

ON THE RHINE

LETTERS OF PRIVATE MIDCALF REVIEW EXPERIENCE BEFORE AND SINCE ARMISTICE

Many interesting letters have been received from Holman P. Midcalf, who has been with the Army of Occupation on the Rhine since the signing of the armistice. He is with Co. D, of 117th Engineers, Rainbow Division. In a recent report of Gen. March it was announced that this Division is scheduled to leave for home about April 1st.

A few extracts from his recent letters have been given to the Evening News by his sister:

Mayschoss Germany,
Feb. 2, 1919.

You see I am not on my way home yet, much as I would like to be. Guess I'll have to wait patiently until the "big man" says the word. We are pretty sure it will be soon, though, for we have orders to turn in our ammunition and all unnecessary equipment. There was a rumor that we would leave the 10th of March, but I think April 1st is more than likely the time. Here's hoping it's surely true. You are not more anxious for me to come than I am myself, and then I'll try to answer all the questions I have not been allowed to answer on paper. Now don't expect too much of me. I'm only a "buck private," and I didn't capture the Kaiser or cut off his mustache.—I am only one of thousands of men, but being on the front line for nearly a year has enabled me to see much, and to pass through some awful experiences such as I had never thought of. Much of the time I hardly knew what was going on except the advances we made ourselves. We did not know that the Huns were even thinking of signing the armistice until it was all over. From your letters and newspapers, we often learned of happenings over here, that we did not know had happened at all. But I do know of the battlefield, and I can tell you of both glory and horror. The sight of the many dead and suffering will always be before me; and how we would cheer each other by "funny talk." When we heard the big shells coming, we would drop flat on the ground so the flying shrapnel and pieces of shell would not hit us. We called these shells, "box cars," and we would say, "Please, box car, don't stop at this" (Continued on Page 4)

LIBERTY BUILDINGS

City Manager T. W. Watson is in receipt of a letter from Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, expressing his hearty indorsement of the movement spreading through the United States for the erection of Community Buildings as soldiers' and sailors' memorials, and suggesting that these memorials be known as "Liberty Buildings."

"The war has shown," he writes, "the great value of adequate facilities for fellowship and public recreation and now that the men are returning home they should have the opportunity through the coming years to perpetuate the democracy of the camps and to share with their fellow townsmen in a suitable building, facilities for the discussion of local and national problems and for community singing, drama, indoor athletics and other forms of wholesome recreation."

KNITTERS WANTED

RED CROSS CHAPTER RECEIVES LAST CONSIGNMENT OF GARMENTS TO BE MADE

Mrs. Barnes, who has charge of the knitting department of the Red Cross is disappointed because the yarn for the knitting of socks is not going out as rapidly as she would like to see it disappear. Unless knitters come to the rescue and manufacture socks faster than they have been doing the chapter will not be able to make good on the quota of socks assigned it. This will be the last call of the Red Cross for knitting of any sort and workers are being urged as a patriotic duty to remember that one good turn deserves another and give one last helping hand with this allotment of socks for the credit of the Glendale Chapter.

The chapter has just received its last and final assignment of Red Cross sewing, one thousand garments—girls' underwear to be finished by May. Needlewomen who will take this work home are being appealed to. Several organizations are doing splendid work. Ladies of the Christian Church have organized two rival teams, a captain heading each team, to do this sewing in competition. The team which wins will probably be entertained by its rival.

THE CRY, THE ANSWER

DR. RICHARDSON SETS FORTH THE CHURCH'S DUTY TO THE WORLD

The second in the series of lectures on "Christian Fundamentals" was given in the High School Auditorium last evening by Dr. W. F. Richardson of Hollywood, his subject being "The World's Cry and the Church's Answer." The speaker was introduced by Rev. Cole of the Central Christian Church as one whose long experience as pastor of a cosmopolitan city church gave him unexampled opportunity for learning the relationship between the world's secret longings and the church's desire to meet the want. The speaker began by relating the incident in the last week of the Master's earthly ministry when a party of cultured Greeks said to Philip the Galilean, "We would see Jesus." Philip, doubtful whether the Master would receive them, consulted Andrew, another Galilean endowed with Jewish prejudices against all Gentiles. Andrew advised that they ask the Master about it. When they told him, He broke forth in praise to His Father, exclaiming, "The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified." He recognizing that when the haughty, cultured Greeks expressed a desire to greet the Messiah, the Gentile world was beginning to express the secret longing for a deliverance from age-old oppression. Reference was made, also, to the Master's chiding of the beloved disciple, John, for rebuking one found casting out demons in Christ's name because he was not one of the twelve, saying, "He that is not against us is for us;" and to John's and James' petition to be allowed to call down fire from heaven on the inhospitable Samaritans, which also met with the loving Savior's condemnation.

"There has been in recent years too much of this old intolerance and feeling of superiority on the part of the church toward the world, this disposition to want to call down fire from heaven to consume those of the world who will not perforce accept the church's teaching. It took a vision twice repeated to convince Peter that the Gentiles were as fully entitled to salvation as the Jews.

"The world's cry today is the same as that of the Greeks 2000 years ago: 'We would see Jesus.' Even those who deny His Lordship and power secretly long for the triumph of His teachings. The world is like the little babe, parched and burning with fever, who fights away with all the power of its little hands the cooling" (Continued on Page 4)

OUR QUOTA SMALL

ONLY $1300 ASKED OF GLENDALE IN SALVATION ARMY DRIVE NEXT WEEK

In the movement to raise $822,000 in one week, March 24th to 31st, for the Salvation Army in the State of California, Glendale is asked for only $1300, ten cents per capita for our population of 13,000. Los Angeles and San Francisco alone are raising $500,000 of the amount.

The objects of this campaign are: To provide adequate funds for all the Salvation Army activities for one year, including the erection of such buildings as are absolutely necessary. To do away with all soliciting by officers of the Salvation Army during the year and thus enable them to devote all their time to service work proper instead of spending 25 per cent. to 50 per cent. of their time in raising funds by personal solicitation.

The Home Service work of the Salvation Army has suffered greatly during the war. This special effort is absolutely necessary to reinstate the Army in sound financial condition to undertake all its Home Service obligations for one year.

"HUN GOVERNMENT MUST BE OVERTHROWN"

SO DECLARES MAXIMILIAN HARDEN, WHO SAYS GERMAN PEOPLE HAVE GONE CRAZY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, March 18, by Courier to Paris.—(Copyrighted, 1919, by United Press.)—Maximilian Harden, German editor, told the United Press that the present German government should be and will be overthrown; that the German people have gone crazy, and that if the old kaiser were not a coward he would return to Germany and resume his throne.

He declared that the success of the League of Nations and future world peace is dependent upon friendly relations between Germany, England and the United States.

"The government must be overthrown in favor of one that is honest, aboveboard and trustworthy," he declared. He criticized the foreign office severely and advocated that Germany frankly confess her guilt for the war to the Allies.

"The German people," he said, "have gone crazy as a result of the war and the hardships they have suffered, and they are spending their money wildly on gambling, dancing and pleasure-seeking, while thought does not run in normal channels. If the emperor were not so cowardly, he would return, call his ten thousand officers about him, and everybody would hurrah and say: 'The old times were better than the present,' and would demand him back."

VOTES TO HAVE SPRING FESTIVAL MAY 16TH AT HOME OF MRS. RICHARDSON

The regular monthly meeting of the Glendale Federation Parent-Teacher Association was held in the library of the Intermediate School Monday, March 17th, at 2:15 p. m., President Mrs. A. A. Barton in the chair.

Mrs. Eustace Moore, chairman of Patriotism, led the Salute to the Flag. The report on Membership was particularly gratifying. Colorado Boulevard School receiving the honors with a membership of 198.

Mrs. John Robert White, chairman of Finance, reported on the program to be given by the Federation to secure funds so necessary for the work carried on by this organization. This entertainment is to be "A Spring Festival" and will take place Friday, May 16th, from 3 until 11 o'clock on the grounds of the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson, Central Ave. and Riverdale Drive. All Glendale P.-T. A.'s will join in making this worthy affair a huge success for the slogan of Glendale Women wherein school benefit is uppermost spells co-operation.

Mrs. Laura Sampson read a report of the good work carried out at Juvenile Hall which was very interesting. President Mrs. A. A. Barton announced the Red Cross Drive and requested donations of clothing, linen and blankets and urged everyone to participate in the good cause.

Mrs. Florence Kurtz announced the coming school election on March 28th and asked all members to do their duty by voting. The polls will be open from 6 to 8, the candidates endorsed by the Federation being Mrs. Arthur Brown, C. O. Pulliam and Mrs. Blanche Gardiner.

It was voted that Glendale Federation P.-T. A. extend an invitation to the First District California Congress of Mothers to be their guests for the evening of Convention Day. The Congress will hold its convention in Los Angeles in April. A welcome is assured all visitors. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presence of two of our former presidents, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. Arthur Brown who paid tribute to the noble work of the women of Glendale.

It was voted that the Federation go on record as heartily endorsing the memorial to our soldier and sailor boys as put forth by Chairman Richardson D. White and pledge all necessary support.

Miss Flood representing the High School, spoke eloquently of the P.-T. A. work.

President Mrs. A. A. Barton announced the Community Sing contest between Hollywood and Glendale and invited all singers and "rooters." Adjourned. MISS DANIELS.

TO HONOR DEFENDERS

BIG BANQUET FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH

The movement to arrange for a banquet to welcome and pay tribute to returned soldiers and sailors has led to action on the part of the committee representing all the churches of the community and the banquet has been set for Friday evening, March 28th, at the First Methodist Church in this city. While only soldiers and sailors will partake, the program which will follow in the auditorium of the church will be open to the public which will want to gather to meet and welcome the boys.

The banquet is said to be a preliminary to an effort to organize these defenders of the nation into a body similar to the Grand Army of the Republic made up of veterans of the Civil War.

It is to be a representative affair in which the churches are uniting to do honor to the men who so cheerfully responded to their country's call and further details in regard to the committees appointed and the program will be published later.

A social affair to welcome those who had returned up to that time was given a few weeks ago in the same church, but inasmuch as many were still in service it was felt the main celebration of the whole community should be deferred and in accordance with that idea it has been set for the 28th in the expectation that many now on the way will be with us then.

FUNERAL OF F. B. HUESMAN

Funeral services over the body of Frederick B. Huesman will be held at the Holy Family Catholic Church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Father O'Neill conducting them. Interment will be made in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, The Scovern Company having charge.

CLOTHING DRIVE

WAREHOUSE BACK OF P. E. IS BEING MADE READY FOR 3000 POUNDS EXPECTED

In preparation for the big clothing drive which has been called for the last week in March, or from the 24th to the 29th, L. T. Rowley will make an effort to clear the salvage storehouse back of the P. E. station of the big stock of paper it contains and of other junk that it may be free for the reception of the big consignments of clothes which are expected to come in. Because there is still great destitution in the devastated countries of Europe, the Red Cross is making this nation-wide drive for garments to clothe the naked. The Glendale Chapter has been asked to furnish 3000 pounds, which, it is believed, can easily be done in spite of past calls. Spring is here now and many winter things can be spared. Citizens are asked to go through their closets this week and see what they can give in the way of substantial clothing, under-wear as well as outer garments, also shoes. No flimsy, fancy clothes will be accepted. Only durable things are wanted.

The Red Cross Shop, 128 North Brand, will be open all next week to receive such gifts. Its telephone number is Gl. 870. The telephone number of the Red Cross headquarters is Gl. 1147. While it is expected that the majority of the donations will be brought to the warehouse back of the P. E. station, where Mr. Rowley or his assistants will be in attendance, or be brought to the Red Cross Shop, if there are any contributors who have no means of sending, if they will telephone the Red Cross, a conveyance will be sent for the clothing.

Collections will also be made through the schools. Prompt delivery is urged because the workers wish to begin packing the shipment early in the week. Mrs. W. W. Worley is chairman of the drive.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Mrs. C. A. Landray of 606 Vine street was hostess at a St. Patrick's Day luncheon given in celebration of the birthday of Mrs. E. E. Logan. The guests were all relatives or close friends, the list including besides the honoree, Mrs. O. L. Rankin, a cousin, Mrs. Ella Keyes, a sister-in-law, and her son, Marvin Keyes, and Mrs. Wagner, of Glendale. A beautiful floral piece centered the table and there were St. Patrick decorations appropriate to the day. Marvin Keyes is a member of a Hospital Corps at San Diego but is enjoying a ten-day furlough.

IRISH LINEN STORE

The fact that William Moore is at the head of the Irish Linen Store, which has its opening today, is a guarantee that it will be an attractive store both in quality of goods and method of display. He has on hand a beautiful line of voiles in the new patterns and colorings which every woman will covet. Darling romper suits for little boys of 2 to 4 years are in stock and likely to go like hot cakes they are so pretty. Ribbons, linens, neckwear, yarns and silks for knitting and embroidery, fancy collars, ribbons, and many dainty things are on display, and the store is ideal for the use to which Mr. Moore is putting it.

LIEUT. PLUME EN ROUTE

Mrs. R. C. Plume is eagerly awaiting a telegram from her husband. He is with the 150th Infantry, 7th Regiment, California National Guard, which is expected to reach New York the 23d and to be demobilized at Camp Kearny, with possibly a big review of the troops. He has recently been made a First Lieutenant, but will gladly exchange military honors for civilian life.

GO TO SIERRA MADRE

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MARQUARDT EXCHANGE FOR PROPERTY NEAR MOUNTAINS

Mr. and Mrs. John Marquardt of 507 North Kenwood street have exchanged their home for a larger piece of property at Sierra Madre of which they will take possession the 25th. They have sold to R. L. King who is now living in Los Angeles, but who intends to make Glendale his home. He is said to be interested in mines. The Marquards are great pedestrians and mountain climbers and were anxious to get nearer the mountains, so they are well pleased with the exchange although they like Glendale very much and are sorry to leave their friends here.

PARDNERS IN AUTOMOBILE THEFTS

(From Auto Club of Southern California.)

I am the auto thief.
 For a plugged nickel I'll tell every secret of my business and then I'll go out and get away with more cars than I know what to do with.

It is easier to steal cars in Southern California than it is to pick oranges. Orchard owners protect their fruit and auto owners don't.

They think they have me on the run, but my pardners are too willing to help me out. Who are my pardners? They are the owners of automobiles. They are all of the owners who are careless, and their name is legion. The careless they get, the richer I get, and I like 'em.

But I do not like the Automobile Club of Southern California with its pesky, busy theft bureau. I would like to cut it out like an appendix. It, and the police, may get me in the end, but right now I am going strong, thanks to these pardners of mine—nice, careless fellows!

If it was as hard to buy machine keys that fit every auto lock as it is to buy a decent shot of hop or a pinch of "snow," they might have me on the hip. But, shucks, I can go out and buy lock keys just like buying postage stamps.

I can buy a fifteen cent key that will fit a $3,000 car. But most always I don't have to spend the fifteen cents. My "pardners" leave their keys in the locks downtown and then I get a $3,000 car for nothing just by stepping in and driving off.

Broadway, Los Angeles, and Broadway, San Diego, and Broadway, San Bernardino (if San Bernardino has a Broadway) are all the same. Yesterday I picked out the Los Angeles Broadway at noontime. Between Third and Eighth streets I found three cars with the keys in 'em. I chose the best one and drove it away and stripped it naked.

Any nut who drives a car with the rear bumper hiding the rear license plate is going to have his car hooked, and hooked good. The cops don't see the number and the get-away is easy. Any number that has dents in it or of with some good cracks in the enamel is a great help to me. That is a trade secret.

When I have to stop and scratch my head over a car, then I don't steal it. But when a car sits up and begs to be stolen, I am human and do the work.

This mental X-ray of the thought processes of any automobile thief operating at the present time in Southern California was "photographed" from expert testimony delivered yesterday by Detective John Powell of the Automobile Club of Southern California, and is guaranteed authentic and even a little under-exposed.

Furthermore, club officials state, with facts to back them, that motor car thieves have organized a chain of "exchange stations," stretching from the Imperial Valley to Fresno County, with the hub in Los Angeles. Evidence has been secured which shows that it is the purpose of this gang to steal cars in the Imperial Valley and to strip them of all valuable parts at points between the Valley and Los Angeles, these parts then being sold in the latter place. The same, it is said, applies to their operations in the vicinity of Fresno and San Bernardino.

Santa Barbara is rapidly becoming a way station for the half-world of motor car theft, it is pointed out, as this city occupies a strategic position on the coast route between northern points and Los Angeles. Cars belonging to Dr. J. L. Martin and Mrs. Maud Jones, of Fresno, are two of those already recovered by the theft bureau. These were found with their tires stripped off.

Identification blanks filled out and filed with the Automobile Club have been the means of recovering cars belonging to G. A. Hamman, Carl Raab and K. Dannis, of Los Angeles. This identification blank system is maintained free of charge by the organization and has proved a valuable adjunct in running down motor car theft gangs.

Investigations carried on by Deputy City Marshal J. I. George of Colton have aided in establishing the fact that Southern California is in the grip of the gang operating between the Imperial Valley and Fresno. According to George, he has had a shotgun battle with thieves near Colton, who were en route to Los Angeles from the Valley with stolen cars. One of the thieves was wounded in the affair, he states, as blood was later found on the highway.

It is the "stripping" idea which is the most popular at the present time, say Automobile Club officials. Cars are stolen, driven to some deserted barn or by-road, where the extra tires are removed and taken to market for sale. Carburetors are also amputated, and other removable parts. Motorists can protect their property by registering same with the theft bureau, and by putting identification marks on these removable parts.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS SAFE

The logic of events is justifying Senators Lodge, Knox and others who opposed the immediate ratification of the League of Nations pact without any chance for examination and free discussion to correct possible inconsistencies and unsafe provisions. Very, very few of the opponents of immediate ratification declared against the plan of a League of Nations, though most of them have been assailed with great violence in the press and charged with unreasonable opposition. The contended points—the alleged abrogation of the Monroe Doctrine, interference with our internal affairs, doubt as to the exact enforcement powers of the league and the possible effects of the labor clause—have been exhaustively reviewed and discussed since the adjournment of Congress, and a decidedly conciliatory spirit is shown on both sides. Ex-President Taft, the most outspoken of the many advocates of immediate ratification, dissects in newspaper articles the exact wording of each contested clause and then recommends it for "discussion, revision and adoption." Certainly this meets the views of Senators Lodge, Knox and their thirty-nine confreres opposing immediate ratification. Free, un-

PARKWAY IMPROVEMENT

Now that rain enough has fallen to thoroughly mellow the soil Glendaleans should get busy clearing the weeds from their parkways. It is an easy task when the soil is so damp. Also it is a good time to substitute something more ornamental than weeds. The majority prefer flowers. The more abundant they are on our city streets, the better advertisement of California and every resident in Los Angeles county is a booster for the state. A very beautiful floral cover crop which is not as often used as it should be is portulaca which runs the whole gamut of rainbow coloring, never grows very high and makes as gorgeous a carpet as an Oriental could wish. Verbenas which can also be had in almost as great a variety of color are par excellence for parking because they trail and root and thus cover the ground, besides blooming constantly. Petunias are likewise favorites with many people as they are cheerful and constant bloomers and stand a lot of hardship, also gazanias in shades of yellow which are fine ground covers. The ivy-leaved geranium is another old standby which never disappoints. For those who want an unobtrusive green covering, the English ivy or the blue myrtle, known in England as the Periwinkle, is satisfactory.

prejudiced discussion and criticism will but strengthen the league constitution, and this is what the "rebels" ask. There is already seen in the Old World diplomats a spirit of conciliation and concession to opposing American sentiment. The American people are overwhelmingly in favor of the League of Nations and will brook no opposition that is meant to defeat it or that has merely a partisan bias. Full and fair discussion is advocated, but woe unto him, no matter what his party affiliations and no matter how high he stands in the nation's councils, who sets himself deliberately to defeat the League of Nations constitution.

THE RICE CONCERT

NEW YORK TENOR TO GIVE FINE PROGRAM ASSISTED BY OTHER ARTISTS

Preparations are made for seating a great crowd of Glendale music lovers tonight to hear Mr. Leon Rice, the New York tenor, who will give a full evening's program, assisted by Jennie Rice at the piano, and Amanda Caesar on the violin, at the First Methodist Church, beginning at eight o'clock.

Mr. Rice is a leader among that growing group of American musicians who believe in popularizing their art, instead of saving it to be displayed only to the highly privileged at expensive concerts. Although a young man, he has appeared before more than 2000 audiences in America and before more than 2,000,000 hearers.

His selections range from the biggest and best of the classics to all the "worth singing" popular songs. He has been especially popular in his rendition of sacred music, and is heard in some large church nearly every Sunday of the year.

The Official Board and Music Committee of the First Methodist Church believe in the ministry of music to the city's life, and are endeavoring to develop and use the local musical talent to its utmost, and also to bring to Glendale as often as possible, the masters of music who visit Southern California.

Everyone will be welcome at tonight's program, and a silver offering will be received to defray the expense.

BAD LUCK FOR KIMBERLYS

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly of San Fernando Road who are now in Rochester, Minn., have received letters from Mrs. Kimberly conveying the bad news that both have been seriously ill of influenza and it will be necessary for Mr. Kimberly's operation to be postponed for two months in consequence. Mrs. Kimberly is now able to be about and as soon as her husband is able to travel they will go to West Liberty, Iowa, to visit relatives and when Mr. K. is sufficiently restored will return to Rochester for the operation which will be performed by the Mayo Brothers. It is a great disappointment to have their plans so upset and their return to Glendale thus delayed.

SAM DAVIS LOAFS
 "Sam" Davis of 225 South Central avenue, who conducted the Tropico Feed & Fuel Yards for a number of years and disposed of them last December, is again a man of leisure. Last October he purchased a hardware store on Vermont avenue in Los Angeles with the expectation of moving to that city and making his home there, but he found he was more deeply rooted in Glendale than he had supposed and the longer he did business there, the better Glendale looked to him. Therefore when he had an opportunity to sell out to advantage, he did so, and is now taking a vacation and trying to recover his normal weight, as he has been losing flesh. He is making no plans for business but is just going to loaf for a while.

COLUMBUS CLUB DANCE
 The St. Patrick's dance given at the Pearl Keller Studio Monday night by the Columbus Club, was a tremendous success, about three hundred dancers coming out to enjoy the fun. The majority were of the younger set, but there were a few who sported gray hairs, among them Mrs. Mary Mulvehill, a member of the Sunset Club of New York City, to which only those who are over 70 are eligible.
 The hall was beautifully decorated in St. Patrick emblems and the Irish colors, and the dance programs were likewise green and white. Little Robert Lehman furnished a much-appreciated diversion with Irish songs and dances. Punch was dispensed during the evening and candy was on sale, which, with the receipts from the sale of tickets, netted a handsome sum to the Club which is planning another dance soon after Easter.

GARDENING IN FULL SWING
 A run around over the city shows that gardening has opened up with great vigor. The government is strongly encouraging all work of this kind as the world is still far short of sufficient food and it is just as necessary this year to stimulate production as it was last. All promoters of gardening on any scale may be sure of strong backing by government, state and city.

THEY ALL LIKE GLENDALE
 Mr. A. F. Webster and family are new arrivals in Glendale and are living at 208 W. Elk Ave. There are five of them. Mr. and Mrs. Webster, the son Joe and two daughters, Misses Dorothy and Lillian. The Websters spent a month in San Diego, but thought they could find a location that would please them better, so came on north finally landing in Glendale. They are delighted with the city, they like its people, its clean streets and well-kept appearance, and are surprised at the amount of business done here. They came from Vermont, Ill., where they lived for many years. Mr. Webster traveled for a wholesale dry goods firm and for the past five years conducted a retail dry goods business in his home town. He is planning to engage in some kind of business in California, for he is determined to spend the remainder of his days in the Golden State, but prefers to look around for a time before deciding. We sincerely hope he may be able to find an opening in Glendale.

Think of a pencil without any wood about it to chip off or splinter, with a lead that never breaks and can be used to the very tip, that sharpens itself and carries with it a loaded magazine containing 12 new leads. All this within the compass of an ordinary wooden-cased pencil. Eraser and clip to fasten to pocket included. This is the

Wahl Eversharp Pencil No. 31

With this scientifically constructed pencil, which is not a toy or a novelty, you are never without something to write with. If the point grows short a half turn gives you a new point. When you use up one lead the loaded magazine furnishes another. The eraser is perfect. It is held firmly without springs or clamps, and can be replaced in 30 seconds. The leads are made specially for the Eversharp. They are the finest draughting leads and have 90 years of pencil making experience behind their manufacture. The same is true of the erasers. A detailed description of the mechanism, together with complete directions for renewing point, replacing lead and putting in new eraser, accompany every pencil, which is put up in a neat box. Every business man, clerk or writer will want one of these convenient vest pocket wonders. All can be supplied by the sole agents for the Eversharp in Glendale

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE
 One of the important items of business at the Elks' Club meeting last evening was the formulating of plans for the Salvation Army Drive which opens in Glendale, Monday, March 24th. Ezra F. Parker is chairman of the committee. Other members are A. W. Beach, A. D. Pearce, C. D. Thom, A. J. Malarkey, Roy L. Kent, Stanley Frenz, Fred Roberts, A. G. Spahr.
 Mr. Parker and other members of the committee spoke on the plan of the work and decided that a meeting will be held in the Elks' room Friday evening of this week at which time all persons interested in aiding in this great drive will be present.
 The city will be divided into districts and a sufficient number of active workers will be assigned to each district to make a house to house canvass.

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET
 The regular monthly banquet of the "Brotherhood" at the First Methodist Church in this city comes off Friday evening, the guests assembling at 6:45 and dining at 7 o'clock. Dr. W. L. Y. Davis of Pasadena, celebrated as a Chautauque orator, will be the main after-dinner speaker.
 These social affairs are open to all the men of the community regardless of whether they are Methodists or not, and all comers are made very welcome. There is no charge. Every guest brings a few sandwiches and some other substantial article of food. The contributions are taken charge of by the committee of arrangements which serves hot coffee and there is no difficulty or embarrassment about the affair.

 station." We tried to make as much fun as possible. I think that is what kept most of us from going "bugs."
 For the last few days I have been at Divisional Headquarters doing electrical work, but am with my company now.
 The Christmas box is not here yet.
 The Red Cross gave each man a box.
 In it was candy, plum pudding, shaving soap, toothbrush, playing cards, tooth paste, can of sardines, and salted peanuts.
 We have been having a few picture shows and home talent entertainments, which seem to make quite a hit here. You know anything seems good after no amusements for over a year. Last night the 151st Field Artillery gave a musical comedy, some of the boys taking the part of girls.

Neuenahr, Germany,
 February 13.

Today I am in Neuenahr, a town about the size of Pasadena, and one of Germany's best summer resorts.
 I came over this morning and the thing that suits me best of all is the fine bath house, run by the Germans, but supervised by the American Army. We have everything we want as long as our officers do not object.
 As soon as I arrived I was served with hot chocolate, wholly unexpected, and best of all with plenty of sugar. Then I went to the bath—fine place,—tile flooring throughout the building—oh, it seemed so good to get to a place where one could live like a white man for even one day.
 Then I went to the Y. M. C. A., where they served a course dinner, white tablecloth and silver, great luxury for a doughboy, extra fine, best I have eaten since I left the U. S. A. This was in the big German opera house, in a room adjoining the opera hall, and seating about 200. A band of twenty-five pieces was furnished by the 150th Field Artillery. This music made me homesick, for while they played all the latest pieces, they also played many of the old songs, and these could not help but make any one homesick.

About 2 o'clock we left the table, and went into the hall to see moving pictures, the band playing again.

Tonight there is to be an entertainment, but I cannot stay as I must be back on duty tonight.

The Y. M. C. A. is surely doing everything they possibly can to give the boys a good time here on the Rhine.

That Xmas box has not arrived yet.

February 18th.

So glad to get all the letters and newspapers and magazines. I get so many the boys call me "News-stand."
 The friends back there are certainly thoughtful to send so many—but there's not one too many. Our Y.
 M. C. A. man heard I receive a goodly number every mail, and he has asked that I pass them on to him—so on they go.

I have not been feeling very well for the past week. Had a bad toothache first and thought I could wait until I get back to the states, because I don't like army dentists, but nevertheless I had to go. Then I thought surely I was getting the "flu." I went to the doctor and now I am feeling fine. Perhaps I wasn't getting it at all, but I had all the symptoms and a few others beside, and I wasn't taking any chances. Several of the boys had it and one of our camp nearly died. It's too near going home now, I have been lucky enough to escape through terrible dangers. I refuse to let the "flu" bug get me.

Was Bill Bode in that wreck in Utah? Hope he's all right.

There's great excitement around here about leaving. I hear we will not go back through France, we will move down the Rhine to Rotterdam load on the transport and off for the U. S. Well, that suits me fine. I've seen enough of Germany and France to last me the rest of my life. I've traveled miles and miles, and have seen what would ordinarily cost me thousands of dollars. Wonderful things and wonderful places, and also some places that seemingly the Lord had made and then forgot.

Yes, we heard of the death of our ex-President Roosevelt. We all paraded in his honor, giving him all possible military honor.

I have sent you a box of souvenirs that I have kept for some time, hope they reach Glendale O. K.

Nothing has been seen of that Christmas box. Well, I hope whoever has it, will enjoy it. I am only one of hundreds who were disappointed. I will not expect an answer to this letter, for I think we will be on our way home, soon.

A WELCOME

We welcome you back, our heroic sons,

Who fought for a world and won.

We welcome you back to this land of ours,

Because of the deeds you have done.

We welcome you back with honor Because of the world you have saved.

We are joyous because the Huns
 Have learned we won't be enslaved.

We welcome you back because you made

This world a habitable place,

THE CRY, THE ANSWER

 medicine that will relieve its pain.
 If the world would but cease its fight against the healing balm of Christ's message, it would find relief from every ill. The world fights fiercely against what it secretly desires.

"The world wants peace. That is its great longing cry today. And the man, no matter what his station, who will delay, for any purpose, the confirmation of a workable plan for a League of Nations, is a traitor to his country and to the world. But it must come through Christ, for only upon the principles enunciated and practiced by Him can an enduring peace and world league be framed.
 World brotherhood can come only through Christ and the world's cry can be answered only by holding up the Anointed One.

"The Christian churches differ in varying degrees of ordinances and interpretation of the Scriptures, but they all subscribe to the one saving creed: 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.'
 Some say, 'Truth is always the same,' but this is a fallacy. Light is not the same. The tallow dip gave light for all purposes half a century ago and it was thought sufficient. Then came the candle, the gas jet and last the electric light. All these were light, but were they the same? And the sun's rays, above all of these, yet it too is light. Just so with truth.
 Our conception of this attribute is embodied truth while that inherent in Jesus is boundless, perfect, absorbing, in other words, embodied truth.

"The Christ and His truth should be held up before the world by the church, not only in teaching but in living. He who says and does not, hinders the truth more than he who openly opposes. The church must live the life, for the world looks on not what the church says but what it does. The Christian is the world's bulletin and his life is read more diligently than we read our newspapers. One hundred Christians who actually live their teaching can bring this whole city to Christ in five years, possibly in one year.

"Last of all, the church must hold up the Christ in fellowship. We must recognize the brotherhood of men of all races. The Greeks we see working on our railroads and streets are the descendants of the most cultured nation of olden times, yet we disdainfully call them "Bohunks." The descendants of the Caesars, of those mighty Romans who once ruled the world we con-temptuously refer to as "Dagos." Those who descended in a direct line from Noah, Abraham, Moses and David, who are of the same race as Jesus, John the Baptist and Paul, we slightly refer to by opprobrious nick-names. In comparison with these peoples the Anglo-Saxon race is but an infant. Maybe some time in the far distant future we will be dis-disdainfully referred to as "Angleworms."

"America wants no more wars.
 Our answer to the world cry is to hold up the Christ, to take His teaching to all the world and to live these teachings before all men. Then and then only will the church bring peace to the world."

There was a much better attendance than at the previous lecture, but there is still room for improvement.

HUN DIGNITARIES LEARN ONE LESSON

By WEBB MILLER
 (United Press Staff Correspondent)
 COBLENZ, Feb. 13. (By Mail).—
 The Prussian provincial and city authorities at Coblenz got an unpleasant surprise when they tried to equivocate with the American officers in charge of civil affairs. Now they are working in harmony and evidently with a wholesome respect for the straight-from-the-shoulder methods of the Americans.

After taking charge of the civil affairs end of the occupation, Col. I. L.
 Hunt sent for the president of the province and the burgomaster for a conference. At the appointed hour the secretary of each of the digni-taries showed up at the conference room to represent these officials. Col.
 Hunt immediately sent them back with a message that the president and the burgomaster should present themselves in person at his office within a half hour. In about 10 minutes the indignant officials appeared, protesting that their secretaries were empowered to speak for them.

"When your secretaries have any business over here, they are at liberty to see my secretary," Col. Hunt told them, "but when I send for you I want you." Then he gave the ruffled officials a bit of advice. In the midst of his talk the president arose and announced that he was forced to leave to keep an important appointment.

"What is this important appointment?" Col. Hunt asked. The Prussian declared that it was a very important conference with a "man from Bonn."
 "Sit down!" Hunt ordered. "There is only one more important appointment that you can have, and that is with General Dickman, commanding
 this army."

The uneasy official sat down and listened with attention to the remainder of Col. Hunt's speech.

"You fellows needn't presume because we treat you decently that it is a sign of weakness on our part. It is merely an indication of our patience. Our patience is not endless.
 Your government presumed upon our patience once too often in times past, and it lost you the war."

 With these words ringing in their ears, the two officials departed. Since that time they have co-operated with the American officers to the best of their ability.
