FINE * PHOTOGRAPHY * PORTRAITURE

Mr. J. H. LAMSON announces to his former friends and patrons that he has repurchased his old Photo Studio, the well-known "LAMSON STUDIO," of

Portland, Maine, Opposite Falmouth Hotel,

after an absence of some years, during which Mr. Lamson has visited many of the leading cities of our country, he feels better prepared than ever to hold and greatly increase his acknowledged reputation as the leading artist of this State and one of the foremost of New England. All are most cordially invited to visit the studio and inspect the many new styles now introduced in Portland for the first time.

—== PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHERS ==—

Exhibit by Members of Portland Camera Club.

UNION

Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Portland, Maine.

Incorporated 1848.

JOHN E. DeWITT, President.

THIS old established Company issues policies of the most liberal character which are framed so as to provide for every contingency that is likely to arise.

The Non-Forfeiting Free Tontine policies provide not only insurance protection, but they present opportunities for investment—owing to the method of distributing the surplus—which make them a very desirable form of policy.

The Union Mutual has paid to its Policy-holders and their heirs Twenty-six Millions of Dollars.

It is the only Company whose policies are or can be subject to the Maine Non-Forfeiture Law; send for list of claims paid thereunder and explanatory pamphlets.
