

FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

TROPICO AND NORTH GLENDALE PEOPLE FITTINGLY OBSERVE CHRISTMAS

TROPICO
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough and Miss Mary Jane Evans-Hough of Central avenue are spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig on the Hough ranch near Saugus.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tisdale entertained with a dinner party at their home on Paloma avenue Christmas at which their guests were Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and Miss Isabel Tisdale of San Diego, who is the guest of her brother and family.

Eugene H. Imler, who is attending Throop college in Pasadena, returned Wednesday evening to enjoy the Christmas holidays at his home, "Palm Villa." Friday afternoon Eugene entertained informally Merrill H. Blain of Los Angeles, Harry Chandler, Merrill Burke, George Van Hazelen and Burna Martin, who welcomed Eugene's return home.

Mrs. C. E. Mitchell of Eureka, Cal., arrived a few days since to spend the winter as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Tisdale of Paloma avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silvius entertained with a charming dinner party at their home on West Park avenue Christmas day following the auto races. The table was aglow with holiday colors and it was truly a merry party that was seated with Mr. and Mrs. Silvius, who were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ward of Sheffield, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. G. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. D. Smith, Mrs. J. Krukow, Irma and Walter Krukow of Glendale.

Mr. J. P. Searls of Los Angeles was the Christmas dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock of West Park avenue. Other guests at dinner were Mrs. Elizabeth Kasseall and Allen K. Pollock.

Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg of "Twin Pines" left for Bakersfield Thursday evening, where she enjoyed the Christmas festivities as the guest of her son and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. George Bahrenberg.

Dr. R. T. Smith will preach at the Tropico M. E. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject, "Tithing." Special musical numbers by choir. Sunday evening, 7:30, the Christmas service will be held. The entire evening will be devoted to an elaborate musical program by the choir, assisted by Mrs. Frank Morgan and Dr. P. O. Lucas, soloists; Miss Helene Morgan, pianist. Another interesting feature of this service will be music by the church orchestra.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsonage of 829 Lincoln place were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Higgins of Westlake avenue, Los Angeles, Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Conrad of 1433 Burchett street spent Christmas day with Mr. Conrad's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conrad of Inglewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver E. Wright of 1649 Ruth street entertained as their guests at Christmas dinner and for the day Mr. Wright's brother, Mr. B. W. Wright of Roseberry avenue, Florence, Cal.; also Miss Hazel Anderson and Mr. J. R. Alston of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rockhold and three children of Burchett street are guests of Mr. Rockhold's relatives in Riverside for the happy Yuletide week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Payne of 702 North Louise street entertained with a Christmas eve dinner party last Thursday evening. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree, laden with gifts, was of course a most important feature of the happy evening. The occasion was a family reunion and those who enjoyed the delightful occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Harla S. Payne and two children, Dorothy and Paul of South Pasadena; Miss Ella D. Payne, Miss C. C. Payne, Mr. Frank Radamacher and son, Mr. Frank A. Radamacher of Los Angeles, Mr. Howard Wilson of Ocean Park and Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Payne and four children of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whitten of Kenneth road entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner Christmas day. The occasion was a family reunion and covers were laid for twenty-five guests from San Diego and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dow and four children of Bellflower were guests of Mrs. Dow's brother, Mr. Lucius F. Drake and family of 1657 Ruth street Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Davis of 920

THE TIME IS SHORT

WILD FLOWERS MUST BE PLANTED NOW TO MAKE SHOWING FOR 1915

Editor News: The following quotation from a little pamphlet entitled "How to Beautify Your Town and County for 1915," by Theodore Payne of Los Angeles, we believe is in order at this time:

"This is a question that is being asked everywhere in California today, and in the following pages I propose not only to show how this may be done, but how it can be done in the short time that still remains and also at a minimum cost."

"The time is short; 1915 will soon be here and whatever is done must necessarily be something that will produce almost immediate results. Some are advocating planting trees, palms, shrubs, etc., and while these are all good for the future, they will not make any showing for next year. Roses, both climbing and bush varieties, will make very little display for next year unless very large expensive plants are put out. Indeed, many of these schemes that are being advocated and in some places are now being put into effect, will make a splendid display for 1916, or just one year too late. We did not start the movement early enough, but that cannot be helped now. Then let us make the best of things and do what we can in the time that still remains. There is practically only one thing to do and that is to sow the vacant lots, parkings and waste ground along the road sides with California wild flower seed or other annual flowers that will begin to blossom in a few months from the time of sowing. After all, the visitors, no matter from what part of the globe they come, will be more anxious to see the wild flowers of California, the flowers that are truly typical of our state, than anything else in the floral line. What is more beautiful than the California poppy, the blue lupine, the blazing star, the tidy-tips and many other of our wild flowers? Then let us sow these flowers freely on vacant lots and along the wayside, so that the whole country will be a blaze of color when the expositions open next year. Nothing will impress the visitors so much as great fields of California poppies and other flowers in full bloom."

As Mr. Payne says, the best way we can beautify our city this spring and summer is by sowing flower seeds in the vacant lots and parkways. Now that we are getting a great many of these lots cleaned off (and the others will be cleaned off soon), it would be well to act on the suggestion of Mr. Payne and plow these lots and sow them to California wild flowers, especially should the lots on Colorado boulevard, Central avenue and Brand boulevard receive immediate attention. As our people have responded so willingly to the lot cleaning, we hope some means may be provided whereby this good work may be followed up by the sowing of flowers and grasses. Two or three squares sown to California poppies fronting on our main thoroughfares would be very attractive to the eastern people as they pass through our city this spring.

Whatever we do in this line must be done immediately if we are going to obtain the desired results. Glendale needs a great many improvements, all of which we will secure as time goes on, but the opportunities of 1915 must be taken advantage of now, and such opportunities will not come to us again for a long time. Therefore, a little money spent for flower seeds and plowing vacant lots and parkways will be a good investment for us at this time.

Respectfully yours,
F. W. WATSON,
City Manager.

RUTH WRIGHT GETS WATCH

Miss Ruth Wright of North Glendale is the lady who won the $20 gold watch offered by the Glendale Evening News to the boy or girl who would sell the greatest number of anniversary numbers of the Evening News. Miss Wright sold eighty-seven copies.

Lincoln place are rejoicing over the arrival of a beautiful baby girl, who came just in time for Christmas and the proud parents are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Special services at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church Sunday, Dec. 27. Rev. Julius Soper, pastor. Morning—Dr. F. N. Fisher of Pasadena will preach on "Systematic Beneficence." Dr. Fisher is devoting his time to this important work and is very interesting. In the evening Dr. F. D. Mather, superintendent of the Pasadena district, will preach at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

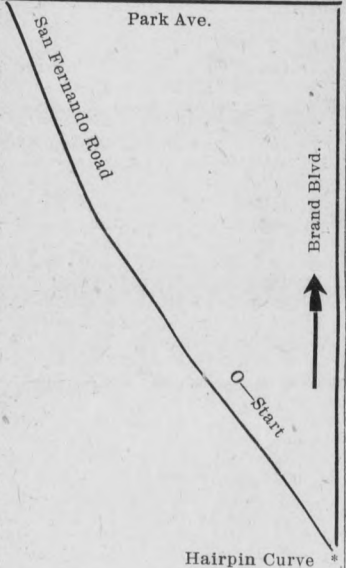

TROPICO COMES TO FRONT IN SPORTING WORLD

FIRST ROAD RACES IN TROPICO DRAW IMMENSE CROWDS ON CHRISTMAS DAY—WALDO THROOP, R. DORNEY AND GUS PULLIAM WIN IN AUTO RACES—GILSON AND GILHOUSE VICTORIOUS IN MOTORCYCLE RACES—H. LINDLEY, MOTT HAINES AND S. MORRISON CYCLE CAR WINNERS

Tropico was host Friday to thousands and demonstrated her right to a place on the sporting map when the first amateur road races were pulled off at that place. There were three events, the motor car race, a cycle car race and a motorcycle race. The races were open to all amateurs and the large crowds attracted to view the races were well entertained.

The entire two-mile course extending from Brand boulevard west on Park avenue to San Fernando road, southeast on San Fernando road to Brand and north on Brand to Park avenue, was lined with people, the number who viewed the races being estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000 people. Especially was the death curve or hairpin turn at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard the mecca for thousands, as that was the most dangerous point in the course.

At 10 o'clock the twenty-four cars entered in the first event, the motor race, lined up for parade. After one circuit of the two-mile track at slow speed, the cars were sent away on the forty-mile dash by Starter Harry Hartz in groups of four, ten seconds apart. The start was made from the grandstand, corner San Fernando road and Tropico avenue. Entrants in the motor race were:

No. 1, Buick, A. J. Irving.
No. 2, Buick, J. W. Velzy.
No. 3, Ford, G. Mahoney.
No. 4, Buick, J. Remmer.
No. 5, Ford, Waldo Throop.
No. 6, Regal, O. Witherell.
No. 7, Mercedes, W. Woestman.
No. 8, Stoddard-Dayton, E. Sherwood.
No. 9, Ford, B. Blair.
No. 10, Ford, O. Z. Lansaw.
No. 11, Studebaker, R. Dorney.
No. 12, Mitchell, R. Puissegur.

Waldo Throop in Ford wins first prize, $100.

Next were Mott Haines in a Mercer, time 51:18 2-5, and S. Morrison in a Mercedes, time 52:01 2-5. There were nine entries in the 30-mile motorcycle race. T. Gibson in a Thor came in in 49 minutes, 31 4-5 seconds. Gilhouse, on an Indian, second, time 50 minutes and four-fifths of a second; R. Hammond on the Hepderson, was third, time 53 minutes 5 1-5 seconds. Only these three finished out of a field of ten. No accidents marred the race.

It is possible that the first prize of $25 may be awarded to W. Gilhouse's entry from Munson's drug store delivery, as Gibson is said to be a professional.

MRS. RALPH WOLFE
Mrs. Ellen P. Wolfe of 1544 Ivy street passed away Friday afternoon, December 25, at the home of her son, 330 Central avenue. Obituary will be published later. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the West Glendale M. E. church. The Pulliam Undertaking company is in charge.

MRS. WALSH
Mrs. Annie Sybil Walsh of Juneau, Alaska, died Friday, Dec. 25, at the residence of Mr. Chas. S. Casselman, 1551 West Seventh street, Glendale. The body is at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking company, at Third street and Brand boulevard, pending the arrival of her sister, Miss Rose Melton, from Nogales, Arizona.

MISS MAGGIE MEYER
Miss Maggie Meyer passed away on the evening of Christmas day at 8:45 at her late residence, 528 Oak drive, at the age of 36 years. She was a native of Mt. Sterling, Ills. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Scovern-Letton-Frey Co., and the remains are to be shipped east for burial. Funeral notice will be given later.

No. 14, Buick, C. B. Lovejoy.
No. 15, Buick, B. Ray.
No. 16, Maxwell, F. Andros.
No. 17, Overland, E. Pitts.
No. 18, Stoddard-Dayton, C. U. Wells.
No. 19, Studebaker, G. Pulliam.
No. 20, Knox, A. Austria.
No. 21, Ford, C. Clanin.
No. 22, Ford, K. Weber.
No. 23, Ford, P. J. Boniker.
No. 24, Metz, E. Thomas.
No. 25, Ford, E. Cody.

For the first nine laps, Throop, Ford; Sherwood, Stoddard-Dayton; Weber, Ford, and Remmer, Buick, led the race. In the tenth lap Weber dropped behind and R. Dorney, Studebaker, came in third. In the eleventh lap R. Puissegur in a Mitchell held third place, while Throop and Sherwood continued to hold first and second places respectively up to the fourteenth lap. In the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth laps Sherwood forged ahead of Throop, while P. J. Boniker in a Ford came in near the first. In the nineteenth lap Throop in his Ford again took the lead and kept it until the end of the last lap, when he came in victorious, his time for the race being 50 minutes, 25 4-5 seconds. R. Dorney, Studebaker, came in second, his time being 51 minutes, 5 1-5 seconds, while the entry of Helen Holmes of the Kalem company, a Studebaker, with Gus Pulliam as driver, came in third, the time being 51 minutes, 26 3-5 seconds. Prizes won were $100, $40 and $10 respectively.

In the cycle car races there were sixteen entries, as follows:
No. 1, Duesenberg, Sid Holland.
No. 2, Peugeot, Hugh Phillips.
No. 3, Stutz, Percy McFadden.
No. 4, Eno, Mott Haynes.
No. 5, Indian, E. M. McClux.
No. 6, Mercedes, S. Morrison.
No. 7, Hetzel Special, Al Hetzel.
No. 8, Stutz, Alex Pabst.
No. 9, Zelle, Ray Reese.
No. 10, Maxwell, Frank Bierlie.
No. 11, Indian, Harry Harts.
No. 12, Marmon, Al Manesce.
No. 14, Mercedes, H. Lindles.
No. 15, Buick, E. Mushrush.
No. 16, De Luxe, D. Phillips.
No. 17, Christie, Les Rawson.

E. McClux furnished the thrills in this race when he turned over on a right angle turn at the north of the course and was painfully injured. He sustained several bad cuts and bruises and was taken to the field hospital where his injuries were dressed.

The winners in this event, which was for a distance of twenty miles, were:
First, H. Lindley, in what he has named a Mercedes. His time was 48 minutes 59 seconds.
Next were Mott Haines in a Mercer, time 51:18 2-5, and S. Morrison in a Mercedes, time 52:01 2-5.

There were nine entries in the 30-mile motorcycle race. T. Gibson in a Thor came in in 49 minutes, 31 4-5 seconds. Gilhouse, on an Indian, second, time 50 minutes and four-fifths of a second; R. Hammond on the Hepderson, was third, time 53 minutes 5 1-5 seconds. Only these three finished out of a field of ten. No accidents marred the race.

ANOTHER FREAK
We spoke of an almond tree that is in full bloom on the McNutt ranch a few days ago, and now we hear of an apple tree on Louise street which is bearing its second crop of apples at this time. It has often been remarked by people in Glendale that the winters are so lovely they could not tell whether it is winter or summer, and it seems that the trees do not know much more about it than the people.

PLAN JAPANESE PARTY
Mrs. McKinney of 1223 West Seventh street is hostess this afternoon to a committee of ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Plans for the Japanese tea party to be held on Wednesday, December 30, will be discussed. The hostesses for this affair will be Mesdames Dan Campbell, C. O. Pulliam, F. W. Pigg, Helen Campbell, J. F. Hearnshaw, E. Leavitt, Julius Kranz, L. W. Bosserman, J. G. Jones, L. L. Joseph, J. D. Love, J. P. Shropshire, J. W. Usilton, Colin Cable, Beulah Leighton and H. L. Clotworthy.

MR. EVANS' CAR STOLEN
City Attorney W. E. Evans had the misfortune to have his automobile stolen Friday night. Mr. Evans left his machine near the corner of Fifth and Broadway in Los Angeles and when he returned for it at about 7:45 p. m. it was gone. The machine was an Overland, '13 model, license No. 38160, with the letters W. E. E. printed on the rear doors. Mr. Evans will be grateful for any information in regard to his car.

MAIL HEAVIEST EVER
Miss Louise Toll of 215 South Louise street says that her brother, who transfers mail at the Arcade station in Los Angeles, reports that for four days they have had two sixty-foot cars loaded full of mail each day, and this is only the local mail. They say that this year's mail is the heaviest that there has ever been in Los Angeles and vicinity.

MARRIED
On Christmas eve, December 24th, at the rectory, 515 South Central avenue, the Rev. Dr. Mills, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties, united in marriage Mr. George Alex Mitchell and Miss Margaret Wagner, both of Glendale.

SQUARING-UP TIME

JANUARY FIRST GOOD TIME TO PAY ALL BILLS—START YEAR RIGHT

The end of the year 1914 is drawing near, and there are only a few days left for squaring up the 1914 accounts. It should be the aim of everyone to make a satisfactory settlement with persons to whom he is indebted. The man with honest purposes will pride himself in making these satisfactory settlements. If perchance you have accounts to collect, get busy and collect them. Many men fail in business just because they are poor collectors. Money due belongs to you and the one who owes it to you has no excuse for carrying it in bank or in his pocket. The money is yours and do not hesitate to ask for that which belongs to you. Collect what money is due you and pay money that you owe to others.

When the Glendale Evening News invites all persons indebted to the Evening News for subscription, job work or advertising, there is no unfairness about it, because the management of The News invites all persons having bills against The News to present them and immediate payment will be made. It is poor rule that will not work both ways.

LUCKY ONES AND PRIZES

There were several prizes to be given in Glendale on Christmas eve and among the most important, at least to the young people, were the four prizes offered by the Russell bakery for securing votes given with each loaf of bread. The first prize, which was a really fine junior auto, went to Newton McGillis, who turned in over 40,000 votes, that number being more than 20,000 in excess of the next highest contestant. The second prize, a $5 gold piece, went to Benny Marsh. Paul Fromm won the watch and Helen Engle the ring. The children had all worked hard and were delighted with their prizes. The following each received a box of candy, having turned in 10,000 or more votes each: Helen Dopps, Dorothy Head, James Current, Raymond Osgood, Josephine Emery, Cecil Wilson, Josephine Franham, Harry Gillet, Frederick Baker and Thomas McClellan.

At the Superior Electric company's place of business there was a prize given on Christmas eve, each purchaser of goods having been given a ticket, the duplicate of which was placed in a box in the store. The prize offered was the choice of an electric percolator or an electric stand lamp. The lucky number was 147 and was held by Miss Jennie Lacy of 135 South Kenwood street, who was on Friday morning notified of her good fortune and to come to the store and make her choice of the prizes offered.

ANOTHER PREACHER FINDS DOG

A little brown puppy strayed to the home of Rev. E. H. Willisford on Christmas night. The puppy looks as if he might be a Scotch collie or something of the kind, but does not look as though he would be valuable enough to have a suit of clothes offered for his return, as was offered for a bulldog found by another Glendale clergyman a short time ago. However, Mr. Willisford thinks the dog is the pet of some child and is anxious to find the owner in order that he may return it to its proper home.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

HAPPY FAMILY GATHERINGS A FEATURE OF CHRISTMAS DAY CELEBRATION

CARROT PLUM PUDDING

Miss Louise Toll and her sister, Miss Sara Toll of 215 South Louise street, had a turkey dinner with friends in the city on Christmas day. They brought back with them the recipe for carrot plum pudding, which is so good that it has been given to The News in order that others may try it. Following are the ingredients:

One cup grated raw carrots, one cup grated raw potatoes, one cup white sugar, one cup flour, one-fourth cup butter, one cup seeded raisins, half cup English currants, one teaspoonful soda put in the potato; one teaspoon cinnamon, half teaspoon of nutmeg, one-fourth teaspoon cloves; salt to taste; steam three hours and serve with either hard or liquid sauce. The carrots and potatoes may be run twice through a meat grinder instead of being grated.

FAMILY GATHERING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hastings of South Brand boulevard was the scene of a happy family gathering on Christmas day. There were four generations present, the oldest being Mr. J. T. Knox, who is 96 years old, and is strong and healthy. Six years ago when he came to California he was the oldest person the Santa Fe railway ever brought across the Rockies. The other members of the family were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Griffin, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. Knox, with whom he resides, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hastings and son, George, Jr., great grandson of Mr. Knox.

CHRISTMAS EVE GUESTS

Mrs. Anna L. Smith of Riverdale drive entertained a number of guests on Christmas eve. Mrs. Smith's beautiful home was decorated with red and green and everything was suggestive of Christmas, the mantel being very artistically entwined with the beautiful Christmas colors. Besides the hostess, there were present Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Imler and three small daughters, Mrs. L. Miller and Miss Marcella Miller and Mrs. Helen Carter and Miss Hazel Carter of Los Angeles.

FIVE O'CLOCK DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McIntyre of 435 Isabel street entertained with 5 o'clock dinner on Friday evening. Mrs. McIntyre was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Helen I. Campbell and Miss Annie L. McIntyre. Decorations were especially beautiful, gorgeous poinsettias being used in the living-rooms, bouquets of choice sweet peas in the adjoining room, while a large bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses centered the dining table, where an elaborate dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. McIntyre, Mrs. Daisy Mathews, Mr. Wilmot J. McIntyre, Mr. Percy McIntyre, Miss Edith Belle McIntyre and Master Lawrence McIntyre.

ANNUAL REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Addison of 316 Belmont street had the annual family reunion at their home on Friday. There were twenty-four relatives and friends present to enjoy the excellent turkey dinner at 2 o'clock. Then the afternoon was spent in music and games and there was tea at 7 o'clock, with more music and fun in the evening, there being considerable talent among the young people, which made the day most enjoyable for the older ones. Besides the Glendale friends and relatives, there were present Mr. and Mrs. John Addison from Windsor Mills, Canada.

PLUM PUDDING—YUM! YUM!

Another enjoyable dinner of Friday was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fryer of 129 Howard street. The beautiful Christmas colors were seen everywhere and a real old English Christmas dinner was served, the place of honor being held by the huge plum pudding. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Fryer of 1424 North Pacific avenue, Rev. John H. Troy, with Mrs. Troy and Masters Fred and Jack, and the host and hostess.

FIVECOURSE AFFAIR

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham of 125 South Jackson street were among the Glendale people who entertained with Christmas dinner Friday. The house was elaborately decorated with Christmas greens and holly and a Christmas tree.

Quite a number are planning to unite with the church by letter, as well as on confession of faith, at the communion service Sunday, Jan. 10. Pre-communion services every evening during the week beginning Jan. 3rd. The P. E. car service is especially good for those who desire to attend the church at the 11 o'clock hour. The car leaves North Glendale at 10:30, going direct to Glendale avenue (two blocks from the church) without change. Fare five cents. Other cars make close connection by transfer.

THE IDEAL CHURCH

Members of other churches are especially invited to hear Rev. Bruce Brown tonight in his lecture on "The New Testament Church." All who do so may be assured that they will hear nothing to be offended at, because Mr. Brown is always careful to avoid this. He is certainly exemplary in Christian charity, while never failing to present the whole truth as he finds it in God's word. You will get a picture of the ideal church tonight. Get it!

Friday night's lecture on "If I Were a Woman" brought out many thoughts which both men and women were glad to have dwelt on, in some matters revealing secrets to the women which they seldom hear.

Tomorrow is promised another big day for this church. Mr. Brown has lots of good things in store, although he hasn't revealed his subjects. He will preach both morning and evening. His work at El Centro begins on the third, so his stay with us will be brief. He is anxious for a large gathering at tomorrow's services.

The contest of the men's class with "Broadway" is very close. At the start it looked like a "walk away" for Glendale, but now only thirty points divide us. Let all the men take notice.

"THE FIRST CHRISTMAS" AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock the choir of the First Congregational church, Third street and Central avenue, will give the inspiring and beautiful cantata, "The First Christmas," by Wilson. The solo parts will be taken by Mrs. A. B. Chappell, Mr. C. M. Van Dyke, Mrs. W. D. MacRae, Mrs. C. H. Sloan, Mr. Blake Franklin, Mr. H. W. Yariek, Mr. Ralph W. Beers and Mr. George Lyons. Others who assist are Mrs. B. Franklin, Mrs. Ethel Oliver, Miss Dorothy Bonnell and Mr. Lewis P. Abell.

Miss Marion Lane will act as accompanist and Miss Frances Paine will play the violin obligato.

Mrs. Sloan will read "The Shepherds of Judea," from Ben Hur.

This service of song and reading is of unusual merit and will no doubt be heard by a large audience.

9:45 a. m.—The last Sunday school session of the year will be held. Let every member be present and help make a record attendance.
 11 a. m.—Helpful Christmas time service will be held. The pastor, Dr. E. H. Willisford, will speak on "What Christmas Should Mean." The choir will sing the anthem, "The Radiant Morn," by Woodworth.
 6:30 p. m.—The C. E. meets for its last 1914 meeting.

SOMETHING NEW

At the First Methodist Episcopal church, corner Third street and Dayton court, the business men will have charge of the service. On account of rain, this program was postponed to this Sunday night.

9:40—Sunday school. Thos. W. Watson, superintendent.
 11:00—Morning worship. Sermon by pastor. Subject, "Interpreting the Christmas Message." Anthem, "Glory to God in the Highest" (Vincent). Anthem, "Fear Not, O Israel" (Spicker).

6:30—Epworth League devotional meeting. Subject, "A Larger Life and Growing Ideals." Phil. 3:13, 14. Leader, Mrs. Frank Matthews.

7:30—Evening worship. Voluntary, Mrs. Paul Butterfield. Anthem, "Hosanna" (Ely). Prayer and hymn. Bringing the tithes into the storehouse. Solo, "The Christmas Message" (Dressler), by Mrs. Cammack, with violin obligato by Cecil Crandall. Hymn.

"An Evening with the Business Men"

Is it possible to live a Christian life in modern business?
 Does competition help or hinder Christian living?

Is it difficult to maintain a Christian character in public life?

What are some of the difficulties met in trying to practice the Golden Rule?

Quartet, "The Blessed Lullaby" (Nevin).

Can a man maintain his Christianity and be employed by a large corporation?

What changes can be suggested to make it easier to live a Christian life in business?

Does it appear that the social order is becoming more and more Christian?

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

Scores having requested Pastor Troy to repeat his famous lecture on "Where Are the Dead?" this theme is announced for Sunday evening at the local Baptist church. The lecture in question has a remarkable history. It was in connection with handling the heresies of millennial dawn both in public debate and upon the lecture platform that this and other lectures were born. Pastor Troy has repeatedly delivered these lectures at the invitation of the ministers' conferences of the largest cities east and later he expects to take up the same work on the Pacific coast, where so many strange cults thrive.

The history and literature of these lectures have been greatly beneficial to pastors afflicted with millennial dawn. The following is a sample letter from the Euclid avenue Baptist church, Cleveland, Ohio, commonly known as Rockefeller's church, and extracts from other letters:

Rev. John H. Troy,
 Los Angeles, Calif.

My Dear Brother: With many thanks I return the eight inclosures used successfully in reclaiming two of our members and how many more I know not, from Russellism. I have also warded off for the present at least an attack upon us that would probably mean a lot of work with little profit unless it be to advertise our church.

You are doing the cause of Christ a great good in taking up these matters fearlessly. No doubt you will have plenty of opportunity to exercise your gifts in disseminating the information which you have so carefully and successfully used.

Cordially yours,
 J. CHESTER HYDE,
 (Assistant Pastor.)

"We are sending under separate cover the Eagle's containing the Russell articles by express prepaid. We trust that they will be a great help to you in the great work you have undertaken."—The Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

"Dr. Troy made good last night. He made a tenpin strike. A great address it was that he gave us."—W. E. Fletcher, pastor Saint Augustine M. E. church, South, Fla.

"Lectured full house. Absolutely annihilated every Russell doctrine. Has wonderful grip on question. Held audience one and half hours. You cannot afford to let him go north without coming to Macon. Make dates for him city auditorium March fifth; also Savannah and Charleston."—Telegram sent by Dr. Pickern on behalf of Ministers' association of St. Augustine to ministers of Macon, Ga.

"Pastor Troy certainly told them something at this meeting. I was amused at the Telegraph reporter. He stated to me that he had come with notebook ready to take down the lecture, but was so swept off his feet by what was being said that he simply quit his work and listened in amazement. There is no doubt in my mind that Pastor Troy can annihilate any of these fellows that come before him. He held the people spell-bound for at least an hour and a half, and I am sure no one was ready for him to stop. He handles the question in a masterly way, and he has certainly paved the way for himself in our coming Bible conference."

—Rev. T. W. Callaway, pastor Baptist tabernacle, Macon, Ga.

TOM'S RESOLVE

"I'm going to turn a brand new leaf,"
 Said little Tom, the sinner;
 "But I shall wait till after I
 Have had my New Year's dinner,
 For 'mong the things that I'll resolve
 Is to check my appetite,
 And cease from eating everything
 That I can find in sight.
 But just this once I'll eat my fill;
 Then, if my stomach pain,
 I'll turn the leaf and make resolve
 To ne'er do so again."

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilde of 238 North Louise street spent Christmas day with friends in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spickerman and daughter Lois, with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Spickerman, were guests of Mrs. Branden in Los Angeles on Friday.

Mr. L. F. Lamont of Los Angeles was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Smith of 110 South Louise street on Christmas day.

Hon. H. Dayton Smith and wife of Washington, D. C., who are spending the winter in Los Angeles, were the guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith of 305 North Adams street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver and son Chester and Miss Elizabeth I. Weaver of Washington, D. C., were the Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weaver of 231 South Kenwood street on Friday.

Late acknowledgement has been received from the Children's hospital in Los Angeles of the receipt of the $65 sent them by the Glendale Choral club, same being the proceeds of the benefit concert given some time ago.

Mr. W. H. Brown and family, who have been living on their ranch at the corner of Sixth and Grand View, near Burbank, have sold the ranch and are moving to Glendale, where they have taken a house on Arden avenue near Columbus.

Friends of Mrs. Fred E. Blodgett of 815 West Fifth street will be sorry to hear of the serious illness of her father, Mr. Dieffendieser of Long Beach. Mr. Dieffendieser was found unconscious as the result of a fall from his bicycle and is in a precarious condition at a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver of 301 South Kenwood street are entertaining their daughter, Miss Elizabeth I. Weaver, of Washington, D. C. Miss Weaver arrived in Glendale on Thursday and will remain for several months, visiting her parents and her brother, Mr. A. L. Weaver of 231 South Kenwood street.

On Christmas evening Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Elias of 1456 Myrtle street, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Peckham, entertained thirty guests, all being relatives. Mr. C. C. Chandler was Santa Claus and distributed the gifts, and there was music and popcorn and stories later in the evening, so that it was a most happy family reunion for all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gaylord of 134 East First street, Glendale, entertained at Christmas dinner Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Woodman of Los Angeles, Mrs. L. T. Knatt of Hollywood, Mrs. McKeenan, Louise street, Glendale; K. C. Sipple, Adams street, Glendale. Among those present there were seven natives of the state of New York.

There was a meeting of the board of trustees of Glendale city school district at the Intermediate school on Wednesday evening, at which the principal business was a discussion of the plans for the intermediate school addition and the advertising for bids on said addition. There will be another meeting of the board on Wednesday evening of next week.

JARVIS F. STOKES

Doubly sad is the death of Mr. J. F. Stokes, for instead of the usual joyous celebration of the day in the customary manner, the home was turned into a house of mourning by the almost sudden death of the husband and father at 7:40 Christmas morning. Mr. Stokes had been ill with pneumonia for only three days, hence his demise was entirely unexpected.

Jarvis F. Stokes was born 72 years ago at Medford, N. J., and was the last survivor of a large family of Quakers, to which faith he clung consistently all his life. Until coming to California four years ago he was engaged in the manufacture of drugs in Cincinnati, and being a Mason was well known in business and Masonic circles of the larger eastern cities. It will be a comfort to his many friends to know that he was able to see and appreciate his Christmas gifts the afternoon before.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock on Monday at the residence, 208 Lomita avenue, and will be in charge of Rev. Sylvester Newlin of Pasadena. The Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking company are in charge.

Besides his wife, deceased leaves a son, Mr. Floyd Stokes; a daughter, Miss Audrey G. Stokes of Glendale; two nieces, Mrs. Dolle of Cincinnati and Miss L. Ray Balderston of New York City, and a nephew, Mr. Samuel Stokes of Cincinnati.

HAPPY AFFAIR

The Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, 117 Kenwood street, was one of the happiest affairs of Friday. The home was beautifully decorated with poinsettias, smilax and mistletoe and the long table extended through the living-room and dining-room. Covers were laid for twenty-four, there being present Dr. and Mrs. Bryant and three sons, Hugh, Dean and Albert; Mrs. Harriett Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Esther; Mr. Benjamin Harris and the host and hostess and their five children.

"Where Are the Dead?"

By JOHN HENRY TROY

First Baptist Church Sunday Evening, 7:30

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

bountiful five-course dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler of Tropic, mother and father of the host and hostess; Mrs. John Friedland, Mr. Percy Chandler, Miss Frances and Miss Gladys Peckham and Mr. Edgar Newcomb of Los Angeles.

TWELVE ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford entertained twelve at dinner Friday. There was the family Christmas tree in the morning and dinner was served at 1 o'clock, a most happy day being spent by all. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ashbaugh, Mrs. Cora Hill and son, Mr. Wendall Hill; Mrs. Ellen Galey, Miss Mabel Galley and Miss Edith Phillips, all of Glendale, and Mr. George Slayton of Los Angeles.

LARGE FAMILY GATHERING

Rev. George Eley and wife dined at noon Friday with their son, Mr. Lawrence Eley, corner of Fairview and Louise streets. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eley entertained all the children and grandchildren to the number of forty-five at their home, 1210 Lomita avenue, with high tea. Their old friend, Dr. Hunt, dropped in and the children made him stay with them and enjoy the fun. The house was beautifully decorated in poinsettias and English holly.

UNIQUE CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

On Christmas night Mr. John Brockman illuminated the beautiful park and lake which he has been preparing for some time near his home in the foothills. Mr. Brockman invited many of his neighbors and friends to see the illumination, and the place was a perfect fairyland, the trees being all strung with electric lights and with lights twinkling on all the tiny islands in the lake on which trees are growing.

On one of these miniature islands is a great pine tree, which was decorated for a Christmas tree and on which hung gifts for everyone. It was a beautiful sight and the guests felt as though they were taking part in a fairy story instead of being real flesh and blood people. The wiring was done by the Glendale Electric company and they may well be proud of the result.

OTHERS MADE HAPPY

On Christmas evening eleven members of the Robinette club sang at the Glendale sanitarium, Thornycroft hospital and at the Tropic hospital. This is a club of young ladies who are singing under the direction of Madame Norma Rockhold-Robbins and they took this method of making others happy on Christmas day.

Their songs were greatly enjoyed at each of the hospitals, where suffering is the daily experience and songs of joy and gladness are so few. At Thornycroft the singers were treated to candies, fruit, punch and wafers. Mrs. Robbins was unable to accompany the girls, as she was called to Los Angeles, but Mrs. Maude McChesney Snow conducted them and acted as accompanist. The following members of the club sang: Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. John Allen Legge, Mrs. Zetie Duncan, Miss Mattie Belle Provolt, Miss Clara Provolt, Miss Ruby Frances Wright, Miss Rachel McClure, Miss Lucile Parker, Miss Katherine Lewis and Miss Lillian Mills.

CHRISTMAS SENSATIONS

Christmas night in Glendale was full of many sensational affairs. One worth mentioning was when James Mason was returning home from the Elks' club at about 12 o'clock. He encountered two suspected hold-up men near Sixth street and Brand boulevard. Mr. Mason, believing it was wiser to retreat than to wage war upon the night marauders, retraced his steps to Broadway, where he informed the city officials of the suspicious characters.

Officers Schroeder, Arrington and Lawrence hastened down Brand boulevard to find the hold-up men. Officer Schroeder saw a man near Seventh street and called to him to halt, but instead of halting, the man started to run. Schroeder fired three shots and continued in pursuit of the man, each step demanding that he halt. Schroeder, becoming exhausted, gave a signal to Officers Lawrence and Arrington to continue the chase. These gentlemen, by making a near cut across a lot, captured the man under suspicion, who proved to be none other than Wendel Gilhousen, who was peaceably returning to his home at that late hour and who explains that he mistook the officers for hold-up men and hence ran to save himself from what he supposed to be a merciless assault.

The city deputy officers can testify that Gilhousen, besides being a fast motorcycle rider, is a record-breaking sprinter.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Mrs. C. W. Burket is suffering from a fractured collar bone and a broken rib today and her husband and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goss are feeling the effects of an automobile accident that might have proved fatal to one or more of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Burket, with Mr. and Mrs. Goss and their two children, William and Philip, were returning from Pasadena Friday afternoon in Mr. Burket's new machine. Mr. Burket was driving and in turning out to pass another auto, he ran into a bank, the shock throwing his hands from the steering wheel and the machine turning turtle twice. The children escaped injury, but the older members of the party are suffering from the accident, although Mrs. Burket was the only one to have bones broken. The machine was badly damaged.

SCIENCE NOTES

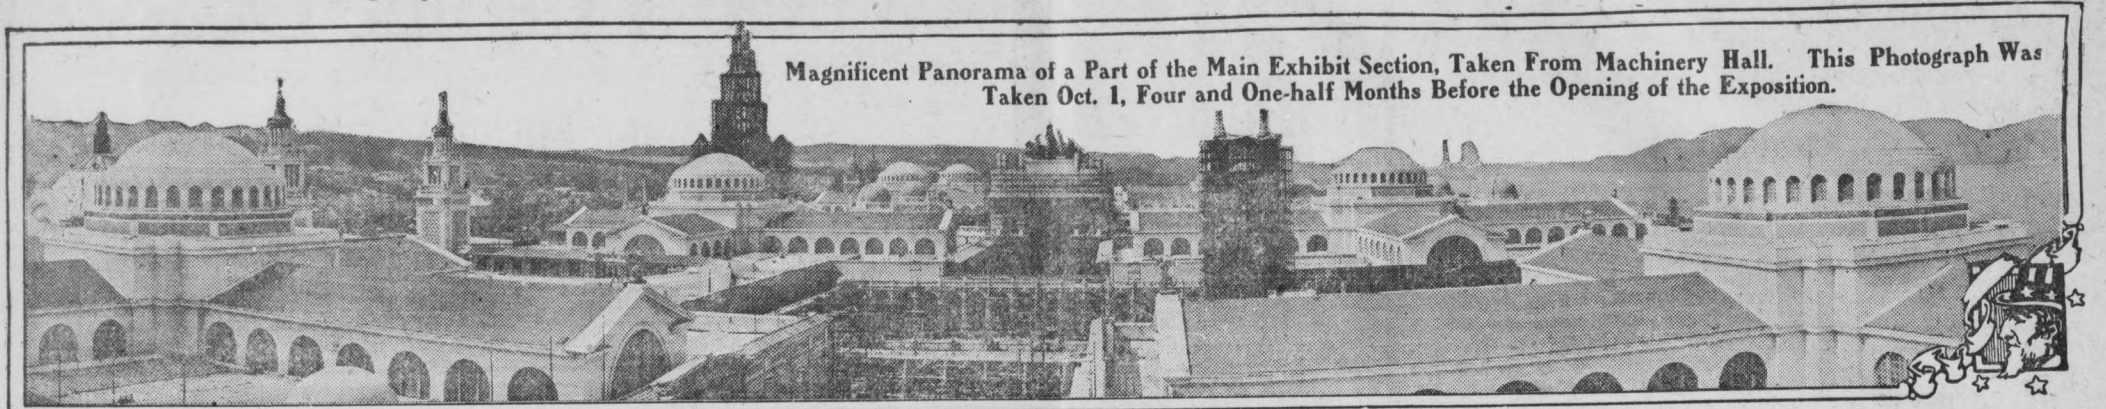

In the last few years Moscow has been increasing in population more rapidly than at any time in a century, and if the present rate be continued, it will have more than 2,000,000 residents in 1920.

With English engineers doing the work, the Russian city of Baku will obtain a new water supply from mountains 120 miles distant.

DIGNITY AND BEAUTY CHARACTERIZE VAST EXHIBIT PALACES

Mighty Panama-Pacific International Exposition Will Open on Time In Every Detail.

Magnificent Panorama of a Part of the Main Exhibit Section, Taken From Machinery Hall. This Photograph Was Taken Oct. 1, Four and One-half Months Before the Opening of the Exposition.

WHEN the war broke out in Europe millions of people throughout the world wondered what effect it would have upon the great Exposition at San Francisco. Europe it self supplied the answer. None of the forty participating nations withdrew from the Exposition. In the latter part of September thousands of tons of exhibits had begun to reach San Francisco both by sea and by rail and were rapidly installed in the vast exhibit palaces. A single shipment from Japan in November consisted of 1,100 tons of priceless displays.

This photograph, taken from the roof of the giant Palace of Machinery, shows that the vast main exhibit section was finished months before the opening of the Exposition on Feb. 20,

1915. On the extreme left is the Palace of Varied Industries, next the Palace of Manufactures, the Tower of Jewels, the Palace of Liberal Arts and the Palace of Education. In the center is the giant triumphal Arch of the Rising Sun; next to the right comes the unfinished Tower of Ages, next the dome of the Palace of Transportation, and on the right is the Palace of Mines.

SURELY WAS HOT STUFF

An old Scotch worthy was in the habit of calling each evening at the village inn for a "drop o' the best." When he had gone one night the landlord discovered, to his horror, that he had supplied Donald out of the bottle of sulphuric acid which he had been using for cleaning the taps. Every moment he expected to hear of Donald's death, and the relief was great when the old worthy arrived next evening. "Donald, what did you think o' the whiskey ye got last night?" "It was a fine dram, a guid warmin' dram, but it had aye fau't—every time I coughed it set fire to ma whiskers."—Watsonville Register.

ABORIGINAL AMERICANS AND THEIR ARTS

That long before the Spanish conquest there existed in America artists of undoubted merit, archeological investigators affirm in positive terms. The Incas of Peru and Bolivia have left to posterity concrete evidence of their artistic predilections. Their structures were monuments to architectural skill, for the relics contain enough of the former grandeur to convince the present generation that those builders and decorators of thousands of years ago knew well how to do their work. The art of the Aztecs took a form somewhat different from that which obtained among the aborigines of the west coast. On the whole the artistic scheme seemed identical, and yet it is thought that in all probability neither race knew of the existence of the other.

Mosaic work, conspicuous in prehistoric America, was developed by the Aztecs to an astonishing degree of excellence. This art of incrusting the surface with bits of colored stone, shell or the like, giving brilliant effects of coloring, and embracing pleasing and symbolic designs, has recently occupied eminent ethnologists, who find in well preserved relics a message of the long ago that seems interpretable in the present age. The mosaic mask in the British museum is considered as pertaining to the period of Quetzalcoatl. It is even believed that this turquoise-encrusted mask is the identical one that Cortez received from Montezuma when the ruler of the Aztecs sent ambassadors to the Spanish camp bearing rich gifts to the invading host.

The ancient Mexicans no doubt were keenly appreciative of these works of art, for unbounded patience must have been requisite on the part of the artisan to cut out, polish and fit by means of the crude tools of the stone age, the little tablets of quartz, agate, obsidian, pyrites, garnet, turquoise, malachite, jadeite, beryl, carnelian, jet and gold, as well as to affix the brilliant sea shells.

Only twenty-four examples of these mosaic masks of the highest order of workmanship are known, and nearly all of these are preserved in European museums. It is considered a fortunate circumstance that the relics—most of which were secured in the early days of the Spanish conquest—fell into the hands of appreciative people.—Christian Science Monitor.
