennett Coy acted as squadron commander, with Robert Baker serving as his executive officer for the group on our campus, the John P. Robbins Squadron.

The Military Ball was held under the sponsorship of this and other military societies at OU.

PHI ETA SIGMA

The adjustment to the requirements of study for college education is perhaps the most difficult for incoming students to make. Thus, one of the most important activities of Phi Eta Sigma is the preparation and distribution to all freshmen of the pamphlet, "Hints on How to Study."

This organization, honoring freshmen with a 3.5 accumulative average, was established to promote the cause of scholarship.

Lectures, informal meetings, two initiations, and a banquet held in conjunction with Alpha Lambda Delta comprised other activities of the group for the year.

Active recreation is one of the most effective ways of building stronger, healthier, more democratic citizens.

The Women's Recreation Association realizes this fact and under the direction of the sports board, sponsors a complete sports program for all women at Ohio University.

This energetic organization provides competitive sports for campus groups and play days with other schools. Activities included hockey, soccer, volley ball, basketball, baseball, swimming, and tennis.

A cabin, equipped with facilities for cooking and over-night use, is maintained by W.R.A. for the use of all girls at Ohio U. It is located a few miles outside of Athens.

The group holds banquets each winter and spring. At that time awards are presented for proficiency in sports. The badges given are the initial or numeral award for one season's participation, and the Flying "O" for seven seasons in the sports program with a scholastic average of 2.0.

Campus clubs under the guidance of the W.R.A. are the Tennis Club, the Modern Dance Club, and the Dolphin Club.

RED CROSS

The Ohio University chapter of the American National Red Cross, organized during World War I, provides students on the campus with an opportunity to help and administer their volunteer activities in the community, national, and international Red Cross programs.

The local chapter developed greatly, soon after the outbreak of World War II, when the Central Committee of the American National Red Cross authorized chapters to organize student groups to be known as American Red Cross College Units. This action came as recognition of student interest. In June, 1948 it was agreed to direct emphasis toward including college students in chapter community programs and to adopt certain Red Cross programs to the campus.

Members aid in the recruiting of blood donors, send entertainment and dance groups to the Chillicothe Veterans' Hospital, and extend Christmas cheer to veterans by supplying them with gifts to be sent to their families. The annual Red Cross membership drive was held in the spring.

BLUE KEY

Blue Key was re-established at OU this year. Inactive during the war, it was re-organized in 1949 by nine former presidents of social fraternities and was known as Crest.

A service organization, its function is to promote intra-campus relations, encourage and develop campus leadership, and improve scholastic standings of social fraternities.

The group instituted Howdy Day, took charge of the freshman information booth and performed other needed services.

Socially, the bright spot of the year was the dinner prior to the I.F.C. Dance.

Wally Bennett of Beta Theta Pi was president, Richard Sullivan of Delta Tau Delta acted as vice president, Phi Sigma Delta's Sherman Itlaner was secretary, and the treasurer was Marv Watnick of Phi Epsilon Pi.

J-CLUB

"Come seven; come eleven;" come J-Club initiation. Traditionally, eleven men are initiated into OU's J-Club on the eleventh month, the eleventh day, the eleventh hour. These men, members of the Junior class, must have a 2.5 scholastic average and be outstanding in extra-curricular activities.

The group was founded in 1930 to give men of Junior rank due recognition for participating in activities during their first and second years at Ohio University.

The featured event of the year was the annual J-Club dinner party preceding J Prom. Quarterly functions including dinner meetings were held.

Seated: Ed Roberts, Vic Sherow, John Milar. Standing: Jack Donaldson.

TORCH

A student, bearing a torch, leaped from the stage of Memorial Auditorium, ran up the aisle, touched another young man on the shoulder and informed him, "You are Tapped for Torch!"

This organization was founded in 1913 to confer membership, as an honor, upon those who have made themselves leaders in university affairs and to promote the best interests of Ohio University by acting as an intermediary between students and the faculty.

Outstanding events on the calendar were the annual Torch Homecoming Dance and the Torch Sing.

The Torch Sing, in which the glee clubs from all the social fraternities participate, was held in May on the west portico of the Auditorium. Judges selected the best glee club and presented it with the Blaine R. Goldsberry trophy.

The pictured members of Torch are: (seated) Prof. C. N. Mackinnon, Wally Bennett, Pres. J. C. Baker, Marty Hecht, Robert Wren; (standing) Ralph Dunbar, Walt Dahl, Al Lindholm, Bob Carboni, Ed Sudnick, Don Stout.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

The first semester initiation of Alpha Lambda Delta this year included an honorary initiation for Dean Felsted and Dr. Wray. The regularly initiated members were freshman women with a 3.5 scholastic average.

This honorary organization was founded at OU in 1941 by Dean Irma Voigt.

The members acted as hostesses on High School Scholarship Day and Vocational Guidance Day. They also held a dinner for freshman women on scholarships and a banquet in collaboration with Phi Eta Sigma.

Chimes is a national women's honorary that confers membership on Juniors who have excelled in scholarship and activities during their first two college years.

The Ohio University chapter of this organization, known locally as Phoenix, went national in the summer of 1950.

The girls guide and entertain the high school history students, usher at commencement, help orient transfer students, and hold a tea for sophomore women with a high scholastic average.

CHIMES

Mortar Board, a national honorary for senior women, was established on our campus in 1938.

The purpose of Mortar Board is service to the University; the members strive to show a perfect example in scholarship and leadership.

This year they sponsored the Parisian Book Sale, an Alpha Lambda Delta party with Chimes, and the annual Alumnae Christmas party.

MORTAR BOARD

CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Campus Affairs Committee is the official executive committee of all extra-curricular life on OU's campus.

Members of this committee are the two personnel deans, four faculty members appointed by the President, the president and two vice presidents of the Student Council elected by the campus at large, and the presidents of Women's League and Men's Union.

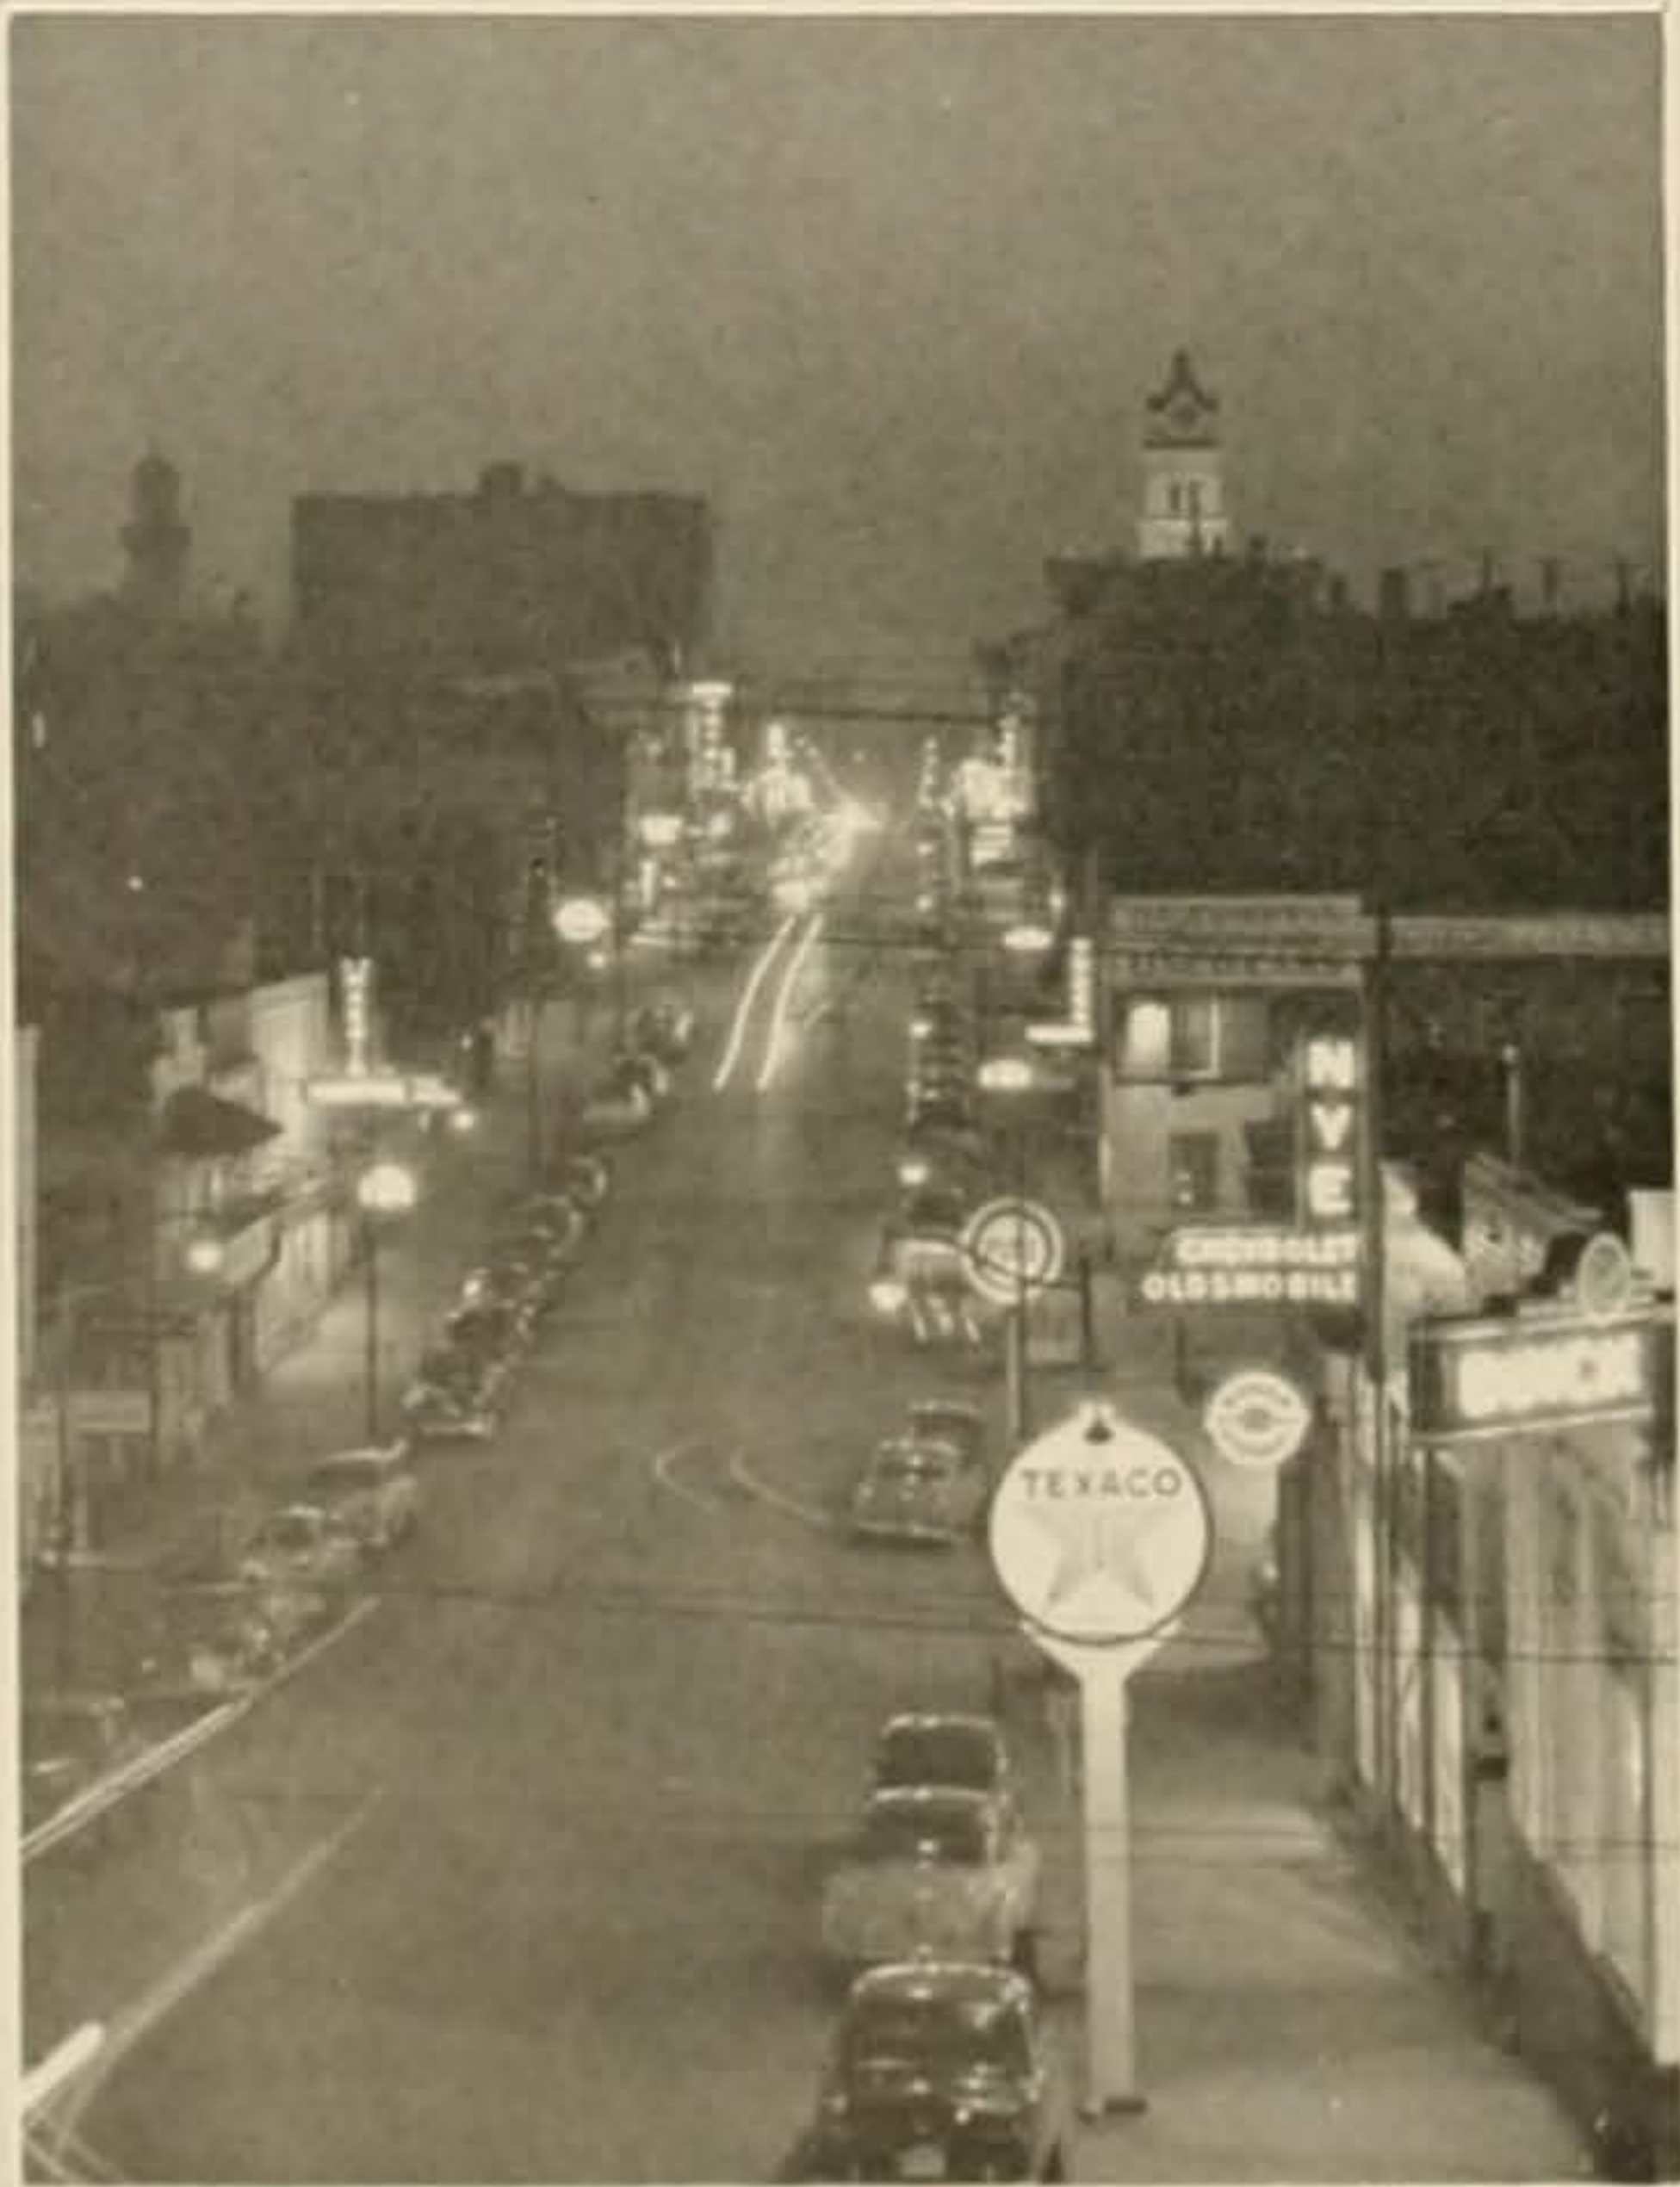

Ralph Dunbar, Miss Appel, Prof. Gusteson, Mr. Nessley, Dean Hunkins, Dean Felsted, Walt Dahl, Betty Wagner, Miss Work, Ruth Hartford.
