Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses,

850 & 852 Lexington Ave., N. Y.

A STATEMENT OF THE WORK ACCOMPLISHED SINCE ITS ORGANIZATION IN MAY, 1881.

The first year of this Society is now completed, and its Managers feel that although no regular report can be issued until after the general meeting which will take place in January, 1883, a brief sketch of the work accomplished may be interesting to those who contribute to its support. During the past year twenty pupils were received in the school, thirteen of whom have attained a sufficient degree of proficiency to enable them to take the positions of Head nurses in the Hospital, or to undertake the care of patients in private families. The training has been in charge of the Superintendent of the School, under the supervision of a Committee on Instruction, composed jointly of two Managers of the Training School and two members of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital. A regular course of lectures has been given by a number of prominent physicians and surgeons.

The practical training has been obtained in the wards of Mount Sinai Hospital by the courtesy of the Directors, who have repeatedly expressed themselves as more than satisfied with the rapid progress made by the School and the thorough manner in which its work has been achieved during its short term of existence. Both the House and Visiting Staff of the Medical Board have also testified their approval of the improvement in the care of the patients and in the condition of the wards. A few of the nurses have been sent out to private cases and have brought back with them high testimonials of efficiency and good conduct.

In the admission of pupils no distinction is made in regard to creed, but as the members and patrons of this School are exclusively from the Jewish community, we deem it of interest to them to know that there are at present six Jewesses in the School, which is about one-third of the total number of pupils. The original aim of the Society was to open a new field of labor to young women of Hebrew faith, and it is hoped that as the advantages of this profession become more widely known, the number of Jewish pupils will be considerably increased. It may be well to state here that another object of the Society is to give gratuitous nursing to the poor, but the Managers regret that this is still beyond its means, as the expenses for the maintenance of the School, salaries of nurses, &c., greatly exceed the receipts from all sources. A list is appended of those who originally subscribed to establish the School, also a list of present Life Members, Patrons and Members. It is hoped that in view of the worthy claims of this Institution, every effort will be made by the present subscribers to interest their friends in its behalf.

Address of the President.

To the Patrons and Members of "Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses."

In presenting the first report of this Society, I must in simple justice state that the plan of establishing this School originated with the late Mrs. Alma Hendricks, who recognized in the founding of an institution of this character a dual advantage: namely, to provide competent nurses for the sick and suffering, and to furnish employment to a class of conscientious and laborious women aspiring to some higher vocation than had heretofore been placed within their reach. Early in the winter of 1879 she had taken the preliminary steps towards the furtherance of this object, but her untimely death prevented the consummation of her plan. At the expiration of a year, our worthy Vice-President, Mrs. H. Bettman, who was aware of the project so deeply cherished by Mrs. Hendricks, asked me to co-operate with her in endeavoring to open the School as a lasting tribute to the memory of one whose life was spent in deeds of active charity.

The scheme having informally received the approval of the officers of Mount Sinai Hospital, subscriptions were at once solicited, the result of which appears in the report of our Finance Committee.

A meeting to organize was held at Mount Sinai Hospital on March 17th, 1881, at which time the Officers and Directresses were nominated and appointed, and the Society was duly incorporated on March 26th of the same year. The house 852 Lexington Avenue was rented and furnished; the services of a graduate of Bellevue Training School were secured to act as Superintendent, and the School was formally opened on the 11th of May with eight probationers, who were placed in the Hospital wards under the supervision of four graduate nurses employed to instruct them. Measures were next taken to obtain patrons and members for the permanent support of the Society, and, although the public has generously responded to our appeals, there is yet an inadequate number to place the Society upon a sound financial basis. During the past year, the resignations of our valued Treasurer, Mrs. L. M. Hornthal, as well as those of our faithful Directresses, Mrs. M. H. Moses and Miss Ella Salomon, have been received and reluctantly accepted. It having been found that four Directresses were insufficient to conduct the business of the Society properly, the number was increased to nine, and the Constitution and By-Laws were amended accordingly on January 12th, 1882. The reports of our several committees will show the work of the Society since its organization, and thanks are due to them for the efficient manner in which they have performed the various duties assigned to them.

From the report of our Superintendent, I find that the total number of applications for admission to the school have been,

<hr/>
Of which were accepted,	43
Discharged as probationers,	13
Dismissed when pupils,	4
	<hr/> 17
	<hr/>
Now remaining in School,	26

of which number 4 are probationers and 22 are pupils.

While the school is designed to be unsectarian in the reception of pupils, constant efforts have been made through every source known to the Managers to impress upon eligible Jewesses the advantages offered by the School.

Our Superintendent reports that of the eight original probationers, four were Jewesses; since then,

Total number of Jewesses applied,	30
<hr/>
Of which were accepted,	17
Discharged during month of probation,	6
Dismissed when pupils,	2
	<hr/>
Making a total of,	8

Leaving number remaining in School, 9

Of this number 2 are probationers and 7 are pupils.

Since last spring we have been able to furnish a few nurses to private families. As this must ever be one of the principal sources of revenue to the Society, the Managers regret that they have not been able to meet entirely the great demand which has been made upon the School. Out of ninety-one applications from private families we have supplied nurses in fifty-one cases. A great object at which this Society aims is to send nurses gratuitously to the poor, and the Managers depreeate the fact that the condition of the finances has not permitted them to respond to more than one case during the past year.

The thanks of this Society are due to the officers and Directors of Mount Sinai Hospital for opening its wards for the education of our nurses, and for their cordial co-operation in our work. To those who generously subscribed to start this Society, we express our deepest gratitude. We also thank Mr. L. M. Hornthal for his energetic participation in the organization of this Society, and for his successful efforts to procure a suitable home for our nurses. To Messrs. Lauterbaeh and Spingarn we tender our grateful thanks for their voluntary services in our behalf. To Dr. H. N. Heineman and Dr. J. Rudiseh, for the interest they have evineed and for the time they have devoted to the welfare of the School, we offer our sincere æknowledgments. We beg to express our grateful recognition of the efforts made by Mr. Jacob H. Schiff to enlist public sympathy in behalf of the Society, and we are also indebted to the gentlemen who kindly co-operated with him. We also desire to testify to our appreeiation of the work of Dr. Rosa Welt, our Professor of Anatomy and Physiology. Our Superintendent, Miss K. J. Rich, has performed her arduous duties in a most conscientious manner, and deserves our warmest praise. Our Matron, Miss Davis, has only recently entered upon her duties, and has thus far discharged them satisfactorily. We note with pleasure the uniform courtesy of the Superintendent and Matron of Mount Sinai Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Hadel. Through the benevolence of Mr. D. Wallerstein, we have received from his estate a legacy of $500. We are much indebted to the Purim Association for our share in the proceeds of their ball, and to the "Children's Fair," held at the residence of Mrs. S. Bachraeh, for the amount received through her. We offer our thanks to all our friends for their kind donations during the past year; to the Ladies' Auxiliary Society for their sisterly co-operation; to the ministers of our synagogues for their active sympathy in our work, and to the Jewish and secular press for their kind favors.

Like all Societies which introduce a new order of things, this one has many prejudices to overcome ; but we hope that, as its sphere of usefulness becomes enlarged and more widely known, we shall win the approbation and support of the public.

SARAH H. FLORANCE,
President.

Report of Executive Committee.

NEW YORK, December 31st, 1882.

*To the President and Board of Managers of Mount Sinai
Training School for Nurses.*

In presenting our report, we append a detailed statement of the expenditures from the inauguration of the School to December 31st, 1881, and also for the past fiscal year ending December 31st, 1882.

We have held sixty-six meetings during the last nineteen months, at which economy in the management of the School has been carefully studied, and all routine business attended to, such as the consideration and disposition of requisitions, and the auditing and payment of bills, and also a supervision exercised over the entire management of the Home.

THE HOME.

In May, 1881, we leased the premises 852 Lexington avenue, at an annual rental of $1,200, and on the 11th of that month the home was opened with fifteen inmates. In March, 1882, the number of inmates of the home having increased to twenty-five, which was more than could be healthfully accommodated in one house, your Committee engaged a flat at $20 per month adjacent to the Home, which was occupied on April 1st, 1882. In the mean while the house No. 850 Lexington avenue, adjoining the Home, became vacant and was offered for rent, and with the approval of the Board of Managers, it was taken at a rental of $1,300 per annum from May 1st, on which day the flat was vacated. For plumbers', carpenters' work, etc., in both houses, $117.70 have been expended to date.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

The amount appearing in the appended statement of expenditures chargeable to house furnishing for the year 1881, includes the furnishing of the house 852 Lexington avenue, and subsequent additional purchases. For the year 1882 it includes the furnishing of the flat and the partial furnishing of No 850 Lexington avenue. For this house it was not necessary to duplicate all the house-furnishing articles purchased for No. 852.

COST OF FOOD.

Notwithstanding the increased cost of household provisions, we are enabled to make a very satisfactory report for the past fiscal year.

The cost of food for 1882 has been as follows:

Meat,	$862 07
Groceries,	587 42
Provisions,	668 31
Milk,	244 32
Fish,	101 93
Ice, :	64 05

Total cost of food for the year,	$2,528 10
--	-------------------

Average number of inmates in the Home per diem, 25
 $25 \times 365 = 9125$ } making a cost of $.27\frac{7}{10}\%$ cts. per capita per day.
 $$2,528.10 : 9125$ }

Fuel is not included in cost of food, although it enters into the cooking thereof, as the greater quantity of it is used for heating and laundry purposes.

SUPERINTENDENT.

As a part of her duties, the Superintendent has until recently efficiently performed the duties of Matron, and should receive our thanks.

MATRON.

The School having become so large an institution, it was impossible for the Superintendent to undertake and properly conduct the management of the Home as well as the training of the nurses; a Matron was therefore engaged to undertake the former duty.

SERVANTS.

When the School was opened, two servants and a helper were engaged to do the work of the one house, containing fifteen inmates; now, with two houses and twenty-eight inmates, we are obliged to employ four servants and a helper.

ALLOWANCE TO NURSES.

The allowance to nurses is fixed, according to the rules of the School, at $9 per month for the first year and $15 per month for the second year for each nurse. The disbursements for this purpose depend on the number of pupils in the School.

SALARIES.

Fixed yearly and monthly salaries are paid to the Superintendent and Matron, and a fixed yearly salary is also paid to a Professor for lectures on Anatomy and Physiology, but this latter item has been charged to "Instruction Account," and not included in that of Salaries.

NURSES' UNIFORM.

Material for the School uniform is purchased in quantity at wholesale rates, and is furnished to the nurses at the cost price as they require it.

IN CONCLUSION,

we trust that this Report will meet with the approbation of our Board and of those who generously support the Society. We are aware that this is not an inexpensive work, but it is not to be regarded entirely in the light of a charity, in the ordinary acceptation of that term, but it is a cause that appeals to the philanthropist as a means of gradually reducing the dependent class by practical measures. We hope that the public will recognize this element of practical philanthropy in our work.

SARAH SAMSON,
Treasurer.

Report of Finance Committee.

NEW YORK, December 31st, 1882.

Training School for Nurses.*

As appears by the statement of the Treasurer, our total receipts since the organization of the Society to date have been, $21,367 34
And our total disbursements, 17,674 25

Leaving a balance in hands of Treasurer, $4,293 09

Our income for the seven months ending December 31st, 1881, was, $11,045 89
And our disbursements were, 6,342 44

Leaving a balance for that year, of $4,703 45

Our income for the fiscal year ending December 31st, 1882, has been, $10,321 45
And our disbursements have been, 10,731 81

Making an apparent deficit for that year of, $410 36

This apparent deficiency was of course provided for by the unexpended balance for the year 1881; but if we take only our actual income from Patrons and Members and from the services of our nurses in the Hospital and in private families, and our total expenditures, exclusive of House Furnishing, we find a deficit for the year, as follows :

Expenditures in 1882, less House Furnishing,	$9,931 32
Receipts from Patrons and Members,	$2,239 00
“ for services of nurses in Hos- pital,	2,058 20
“ “ services of nurses in private families,	1,471 90
	<hr/>
Total income, 1882,	$5,769 10
Deficit for the year,	$4,162 22

This statement is made in this form in order to prove that our receipts during the past year have not been adequate for the support of the institution, and unless we can succeed to bring our regular income up to an amount which will more nearly cover our necessary expenditures, it is evident that the Institution cannot continue. With the sincerest desire on the part of the Managers to so improve the efficiency of the School that it shall become a lasting benefit to the public, unless the latter give it a more generous support, it is only a question of time when the deficiency will become so great as to force a liquidation of the Society. It is therefore earnestly hoped that our friends will be animated to renewed efforts to place the Society upon a more satisfactory financial basis by procuring an increased number of Patrons and Members.

For our income we depend,

1. Upon the annual dues of Patrons and Members.
2. For the services of our nurses in the Hospital.
3. For the services of our nurses in private families.
4. Donations.

PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

Our receipts from this source have been :

For 1881,	$1,756 00
For 1882,	2,239 00
	<hr/>
Increase in 1882,	$483 00

We have received $1,100 from dues of life members.

We have at present on roll 302 Patrons and 231 Members.

These dues will be collected during the coming year.

FOR THE SERVICES OF NURSES IN THE HOSPITAL.

We have received from Mount Sinai Hospital :

For seven months in 1881,	$1,075 00
For the year 1882,	2,058 20

AND FROM PRIVATE FAMILIES.

We have received for the services of nurses during the past eight months, $1,471 90

RECEPTION.

At the suggestion of our Committee, and with the co-operation of the Directors of Mount Sinai Hospital, a reception was held at the "Home" last Thanksgiving Day, in order that the public might witness the practical workings of our School. Our visitors were numerous, and they testified to their appreciation of our work by generous to our Society through the "Book of Life," for which they should receive our sincere thanks.

Appended to this report will be found Schedules as follows :

I. A list of those who subscribed to start the School.

II. Legacies.

III. Donations through "Book of Life."

IV. Donations other than the above.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct.

Report of the Committee on Instruction,
FOR THE YEARS 1881 AND 1882.

Training School for Nurses.*

The Committee on Instruction presents this, its report for the years 1881 and 1882 :

From the organization of the Society down to the present time, the nurses received their practical instruction while in actual attendance in the female wards of Mount Sinai Hospital, from the attending physicians and surgeons and from our Superintendent and head nurses, to all of whom we tender our thanks for the interest manifested by them to our nurses.

Their theoretical instruction up to November, 1881, consisted of a series of lectures on anatomy kindly volunteered by Dr. Sarah Post.

A committee was now formed of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital, consisting of Dr. Willard Parker, Dr. J. Rudisch, and Dr. H. N. Heineman, who devised, supervised, and carried out the system of instruction which has prevailed in this Institution since November 1st, 1881.

From this time up to date, the nurses have received regular semi-weekly instruction by Dr. Rosa Welt :

In outlines of anatomy.

In physiology of digestion, circulation, and respiration.

In hygiene of infants and adults in health and disease.

Each class also received anatomical demonstrations on the cadaver.

Dr. Welt's services were rendered gratuitously up to January, 1882, when your committee found that the duties assumed by her called for too great a sacrifice of time to be received without making some compensation; accordingly, a remuneration was agreed to be paid her. We recognize herewith the thoroughness of the tuition given by Dr. Welt.

In addition to the above instruction, lectures were given at regular intervals during the sessions of 1881 and 1882, as follows :

Six lectures on Gynæcology and Obstetrics, by Dr. Paul F. Mundé.

Six lectures on Bandaging and General Surgical Dressings, by Dr. J. A. Wyeth.

One on Diseases of the Eye and Ear, by Dr. E. Gruening.

Seven lectures on Surgical Emergencies, by Dr. D. M. Stimson.

Four on Surgical Emergencies, by Dr. Arpad G. Gerster.

Two upon Diseases of the Throat and Nares, by Dr. Richard C. Brandeis, and Seven on Medical Emergencies, by Dr. H. N. Heineman.

We take this occasion to express our sincere thanks to these physicians, who have so generously volunteered and so ably rendered these inestimable services at a great sacrifice of their valuable time.

In order to afford an opportunity to our nurses for obtaining practical experience in obstetrical cases and the care of infants, arrangements were perfected with the Ladies' Lying-In Relief Society, the Nursery and Child's Hospital, and the New York Infant Asylum.

By direction of the first-named Society, Mrs. Dr. Holland has enabled twenty of the nurses to attend no less than thirteen cases of accouchement among the Jewish poor. For the great benefit thus afforded we wish to express our acknowledgments to Mrs. A. N. Cohen, President of the Ladies' Lying-In Relief Society, to its Board of Managers, and to Mrs. Dr. Holland.

Through the kindness of Dr. George G. Wheelock, the Secretary of the Medical Board of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, Directress Mrs. A. Sullivan, and the Board of Management, opportunity was again given our nurses for obstetrical experience; three nurses availed themselves of this privilege for the period of one month each. We are indebted to Mrs. A. S. Sullivan, to Dr. C. Murray, Dr. H. N. Henry, past and present resident physicians, for their interest, and also to Miss MeEvoy, the kind Matron of this Institution.

The New York Infant Asylum, through its Chief Medical Officer, Dr. H. D. Nicoll, and his associate, Dr. E. L. Partridge, have for a similar purpose granted to us the facilities of their hospital. It is with great pleasure that we make recognition of our appreciation of a more than usual interest in our nurses taken by Dr. Nicoll. Six nurses have been sent to this institution, inclusive of one there at present, at an average period of about six weeks each.

To our Superintendent, Miss Rieh, we wish to acknowledge our indebtedness for her able instruction in practical nursing and the preparation of food for the sick.

Very satisfactory examinations were conducted by the Medical Board on April 28th, 1882, and January 10th, 1883. At the latter examination a marked improvement was noticeable in the scholarship of the pupils.

The examination for graduation will take place in May, 1883, when, in all probability, thirteen nurses will graduate.

After the first examination at the end of the first year, four nurses were selected who were considered competent to fill the position of head nurses at Mount Sinai Hospital. These positions had previously been held by graduates from other training schools.

Dr. Willard Parker, though unable to meet with us, maintains a constant interest in the welfare of the School, an interest shared equally by the other members of the Medical Committee, and we have assurances that the entire Medical Board of the Hospital feel deeply interested in our success.

Those competent to judge have informed us that, with the exception of opportunities for observing much acute surgery, our nurses have both practical and theoretical facilities for instruction which are not surpassed, and we may safely say are unequalled by any similar institution.

Respectfully submitted,

B. LOEB, Chairman.

WILLARD PARKER, M.D.

H. N. HEINEMAN, M.D.

J. RUDISCH, M.D.

A. LAUTERBACH, Secretary.

Committee on Instruction.

Rules for the Admission of Pupils.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, 850 and 852 Lexington avenue, New York, upon whose approval they will be received into the School for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty to thirty-five years. The applicants should send, with answers to the paper of questions, a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the School, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The Superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the Committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation, the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the School, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses, after signing an agreement to remain two years, and to obey the rules of the School and Hospital. They will reside in the Home, and serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the Superintendent, either to act as nurses in the Hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay for the first year is $9.00 a month, for the second year $15.00 a month. This sum is allowed for the dress, textbooks, and other personal expenses of the nurse, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required, after the month of probation, when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution, which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., with an hour off for dinner, and an additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to every alternate Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the School three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes:

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores, and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups, and leeches.
2. The administration of enemata and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed-sores, and managing positions.
6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.
7. The preparing, cooking, and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick-rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected, to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delirium or stupor; breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines, and to learn the managements of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the Superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations, and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the School, they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the examining Board and by a committee of the Board of Managers.

Applicants are required to fill out in their own handwriting, and send to Superintendent of Training School, 850 and 852 Lexington avenue New York, answers to the following questions :

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS:

Rules for the Home.

RULE 1. The hour for rising is 6 A.M. Before leaving the Home for the Hospital, each nurse must make her bed, dust and arrange her room and closet, leaving them in good order, so that they may be ready for inspection by visitors at any time during the day.

The hour for closing the Home is 10 P.M., at which time the lights will be extinguished in the parlor and halls. All inmates of the Home are expected to be within doors at that hour, unless they have special permission to be absent. The lights must be put out in the nurses' rooms at 10:30 P.M. The gas must be turned down when a nurse leaves the room, even for the shortest time.

RULE 2. The hours for meals are: Breakfast from 7:15 to 7:45; first dinner, 12:30; second dinner, 1:30; first supper, 7; second supper, 8:10. Nurses must not linger in the dining-room after meals. No food is provided for the nurses out of the appointed time, except when ordered by the Superintendent. Nurses are not to go into the kitchen, nor give orders to the cook—all such matters to be referred to the Superintendent. No visitors are to be invited to meals, or to spend the night in the Home. The parlor is for the reception of visitors, but a nurse may invite ladies to her room if agreeable to her roommate.

RULE 3. Conditions upon which the nurses can have the privileges of the laundry: Eighteen pieces, well-marked, and one dress are allowed each person per week. No laces, muslins, or white muslin skirts will be received. Each must be provided with a clothes-bag, marked, in which clothes are to be put and placed by the door in the hall Monday morning, or late Sunday evening, if convenient. A book with list of clothes, dated, must be sent in every week, with name on the outside of book.

On Thursdays, the dresses and skirts must be taken, but no clothes from the boxes till Saturday, when all must verify their lists before taking their clothes away.

Any one disregarding these regulations will forfeit the privilege of having clothes laundried in the Home.

RULE 4. The nurses are under the authority of the Superintendent in the Home as well as in the Hospital. When taken off duty on account of sickness, they must not leave the Home, nor return to their hospital duties without the direction of the Superintendent; neither can they at any time go to the Hospital without permission, except at the regular hours. Nurses are not permitted to receive calls in the wards of the Hospital from their friends or other nurses.

RULE 5. A physician will be selected by the Superintendent to attend the nurses in sickness. They will not be allowed to consult any other medical man without permission from the Superintendent, nor to obtain medicine from the Hospital drug store without the order of the Home doctor or that of the Superintendent.

RULE 6. The letter-box will be opened daily by the Superintendent.

Punctuality, personal neatness, general order, a gentle voice and manner, and a patient temper, are essentials in a good nurse. Let the nurse cultivate these qualities, together with a loving spirit, and remember that this is the world of work, the next is the world of recompense.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

The undersigned, citizens of the State of New York and of the United States of America, all being of full age, desiring to form a charitable society under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed in the year 1848, entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific, and Missionary Societies," and the Acts amendatory thereof, do make and file this certificate.

Dated March 26, 1881.

Filed and recorded March 26th, 1881.

Constitution and By-Laws of the Society,

AS AMENDED JANUARY 12th, 1882.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training, and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life members, patrons, and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year; the first meeting to be held on the second Thursday of January, 1883, until which time the present officers shall retain their offices.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a Board of thirteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and nine Directresses, three of whom to be elected at the biennial general meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall likewise be an Advisory Board of Trustees, consisting of the President of the Mount Sinai Hospital and four of the Directors of said hospital, annually designated and appointed by him; the President of the medical staff of said hospital, and two members of said medical staff annually designated and appointed by him; but said Advisory Board shall not be entitled to vote at the meetings of this Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee, invest all surplus funds; and shall make written monthly reports to the Board of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full charge and control of all matters appertaining to the Society, and shall hold a meeting on the second Thursday of each month. The Board may fill vacancies in its own body until the next ensuing election, when a Directress (or Directresses) shall be elected for the unexpired term (or terms). At the next meeting of the Board of Directors after the passage of this amendment, the Directresses shall decide by lot which three of their number shall serve until the biennial election in January, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, which three shall serve until January, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and which three shall serve until January, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and at each biennial election thereafter, commencing in January, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, three Directors shall be elected for a term of six years. A majority of the officers and Directors together shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. The absence of any Directress from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which she may be a member for a consecutive period of three months without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XV.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10 and of members $3 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

These Rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present, provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

Address of the President.

To the Patrons and Members of Mt. Sinai Training School for Nurses :

Again devolves upon me the pleasant duty of presenting to you a retrospective sketch of the work of this Society for the preceding two years. In my last address, I expressed the hope that when the sphere of usefulness of this Society became enlarged and more widely known, it would win the support and approbation of the public. While exceedingly grateful for the support which has been accorded it, I cannot say that the hope then expressed has been fully realized. The work has steadily increased, necessarily involving a greater annual expenditure, and while the number of our patrons and members has been augmented since then, the larger income thereby assured has not been commensurate with the increased expenses.

Since our last report, a new ward has been opened in Mt. Sinai Hospital for the treatment of Ophthalmic and Aural diseases, and this ward was placed at once under the care of this Institution. In May last, the Directors of the Hospital earnestly requested that we should accept the charge of two Medical male wards. After consultation with our Advisory Board, this request was acceded to, and on June 1st the nursing in these two wards was placed under our supervision and control. By the opening of these additional wards to our School, our junior pupils have the benefit of further practical training, while the Hospital has the advantage of the disciplinary supervision of our Superintendent, together with the co-operation of proficient head and senior nurses in each ward. There are now thirty-one pupils in the School, twenty-five of whom are constantly employed in the wards of the Hospital, the others either receiving some special training elsewhere, partaking of their well-earned vacation, or nursing in private families. In order to respond more readily to the demand for nurses by private families, the number of our nurses must be considerably increased. Two classes—one of thirteen and one of seven—have already graduated, and it is expected that thirteen pupils will receive their diplomas next May, making in all thirty-three graduates since the organization of the School in May, 1881.

Our efforts to enlist the services of Jewesses in this ennobling profession have been unrelaxed, and that more do not respond is probably attributable to an ill-advised reluctance to relinquish less remunerative vocations, but in which they imagine, through greater freedom, the destiny of woman may be earlier fulfilled.

Our Superintendent is kindly giving a course of lectures on "Hygiene" to the older pupils of the Louis Down-Town Sabbath School, and it is hoped that this may evoke enthusiasm among them for the profession for which this Society is eager and ready to prepare them.

After assisting in successfully organizing our School, and after a period of nearly two years' arduous and conscientious performance of duty, our first Superintendent, Miss K. J. Rich, resigned, and we are not unmindful of how well she trod the new and rough road of our early days, which time and experience have now made more smooth. In the practice of her beloved profession to which she has returned, we wish her God-speed.

Providence has bereft us of the wise counsel of our greatly cherished friends, Siegmund Spingarn and Dr. Willard Parker. Resolutions expressive of the esteem in which we held them, and of our sorrow for their loss, were passed by our Board, and are duly recorded in the minutes.

For a more detailed account of the two years' work, I must refer you to the reports of the Superintendent and of the several Committees, which all bear testimony to the efficient manner in which my colleagues have performed the duties assigned to them. Their labors have been lightened by the executive ability of our Superintendent, Miss P. B. Washburne, whose administration has been most satisfactory in every respect, and has won for her our entire confidence.

Our matron, Miss A. List, has been most successful in furthering the economy in the management of the Home, and has justly earned the praise of our Board.

We continue to have the benefit of the valuable services of Dr. Rosa Welt-Straus as Professor of Anatomy and Physiology.

I regret to note the resignations of Mesdames May, Schiff, Haas, Nathan, Dreyfuss, and Hellinan, but we have been pleased to welcome again Mesdames Loeb and Hornthal to our meetings.

We are much indebted to Mr. Edward Lauterbach for both his legal and friendly advice, and the untiring interest he ever evinces in the welfare of this Society.

At the graduation exercises, addresses were made by Drs. A. Jacobi and Janeway, Mr. Edward Lauterbach, and Judge John R. Brady, and medals were given by Mr. Hyman Blum, Mr. L. M. Hornthal, and Mrs. H. Bettman to nurses whose conduct and proficiency merited some special recognition, and we now beg to tender our thanks to them for their kind favors.

To Drs. Stimson, Heineman, and Rudisch, of our Committee on Instruction, and to the President of Mt. Sinai Hospital and his colleagues of our Advisory Board, we offer our thanks for their advice and co-operation in our work.

With a view to reducing our annual expenditures, several conferences with a committee from the Board of Directors of Mt. Sinai Hospital have been held, and as a result of such conferences the Directors have determined to erect a suitable building on the Hospital property in which to lodge and board our nurses, and which building will be leased to us upon advantageous terms. We expect to occupy this new building on or before May 1st.

Our work may now be defined as follows: To train and instruct a worthy class of young women, and give to them a profession elevating and lucrative. To administer to and greatly alleviate the sufferings of the sick in the Hospital. To educate for the benefit of Humanity a constantly increasing corps of faithful and efficient nurses to whose watchful care physicians now frequently attribute a speedy convalescence.

And when our Society becomes self-supporting, our hope is to be able to afford help to the poor in the form of district nursing, and we trust that the day is not far distant when this, our deeply cherished aim, may be realized.

We claim this to be no work of simple charity. We only ask you to carefully peruse the records of our work, and to witness its result either in our Home for Nurses, in the Hospital, or in the midst of your family circle when the sufferings of those dear to you has called upon us to fulfil this feature of our mission. Without support from a generous and philanthropic public, this work cannot be accomplished. Let us then appeal to this public for continued support and more numerous contributors, that no one may live to hear the cry of the sufferer go forth for a skilled and faithful nurse, and that cry go forth in vain.

SARAH H. FLORANCE.

President.

Report of the Executive Committee.

NEW YORK, December 31st, 1884.

To the President and Board of Managers of Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses.

We have held forty-three meetings during the past two years, the routine work of the Committee having been so arranged as to render more meetings unnecessary. At these meetings, as in the past, the economy of the school has been carefully considered and reductions made in the expenses wherever practicable.

THE HOME.

In May, 1883, the lease of 850 and 852 Lexington Avenue expired, and was renewed for two years, at an annual rental of $1,300 for each house. In January, 1884, we made an effort to secure another dwelling at a reduced rental, and at the same time to dispose of our present lease, but we were unable to successfully carry out this project. By making some changes in the domestic arrangements, we were enabled to more advantageously lodge the inmates of the Home so as to have at our disposal three rooms, which have been sub-let to graduate nurses upon terms advantageous to them, the receipt for which (amounting to $641.19 during the past year) serve to reduce the actual rent to less than $1,000 per annum for each house. By the terms of our lease we are obliged to make repairs in the buildings, and owing to their condition such repairs have been frequently needed.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

The amounts chargeable during the past two years to house furnishing have been expended in the purchase of additional furniture for the increased number of inmates in the Home, and also for the replenishing of linens and all other household requirements.

THE COST OF FOOD.

While there was a slight increase in the cost of food in 1883 over the previous year, we have during the past year (1884) reduced it to a very low figure.

The cost for the years 1883 and 1884 were respectively as follows :

	1883.	1884.
Meat,	1,125.32	801.40
Groceries,	841.91	734.46
Provisions,	811.17	831.97
Milk,	270.88	247.65
Fish,	110.13	69.80
Ice,	30.45	51.66
Total cost of food for year,	$3,189.86	$2,736.94

Average No. of inmates in the Home per diem, 29 31
IN 1883.

$29 \times 365 = 10,585$ } making a cost of $30\frac{14}{105}\frac{26}{85}$ cts. per capita p. day.
$3,189.86 : 10,585

IN 1884.

$2,736.94 : 11,315

or for this year 33,945 persons were furnished a meal at a cost of about 8 cts. per capita.

The small proportion of expense for fuel, etc., in the preparation of food is, as heretofore, not included in the above.

SUPERINTENDENT.

The Superintendent, besides ably discharging her regular duties, has aided us in our efforts to maintain the economy of the school.

MATRON.

Our present Matron has been with us the greater portion of the past year, and the large reduction in the cost of food is greatly attributable to her prudent and thrifty management.

In this connection it is proper to state that the quantity of food is plentiful, and the quality wholesome and palatable.

We can add nothing more forcible in praise of her work.

Owing to the increased number of inmates in the Home, it is now necessary to employ six Servants, who, under the direct control and superintendence of the Matron, do their work in a satisfactory manner, as the neat and cheerful appearance of the Home will attest.

ALLOWANCE TO NURSES.

The allowance to nurses of the School is fixed by the rules, and has been paid to them accordingly.

SALARIES.

Fixed yearly and monthly salaries have been paid to the Superintendent and Matron, and a fixed yearly salary has been paid to a Professor for lectures on Anatomy and Physiology, which latter item is charged to "Instruction Account," and is not included in that of Salaries.

Since last report, three additional wards (making seven in all) have been placed in charge of the School, and for the increased work and responsibility of the Superintendent an increase of salary was deemed just, and such increase has accordingly been paid to her since last June.

NURSES' UNIFORM.

Material for the School uniform has been purchased in quantity at wholesale rates, and has been furnished to the nurses at cost price. In future the nurses will provide their own uniforms.

IN CONCLUSION.

It will be seen from the foregoing that it has been our endeavor to reduce all expenses within our control. How far we have succeeded can be seen by comparing such expenses in the past year with the same in former years, considering at the same time that the number of our inmates has steadily increased. The work, though involving much responsibility and expense, has its recompense in the effort to benefit a worthy class and advance them to an ennobling profession, and in the welfare of the sick to whom it administers a kindly and salutary aid to recovery.

(With this report we append a detailed statement of the expenditures for the years 1883 and 1884.)

Report of Finance Committee.

NEW YORK, December 31st, 1884.

Training School for Nurses.*

At the date of our last biennial report (January 1st, 1883) our Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $4,293.09. Since then, our total receipts from all sources to this date have been $22,740.62, while our total disbursements for the same period have been $25,564.62, leaving a balance now in hands of Treasurer of $1,469.09.

In 1883 our disbursements were,	$13,010 85
And our income for that year,	11,928 15

Excess of disbursements in 1884,	$1,082 70
--	------------

In 1884 our disbursements were,	$12,553 77
And our income for that year,	10,812 47

Excess of disbursements in 1884,	$1,741 30
--	------------

Cash balance, December 31st, 1882,	$4,293 09
--	------------

Excess of disbursements,
In 1883,	$1,082 70
In 1884,	1,741 30
	$2,824 00

Cash balance on hand, December 31st, 1884,	1,469 09

	$4,293 09

By comparing the total expenditures in 1883 and 1884, it will be seen that there has been a reduction of $457.08 in the past year, notwithstanding the fact that the number of inmates at the Home has increased.

If we exclude from our annual receipts the amount of donations which we have received during the past two years, for the reason that donations cannot be considered a regular source of income because of their great uncertainty, we find that our annual deficits would have been,

In 1883,	$2,625 27
In 1884,	2,800 05

Deficit for two years, $5,425 32
and which sum would have exceeded our cash balance on hand January 1st, 1883, by $1,132 21.

Therefore, our annual expenses may be stated to be about $13,000, and, excluding donations from our receipts, our annual deficits about $2,800.

For our support, we depend,

1. Upon the annual dues of Patrons and Members.
2. For the services of our nurses in the Hospital.
3. For the services of our nurses in private families.
4. Donations.

PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

Our receipts from Patrons and Members have been :

For 1883,	$3,831 00
For 1884,	3,541 00
Decrease in 1884,	$290 00

We regret to note this decrease during the past year, and we again earnestly appeal to all our friends to endeavor to increase our roll of membership, and we beg them not to relax their efforts until our income from this source is sufficient to make our receipts equal our expenditures.

We now have on our roll,

290 Patrons.

247 Members.

Bills for these dues will be sent out during the coming year.

For services of our nurses in Mount Sinai Hospital, we have received,

In 1883,	$3,578 95
Increase in 1884,	$979 39
And for services of our nurses in private families,
In 1883,	$2,422 10
In 1884,	854 71
Decrease in 1884,	$1,567 39

It will be seen that during the past year our receipts from nurses in private families have decreased, while our receipts from nurses in the Hospital have increased, though not so as to offset the decreased receipts for nurses in private families.

In June last, at the earnest request of the Hospital Directors, and by and with the advice of our Advisory Board, we began to supply additional nurses to the Hospital, two more wards being placed under our care. The necessity of promptly complying with this unexpected request from the Hospital Board, compelled the transfer of all our nurses temporarily to Hospital duty, and this fact, as well as a slight augmentation of the salaries for nurses allowed by the Hospital, explained the increase in the one account and the decrease in the other.

DONATIONS.

In 1883,	$1,542 57
In 1884,	1,058 75

As before stated, these donations have reduced our annual deficits, and have enabled us to continue our work, and we here take occasion to express our most heartfelt thanks to the generous donors whose names appear in the schedule appended to this report.

In conclusion, we commend to your notice the economy in the management of the Home, as set forth in the report of our Executive Committee. We have not regarded the rent received from rooms sub-let in the Home as a source of fixed income, but we deem it an offset to the amount of rent paid out, reducing our annual rental for both houses from $2,600 to about $1,950.

A single dwelling at a low rent, large enough to accommodate the present number of inmates (thirty-nine), we think would be difficult to find, especially as the locality to choose from is necessarily limited to the vicinity of Mount Sinai Hospital.

We have determined during the coming year to reduce the monthly allowance to pupils for text-books, etc. The increased number of nurses required in the Hospital has so enlarged our classes of pupil nurses, and consequently so increased the aggregate monthly allowance to be paid to them, that this reduction has become necessary.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct.

Respectfully submitted,

BETTY LOEB, Chairman.

ADDIE SELIGMAN, Secretary.

Report of the Committee on Instruction.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses.

The Committee on Instruction presents its report for the years 1883 and 1884.

The nurses have received their practical training while in attendance upon the inmates of the male and female wards of Mount Sinai Hospital, from the attending physicians, surgeons, and head nurses.

They receive regular semi-weekly instruction in Anatomy and Physiology from Dr. Rosa Welt-Straus. During Dr. Straus' absence in Europe, the classes were directed by Dr. Edward Friedenberg.

In addition to the above, lectures are given at regular intervals on appropriate subjects by prominent physicians who kindly volunteer their services.

Systematic instruction in Hygiene and the details of nursing is afforded by the Superintendent, Miss Washburne, and the proper preparation of food for invalids is taught the nurses by the Matron, Miss List.

Dr. Sarah Post has given instruction in Massage.

Each class has the opportunity of witnessing an autopsy.

In order to enable the nurses to receive practical experience in Obstetrics and care of infants, arrangements were perfected with the New York Infant Asylum.

This privilege having been withdrawn, Miss Washburne, by personal interest, obtained through Dr. A. M. Thomas, Jr., an entrance for the nurses at the Ward's Island Hospital. Each nurse is permitted to remain there from four to six weeks.

To Dr. A. M. Thomas, Jr., we herewith express our thanks for his kind interest, as also to the Commissioners of Emigration.

During the sessions of 1883 and 1884, there were forty lectures delivered by the following physicians:

Dr. H. N. Heineman: "Medical Emergencies."

Dr. E. Gruening: "Diseases of the Eye and Ear."

Dr. A. Meyer: "Medical Emergencies."

Dr. A. G. Gerster: "Surgical Emergencies."

Dr. D. M. Stimson: "Surgical Emergencies."

Dr. P. F. Mundé: "Obstetrics and Gynæcology."

To these physicians, who have, since the organization of the institution, been ever ready to assist in its progress, we tender our sincere thanks.

Examinations of both the junior and senior classes have been held by Drs. J. Rudisch, R. W. Strauss, and H. N. Heineman, the result of which proved entirely satisfactory to the physicians.

Our Committee must refer with much sorrow to the death of our late colleague, Dr. Willard Parker. Although, owing to ill health, unable to actively participate in our work, he nevertheless always evinced a great interest in our Institution.

Report of the Superintendent.

NEW YORK, January 1st, 1885.

At the date of the last report, Jan. 1st, 1883, the number of nurses in the school was, 26

Since then two hundred and ten applicants have requested admission, of which there have been accepted on probation, 46

So that the number of nurses who have been in the school during the past two years is 72

Of these seventy-two pupils there have been graduated, 20

Discharged as unsatisfactory probationers, 15

Resigned on account of physical disability, 1

Permitted to resign, 2

Dismissed, 2

Died, 1

There now remain in the school, 31

72

Of these thirty-one, twenty-nine are accepted pupils and two are probationers.

It has been our misfortune to have death invade our Home, one of our nurses being stricken with an illness which proved fatal after several weeks of suffering.

During the past two years twenty nurses have received diplomas, and two of this number were retained for several months as head nurses.

We have had three hundred and ten applications for nurses from private families in New York and other cities, ninety-eight of which we have supplied from the school. The remainder of the calls have been given to the graduates.

During the year 1884, the sickness in our School has been less than during any previous year. This, we believe, is due to the home-like surroundings, the attention to physical comforts, and the good hygienic condition of the Nurses' Home.

Through the kindness of the House Staff at the Mt. Sinai Hospital, our nurses have been more frequently invited to attend surgical operations and post-mortem examinations than formerly, and in many ways increased advantages have been given the nurses.

I wish also to acknowledge my obligations to the Medical and Surgical Staff for their advice and encouragement. It gives me pleasure to recognize the support I have received from those associated with me in the Hospital, to whom credit is due for their share in the success of the School.

Respectfully submitted,

P. B. WASHBURNE,
Superintendent.

Rules for the Admission of Pupils.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, upon whose approval they will be received into the School for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty to thirty-five years. The applicants should send, with answers to the paper of questions, a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the School, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The Superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the Committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation, the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the School, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses, after signing an agreement to remain two years, and to obey the rules of the School and Hospital. They will serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the Superintendent, either to act as nurses in the Hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay for the first year is $7.00 a month, for the second year $12.00 a month. This sum is allowed for the dress, text-books, and other personal expenses of the nurse, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required, after the month of probation, when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution, which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., with an hour off for dinner, and an additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to every alternate Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the School three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes :

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores, and wounds : the application of fomentations, poultices, cups, and leeches.
2. The administration of enemas and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients: making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed-sores, and managing positions.
6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.
7. The preparing, cooking, and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick-rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected, to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delirium or stupor: breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines, and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the Superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations, and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the School, they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the examining Board and by a committee of the Board of Managers.

Applicants are required to fill out in their own handwriting, and send to Superintendent of Mt. Sinai Training School, answers to the following questions :

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS :

Constitution and By-Laws of the Society.

AS AMENDED FEBRUARY 23d, 1885.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training, and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life members, patrons, and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year; the next meeting to be held on the fourth Thursday of February, 1885, until which time the present officers shall retain their offices.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a Board of thirteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and nine Directors, three of whom to be elected at each biennial general meeting of the Society, for a term of six years.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall likewise be an Advisory Board, consisting of the President of the Mount Sinai Hospital and seven of the Directors of said hospital, annually designated and appointed by him; the President of the medical staff of said hospital, and two members of said medical staff annually designated and appointed by him; but said Advisory Board shall not be entitled to vote at the meetings of this Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office. The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, may appoint or designate some person to assist the Secretary in the performance of these duties. The person so appointed or designated as Assistant Secretary shall not vote at the meetings of this Society by virtue of such office, unless otherwise entitled to do so.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee invest all surplus funds; and shall make written monthly reports to the Board of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full charge and control of all matters appertaining to the Society, and shall hold a meeting on the second Thursday of each month. The Board may fill vacancies in its own body until the next ensuing election, when a Director (or Directors) shall be elected for the unexpired term (or terms). A majority of the officers and Directors together shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. The absence of any Director from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which he may be a member for a consecutive period of three months without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XVI.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10, and of members $3 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

The dues of Life Members ($100), legacies, and all donations amounting to, or exceeding the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be received by the Treasurer, and shall be held as, or added to (unless the testator or donor otherwise directs), a distinct and separate fund, to be known as the Permanent Fund; which fund shall be invested by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Finance Committee; and the income derived from the investment of such fund shall be applied and used for the current expenses of the Society.

Whenever it may be deemed necessary to use any portion or all of the Permanent Fund, notice of the amount which it is proposed to use of such fund, must be sent to the Officers and Directors, at least one week prior to a meeting, at which meeting two-thirds of those Officers and Directors present must assent before any portion of such Permanent Fund can be used.

ARTICLE XVI.

These Rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present, provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

Life Members.

Address of the President.

To the Patrons and Members of Mt. Sinai Training School for Nurses :

Two years have again passed by and I once more have the honor of presenting to you a record of the work of this institution during that period. While not wishing to appear ungrateful for the pecuniary help which has been cheerfully given to us, I must say, frankly, that a statement is presented of increasing work, undiminishing expenses, and vanishing support. With the continuation of such a status a crisis must soon come. For more than five years we have endeavored to assert our usefulness and our claims upon the philanthropic public, with the deplorable result herein confessed.

I have heretofore appealed for support only to the philanthropic community ; but, as I find the world generally practical and exceptionally philanthropic, I must now address myself to the world as I find it. In my last address, I briefly defined the work of this Institution to be as follows : "To train and instruct a worthy class of young women, and to give them a profession, elevating and lucrative, to administer to and greatly alleviate the sufferings of the sick in the Hospital ; to educate for the benefit of humanity (and in humanity I now mean to include a very practical public) a constantly increasing corps of faithful and efficient nurses ; and to extend the benefit of free nursing to the poor to the extent of the financial ability of the Society."

With such a mission to fulfill we must now pause and ask shall we go on ? And it is for the community to answer, not with any flattering words of encouragement, but with practical and permanent help.

When illness invades any of our homes, after summoning a physician, our first thought is to obtain with anxious haste a trained nurse—in fact, this is generally at once requested by the physician—and what testimony do we require of her efficiency? It is then we think of Training Schools. Is it fair or just that we should rely upon our neighbors to provide them for our emergencies? Should we not all contribute our humble mite to secure that which is then so indispensable? There are many ways in which we endeavor to anticipate our future needs; and why should we not, when health blesses our homes, provide for the contingency of illness, which is unfailing in its visitation, though the day may be long deferred.

In this connection I would state that (exclusive of the work done by our graduates), we have supplied with nurses one hundred and twenty-five private families during the past two years, and of this number only fifteen were contributors to the Society.

We have now thirty-five pupils in the School, twenty-five of whom are performing their duties in Mount Sinai Hospital, and the rest are at the disposal of the practical public to whom I have just appealed.

Fifteen nurses graduated last May, and we expect that twenty-four nurses will graduate next May, making in all seventy-four graduates since the inauguration of the School in May, 1881.

During the absence of Mrs. Charles Hendricks in Europe, Mrs. Nathan Straus kindly assumed the duties of Secretary, pro tem., and Mrs. L. M. Hornthal likewise kindly performed the duties of Treasurer, while Mrs. Felix Samson was absent in Europe. To both of these ladies we offer our sincere thanks.

Our esteemed Superintendent, Miss Washburne, resigned over a year ago the position which she so ably filled, taking with her the good wishes of those interested in the welfare of the School.

My colleagues, in their various Committee Reports, present to you a detailed exhibit of the work of the Institution during the past two years, in which you will recognize the labor and zeal which they have displayed in the performance of their duties. These Reports are supplemented by that of Miss Jones, who now efficiently fills the position of Superintendent with tact and ability. The economy of our menage is still looked after by Miss List, to the material advantage of the School, for which she is deserving of our continued grateful appreciation.

I note with regret the resignations of Miss Hannah Hart, Mrs. Blun and Mrs. Charles Hendricks, all valuable members of our Board. To the resignation of Mrs. Charles Hendricks, I feel that more than a formal reference is due, and I cannot refrain from making public acknowledgment of her zealous and conscientious work in behalf of this Institution. The loss of her invaluable services will be keenly felt by her colleagues, who thus tender her the grateful recognition she so richly deserves.

X Our classes in Anatomy and Physiology, continue under the capable tuition of Dr. Rosa Welt Straus.

We are as ever under obligations to Mr. Edward Lauterbach for his legal and friendly advice, which he has never withheld when needed.

Dr. John A. Wyeth and Dr. Paul F. Munde and Messrs. Oscar Strans, Edward Lauterbach, DeWitt J. Seligman, Jesse Lilenthal, have assisted at the preceding graduation exercises, and we are indebted to them for their able efforts in our behalf.

The "Hornthal Medal" was awarded, as usual, to the nurse who was found to be entitled to it.

Our thanks are due to the "Purim Association" for a donation from the proceeds of their ball in 1885, and also to all donors who have generously contributed to our Society we offer our grateful acknowledgments.

We still have the valued co-operation and advice of Drs. D. M. Stimson, H. W. Heineman and J. Rndisch upon our Committee of Instruction, and we wish to acknowledge our gratitude for their friendly and professional assistance.

To the President of Mount Sinai Hospital, and his colleagues of our Advisory Board, we offer our thanks for their advice and continued appreciation of our usefulness.

In my last address I stated that the Directors of the Mount Sinai Hospital had determined to erect a building on the Hospital property, in which to lodge and board our nurses, and which building it was proposed to lease to us upon advantageous terms. This building was in fact erected, but unfortunately it proved not to be adapted to our needs; we would, nevertheless, have been willing to occupy it in consideration of pecuniary advantages, but we were notified that the charter of the Hospital would not permit it to dedicate the additional building to the purpose intended. So, through the good offices of Mr. Solomon Loeb, we were enabled to renew the lease of the buildings which we still occupy.

I am happy to say that we have begun, in an humble way, to carry out a long cherished project of this Society, namely, to engage in District nursing, with the aid of the Ladies' Auxiliary Union, to whom we are warmly indebted for clothing, and the co-operation of the Mount Sinai Hospital, together with the generous donations from Mrs. Jessie Seligman and Mr. Albert Hendrieks, of funds to provide delicacies for the sick. I hope that we may be enabled to enlarge the field of work, in this direction, and to this end it is needless for me to say that we will be pleased to receive special donations.

With the coming year my relations with this Institution, as its chief executive officer, will cease; but my interest in its welfare will not be in the least diminished. In being obliged to relinquish the executive responsibility of a work which has so entirely absorbed me for over five years, I need hardly say that the regret is all mine. My last official words as President, must be those of pleading—an earnest pathetic pleading—for I feel that the existence of the School is involved in the response—an entreaty—to those who know its worth, to interest themselves and others in its behalf in order that my successor and her colleagues may work with heavier coffers and lighter hearts.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH H. FLORANCE,

President.

Report of the Executive Committee.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31st, 1886.

Training School for Nurses.*

Since our last Report, two yearly revolutions in our Institution have been added to the cycle of Time, and though running their course in the beaten track, have still left their indelible impress from which we produce the following record :

Previous to 1885 the Executive meetings were held semi-monthly ; but the system of work was so well organized that since that time monthly meetings were all-sufficient, of which there have been nineteen, and at which the most earnest endeavors are continually made to conduct the Institution according to the best standards of economy and benefit.

“THE HOME.”

The same buildings—850 and 852 Lexington avenue have been retained for the abode of the Nurses and Superintendent when off duty—at the same rental as previously, namely, $1,300 per annum for each house. In November, 1885, it was decided to discontinue sub-letting rooms to graduated nurses, the number of regular inmates and official business having increased to such an extent as to require all the room ; this decision went into effect January, 1886. The buildings are not in good condition, necessitating frequent repairs which consume a considerable portion of our revenue.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

The house furnishing in the past two years has notably decreased, a satisfactory evidence of the carefulness of the Matron, the wise supervision of the Managers and also of the fact that accumulation is wealth.

THE COST OF FOOD.

By comparison with the foregoing years it will be found that the cost of food scarcely varies though the number of inmates has increased since 1883, from 29 to 40.

The cost for the year 1885 and 1886 were respectively as follows :

	1885.	1886.
Meat	$774 58	$903 92
Groceries	718 76	823 35
Provisions	887 53	939 85
Milk	275 58	290 35
Fish	76 88	84 10
Ice	50 51	47 64

Total cost of food for year..... $2,783 84 $3,089 21

Average No. of inmates in the Home per diem, 37 40

IN 1885.

$37 \times 365 = 13,505$ }

IN 1886.

$40 \times 365 = 14,600$ }
 $\$3,089.21 : 14,600$ } gives $21\frac{308921}{14600}$ cents per capita per day.

Or for the two years 28,105 persons were furnished a meal at a cost of little less than 7 cents per capita, the lowest expense yet attained. Yet all are abundantly, palatably and nutritiously fed.

SUPERINTENDENT.

The Superintendent, by the example of her cheerful, contented disposition, materially aids in maintaining the economy of the School.

MATRON.

We still retain the Matron who was in this position at the rendering of our last Report. Her neatness and efficiency elicit the highest commendation, and the general flourishing condition of the "Home" is mainly due to her unexcelled management.

ALLOWANCE TO NURSES.

The allowance to Nurses has been materially reduced. Formerly, the sum was $7.00 per month the first year and $12.00 the second, while now the uniform price for the entire course is $7.00 per month.

SALARIES.

Fixed yearly and monthly salaries have been paid to Superintendent and Matron, and a fixed yearly salary to a Professor for lectures on Anatomy and Physiology, which latter item is not included in salaries, but is charged to "Instruction Account." The bookkeeping of the Superintendent at the Home became so onerous owing to the increased number of nurses and applicants, thereby interfering with her time at the Hospital, that it was found necessary to provide her with an Assistant Secretary, who entered on her duties in April, 1886. The outlay for salaries has consequently been augmented the past year. But the real statistical work accomplished fully justifies the expense.

NURSES UNIFORM.

Material for School uniform is purchased at wholesale rates and furnished to the nurses at cost price. It was decided at one time to allow the nurses to provide their own uniform, but the former arrangement proving more satisfactory, it was re-adopted.

IN CONCLUSION.

In all institutions the household economy is a large integrant in its prosperity or decline ; and from the foregoing statements it can easily be deduced that nothing is wanted to insure the unequivocal success of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses which appeals so strongly to every sentiment of philanthropy and humanity, but the warm, unprejudiced support of the public.

(With this report we append a detailed statement of the expenditures for the years 1885 and 1886.)

Report of Finance Committee.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28, 1886.

*To the President and Board of Managers of Mount Sinai
Training School for Nurses:*

At the date of our last Biennial Report, Dec. 31, 1884, our Treasurer reported a balance on hand $1,469.09. Since then our total receipts from all sources to this date have been $27,157.42, while our total disbursements for the same period have been $25,825.82, leaving a balance now in hand of Treasurer of $2,800.69.

In 1885 our income for that year was	$12,996 40
" " disbursements were	12,357 39
Balance	$639 01
In 1886 our income for that year was	$14,161 02
" " disbursements were	13,468 43
Balance	$692 59
Cash balance Dec. 31, 1884	$1,469 09
" " 1885	639 01
" Dec. 28, 1886	692 59
Cash balance Dec. 28, 1886	$2,800 69

Of which $250 are deposited in savings bank on account Permanent Fund, and $1,000 will be invested for the same fund.

By comparing the total expenditures of 1885 and 1886 it will be noticed an excess of disbursements of $1,111.04 in the past year, which is owing to our having the male wards of the Hospital under our care, which necessitates our supporting so many additional nurses. If we exclude from our annual receipts the amount of donations which we have received during the past two years, for the reason that donations cannot be considered a regular source of income because of their uncertainty, we find our annual deficits would have been :

In 1885.....	$435 99
In 1886.....	444 41
Deficit for two years	$880 40

For our support we depend

- I.—Upon the annual dues of patrons and members.
- II.—For the services of our nurses in the hospital
- III.— “ “ “ “ private families.
- IV.—Donations.

PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

For 1885.....	$3,525
“ 1886.....	3,494
Decrease in 1886.....	$34

Although the decrease is not great it is to be regretted, as the school should be appreciated by this time and our supporters on the increase. We beg our friends not to relax their endeavors to secure us both patrons and members.

We now have on our roll :

- 281 Patrons.
- 227 Members.

For services of our nurses in Mount Sinai Hospital we have received :

In 1885.....	$6,171 91
In 1886.....	7,178 36
Increase in 1886.....	$1,006 45

For services of our nurses in private families :

In 1885.....	$1,702 19
In 1886.....	1,829 77
Increase in 1886.....	$127 58

DONATIONS.

In 1885.....	$1,075
In 1886.....	1,137

As before stated these donations have reduced our annual deficits and have enabled us to continue our work, and we here take occasion to offer our heartfelt thanks to the liberal donors, whose names appear in the schedule appended to this report.

The reduction of monthly allowances to pupils mentioned in our last report has been in effect for almost two years.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Committee on Instruction.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mt. Sinai Training School:

In submitting its brief report the Committee on Instruction states that the same general system of education has prevailed as in previous years.

As has been the case since the opening of the school the nurses have received regular semi-weekly instruction in anatomy, physiology and hygiene.

This has been ably directed by Dr. Rosa Welt Strauss. Since her retirement her place has been satisfactorily filled by her sister, Dr. Sara Welt.

This regular tuition is supplemented by systematic instruction in bandaging. These classes were under the efficient instruction of Dr. Willie Meyer, and are now under the care of Dr. Wasserman. To both of these physicians our sincere thanks are due for their kind interest in the school.

Lectures and practical instruction in massage are given by Dr. Sarah Post; Miss Jones, our capable superintendent, gives instruction in the details of nursing, and the matron, Miss List, in the preparation of food for invalids.

In addition to this systematic instruction, lectures are delivered by prominent physicians at regular intervals, upon medical and surgical emergencies, diseases of the eye and ear, obstetrics and gynaecology, care of infants, use of drugs.

These lectures were given by Drs. Alfred Meyer, Josephine Walter, E. Gruening, P. F. Mundé, A. G. Gerster, V. H. N. Heineman; to these physicians our sincere thanks are due for the great interest they have manifested in the training of our nurses and the welfare of our Institution.

The facility for obstetrical training is afforded at the Ward's Island Hospital, through the courtesy of the physician in charge, and at the Nursery and Child's Hospital through the kindness of Mrs. McEvoy. To the house staff and visiting physicians we are greatly indebted for the practical suggestions to the nurses.

Examinations of the members of the junior and senior classes, in their respective studies and in their practical work, have been made by Drs. Rudisch, Strauss and Heineman, who have expressed entire satisfaction with the results of these examinations.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRIETTE HEIDELBACH, Chairman.

For the second time in the history of the school death has entered our midst, and we have lost one of our most promising pupils from disease contracted while in the discharge of her duty.

During the past two years twenty-eight nurses have graduated and left the school upon the completion of their terms. Five hundred and fifty-eight (558) applications for nurses in private families have been received in the past two years, of which one hundred and twenty-five (125) have been supplied by the school. The remainder have been given to the graduates. During the past two years we have had some cases of illness, but with one exception they have ended happily.

I wish to express my thanks to the visiting and house staffs and to the authorities of the Hospital for many kindnesses and courtesies received.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. JONES, Supt.

Report of District Nursing Committee.

The Training School has at last been able, though in a limited way, to carry out one of its most cherished and praiseworthy projects, that of district nursing. For the benefit of those who have not had the opportunity of acquainting themselves with the nature of such work, it might be well to define what we mean by district nursing. A doctor who is chosen by a hospital or dispensary to attend the sick of any poor district of this city, makes his or her rounds and sends word to the nurse which this school places at his disposal, that such and such cases need nursing and gives his special directions. The nurse goes provided with clothes of all kinds, which are used if found necessary, the prescription advised by the doctor, which is provided by the hospital or dispensary with which he is connected, and any necessary delicacy in the way of food or nutrition of any kind. This is paid out of a private fund given to the school by charitably disposed friends. The nurse then arranges the bed, washes or bathes the unattended patient, gives the medicine, tidies the room, prepares the food, feeds the patient, and leaves to attend to the next case, and will return in the evening to any case if found necessary; otherwise these same offices are repeated daily until the patient is pronounced by the attending physician, able to be his or her own nurse.

Miss Dayo was the first of our scholars chosen by the superintendent for that work. Through the kindness of Mrs. Dilts, district nurse of New York Dispensary, Miss Dayo was initiated into the necessities of such work, and was ready to assist the Mt. Sinai Hospital in attending to its "out door" cases by the middle of July. Since that time there has always been a nurse to perform such duties and the result has been most satisfactory. There are many cases where it is impossible to leave home, an others it is impossible to take into the hospital on account of lack of accommodation ; both such wants are attended to by such an undertaking as district nursing, as good nursing in many cases constitutes a large part of the cure.

The Mt. Sinai Dispensary Committee has decided in conjunction with us to use the district nurse for many patients who are sometimes necessarily exposed to the inclemency of the weather in coming to the dispensary, which consequently enlarges the sphere of outdoor nursing and will more adequately supply a serious want in this great city.

Respectfully submitted,

A. SELIGMAN, Chairman.

RULES
FOR THE
ADMISSION OF PUPILS
TO THE
MT. SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses, has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, 852 Lexington avenue, New York, upon whose approval they will be received into the school for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty-one to thirty-five years. The applicants should send with answers to the paper of questions, a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the school, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the school, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses, after signing an agreement to remain two years, and to obey the rules of the school and hospital. They will reside in the Home, and serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the superintendent, either to act as nurses in the hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay is $7 a month for the entire course. This sum is allowed for the dress, text-books, and other personal expenses of the nurse, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required after the month of probation when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution; which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., with an hour off for dinner and additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to three hours every Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the school three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes :

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups, and leeches.
2. The administration of enemias and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed-sores, and managing positions.
6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.
7. The preparing, cooking and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick-rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected; to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delirium or stupor, breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines; and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the school they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the Examining Board and by a Committee of the Board of Managers.

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS :

Mt. Sinai Training School for Nurses.

RULES FOR HOSPITAL.

HEAD NURSES.

1. The hours of duty shall be from 7 o'clock A. M. to 7 o'clock P. M. On arriving in the ward, the head nurse will receive from the night nurse an exact account of the state of the patients; then, with the assistance of the pupil nurses, she will proceed to arrange the wards and patients so as to be ready for inspection at 9 o'clock.

2. The nurse will be solely responsible for the wards and patients during the day, and must see that patients do not loiter about the stairways and closets. She must accompany the medical officers during their visits, be ready to answer all their inquiries, and faithfully and promptly execute the orders given, and report any interference with their duties by the patients to the medical officer in charge.

3. She will be responsible for all medicines and treatment; must see that the prescription book is sent to the dispensary at the proper time, and examine whether the medicines are correctly sent up, etc. She will be expected to pay special attention to the diet and extras of patients, superintend their distribution, and when necessary, report on their consumption.

4. She must enforce the rules and discipline of the hospital with regard to patients and helpers, see to the cleanliness and order of the wards, beds, bedding, clothing, crockery, utensils, etc., and keep an inventory of all medical and surgical appliances, and in the interest of the hospital, endeavor to prevent waste and destruction. She will be held responsible for any damage to any of the aforementioned articles caused by her neglect.

5. Whenever compelled to leave her ward for meals or otherwise, she must see that the ward is in charge of one of her assistants. All absences for rest or recreation must be arranged with the superintendent of the school.

6. The pupil nurses will be subject to the orders of the head nurse, who will assign to them whatever portion of nursing or ward work she thinks best; she must instruct them, teaching them to watch the symptoms and changes of the patients; arrange for them at times to accompany her on her rounds with the doctors, and strive in every way to make them useful and efficient nurses, and must see that the wards are in proper condition for night nurses on leaving for the day.

7. The nurse will be expected to refer to the superintendent in all cases of emergency; to report to her the state of the wards, patients and probationers, to answer the superintendent's inquiries, and to carry out any of her orders or suggestions. Nurses are forbidden to receive any compensation, gift or fee from any patient or friends of patients.

NIGHT NURSES.

1. The hours of duty shall be from 7 o'clock P. M. to 7 o'clock A. M. On commencing duty the night nurse shall receive from the day nurse an exact account of the state of the patients, and directions for their treatment during the night; she will then be responsible for them and the wards until the following morning.

2. She must faithfully carry out all directions with regard to medicines, stimulants, etc., watch the changes in the condition of the sick patients; report to the medical officer when necessary, at any time during the night, and visit all the patients at least once every hour.

3. She will be responsible for the order and quiet of the wards; must see that the lights are turned down, and that there is no talking or noise after 9 o'clock P. M. She must move about noiselessly herself, and be very watchful—remembering how important and responsible her position is.

4. She must arouse the convalescent patients in time for them to be dressed and have their beds made before breakfast; try to advance the work of the ward; assist in making the beds, and washing and changing the very sick. She will receive the patients properly arranged at night, and must as far as may be, leave them so in the morning.

5. She will see the superintendent in the evening; refer to her whenever necessary during the night (if she be in the hospital), and report to her in the morning on the state of the patients.

PUPIL NURSES.

1. The pupils must act in the wards as assistant nurses, their principal duty being to wait on the very sick, keep the ward, beds and patients neat and in order, and see to the general cleanliness of everything used by the patients.

2. They will be directed in their work by the head nurses, and must perform any portion of nursing duty which may be assigned to them. They must not shrink from anything connected with the care of the sick as menial, remembering that nursing means constant self-sacrificing work.

3. They will be instructed both in medical and surgical work by the medical officers, superintendent and head nurses, but they will never make thorough nurses if they rely only on instruction given; the best school is that of actual work, personal experience and prolonged observation, and this is to be found in hospital wards alone, not in books and teaching.

4. They can refer to the superintendent whenever they wish for instruction, advice, etc.; it will be her duty to assist them by every means in her power, and to make all arrangements for their improvement and comfort.

Neglect of duty or violation of any regulations will be followed by the suspension or dismissal of offending nurse.

ON CLEANLINESS.

1. The entire room must present a neat and cheerful appearance; all utensils must be thoroughly cleansed immediately after they have been used; the bed, towels, and patient's toilette must be kept scrupulously clean.

2. The nurse must be supplied with a sufficient quantity of aprons, for, if required to use the one she has on to cover a yessel that is to be removed from the room, another one must immediately replace it, as food offered without removing the first one would be revolting. Should any uncleanly-looking stains be made upon the apron from medicine or other causes, such apron must be cast aside, and not used again until the stains are removed.

3. When a nurse finds it necessary to taste the patient's food before giving it, she must in no case offer the same spoon from which she has just tasted without first cleansing it. If that cannot be done conveniently or quick enough, she must have another spoon in readiness.

4. The fingers must never be used in preparing or offering food to the patient, and the thumb must never by any accident reach beyond the edge of the cup or plate.

5. A nurse cannot be too particular about the cleanliness of her own person. Should she be afflicted with disagreeable odors which bathing does not improve, cooking soda, freely applied, will deodorize all perspiratory exudations. The breath must also be kept sweet. No dresses but those made of washing material should be worn in the sickroom.

ON DECORUM.

1. A nurse should cultivate a gentle manner and a low voice, but the enunciation must be clear and distinct; and she should also cultivate a gentle touch, which must at the same time be firm.

2. No nurse should, under any circumstances, sit upon the patient's bed for comfort or conversation, nor should she permit any one else to do so.

3. When visitors are in the sickroom, the nurse should retire to an adjoining room within easy calling distance; she must keep the patient's condition in her mind and not allow fatigue from a prolonged visit; she must enter the sickroom immediately upon the departure of the visitors.

4. A nurse should make no unnecessary noise at night, while waiting upon the patient, that might disturb the sleep of inmates of the house.

5. In regard to taking meals with the family of the patient, a nurse should submit to the wishes of the family, and should be satisfied with whatever is provided; and, indeed, make herself acceptable in every way to the patient and family, and cause as little extra work as possible in the house.

ON ATTENTION AND JUDGMENT.

1. A nurse must always be on the alert to anticipate the wants of her patient, and never allow herself to become absorbed in fancy work, a book, or anything else. Newspapers, unless read at the patient's request, should never be taken into the sick-room, as the noise made in turning or folding them is very annoying.

2. A nurse must not speak to the patient about the doctor's orders or treatment, or effect of medicines, or about similar former cases.

3. When the doctor visits the patient, the nurse must always stand in view of him, and never behind him, and no matter to whom his remarks are addressed concerning the patient, she must always pay full attention and receive them as though addressed to her.

4. When a nurse finds her patient is worried about something, she must endeavor to remove the cause, if possible, without the patient's knowledge, and then soothe her mind with the pleasant intelligence.

5. It must be clearly understood that the nurse is responsible to the doctor for the patient, but she need not for that reason exclude all attentions and care of relatives, who perhaps have had entire charge of the case before her arrival, unless she finds that such attention and care interfere with the proper enforcement of the doctor's orders.

Constitution and By-Laws of the Society.

AS AMENDED FEBRUARY 23, 1885.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training, and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life members, patrons, and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a board of thirteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and nine Directors, three of whom to be elected at each biennial general meeting of the Society, for a term of six years.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall likewise be an Advisory Board, consisting of the President of the Mount Sinai Hospital and seven of the Directors of said hospital, annually designated and appointed by him ;

the President of the medical staff of said hospital, and two members of said medical staff annually designated and appointed by him ; but said Advisory Board shall not be entitled to vote at the meetings of this Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office. The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, may appoint or designate some person to assist the Secretary in the performance of these duties. The person so appointed or designated as Assistant Secretary shall not vote at the meetings of this Society by virtue of such office, unless otherwise entitled to do so.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee invest all surplus funds ; and shall make written monthly reports to the Board of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full charge and control of all matters appertaining to the Society, and shall hold a meeting on the second Thursday of each month. The Board may fill vacancies in its own body until the next ensuing election, when a Director (or Directors) shall be elected for the unexpired term (or terms). A majority of the officers and Directors together shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. The absence of any Director from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which she may be a member for a consecutive period of three months without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XVI.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10, and of members $3 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

The dues of Life Members ($100), legacies, and all donations amounting to, or exceeding the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be received by the Treasurer, and shall be held as, or added to (unless the testator or donor otherwise directs), a distinct and separate fund, to be known as the Permanent Fund; which fund shall be invested by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Finance Committee; and the income derived from the investment of such fund shall be applied and used for the current expenses of the Society.

Whenever it may be deemed necessary to use any portion or all of the Permanent Fund, notice of the amount which it is proposed to use of such fund, must be sent to the Officers and Directors, at least one week prior to a meeting, at which meeting two-thirds of those Officers and Directors present must assent before any portion of such Permanent Fund can be used.

ARTICLE XVI.

These Rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present, provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT.

To the Patrons and Members of Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses:

There is the same regular, ceaseless ebb and flow in the affairs of men as in the physical world, ever carrying away, ever bringing back all their thoughts and deeds; and on this regular, ceaseless tide are now brought back to you the workings of the past two years in the "Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses."

A new President and a new Secretary came with one great influx to reign over the realm that had long basked in the sunshine of an intelligent and experienced administration. It was with much trepidation that these new officers undertook the responsibilities inseparable from their positions, for the untried path is always trodden with more or less of fear; and indeed many and severe were the trials and vicissitudes of the first eight months; but courage and perseverance lighten the most difficult tasks, and each has endeavoured to possess herself of these two valuable factors.

That Training Schools for Nurses are becoming necessary adjuncts to every large city is a fact growing daily more patent. It is not until men know the comforts of life that they demand them, and when once enjoyed will not dispense with them. Within the past twelve months St. Luke's and the German Hospital have both established such schools, making a total of six in this city, among which, in the estimation of the medical fraternity, none ranks higher than Mount Sinai.

My initiation into my present office was rendered extremely trying by having to accept the resignation of our former estimable Superintendent Miss A. F. Jones, who contemplated opening in infirmary in Florida. Her place, however, was soon filled by Miss Anna L. Alston, one of our own graduates, under whose superior superintendence the morale and discipline of the school are without reproach.

Our course of instruction is now thoroughly defined, meeting all known medical demands. We have just effected a routine of nursing with Mount Sinai Hospital, which gives a senior three months preparatory training in the ward in which she immediately after becomes head-nurse, retaining that position six months, thus giving nine months consecutive service in the same ward. Just one year ago was also consummated an arrangement with "Mount Sinai" and "Willard Parker" Hospitals for a course of training in contagious diseases; with the exception of Charity Hospital on Blackwell's Island, our school is the only one in the city which furnishes this course, though a most palpable need in this dense population. It is, however, fraught with so much danger, that our nurses cannot be too highly commended for accepting it. In the latter part of 1887, obstetrical training, which had before been optional, became a compulsory course, since which time enlarged opportunities are being continually offered, notably, a thorough course in the care of newborn infants, which has recently been added to it. We hereby express our appreciation of the kindness of Dr. K. Priest of the "Willard Parker" and Dr. A. Thomas of "Ward's Island" Hospital as manifested towards our nurses while receiving their training in these two institutions. Finished instruction is given by our superintendent in massage, while our assistant superintendent—an office established in October, 1888, and superseding that of clerk—supervises many of the minor details of ward work. Our opportunities for instruction in cooking are very meagre, and this is the only branch we do not feel justified in declaring to our satisfaction; but we are contemplating measures to perfect this course also.

In the beginning of 1887 there were but 35 nurses in the school; we have now increased our number to 48, 35 of whom are on daily and nightly duty in all the wards of the Hospital, except the third and fourth male wards; the others receiving outside training or -serving on private duty. We graduated in May, 1887, twenty-one nurses; the same year we instituted a Spring and Fall commencement, which resulted in the graduation of seven in May, 1888, and of five in November. This year we shall have (D. V.) eleven graduates in the Spring and eleven in the Fall, after which we shall contribute to the wants of the community sixteen thoroughly trained nurses every eight months. In this connection, let me return our thanks to Mr. L. M. Hornthal for the silver medal prize for excellence in ward duty, which he has presented to each class; also to Mr. Hyman Blum, President of Mt. Sinai Hospital, for his gift of a hypodermic syringe to each member of the class of '87; to Dr. Henry M. Heineman, Dr. Alfred Myer, Judge Hoadley, Mr. J. H. Schiff, Dr. Thos. Hunter and Mr. Lewis May, we express our indebtedness for their addresses at our Commencement exercises, which much enhanced the occasions.

To the Medical Committee of our school we are under continued obligations. In 1887 it was composed of Dr. H. M. Heineman, Dr. J. A. Wyeth and Dr. P. F. Mundé; the former two resigned in 1888, much to our regret, though happily replaced by Dr. B. Scharlan and Dr. E. G. Janeway. To all of these gentlemen are we warmly indebted for their interest and efforts for the welfare and progress of our school. Also, to Dr. Alfred Myer, Dr. S. Henry Dessan, Dr. Gruening, Dr. Van Ausdale, Dr. Lilienthal and Dr. P. F. Mundé do we return sincere thanks for their lectures to our nurses. We must express our appreciation of the care and fidelity with which Dr. Sara Welt instructs them in the branches assigned to her.

Though the "Home"—the dwelling of the nurses—is not improved in point of increased space or outward beauty, its sanitary condition is perfect, having been subjected in September last, to the scrutiny and enforcement of the Health Board Laws. To Mr. Solomon Loeb we are this time under increased obligations, not only for renewing the lease of the houses, but for obtaining them at a decrease of two hundred dollars in rental. We have been notified by the Hospital Directors that the plans for their proposed building for Dispensary and Training schools will be submitted to us at an early date, filling us with pleasant anticipations. Through the genial influence of our Superintendent, our nurses are always happy in the "Home," while our matron conducts the ménage with quietness and ability. Detailed reports from the executive and all other committees and from the Superintendent will be presented to you; the data gathered in these two years give conclusive evidence of the labor required; and I doubt if there exists another Society whose managers are more capable, more zealous or more indefatigable in fulfilling its demands.

Our work of district nursing, the perfection of which is one of our most cherished aspirations, does not yet even approach the realization of our ideal. But untiring efforts are usually crowned with success, and we are now in a position to seek its thorough accomplishment.

Our Register, which has been established but a little over two years, is also still crude, though we are continually rectifying its errors as they are brought to our notice. No register of nurses has yet reached mathematical exactness. Though most annoying to applicants, it is sometimes unavoidable that they are necessitated to call for various nurses before obtaining one. Those who register are graduates, over whom we have no jurisdiction. Each one who enrolls, however, is required to notify the Superintendent as soon as she has accepted a case, so that her name can be erased from the list; also, during the time she is waiting for a case, she is to leave notice when she goes out, where she is going and how long she will be absent; two repetitions of negligence of these requirements will forfeit the privileges of the Register. But despite its imperfections, we have supplied within the past two years, 427 cases with nurses from the Register; from the school 127 cases have been supplied, and though the number is so large, we have not sufficient nurses to fill more than half the demand. A discrepancy is noticeable in the number of pupil nurses supplied in '87 and '88, owing to the large number of sick nurses in the latter year and also that two night nurses were supplied to the male wards in the Hospital.

The vital organ of this Institution, its finances, has passed from a state of chronic weakness and emaciation to one of strength and healthy proportions, owing to the facts, that on Dec. 19th, 1887, we gave at Delmonico's our first public entertainment, realizing therefrom the net sum of $2,389.75, and on Dec. 19th, 1888, a series of entertainments at the Hotel Brunswick, lasting through the 22d, and known as the "Directoire Bazaar," from which we realized the net sum of $11,568.94, amply sufficient to cover the deficit visible in our Finance Committee's Report, in which our recent accessions have not been included. For the undoubted interest and good will of our friends and the public in rendering both these affairs so successful, we cannot be too grateful. We acknowledge with heartfelt thanks, the bequest of $500 from the estate of the late Bernhard Stern, Esq., and duly appreciate the consideration of his executors in having remembered us.

To the Board of Mount Sinai Hospital I almost fear to become too laudatory. Though differences of opinion will exist even between the most attached friends, so thoroughly are all our efforts pervaded by the spirit of harmony, that every discussion between us results in the mutual advantage of their institution and ours, for all of which we extend to them the hand of cordial fellowship. To the various members of the house-staff during the past two years, we return thanks for their kindness to our nurses, especially to Drs. Giddings, Lilienthal, Walsh and Ellsmer. To Mr. and Mrs. Hadel we are under renewed obligations for their kind consideration of our pupils, particularly during the noted "blizzard" last March.

We must again thank our esteemed attorney Mr. Edward Lauterbach, for his prompt and cheerful aid to us whenever called upon.

In our Board there have been many changes in the twenty-four months past, bringing regrets and pleasures, like April sunshine and showers. The resignation of Mrs. S. Loeb, Mrs. F. H. Florance, Mrs. E. Lauterbach and Mrs. J. Limburger were all most reluctantly accepted, the quota of each one's service forming an individual record in the society. Of Mrs. Florian H. Florance, whose identification with this work is so well known, I need not say her loss from the Board was indeed felt as a personal one. The illness of our former worthy Vice-President, Mrs. H. Bettman, has necessitated her resignation from this Board; it is but justice, on her retirement from it, to testify to her share in founding the "Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses," having first solicited Mrs. Florence to aid her in materializing the plan conceived by the noble Mrs. Alma Hendricks. The above mentioned resignations caused a corresponding number of vacancies in the Board, which have been filled by Mrs. J. H. Schiff, Mrs. L. Dreyfuss (who filled the unexpired term of Vice-President), Mrs. E. Lewis (for a short time only), Mrs. E. Wasserman, Mrs. O. Richard and Mrs. W. Einstein, all helping to bring back the sunshine. As the work of this Society requires the most competent and conscientious labor, which is all performed by its officers, I do not hesitate to offer the thanks of the Board to our treasurer, Mrs. F. Samson, our secretary, Mrs. H. Heidelbach, our secretary pro tem and during the Fair, Mrs. N. Straus, our assistant secretary, Mrs. D. J. Seligman and our secretary of Executive Committee, Mrs. L. M. Hornthal, all of whose labors are worthy of more than mere passing comment. My individual thanks are most unstintingly given to all my esteemed colleagues who have accorded me their constant and intelligent support, furthering every effort, and permitting the execution of every plan for the welfare of the school. And if we can succeed in opening the hearts of Jewish women to espouse the profession of nursing, despite the adverse criticism which we are often forced to hear, we feel, that we are fulfilling one of the noblest aims philanthropy can offer in endeavoring to worthily maintain the "Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses."

"Heart within, and God o'er head."

Respectfully submitted,

MINNIE D. LOUIS,

Jan. 10th, 1889.

President.

Report of the Executive Committee.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7, 1889.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses:

In conformity with the by-laws and usages of your Society, we present herewith for your consideration a report of the internal workings and doings of the Society for the past two years.

During this time there have been held twenty-two meetings of your Executive Committee, the work having been divided among sub-committees and so arranged as to render more meetings unnecessary. This, you will perceive, is at the rate of one meeting for every month, excepting during the summer months, when the individual members have more or less attended to the wants of the Society, under power conferred by the General Committee.

At these meetings, as in the past, the matter of economy has been carefully considered, and reductions have been made in every department, not, however, to seriously interfere with the actual work, and still be able to give to the inmates the comforts of the Home.

THE HOME.

In May, 1888, the lease of the buildings theretofore occupied expired, and the same was renewed for one year, with the privilege of another year, at the rental of $1,200 for each house, a reduction of $200 per annum on the rental of the houses as heretofore paid.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

The amount expended for this purpose has been rendered necessary by reason of the increased numbers of inmates in the Home, and also to replenish the linens and other articles necessary in the household which have been destroyed by reason of wear. As much economy as possible was practised in this respect, as the figures in the report clearly show.

FOOD ACCOUNT.

In this there has been a slight increase in the cost, by reason of the advance in the prices of food in 1888 over that of the previous year, and owing likewise to an increase in the staff of nurses and in the number of internes. The cost for the years 1888 and 1887 for the respective articles required are hereby annexed, and show an increase in 1888 over that in 1887 of about 14%, whilst the average number of inmates in the Home per day has been increased a little over 10%, showing conclusively that, whilst there has been an increase in the number of inmates, economy has been practised in the food for these parties, for the increase in cost for the various articles has been much greater than the difference herein alluded to.

THE COST OF FOOD.

 or for these years 100,740 meals were furnished at a cost of a trifle over 7 cents per meal per capita.

The small proportion of expense for fuel, etc., in the preparation of food is, as heretofore, not included in the above.

SUPERINTENDENT.

The Superintendent, besides ably discharging her regular duties at the Hospital, has improved the general tone of the Home, so it has become an enjoyable retreat to the nurses during their hours of rest and after their day's toil.

MATRON.

Our present Matron has been with us the past eleven months, and discharges her duties faithfully. The Executive Board has compiled in book form bills of fare for every week in the year; these have been given to the Matron to carry into effect, thereby assuring proper aliment for all those under our care.

In this connection it is proper to state that the quantity of food is plentiful, and the quality wholesome and palatable. Owing to the increased number of inmates in the Home, it is now necessary to employ seven servants, who, under the direct control and superintendence of the Matron, do their work in a satisfactory manner, as the neatness of the Home will attest.

ALLOWANCE TO NURSES.

The allowance to Nurses is fixed by the rules, and has been paid to them accordingly.

SALARIES.

Fixed monthly salaries have been paid to the Superintendent and Matron, and a fixed yearly salary to a Professor for lectures on anatomy and hygiene, which latter item is charged to "Instruction Account," and is not included in that for salaries.

NURSES' UNIFORM.

Material of the school uniform has been purchased in quantity at wholesale rates and has been furnished to the nurses at actual cost.

IN CONCLUSION.

It will be seen from the foregoing that we reduced all expenses within our control. How successful we have been can be seen by comparing such expenses in the past two years with the same in former years, considering at the same time that the number of our inmates has steadily increased. The work, though involving much responsibility and expense, has its recompense in the effort to benefit a worthy class of young women, advancing them to an ennobling profession, and in the welfare of the sick to whom it administers a kindly and salutary aid to recovery.

Before closing this report it is with much regret we chronicle the unfortunate illness of our former and worthy Vice-President, Chairman of this Committee, Mrs. Henrietta Bettman, who discharged her duties with the utmost zeal and conscientiousness since the school was organized, and who continually, until the day of her resignation, took an active interest in the good and welfare of the society.

Mrs. Ludwig Dreyfus was unanimously elected to take her place for the unexpired time.

[With this report we append a detailed statement of the expenditures for the years 1887 and 1888.]

Mr. Bernard Stern's bequest of $500 is still owing to the Permanent Fund.

Owing to the proceeds from the Fair held in December, we are in a condition to make our deficit good and avoid our usual yearly deficit. As the result is not positively known, figures will appear in our next biennial report.

By comparing the total expenditures of 1887 and '88, it will be noticed a decrease in expenditures of $157.66, which is quite remarkable, as the number of nurses in our School in '88 was larger than in '87.

For our support we depend :

- I.—Upon the annual dues of patrons and members.
- II.—For the services of our nurses in the hospital.
- III.—“ “ “ “ “ “ private families.
- IV.—Donations.

PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

For 1887	$3,610

Decrease in '88	$106

This decrease is regretted, as we had hoped by this time the advantages of our School would be appreciated, and those having used our nurses, would one and all, add their names to our list of patrons.

We have on our roll :

Patrons	285
Members	218

For services of our nurses in Mt. Sinai Hospital, we have received,

In 1887	$5,793 50
“ 1888	6,239 30
Increase in 1888	$445 80

For services of our nurses in private families :

In 1887	$2,379 58
“ 1888	1,105 86
Decrease in 1888	$1,273 74

It must here be noticed that this decrease of earnings from private duty was occasioned by our having been very short of nurses owing to death and severe illness of many of the nurses contracted while nursing contagious diseases.

Report of the Committee on Instruction.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School:

The same system of education is still carried on as in our last report, and although each year finds one or another of our doctors too busy to aid us in delivering lectures and otherwise instructing the nurses, there are new ones who are most kind and seem to be thoroughly interested in our institution.

The semi-weekly instruction in anatomy, physiology and hygiene, continues under the direction of Dr. Sara Weeks. Miss Alston, our Superintendent, gives instruction in the details of nursing and the preparation of food for invalids. Dr. Post and Mrs. Spicer have given lessons in massage, but our Superintendent has added that to her list of instruction. In addition to this systematic instruction, lectures are delivered by prominent physicians upon medical and surgical emergencies, diseases of the eye and ear, obstetrics, gynaecology, care and diseases of children, use of drugs and bandaging.

Among the lecturers of the past two years, to whom the Committee offer their sincere thanks for their kindness towards the School, are Drs. P. F. Munde, Alfred Meyer, Van Arsdale, H. Dessau, Gruenning and Lilienthal.

Arrangements have been made with the Willard Parker Hospital and Isolation Board of the Mt. Sinai Hospital, facilitating our nurses to be trained in the cure of contagious diseases.

Also, as Ward's Island Hospital has opened a ward devoted to infants born there, who are to be taken care of until one month old, the courteous offer of Dr. A. Thomas, that our nurses should be in charge, has been willingly accepted.

Owing to Dr. Heineman's contemplated journey to Europe, Dr. Scharlau has kindly accepted to add his name to this committee, and owing to limited time on the part of Dr. Stimpson, we have still to add the name of Dr. Janeway to our list of examiners and advisers.

Examination of the Junior and Senior classes have taken place each year, and have proved satisfactory to all.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. HEIDELBACH, Chairman.

Report of Superintendent.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1st, 1889.

*To the President and Board of Managers of Mount Sinai
Training School for Nurses:*

At the date of last Report, Jan. 1st, 1887, the number of nurses in the School was.....	35

Of these forty-eight, forty-five are accepted pupils and three are probationers.

During the past two years thirty-two nurses have received diplomas. Of this number one has been engaged as Assistant Superintendent in our own School, one is in charge of the City Hospital at Evansville, Indiana, one as Superintendent of the German Hospital Training School in this city, two hold permanent positions in the Willard Parker Hospital, and one in the New York Cancer Hospital.

The remaining number are pursuing their profession as nurses in private families.

Six hundred and twenty-three applications for nurses have been received from private families in New York and other cities, one hundred and twenty-seven of which we have supplied from the School. The remainder of the calls have been given to the graduates.

There has been some illness in the School, but we are thankful to report that death has not invaded our midst.

I wish to acknowledge my obligations to the Surgical and Medical Staff for their advice and encouragement, and to extend my thanks to the Authorities of the Hospital for kindness and courtesy received.

Respectfully submitted,

A. L. ALSTON,

Superintendent.

Report of District Nursing.

To the President and Board of Managers:

The work of District Nursing has been carried on by our nurses, with short intervals, for over two years, and as the Mount Sinai Dispensary could not offer enough cases for our nurses, the outdoor cases of the Montefiore Home have become part of our work. More than 1,000 visits have been made yearly by our nurses. The nurses of our school who have taken interest in this work are, Miss Fick, Miss Minnock, Miss Bell, Miss Henderson, Miss Von Brun, Miss Ketchum, Miss Wingert.

Money has been supplied for delicacies from the secret fund of that particular part of the school and clothing from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ethical Culture Society. Owing to there being no regular work offered us from the Mount Sinai Dispensary, and the "New" Montefiore Home being able to take care of all of its patients within its own spacious walls, the District Nurse has been withdrawn until more satisfactory arrangements have been made.

RULES FOR THE
ADMISSION OF PUPILS
TO THE
MT. SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, 852 Lexington avenue, New York, upon whose approval they will be received into the school for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty-one to thirty-five years. The applicants should send with answers to the paper of questions a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the school, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the school, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses after signing an agreement to remain two years and to obey the rules of the school and hospital. They will reside in the Home, and serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the superintendent, either to act as nurses in the hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay is $7 a month for the entire course. This sum is allowed for the dress, text-books, and other personal expenses of the nurse, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required after the month of probation when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution, which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., with an hour off for dinner and additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to three hours every Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the school three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes :

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups and leeches.
2. The administration of enemas and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed sores, and managing positions.
6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.

7. The preparing, cooking and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected; to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delirium or stupor, breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines; and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the school they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the Examining Board and by a Committee of the Board of Managers.

Applicants are required to fill out in their own handwriting and send to the Superintendent of Training School, 852 Lexington avenue, New York, answers to the following questions :

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS:

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

OF THE SOCIETY,

AS AMENDED FEBRUARY 23, 1885.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life members, patrons, and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a board of thirteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and nine Directors, three of whom to be elected at each biennial general meeting of the Society, for a term of six years.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office. The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, may appoint or designate some person to assist the Secretary in the performance of these duties. The person so appointed or designated as Assistant Secretary shall not vote at the meetings of this Society by virtue of such office, unless otherwise entitled to do so.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee, invest all surplus funds; and shall make written monthly reports to the Board of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

absence of any Director from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which she may be a member for a consecutive period of three months without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XVI.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10, and of members $3 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

The dues of Life Members ($100), legacies, and all donations amounting to, or exceeding the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be received by the Treasurer, and shall be held as, or added to (unless the testator or donor otherwise directs), a distinct and separate fund, to be known as the Permanent Fund ; which fund shall be invested by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Finance Committee; and the income derived from the investment of such fund shall be applied and used for the current expenses of the Society.

Whenever it may be deemed necessary to use any portion or all of the Permanent Fund, notice of the amount which it is proposed to use of such fund, must be sent to the officers and Directors, at least one week prior to a meeting, at which meeting two-thirds of those officers and Directors present must assent before any portion of such Permanent Fund can be used.

ARTICLE XVI.

These Rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present, provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT.

To the Patrons and Members of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses :

As the duty of presenting a sketch of the workings of this institution for the last two years devolves upon me, I deem it wise to explain to all who may be interested that I have occupied the much-appreciated position of President of this Society but a few months; consequently my report cannot be as detailed as if I had had the experience of the full term. I make this statement, as I fear I may forget to acknowledge the kindness or interest of some friends; and, if such a case should arise, I beg them to understand that it is not prompted by ingratitude, but is the result of inexperience.

As I do not wish to encroach upon the prerogative of each chairman of our many committees, I will only call to notice the principal departments, and pay particular attention to the department of finance, which means the success or distress of a corporation.

Since our last report our Board has undergone many changes; the first and most important one, the unexpected resignation of our esteemed President, Mrs. A. H. Louis, a lady so capable and influential that it caused great regret. Mrs. Nathan Strauss, a very able Manager, resigning soon afterwards, two vacancies had to be filled, and Mrs. L. Lewisohn and Mrs. H. Ollesheimer were elected.

This autumn we had to accept the resignation of Mrs. Lewis May, one of our oldest Directresses, whose efforts in behalf of the institution had been numerous and always crowned with the success her goodness deserves, but we were happy to welcome back in her stead Mrs. A. Limburger, one of our most efficient former co-workers.

Another change was that of increasing the membership of the Board. As some of the members were to be absent for some time,

I thought it wise to ask for an enlargement of the Board from thirteen to fifteen members; and I am happy to say we now have Mrs. Eugene Lewis and Mrs. Isaac Adler as the additional Directresses. Owing to the energy of the Board and its good will towards the School we have satisfactorily attended to all the requirements, which during the past year were many and irksome.

Referring to the report of 1887-'89, "with a view to reducing our annual expenditures," we accepted the proposition of Mount Sinai Hospital to occupy the four upper stories of the Dispensary building to be erected for this use. We have moved to these new quarters on May 1st, 1890, but as we have to pay a yearly rental of $2,600—without janitors—I am afraid our end has not been gained, as may be noticed by the Treasurer's report; as, however, this Home has but few faults, we can justly say that we have an ideal "Home" for the many women in our charge, whose arduous duties as hospital nurses entitle them to some comforts after their many hours of toil. The moving of such a household was so efficiently done by the ladies of the Executive Committee who had the work in charge, that I must publicly express my thanks, as not alone was economy observed, as may be seen by the Treasurer's report, but the taste displayed in furnishing the premises was so excellent, and the distribution of the work in such a large household and the many details, were attended to with such skill, that these ladies deserve the highest encomiums.

Through the kindness of a lady who sent us a carpet and furniture for the library, and of a friend who raised the large sum of $1,500, very little of the permanent fund of the society was used in furnishing rooms for the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Matron, fifty-four nurses and nine servants, besides parlors and lecture-room. Through the generosity of a gentleman, the shelves of our library are no longer bare, but many books are there; and I trust this good example may reap a shower of volumes from all sides.

The Medical Board of the Hospital, thinking they could improve upon the system of education heretofore prevailing in the school, offered to superintend the educational department, and since last January they are responsible for the instruction. So much interest was shown by the President of the Medical Board, and those who accepted his appointment to the Committee on Training School, that I feel sure that their endeavors will meet with success, and we will have, what does not exist elsewhere in America—nurses trained by the visiting doctors of the Hospital.

Our Superintendents' duties toward the Society have been executed with care and precision such as few women have the power to exhibit, added to which the deep interest they have in the work gives a lofty tone to the Home and has an elevating influence on the inmates. I sincerely hope that they will long continue our associates.

The Superintendent and Matron of the Hospital have shown great consideration and kindness towards us, and I beg them to be cognizant of our appreciation. The Directors of the Hospital, always on the alert to improve the condition of their institution and to aid us in enlarging the experience of our nurses, have given into our charge the "Middle House," which consists of rooms especially devoted to private patients, which heretofore was under the supervision and care of any nurses that might be found, not necessarily graduates of our School.

Our sincere thanks are due to Dr. Moses, who kindly addressed the graduates in 1889, and to Dr. A. Jacobi, President Seth Low, Dr. Alfred Meyer and Dr. A. G. Gerster, who by their addresses made the graduation exercises in 1890 so highly interesting and successful.

The finances, the weak point of all young societies, are a matter of great concern to us, as with our larger quarters come larger expenses; and although the economies are looked to by competent officers, we find that we have increased our expenses to such a degree that our income must be improved. But how? Why is it so difficult to enlist the sympathies of kindly disposed persons for objects that are—not charitable, but how much better—philanthropic. How can one do better towards humanity than by helping her to help herself? In graduating from twenty-six to thirty young women yearly, who are henceforth independent from a money point of view, who can occupy positions so much respected and looked up to as that of a trained nurse may be; who are induced, through association and the studies forced upon them while pupils, to care for reading and things educational—how can so many remain mute to an appeal to aid us in furthering this branch of education? Besides, the more selfish motive might play a part—to be able to procure in time of necessity a woman whose life is devoted to the care of the helpless and the sick, who through her experience must be a better caretaker of our nearest and dearest when ill—is that not recognized as a great benefit? I wish I had a voice loud enough, and a pen eloquent enough to reach the hearts of the multitude, that some more might come forward and pour wealth enough into our treasury to keep us beyond the necessity of constantly appealing—for then there would be no cloud over the pride of many earnest and hard-working women—The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses.

Respectfully submitted.

ADDIE WALTER SELIGMAN,

President.

January, 1891.

Report of the Executive Committee.

*To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai
Training School for Nurses :*

It is said "Custom makes laws," and there is no exception in this instance to the usages of associations; and whilst no written law exists, it is necessary that reports of the doings and internal affairs of the Society should be presented for your consideration at this, the expiration of two years, and an account be given in detail of such matters as will be of interest, not only to the managers of the institution, but to the general public.

During the period mentioned, there have been nineteen meetings of this committee, and many subjects of vital interest to the management of the Home and the proper care and instruction of the nurses, have been discussed and considered, with an eye at all times to obtain the best possible results and least expenditure of money, without interfering with the comfort and diet, which nurses so properly require after long hours of labor at the bedside of the sick.

HOME.

In 1888, the Society entered into a contract with the Mount Sinai Hospital to lease of them when finished, from plans shown at that time, part of the third, the entire fourth, fifth and sixth stories of their new Dispensary building on the north side of Sixty-seventh Street, at a rental of $2,600 per annum, thus increasing our expenditure $200 per year; but undoubtedly obtaining more than that value, in increased room and accommodation. The building was occupied, although not fully completed, by May 1st, 1890.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

New quarters with increased surface space and larger rooms rendered new house furnishing necessary. The bedding and kitchen utensils in the old Home, having been well worn, were sold at auction and new articles purchased, really making an entire new equipment of everything that was necessary for the Home.

This house-furnishing was, however, made less of a burden to the Association, the larger part of the amount having been contributed by friends of the institution, who do not desire their names made public, and to whom, in this indirect manner the thanks of your committee are tendered.

FOOD ACCOUNT.

We are pleased to state that there has been no material increase in the cost of food in 1889, over that of the previous years; the year 1890, however, shows a slight increase in the total, due to the larger staff of nurses and increased help that was required in the new building, and likewise to the advance in the cost of provisions. Appended is a memorandum of the cost of food during the years 1889 and 1890, which shows that the per capita cost has been but very slightly increased, and the price of meals shows likewise but a very small advance over that of the previous years.

THE COST OF FOOD.

	1889.	1890.
Meat	$1,295.00	$1,633.58
Groceries	562.26	726.82
Provisions	902.41	1,195.15
Milk	382.71	473.71
Fish	127.84	190.15
Ice	49.48	146.90
Bread	278.67	380.21
Total cost	$3,898.37	$4,756.52
Average number of inmates in the Home per diem	53	59

IN 1890.

In 1889 meals were furnished at about a cost of 0.07 per meal per capita.

In 1890 meals were furnished at a cost of nearly 0.08 per capita per meal.

SUPERINTENDENT.

The Superintendent, Miss Alston, with her Assistant, has worked faithfully during the past years, and has done much towards making the institution (what it is at the present day) one of the foremost in the city, and besides attending to her duties properly at the Hospital, has made the Home all that the name implies.

MATRON.

The present matron has been with us the past four months, and appears to understand her duties and to discharge them faithfully.

Under the new regime, daily bills of fare have been arranged for the entire year. The Managers have improved upon those of the past by giving the nurses a more generous diet than they have had heretofore, which in part probably has added to the increase of expense in the food for the year 1890.

As mentioned, the increased labors in the new Home and the larger room occupied, have compelled the employment of additional servants, likewise a man, who is to properly take care of and run the elevator, all of whom are under the direct control of the Matron, and she reports that everything in that direction has worked satisfactory.

ALLOWANCE FOR NURSES.

There has been no change in this direction.

SALARIES.

Owing to the increased demands on the Superintendent and her Assistant, their salaries were increased respectively:

That of the Superintendent, from $800 to $1,000.

That of the Assistant, from $360 to $600.

NURSES' UNIFORMS.

The material for the School uniforms has been purchased abroad at wholesale, as it was found that the goods manufactured in this country did not give substantial wear.

To this report we append a statement of the total expenditure for the years 1889 and 1890, and at the same time present a list of donations. To these latter, proper acknowledgments have been made at the time of the receipt.

Report of Finance Committee.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31st, 1890.

Training School for Nurses:*

At the date of our last Biennial Report, December 29th, 1888, our Treasurer reported a balance due her of $531.01. Since then our total receipts from all sources to this date have been $40,491.55, while our total disbursements for the same period have been $33,797.54, showing a surplus of $6,694.01. In the receipts as mentioned above, the proceeds of Fair held in December, 1888, amounting to $11,568.94, are included.

Balance due Treasury Dec. 28th, 1888.....	$531.01
In 1889 our income was	$24,688.89
In 1889 our disbursements were.....	14,352.32

	$20,945.22
Deficit for the year 1890.....	$5,142.56
Balance in bank, Dec. 31st, 1890.....	$4,663.00

By comparing total expenditures of 1889 and 1890, an increase in expenditures in year 1890 of $5,092.90 will be noticed, which is due to the greater number of inmates, removal of school into a new building, furnishing, etc.

For our support we depend,

- I. Upon the annual dues of Patrons and Members.
- II. For the services of our nurses in the hospital.
- III. For the services of our nurses in private families.
- IV. Donations.

INCOME FROM PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

Report of Committee on Instruction.

To the President and Board of Managers of The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses:

During the year 1889 we continued pursuing the same plan of instruction for our nurses as mentioned in our last report, but it was deemed expedient to adopt a new system of education, and in January 1890, when Drs. Gerster, Meyer and Wyeth entered into office, upon the retirement of Drs. Scharlau, Munde and Janeway, the direct supervision of the various classes was transferred to the Committee on Training School of the Medical Board of The Mount Sinai Hospital, with Dr. Gerster as Chairman, who most ably fills his position, ever manifesting the deepest interest in the welfare of those under his charge. The course of instruction, as heretofore, extends over a period of two years.

Our junior classes continue under the capable tuition of Dr. Sara Welt, the course of study comprising Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology, Materia Medica and Hygiene.

Our Superintendent, Miss Alston, efficiently supervises the instruction of the senior classes in the details of nursing, as well as giving lessons in massage.

The practical training of our nurses is gained while in attendance upon the patients in the wards of Mount Sinai Hospital, being instructed by the visiting staff of physicians—an advantage enjoyed by no other nurses in any sister institution. All bedside instruction is given by our Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Deering, and the head nurses, and in connection with this we have arranged regular series of lectures, to be delivered weekly by the physicians connected with the hospital. During the past two sessions lectures were delivered by:

Dr. Arpad G. Gerster, on Surgical Nursing and Emergencies.

Dr. Alfred Meyer, on Medical Emergencies.

Dr. John A. Wyeth, on Surgical Nursing.

Dr. Emil Gruening, on Nursing in Eye and Ear Diseases.

Dr. H. N. Heineman, on General Rules and Ethical Duties of Nursing.

Dr. S. H. Dessau, on Nursing in Children's Diseases.

Dr. Howard Lilienthal, on Bandaging and Antiseptic Dressings.

Dr. Sara Welt, on Nursing in Children's Diseases and Infant Nursing.

Dr. Paul F. Munde, on Nursing in Female Diseases and Lying-in Women.

Dr. Josephine Walter, on Nursing of Lying-in Women and Infants.

Dr. W. W. Van Arsdale, on Emergencies.

Dr. S. L. Weber, on Bacteria.

It was found desirable to give each graduating class systematic instruction in the preparation of diet for the sick, and an arrangement was made to this effect with the New York Cooking School, each class receiving six lessons.

Dr. Mandelbaum has kindly volunteered to direct a class of our nurses in the use and application of electricity, this forming a very desirable addition to the general course of instruction.

The hospital at Ward's Island being no longer open to us, arrangements have been perfected with the New York Foundling Asylum for practical training in obstetrics; and the advantages offered here are so far superior to those our nurses enjoyed in the former institution, that we have every reason to congratulate ourselves on the change.

We must not omit to note the advantages derived from the practical experience obtained in contagious diseases by our nurses at the Willard Parker Hospital, as well as in the Isolation Ward of Mount Sinai Hospital.

Our semi-annual examinations have proved exceedingly satisfactory to all concerned. Our thanks are due to all the medical men, especially to those of the Committee on Instruction, and we wish to acknowledge to all our gratitude for their friendly and professional assistance.

We tender our sincere thanks to the Superintendent of Bellevue Training School for the courtesy shown us in permitting several of our nurses to enjoy their week's vacation at the Edith Summer Home.

We are deeply indebted to Mr. Hyman Blum for his ever-recurring favors to the members of the graduating classes.

The Hornthal Medal, as usual, was awarded for excellence in ward duty, giving much pleasure to the deserving nurse.

We are happy to state that we have issued diplomas to forty-seven graduates during the past two years, this being the largest number of nurses ever having passed examination at our School.

Respectfully submitted.

Superintendent's Report.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses :

At the date of the last report, January 1st, 1889, the number of nurses in the School was.....	48
Since then there have been five hundred and nine (509) applications for admission to the School, of which there have been accepted on probation.....	100
Total number in the School during the past two years.....	148
Of these one hundred and forty-eight pupils there have been graduated....	47
Dismissed as unsatisfactory probationers.....	36
Probationers resigned.....	9
Resigned on account of physical disability.....	4
Dismissed for cause.....	2
Remaining in the School.....	50
	148

Of these fifty, forty-eight are accepted pupils and two are probationers.

While on duty in the Hospital the nurses have given faithful service and have shown great enthusiasm and self-forgetfulness in their work. Of the forty-seven nurses who have received their diplomas, one has been engaged as Matron in a private hospital in this city, one has died, and two married. The remaining number are pursuing their profession as nurses in private families.

Since our last report one of our graduates has accepted the position of Superintendent of a Training School in Galveston, Texas, and another has gone as her assistant; one is a Matron of a hospital in Montgomery, Alabama; one is Matron and Superintendent of a hospital in Flushing, N. Y.; one is Head of Nurses at the Woman's Hospital in this city, and one is doing district work.

Seven hundred and eighty applications have been received from private families in New York and other cities, the majority of which were supplied by the graduates of our school.

There has been very little serious illness and we are thankful to report no deaths among the pupil nurses.

My thanks are due the gentlemen of the Medical and Surgical Staff, and to the authorities of the hospital, for kindness and courtesy received.

To Dr. Arpad Gerster, the Chairman of our Committee, I feel particularly indebted for his ready attention and kind advice on all occasions.

To the President and Board of Managers of our School I desire, in presenting this my biennial report, to express to them my appreciation of their continued confidence and encouragement; thanking them for their many courtesies, and trusting to merit their continued favor.

I have the honor to subscribe myself,

Respectfully,

ANNA L. ALSTON,

Superintendent.

January 1st, 1891.

Report of District Nursing.

To the President and Board of Managers :

The work of District Nursing has been carried on most successfully by our nurses for the last two years, the cases being almost entirely furnished by the Mount Sinai Dispensary. The money needed to cover the expenses of this work has been supplied by a secret fund, and the clothing has been donated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Society for Ethical Culture as heretofore, who will please accept our sincere thanks.

The nurses taking part in the District Nursing were Miss Susan Cary, Miss Amy Mitchell, Miss Josepha Chase, Miss Ada Town, Miss H. Randolph, Miss E. Williams and Miss L. Davis, who have rendered a monthly report of the work accomplished.

Satisfactory arrangements having been made for the coming year, we trust that our District Nursing will continue to show the gratifying results which such a necessary and humane work so richly deserves.

MRS. H. OLLESHEIMER, Chairman.

MRS. J. H. SCHIFF.

MRS. O. RICHARD.

R U L E S
FOR THE
ADMISSION OF PUPILS
TO THE
Mt. Sinai Training School for Nurses.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, 149 East 67th street, New York, upon whose approval they will be received into the school for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty-one to thirty-five years. The applicants should send with answers to the paper of questions a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the school, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The Superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the school, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Candidates should remember that they come on trial; their acceptance as pupils will depend wholly upon the developments of that term, regardless of the peculiar circumstances of any particular case. The decision, when rendered, is final. The reasons for the rejection of a probationer are not given, neither are personal letters returned.

As the result of the trial is uncertain, applicants should consider it carefully, so that undue disappointment shall not follow an unsuccessful venture.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses after signing an agreement to remain two years and to obey the rules of the School and Hospital. They will reside in the Home and serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the Superintendent, either to act as nurses in the hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay is $7 a month for the entire course. This sum is allowed for the dress, text-books, and other personal expenses of the nurses, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required after the month of probation when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution, which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., with an hour off for dinner and additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to three hours every Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the School three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes:

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups and leeches.
2. The administration of enemata and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed sores, and managing positions.

6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.

7. The preparing, cooking and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected; to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delirium or stupor, breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines; and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the Superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the school they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the Examining Board and by a Committee of the Board of Managers.

Applicants are required to fill out in their own handwriting and send to the Superintendent of Training School, 852 Lexington avenue, New York, answers to the following questions :

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS:

Constitution and By-Laws of the Society as amended
February 23d, 1885, November 14th, 1889, October
7th and December 11th, 1890.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life members, patrons and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this society shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant or Financial Secretary, and a Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term thereof, up to the next regular election. In case one of these offices should become vacated during these two years, the Board can fill such office from its midst for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a Board of fifteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and ten Directors, five of whom to be elected at each biennial general meeting of the Society, for a term of six years.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall be an Advisory Board of nine members, consisting of the President of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital and the three members of that Board appointed on the Committee on Instruction, together with the President of the Mount Sinai Hospital, and four Directors of said Hospital annually appointed by him.

This Advisory Board may be convened into joint meeting with the Directors of the Mount Sinai Training School by its President, and notice of such meetings shall be sent to each member of the Board of Mount Sinai Training School and of the Advisory Board. This notice shall state the object of the meeting. Members of the Advisory Board shall not be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI. A.

There shall be a Committee on Instruction consisting of six members: three from the Board of Directors of the Training School, to be appointed by its President, in conjunction with three members of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital, who are to be annually designated by the Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for appointment by the President of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital.

The Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School shall also annually appoint a Chairman of the Committee on Instruction, who is to be selected by them from the three members of the Medical Board appointed on that Committee.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office. The Assistant or Financial Secretary shall keep books, send out bills, invitations, etc.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee, invest all surplus funds; and shall make written monthly reports to Board of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full charge and control of all matters appertaining to the Society, and shall hold a meeting on the second Thursday of each month. The Board may fill vacancies in its own body until the next ensuing election, when a Director (or Directors) shall be elected for the unexpired term (or terms). A majority of the officers and Directors together shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. The absence of any Director from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which she may be a member for a consecutive period of three months without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XVI.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10, and of members $3 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

The dues of Life Members ($100), legacies, and all donations amounting to, or exceeding, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be received by the Treasurer, and shall be held as, or added to (unless the testator or donor otherwise directs), a distinct and separate fund, to be known as the Permanent Fund; which shall be invested by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Finance Committee; and the income derived from the investment of such fund shall be applied and used for the current expenses of the Society.

Whenever it may be deemed necessary to use any portion or all of the Permanent Fund, notice of the amount which it is proposed to use of such fund, must be sent to the officers and Directors, at least one week prior to a meeting, at which meeting two-thirds of those officers and Directors present must assent before any portion of such Permanent Fund can be used.

ARTICLE XVI.

These rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present; provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

Rules for Graduates, Adopted October 7th, 1890.

Where the Board of Managers find there has been well-founded cause for complaint against any nurse, either for neglect or other reasons, upon the

First complaint: Said nurse be brought before the Board and severely reprimanded.

Second complaint: Nurse's name be expunged from the official registry.

Third complaint: An o mark to be placed opposite her name in the official list of graduates, published in the Biennial Reports, indicating the nurse's general unfitness and incompetence to assume the care of a patient.

Graduates from 1883 until 1888.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT.

To the Patrons and Members of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses :

I think the most important consideration, in reviewing the serious efforts of a Board of Managers, is to note the success or failure of the Society under its management ; therefore I can begin my report of the workings of the Mount Sinai Training School for the last two years by the encouraging word, "success." We have certainly passed through the most perilous years of our existence, and feel we have emerged, claiming and owning the support of many more friends than we have heretofore known. The public, which we have needed as a friend so long, is beginning to appreciate our efforts in educating such competent nurses, and show their appreciation by becoming supporters of the school after having employed one of our nurses. With such good will from the public and the untiring efforts of managers and friends, our list of patrons and members is increasing, so that we hope to avoid appealing to our friends to help us out by concert or fair for some time to come. We have now the undisputed reputation of being one of the best training schools known, and without lauding my Board in an unbecoming manner, I ask, Why not ? There certainly does not exist a school of its kind whose welfare is guarded and watched over as is ours. Each department is perfect in its way, owing to the care and thought bestowed upon it by its particular chairman and committee, and we feel now we can ask all to come to learn from us, when only ten years ago we were but beginners.

Our school now has 64 pupils, the largest number it has ever had, and as the demands from private patients and hospital become greater, we hope to increase that already great number. We feel we can assume the care and education of so many students, owing to our having such a very able superintendent,

Miss Anna Alston, and assistant superintendent, Mrs. M. Dearing. The larger the school the more capable they become. I desire to bring to the notice of the public, especially that public which is interested in such matters, that we have twelve Jewesses among our pupils in the school, and five are to enter the coming Spring Class. I mention these facts, because, for years, we were unsuccessful in procuring such desirable pupils, and we are thankful that they are at last learning how useful and helpful they can make their lives.

Since my last report the Board has not undergone many changes. Mrs. Felix Samson, who for so many years has been identified with the school as its treasurer, had to resign that office, owing to illness in her family, but Mrs. Samson is still a member of the Board, and we feel very grateful for her undying interest in the institution. Mrs. A. Limburger is now filling the position of treasurer with ability that very few women could display. Mrs. Eugene Lewis, one of our most esteemed and efficient managers, has resigned, and Mrs. Randolph Guggenheimer has been asked to accept her seat in the Board. This solitary resignation goes to prove that our Board is an exceptionally congenial and energetic body, and only such a Board can bring about good results. I hope we may long remain as we are to-day.

Drs. Gerster, Meyer and Wyeth, who are our medical advisers and instructors, show us, as they have shown us, the greatest kindness and consideration. The only change recommended to us by the Instruction Committee was to have a yearly instead of semi-yearly commencement, which was decided would take place in future, on the last Thursday evening in Jauuary. The present systems have worked so successfully in each department that few innovations have been introduced during the last twenty-four months.

Pupils' thanks are hereby offered to Mr. Eldridge T. Teny and Drs. Heineman and Alfred Meyer for addressing our nurses at the last public graduation. Also to those Directors of Mount Sinai Hospital who have encouraged us in our work of the school, either by advice as to how to meet our monetary difficulties, or by interesting themselves in procuring patrons and members for the school.

The noble behavior of our nurses, Miss Grunthal, Miss Jacobs and Miss Switzer, in volunteering to become nurses at Oakdale,

Mass., and North Brother Island during the typhus fever epidemic last Winter, deserves words of great praise, and adds a new reason why we should continue training such women to the profession who will, when the right time comes, show the world that not all nurses think of themselves first.

In fact, without individualizing, let me thank all those who take an interest in us, be he or she Manager of Mount Sinai Hospital, doctor, lecturer, teacher, superintendent, friend, supporter or nurse, whoever you may be, your helping hand is appreciated ; you are raising a fine monument to philanthropy and education ; continue to help us, and we, in our turn, will help you when misfortune, in the shape of disease, visits you and you need our help, a Trained Nurse.

Respectfully submitted,

ADDIE WALTER SELIGMAN,

President.

Report of the Executive Committee, Jan. 1st., 1893.

To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses:

Looking backward over a period of two years just passed, we find that an increased number of inmates, with larger accommodations, have scarcely added to the expenses incurred of running our institution, while it has materially strengthened in its charitable and philanthropic work—aiding a number of young women, who have thus been added to the self-supporting portion of the community, and increasing the many benefits to be derived from trained nursing.

During this period there have been held eighteen meetings of your executive committee, the work being so arranged as to render more meetings unnecessary. At all times the matter of economy has been considered and reductions made where possible, without depriving our inmates of their absolute wants and comforts.

THE HOME.

We still lease our present quarters from the Mount Sinai Hospital at the same rental, $2,600 per annum, and are occupying the entire fourth, fifth and sixth stories of their Dispensary Building, but as our inmates have, and are, increasing in numbers, we are very much crowded and await extending our present quarters.

HOUSE FURNISHING.

An increase in our staff of nurses implies new bedding, linens, etc., which are purchased from time to time, as well as new supplies of crockery, hardware and other household articles, which accounts for said expenditure.

FOOD ACCOUNT.

In this there has been an increase in the cost over the previous years, by reason of a new addition of inmates annually, as well as the advance in the prices of provisions. You will perceive there has been a very slight increase in 1892 over 1891, whilst the average number of inmates in the Home per diem in 1891 was 63, and in 1892, 67.

This economy is due to the management of our Matron, with the assistance of the Executive Board, and the way in which our provisions are purchased.

THE COST OF FOOD.

	1891.	1892.
Meat	$2,059 00	$2,239 47
Groceries	2,201 86	1,976 23
Provisions.....	211 85	520 74
Milk	566 63	489 95
Fish.....	219 15	310 89
Ice.....	127 14	170 80
Bread	409 73	346 08
Total cost.....	$5,795 36	$6,054 16
Average number of inmates in the Home per diem, 1891, 63; 1892, 67.

IN 1891.

$5,795.36 divided by (63 multiplied by 365) equals 22,995, making a cost of 0.252 per capita per day.

IN 1892.

$6,054.16 divided by (67 multiplied by 365) equals 24,455, making a cost of 0.247 per capita per day.

Or, for these years 130,305 meals were furnished at a cost of about 8 cents a meal per capita.

The fuel expenses, or the luncheons which the night nurses take with them to the Hospital, are not included in the above expenditure.

MATRON.

Our present Matron is now with us in her second year and is a most worthy person, thoroughly efficient in every respect, at the same time exercising a most motherly influence over our nurses, who consider their home a delightful retreat upon returning to it after their day's labor—all due to the delightful atmosphere which pervades the entire home.

In this connection it is in good form to mention that the food is plentiful, of good quality, and prepared and served in a palatable manner.

At a request from some of our graduates we leased our isolating room to two of them, who in turn pay a moderate sum for the lodgings and so much per meal; this, with the increase in our staff of nurses, has compelled us to increase our number of servants from nine to ten.

IN CONCLUSION.

It will be seen that all expenses possible to control have been kept down. How successful we have been can be seen by comparing our expenses in 1892 with those of former years.

With the report we append a detailed statement of the expenses for 1891 and 1892.

Report of Finance Committee.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31st, 1892.

*To the President and Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai
Training School for Nurses:*

At the date of our last Biennial Report, December 31st, 1890, our Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $4,663.00. Since then our total receipts from all sources to this date have been $41,090.24, while our total disbursements for the same period have been $40,339.14, showing a surplus of $751.10. In the receipts, as mentioned above, the donation from the Purim Association, in April, 1891, of $750.00, as well as proceeds of entertainment in January, 1892, amounting to $6,972.95, are included.

Balance on hand, Dec. 31st, 1890.....		$4,663 00
In 1891 our income was.....		16,746 09
		$21,409 09

	$20,973 12
Balance on hand, Dec. 31st, 1892.....		$4,114 10

By comparing total expenditures of 1891 and 1892, an increase in expenditures in year 1892 of $507.10 will be noticed, which is very little, considering the increase in the number of inmates.

For our support we depend :

- I. Upon the annual dues of patrons and members.
- II. Upon the services of our nurses in the hospital.
- III. Upon the services of our nurses in private families.
- IV. Donations.
- V. Registry fees.

INCOME FROM PATRONS AND MEMBERS.

For 1891.....	$4,547 00
For 1892.....	4,538 00

Showing a decrease in 1892 of $9.00. This apparent decrease is owing to some dues for the year 1892 not having been handed in up to date.

For services of our nurses in Mount Sinai Hospital we have received :

In 1891.....	$9,927 44
In 1892.....	10,894 96
Increase in 1892.....	$967 52

For services of our nurses in private families :

Report of Committee on Instruction.

To the President and Board of Managers Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses :

We take much pleasure in submitting to you the very satisfactory result of our work during the past two years. The system of education adopted in January, 1890, with our various classes, under the direct supervision of the Committee of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital, consisting of Drs. Gerster, Meyer and Wyeth, has proven most successful.

The curriculum of the School continues to cover a period of two years. To further systematize our course we have introduced a change of annual graduation exercises, instead of semi-annual ones, as heretofore, and trust our desired aim will be attained.

Dr. Sara Welt gives semi-weekly theoretical instruction to the Senior Classes in anatomy, hygiene, physiology, pathology and therapeutics.

Miss Alston, our Superintendent, directs the studies of the Junior and Senior Classes in the ethics of nursing, observation of symptoms, materia medica and massage.

We here desire to recognize the thoroughness of the tuition given by Dr. Welt and Miss Alston.

The practical training of our nurses is acquired while in attendance upon the patients in the wards of Mount Sinai Hospital, and instruction by the visiting staff of physicians, an advantage possessed by no other school. All bedside training is given by our Assistant Superintendent and the head nurses, and to further qualify our pupils we have arranged a definite course of lectures, to be delivered at the Home once a week by some of the doctors connected with the Hospital.

During the past two years the following addresses were given:

Dr. Arpad G. Gerster, on Surgical Nursing.

Dr. Alfred Meyer, on Medical Emergencies.

- Dr. John A. Wyeth, on Surgical Emergencies.
Dr. Josephine Walter, on Lying-in Women and Young Infants.
Dr. Emil Gruening, on Nursing in Eye and Ear Diseases.
Dr. Howard N. Lilienthal, on Special Operative Cases.
Dr. Howard N. Lilienthal, on Germ Theory.
Dr. H. Newton Heineman, on Ethics of Nursing and Medical Nursing.
Dr. W. W. Van Arsdale, on Aseptic and Antiseptic Surgery.
Dr. Kellog, on Bandaging.
Dr. Howard N. Lilienthal, on Bandaging.
Dr. Sara Welt, on Children's Diseases.
Dr. Osbaldeston, on Massage.

It was decided to give each graduating class systematic instruction in the preparation of diet for the sick; such arrangements were perfected with the New York Cooking School, but within the past year a change has been considered expedient, and practical lessons in invalids' cooking are now given at the Home by the Superintendent.

We must acknowledge with many thanks the courtesy shown our School by the Nursery and Child's Hospital and New York Foundling Asylum, in permitting our nurses to gain their practical knowledge of obstetrics in the above-mentioned institutions.

We beg herewith to thank the Willard Parker Hospital, and note the advantages derived from practical experience obtained here by our nurses in contagious diseases. The Isolation Ward of Mount Sinai Hospital as well is always open to us.

Our Semi-annual Examinations have passed with entire satisfaction to all interested. We are exceedingly grateful to Dr. Gerster, our Chairman, and Drs. Meyer and Wyeth for their untiring efforts in furthering the welfare of our School. To all the medical men who so kindly have delivered lectures we desire to acknowledge our appreciation of their friendly and professional guidance.

To the Edith Summer Home our thanks are due for kindly permitting several of our nurses to obtain here a week's rest.

To Dr. Southgate Leigh we are indebted for awarding an annual prize to the most efficient head nurse in the Surgical Ward of Mount Sinai Hospital.

For ever remembering our Graduating Class we give many thanks to Mr. Hyman Blum.

The Hornthal Medal, awarded for general excellence in ward duty, is most zealously prized by the fortunate possessor.

Respectfully submitted.

Remaining in the School.....	64
	176

Of these sixty-four, fifty-nine are accepted pupils and five are on probation.

Of the thirty nurses who have received their diplomas, one holds a position as head of the obstetrical department at the Nursery and Childs Hospital of this city, one as Superintendent of Nurses at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and one a permanent position in the contagious pavilions at North Brother Island. The remaining number are pursuing their profession as nurses in private families.

Since our last report one of our graduates has resigned her position as Superintendent of the Training School of the Seeley Hospital at Galveston, Texas, and accepted a position in the Evangelical Lutheran Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.; one is Matron and Superintendent of the Flushing Hospital, Flushing, L. I.; one is Supervising Nurse in St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y.; one is Head Nurse at the Soldiers' Home at Rowayton, Conn.; one has gone to St. Paul's House, Rome, Italy, to serve as nurse to the English Colony; three are doing district work in the city, three have married, and two died.

One thousand three hundred and ninety applications have been received from private families of this and other cities, the majority of which were supplied by the graduates of the School.

The nurses in the Hospital have worked faithfully and with great enthusiasm. There have been many instances of devotion and self-forgetfulness, and I feel sure that the spirit in which the work is being done will continue to elevate the standard of our School, making it all that we desire it to be.

While we have had some serious illness, we are thankful to report no deaths among our pupil nurses.

My thanks are due the gentlemen of the Medical and Surgical Staff, and to the Authorities of the Hospital, for kindness and courtesy received.

To Dr. Arpad Gerster, the Chairman of our Committee, I would express my warmest thanks for his kind advice, and his unflinching interest in, and attention to, all details of the work.

To Dr. Alfred Meyer, for his faithful care of our sick pupils; he has never failed us when called upon.

To the President and Board of Managers of our School I desire, in presenting this my biennial report, to express to them my appreciation of their confidence and encouragement. Their critical oversight of the work of the School has been an inspiration, and I wish to express my deep sense of obligation for the kindly consideration always shown.

I have the honor to subscribe myself,

Respectfully,

ANNA L. ALSTON,

Superintendent.

January 1st, 1893.

Report on District Nursing.

The work of District Nursing has been carried on as heretofore by our nurses, the cases being entirely supplied by the Mount Sinai Hospital. During the year 1891 the district nurses made 1,561 visits, expending $55 for delicacies, car fares, etc. During 1892, 2,778 visits were made, and $78 expended. The money thus used is taken from a secret fund, made up by friends of the school interested in this department of our work.

Clothing is also furnished to the sick poor, where needed, and is donated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Society for Ethical Culture.

The nurses of our School who have done district work are the Misses Davis, Colgrove, Nies, Glasgow, Feldman, Sweet, Dupré, Hofker, Clave, Clark, Class and Burt ; all of whom have been faithful and untiring in the carrying out of their duties in this special department.

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. H. OLLESHEIMER, Chairman.

MRS. J. H. SCHIFF.

MRS. I. ADLER.

Committee on District Nurses.

RULES -
FOR THE
ADMISSION OF PUPILS
TO THE
Mt. Sinaj Training School for Nurses.

The Mount Sinai Training School for Nurses has made arrangements with the authorities of Mount Sinai Hospital for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the Training School, 149 East 67th street, New York, upon whose approval they will be received into the school for one month on probation. The most acceptable age for candidates is from twenty-one to thirty-five years. The applicants should send with answers to the paper of questions a letter testifying to their good moral character, and from a physician stating that they are in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year. During the month of trial, and previous to obtaining a position in the school, the applicant will be examined in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic, and English or German dictation.

The Superintendent has full power to decide as to their fitness for the work, and the propriety of retaining or dismissing them at the end of the month of trial. She can also, with the approval of the committee, discharge them at any time in case of misconduct or inefficiency.

During the month of probation the pupils are boarded and lodged at the expense of the school, but receive no other compensation, unless they continue as pupil nurses.

Candidates should remember that they come on trial; their acceptance as pupils will depend wholly upon the developments of that term, regardless of the peculiar circumstances of any particular case. The decision, when rendered, is final. The reasons for the rejection of a probationer are not given, neither are personal letters returned.

As the result of the trial is uncertain, applicants should consider it carefully, so that undue disappointment shall not follow an unsuccessful venture.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses after signing an agreement to remain two years and to obey the rules of the School and Hospital. They will reside in the Home and serve for the first year as assistants in the wards of Mount Sinai; the second year they will be expected to perform any duty assigned them by the Superintendent, either to act as nurses in the Hospital, or to be sent to private cases among the rich or poor.

The pay is $7 a month for the entire course. This sum is allowed for the dress, text-books, and other personal expenses of the nurses, and is in no wise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required after the month of probation when on duty to wear the dress prescribed by the Institution, which is of blue and white seersucker, simply made, white apron and cap, and linen collar and cuffs.

The day nurses are on duty from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., with an hour off for dinner and additional time for exercise or rest. They are also often given an afternoon during the week, and have a right to three hours every Saturday or Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed each year. It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the School three months.

In sickness all pupils will be cared for gratuitously.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes:

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups and leeches.
2. The administration of enemas and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds, moving, changing, giving baths in bed, preventing and dressing bed sores, and managing postitions.

6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.
7. The preparing, cooking and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick rooms in a proper manner, and will be taught to take care of rooms and wards, in keeping all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected; to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence, as delerium or stupor, breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicine; and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting and resident physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the Superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained will be at liberty to choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the school they will, on passing an examination, each receive a diploma, signed by the Examining Board and by a Committee of the Board of Managers.

Applicants are required to fill out in their own handwriting and send to the Superintendent of Training School, 852 Lexington avenue, New York, answers to the following questions :

REPORT OF CONDUCT AND EFFICIENCY, OR OTHER REMARKS :

Constitution and By-Laws of the Society as amended
February 23d, 1885, November 14th, 1889, October
7th and December 11th, 1890.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall be known by its incorporated name of "THE MOUNT SINAI TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society is the selection, education, training and providing of suitable persons as nurses for the sick.

ARTICLE III.

The Society shall consist of life patrons, life members, patrons and members.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and Assistant or Financial Secretary, and a Treasurer. They shall be elected biennially at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the second Thursday of January every second year. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term thereof, up to the next regular election. In case one of these offices should become vacated during these two years, the Board can fill such office from its midst for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V.

The Society shall be managed by a Board of fifteen Directors, composed of the officers named in the foregoing article, and ten Directors, five of whom to be elected at each biennial general meeting of the Society, for a term of six years.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall be an Advisory Board of nine members, consisting of the President of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital and the three members of that Board appointed on the Committee on Instruction, together with the President of the Mount Sinai Hospital, and four Directors of said Hospital annually appointed by him.

This Advisory Board may be convened into joint meeting with the Directors of the Mount Sinai Training School by its President, and notice of such meetings shall be sent to each member of the Board of Mount Sinai Training School and of the Advisory Board. This notice shall state the object of the meeting. Members of the Advisory Board shall not be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI. A.

There shall be a Committee on Instruction consisting of six members: three from the Board of Directors of the Training School, to be appointed by its President, in conjunction with three members of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital, who are to be annually designated by the Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School for appointment by the President of the Medical Board of Mount Sinai Hospital.

The Board of Managers of the Mount Sinai Training School shall also annually appoint a Chairman of the Committee on Instruction, who is to be selected by them from the three members of the Medical Board appointed on that Committee.

ARTICLE VII.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall call special meetings at discretion, or upon the written request of three members. The President shall name the members of special and standing committees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of general meetings of the Society, and shall perform the duties usually appertaining to this office. The Assistant or Financial Secretary shall keep books, send out bills, invitations, etc.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall receive and take charge of the funds of the Society, and shall give bonds, to be approved by the Finance Committee, and shall, under the direction of such committee, invest all surplus funds ; and shall make written monthly reports to Boards of Directors of the condition of the treasury, and written reports to the general meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full charge and control of all matters appertaining to the Society, and shall hold a meeting on the second Thursday of each month. The Board may fill vacancies in its own body until the next ensuing election, when a Director (or Directors) shall be elected for the unexpired term (or terms). A majority of the officers and Directors together shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. The absence of any Director from any of the meetings of the Board or of the committees of which she may be a member for a consecutive period of three months, without giving notice to the Secretary, may be considered by the President as equivalent to a resignation.

ARTICLE XII.

The Board of Directors shall control the management of the School, shall have the power to appoint and remove the Superintendent of the School, and shall determine the salaries of all nurses and subordinates. The Board shall have power to increase the number of Directors, and appoint such additional Directors by amending this Constitution and By-Laws, as provided by Article XVI.

ARTICLE XIII.

The dues of patrons shall be $10, and of members $5 annually, payable in advance. The payment of $100 will constitute the contributor a life member.

ARTICLE XIV.

All patrons and members of the Society have a preference over all other applicants for the services of nurses.

ARTICLE XV.

The dues of Life Patrons ($250), Life Members ($100), legacies, and all donations amounting to, or exceeding, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be received by the Treasurer, and shall be held as, or added to (unless the testator or donor otherwise directs), a distinct and separate fund, to be known as the Permanent Fund; which shall be invested by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Finance Committee; and the income derived from the investment of such fund may be applied and used for the current expenses of the Society.

Whenever it may be deemed necessary to use any portion or all of the Permanent Fund, notice of the amount which it is proposed to use of such fund, must be sent to the officers and Directors, at least one week prior to a meeting, at which meeting two-thirds of those officers and Directors present must assent before any portion of such Permanent Fund can be used.

ARTICLE XVI.

These rules and By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the vote of two-thirds of those present; provided, however, that one week's prior notice shall have been given of such proposed change or amendment.

Where the Board of Managers find there has been well-founded cause for complaint against any nurse, either for neglect or other reasons, upon the

First complaint: Said nurse be brought before the Board and severely reprimanded.

Second complaint: Nurse's name be expunged from the official registry.

Third complaint: An o mark to be placed opposite her name in the official list of graduates, published in the Biennial Reports, indicating the nurse's general unfitness and incompetence to assume the care of a patient.

Graduates from 1883 until 1888.
