CONGRESS. Wednesday, Dec. 10. In the Senate, Mr. Silsbee's resolution for an inquiry into the expediency of abolishing the existing difference of two and a half per cent. between the luties on imported goods and the drawbacks allowed, &c., was agreed to. The bill for graduating the price of public lands, making provisions for actual settlers, &c. was read a second time and referred. Mr. Ryland was elected Chapfain of the Senate for this session. The several subjects of the President's' Message were referred to their appropriate Committees.
