VALPARAISO, (Chili) Der. 29th, 1881. Gentlemen- By the arrival here, day before yester-day, of the brig Lei de Chile, in two days from Juan Fernandez, information was received of a successful insurrection having taken place there on the 20th or 21st instant, and of the seizure of the American brig Anawan, capt. Palmer, by the insurgents.
It is to Juan Fernandez that the Chilian government transports its convicts, of whom, there are supposed now to be about 200 on the Island. A garrison is kept up there by the Government, which, at the moment of the insurrection, is said to have been compused of about 100 soldiers. The informant reports, that a ser-grant of the troops betrayed the fortress, into the possession of the convicts, who made themselves mesters of the island without bloodshed. The Annayan, having at that critical juncture, put in for water, is reported have been seized by the insurgenta. On receipt of the information at this place, a detachment of troops was forthwith embarked for the scene ment of troops was forthwith entuarized for the scene of insurrection, on board Chillian brig Colossle, which seiled the same evening; and at the request of Mr. Bispham, acting American Consul, capt.
