

James S. Gary
Alberton & Son
 OFFICE COTTON MILLS MANUFACTURERS OF
 106 & 108 W. GERMAN STREET

Duck, Drills, Osnaburgs,
 Twills, Denims, Awning Stripes,
 Cotton Warps, &c.

Baltimore, June 10th, 1895.

Mr. Herman Kretz,
 Superintendent U. S. Mint,
 Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:

Your esteemed favor of 4th received with blank forms of proposals for supplies &c. We notice the schedule calls for the Duck for bags to be 8 oz. 29 in. wide, while the advertisement from your office under date May 2nd calls for the Duck to be 44 in. wide 12.14 oz. in weight and double warp and filling. Will you kindly advise us which is correct or which kind will be wanted. Your prompt attention will greatly oblige,

Yours truly,

J. S. Gary & Son

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 189

James S. Gary & Son,
Alberton Cotton Mills,
Baltimore,
June 10, 1895

Mr. Herman Kretz,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:

Your esteemed favor of the 4th received with blank forms of proposals for supplies &c. We notice the schedule calls for the Duck for bags to be 8 oz. 29 in. wide, while the advertisement from your office under date May 2nd calls for the Duck to be 44 in. wide 12.14 oz. in weight and double warp and fillings. Will you kindly advise us which is correct or which kind will be wanted. Your prompt attention will greatly oblige,

Yours truly,
Jas. S. Gary & Sons.