

CITRUS INDUSTRY

CONTINUANCE OF STRIKE GREAT DAMAGE TO GROWERS AND SHIPPERS

Ernest Sparr, who has returned to Glendale after a week's absence, says that the freight embargo has been partially lifted and they have been able to send out a few cars of fruit but without assurances whether they will get through to their destination in salable condition or not. The season has been particularly hard on packers and shippers whose expenses in the matter of shooks and other materials used have doubled while the fruit prices have remained, so far as wholesale values are concerned, about the same as in former years. In retail sales there has been considerable profiteering, particularly in lemons, he says, which, together with the high price of sugar, has had a tendency to discourage consumption and thus reduce the market demand. All this has made the business of packing and shipping citrus fruit a greater gamble than usual.

As to the freight conditions Mr. Sparr says: "The situation seems to be pretty bad in Chicago. Of course we can go around that city to the Atlantic seaboard, and so far, roads are fairly well open in the middle west. The outlook is not very bright because when the embargo is lifted shipments will be so heavy they will glut the market. The present high prices quoted in New York—up to $10 a box—are no indication of real values because the price is due to the fact that shipments have not gotten through. When they do the price is bound to decline. The lemon market has not been sustained this year as it was last by the long epidemic of influenza during which large amounts of citrus fruits were consumed. The California crop is heavier than last year and it has had to compete with Sicily lemons which have been coming into the New York market.

"But the railroad strike is a serious blow to the citrus industry of this state."

DID NOT GO BACK TO GERMANY

Ernest Koersgen, who left Glendale a few months ago to go back to Germany, after a residence of three years in Glendale, reconsidered after spending three months in Salt Lake City, where his wife's people lived. The three children were sick all the time, he said, and the whole family was homesick for Glendale. So they came back a week ago, but not finding any place to rent here are staying in Los Angeles until some place is vacant in Glendale. Mr. Koersgen is a first-class steel worker and went to work in Los Angeles the day he landed.

DETROIT VISITORS IN GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harrison and daughter, Jane, of Detroit, Michigan, are guests at the home of Mr. Harrison's brother, A. J. Harrison of 1009 South Columbus Avenue. While here they have planned to visit San Diego, Redlands, Riverside and various other Southern California points, though most of their time will be spent in Glendale. Mr. Harrison has a large wholesale and retail coal business in Detroit but expects to remain away from business long enough to spend several weeks in Glendale.

HARD TIMES PARTY

YOUNG PEOPLE OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ENTERTAINED AT SHAW HOME

Young people of the Glendale Congregational church had a jolly time Friday evening at a hard times social given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw on West Park avenue. It is perhaps unnecessary to explain that guests came in old clothes and that they found an appropriate setting for their party. The customary pictures with which the walls of the Shaw home are adorned had their faces turned to the wall and substitutes had been provided in pictures cut from the magazines. On the floor was an old, worn rug, and the seating accommodations were benches. Old fashioned games including a peanut hunt furnished entertainment and when it was time for refreshments, plates were passed carrying one Graham cracker each and a tin cup which guests were told they could fill with pure cold water at the kitchen sink. When they obeyed the suggestion the hostess in the kitchen placed upon each plate a cup of delicious chocolate and helpings of home-made cake.

AUTO STAGE TIPS OVER

STRIKES MOTORCYCLE, OVERTURNS AND INJURES PASSENGERS, ONE FATALLY

The stage making trips between Sunland and Los Angeles via Glendale was overturned yesterday morning as it was coming south about a mile south of La Crescenta when, according to driver James L. Brown, a motorcycle ridden by David Cory, was overtaken, and struck by the stage which overturned. Of the more than a dozen passengers ten suffered cuts and bruises, none of which were serious enough to require hospital treatment and one, Mrs. Mattie L. Shaw, of Sunland, was fatally hurt. She was rushed to the Glendale Sanitarium, but died as she was being lifted out of the machine. It was found that a deep incision on the forehead and a crushed chest were the injuries that caused her death. A friend who was sitting beside her in the stage was not hurt in the slightest and she accompanied Mrs. Shaw to the Sanitarium. She is Miss Virginia Moore of Sunland.

The rider of the motorcycle, David Cory, was badly hurt. His skull was fractured and there were many cuts on his head, besides a compound fracture of the collar bone. He, too, was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium hospital and his condition this morning is very favorable. Dr. Westphal informed the Evening News. From what could be learned of the accident Cory passed the stage but met a car going north and in trying to avoid striking this he swerved so sharply to the left that his motorcycle overturned and rolled and tumbled fully 100 feet according to Officer Trautwein of Glendale, who went up to view the scene of the accident, and stopped in the path of the stage, which struck and overturned it. Cory suffered his injuries when flung from the overturned motorcycle.

Mrs. Shaw, the lady who was killed, was all alone in the world, as far as her friend, Miss Moore, knew. She owned a home in Sunland, but on Saturday bought a residence in Los Angeles into which she intended to move. Dr. Gail Atwater of Los Angeles had been looking after her business affairs in this connection.

Miss Beatrice Christian of Havre, Montana, had her appendix removed one day last week. Bert Chappell of Salem street sustained a severe burn on his left hand, which is being treated daily in the hospital. Mrs. Alice Butterly of 335 W. Harvard had a cystic tumor removed from her left wrist. Misses Cora Clarkson of Santa Monica, Sarah Rempel of Pasadena and Elsie Capfer of Riverside had their tonsils removed.

HOME MISSIONS

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CONVENTION REVIEWS GOD'S PROGRAM

A home missionary convention was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church beginning Friday night and ending Sunday noon. Leading men of the Pacific Union and Southern California Conferences were present and gave stirring addresses.

Elder C. S. Prout of the Southern California Conference gave the principal address Friday night before the Young People's Society, his subject being the importance of personal service.

God's program for the church was the subject for the eleven o'clock service Saturday morning. Elder J. A. Stevens of the Pacific Union Conference gave this address. He also delivered an address at the afternoon session on organization for service.

This was followed by a study on Christian help and medical missionary work by Miss Helen M. Steele, missionary secretary of the Glendale church. The third speaker for the afternoon was Elder R. W. Munson, his subject being "Our Source of Power in Missionary Service."

A session was held Sunday morning, the first part of which was a devotional service led by Dr. V. H. Lucas, of the Southern California Conference. He also discussed several sub-topics relating to home missionary work. Elder J. A. Stevens gave a study on "The Church as a Training Center."

Sunday evening was devoted to committee work on methods and plans.

MAZATLAN A STORM CENTER

STRUGGLE ON BETWEEN FEDERAL AND REBEL TROOPS FOR ITS CONTROL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Mexican federal forces have retreated to a point 46 miles north of Mazatlan before the rebel troops of General Flores, dispatches to the government said today. A struggle between federals and revolutionists for the control of Mazatlan—the principal port of entry to the State of Sinaloa and regarded as the chief industrial and commercial city of the west coast of Mexico—is imminent, according to these reports.

There are known to be about forty-five American men, women and children in Mazatlan and its environs. The presence there of United States war vessels was especially necessary because of the probability that the water supply of the city will be cut off by the rebels. In that event, Americans could take refuge in the war ships.

Federal troops have burned the bridges behind them in withdrawing toward Mazatlan and fortifications are being erected outside the city in preparation for a clash.

Official information here is that the supporters of General Obregon, candidate for the Mexican presidency, were being arrested in Mexico City and also throughout the republic. The defeat of the federal General Porfiero Gonzales, who recently rebelled at Linares Nuevo Leon, was reported. A detachment of federals has been sent to Michoacan to quell Obregon uprisings.

Railroad communication between Mexico City and Guadalajara, the capital of the State of Jalisco, is interrupted by the destruction of bridges. The destruction of the international foot bridge between Laredo, Texas, and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was reported today.

SUPREME COURT RULINGS

GOVERNMENT WINS ANTHRACITE COAL STRIKE; CASE ATTACKING FARM LOANS TO BE REARGUED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Supreme Court has ordered a reargument of the case attacking the constitutionality of the Farm Loan Act.

The court again failed to hand down its decision on the validity of constitutional prohibition and announced a recess from next Monday, May 3, to May 17.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad was held responsible for damages of nearly $800,000 as a result of an explosion near Jersey City in 1916 and the court declined to review thirteen appealed cases.

The government finally won one of its famous anthracite coal cases when the court decided that the Reading Railroad must give up holdings in various coal companies and in other roads. The coal combination of railroad and mining concerns was held to be a violation of the anti-trust law and the court declared the whole combination must be dissolved.

"OUTLAW" STRIKERS TURNED DOWN

RAILROAD LABOR BOARD DENIES THEM A HEARING ON THEIR WAGE DEMANDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Railroad Labor Board today denied the petition of the Kansas City Yardmen's Association, an organization of "outlaw" strikers, for a hearing on its wage demands. The "outlaw" strikers today will present a petition to Congress for a resolution to direct the President to order the Labor Board to give them a hearing.

Timothy Shea, head of the Locomotive Firemen's organization, today continued his arguments in support of the firemen's wage demands.

BANDIT'S CAREER ENDS

HARRY JAMES, WHOSE LOOT TOTALS $100,000, SHOT IN A RUNNING BATTLE WITH CHICAGO POLICE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, April 26.—Harry J. James' hundred thousand dollar bandit career was at an end today. James died early this morning after being shot twenty times by police. He previously engaged six policemen in a revolver duel in the District Police Station. Escaping from the station he injured two officers in a running battle before his ammunition gave out and he was finally shot.

Investigation by the police today disclosed more than $100,000 of loot James had hidden. A private warehouse with a secret basement chamber, was filled with stolen goods.

The names and addresses of more than 700 wealthy Chicagoans, prospective victims, were found in James' possession.

TROOPS IN RUHR DISTRICT REDUCED

CUT DOWN TO THE 17,000 MEN ALLOWED UNDER AGREEMENT OF LAST AUGUST

PARIS, April 26.—Reichswehr troops in the Ruhr District have been reduced to 17,000 men allowed by the agreement of last August, Dr. Wilhelm Von Mayer, German Charge d'Affairs notified the foreign office today.

P. E. CAR SERVICE

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER TELLS CITY ATTORNEYS SURVEY WILL BE NECESSARY

Complaints of poor service on the part of the Pacific Electric Railroad filed with the Railroad Commission by legal representatives of the leading suburbs of Los Angeles, including Alhambra, San Pedro, Pasadena, Monrovia, Glendale and others which were set for a hearing Friday afternoon finally were brought before Commissioner Edgerton Saturday morning. The conference was a quite informal presentation of the fact that the service in all of these towns is inadequate. Commissioner Edgerton encouraged the attorneys present to expect that the Commission would make a probe but indicated it would be necessary to have a complete survey made of the service that is being rendered and that inasmuch as the commission has no funds available, it will be necessary for the City Attorneys' Association to provide the money. The hearing closed with the understanding that the City Attorneys' Association of which W. E. Evans of this city is a member, will have a meeting this week to determine what action shall be taken.

COMMUNION SERVICE

The regular quarterly Communion Service was observed at the eleven o'clock hour yesterday morning at the Presbyterian Church. A special order of service and appropriate music was used. The attendance was the largest in the history of the church, and the church "went over the top" in the ingathering of new members. In the afternoon the Annual Canvass as planned by the General Assembly for the Benevolences and Current Expenses of the Church was held, the officers and members of the church forming the teams having a simple lunch at the church and starting off immediately after a few words of instruction and prayer by Rev. Edmonds. A special musical program consisting of male and mixed quartettes, solos, duets, organ solos and a violin solo, was given in the evening to a very large audience, with a progressive sermon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds, given between the musical selections. The entire day was an outstanding one in the memory of the church and of spiritual help and blessing to all who were able to attend.

YOU SHOULD HEAR ROBINS

Raymond Robins who is to speak at the Johnson meeting in the High School auditorium, Wednesday evening, should be heard by everybody. Mr. Robins took an active part in the National Convention at Chicago in 1912 at which Col. Roosevelt was nominated as a candidate for president of the United States.

Mr. Robins is a very convincing and forceful speaker and if makes no difference who your choice may be for president, you should lay all prejudice aside and go out and hear the greatest National speaker of the present time.

The Evening News editor had the pleasure of listening to an address delivered by Mr. Robins at that notorious convention of 1912 and if the gentleman talks as ably now as he did then, he will be well worth hearing.

MUSIC CONVENTION

GLENDALE TO BE REPRESENTED AT FEDERATION GATHERING AT FRESNO

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones will leave Friday for Fresno to attend the convention of the California Federation of Music Clubs, a gathering which promises to be a big and very brilliant affair. The hostess club of Fresno is an organization which has been in existence for fifteen years and which has a membership of 1265, a fact that speaks well for the culture along musical lines of the mid-state city. It is therefore prepared to make fine local contributions to the program which Mrs. Jones prophesies will be wonderful. The convention will open Saturday night with a great music festival in which all the clubs of Fresno county will participate, assisted by a large orchestra led by Mr. Kane of Eureka, director of music festivals for the Federation, who has been making a big reputation because of the work he has done in the north. The festival will be given in Fresno's civic center before an audience that will number not less than 2000. The musical program in the Fresno (Continued on Page 6)

LEADS SAN DIEGO

GLENDALE'S MARCH PERMITS TOTAL MORE THAN SOUTHERN CITIES

Glendale was 11th in amount of building permits for March in Pacific coast cities. Los Angeles was first, of course, with $3,076,763 and San Francisco next with $2,759,087. Then followed Portland, Oregon, Long Beach, Oakland, Fresno, Spokane, Wash., Stockton, Pasadena, Sacramento, then Glendale, with its $282,872. San Diego was next with $280,366, then Berkeley with $220,192 and San Jose with $119,348.

In this connection it might be stated that a survey of building operations in 202 cities of the United States showed that while the permits in these totaled $66,571,272 in March, 1919, the same month this year showed a total of $155,085,999, an increase of more than 240 per cent. These figures do not show near all the building for the sections represented by these cities as permits are not issued for buildings outside the city limits no matter how close to the line. For instance, none of the building in Casa Verdugo and North Glendale is recorded in the permit total, though they are considered by many as a part of the city. Probably $100,000 worth of residences have been commenced and some of them completed in Glendale's close suburbs since January 1st.

NOTABLE MUSICAL EVENT

Prince Lei Lani, the famous Hawaiian tenor, who is to appear at the High School Thursday night, has met with the warmest reception from all over the country. Many schools in Southern California have already enjoyed his programs, namely, Chino, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Montebello, Compton, Monrovia, Covina, Whittier and Anaheim. In five of these cities he has appeared twice. His programs consist of vocal selections in English and Italian with piano accompaniment, also the rendition of two numbers, singing in unison with John McCormack and Madame Schuman Heink on the Victrola. He will also give a very interesting and instructive talk on Hawaii, its people, customs and the principles of Hawaiian music. The Prince uses his own piano. The entire proceeds will go to the music fund of the Cerritos Avenue and Acacia Avenue schools, under whose auspices the program is given.

TRACK MEET PENNANT

COLORADO WINS TROPHY THROUGH DISQUALIFICATION OF PACIFIC

The final track meet in the contests between city school teams which had won in previous try-outs, took place Friday afternoon on the Intermediate field and resulted in the following scores:

Indoor Baseball Throw—Grant Abbott of Pacific, 1st; William Goodman (Colo.) 2d; Edwin Harden (Cerritos) 3d.

Fungo Hitting—Harold Gibson (Cerritos) 1st; William Goodman (Colo.) 2d; Gerald Bell (Cen. Ave.) 3d.

Basketball Throw—Frederick Foss (Pac.) 1st; Russell Thompson (Columbus) 2d; Allen Lovell (Columbus) 3d.

Relay Race—Pacific avenue finished first but was disqualified because one of the boys of its team stepped in front of a Central avenue boy and threw him out of his course, thus disqualifying the whole team. That left Cerritos avenue 1st; Colorado 2d; and Central avenue 3d. The disqualifying of Pacific avenue caused a good deal of dissatisfaction. The boy who was the cause admitted his fault and so did his team and all recognized that there was no intent to cheat, but just carelessness on the part of the offender in not seeing the approach of the other boy and stepping out of his way. In defense they claimed they had suffered from fouls on the part of other teams, notably from a member of the Colorado team, but it was proved the boy complained of was not a member of that team so Colorado had a clean record. This disqualification gave the track meet first honors to Colorado with a score of 27 points in favor of Colorado against 26½ points in favor of Pacific avenue, with Cerritos third with 16 points, and Central avenue fourth with 11 points. The pennant was awarded to Colorado and whether the Pacific avenue team will make any further effort to have the decision set aside, remains to be seen.

CAMPAIGNS THAT INCREASE HIGH PRICES

People are beginning to get very much disgusted with the various official "drives" for reducing the high cost of living. Nearly all of them are futile and the most farcical of all have been the various campaigns of the Department of Justice. One of these has been for the purpose of stimulating the consumption of the cheaper cuts of meat, and now an authority comes along and testifies that if this particular drive should be successful it will have the effect of increasing the prices of lower grade cuts and will probably decrease the more expensive cuts. In other words, poorer families will suffer while those with larger means will profit by the brilliant idea which was hatched by the great intellects in charge of the Department of Justice.

Next to having to pay exorbitant prices for the necessities of life the greatest injustice that can be done to consumers is to raise expectations of reductions which never come. That is what has been done by "fair price" commissions and the various other city, state and national organizations that have come "to the rescue of the people." It might not be fair to condemn all, but it is safe to say that most of them have done nothing except to add to the burdens of the consumer and purchaser. In some instances they seem to help the producer and seller because what they designate as a fair profit is enough to delight the heart of the most hardened profiteer. The discouraging part of the business is the fact that many of these instruments designed to lower prices add to the cost of government and thus subtract that much more from people who can ill afford it.

It begins to look as if the only hope of the consumers is in their own voluntary action. There is a limit to extortion and if every house-holder would resolutely refuse to pay top prices the present intolerable condition would come to an end. But we have accustomed ourselves to luxuries and conveniences and as long as we insist upon them we must pay the penalty.

WHERE WE STAND

No, Mr. Bolshevik, or I. W. W., or whatever your name is, you are mistaken. We don't hate you because you champion the downtrodden. We don't hate you at all.

We simply don't want anything to do with you or your crowd. And the reason is not that you are noble martyrs. It is that you are a lot of bad sports.

And that is just a little lower down than any other class, in American eyes.

Why do we call you a bad sport?

Because you are peeved when you lose.

This country is wide open to any reformer that hopes to function. You can change our laws if you can get enough votes. You can confiscate the banks, put the prentice plumbers in charge of the U. S. Steel Company, reduce the price of bread to two cents per ton, or do anything else you please—if YOU CAN GET VOTES ENOUGH?

Why break down the door with an axe when it isn't locked and the latch-string hangs out?

Go ahead. We will try socialism, or anarchy, or bolshevism, or any other crazy scheme under the sun. All you have got to do is to convince the majority of us. No Czar scares us; no Kaiser prevents us; no capitalistic class intimidates us. Go on. Say your spiel.

We have tried a lot of fool things and may try yours.

But when you argue and fail to convince, when you tear your shirt and only get a laugh, when you explain your grand and noble ideas and they look bughouse to us, and then you go around pouting, or howling, or manufacturing some bombs to blow us up—why, you don't belong in the game.

If your insides just naturally boil to revolt against such tyranny and you are not happy unless you can defy and resist and revolt, and you can't find any tyranny around to defy, etc., you had better run along back to Europe, where the oppression business thrives.

If you want to stick around, Mr. Bolshevik, or I. W. W., you gotta be good-natured. Tell us your ideas; we'll listen. But when you don't make a hit, then don't get the gripes and talk violence.

Because if you do we will throw you out.

We don't particularly object to new ideas. They're quite interesting.

We don't even object to prohibitionists. Look what they did to us. But THEY DID IT BY LAW, not by T. N. T. and we are looking as pleasant as it is possible for us to look.

But we do object to bum sports, cry-babies, calamity-howlers, and all those who can scream and scratch and murder, but can't succeed.—Los Angeles Chronicle.

SHOULD PAY THEIR WAY

In these days of high taxes for all lines of industry, the Federal Farm Loan act is coming into the limelight for the reason that federal farm loan bonds are exempt from all forms of taxation.

Anything that is exempt from taxation today throws added tax burdens on the balance of the community to make up for the taxes lost on the exempted property.

Supporters of exemption of Farm Loan Bonds try to justify the tax exemption feature of the act by showing that municipal government bonds are free from taxation and, therefore, that the farm loan bonds which are authorized by the Federal Farm Loan act should likewise be free from taxation.

They lose sight of the fact that municipal, state and government bond issues supply money for the benefit of the general public while the Federal Farm Loan act supplies money for individual borrowers and the individual borrower gets all the benefit.

Amending the farm loan act so that the bonds issued would be subject to taxation would in no way injure the valuable features of the act for loaning money to farmers, but would equalize taxation.

Just Where and How Is the Money to be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Interchurch World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done it more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

1 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK AT HOME. A score of items come under this head. Consider only one. Five and a half million people in the United States cannot even read and write the English language. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Americanization if the church does not?

2 FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women seriously ill are turned away from Church hospitals because of lack of room. The children's homes are compelled to turn away more children than they can receive.

3 FOR HIGHER EDUCATION. Of the 450,000 American students in institutions of higher grade, one-half are in institutions founded and supported by the Churches. Many of these institutions have had no great endowment campaigns, but their needs are just as pressing as the needs of larger schools; and you have only to read their list of alumni and alumnae to measure the value of their contribution to America.

4 FOR RELIGIOUS TRAINING. At least 12,000,000 children and young people under 25 years of age are entering American life without any religious training at all. Remembering the faith of Washington and Lincoln, do you think that America will continue to produce Washingtons and Lincolns if faith dies out of the hearts of its youth?

5 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK ABROAD. Influenza came first from the Orient thirty years ago; nearly all plagues are Oriental plagues. So long as China has only one physician to every 400,000 people the Orient will continue to be a menace. So long as one-third of the babies of India die before their second year our own babies are not safe. A Christian doctor or teacher sent abroad is working for America as truly as though he worked at home.

6 PREACHERS' SALARIES. The preacher is called the "forgotten man," and well he may be. Eight out of ten preachers are paid less than $20 a week!

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget; examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

Every dollar for better America and a better world. When your church calls on you give—and give with your heart as well as your pocket-book.

WILD FLOWER TIME IN THE FOOTHILLS

IS THERE anything more appealing to nature lovers than a Spring-time stroll among the wild-flowers?

The gentle rains of the past few weeks and the balmy sunshine is coaxing nature to smile with her flowers most benignly.

Take a little journey over our lines to the upper San Fernando Valley, to the foothills and canyons above Glendale, Altadena, Sierra Madre, Monrovia or Duarte. If you would go farther afield, go to Puente Largo and explore the San Gabriel River canyon and revel in the joy of a long Spring-time hike.

TEN REASONS WHY HOOVER WOULD MAKE A PRACTICAL PRESIDENT

(By G. Harold Powell, General Manager California Fruit Growers' Exchange)

From July, 1917, to January, 1919, I was in charge of the Division of Perishable Foods of the United States Food Administration under Mr. Hoover's direction. During this period, I came in close contact with Mr. Hoover and had an unusual opportunity of making an accurate valuation of the man as a man, as a statesman, and as organizer and administrator of one of the most important of the war activities.

Some of Mr. Hoover's leading characteristics that appeal to me are these:

First: The great predominant characteristic of Herbert Hoover is his intense American patriotism, his belief in American institutions, and his abiding faith in American men and women. Few men, in their lifetime, have contributed to their country in constructive, patriotic service, as much as did Mr. Hoover during the war.

I watched Mr. Hoover for eighteen months dealing with foreign governments and I have never seen any public man more loyal to the interests of his country, and at the same time more fair to those with whom he dealt, than was Mr. Hoover during the delicate and trying negotiations with foreign governments for the furnishing of food supplies.

Mr. Hoover's Americanism was shown by his wonderful faith in the soundness of the heart of the American people—especially in his almost sublime confidence in what the women of America would do, whenever they saw clearly the part which they could perform in winning the war. No man has done more to carry Americanism around the world, and no one has done more to build up a great organization, founded upon democratic lines, in which service to the country was the key-note.

Second: A very striking thing is the tremendous loyalty which Mr. Hoover inspires in everyone who is associated with him. I watched this particularly in the Food Administration and also in other governmental departments that came in contact with him, and I think this spirit of loyalty on the part of men of all ages, of women, of business interests and of every type of citizen who worked with him, is one of the most striking tributes to his quality as a great leader. Our country needs men with great leading power, it needs men in public office who inspire the confidence of the great American public as well as those selected to carry out the functions of government.

Third: Mr. Hoover has a remarkable ability to analyze problems that come before him. His grasp of large questions is instantaneous. He has the faculty of sweeping away the non-essentials of a situation and driving straight to its heart. I have never known a man who had this keen analytical power so highly developed. Mr. Hoover's knowledge of the different problems affecting the world commerce is encyclopedic, and he has the essential facts of production, export and import at his finger tips.

Fourth: Mr. Hoover has a deep understanding of international questions, not only as they relate to the food industries, but also as they bear upon the complex economic and social questions arising out of the war. Acting as the chairman of the Inter-Allied Council of Relief after the armistice, he exerted on the problems confronting Europe a greater constructive influence than any man at the peace conference. As one distinguished historian has said, "He was the only man who left the Peace Conference with an enhanced reputation." His statesmanship is of the highest order, fully competent to handle the domestic or international problems that confront America at the present time.

Fifth: Mr. Hoover's fundamental understanding of American agriculture stood out strongly during the war. His attitude toward the American farmer was one of sympathetic co-operation in developing the highest possible production. He believed that anything that interfered with the increase in production was fundamentally unsound and that as the war progressed, the American farmer would prove to be the most stable influence among all classes of people. The record of the Food Administration, and the attitude of the producer, showed how sound was the fundamental concept.

Sixth: Mr. Hoover always tried to get results by persuasion rather than coercion. I believe one of the chief factors in Mr. Hoover's great success in handling our Food Administration, while in other countries Food Administrators failed, was his abiding faith in the inherent patriotism of the men and women of America. "If they fail in doing their part," he would say, "it will be largely because we have not succeeded in making clear what is needed." The heroic response of American womanhood to Mr. Hoover's confidence was one of the brightest pages in the war's history.

He believed that the heart of the average business man was sound and true and that the business interests of the country would co-operate with the government to any extent in handling its problems provided they understood the part they should play. Mr. Hoover is particularly

I believe that Mr. Hoover is today one of America's great men. He has had a broad experience in international affairs and the handling of domestic problems. He has a sympathy with labor, and intelligent appreciation of the problems of the employer and of the laboring people, an understanding of the business interests of the country and of its social and economic problems. Mr. Hoover's whole life stands for constructive business, constructive dealing with labor, with agriculture and for a far-seeing constructive statesmanship.

The wars in which the United States has engaged have brought forth some of the world's greatest characters. The American Revolution gave us George Washington; the Civil War Abraham Lincoln; the Spanish War Theodore Roosevelt. The greatest contribution of the world's great war to the finest ideal of America is Herbert Hoover. Contributed by Glendale Hoover Club.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. des Plantes of 506 S. Belmont, at the Glendale Sanitarium Friday night, April 23, 1920, a baby boy.

Francis Eckles of Porterville, driving a truck, stopped in Glendale last evening for a short rest, then forgot in what garage he had left his truck, so was given a bed at the fire house until this morning, when he found the truck and went on his way rejoicing.

Chas. Kolzer of 1245 East Windsor Road was backing out of his yard Sunday when his machine struck Harold Nash who was riding a bicycle along the street, dragging both boy and wheel a short distance. The wheel was smashed but the boy was not hurt.

A fire in Verdugo Wash Sunday was reported to the police and an officer sent to investigate reported that four boys were burning brush taken from the flood control crib for a weiner roast. They were admonished that such tampering with public property was strictly prohibited and promised not to offend again.

Jos. DeGrasse of 213 West Windsor Road reported to the police yesterday that the house on his five-acre tract just south of the Robert M. Yost residence on North Verdugo Road, where he spends part of his time, was entered the night before and a black bear robe, a new Winchester rifle, two large green portieres and considerable bed clothing taken.

Miss Violet R. Bell, cashier at the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, will leave Glendale next Sunday night for a six weeks' visit with relatives in Denver, Colo., and Wisconsin. Her mother will accompany her. She expects to visit Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, the Yellowstone Park and Seattle before returning to Glendale.

F. E. Painter, field missionary secretary of the Pacific Union Conference of the Adventists, returned today from Central California, where he spent last week in company with L. M. Overholt, field missionary secretary of the Central California Conference, in field work. Mr. Painter made the trip in his automobile. He says the ridge route is in fair condition except on the north side, where the road is not quite finished, so that a detour is necessary.

JOHN GYSIN HAS LEG AMPUTATED

John A. Gysin, the sign painter, who came to Glendale with his family nearly a year ago and opened an office at 312 East Broadway, had his right leg amputated just below the knee, Saturday, at the Glendale Sanitarium hospital. His condition this morning was very favorable. A few days ago he developed blood poisoning in a small abrasion on the right great toe caused by the shoe rubbing it. He limped around on crutches for a day or two and was then forced to take to his bed. The infection spread so rapidly that amputation became necessary to save his life. Mr. Gysin has made many friends during his residence in Glendale. His early recovery is hoped for. Mr. Gysin's home is at 225 S. Orange.

"SCHOOL DAYS OF SOUL"

DR. C. M. CRIST PREACHES ON HOLY SPIRIT, THE GREAT TEACHER

Large audiences assembled yesterday, both morning and evening, at the First Methodist Church. Dr. W. L. Y. Davis, the District Superintendent, preached at eleven a. m. In the evening, Dr. C. M. Crist preached on "School Days of the Soul." Dr. Crist said in part:

"When Jesus was about to leave his disciples he gave them that very wonderful promise found in John 14:26, and which reads, 'But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you.'"

"He shall teach you," and so we have suggested the "School Days of the Soul."

"Peter had said 'Lord, why can not I follow Thee now?' Jesus' reply in substance was 'Wait until you have finished the prescribed course in education. I go to prepare a place for you. You must remain here, and, under the tutelage of the Spirit, prepare yourself for that place.'"

"As we turn over a few pages of history we find Paul, himself taught by the Spirit, a teacher in the school of Christ. In his letter to the Galatians, the fifth chapter, the twenty-second and twenty-third verses, he indicates clearly the fruit of the Spirit. Here is the curriculum as presented by him. 'But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance.'"

"As one sees the plan and gets the vision as to the purpose of this earthly existence, he finds a new force at work in his being. As he sets himself to his task as a learner, he finds the heavenly graces becoming realities in his own life."

"Some day after the school time is over he will be summoned to the home land of the Soul. Death will be a 'graduation day.' What glory this conception gives to old age! Thank God for the shining path up which humanity presses its way, until it finally arrives at the mansion not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

GLENDALE MUSIC

In reviewing the programs of the Los Angeles County W. C. T. U. convention held in Glendale last week, the local committee of arrangements feels very proud of the musical numbers which were given by Glendale talent and were of a very high order. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Vera McGee Neighbors sang "Face to Face" very beautifully. Thursday afternoon there were solos by Dr. Joseph Marple and Mrs. Hartley Shaw which won deserved and prolonged applause. Friday afternoon Mrs. Helen Kneib sang "Consider and Hear Me," which so pleased her hearers that she was called upon for an encore and sang "Teach Me to Pray." A very beautiful vocal number Friday afternoon, was a duet by Miss Olive Adams and Mr. Lysinger, manager of the White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles.

Her death followed an illness of several months' duration in which she exhibited a patience and cheer which were the admiration of all her friends. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John H. Cooper of Hanford, Mrs. Mabel Fowler of Los Angeles, Mrs. Chauncey B. Lane of Burbank. Mrs. Ada McKelvey of Los Angeles also mourns the loss of a sister.

GOVERNOR HUERTA ACCEPTS COMMAND

S. P. AND MEXICAN CENTRAL RAILROAD TURNED BACK TO COMPANY TODAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NOGALES, April 26.—Governor de la Huerta of Sonora today accepted a position offered him as supreme head of the constitutionalist army, as outlined in the "plan of Agua Prieta."The Mexican Constl General at New York, after vainly pleading with President Carranza and Ignacio Bonillas, former ambassador to Washington, to retract their present attitude, regarding the Sonora movement, wired revolutionary leaders here offering them his services.The Southern Pacific and Mexican Central lines in Sonora and Sinaloa were formally returned to the company by the Sonora State government today.The striking trainmen relinquished all demands. It is understood that the conditions prevailing at the time of the strike as to hours and wages, will be maintained. It is believed here that the strike was fostered by the Sonora State government as an excuse for getting control of the railroad to prevent Carranza soldiers from being brought into the State.

MANDATE FOR ARMENIA

REPORTS THAT IT IS TO BE OFFERED TO UNITED STATES
CAUSE SURPRISE IN WASHINGTON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Reports that the allied Supreme Council has decided to offer the Armenian mandate to the United States and ask President Wilson to fix the boundaries of that newly recognized nation, were received with surprise in government circles today. Congress is believed to be almost unanimously opposed to the project, especially since Major General Harbord reported that an army of large proportions would be necessary to make good the mandate. Officials believe the request that the United States accept the protectorate will be politely declined.

TRADING WITH RUSSIA

COUNCIL OF PREMIERS DECIDES TO TAKE UP QUESTION AND ALLOW ENTRANCE OF RUSSIAN MISSIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN REMO, Italy, April 26.—The Council of Premiers has decided to take up the matter of trading with Russia again, it was learned semi-officially today and will allow the entrance of the Russian Mission into allied countries to discuss the matter.

A GRAND ARMY OF OFFICEHOLDERS

In Washington they are still struggling with the high cost of government, but without making any appreciable progress. Appropriation bills are being defeated or reduced, but for some mysterious reason the payrolls show little or no shrinkage. Before the war there were approximately 500,000 civil employees of the government in the entire country. Now there are 726,369. The District of Columbia is naturally the worst offender in this respect. Since the signing of the Armistice, it seems, the net reduction in civil employes in all departments has been only 17,000. At this rate how many years will it be before we get back to normal?This is an interesting problem in mathematics, and it is respectfully commended to those who are expert in that pastime. Of course, we will never get fully back to the old figures. The country grows year by year and the roll expands. But is there any good reason for the excess of more than 200,000 at this time?It is unfortunate that we are in a presidential year. That fact in itself is a handicap upon any real attempts to get an efficient and economical administration. Those members of the cabinet who are not avowed or receptive candidates for the presidency are playing the game of politics for other reasons. But they should remember that they are fooling with a two-edged sword. It may be "bad politics" to dismiss large numbers of their constituents in a presidential year, but it may prove to be quite as bad to encourage or to disregard extravagance in public office. The people are not blind. They know perfectly well that the reduction in the high cost of existence must begin by a reduction in the cost of government.That is bound to be one of the important issues of the campaign.
By hook or by crook the leaders may introduce other "paramount" issues, but this one of high costs with resultant heavy taxation cannot be subordinated, and it is going to have its effect when the votes are counted in November. Taxes must come down.—Long Beach Telegram.Count ten before you say the unpleasant words you may be tempted to utter about a fellow citizen.Keep out of petty politics if you will occupy the position of a real man in the community.The day is too cold, too hot, too wet, too dry or too something else for the chronic fault-finder.

MUSIC CONVENTION

churches on Sunday will include solos by visiting artists who will give American compositions. Sunday afternoon there will be a big sacred concert in the Civic Center and the regular sessions will begin Monday with a report by Mrs. Jones who is chairman of the Revision Committee and who has drafted a new constitution and by-laws to be submitted to the organization. As chairman of club organization Mrs. Jones will address the convention Tuesday on the relation of the music club to the community. The Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles is sending the Noack String Quartette with Olga Steeb as soloist, and the Symphony Orchestra is sending a fine trioto participate in the program. A.
C. Olney will make an address
Tuesday and Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Education, will speak on music credits in the schools. On the afternoon of that day will take place the student contest for prizes offered by the Federation. Pupils of all the leading teachers of the state will compete and Mrs. Jones thinks it will be one of the most important and interesting programs of the whole convention.The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club is a member of this Federation and entitled to send two delegates. They have not been named as yet but the section will undoubtedly be represented at Pres-no.

figures largely in these plans with most people. They like to have pictures taken on these pleasant outings to show their friends, to send back east or to keep as reminders of the trip.If you are not in the habit of taking a kodak on these outings you don't know the pleasure of snapping the beautiful scenery you encounter, or the humorous situations in which the members of your party find themselves, and then enjoying it all over again after the pictures are finished.

REDLANDS PAGEANT

MRS. MATTISON B. JONES WIT-NESSES THE BEAUTIFUL
SPECTACLEDuring the absence of Mattison B.
Jones in San Francisco, Mrs. Jones visited Redlands where her daughter, Winifred, is a student in the university and attended the big pageant which is an annual affair in that city.
In Redlands' civic center is a large outdoor amphitheatre in which every year the Chamber of Commerce puts on the pageant at a cost of about $4000. This season there were about five hundred persons in the cast. It is historical in theme, chiefly California. The third performance took place Saturday night and was attended by about 3500 people. It is becoming so noted that its audiences are drawn not only from the city and surrounding towns but from considerable distances. Redlands University was responsible for one movement and Miss Winifred Jones was assigned two parts—as an East Indian girl, a Nautch dancer, and in the California scene, a Spanish flower girl. Her mother says she "had the time of her life," that besides helping to provide a very beautiful spectacle she had lots of fun.While there Mrs. Jones attended a reception in honor of Olga Steeb, who was formerly a teacher in the university and who has many friends in Redlands. About two hundred ladies paid their respects to her and it was quite a wonderful affair though a bit trying on the honoree who had to stand from 4 to 6 besides playing a few numbers and then give a concert in the evening. The recitaltook place in the opera house which would not hold all who wished to hear the artist, so the concert was repeated the following night.Mrs. Jones says that Redlands, in the matter of building, is booming.
The boys' dormitory will be completed in a week or two, the girls' second dormitory has started, and the new science building will soon be finished. The grounds are being put in excellent shape and promise to become very beautiful.The University Glee Club has gone on its two weeks' tour, and the debating team has been capturing all the honors in sight, winning from Stanford the other day. Its most recent victory was achieved when it met the team of Morningside, Iowa, which has been holding the middlewest championship, and brought the medal back to the coast.

INTER-VALLEY TRACK MEET

This will be an interesting week in athletic circles among school boys of Glendale. There is to be a track meet between the Intermediate Angels and the team of the ungraded room of Broadway, a meet between Cerritos avenue first team and In-termediate's first, and last but not least, a meet between all the teams of seventh and eighth grade boys of the schools of the valley including the Cerritos and Intermediate schools of this city, Burbank and Eagle Rock eighth graders.MINNESOTA FAMILY TO LOCATE
