BUYING AT HOME

PROMINENT LOCAL PARTIES GIVE FAVORABLE OPINIONS ON PATRONIZING HOME TRADE

As the question of the advisability of patronizing home industry has been seriously and frequently discussed at various times throughout the community and as it is a matter of vital import to Glendale it seemed good to The Glendale Evening News to get opinions from various prominent public parties on this matter. As a rule every one asked favored the patronizing of local merchants and it would seem that those who look elsewhere for their purchases are by no means so numerous as might be supposed.

This discussion brings to the front the consensus of opinion of many of the experienced members of the community and should create a body of opinion that should be very helpful to the prosperity of the Glendale territory.

Following are some of the opinions:

Editor Glendale Evening News: In answer to your request for me to give my ideas on "The buying at home" question, I wish to say that it is our first duty to buy at home—in the town where we live. Of course there are circumstances under which we buy in Los Angeles because it is so close by and because the city "front" tempts us; whereas, if we were twenty-five miles from Los Angeles or any other city, such temptations would not assail us.

The question of price is considered by many—most, I presume—but if the comparison was made I think we would find that we could buy just as economically at home in Glendale as in the city.

We have not the variety to select from here as one finds in the city but, gradually, we will grow to that. Speaking of my own experience and business, "Real Estate, Loans and Insurance," I have, on several occasions, made loans on Glendale property through some Los Angeles agent by seeing his advertisement in a Los Angeles paper and naturally I had to divide my commission with him. Don't you think it would have been fairer to "Glendale business" for the owners of those properties to have made their applications to me or some other Glendale agent and kept all of the commission at home?

My slogan is "Glendale First" and I try to live up to it insofar as I can. With best wishes, I remain very truly yours,

JAMES W. PEARSON,
1214 W. Broadway.

Editor Glendale Evening News: I believe with all my heart in patronizing home industries. I try to practice it in my own affairs and in those of my household. I have lived in Glendale five years and am profoundly interested in the city, in its people and in everything that can advance their welfare. My connection with the Chamber of Commerce should be sufficient to convince everyone that I am a strong advocate for the principle of buying at home. I am convinced that that principle goes far to build up a prosperous community.

W. E. EDMONDS,
Pastor First Presbyterian Church.

Editor Glendale Evening News: I think that local merchants should be given first consideration at all times and that the purchases should be made locally wherever possible.

GEORGE U. MOYSE,
Principal Glendale Union High School.

Editor Glendale Evening News: I have always made it a rule wherever I have lived to patronize home industries. It is only by trading at home that we can make possible the up-building of the local community.

E. H. WILLISFORD,
Pastor First Congregational Church.

Editor Glendale Evening News: Support your own community interests? Certainly. If every citizen in Glendale spent his money in Los Angeles the business men of Glendale would soon be compelled to shut up shop. One question should be asked even when buying in Glendale: "Has this business man any interest in the community other than the money he takes out of it?" If he has none then he simply drains the commun-

SPRING WEDDING

MISS ALPHA PRINDLE BECOMES BRIDE OF GEORGE ROBINSON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Dodge, 1326 West Seventh street, was the scene of one of the happiest and prettiest social affairs of the spring season, Friday evening, March 17, when in the presence of a number of friends they gave their daughter, Miss Alpha M. Prindle, in marriage to Mr. George H. Robinson. Spring blossoms everywhere throughout the house formed a perfect setting for a nuptial event, pink and white being the colors used. A bower of pink carnations in the living room had been arranged for the bridal party during the ceremony. Miss Prindle, gowned in point lace over crepe de chine with bridal veil wrought with showers of orange blossoms falling to the hem of her gown and carrying a shower bouquet of orange blossoms and satin ribbon bows, made a perfect picture of a bride. At half past eight o'clock, attended by her father, Mr. Dodge, who gave her into the keeping of her husband, and her bridesmaid, Miss Mabeth Pigg, who was charming in a creation of pink chiffon, carrying pink sweet peas, the bride met her intended under the floral bower where they were made one. Mrs. Arthur Dibbern played the ever-popular march of Mendelssohn as the party assembled. Dr. C. Irving Mills read the impressive marriage service of the Episcopal church while the bride's cousin, Miss Merva Scott, sang softly, "O, Promise Me."

Heartily congratulations were showered upon the newly wedded pair and following the long established custom of brides, Mrs. Robinson threw her bouquet among her girl friends to discover the identity of the next bride. Miss Merva Scott was the fortunate lady. Following this a wedding repast carrying out the pink and white color scheme was served.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Robinson, Misses Lola East, Grace Beach, Vera Bayard, Mabeth Pigg, Haryot Bayard, Winifred Jones, Gladys Mason, Merva Scott, Mary Ann Dorr, Edna Lawson, Ethel Stamps, Mabel Dascomb, Messrs. Sidney Simon, Chuck Carroll, John Dewar, Tom Furst, James Bishop, Ralph Carmichael, Lawrence Lawson, Charles Wells, George Hunter, Don Barton, Messrs. and Mesdames R. Wright, K. M. Barton, M. J. Chapter B. A., California P. E. O., recently organized at a meeting of Chapter L, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Tower, held their initial meeting Friday at the home of their president, Mrs. Eva Cunningham, 1414 Salem street. A. look forward with much pleasure to their association in the work of this philanthropic order. Hereafter meetings will be held the first and third Fridays of each month, the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Stamps, 1304 Lomita. #### CASE WAS POSTPONED

When the case of alleged assault on the person of L. Andrews, 413 E. Third street, was called this morning in Judge Whomes' court, Dr. Young appeared on behalf of the complainant and presented a certificate stating that Andrew was still confined to bed and unable to appear. The case was continued for a week.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Sunday; westerly winds.

CLASH WITH VILLISTAS EXPECTED SOON

DODD'S COLUMN AND PERSHING'S CAVALRY WITHIN THIRTY MILES OF MEXICAN BANDIT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 18.—It is understood here that the American troops are on the eve of a clash with the Villistas. Information reached General Funston today to the effect that Col. Dodd's column had reached Casa Grandes. Villa is reported thirty miles south of that point. Gen. Pershing's cavalry is within supporting distance and may join Col. Dodd's column tomorrow.

OBSERVERS PROPHECY NATIONAL OUTBREAK OF PEONS WHEN FIRST SHOT IS FIRED AT VILLA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
DOUGLAS, Arizona, March 18.—Expert observers of Mexican life and character, in this city, predict a general peon uprising in Mexico when the first shot has been fired at Villa. It is well known here that there is deep unrest throughout the lower country on account of the American movement into Mexico. It is not believed that Carranza can control his men and it is thought that Diaz will take advantage of conditions to capture the national leadership and head military opposition to the American invasion.

ARIZONA MEXICANS DENOUNCE "INVASION"

PHOENIX COUNCIL ENLISTS UNLIMITED NUMBER OF SPECIAL OFFICERS TO KEEP PEACE IN CITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PHOENIX, Arizona, March 18.—The city council today authorized the chief of police to enroll an unlimited number of special officers to deal with any situation that might arise from the presence of a large Mexican population in the city. It is known that there is great unrest among the local Mexicans. More than 1000 of the Mexicans met secretly last night and passed resolutions denouncing what they called "the invasion" of Mexico.

FIGHTING AROUND VERDUN SLACKENS

GERMANS ABANDON OFFENSIVE AND INITIATIVE REMAINS NOW WITH GENERAL PETAIN AND THE FRENCH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, March 18.—The fighting around Verdun has slackened off almost entirely today. The Germans have abandoned their infantry attacks following their severe defeat in their attempts on the French defenses. It is stated in dispatches from Paris that this German defeat will be followed by the greatest French smash of the war. The initiative is now believed to lie in the hands of Gen. Petain and the troops that aided him in the defense of the Verdun forts.

DEPORTATION OF MEXICANS IS PLANNED

SUPPORTERS OF DIAZ AND VILLA WILL BE SENT OUT OF THE COUNTRY BEFORE LONG

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 18.—Wholesale deportations from the border states and Southern California of all Mexicans affiliated with Diaz and Villa are said to be impending. Officials of all public departments will aid in the work. In this city the police and postoffice departments are to co-operate.

DODD'S VANGUARD REACHES DUBLAN

AMERICAN TROOPS ARE NOW 100 MILES SOUTH OF INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY—MORMON COLONY SAFE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, Texas, March 18.—Col. Dodd's vanguard reached Dublin this morning. This city is 100 miles south of the international boundary. All danger of an attack being made on the Mormon colony at Dublin is over. The 10th Cavalry is acting as a relief force for Dublin.

VILLA REPORTED AT SAN GERONIMO

DOUGLAS, Arizona, March 18.—Villa, accompanied by 800 cavalry, part of the force that attacked Columbus, N. M., was seen this morning at San Geronimo, headed toward Namiquita, not far from Chihuahua city. This story comes from Gen. Gutierrez, one of Carranza's officers in this place. Predictions are freely made that Villa will fight and that the fighting will lead to war.

HONOR ST. PATRICK

MANY SOCIAL AFFAIRS HELD ON ANNIVERSARY OF IRISH SAINT

FRANKLINS ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin of 1498 West Third street entertained Friday evening with a delightful affair in honor of St. Patrick's day. The decorations were in the hue of the Emerald Isle and many blossoms of white and green lent their beauty and fragrance for the enjoyment of the guests. Music and games sped the hours all too swiftly for those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin. Mr. Holland and Mrs. Abell won prizes. The refreshments served at small tables carried out the color scheme. Guests for the evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames A. R. Chappell, C. M. Van Dyke, L. P. Abell, Edward Dale, R. L. Holland, H. V. Everly and Mrs. Mabel Ocker.

QUEEN ESTHERS ENTERTAIN

The Queen Esther class of the First Baptist church Sunday school entertained with a Leap Year party Friday evening. The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Siple, 1473 Sycamore avenue. The house was tastefully decorated with carnations and greenery. A most delightful evening was spent. Mrs. S. F. Latter, the popular teacher of the class, aided to make the evening a pleasant affair. Progressive games, music and other forms of entertainment helped to pass a happy time. A delicious luncheon was served. The following guests were present: The Misses Dorothy Stanton, Ruth Sanford, Lavina Banker, Mable Dunham, Margaret McPherson, Mary Hunt, Lefa Siple, Gladys Mason, Merva Scott, Ivy Mills, Myrtle Tummel, Doris Latter, Olive Wright, Helen McMillan and Carolyn Watling; also Messrs. Fred Sanford, Martin Abarta, John Losh, Robert Abarta, Hugh Freeman, Russell Stanton, George Marsh, Samuel Durand, Merle Eckles, Ralph Carmichael, Jimmy Bishop, John Sharpe, Harold Latter, Earl Brown and Meredith Siple; Mrs. D. F. Latter and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Siple.

HONOR ST. PATRICK

Tall vases, low cut bowls and dainty baskets overflowing with clusters and long sprays of single pink and white Cherokee roses with their emerald green, lustrous foliage were arranged throughout the beautiful home of Mrs. Allen Ellsworth Boyce on South Brand boulevard Friday evening, when Mrs. Boyce entertained with a St. Patrick five hundred card party for the benefit of the Tropico Thursday club. It is not recorded that St. Patrick actually played five hundred, but the fact remains that everything green and every social function given on the 17th of March is styled a St. Patrick affair. Small shamrocks bearing the number of each table left no doubt in the minds of the large number of guests of the Irish celebration. At the close of the lively interesting game Miss Annabel Ruprecht having scored highest was awarded first prize while Dwight Griswold received gentleman's first trophy.

During the evening it was learned that the 17th of March was also the natal anniversary of Mr. Allen Ellsworth Boyce and many congratulations were extended Mr. Boyce, who early that morning had returned from Oatman, Arizona, to celebrate his anniversary with his family.

Mrs. Boyce was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, Mrs. Harry E. Bowman, Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. Edward Virden and Mrs. W. C. Anderson.

JOLLY TWELVE

One of the most delightful of the many social events of the week was the evening spent by the Jolly Twelve at the home of Mrs. Arline Hallihan, 1010 Lomita avenue, Thursday, when a real Irish evening was enjoyed. The home of the hostess was elaborately decorated in green, suggestive of St. Patrick, and the pretty score cards were also symbolical of the celebration of that patron saint. At the conclusion of the game of cards the guests with their gracious hostess assembled in the dining room which

NEW CITY WELLS

TWO VALUABLE SOURCES OF WATER SUPPLY YIELD 600 MINER'S INCHES

"Glendale city has sunk two wells since the first of the year," said Public Service Department Manager Lynch. "Both of these are 16-inch wells. They have been sunk 500 feet deep. The second well was tested today. When the compressors were at work the yield amounted to 250 miner's inches for the second well, making a total for the three wells on the Brand property of more than 600 miner's inches.

"It would be impossible to over-estimate the value of this new supply of water. Every one knows how serious is the demand on the water supply during the summer time. The new wells are a guarantee that Glendale will not at any future time suffer from any shortage of water. This may be seen from the fact that the above flow is more than twice the flow of water yielded by the Verdugo canyon at its best.

"In addition to these wells the city owns about three-tenths of the flow from the canyon and about one-sixth more is turned into the city's reservoirs for the use of those of its customers who own their own water. In this way about one-half of the water from the canyon is used in the city of Glendale by the city's customers.

"The rate charged by the city is one of the most favorable in the state. It is $1.00 for the first 1000 feet and 3 cents a hundred for all that is used after the first 1000. This is at the rate of slightly more than 2 cents a miner's inch per hour.

THE DOLLAR AT HOME

The dollar that stays, at home is the dollar that aids in building up a community. This is the way the community dollar works. Mr. Brown is a man of comfortable financial circumstances who resides in the Glendale community. He employs a Mr. Jones, a carpenter, to do a few hours repairing on the premises and pays him a dollar for the services. Jones needs a new hammer so he spends the dollar he received from Brown in purchasing a hammer from Clark, the hardware man. Clark makes use of the dollar to purchase meat from Mr. Black, the butcher, and Black needs a market apron and buys one from Mr. White, the clothier, and so the dollar continues to circulate in the Glendale community, but how different would have been the result if Brown had employed an outside carpenter to do the work. If such had been the case the hardware man, the butcher and the clothier would not have made the dollar sales.

Those who wish the greatest prosperity in a community must aid in keeping the dollar at home.

The fact that a man covers up his automobile engine in cold weather does not prove that he will think to blanket his horse.

was decorated entirely in green. A large low cut bowl was overflowing in a profusion of white Cherokee roses. Places were marked with small green pigs supporting green candles, which emitted tiny rays of light guiding each guest, while small Irish potatoes nestled in smile, proved a very pretty and unique candelabra for green candles which added their glow to that of the Paddy pigs. Green favor baskets contained tiny shamrocks, pipes and hats. The center of attraction on the Irish green naper was a cake gaily ornamented in shamrocks. The dainty refreshments also conveyed the St. Patrick's color scheme. The members of the club whom Mrs. Hallihan so charmingly entertained included Mrs. Joseph Stagner, Miss Mattie Belle Provolt, Miss Amy Bowerfind, Miss Agnes Frostick, Messrs. P. Mortz, Harry Hollingsworth, Leo Merick, Fred Provolt and Norman Badger. Mr. Frank J. Willett substituted for Miss Bessie Provolt, who was unavoidably absent. Mr. Stagner received first prize, a handsome tie, and Miss Agnes Frostick the consolation, a kewpie prettily arranged in a fetching green costume. Mrs. Hallihan was assisted in the entertainment of the club by her mother, Mrs. Frank J. Willett.

A REMARKABLE OLD MAN

W. O. Gruey of Richmond, O., has lived to be ninety years old, either because he drank or smoked or because he did not. The dispatches do not say which. But they do quote Mr. Gruey as saying:

"I know of no secret for longevity. I am living with my fourth wife. She will be eighty-six the 24th of February. I always got the women on the wing. I would call one day, marry her another day, and I got stung only once. I say, short courtships are just the thing; marry in haste and take a chance."

Anyway, it is a profound pleasure to fail to learn that an old man lived to be old because he did or did not do something or other.

The daily fire loss in the United States exceeds half a million dollars a day.

GIVE HOME INDUSTRY A CHANCE

Editor Glendale Evening News: It has come to my notice recently that a national corporation with stores in Los Angeles is sending an agent to Glendale with merchandise, namely shirts and men's furnishings, to call on our local merchants and their employees, to sell them at retail the above-named articles. While I realize that this agent is strictly within his rights, it is just and fair for our merchants depending on each other for their business to patronize this agent before looking over the stocks in Glendale.

This agent pays a small license fee and cartage, while our local merchants pay taxes, rent and employ Glendale help.

We cannot call personally at each business house and show our merchandise, but we do advertise at prices exactly the same as above mentioned concern and merely ask that our local merchants at least visit the local firm handling these stocks first before placing their orders with an agent from Los Angeles.

This merchandise can be purchased from at least six local firms carrying well selected stocks. I am writing this on my own responsibility and know the other merchants of Glendale will join me in this feeling of co-operation and try Glendale merchants first.

"I WISH I WERE RICH"

"I wish I were rich!" sighed Gertie Gammons. "Then I could have a new dress every week."

"I wish I were rich!" exclaimed Sam Spaulding. "Then I could spend all my time playing pool."

"I wish I were rich!" Bernard Booker whispered sadly. "Then I could travel from one end of the year to the other."

"I wish I were rich!" Oliver Overwork said grimly. "Then I would leave my job and never take another!"

"I wish I were rich!" Bill Spender ejaculated. "Wouldn't I treat the fellows!"

"I wish I were rich!" moaned Mrs. Shiner. "Then I would put it all over that upstart Jane Jenkins."

And these are seven reasons why these seven persons never will be rich.—Aesop Jones in Christian Endeavor World.

President Wilson seems to think that possession of an automobile is proof of ability to pay additional tax, but it may be evidence merely of superior ability to borrow money.

COMMUNITY BUYING

YOUR LOCAL MERCHANT IS ENTITLED TO YOUR TRADE IF HE OFFERS RIGHT KIND OF GOODS AT RIGHT PRICES

By R. V. Holland

If you have children to educate, if you are interested in local, social or religious affairs, if you own or expect to own a home or other property in your community, a few minutes' thought will convince you that it is decidedly to your best interest to patronize your local stores at all times, provided investigation proves that you can do so to as good advantage as elsewhere.

I realize that there is a certain class of merchants—and they are still represented in many towns and cities—who will not handle Standard products and who expect buyers to pay exorbitant prices for unknown goods of doubtful quality and origin—merchandise on which they can demand wide margins of profit.

This class of "storekeepers," however, represents a comparatively small minority and is fast going the way of the pre-historic Dinosaur, and the nearly extinct moss-back who "don't have to read nothing, nobow, about anything."

Villages, towns and communities develop in accordance with the amount and quality of effort put forth by their citizenship, and progressive right-living people have long since learned that it is neither profitable nor pleasant to live in non-progressive communities. There may be found in nearly every locality mothers and fathers whose sons and daughters have been forced to leave home in order to secure profitable employment that should be afforded locally.

If you live on a farm you want good roads, schools, churches, telephone service, mail delivery and a convenient market in which to dispose of your products and from which to supply your wants.

If you live in town you want, in addition to the above, good streets and sidewalks, adequate water and lighting system, modern shopping facilities, wholesome amusement—the things that go to make a community worth living in.

These advantages are the natural outcome of, and are limited to the growth and condition of your locality, which is in turn dependent upon the extent of local trade activities.

Did you ever see a really good town that did not have good stores? The two go hand in hand. I personally know of an instance, within the past year, where a very wealthy man refused to locate and establish a modern store in a town of some three thousand population for the reason that an investigation, developed the fact that the better class of residents adhered to a long standing policy, or habit, of doing practically all of their buying in the stores of a nearby city or by mail.

On the face of it this town had merely failed to secure a new store. On the other hand, think for a minute what this rich, aggressive man, with the up-to-date store he would have put in, embodying his ideas and methods, would have meant to the community. It would have afforded employment for many men and women as well as new business for local merchants in many lines, bankers, professional men and others. His personal and business taxes would have meant much within themselves. Bear in mind that home trading is a most vital element in community welfare and progress. Consider carefully the fact that a portion of every dollar spent in local stores finds its way to some essential function for the support and development of the neighborhood, the general prosperity of which you must necessarily share in.

Increased local business means the possibility for securing additional modern public conveniences, religious and social advantages and consequently increased individual wealth and opportunity.

Your local merchants are entitled to your patronage, provided they offer you the right kind of merchandise at the right prices, and you owe it to yourself and your community to extend it to them.

FLOWER SHOW ADVANCES

The following pledges toward the expense fund of the free flower show have been received this past week. Pledges from Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Cora Taylor, Mr. H. J. Reader, Mr. L. C. Brand and a lady who desires that her cheque of $10 be simply labeled cash donation. Mr. L. C. Brand, in addition to sending a cheque, promises a fine exhibit from his beautiful grounds. To our generous friends we extend warmest thanks.

We hear from Mrs. Taylor, principal of the Columbus avenue school, that the pupils of the first grade are busy pressing, mounting and naming wild flowers, getting ready for exhibiting in class 63A. Well done, little people. Class 127, floral baskets, is receiving a large amount of attention, while class 128, bridal bouquets, is sure to find a number of competitors amongst the artistic women of Glendale and community.

Our membership increases every week. The annual dues are so small, only 25 cents per annum, that financial consideration plays no part. Peo-

GLEANERS' CLASS

The Gleaners' class of the Congregational Sunday school, of which Miss Emma E. Adams is teacher, met Friday evening at the church for their regular monthly meeting and social. Misses Alma and Margaret Pardon and Edna Farner were in charge of the arrangements for the evening and proved to be very gracious hostesses. After the business of the evening had been disposed of a social hour followed. Decorations of green and white were suggestive of the anniversary of St. Patrick. A good program was given and refreshments in the colors of Erin were served. There are twelve young ladies in this wide-awake class.

DEATH OF D. F. FABER

David Fairman Taber passed away Friday morning, March 17, at his home, 1432 Arden avenue, at the age of nearly fifty-one years. Mr. Taber was born April 29, 1865, in Georgia. He resided in Riverside, Cal., for one year before coming to Glendale four months ago.

Funeral services are this Saturday afternoon at the Pulliam Undertaking chapel, the Knights Templar lodge in charge. Mr. Taber was a thirty-second degree Mason, a member of the consistory of Brooklyn, N. Y. The remains will be cremated in Los Angeles.

After dancing with two or three favorite partners all the evening, and letting a lot of nice girls remain wall flowers, some fellows wonder why the dancing craze has gone by so quickly.

THE OLD RELIABLE

GLENDALE PHARMACY is the oldest established drug store in Glendale. It is strictly a family drug store, where the child is treated as well as their parents.

This store has filled more prescriptions than any store in the Valley, and keeps the largest stock in their prescription room.

If the people in this part of Glendale will all buy their drug wants from this store, at the end of the year they will have paid no more for their drugs, etc., than they will if they trade around at different places, especially if they habitually seek the larger city stores for the "bait bargains." You know you always buy something else than what you intended buying, don't you? A sleek clerk who works on commission talks you into trying some preparation or other, something on which this big retailer makes a big profit. Our overhead expenses are so small that the little extra discount that these stores get on account of larger purchases is more than overcome by their immense rent, etc.

Think it over. Here are a few of our regular prices:

Having completed its labors the committee appointed to look after the raising of funds for the purpose of assisting the destitute Jews in the stricken regions of Europe makes the following report of what was accomplished:

Glendale, March 17th, 1916.
 To the Citizens of Glendale and Vicinity:

We, the undersigned committee appointed by the city trustees of Glendale to raise funds for the Jewish war sufferers, beg to submit the following report of our work:

After some consideration this committee decided to hold a mass meeting on Sunday, Feb. 13, and to have a Tag Day on Thursday, Feb. 17, which was well carried out. This committee wishes to express its appreciation of the very generous responses of the people of this community and to the various religious and fraternal organizations to our appeal. We also wish to thank most heartily all those who assisted us in various ways with our work. As it would take a good deal of time and entail some expense to send a letter of thanks to each and every individual who so ably assisted us we hope they will accept this expression of our appreciation and that they will feel that their reward was "in the doing."

We desire once again to draw the attention of those who so generously contributed to the fact that certain influential Jews offered for ninety days to contribute one dollar for every dollar raised for war relief during that period. You will therefore realize that it was not just about $400 raised in Glendale, but really $800.

ENDEAVORERS OFF FOR WHITTIER

A large and enthusiastic party of Glendale Christian Endeavorers left for Whittier Friday evening, where they are attending the county convention of the Christian Endeavor. In the party are Rev. E. E. Francis, pastor of the Christian church of Glendale; Mrs. Harry Marple, Miss Ella Mosher, Miss Florence Heacock, Miss Fanny Alice Hagin, Miss Katherine Coates, Miss Bessie Jeter, Miss Beth Smith, Miss Edith Learned, Messrs. Dan W. Hagin and Walter Learned. This company of earnest Christian Endeavorers, while attending the devotional and business meetings of the convention, are also boosting for Glendale, as the meeting place of this annual convention. Long Beach is also striving to secure the convention for next year, but with so many of Glendale's boosters, with Dan W. Hagin as chief booster, it is sincerely hoped that Glendale will win and that the next county convention of the Christian Endeavor will be held in Glendale.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Dr. Willisford has assigned himself a large task for the evening service at 7:30 o'clock. He proposes to consider in the most frank, kind, sane and Christian spirit the following questions:

1. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice "close communion" like the Baptist church.
2. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice "Forordination and Predestination" like the Presbyterian church.
3. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice "Baptismal Regeneration" like the Christian or Campbellite church.
4. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice the "Rule of Bishops and Probationary System" like the Methodist church.
5. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice an "Episcopacy and the use of a Ritual" like the Episcopal church.
6. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice "Mass" like the Roman Catholic church.
7. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice the use of "Liturgies" like the Lutheran church.
8. Why the Congregational church does not preach and practice "the keeping of Saturday as the Sabbath and the sleep of the dead" like the Advent church.
9. Why the Congregational church does not practice "Christian Science" like the followers of Mrs. Baker Eddy do.
10. Why the Congregational church does not continuously preach about the "Devil, Hell Fire, Eternal Damnation, the Immediate Second Coming of Christ, that these are the most evil times the world has ever known, that the present European

PATRONIZING HOME INDUSTRY

Patronizing home industry is so much a matter of self interest, to put the matter on the most personal ground, that it is inconceivable that anyone living in a community such as Glendale could for a moment doubt the advisability of advocating the principle and practising it. A community grows by its spirit of unity. Its merchants, its professional men, its undertakings of all kinds tend toward the end of building up the community and thereby enhancing the value of its real estate and developing its resources.

Without some such spirit a city will languish and hang back and be passed in the race toward recognition and pre-eminence by others with half its advantages. It would be difficult to find a small city with such advantages as Glendale has. Its beautiful situation at the foot of the lovely hills; its elevation, above the level of the sea; its fine soil, its salubrious climate, its pure water—all these are natural advantages, which, if properly advertised and set before the public should make the name of Glendale known from one end of the United States to the other.

In order to do this there must first be the spirit of loyalty to the community without which there can be no advance, no prosperity and no kindly feeling among the residents. The merchants of the city must feel that every resident here is willing to support the home trade and to build up the home industries before he can have that even mind and that contented disposition that will enable him to do his part in the development of the city.

In Glendale there has gradually been developed a very fine city, a city of which the inhabitants may be proud. This has been done amidst a certain amount of opposition, which is perhaps natural but which would be much better to be out of sight. Reasonable discussion of civic matters always does good; factious opposition in local affairs means dissension, division and the retardation of civic growth, and the encouragement of the tendency to trade outside.

By patronizing the home merchants the inhabitants of the city are aiding themselves. The circulation of money locally creates more wealth. It aids the local merchant in the direction of being able to purchase goods in larger quantities and at lower prices and of these the customer gets the benefit. No city can flourish where the citizens make a practice of spending their money in other centers.

It is with many regrets that the business men of Tropicco will see Mr. Martin leave for the east. Also in the social and civic circles of this city will Mr. and Mrs. Martin be sadly missed.

"SERVICE AND QUALITY REGARDLESS OF QUANTITY"

Some of our amateur operators on the stock market will be ready to sell after prices get down a little farther, so that they can buy in again after prices get high once more.

The scarcity of dyes may not lead the men to buy white clothes next summer, but after the garments have visited the laundry a few times they will probably be white.

The National Guard can be successfully used for defence in case of war, merely by asking permission of 48 governors and state legislatures every time an order is issued.

The high price of eggs again raises the question why more people don't keep hens. It is so very inexpensive for them to get their living from their neighbors' back yards.

BUYING AT HOME

ity at the expense of business men who live in Glendale and whose interests are in the building up of the city. Glendale has good stores and they are generally giving good satisfaction.

B. Dudley Snudden, Pastor First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Editor Glendale Evening News: Nothing builds up a place more than home patronage of the home people. It is of course understood that the home merchants carry a good stock. Other things being equal Glendale people should trade in Glendale. In most lines of goods I have found the Glendale merchants more profitable to deal with than those in Los Angeles. It stands to reason that with lower rents and the capacity to buy in the cheapest markets the Glendale merchants should be able to furnish articles of quality equal to that of the city at lower cost. I am for home patronage of home industries all the time.

G. B. WOODBERRY, 419 S. Glendale Avenue.

Editor Glendale Evening News: Some time ago I wanted to buy certain goods and did not know they were to be had in Glendale. It cost me two bits for car fare. I wore off a dime's worth of shoe leather, lost business by being away from my office, got caught in one of those bargain counter rushes and came home all tired out. Next day I stepped into a local store less than a block from my office and found superior goods to what I had purchased and for less money.

I know an employee of one of the largest department stores in Los Angeles who gets his goods from that store considerably below retail prices. Notwithstanding his "inside" prices he finds that he can buy certain goods cheaper in Glendale than from his own employer.

Local pride and loyalty to home institutions are essential to the growth of any community. Ours is no exception.

J. F. LILLY, 1106 W. Broadway.

Editor Glendale Evening News: I have done all my own trading in Glendale on the principle that it is essential to help build up the neighborhood in which one lives and makes one's living. I have also always advised my employes to do likewise. They assure me, as has been my own experience, that they find it cheaper to trade in Glendale than to go to Los Angeles. They all pay cash and find that they can get all they want in any line in their own city. It is a matter of reciprocity. One's first duty as a purchaser is to one's own city.

W. E. HEWITT, Glendale Laundry.

R. GILHOUSE SAYS NO ONE LEAVES THIS LOCALITY WITHOUT WISHING TO COME BACK

EDITOR GLENDALE EVENING NEWS:—Much has been written about the scenic beauty of Glendale. Nature has left little to add to the wondrous beauty of the Valley and its setting of hills and mountains. Look which way you will the eye is charmed with a never-failing delight. One never wearies of the beautiful outline of hill, mountain and vale. Indeed, it would be impossible to reside here long without becoming attached to the locality with its striking natural features.

Perhaps this is the explanation of why Easterners who have resided here for some time and have been compelled to return to the level and monotonous plains and prairies of the East are never happy or satisfied until they return. The beauties of Nature have much to do with the love of home and country. It is narrated of those who dwell in mountainous countries that they are more patriotic than the people of the plains.

It is undoubtedly true that the love of Nature has inspired much of the best literature of the world. The grandeur of the hills inspired James G. Clark to write the following verses:

Oh, the beautiful hills where the blest have trod
Since the years when the earth was new;
Where our fathers gazed on the fields of God.
On the vale we are journeying through.

We have seen those hills in their brightness rise
When the world was black below;
And we felt the thrill of immortal eyes
In the night of our darkest woe.

Then sing of the hills, the beautiful hills
That rise from the evergreen shore;
Oh sing of the hills, the beautiful hills
Where the weary shall toil no more.

The cities of yore that were reared in crime
And renowned by the praise of seers,
Went down in the tramp of old King Time,
To sleep with his grayhaired years.
But the beautiful hills rise, bright and strong
Through the smoke of old Time's red wars;
As on that day when the first deep song
Rolled up from the morning stars.

We dream of rest on the beautiful hills
Where the trav'ler shall thirst no more;
And we hear the hum of a thousand rills
As they wander the green glens o'er.

We can feel the souls of the martyred men
Who have braved a cold world's frown;
We can bear the burden which they did then,
Nor shrink from their thorny crown.

Our arms are weak yet we would not fling
To our feet this load of ours;
The winds of spring to the valleys sing,
And the turf replies with flowers.

And thus we learn on our wintry way
How a mightier arm controls;
That the breath of God on our lives will play
Till our bodies turns to souls.

Then sing of the hills, the beautiful hills
That rise from the evergreen shore;
Oh sing of the hills, the beautiful hills
Where the weary shall toil no more!"

Own Your Own Vacuum Cleaner

—Now-a-days most everyone knows the advantages of Vacuum Cleaning, how much easier, better and quicker the cleaning of the home can be accomplished with the aid of a light and efficient Electric Vacuum Cleaner—but do you know the advantages of owning your own Vacuum Cleaner?

—A Vacuum Cleaner should properly be used for all the household cleaning, not for a semi-annual or even a monthly house cleaning. If the rugs and floor coverings are gone over lightly once a week or oftener it keeps them clean and does not allow the dust to accumulate. If this method is followed you will notice an entire absence of dust in the home and the work will be greatly lightened.

—Your own Vacuum Cleaner is always ready to use—no bothers and no delays—and can be used at just your own convenience. By buying a good make and giving it reasonable care it will last for years and always work at its highest efficiency. Considering the low price and easy terms on which we sell these Vacuum Cleaners it undoubtedly pays to own your own. We want you to know of these advantages and will be glad to send you one of our Electric Vacuum Cleaners for a free trial in your home—no obligation—call us up.

to get buyer and seller together on these. The more sales the local merchant makes the more able he will be to buy from wholesalers in large quantities, and the merchant who makes many sales will usually have fresh goods for his customers. So why not give the reliable local dealer your patronage and thus enable him to buy in large quantities and carry a stock of fresh merchandise.

While all these advantages are being thrown in favor of the local merchant the local ranchman should be encouraged to produce extra fine poultry, vegetables and fruits, all of which will demand good prices on the local market. Community prosperity can be enjoyed to the greatest extent only when money is spent mainly in that community.

TWO SIDES TO THE QUESTION

The buy-at-home question has two sides to it. One is to buy from home merchants. The other is for the merchants to buy from home vegetable and fruit growers and from home poultry raisers. Good judgment must always be used in the consideration of all questions of buying. Quality and price are important factors, and local people should strive
