MEMO TO: Mr. Douglas Waldorf
Chief, Investigative Division

FROM: Mr. James Liu
Chinese Division

SUBJECT: Request the Curriculum Vitae of:
ARIMTA, Marisuke
TANGE, Kunji

The above subjects have been assigned to this Division for the preparation of the cross-examination. It will be greatly appreciated if you will furnish with us any data of them.

We do not have any information concerning them, aside from we obtain from their own affidavits, which I beg to forward to you as a reference as follows:

ARIMA, Marisuke.....Dec. 1929, Navy Captain, put on reserve list; Jan. 1932, dispatched by Navy Ministry to collect materials on the Shanghai Incident which broke out at the same time; later, date unknown, Rear Admiral of the Navy.

TANGE, Kunji.....Captain of the Japanese cruiser, HIRATO, in Dec. 1930, the ship anchored at Nanking, China in Jan. 1932, and a shooting incident occurred about the same time as the Shanghai Incident; retired from Navy, in Nov. 1936, with the title of Rear Admiral.

I understand from your Division that these names were in your files, being suggested by Mr. Sutton. In order to assist the requested project, I have put here on top the Japanese originals of their names.

I take this opportunity to renew my respects and appreciations.
