In Memoriam

Major Millsaps

He was born in Copiah County, Mississippi, and was descended from ancestors who stood high in the early development of the State. At 17 he entered college in Indiana, graduating from DePauw University in 1854, and from Harvard Law School in 1858. His life was one of varied pursuits, including that of lawyer, soldier, business man, and philanthropist. In 1891 he founded the college which bears his name, and which today stands as a monument to his generosity.

Special to the Echo:

ORANGE GROVE, CAL., May 30.—Last night at 11:30, on the Shell Road, east of town, the "Yellow Peril," driven by A. D. Hutton, struck a Packard touring car driven by Miss Frances Loeb.

Mr. Hutton, the only occupant of his car, escaped injury, but Miss Loeb suffers from a broken collarbone and shoulder blade, while Dr. Pauline Boatner, a well-known physician of Orange Grove, received several bruises and a sprained wrist.

Mr. Hutton, in an interview with a reporter, said he was making a cross-country trip in order to test the endurance of the Jag automobile. He was driving at a speed of one hundred and ten miles when the cars collided.

Miss Loeb, of Bovina, Montana, was visiting Dr. Boatner at the time of the accident.

Letters from Hiss Torienne

Millsaps College, 1900 & 14

Edeter Esq. Annual Yearly Magazine; dear edeter:

I come to this school with great purpose; get eddication. They tell me I am a greenie. I do not know it beforehandly. This one strange place. Mostly everybody kind of people is here. They organize & have a facultie. This Faculty Esq. might suggest a museum zoo, having members. They named Ducky, Dippy, Mose, & etc. One member, Tall John, depart away, and a Shaggy come to take his place. They is a crowd here & they say they Sr. They high up. I negotiate they high up as airships. 6 weeks henceforth:

Since last time I ellecute on paper with ink to you, I find out about Srs. They not highup, they lowdown. They just been here long time. Perhapsly when it been a longtime since I income in this locality, maybe I be Sr. too. 1 mo. again.

Two (2) great deesasters befall since my last. I have been feeling too 1/2hearted to guggle forth happenings. Too many things happen at same time. Xzaminations in tull swing. Also mane building collapsed to zero by fire. Since collapse thusly I been alonesome and been movie Pictorial show, but I sorra. I guess I am homesickness.

Later: Ball talk entirely okkupy me. I develop a ball fan. We downcrash our large and dangerous enemy, Mrs. Sippi Colledge. We make walkout by front door from Chapel Esq. to selebrate holladay over enemies downcrash.

I come here to learn my poor ignorance. I succeed. Wishing you also success,

HISS TORIENNE.

Same Place, 1900 & 15.

Dear Edeter,

Once again my pen and me retort to you. It been alongtime since I write. I been three (3) months recovery from learning poor ignorance. Learning poor ignorance force some greenies to retire away forever. My brain stand up with alarm at departure of E.Y., a facultie. O! by the way, a Broncho income in our museum zoo.

(3) mo. later.

Excitement! We have new building & no more holla "here" at chapel Esq. in jim. Thusly, more excitement! Ball talk muchly. This time Mrs. Sippi goes so down deep before us & State makes us Champs.

8 mo. moreover.

Mose outcome by the r.r to Ala. and make no footsteps back.

Wishing you like success,

HISS TORIENNE.

1900 & 16.

Dear Edetor,

Oncely again I instruct you what do. Faculties say best fitters stay ontop. I assimilate they meaning thusly. Jr. class return back scarcely & mostsurely get Mrs. Sippi's goat. Where hole made by departure away of Mose, Tibullus fit in zoo making joy. 6 wks. furthermore.

Hardtime situation develop out of being Jr. All faculties ingrouch work muchly on Jrs. Of finally, I no emblify further, except basketball team make winless game trip.

Wishing you success likewise, HISS TORIENNE.

1900 & 17.

Dear Edetor,

I commit nextly with sad sickness cause I soonly make away journey & etc. Fine co. band Srs. go hitherway. Facultie zoo busy! I negotiate they learn how to discover how to do minusly Srs. to zero. Faculty expanded out by Prep and Tall John. I peruse they comeback to wepe at Sr. outgo.

8 wks. hitherfrom.

Once more again big Rouseup. Why eddicated facultie get upsir & give damnerits to holladay walkouts I no apprehend. Wilson not surely but almost elektet. Shakspeer says "to be or not to be, that's the question." We say "elektet or not elektet, holladay is unquestion."

(3) three wks. plus (+).

One half ($\frac{1}{2}$) Sr. class geologic to find pods (gastro to placy) thousand (1,000) yrs. old. Why they hunt such stale things, I snib. This ($\frac{1}{2}$) one half comeback and join other $\frac{1}{2}$ on hardwork expedition trip. I sorra I no write again. Annual Yearly Magazine closed shutup.

Wishing you success thusly, HISS TORIENNE.

With apologies to Wallace Irwin.

Senior Poem

Ring out, sad bells, to the bright sky;
The fleeting hours a sadness bring;
The college bells a summons ring,
The last to which we shall reply.

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
The life we fear to undertake;
Yet for our Alma Mater's sake
We'll strive to be faithful and true.

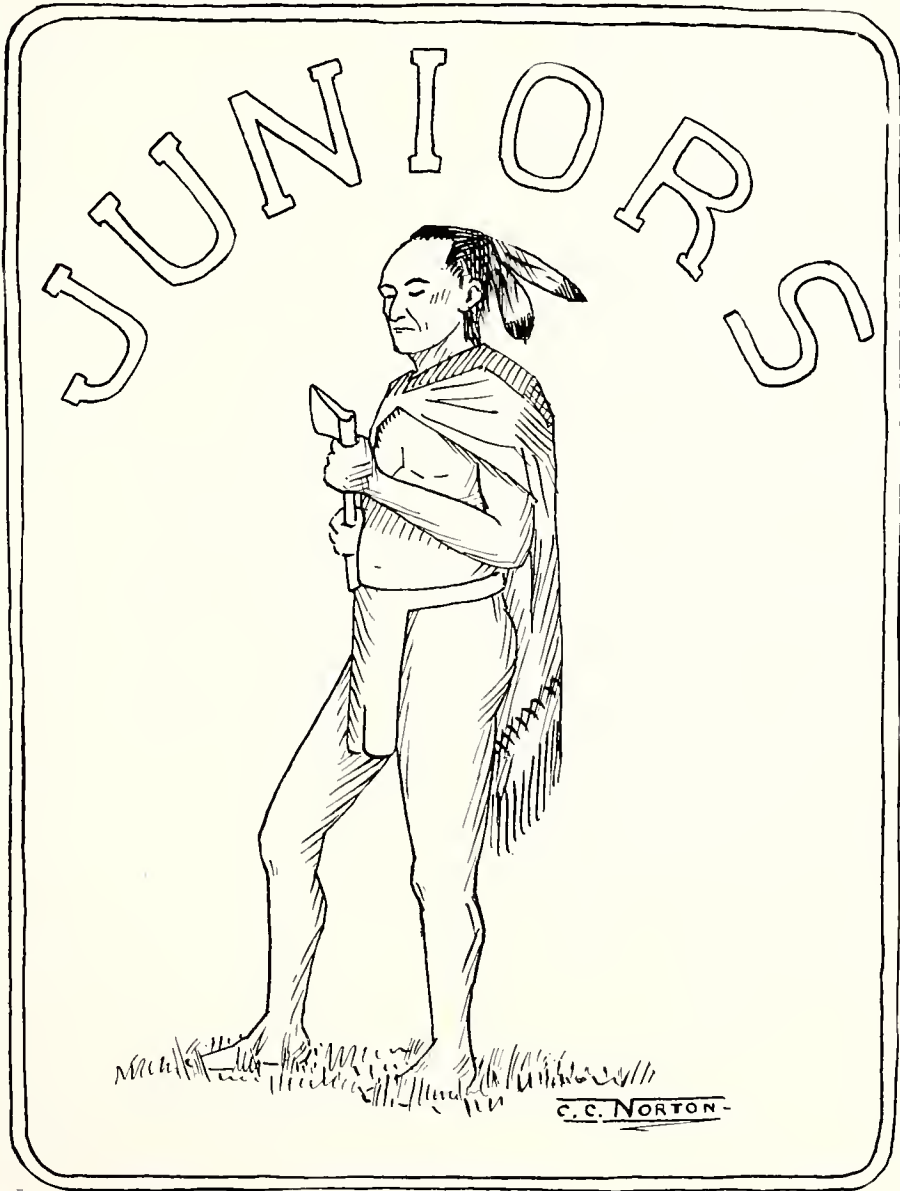

Ring out the grief we feel to-day;
We leave these halls forevermore;
Some ne'er again this friendly door
Shall enter, in some future May.

Ring out the happy college days
With "preps" and "profs" and classmates blithe,
The happy rush of student life;
Ring in the life of untried ways.

Ring in a life of usefulness,
A zealous will to be the best,
The courage to survive a test,
Ring in us lives that men will bless.

Ring in the well-loved name Millsaps,
The name that stands for valiant men;
Her noble precepts ring again,
Ring in for years to come, Millsaps.

Senior Poet.

Dr. Alex Watkins here we see,
He's just as bright as bright can be.
"Smart Aleck," do you ask? Oh, never!
His smartness is the kind called clever;
His brain is filled with useless knowledge,
And he's the head of our fair College.

Sully gets sportier day by day—
Now he's bought him a Chevrolet!
And in that car he means to ride
And look for specimens far and wide.
He's lost all interest in his class,
Just studies about the price of gas.

This gentleman's name is Dippy Kern,
He knows so much there's naught to learn;
At English he's immense.
And famous colleges afar
Have tried to take from us this star,
But only took offense.

In old dead language he doth speak,
He visits by its tomb;
His presence makes our hearts sink down
And fills our minds with gloom.
We call to him, "Stay, Dr. Key,"
In accents mild and low.
He answers "'Tempus fugit' fast;
I cannot stay, I go."

Now here's Long John, our ladies' man.
He teaches French as best he can;
But he's so fond of the fair sex
Oftimes his wits he scarce collects.
He blushes deep; we hear him say
"Let's conjugate the verb, aimer."

The night wind blows; but seek repose? Not he!
 He roosts upon his tower high and scans the peaceful, starry sky,
 Until the morn.
 And then goes down amid the masses
 And over the coals he rakes his classes,
 Till they're forlorn.

Dr. Mitchell, known to fame
 As Broncho Billy, (his pet name),
 Comes now within our view.
 This gentleman is dignified,
 But liked by all both far and wide,
 With whom he has to do.

This gentleman is Ducky Lin;
 He teaches History with a vim;
 (We really think a lot of him).
 He tells us tales of bygone days,
 He sings us bits of ancient lays,
 And all we have for him is praise.

Prep Noble is this handsome man,
 His mustache makes him pale and wan,
 Though it's really growing as well as it can.
 And when he lectures in Education,
 The students sigh in lamentation
 And say he's just an inspiration!

Do you want to see boys who are snappy?
 Just visit dear Daddy and Happy.
 They teach at the Prep,
 And they've got quite a "rep";
 But some of their pupils are sappy.

SINCE 1908 MUTT AND HIS LITTLE SIDE KICK JEFF HAVE ATTRACTED THE ATTENTION OF THE WORLD, CAUSING MILLIONS TO LAUGH, AND WINNING A GOOD MANY HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR BUD FISHER. IF TWO UNEDUCATED NUTS CAN DO THIS WHAT COULD TWO EDUCATED GUMPS LIKE THEM DO? THIS QUESTION CONFRONTED THE TRUSTEES OF MILLSAPS SOME TIME AGO AND THE NEXT PICTURE WAS THE RESULT.

THIS IS THE LATEST PHOTO OF LONG JOHN AND HIS LITTLE SIDE KICK DIPPY. THEY WERE BROUGHT TO MILLSAPS FOR THE HUMOROUS DEPT. AND TO ATTRACT THE PUBLIC'S ATTENTION TOWARD THE COLLEGE. SINCE THEIR ARRIVAL THE ENROLLMENT OF THE COLLEGE HAS DOUBLED—AND ALL HUMOROUS PUBLICATIONS HAVE BEEN FOUND UNNECESSARY. DR. DUCKY OF THE FOODSOPHONY AND PROPHECY DEPT. PROPHESES THAT IF BUD FISHER WOULD STOP DRAWING MUTT AND JEFF NOW, MILLSAPS WOULD BE THE LARGEST COLLEGE IN THE WORLD.

It Speaks

Yes, C. Swearingen, "Recollections of Personal Association with College Professors" is a splendid title for your new book.

I am sorry, Michel Huntley, but I cannot furnish a girl. Let me hear from you again.

I can give no advice, Mr. J. S. Terry, to people who wish to appear brilliant without being so. "Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom."

Hiram Cunningham, I enjoy your visits to the Oracle. I am sorry our theories do not agree. When you can reconcile your motto, "The more, the merrier," with mine, "Fidelity," we shall get better results.

As to the kinks in your disposition, J. G. Watkins, I know of only one kink remover—and that doesn't pertain to dispositions.

Yes, Dr. Kern, the Lord's Prayer is already copyrighted—appropriation may lead to severe punishment.

Elizabeth Manship, "Giggles," is not listed in my handbook. The symptoms you mention sound dangerous. Consult a doctor.

I hesitate, Miss Kennedy, to recommend hair dye, for I disapprove of young girls "doctoring" their hair. However, you can get a prescription from Miss Virden. She has used it successfully.

MISSISSIPPI STATE CHAMPIONS, 1916

Resume of 1916 Baseball Team

FROM a Purple and White point of view, the 1916 season was very successful. Millsaps met some of the best teams in the South, and, although defeated several times, she laid aside enough victories to give her the State Championship. The team was composed of as good an aggregation of ball-tossers as the College has ever boasted. Each individual player could, without exaggeration, be classified as a star, and deserves special mention, but lack of space forbids.

Among the S. I. A. A. teams met by the Majors during the season were Louisiana State University, University of Mississippi, Alabama University, Mississippi College, and others. For the most part, the local diamond was the scene of the above-mentioned hostilities. Only two road trips were taken. The first was the Louisiana trip, which was not successful, from the fact that it was prematurely taken. The coach was late in taking the team, and, in fact, had not selected it. The second was the invasion of the North and East, where Ole Miss, Alabama, and others were given drubbings in their own back yards. It is to be regretted that the Majors had no other chances to display their wares to non-residents of Mississippi.

W. S. Henley and Dr. Mitchell are due much credit for the successful management of the team. Chief credit is, perhaps, due Coach Mitchell for molding the inexperienced individual men into an efficient, machine-like team.

DR. B. E. MITCHELL
Faculty Director of Athletics

Dr. Mitchell has been Faculty Director of Athletics for two sessions now. He has taken a very keen interest in every form of athletics and has worked incessantly trying to increase the college spirit and lift athletics to a higher plane at Millsaps. His great popularity with the students is an indication of how well he has succeeded in this, and is also an expression of their appreciation of his services.

BENNIE MITCHELL
Baseball Coach

This is Bennie Mitchell's third session as baseball coach at Millsaps. For the past two seasons he has trained winning teams. Each season he has put out a State championship team—and that out of raw material, for the most part, each time. The students and the players have the utmost confidence in his ability to coach a team to victory. They are looking forward this time to another successful season, and even though the team is slightly handicapped, we expect Bennie to pull them through to another championship.

G. H. RANKIN
Baseball Manager

Everybody knew when "Speedy" Rankin was elected baseball manager that we would have a good baseball schedule this season. If you didn't believe it then, just glance at the schedule of games on the opposite page. Rankin is a hard worker, and when he goes after a thing he generally gets it. His popularity is shown by the overwhelming vote he got when he was elected manager.

HAVE YOU CHOSEN YOUR PROFESSION?

This is a question that confronts every college man. Too often final decision is deferred until you leave college. Then you awake to the fact that you are thrown upon the world without a profession. You begin to drift, waiting for something to "turn up." Oftentimes you "drift" by the school-room and get stranded. If you are not born to teach, don't begin it; but if you have the "pep," don't limit your earnings by accepting a salary. Get a renewal contract with the PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY and start you an income.
