

29 July 2013: Spain, Greece – Forest Fires

0 5 10 20
Km

Size of Burnt Area: 1 730 ha
As of 28 July, EFFIS

SPAIN, Mallorca

- Fire in Andratx region, started on 26 July, was still active on 29 July morning, danger level 2.
- 668 people evacuated in Estellencs
- ERC is in contact the Spanish Civil protection as well as with the neighboring countries

GREECE, Rhodes Island

- A fire started on 27 July in S Rhodes.
- On 27 July, state of emergency for municipal units of Southern Rhodes and Lindos
- As of 29 July, aerial means still deployed

Size of Burnt Area: 3 585 ha
As of 28 July, EFFIS

0 5 10 20
Km

SITUATION

SPAIN, Mallorca

- A forest fire has been burning in the island of Mallorca since 26 July, in the region of Andraitx. On 29 July morning, it was still active, classified as Danger Level 2 (out of 3). As of 28 July, it had burnt an area of 1 730 ha (EFFIS).
- 668 people evacuated in the village of Estellencs (local Media).
- The ERC has been in contact with the Spanish Civil protection as well as with the neighboring countries, in order to ensure an effective response in case the European Civil Protection Mechanism is activated.
- No request for international assistance, as of 29 July morning.
- Very High fire risk forecast for 30 July for western Mallorca (EFFIS).

Sources: EFFIS, Civil Protection, Local Media

GREECE, Rhodes Island

- A fire broke out on 27 July in the forest in the area of Istria, southern Rhodes Island. As of 28 July, it had burnt an area of 3 585 ha (EFFIS).
- On 27 July the municipal units of Southern Rhodes and Lindos declared a state of emergency.
- As of 29 July aerial means were still deployed in the extinguishing effort.
- High/Very high fire risk forecast for S Rhodes area for 30 July (EFFIS)

Sources: EFFIS, EFFIS FireNews, Hellenic Fire Brigade, Local Media (1,2)

Legend

EFFIS Burnt Area (as of 28 July)

