New Orleans, and this law would scatter them all over the city.

Mr. Monday, wished that the voters, who he ensaidered the highest authority, to decide for er sgainst heenoes. He thought that in making it a State law it would defeat the objects of the bill. On metion it was laid over and ordered to be printed.

House.—Nothing of importance was doho, except to adopt the bill abolishing the Board of Public Works, and the bill to provide for revising the statutes of the State.
