

NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING
EXCEPT SUNDAY AND HOLIDAYS
TERMS: PER ANNUM $5.00
SINGLE COPIES 10 CENTS

The New Orleans Bee

OFFICE 73 CHARLES STREET.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1872.

YEAR—Vol. XLV.—Whole—15,595.

SHIPPING
To New York
To Philadelphia
To St. Louis

OFFICE 73 CHARLES STREET.

Historical Lectures.—It is announced that a series of lectures will be delivered in this city during the next few months by eminent lecturers in the Lyceum Hall, in the municipal building, Lafayette Square, by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, his subject being "The History of the Republic," and other patriotic subjects. The lectures will be held on Wednesdays, at 7 o'clock, and will be followed by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, his subject being "The History of the Republic," and other patriotic subjects. The lectures will be held on Wednesdays, at 7 o'clock, and will be followed by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, his subject being "The History of the Republic," and other patriotic subjects.

THE REGISTRATION BILL.

The bill which passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, and which is now before the Senate, is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters.

The bill which passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, and which is now before the Senate, is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. It is a bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters.

CONCERT BY THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

This evening the professors and students of the Conservatory of Music will give their second grand vocal and instrumental concert, under the direction of the Conservatory. The entertainment takes place at Odd Fellows' Hall.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Thursday, February 15, 1872.
REPORT OF COMMITTEES.
Railroads.—Without action on the bill to incorporate the Union, Farmers' and Merchants' Railroad, and the New Orleans and Lake Borgne Railroad Company.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

February 14, 1872.
The House met at 10 o'clock, and the prayer was read by the Chaplain. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters.

The House met at 10 o'clock, and the prayer was read by the Chaplain. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill to amend the laws relating to the registration of voters.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

A duel was fought over the Lake, near Bay St. Louis, between two young men, one of whom was a member of the Legislature. The duel was fought over the Lake, near Bay St. Louis, between two young men, one of whom was a member of the Legislature.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

MONETARY AND FINANCIAL.

Thursday, February 14, 1872.
The money market was quiet and steady. The gold market was also quiet and steady. The silver market was also quiet and steady.

COMMERCIAL.

Thursday, February 14, 1872.
The market for cotton was quiet and steady. The market for sugar was also quiet and steady. The market for rice was also quiet and steady.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

AMUSEMENTS.

Various Shows
Theater
Circus

EDWIN ADAMS.

Advertisement for Edwin Adams, a prominent citizen of New Orleans.

COMMERCIAL.

Advertisement for various commercial services and products.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

AMUSEMENTS.

Various Shows
Theater
Circus

EDWIN ADAMS.

Advertisement for Edwin Adams, a prominent citizen of New Orleans.

COMMERCIAL.

Advertisement for various commercial services and products.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.

NOTICES OF SENATE.

By Mr. T. J. McLaughlin.—Amending and repealing certain sections of an act to create an independent board of public health, and to provide for the regulation of the same.