 (I-Spl)

Leader : Same organization Fukuoka 1936 (I-Spl)

Activities: "The origin of the nationalist movement in Japan was without doubt TOYAMA Mitsuru's Black Ocean Society. When it was established in Fukuoka it resembled a Cultural School. This was a Youth Fraternity and taught youth to harden their bodies and cultivate their minds and be ready to step into the breach of any national emergency.

However, the extraordinary character of TOYAMA
 Mitsuru and his view of the State finally changed this mere Black Ocean Society of Fukuoka into not only the Black Ocean Society of Japan but into the Black Ocean Society of East Asia. It produced many great men and great works have been accomplished by them.

Many of the existing Fascist organizations are followers of TOYAMA, and today they exist implicitly and explicitly under his support and guidance." (History of Black Ocean Society)

1936 (I-Sp7)

Activities: "The DAI NIPPON SEINEN DOMEI (Great Japan Youth League) with TSUKUI Tatsuo as its leader was a youth organization which grew out of the DAI NIPPON SEISAN TO (Great Japan Production Party). It amalgamated with the youth element which had as its leader AKAMATSU Katsumaro who being in favor of Imperialism had resigned from the KOKKA SHAKAI TO (National Socialist Party). The society which grew out of this amalgamation which took place on 17 Sep 1933 is the Youths Japan League. Prior to this TSUKUI and his adherents had been expelled from the Production Party on the grounds of defying its regulations. At present the Youths Japan League is working in cooperation with such friendly organizations as the KOKUMIN KYOKAI (National Association) and the NIPPON TEISHIN JUGYOIN KUMIAI (Japan Communications Workers Association) especially in the movement to establish a national organization." UCHIDA Ryohei (I-SL)

内田 良平

Leader : KOKURYU KAI (Black Dragon (River Amur) Society)
Tokyo 1936 (I-SL)

Activities: "In the various sections of the Black Dragon Society relevant matter will be studied and examined specifically and action will be initiated on the results of these studies. However, as opposed to the left wing Proletarian Party, members will themselves, regardless of dutiful obligations, initiate operations without waiting for orders, even though UCHIDA Ryohei does not clearly authorize such action, since as the leader he is tied down by the fervent moral traditions of Japanese filial piety." (Principles of Black Dragon Society I-Sp4)

"UCHIDA, who became president of the Great Japan Production Party, led the Black Dragon Society personally. With new economic policies he helped to repair the evil and corrupt state of national economics which existed and also continued his political activities. On the other hand he involved himself in social work and administered a laborers' lodginghouse at Akasaka Sannoshita. This was a project of the JIYU KURABU (Liberal Club). Here about four hundred laborers were lodged daily and a free dining hall was opened where one thousand five hundred were fed each day. Thus even the laborers who frequented this place, the motive of the Black Dragon Society could not be hidden and their minds became infused with the idea of the Society as a judicious guide of public thought."
